DOLPHINS EN ESPAÑOL

LOS DOLPHINS FINALIZAN 2016 CON 10-6 RECORD Y PRIMER PLAYOFF DESDE 2008

En el primer año encabezado por Adam Gase, los Miami Dolphins terminaron 2016 con un récord de 10-6, el mejor récord del equipo desde el 2008, y ganaron un lugar en los playoffs de la NFL por primera vez desde el 2008. Gase se convirtió en el cuarto entrenador de los Dolphins en avanzar a la posttemporada en su primera temporada, uniéndose a Don Shula (1970), Dave Wannstedt (2000) y Tony Sparano (2008). Sparano y Gase son los únicos entrenadores en la historia de los Dolphins en llegar a los playoffs en la primera temporada como entrenadores de la NFL.

AJUSTES DURANTE EL INTERMEDIO

El Head Coach Adam Gase y los Miami Dolphins han jugado su mejor football al final de los juegos. En la segunda mitad, los Dolphins superaron a sus oponentes 221-175. El margen de 46 puntos es el octavo lugar en la NFL.

LOS DOLPHINS EN LOS ONCE JUEGOS FINALES DE LA TEMPORADA REGULAR

Miami ganó nueve de sus últimos 11 juegos que se remontan a la sexta semana. Esta es la mejor racha de Miami en nueve partidos desde 2008, cuando el equipo ganó nueve de sus últimos 10 partidos para ganar la AFC Este.

HOGAR DULCE (NUEVO) HOGAR

Con un nuevo pabellón y un estadio modernizado, los Dolphins no perdieron tiempo estableciendo ventaja en el estadio Hard Rock. Miami fue 6-2 en casa esta temporada, su mejor registro en casa desde 2002, y tuvo una racha de cinco victorias consecutivas en casa a mediados de la temporada. La racha de cinco victorias en casa fue la más larga desde 2001-02.

RACHA GANADORA DE SEIS JUEGOS

Después de comenzar la temporada 1-4, los Dolphins utilizaron una racha ganadora de seis juegos para ayudar a posicionararse en la posición de playoff. La racha comenzó con una victoria de 30-15 frente a Pittsburgh el 16 de octubre y continuó hasta una derrota de 38-6 en Baltimore el 4 de diciembre.

Esa racha ganadora fue la más larga del equipo desde la temporada 2005 y marcó la segunda vez que un entrenador que no fuera Don Shula lideró al equipo a seis victorias consecutivas en la temporada regular. Shula tenía 11 rachas de seis juegos y Nick Saban tenía uno.

LAS 1,272 YARDAS DE AJAYI

El RB Jay Ajayi completó la tercera temporada más productiva de un corredor en la historia de los Dolphins. Terminó el año con 1,272 yardas, la tercera más en la historia del equipo y la mayoría desde el RB Ricky Williams corrió para 1,372 yardas en 2003. Ajayi se convirtió en la cuarta corredor de la NFL desde 2014 a correr por lo menos 1,250 yardas en su primera o segunda temporada de la NFL, uniéndose a Ezekiel Elliott de Dallas (2016), Le'Veon Bell de Pittsburgh (2014) y Jordan Howard de Chicago (2016).

EL HOMBRE DE 200 YARDAS

El RB Jay Ajayi corrió 200 yardas en tres partidos esta temporada, incluyendo partidos consecutivos en la sexta semana y la séptima semana, convirtiéndose en uno de sólo cuatro jugadores en lograr esa hazaña en la historia de la NFL. Dos de sus juegos de 200 yardas fueron contra los Buffalo Bills mientras que el otro fue contra los Pittsburgh Steelers. El obtuvo el honor de 'AFC Offensive Player of the Week' por sus tres desempeños.

DUO DE 1,000 YARDAS

El RB Jay Ajayi y el WR Jarvis Landry superaron los dos 1,000 yardas para la temporada en la victoria de la Semana 15 contra los New York Jets. Esto marcó la segunda vez que un equipo de los Dolphins tuvo un corredor de 1,000 yardas y un receptor de 1,000 yardas en la misma temporada (2011 - RB Reggie Bush corrió 1,086 yardas y WR Brandon Marshall registró 1,124 yardas de recepción).

1,000 YARDAS Y 90 RECEPCIONES DE LANDRY

El WR Jarvis Landry terminó la temporada con 1,136 yardas, bueno para el octavo más en una temporada en la historia del equipo. Landry es el primer receptor de los Dolphins que supera los 1,000 yardas en temporadas consecutivas desde que Brian Hartline lo hizo en 2012 y 2013 y fue el sexto receptor de los Dolphins en tener temporadas consecutivas de 1,000 yardas (Mark Clayton, Mark Duper, Irving Fryar, Brian Hartline y Brandon Marshall). El alcanzó un total de 1,157 yardas el año pasado.

Con 94 recepciones esta temporada, Landry ocupa el cuarto lugar en la historia del equipo de una temporada. Ahora es dueño de tres de las seis mejores marcas de recepción de una sola temporada de la franquicia, incluyendo el récord del equipo de 110 que estableció en 2015.

TANNEHILL MEJORÓ CALIFICACIÓN Y EFICIENCIA

El QB Ryan Tannehill terminó la temporada con una calificación de quarterback de 93.5 y promedió 7.70 yardas por intento. Ambas marcas se clasificaron en la mitad superior de la NFL en 2016 y son máximos de su carrera. Es la cuarta mayor calificación de pasador en la historia de la franquicia y el más alto por un quarterback de los Dolphins desde 2008, cuando QB Chad Pennington registró una calificación de 97.4.

SUH Y WAKE SON SELECCIONADOS PARA EL PRO BOWL

El DT Ndamukong Suh y el DE Cameron Wake fueron seleccionados para comenzar por la AFC en el 2017 Pro Bowl. Es la quinta selección de Pro Bowl para cada uno de ellos y los Dolphins son uno de los dos equipos de la NFL (Seattle) en tener dos linieros defensivos seleccionados para el Pro Bowl. Esta es la primera vez desde 2002 (DT Tim Bowens y DE Jason Taylor) que los Dolphins han tenido dos linieros defensivos seleccionados en la lista inicial de Pro Bowl en la misma temporada y la cuarta vez en total (1983, 2000, 2002, 2016).

Suh fue tercero entre todos los linieros defensivos interiores esta temporada con 72 'tackles' en total (41 en solitario) y empató en la décima con cinco 'sacks'. Terminó entre los cinco primeros en 'tackles' en total por un liniero defensivo interior por tercer año consecutivo.

Wake jugó sólo siete partidos el año pasado antes de sufrir una lesión de Aquiles que terminó esa temporada y se ha recuperado logrando una de las mejores temporadas de su carrera. Desde que se convirtió en 'starter' en la sexta semana, fue segundo en la NFL con 10.5 'sacks' y ayudó a los Dolphins a establecer un récord de 9-2 en esos 11 partidos y su primer desempate desde 2008.

EL MEJOR REGRESO DE LA NFL: CAMERON WAKE

En pocas palabras, el DE Cameron Wake es uno de los mejores 'rushers' en llevar el uniforme de los Dolphins. A pesar de tener su temporada de 2015 reducida por una lesión de Aquiles en su séptimo juego, y con 34 años de edad, Wake tuvo la temporada regular más dominante de su ilustre carrera de ocho años en la NFL.

En 2016, Wake fue tercero en la AFC y empató sexto lugar en la NFL con 11.5 'sacks'. Desde que Wake se convirtió en 'starter' de los Dolphins en la sexta semana, fue segundo en la NFL con 10.5 'sacks' y ayudó a Miami en ganar nueve de sus últimos 11 partidos de temporada regular.

Wake fue empatado en segundo lugar en la AFC y empató en la tercera posición en la NFL con cinco balones sueltos forzados esta temporada. Él tiene nueve balones sueltos forzados desde 2015, el más en la NFL durante ese lapso, a pesar de jugar sólo siete partidos la temporada pasada.

TEAM NOTES

DOLPHINS FINISH 2016 WITH 10-6 MARK AND FIRST PLAYOFF BERTH SINCE 2008

In Adam Gase's first year at the helm, the Miami Dolphins finished 2016 with a 10-6 record, the team's best record since 2008, and earned a spot in the NFL playoffs for the first time since 2008. Gase became the fourth Dolphins head coach to advance to the postseason in his first season, joining Don Shula (1970), Dave Wannstedt (2000) and Tony Sparano (2008). Sparano and Gase are the only Dolphins head coaches to lead the team to the playoffs in their first season as an NFL head coach.

HALFTIME ADJUSTMENTS

Head Coach Adam Gase and the Miami Dolphins played their best football late in games. After halftime, the Dolphins outscored their opponents 221-175. The 46-point margin was eighth-best in the NFL.

THE DOLPHINS IN THEIR FINAL 11 REGULAR SEASON GAMES

Miami won nine of its final 11 games of the regular season, dating back to Week 6. The run was Miami's best 11-game stretch since 2008, when the team also won nine of its final 11 contests to win the AFC East.

STATISTICAL COMPARISON: WEEKS 1-5 VS. WEEKS 6-17

One of the reasons Miami was so good during the final 11 games of 2016 was the improvement in several key statistical categories.

HOME SWEET (NEW) HOME

With a new canopy and a modernized stadium, the Dolphins wasted no time establishing a home-field advantage at Hard Rock Stadium. Miami went 6-2 in the venue in 2016, their best home record since 2002, and had a stretch of five straight home victories in the middle of the season. The five-game home winning streak was the team's longest since 2001-02.

DOLPHINS MAKE MOVES IN THE AFC EAST

Miami made moves in its own division this season, winning four of its six AFC East games to post the team's best divisional record since 2009, a year they also finished 4-2 against the AFC East.

All four of the Dolphins' wins came against the New York Jets and Buffalo Bills. It was the first time the team had swept both the Jets and Bills in the same season since 2003. The Dolphins swept Buffalo for the first time since 2011 and last swept the Jets in 2009.

SIX-GAME WINNING STREAK

After starting the 2016 season 1-4, the Dolphins utilized a six-game winning streak to help put themselves in playoff position. The streak began with a 30-15 victory vs. Pittsburgh on Oct. 16 and continued until a 38-6 loss at Baltimore on Dec. 4.

