ROBERT C. McNAIR

Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Robert C. McNair, a leading businessman and philanthropist in the city of Houston for more than 40 years, is the founder, chairman and chief executive officer of the Houston Texans.

McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which was sold in 1999. Cogen was the largest privately-owned cogeneration company in the world, with aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts.

McNair serves as chairman and chief executive officer of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, Texas, where he oversees an investment portfolio that includes interests in three cogeneration plants in the eastern United States. McNair owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd., and RCM Financial Services, L.P., private investment entities that manage the McNairs' private and public equity investments, and is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 6, 1999, the NFL announced that the 32nd NFL franchise had been awarded to McNair, returning football to the city of Houston in the year 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004.

On September 8, 2002, the Houston Texans kicked off their inaugural season with a victory over the Dallas Cowboys, 19-10, in the franchise's nationally-televised season opener. The victory over Dallas made Houston the first expansion club to win its opening game since the 1961 Minnesota Vikings. The Texans also won at Jacksonville and upset the Giants and Steelers, both playoff teams, in the 2002 season.

Despite facing a rash of injuries and the NFL's toughest schedule in 2003, the Texans posted a 5-11 campaign in their second NFL season. And in 2004, the Texans continued their steady climb by winning seven games.

After the team finished with a disappointing 2-14 record in 2005, McNair displayed courage and conviction by hiring a rookie head coach and a first-time general manager to build a winning team in Houston. Gary Kubiak, a Houston native, was named the Texans' second head coach after spending 11 seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos. McNair introduced Rick Smith, who had been the assistant general manager in Denver, as the franchise's second general manager. Smith became the youngest general manager in the NFL at age 36.

Under McNair's new regime, the Texans greatly improved their roster through the draft, free agency and trades. The Texans showed substantial progress in 2006 by winning six games, tripling their victory total from the prior season.

In 2007, the team began the season with convincing victories over the Kansas City Chiefs and Carolina Panthers, who at the time were a favorite to win the NFC. Injuries to numerous key players derailed the Texans' momentum, with the team at one point boasting a league-high 17 players on the injured reserve list, but the Texans reached the brink of the playoffs with an 8-8 record. The team was an impressive 6-2 in home games at Reliant Stadium during the best season in franchise history.

McNair is chairman emeritus of the board of directors of The Texas Bowl, Inc., which brought the inaugural Texas Bowl game to Reliant Stadium on December 28, 2006. In 2007, TCU and the University of Houston played in front of 62,097 fans, which was the largest bowl crowd ever at Reliant Stadium and the third-largest bowl crowd in Houston's history. Annual Texas Bowl games feature teams from the Big 12 and Conference USA.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,947-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside is home to more than 250 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. Since its inception in 1994, Stonerside has won 72 Graded Stakes races including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar Mile, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside also has finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby.

TEXANS

McNair is Chairman of the McNair Foundation and the Houston Texans Foundation. The McNair Foundation was honored as the 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and in November 2004, the Foundation was honored by the Houston Independent School District Partnership with a Hall of Fame Award.

The McNairs have given generously to a wide array of charitable, scientific, literary, educational and religious organizations through the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation. Major support has been given to scholarship programs at the University of South Carolina, Columbia College, Austin College, Virginia Tech and Houston Community College. Educational initiatives supported include the HISD Fine Arts Program, Project GRAD, Teach for America, Neuhaus Education Center and local schools. Contributions to the community include the McNair Asian Elephant Habitat at the Houston Zoo, the jogging trail at Discovery Green, Equestrian Center for the San Jacinto Girl Scouts, McNair Cub Scout Adventure World, the Computer Training Center Room for the United Way and sponsorship of community outreach programs for the Houston Symphony and Houston Grand Opera. The McNairs turned their philanthropic focus to medical research in 2007 and gave a transformational gift to Baylor College of Medicine to fund the McNair Scholars Program which will recruit top physicians/scientists in the fields of juvenile diabetes, breast and pancreatic cancer and the neurosciences. Additional McNair Scholars Programs were established at M.D. Anderson, Menninger Clinic, Texas Children's Hospital and Texas Heart Institute.

McNair is the recipient of many awards, including the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, the Northwood University Outstanding Business Leader Award, the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award, the Distinguished American Award from the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation, the Distinguished Citizen

Award from the Rotary Club of Houston, The South Main Center Association City Builder Award, the Houston Advertising Federation Annual Trailblazer Award recognizing him for significantly enhancing the overall image of Houston both locally and globally, the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, The Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award from the Texas Heart Institute, the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes President & Mrs. George H. W. Bush Community Impact Award. In June 2005, Rice University announced that the newest building on the campus, the 167,000-square-foot home of the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, had been officially named Janice and Robert McNair Hall by the Rice Board of Trustees. In January 2006, the McNairs were the recipients of the Texas Association of Partners in Education Award for the Texas Outstanding Sports Partnership.

In October 2007, the Baylor College of Medicine bestowed their first Pink Ribbon Hero Award for Ambassadorship on the McNairs for their support of past Pink Ribbon Houses and for their commitment to the fight against cancer. McNair also is a founder of the Cotswold project, a revitalization project focused on downtown Houston.

McNair is a current or past member of the Boards of Trustees of a number of institutions, including Rice University, Baylor College of Medicine, the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Grand Opera, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Free Enterprise Institute, the Sigma Chi Foundation and the Federal Reserve Banks of Dallas and Houston.

Born in Tampa, Florida, McNair has been a resident of Houston since 1960. He graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia in 1958 with a bachelor of science degree. In 1999, McNair received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from the University of South Carolina.

PHILIP BURGUIÈRES

Vice Chairman

Philip Burguières, one of Houston's most innovative leaders, serves as vice chairman of the Houston Texans.

Burguières also serves as chairman and CEO of EMC Holdings, an investment management company specializing in the oil service industry. Additionally, he serves as chairman emeritus of Weatherford International, an international energy company. Until 1996, Burguières was Weatherford International's chairman and chief executive officer.

Prior to joining Weatherford, Burguières was Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Panhandle Eastern Corporation and Cameron Iron Works, Inc. During his career in the energy industry he was named CEO of the year three times by Financial World Magazine.

Burguières is the current chairman of the Menninger Clinic and serves on Baylor College of Medicine Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee of M. D. Anderson Cancer Center. In 2005, he received the Woodrow Wilson Corporate Citizenship Award from the Smithsonian Institute, was the 2003 recipient of the Mental Health America's William Styron Award, and in May of 2000 was awarded the prestigious Ima Hogg Award from the Mental Health America of Greater Houston. He is a Director of Bridges to Life, Catholic Charities, Mental Health America and the Texas Heart Institute.

He is on the boards of directors at FMC Technologies, Inc., Newfield Exploration Company, and Chase Bank Texas. He also serves as chairman of the board of directors of The J.M. Burguières Co., Ltd. (a family-owned land company). He is a member of the National Petroleum Council, the World's President's Organization, is past president of the Petroleum Club of Houston, the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association; past chairman of the National Ocean Industries Association.

A native of Franklin, La., he graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Louisiana, where a Chair in the engineering department has been named in his honor. He was a recipient of his alma mater's Outstanding Alumni Award in 1992. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years during the Vietnam era, reaching the rank of Lieutenant. Burguières received his master's in business administration from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business.

D. Cal McNair

Vice Chairman

EXECUTIVES

D. Cal McNair was named vice chairman of the Houston Texans on Jan. 30, 2008. He has been a Limited Partner of the Texans since 2001.

McNair also serves as the vice chairman of Palmetto Partners, Ltd., the private equity investing arm of The McNair Group.

McNair has been actively involved with the football operations of the Texans franchise since its inception and attends NFL meetings as part of team management. He served on the search committee in the process of hiring head coach Gary Kubiak and general manager Rick Smith during the 2006 offseason.

Prior to 2001, McNair worked at Cogen Technologies for 11 years. In 1987, he was hired as one of the company's first employees. After beginning his tenure with Cogen as an administrative assistant, McNair eventually helped to oversee the construction of several major power plants in the eastern United States, managing those assets in the areas of financial analysis and project management.

McNair is a member of the board of trustees of The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation, as well as the Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation. He is a director and vice president of the Houston Texans Foundation, a member of the United Way's prestigious Alexis de Tocqueville Society and a current or past member of the Houston Zoo Board, the Fort Worth Zoo Board and the All Saints Episcopal School Board in Fort Worth.

As vice chairman of the Palmetto group, McNair also assists with the oversight of Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky.

McNair attended the University of Texas at Austin, where he was a four-year member of the Longhorn football team. He earned a master of business administration degree from the Rice University Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management.

Born in Houston, McNair attended Cypress-Fairbanks High School.

TEXANS TIDBIT

Sellout Continues

The Texans have played to sellout crowds since entering the NFL. The Texans increased the Reliant Stadium capacity following the 2002 season to 71,054, incorporating more "Raving Fans."

Houston sold out 60 consecutive home games and looks to continue the trend in 2008. The Texans have sold 62,000-plus season tickets for the fifth consecutive season.

The Texans enter the 2008 season having sold out every home game in team history.

RICK SMITH

General Manager

12th NFL Season • 3rd with the Texans

EXECUTIVES

Rick Smith enters his third season as Texans general manager after being named to the post on June 5, 2006. Over the last two seasons, Smith has re-shaped the Texans roster that recorded a franchise-best eight wins in 2007. For his efforts in pulling the Texans closer to becoming a winner, Smith received the prestigious Tank Younger Award in 2008 presented annually by the Fritz Pollard Alliance for outstanding work in an NFL front office.

As general manager, Smith oversees all aspects of football operations, salary cap management and budgeting. He works closely with the coaching and scouting staffs to build the club roster via free agency as well as overseeing the annual college draft.

At 38 years old, Smith is the youngest general manager in the NFL. In his first two seasons at the helm, Smith has assembled a front office staff that has the Texans pointed towards sustained success in the NFL. During the 2007 offseason, Smith acquired QB Matt Schaub via trade from the Atlanta Falcons. Schaub led the Texans with 2,241 passing yards despite missing five games due to injury. Schaub set a Texans record by passing for 1,005 passing yards in September. He also set the Texans record with an 87.2 QB rating in his first season.

The Texans later signed WR André Davis, who blossomed in 2007 as he tied an NFL record with two kickoff returns for touchdowns in Week 17 against Jacksonville. Davis set Texans records with three kickoff returns for touchdowns and a 30.3 kickoff return average in a single season. He was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month in December. The Texans also signed unrestricted free agents RB Ahman Green, DT Jeff Zgonina and CB Jamar Fletcher who all made key contributions to the Texans in 2007.

Smith has navigated the Texans through injury troubles over the last two seasons. Houston had to overcome a league-high 17 players on injured reserve in 2006 to register six wins tripling their win total from the season before. Houston again placed 17 players on injured reserve in 2007, including six starters from the first game of the season. Key starters also missed significant time last season, including Schaub (five games) and Pro Bowl WR Andre Johnson (seven games). Despite the injuries over the past two seasons, the Texans need only five wins this season to eclipse their win total from 2002-05, prior to Smith's arrival.

