Opening Statement:

Good afternoon. Before we get into the football, there are a few people I wanted to acknowledge. The 2020 season was a challenge in some unusual ways. We really had some outstanding efforts and leadership in the areas of combating COVID, starting first and foremost with our central COVID worker in John Norwig and his staff and the medical staff. They did an awesome job in terms of relaying league protocols and working to develop an environment that kept us as safe as we possibly could be in the circumstance. They're to be commended for that. I would also like to express gratitude to our IT department under the leadership of Scott Phelps. There was some alternative teaching and learning approaches utilized in this environment and we really had to test ourselves in some of those areas. I just thought the support we had in that area was outstanding. We were able to give and receive information. We were able to adjust and to keep development going. They're to be credited for that. Outstanding, outstanding efforts.

In regards to the ball, still experiencing the disappointment associated with our last performance. It's just tough to swallow, it's tough to accept. Coming to grips with that, assessing what transpired. Going through or starting the process of going through the normal things you do unfortunately at this time of year, I start first and foremost saying obviously I didn't anticipate being here in this position. Disappointed by it. Understand that we better make some changes in terms of the things we do. We better look at every aspect of it. Schematics, personnel, approach to business. I am committed to that. I am also committed to not sitting in this position and feeling the way we feel right now moving forward. Those are just the general thoughts and feelings. Not a lot of work has transpired in terms of bringing some of those thoughts and feelings to fruition. You know our building was closed in the early portion of this week to protect the group from COVID. We had a virtual team meeting yesterday. We have just begun the exit interview process and it will continue throughout the remainder of the week and into next week. I think before you proceed, first you have to assess and evaluate and summarize the things that have transpired. We'll diligently push through those things and let those discussions and discoveries be our guide in terms of how we formulate our plan to move forward. I'll always acknowledge that change is a part of our business, particularly this time of year, particularly when you experience the type of ending that we have. I'll acknowledge that is a truth. I am not going to get into a lot of details. It's not time for that. We just have so many meetings and things to discover and talk about in the upcoming days and maybe even weeks. There's free agency to ready ourselves for, draft preparation, look at salary cap ramifications. We're just at the very infancy of that process in terms of meeting and talking about what that looks like. Gathering even information about what the pre-draft process looks like. What the Combine might look like, professional days, pro days and things of that nature. But more than anything just coming to grips with how our season ended and working to maybe learn from that as we move forward. I can't sit here and tell you that I am ready to do that at this juncture. But that's not abnormal. We put a lot into these journeys so there's a lot at stake so that is probably a reasonable feeling as I sit here today.

From a health standpoint of our team, we're still going through the exit physical procedures. A lot of these injuries that transpired in season, those surgeries have already transpired, and those people are in the rehab process, guys like Bud Dupree, and Devin Bush, [Zach] Gentry, Zach Banner and others. If there are surgeries on the horizon for us at the end of the season those things will be discussed and planned in the upcoming days and weeks. Our intentions are always to move as swiftly as we can in those circumstances in an effort to not adversely affect the preparation process for the 2021 season.

I am just so appreciative of all of the efforts of players and coaches and support people like I mentioned after the game on Sunday night. That feeling remains the same, but the sting is still there. And it's probably going to be a while. Like I said it's natural. Hopefully we utilize those feelings as positive fuel for us as we make the necessary changes to get better and improve our positioning and position ourselves to pursue a World Championship next season.

Can you identify the reasons for the late season collapses the last three or four years? Is it fixable? (Gerry Dulac, Post-Gazette)

It is something that I am in the process of researching and working to identify and to make necessary changes to ensure that we are not having similar conversations as we move forward. It has been a disappointment. I will acknowledge that. I'm not going to maintain status quo and hope that the outcome changes. That's the definition of insanity.

You have a lot of guys contemplating retirement, when would you want to know that they are returning? (Joe Rutter, Tribune-Review)

I don't know what the timeline is for those types of decisions, to be honest. Like I mentioned, I'm still very much assessing what transpired and just beginning the process of evaluating what transpired and information gathering in an effort to plot a course in terms of moving forward. Those roads usually converge in the upcoming weeks or so, and I imagine that they will. I don't know that I have any level of anticipation specifically as I sit here of when that might be.

Did the 'bubble' that you have to deal with all year take a toll on the guys and did it just start to wear on them psychologically toward the end of the season? (Will Graves, Associated Press)

I'm sure there was a cumulative toll, but I'm sure that cumulative toll is shared by the entire National Football League. I don't know that has a significant bearing in terms of the trajectory of our season. We better look to other things in terms of the analysis of that. Those issues and problems you mentioned were universal and thus fair.

You mentioned change, does that include changes on your coaching staff? Did anyone indicate this may be their last year with the team? Are you anticipating making any changes with your staff? (Dale Lolley, DK Pittsburgh Sports)

We haven't had any of those discussions. Change is a part of our business. I'll acknowledge the possibility for that. We are just beginning the process of having those types of meaty discussions that usually produce changes or non-changes. And so, it is that time of year. I anticipate those discussions happening and happening rather soon as we plot a course to move forward.

How would you assess the performance of your offensive and defensive coordinators? (Jeff Hathhorn, 93.7 the Fan)

I'm not ready to individually assess anything at this juncture. There is a level of disappointment in all our performances collectively, starting with my own, as I sit here. And that is what I will be doing in the subsequent days and the upcoming days as I begin to meet and talk.

As an organization, have you made a decision if you want Ben Roethlisberger back? Could you assess his play this year? (Mark Kaboly, The Athletic)

We haven't made any decisions about any of our personnel along those lines. As I mentioned, all of those discussions are interrelated, and we are just beginning to scratch the surface in terms of what 2021 looks like in terms of the make up of our team and the issues relative to it. In regards to Ben [Roethlisberger], I can't say enough about his performance this year. With the uncertainty coming off of injury, and particularly not having an opportunity to perform in preseason games and so forth, there really was a high level of concern about his health and his ability to perform. I can't say enough about his efforts. I can't say enough about the efforts of our medical staff and our rehabilitation staff that worked hand in hand with him to get him to that process and get him to stadiums this year. I was more than pleased with the performance of his health and his ability to stay up. In terms of the quality of his play and our play, we'll begin to assess that in the upcoming days, but in terms of him responding to the challenges that he specifically came into the season ready to face, spectacular.

T.J. Watt and Cameron Heyward said the playoff game loss was a lack of execution. Was it that or a number of other things? (Mike Prisuta, WDVE)

It was a lot of things. We didn't perform well. When I say we, I mean us, players and coaches. I think specifically when a game started in the manner that it did and we spotted them the type of points that we spotted them, I think it was going to make splash plays and types of things that we like to do with our defensive unit more difficult. I think that the trajectory of our game changes when you are down the way that you are down. That probably had a lot to do with some of the challenges. More than anything, we didn't perform well enough, and that is just the truth of it.

How do you start navigating an offseason with so many free agents when you don't know what the pre-draft process will look like? (Brooke Pryor, ESPN)

There's uncertainty in every season. You just comb through it page by page. And you start, first and foremost, with assessing your in-house things, the state of our team, the depth of our team, the issues relative to personnel with our team. And then we look at our looming potential free agents. I think that is the place we shop first and foremost. And then we look at the global map from that perspective. There's just so many meetings ahead of us, discussions that are ahead of us in regards to those things. The salary cap ramifications and the things we can do to get within compliance there. There's just a lot of work ahead. But that's not unusual. Maybe there are some unusual specific challenges, but just in general, it is challenging. The depths of it is challenging. So, there is a lot of work ahead.

Do you think it is realistic that Ben Roethlisberger will be back given the cap implications? (Alby Oxenreiter, WPXI)

I don't have a clear assessment of the overall impact of the cap ramifications, so I might not have a direct answer to your question, but I think it is reasonable to assume that there is a chance that he will be back, certainly. The depths of the ramifications of the cap discussions, I am not privy to as I sit here right now.

Is it possible to get back to the standard of making deep postseason runs with so much potential change or is this more of a one-year process in your mind? (Tim Benz, Tribune-Review)

It is our desire to be competitive, to compete for and pursue a world championship each and every year. As we begin this process to prepare for 2021, that will be our mindset, no doubt.

What is it like with a veteran player or two or three that has contributed a lot to your team, and you have to have the conversation with them that you can't have them back? (Jim Colony, 93.7 the Fan)

I've experienced that some of the years and it's never easy, but it is the nature of our game and this business. It's something that you come to understand.

Do you think the issues in the run game were related to personnel or scheme? (Ray Fittipaldo, Post-Gazette)

I think when you are dead last in anything, it is all the above. We better assess it as such. We will not accept our current position in that area. We cannot. We have to attack that and we will.

The salary cap is projected to not increase, how do you feel like that has changed your outlook going into the offseason? (Alan Saunders, Pittsburgh Sports Now)

It definitely has and will present some unique challenges for us, but I would imagine it's going to present similar challenges for all of us across the global landscape. We will be given a fair opportunity to pivot and to deal with those ramifications.

Do you feel like you had the physical personality you envisioned and what is the challenge when you are losing so many veterans that had that personality? (Aditi Kinkhabwala, NFL Network)

I think the personality is reflective of the makeup of the group. That is subject to change year in and year out. So, we will be working to establish what that's going to be in 2021 in an effort to have a consistent level of play, to be a consistent winner, to highlight our strengths and to minimize our weaknesses. That's what that is all about. In regards to were we able to attain that this year? I would have to say no. Just the overall trajectory of our group was not trending in the right direction over the second half of the season. Obviously, we weren't able to establish the things that we value in that regard in an effort to produce consistent wins and particularly consistent wins in the significant moments.

Do you expect Kevin Colbert to be back next year? There are reports out there that he has been offered other jobs, do you know anything about that? (Chris Adamski, Tribune-Review)

I've worked with Kevin [Colbert] for 14 years. We have an awesome working relationship. We communicate each and every day multiple times a day. We've communicated today. I look forward to beginning this process with him. I know next to nothing about the rumors of things that you mentioned.

How do you catch teams that have quarterbacks on their rookie deals when you don't have the same resources they might? (Will Graves, Associated Press)

That's been life for us for over a decade, the variables that you mentioned. Those guys are on rookie deals that teams are benefiting from that. I would imagine that they are in the process of earning deals and they will be in a similar circumstance that we are in and that's why they are still in the tournament. Those are things that are part of our business. I know when you have a quality quarterback and a guy that is capable of having you in that field, that's just the cost of doing business and I'm sure they're OK with doing that.

With the NFL getting more aggressive with fourth down situations, has your philosophy changed in recent years in whether to go for those types of situations? (Tom Reed, DK Pittsburgh Sports)

I think my general attitude or receptiveness has been more liberal. Again, I make decisions based on what is transpiring in stadiums, the flow of the game, how are units are playing, etc.

Are you still all in and are you as confident as you have ever been that you can achieve the success you have? (Mike Prisuta, WDVE)

Don't ask me about my confidence as I sit here today, man. I've just been kicked out of the single-elimination tournament. I probably can't give you a legitimate answer in terms of that. In terms of being all in? You bet.

How do you get back to getting the physicality that the Steelers brand is built around? (Brooke Pryor, ESPN)

That's part of the investigation that I mentioned in my opening statement. We are not going to answer those questions in one sitting or succinctly in one sentence. We will investigate, we will plot a course, and then we will plan and walk that course at the appropriate time.

How confident are you in Mason Rudolph moving forward? (Noah Strackbein, Sports Illustrated)

I thought he displayed that he took a step in growth and development in his performance, even though it was a small sample size. I would imagine that he is going to continue with that growth and development. We will see where that leads us in terms of what he is able to provide us. I'm excited that he was able to display that and I think it is reasonable for me to expect or him to expect that general trajectory to continue.

Can you talk about the positive trajectory of some of the players that are under contract next season? (Bo Marchionte, College2Pro)

I will say this, I was really pleased with the contributions and the level of maturity displayed by the draft class given the circumstances of how they came into the season. To get the type of contributions that we got from a Chase Claypool or a Kevin Dotson and the growth and development of some of the others over the course of the season, it is a tip of the cap to them and the people that worked alongside them, coaches—and not only the coaches, the other players and older players that mentored them. I was generally pleased with that and I'm excited about getting them in an offseason mentoring program that may be more normal and is reasonable to expect those types of contributions to continue to solidify and get better.