That winning streak was the team's longest since the 2005 season and marked just the second time a coach other than Don Shula led the team to six straight regular season wins. Shula had 11 such streaks and Nick Saban had one.

BREAKING DOWN THE DOLPHINS ROSTER:

The Dolphins only carried 52 players on their roster into their final game, the AFC Wild Card matchup at Pittsburgh. Here is how the Dolphins' final 52-man roster broke down:

- There were 24 offensive players, 25 defensive players and three specialists.
- Of the 52 players on Miami's roster, 19 of them (36.5 pct.) were drafted by the Dolphins.
- Miami also had nine undrafted college free agents on the roster that began their NFL careers with the Dolphins, bringing the total to 28 of the 52 players (53.8 pct.) that began their NFL careers with the Dolphins.
- Of Miami's 52 players, 17 of them (32.7 pct.) were not selected in the NFL draft.
- A total of 40 of the 52 players (76.9 pct.) were 28 years old or younger.

AJAYI'S 1,272 RUSHING YARDS

RB Jay Ajayi completed the third-most productive season by a running back in Dolphins history. He finished the 2016 season with 1,272 rushing yards, the third-most in team history and most since RB Ricky Williams rushed for 1,372 yards in 2003. Ajayi became just the fourth NFL running back since 2014 to rush for at least 1,250 yards in his first or second NFL season, joining Dallas' Ezekiel Elliott (2016), Chicago's Jordan Howard (2016) and Pittsburgh's Le'Veon Bell (2014). Here is a look at how Ajayi's season ranked in Dolphins history:

THE 200-YARD MAN

RB Jay Ajayi rushed for 200 yards in three contests in 2016, including back-to-back games in Week 6 and Week 7, becoming one of only four players to accomplish that feat in NFL history. Two of his 200-yard games came against the Buffalo Bills while the other was vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers. He earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for all three performances.

MORE ON AJAYI'S 200-YARD GAMES

RB Jay Ajayi joined O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1976), Earl Campbell (1980) and Ricky Williams (2002) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 200-plus yards in consecutive games, when he did so in Weeks 6 and 7.

He became one of just four NFL players to ever rush for 200 yards at least three times in the same season. The others to do so are Earl Campbell (1980, four times), O.J. Simpson (1973, three times) and Tiki Barber (2005, three times).

Ajayi rushed for 420 yards in two games against Buffalo in 2016, the fourth-highest rushing total against one team in a single season, trailing Jamal Lewis (500 vs. Cleveland in 2003), O.J. Simpson (469 vs. New England in 1973) and LaDainian Tomlinson (430 vs. Oakland in 2003).

AJAYI IN THE FINAL 11 GAMES

A big reason for Miami's success in winning nine of its final 11 regular season games was the emergence of RB Jay Ajayi. The second-year back totaled 229 carries for 1,155 yards (5.0 avg.) and six touchdowns during the last 11 games and had four 100-yard games, including three 200-yard contests.

From Week 6 through the end of the season, Ajayi led the NFL in rushing yards (1,155) and tied for the lead in 10-plus yard runs (36). He was third in first down carries (52) and sixth in yards per carry (5.0).

Ajayi performed against some of the best run defenses in the league. Seven of Miami's final 11 regular season games came against teams ranked among the top 15 rush defenses in the NFL (New England No. 3t; Baltimore No. 5; Arizona No. 9; San Diego No. 10; N.Y. Jets No. 11 [twice]; and Pittsburgh No. 13).

GIVE HIM THE ROCK IN THE SECOND HALF

RB Jay Ajayi ran for a team-record 153 yards in the second half of the Week 6 victory vs. Pittsburgh. He also topped 100 yards after halftime twice against the Bills, with 125 yards in Week 16 at Buffalo and 115 vs. Buffalo in Week 7. Ajayi owned three of the top five largest second-half rushing totals in the league in 2016 and was second in the NFL in second-half rushing with 697 yards on 125 carries (5.6 avg.). His 5.6 yards per carry after halftime was third in the NFL among running backs.

1,000-YARD DUO

RB Jay Ajayi and WR Jarvis Landry each topped 1,000 yards for the 2016 season in the Week 15 win at the N.Y. Jets. It marked just the second time a Dolphins team had a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season (2011 - RB Reggie Bush rushed for 1,086 yards and WR Brandon Marshall posted 1,124 receiving yards).

LANDRY HIT 1,000 YARDS AND 90 RECEPTIONS

WR Jarvis Landry finished the 2016 season with 1,136 receiving yards, good for the eighth-most in single-season team history. Landry became the first Dolphins wide receiver to top 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since Brian Hartline did in 2012 and 2013 and was the sixth Dolphins wide out to ever post consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (Mark Clayton, Mark Duper, Irving Fryar, Brian Hartline and Brandon Marshall). He totaled 1,157 receiving yards last year.

With 94 receptions in 2016, Landry ranked No. 4 in single-season team history. He now owns three of the franchise's top six single-season reception marks, including the team record of 110 he set in 2015.

LANDRY ON THIRD DOWN

WR Jarvis Landry tied for seventh in the league with 26 third-down receptions. The reliable target had 335 yards on third downs, the ninth-best mark in the NFL.

Prior to his injury in Week 14, QB Ryan Tannehill was playing some of the best football of his career. Tannehill posted three of his top five best quarterback ratings in his last five games. He had a 130.6 rating in Week 10 at San Diego and Week 12 vs. San Francisco, which tied for the second best rating of his career. He also posted a 124.0 rating in Week 14 vs. Arizona, the fifth-best rating of his career.

TANNEHILL IMPROVED RATING AND EFFICIENCY

QB Ryan Tannehill finished the season with a 93.5 quarterback rating and averaged 7.70 yards per attempt. Both marks ranked in the top half of the NFL in 2016 and were career highs. It was the fourth-highest passer rating in franchise history and highest by a Dolphins quarterback since 2008, when QB Chad Pennington posted a 97.4 rating.

TANNEHILL HAS THE DEEP BALL

QB Ryan Tannehill had seven games this season with a completion of at least 50 yards after he hit WR Jarvis Landry for a 71-yard gain to set up a Miami touchdown in the third quarter of the Week 14 game vs. Arizona.

Tannehill's seven games with a 50-plus yard play were tied for the most in the NFL in 2016 and was a career high. It topped his previous career high of three games set in 2013. Baltimore's Joe Flacco and Washington's Kirk Cousins also had seven games with a 50-plus yard completion during the 2016 season.

In the three regular season games QB Matt Moore started, he completed passes of 50-plus yards in two contests, giving the Dolphins nine such games this season.

TANNEHILL BECOMES DOLPHINS RECORD-HOLDER

QB Ryan Tannehill has not only been an effective passer, but he has also showcased his mobility and running ability during his five-year NFL career. Tannehill is the Dolphins' all-time career leader in rushing yards by a quarterback with 1,065 yards. He surpassed Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese's 994 rushing yards in the Week 11 win at Los Angeles.

That equates to a 97.3 passer rating.

DEFENSE NOTES

THE NFL'S BEST COMEBACK: CAMERON WAKE

Simply put, DE Cameron Wake is one of the best pass rushers to ever wear a Dolphins uniform. Despite having his 2015 season cut short by an Achilles injury in his seventh game and being 34 years young, Wake had arguably the most dominant regular season of his illustrious eight-year NFL career.

In 2016, Wake was third in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 11.5 sacks. Since Wake became a starter for the Dolphins in Week 6, he was second in the NFL with 10.5 sacks and helped Miami win nine of its final 11 regular season games.

Wake was tied for second in the AFC and tied for third in the NFL with five forced fumbles in 2016. He has nine forced fumbles since 2015, the most in the NFL during that span, despite playing just seven games in 2015.

Since joining the Dolphins in 2009, Wake has compiled four double-digit sack campaigns, seven consecutive seasons of seven-plus sacks and is second in team history in all-time career sacks.

Here is a look at the Dolphins' all-time career sack leaders:

2.	CAMERON WAKE	2009-16	81.5
3.	Bill Stanfill	1969-76	69.5

Wake is also one of the best undrafted pass rushers in NFL history. With 81.5 career sacks, he is tied for second in NFL history (since sacks were recognized as an official statistic in 1982) for most career sacks by players who were undrafted:

4.	Chris Clemons	2004-15	69.0

Wake's consistency has placed him among the NFL's elite pass rushers. Since he entered the league in 2009, there is only one player with more sacks than Wake:

1.	DeMarcus Ware	Dal./Den.	85.0
2.	CAMERON WAKE	MIAMI	81.5

Wake reached the double-digit sack mark in the Week 15 win at the N.Y. Jets. It was the fourth season in Wake's career that he has reached double-digit sacks, and he is one of three NFL players in the past decade to have 10-plus sacks at age 34 or older, joining DE/LB Julius Peppers (2015) and DE John Abraham (2012-13).

With his first career interception and a forced fumble in Week 15 at the N.Y. Jets, Wake became the first Dolphins defensive lineman since DE Jason Taylor in 2006 to have an interception and forced fumble in the same game.

SACKS BY SUH

DT Ndamukong Suh is third among all NFL defensive tackles in sacks since he entered the league in 2010.

With five sacks in 2016, Suh was tied for 10th in the NFL in sacks by a defensive tackle.

Here is a look at how Suh's sacks stack up since he entered the league in 2010:

Since he entered the NFL as a first-round pick in 2010, Suh is second among all interior defensive linemen with 48.5 stuffs. A stuff is defined as any tackle of a ball carrier behind the line of scrimmage during a rushing attempt.

Suh set a new career high and was third among all interior defensive linemen in total tackles in 2016 with 72 (41 solo). He finished among the top five in total tackles by an NFL interior defensive linemen for the third consecutive season.

MAXWELL AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS

CB Byron Maxwell put up one of the best statistical seasons by a cornerback in the NFL. He totaled 53 tackles (43 solo), two interceptions, four forced fumbles and 15 passes defensed despite only playing 13 games.

His 15 passes defensed were a career high for the sixth-year pro and tied for 13th in the NFL. They are the most by a Dolphins player since 2008 (CB Andre Goodman).

