Mike Tomlin Head Coach

In his 11 seasons as head coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Tomlin accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. A franchise known for stability at the head coaching position, Tomlin ranks among the League's longest-tenured head coaches following the 2017 season.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII (36 years, 323 days). By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

In his 11 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to six AFC North titles, most recently in 2017, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs eight times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in each of his first 11 years, including six at Heinz Field in 2017.

Tomlin has sent a total of 50 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including the nine players who received Pro Bowl honors for the 2017 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March 2013.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. He is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin's 116-60 regular-season record (.659) is the best start in franchise history. He reached 100 career wins in the fewest games (157) in team history, and he became the eighth head coach in NFL history to reach 100 regular-season wins in their first 10 seasons. His 116 regular-season wins are the second-most wins by an NFL head coach in their first 11 seasons as a head coach, trailing only Hall of Fame coach Don Shula.

Over the past five seasons (2013-17), Tomlin has led the team to a 20-3 record in the month of December/January, which are the most wins in December/January over that span.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' and UPMC Sports Medicine's "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which was in conjunction with USA Football's Heads Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin also participates in the annual ManUp Pittsburgh conference which encourages local men to be better fathers and role models.

In 2017, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 13-3 record, including a 6-0 sweep of the AFC North, securing his sixth division title and a No. 2 seed in the AFC for the postseason. The team's 13 wins marks the most wins in a single season in the Tomlin era.

Under Tomlin's guidance, quarterback Ben Roethlisberger became the eighth quarterback in NFL history to reach 50,000 passing yards, finishing the season with a career total of 51,065. Wide receiver Antonio Brown was voted team MVP for his outstanding performance and became the first Steeler to earn the honor four times (2011, '13, '15 and '17). Brown led the league with 1,533 receiving yards and set an NFL record for the most receptions (582) and receiving yards (7,848) by a player in any five-year span in League history. For the second-straight season, running back Le'Veon Bell led the AFC in scrimmage yards per game (129.7) and surpassed his own Steelers single-season record for receptions by a running back with 85. Defensively, the team led the NFL and set a Steelers single-season record with 56 sacks in 2017.

For their efforts, Roethlisberger, Brown and Bell were named to the Pro Bowl along with kicker Chris Boswell, linebacker Ryan Shazier, and offensive linemen David DeCastro, Maurkice Pouncey and Alejandro Villanueva. Brown, Bell and DeCastro were also named AP All-Pro, along with defensive end Cameron Heyward. Heyward was also added to the Pro Bowl roster prior to the game.

The Steelers finished with an 11-5 record in 2016, and won each of the team's final seven regular-season games, to secure the AFC North title and No. 3 seed in the AFC for the postseason. It marked the fifth time Tomlin led the Steelers to at least 11 wins in the regular season. Pittsburgh won its first two postseason games, vs. Miami in an AFC Wild Card Game and at Kansas City in an AFC Divisional Playoff, before falling to the New England Patriots in the AFC Championship Game.

Running back Le'Veon Bell was voted the Steelers' MVP for his 2016 efforts. He led the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (157.0), and he became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 3,000 rushing yards and 1,500 receiving yards in his career (38 games). In the Steelers' Week 14 victory at Buffalo in 2016, Bell set the single-game team record with 236 rushing yards and tied the single-game team mark with three rushing touchdowns.

Roethlisberger and Brown continued to etch their names in NFL history. Roethlisberger finished the season with the ninth-most passing touchdowns in NFL history (301) and the 10th-most passing yards in NFL history (46,814). Brown set numerous NFL records, including one for the most receptions in a player's first 100 career regular-season games (622) and one for the most receptions in NFL history by a player in any four-year span (481).

Despite significant injuries to multiple starters during the 2015 season, the Steelers finished with a 10-6 record (2nd in the AFC North) and advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs. The Steelers finished third in the NFL in total offense (1st in the AFC), while the defense posted 48 sacks under first-year defensive coordinator Keith Butler. The 48 sacks were the third most in the NFL in 2015.

In 2014, Tomlin orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards/game (301.6) and total first downs (379). On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided Roethlisberger, Brown and Bell – who all made the Pro Bowl – to record-setting years.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Troy Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998.

Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin Press Conference
January 16, 2018

Opening Statement: Good afternoon. We met as a football team yesterday at two o'clock and basically the outline of that meeting was it was a very disappointing end to an outstanding season. We talked about that some. We talked about the game. We talked about how we move forward individually and collectively. We also talked about the appreciation for the journey that we were able to walk. I'd probably like to just start with that. I am extremely appreciative of these players and coaches of their efforts. It was a wild, challenging and fun ride as it always is. I'm appreciative of the support we get from our fans and this city. I'm appreciative of those things. We had a wild ride. We were able to accomplish a lot of things. Some things that we set out to do. We realize that our ball goes through the AFC North. We met the charge in that regard. We wanted to position ourselves as strongly as we could in playoff football to make the ball go through Pittsburgh, [Pa]. We were able to get a bye and that nature. It ended the way it ended, and looking back at it, there's nothing that we can do about that but learn from the experience. We didn't play winning football last weekend and there are consequences to that. We understand that. Oftentimes the people who care about us talk about putting perspective on it, it not being the most important thing in the world and so forth. I get that, they get that, but it doesn't lessen the will that we have. The commitment that we have toward and that is blessing and for that I am thankful. They are thankful, but it also doesn't lessen the hurt that comes with it. When you are not successful and we've learned to embrace that element of it, too, because it is real. So, at the appropriate time they will all process it in their own ways. We will, too. Hopefully that strengthens us for our next journey. We understand that some of us will be on this journey and some of us are not. That is the nature of it. That's why we have the type of urgency that we have. That is why we have the type of appreciation for what one another is willing to do in the midst of the journey. Those of us that have been on multiple journeys we know that none of them are the same. That there are always going to be changes and that is just life but it's also life from football and we embrace that. We are going through our same end of the year type procedures that we go through. Exit meetings and physicals and so forth. Starting the assessment process. How we end this is very critical in terms of how we behind the next one so you do not want to be in a hurry to end it even though it can be uncomfortable and painful and so forth. It's important that we turn the stones over and gather information and really assess. So that is what we are in the process of what we are doing. It's not a short process and by no means in the business of rushing it. I started this morning meeting with rookie players first and assess what has transpired with them and building from there. It will continue. We have medical things we need to address. I do not have a lot of details there. Some of you guys know that guys are dealing with ongoing things. Some of those things may have been scheduled. One that comes to mind I think Tyler Matakevich is scheduled for shoulder surgery on Wednesday. Some of the other stuff is obviously a lot more tentative. We have to check those boxes as well and we will but simply just going through the normal procedure and not underscoring that. It's important that we do a good job of that because really defines the start of the next journey. And let's face it, that's all we have because this journey is over. There is formality in it and as abruptly as it ends, we understand it and embrace it.

Do you expect your coaching staff to come back next year?

I don't know where these roads are going to lead. Some conversations need to be had. Some contracts are up, some contracts aren't. I am not ready to discuss that at this point. Part of gaining that understanding is those conversations and so forth so you'll hear about them as they unfold. I'm sure if there is anything to be heard but not there yet, no.

Re: Ben Roethlisberger and Todd Haley's relationship moving forward:

I'm gathering information on all relationships and things of that nature. That's what this assessment is about, so I'm not ready to state opinions about the nature of any of our relationships whether I'm assessing in terms of what transpired or what's going to transpire moving forward. That is the process that I am in right now.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin Press Conference
January 16, 2018

Are you happy with the way the offense has developed with Todd Haley?

Again, I'm not going to have a lot of definitive answers for you guys because I don't want to provide you misinformation. Some of the things, some of the details, whether we are talking about offense or defense or special teams, or roads within it or personnel, I have very definitive positions on and information about. Some of it I understand that I am not privy to all circumstances and information during a course of a journey, so I'm letting others deliver information to me. I'm gathering information. I'm providing information to help to those individuals that I am talking to in terms of what they need to do. It's all a good process for me – one that I take very seriously and look forward to learning and gathering. So some of these things I'm just not quite frankly ready to talk about it in really strong ways at this point.

What criteria do you use when evaluating a coaching staff?

We are all a product of the end result. It starts there, whether it is players or coaches. We are what the record says we are so it starts there but then it's also you're will. Players and coaches, what are you willing to do. I know what you are capable of or I have a pretty good assessment of what men are capable but what you are capable of very rarely defines you in this business whether you are a player or coach. What you are willing to do is what defines you and what you are willing to do on a consistent basis. How selfless are you? How willing are you to put our goals and agenda in front of anything that might be on your checklist of to do list so those are general things that assess of all people that put their hand into the pile with. Whether it is player, coach, support personnel, training staff, equipment staff, medical staff. I take really generally the same approach to evaluate all people.

Is Hines Ward in line to replace Richard Mann as a receiver coach?

Again, I'm not willing to talk about anybody being in line for anything. I have yet to visit with Richard Mann. So that's where it starts for me.

What is the status of Mike Munchak and the Arizona Cardinals?

He's been on an interview. I don't know what's next or if there is anything next. Oftentimes those people hold those cards and they are probably equipped to answer that than myself for sure.

Do you think some of the Patriots success comes from the ability to make other teams obsess over them?

I don't know that. That's not tangible. That is somewhat mystical. I don't know how you measure that. I know they do some tangible things well that need to be addressed and that probably has a lot to do with why they are successful.

With Ben Roethlisberger coming back does that help go into your preparation in the offseason?

Ben is under contract so we proceed with that assumption. We proceeded with that assumption a year ago.

Would you make the quarterback sneak more a part of the offense?

That's one of the best things about that guy. His will is continually on display particularly at those critical moments. He wants to be the guy. He wants to be the reason why. I work to not discipline that, I encourage that, I appreciate that but then we make decisions that we deem appropriate in circumstances so it may include what you talked about. It may not include what you talked about. Sometimes coming to those decisions has nothing to do with his skillset or what he is willing to do. It might just be based on what the opponent does. Those are decisions that we have to make. It's really not anything extraordinary about it. It's just a part of ball.

In retrospect, did Le'Veon Bell's contract holdout cause him to start slowly at all?

Head Coach Mike Tomlin Press Conference
January 16, 2018

He's better equipped to answer that than I am. I thought he played great. I thought it was exemplified by the consistency of his play over the course of the season and the fact that he's First Team All-Pro. You can judge from there.

Why have you guys gone away from the quarterback sneak?

I don't know that we have. Whether or not we choose to call it in a specific moment is up for debate, but to suggest that there's a resistance to it in concept, I'm not willing to say that.

Would you like the players to be less active on social media or talking before games?

I have teenage kids who are 16 and 17, so I understand that that's a part of this world. It's not the world I grew up in. I'm 45, so I'm learning to understand it, learning to do it in the appropriate ways. I think that's the discussion. I think that's the realistic discussion, whether we're talking about young players or we're just talking about young people. Social media and the things that come with it aren't going anywhere, and 45-year-olds like myself that work to understand it and understand the positive aspects of it and work to train younger people to utilize it and utilize it for good. I think that's the discussion.

How much of an issue will it be for you not to attend the Senior Bowl with your staff because of the Pro Bowl?

We lose something there, but we lost something there because we were playing a year ago. So, I didn't necessarily plan to be in Mobile, [Ala.].

What goes into the thinking of some of the 4th-and-1 calls and the on-side kick?