Is this loss hard to expect because it was a loss or because of where you were at 11-0? (Gerry Dulac, Post-Gazette)

It's all of the above. It is the loss, the nature of the loss, where we were, how we were trending. The fact that we are simply not playing this week. It's all something to deal with.

Is there any player you know you want to lock in for the future this offseason? (Aditi Kinkhabwala, NFL Network)

These guys know how I feel about them. That doesn't necessarily help get business done to make statements of that nature in this setting. I am appreciative of the efforts and the productivity and the capability of many of the men. I don't know that that is prudent at this time.

Have you had a talk with Art Rooney II about your performance? (Mark Kaboly, The Athletic)

We assess and meet continually and have since the end of the season and will continue. Those conversations and evaluations I'm sure will be intermingled in a lot of discussions as we proceed. I think that is normal business for us.

Do you have any confidence to hold on to some of the younger free agents? (Jim Colony, 93.7 the Fan)

I don't have a level of confidence that I can reference at this juncture, but just because I am gaining an understanding of the landscape in regards to the salary cap issues and how it could effect our decision making and prioritizing the things we need to get done. I'm very much in the information gathering stage there.

KINGS OF THE NORTH

- Pittsburgh captured the 2020 AFC North title, which marked the franchise's 24th overall division title, ninth since 2002 and fourth in the last seven years (2014, 2016, 2017 and 2020).
- The Steelers earned a division title for the 24th time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger – the most division crowns by an NFL team in that span.
- Pittsburgh clinched a playoff berth for the 32nd time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger – the most playoff berths by an NFL team in that span.
- Since the AFC North was adopted after the restructuring of the 2002 NFL season when the league realigned divisions after expanding to 32 teams, Mike Tomlin has won the division seven times (2007, 2008, 2010, 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2020).
- No other head coach has won the AFC North more than four times (John Harbaugh and Marvin Lewis).
- Pittsburgh's nine AFC North titles nearly equal the combined total from the rest of the division since 2002.

- There were six teams with one-or-fewer losses entering Week 8 of 2020, tied for the most such teams at that point of a season since at least 1970. Two of those teams, the Ravens and Steelers, met in Baltimore on Nov. 1 in a battle for first place in the AFC North.
- The Week 8 game marked the sixth divisional match-up where both teams had one-or-fewer losses in Week 8 or later since 1970.
- The eventual division winner has won five of the six match-ups.

A COMMON FOE IN THE SAME YEAR

- The Steelers played Cleveland for the third time in 2020 when they met in the AFC Wild Card playoff game.
- With its 48-37 defeat vs. Cleveland, Pittsburgh dropped to 10-2 (.833) in the third matchup of the season, including 2-1 against the Browns (1994, 2002 and 2020).

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – There was one overriding reason QB Ben Roethlisberger worked so hard to return from a major elbow injury.

His team.

Roethlisberger, who missed the final 14 games last season after elbow surgery, threw for three scores and the Steelers beat the New York Giants 26-16 at an empty and eerie MetLife Stadium. He also got all the help he could ask for from his defense and backup RB Bennie Snell.

A key part of it, along with several defensive plays and Snell's 113 yards on 19 carries -- his first 100-yard performance in his second NFL season.

The defense, while not quite on the level of the famed Steel Curtain, was stingy and physical. It held Saquon Barkley to 6 yards on 15 carries, swarming in the backfield nearly all night.

Three Steelers stars got them their first touchdown. All-Pro LB T.J. Watt made a clever interception at the New York 36. Roethlisberger beat a blitz with a perfect throw to WR Juju Smith-Schuster for a 10-yard second-quarter score. K Chris Boswell's extra point hit the upright, leaving them behind 10-9.

They got the lead with 7 seconds remaining in the half as Roethlisberger connected with WR James Washington, who dived into the end zone for a 13-yard score. Boswell made the PAT this time, and added a 36-yard field goal early in the final quarter. That came following the night's biggest play.

Even though the Pittsburgh defense broke down as the Giants marched 87 yards on 19 plays in the third quarter, it still came up with a huge stop. LB Bud Dupree pressured quarterback Daniel Jones as he rolled left from the 4 and deflected his pass. DT Cam Heyward practically made a fair catch in the end zone for the interception.

Roethlisberger then took Pittsburgh 62 yards for the field goal and a 19-10 lead. He hit Smith-Schuster again for a 10-yard touchdown and a 26-10 lead before New York got a late TD.

Roethlisberger finished 21 of 32 for 229 yards has now thrown for 366 touchdowns, a franchise record, tying Eli Manning for the eighth most in NFL history.

Denver 21
Pittsburgh 26

SEPTEMBER 20, 2020 // HEINZ FIELD (0)

PITTSBURGH – They started strong but in the end they were hanging on. All the twists and turns made the Steelers’ 26-21 victory over Denver this afternoon at Heinz Field less than aesthetically pleasing, but the final result sure beat the alternative.

“We were far from perfect,” head coach Mike Tomlin assessed. “We gotta get better. We’re thankful to win in spite of it.

The biggest play was made by SS Terrell Edmunds. Edmunds’ sack of Broncos backup quarterback Jeff Driskel on fourth-and-2 from the Steelers’ 15-yard line with 1:51 left in the fourth quarter ended what turned out to be Denver’s final possession.

The Broncos had driven from their 18 to the Steelers 15 but couldn’t finish what could have been a game-stealing march.

RB James Conner’s subsequent 59-yard burst allowed the Steelers to run out the clock. A fumble by RB Benny Snell immediately after the Steelers’ punt-return team had registered a safety opened the door for the Broncos to get back in the game.

Denver eventually turned that into a 16-yard touchdown pass from Driskel to running back Melvin Gordon that brought the Broncos to within 26-21.

QB Ben Roethlisberger finished 29-for-41 passing for 311 yards and two touchdowns, but he was also intercepted once (the Broncos turned that turnover into a field goal and a 17-6 third-quarter deficit) and directed an offense that converted just two of 12 third downs.

“I didn’t play well and that’s on me,” he said. In the early stages it was the Steelers’ defense generating the turnovers and the Steelers’ offense taking advantage.

The tone was set on Denver’s second possession, when Steelers outside LB Bud Dupree sacked quarterback Drew Lock and forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Mike Hilton and returned 8 yards to the Steelers’ 41.

Denver lost Lock (shoulder) for the remainder of the afternoon on the play, the first of five sacks registered by the Steelers in the first half.

The Steelers’ offense responded with a nine-play, 59-yard drive in 3:19 for a 7-0 lead. CB Joe Haden’s interception of a Driskel pass that deflected off the hands of wide receiver Courtland Sutton and 24-yard return set the Steelers up at the Denver 11 with 1:58 left in the second quarter. But this time Conner lost 1 yard on third-and-1 from the Broncos’ 2 and the Steelers settled for K Chris Boswell’s 21-yard field goal and a 17-3 lead.

In between, the Steelers sprinkled in some spectacular via an 84-yard connection from Roethlisberger to rookie second-round WR Chase Claypool. Roethlisberger let it fly on first-and-10 from the Steelers’ 16 and Claypool hauled the ball in over rookie third-round cornerback Michael Ojemudia, managed to navigate the sideline after coming down with it and sprinted the final 47 yards into the end zone.

Boswell’s extra point gave the Steelers a 14-3 lead with 6:23 left in the half. A 36-yard punt by P Dustin Colquitt and 9-yard return by Diontae Spencer started a Broncos’ possession at the Steelers’ 36 at the start of the second. Kicker Brandon McManus’ 49-yard field goal drew Denver to within 7-3 five plays later.

And a stop by the Denver defense on fourth-and-2 from the Broncos’ 35 (Roethlisberger threw incomplete for TE Eric Ebron) turned into a six-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 20-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant and a two-point conversion to Fant that sliced the Steelers’ lead to 17-14 with 1:07 left in the third.

The Steelers countered with a 28-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to WR Diontae Johnson, and with a safety when Broncos punter Sam Martin fumbled a snap and the ball was eventually knocked out of the back of the end zone.

Roethlisberger broke a tie with Eli Manning and assumed sole possession of eighth place on the NFL’s all-time touchdown passes list at 368.

His 311 passing yards moved him ahead of Manning and into seventh place all-time with 57,085.

Houston 21 Pittsburgh 28

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020 // HEINZ FIELD (0)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger’s record-setting afternoon turned into a first-half shootout with Houston.

Roethlisberger appeared in his 221st regular-season game, which broke a tie with Hall-of-Fame center Mike Webster and elevated Roethlisberger into sole possession of first place on the Steelers’ all-time list.

The Steelers made it an occasion to celebrate with a 28-21 victory over the Texans.

The Steelers improved to 3-0.

What had been a back-and-forth exhibit of offense in the first two quarters turned into a slug-fest in the second half.

Trailing 21-20 in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger directed a 12-play, 79-yard drive in 7:03 that ended on a 12-yard burst for a touchdown by RB James Conner and a pass for a two-point conversion from Roethlisberger to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster and a 28-21 Steelers’ lead with 6:24 left in regulation.

The Texans failed to manage a first down on their next possession and punted, and the Steelers exhausted the final 4:47 left on the clock.

Houston had put up 21 points and gained 209 total net yards in the first half.

The Steelers’ defense pitched a second-half shutout while limiting the Texans to 51 total net yards and two first downs, and coming up with the game’s only turnover, an interception by nickel CB Mike Hilton that set the table for what became the game-winning drive.

“They had a really good plan,” Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin said of the Texans. “It took us a while to get adjusted to it. It took us a while to find our rhythm.”

The Steelers had closed to within 21-20 on a 26-yard field goal from K Chris Boswell with 9:54 left in the third quarter. Their 12-play, 62-yard drive in 5:06 required a pair of fourth-down conversions, one a 2-yard effort by Conner to the Houston 48-yard line and one on a 29-yard pass interference penalty on a deep ball to WR Chase Claypool that set the Steelers up at the Texans’ 10.

The drive that closed out the game included a 7-yard pass from Roethlisberger to WR James Washington on fourth-and-1 from the Houston 35 with 3:11 left in the fourth

The Steelers responded to an early 14-3 deficit with consecutive touchdown drives for a 17-14 advantage. Roethlisberger found TE Eric Ebron with a back shoulder-fade on third-and-goal from the Houston 10 with 5:05 left in the second quarter. Boswell’s extra point brought the Steelers to within 14-10.

The Steelers got the ball back 2:38 before the break and turned the possession into a seven-play, 63-yard march for a touchdown in 1:24. Smith-Schuster ran through the Houston secondary uncovered and walked into the end zone on a drive-capping, 26-yard catch-and-run touchdown. Boswell’s PAT made in 17-14 Steelers with 1:14 remaining in the second.

It took the Texans just 50 seconds to re-take the lead.

A five-play, 75-yard drive ended with a 14-yard fade from quarterback Deshaun Watson to wide receiver Will Fuller over CB Steven Nelson in the back of the end zone. Ka’imi Fairbairn’s extra point gave Houston a 21-17 lead with 24 seconds left before halftime.

Philadelphia 29
Pittsburgh 38

OCTOBER 11, 2020 /// HEINZ FIELD (4,708)

PITTSBURGH – Rookie WR Chase Claypool, a native of Abbotsford, British Columbia, rushed for one touchdown and caught passes for three more scores and the Steelers broke open what had been a tight game at halftime and then hung on and outlasted the Eagles, 38-29, on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field. Claypool tied a Steelers record for most touchdowns scored in a game with the four, and most points scored in a game with 24 (tying records set by Roy Jefferson, 1968, and Ray Mathews, 1954)

The Steelers improved to 4-0 for the first time since 1979 and for the fourth time in franchise history (1978, 1973).

The Eagles fell to 1-3-1.

Philadelphia trailed 31-29 and had a chance to grab a late lead but a 57-yard field goal attempt by kicker Jake Elliott missed wide right with 3:18 left in regulation.

The Steelers countered with a 35-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to Claypool with 2:59 left in the fourth quarter. Claypool's fourth touchdown of the day and K Chris Boswell's extra point turned the two-point lead into a nine-point advantage at 38-29.