The four forced fumbles were also a career high, tied for seventh in the NFL and the most by a Dolphins defensive back in franchise history. He had more forced fumbles than any other cornerback in the NFL and the most by an NFL cornerback since Charles Tillman had 10 in 2012.

DEFENSE NOTES

SUH AND WAKE SELECTED TO PRO BOWL

DT Ndamukong Suh and DE Cameron Wake were both selected to start for the AFC in the 2017 Pro Bowl. It was the fifth Pro Bowl selection for each of them and the Dolphins are one of just two NFL teams (Seattle) to have two defensive linemen selected for the Pro Bowl. This is the first time since 2002 (DT Tim Bowens and DE Jason Taylor) that the Dolphins have had two defensive linemen selected on the initial Pro Bowl roster in the same season and the fourth time overall (1983, 2000, 2002, 2016).

Suh was third among all interior defensive linemen in 2016 with 72 total tackles (41 solo) and tied for 10th with five sacks. He finished among the top five in total tackles by an interior defensive lineman for the third straight year.

Wake played just seven games in 2015 prior to suffering a season-ending Achilles injury and bounced back with one of the finest seasons of his career. Since becoming a starter in Week 6, he was second in the NFL with 10.5 sacks and helped the Dolphins to a 9-2 record in those 11 games and their first playoff berth since 2008.

AN OPPORTUNISTIC DEFENSE

The Dolphins saw a streak of seven straight games with a takeaway snapped in Week 16 at Buffalo. It was the team's longest streak in a single season since 2013, when they forced a turnover in each of the team's first 15 games.

In the seven-game streak, the Dolphins forced 19 turnovers. It was the most turnovers in a seven-game span for the Dolphins since they forced 19 in seven games from Nov. 7 to Dec. 26, 2004.

Miami also forced four turnovers in back-to-back games, wins over Arizona in Week 14 and the N.Y. Jets in Week 15. The last time the Dolphins forced at least four turnovers in consecutive contests was Dec. 21 and Dec. 28, 2008, when they forced four turnovers at Kansas City and the N.Y. Jets, respectively.

The Dolphins forced three turnovers in the first quarter of the Week 14 win vs. Arizona, tying the team record for most turnovers forced in the first quarter of a game. The team also forced three turnovers in first quarter wins at Oakland in 1998 and vs. Kansas City in 1995. Miami's four turnovers forced in the first half of that game were the team's most in the first half since Sept. 3, 2000 vs. Seattle.

NOT ONE, NOT TWO, NOT THREE...

The Dolphins had four interceptions in the fourth quarter of the Week 10 win at San Diego. It tied the franchise record* for most turnovers forced in a quarter. The Dolphins also forced four turnovers in the second quarter vs. Seattle on Sept. 3, 2000 and in the fourth quarter vs. Buffalo on Oct. 26, 2008. It set the team record* for most interceptions in a quarter and was just the 11th time in the NFL (since 1991) that a team has recorded four-or-more interceptions in a quarter.

*Numbers only available from 1971 to present

DOLPHINS DEFENSE WAS ONE OF THE NFL'S BEST ON THIRD DOWN

The Dolphins defense was designed to be an attacking-style front that thrives on critical plays and they did just that. Miami's defense finished fourth in the NFL in third-down conversion percentage, holding the opposition to just a 36.2 percent success rate on third downs, more than three percentage points better than the league average of 39.7.

ALONSO'S BIG PLAYS LEAD TO WINS

LB Kiko Alonso had a performance to remember in Week 12 vs. San Francisco. He led the team with 11 tackles (four solo) and had one interception and one fumble recovery, in addition to assisting on a tackle of 49ers QB Colin Kaepernick 2 yards shy of the end zone on the game's final play. It was his third straight game with a turnover.

Alonso became the first Dolphins linebacker since at least 1993 and was one of just two NFL linebackers (Carolina LB Thomas Davis) to intercept a pass and recover a fumble in the same game in 2016.

The fumble recovery was his fourth of the 2016 season, tied for the most in the NFL in 2016 and most by a Dolphins player since DE Jason Taylor had four in 2001.

KIKO'S GAME-WINNING PICK-SIX

LB Kiko Alonso made the game-winning play in Week 10 at San Diego, picking off Chargers QB Philip Rivers and returning it for a 60-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins a 31-24 lead with 1:01 to play. The touchdown was the first of Alonso's career and was Miami's first defensive touchdown since DE Derrick Shelby had a 22-yard interception return for a score vs. Baltimore on Dec. 6, 2015. It was the third-longest interception return in the AFC in 2016.

Alonso's touchdown was the latest a Dolphins player had returned an interception for a touchdown to give Miami the lead since at least 1991. It was the latest any NFL player had given his team a lead since Atlanta's Robert Alford had a 59-yard interception return in overtime to defeat Washington on Oct. 11, 2015.

ALONSO AMONG AFC'S LEADING TACKLERS

Miami acquired LB Kiko Alonso in an offseason trade with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2016. Born to a Colombian mother and a Cuban father, Alonso speaks fluent Spanish and embraced Miami's Latin culture.

Alonso was ninth in the AFC and led the team with 115 total tackles.

CB Tony Lippett was a wide receiver at Michigan State in 2014. Two years later, he tied for 11th in the NFL with four interceptions in 2016. Lippett had two multi-interception games and is the first Dolphins player to do that since CB Sam Madison had two multi-interception games in 1999.

The last time a Dolphins player had four-plus interceptions in his first or second NFL season was CB Vontae Davis, who had four interceptions during his rookie season in 2009.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

THOMAS AND HULL LED NFL ON SPECIAL TEAMS

S Michael Thomas tied for the NFL lead with 19 special teams tackles. Thomas is second in the NFL lead in special teams tackles (43) since 2014, his first full season in the league. In 2015, Thomas was named a first-team All Pro on special teams by Pro Football Focus.

LB Mike Hull was third in the NFL with 18 special teams tackles.

AIKENS' BIG PLAYS

S Walt Aikens made game-changing plays in consecutive weeks to help the Dolphins defeat Arizona in Week 14 and the N.Y. Jets in Week 15. In the fourth quarter vs. Arizona, Aikens returned a blocked PAT all the way to the end zone for a 2-point defensive conversion. The play extended Miami's lead to eight and the Dolphins won the game with a field goal as time expired. It was the first 2-point defensive conversion in Dolphins history.

In the Week 15 win at the N.Y. Jets, Aikens blocked a punt early in the third quarter and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown to give the Dolphins a two-score lead that they would not relinquish. It was Miami's first blocked punt return for a touchdown since 2012.

KENYAN'S KICKOFF RETURNS

Including the playoffs, RB Kenyan Drake tied the franchise record with three kickoff returns of at least 50 yards in 2016 (96t, 78, 58). S Brock Marion (1999) and RB Marcus Thigpen (2012) also had three kickoff returns of at least 50 yards in the same season.

Drake returned one for a 96-yard touchdown to win the game in Week 9 vs. the N.Y. Jets, had a 78-yard kickoff return in Week 12 vs. San Francisco and posted a 58-yard kickoff return in the AFC Wild Card game at Pittsburgh.

Noting Drake's kickoff return to beat the Jets:

- The 96-yard return was tied for the sixth longest in team history.
- It was Miami's first kickoff return for a touchdown since Nov. 15, 2012 at Buffalo when RB Marcus Thigpen also had a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.
- The 96 yards marked the second-longest kickoff return by a rookie in Dolphins history (Mercury Morris, 105 yards, at Cincinnati, Sept. 14, 1969).
- It is the fifth time in Dolphins history that the team has returned a kickoff and punt return for a touchdown in the same season (2012, 1989, 1981 and 1970).
- According to Elias Sports Bureau, it was the latest game-winning kickoff return for a touchdown since 2003, when Kansas City's Dante Hall had a 97-yard kickoff return to give the Chiefs a 17-10 lead with 5:08 left at Baltimore.
- It marks just the second time in team history and fourth in NFL history (since the merger in 1970) that a team has returned a kickoff and punt for a touchdown in the same season by two different rookies. Tommy Vigorito (punt return) and Fulton Walker (kickoff return) accomplished the feat for the Dolphins in 1981. The others were Philadelphia in 2008 (DeSean Jackson and Quintin Demps) and Buffalo in 1973 (Bill Cahill and Wallace Francis).

MIGHTY MOUSE

WR Jakeem Grant scored his first NFL touchdown in Week 5, when he took a punt return 74 yards to tie the game in the second quarter vs. Tennessee. It was the seventh-longest punt return in team history and the fourth-longest punt return by a rookie. He was one of just three AFC players (Houston WR Will Fuller and Kansas City WR Tyreek Hill) to return a punt for a touchdown in 2016.

PUNTING IT AWAY FROM LANDRY AND GRANT

The threat of WR Jarvis Landry or WR Jakeem Grant breaking a long punt return caused opponents to try and alter their punting strategy against them. With hangtime and direction more important than distance, opposing punters had the lowest gross punting average in the NFL when playing the Dolphins. Miami's opponents averaged just 41.8 yards per punt, well below the 45.3 league average.

KICKOFF (RETURN) STRATEGY

It isn't just new touchback rules (a touchback now brings the ball out to the 25-yard line) that challenged opponent's kickoff strategies, but also rookie kickoff returners Kenyan Drake and Jakeem Grant. Neither Drake or Grant had enough kickoff returns to qualify for the league leaders (min: 17), but Drake's 30.5 avg. would have been second in the NFL and Grant's 23.1 avg. would have been sixth.

FRANKS WINS GAME AT BUFFALO

K Andrew Franks was clutch for the Dolphins down the stretch. The second-year kicker drilled a career-long 55-yard field goal in Week 16 at Buffalo with 6 seconds remaining to send the game to overtime. He followed it up with a 27-yard game-winner in overtime to seal the victory.

The game-winning kick was Franks' second in a three-week span. In Week 14 vs. Arizona, he booted a 21-yard field goal in driving rain as time expired to give Miami the 26-23 victory. The two game-winners were the first two of Franks' career.

TOP 10 UNITS

The Dolphins had several top 10 special teams units this season. On Dolphins kickoffs, opponents averaged starting field possession at the 24.4-yard line, the 10th-best mark in the league. On opposing kickoffs, the Dolphins started, on average, at the 25.3-yard line, the eighth-best mark. When opponents punted to the Dolphins, they averaged just 37.4 net yards per punt, which placed the Dolphins third in the league.