I know analytically they probably fall into the lower percentages and things of that nature, but if I err, I'm always going to err on the side of taking action to win. I think my guys know that about me. I think more importantly than knowing that about me, they expect that from me. I don't fear failure. I'm going to do what's required to pursue victory, even if it comes across as unconventional. I'm certainly not going to steer away from decision-making for fear of ridicule. Those guys put a lot on the line when we step in stadiums to play. I, in turn, am responsible to put a lot on the line and embrace doing so. So, I understand when things don't work out, there's criticisms that are associated with it. I embrace that, but I go to work every day with men who lay a lot on the line when they step in stadiums as well. And I'm just going to provide the same efforts that they provide me.

How helpful is it to have a guy like Shaun Sarrett if offensive line coach Mike Munchak does leave?

I'm not anticipating and getting into that dance. You can dance that dance. I'm in assessment mode. We've got some good people here, people who work hard. I'm appreciative of that. These are necessary conversations that go on this time of year. Whether someone goes or stays and so forth. Very natural in our business. I just don't have a lot of detail at this juncture.

What is Richard Mann's legacy to you?

We've covered a lot of ground together. The first world championship I was a part of, I was a secondary coach, he was a wide out's coach, so obviously there's a cooperative workspace there. I was a young assistant. He was a seasoned assistant. It's been a pleasure to work with that guy on a lot of fronts, but professionally, personally, I've learned a lot from him. I also realize that efforts from guys like him have provided opportunities for guys like me. When he was coming up, I'm sure, carving out a niche for himself in this business, opportunities like I had weren't afforded to African American coaches. And so, I'm appreciative of guys like Richard Mann on a lot of levels, not only in terms of what he's done and what he's capable of doing, but maybe some of the hurdles that he overcame provided opportunities for guys like me and I'm sensitive and appreciative of that and on that level as well.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin Press Conference
January 16, 2018

What do you say to the perception that you were looking ahead to opponents this year?

I can't worry about those things, guys. One of the things that's changing in our business is the attention, the media attention, and part of it is the development of social media and things of that nature. So, I'm fortunate enough and I've been in it long enough that I realize that it's changing in some ways and some of the norms are changing, and we've got to change with it. And so, I'm less resistant to old norms. I'm not worried about those type of things because they're irrelevant. The amount of attention that we all get is 10-fold what it was 10, 15 years ago. To try to keep that Jell-O in the box is a waste of time, and really kind of fruitless. We don't spend a lot of time worrying what's said about us or misinterpretations of what we say. We simply go about our work, and what's important is what we say to one another. If it doesn't come from one man to another, we don't give it much thought or attention, we don't. We realize oftentimes it may create a storm around us, but that's not us. We don't care. We can't care. We can't control it anyway. It's an impossibility in today's professional sports climate. So that's my soapbox.

How do you change with the times?

I care less. We focus on what we do in preparation and ultimately our play, and we understand it as such. Some of it quite frankly is just, you know, a joke. I could get asked about something in here and I could say I have no comment, and then it's like, well, I denied something. No, I just didn't have a comment. I can't dance that dance. I can't waste time in my day worried about that. There's too much real stuff going on, tangible things, preparation things, role things, workplace things that are real as opposed to perceived or interpreted or potential. That's just how it is. I'm sure we're not different from anybody else in that light. We're probably more upfront in talking about it than the others, but that's just how we chose to deal with it. People have different modes of operation in terms of dealing with the things that they deal with in this business, things that are part of this business. That's just our developing mentality. We're just not overly concerned with things that you might think we would be because it's a waste of our time.

Cameron Heyward expressed that he was disappointed that the team didn't go further this year dawning their patches in honor of late owner Ambassador Dan Rooney, but that there is enough to pull on there for next year, too. Do you feel the same way?

We cannot win enough games to pay tribute to that man. We can't stack enough Lombardi Trophies in there to adequately pay tribute to that man. So, I share his sentiments, but if the confetti would've rained on us and we would've walked off with the Lombardi, it still probably doesn't express my appreciation for all that he's given me. Everybody has an opinion, everybody has a perception, and I respect that. But what he's provided me personally, I can't win enough games, I can't win enough championships. That was just a symbol of our appreciation for the standard he's provided us, the legacy he's provided us, the leadership, friendship, whatever he's provided us. It was a token of our appreciation. The outcome of games and stuff are not going to meet the standard.

Mike Mitchell, according to the Jaguars, was yelling stuff outside their locker room. Is that something that shouldn't happen?

I'm not commenting on stuff like that. That's part of what I was talking about in today's climate that's really kind of irrelevant to me. I'd imagine Jacksonville isn't concerned about it as they prepare to play New England, so what are we talking about.

Yesterday, Martavis Bryant made it clear that he felt a change in the middle of the season and he wants to stay here. What did you see change with him in that time?

It was just a natural evolution of understanding the roles and the development roles that happen over the course of a season whether it's him or anyone else. Part of being a team on the rise is each man gaining understanding in those areas and embracing it and making it special. What he went through isn't any different than what these guys go through. Some of it is more public than others. Some of it's not. That's the journey of the season.

January 16, 2018

Re: The opportunity for you to coach in the Pro Bowl:

I'm really excited about it. To get an opportunity to work with guys who are honored as the best in the business, to spend some intimate moments with them, to enjoy them – it's awesome. I haven't been to the Pro Bowl in a lot of years. It's a great environment to be in. To spend time with the best in the world at what they do, to watch that comradery, to be a part of that is a special thing and an honor.

How many of your players do you expect to be coaching in the Pro Bowl?

I haven't thought a lot about it. I guess I'll find out or get thinking along those lines here as it gets closer. I think I fly out next Tuesday. In the meantime, I've just really been focused on some of this housekeeping that we've been talking about over the last 24-48 hours.

Do you have any more information on Ryan Shazier?

Nothing has changed there. He's fighting and fighting every day. We're probably going to have more time to support him, and I'm sure guys are doing that. It's less formal and just more appropriate right now. He's a teammate and a brother. Guys have acted appropriately so. The 2017 season is over, but obviously he's in the midst of a fight, and we're going to continue to support him daily in that.

Before the final touchdown, were you happy with the pace that the offense moved on the field?

The pace was necessary. Obviously, it was uncomfortable because of the game circumstance. Sometimes you've got no control over it because of positions that you put yourself in. We were moving at as good of pace as we could, but obviously the position we were in was not ideal.

A TRIBUTE TO DAN ROONEY

Throughout the 2017 season, Steelers players wore a patch on the right side of their jerseys in memory of the late Chairman Ambassador Dan Rooney. The patch - with Rooney's initials - DMR - which stands for Daniel Milton Rooney is lovingly enveloped in black and gold shamrock to honor, remember and show love and respect for the man who was more than an owner, but family to the players.

2017 SCHEDULE NOTES

The Steelers won each of their five regular-season primetime games of 2017:

- Week 8: Sunday Night Football at Detroit, W 20-15
- Week 11: Thursday Night Football vs. Tennessee, W 40-17
- Week 12: Sunday Night Football vs. Green Bay, W 38-21
- Week 13: Monday Night Football at Cincinnati, W 23-20
- Week 14: Sunday Night Football vs. Baltimore, W 39-38

For the second consecutive year, and for the second time in franchise history, the Steelers played on Christmas Day. Pittsburgh traveled to Houston for a Monday, Dec. 25, matchup at the Texans (W, 34-6).

The Steelers' bye week took place on Nov. 5 (Week 9).

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

The Steelers logged just 6,694 miles traveled during the 2017 season - the fewest miles among all 32 NFL teams:

TEAM	NUMBER OF MILES TRAVELED
Pittsburgh	6,694
Cincinnati	7,662
Green Bay	8,074
Detroit	8,218
Chicago	8,318

STEELERS HALL OF HONOR

The Steelers announced their inaugural Hall of Honor class on Aug. 29 at an event in the PNC Champions Club at Heinz Field. Twenty-seven members were announced in the class who were inducted during a formal ceremony during Alumni Weekend, Nov. 25-26. The inaugural class was introduced during halftime of the Steelers Sunday Night Football game vs. the Green Bay Packers in Week 12.

The inaugural class includes the following (in alphabetical order):

- Jerome Bettis
- Mel Blount
- Terry Bradshaw
- Jack Butler
- Dermontti Dawson
- Bill Dudley
- Joe Greene
- Kevin Greene
- L.C. Greenwood
- Jack Ham

- Chuck Noll
- Arthur J. Rooney, Sr.
- Daniel M. Rooney
- Andy Russell
- Donnie Shell
- John Stallworth
- Ernie Stautner
- Lynn Swann
- Mike Webster
- Rod Woodson

Each inductee received a replica of a solid steel football, which will replicate the original that was given to Steelers' founder Art Rooney Sr. by the United States Steel Corporation and United Steel Workers in 1982 on the occasion of the team's 50th Season.

They are part of a display to be located inside the FedEx Great Hall at Heinz Field.

The Steelers announced plans for a Hall of Honor on Aug. 1. The Hall of Honor will induct former players, coaches, and front office personnel who were integral in creating and sustaining the franchise's success dating back to when the team was founded in 1933.

STEELERS CLAIM THE NORTH

STEELERS IN THE DIVISIONAL

With a 39-38 win in Week 14 vs. the Baltimore Ravens, the Pittsburgh Steelers clinched the 2017 AFC North division crown.

Pittsburgh secured the AFC North division title for the eighth time since NFL realignment in 2002 - the most among division teams (Pittsburgh: 8, Baltimore: 4 and Cincinnati: 4).

The Steelers are one of the most successful teams in NFL history.

The team's 23 division titles, 30 playoff berths and 36 postseason wins are the most since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970:

STEELERS PLAYOFF OT GAMES

Pittsburgh's last overtime playoff game - a loss at Denver in a 2011 Wild Card - was the team's fifth overtime postseason game in franchise history.

The Steelers are 2-3 in those contests (1-3 on the road), with all games being decided by six points (except for the Broncos game). All three of the Steelers' overtime losses have come on the road.

TOMLIN IN THE PLAYOFFS

MISC. STEELERS POSTSEASON NOTES

Head Coach Mike Tomlin is only the second coach in NFL history to reach two Super Bowls in his first four seasons as a head coach (Joe Gibbs - Washington Redskins).

The Steelers are 8-7 during the Mike Tomlin era in the postseason, with four of the seven losses being by six points or less.