In his first NFL Draft, Smith used the Texans first-round selection on DT Amobi Okoye, the youngest player taken in the modern draft. Okoye was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month in September after recording four sacks and he tied a Texans rookie record by recording a sack in three consecutive games. He set the Texans rookie record for sacks in a season with 5.5.

Smith later selected WR Jacoby Jones in the third round. Jones set the Texans single-season record with a 9.5-yard punt return average. CB Fred Bennett was taken in the fourth round and led the team with three interceptions and started eight games during his rookie campaign.

This season, the Texans used their first-round pick to fill the void at left tackle that has plagued the Texans since their inception by selecting Virginia Tech's Duane Brown. Smith engineered a trade to move back in the first round, from 18 to 26, drafting Brown and acquiring additional picks in the third and sixth rounds in the process. The Texans used the balance of the draft to select three players on offense and four players on defense to strengthen Houston's future.

Smith significantly improved the Texans depth and play making ability during this offseason. Houston signed unrestricted free agent CB Jacques Reeves, who started 15 games for the Dallas Cowboys in 2007. Houston inked linebackers Kevin Bentley and Chaun Thompson to improve team speed on defense. The Texans acquired versatile C Chris Myers from Denver for a sixth-round draft choice. Myers started all 16 games for the Broncos last season. He started the first five contests at left guard before sliding inside to center for the last 11 games.

RB Chris Brown was signed to bring another experienced back into the fold as he's rushed for 2,757 yards and 16 touchdowns in his five-year career.

In his former role with the Broncos, Smith was responsible for evaluating players from around the NFL, as well as those in NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, the Arena Football League, and other professional leagues. He also played a central role in the club's preparation for the college draft and was one of the Broncos' primary negotiators for player contracts.

With Smith heading the pro personnel department, the Broncos posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team over that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Not surprisingly, Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

Before moving into the front office, Smith spent four years as the Broncos' assistant defensive backs coach and earned two Super Bowl rings while helping guide a unit that consistently ranked as one of the league's best. The team won more games from 1996-98 (46) than any club in NFL history over a three-year period.

Smith joined the Broncos on April 3, 1996, following a two-year stint as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Purdue University. He left Purdue in February to accept a coaching position at TCU but spent just one month at the school before being hired by the Broncos.

A 1992 graduate of Purdue, Smith began his coaching career with the Boilermakers shortly after his graduation, serving as the school's assistant strength and conditioning coordinator as a grad assistant. After serving as the team's tight ends coach for one season, Smith was hired as the secondary coach, becoming the youngest position coach in the Big Ten Conference at the time at the age of 24.

Smith was a starter at strong safety and defensive captain for Purdue as a senior in 1991. A native of Petersburg, Va., he attended Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio. Smith also is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Smith and his wife, Tiffany, live in Houston with son Robert LaMar and daughter Avery Jordan.

JAMEY ROOTES

President
9th NFL Season • 9th with Texans

Jamey Rootes serves as president of the Houston Texans and is responsible for all business functions of the club.

Since joining the Texans, Rootes has overseen the team's efforts to secure stadium naming rights and sponsorship, coordinated radio and TV broadcasting relationships, engineered the club's successful ticket and suite sales campaigns, led the creation and launch of the team's identity, and developed the team's highly-acclaimed customer service strategy.

Under Rootes' leadership the Texans have earned many distinctions, including the American Marketing Association's "Crystal Award" for the best overall marketing campaign. J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL and even featured the Texans as a service success story in their recent book entitled Satisfaction. Also, the Texans were recognized with Sports Business Journal's PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria. In 2003, the Texans were also named by Sports Business Journal as the best sports start-up over a five-year period. In 2007, the Texans extended their sell-out streak to 60 consecutive home games, a Houston NFL record and a testament to the quality of service and entertainment provided by the organization on gameday. As a result, the Texans have consistently been recognized as one of the most valuable professional sports franchises both in the NFL and globally, as measured by a variety of business publications.

Rootes was selected twice by Sports Business Journal as a member of their distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives. Rootes maintains an active role in the community and serves on a number of boards, including the United Way of Greater Houston, the Houston Food Bank and the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Prior to joining the Houston Texans, Rootes helped to launch Major League Soccer as president and general manager of the Columbus Crew. During his tenure, the Crew was consistently among the league's strongest teams both on and off the field, and Rootes was recognized as Executive of the Year in 1996 and Marketing Executive of the Year in 1999. Rootes helped lead the construction of Crew Stadium in 1999, which was the first stadium of its type in America. This facility earned distinction as America's Foremost Sports Facility of the Year and led to the development of numerous soccer-specific stadiums across the United States over the past decade.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes attended Clemson University and was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and served as Student Body President. While earning an MBA at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Rootes previously held positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble before entering sports. Rootes lives in West University with his wife, Melissa, and their children, Christopher and Caroline.

TONY WYLLIE

*Vice President, Communications
16th NFL Season • 9th with Texans*

EXECUTIVES

Tony Wyllie is entering his 16th season in the NFL and his ninth campaign as the Texans' vice president of communications. He is responsible for shaping and molding the image of the team in the public and the community. He serves as the liaison between the local and national media and the Texans' front office, coaches and players. Wyllie generates publicity for the club while serving as the team spokesman. He also oversees the Texans' public relations, community relations, media products departments and the Houston Texans Foundation.

Wyllie began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys, earning a Super Bowl ring before heading west to Los Angeles to work with the Rams as the assistant director of public relations. Wyllie moved with the team to St. Louis in 1995 and became the youngest PR director in the NFL three years later when the Tennessee Oilers hired him in 1998. He picked up an AFC championship ring with the Titans in 1999 before joining the Texans staff in the summer of 2000. During his NFL career, Wyllie has assisted in promoting five players that have been elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Aikman and Irvin, Cowboys; Slater, Rams; Munchak and Matthews, Oilers/Titans).

Wyllie and his staff earned the Pete Rozelle award, which is presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the best NFL public relations staff two times with the Texans (2004 and 2007) and four times overall. The Rams' PR department won the award in 1997 and the Titans in 2000.

He also was chosen by the NFL to work the 1996 and 1997 NFC Championship games, the 1999 Pro Bowl in Hawaii, and the last eight Super Bowls. He also participated in the NFL's management program at Stanford University in 2004 and the NFL Football Operations Personnel Symposium in 2007.

Wyllie serves on numerous boards of directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston, the John P. McGovern Museum of Health & Medical Science, the March of Dimes in Houston, Management Leadership for Tomorrow—Houston and the Touchdown Club of Houston. He serves on the advisory board for Inner City Youth and the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. He also served as a sub-committee chairman on Houston's Super Bowl XXXVIII host committee.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. He also earned a Masters in Business Administration from the Jones School of Business at Rice University.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Wyllie grew up in Northwest Houston and attended Cy-Fair High School. He resides in Houston with his wife, Natasha, and son, James.

Sack Tandem

The tandem of DE Mario Williams and DT Amobi Okoye quickly developed into one of the top inside-outside sack tandems in the NFL. Williams had 14.0 sacks and Okoye had 5.5. Their 19.5 combined sacks were the most by a DT/DE combo in the NFL. With three combined years of experience, they are by far the youngest duo in the league.

GARY KUBIAK

*Head Coach
15th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans*

Gary Kubiak returned to his hometown of Houston on January 26, 2006, becoming the second head coach in the history of the Houston Texans.

In just two seasons as a head coach, Kubiak has led the Texans to places the franchise had never been before. In his rookie season, he tripled the team's win total of the previous year, guiding the club to a 6-10 record. The six victories included wins in three of the last five games of the season and the franchise's first ever win over Indianapolis. Six wins were the second-most in franchise history. All six wins came versus AFC opponents, giving the Texans their most wins over conference foes in team annals. Entering his third season at the helm, Kubiak is a mere five wins away from becoming the Texans' all-time winningest head coach.

Year two for Kubiak saw the team achieve the best record in franchise history, finishing 8-8. The Texans won three of their last four and five of their last seven to finish the season at .500. Closing the season strong has become a hallmark of Kubiak's teams. In two seasons in Houston, the Texans are a combined 6-4 in the month of December. Another point of emphasis under Kubiak has been developing a true home field advantage, and the team is well on its way to accomplishing that mission. After going 4-4 at Reliant Stadium in 2006, which was the best home mark at the time, Kubiak's troops posted a 6-2 mark at home last year. 10 of Houston's 20 all-time home victories have come in the last two seasons under Kubiak.

Kubiak came to Houston with the reputation of being an offensive mastermind and he has lived up to that billing in his first two years with the team. In 32 games under Kubiak, Houston has averaged 306.3 yards per game compared to an average 266.5 yards per game from 2002-05. The scoring average under Kubiak has also risen four points versus prior to his arrival.

The most dramatic improvement has been made by the offensive line. After giving up a league-worst 68 sacks in 2005, the line dropped the sack total to 43 in Kubiak's first season, then cut that number in half in 2007, to a record-low 22. This allowed the passing game to flourish, averaging nearly 40 yards per game better than in the franchise's first four years. The line also allowed the Texans rushing attack to average 102.3 yards per game over the last two years.

Kubiak has made a habit of surrounding himself with great coaches throughout his tenure in Houston. One of his first hires in 2006 was former Green Bay head coach Mike Sherman, who served as the assistant head coach/offense and then offensive coordinator in Kubiak's first two seasons. This offseason, Kubiak bolstered his staff with two of the brightest minds in football, hiring venerable offensive line guru Alex Gibbs as the assistant head coach/offense and 1995 NFL Coach of the Year Ray Rhodes as the assistant defensive backs coach.

As head coach, Kubiak has also been responsible for the performance of the defense. Under the guidance of defensive coordinator Richard Smith, the unit has shown improvement over the last two seasons. Stocked with young talent such as the All-Pro combo of linebacker DeMeco Ryans and defensive end Mario Williams, the defense is poised to become one of the league's best after setting a franchise record for fewest rushing yards allowed last season.

Williams and Ryans were the first two draft picks of the Kubiak era, and they set the tone for what is quickly becoming an excellent track record on draft day. Along with Ryans and Williams, right tackle Eric Winston and tight end Owen Daniels have emerged as starters from the 2006 draft class. The Texans' 2007 draft class was led by defensive tackle Amobi Okoye, the youngest first-round draft pick in NFL history, and cornerback Fred Bennett, who led the team in interceptions as a rookie.

Kubiak spent 20 of the previous 23 years in the Denver area, where he earned a reputation as a brilliant offensive mastermind. He played for the Broncos from 1983-91 as the backup for Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway. Kubiak played in 119 games during his career and tossed 14 touchdowns in that span. During his time as a player in the Mile High City, he was a part of three teams that reached the Super Bowl.

Kubiak began his coaching career in 1992-93 as the running backs coach at his alma mater Texas A&M. Under Kubiak's watchful eye, running back Greg Hill was named second team All-America his junior year. Hill was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round of the 1994 draft.

Kubiak started his NFL coaching career with the San Francisco 49ers in 1994. As quarterbacks coach, he guided Hall of Famer Steve Young to his best season as a pro. Young was named the NFL MVP for the second time in his career.

