FRONT OFFICE

DAVID CROSS, GENERAL MANAGER

Newport News, VA native David Cross is in his 20th season (2019) as General Manager of the Danville Braves and his 21st in professional baseball. Prior to getting into baseball, Cross worked in the financial services industry. He began his career in baseball in the ticket department of the Richmond Braves (1998) and spent the 1999 season as the Group Sales Manager with the Winston-Salem Warthogs of the Carolina League. In May of 2000, Cross was named the GM of the Danville Braves and has been helping to improve professional baseball in the Danville area since. During his tenure in Danville, he has been named Appalachian League Executive of the Year twice (2003, 2008) and won the Promotional Award of Excellence twice (2004, 2006). Most recently, Cross led the D-Braves to 2017 Appalachian League Organization of the Year honors. In September 2017, Cross was promoted to Vice President, General Manager, Danville Braves.

BRANDON BENNETT, ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Bennett began his second tour of duty with the Danville Braves in 2016, having worked as the Sales & Operations Manager from 2010-2013. The 2010 UNC Chapel Hill grad is ecstatic to be back working for the Braves.

STEPHEN BRUNSON, SALES & MARKETING MANAGER

Brunson begins his first year on the D-Braves full-time staff after spending the 2018 season with the D-Braves as the Media Relations trainee position. Brunson is a 2018 graduate of Kansas State University, where he studied Public Relations. While at K-State, Brunson worked for K-State Athletics in the communications department, assisting with gathering statistics for all sports teams. Brunson also spent three years as a resident assistant with the K-State Housing and Dining department. Brunson is commonly referred to as "Jimmy" while at Legion Field.

Year Built

Nestled along the Dan River in spacious Dan Daniel Memorial Park, American Legion Post 325 Field ("Legion Field") sits among the nicest scenery you will find in all of Minor League Baseball. With 2,588 seats, Legion Field is the second largest stadium in the Appalachian League. Danville Braves fans are known for putting those seats to good use, as over 34,700 fans attended games at Legion Field in 2018. That represents the fourth straight year with a growth in attendance and the highest figure since the D-Braves were Appalachian League champions in 2009. The D-Braves averaged over 1,000 fans per contest during the 2018 season.

The park was constructed in 1992 and is owned by the City of Danville. Numerous other teams have and still do call Legion Field home. When the D-Braves aren't in season, athletes from George Washington High School, American Legion Post 325, Danville Community College, and the USA South Conference (NCAA Division III) use the field to work toward achieving their dreams of making it to the Big Leagues.

A nice location set among several family recreational facilities, Legion Field offers what few ballparks can - a place where men are given the opportunity to live out their dreams while allowing the community's young and old to live it with them. Without a doubt, American Legion Post 325 Field is second to none.

FIELD STAFF

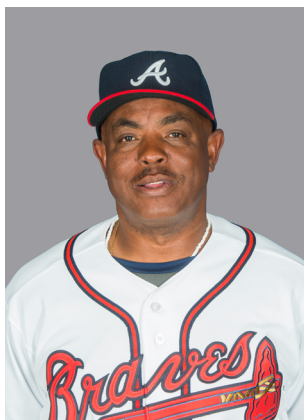

ANTHONY NUNEZ, MANAGER

Anthony Nuñez will be at the helm as the D-Braves skipper in 2019. Nuñez spent the 2018 season as a coach on the Rome Braves staff that posted a 71-65 record and won the first half of the Southern Division of the South Atlantic League. Nuñez, a Dominican Republic native, played for the D-Braves in 2013 and was a coach with Danville in 2016. As a player, Nuñez spent seven seasons in the Braves system, including hitting .421 over eight games in Danville in 2013. Nuñez will be making his managerial debut in 2019 and he becomes the third former D-Braves player to manage the team following Jonathan Schuerholz (2012, 2013) and Barrett Kleinknecht (2018).

JASON STANFORD, PITCHING COACH

Jason Stanford is one of two new members to the staff who will join Nuñez in Danville in 2019. Stanford, who comes to the Braves after serving as pitching coach with Single-A West Virginia Power of the Pirates organization, pitched in 23 games over three seasons for the Cleveland Indians as part of his nine-year playing career. The product of Tucson, Arizona endured a nine-year stint in the minors with nine different teams, holding a career 3.62 ERA in 176 appearances.