Mike Tomlin is the youngest coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. The following is a look at the youngest head coaches in Super Bowl history:

Records Through 2017 Divisional Weekend

- In 2005, the Steelers became the first No. 6 seed in NFL history to win the Super Bowl. Since then two other Wild Card teams have gone on to win the Super Bowl ('10 Green Bay, sixth seed and '07 Giants, fifth seed).
- Pittsburgh has played in 61 playoff games, which is tied for the most all-time with Dallas.
- The Steelers have won 12 of their last 19 postseason games.
- Pittsburgh is 8-5 all-time in the postseason at Heinz Field since the stadium opened in 2001, including winning five of their previous seven.
- The Steelers won the AFC Central title a team-record six consecutive seasons from 1974-79. They also won four consecutive division titles from 1994-97.
- The Steelers won a team-record seven consecutive postseason games, including two Super Bowls (IX and X), from Dec. 22, 1974 through Dec. 19, 1976. They won six consecutive postseason games from Dec. 30, 1978 through Jan. 20, 1980, including victories in Super Bowls XIII and XIV.
- The Steelers have been shut out only once in the postseason, during the 1947 Eastern Division Playoff game, Dec. 21, 1947, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. The Steelers and Eagles finished that season with 8-4 records and tied for first place in the Eastern Division. In those days, there was only one NFL Championship Game, so the two Pennsylvania neighbors squared off for the right to face the Chicago Cardinals in the Championship Game. The Eagles won, 21-0, but lost in the Championship Game, 28-21, to the Cardinals, the same franchise the Steelers faced in Super Bowl XLIII.
- The Steelers record for fewest points allowed in a playoff game is five, during a 34-5 win in the 1978 AFC Championship Game versus the Houston Oilers at Three Rivers Stadium, on Jan. 7, 1979. The Steelers allowed a team-high 45 points during a 45-28 AFC Championship Game road loss to the Miami Dolphins on Jan. 6, 1985.
- Pittsburgh has faced 22 different teams in the postseason and has a winning record against 12 of those opponents. The Steelers have split their postseason contests with three teams and have a losing record versus seven teams.

Tennessee	25	19	0	.568

Including the postseason Tomlin has a .652 winning percentage (30-16) against the NFC during his first 11 years, which ranks first among Steelers' head coaches.

PRIMETIME SPECIALIST

Since the 2011 season, the Steelers have played in 33 primetime games, including a Week Eight on Sunday Night Football at Detroit (W, 20-15), a Thursday Night Football tilt at Heinz Field in Week 11 vs. Tennessee (W, 40-17), a Sunday Night Football game vs. Green Bay at Heinz Field in Week 12 (W, 31-28), a Week 13 Monday Night Football match-up in Cincinnati (W, 23-20) and a Sunday Night Football game in Week 14 against Baltimore (W, 39-28) in 2017.

Mike Tomlin, the 11th-year head coach, has guided Pittsburgh to a 36-16 overall record in regular-season primetime games.

He is 12-2 on Monday Night Football, 17-8 on Sunday Night Football and 7-6 on Thursday Night Football.

TOMLIN AT HOME

Mike Tomlin has guided the Steelers to a 65-23 career regular-season record at Heinz Field.

Tomlin earned his 50th regular season home win in Week Nine in 2015 vs. Oakland and joined Chuck Noll (119) and Bill Cowher (85) as the third head coach in Steelers history with 50 regular season home victories.

Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to at least five home wins in each of his first 11 seasons - through 2017 - as the team's head coach and six home wins in eight of his 11 at the helm through 2017.

His 65-23 (.739) mark at home and his 65 home wins are the third best in the NFL since 2007:

Tomlin has won at least four games against division opponents in seven of his 11 seasons as the team's head coach through 2017.

A SWEEP OF THE NORTH

Mike Tomlin coached the Steelers to a 6-0 sweep of the AFC North in 2017 - the second season since becoming the team's head coach in 2007 that he has earned an unbeaten mark in divisional play (2008 and 2017).

12-PLUS IN

Mike Tomlin produced a career-best 13 wins in 2017 with the Steelers - his fourth season as the team's head coach with at least 12 regular-season wins since becoming the team's head coach in 2007.

Since 2007, Pittsburgh's four seasons with at least 12 regular-season wins are tied with the Denver Broncos for the second-most 12-win seasons in the NFL (New England: 9).

TOMLIN IN 11

In his first 11 seasons as the head coach of the Steelers, Mike Tomlin has an extensive list of accomplishments.

His 116 wins in his first 11 seasons are the most wins in team history for any coach in his first 11 campaigns and his two Super Bowl appearances are second-most for the franchise for a coach in his first 11 seasons.

Tomlin's eight postseason berths are tied as the most in a coach's first 11 seasons with the Steelers and his six division titles are third-most.

Below is a look at where Tomlin ranks among Steelers coaches in their first 11 seasons:

TOMLIN'S 100TH IN 10

Mike Tomlin became the third head coach in Steelers history to record 100 regular season wins in Week 14 of 2016, with the team's 27-20 victory at Buffalo.

He joined Chuck Noll (1969-91: 193) and Bill Cowher (1992-2006: 149) in the team's 100-win club to make the Steelers the first NFL franchise with three 100-win head coaches.

Tomlin earned his 100th regular-season victory in Week 14 of 2016 at Buffalo in his 157th career regular-season games to mark the fewest games by a Steelers head coach to reach the century mark in the win column (Chuck Noll: 158 and Bill Cowher: 163).

Tomlin's 100th win occurred in his 10th season with the Steelers, becoming the first Pittsburgh head coach to reach 100 wins in his first 10 years (Bill Cowher: 1992-2001: 99 and Chuck Noll: 1976-78: 88).

Tomlin also joined an elite head coach fraternity in NFL history by reaching 100 wins in his 10th season:

- He is the ninth head coach in NFL history to win 100 games in his first 10 seasons with one franchise, joining Bill Belichick (New England), Mike Ditka (Chicago), Joe Gibbs (Washington), John Madden (Oakland), Mike McCarthy (Green Bay), Marty Schottenheimer (Kansas City), Mike Shanahan (Denver) and Don Shula (Miami).

FEWEST TO 100

Mike Tomlin reached 100 regular-season wins in 157 games, the sixth-fewest games to reach 100 career victories among coaches who began their career since 1970:

BEN IN 2017

CONTROLLING THE NORTH

QB Ben Roethlisberger quarterbacked the Steelers to a 12-3 record, including a 5-0 mark vs. AFC North foes, in his 15 games played and started during the 2017 regular season.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to record three 500-passing yard games in a career with a 506-yard performance in Week 14's AFC North Division clinching win against Baltimore at Heinz Field (39-38). He set single-game team records for pass completions (44) and pass attempts (66).

Roethlisberger earned his 125th regular-season victory as a starter in the 26-9 win against Minnesota in Week Two. He completed 23-of-35 passing for 243 yards with two touchdowns for a passer rating of 104.8 in the win.

In Week Five, Roethlisberger's 312 passing yards marked the 50th 300-yard game of his regular-season career to become the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 300 yards in 50 regular-season games and the ninth to do so with one team.

Below is a look at where Roethlisberger ranked in the NFL in 2017:

- Multi-Touchdown Passing Games: 10 (T-2nd)
- Passes for First Downs: 207 (4th)

9,000 MILESTONE

WR Antonio Brown hit the 9,000 receiving yard milestone in Week Six of 2017 at Kansas City in his 107th regular-season game - the fewest games to the milestone in Steelers history (Hines Ward, 159) and tying Randy Moss for the fourth-fewest games to the milestone in NFL history.

WR Martavis Bryant posted game-highs in receiving yards (91) and scrimmage yards (98) in the team's Week Two home opener win against the Minnesota Vikings in 2017, and caught the 15th touchdown reception of his NFL career on a 27-yard completion from QB Ben Roethlisberger in the first quarter. He added his second touchdown catch of the season in Week 12 of 2017 vs. Green Bay on Sunday Night Football, a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger. He caught four passes for 59 yards, including his third touchdown catch of the season on a 4-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger in the second quarter of Week 15's game vs. New England, increasing career touchdown total to 18 (17 receiving / 1 rushing).

Since entering the NFL in 2014, Bryant has caught 126 passes for 1,917 yards to give him a 15.2 yards per catch average.

JUJU ON THAT BEAT

Rookie WR JuJu Smith-Schuster led the 2017 NFL rookie class in receiving yards (917), touchdown catches (7) and receptions of 40-plus yards (6) in his 14-game season with seven starts.

3.	Alvin Kamara, NO	81-826	5
4.	Keelan Cole, JAC	42-748	3
5.	Evan Engram, NYG	64-722	6

Smith-Schuster ended his regular-season rookie year becoming the first rookie in Steelers history to record a kickoff return for a touchdown (96 yards) and a touchdown catch (20 yards) in the same game in Week 17 vs. Cleveland. His 265 combined yards (143 receiving + 122 kickoff return) were the second-most by a rookie in Steelers history (273, Charles Johnson, Dec. 24, 1994 at San Diego).

He totaled a single-game career highs in receiving yards (193), including a 97-yard touchdown catch-and-run from QB Ben Roethlisberger in the team's Week Eight 20-15 win at Detroit. The 97-yard connection is the longest pass play in team history and ties as the longest offensive play in franchise annals. His 193 receiving yards marked the second-most by a Steelers rookie in a single-game, behind Jimmy Orr's 205 on Dec. 13, 1958.

In Week 15 vs. New England, the rookie wide receiver posted the second 100-yard game of 2017, leading the team with 114 yards on a team-best six catches. His 69-yard catch-and-run is the second longest reception of his NFL career.

His five touchdown catches are the most in NFL history by a player before his 21st birthday (turned 21 on Nov. 22).

JUJU ON THE CHARTS

WR JuJu Smith-Schuster re-wrote the Steelers' rookie receiving yards list by tallying the most in team history with 917 in 2017. He became the second rookie in team history with at least 50 receptions and tied for the third-most touchdown catches by a rookie:

RINGING THE BELL

RB Le'Veon Bell finished the 2017 regular season third among all NFL players in rushing yards (1,291) and second in yards from scrimmage (1,946). He rushed for at least 100 yards in four games, while adding at least 100 scrimmage yards in nine.

Bell led all players with a game high 186 yards from scrimmage (144 rushing yards on 35 carries / 42 receiving yards on four catches) and scored two rushing touchdowns in the team's 26-9 Week Four win at Baltimore.

The Michigan State product tallied 179 rushing yards - tying as the tenth-most in a regular-season game in Steelers history - and the fourth-most in his NFL career in the team's Week Six win at Kansas City.

Bell led all players in rushing yards (134 on 35 carries) and yards from scrimmage (192: 134 rushing / 58 receiving) in Week Seven's 29-14 win vs. Cincinnati at Heinz Field.

On Sunday Night Football in Week 14 against Baltimore, Bell totaled 125 yards from scrimmage (48 rushing / 77 receiving), scoring three touchdowns (two rushing / one receiving) to mark his third game with at least three touchdowns, tying Jerome Bettis and Antonio Brown for the most such games in team history. It is his eighth regular-season game of his NFL career with multiple touchdowns.

Below is a look at where Bell finished in the NFL in 2017:

- Rushes for First Downs: 74 (1st)

3,000 AND 1,500

RB Le'Veon Bell became the third player in Steelers history with at least 3,000 rushing and 1,500 receiving yards in Week Six at Miami in 2016, joining Franco Harris and Merrill Hoge.

Bell reached the 3,000 rushing and 1,500 receiving yard mark in his 38th career regular-season game, surpassing Edgerrin James (42 games) for the fewest games in NFL history to reach the milestone.

RB Le'Veon Bell eclipsed 200 rushing yards for the second time in his NFL regular-season career in Week 14 at Buffalo in 2016, racking up a franchise record 236 yards. It marked his second 200-rushing yard performance (204: Nov. 17, 2014) to tie him with Willie Parker for the most 200-rushing yard games in team history.

Bell has eclipsed 200 yards from scrimmage five times in his career, most recently in Week 14 of 2016 at Buffalo.

His five 200-yard scrimmage games are the most in Steelers history, as he broke a tie with Willie Parker (three), and are the most in the NFL since he entered the League in 2013.