Under Kubiak's tutelage, Young had a career high 70.3 completion percentage. He threw 35 touchdowns, passed for 3,969 yards and set an NFL record with a 112.8 passer rating, a mark that would stand for 10 seasons. Young captured Super Bowl XXIX MVP honors by tossing a record six touchdowns in San Francisco's 49-26 win over the San Diego Chargers.

In the spring of 1995, Kubiak returned to the Broncos as offensive coordinator, where he would steer Denver to the organization's best numbers in team history and help lead the team to seven postseason trips and two Super Bowl titles in 11 seasons.

Kubiak began his tenure in Denver as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach to his former teammate, Elway. Kubiak made an immediate impact as Elway threw for 3,970 yards, the second-best mark of his Hall of Fame career. Elway increased his touchdown passes from 16 in 1994 to 26 in 1995. During the final four years of his career (1995-98), Elway tossed 101 touchdown passes, second only to Brett Favre in that span.

Kubiak's offense featured one of the best tight ends in NFL history. Shannon Sharpe, the NFL's leader among tight ends in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdowns, spent seven years under Kubiak. Sharpe averaged 61 receptions and had the most yards receiving with 1,107 yards in 1997.

Kubiak's offenses always have been based on balance. The Broncos' running game has focused around a strong system instead of an individual. Broncos runners have gone over the 1,000-yard rushing mark 10 seasons out of the past 11. Denver has seen five different runners rush for more than 1,000 yards, more than any team in the NFL over the past 11 years.

Kubiak turned to Terrell Davis to tote the ball as the Broncos won back-to-back Super Bowls in the late '90s. In 1997, Davis became only the fourth running back in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards. During the 1997-98 seasons, he rushed for 3,758 yards, most of any running back in back-to-back campaigns between 1995-2005. Davis' 2,008 rushing yards are the fourth most in NFL history. He won AP Offensive Player of the Year honors in 1996 and 1998.

Following Elway's retirement, Kubiak turned his offense over to second-year quarterback Brian Griese, who threw for 3,032 yards in his first season as the Broncos' starter. In the 2000 season, Griese guided the Broncos' offense to rank second in the NFL in points scored and total offense. He was named to the Pro Bowl that season.

That same season Mike Anderson rushed for 1,487 yards, a Bronco record for a rookie. Anderson set the NFL single-game rookie rushing record with 251 yards against the New Orleans Saints. That year, Kubiak's receivers, Ed McCaffrey (101) and Rod Smith (100), became just the second pair of teammates in NFL history to grab at least 100 receptions.

In 2002, the Broncos drafted running back Clinton Portis in the second round. In his rookie season, Portis rushed for 1,508 yards, breaking Anderson's rookie mark, and was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. The Broncos' rushing attack averaged 141.6 yards per game, which ranked second in the AFC. The offense totaled 380.6 yards per game, which was third in the NFL.

Kubiak relinquished his quarterbacks coach title in 2003, turning the duties over to Pat McPherson. That offseason, Denver signed quarterback Jake Plummer from the Arizona Cardinals and Plummer was immediately transformed. Despite missing five games his first season in Denver, Plummer threw for more touchdowns (15) than interceptions (seven) for the second time in his career. The 2004 season saw Plummer throw for 4,089 yards, most in Broncos history. He also tossed 27 touchdown passes, tying Elway's 1997 club record.

Plummer stayed on his feet in Kubiak's offense. After being sacked an average of 36 times per season in Arizona, Plummer was sacked an average of 17 times per year in Denver. Every season in Kubiak's system, Plummer threw more touchdowns than interceptions and led the Broncos to the playoffs from 2003-05.

In 2005, Kubiak's offense ranked fifth in the NFL with 5,766 total yards. His rushing attack was second in the league, averaging 158.7 yards per game. The Broncos were led by Anderson's 1,014 yards on the ground and Tatum Bell's 921 yards. Denver finished 2005 with a 13-3 record, winning their division for the first time since 1998, the last time they appeared in the Super Bowl.

In his 11 years as offensive coordinator, Kubiak's Broncos amassed 66,501 total yards and 465 touchdowns, most in the NFL in that span. He has coached 14 different Broncos that made the Pro Bowl. Denver's rushing attack has totaled 25,022 yards, most in the NFL over the last 11 seasons.

Kubiak's return to Houston is a return to his roots. He starred at St. Pius High School, where he was an all-state selection, passing for 6,190 yards during his high school career. He was inducted into the Texas High School Hall of Fame in 1999.

Kubiak attended Texas A&M, where he was selected All-Southwest Conference in 1982. He led the conference in attempts (324), completions (181), percentage (55.9) yardage (1,948), touchdowns (19), and total offense (1,885) as a senior. He set the SWC touchdown record with six against Rice during his junior season. He received his degree in Physical Education before being drafted by the Broncos in the eighth round (197th overall) in the 1983 draft.

Kubiak, born in Houston, is married to Rhonda. The couple has three sons Klint, Klay, and Klein. Klint currently is a junior defensive back and Klay is a freshman quarterback at Colorado State. Klein is a senior in high school.

ALEX GIBBS

Assistant Head Coach/Offense
24th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

Alex Gibbs enters his first season as the Houston Texans assistant head coach/offense. He was hired by the Texans on January 9, 2008.

Gibbs brings a wealth of coaching and administrative experience to the Texans. In his most recent coaching position, he served as the assistant head coach/offensive line, as well as consultant, with the Atlanta Falcons from 2004-06. In 2004 the Falcons led the NFL in rushing for the first time in team history. They rushed for a team-record 2,672 yards, third highest rushing yards total in the NFL since 1990.

During the three seasons with Gibbs on staff in Atlanta, the team led the NFL in rushing with 8,157 yards. Atlanta was the only team over that three-year period to record a rushing average above five yards at 5.1.

Gibbs worked with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak, who served as the offensive coordinator in Denver, from 1995-03. During their time together, the Broncos led the NFL in rushing with 20,150 yards. Denver finished second in total offense with 54,167 yards during their nine seasons together.

TEXANS

He spent 13 combined seasons (1984-1987 and 1995-2003) mentoring the offensive line with the Broncos, where he established several franchise records. He played an essential role with the Broncos during their back-to-back Super Bowl wins in the late 90s. The offensive line set numerous franchise records during his second tenure with Denver, including most total yards (6,554 in 2000), most first downs (383 in 2000), most rushing yards (2,468 in 1998) and most rushing touchdowns (32 in 1998).

From 1995-2000, Gibbs' offensive lines did not allow more than 35 sacks in a season. And during that span center Tom Nalen went to four consecutive Pro Bowls; and in 1998, three Broncos offensive linemen were nominated to the Pro Bowl for their role in winning their second consecutive Pro Bowl and blocking for NFL MVP Terrell Davis, who rushed for over 2,000 yards.

His NFL career began with the Denver Broncos in 1984 and he helped the team make two straight Super Bowl appearances in 1986 and 1987. He continued on to coach in Kansas City, where he helped the Chiefs drop their sack total substantially from 48 in 1992 to 19 in 1994. During his tenure with the Indianapolis Colts (1992) he experienced similar success and also helped the San Diego Chargers (1990-1991) to the second-best rush offense in the league in 1991. With the Los Angeles Raiders (1988-1989) he coached guard Steve Wisniewski, who would earn eight trips to the Pro Bowl in his career.

Prior to his NFL experience, Gibbs spent 15 seasons as a college coach. He began in 1969 with Duke University as the defensive backs coach. He continued on to coach defensive backs at the University of Kentucky (1971-1972) and West Virginia University (1973-1974). He began coaching offensive lines at Ohio State (1975-1978), where he also served as offensive coordinator, and on to Auburn (1979-1981) and Georgia (1982-1983), before starting his NFL career.

Gibbs spent his playing days at Davidson College as a running back and defensive back. He earned his master's degree from North Carolina in European history. He continued on to earn his E.D.D. from Auburn University.

Born in Morgantown, North Carolina, Gibbs has a daughter and four sons. His wife's name is Trina.

KYLE SHANAHAN

*Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
5th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans*

Kyle Shanahan enters his third season with the Houston Texans, fifth in the NFL, and first as the offensive coordinator. Shanahan coached the quarterbacks in 2007 and the wide receivers in 2006 before being named offensive coordinator on January 11, 2008. At age 28, Shanahan is the youngest coordinator in the NFL.

As coordinator, Shanahan will work closely with head coach Gary Kubiak to develop and implement the offensive game plan each week. Shanahan will continue to work with the quarterbacks as well. Under his guidance last year, the quarterback position had its most productive year in team history. The Texans signal callers set club records for most completions, passing yards and touchdowns; and they were sacked just 22 times all year.

With Shanahan as his position coach in 2006, WR Andre Johnson turned in the best season of his young career and earned a starting nod in the 2007 Pro Bowl. Johnson led the NFL with 103 receptions and had his second 1,000-yard season with 1,147 yards. Johnson's 103 catches accounted for 31.3 percent of the Texans' total completions, more than any receiver in the league. Opposite Johnson, veteran Eric Moulds contributed 57 catches for 557 yards and a score. Kevin Walter, signed as a restricted free agent in the offseason, proved to be a solid addition with 17 catches for 160 yards on the year.

Shanahan joined the Texans from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as offensive quality control coach during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. In his first season with the Bucs, he helped rookie Michael Clayton establish franchise rookie records for receptions and receiving touchdowns. He also helped receiver Joey Galloway finish seventh in the NFL in receiving yardage in 2005.

He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant at UCLA, who participated in the Silicon Valley Bowl at the end of the season.

During his senior year playing at the University of Texas as a wide receiver, Shanahan played in 12 games and averaged 8.9 yards per reception.

He attended Duke University in 1999 and played wide receiver for the Blue Devils before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000. He spent two seasons at wide receiver for the Longhorns.

Shanahan was born in Minneapolis and attended Cherry Creek (Colo.) High School. Shanahan and his wife Mandy reside in Houston and celebrated the birth of their first daughter, Stella, last August.

RICHARD SMITH

Defensive Coordinator
21st NFL Season • 3rd with Texans

Richard Smith enters his third season as the defensive coordinator of the Texans. He was hired on February 2, 2006 after spending the 2005 season as the defensive coordinator of the Miami Dolphins.

Houston's defense finished 24th in the league for the second consecutive season in 2007, allowing an average of 344.2 yards per game. The Texans gave up just 114.1 rushing yards per game in 2007 to rank 19th in the league in that category. The defense put more pressure on opposing quarterbacks in 2007, improving its sack total from 28 in 2006 to 31.

Smith's defense in year two was led by a pair of All-Pros in MLB DeMeco Ryans and DE Mario Williams. Both second-year stars earned spots on the Associated Press All-Pro second team. Ryans led the team in tackles for the second straight year and was voted to start at MLB for the AFC squad in the 2008 Pro Bowl. Williams dominated over the second half of the season and finished the year with a franchise-record 14 sacks, which was good for third in the NFL. The top overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft has already set the franchise career sack record with 18.5, and he was the only player in the NFL in 2007 to notch a sack in six consecutive games.

In his first year in Houston, Smith presided over a defense that finished the season ranked 24th in the NFL in total defense, giving up 337.5 yards per game, and tied for 25th in scoring defense, allowing 22.9 points per game. However, over the last three months of the season, Smith's defense performed like one of the top-10 units in the league.