Claypool finished with seven catches for 110 yards and three touchdowns, and three carries for 6 yards and a score. Claypool became the fourth rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with two receiving touchdowns and one rushing touchdown in the same game.

An announced crowd of 4,708 attended the first game fans were permitted to attend amid the pandemic. The Steelers lost G David DeCastro (abdomen) for the game after their initial touchdown drive.

DeCastro was replaced by rookie G Kevin Dotson.

WR Diontae Johnson went down and stayed down (back) after a 5-yard punt return at the end of Philadelphia's second possession and did not return.

C Maurkice Pouncey (foot) left for the locker room at the two-minute warning. Pouncey was replaced at center on the Steelers' game-ending possession by C J.C. Hassenauer.

Cleveland 7 Pittsburgh 38

OCTOBER 11, 2020 /// HEINZ FIELD (5,260)

PITTSBURGH-The Browns came to Heinz Field determined to challenge for first place in the AFC North Division but the Steelers had all the answers on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field. The defense sacked quarterback Baker Mayfield and took the ball away. The offense ran the ball and sprinkled in big plays.

It all added up to a 38-7 Steelers' victory.

"That was varsity ball today," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin announced. "They stepped up and stepped up big and met a challenge."

Mayfield, battling a rib injury at the outset he had officially been listed as "questionable/chest" watched the fourth quarter from the bench as the Steelers improved to 5-0 for the second time in franchise history and for the first time since 1978. The Browns saw their four-game winning streak snapped and fell to 4-2. Cleveland has lost 17 consecutive games at Heinz Field and is 1-19 all-time at the facility.

"It was a good win, but I'm going to leave it at that," Steelers defensive tackle and defensive captain Cam Heyward said.

A sequence late in the third quarter told the story as well as any.

Down 24-7, the Browns went for a first down on fourth-and-1 from the Cleveland 29-yard line and 5:59 left in the third. Running back Kareem Hunt was engulfed for a 1-yard loss and the Steelers took over at the Browns' 28.

From there the Steelers ran the ball eight consecutive times on the way to re-establishing a 24-point lead at 31-7. The march included a 2-yard sneak by QB Ben Roethlisberger on fourth-and-1 from the Browns' 5 and a 3-yard touchdown run by WR Chase Claypool on a sweep. The Steelers dominated the first half while building a 24-7 lead.

The first big play was an interception and 33-yard return for a touchdown by FS Minkah Fitzpatrick on third-and-3 from the Cleveland 28 with 9:05 left in the first quarter. K Chris Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 10-0 advantage.

"We needed to set the tone on defense," Fitzpatrick said. "A pick-six on the first (defensive) drive of the game is definitely a way to do it."

Added Tomlin: "I think it sent a message to them, third down wasn't going to be easy sledding today."

The Eagles had converted 10 of 14 third-down attempts in the Steelers' 38-29 victory over Philadelphia on Oct. 11.

Cleveland went 1-for-12 on third down and 0-for-3 on fourth down. Mayfield was sacked four times and intercepted twice.

And the Browns' No. 1 rushing offense was held to 75 yards on 22 carries, less than half of the 188.4 yards per game on the ground Cleveland had been amassing on average.

The Steelers rushed for 129 yards, including 101 on 20 carries by RB James Conner, and scored three touchdowns on the ground.

"At the end of the day it comes down to respect," Conner said. "We just want our respect."

Pittsburgh 27
Tennessee 24

OCTOBER 25, 2020 // NISSAN STADIUM (10.355)

NASHVILLE - A blowout became a nail-biter that wasn't decided until the final hold-your-breath seconds. Titans K Stephen Gostkowski missed wide right on a 45-yard field goal attempt with 14 seconds left in the fourth quarter and the Steelers held on to beat Tennessee, 27-24, on Sunday afternoon in Nashville.

The Steelers improved to 6-0.

Tennessee fell to 5-1.

"All we can say is we're 6-0," DT Cam Heyward offered. "It's a good win but there's a lot we have to improve on going forward."

Tennessee had trailed by 20 at 27-7 early in the third quarter but pulled to within three at 27-24 with 10:13 left in regulation.

RB Derrick Henry blasted home on first-and-goal from the Steelers' 1-yard line after a defensive holding penalty on FS Minkah Fitzpatrick on fourth-and-goal from the 1 had given Tennessee a fresh set of downs. Gostkowski's extra point brought the Titans to within a field goal of tying the game."

"No one's really satisfied after today," LB T.J. Watt said. "We gotta do a much better job in the second half." The Steelers held Henry to 75 yards on 20 carries a week after he had rushed for 212 yards against Houston.

Steelers RB James Conner out-gained Henry on the ground (20 carries, 82 yards) and the Steelers enjoyed a 36:37-23:23 advantage in time of possession and out-gained the Titans, 362-292. A big reason for the offense's success was a 13-for-18 performance converting third downs (72 percent). The Titans converted five of 13 third-down tries (38 percent).

Three interceptions thrown by Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger, two off of deflections, were the only turnovers of the game.

"It wasn't always pretty," Roethlisberger said. "There were times it was but three interceptions is unacceptable. "At the end of the day, we got a win against a really good football team at their place."

The Steelers improved what had been a 17-point halftime advantage on their first possession of the third, which ended on a 30-yard field goal by K Chris Boswell that upped their lead to 27-7.

The Titans answered back with a two-play, 75-yard touchdown march comprised almost entirely by a 73-yard touchdown pass from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR A.J. Brown. The catch was made at the Tennessee 35, after which Brown eluded Fitzpatrick and was gone. Gostowski's extra point drew Tennessee to within 27-14.

The Titans crept back within to within 10 at 27-17 on a 51-yard Gostkowski field goal with 2:55 left in the third. Tennessee took over at the Steelers' 30 after a pass by Roethlisberger was tipped by DT Jeffery Simmons and intercepted by LB Jayon Brown. But the defense stiffened and forced the Gostkowski attempt after a sack of Tannehill for a 3-yard loss and a couple of incompletions.

The Steelers dominated on third downs in achieving a commanding lead in total net yards, time of possession and on the scoreboard through 30 minutes.

They opened by winning the coin toss, taking the ball and driving it 75 yards for a touchdown in 16 plays that consumed the game's first 9:18. The monster march ended on an 11-yard pass from Roethlisberger to WR Diontae Johnson and included conversions on third-and-3, third-and-11 and two third-and-1s. Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 7-0 lead with 5:42 left in the first quarter.

The Steelers' second possession resulted in a second touchdown and a 14-0 advantage.

This time the Steelers drive 61 yards in 13 plays and ate up 7:05. RB Benny Snell followed just-activated DL Henry Mondeaux, who had lined up at fullback, around left end for a 1-yard score on second-and-goal. The Steelers moved the chains on third-and-14, third-and-1 and third-and-12 on the way to the end zone. Boswell's extra point made it 14-0 Steelers with 12:16 left in the second quarter.

Tennessee countered with a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive in 6:50 that cut the Steelers' lead to 14-7. Tannehill finished it on third-and-goal with a 4-yard pass to WR Corey Davis with 5:26 left in the second.

The Steelers finally failed to convert on third down on their eighth opportunity (Roethlisberger threw incomplete for WR JuJu Smith-Schuster) and settled for a 38-yard field goal by Boswell that ended their third possession and upped their lead to 17-7 with 2:50 left prior to halftime.

The Steelers struck again after WR Ray-Ray McCloud's 57-yard punt return set up a first-and-10 at the Tennessee 17. Roethlisberger hit Johnson for another touchdown, this one a catch-and-run, 9-yard connection, on third-and-2. The Steelers' eighth third-down conversion in nine attempts and Boswell's third extra point upped the Steelers' lead to 24-7 with 52 seconds remaining before the break.

The Steelers out-gained the Titans, 228-83, and had a 19:56-10:04 advantage in time of possession in the first two quarters.

Pittsburgh 28
Baltimore 24

NOVEMBER 1, 2020 /// M&T BANK STADIUM (4.345)

BALTIMORE -The Steelers started slowly but finished strong in Baltimore and improved to 7-0 with a 28-24 victory over the Ravens.

Baltimore fell to 5-2.

The game featured five lead changes, including three in the second half.

"This rivalry is what it is, man," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin observed.

Nose tackle Isaiah Buggs, who was playing due to a knee injury sustained by Tyson Alualu early in the game, came off a block and started to take Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson to the ground short of the line to gain on fourth-and-3 from the Steelers' 8-yard line just inside the two-minute warning. Free safety Minkah Fitzpatrick helped finish Jackson off on the play, which resulted in a fumble and a recovery by inside linebacker Robert Spillane.

The Steelers were unable to generate a first down and punted the ball back to the Ravens with 52 seconds left in regulation.

The Ravens took over at their 37-yard line and drove to the Steelers' 23 with eight seconds left in the fourth quarter but Fitzpatrick successfully defended Jackson's last-gasp pass into the end zone for wide receiver Willie Snead IV, with help from cornerback Justin Layne.

"This wasn't our best defensive performance," defensive end Stephon Tuitt acknowledged. "But those two drives we had to stop them on was what's most important."

Added Spillane: "We knew what it was going to take to win the game."

The Steelers rallied from a 24-21, fourth-quarter deficit with an eight-play, 80-yard drive in 4:27 that ended on an 8-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ben Roethlisberger to wide receiver Chase Claypool. Kicker Chris Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 28-24 lead with 7:29 left in regulation.

The Ravens had re-taken the lead on their previous possession, an eight-play, 53-yard drive in 3:58 for a touchdown and a 24-21 advantage. Jackson finished the march with a 3-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Marquise Brown. Kicker Justin Tucker converted with 11:56 left in the fourth.

The Steelers struck for two touchdowns on consecutive possessions in the third quarter that turned a 17-7 deficit into a 21-17 lead.

The first took advantage of a short field thanks to an interception by outside linebacker Alex Highsmith that set the Steelers up at the Ravens' 21 with 14:04 left in the third. Roethlisberger found tight end Eric Ebron wide open on a shallow cross on second-and-7 from the Ravens' 18 and Ebron cruised untouched into the end zone. Boswell's extra point trimmed the Baltimore lead to 17-14 with 13:21 left in the third.

After the defense produced a three-and-out, the Steelers drove 77 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown and their second lead of the game.

Running back James Conner finished the possession with a 1-yard touchdown run. Roethlisberger had found wide receiver Juju Smith-Schuster for 14 yards on second-and-13 from the Ravens' 15 just prior to the TD. Boswell's extra point put the Steelers ahead, 21-17, with 5:38 left in the third.

The Steelers gained 157 of their 221 total net yards in the second half.

Baltimore rushed for 265 yards and had 457 total net yards but came up 23 short.

"They punched us in the mouth," Ebron said. "We had to make adjustments."

"We fought our (backside) off."

The Steelers didn't produce any points on offense and only held the ball for 9:51 in a first half that ended with a 51-yard field goal by Tucker that increased Baltimore's lead to 17-7. Baltimore took over at its 8 with 3:44 left in the second quarter and was able to convert three third downs on a 15-play, 59-yard drive that exhausted the remainder of the first half.

The Ravens had taken a 14-7 lead on a 1-yard touchdown run by running back Gus Edwards and Tucker's extra point with 7:24 left in the second quarter. Edwards' rumble into the end zone capped a nine-play, 80-yard drive in 5:18.

Baltimore tied the game at 7-7 on 6-yard touchdown pass from Jackson to wide receiver Miles Boykin and a Tucker extra point with 8:48 left in the first quarter. The Ravens moved 75 yards in nine plays and ate up 5:22 on their second possession of the game.

Baltimore's first possession on the afternoon ended on an interception and 33-yard return for a touchdown by Spillane. Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 7-0 lead just 54 seconds into the game.

The Ravens went 5-for-8 on third downs and gained 254 total net yards, including 179 on the ground, while possessing the ball for 20:09 in the first two quarters.

The Steelers allowed an average of 68.8 yards against on the ground over their first six games.

The Steelers went 0-for-3 on third downs and had 64 total net yards in the first 30 minutes.

Pittsburgh 24 Dallas 19

NOVEMBER 8, 2020 /// AT&T STADIUM (31,700)

ARLINGTON -A week after trailing by 10 points at halftime in Baltimore, the Steelers faced a 10-point, fourth-quarter deficit in Dallas.