UNDER THE MONDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

RB Le'Veon Bell has set an NFL record for the most yards from scrimmage in a player's first four Monday Night Football games with 676 after his first four (Week Seven of 2014 vs. Houston, Week 11 of 2014 at Tennessee, Week Five of 2015 at San Diego and Week 13 at Cincinnati of 2017):

THE OUTLAW JESSE JAMES

TE Jesse James' 2017 regular season totals include single-season career highs in receptions (43) and receiving yards (372) yards with three touchdown catches to match his single-season best (2016).

James caught six passes for 41 yards with two touchdown catches in the Steelers Week One 21-18 win at Cleveland. It was the first career multi-touchdown game of his NFL career – and marked the 10th such game by a Steelers tight end since 1960 and the first since 2012 (Heath Miller, Sept. 23, 2012 at Oakland).

He hauled in two passes for 42 yards, including a career-long reception of 32 yards from QB Ben Roethlisberger in the second quarter of the team's Week Eight 20-15 win at Detroit.

In Week 11 vs. Tennessee, James caught five passes for 21 yards, including a one-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger in the fourth quarter, matching a single-season career high of three touchdown receptions (2016).

James set single-game career highs in receptions (10) and receiving yards (97) in Week 14's 39-38 win vs. Baltimore on Sunday Night Football in 2017.

HEYWARD ON THE END

DE Cameron Heyward recorded a career and team-best 12.0 sacks in 2017 - the second-most by a Steeler defensive lineman in a single-season the statistic became official in 1982:

SEEING DOUBLE

DE Cameron Heyward recorded 2.0 sacks in four separate games during the 2017 regular season.

Since entering the NFL in 2011, Heyward has recorded six multi-sack games during the regular-season in which the Steelers are 6-0.

WILLIAMS ON THE 'D'

LB Vince Williams set a single-season career high and finished second on the team with 8.0 sacks during the 2017 regular season, surpassing his previous mark of 2.0 in 2016, and ranked third on the team's defense with a single-season career best 88 tackles (68 solo).

He posted his first career multi-sack game, finishing with 2.0 against the Chiefs in Week Six.

The Florida State product sacked Indianapolis QB Jacoby Brissett in Week 10 for a loss of four yards in the fourth quarter.

Williams brought down Tennessee QB Marcus Mariota for a nine-yard loss in Week 11, increasing his 2017 sack total to 6.0. He finished the game with 7 tackles (6 solo), three quarterback hits, 2 tackles for losses and 1.0 sack.

Williams started each of the team's 16 regular season games in 2017, and established a single-season career high 88 tackles (68 solo), along with a career-best 14 quarterback hits and adding 11 tackles for losses.

DAVIS IN YEAR TWO

S Sean Davis started each of the Steelers' 16 regular-season games in 2017, and finished with a team-best and career high 90 tackles (69 solo), along with a career bests in interceptions (3), passes defended (8) and tackles for losses (7), to go along with 1.0 sack, two quarterback hits and a defensive forced fumble.

Davis recorded at least 8 total tackles in four games, including the first double-digit tackle games of his NFL career with 10 vs. New England in Week 15 and a career high 12 vs. Baltimore in Week 14.

In the Week 17 regular season finale vs. Cleveland, the team's 2016 second-round Draft selection posted his sole sack of the season, and hauled in his third interception of the year.

HILTON MAKING AN IMPACT

CB Mike Hilton joined the Steelers' practice squad in December of 2016, and started four-of-16 games played with Pittsburgh in 2017, recording 54 tackles (42 solo), 4.0 sacks, two interceptions, eight quarterback hits and 10 tackles for losses and six passes defended.

Hilton set a single-game career high with 3.0 sacks and added 6 tackles (all solo) in Week 16 at Houston. He became the third Steelers defensive back with 3.0 sacks in a game since the statistic became official in 1982, joining Troy Polamalu (Sept. 18, 2005 at Houston) and Carnell Lake (Nov. 30, 1997 at Arizona). He tallied the first sack and interception of his NFL career in the Steelers' 26-9 win at Baltimore in Week Four. His sack, a six-yard takedown of Baltimore QB Joe Flacco came in the third quarter, and his interception off of Flacco in the fourth quarter.

In Week 11 vs. Tennessee, Hilton picked off QB Marcus Mariota on the Titans' first offensive possession of the game - marking the Steelers' first of four interceptions in the team's 40-17 win.

BIG PLAY GAY

In Week Seven vs. Cincinnati of 2017, CB William Gay hauled in an interception, marking the 13th of his NFL career and 11th as a Steeler, picking off Cincinnati QB Andy Dalton.

Gay picked off Cincinnati QB AJ McCarron and returned the ball 23 yards for a touchdown in Week 14's game of 2015. It marked Gay's fifth consecutive interception return for a touchdown, setting a new NFL record, and his fifth pick six with the Steelers, tying Rod Woodson for the most in team history:

With his fifth interception returned for a touchdown, Gay became the 10th active NFL defender with five pick sixes and increased his career total to 10 interceptions, eight as a Steeler.

HADEN JOINS THE STEELERS

The Steelers signed CB Joe Haden to a three-year contract on Aug. 30.

Haden, a two-time Pro Bowl selection, made his Steelers debut, appearing in the 91st game of his NFL regular-season career and posted six tackles and 1.0 sack, on Kickoff Weekend at the Cleveland Browns. He brought down Cleveland QB DeShone Kizer for a sack of three yards to end the first half – his first sack with the Steelers – third of his NFL career – and first since Sept. 11, 2011 (with Cleveland). In Week Seven vs. Cincinnati, Haden hauled in the 20th interception of his NFL career and his first as a Steeler, picking off Cincinnati QB Andy Dalton in the third quarter.

Since entering the NFL in 2010, Haden has recorded 108 passes defended - the third-most among all NFL defenders:

The University of Florida product was a first-round (seventh overall) draft selection of the Browns in 2010. He has started 92-of-101 games played in the NFL and his career numbers include 389 tackles (316 solo), 20 interceptions, 108 passes defended, four forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 3.0 sacks.

MITCHELL IN THE BACKFIELD

S Mike Mitchell tallied 53 tackles (35 solo) in the 2017 regular season, to go along with two passes defended, one tackle for loss, a quarterback hit and a defensive fumble recovery in 13 games played, all starts.

Mitchell led Pittsburgh's secondary with 11 tackles, all solo, in Week Three at Chicago, along with adding one pass defended.

WATT IN ROOKIE YEAR

LB T.J. Watt - the Steelers' first round selection the 2017 NFL Draft - recorded 52 tackles (39 solo), 7.0 sacks, 10 tackles for losses, 12 quarterback hits, eight passes defended, an interception, a forced fumble and blocked a field goal attempt in 15 games played, all starts, in his 2017 rookie season.

Watt's 7.0 sacks topped the 2017 NFL rookie linebacker class - tied for second among all NFL rookies - and are the second-most by a rookie in Steelers history:

Watt started his regular-season career in historical fashion. He became the first player to record at least 2.0 sacks and an interception in an NFL debut on Kickoff Weekend since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. He finished Week 1's 21-18 win at Cleveland with 6 tackles (5 solo), 2.0 sacks, 2 tackles for losses, one quarterback hit and one interception.

With his 2.0 sack and one interception performance, Watt became:

- Third player in NFL history to record 2.0 sacks and an interception in an NFL debut, joining Charles Glaze (Oct. 4, 1987) and Tommy Haynes (Oct. 4, 1987).
- First Steeler with at least 2.0 sacks in their NFL debut since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 (previous mark, 1.5, Kenny Davidson, Sept. 9, 1990 at Cleveland).
- First Steeler with at least 2.0 sacks and an interception in the same game since 2010 (LaMarr Woodley, Dec. 12 vs. Cincinnati).

50-5-5-1 - ONLY ONE

LB T.J. Watt was the only NFL linebacker to have finished the 2017 regular season with at least 50 tackles (52), 5.0 sacks (7.0), 5 passes defended (8) and one interception (1).

BOS-DOES-WELL in 2017

K Chris Boswell set Steelers single-season franchise records for field goals made (35) and total points (142) during the 2017 regular season.

Boswell converted four game-winning field goal attempts - kicks within one minute of regulation during the 2017 regular season - at Indianapolis and vs. Green Bay/Baltimore/New England at Heinz Field.

Below is a look at where Boswell ranked in the NFL in 2017:

- Total Points: 142 (T-4th)
- Field Goals Made: 35 (T-5th)
- Field Goal Percent: 92.1 (6th)
- Boswell converted five field goals, tying as the fourth-most in a single game in franchise history and the second-most in his NFL career in Week Seven's win vs. Cincinnati.
- In Week 10, Boswell converted a 33-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Steelers to a 20-17 win at Indianapolis.
- Boswell made each of his four field goal attempts - vs. Tennessee in Week 11.
- Boswell converted his sole field goal attempt in Week 12 as time expired on a game-winning and career-long 53 yard try - marking the longest field goal by a Steeler in Heinz Field history, tying as the longest kick by an NFL player at the venue and tying as the fourth-longest field goal in franchise record books.
- He made each of his three field goal attempts in Week 13 at Cincinnati, improving to 20-of-20 on field goal attempts in his regular-season career against Cincinnati and 24-of-24 including the postseason.
- Boswell made each of his four field goal attempts in the team's 39-38 Week 14 win vs. Baltimore, establishing a new single-season career high for field goals made with 32 (29 in 2015). He converted a 46-yard game-winning field goal - the fifth game-winning kick in his regular-season career and fourth of 2017 (within one minute of regulation or overtime).
- In Week 15 vs. New England, Boswell converted his sole field goal attempt of the game - a 51-yard field goal in the second quarter - the sixth successful field goal of at least 50 yards in his NFL career - all occurring at Heinz Field.

BOS FROM 50-PLUS

K Chris Boswell converted four field goals from 50 yards or further in 2017 - the most by a Steelers kicker in a single-season.

Boswell has made six-of-eight field goal attempts in his NFL career from 50 yards or further.

His six field goals made from 50-plus yards are the third-most in Steelers history (Gary Anderson and Jeff Reed: eight).

WIZARD OF BOZ

Since joining the Steelers in 2015, Boswell is 85-of-95 overall on field goal attempts (89.5%), including 29-of-34 (85.3%) between 40-49 yards.

His 89.5 field goal percent ranks first in Steelers history among kickers with at least 30 field goal attempts:

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – A pair of Pittsburgh's 2017 rookie draft class members highlighted the team's first preseason game of the season. Rookie QB Joshua Dobbs and OLB T.J. Watt made their NFL debuts and each helped their respective units to lead the team to a 20-12 win at the New York Giants.

The Giants opened up the scoreboard with field goals from Aldrick Rosas and Mike Nugent in the opening two quarters before Steelers' K Chris Boswell connected on a 48-yard field goal to make the score 6-3 in the second quarter.

Pittsburgh's special teams unit sparked the team prior to halftime. CB Mike Hilton recovered a muffed punt of the Giants at their 28-yard line. On the team's first play of the drive, Dobbs connected with WR Cobi Hamilton for a 28-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 10-9 lead heading into halftime.

Nugent and Boswell traded field goals in the third stanza and Steelers RB Terrell Watson scampered 15 yards to the end zone in the fourth quarter to produce the game's final points.

Dobbs, earning the starting nod at quarterback, completed 8-of-15 passes for 100 yards with a touchdown, while Watt recorded 2.0 quarterback sacks and five total tackles.