No defense improved as much as Smith's from the beginning of the 2006 season to the end. Houston shaved 179.9 yards and 12.1 points off of its average per game from October 1 through the end of the season. After struggling early on, Houston's defense began to hit its stride in a Week 4 win over Miami, holding the Dolphins to 289 yards and 15 points. From that point on, the Texans allowed an average of 303.8 yards per game, ranking 10th in the league over that time span. The Texans gave up an average 20.6 points per game in that span as well, which ranked 13th in the league.

In his year with the Dolphins, Smith's defense ranked 18th in the NFL in total defense and finished the season with 49 sacks, second-most in the league.

Before joining Miami, Smith served as the assistant head coach/linebackers for the Detroit Lions during the 2003 and 2004 seasons and as the linebackers coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1997-02.

During his time in San Francisco, Smith helped four of his linebackers reach the Pro Bowl, including Julian Peterson in 2002, Winfred Tubbs in 1998, and both Ken Norton Jr. and Lee Woodall in 1997.

During Smith's tenure with the Denver Broncos that began in 1993, Smith worked with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak in 1995 and 1996. He served as the Broncos' special teams coach and also assisted with the linebackers. From 1988-92, Smith coached tight ends, specials teams, linebackers, and offensive line with the Houston Oilers. He coached on the collegiate level before that, tutoring the linebackers and special teams for the University of Arizona in 1987, and the outside linebackers and special teams at California from 1984-86. Smith broke into coaching in 1979, when he was the offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (Calif.) Junior College for two seasons before coaching the defensive line at Cal State-Fullerton from 1981-83.

Smith played on the offensive line at Rio Hondo for two years (1975-76) before transferring to Fresno State, where he competed in football for two years and graduated in 1979 with a degree in physical education.

Smith has four children: daughters Morgan, Aimee, and Whitney, and a son, Travis.

JOE MARCIANO

*Special Teams Coordinator
23rd NFL Season • 7th with Texans*

Joe Marciano enters his seventh season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans. Regarded as one of the league's top coaches in his field, Marciano has directed special teams for 23 NFL seasons.

Marciano's special teams unit provided many of the biggest highlights of the 2007 season, tying three NFL records. The Texans tied the NFL single-season record with four kickoff returns for touchdown on the season, becoming just the fourth team in league history to do so. WR André Davis tied another league record when he became the seventh player in history to return two kickoffs for touchdown in one game, doing so vs. Jacksonville in the season finale. K Kris Brown, who scored a team-record 115 points, became just the third kicker in league history to make three field goals of 50 yards or longer in one game when he did so vs. Miami on October 7. P Matt Turk also set team records for gross and net punting average in his first season as a Texan, and the coverage unit held opponents to a record-low total of 151 punt return yards on the season.

Under Marciano's guidance in 2006, P Chad Stanley posted the best gross punting average of his career, averaging 41.6 yards per punt, and Brown led the team in scoring for the fifth consecutive season. The Texans still ranked sixth in the league in punt return average, at 10.5 yards per return; and the kick coverage team held opponents to the sixth-worst starting field position in the league.

Marciano's tenure as special teams coordinator was highlighted during the 2005 season. Pro Bowl selection and AP first team All-Pro kick returner Jerome Mathis was also honored by the NFL Alumni as the Special Teams Player of the Year and the Texans Rookie of the Year. He finished the season ranked second in the league for return men, returning 54 kickoffs for 1,542 yards and two touchdowns. He was the only player in the NFL to return two kicks for scores that season.

Marciano helped Brown finish the 2005 season with 102 points, including 26 field goals, the second-most of his career. Stanley also had a stellar 2005 season, finishing with 29 punts inside the 20-yard line, the fourth most in the NFL. His 6.6 yard-per-return average also ranked sixth in the NFL.

In 2004, Brown set a club record with 85 points and nailed a career-high nine touchbacks. Second-year LB Antwan Peek had a breakout year with 18 special teams tackles and a blocked punt. Meanwhile, the Texans ranked seventh in the AFC in opponent average starting field position.

TEXANS

In 2003, Stanley led the NFL with 36 punts inside the 20 and his 36.7-yard net average ranked sixth in the league. Brown nailed 18 of 22 field goals, missing just one inside 50 yards. J.J. Moses ranked fifth in the AFC with a 23.4- yard kickoff-return average.

In 2002, Brown connected on 13 field goals from 40-plus yards and Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8), leading the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles, and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC.

Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units. Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals, and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84 of 101 field-goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points scored (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (five), and extra points (42). Also in 2000, Tampa Bay set a team mark and tied a league mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns.

In 1999, linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt-return average (13.7). In 1997, the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field-goal percentage.

Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. Marciano also coached wide receivers at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He serves as a spokesperson for Autism Speaks and is very active in the organization's annual fundraising walk held each fall in Houston. Marciano is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Missouri City with his son, Joseph.

FRANK BUSH

*Senior Defensive Assistant
18th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans*

Frank Bush enters his second season with the Texans as senior defensive assistant. He spent the 2006 season in Arizona as assistant head coach/linebackers.

In his first year with Houston, Bush worked closely with the defensive line. Under the tutelage of Bush and defensive line coach Jethro Franklin, defensive end Mario Williams shattered the team single-season sack record with 14 sacks and earned second-team All-Pro recognition. Williams and rookie defensive tackle Amobi Okoye combined for 19.5 sacks, making them the best inside-outside sack tandem in the NFL.

Before joining Dennis Green in Arizona, Bush worked as an assistant with the Denver Broncos (1995–03) and Houston Oilers (1992–94). Bush's linebackers helped the Cardinals defense to finish the season as the 8th ranked defense in the NFL in 2005, an improvement from the 12th ranked defense in 2004 and the 26th ranked defense in 2003.

Bush served nine seasons with the Broncos—three as special teams coach (2001–03), one overseeing the defensive secondary/nickel packages (2000), and five as linebackers coach (1995–99). In 2003 Denver ranked fifth in the AFC in both punt and kickoff return average. Kicker Jason Elam accounted for 120 points for the second consecutive season, placing him fourth (2003), and second (2002), respectively. In 2001, Elam's 86 percent field goal accuracy mark (31-of-36) was the best in Bronco history and Reuben Droughns ranked third in the AFC with a 25.8-yard kickoff return average.

In 1995, his first season as linebackers coach with Denver, the Broncos defense improved from 28th to 15th, then skyrocketed to the fourth overall defense in the league in 1996, including first against the run. The 1997 season saw two of his pupils—John Mobley (162) and Bill Romanowski (117) rank 1-2 on the club in tackles as Denver forged consecutive World Championships with victories in Super Bowl XXXII over Green Bay following the 1997 season and Super Bowl XXXIII over Atlanta after the '98 campaign. In the latter campaign, the linebacker trio of Mobley (132) Glenn Cadrez (105), and Romanowski (95) led the team in tackles, Romanowski earned his second Pro Bowl berth, and the Broncos run defense finished third in the NFL.

After an outstanding college career as a three year starter at North Carolina State, Bush was a fifth-round draft choice by Houston in the 1985 NFL Draft and earned all-rookie acclaim starting 11 of 16 games for the Oilers before a spinal injury prematurely ended his pro career a year later. After serving as a college scout for the Oilers for five years (1987–92), he was the team's linebackers coach for three seasons, bringing his tenure with Houston as a player, scout, and assistant coach to 10 years. Bush's linebackers continued to play an integral role the following two seasons with the Broncos. In 2002, his special teams ranked among the best in the league as Denver ranked third in the AFC in kickoff coverage and fourth in kickoff return average. Born in Athens, Ga., Bush and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Houston.

JOHN BENTON

*Offensive Line Coach
5th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans*

COACHES

John Benton enters his third season coaching the offensive line for the Houston Texans.

In his first season with the team, Benton helped the offensive line overcome a rash of injuries to improve in both pass protection and run blocking. Despite using eight different starting lineups, the 2006 Texans offensive line surrendered 25 fewer sacks than in 2005. On the ground, the line improved throughout the year and helped the team average 123.4 rushing yards per game over the second half of the season.

Last season's offensive line was even better, cutting the sack total in half from 2006, allowing just 22 on the year, which set a team record. The record-low sack total came while the team attempted a record-high 529 passes, meaning the line allowed a sack on just four percent of pass attempts. The line also paved the way for the team to rush for 1,586 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Benton broke into the NFL as the assistant offensive line coach in 2004. During his first season, the Rams' offensive line was led by Pro Bowl LT Orlando Pace. St. Louis finished the season with an 8-8 regular-season record, but qualified for the playoffs. The Rams rushed for 102 yards on their way to a 27-20 win at division rival Seattle in a Wild Card match-up. The offensive line gave Rams quarterbacks enough time to finish fourth in the NFL with 252.3 passing yards per game. The St. Louis ground attack gained 1,496 yards.

Benton was named the Rams' offensive line coach in 2005. His line opened holes for RB Stephen Jackson to rush for more than 1,000 yards for the first time in his career. Rams running backs averaged 1,579 rushing yards during Benton's two years as the line coach. Benton lettered at Colorado State from 1983-86 and earned honorable mention All-WAC accolades during his junior and senior seasons. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1987-90. His first offensive line job was at California University (Pa.), where he also served as the recruiting coordinator.

Benton returned to his alma mater in 1996. He was the offensive line coach until 2000 and also took over as the co-offensive coordinator in 2000 until 2003. Upon his promotion, Benton looked for tutelage from Denver Broncos offensive coordinator Gary Kubiak. Colorado State emulated the Broncos' power rushing attack.

A Durango, Colo. native, he and his wife Nicole, have two daughters – Gabrielle and Paige. The family resides in Sugar Land.

JETHRO FRANKLIN

Defensive Line Coach
8th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Jethro Franklin enters his second season as the Texans defensive line coach after making an immediate impact on the defensive line in his first year in Houston.

Under Franklin's watch, second-year DE Mario Williams shattered the franchise single-season sack record with 14 sacks, earning him second-team All-Pro honors. Rookie DT Amobi Okoye set the team's rookie sack record with 5.5, breaking Williams' mark of 4.5 from 2006. The duo's combined 19.5 sacks made them the most prolific inside-outside sack tandem in the NFL in 2007.

Franklin spent the 2006 season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the defensive line coach. The Bucs finished the year 17th in total defense. He spent the 2005 season at USC where the Trojans advanced to the BCS Title Game. USC had two players, DE Frostee Rucker and DT LaJuan Ramsey, selected in the 2006 NFL Draft.

Franklin spent five seasons with the Green Bay Packers (2000-04) as defensive line coach under former Texans offensive coordinator Mike Sherman. In 2004, under Franklin's guidance, Packers DE Kabee Gbaja-Biamila tied his career high and led the team with 13.5 sacks, which ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL. Franklin helped the speedy pass rusher become the first player in Packers history to post double-digit sacks in four consecutive seasons (2001-04). From 2001-02, Franklin's unit contributed to 95 quarterback takedowns, a club record for sacks in consecutive years. During his five year tenure in Green Bay, Franklin helped lead the Packers to the playoffs four times (2001-04).