As they had done against the Ravens, the Steelers rallied to beat the Cowboys. "I joke I feel like I'm too old for this stuff," QB Ben Roethlisberger said. "But we keep winning, having fun with the guys, that's all that matters."

Roethlisberger's 8-yard touchdown pass to TE Eric Ebron with 2:14 left in regulation achieved the Steelers' first lead and they hung on for a 24-19 victory.

Dallas' next possession ended when defensive tackle Cam Heyward and LB T.J. Watt sacked quarterback Garrett Gilbert on fourth-and-8 from the Dallas 41-yard line with 1:37 left in regulation.

The Cowboys regained the ball at their 19 with 38 seconds left after the Steelers turned it over on downs.

Dallas reached the Pittsburgh 23 but Gilbert's pass into the end zone was knocked down by S Minkah Fitzpatrick on a third-and-4 snap with four seconds left.

"Every time we face adversity we fight," Ebron said. "At the end of the day I wouldn't bet against us."

The Steelers improved to 8-0 for the first time in franchise history.

"We're humbled and honored to be that group," head coach Mike Tomlin said. "I'm really proud of our football team. We've got a group that sticks together, a group that's mentally tough."

Dallas fell to 2-7.

Tomlin tied Marty Schottenheimer's NFL record for consecutive seasons coaching with a .500 record or better at 14.

Roethlisberger was temporarily lost to a left knee injury but only missed one offensive series.

He finished with 29 completions on 42 attempts for 306 yards, three touchdowns and a passer rating of 113.8.

The six-play drive for the game-winning touchdown covered 79 yards in 1:57.

K Chris Boswell's second field goal of the day, this one from 43 yards out, drew the Steelers to within one point at 19-18 with 7:11 left in the fourth. The 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive in 4:34 began at the Steelers' 1 after an interception in the end zone by Fitzpatrick (strong safety Terrell Edmunds was penalized for an illegal block on the return).

The Steelers pulled to within 19-15 on a 31-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster on the first play of the fourth (Boswell's extra point attempt was blocked).

The six-play, 75-yard scoring drive in 2:22 included completions to Smith-Schuster for 20, 20 and 9 yards prior to the touchdown pass (Ebron was penalized 10 yards for holding and the Cowboys 5 yards for offside on the march).

Dallas improved a four-point halftime cushion to 10 by turning consecutive third-quarter possessions into field goals by kicker Greg Zuerlein.

The first, from 45 yards out, increased the Cowboys' lead to 16-9 with 10:17 left in the third.

The second, a 39-yard effort with 2:13 left in the third, gave Dallas a 19-9 advantage.

The Steelers turned their final two possessions of the first half into nine points and headed to the locker room at halftime trailing, 13-9.

Boswell's franchise-record 59-yard field goal closed the second quarter.

The Steelers had regained possession at the Dallas 39-yard line 52 seconds before the half on a forced fumble by CB Cam Sutton and a recovery by Fitzpatrick.

The Steelers first got on the board on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to WR James Washington 1:10 prior to intermission. Boswell missed the extra point attempt wide left and the Cowboys led, 13-6.

Roethlisberger limped to the locker room after the touchdown pass favoring his left knee.

Backup QB Mason Rudolph directed the subsequent four-play field goal drive and completed two of three passes for 3 yards.

The Cowboys grabbed a 3-0 lead on a 38-yard field goal by Zuerlein that ended a 12-play, 65-yard drive in 6:47 on Dallas' first possession.

The Cowboys upped their lead to 10-0 on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Gilbert to wide receiver CeeDee Lamb and a Zuerlein extra point with 7:45 left in the second. The scoring strike wrapped up an eight-play, 65-yard drive in 3:41.

Dallas turned a throwback on a punt return that went for 73 yards after an illegal block penalty had been enforced into a 44-yard field goal by Zuerlein and a 13-0 lead with 3:46 left in the second.

Cincinnati 10 Pittsburgh 36

NOVEMBER 15, 2020 /// HEINZ FIELD (5,909)

PITTSBURGH -Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger threw for four touchdowns, two to wide receiver Chase Claypool, and the defense held Cincinnati without a conversion on third down on all 13 Bengals' attempts in a 36-10 victory on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field.

"I like what we did on third down," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin said. "We were very good on the possession downs."

The Steelers improved to 9-0 for the first time in franchise history.

The Bengals fell to 2-6-1.

Announced attendance was 5,909.

"We're just taking it one game at a time," outside linebacker T.J. Watt said. "We'll take a win any way we can get it."

"The train keeps rolling."

Roethlisberger's fourth touchdown pass and Claypool's second touchdown reception, a 5-yard connection, finished off a five-play drive that began at the Cincinnati 15-yard line following a 42-yard punt return by wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud. Kicker Chris Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 36-7 lead with 10:31 left in the fourth quarter.

Roethlisberger finished 27-for-46 passing for a season-high 333 yards and four touchdowns and wasn't intercepted.

His preparation in the week leading up to the game was virtual until he was activated from the Steelers' Reserve/COVID-19 list and able to participate in what Roethlisberger described as an "up-tempo walk-through" on Saturday.

"I attribute it to the guys around me," he said. "It was way more than me. It was a total team victory."

Added wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster: "Ben does what Ben does, I'm nit surprised."

Mason Rudolph took over at quarterback for a possession that began with 5:02 left in regulation, just after a 37-yard field goal by Bengals kicker Randy Bullock accounted for the final margin.

The Steelers took a 22-point lead late in the third quarter on a 12-play, 67-yard drive in 4:12 that culminated on an 11-yard pass from Roethlisberger to Claypool. Roethlisberger converted three third downs, including two third-and-10s, with completions on the march (11 yards to Claypool, 14 yards to tight end Eric Ebron and 12 yards to Smith Schuster). Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 29-7 advantage.

Boswell's third field goal in three tries in the first half gave the Steelers a 22-7 lead with 1:48 left in the second quarter. They carried that 15-point advantage into halftime.

The Steelers opened the scoring thanks in part to a turnover generated on special teams.

Outside linebacker Ola Adeniyi forced a fumble on a punt return and running back Benny Snell recovered at the Cincinnati 32-yard line. The Steelers were unable to register a first down but Boswell converted from 41 yards away from a 3-0 lead with 11:23 left in the first quarter.

A 15-yard punt return by McCloud gave the Steelers possession at the Bengals' 46 midway through the first. They drove to the Cincinnati 12 but ultimately settled for a 30-yard Boswell field goal and a 6-0 lead with 4:50 left in the opening quarter.

The offense required just three plays to score the game's first touchdown on the Steelers' next possession. Roethlisberger hit wide receiver Diontae Johnson for 46 yards, wide receiver James Washington for 16 and then Johnson again for a 12-yard touchdown on successive snaps. A two-point conversion pass from Roethlisberger to Claypool fell incomplete, keeping the Steelers' lead at 12-0 with 1:51 left in the first.

The Bengals responded with an eight-play, 90-yard touchdown drive in 3:21. A pass from quarterback Joe Burrow to wide receiver Tee Higgins on fourth-and-goal from the Steelers' 2 got Cincinnati into the end zone and onto the scoreboard. Bullock's extra point trimmed the Steelers' lead to 12-7 with 10:37 left in the second.

Cincinnati went 2-for-3 on fourth down, including a fake punt that gained 39 yards to the Steelers' 27 and set up Bullock's field goal.

The Steelers' second touchdown, an 8-yard pass from Roethlisberger to Smith-Schuster, capped a seven-play, 78-yard drive in 3:14. Boswell's extra point upped the Steelers' advantage to 19-7 with 7:23 remaining prior to the break.

Johnson finished the first half with six catches for 116 yards and a touchdown and didn't catch a pass in the second half.

The two teams combined for just 45 rushing yards in the opening 30 minutes (29 for the Bengals and 16 for the Steelers). The Bengals out-rushed the Steelers, 139-44, overall.

The Steelers sacked Burrow four times and have registered at least one sack in 66th consecutive regular-season games, three off the NFL record of 69 set by Tampa Bay from 1999-2003.

NOVEMBER 22, 2020 /// TIAA BANK FIELD (7,244)

PITTSBURGH -The Steelers fell behind early but responded with 27 unanswered points and stayed undefeated with a 27-3 victory over the Jaguars this afternoon at TIAA Bank Stadium in Jacksonville.

The Steelers improved to 10-0. The Jaguars lost their ninth straight and fell to 1-9.

The focus turned immediately in the aftermath of Thursday night's hosting of Baltimore (6-4 after an overtime loss to the Titans and third in the AFC North Division behind the Steelers and 7-3 Cleveland).

A potential regular season record of 16-0 remains off the Steelers' radar.

"Just focus on one week at a time, and that's what this team has done," quarterback Ben Roethlisberger said. "We're not chasing perfection, we're chasing a Lombardi (Trophy)."

Roethlisberger's 20-yard touchdown pass to tight end Eric Ebron with 6:40 left in the fourth quarter provided the exclamation point in Jacksonville. Kicker Chris Boswell's extra point accounted for the final margin.

"We did the job," head coach Mike Tomlin said. "We checked the boxes." "It wasn't perfect, but nothing's perfect about us except our record."

Wide receiver Diontae Johnson had his second consecutive 100-yard game receiving, with 12 catches for 111 yards.

Boswell's 47-yard field goal with 10:21 left in regulation had been the only scoring in the second half prior to the Roethlisberger-to-Ebron touchdown.

The Steelers have scored at least 24 points in every game this season.

"We gotta put more points on the board," Roethlisberger insisted. "Offensively, we got the win but we know we need to be better."

Roethlisberger went 32-for-46 passing, for 267 yards, with two touchdowns and an interception, before being relieved late by Mason Rudolph.

The Steelers gained 110 yards on their first 24 rushing attempts after failing to crack the 50-yard plateau on the ground in three consecutive games. Their final possession consisted of Rudolph kneeling three times and losing 4 yards while running out the clock.

Running back James Conner had 89 yards on 13 carries (a 6.8 average).

"We weren't down on ourselves," he said of the running game. "We knew we had an opportunity to keep growing."

Running back Benny Snell's 1-yard touchdown run with 44 seconds left prior to halftime gave the Steelers a two-score lead. The Steelers drove 61 yards on seven plays in 2:13 after nose tackle Tyson Alualu's pass deflection and free safety Minkah Fitzpatrick's interception and 37-yard return to the Steelers' 39-yard line. Boswell's extra point put the Steelers ahead, 17-3.

The Steelers achieved their first lead of the afternoon on a 31-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to wide receiver Chase Claypool. The possession covered 71 yards over six plays in 2:49. The touchdown was Claypool's eighth receiving and 10th overall in 10 games. Boswell's extra point made it a 10-3 game.

Boswell had tied the game at 3-3 with a 44-yard field goal with 10:45 left in the second, a kick that capped a nine-play, 50-yard drive in 4:15.

The Jaguars took a 3-0 lead on the game's first possession. Jacksonville's nine-play, 52-yard drive in 4:03 was culminated by kicker Chase McLaughlin's 41-yard field goal.

Boswell missed a 45-yard try with 8:47 left in the first quarter, which snapped streaks of 14 straight field goals this season and 25 in a row overall dating back to last season.

An interception in the Jacksonville end zone on the last play of the first half denied the Steelers a chance to add to their advantage.

The Steelers outscored the Jaguars, 17-0, out-gained them, 185-69, and possessed the ball for 9:46 in the second quarter. Strong safety Terrell Edmunds also had an interception, his first of the season, in the quarter.

Edmunds and Fitzpatrick each accounted for their second interception on the day, the third and fourth collected by the Steelers' defense, in the fourth quarter.

Defensive end Stephon Tuitt's sack of quarterback Jake Luton in the third quarter extended the Steelers' streak to 67 games with at least one sack, two shy of the NFL-record of 69 (Tampa Bay, 1999-2003). The defense finished with two sacks.

Baltimore 14 Pittsburgh 19

DECEMBER 2, 2020 /// HEINZ FIELD (0)

PITTSBURGH –The Steelers overcame rust and the Ravens in the two teams’ thrice-postponed rematch and improved to 11-0 with a 19-14 victory on Wednesday afternoon at Heinz Field.