Hamilton led all receivers with a game-high 72 receiving yards on two catches as Watson finished with 44 rushing yards on 10 carries. Steelers LB Arthur Moats tallied 3.0 quarterback sacks as the defense finished with a total of seven quarterback takedowns in the contest.

GAME #1

PITTSBURGH 21, CLEVELAND 18
SEPT. 10, 2017
FIRSTENERGY STADIUM (67,431)

CLEVELAND, Ohio – The Steelers were victorious in the team's 2017 regular-season opener, defeating the Cleveland Browns, 21-18.

Pittsburgh drew first blood when Steelers LB Tyler Matakevich blocked a Cleveland punt, which was recovered in the end zone by Steelers LB Anthony Chickillo for a touchdown early in the first quarter. Cleveland responded with a 68-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown run from QB DeShone Kizer.

Beginning on their own nine yard-line, Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with WR Antonio Brown for a 50-yard gain to aide the Steelers on a 91-yard drive that resulted in a Roethlisberger touchdown pass to TE Jesse James, giving the Steelers an advantage of 14-7 just before halftime.

With a short field, Cleveland began driving in the third quarter, but an eight-yard sack from rookie LB T.J. Watt forced the Browns to settle for a field goal from K Zane Gonzalez.

The Steelers increased their lead to 21-10 following a two-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to James, giving James his first career multi-touchdown performance.

Cleveland found the end zone one final time when Kizer connected with Corey Coleman on a three-yard touchdown pass and followed up with a successful two-point conversion, but wasn't able to overcome it's deficit as Pittsburgh claimed a 21-18 victory.

Brown led all receivers with 182 receiving yards, including 102 in the first half. Watt finished the game with 2.0 sacks and one interception, becoming the third player in NFL history to do so in his NFL debut, and the first on Kickoff Weekend.

GAME #2

PITTSBURGH 26, MINNESOTA 9
SEPT. 17, 2017
HEINZ FIELD (65,971)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers won their fourth-straight home opener with a 26-9 victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

For the second-straight week, the Steelers were first to score with a 27-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Martavis Bryant.

On Pittsburgh's next drive, Roethlisberger took another shot down the field to Bryant, which this time resulted in a 49-yard defensive pass interference penalty. The Steelers took advantage, as Roethlisberger found rookie WR JuJu Smith-Schuster in the endzone for a four-yard touchdown. The touchdown reception marked the first catch of Smith-Schuster's NFL career.

Minnesota got on the board halfway through the second quarter with a 42-yard field goal from K Kai Forbath.

The Steelers extended their lead to 17-3 with a 46-yard field goal from Chris Boswell early in the third quarter. The Vikings responded with a six-play, 82-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by FB C.J. Ham. On the ensuing drive, Roethlisberger completed a deep pass to Bryant for 51 yards, which set up a 29-yard Boswell field goal.

The Steelers defense held the Vikings scoreless in the fourth quarter, while two more field goals from Boswell sealed the Steelers' victory.

Bryant led all receivers with 91 receiving yards and all players with 98 scrimmage yards, while LB Ryan Shazier, DB Mike Hilton and S Sean Davis tied for the team lead with eight tackles each.

GAME #3

CHICAGO 23, PITTSBURGH 17 OT
SEPT. 24, 2017
SOLDIER FIELD (62,172)

CHICAGO, Ill. – The Steelers suffered their first loss of the regular season, falling to the Chicago Bears in overtime, 23-17, at Soldier Field.

Trailing by seven in the second quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown in the end zone for his first touchdown reception of 2017. On the ensuing drive, Bears QB Mike Glennon responded with a touchdown of his own, taking a 14-7 lead.

At the end of the first half, Bears CB Sherrick McManis blocked a Steelers field goal that was recovered by Chicago and returned 70 yards. Near the goal line the ball carrier was stripped by TE Vance McDonald and knocked out of bounds in the end zone. Due to a penalty, the ball was placed at the one-yard-line, and a field goal gave the Bears a 17-7 lead going into halftime.

In the third quarter, Steelers RB Le'Veon Bell narrowed the gap with his first touchdown run of 2017. A Pittsburgh field goal from K Chris Boswell tied the game at 17-17 early in the fourth. The rest of the quarter remained scoreless as time expired, forcing overtime.

Chicago won the coin toss and utilized a four-play 74-yard drive to score a touchdown and end the game, 23-17.

GAME #4

PITTSBURGH 26, BALTIMORE 9
OCT. 1, 2017
M&T STADIUM (71,126)

BALTIMORE, Md. – Sound defense and a strong rushing attack propelled the Steelers to a 26-9 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Stadium.

Pittsburgh held Baltimore scoreless in the half for the third time in regular-season series history, while scoring 19 unanswered points, including an 11-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to rookie WR JuJu Smith-Schuster.

The Ravens got on the board in the third quarter with a 42-yard field goal followed by a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Flacco to WR Mike Wallace.

In the fourth quarter, Baltimore's momentum was put to a stop, as Steelers LB Ryan Shazier and Steelers CB Mike Hilton intercepted Flacco on back-to-back drives.

A one-yard touchdown run from RB Le'Veon Bell, his second of the day, sealed a 26-9 victory for Pittsburgh and moved the Steelers into first place in the AFC North.

Bell led all rushers with 144 rushing yards and all players with 186 scrimmage yards. DE Cameron Heyward finished the game with 2.0 sacks, marking the third multi-sack game of his regular-season career.

GAME #5

JACKSONVILLE 30, PITTSBURGH 9

OCT. 8, 2017

HEINZ FIELD (66,237)

PITTSBURGH – The Jaguars defense utilized a pair of pick-6s to propell Jacksonville to a 30-9 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field.

K Chris Boswell gave Pittsburgh an early 3-0 lead , but Jacksonville RB Leonard Fournette found the end zone on a 2-yard run in the second quarter, shifting the scoreboard to 7-3.

The Steelers recaptured the lead with two more Boswell field goals.

Trailing 9-7, Jacksonville LB Telvin Smith picked off QB Ben Roethlisberger and returned it 28-yards for a touchdown. The extra point failed. On the ensuing drive, Jaguars S Barry Church stepped in front of a Roethlisberger pass intended for WR Antonio Brown and returned it to the end zone, registering the Jaguars' second pick-6 and giving Jacksonville a 20-9 lead over Pittsburgh.

A Jacksonville field goal followed by a second touchdown from Fournette sealed the Jaguars victory.

Roethlisberger completed 33-of-55 passes for 312 yards and five interceptions, marking the 50th 300-yard passing performance of his regular-season career. Brown caught 10 passes for 157 yards, marking his third game of the season with at least 10 catches and 100 receiving yards.

PITTSBURGH 19, KANSAS CITY 13

OCT. 15, 2017

ARROWHEAD STADIUM (76,994)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – RB Le'Veon Bell rushed for 179 yards and a touchdown as the Steelers secured a 19-13 victory over the previously undefeated Kansas City Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Steelers defense only allowed six yards of total offense and one first down in the first half, as Pittsburgh jumped out to a 12-3 lead.

Kansas City narrowed the gap early in the fourth quarter when QB Alex Smith connected with WR De'Anthony Thomas for a 57-yard touchdown.

The Steelers responded on the following drive with a 51-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown, extending their lead to 19-10.

Kansas City K Harrison Butker put three more points on the scoreboard for the Chiefs, but on Kansas City's final drive of the game, an 8-yard sack on third-down by LB James Harrison sealed a 19-13 victory for Pittsburgh.

LB Vince Williams produced the first multi-sack game of his career, bringing down Smith twice. Harrison's game-ending sack brought his career total to 80.5, the most by a Steeler and sixth-most among active players since the statistic became official in 1982.

Brown finished the game with eight receptions for 155 yards. Bell's 179 rushing yards tied as the tenth-most in a single-game in Steelers history and the fourth-most in his NFL regular-season career.

GAME #7

PITTSBURGH 29, CINCINNATI 14

OCT. 22, 2017

HEINZ FIELD (65,363)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers defense allowed less than 200 yards of total offense in Pittsburgh's 29-14 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Heinz Field.

RB Le'Veon Bell amassed 55 scrimmage yards (32 rushing / 23 receiving) in the first quarter, but it was WR Antonio Brown who got the Steelers on the board with a 7-yard touchdown reception from QB Ben Roethlisberger on Pittsburgh's opening drive.

In the second quarter, Roethlisberger found WR JuJu Smith-Schuster in the end zone for a 31-yard touchdown.

With the score tied at 14-14, a pair of field goals from K Chris Boswell on back-to-back possessions gave Pittsburgh a 20-14 edge going into halftime.

When play resumed, Pittsburgh's defense continued to stifle the Bengal's attack. CB Joe Haden and CB William Gay picked off Cincinnati QB Andy Dalton on back-to-back Bengals drives, while Boswell knocked down two more field goals from 41- and 49-yards out.

Four sacks from Pittsburgh's defense in the fourth quarter sealed the Steelers victory, improving their record to 5-2. Bell finished with 192 scrimmage yards (134 rushing / 58 receiving), eclipsing 150 yards for the second-straight week. Boswell went 5-for-5 on field goals and added two extra points.

GAME #8

PITTSBURGH 20, DETROIT 15

OCT. 29, 2017

HEINZ FIELD (64,983)

DETROIT, Mich. – Rookie WR JuJu Smith-Schuster hauled in a pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger resulting in a 97-yard touchdown - the longest pass play in Steelers history - in Pittsburgh's 20-15 victory over the Detroit Lions at Ford Field.

For the fifth week in a row, the Steelers drew first blood with a 34-yard field goal from K Chris Boswell. Back-to-back field goals from Detroit gave the Lions a three-point lead in the second quarter. Pittsburgh regained the advantage after a five-yard touchdown run by RB Le'Veon Bell, but six more points from Detroit K Matt Prater put the Lions up 12-10 going into halftime.

In the third quarter, Boswell added three more points with a 38-yard field goal, before Smith-Schuster's 97-yard touchdown gave the Steelers a 20-12 lead. Three goal-line stands by the Pittsburgh defense prevented the Lions from finding the end zone in the second half and sealed the Steelers' victory.

GAME #9

PITTSBURGH 20, INDIANAPOLIS 17

NOV. 12, 2017

LUCAS OIL STADIUM (66,146)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – After a rocky start, the Pittsburgh Steelers racked up 17 straight points in the second half on their way to a 20-17 victory over the Indianapolis Colt at Lucas Oil Stadium.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Colts QB Jacoby Brissett connected with WR Donte Moncrief for a 60-yard touchdown. On its next drive, Indianapolis K Adam Vinatieri added three more points, extending the Colts lead to 10-0.

Steelers K Chris Boswell responded with three points of his own on a 41-yard field goal just before the end of the first half.

After a Colts touchdown on the opening drive of the second half, Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger orchestrated an eight-play 78-yard drive that culminated in a 7-yard touchdown pass to rookie WR JuJu Smith-Schuster. The extra point was blocked by Indianapolis and nearly returned by Colts S Matthias Farley, who was tackled within 10 yards of the Colts end zone by TE Jesse James.

Early in the fourth quarter, LB Ryan Shazier picked off Brissett, giving the Steelers a short field which allowed Roethlisberger to find TE Vance McDonald in the end zone for a 7-yard touchdown. Roethlisberger connected with WR Martavis Bryant on the 2-point conversion attempt, the game up at 17-17.