THE DENNEY STREAK

LS John Denney wrapped up the 37-year old's 12th NFL regular season. Denney has been Miami's long snapper for every game dating back to 2005 - a consecutive games streak that spans 192 regular season contests. That streak is the longest in Dolphins history and is tied for the fourth longest among all active NFL players.

Denney is also fourth in team history with 192 games played. He moved past former Dolphins WR Nat Moore for sole possession of fourth place in Week 9 vs. the N.Y. Jets.

MIAMI DOLPHINS ANNOUNCE TEAM AWARD WINNERS

Miami – The Miami Dolphins announced its team award winners for the 2016 season. Running back Jay Ajayi was named the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player, defensive end Cameron Wake earned the Don Shula Leadership Award and also was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner and wide receiver Kenny Stills earned the Nat Moore Community Service Award.

Ajayi is a first-time winner of the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player award after he totaled 1,272 rushing yards, the third-most in a single season in Dolphins history. Ricky Williams is the only Dolphins player to ever rush for more yards in a season, when he totaled 1,853 in 2002 and 1,372 in 2003. Ajayi rushed for 200-plus yards three different times in 2016, posting three of the team's top six single-game rushing totals in this season alone. He is one of just four NFL players to rush for 200 yards in at least three games in a season, joining Earl Campbell (1980, four times), O.J. Simpson (1973, three times) and Tiki Barber (2005, three times). He posted back-to-back 200-yard rushing games vs. Pittsburgh (Oct. 16) and Buffalo (Oct. 23) and is just the fourth NFL player to do that, joining O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1976), Earl Campbell (1980) and Williams (2002). Ajayi is just the third running back to win the award since 1982, joining Williams (2002, 2009) and Keith Byars (1993). This award is voted on by South Florida media and the organization and was re-named the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player Award in 2000 to reflect the achievements of Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino.

RB Jay Ajayi was named the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player

DE Cameron Wake earned the Don Shula Leadership Award for the third time in his career and was also named the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient is one of just three NFL players in the past decade to have 10-plus sacks at age 34 or older, joining Julius Peppers (2015) and John Abraham (2012-13). Wake is tied for second in the AFC and tied for third in the NFL with five forced fumbles this season. Miami won every game in which he recorded at least a half-sack and he is expected to play in the first playoff game of his career on Sunday, Jan. 8 at Pittsburgh.

Stills is the second wide receiver to win with Nat Moore Community Service Award (Wes Welker, 2005). Stills, along with teammates Arian Foster, Jelani Jenkins and Michael Thomas, hosted a town hall meeting with community leaders, law enforcement and coaches, funded a community tailgate with tickets and refreshments for each home game and took part in a ride-a-long with the Broward Sheriff's Office in conjunction with RISE, The Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality. Founded in 2015 by Stephen Ross, RISE is a nonprofit organization dedicated to harnessing the unifying power of sports to improve race relations and drive social progress. Stills also was the team's most active player in community Tuesdays. This year alone Stills visited three schools, two hospitals, participated in a back-to-school backpack distribution, handed out toys for the holidays and assisted in Make-A-Wish visits to the team. The Nat Moore Community Service Award is given each year to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his involvement in the South Florida community. The winner of this award is chosen by the Miami Dolphins Foundation and named after Moore to highlight the commitment the former wide receiver had in the South Florida community. Moore spent 13 seasons in a Dolphins uniform, culminating by his placement on the Dolphins Honor Roll in 1999.

Wake earned the Don Shula Leadership Award for the third time in his career. He also earned the honor in 2013 and 2014. Wake is just the third player in Dolphins history to win the award at least three times, joining linebacker Zach Thomas (1998-99, 2005) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2002, 2006-07, 2009). Wake also was named the recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award and is just the second Dolphins defensive end to win the award (David Bowens, 2004). He joins Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino (1995) as the only Dolphins to ever win the Don Shula Leadership Award and Ed Block Courage Award in the same season. The Don Shula Leadership Award is voted on by the players and is given to the player who exhibits leadership on and off the field. It was re-named the Don Shula Leadership Award in 2005 to reflect the accomplishments of Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula. Each year, players from all 32 teams select a teammate to receive the Ed Block Courage Award. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. The honoree also is a community role model.

Wake suffered a season-ending Achilles injury in the seventh game of the 2015 season, one that required a long and grueling rehabilitation process to return to the field. At the age of 34, Wake not only returned to the field in time for the first regular season game but put together one of the most dominant seasons of his illustrious career. The eighth-year pro finished third in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 11.5 sacks, the third double-digit sack season of his career. Wake was inserted into the starting lineup in Week 6 and recorded 10.5 sacks from that point through the end of the regular season, the second-most in the NFL over that time span, and helped the Dolphins finish the season 9-2 and earn their first playoff spot since 2008. He

WR Kenny Stills is the winner of this year's Nat Moore Community Service Award

CBS Sports' Jason La Canfora on DE Cameron Wake: "One award that's locked up, in my opinion? Cameron Wake is the Comeback Player of the Year. He is still as beastly as any pass rusher in the game, and to play how he has while coming off last year's injury at his age is beyond special."

Head Coach Adam Gase on Ndamukong Suh: "I haven't been around any defensive tackles that have had the kind of impact he's had. Being able to do a lot of things with controlling the front and stunts that they do and the rush games and how impactful he is. He's really sacrificed himself to help other guys pop free and get sacks. When that fourth quarter hits, you know he's going to make a play somewhere."

CEFALO, GRIESE, ROSE AND BOKAMPER RETURN WITH NEW RADIO PARTNER IN 2016

On May 19, 2016, the Miami Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM, with the station becoming the official flagship radio partner of the franchise. In addition, all Dolphins games are now simulcast on KISS 99.9 FM "South Florida's NEW Country" and feature expanded pre-, halftime and postgame shows. The games also can be heard on Dolphins.com and throughout South and Central Florida on a variety of stations that make up the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

The Dolphins previously had their games broadcast on Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM during the 1997-2004 and 2007-09 seasons.

As part of the agreement, Sportsradio 560 WQAM has the radio broadcast rights for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Dolphins fans who tune into Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM have the opportunity to listen to live broadcasts of Head Coach Adam Gase's day-after game press conferences and "Dolphins Friday," a day of Dolphins centric-content on the station featuring interviews with players, coaches and team executives.

Additionally, CBS Radio Miami promotes Dolphins community and Foundation initiatives across multiple platforms.

The preseason English radio broadcast team on Sportsradio 560 WQAM consists of three Dolphins alumni in the booth. Former wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo handles the play-by-play duties with former tight end Joe Rose and former Pro Bowl defensive end Jason Taylor providing the game analysis. During the regular season, Cefalo and Rose are joined by former Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese serving as an analyst with former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker/defensive end Kim Bokamper reporting from the sidelines.

In addition to the game broadcasts, the station features an expanded pregame show with Curtis Stevenson and former Dolphins linebacker Channing Crowder serving as hosts, a halftime show hosted by Kevin Rogers and a postgame show hosted by Orlando Alzugaray and former Dolphins running back Troy Stradford with live updates from Rogers.

990 AM ESPN Deportes is the Dolphins' official Spanish radio broadcast partner for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Raul Striker Jr. will handle play-by-play duties with Eduardo Martell as a color analyst. 990 ESPN Deportes additionally airs a 60-minute pregame show called "El Pre-Game de Los Miami Dolphins" and a 30-minute postgame show "El Post-Game De Los Miami Dolphins."

2016 GAME RECAPS

WEEK 1

SEPT. 11, 2016 | SEATTLE, WASH.
CENTURYLINK FIELD
ATTENDANCE: 69,012 | TV: CBS

MIAMI 10	SEATTLE 12

The Dolphins put up a tremendous effort at what is considered perhaps the toughest venue in the NFL, but ultimately left Seattle with a disappointing loss.

Seattle converted a make-or-break fourth-down situation and later scored the game-winning touchdown with 31 seconds left to hand the Dolphins a 12-10 loss at CenturyLink Field in Adam Gase's head-coaching debut.

Ryan Tannehill scored on a 2-yard quarterback draw with 4:08 left in the fourth quarter to give the Dolphins a 10-6 lead and Miami then had a chance to all but wrap up the victory when Seattle faced a fourth-and-4 from its 47-yard line.

The Seahawks converted on a 22-yard completion from Russell Wilson to Doug Baldwin, and those two combined again on the game-winning touchdown, a 2-yard pass on second-and-goal.

Earlier in the drive, Seattle converted a fourth-and-1 with a 7-yard run by Christine Michael.

Under new defensive coordinator Vance Joseph, the Dolphins kept Wilson and the Seattle offense in check most of the game, allowing only a pair of Steven Hauschka field goals before the last-minute touchdown.

The Dolphins defense came up with two takeaways — an interception by new safety Isa Abdul-Quddus and a fumble recovery by new linebacker Kiko Alonso. The Dolphins also stopped Seattle on fourth down when Abdul-Quddus broke up a pass in the flat intended for Baldwin.

Ultimately, it was missed opportunities that ended up costing the Dolphins.

After Arian Foster was stopped for no gain on fourth-and-1 from the Seattle 17 in the first quarter, Tannehill threw a perfect deep pass to Kenny Stills on the Dolphins' next offensive snap after Stills got way behind the Seattle secondary. But Stills dropped the pass, turning an easy touchdown into an incompletion.

Trailing 6-3 in the fourth quarter, the Dolphins had a first-and-goal from the Seattle 5-yard line six plays after Alonso's fumble recovery, but couldn't get into the end zone and Andrew Franks then had his 27-yard attempt blocked.

Tannehill's touchdown capped a seven-play, 86-yard drive that featured completions of 16 yards to Stills, 28 yards to Jarvis Landry and 29 yards to Damien Williams.

MIAMI 24

NEW ENGLAND 31

The Dolphins almost pulled off a remarkable comeback, but came up just short at Gillette Stadium.

The New England Patriots scored touchdowns on their first three possessions before quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo left the game with an injury, built a 24-0 lead and held on for a 31-24 victory.