In helping the Packers defense surrender only 237 points in 2001, the fifth-lowest total in the league, Franklin's linemen contributed to a team-record 52 sacks, good for third in the NFL. The constant pressure up front led to the defense allowing just 10.3 yards per pass play, the second-lowest figure in the NFL and tops in the NFC, as well as allowing only 4.7 yards per play overall, the sixth-best mark in the league. Franklin's work in 2000, his first year in Green Bay, was similarly successful. The Packers yielded a mere seven rushing touchdowns, the second-lowest total in the NFL and the second-fewest yielded by the Packers since 1962.

Prior to joining Green Bay, he coached the interior defensive line at UCLA in 1999, following eight years (1991-98) as defensive line coach at Fresno State. A coach in three bowl games at Fresno State, Franklin's tutoring produced several all-conference players.

A veteran of two NFL coaching fellowships, Franklin worked with Buffalo in the summer of 1994 after receiving the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., Minority Coaching Fellowship, and in the summer of 1995 interned with the Cleveland Browns.

Franklin earned back-to-back All-America honors in 1986 and 1987 at Fresno State. He finished his career with 31.5 sacks, second on Fresno State's all-time list. He set a then school record with 19.5 sacks as a junior and, as a senior, was named Pacific Coast Athletic Association Defensive Player of the Year and the Bulldogs' Most Valuable Player. He later earned a bachelor's degree in criminology from Fresno State in 1989.

Franklin returns to Houston where he was an 11th-round draft choice by the Oilers in 1988. He was the No. 1 draft choice of the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF) in the winter of 1991, he instead opted to start his coaching career.

Franklin was born in St. Lazaire, France, where his father was stationed in the military. He and his wife, Cherise, have two children Khalil and Takara.

CHICK HARRIS

Running Backs Coach
28th NFL Season • 7th with Texans

COACHES

Chick Harris enters his seventh season as running backs coach for the Houston Texans. Harris boasts 28 years of NFL coaching experience.

Harris has turned in an impressive coaching performance in each of the last two years, producing a solid rushing attack in the face of a slew of injuries at running back. Last season, opening-day starter Ahman Green missed 10 games with a knee injury and rushed for just 260 yards. Harris leaned on 2006 leading rusher Ron Dayne, who produced a team- and career-high 773 yards and six touchdowns. Rookie undrafted free agent Darius Walker came on late in the year and ran for 264 yards over the last four games.

In 2006, after losing projected starter Domanick Williams early in training camp, Harris turned to a running back by committee approach to carry the load on the ground. Houston was one of three teams to have three different players rush for at least 90 yards in a game, and the Texans were the only team that had a pair of rookies each top the 90-yard mark in a game.

Dayne, the 1999 Heisman Trophy winner, came on late in the year and led the team with 612 yards and five touchdowns, including a career-high 153 yards and two touchdowns to lead Houston to its first-ever win over Indianapolis.

Harris helped Williams earn the 2003 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year award and develop into a two-time 1,000-yard rusher. Williams, drafted in the fourth round in 2003, is the franchise's all-time leading rusher with 3,195 career yards, and his 28 career touchdowns are the most in team history. He holds 27 team records, including the single-season records for rushing yards, with 1,188 in 2004, and rushing yards by a rookie, with 1,031 in 2003.

During Harris' seven-year tenure with the Panthers, injuries forced the club to suit up a bevy of running backs, from Tshimanga Biakabutuka to Richard Huntley to Brad Hoover to Fred Lane to Anthony Johnson to Derrick Moore. Harris helped Carolina set an expansion record with seven wins in 1995 and also helped the Panthers reach the NFC Championship Game the following season.

Harris launched his NFL coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, coaching two seasons. He entered the coaching profession at Colorado State in 1970, coaching three seasons before heading to Long Beach State. After one season at Long Beach, Harris joined the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League in 1974. He then moved on to the University of Washington, where he spent six seasons, helping the Huskies to two bowl wins, including a Rose Bowl triumph over Michigan.

Harris lettered in football and track at Northern Arizona, where he is a member of the Lumberjacks' athletic hall of fame.

Born in Durham, N.C., Harris attended Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School. He has a son, Tyler, and a daughter, Tarana. Harris and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kara. The family lives in Sugar Land.

JON HOKE

Defensive Backs Coach
7th NFL Season • 7th with Texans

Jon Hoke enters his seventh season as the Texans' defensive backs coach, directing one of the league's most talented secondary units.

Hoke was forced to continually reshuffle his lineup in 2007, as his secondary was hard hit by injuries. In all, six defensive backs ended the season on injured reserve, including opening-day starting CB Dunta Robinson and FS Jason Simmons as well as projected starting SS Glenn Earl. Rookie CB Fred Bennett led the team with three interceptions after moving into the starting lineup for the second half of the season. Robinson picked off two passes, giving him 11 in his career and tying him with Aaron Glenn and Marcus Coleman for the franchise career record. SS C.C. Brown was the only defensive back to start all 16 games, and he finished fourth on the team with 83 tackles, an interception, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In 2006, Hoke's secondary unit accounted for eight of the team's 10 interceptions, including two each by Robinson and DeMarcus Faggins. Robinson continued to grow as the leader of a young defensive backfield and led the secondary in tackles, with 83, and pass breakups, with 14. He scored the first touchdown of his career on a nine-yard interception return against Buffalo. Faggins scored his second career touchdown on a 58-yard fumble return at Oakland. Safeties Brown finished fourth on the team with 75 tackles and also recorded a sack and an interception, while Earl was fifth with 70 stops and also turned in 2.5 sacks and an interception of his own.

In 2005, Robinson continued his success from his rookie season, finishing his sophomore campaign with a career-high 93 tackles and team-leading 21 passes defended. Faggins also had a career high with 53 tackles and finished behind Robinson in team rankings with 14 passes defended. Earl led the team with two interceptions.

Hoke's defensive backs accounted for 18 of the Texans' team-record 22 interceptions in 2004. Nine of those picks resulted in returns of 20 yards or more, tying the Texans for third in the league in that category. Robinson tied for the lead among NFL rookies with six picks.

Hoke came to Houston after spending the previous three seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. Hoke replaced current University of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops at Florida in 1999, initially serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2000, he added the title of assistant head coach.

Hoke arrived in Gainesville after five seasons tutoring the defensive backs at Missouri. The Tigers earned bowl bids in Hoke's last two seasons, thanks in large part to a defense that forced 48 turnovers, leading to 208 points.

Prior to coaching at Missouri, Hoke spent four years at Kent State, coaching defensive backs all four seasons and adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season. He coached defensive backs and special teams at San Diego State from 1987-88 and launched his coaching career in the same capacity at Bowling Green in 1983, helping the Falcons win the Mid-American Conference title with an 11-0 mark in 1985.

Hoke was a four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), earning All-MAC honors as a defensive back. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education before playing in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children – Mallory, Kyle, and twins Kendall and Carly. The family lives in Sugar Land.

JOHNNY HOLLAND

Linebackers Coach
14th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans

COACHES

Johnny Holland enters his third year with the Houston Texans as the linebackers coach after spending the previous three seasons with the Detroit Lions. Holland, who starred on the field for the Green Bay Packers for seven years, enters his 14th season as a coach in the NFL.

The linebacker corps was the strength of the defense in 2007, led once again by MLB DeMeco Ryans. In his second year, Ryans was elected to start the 2008 Pro Bowl and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro recognition after leading the team with 127 tackles, including 98 solo stops, two sacks an interception, a forced fumble and three fumble recoveries. WLB Morlon Greenwood registered his fourth consecutive 100-tackle season, finishing second on the team with 118 stops, including 90 solos, to go along with a sack, a forced fumble and an interception.

In his first year with the team, Holland helped Ryans earn AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after one of the greatest seasons by a rookie defender in league history. Under Holland's guidance, Ryans led the NFL in solo tackles with 126, and his 156 total tackles were more than any rookie in the previous 20 years. Ryans also recorded 3.5 sacks, an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, and eight pass deflections. With the addition of Ryans, Greenwood slid outside and finished second on the team with 110 tackles.

In 2005, Holland's first year as linebackers coach with the Lions, the unit was ravaged by injuries with four linebackers ending the season on injured reserve, including Boss Bailey and Earl Holmes, who entered the season as starters. Holland molded his group into a solid unit and helped the defense hold opposing offenses under 300 total yards in five of the team's last seven games.

In 2003-04, Holland was a defensive assistant for the Lions, helping Texans defensive coordinator Richard Smith coach the linebackers. Holland began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1995-97 before coaching special teams in 1998 and linebackers in 1999. While on Mike Holmgren's staff in Green Bay, he helped lead the Packers to back-to-back NFC Championships following the 1995 and 1996 seasons and a World Championship in Super Bowl XXXI.

In 2000, Holland re-joined Holmgren in Seattle, where he served as the assistant special teams/assistant strength and conditioning coach. From 2001-02, he returned to his more familiar role as linebackers coach for the Seahawks.

A native of Hempstead, Texas, Holland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Texas A&M. He led the Aggies' vaunted "Wrecking Crew" defense in tackles in each of his final three seasons in College Station before moving on to the NFL as a second round draft choice by the Packers in 1987. Holland posted six consecutive seasons with at least 100 tackles for Green Bay before retiring in 1994. In 1993, after suffering a neck injury in 1992, he led the team in tackles with 145 and helped guide the Packers to their first playoff birth in 11 years.

Holland was enshrined in the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1993 and was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. In July, 2001, he was inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame.

Holland and his wife, Faith, have a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Joli.

LARRY KIRKSEY

*Wide Receivers Coach
12th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans*

Larry Kirksey enters his second year as the wide receivers coach for the Texans. He brings over a decade of experience to coaching wide receivers. He has coached three receivers, Jerry Rice (1,549), Jimmy Smith (862) and Terrell Owens (801), that have over 800 receptions in their career.

In his first year with the Texans, Kirksey oversaw a group that had three players top 700 receiving yards, making Houston one of just four teams to achieve that feat. The unit's depth was tested when two-time Pro Bowl WR Andre Johnson missed seven games due to injury, but fellow receivers Kevin Walter and André Davis stepped up to fill the void. Walter set career highs in receptions, with 65, yards, with 800, and touchdowns, with four. His 65 catches led the team and he was second in receiving yards. Davis emerged as one of the best deep threats in the NFL, averaging nearly 18 yards per catch. Despite playing in just nine games, Johnson once again led the team in receiving yards, with 851, and touchdowns, with eight. Houston's all-time leading receiver led all NFL receivers with an average of 94.6 yards per game.

Kirksey spent the 2006 season as an asst. head coach/running backs at Middle Tennessee State. The Blue Raiders won the Sun Belt title on their way to the Motor City Bowl.

Kirksey spent the 2004 season in Denver as a volunteer coach for the Broncos. He spent 2003 as the wide receivers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars. During his time in Jacksonville, Jimmy Smith led the team with 54 receptions while missing four games.

He spent the 2001-02 season in Detroit. During the 2001 season, Johnnie Morton finished the year 12th in the NFL with 1,154 receiving yards. The Lions finished sixth in the league with 224.8 yards per game.

Kirksey, a Kentucky native, was an assistant head coach in charge of the wide receivers at Texas A&M in 2000. That year, he helped lead the Aggies to a berth in the Independence Bowl while injecting hints of the West Coast offense.