On the final play of regulation, Boswell converted a 33-yard game-winning field goal as time expired - the second game-winning field goal of his regular-season career.

GAME #10

PITTSBURGH 40, TENNESSEE 17

NOV. 16, 2017

HEINZ FIELD (60,703)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger threw four touchdown passes - three to WR Antonio Brown - in the Steelers' 40-17 victory over the Tennessee Titans at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh scored on its opening drive for the fifth time this season with a 41-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to Brown. The Steelers put up three more points on their following possession with a 41-yard field goal from K Chris Boswell after CB Mike Hilton intercepted Titans QB Marcus Mariota, giving Pittsburgh a short field.

Tennessee struck back with a 7-yard touchdown run from Mariota, tightening the score at 10-7. The Titans looked to tie things up with a 48-yard field goal attempt from K Ryan Succop, but the kick was blocked by Pittsburgh LB T.J. Watt. - the first blocked field goal by the Steelers since Oct. 16, 2016 at Miami.

Boswell helped the Steelers extend their lead to 16-7 before the end of the half, with two more field goals from 28 and 50 yards out. His 50-yard field goal was the third field goal of at least 50 yards in his NFL career, and first of 2017.

Mariota tightened the score to 16-14 early in the second half with a deep pass to WR Rishard Matthews that resulted in a 75-yard touchdown.

Roethlisberger responded with his second touchdown pass to Brown. Another Titans field goal from Succop moved the score to 23-17 before the end of the quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Steelers racked up 17 unanswered points, including touchdown passes from Roethlisberger to TE Jesse James and Brown, as well as a fourth field goal by Boswell for a 40-17 victory.

Despite two starters sitting out with injuries, the Steelers' secondary picked off Mariota four times with Hilton, CB Coty Sensabaugh, S Robert Golden and S Sean Davis all recording interceptions. The Pittsburgh defense also recorded five sacks including 2.0 from DE Cameron Heyward, marking the fourth multi-sack game of his NFL career and his second of 2017.

GAME #11
PITTSBURGH 31, GREEN BAY 28
NOV. 26, 2017
HEINZ FIELD (62,147)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers sealed a 31-28 victory over Green Bay with a 53-yard field goal from K Chris Boswell - a career long and the longest field goal from a Steeler in Heinz Field history.

Pittsburgh found the end zone on its opening possession for the second week in a row when QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with TE Xavier Grimble on a 1-yard touchdown pass. After an unsuccessful extra point attempt, the Packers pulled ahead 14-6 with a pair of touchdown passes from Green Bay QB Brett Hundley on back-to-back Packers' drives.

Pittsburgh tied things up with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to WR Martavis Bryant, followed by a successful two-point conversion on a pass from Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown. But the Packers pulled ahead again on the opening drive of the second half when Green Bay WR Davante Adams broke free after a pass from Hundley, resulting in a 55-yard touchdown.

An interception from Roethlisberger gave Green Bay an opportunity to increase its lead, but a pair of sacks on Hundley by Steelers DEs L.T. Walton and Cameron Heyward gave Pittsburgh the ball back. The Steelers capitalized on the ensuing drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to Brown.

A second sack from Heyward on third down forced the Packers to go three-and-out on their next drive, setting up Pittsburgh to take it's first lead since the first quarter with a touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to Brown - Roethlisberger's fourth touchdown pass and Brown's second touchdown catch of the night.

Once again, the Packers responded with a touchdown of their own, tying the game at 28 with 2:02 remaining in the fourth quarter. Pittsburgh was forced to punt on the following drive, but the Steelers defense kept the Packers at bay with the help of a 6-yard sack on Hundley by rookie LB T.J. Watt, which allowed the offense to get the ball back with 0:17 remaining in regulation.

A diving catch by Brown on a 23-yard pass from Roethlisberger along the Steelers' sideline set up Boswell's game-winning 53-yard field goal.

Brown finished the game with 10 catches for 169 yards, while RB Le'Veon Bell amassed 183 yards from scrimmage and set a Steelers record with 12 catches - the most by a running back in a single game in franchise history.

GAME #12
PITTSBURGH 23, CINCINNATI 20
DEC. 4, 2017
PAUL BROWN STADIUM (56,029)

CINCINNATI, Ohio – The Steelers overcame a 17-0 deficit and a devastating injury to LB Ryan Shazier to edge out the Bengal 23-20 at Paul Brown Stadium.

On just the second drive of the game, Shazier was taken to the hospital with a back injury after attempting to tackle Bengals WR Josh Malone.

Pittsburgh struggled to gain momentum in the first half following the injury as Cincinnati pulled ahead 17-0. K Chris Boswell got the Steelers on the board with a 3-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter.

When play resumed after halftime, the Steelers defense forced Cincinnati to go three-and-out. The Steelers scored their first touchdown of the game on the following drive when QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with RB Le'Veon Bell who sped past defenders on the sideline for a 35-yard touchdown.

A Cincinnati field goal left the Steelers trailing 20-10 through three quarters. After a second field goal from Boswell, Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown in the end zone to tied the game at 20.

Pittsburgh sealed its victory with a 38-yard field goal from Boswell on the final play of the game - his third game-winner of the 2017 season.

The Steelers defense forced the Bengals to go three-and out three times in the fourth quarter.

Roethlisberger reached 50,000 passing yards in his regular season career, becoming just the eighth quarterback in NFL history to do so.

Bell registered 182 scrimmage yards, eclipsing the 150-yard mark for the fifth time in 2017.

GAME #13
PITTSBURGH 39, BALTIMORE 38
DEC. 10, 2017
HEINZ FIELD (60,069)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger completed 44-of-66 passes for 506 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in the Steelers 39-38 divisional win over the Baltimore Ravens at Heinz Field, to clinch the AFC North crown.

Pittsburgh took an early 14-0 lead after back-to-back touchdowns by RB Le'Veon Bell. The Ravens responded with 14 points of their own, but a pair of field goals from K Chris Boswell allowed the Steelers to maintain a 20-14 lead going into halftime.

When play resumed, the Ravens pulled ahead with 17-straight points and held Pittsburgh to a field goal following a 15-play 80-yard drive.

The Steelers recovered in the fourth quarter when Roethlisberger found FB Roosevelt Nix in the end zone on a 1-yard touchdown pass - the first touchdown of Nix's career.

With the Baltimore leading by two, Ravens RB Javorius Allen extended the lead with a 9-yard touchdown run.

Late in the third quarter, the Steelers snapped back with an 11-yard touchdown run from Bell, his third scoring play of the night.

With just 0:42 left to play, a 46-yard field goal from Boswell pushed the Steelers past the Ravens and sealed a 39-38 victory. The kick was Boswell's fourth game-winner of 2017, within one minute of regulation.

GAME #14
NEW ENGLAND 27, PITTSBURGH 24
DEC. 17, 2017
HEINZ FIELD (68,574)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers fell to the Patriots 27-24 at Heinz Field after a Pittsburgh touchdown was called back late in the fourth quarter.

New England scored the first points of the game on a 1-yard touchdown run by RB Rex Burkhead. In response, Pittsburgh scored 10-straight points to take the lead, but not before losing WR Antonio Brown to a calf injury.

The Patriots tied the game with a field goal, but the Steelers pulled ahead again with a 4-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Martavis Bryant.

Trailing 10-17 to start the second half, the Patriots found the end zone on a 4-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to WR Brandin Cooks, but a missed extra point allowed Pittsburgh to maintain a one-point advantage.

LB Vince Williams picked off Brady on the following New England drive, giving the Steelers a short field, which allowed for a 3-yard touchdown run by RB Le'Veon Bell.

Pittsburgh held onto its 24-16 advantage until late in the fourth quarter when New England scored 11 points in the final four minutes, taking a 27-24 lead.

With just 0:56 left to play and one timeout remaining, Roethlisberger connected with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 69-yard play that put Pittsburgh on the 10-yard line with 0:34 left to play.

With 0:09 remaining, Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone by Patriots DB Duron Harmon to end the game.

HOUSTON, Texas – The Steelers held the Texans scoreless until the fourth quarter in their 34-6 victory over Houston at NRG Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on back-to-back drives to start the game, taking an early 10-0 lead over Houston.

At the beginning of the second quarter, the Texans utilized an eight-play, 80-yard drive to take the ball down to the Pittsburgh 1-yard line, but failed to capitalize as CB Artie Burns picked off Texans QB T.J. Yates in the end zone on fourth down.

The Steelers collected 10 more points off a 1-yard touchdown run by FB Roosevelt Nix and a field goal from K Chris Boswell, before going into halftime with a 20-0 lead.

In the second half, Pittsburgh continued to roll with a 10-yard touchdown run by RB Le'Veon Bell. The Texans finally got on the scoreboard with a three-yard touchdown pass from Yates to Houston WR DeAndre Hopkins early in the fourth quarter. The two-point conversion attempt failed.

QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for an 18-yard touchdown pass on the following drive, and Pittsburgh maintained a 34-6 lead as time expire.

The Steelers defense tallied seven sacks on the day, including 3.0 from DB Mike Hilton and 2.0 from DE Cameron Heyward.

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers completed a 6-0 sweep of the AFC North and finished the season 13-3, their best regular-season record since 2004 (15-1), with a 28-24 win over the Cleveland Browns at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh took an early lead in the game, with a 29-yard touchdown run on a reverse to WR Darrius Heyward-Bey on the team's opening drive.

The Steelers rolled to 14-0 when QB Landry Jones connected with rookie WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 20-yard touchdown reception.

Cleveland put itself on the scoreboard in the second quarter when Browns RB Duke Johnson Jr. found the end zone with a 2-yard touchdown run.

The Steelers responded with a touchdown run of their own on a 4-yard gain from RB Stevan Ridley.

In the second half, the Browns tied the game at 21 racking up 14-straight points.

Pittsburgh re-gained its lead on a 96-yard kickoff return by Smith-Schuster - the first by a Steeler since 2010.

Cleveland added a field goal, but wasn't able to overcome its deficit, as the Steelers sealing their 13th win of the season.

Smith-Schuster finished the game with 265 combined yards (143 receiving + 122 kickoff return) - second-most by a rookie in Steelers history.

The defense sacked Browns QB DeShone Kizer six times, bringing its total sacks on the season to 56 - the most in a single season in franchise history.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JACKSONVILLE 45, PITTSBURGH 42

JAN. 14, 2018

HEINZ FIELD (64,524)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers were unable to overcome a 21-point deficit in their 45-42 AFC Divisional Playoff loss to the Jacksonville Jaguars at Heinz Field.

Three straight rushing touchdowns gave Jacksonville a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Pittsburgh rallied with a 23-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown, but a Steelers' fumble recovered by Jacksonville and returned for a touchdown on the following Pittsburgh drive allowed the Jaguars to maintain their 21-point lead.

The Steelers responded with 14 straight points off of Roethlisberger touchdown passes, first to WR Martavis Bryant, then to RB Le'Veon Bell.

Each team added seven more points early in the fourth quarter, Jacksonville with a touchdown run from RB Leonard Fournette and Pittsburgh with a second touchdown reception from Brown.

With less than five minutes remaining, Jaguars QB Blake Bortles connected with FB Tommy Bohanon on a 14-yard touchdown pass. The Steelers cut their deficit back to seven with an 8-yard touchdown run by Bell.

