- April 30, 2013: A revamped silvercrossfield.com is unveiled. Silver Cross Field is the best place in Will County to host your next event.

History of Silver Cross Field

Since it first opened in 2002, Silver Cross Field has been a key component of Joliet's downtown. With a total capacity of over 6,000, this state of the art stadium provides fans and sponsors with the most bang for their buck in independent baseball. Silver Cross Field is an intimate facility where fans can sit back and relax. Among other amenities, Silver Cross Field boasts 14 luxury suites, space for private parties, a LED video board, the Miller Lite Party Deck, the Joliet Area Sports Hall of Fame, three sizeable picnic areas and a fun playground for children. When the Slammers aren't playing, Silver Cross Field is available for concerts and other events. The facility is also home to the University of St. Francis baseball team, the IHSA Class 1A, 2A, 3A and 4A State Baseball Tournaments, the prestigious WJOL High School Baseball Tournament and the Miracle League of Joliet. Over the years, Silver Cross Field has been the site of two nationally televised commercials, with the latest featuring former Chicago Cubs Manager, Lou Piniella. The stadium celebrated its 10th anniversary in 2011 and was once named the #2 ballpark in independent professional baseball by Baseball America. Ballplayers come and go, but Silver Cross Field is, and will continue to be, Joliet's superstar.

Key Personnel

CEO Josh Schaub

CEO Josh Schaub is the leader of the Slammers' four-person ownership group. He is a lawyer with a background in baseball. Schaub serves as a scout for the Milwaukee Brewers and is an adjunct professor of Sports Law at Hamline University Law School. Josh also previously served as the Director of Player Personnel and Procurement for the Edmonton CrackerCats of the Northern League.

Josh has coached high school baseball, served as co-director of the Milwaukee Brewers Classic, spoke at the Wisconsin Baseball Coaches Convention, and provided free baseball clinics, and been involved in numerous other volunteer activities.

Josh's hobbies include reading, bowling, playing broomball, playing softball, snowmobiling, ice fishing, water skiing, and watching sports.

General Manager Chris Franklin

Chris Franklin is thrilled to return to his hometown of Joliet to serve as the Slammers' General Manager. He brings with him more than seven years of experience in professional baseball and nearly four years experience as a General Manager. Franklin was most recently the General Manager of the Frontier League's River City Rascals. The Rascals went to the League Championship Series three consecutive seasons under Franklin, winning the title in 2010. Franklin has also worked in Joliet before, serving as a ticket sales representative at Silver Cross Field in 2006.

Franklin was born and raised in Joliet, graduating from Morris Community High School in 1999, where he was a three-sport athlete. Franklin played baseball at Blackburn College and has a degree in Public Administration.

Key Personnel

Assistant GM/Business Matt Gaddis

Matt enters his first season as Assistant General Manager/Director of Business for the Slammers. He previously worked for Weir Minerals in Madison, WI as a Financial Planning & Analysis Manager. Before Weir he worked for Fiskars Brands and Kohler

Company in different finance and accounting jobs. He is a graduate of University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Finance and Economics. He is originally from Waukesha, Wisconsin. He is a diehard sports fan that grew up cheering for the Cubs and Bears. His first word as a kid was that of Cubs catcher Jody Davis.

Assistant GM/Promotions Kelli Drechsel

Kelli is no stranger to Silver Cross Field, although she is one of the stranger ones you'll find on staff....and she's more than ok with that! A proud product of the booming metropolis of Dwight, IL, she attended Illinois State University in Normal (oddly enough) and worked four years in the News & Sports department at ISU's WZND radio. After graduating with a degree in Mass Communications, Kelli headed into the real world as the Promotions Director & Sales Assistant for 95.9 The River in Aurora, IL, but baseball has always been her passion. In 2008, she joined the Silver Cross Field family, and she's been waving at trains ever since!

When Kelli's not at the SCF, you can usually find her at a Sox game....or enjoying a campfire...or watching the Eagle cam! She currently resides in the N.L. in the shadows of Chicagoland Speedway with her three "roommates."