BARBARO GARBAY, HITTING COACH

Barbaro Garbey returns to Danville after coaching with the D-Braves last season. The 2019 season is Garbey's sixth coaching in the Braves organization and his second in a full-time role; he most recently worked with Double-A Mississippi in 2016 prior to arriving in Danville. Garbey began his coaching career in 2002 with the Detroit Tigers organization before spending seven seasons with the Chicago Cubs organization from 2006 to 2012 prior to joining the Braves. As a player, Garbey won the World Series with the Tigers in 1984; he played three seasons in the majors, two with Detroit (1984, 1985) and one with Texas (1988).

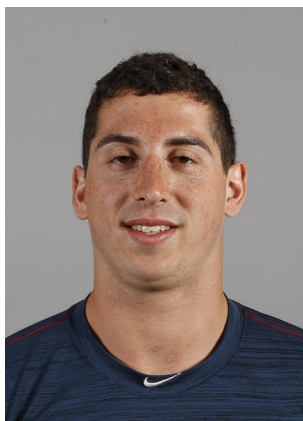

FIELD STAFF

CONNOR NARRON, COACH

Connor Narron, who is making his coaching debut, will act as the fourth coach in Danville after retiring from his playing career in the Orioles and Brewers organization. The Goldsboro, North Carolina native spent five years in the minor leagues, making it as high as High-A Frederick Keys in the Carolina League. Narron is the nephew of Jerry Narron, the current bench coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks and eight-year MLB veteran.

SAM FELDMAN, STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Sam Feldman begins his first season working in professional baseball as a coach. The product of Atlanta studied Kinesiology at Penn State and University of Georgia.

KOJI KANEMURA, ATHLETIC TRAINER

Koji Kanemura will join the D-Braves staff after spending 2017 and 2018 with the Johnson City Cardinals.

2019 Media Guide

The Danville Braves Media Guide was produced by the D-Braves Front Office, under the direction of Ben Boynton. Reproduction in part or whole in any form without the express written consent of the Danville Braves is strictly prohibited.

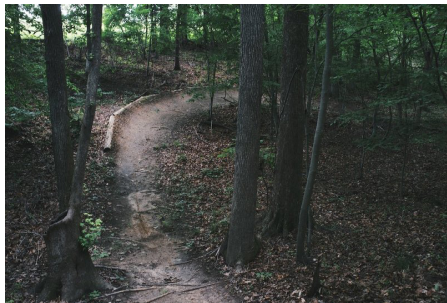

The Danville Braves aren't the only great thing to see in town - here are a few others:

ANGLER'S PARK

If you're looking for good hiking or mountain biking, Angler's Park is the place to go in Danville. The 15.7 mile Angler's Ridge loop offers a tough challenge, but there are shorter trails for those looking for an easier time.

DANVILLE SCIENCE CENTER

The Danville Science Center is an excellent place for science-lovers of all ages to explore the forces that make our world tick. After checking out the exhibits, be sure to stop by the Digital Dome Theater and catch one of the rotating films on the giant screen.

BALLAD BREWING

Located in an old warehouse built in 1891, Ballard Brewing offers a unique local experience. A family-friendly atmosphere and original recipes combine to create a great place for residents and visitors alike to stop by after a long day.

AAF TANK MUSEUM

Looking for the most extensive collection of International Tank & Cavalry artifacts in the world? It's right here in Danville. Enjoy your visit to the 330,000 square foot facility that features tanks, uniforms, artillery, weapons, and much more.

The Danville Braves aren't the only great thing to see in town - here are a few others:

VIRGINIA INTERNATIONAL RACEWAY

People who are looking for the most thrilling kinds of action can find it at VIR. Home to all sorts of professional and amateur racing, karting, and so much more, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

2 WITCHES WINERY & BREWING CO.

Those looking to quench their thirst don't need to look further than this family-run local watering hole. The first co-located winery and brewery in the state of Virginia even features a beer named in honor of the D-Braves - Short Hop to the Ballpark.

FARMER'S MARKET

One of the most well-known Danville attractions is the Farmer's Market. Summer Saturdays at the Community Market offer a great opportunity to pick up locally grown, farm fresh produce, baked goods, arts and crafts, and so much more.

BRIGHT LEAF SEGWAY TOURS

Danville has a lot of history and sights to offer, and what better way to explore it all than on a Segway? Bright Leaf offers tours for everyone, from the historical to the just plain scenic.