Tannehill threw two touchdown passes, to wide receiver Kenny Stills and tight end Jordan Cameron, and rookie Kenyan Drake scored his first NFL touchdown on a 7-yard run as the Dolphins outscored New England 21-7 in the second half. The Dolphins also got a 27-yard field goal from Andrew Franks on the last play of the first half.

New England almost put the game away by getting four first downs and setting up for a 39-yard field goal attempt, but Stephen Gostkowski was wide right.

The Dolphins had one final chance after getting the ball at their own 29-yard line with 1:04 left but no timeouts.

The Dolphins got the ball to the New England 29 thanks to a 20-yard completion from Tannehill to DeVante Parker and a 17-yard scramble by Tannehill, but the comeback attempt ended when Duron Harmon recorded an interception in the end zone on fourth-and-5 on a pass intended for Parker.

Before leaving the game with a shoulder injury in the second quarter, Garoppolo threw three touchdown passes, two to wide receiver Danny Amendola and one to tight end Martellus Bennett.

The Dolphins committed two turnovers in the first half — one interception and a fumble by wide receiver Jarvis Landry — and also had a drive end when center Anthony Steen snapped the ball before Tannehill was ready on a third-and-6.

Running back Jay Ajayi, back in the lineup after being inactive in the opener, lost a fumble on the Dolphins' first drive of the second half and New England followed with a 68-yard touchdown drive to make it 31-3.

But the Dolphins began their comeback attempt after that, scoring their touchdowns on drives of 75, 88 and 75 yards.

CLEVELAND 24

MIAMI 30 (OT)

In a game that featured more than its share of swings and ups and downs, the Dolphins found a way to beat the Cleveland Browns in their home opener.

Jay Ajayi scored on an 11-yard touchdown run with 8:26 left in overtime to give the Dolphins a 30-24 victory in the first regular season game at the newly named Hard Rock Stadium.

The Browns won the overtime coin toss and made the unusual decision to kick off, giving the Dolphins the chance to win with a touchdown. Instead, the Dolphins went three-and-out.

But after a sack by Ndamukong Suh and a holding penalty, Cleveland had to punt the ball back after getting one first down and Landry's 13-yard punt return set up the Dolphins to start their game-winning drive at the Cleveland 44.

Cleveland had a chance to win the game on the final play of the game, but Cody Parkey was wide left on a 46-yard attempt — his third miss of the game.

That opportunity was set up by a fumble recovery by Browns linebacker Corey Lemonier, who also sacked Tannehill and forced a fumble on that play.

It was a fourth consecutive unsuccessful drive for the offense, which looked to have found its groove in the second half when Tannehill threw touchdown passes to Jarvis Landry and Damien Williams on back-to-back possessions to turn a 13-10 deficit into a 24-13 lead.

But Cleveland answered with a touchdown run by Terrelle Pryor, a two-point conversion pass from Cody Kessler to Gary Barnidge and a field goal.

Tannehill ended with three touchdown passes; he connected with DeVante Parker in the first half.

The Dolphins faced a tough challenge having to travel to Cincinnati on a short week, and it was made tougher by a rash of injuries that hit the team.

A big play gave the Dolphins a lead in the first quarter, but the Bengals took control from there and went on to a 22-7 victory at Paul Brown Stadium.

The Dolphins faced the Bengals without starters Arian Foster, Branden Albert and Anthony Steen on offense and Jelani Jenkins and Koa Misi on defense. Cornerback Byron Maxwell, who started the first three games, was active but didn't play.

After giving up a field goal on the opening drive, the Dolphins took a 7-3 lead on their second offensive snap when Ryan Tannehill connected with Kenny Stills for a 74-yard touchdown, the team's longest pass play since 2012.

But the rest of the game was a struggle for the offense. The Dolphins finished with 222 total yards and were only 2-of-11 in third-down conversions.

One positive on offense was the running game, with the Dolphins averaging 4.8 yards on 13 rushing attempts.

The defense couldn't contain wide receiver A.J. Green, whose 123 receiving yards in the first half were the most for any NFL player this season. Green finished with 10 catches for 173 yards and a 7-yard touchdown that gave Cincinnati a 10-7 lead, a lead the Bengals would never relinquish.

One highlight on defense was the ability to stop the run. The Dolphins held Cincinnati to 77 yards on 37 attempts, a meager 2.1 average. Even taking away Andy Dalton's four kneel-downs, Cincinnati still averaged only 2.5 yards per rushing attempt.

The rest of the scoring came from Bengals kicker Mike Nugent, who kicked five field goals, including a 43-yard kick that late in the second quarter that gave the Bengals a 16-7 lead going into halftime.

Cornerback Bobby McCain recorded the only sack of the game for the Bengals when he came in free on a blitz and dropped Dalton for an 11-yard loss.

The Dolphins got a couple of electrifying plays in their return to Hard Rock Stadium, but it wasn't enough to produce a victory against the Tennessee Titans.

Marcus Mariota threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score as the Titans beat the Dolphins 30-17.

Mariota's touchdown passes went to former University of Miami star Andre Johnson, tight end Delanie Walker and former Dolphins wide receiver Rishard Matthews. Mariota was sacked four times and knocked out of the game last year when the Dolphins beat the Titans 38-10 in Nashville, but he had the upper hand in this one.

The Dolphins got touchdowns on a 74-yard punt return by rookie Jakeem Grant and a 4-yard run by Jay Ajayi.

The touchdown was the first of Grant's career and the fourth punt return for a touchdown by a rookie in franchise history. Grant, the sixth-round pick from Texas Tech, used his speed to run around two Tennessee players, then avoided two tacklers down the right sideline before racing into the end zone.

The other big play for the Dolphins was a 58-yard reception by running back Damien Williams that set up Ajayi's touchdown. Williams made two defenders miss after catching a swing pass to the left, then sprinted down the left sideline for the longest reception by a Dolphins running back since 2009 when Ricky Williams had a 59-yard gain against the New York Jets.

Tannehill was sacked six times and intercepted twice, the Dolphins were 4-for-11 in third-down conversions, and had the ball on offense for only 23:16.

While Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey made his 2016 debut against the Titans, the Dolphins still had to play without their projected starting offensive line.

The Dolphins also were without starting linebackers Jelani Jenkins and Koa Misi for a second consecutive week, as well as tight end Jordan Cameron, running back Arian Foster and cornerback Xavien Howard.

Jay Ajayi put together one of the great rushing performances in Dolphins history, and the result was an impressive victory against one of the best teams in the AFC.

Ajayi rushed for a career-high 204 yards and two touchdowns, including a game-clinching 62-yard run with 50 seconds left, to lead the Dolphins to a 30-15 victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Hard Rock Stadium in the second of four consecutive home games.

It was the first 200-yard rushing performance by a Dolphins running back since December 2011 when Reggie Bush did it against the Buffalo Bills.

Ryan Tannehill didn't throw a touchdown pass, but had completions of 53 yards to tight end MarQueis Gray and 39 yards to Jarvis Landry. He also wasn't sacked and played mistake-free football.

The defense did its part in the victory, holding quarterback Ben Roethlisberger and wide receiver Antonio Brown in check.

Roethlisberger came in having thrown three touchdown passes in each of the previous two weeks, but he was held without one until only 1:02 remained in the fourth quarter.

Landry recovered the onside kick after the Steelers cut the Dolphins lead to 23-15 and Ajayi sealed the victory on the next play. Ajayi joined Ricky Williams, Lamar Smith and Bush as Dolphins players with 200-yard rushing performances.

The Dolphins intercepted Roethlisberger twice, once by Reshad Jones and the other by fellow safety Isa Abdul-Quddus.

The Dolphins opened with its projected starting offensive line — Branden Albert, Laremy Tunsil, Mike Pouncey, Jermon Bushrod and Ja'Wuan James — for the first time all season and it clearly made a difference.

The Dolphins controlled every aspect of the game and the only reason the score wasn't more lopsided — besides the late Pittsburgh touchdown — was the inability to produce in the red zone as they had to settle for three short field goals by Andrew Franks, who also had a short attempt blocked. The Dolphins also had a touchdown pass from Tannehill to Dominique Jones nullified by an illegal formation penalty.

Jay Ajayi and the Dolphins did it again.

Ajayi had a second consecutive tremendous rushing performance and the Dolphins again knocked off one of the best teams in the AFC, beating the Buffalo Bills 28-25 at Hard Rock Stadium.

A week after rushing for 204 yards against Pittsburgh, Ajayi finished with 214 yards as he joined O.J. Simpson, Earl Campbell and former Dolphins running back Ricky Williams as the only players in NFL history with back-to-back 200-yard games.

Ajayi reached the 200-yard mark on a 14-yard run in the fourth quarter that came three plays before Damien Williams scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 12-yard run.

Williams scored after breaking two tackles at the 4-yard line, getting some help from two offensive linemen who pushed the pile toward the end zone.

The Dolphins added to their lead with 2:24 left when Ryan Tannehill connected with Kenny Stills for a 66-yard touchdown pass on a huge third-and-6 play.

Buffalo made the score closer with a touchdown and a two-point conversion with 14 seconds left.

Ajayi's effort against Buffalo included a 4-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that cut the Dolphins' deficit to 17-14 after a successful two-point conversion on a pass from Tannehill to Jarvis Landry.

The Dolphins handled the league's top-ranked rushing offense, holding Buffalo to 67 yards on 22 carries.

LeSean McCoy, who started despite being questionable with a hamstring injury, was held to 11 yards on eight attempts before leaving the game.

Tyrod Taylor ran for a touchdown and passed for another for Buffalo, which came in riding a four-game winning streak, the team's longest since the 2008 season.

Kenyan Drake's holding penalty nullified a touchdown in the second quarter, but he more than made up for it later.

The rookie third-round pick returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown with 5:15 left in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins to a 27-23 victory against the New York Jets in a thriller at Hard Rock Stadium.

The victory gave the Dolphins a 4-4 record as they reached the halfway mark of the season on a three-game winning streak.

Drake's touchdown came after the Jets took a 23-20 lead on a touchdown pass from Ryan Fitzpatrick to Jalin Marshall two plays after punter Matt Darr dropped a perfect snap on fourth down.

The winning touchdown came on a re-kick after the Jets were penalized for offside on their original kickoff.