The Coaching Staff

Mike Breyman

The Slammers announced the hiring of Mike Breyman as their second manager in franchise history on January 2, 2013. Breyman served as the hitting coach for the Gateway Grizzlies in 2012 and with the River City Rascals in 2010 and 2011. Current Slammers' GM Chris Franklin was the General Manager of the Rascals during those seasons. They won a Frontier League Championship with the Rascals in 2010 and Breyman was named the Frontier League's Coach of the Year in 2011. Prior to that, Breyman was the Grizzlies' bench coach in 2009 and played with Gateway for five seasons (2004-2008). Breyman finished with a .325 career batting average and a .999 career OPS. Before his professional career as a player and coach, Breyman played college ball at the University of Kentucky. One remarkable fact about Breyman is that he hit .810 his senior year of high school in Attica, Ohio. The .810 batting average is the highest ever recorded in a single high school baseball season in American history.

Dave Garcia

Northern Illinois University alum Dave Garcia (pronounced Gar-sha) joins the Slammers as the team's new hitting coach. He spent the past four seasons with the River City Rascals and was the bench coach for the 2010 team that won the Frontier League championship. Garcia worked alongside Breyman on the Rascals' coaching staff in 2010 and 2011. In 2011 the Rascals tied the Frontier League record for wins (68) during the regular season before falling to the Slammers in the Frontier League Championship Series. Six of the players Garcia has coached have been signed to affiliated baseball.

Eric Coleman

New pitching coach Eric Coleman brings managerial experience in the Frontier League to the Slammers. For three seasons (2008-2010), he held the role of Field Manager and Director of Player Development for the Midwest Sliders/Oakland County Cruisers. Prior to coming to the Frontier League, Coleman was the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Niagra University. He spent 11 years holding similar roles at the Junior College level. 18 of the players Coleman has coached have advanced to the Major Leagues and over 100 players he's coached have gone on to some level of professional baseball.

Bill Booker

Bill Booker brings 26 years of coaching experience to the Joliet Slammers. He has served 20 years as a high school head baseball coach and 6 years as an assistant. During Bill's 20 years as a head coach at LaSalle Peru High School, his teams won 375 games, 5 conference, 4 regional, 4 sectional, and 2 super sectional championships. In 2009, his Cavalier squad finished 4th in the IHSA Class 3A State tourney, while in 2012, his team finished runner-up right here at Silver Cross Field. Under Bill's direction, LaSalle Peru baseball proudly produced 2 MLB drafted players and sent nearly 80 student/athletes to play at the collegiate level. Throughout his tenure, Bill has been an active member in numerous coaching associations, coached the 2010 ICA State All Star game, served as the states's East Region coach for the Illinois Crossroads Series Showcase, and has spoken at numerous coaching clinics, luncheons, and youth camps.

Andrew Gates

Andrew Gates will return for his second season as the Joliet Slammers Athletic Trainer. Andrew graduated from North Central College in Naperville, IL with a Bachelors of Arts in Athletic Training and a psychology minor. As a student he provided care for the football, baseball, women's lacrosse and women's basketball teams. In the summer of 2010 Gates interned with the Gary South Shore RailCats of the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball, where he assisted in rehabilitation and prevention of injuries both on and off the field. Prior to joining the Slammers Gates served as the Athletic Trainer for Loyola University's Track & Field Team where he provided year-round care as well as injury prevention strategies. Gates also served in the same capacity for Loyola's Men's and Women's Rugby Teams as well as the Men's Hockey Team.

