Jereme Milons ranks first in Miners history in runs scored and stolen bases while placing second in walks, third in hits and RBIs and fifth in games played. After playing three years for the Miners from 2009-11, earning midseason and postseason all-star nods in 2010 by hitting .283 with 11 homers, 60 RBIs, 41 stolen bases and 109 total hits, he returned to the team in 2013 in a trade after also seeing time with Lake Erie, Schaumburg and Rockford. He was voted to the All-Decade Team in 2016.

Widely considered the best hitter in team history and known for his prodigious power, Joey Metropoulos is the Miners' career leader in doubles, home runs, extra-base hits, slugging percentage and RBIs while ranking second in hits, third in runs scored, and fourth in walks. He is the lone Miner to win the Frontier League MVP award, batting .317 with 22 doubles, 31 homers (still a Miners single-season record), and 82 RBIs while playing in all 96 regular season games in 2009. He was voted to both the 5th Anniversary Team in 2011 and the All-Decade Team in 2016, had his #31 retired in 2014, and was inducted into the Frontier League Hall of Fame in 2016.

Rick Teasley was a stalwart in the Miners' rotation for three years from 2014-16, and is the team's all-time leader in starts, innings pitched, complete games and shutouts while tying for first in wins and ranking second in strikeouts. He led the Frontier League with 11 wins in his first season in Marion after coming to the club from the Tampa Bay Rays organization, and had his best overall season in 2015, going 9-4 with a 2.78 ERA and a career-best 103 strikeouts, placing fourth in the circuit that season. Of his four career shutouts, two were historic, as he threw the Miners' first-ever no-hitter on June 5th, 2014 at home against the Joliet Slammers to mark the 400th win in franchise history. He also shut out the Traverse City Beach Bums on the road on July 8th, 2015 in a game that lasted just one hour and 44 minutes, the shortest nine-inning game in team history. The Miners' opening day starter in 2016, Teasley was also selected to start the Frontier League All-Star Game in Florence later that season.

Potomac, Illinois native Ryan Bird is the Miners' all-time leader in strikeouts. He enjoyed a legendary 2008 campaign, his first of three in a Miners uniform, by going 13-3 with a 2.48 ERA and a league-best 152 strikeouts in 123 1/3 innings (still a Southern Illinois single-season record) while allowing just 45 walks, 97 hits and four home runs to earn Frontier League Pitcher of the Year honors. As reliable as they come out of the bullpen, Evan Mott joined the Miners midway through the 2015 season after two-plus seasons with the Evansville Otters and proceeded to be a true go-to pitcher, making 81 appearances in just two seasons with the club, which currently ranks third in team history. The big right-hander's stellar 1.80 ERA is also second in team history among qualifying pitchers.

Chase Cunningham became the fifth Miner to be named Frontier League Pitcher of the Year in 2019, when he led the league in wins (10) and innings pitched (a Miners-record 136 2/3) while also finishing second in the league with 132 strikeouts. Only Frontier League Hall-of-Famer Ryan Bird has fanned more batters in a single season for the Miners, when he too was Frontier League Pitcher of the Year in 2008.

Single-Season Individual Records - Hitting

Sidelined for the first part of the 2016 season with a hamstring injury, Shane Kennedy returned with a vengeance to re-write the team's single-season record books. With a Miners single-season record .363 batting average that led the Frontier League, Kennedy bested the previous team mark (.342 in the team's inaugural season by Ralph Santana) by 21 points. His .465 on-base percentage that season was also a team record, and Kennedy placed in the Southern Illinois single-season top-10 with 68 runs scored, 24 doubles and 34 stolen bases while amassing 99 hits, all in just 76 games played. The Orlando, Florida native was named the Frontier League Rookie of the Year for his efforts (the first Miner to win the award), and was picked up by the Minnesota Twins shortly after the season concluded.

Michael Earley had one of the best all-around offensive seasons in team history in 2015, hitting .325 with 125 total hits, 26 doubles, four triples and 40 extra-base hits. The hits and doubles totals are both third in Miners history for a single season while the average and extra-base hit totals also place in the top-10 for a single season. He was voted to the All-Decade Team in 2016.

A postseason all-star second baseman in 2011, Will Block's .610 slugging percentage and 50 extra-base hits that year rank second only to Joey Metropoulos' league MVP season of 2009. He is the Miners' career leader in games played and triples while ranking in the top-5 in nine other categories including doubles, extra-base hits, RBIs and runs scored. He was voted to both the 5th Anniversary Team in 2011 and the All-Decade Team in 2016.