In 1994, Kirksey began his NFL coaching career with the responsibility of coaching the NFL's all-time reception and receiving yards leader Jerry Rice. Under Kirksey, Rice set an NFL record with 1,848 receiving yards, while setting a career high of 122 receptions in 1995. From 1994-99 Rice caught 606 passes for 6,666 yards.

From 1990 to 93, Kirksey coached running backs for Alabama, where he helped lead the Crimson Tide to a national championship in 1992. Kirksey's running back corps led the SEC in rushing that season with an average of 252 yards per game. He coached running backs at the University of Florida under Charlie Pell and Galen Hall from 1984 to 88. During his tenure at Florida, he coached star running backs Lorenzo Hampton, Neal Anderson, John L. Williams, and Emmitt Smith. After leaving Florida, Kirksey spent one year as running backs coach at Pittsburgh.

Prior to joining the Gators, Kirksey gained valuable experience by taking over head coaching duties at Kentucky State in 1983.

Kirksey got his start in coaching when he became the wide receiver/tight end coach at Miami of Ohio in 1974 and remained with the Redskins for three seasons before joining the staff at Kentucky. He also coached wide receivers and tight ends for the Wildcats from 1977 to 1981, then spent the 1982 campaign coaching the same positions at Kansas.

Kirksey earned a bachelor's degree from Eastern Kentucky in 1974, where he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at wide receiver. As a senior, he earned all-conference honors. Kirksey was out of coaching in 2005 while serving as deputy executive director of the Kentucky Sports Authority.

He and wife Anita have two children, Jessica and Jared.

BRIAN PARIANI

*Tight Ends Coach
18th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans*

Brian Pariani enters his third season with the Houston Texans as the tight ends coach. Pariani is responsible for one of the more utilized units in the Texans' new offensive scheme. Under Pariani's guidance, Owen Daniels has established himself as one of the best young tight ends in the NFL.

Last season, Pariani's tight ends had the most productive year in team history, combining to catch 73 pass for 859 yards and six touchdowns. They were led by Daniels, who was sixth among NFL tight ends with 63 receptions for 768 yards and three touchdowns. Second-year man Joel Dreessen caught four passes for 55 yards and the first two touchdowns of his career.

In his first season with Houston, Pariani developed Daniels, fourth-round draft choice, into the most productive rookie tight end in the NFL and a first-team PFWA/Pro Football Weekly all-rookie selection. Daniels set the Texans rookie record with five receiving touchdowns, which matched wide receiver Andre Johnson for the team lead. Daniels finished his first year with 34 catches for 352 yards and five touchdowns, all of which were first among rookie tight ends.

In addition to Daniels' outstanding season, Putzier, a former pupil of Pariani's in Denver, caught 13 passes for 125 yards. Veteran tight end Mark Bruener hauled in nine passes for 62 yards and two touchdowns—his first two scores as a Texan.

The move to Houston returned Pariani to the pro coaching ranks after spending the 2005 season as the offensive coordinator at Syracuse University. He spent 1995-04 coaching the tight ends with the Denver Broncos alongside Texans head coach Gary Kubiak. Before his time with the Broncos he coached with the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-94. Pariani teamed with Kubiak to bring the 49ers a Super Bowl championship in 1994.

In coaching with the Broncos during Super Bowl XXXII and XXXIII and with the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XXIX, Pariani became one of only 17 coaches in the NFL to have won World Championships with two different organizations and one of nine coaches to have done it with teams from different conferences.

While with the Broncos, Pariani coached Shannon Sharpe, the leading receiving tight end in NFL history. Sharpe led the NFL in receptions by a tight end from 1996-98 averaging 73 catches over the three year span. Sharpe totaled 425 receptions for 5,373 yards and 38 touchdowns with Pariani. Sharpe retired in 2004 finishing his career with eight Pro Bowl selections. He retired as the NFL career record holder at the tight end position for receptions, with 815, and yards, with 10,060, and 62 touchdowns. On October 20, 2002, Sharpe set an NFL record with 214 receiving yards in a 37-34 OT win at Kansas City.

During his time in Denver, Pariani's tight ends combined for 859 receptions and 9,948 receiving yards, most in the NFL over that 10-year period.

On the ground, Pariani's group helped lead the way for Denver runners to rush for 22,483, most in the NFL from 1995-04.

In 1990 Pariani served as a scouting assistant with the San Francisco 49ers before being promoted to offensive coaches assistant in 1991. Pariani began his career at UCLA in 1989 as a graduate assistant.

Pariani was born in San Francisco and was a three sport athlete at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield, Calif. Pariani and his wife, Stephanie, have two daughters, Jessica and Gianna. The family resides in Houston.

FRANK POLLACK

*Assistant Offensive Line Coach
2nd NFL Season • 2nd with Texans*

Frank Pollack is in his second year as the Texans assistant offensive line coach. Pollack will continue to work closely with offensive line coach John Benton to mold the Texans front five.

In his first year with the Texans, Pollack helped mold an offensive line that became the best in team history. The line cut its 2006 sack total nearly in half, from 43 to just 22 in 2007, allowing a sack on just four percent of the team's pass attempts. On the ground, the line helped RB Ron Dayne to a team- and career-high 773 yards and six touchdowns.

Pollack's first collegiate coaching position was at his alma mater, Northern Arizona, in 2005 as the co-offensive line coach working specifically with the tackles and tight ends. He was promoted to the offensive line coach in 2006 where the Lumberjacks produced the Big Sky Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year. The Northern Arizona offense led the conference in scoring (34.4) and passing (267.2) and finished second in rushing (137.9). Their points per game were fourth in the Division 1-AA.

Pollack was a sixth-round selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 1990. He played by the Bay from 1990-91 before moving to Denver where he played from 1992-93 before ending his career with the 49ers from 1994-98. He finished his career with 90 career games and one Super Bowl Championship with San Francisco in 1994.

RAY RHODES

*Assistant Defensive Backs Coach
28th NFL Season • 1st with Texans*

Ray Rhodes begins his tenure with the Houston Texans as the assistant defensive backs coach. He has spent the previous five seasons, first as the defensive coordinator, then as special projects/defense, for the Seattle Seahawks.

In 2005, Rhodes' role as defensive coordinator was limited due to illness before the season began. He maintained his involvement with the defense, helping the Seahawks defense lead the league in sacks with 50 and finish second in the NFL in red zone defense (40.4%). Rookie LB Lofa Tatupu earned a trip to the Pro Bowl after that season.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Rhodes spent two seasons in Denver as defensive coordinator with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak. He helped the defense, ranked 24th in 2000, improved to a number eight ranking in 2001 and number six ranking in 2002. After his first season three players received Pro Bowl nominations (CB Deltha O'Neal, DT Trevor Pryce and LB Al Wilson).

In his only season with the Washington Redskins, Rhodes led the defense to end of the season ranking of fourth. Two players from that season, CB Champ Bailey and DE Marco Coleman, earned Pro Bowl bids.

In 1999, Rhodes held the position of head coach, leading the Green Bay Packers to an 8-8 finish. Prior to his time coaching at Lambeau, Rhodes was at the helm in Philadelphia for four seasons. He earned NFL Coach of the Year honors in 1995 when he guided the Eagles to a 10-6 record and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff round.

Rhodes was defensive coordinator for San Francisco's 1994 World Championship team. He led the 49ers defense to an eighth place finish that season, as well as a victory over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX. S Merton Hanks, S Tim McDonlad, CB Deion Sanders and DT Dana Stubblefield all earned Pro Bowl nominations following the 1994 season.

He spent two seasons as defensive coordinator in Green Bay (1992-3) and nine seasons with the 49ers (1983-91) as the defensive backs coach. He began his career as the assistant secondary coach in San Francisco (1981-82).

Rhodes spent two seasons as a running back at TCU (1969-70) before transferring to the University of Tulsa (1972-73). He was selected by the New York Giants in the 10th round of the 1974 NFL Draft. He played wide receiver in his first three NFL seasons, including 1975 when he led all NFC receivers with a 20.7 yards-per-catch average. He was switched to defensive back after two seasons

Rhodes, a Mexia, Texas native, and his wife, Carmen, have four daughters: Detra, Candra, Tynesha and Raven.

PERRY CARTER

*Defensive Assistant
3rd NFL Season • 3rd with Texans*

Perry Carter enters his third season as a coach with the Texans, serving as the Texans defensive assistant. Carter also has coaching experience at the collegiate level and in NFL Europa.

In his role as defensive assistant, Carter works under Texans defensive coordinator Richard Smith, and works primarily with defensive backs coaches Jon Hoke and Ray Rhodes. He originally joined the Texans staff through the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program during the 2006 training camp. Carter began his coaching career in 2004 as the secondary coach at Texas A&M-Commerce. He worked in private business in 2005, then returned to coaching with NFL Europa's Hamburg Sea Devils as a defensive backs/defensive assistant in the summer of 2006. Carter also worked with the special teams in Hamburg.

The 36-year-old Carter, a native of McComb, Miss., earned four letters playing cornerback at Southern Mississippi from 1990-94. Carter was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (107th pick overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft, and went on to play for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1995 and the Oakland Raiders from 1996-98. Carter also played five seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos (2000-01), Montreal Alouettes (2002) and British Columbia Lions (2003-04).

RICHARD HIGHTOWER

Special Teams Assistant
5th NFL Season • 5th with Texans

Richard Hightower enters his third season as a coach in the NFL and fifth overall with the Texans, serving as a special teams assistant.

Hightower assists special teams coordinator Joe Marciano with game preparation and during practice. In 2006, Hightower's role as coaching administrative coordinator allowed him to work closely with defensive backs coach Jon Hoke in addition to helping Marciano with special teams.

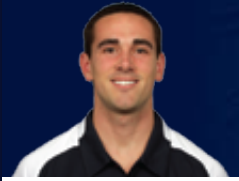

Prior to joining the coaching staff, he worked in business operations side of the Texans front office as a corporate sales intern in 2004 before joining the organization full-time as the corporate development event coordinator.

The 27-year-old Hightower is a native Houstonian and a 1998 graduate of MacArthur High in Aldine. He walked on to the football team at the University of Texas and earned three letters while playing wide receiver, where he played under current Chicago Bears receivers coach Darryl Drake. He also played defensive back and on special teams. Hightower's dedication and work ethic earned him a football scholarship for his final season in 2002. Hightower and his wife, Lanet, live in Houston.

Many Happy Returns

The special teams were arguably the most consistent unit on the team throughout the 2007, with players excelling in every phase of special teams play. No unit had a better season than the kickoff return group, however.

The Texans tied the NFL record for most kickoff returns for touchdown in a season, taking four kicks back for scores. Houston became the fourth team in NFL history to accomplish that feat and the first to do so in 13 years.

RAY WRIGHT

*Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
8th NFL Season • 7th with Texans*

Ray Wright enters his seventh season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Houston Texans. Wright assists Dan Riley in all aspects of the Texans' exhaustive strength and conditioning program.

Before coming to Houston, Wright spent one season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Maryland, helping the Terps capture the Atlantic Coast Conference title and a berth in the Orange Bowl.