Biography: In 2011, Hewett was a key component of the Slammers' championship run. He stands at only 5'8", but the rookie's heart and hard work that season made him a favorite among the team's fans. Some of the Slammers' most passionate followers started a fan club called "The Hew Crew" in his honor. Hewett hit .261 during his rookie year with Joliet and had more walks (16) than strikeouts (13). The Slammers went 31-19 with Hewett behind the plate, and he allowed only one passed ball all year. Hewett threw out a team-high 15 base runners. The switch hitter out of Rollins College returned to the Slammers in 2012 and hit .253 with 13 walks and 10 strikeouts in 26 games before being traded to the River City Rascals. With River City, Hewett saw his average rise to .288, and he hit his first professional home run when he returned to Silver Cross Field to face Joliet. Overall, he caught 20 runners stealing in 2012 while only allowing three passed balls. Hewett is a career .266 hitter at the professional level and has shown a good eye at the plate, walking 39 times while only striking out 26 times in his career.

Biography: 23-year old Corey Kimes, a former star for the University of Illinois Fighting Illini, brings an undefeated record in affiliated ball to Joliet. The Ottawa, IL native went 5-0 in 2012 between the Elizabethhton Twins of the Appalachian League and the Beloit Snappers of the Midw League. In two seasons of affiliated baseball, Kimes has posted an impressive 3.25 ERA in 22 appearances including six starts. He was an 18th round selection of the Minnesota Twins in the 2011 MLB draft.

Joliet Slammers Signed to Affiliated Baseball

LHP Aaron Dott—Signed by the New York Yankees

Aaron Dott was wondering when his time would come. The lefty had dominated the Frontier League out of the bullpen but had yet to hear the call from affiliated baseball. On June 21, 2011, the call finally came. Dott was signed by the New York Yankees. “I loved it here in Joliet; we were taken care of really well by the front office,” Dott said. “I really enjoyed my time here but it’s not where I want to be professionally so now it’s time to move on and try something else.” Dott has experience in affiliated baseball, having pitched for the Tampa Bay Rays organization for two seasons. He pitched in the single-A Midwest League in 2010. “I’m just glad that someone finally noticed that I’d made some changes,” Dott said. “I’m a better pitcher than I used to be, I’ve grown up, and I’m glad to get a second chance.” With the Slammers, Dott pitched 11.1 innings and did not give up a run. He was 1-0 with one save. He is currently pitching for the Double-A Trenton Thunder of the Eastern League.

RHP Ryan Quigley--Signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks

Quigley set the Frontier League’s single-season saves record in 2011 and was named to the All-Independent Leagues Team. In 2012 he finally got the chance to play affiliated baseball. He impressed the Arizona Diamondbacks’ front office during multiple Slammers games with a fastball reaching 96 miles per hour and a nasty slider. Quigley was named the Slammers’ closer right away in 2011 and he took full advantage of the opportunity as he saved a league record 28 games in the regular season and five more in the playoffs. The Joliet Catholic alumnus notched an impressive 2.32 ERA in the regular season, striking out 72 batters in 42.2 innings.

RHP Chris Pack--Signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks

Pack showed a lot of potential in 2011 as the rookie showed excellent velocity, consistently in the low 90's on his fastball. He ended up recording a 4.61 ERA in 22 regular season appearances for Joliet, without recording a decision.

Pack went 8-1 with a 4.70 ERA in 25 appearances, all out of the bullpen with the Illinois Fighting Illini in 2011. He spent the previous four years at Villanova, where he appeared in 36 games and started 25. He finished his career at Villanova with a record of 7-11 and a 5.98 ERA in 134 innings.

"This is what Independent Baseball is all about," former Slammers Manager Bart Zeller said. "Chris threw for the Diamondbacks at the end of the 2011 season and they gave him some things to work on. Since that day, he has worked hard on these finer elements of pitching. His hard work paid off in that the Diamondbacks liked what they saw in an Indy Tryout Camp in Scottsdale, and offered him a contract."

RHP Gaby Hernandez—Signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks

Hernandez made one start for the Slammers and did not give up an earned run in five and two thirds innings against the Windy City ThunderBolts on May 17, 2012.

"Gaby came into camp as one of the hardest workers," former Manager Bart Zeller said. "His work ethic should be an example for the younger members of our staff. Although his time in Joliet was short, everyone learned from Gaby."