Head coach Mike Tomlin was happy about the result but little else associated with the Steelers’ performance.

“I’m really disappointed,” Tomlin fumed. “It was really junior varsity in all three phases.

“It was just bad by all parties involved, coaches first, players second. We didn’t play well or coach well.”

The game had originally been scheduled for Thanksgiving night.

Quarterback Ben Roethlisberger acknowledged “a very challenging last few days,” but wouldn’t attribute the way the Steelers played to the multiple postponements.

“I don’t want to make excuses,” he said. “We just weren’t good enough at all today.”

Added wide receiver Juju Smith-Schuster: “I wouldn’t say it hindered us. It was kind of frustrating the game kept being pushed back.”

Tomlin cited too many dropped passes among what he found disappointing.

“I need to be more accurate with my passes,” Roethlisberger said. “I’ll take the heat for the drops and things that weren’t accurate.”

Baltimore crept within five points on a two-play, 84-yard drive in 32 seconds late in the fourth quarter. Quarterback Trace McSorley, who had replaced injured starter Robert Griffin III, hit wide receiver Marquise Brown for a 70-yard catch-and-run touchdown on first-and-10 from the Baltimore 30-yard line and kicker Justin Tucker’s extra point brought the Ravens to within 19-14 with 2:58 left in regulation.

The Steelers received the subsequent kickoff and were able to run out the clock from there.

Baltimore fell to 6-5.

The Ravens activated 10 players from their practice squad as COVID-19 replacements prior to kickoff.

“We played like JV,” said Smith-Schuster, who caught eight passes for 37 yards and a touchdown. “We played down to their level.

“They came out with a JV squad. We were playing JV. We didn’t come out and execute and play the way we wanted to play.

“It was a close game, which it shouldn’t have been.”

The Steelers out-gained the Ravens, 334-219, and held a 33:39-26:21 edge in time of possession but scored just one touchdown in four red zone possessions.

Roethlisberger completed 36 of 51 passes for 266 yards, with one touchdown and one interception.

The interception occurred on a throw into the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the Baltimore 1 that ended the Steelers’ second possession.

The McSorley-to-Brown touchdown late in the fourth quarter was the Ravens’ initial first down converted through the air.

Roethlisberger’s 1-yard touchdown pass to Smith-Schuster with 13:20 left in the fourth was the first score of the second half. Kicker Chris Boswell’s extra point upped the Steelers’ five-point halftime lead to 12 at 19-7.

The Steelers’ offense failed to score a touchdown in the first half.

Cornerback Joe Haden opened the scoring when he intercepted Griffin on third-and-4 from the Baltimore 12 and returned the ball 14 yards for a touchdown. Boswell’s missed extra point, his fourth on 34 attempts, kept the Steelers’ lead at 6-0, with 6:57 left in the first quarter.

The Ravens countered after gaining possession at the Steelers’ 16 following a muffed punt return by wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud and a recovery by Ravens defensive back/linebacker Anthony Levine Sr. Baltimore turned the turnover into a four-play, 16-yard drive in 2:24 that ended on a 1-yard carry by running back Gus Edwards. Tucker’s extra point put the Ravens ahead, 7-6, with 2:07 left in the first.

The Steelers regained the lead at 9-7 on a 25-yard field goal by Boswell with 11:50 left in the second quarter. The Steelers’ 12-play, 73-yard drive in 5:17 achieved a first-and-goal at the Ravens’ 5 but eventually stalled.

Boswell’s second field goal of the day, this one from 27 yards out, upped the advantage to 12-7 with 4:27 left prior to halftime. This time a 13-play, 65-yard drive in 5:14 established a first-and-goal at the Baltimore 8 before fizzling.

The Steelers took a lead into the locker room at halftime thanks in part to free safety Minkah Fitzpatrick’s pass defended on a throw into the end zone from Griffin to tight end Luke Willson on third-and-goal from the Steelers’ 1 with three seconds remaining before the break.

Griffin was sacked twice in the first half and three times overall.

The Steelers increased their streak of consecutive games with at least one sack to 68, one shy of Tampa Bay’s NFL-record 69 (1999-2003).

The Steelers announced prior to kickoff that center Maurkice Pouncey had been placed on the Reserve/COVID-19 list.

First-year pro J.C. Hassenauer started at center, his first career start.

Running back Benny Snell started in place of James Conner (Reserve/COVID-19 list) and finished with 60 yards on 16 carries and 33 yards on three receptions.

Washington 23 Pittsburgh 17

DECEMBER 7, 2020 // HEINZ FIELD (0)

PITTSBURGH —The Steelers' dreams of an undefeated regular season are history and they'll have to wait at least until this Sunday to clinch a return trip to the postseason following Washington's 23-17 victory this evening at Heinz Field.

Washington kicker Dustin Hopkins' 45-yard field goal with 2:04 left in regulation provided Washington's first lead. The visitors got into position to break a 17-17 tie on a 29-yard completion from quarterback Alex Smith to wide receiver Cam Sims on third-and-4 from the Washington 44-yard line.

Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by former Steelers linebacker Jon Bostic on a pass that was tipped by defensive end Montez Sweat on first-and-10 from the Steelers' 25 with 2:04 left in the fourth quarter.

Hopkins added another 45-yard field goal with 17 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

The Steelers' last-gasp possession started from their 25 and ended with a completion to tight end Eric Ebron that ran out the clock.

"We're not frustrated," cornerback Mike Hilton said. "We just know we gotta play better."

Added quarterback Ben Roethlisberger: "We just need to make plays. I need to deliver us into plays that are best suited for situations. It starts with me. I need to be better."

The 5 p.m. kickoff was the second game in a stretch that includes three in 12 days for the Steelers, who next play this Sunday night in Buffalo.

The Steelers fell to 11-1.

Washington improved to 5-7.

"We just gotta make routine lays routinely," head coach Mike Tomlin said. "We're not making them routinely enough right now."

The Steelers finished with slight edges in total net yards (326-318) and third down conversions (6-for-15, 40 percent to Washington's 4-for-17, 24 percent).

Washington had a slight edge in time of possession (30:26-29:34) after having the ball for just 12:49 in the first two quarters.

Washington moved 53 yards in eight plays midway through the fourth and tied the game at 17-17 on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Smith to tight end Logan Thomas and Hopkins' extra point.

Fill-in kicker Matthew Wright's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth put the Steelers ahead by seven at 17-10. Wright was activated from the practice squad prior to kickoff to replace Chris Boswell (hip).

Washington closed to within 14-10 after receiving the kickoff to open the second half. The visitors used 14 plays to drive 82 yards in 6:44 on a march that was capped by a 1-yard touchdown burst by running back Peyton Barber. Hopkins' extra point drew Washington within four. Washington was able to extend the drive on a 31-yard flanker screen from Smith to Sims on third-and-14 from the Washington 14-yard line. Smith also hooked up with Thomas for a 30-yard gain to the Steelers' 1.

The Steelers broke the ice early in the second quarter following an opening 15 minutes that saw the two teams combine for six first downs and punt a combined six times.

Roethlisberger capped a 14-play, 72-yard drive in 6:16 with a 3-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Diontae Johnson. Wright converted the extra point and the Steelers led, 7-0. Running back Benny Snell converted a third-and-1 with a 2-yard gain at the outset of the drive, and Roethlisberger hit Johnson for 17 yards on third-and-12, Ebron for 15 on third-and-6 and wide receiver Chase Claypool for 8 on third-and-7 on the way to the end zone.

The Steelers struck again late in the second on a 50-yard catch-and-run touchdown connection from Roethlisberger to wide receiver James Washington. The one-play drive concluded a sequence that saw Snell stopped on fourth-and-goal from the Washington 1 and the Steelers' defense force a three-and-out from the Washington offense. Wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud's 17-yard punt return established possession for the Steelers at midfield. Wright's second successful extra point made it 14-0 with 3:54 left in the first half.

Washington got on the scoreboard on a 49-yard field goal from Hopkins with one second left before the break. Washington used six plays and drove 28 yards in 49 seconds to close to within 14-3.

Inside linebacker Robert Spillane's sack of Smith in the first quarter extended the Steelers streak of registering at least one sack to an NFL record-tying 69 consecutive games. Tampa Bay established the mark from 1999-2003.

Smith was sacked three times overall, including outside linebacker T.J. Watt's NFL-leading 12th of the season. Watt forced a fumble in the fourth quarter that was recovered by Washington.

The Steelers out-gained Washington 211-114 in the opening 30 minutes, held a 17:11-12:49 edge in time of possession and converted four of nine third downs (44.4 percent) to zero for Washington in eight attempts.

Washington lost rookie running back Antonio Gibson to a toe injury in the first quarter after he'd carried twice and gained 14 yards on the ground.

The Steelers lost Spillane (knee) and cornerback Joe Haden (evaluated for a concussion) in the second half.

DECEMBER 13, 2020 /// BILLS STADIUM (O)

BUFFALO –The Steelers took the field in Buffalo knowing they had qualified for the playoffs but left the turf at Bills Stadium with a two-game losing streak.

Kansas City's 33-27 victory over Miami on Sunday afternoon assured the Steelers of their first trip to the postseason since 2017, but there wasn't much to celebrate after a 26-15 loss to the Bills on Sunday night.

The Steelers fell to 11-2.

The Bills improved to 10-3.

Buffalo exhausted the final 7:11 of regulation after the second interception of the night thrown by Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger gave the Bills possession at their 29-yard line.

"We're facing some adversity but we're not hitting the panic button," Roethlisberger said. "We all need to look in the mirror and understand we all need to play better.

"It starts with me."

Kicker Tyler Bass' 23-yard field goal with 8:07 left in the fourth quarter re-established breathing room for the Bills at 26-15 with 8:07 left in regulation.

Buffalo had 334 total net yards to the Steelers' 224, 21 first downs to the Steelers' 14 and possessed the ball for 35:15 to the Steelers' 24:45.

The Bills converted seven of 14 third downs (50 percent).

The Steelers went 1-for-10 on third downs (10 percent).

"Just not enough play-making for us," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin said. "We gotta possess the ball better. We gotta score more points.

"It got tough as attrition set in. We had (left guard) Matt Feiler go down with a pec (pectoral injury). We had (Kevin) Dotson (who had replaced Feiler) go down with a pec. Such is life in the NFL. We gotta find a way to collect ourself and make sufficient plays. We didn't, so we accept responsibility for that and get ready for our next opportunity."

The Steelers are at Cincinnati a week from tonight.

Buffalo gained 232 of its total net yards and scored both of its offensive touchdowns in the second half. "We played like crap, simple as that," defensive tackle Cam Heyward said. "We can talk about our defense in the first quarter but after that it all went to hell."

The Steelers battled back from a 16-point deficit and made it a one-score game early in the fourth.

Roethlisberger capped a 10-play, 81-yard drive in 4:38 with a 3-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster. Roethlisberger followed with a two-point conversion pass to tight end Eric Ebron that brought the Steelers to within 23-15 with 12:18 left in the fourth.

Quarterback Josh Allen's 13-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Gabriel Davis and Bass' extra point gave the Bills a 23-7 lead with 7:02 left in the third quarter. Buffalo moved 57 yards in four plays in 2:05 for its second touchdown in as many second-half possessions.

Buffalo took the second-half kickoff and drove 68 yards in eight plays in 4:37 for a touchdown that increased a two-point halftime advantage to nine. The march culminated on a 19-yard pass from Allen to wide receiver Stefon Diggs. Bass' extra point gave the Bills a 16-7 lead with 10:23 left in the third quarter.

Cornerback Taron Johnson's interception and 51-yard return for a touchdown put the Bills ahead, 9-7, with 52 seconds left in the first half. Johnson stepped in front of a pass from Roethlisberger that was intended for Smith-Schuster on second-and-5 from the Steelers' 47-yard line. Bass missed the extra point wide right.

"We made a few plays in the first half," Tomlin said. "They made a few plays.

"Their plays were more significant than ours. The pick-six was the significant play."

Bass had brought Buffalo to within 7-3 with a 34-yard field goal with 1:42 left in the second quarter. The Bills drove 58 yards in nine plays in 3:14.