With just 1:45 remaining, Jacksonville K Josh Lambo converted a 45-yard field goal that increased the score to 45-35.

Roethlisberger recorded his fifth touchdown pass of the day, finding WR JuJu Smith-Schuster in the end zone for a 4-yard score, but the Steelers came up short as time expired.

31 MIKE HILTON

Was the only defensive back to produce 3.0 sacks in a single game in 2017 – only one other defensive back produced a multi-sack game this season (Eddie Pleasant, 11/5/17 vs. Indianapolis).

- 9/10 at Cleveland: Made his NFL debut.
- 9/17 vs. Minnesota: Made the first start of his NFL career and tied for the team lead in tackles with 8 (5 solo) and a quarterback hit.
- 10/1 at Baltimore: Tallied the first sack and interception of his NFL career, a six-yard takedown of Baltimore QB Joe Flacco, in the third quarter, and picked off Flacco in the fourth quarter.
- 11/16 vs. Tennessee: Picked off Tennessee QB Marcus Mariota on the Titans' first offensive possession of the game – the second interception of his NFL career and of the season.
- 12/25 at Houston: Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week...set a single-game career high with 3.0 sacks and added 6 tackles (all solo)...his first sack of Houston QB T.J. Yates, a 6-yard loss, forced a three-and-out on the Texans' first possession of the game...is the third Steelers defensive back with 3.0 sacks in a game since the statistic became official in 1982, joining Troy Polamalu (Sept. 18, 2005 at Houston) and Carnell Lake (Nov. 30, 1997 at Arizona).

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1947 NFL Divisional Game

Philadelphia 21, Pittsburgh 0
December 21, 1947

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

1962 Playoff Bowl

Detroit 17, Pittsburgh 10
January 6, 1963

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7
December 23, 1972
(50,350)

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1972 AFC Championship Miami 21, Pittsburgh 17 December 31, 1972 (50,350)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

1973 AFC Wild Card Game Oakland 33, Pittsburgh 14 December 22, 1973 (51,110)

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

A fourth George Blanda field goal preceded Bradshaw's second touchdown pass—a 26-yarder to Frank Lewis.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

1974 AFC Championship
Pittsburgh 24, Oakland 13
December 29, 1974

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

1975 AFC Divisional Playoff Pittsburgh 28, Baltimore 10 December 27, 1975 (49,053)

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gutsy two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Then Andy Russell scored on a record 93-yard fumble return following a Ham sacking of Jones who had returned at the start of the final quarter.

1975 AFC Championship Pittsburgh 16, Oakland 10 January 4, 1976 (49,103)

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds.

Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

1976 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 40, Baltimore 14
December 19, 1976
(60,020)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

1976 AFC Championship
Oakland 24, Pittsburgh 7
December 26, 1976
(53,739)

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff Denver 34, Pittsburgh 21 December 24, 1977 (75,011)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were outgained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

1978 AFC Divisional Playoff Pittsburgh 33, Denver 10 December 30, 1978 (48,921)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1978 AFC Championship
Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5
January 7, 1979
(49,417)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

1979 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14
December 30, 1979
(50,214)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1979 AFC Championship
 Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13

 (50,475)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1982 AFC Wild Card Game
 San Diego 31, Pittsburgh 28
 January 9, 1983
 (53,546)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

Los Angeles 38, Pittsburgh 10

January 1, 1984

(90,334)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 24, Denver 17

December 30, 1984

(74,981)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutty two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

1984 AFC Championship

Miami 45, Pittsburgh 28

January 6, 1985

(76,029)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT)

December 31, 1989

(58,306)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merrill Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

1989 Divisional Playoff

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 23

January 7, 1990

(75,868)

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merrill Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive with running back Melvin Bratton scoring the first of his two one-yard touchdown runs.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

1992 AFC Divisional Playoff

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3

January 9, 1993

(60,407)

PITTSBURGH — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Frerotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

1993 Wild Card Game Kansas City 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT) January 8, 1994 (74,515)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

From there, on fourth-and-goal, Joe Montana found Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone with his only touchdown pass.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC Divisional Playoff Pittsburgh 29, Cleveland 9 January 7, 1995 (58,185)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh scored on its first three possessions on drives of 65, 53 and 74 yards en route to a 29-9 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Browns made it 17-3 with a 22-yard Matt Stover field goal. Pittsburgh got one more opportunity when Tim McKyer intercepted Vinny Testaverde on the Cleveland 27 yard-line and returned it to the six, with 46 seconds remaining in the half. Three plays later, Pittsburgh took a 24-3 halftime lead when Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a nine-yard grab.

The Steelers added a 40-yard Anderson field goal in the third quarter and a safety by Carnell Lake in the fourth quarter.

Cleveland drove into Pittsburgh territory just three times in 12 possessions. The Steelers outgained Cleveland 424 yards to 186, 23 first downs to 10 and had 42:27 to 17:33 advantage in time of possession.

The victory was Pittsburgh's first playoff win in five years.

 (61,545)

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKeyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC Divisional Playoff
 Pittsburgh 40, Buffalo 21
 January 6, 1996
 (59,072)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard touchdown strike with 8:46 remaining in the game.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at his own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

FOXBORO, Mass. — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

1997 AFC Divisional Playoff
 Pittsburgh 7, New England 6
 January 3, 1998
 (61,228)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

New England was limited to a pair of short field goals by Adam Vinatieri and fell two games short of a return to the Super Bowl.

Linebacker Jason Gildon recovered a pair of fumbles for the Steelers. The second recovery came after backup left end Mike Vrabel stripped Bledsoe of the ball, and Gildon pounced on it at the Pittsburgh 34 with 1:44 to play.

The Patriots got back the ball in the final seconds before linebacker Levon Kirkland intercepted a long pass by Bledsoe to seal the win.

1997 AFC Championship Denver 24, Pittsburgh 21 January 11, 1998 (61,382)

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff Pittsburgh 27, Baltimore 10 January 20, 2002 (63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

2001 AFC Championship Game New England 24, Pittsburgh 17 January 27, 2002 (64,704)

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

2002 AFC Wild Card Game Pittsburgh 36, Cleveland 33 January 5, 2003 (63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by K Phil Dawson and a 15-yard touchdown pass.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

2002 AFC Divisional Playoff
Tennessee 34, Pittsburgh 31 (OT)
January 11, 2003
(68,809)

NASHVILLE — The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

2004 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 20, New York Jets 17 (OT)
January 15, 2005
(64,917)

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

The Jets held the lead until Roethlisberger completed a four-yard shovel pass to WR Hines Ward, tying the game at 17-17, with six minutes left in regulation.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

2004 AFC Championship Game New England 41, Pittsburgh 27 January 23, 2005 (65,242)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers dreams of advancing to the Super Bowl ended as they lost a disappointing 41-27 loss to New England in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Three first-half Steelers' turnovers were converted into 17 New England points as the Patriots jumped out to a 24-3 lead at halftime, despite controlling the ball for only 10:19.

Steelers rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger suffered his first career loss as a starter. His first pass of the game was intercepted by New England, setting up a 48-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal.

New England capitalized on its next possession when QB Tom Brady hit WR Deion Branch for a 60-yard touchdown score.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 10-3 on a 43-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. The Patriots extended their lead to 17-3 on a nine-yard TD pass to WR David Givens.

The Steelers were ready to answer on their next drive, moving the ball to the New England 19. But Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by S Rodney Harrison and returned 87 yards for a touchdown.

Steelers RB Jerome Bettis scored on a five-yard touchdown run to bring Pittsburgh within 24-10 in the third. On the next drive, though, the Patriots increased the lead to 31-10 on a 25-yard touchdown run by Corey Dillon.

A 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward and a 20-yard field goal by Jeff Reed trimmed the lead to 31-17.

Vinatieri's 31-yard field goal and a 23-yard touchdown pass to Branch extended the Patriots lead to 41-20.

Pittsburgh scored its final touchdown on a seven-yard pass to Burress, but New England ran out the clock for the victory.

2005 AFC Wild Card Game Pittsburgh 31, Cincinnati 17 January 8, 2006 (65,870)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

2005 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 21, Indianapolis 18
Jan. 15, 2006
RCA Dome (57,449)

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerrin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

2005 AFC Championship
Pittsburgh 34, Denver 17
Jan. 22, 2006
INVESCO Field at Mile High (76,174)

DENVER — Pittsburgh advanced to its first Super Bowl in 10 years as it defeated the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The Steelers, who won their seventh straight game overall, became the first team in NFL history to win three straight road playoff games and became the first sixth seed to play in the Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his outstanding postseason play as he finished 21-of-29 for 275 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.9. He also added a four-yard rushing touchdown late in the game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter as K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard field goal with 4:11 left. It was the longest postseason field goal for Pittsburgh since Norm Johnson had a 50-yarder in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Roethlisberger then hit WR Cedrick Wilson on a 12-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to up the lead to 10-0.

After a Jason Elam field goal pulled the Broncos to within 10-3, Pittsburgh scored two times in the final two minutes of the first half to take a 24-3 halftime lead. RB Jerome Bettis scored from three yards out and WR Hines Ward hauled in a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger with seven seconds left.

Denver used a 30-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ashley Lelie with 3:36 left in the third quarter to trim the Steelers' advantage to 24-10. However, Reed came right back with a 42-yard field goal on the next possession to make it a 27-10 lead with 13:38 left in the game.

Mike Anderson scored on a three-yard run with just under eight minutes left to bring Denver to within 10 points (27-17), but Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

Wilson finished with a game-high five catches for 92 yards while Ward added five receptions for 59 yards. WR Antwaan Randle El also pulled in four catches for 52 yards.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:07 but was outgained on the ground 97-90. The Steelers finished with 358 total yards to the Broncos' 308.

CB Ike Taylor and LB Larry Foote each collected an interception for the Pittsburgh defense, while DE Brett Keisel posted two sacks. LB Joey Porter added one sack and also forced a fumble by Plummer.

The Steelers finished the game with an astounding 63 percent (10 of 16) conversion rate on third down.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to their fourth AFC Championship Game in eight seasons as they defeated the San Diego Chargers 35-24 in an AFC Divisional contest at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh advanced to its 14th career AFC Championship Game with the win.

San Diego struck first on the opening possession of the game, covering 75 yards in only four plays, taking barely two minutes off the game clock. WR Vincent Jackson got behind Steelers' CB Ike Taylor and hauled in a 41-yard touchdown reception to give the Chargers a 7-0 lead.

Steelers' WR Santonio Holmes evened the score when he returned a punt 67 yards for a score. San Diego retook the lead, 10-7, courtesy of a 42-yard field goal by K Nate Kaeding.

RB Willie Parker gave the Steelers a 14-10 lead that they would never relinquish with 40 seconds remaining in the first half when he ran into the end zone around left end on a three-yard touchdown scamper.

The Steelers stretched that lead to 21-10 as they drove 77 yards in 13 plays, taking 7:56 off the clock with their opening possession of the third quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller on an eight-yard touchdown reception to cap the drive.

RB Gary Russell swelled the lead to 28-10 when he plunged across the goal-line from one-yard out in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

San Diego scored two touchdowns, a four-yard reception by WR Legedu Naanee and a 62-yard reception by RB Darren Sproles, sandwiched around a 16-yard touchdown run by Parker, his second score of the evening, to conclude the scoring in favor of the Steelers, 35-24.