After taking the ball at the 4-yard line, Drake found a hole up the middle before shifting to the right and outracing kicker Nick Folk to the end zone.

Ndamukong Suh's sack on third down ended the Jets' offensive possession following Drake's touchdown and the Dolphins were able to kill off the rest of the clock thanks in part to a pass interference penalty on third down and four runs by Jay Ajayi that gained 44 yards.

Drake's penalty for illegal block in the back in the first half nullified a punt return for a touchdown by fellow rookie Jakeem Grant.

After back-to-back 200-yard rushing performances against Pittsburgh and Buffalo, Ajayi didn't have nearly as much open field against the No. 1-ranked rushing defense in the NFL. But Ajayi still managed to rush for 111 yards and had a rushing touchdown for a fourth consecutive game.

Tight end Dominique Jones scored his first career touchdown in the second quarter on a 1-yard reception to give the Dolphins a lead that lasted until the Jalen Marshall touchdown.

Linebacker Kiko Alonso came up with the biggest of a series of big defensive plays in the fourth quarter to keep the Dolphins rolling.

Alonso returned an interception 60 yards for a touchdown with 1:01 left to give the Dolphins a 31-24 victory at Qualcomm Stadium. The interception after the Chargers drove to the Miami 42-yard line and appeared in position to set themselves up for a potential game-winning field goal.

The touchdown came shortly after Dolphins kicker Andrew Franks made a 27-yard field goal to tie the game at 24.

Tony Lippett also had two interceptions in the fourth quarter and Byron Maxwell added another one. Lippett's first pick came in the back of the end zone on a second-and-goal from the Miami 2-yard line.

Damien Williams and Kenny Stills, who both are from San Diego, combined for the other three Dolphins touchdowns as Miami extended its winning streak to four games.

Williams scored on a 2-yard run and an 18-yard reception, and Stills was on the receiving end of a 39-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill as the Dolphins rallied from a 10-0 deficit in a game that featured five lead changes in the second half.

The Dolphins fell behind 24-21 after a Philip Rivers touchdown pass to Tyrell Williams for 56 yards, but they answered with a 75-yard drive that featured a 56-yard completion from Tannehill to DeVante Parker.

Cameron Wake had another two sacks, giving him six in the past four games.

Jay Ajayi came up short in his quest for a fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance but did have some success in the second half. He was held to 16 yards on 11 attempts in the first half before busting loose for runs of 40 and 21 yards in the third quarter.

LOS ANGELES 10

On a rainy and overcast day at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Dolphins overcame adversity and pulled off a remarkable late comeback to extend their winning streak to five games.

DeVante Parker scored the game-winning touchdown on a 9-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill with 36 seconds left in regulation as the Dolphins beat the Los Angeles Rams 14-10 to move their record to 6-4 on the season.

The Dolphins trailed 10-0 with 4:02 left in the fourth quarter before Tannehill threw a 10-yard pass to Jarvis Landry. Landry was met by a couple of Rams defenders at the 3-yard line, but tackle Ja'Wuan James led a group of Dolphins players who pushed the pile into the end zone.

The Miami defense then forced a three-and-out and got the ball back at its 25-yard line with 2:11 left with a chance to tie or win the game.

The Dolphins got 30 yards on the very first play when Tannehill connected with Kenny Stills for a 15-yard pass and a roughing-the-passer penalty was tacked on to move the ball to the Rams 45. A completion to DeVante Parker moved the ball to the 35-yard line. The next three plays gained 9, 9 and 8 yards before Tannehill threw a strike to Parker in the corner of the end zone to complete the seven-play, 75-yard game-winning drive.

The game ended with Parker batting away a Rams Hail Mary from the Dolphins 47-yard line on the last play.

Todd Gurley scored the only touchdown for the Rams.

The Dolphins started the game without three-time Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and two-time Pro Bowl left tackle Branden Albert, which put new starters at three different spots along the offensive line.

First-year player Anthony Steen made his fourth start of the season at center, veteran Kraig Urbik started at left guard and rookie first-round pick Laremy Tunsil started the game at left tackle in place of Albert. But Tunsil left in the second quarter because of a shoulder injury and did not return.

Tannehill came in with a chance to tie his own franchise record with five consecutive games without getting intercepted, but his streak ended in the third quarter when Rams cornerback Maurice Alexander picked him off in the end zone.

The interception came on the very next play after Dolphins linebacker Kiko Alonso forced a fumble by tight end Lance Kendricks and recovered the loose ball at the Rams 37-yard line.

The Dolphins weren't able to run over the 32nd-ranked rushing defense in the NFL, but it still didn't stop them from extending their winning streak.

Ryan Tannehill threw three touchdown passes, including the first TD of rookie Leonte Carroo's career, and the Dolphins defeated the San Francisco 49ers 31-24 at Hard Rock Stadium.

Tight end Dion Sims and wide receiver Kenny Stills also had touchdown catches for the Dolphins, and Jay Ajayi scored on a 2-yard run.

It was the 10th career game with at least three touchdown passes for Tannehill, who also added 32 rushing yards.

Colin Kaepernick threw three touchdown passes for San Francisco, hitting running back Carlos Hyde, tight end Garrett Celek and wide receiver Torrey Smith.

The 49ers, who haven't won since beating the Los Angeles Rams 28-0 on opening weekend, kept fighting even after the Dolphins seemingly had pulled away with the touchdown passes to Stills and Carroo that made the score 31-14.

San Francisco had a touchdown and a field goal on its next two drives, and the Dolphins didn't clinch the victory until Kaepernick was tackled at the 2-yard line on a scramble from the 6-yard line on the final play after he threw incomplete in the end zone on the previous play.

Linebacker Kiko Alonso was the defensive star for the Dolphins with a fumble recovery and an interception. His fumble recovery in the second quarter was among the biggest play of the game as it stopped a 49ers scoring threat when the score was tied at 7.

Cornerback Byron Maxwell forced the fumble by tight end Garrett Celek and Alonso recovered at the Dolphins 16-yard line. It was Alonso's fourth fumble recovery of the season, making him the NFL leader in that category. It also was his third consecutive game with a takeaway, after an interception at San Diego and a fumble recovery at Los Angeles.

The Dolphins winning streak ended on a disappointing afternoon in Baltimore.

Quarterback Joe Flacco threw four touchdown passes, including three in the first half, and the Ravens handed the Dolphins a 38-6 loss at M&T Bank Stadium, Miami's first loss since Oct. 9.

The Dolphins' six-game winning streak was their longest since the 2005 season.

DeVante Parker, who didn't practice all week because of a back injury, scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on an 8-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill on the third play of the fourth quarter.

The Dolphins unfortunately trailed 24-0 at that time and the score remained 24-6 after Jarvis Landry was tackled short of the goal line after catching Tannehill's pass on the two-point conversion attempt. Five plays later, Flacco threw a 53-yard touchdown pass to Breshaud Perriman to make it 31-6.

Running back Terrence West, who caught one of Flacco's touchdown passes, scored on a 15-yard run with 5:55 left in the fourth quarter.

Tight end Dennis Pitta caught two of Flacco's touchdown passes in the first half, his first two TD receptions since late in the 2013 season.

The highlights on a rough day for the defense were two turnovers, and cornerback Byron Maxwell was involved in both. He picked off Flacco in the second quarter and forced a Pitta fumble that was recovered by safety Michael Thomas.

Thomas returned the fumble to the Baltimore 8-yard line, and Tannehill connected with Parker for the touchdown on first-and-goal on the next play.

Along with Parker, offensive linemen Branden Albert and Laremy Tunsil both returned after being sidelined by injuries.

The Ravens had 303 yards of offense in the first half, converted 4 of 6 third downs and were 2-for-2 on fourth down.

Flacco was 27-for-34 for 258 yards and three touchdowns in the first half.

The Dolphins bounced back against the Arizona Cardinals in a game that featured a lot of rain, a lot of turnovers, an injury to starting quarterback Ryan Tannehill and a crazy finish.

Andrew Franks kicked a 21-yard field goal on the last play of regulation to give the Dolphins a 26-23 victory at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Dolphins improved to 8-5 with their seventh victory in eight games. They have three AFC East game left, starting with a battle against the New York Jets in Week 15 at MetLife Stadium.

Tannehill threw three touchdown passes — of 28 yards to wide receiver Kenny Stills, 7 yards to tight end Dion Sims and 3 yards to running back Damien Williams — before leaving the game late in the third quarter.

The Dolphins led 21-9 when Tannehill was injured, but Arizona came back with two touchdown passes from Carson Palmer and a two-point conversion, mixed in with a Dolphins return for two points on a blocked extra point return.

The Dolphins drove 44 yards to set up Franks' game-winning kick after Jarvis Landry had a 20-yard punt return. The big play in the drive, which began at the Arizona 47-yard line, was a 29-yard completion from Matt Moore to Kenny Stills to the 1.

The Dolphins tied a franchise record with three takeaways in the first quarter, which came on interceptions by linebacker Mike Hull and safety Bacarri Rambo and a fumble recovery by linebacker Spencer Paysinger.

Defensive end Terrence Fede added a fumble recovery in the second quarter.

The Dolphins also got their first points off a conversion attempt when Walt Aikens returned a blocked PAT after Jordan Phillips blocked the kick.

Cameron Wake, who had 4.5 sacks the last time the Dolphins faced Arizona, had a sack and a forced fumble in the first half.

Hull, making his first NFL start in place of the injured Kiko Alonso, ended Arizona's first drive when Carson Palmer's pass went off the hands of wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald.

Quarterback Matt Moore's first start in almost five years was one to remember.

Moore, starting for the first time since the 2011 season finale because of Ryan Tannehill's knee injury, threw a career-high four touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 34-13 victory against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium.

The victory, the Dolphins' eighth in their past nine games, moved their record to 9-5 and in temporary possession of the second wild-card position for the AFC playoffs. The victory clinched the Dolphins' first winning record since 2008 when they won the AFC East title with an 11-5 record.

The Dolphins led 13-10 at halftime thanks to Moore's first two touchdown passes before they put the game away with three touchdowns in a span of 4:04 on the third quarter.

