HIGH POINT ROCKERS NEWS AND NOTES

A Delayed Open: The High Point Rockers opened the 2021 season with a 5-2 loss against the Revolution. The loss marked the first Opening Day loss in franchise history, after a 7-1 win against the Lancaster Barnstormers in 2019. York scored five runs in the bottom of the first inning off starter Craig Stem, who lasted three innings. The bullpen combined for five innings and no runs between five different pitchers. The Rockers left nine men on base and were one for nine with runners in scoring position, with Michael Russell's two-run double tallying as the only hit.

#PitchersWhoRake: When Ryan Chaffee stepped up to the plate in the fourth inning of last night's game, it marked the first time in High Point Rockers history that a pitcher has hit in a game. Chaffee came up to the plate after the double-hook DH rule saw DH Jerod Edmondson leave the game after starter Craig Stem was pulled after three innings. The plate appearance was Chaffee's first since August 31, 2016 with the New Orleans Zephyrs against the Colorado Springs Sky Sox. In his career, Chaffee now has zero hits in three plate appearances, with all three ending in a strikeout.

Wait a minute... this Westphal guy seems familiar: When Luke Westphal takes the mound for game one of today's doubleheader, it'll be his first appearance at PeoplesBank Park since the 2018 season as a member of the Revolution. Westphal started his Atlantic League career with York back in 2017 as a reliever, pitching in 45 games with a 3.35 ERA. He returned for the 2018 season and split time with both sides of the War of Roses, appearing in 28 games with York and 10 with the Lancaster Barnstormers. Today will mark the first career Atlantic League start for Westphal after two strong seasons as a starter with the Chicago Dogs of the American Association.

Marking the Time: Last night's game time of 3:17 was tied for the 13th longest game in Rockers history. It's the 11th longest nine-inning game the franchise has played in. The longest game in franchise history was 3:55 against the Sugar Land Skeeters on August 31, 2019.

Doubling Up: Today marks the first doubleheader the Rockers have played since September 4, 2019 against the Southern Maryland Blue Crabs at Truist Point, a mere 634 days ago. It's the first road doubleheader the team's played since July 16, 2019 at Clipper Magazine Stadium against the Lancaster Barnstormers. Overall, the Rockers were 7-5 in doubleheaders in 2019, including a doubleheader split with the Revolution on June 11 at PeoplesBank Park.

Splitting' Time (and Games): The High Point Rockers split their two-game home-and-home exhibition series against the Gastonia Honey Hunters last Friday and Sunday. After taking the first game of the series 5-3 behind five unanswered runs, the Rockers fell in Gastonia during the first game in CaroMont Health Park history.

Halting the Revolution: The Rockers took the season series from York 12-9 in 2019, including five wins out of the last seven against the Revolution. At PeoplesBank Park the Rockers were 5-6, with three of those wins coming by way of an early May sweep of the Revolution. The Rockers outscored York 27-10 over the three games, and scored a team high 13 runs against the Revolution on 5/9/19, the first-ever meeting between the teams.

A Sort of Homecoming: Several Rockers on the roster have ties to the High Point area, including Northeast Guilford HS alumnus Mitch Atkins. Atkins joins Randy Norris (High Point/Winston-Salem State), Joe Johnson (High Point University), Cesar Trejo (UNCG), Max Povse (UNCG) and Bryce Hensley (UNCG) as players with connections to the area.

Movin' On Up: A total of seven Rockers have had their contract purchased by Major League organizations in 2021, with SS Tyler Ladendorf being the most recent move to the Chicago Cubs. The seven players signed ties the franchise record of seven players signed in 2019.

Opening Night: The Rockers will host the Lancaster Barnstormers at Truist Point at 7:05 on Tuesday, June 1 for Opening Day. High Point opened the 2021 season at York on Friday, May 28.