Derrick Miramontes put up one of the best years by a Miners reliever ever in 2014. Featuring multiple arm angles on the mound, the right-hander's 20 saves set new Southern Illinois single-season AND career marks (broken in 2017 by John Werner), and his 1.57 ERA was, and still is, the best for any Miners pitcher (minimum 48 innings pitched) in team history.

Chris Burke put forth one of the greatest offensive performances in Frontier League history at Normal on July 30th, 2014. He became the first Miner to hit for the cycle, going 5-for-5 with two homers (including a grand slam) and a league record-tying nine RBIs. The Miners' offense pounded out 25 hits that night at The Corn Crib, the most ever by the club in a single game.

In addition to holding the Miners' single-season and career records for strikeouts, Ryan Bird also owns the single-game team record, fanning 14 Kalamazoo Kings on July 8th, 2008 at Rent One Park. The right-hander set the mark in just seven innings. It was later tied on August 12th, 2018, by Geno Encina.

Single-Game Team Records

Matt Fields may have only played 88 games for the team in 2011-12, but he is one of the most-powerful hitters to ever suit up for the Miners. His 26 homers rank top-10 in team history while his .578 career slugging percentage is third-best behind only Tim Dorn and Joey Metropoulos. He was picked up by the Royals in 2012.

A three-year starter at third base, Steve Marino was named the Miners' first-ever captain in 2016. He backed it up with a career year, earning midseason and postseason all-star honors while hitting .288 with 23 doubles, 16 homers and 79 RBIs (third-most in a single season in team history). The Long Island, New York native ranks second all-time in Miners history in RBIs while ranking third all-time in games played and at-bats, fourth in doubles, home runs and extra-base hits, and fifth in total hits. Also the only captain in Miners history, he was hired in 2018 as the Miners' hitting coach, becoming the fourth former Miners player to join Mike Pinto's staff after Ralph Santana, Stephen Holdren and Preston Vancil.

Outfielder Ken Gregory came to the Miners in 2011 and would go on to be one of the very best clutch performers in Southern Illinois history. He was at his best in the postseason- as a rookie, he won Game 1 of the 2011 Division Series at River City with a pinch-hit, three-run home run to center field off of future Miners all-star closer Derrick Miramontes. He then helped to spearhead the Miners' title run in 2012 by batting .333 with four doubles, two homers and four RBIs, including another game-winning homer at Traverse City in the divisional round. He is the Miners' career leader in playoff hits, doubles, homers, extra-base hits and slugging percentage while placing second in playoff RBIs and third in playoff batting average.

On their way to the 2012 Frontier League title, the Miners solidified their bullpen via trade. The lynchpin of those trades brought in closer Brandon Cunniff, who would save four of the team's six wins in the postseason. The next season, the Atlanta Braves came calling after he allowed just four hits in 12 innings with three walks, 23 strikeouts and eight saves. Cunniff made his Major League debut for the Braves on April 7th, 2015 against the Miami Marlins, becoming the third former Miner to make it to the big leagues.

One of the most-dominant players to ever wear a Southern Illinois uniform, Adam Lopez became the fourth Miners pitcher (and second in a row) to be named Frontier League Pitcher of the Year in 2015, going a perfect 10-0 with a 1.86 ERA, 103 strikeouts and just 65 hits allowed in 96 2/3 innings. The Miners won every regular season game he started, with his 1.86 ERA standing as the lowest in a season by any Southern Illinois starter ever in team history, and despite making only 16 starts, his 103 punchouts ranked fifth in the Frontier League at season's end. The tall righty followed it up by striking out 12 River City Rascals hitters in the Division series, a new Miners single-game playoff record. His career 9.7 strikeouts-per-nine-innings rate is best among starters in team history, and his career 1.62 ERA is the best ever for any Miners hurler, starter or reliever (minimum 72 innings pitched).

Chris Hall was the Miners' third baseman in their inaugural season of 2007, and established the standard at the "hot corner" for many future Southern Illinois third basemen to come. Hall turned in an all-star caliber season, batting .318 with 13 homers, 55 RBIs, 20 doubles, 62 runs scored and 111 hits in 91 games. Only four Miners have had more hits in a season while just five have had a higher batting average. He also went on a 20-game hit streak in June of that season, which is still the longest in team history.

Tony Roth was a two-time All-Star nod for the Miners and the postseason All-Star at shortstop in 2009 when he hit .302 with 23 doubles, nine homers, 41 RBIs and 15 stolen bases. He also had 93 hits and scored 65 runs that season. Roth was voted as a utility player onto the All-Decade Team in 2016.