RHP Daniel Carela—Signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers

Carela's fastball was a dominating force out of the bullpen in 2012 for the Slammers. In 36 appearances he compiled an ERA of 3.00 and struck out 41 batters in 36 innings. Carela, 24, did not allow a single run in his final seven outings for Joliet.

RHP Amalio Diaz—Signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers

Diaz notched 19 saves in 22 attempts for the Slammers, good for second in the Frontier League. He was named a 2012 Frontier League All-Star and pitched a scoreless inning in the All-Star Game. Diaz recorded a 2.60 ERA in 34 appearances for Joliet.

LHP Geoff Brown—Signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers

Brown posted a 3.67 ERA in a league-leading 44 appearances in 2012. He tossed 41.2 innings, striking out 46 batters while only walking 21. "I am very excited for this opportunity," Brown said. "I feel that my control and command really improved this season and I am looking forward to this new challenge."

The left-handed pitcher first made a splash as a junior at Jackson High School in Washington State. The 2006 Jackson team went 27-0, won the state 4A (the highest level in Washington HS baseball) title and finished as the No. 2-ranked team in Baseball

America's final top-25 poll. Brown went 10-0 that season, posting a 0.98 earned run average with 78 strikeouts in 69 innings. In the state championship game at Safeco Field, Brown not only picked up the victory, he also hit a two-run home run. He was selected by the Kansas City Royals in the 23rd round of the 2007 draft but opted to attend the University of Washington instead.

After four years at Washington, Brown signed with the Perth Heat of the Australian Baseball League. He was a big factor in the Heat's 2012 league championship as Brown recorded a 5-0 record with a 1.88 ERA in eight appearances, six starts. His 2012 season with the Slammers marked his first in professional baseball.

History of the Frontier League

The Joliet Slammers are members of the longest continuously operating independent baseball league in the country. Beginning in 1993, the Frontier League has been the launching pad for a number of future major league baseball players. Fans will see a young, exciting brand of baseball thanks to the league's unique age limit. All players (with one exception) must be under the age of 28 and at least 11 players on each roster must have either one or no years of professional experience. One player on each team may be given "veteran" status if they are 28 or 29 years old but have been on a Frontier League roster for at least 100 games over the previous two seasons.

"Because of the age limit, the players are more willing to take instruction and they play harder as a whole," Slammers Manager Mike Breyman said. "They all believe they have a chance of being picked up by affiliated baseball and it shines through in the way they approach the game."

The league's stability is another big factor in the respect it holds throughout the country. Bill Lee has been the commissioner since 1994, the league's second year of existence.

"I truly believe the league's longevity and successes it has had is due to the hard work, sacrifice and love that many owners, players, staffs and fans have put into it over the last 20 seasons," Lee said. "For any league to be successful, everyone involved has to place the importance of the league equally with the importance of their team. We are fortunate to have had that."

In 2013 the league features seven teams from Illinois and one each from Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Indiana. There is also one traveling team. The Slammers will compete for the West Division title. The Slammers won the league title in their inaugural season of 2011.

Broadcast info

Aaron Morse will once again serve as the Slammers' radio play-by-play announcer in 2013.

Morse was the team's Media Relations Coordinator in 2011 and contributed to all the radio broadcasts as well. In 2012 he took over as the Director of Broadcasting & Media Relations.

"This is an exciting new era for the Joliet Slammers and I can't wait to bring our fans every game on the radio for the second consecutive season," Morse said. "There are a lot of new faces and stories to learn this year and I can't wait for the season to start."

Morse will broadcast all 96 regular season games on AM 1340 WJOL and www.wjol.com.

Morse served as a broadcaster in the Southern League for the Huntsville Stars Radio Network in 2010 and spent two seasons broadcasting in the Alaska Baseball League as well. He is a proud graduate of Northwestern University where he majored in broadcast journalism. Morse spent countless hours broadcasting Northwestern sports during his time in Evanston. He is originally from Seattle, WA and is a long-suffering Mariners fan.