Prior to his stint in College Park, Wright spent six months with the Chicago Bears as a college and pro personnel assistant. He spent the 2000 season as the recruiting coordinator at Cornell University.

Wright launched his NFL career with the Washington Redskins in 1997, serving as a scouting intern. He was promoted to college/pro scouting administrator in 1998, then to the club's director of player programs in 1999.

Wright played football at Duke from 1990-95 before working as a personal trainer for one year at Gold's Gym in Durham, N.C.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Wright is a certified strength and conditioning specialist and has his United States of America Weightlifting Coaching Certification. He is single and lives in Houston.

Drafting Inside Out

Houston's selection of T Duane Brown in the first round of the 2008 draft is a continuation of the team's ongoing effort to build along the line of scrimmage through the draft. Houston has used five consecutive first-round picks on linemen, focusing on the defensive side until this year. Brown joins DT Amobi Okoye (2007, 10th overall), DE Mario Williams (2006, 1st overall), DT Travis Johnson (2005, 16th overall) and DE Jason Babin (2005, 27th overall) as Texans first-round picks on the line of scrimmage.

The NFL's Youngest Coordinator

Kyle Shanahan, at 28 years old, became the youngest coordinator in the NFL when he was promoted from quarterbacks coach in January. The next-youngest is New England Patriots offensive coordinator Josh McDaniels, who is 31 years old. Shanahan is in his third year on the Texans staff, having coached the wide receivers in 2006 and the quarterbacks in 2007. He replaced Mike Sherman, who left the Texans to become the head coach at Texas A&M University following the season.

DT Amobi Okoye Rookie of the Month

In September, rookie DT Amobi Okoye started all four games for the Texans, recording 10 tackles, an AFC-high 4.0 sacks for 30.0 yards, a team-high four quarterback pressures, and he tied for the team lead with one forced fumble. He was also solid against the run, helping the Texans to the sixth-ranked run defense in the NFL. He tied the Texans rookie record by recording a sack in three consecutive games. Okoye's 4.0 sacks in the month of September were the most by a rookie defensive tackle since Minnesota DT Kevin Williams had 5.0 in December 2003.

Davis had a great December

The NFL named WR André Davis was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December. It is the first player of the month honor in his career. He has been named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice, most recently in Week 13 of this season.

Davis is the fifth Texans player to earn a player of the month award overall. It also marks the second consecutive season in which the Texans have had a player win December player of the month honors. LB DeMeco Ryans was named Defensive Rookie of the Month in December, 2006.

Davis (6-1, 194) led the NFL with a 34.9 kickoff return average in December and topped the NFL with three kickoff returns for touchdowns in a month. He joined Vitamin Smith of the Los Angeles Rams in October, 1950, as the only players in NFL history to return three kickoffs for touchdowns in the same month.

Home Field Advantage

In 2007, the Texans set a franchise record with six wins at home. In the friendly confines of Reliant Stadium, Houston was able to outscore its opponents by a margin of 226-155. The 226 points scored at home were a franchise record, breaking the previous record of 170 in 2004. Houston posted a franchise-best 6-2 record at Reliant Stadium this season, marking the team's first-ever winning record at home. The previous best mark was 4-4 in 2006.

Texans head coach Gary Kubiak is 10-6 at home in his two seasons in Houston. Prior to Kubiak's arrival, the Texans won a total of nine home games in four seasons. The only two games the Texans lost at home were by a combined margin of eight points.

Not many in the Third

The Texans used their first pick in the third round (79th overall) on CB Antwaun Molden from Eastern Kentucky. Molden is the first defensive player drafted by the team in the third round since 2003, when the Texans drafted LB Antwan Peek with the 67th overall pick. The pick breaks a string of six straight offensive players taken in the third round by Houston.

Going Deep

On June 11th, Reliant Energy, the Houston Texans and the Houston Astros hosted the 3rd annual Reliant Energy Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park. Several of the Houston Texans players participated in batting practice and Reliant Energy donated funds to Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Houston for every home run, hits off the wall, outfield and infield hits. The Texans raised $30,800 in one afternoon.

Big hitters for the day were Eric Winston, Sage Rosenfels, and Matt Schaub.

Eric had four (8) home runs, one of his hits broke a record for the longest distance at a derby event.

Quarterbacks Matt Schaub and Sage Rosenfels raised $9,450 with their combined hits.

Finishing Strong

For the second consecutive season, the Texans closed out the season in strong fashion, finishing with a 3-2 record in December and winning the last game of the year.

Prior to head coach Gary Kubiak's arrival, the Texans had posted a winning record in a calendar month just once, a 3-2 record in November, 2003. Under Kubiak, the team has done that three times. Before Kubiak, Houston was 0-4 in season finales; in two years under him, the team is 2-0.

Kubiak's teams have improved as the season wears on. In 2006, the Texans went 4-4 over the second half of the season and 3-2 in their last five games. This year, the Texans posted a 5-3 mark in the second half.

TEXANS TIDBIT

Still Undefeated

The Texans beat Carolina in Week 2 (9/16), Miami in Week 5 (10/7) and Oakland in Week 9 (11/4) to remain undefeated against each franchise. They are the only teams that Houston has played more than once and never lost to.

Overall, the Texans have winning records against six clubs. In addition to Carolina, Miami and Oakland, the Texans are 1-0 vs. Arizona and Chicago.

Houston will take on Miami and Oakland for the third consecutive season in 2008. It will mark the third straight year that Houston will host Miami; and the Texans travel to Oakland for the third time in a row. Chicago pays Reliant Stadium their first visit in the season finale.

Best Red Foot Forward

Reliant Stadium was a sea of red for the final two home games of the year as the fans matched the team, who donned their Battle Red jerseys. Battle Red Day has not only been one of the most popular games every year for the fans; the team has enjoyed a terrific winning percentage when in red as well.

The Texans are 6-2 all-time on Battle Red Day, including a 2-0 mark this season. The Texans beat Denver 31-13 in a nationally-televvised Thursday night game (12/13). It marked the first time that Houston had worn both red jerseys and red pants. Two weeks later, they closed out the season in red and set a franchise scoring record with a 42-28 win over division rival Jacksonville (12/30).

TEXANS TIDBIT

Good Pair Under Center

Texans QBs Matt Schaub and Sage Rosenfels each had stellar years in 2007. Both players set career marks in yards, attempts, completions and touchdowns. In 11 starts, Schaub completed 192-of-289 attempts for 2,241 yards and nine touchdowns, while Rosenfels connected on 154-of-240 passes for 1,684 yards and 15 touchdowns.

The Texans were one of only two teams in the NFL to have two quarterbacks both pass for over 1,500 yards, and they were the only team in the league with a pair of passers to each throw for at least nine touchdowns.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-0) won their season opener for the third time in team history and the first time since 2003 when they beat the Kansas City Chiefs 20-3 in Reliant Stadium. Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter. In the second quarter, a forced fumble by LB DeMeco Ryans gave Houston the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line. QB Matt Schaub led a 21-yard drive to set up K Kris Brown's 26-yard field goal, giving Houston a 3-0 lead. The Texans defense held, and Schaub returned to the field to hit WR Andre Johnson for a 77-yard touchdown pass. The completion, which was the longest in both Johnson and Schaub's careers, put the Texans ahead 10-0. The Texans defense again held, but Schaub was taken down by Kansas City T Alfonso Boone. A 59-yard punt by P Matt Turk and an offensive holding call pushed the Chiefs back to their 15-yard line, preventing Kansas City from getting an advantageous field position. Seconds before halftime, Texans CB Dunta Robison intercepted a pass from Kansas City QB Damon Huard intended for WR Jeff Webb. In the Chiefs' first drive of the third quarter, FB Kris Wilson fumbled a pass from Huard, and DE Mario Williams recovered the football, running it in for a 38-yard touchdown. Williams returned to the field to sack Huard, helping to force a Kansas City three-and-out. The Chiefs defense recovered a Houston fumble on a Schaub pass intended for Johnson. Huard drove his team downfield until he was taken down by Williams who registered his second sack of the day. Kansas City was forced to settle for a 27-yard field goal from K Justin Medlock, making the score 17-3. With time winding down in the fourth quarter, the Texans used their running game to put together a 10-minute drive. RB Ahman Green and RB Ron Dayne had most of the carries for the Texans, setting up 28-yard field goal from Brown. The Texans defense finished off the Chiefs with a sack by DE N.D. Kalu and an interception by DT Travis Johnson, handing Houston a 20-3 victory.

SUMMARY

The Texans (2-0) continue the best start in franchise history after beating the Carolina Panthers 34-21 in Bank of America Stadium. The Panthers jumped to an early first-quarter lead with two touchdown receptions from QB Jake Delhomme to WR Steve Smith. The Texans regrouped and responded with a quick three-play scoring drive that ended in a 31-yard touchdown pass from QB Matt Schaub to WR Andre Johnson. It was Johnson's 19th career touchdown catch, which is a Texans' individual receiving touchdown record. After the Texans' defense held, Schaub turned to the running game to move the offense downfield, ultimately connecting with Johnson for a nine-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 14-14. The Texans defense proved their might with rookie DT Amobi Okoye registering the first two sacks of his career in the second quarter, helping the offense get back on the field and put together a drive before halftime. That drive set up K Kris Brown's 25-yard field goal, giving Houston a 17-14 lead. The Texans began the second half with another quick scoring drive that featured RB Ahman Green running into the end zone to put his team ahead 24-14. The Texans then forced a fumble on the Carolina kickoff return, and WR Kevin Walter recovered the ball in the end zone to make the lead 31-14. And Houston never looked back. CB Dunta Robison intercepted a Delhomme pass intended for Smith in the third quarter. DT Anthony Maddox chipped in a fourth-quarter sack. The Texans' offense used the running game to pound through the Carolina defense and set up a fourth quarter 33-yard field goal from Brown, making the score 34-14. With minutes left in the game, the Delhomme connected with Smith for a 74-yard touchdown, but it was too little, too late. The Texans had already sealed the win, finishing with a final score of 34-21.

SUMMARY

The Texans (2-1) lost for the first time this season, falling to the Indianapolis Colts by a score of 30-24. Houston opened the game against its divisional rival with WR Jerome Mathis scoring on an 84-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. On the next possession, QB Peyton Manning drove his team downfield, connecting with TE Dallas Clark for a two-yard touchdown run to even the score at 7-7. The Texans responded with their own drive that resulted in a second-quarter, 33-yard field goal by K Kris Brown to put the Texans ahead 10-7. The Colts once again took the field and marched towards the red zone with Manning handing it off to RB Joseph Addai for a four-yard run to give the Colts a 14-10 lead going into halftime. The third quarter was all Colts. K Adam Vinatieri scored on a 26-yard field goal. Indy LB Rocky Boiman intercepted a QB Matt Schaub intended for WR Jacoby Jones, setting up an eight-yard touchdown for Addai. Penalties kept the Texans from putting together their offense, and Vinatieri closed the third quarter with a 28-yard field goal to put the Colts ahead 27-10. The Texans rallied in the fourth quarter. A 41-yard pass from Schaub to WR Andre' Davis set up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Samkon Gado. Houston's defense was then able to hold Indy to a 35-yard Vinatieri field goal. Schaub led the troops once again in a scoring drive, connecting with FB Vonta Leach in the end zone for a one-yard touchdown. The Texans' defense buckled down and held the Colts scoreless for the rest of the game, but the Texans' offense was not able to put together a last-minute touchdown drive. The Texans not only lost their first game of the season, they lost several key players to injuries, including Jones, DT Cedric Killings and RB Ahman Green.