Tim Dorn came to the Miners for their inaugural season in 2007. He proceeded to tear it up immediately, hitting .349 with 12 homers and 35 RBIs in only 32 games (including the first homer in franchise history) before the St. Louis Cardinals came calling, making him the first Miner to be picked up by a major league organization. After the Cardinals released him, though, the 6'8" Dorn returned to Marion for an all-star season in 2008, when he hit .299 with 20 doubles, 23 homers and 83 RBIs. His 35 home runs and .579 career slugging percentage with the Miners are both second to only Joey Metropoulos in team annals. Dorn also remains in the Miners' top-10 in career RBIs and extra-base hits while his 83 RBIs in 2008 are the most by any Miner ever in a single season. He was voted to the All-Decade Team as the designated hitter.

With a career .296 average and a .424 on-base percentage that ranks second in Miners history, Brendan Akashian, who played for the Miners in 2008 and 2010, was voted the catcher for the Miners' 5th Anniversary team in 2011 and the All-Decade Team in 2016.

Matt Bywater ranks as one of the great starting pitchers in Miners history. After tossing 129 1/3 innings (second-most in team history) with 114 strikeouts and a 2.37 ERA to become the third Miner to win the league's Pitcher of the Year Award in 2014, the lefty with a unique "vulcan" changeup pitch outdid himself in 2015, striking out 123 batters in 104 innings against just 32 walks. On June 12th, 2015 he also shut down the Evansville Otters to pitch the second no-hitter (and first of nine innings in length) in team history. Despite being picked up by the Atlanta Braves with nearly a month left in the season, he still finished the 2015 campaign second in the league in strikeouts. Bywater is third behind Ryan Bird and Rick Teasley in career punchouts while placing fifth in career ERA, WHIP and strikeouts-per-nine-innings. He is also the only Miners pitcher ever to start multiple times on Opening Day.

A gritty, team-first player, Cannon Lester played three seasons for the Miners. But his most notable contribution came when it mattered most- in the 2012 Frontier League Championship Series. Lester hit .500 (8-for-16) with two doubles, two homers and three RBIs in the series to win the Championship Series MVP award and lead the Miners to their first title.

An original Miner who has been with the team in some capacity ever since the beginning, Ralph Santana came to the team in 2007 as a player, and would become the Miners' first superstar. Santana hit .342 with 21 doubles, 47 RBIs, 25 stolen bases, 67 runs scored and 126 hits in the team's inaugural season, earning postseason all-star honors at second base. He then moved into the dugout, and served as the Miners' hitting coach from 2008-13, winning Frontier League Coach of the Year honors in 2012. Having also served as a bench coach and instructor for the team, he had his #20 retired in 2017, as the only person to have ever worn it for the organization.

Outfielder Nolan Earley was an everyday contributor to the Miners for three years in right field, playing in 286 of a possible 287 games from 2016-18. In his first season, he played in all 96 regular season games at the same position, becoming just the second Miners player ever to do so (along with teammate Steve Marino, who accomplished the feat at third base in 2015 and 2016). He continued a strong Earley tradition in the outfield, as his older brother Michael was a postseason all-star in 2015. The two men are the only sibling tandem to both wear the Miners uniform in team history, and the younger Earley currently ranks first all-time in career walks, second in games played, tied for second in doubles, third in home runs and extra-base hits, fourth in hits and RBIs, and fifth in runs scored.

All-Time Numerical Roster

Catcher/First Baseman Chance Shepard played only one season for the Miners in 2018, but he put on a display of power not seen in Southern Illinois in nearly a decade. The all-star hit 23 home runs, which tied for second in the Frontier League and was the first time any Miners batter had hit 20 or more since Joey Metropoulos' MVP season of 2009. Shepard also became the third player overall in Miners history to hit 20 or more dingers in a single campaign, joining Metropoulos (who did it twice) and Tim Dorn. The only player to hit more in the Frontier League in 2018 was Normal's Chris Iriart, who would join the Miners the following season.

While regular season success has been no stranger to the Southern Illinois Miners, playoff success had eluded the club until 2012. The Miners made the playoffs on the last day of the season, sweeping the favored Traverse City Beach Bums in the division series before beating the Florence Freedom three games to one in the Championship Series in walk-off fashion. When shortstop Jake Kaase drew a bases-loaded walk in the bottom of the 12th inning, it set off fireworks and kicked off a huge celebration in "Pickaxe County."