Roethlisberger had a very efficient game, completing 17-of-26 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 98.4. He improved to 6-2 (.750 pct.) in the playoffs. Parker recorded his first career 100-yard rushing performance in the postseason with 146 yards on 27 attempts (5.4 avg.) with two touchdowns. WR Hines Ward had another big postseason performance with four receptions for 70 yards (17.5 avg.), including a long reception of 41 yards.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Rivers four times, with LB LaMarr Woodley leading the charge with two sacks. LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel had the other two Steelers' sacks. LB Larry Foote had a third-quarter interception, the second of his postseason career.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers put themselves in position to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh struck first following the opening kickoff, covering 50 yards in seven plays, the key play being a 45-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. K Jeff Reed connected from 34 yards out to make it 3-0 in favor of Pittsburgh.

Reed would increase the Pittsburgh lead to 6-0 when he nailed his second field goal, this time a 42-yarder, following an interception by Steelers' CB Deshea Townsend.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 36-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Antonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Flacco three times, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley, his third consecutive postseason game with two-sacks, and one by DE Aaron Smith. Along with Polamalu and Townsend, S Tyrone Carter had the Steelers' other interception. S Ryan Clark forced a fumble near the end of regulation which was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons.

2010 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 24, New York Jets 19

Jan. 23, 2011

Heinz Field (66,662)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. On the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Antonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

2011 AFC Wild Card Game

Denver 29, Pittsburgh 23 (OT)

Jan. 8, 2012

Sports Authority Field at Mile High (75,970)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fastest ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions. But they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham connected on a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

But the Broncos would score 20 unanswered points. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers though would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jericho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime. After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

Despite the loss, the Steelers held each Bronco running back to less than 100 yards rushing. The Steelers have not allowed a single running back to rush for more than 100 yards in 18-consecutive postseason games, the longest current streak in the NFL.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

2014 AFC Wild Card Game

Baltimore 30, Pittsburgh 17

Jan. 3, 2015

Heinz Field (62,780)

PITTSBURGH – QB Joe Flacco's 21-yard touchdown pass to TE Crockett Gillmore midway through the fourth quarter sealed the victory for Baltimore in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh moved the ball well in the first half but only managed to come away with three field goals by K Shaun Suisham (45, 22 and 47). Baltimore RB Bernard Pierce scored on a five-yard run and K Justin Tucker connected on a 28-yard field goal to give Baltimore its 10 points of the first half, and the Ravens led 10-9 at the break.

Tucker connected from 45 yards early in the third quarter to put Baltimore up 13-9. Flacco threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Torrey Smith midway through the third quarter to give the Ravens a 20-9 advantage.

The Steelers got a splash play from their defense early in the fourth quarter when rookie DE Stephon Tuitt recovered a Ravens' fumble. QB Ben Roethlisberger then connected with WR Antonio Brown for a 44-yard gain and rookie WR Martavis Bryant for a six-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 20-15.

Baltimore responded with a 52-yard field goal by Tucker to increase the Ravens' lead to 23-15. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Terrell Suggs. On Baltimore's next play, Flacco hit Gillmore for the game-deciding touchdown.

The Steelers tried to rally but Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone. A blocked punt for a safety by S Shamarko Thomas cut the Ravens' lead to 30-17.

Trailing by 13, Pittsburgh took over with less than two minutes remaining. TE Heath Miller fumbled and the Ravens secured the football and took over at the Pittsburgh 38-yard line. Baltimore then went into its victory formation.

RB Le'Veon Bell, the team's MVP, wasn't able to suit up due to a knee injury.

2015 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 18, Cincinnati 16

Jan. 9, 2016

Paul Brown Stadium (63,257)

CINCINNATI, Ohio – K Chris Boswell connected on a game-winning 35-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining in the game to beat the Bengals, 18-16, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium.

Pittsburgh led 15-0 after three quarters, thanks to three Boswell field goals and a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Martavis Bryant.

The Steelers defense also forced three turnovers (one interception and two fumbles) in the first three quarters to help give Pittsburgh the 15-point advantage.

On the final play of the third quarter, Roethlisberger injured his shoulder, and he was taken to the locker room to be evaluated. On Cincinnati's ensuing possession, RB Jeremy Hill scored on a one-yard run to cut the lead to 15-7.

After a Steelers' punt, the Bengals marched into Steelers' territory where K Mike Nugent made a 36-yard field goal to cut Pittsburgh's lead to 15-10.

Shortly after the two-minute warning, Cincinnati took a 16-15 lead when QB AJ McCarron threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to WR A.J. Green. On Pittsburgh's ensuing drive, QB Landry Jones, filling in for Roethlisberger, was picked off by LB Vontaze Burfict.

LB Ryan Shazier though would force a fumble on Hill, which was recovered by CB Ross Cockrell, giving the Steelers one more chance. Roethlisberger came back into the game and led the team on a nine-play, 74-yard drive that was capped off by Boswell's game-winning 35-yarder.

2015 AFC Divisional Playoff

Denver 23, Pittsburgh 16

Jan. 17, 2016

Sports Authority Field at Mile High (79,956)

DENVER – The Broncos beat the Steelers 23-16 in the 2015 AFC Divisional Playoff at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

Denver K Brandon McManus connected on two first quarter field goals to give the Broncos an early 6-0 lead. Pittsburgh took a 7-6 lead late in the first quarter on RB Fitzgerald Toussaint's one-yard touchdown run.

K Chris Boswell made a 43-yard field goal early in the second quarter to extend the Steelers' lead to 10-6. McManus' 51-yard field goal as time expired in the first half cut Pittsburgh's lead to 10-9 at the break.

Teams exchanged field goals in the third quarter, and the Steelers led 13-12 heading into the final period. Pittsburgh traveled to Denver's 34-yard line early in the fourth quarter, but CB Bradley Roby forced a fumble on Toussaint that was recovered by DE DeMarcus Ware.

QB Peyton Manning then led Denver on a 13-play drive that was capped off by RB C.J. Anderson's one-yard run. After a successful two-point conversion, Denver led 20-13.

The Broncos held the Steelers on fourth down. McManus made a 45-yard field goal to extend Denver's lead to 23-13. Boswell made a 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds remaining in the game to cut the lead to 23-16 but Pittsburgh's onside kick attempt was recovered by Denver, ending the game.

2016 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 30, Miami 12

Jan. 8, 2017

Heinz Field (62,726)

PITTSBURGH - RB Le'Veon Bell set the team's single-game postseason rushing record as he recorded 167 yards, helping lift the Steelers to a 30-12 victory over the Miami Dolphins in the AFC Wild Card Game.

Pittsburgh raced to an early lead thanks to two touchdown passes from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown. The two connected on a 50-yard score and then on a 62-yard score to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter. K Dustin Franks got the Dolphins on the board late in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Bell scored on a one-yard run to give Pittsburgh a 20-3 lead. Franks made a 47-yard field goal late in the second quarter, and the Steelers led 20-6 at the break.

The Steelers scored 10 points in the third quarter to seal the victory. K Chris Boswell made a 34-yard field goal, and Bell scored his second rushing touchdown of the game to make it 30-6. Miami got a late touchdown on QB Mat Moore's four-yard touchdown to RB Damien Williams.

Pittsburgh's defense forced three turnovers and recorded 5.0 sacks, which are tied for the most sacks in team history in a single game since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

KANSAS CITY - K Chris Boswell made an NFL single-game postseason record six field goals, and RB Le'Veon Bell set the team's single postseason game rushing record, recording 170 yards, as they helped lift the Steelers to an 18-16 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium.

Boswell's 22-yard field goal gave Pittsburgh the early 3-0 lead. Kansas City took its only lead of the game on QB Alex Smith's five yard touchdown pass to WR Albert Wilson.

Boswell made three field goals, 38 yards, 36 yards and 45 yards, to give Pittsburgh a 12-7 lead at halftime. Boswell's 43-yard field goal early in the third quarter increased Pittsburgh's lead to 15-7.

K Cairo Santos connected on a 43-yard field goal late in the third quarter to cut the Steelers' lead to 15-10. Boswell's final field goal of the game gave the Steelers an eight-point advantage, 18-10, early in the fourth quarter.

With less than three minutes remaining in the game, Chiefs' RB Spencer Ware scored on a one-yard run. Pittsburgh's defense stopped the Chiefs' two point try.

QB Ben Roethlisberger's first-down completion to WR Antonio Brown after the two-minute warning, sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

FOXBOROUGH - QB Tom Brady threw for 384 yards with three touchdowns to help lift the Patriots to a 36-17 victory over the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

New England led 10-0 at the end of the first quarter. K Stephen Gostkowski made a 31-yard field goal on the Patriots' opening drive, and Brady threw a 16-yard touchdown to WR Chris Hogan.

Early in the second quarter, RB DeAngelo Williams scored on a five-yard run to cut the lead to 10-6. But it would be the closest Pittsburgh would get the rest of the game.

Midway through the second quarter, Brady connected with Hogan again, this time for a 34-yard touchdown. K Chris Boswell made a 23-yard field goal late in the second quarter. New England led 17-9 at halftime.

The Patriots scored 19 unanswered points to put the game out of reach. Gostkowski made a 47-yard field goal. RB LeGarrette Blount scored on a one-yard run. Brady threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Julian Edelman. And Gostkowski connected on a 26-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh's final points of the game came on a 30-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Cobi Hamilton.

2017 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jacksonville 45, Pittsburgh 42

Jan. 14, 2018

Heinz Field (64,524)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers were unable to overcome a 21-point deficit in their 45-42 AFC Divisional Playoff loss to the Jacksonville Jaguars at Heinz Field.

Three straight rushing touchdowns gave Jacksonville a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Pittsburgh rallied with a 23-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown, but a Steelers' fumble recovered by Jacksonville and returned for a touchdown on the following Pittsburgh drive allowed the Jaguars to maintain their 21-point lead.

The Steelers responded with 14 straight points off of Roethlisberger touchdown passes, first to WR Martavis Bryant, then to RB Le'Veon Bell.

Each team added seven more points early in the fourth quarter, Jacksonville with a touchdown run from RB Leonard Fournette and Pittsburgh with a second touchdown reception from Brown.

With less than five minutes remaining, Jaguars QB Blake Bortles connected with FB Tommy Bohanon on a 14-yard touchdown pass. The Steelers cut their deficit back to seven with an 8-yard touchdown run by Bell.

With just 1:45 remaining, Jacksonville K Josh Lambo converted a 45-yard field goal that increased the score to 45-42.

Roethlisberger recorded his fifth touchdown pass of the day, finding WR JuJu Smith-Schuster in the end zone for a 4-yard score, but the Steelers came up short as time expired.

Super Bowl IX
Pittsburgh 16, Minnesota 6
January 12, 1975
(80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

Super Bowl X
Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17
January 18, 1976
(80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII
Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31
January 21, 1979
(78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV
Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19
January 20, 1980
(103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX
 Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17
 January 28, 1996
 (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Super Bowl XL
Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10
Feb. 5, 2006
Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks, including one each from CB Deshea Townsend, LB Clark Haggans and NT Casey Hampton.

Super Bowl XLIII
Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23
Feb. 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers' NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh's favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers' lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2. TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

Super Bowl XLV

Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25

Feb. 6, 2011

Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers got on the board early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again. On the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers though would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled, the Packers marched down the field, and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17.

The Steelers, however, responded on their ensuing possession as Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line.
