FRONT OFFICE - MANAGEMENT

DAVID HAGAN, PRESIDENT

David Hagan is the Pulaski Yankees owner and president. Hagan and the Shelor Automotive Group purchased Calfee Park from the Town of Pulaski in 2014 and have since invested more than nine million dollars in renovations to the ballpark facilities, field, team, and hotel where the players stay. Hagan's ownership attendance has risen from 26,000 to more than 77,000, and he is credited with bringing the New York Yankees affiliate to the small, rural community of Pulaski. Hagan also sponsors Little League tee-ball, baseball, and softball organizations. In 2010 he created the Growing the Future program which partners with local schools and community initiatives. He was inducted into the Salem-Roanoke Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

CHRISTINA EDNEY, GENERAL MANAGER

Christina Edney was named General Manager of the Pulaski Yankees in December 2017 after previously serving as Assistant General Manager. A Pulaski, Va. native, she graduated from Liberty University in 2012, where she majored in Sports Journalism with a minor in Youth Ministry. Upon graduation, Edney was hired as an Associate Producer for WDBJ7 in Roanoke before moving to Harrisonburg, Va., where she was a morning reporter/anchor and sports reporter at WHSV.

BETSY HAUGH, ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Betsy Haugh joined the Pulaski Yankees as Assistant General Manager in February 2018. Haugh, an Earlysville, Va. native, is in her third season in Minor League Baseball; she spent two seasons with the Danville Braves, where she started as the Media Relations Trainee before being named Sales and Marketing Manager in September 2016. Prior to beginning her career in MiLB, Haugh earned degrees from Virginia Tech (MA, Communication, 2016) and Marshall University (BA, Sport Management and Marketing, 2014). Since October 2016, Haugh has assisted the Appalachian League with its media relations efforts as the League Publicist. She was named the Appalachian League Woman of Excellence and Outstanding Employee of the Year at the conclusion of the 2017 season.

HISTORIC CALFEE PARK

Calfee Park was built in 1935 as a result of the Works Progress Administration, which was one of several New Deal Programs enacted by Former President Franklin Roosevelt after the Great Depression. Named after the former Mayor of Pulaski in 1935, Ernest W. Calfee, Calfee Park currently operates as the 9th oldest Minor League Baseball Park in the United States. The rich history of Calfee Park continues to thrive to this day, as remaining artifacts from the original 1935 development continue to stand. Fans are greeted by a beautiful rock wall entrance on the northern side of the ballpark and the original canopy that covers the entire 3rd base grandstand.

In just under a century's time, Calfee Park has been used for horse shows, fairs, concerts, exhibitions, and most recently, Pulaski Yankees Baseball. It has been home to over eight MiLB franchises, hosted high school and college baseball, and, prior to the consolidation of the Dublin and Pulaski High Schools, was the home football and baseball field for the Pulaski Orioles.

Following a major renovation in 1999 and largely due to its community value and significance, Calfee Park was added to the National and State Historic Landmarks Registry. After the 1999 summer baseball season, Calfee Park was named the Appalachian League Facility of the Year. The unique ballpark has been featured and pictured in several magazines, such as Sports Illustrated, National Geographic, Life, and Virginia Living.

In 2015, the Shelor Automotive Group purchased Calfee Park from the Town of Pulaski to ensure necessary renovations would be made to keep baseball alive in Pulaski and the surrounding New River Valley. Renovations and upgrades included a renovated home team clubhouse; a new visiting team clubhouse, concessions stand, souvenir shop, and press box; the addition of VIP Towers, upgraded seating, additional parking, a new mascot, and a 35' x 22' JumboTron.

Continued upgrades have been made since 2015, including a new Bermuda grass playing field, a new irrigation system, new home offices for park employees, an expanded upper concourse, and a new scoreboard.

Calfee Park is owned and operated by Calfee Park Baseball, Inc.