The first touchdown came when Walt Aikens blocked a Jets punt and returned the loose ball 11 yards. It was the second consecutive week reaching the end zone for Aikens, who returned a blocked PAT for two points against the Arizona Cardinals.

Dion Sims caught two 1-yard TD passes from Moore, becoming the first Dolphins tight end with two touchdown receptions in a game since 2013. The other TD passes went to Kenny Stills for 52 yards in the second quarter and to Jarvis Landry for 66 yards in the third quarter.

Moore became the fifth quarterback in Dolphins history to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game, as he joined John Stofa, Bob Griese, Dan Marino and Tannehill.

The running game didn't produce big numbers, but Jay Ajayi went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season by rushing for 51 yards on 19 carries. Landry went over the 1,000-yard receiving mark in the game, giving the Dolphins a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for the second time in franchise history (it also happened in 2011 with Reggie Bush and Brandon Marshall).

The defense contributed to the victory with four takeaways, including the first career interception by defensive end Cameron Wake. Wake also forced a fumble with a sack and the loose ball was recovered by defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh. Cornerback Tony Lippett had two interception in the second half, including one on the final play of the game.

BUFFALO 31 (OT)

In a game that featured big play after big play, the Dolphins outlasted the Buffalo Bills to continue their playoff push.

Andrew Franks kicked a 27-yard field goal in the final minute of overtime and the Dolphins defeated the Bills 34-31 at New Era Field. The victory improved the Dolphins record to 10-5 and they clinched a playoff berth with a Kansas City victory over Denver the following day.

The game-winning kick was set up by a 57-yard run by Jay Ajayi on the fourth possession of overtime. Ajayi ended up with 206 rushing yards, his second 200-yard game against Buffalo during the season.

Buffalo had the ball first in overtime and drove to the Dolphins 17-yard line, but two runs lost 10 yards and former Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter missed a 45-yard field goal attempt.

The teams then traded punts before the Dolphins won it.

The Dolphins forced overtime when Franks made a 55-yard field goal with six seconds left. The kick completed a drive that began with a 39-yard kickoff return by Kenyan Drake and featured a 17-yard completion from Matt Moore to Kenny Stills.

Buffalo took a 31-28 lead with 1:20 left in regulation when quarterback Tyrod Taylor threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to former Dolphins tight end Charles Clay.

This was a game of big plays by both teams, who combined for 1,083 total yards — the highest total in the NFL this season.

Moore threw two touchdown passes, including a 56-yard connection with DeVante Parker, and rookie Kenyan Drake had a 45-yard touchdown run. Jay Ajayi (2-yard run) and Kenny Stills (6-yard reception) had the other touchdowns for the Dolphins. Stills' touchdown was set up by a 44-yard run-and-catch by running back Damien Williams.

The Dolphins ended the regular season with a 35-14 loss against the New England Patriots on Sunday, clinching a date with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the wild-card playoffs next weekend.

The loss gave the Dolphins a final 10-6 record for the regular season and ensured they would have the No. 6 seed in the AFC playoffs. Pittsburgh came into the day already assured of having the No. 3 seed.

The Dolphins will play at Heinz Field on Sunday at 1 p.m.

Matt Moore, making his third start at quarterback in place of injured starter Ryan Tannehill, threw touchdown passes to Jarvis Landry and Kenny Stills to account for the Dolphins scoring.

Tom Brady threw three touchdown passes for New England, including a 77-yard hook-up with Julian Edelman in the third quarter after the Dolphins had cut a 20-0 deficit to 20-14. The other TD passes went to tight end Martellus Bennett and wide receiver Michael Floyd, and LeGarrette Blount scored on a 1-yard run with 5:33 left in regulation.

The Dolphins had a chance to cut into the Patriots' 27-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter after getting a first-and-goal at the 6-yard line, but Damien Williams fumbled after making a short reception on second down and linebacker Shea McClellin returned the fumble 69 yards. Blount scored three plays later.

The Dolphins fell behind 20-0 but built some momentum late in the first half when Landry scored his fourth touchdown of the season.

The score capped a 10-play, 75-yard drive during which Moore was 7-for-7, including an 11-yard completion to Williams on a third-and-4 from the New England 41-yard line.

Landry scored with a great second effort after taking a big hit at the 1-yard line. After his momentum was pushed back a couple of yards, Landry fought his way into the end zone.

New England had a chance to add to its lead on the final play of the first half, but Stephen Gostkowski was wide right on a 52-yard field goal attempt.

The Dolphins scored again on the first drive of the second half when they marched 75 yards on 12 plays, the last being Moore's 25-yard touchdown pass to Stills down the middle.

The touchdown came on third down, the Dolphins' fourth third-down conversion of the drive.

Pittsburgh	14	6	10	0	30

The Dolphins' magical 2016 season came to a disappointing end.

The Dolphins quickly fell behind 14-0 and could never recover in a 30-12 loss against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a first-round playoff game at Heinz Field.

Antonio Brown and Le'Veon Bell each scored two touchdowns for the Steelers, who racked up 219 yards of offense in the first quarter alone. Brown ended Pittsburgh's first two possessions with touchdown catches of 50 and 69 yards. Bell set a Steelers postseason record with 169 rushing yards.

Damien Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on a 4-yard reception with 5:57 left in regulation. Andrew Franks kicked two first-half field goals.

The Dolphins committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions spanning the second and third quarters, the last of which led to Bell's second touchdown after cornerback Tony Lippett tried to time a jump over the center to block a field goal attempt but instead was offside to give Pittsburgh a first down.

Matt Moore, making his fourth consecutive start in place of injured Ryan Tannehill, completed 29 of 36 passes for 289 yards and one touchdown, but he lost two fumbles and threw an interception. Moore also was sacked five times after being sacked only once in his three starts in the regular season.

He left the game for one play in the second quarter after taking a big hit from linebacker Bud Dupree that drew a roughing-the-passer penalty but returned to finish the game.

After burning the Steelers for 204 rushing yards in the Dolphins' 30-15 victory at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 16, Jay Ajayi was held to only 33 yards on 16 rushing attempts Sunday before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

STEPHEN M. ROSS

STEPHEN M.
ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/
MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: NINTH SEASON

The landscape of South Florida was forever changed when Stephen Ross purchased the Miami Dolphins eight years ago. He began his ownership interest in the Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50 percent partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, the stadium and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95 percent ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium. His investment continues to make an imprint on the region through a rich legacy in sport, community and culture.

Ross' connection to the area didn't start nearly a decade ago, but rather a half century ago when his family moved to Miami Beach in his childhood. The purchase was a culmination of a long-held dream; the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Today, that reality flourishes in several aspects of his influence – reverberating from his investment in resources for the organization, his altruism in the community and his willingness to gift South Florida a state-of-the-art facility.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. Under Ross' vision, a holistic approach has been adopted for the athletes – presenting an environment for them to flourish with cutting-edge sports performance programs, multi-million dollar renovated training facilities and a fully engaged player development program to cater to the players.

"My role as an owner is really to put the team in a position to win and do everything we possibly can," Ross said. "In every single area, we've made changes. We've thought outside the box. We're looking to be the best in class. You can see the players that we've attracted, what they expect and you put it all together, that's what makes winning teams. We're all looking to win."

Ross is committed to supporting the community that supports the Dolphins. He has strengthened the reach of the Miami Dolphins Foundation, offering tremendous support in the areas of education, health, volunteerism and youth programs. In May of 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally. As an NFL owner, he is using his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit organization Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE).

"Sports brings together athletes, coaches and fans of all races, uniting us with shared experiences and common goals that transcend our differences," Ross said. "The sports community is uniquely positioned and empowered to help drive national discussion and action to unite our country, promote understanding, respect and equality, and advance race relations now and for the next generation. While it would be unrealistic to say that RISE alone will end racism, we have the opportunity to harness the unifying power of sport and create a new paradigm."

Ross' largest contribution to the South Florida area is shaping the culture of the region. After making his name in development, Ross brought his expertise to completely modernize a 28-year-old facility, Hard Rock Stadium, into a truly global entertainment destination. His private investment of more than $500 million is a game-changer in redefining the fan experience. The first phase of the project involved changing every seat in the stadium, rebuilding the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, and improving the food choices throughout the entire facility. The second phase of renovations involved the installation of a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and protected from the rain, depending on the time of the day and the month. Additionally, four 1,472-inch high-definition video boards, the largest total square footage in the AFC East, adorn each corner of the stadium. The multi-year project will be completed for the 2017 season with upgrades to the private suites on the 200 level, raising the caliber on premium spaces within a sports venue.

"I think the big winner, as I look at, it is really Miami," Ross said. "We're really trying to create one of the great sports entertainment facilities in the United States today."

Ross has built architectural cathedrals throughout the globe, and his gift to South Florida ushers in a new era of world-class events, including Super Bowls, World Cups, college football championships, and international soccer and concerts.

"What I learned is Steve is a very rare combination of tenacity and heart, and he has tremendous integrity. That's inspiring for anybody to go work for somebody like Steve," Miami Dolphins President & CEO Tom Garfinkel said. "He also cares tremendously about people. He cares about this organization, and he cares about winning. It's not rhetoric. This is someone who had both the capacity and the willingness to invest in big ideas to create a best-in-class organization."

MIKE TANNENBAUM

MIKE
TANNENBAUM
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
NFL: 20TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Growing up in the Boston suburb of Needham, Mass., heavily entrenched with a love affair of all things Boston Celtics during their dominant era under the leadership of Red Auerbach, Mike Tannenbaum saw the impact a sports dynasty could make. At an early age, he marveled as Auerbach became a pioneer of modern basketball, emphasizing team play rather than individual performance. In college at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, Tannenbaum again delved deep into the blueprint Bill Walsh had constructed as the San Francisco 49ers dominated the NFL during the 1980s. It was during his time at Tulane University Law School Tannenbaum solidified his drive to build one organization, a goal that drives him on a daily basis in his role as Miami Dolphins Executive Vice President, Football Operations.

"I want to build an organization with people who are selfless, who are willing to sacrifice part of what is in their own best interest for the greater good of the organization. There is nothing like winning," Tannenbaum said.