The Steelers opened the scoring on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to wide receiver James Washington with 8:21 left before the half. What became a three-play, 30-yard scoring drive in 1:15 began after a completion from Allen to tight end Dawson Knox, a fumble by Knox and a recovery by cornerback Cam Sutton. Running back James Conner fumbled on the first snap from the Buffalo 30, but Smith-Schuster recovered. Kicker Chris Boswell converted the extra point.

Nose tackle Tyson Alualu was credited with a sack when he forced an Allen fumble on first-and-10 from the Buffalo 24 midway through the second. Bills center Mitch Morse recovered, but the play allowed

DECEMBER 21, 2020 /// PAUL BROWN STADIUM (10,249)

CINCINNATI-The Steelers' losing streak has reached three consecutive games and the AFC North Division championship remains up for grabs after Monday night's 27-17 loss in Cincinnati.

The Steelers fell to 11-3.

The Bengals improved to 3-10-1.

"We just didn't get the job done," defensive tackle Cam Heyward lamented. "It just (ticks) me off that we didn't finish."

The Steelers would have clinched the division championship with a victory.

They have failed to score at least 20 points in four consecutive games.

"Just not good enough," head coach Mike Tomlin said. "The performance speaks for itself.

"We're not a good football group right now."

Quarterback Ben Roethlisberger became the seventh player in NFL history to reach 60,000 career passing yards and the sixth to achieve 5,000 career completions.

His 20-for-38 night for 170 yards, with one touchdown and one interception, left him with 60,007 passing yards and 5,016 completions.

"The disconnect was probably me just not making it happen," Roethlisberger said. "I just wasn't good enough. "Right now it doesn't feel like there are many positives. I'm not consistent enough."

The Steelers trailed 17-0 and 24-10 but got back to within a touchdown at 24-17 on running back Benny Snell's 1-yard plunge and kicker Chris Boswell's extra point with 5:32 left in the fourth quarter. The 12-play, 75-yard drive in 5:49 was extended by a pass interference penalty against cornerback William Jackson III on fourth-and-4 from the Cincinnati 13-yard line. Snell scored on the next play.

The defense forced a punt on Cincinnati's subsequent possession after free safety Minkah Fitzpatrick tackled quarterback Ryan Finley for a 1-yard loss on a keeper on third-and-3 from the Cincinnati 42-yard line.

The offense took over at the Steelers' 24 with 2:17 left in regulation but turned the ball back over to the Bengals following four consecutive incompletions.

Bengals kicker Austin Seibert booted a 33-yard field goal with 12 seconds left that established the final margin.

The Bengals re-established a two-score lead at 24-10 on a 23-yard keeper by Finley and Seibert's extra point with 11:21 left in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati's scoring drive covered 80 yards in nine plays in 5:54, including 65 yards on eight rushing attempts.

Indianapolis 24
Pittsburgh 28

DECEMBER 27, 2020 /// HEINZ FIELD (O)

PITTSBURGH—Shortly after they couldn't gain a yard with the Indianapolis goal line within reach, the Steelers suddenly couldn't be stopped.

Their rally from a 24-7, third-quarter deficit for 21 unanswered points produced a 28-24 victory that snapped a three-game losing streak and clinched the AFC North Division championship on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field.

"I'm proud of the guys to finally get it done," quarterback Ben Roethlisberger said. "This wasn't our end goal."

The T-shirts handed out afterward read "Division Champions Won Not Done."

"We're excited about the hats and T-shirts," head coach Mike Tomlin said. "We've been waiting to put them on for a few weeks now."

The Steelers improved to 12-3 and scored 20 or more points for the first time in five games. The Colts fell to 10-5. The Steelers picked up 20 first downs and 260 total net yards while scoring 21 second-half points.

The Colts managed eight first downs, 148 total net yards and three points after halftime.

Defensive end Stephon Tuitt summed up the locker room celebration as follows:

"It was exciting. It was overcoming. It was brotherhood."

The Steelers took their first lead midway through the fourth quarter with their third touchdown during a span of 10:38 in the second half.

Roethlisberger found wide receiver Juju Smith-Schuster for a 25-yard touchdown, Roethlisberger's third touchdown pass of the game, with 7:38 left in regulation and kicker Matthew Wright's extra point put the Steelers ahead, 28-24. The touchdown pass capped a 10-play, 84-yard drive in 4:28.

Colts quarterback Philip Rivers was intercepted by cornerback Mike Hilton three plays later and the Steelers produced two first downs before punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:18 left in the fourth.

Indianapolis drove to the Steelers' 33-yard line on what would be its final possession, Rivers' fourth-and-8 pass for wide receiver Zach Pascal fell incomplete with 1:14 to play.

"We needed this game," Tuitt said. "We knuckled down. We made the plays we needed to make."

Outside linebacker T.J. Watt had two of the Steelers' five sacks (Tuitt, defensive tackle Cam Heyward and inside linebacker Avery Williamson had the other three).

The Colts had allowed 16 sacks in their first 14 games but were without starting offensive tackles Anthony Castonzo and Braden Smith.

"At the end of the day I felt like we got after them pretty good," Watt said.

A 5-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to tight end Eric Ebron and Wright's extra point drew the Steelers to within 24-21 with 14:52 left in the fourth. The five-play, 74-yard drive in 1:51 followed a second consecutive three-and-out series induced by the Steelers' defense.

The Steelers closed to within 10 at 24-14 on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to wide receiver Diontae Johnson, who made a diving catch in the end zone, and Wright's extra point, with 3:16 left in the third quarter. The one-play drive followed a three-and-out on an Indianapolis possession that began at the Colts' 2-yard line after the Steelers turned the ball over on downs.

The Colts increased their 14-point halftime advantage to 24-7 on a 28-yard field goal by kicker Rodrigo Blankenship with 9:23 left in the third. A 10-play, 65-yard drive that opened the second half was stopped short of the end zone on a sack by Tuitt on third-and-3 from the Steelers' 7.

Indianapolis built a two-touchdown lead on a 42-yard scoring strike from Rivers to Pascal with 4:02 left in the second quarter. The possession began at the Steelers' 43 after a 22-yard punt return by running back Nyheim Hines and a 10-yard penalty for an illegal block on Steelers cornerback Justin Layne. Blankenship's extra point gave the visitors a 21-7 cushion.

The Steelers got on the scoreboard on a plunge by running back James Conner on third-and-goal from the Colts' 1 with 13:47 left in the second quarter. Wright's extra point tied the game at 7-7.

The touchdown was set up by a sack and forced fumble by Watt and cornerback Mike Hilton's fumble recovery and 14-yard return to the Indianapolis 3.

The Colts responded with a 12-play, 85-yard drive in 7:12 that re-established an Indianapolis lead at 14-7. Rivers was 4-for-5 passing for 64 yards and the Colts ran seven times for 21 yards on the march, which ended on a 1-yard burst by running back Jonathan Taylor. Blankenship converted for a seven-point Colts' advantage.

Indianapolis opened the scoring with a nine-play, 70-yard drive for a touchdown in 4:45 on the Colts' first possession. Rivers extended the drive when he hit wide receiver Michael Pitman Jr. for 26 yards on third-and-8 from the Colts' 32 and Taylor converted Indianapolis' second third down of the game when he darted into the end zone on third-and-goal from the 6. Blankenship's extra point gave Indianapolis a 7-0 lead with 9:48 left in the first quarter.

Pittsburgh 22
Cleveland 24

JANUARY 3, 2021 // FIRSTENERGY STADIUM (11,989)

PITTSBURGH—It was the type of game during which Mason Rudolph and Josh Dobbs shared the quarterbacking chores in place of Ben Roethlisberger on the same series repeatedly.

When Roethlisberger, DT Cam Heyward, C Maurkice Pouncey and LB T.J. Watt are among those who don't even make the trip, what transpires is destined to be anything but typical.

The Browns' 24-22 victory over the Steelers on Sunday afternoon at FirstEnergy Stadium in Cleveland fit that description.

The Steelers took over at their 35-yard line trailing 24-16 with 3:37 left in regulation after stopping the Browns on downs. Rudolph then directed a seven-play, 65-yard drive in 2:14 that ended on a 2-yard touchdown pass to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster. But the two-point conversion attempt that would have tied the game ended on an incomplete pass to WR Chase Claypool.

The Browns recovered the subsequent outside kick and ran out the clock.

The Steelers concluded the regular season at 12-4. The Browns finished at 11-5.

Both teams advanced to the NFL playoffs, the Steelers as the AFC North Division champions and the AFC's No. 3 seed. The result of the game, combined with the outcomes of the Baltimore Ravens-Cincinnati Bengals and Buffalo Bills-Miami Dolphins contests, sets up a rematch between the Steelers and Browns at Heinz Field in the NFL's Wild Card Round next weekend. Date and time of the game have yet to be released.

Rudolph completed 22 of 39 passes for 315 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Dobbs completed four of five passes for 2 yards and also ran twice for 20 yards. Claypool had five catches for 101 yards and a touchdown. The Steelers gained 394 total net yards to the Browns' 358.

Cleveland converted 50 percent of its third downs (6-for-12) to the Steelers' 47 percent (8-for-17) and had an edge in time of possession (32:10-27:50).

The Steelers sliced the Browns' 15-point lead to eight early in the fourth quarter. Rudolph found Claypool for a 28-yard touchdown on fourth-and-10 from the Browns' 28, a strike that concluded a 13-play, 75-yard march in 4:50. K Matthew Wright's extra point made it 24-16 Cleveland with 10:07 left in the fourth.

Cleveland turned an interception into a touchdown and a 15-point lead three seconds into the final quarter.

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS

Table with 2 columns: Category (RUSHING, PASSING, RECEIVING) and Stats (CLE, PIT). Includes player names and yardage/touchdowns.

Cornerback M.J. Stewart Jr. intercepted Rudolph on third-and-9 from the Steelers' 42 and returned the ball 30 yards to the Steelers' 20. The Browns found the end zone four plays later on wide receiver Jarvis Landry's 3-yard sweep. Kicker Cody Parkey's extra point made it 24-9 Cleveland with 14:57 left in the fourth.

The Browns increased a one-point, second-half lead to eight at 17-9 on a 2-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Baker Mayfield to tight end Austin Hooper and Parkey's extra point with 3:48 left in the third quarter. Mayfield scampered 28 yards to the Steelers' 16 during the eight-play, 76-yard drive in 4:41.

Wright's third field goal of the day and second from 46 yards out brought the Steelers to within 10-9 with 8:29 left in the third.

A 42-yard connection from Rudolph to Claypool on third-and-8 from the Steelers' 22-yard line extended the possession.

The Browns opened the scoring with a six-play, 85-yard drive for a touchdown on their first possession. Running back Nick Chubb went the final 47 yards on first-and-10 from the Steelers' 47-yard line. Parkey's extra point gave Cleveland a 7-0 lead with 9:29 left in the first quarter.

Parkey upped the Cleveland lead to 10-0 with a 23-yard field goal with 9:45 left in the second quarter. The Browns had achieved a first-and-goal from the Steelers' 4 but a pair of incompletions around a 1-yard loss by Chubb kept Cleveland out of the end zone.

The Steelers' first points came on a 29-yard field goal by Wright that cut the Browns' lead to 10-3 with 4:10 remaining prior to halftime. The splash play on their 11-play, 66-yard drive in 5:35 was a 41-yard completion from Rudolph to WR Diontae Johnson on third-and-11 from the Steelers' 34.

Another Wright field goal, this one from 46 yards out, drew the Steelers to within 10-6 with 1:06 remaining prior to the break. Another third-and-long conversion was critical on the eight-play, 48-yard drive in 1:18, a 26-yard completion from Rudolph to Smith-Schuster on third-and-9 from the Steelers' 42.

The Browns out-gained the Steelers in the first half, 195-183, but the Steelers converted five of 10 third downs (50 percent) and held the Browns to a 1-for-5 effort on third downs (20 percent) in the first two quarters.

Pittsburgh 0 Philadelphia 21

1947 NFL DIVISIONAL (DEC. 21, 1947)

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

Pittsburgh 10 Detroit 17

1962 PLAYOFF BOWL (JAN. 6, 1963)

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

Oakland 7 Pittsburgh 13

1972 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 23, 1972)

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

Miami 21 Pittsburgh 17

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (DEC. 31, 1972)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

1974 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 22, 1974)

OAKLAND — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

A fourth George Blanda field goal preceded Bradshaw's second touchdown pass—a 26-yarder to Frank Lewis.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

1975 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 27, 1975)

OAKLAND — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gummy two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Oakland 10 Pittsburgh 16

1975 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 4, 1976)

Baltimore 14 Pittsburgh 40

1976 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 19, 1976)

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds. Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

Pittsburgh 7 Oakland 24

1976 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (DEC. 26, 1976)

OAKLAND — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

Pittsburgh 21 Denver 34

1977 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 24, 1977)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were out-gained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

Denver 10
Pittsburgh 33

1978 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 30, 1978)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

Houston 5
Pittsburgh 34

1978 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 7, 1979)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

RECEIVING

Miami 14 Pittsburgh 34

1979 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 30, 1979)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

Houston 13 Pittsburgh 27

1979 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 6, 1980)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

San Diego 31 Pittsburgh 28

1982 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 9, 1983)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

Pittsburgh 10 Los Angeles 38

1983 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 1, 1984)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (DEC. 30, 1984)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutsy two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

Pittsburgh 28
Miami 45

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 6, 1985)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC WILD CARD (DEC. 31, 1989)

Pittsburgh 23 Denver 24

1989 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 7, 1990)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merrill Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merrill Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive with running back Melvin Bratton scoring the first of his two one-yard touchdown runs.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

Buffalo 24
Pittsburgh 3

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 9, 1993)

HOUSTON — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Ferrotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

Pittsburgh 24
Kansas City 27 (ot)

1993 WILD CARD (JAN. 8, 1994)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

From there, on fourth-and-goal, Joe Montana found Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone with his only touchdown pass.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 15, 1995)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh scored on its first three possessions on drives of 65, 53 and 74 yards en route to a 29-9 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Browns made it 17-3 with a 22-yard Matt Stover field goal. Pittsburgh got one more opportunity when Tim McKyer intercepted Vinny Testaverde on the Cleveland 27 yard-line and returned it to the six, with 46 seconds remaining in the half. Three plays later, Pittsburgh took a 24-3 halftime lead when Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a nine-yard grab.

The Steelers added a 40-yard Anderson field goal in the third quarter and a safety by Carnell Lake in the fourth quarter.

Cleveland drove into Pittsburgh territory just three times in 12 possessions. The Steelers out-gained Cleveland 424 yards to 186, 23 first downs to 10 and had 42:27 to 17:33 advantage in time of possession.

The victory was Pittsburgh's first playoff win in five years.

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 14, 1996)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard touchdown strike with 8:46 remaining in the game.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at his own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game.

Indianapolis 14 Pittsburgh 42

1996 AFC WILD CARD (DEC. 29, 1996)

Pittsburgh 3 New England 28

1996 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 5, 1997)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

FOXBORO — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

New England 6 Pittsburgh 7

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 3, 1998)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

New England was limited to a pair of short field goals by Adam Vinatieri and fell two games short of a return to the Super Bowl.

Linebacker Jason Gildon recovered a pair of fumbles for the Steelers. The second recovery came after backup left end Mike Vrabel stripped Bledsoe of the ball, and Gildon pounced on it at the Pittsburgh 34 with 1:44 to play.

The Patriots got back the ball in the final seconds before linebacker Levon Kirkland intercepted a long pass by Bledsoe to seal the win.

Denver 24 Pittsburgh 21

1997 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 11, 1998)

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

Baltimore 10 Pittsburgh 27

2001 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 20, 2002)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

New England 24 Pittsburgh 17

2001 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (1.27.2002)

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

2002 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 5, 2003)

Pittsburgh 31 Tennessee 34 (ot)

2002 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (I.II.2003)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by K Phil Dawson and a 15-yard touchdown pass.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

NASHVILLE — The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31. The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

New York Jets 17 Pittsburgh 20 (ot)

2004 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 15, 2005)

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

The Jets held the lead until Roethlisberger completed a four-yard shovel pass to WR Hines Ward, tying the game at 17-17, with six minutes left in regulation.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

New England 41 Pittsburgh 27

2004 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 23, 2005)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers dreams of advancing to the Super Bowl ended as they lost a disappointing 41-27 loss to New England in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Three first-half Steelers' turnovers were converted into 17 New England points as the Patriots jumped out to a 24-3 lead at halftime, despite controlling the ball for only 10:19.

Steelers rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger suffered his first career loss as a starter. His first pass of the game was intercepted by New England, setting up a 48-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal.

New England capitalized on its next possession when QB Tom Brady hit WR Deion Branch for a 60-yard touchdown score.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 10-3 on a 43-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. The Patriots extended their lead to 17-3 on a nine-yard TD pass to WR David Givens.

The Steelers were ready to answer on their next drive, moving the ball to the New England 19. But Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by S Rodney Harrison and returned 87 yards for a touchdown.

Steelers RB Jerome Bettis scored on a five-yard touchdown run to bring Pittsburgh within 24-10 in the third. On the next drive, though, the Patriots increased the lead to 31-10 on a 25-yard touchdown run by Corey Dillon.

A 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward and a 20-yard field goal by Jeff Reed trimmed the lead to 31-17.

Vinatieri's 31-yard field goal and a 23-yard touchdown pass to Branch extended the Patriots lead to 41-20.

Pittsburgh scored its final touchdown on a seven-yard pass to Burress, but New England ran out the clock for the victory.

Pittsburgh 31 Cincinnati 17

2005 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 8, 2006)

Pittsburgh 21 Indianapolis 18

2005 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 15, 2006)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

San Diego 24 Pittsburgh 35

2008 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 11, 2009)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to their fourth AFC Championship Game in eight seasons as they defeated the San Diego Chargers 35-24 in an AFC Divisional contest at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh advanced to its 14th career AFC Championship Game with the win.

San Diego struck first on the opening possession of the game, covering 75 yards in only four plays, taking barely two minutes off the game clock. WR Vincent Jackson got behind Steelers' CB Ike Taylor and hauled in a 41-yard touchdown reception to give the Chargers a 7-0 lead.

Steelers' WR Santonio Holmes evened the score when he returned a punt 67 yards for a score. San Diego retook the lead, 10-7, courtesy of a 42-yard field goal by K Nate Kaeding.

RB Willie Parker gave the Steelers a 14-10 lead that they would never relinquish with 40 seconds remaining in the first half when he ran into the end zone around left end on a three-yard touchdown scamper.

The Steelers stretched that lead to 21-10 as they drove 77 yards in 13 plays, taking 7:56 off the clock with their opening possession of the third quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller on an eight-yard touchdown reception to cap the drive.

RB Gary Russell swelled the lead to 28-10 when he plunged across the goal-line from one-yard out in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

San Diego scored two touchdowns, a four-yard reception by WR Legedu Naanee and a 62-yard reception by RB Darren Sproles, sandwiched around a 16-yard touchdown run by Parker, his second score of the evening, to conclude the scoring in favor of the Steelers, 35-24.

Roethlisberger had a very efficient game, completing 17-of-26 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 98.4. He improved to 6-2 (.750 pct.) in the playoffs. Parker recorded his first career 100-yard rushing performance in the postseason with 146 yards on 27 attempts (5.4 avg.) with two touchdowns. WR Hines Ward had another big postseason performance with four receptions for 70 yards (17.5 avg.), including a long reception of 41 yards.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Rivers four times, with LB LaMarr Woodley leading the charge with two sacks. LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel had the other two Steelers' sacks. LB Larry Foote had a third-quarter interception, the second of his postseason career.

Baltimore 14 Pittsburgh 23

2008 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 18, 2009)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers put themselves in position to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh struck first following the opening kickoff, covering 50 yards in seven plays, the key play being a 45-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. K Jeff Reed connected from 34 yards out to make it 3-0 in favor of Pittsburgh.

Reed would increase the Pittsburgh lead to 6-0 when he nailed his second field goal, this time a 42-yarder, following an interception by Steelers' CB Deshaea Townsend.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 36-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Santonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Flacco three times, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley, his third consecutive postseason game with two-sacks, and one by DE Aaron Smith. Along with Polamalu and Townsend, S Tyrone Carter had the Steelers' other interception. S Ryan Clark forced a fumble near the end of regulation which was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons.

2010 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP (JAN. 23, 2011)

PITTSBURGH — Down 14 points at halftime, the Steelers rallied to score 24 second-half points to beat the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. With the victory, Pittsburgh improved to 3-0 all-time against the Ravens in the postseason. The Steelers advanced to their 15th AFC Championship game since 1970 and for the fifth time since 2001.

The Steelers got off to a hot start as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out on the Steelers' first drive of the game. It was Mendenhall's first career postseason rushing touchdown. The Ravens responded with a 10-play drive that was capped off with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ray Rice.

The Ravens went up 14-7 when DE Cory Redding returned QB Ben Roethlisberger's fumble 13 yards for a touchdown. And following another Steelers' turnover, QB Joe Flacco found TE Todd Heap for a four-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Ravens' lead at halftime.

Early in the third quarter the Steelers defense took over the game, forcing turnovers on three consecutive Ravens' possessions. After a fumble by Rice, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score to cut the lead 21-14. S Ryan Clark then posted his first career postseason interception, picking off Flacco to set the Steelers up in Ravens' territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for an eight-yard touchdown and the game was tied 21-21. Roethlisberger finished the game with 226 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Another Ravens fumble led to K Shaun Suisham's 35-yard field goal, which gave the Steelers a 24-21 lead. But the Ravens tied the game on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over with less than four minutes left in the game, and they faced a third-and-19 from their own 38-yard line. Roethlisberger found rookie WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 58-yard completion to set up Mendenhall's game-winning one-yard touchdown run, his second of the game.

The Steelers defense limited the Ravens to just 126 yards, the second-lowest total in team postseason history. The defense had five sacks, including three by LB James Harrison, forced three turnovers and held the Ravens to just 28 yards in the second half.

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. On the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

Pittsburgh 23 Denver 29 (ot)

2011 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 8, 2012)

Baltimore 30 Pittsburgh 17

2014 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 3, 2015)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fastest ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions. But they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham connected on a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

But the Broncos would score 20 unanswered points. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers though would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jericho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime. After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

Despite the loss, the Steelers held each Bronco running back to less than 100 yards rushing. The Steelers have not allowed a single running back to rush for more than 100 yards in 18-consecutive postseason games, the longest current streak in the NFL.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

TEAM STATISTICS

PITTSBURGH — QB Joe Flacco's 21-yard touchdown pass to TE Crockett Gillmore midway through the fourth quarter sealed the victory for Baltimore in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh moved the ball well in the first half but only managed to come away with three field goals by K Shaun Suisham (45, 22 and 47). Baltimore RB Bernard Pierce scored on a five-yard run and K Justin Tucker connected on a 28-yard field goal to give Baltimore its 10 points of the first half, and the Ravens led 10-9 at the break.

Tucker connected from 45 yards early in the third quarter to put Baltimore up 13-9. Flacco threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Torrey Smith midway through the third quarter to give the Ravens a 20-9 advantage.

The Steelers got a splash play from their defense early in the fourth quarter when rookie DE Stephon Tuitt recovered a Ravens' fumble. QB Ben Roethlisberger then connected with WR Antonio Brown for a 44-yard gain and rookie WR Martavis Bryant for a six-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 20-15.

Baltimore responded with a 52-yard field goal by Tucker to increase the Ravens' lead to 23-15. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Terrell Suggs. On Baltimore's next play, Flacco hit Gillmore for the game-deciding touchdown.

The Steelers tried to rally but Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone. A blocked punt for a safety by S Shamarko Thomas cut the Ravens' lead to 30-17.

Trailing by 13, Pittsburgh took over with less than two minutes remaining. TE Heath Miller fumbled and the Ravens secured the football and took over at the Pittsburgh 38-yard line. Baltimore then went into its victory formation.

RB Le'Veon Bell, the team's MVP, wasn't able to suit up due to a knee injury.

2015 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 9, 2016)

Pittsburgh 16 Denver 23

2015 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 17, 2016)

CINCINNATI — K Chris Boswell connected on a game-winning 35-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining in the game to beat the Bengals, 18-16, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium.

Pittsburgh led 15-0 after three quarters, thanks to three Boswell field goals and a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Martavis Bryant.