Tannenbaum began his career in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints in 1994 before accepting the position of player personnel assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 1995. He returned to the Saints for the 1996 season as a player personnel assistant prior to joining the New York Jets in 1997. Tannenbaum spent 16 seasons (1997-2012) in various roles for the Jets, including his final seven years (2006-12) as the team's executive vice president and general manager. During his time as general manager, the Jets advanced to the playoffs three times, won four playoff games and made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Tannenbaum then went back to his roots as a sports lawyer, serving in 2013-14 as Priority Sports & Entertainment principal. There he honed relationships in the sports industry, setting a new caliber and showcasing his acumen for scouting talent in appointments of key clients David Blatt and Steve Kerr as Cleveland Cavaliers and Golden State Warriors head coaches ahead of the 2014-15 season.

It was in New York that his path crossed with Miami Dolphins owner Stephen Ross, where he was tapped to consult for the team in August 2014, followed by his appointment as executive vice president, football operations on Jan. 6, 2015.

In his role, Tannenbaum oversees and coordinates the effort of football operations and administration. He is most proud of his work and collaboration with General Manager Chris Grier and Head Coach Adam Gase, as well as other senior executives in implementing the philosophy of a championship caliber football team.

Tannenbaum has overhauled the Dolphins football operations. During the 2016 offseason, he helped orchestrate a trade of Miami's first-round draft pick (eighth overall) to Philadelphia, where the Dolphins moved back five selections and acquired linebacker Kiko Alonso and cornerback Byron Maxwell. The Dolphins used their first-round choice (13th overall) acquired in the trade to draft guard/tackle Laremy Tunsil. He also helped ink defensive end Cameron Wake to a contract extension. In his first full offseason with the Dolphins in 2015, Tannenbaum helped land one of the top unrestricted free agents in four-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, while also signing another player with a Pro Bowl on his resume in tight end Jordan Cameron, to go along with trading for wide receiver Kenny Stills. He also was instrumental in signing Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and quarterback Ryan Tannehill to contract extensions.

True to his mentors, Tannenbaum has instituted revolutionary landmarks in line with Ross' drive for innovative, first-class business practices. These include the creation and implementation of a sport performance department, a roster overhaul for sustainability and proactive player wellness programs.

"I'm really proud of the fact that Stephen Ross gives us incredible resources. I think our player wellness and player care is second to none in the league in terms of our players feel like the environment here – from the food they eat to the practice fields – is best in class. And they're given every opportunity to prove and maximize their talents."

Outside of work, Mike and his wife, Michelle, remain true to their core values that education and knowledge will always pave a successful path. In keeping with these beliefs, they have instituted scholarship programs with his alma mater UMass and a New Jersey YMCA to afford young professionals the opportunity to pursue their passion without the burden of living expenses.

He uses his role with the Dolphins to guide future leaders, participating in numerous speeches within the industry. He is well vested at UMass, on hand several times throughout his evolving career to give advice and lend support to aspiring young professionals. Additionally, he sits on an advisory council at Tulane, tasked with creating opportunities for students in an evolving landscape, including virtual internships to enhance students' experience while embracing globalization.

Mike Tannenbaum brings his expertise, drive, vision and leadership to the Miami Dolphins with one goal: to create a winning organization that consistently competes for championships.

"There's nothing like football; I think it's a microcosm of life. People have such disparate backgrounds yet we're all here because the one commonality we all have in this organization is we're intoxicated by winning."

CHRIS GRIER

Chris Grier is entering his 17th season with the Miami Dolphins and first as the club's general manager. He spent the previous nine years as the team's director of college scouting. Grier was appointed general manager on Jan. 4, 2016. He works together with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum and Head Coach Adam Gase to help build a championship caliber football team. In his role, Grier oversees the draft, both college and pro personnel departments and all scouting efforts.

During the 2016 offseason, Grier worked with his staff to bring linebacker Kiko Alonso and cornerback Byron Maxwell to Miami in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles. He utilized the team's first-round draft pick (13th overall), also acquired in the Eagles trade, to select guard/tackle Laremy Tunsil. The Dolphins will enter the 2016 training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered some of the best collegiate players the Dolphins have ever drafted, including wide receiver Jarvis Landry. A second-round selection in 2014, Landry finished his first two NFL seasons with 194 receptions, more than any player has ever recorded in his first two years in the league.

Grier and the Dolphins also identified and drafted running back Lamar Miller and defensive end Olivier Vernon. Miller ranks No. 4 among all NFL running backs in rushing yards (1,971) and yards per carry (4.81) over the past two seasons and was a fourth-round pick in 2012. Vernon finished the 2015 campaign with 36 quarterback hits, the third-most in the NFL, and tied for fourth among all players with 18 tackles for loss. Vernon was a third-round pick in 2012.

In 2011, the Dolphins drafted center Mike Pouncey in the first round. Pouncey has developed into one of the league's best interior linemen and was selected to the Pro Bowl for the third time in his career in 2015.

During Grier's tenure with the club, the Dolphins have found several diamonds in the rough. Safety Reshad Jones was a fifth-round pick in 2010 and was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a single season.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and recently retired as a senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. ADAM GASE

CAREER

Adam Gase was named the 12th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Jan. 9, 2016. Gase joined Miami with three years of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator, directing some of the most prolific offenses in league history.

In 2015, Gase was the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears. Under Gase, the Bears implemented a balanced offensive attack that improved the team's rushing totals from No. 27 in the season before Gase arrived in Chicago to No. 11 in 2015, as the unit averaged 25.6 more rushing yards per game. Bears quarterback Jay Cutler finished the 2015 season with the highest passer rating (92.3) of his career. Cutler also threw seven fewer interceptions than the previous season and his interception rate of 2.3 percent was the best showing of his career for a season where he played at least 12 games. In addition, Cutler's yards per attempt increased by 0.8, the second-largest one-year increase in his career. Additionally, running back Jeremy Langford had an impressive rookie season, rushing for 537 yards and six touchdowns. His 537 rushing yards ranked No. 7 among all NFL rookies and his six touchdowns were tied for fourth amongst rookie rushers.

Prior to joining the Bears, Gase spent six seasons (2009-14) with the Denver Broncos, during which time the team compiled a 58-38 (.604) regular-season record, won four AFC West titles, three playoff games and an AFC Championship, including a trip to Super Bowl XLVIII.

While Gase was the Denver Broncos offensive coordinator in 2013 and 2014, the Broncos led the NFL in scoring offense (34.0 points per game), total offense (430.1 yards per game) and passing offense (315.8 yards per game) during that time period. During his two seasons as coordinator, seven players from the Broncos offense were named to the Pro Bowl: running back C.J. Anderson (2014), tackle Ryan Clady (2014), quarterback Peyton Manning (2013-14), wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders (2014), wide receiver Demaryius Thomas (2013-14), tight end Julius Thomas (2013-14) and guard Louis Vasquez (2013).

In 2014, the Broncos finished 12-4, winning the AFC West and earned a bye in the first round of the playoffs. Gase helped Denver finish second in scoring, averaging 30.1 points per contest. Manning continued his excellence, completing 66.2 percent of his passes and passing for 4,727 yards and 39 touchdowns. He set the NFL's career passing touchdown record on Oct. 19, 2014 against San Francisco. Demaryius Thomas broke the franchise's single-season receiving record with 1,619 receiving yards.

In 2013, Gase's first as offensive coordinator, the Broncos set NFL records in both points (606) and touchdowns (76) and Denver's scoring output increased by 7.8 points per game. The Broncos totaled 59.4 yards per game more than they did in 2012 and led the NFL with 5,444 passing yards and 55 passing touchdowns. The explosive offense helped Denver finish the regular season 13-3, winning the AFC West and earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs, where the Broncos won the conference title and played in Super Bowl XLVIII.

In addition to setting NFL team records, Gase also helped Manning have the most prolific season of any quarterback in NFL history. Manning's 5,477 passing yards and 55 passing touchdowns were both NFL records that still stand today. Manning earned his fifth NFL MVP award and was honored as the Maxwell Club Player of the Year and AP Offensive Player of the Year.

In total, the Broncos set or tied 14 NFL offense and scoring records in the 2013 season with Gase as offensive coordinator: points (606), touchdowns (76), players with 10 or more touchdowns (5), passing first downs (293), games with 50-plus points (3), points in the second half (318), individual passing yards (Manning, 5,477), individual passing touchdowns (Manning, 55), longest field goal (Matt Prater, 64 yards), most extra points (Matt Prater, 75), most four-touchdown passing games (Manning, 9), most two-touchdown passing games (Manning, 15), most 400-yard passing games (Peyton Manning, 4) and most 90-plus passer rating games (Manning, 15).

The 2013 Broncos were one of just four teams in the past five seasons (2011-15) to have two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. Wide receiver Demaryius Thomas was fourth in the NFL with 1,430 receiving yards, while fellow wide receiver Eric Decker ranked No. 9 with 1,288. Running back Knowshon Moreno rushed for 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Gase served as Denver's quarterbacks coach from 2011-12. Manning joined the Broncos in 2012, following 14 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, including a 2011 campaign that he missed due to injury. With Gase as his position coach in 2012, Manning was wildly successful, finishing second in the league in passer rating (105.8), third in passing touchdowns (37) and sixth in passing yards (4,659). He earned the AP NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and was runner-up for NFL MVP.

Gase joined the Broncos in 2009 as the wide receivers coach, a position he held for two seasons.

In 2010, he helped wide receiver Brandon Lloyd earn a Pro Bowl invitation after he led the league in receiving with 1,448 yards and 11 touchdowns. It was the first time a Broncos player had ever led the league in receiving yards.

Gase coached another Pro Bowl wide receiver in 2009 when Brandon Marshall caught 101 passes for 1,120 yards (11.1 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. The 101 receptions was the fourth-highest mark in the league and the Pro Bowl selection was Marshall's second of his young career.

Gase spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant for the San Francisco 49ers. Prior to San Francisco, Gase held several roles for five seasons (2003-07) with the Detroit Lions.

BACKGROUND

Gase earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan State, where he was a student assistant. He was also a graduate assistant and recruiting assistant at LSU (2000-03). He began his NFL career as a scouting assistant for the Detroit Lions (2003-04) and coached for the Lions (2005-07), San Francisco 49ers (2008), Denver Broncos (2009-14) and Chicago Bears (2015).