The Steelers defense also forced three turnovers (one interception and two fumbles) in the first three quarters to help give Pittsburgh the 15-point advantage.

On the final play of the third quarter, Roethlisberger injured his shoulder, and he was taken to the locker room to be evaluated. On Cincinnati's ensuing possession, RB Jeremy Hill scored on a one-yard run to cut the lead to 15-7.

After a Steelers' punt, the Bengals marched into Steelers' territory where K Mike Nugent made a 36-yard field goal to cut Pittsburgh's lead to 15-10.

Shortly after the two-minute warning, Cincinnati took a 16-15 lead when QB AJ McCarron threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to WR A.J. Green. On Pittsburgh's ensuing drive, QB Landry Jones, filling in for Roethlisberger, was picked off by LB Vontaze Burfict.

LB Ryan Shazier though would force a fumble on Hill, which was recovered by CB Ross Cockrell, giving the Steelers one more chance. Roethlisberger came back into the game and led the team on a nine-play, 74-yard drive that was capped off by Boswell's game-winning 35-yarder.

DENVER — The Broncos beat the Steelers 23-16 in the 2015 AFC Divisional Playoff at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

Denver K Brandon McManus connected on two first quarter field goals to give the Broncos an early 6-0 lead. Pittsburgh took a 7-6 lead late in the first quarter on RB Fitzgerald Toussaint's one-yard touchdown run.

K Chris Boswell made a 43-yard field goal early in the second quarter to extend the Steelers' lead to 10-6. McManus' 51-yard field goal as time expired in the first half cut Pittsburgh's lead to 10-9 at the break.

Teams exchanged field goals in the third quarter, and the Steelers led 13-12 heading into the final period. Pittsburgh traveled to Denver's 34-yard line early in the fourth quarter, but CB Bradley Roby forced a fumble on Toussaint that was recovered by DE DeMarcus Ware.

QB Peyton Manning then led Denver on a 13-play drive that was capped off by RB C.J. Anderson's one-yard run. After a successful two-point conversion, Denver led 20-13.

The Broncos held the Steelers on fourth down. McManus made a 45-yard field goal to extend Denver's lead to 23-13. Boswell made a 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds remaining in the game to cut the lead to 23-16 but Pittsburgh's onside kick attempt was recovered by Denver, ending the game.

2016 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 8, 2017)

Pittsburgh 18 Kansas City 16

2016 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 15, 2017)

PITTSBURGH — RB Le'Veon Bell set the team's single-game postseason rushing record as he recorded 167 yards, helping lift the Steelers to a 30-12 victory over the Miami Dolphins in the AFC Wild Card Game.

Pittsburgh raced to an early lead thanks to two touchdown passes from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown. The two connected on a 50-yard score and then on a 62-yard score to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter. K Dustin Franks got the Dolphins on the board late in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Bell scored on a one-yard run to give Pittsburgh a 20-3 lead. Franks made a 47-yard field goal late in the second quarter, and the Steelers led 20-6 at the break.

The Steelers scored 10 points in the third quarter to seal the victory. K Chris Boswell made a 34-yard field goal, and Bell scored his second rushing touchdown of the game to make it 30-6. Miami got a late touchdown on QB Mat Moore's four-yard touchdown to RB Damien Williams.

Pittsburgh's defense forced three turnovers and recorded 5.0 sacks, which are tied for the most sacks in team history in a single game since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

KANSAS CITY — K Chris Boswell made an NFL single-game postseason record six field goals, and RB Le'Veon Bell set the team's single postseason game rushing record, recording 170 yards, as they helped lift the Steelers to an 18-16 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium.

Boswell's 22-yard field goal gave Pittsburgh the early 3-0 lead. Kansas City took its only lead of the game on QB Alex Smith's five yard touchdown pass to WR Albert Wilson.

Boswell made three field goals, 38 yards, 36 yards and 45 yards, to give Pittsburgh a 12-7 lead at halftime. Boswell's 43-yard field goal early in the third quarter increased Pittsburgh's lead to 15-7.

K Cairo Santos connected on a 43-yard field goal late in the third quarter to cut the Steelers' lead to 15-10. Boswell's final field goal of the game gave the Steelers an eight-point advantage, 18-10, early in the fourth quarter.

With less than three minutes remaining in the game, Chiefs' RB Spencer Ware scored on a one-yard run. Pittsburgh's defense stopped the Chiefs' two point try.

QB Ben Roethlisberger's first-down completion to WR Antonio Brown after the two-minute warning, sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

2017 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (JAN. 14, 2018)

FOXBOROUGH — QB Tom Brady threw for 384 yards with three touchdowns to help lift the Patriots to a 36-17 victory over the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

New England led 10-0 at the end of the first quarter. K Stephen Gostkowski made a 31-yard field goal on the Patriots' opening drive, and Brady threw a 16-yard touchdown to WR Chris Hogan.

Early in the second quarter, RB DeAngelo Williams scored on a five-yard run to cut the lead to 10-6. But it would be the closest Pittsburgh would get the rest of the game.

Midway through the second quarter, Brady connected with Hogan again, this time for a 34-yard touchdown. K Chris Boswell made a 23-yard field goal late in the second quarter. New England led 17-9 at halftime.

The Patriots scored 19 unanswered points to put the game out of reach. Gostkowski made a 47-yard field goal. RB LeGarrette Blount scored on a one-yard run. Brady threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Julian Edelman. And Gostkowski connected on a 26-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh's final points of the game came on a 30-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Cobi Hamilton.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were unable to overcome a 21-point deficit in their 45-42 AFC Divisional Playoff loss to the Jacksonville Jaguars at Heinz Field.

Three straight rushing touchdowns gave Jacksonville a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Pittsburgh rallied with a 23-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown, but a Steelers' fumble recovered by Jacksonville and returned for a touchdown on the following Pittsburgh drive allowed the Jaguars to maintain their 21-point lead.

The Steelers responded with 14 straight points off of Roethlisberger touchdown passes, first to WR Martavis Bryant, then to RB Le'Veon Bell.

Each team added seven more points early in the fourth quarter, Jacksonville with a touchdown run from RB Leonard Fournette and Pittsburgh with a second touchdown reception from Brown.

With less than five minutes remaining, Jaguars QB Blake Bortles connected with FB Tommy Bohanon on a 14-yard touchdown pass. The Steelers cut their deficit back to seven with an 8-yard touchdown run by Bell.

With just 1:45 remaining, Jacksonville K Josh Lambo converted a 45-yard field goal that increased the score to 45-42.

Roethlisberger recorded his fifth touchdown pass of the day, finding WR JuJu Smith-Schuster in the end zone for a 4-yard score, but the Steelers came up short as time expired.

Cleveland 48 Pittsburgh 37

2020 AFC WILD CARD (JAN. 10, 2021)

FOXBOROUGH — Cleveland defeated Pittsburgh, 48-37, in the wild card round, picking up the Browns' first postseason victory in more than a quarter-century.

Cleveland QB Baker Mayfield threw for 263 yards and three touchdowns, including a screen pass that Nick Chubb turned into a 40-yard score that halted the Steelers' momentum after the Steelers pulled within 12. Kareem Hunt added 48 yards and two TDs on the ground while Cleveland's defense forced five turnovers.

The victory was the Browns' first postseason triumph of any kind since beating New England on New Year's Day 1995 — three months before Mayfield was born — and their first playoff win on the road since Dec. 28, 1969.

The Steelers certainly helped, ending a season in which they started 11-0 with a thud that could reverberate for years. Ben Roethlisberger ended his comeback season by throwing for 501 yards on an NFL-record 47 completions with four touchdowns and four interceptions.

Pittsburgh's problems started on the first play from scrimmage when center Maurkice Pouncey's snap sailed by Roethlisberger into the end zone. Cleveland's Karl Joseph fell on it for a touchdown. Roethlisberger threw three first-half interceptions, two of which led directly to Browns scores.

By the time the Steelers found their footing, they were down 28-0. Even when they did get it going on a 1-yard touchdown run by James Conner with 1:44 to go in the half, the Browns stormed right back. Mayfield capped a cathartic opening half with a masterful 64-yard drive that ended with a 7-yard toss to Austin Hooper with 34 seconds remaining. Pittsburgh countered with a field goal in the closing seconds but trailed 35-10 at the break.

Pittsburgh tried to claw back in it. The Steelers pulled within 35-23 at the end of the third quarter.

Pittsburgh 16 Minnesota 6

SUPER BOWL IX (JAN. 12, 1975)

NEW ORLEANS —The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a hand-off to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

The Steelers celebrate their safety against Vikings' quarterback Fran Tarkenton in Super Bowl IX.

Pittsburgh 21 Dallas 17

SUPER BOWL X (JAN. 18, 1976)

MIAMI—What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—“America’s Team”—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann out-leaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh’s Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left for 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes’s punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys’ lead to 10-9. Gerela, who’d donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh’s 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Pittsburgh’s “Steel Curtain” defense forced Cowboys’ quarterback Roger Staubach into throwing three interceptions in the Steelers’ Super Bowl X victory.

SUPER BOWL XIII (JAN. 21, 1979)

MIAMI—This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Steelers' quarterback Terry Bradshaw threw for 318 yards and four touchdowns in the 35-31 victory over Dallas in Super Bowl XIII.

SUPER BOWL XIV (JAN. 20, 1980)

PASADENA —There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team’s first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of “What if?” euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers’ fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams’ 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers’ lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game’s most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Steelers’ running back Franco Harris ran for two touchdowns, including the game’s final score, as Pittsburgh recorded a 31-19 win over the Los Angeles Rams in Super Bowl XIV.

Dallas 27 Pittsburgh 17

SUPER BOWL XXX (JAN. 28, 1996)

TEMPE — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Pittsburgh's defense limited Dallas to just 56 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XXX matchup.

Pittsburgh 21 Seattle 10

SUPER BOWL XL (FEB. 5, 2006)

DETROIT —Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks, including one each from CB Deshea Townsend, LB Clark Haggans and NT Casey Hampton.

Pittsburgh's Deshea Townsend had one of three sacks in the Steelers' 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL.

Pittsburgh 27
Arizona 23

SUPER BOWL XLIII (FEB. 1, 2009)

TAMPA –Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers’ NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers’ second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh’s favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers’ lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers’ lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers’ C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers’ advantage to 20-16.

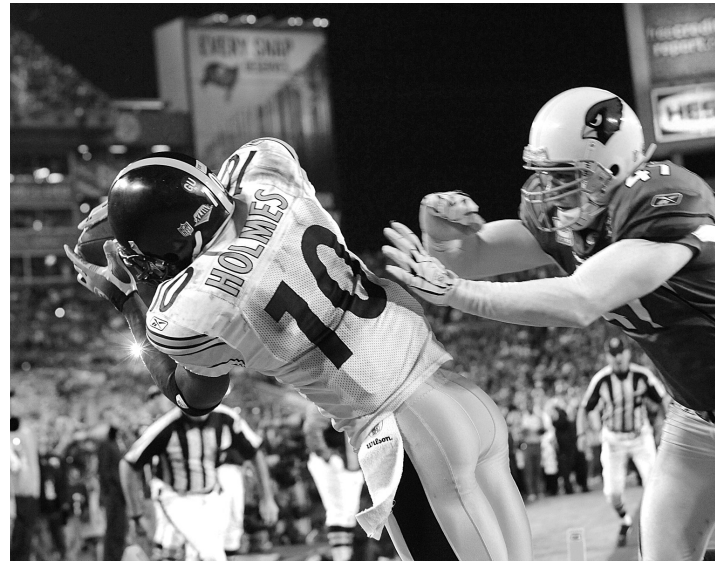

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers’ defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers’ lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game’s MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2. TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers’ sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

WR Santonio Holmes catches the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to seal the Steelers’ victory in Super Bowl XLIII.

Green Bay 31 Pittsburgh 25

SUPER BOWL XLV (FEB. 6, 2011)

ARLINGTON –The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers got on the board early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again. On the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers though would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled, the Packers marched down the field, and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17.

The Steelers, however, responded on their ensuing possession as Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line.

WR Mike Wallace finished with nine catches for 89 yards and a touchdown in Super Bowl XLV.