SUMMARY

The Texans (2-2) suffered their second consecutive loss of the season, falling to the Atlanta Falcons by a score of 26-16. The Falcons put the first points on the board early in the first quarter with a 28-yard field goal from K Morten Andersen. The Texans responded with a quick scoring drive that resulted in a 35-yard touchdown pass from QB Matt Schaub to WR André Davis, putting the Texans ahead 7-3. The Falcons then answered with their own scoring drive. QB Joey Harrington looked to RB Jerious Norwood to carry the ball upfield before the quarterback finally connected with WR Michael Jenkins for a five-yard touchdown pass. In the second quarter, Houston struggled to get into an offensive groove. FB Vonta Leach fumbled a pass from Schaub, which set up another Atlanta touchdown as Harrington connected with Jenkins for a seven-yard pass in the end zone. Several possessions late, Andersen booted through a 22-yarder to give the Falcons a 20-7 lead. The Texans fought back before halftime, getting a 42-yard field goal from K Kris Brown as the clock expired. In the second half, the Texans moved the ball well, but squandered a pair of third-and-goals from the Atlanta one-yard line, winding up with only three points off those possessions. Meanwhile, the Falcons were able to maintain their lead by kicking a pair of field goals. The Texans' final chance came with just over two minutes remaining. Schaub ran up the middle and dove into the end zone, initially getting credit for a 13-yard touchdown run that could have pulled Houston within a field goal. But the Falcons challenged, and the replay showed Schaub went down just short of the end zone. On third-and-goal from the 1, Schaub tried a quick pitch to RB Ron Dayne, but the ball bounced off his hands and rolled out of bounds at the seven. Brown then yanked a 25-yard field goal attempt wide, sealing Atlanta's first win since last Dec. 10 at Tampa Bay and handing the Texans their second loss of the season.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-2) were off to the best five-game start in franchise history after defeating the Miami Dolphins 22-19 at Reliant Stadium. Houston scored on the game's opening drive with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Ron Dayne on fourth-and-goal that was set up by a 49-yard pass from QB Matt Schaub to WR André Davis. Miami responded on the next possession with a 24-yard field goal by K Jay Feely. Schaub was then intercepted by CB André Goodman on a deflected pass intended for TE Jeb Putzier. On the ensuing drive, Dolphins QB Trent Green was knocked out of the game with a concussion after blocking DT Travis Johnson during a reverse run by WR Ted Ginn, Jr. Backup QB Cleo Lemon stepped in and led a short drive ending in a three-yard touchdown run by RB Ronnie Brown, giving the Dolphins a 10-7 lead. Miami added another score early in the second quarter with a 40-yard field goal by Feely. After DE Jason Taylor sacked Schaub and forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Rodrigue Wright, the Texans defense held the Dolphins to a 33-yard field goal by Feely. The Texans closed the gap to 16-10 before halftime with a 54-yard field goal by Brown. S.C.C. Brown intercepted Lemon to begin the second half, setting up Kris Brown's 43-yard field goal. DE Mario Williams sacked Lemon to help stall the Dolphins' next drive, and Brown added his second 54-yard field goal to tie the game at 16-16 late in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, Feely connected on a 48-yard field goal to put the Dolphins back on top. The Texans evened the score at 19-19 with a 20-yard field goal by Brown. Schaub marched the Texans down the field with under two minutes to play, finding TE Owen Daniels twice for long passes, and Brown nailed a career- and franchise-long 57-yard field goal with :01 remaining to win the game for the Texans. It was the first game-winning drive of Schaub's pro career, and Brown matched a career and franchise high with five field goals, also becoming the first player in NFL history to make three field goals of 54 yards or more in a single game.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-3) dropped to .500 after falling to the Jacksonville Jaguars 37-17 at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. Houston moved the ball well early on but failed to get a touchdown on three quick trips to the red zone. The Texans went ahead 3-0 on the opening drive with a 20-yard field goal by K Kris Brown and appeared to extend their lead on a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Matt Schaub to WR André Davis, but the play was overturned. Officials ruled that Davis fumbled the ball out of the end zone before crossing the goal line, resulting in a Jacksonville touchback. In the second quarter, Brown's 35-yard field goal put the Texans up 6-0 after CB Demarcus Faggins recovered a fumble forced by FS C.C. Brown. Jacksonville responded with a touchdown on a one-yard pass from QB David Garrard to WR George Wrightster to make the score 7-6. The Jaguars then executed a surprise onside kick that led to a 37-yard field goal from K John Carney and a 10-6 halftime advantage. In the third quarter, the Jags struck again on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Garrard to WR Reggie Williams, but Texans SS Michael Boulware blocked the extra point attempt to keep the score at 16-6. The Jaguars later muffed a punt return that was recovered by S Will Demps, leading to a 33-yard field goal by Brown that brought the Texans within 16-9 heading into the fourth quarter. Jaguars RB Maurice Jones-Drew scored on a seven-yard run to make it 23-9, and LB Daryl Smith returned a Schaub fumble 77 yards to the end zone to extend the lead to 30-9 midway through the fourth quarter. Schaub then drove the Texans down the field but was intercepted by CB Brian Williams in Jacksonville territory on a controversial call. Jacksonville tacked on its final score on a 57-yard run by Jones-Drew. Backup QB Sage Rosenfels entered the game for the Texans' final possession and capped a long drive capped with a one-yard touchdown pass to FB Vonta Leach. RB Samkon Gado ran the ball in for a two-point conversion to end the scoring at 37-17.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-4), who scored a franchise-record 29 points in the fourth quarter, fell to the Tennessee Titans by a score of 38-36. Tennessee opened the game with a drive by QB Kerry Collins that resulted in a 52-yard field goal by K Rob Bironas. The Texans took the lead when LB DeMeco Ryans sacked Collins and returned the quarterback's fumble for a 26-yard touchdown. The Titans responded with another Collins drive that ended with a 25-yard field goal by Bironas, making the score 7-6 at the end of the first quarter. Tennessee took over in the second quarter with Bironas kicking a 21-yard field goal, RB LenDale White running in a one-yard touchdown and Bironas then booting in 30- and 28-yard field goals. The Texans entered the third quarter down 22-7 and without a starting QB Matt Schaub, who suffered ankle and hip injuries in the first half. The Titans took advantage of the deflated home team and Bironas continued to kick field goals, knocking in a 43-yarder at the start of the quarter. RB Chris Henry got going, running for 40 yards, including a four-yard touchdown, in a drive that gave his team a 32-7 lead. Houston, behind the arm of QB Sage Rosenfels, rose from the ashes in the final period. The Texans' furious rally began with a 70-yard drive that resulted in a seven-yard touchdown catch by WR David Anderson. The Texans cut the lead to 32-22 on a six-yard touchdown reception by WR Kevin Walter. The Texans forced a punt, but Anderson fumbled it and Tennessee recovered. That set up Bironas' seventh field goal, a 29-yarder that made the score 35-22. TE Jeb Putzier's seven-yard touchdown catch with less than two minutes remaining trimmed the lead to 35-29. The Texans then recovered an onside kick and Rosenfels hit WR André Davis with a 53-yard touchdown pass to take a 36-35 lead with 57 seconds to play. On the ensuing drive, Collins marched his team downfield to set up a 29-yard game-winning field goal by Bironas, who kicked an NFL-record eight field goals in the Titans' 38-36 win.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-5) dropped their third consecutive game, falling to the San Diego Chargers 35-10 at Qualcomm Stadium. Houston got behind early when the Chargers scored on their second drive of the game with a 49-yard pass from QB Philip Rivers to TE Antonio Gates. On the ensuing possession, the Texans were forced to punt and LS Bryan Pittman snapped the ball over P Matt Turk's head, sending the ball into the end zone. Turk stumbled trying to recover and CB Antonio Cromartie jumped on it for a 14-0 Chargers' lead. The Texans opened the second quarter with a 56-yard drive, resulting in a 40-yard field goal by K Kris Brown to make the score 14-3. The Chargers then kicked it into high gear. Rivers led a 64-yard drive, hitting Gates in the end zone with a 31-yard touchdown pass. The Texans, meanwhile, could not catch a break. QB Matt Schaub moved the ball to the San Diego 39-yard line, but was picked off by Cromartie on a short pass intended for WR Kevin Walter. Cromartie returned the interception 70 yards for a touchdown, giving his team a 28-3 lead. On the ensuing drive, Schaub threw another interception to Cromartie. After the play, the Texans quarterback was leveled by San Diego CB Drayton Florence and forced to leave the game with a head injury. The Chargers continued to charge ahead as Rivers connected with WR Chris Chambers on a 14-yard touchdown pass to boost the score to 35-3. The Texans showed life in the second half. DE Mario Williams brought down Rivers in the third quarter for a two-yard loss. The team scored its first touchdown in the fourth quarter when QB Sage Rosenfels hit TE Joel Dreesen in the end zone with a 28-yard pass, but the Chargers' damage had already been done. The Texans gained 367 yards of total offense, more than 100 yards than the Chargers totaled; however, San Diego controlled the entire game, ultimately winning 35-10.

SUMMARY

The Texans (4-5) stopped a three-game skid, defeating the Oakland Raiders 24-17 in McAfee Coliseum. After the Texans' defense forced a three-and-out on the first possession, Houston marched up the field, thanks to a 53-yard screen pass from QB Sage Rosenfels to RB Ahman Green. Green finished the 84-yard drive with an eight-yard run into the end zone to give his team a 7-0 lead. Houston ended the first period with an interception by LB Danny Clark, but lost CB Dunta Robinson for the season with hamstring and knee injuries. In the second quarter, CB Fred Bennett intercepted a pass from QB Josh McCown intended for WR Ron Curry. The interception helped to set up 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ron Dayne to make the score 14-0. Dayne finished the game with 21 carries for a season-high 122 yards. On the next possession, a Raiders' drive stalled at the Houston 46, prompting coach Lane Kiffin to try a record-setting 64-yard field goal instead of punting on fourth-and-nine. K Sebastian Janikowski booted the ball off the right upright and the Texans took over at the Oakland 46. The offense moved the ball 24 yards and K Kris Brown nailed a 40-yard field goal, making it 17-0 at halftime. Janikowski returned in the third quarter to kick a 22-yard field goal to give the Raiders their first score of the game. Then RB Justin Fargas ignited the rushing attack in the fourth quarter, completing an 85-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run to make the score 17-10. On the ensuing drive, Rosenfels connected with WR André Davis on a 42-yard touchdown pass to put the Texans ahead 24-10. After Davis' touchdown catch, McCown threw his third interception with LB DeMeco Ryans picking off the pass. McCown continued to fight, throwing a 28-yard TD pass to WR Tim Dwight with 1:30 left. However, Houston recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock. Rosenfels started for the first time this season, relieving a concussed QB Matt Schaub. The backup quarterback came into the game with the third-best quarterback rating in the fourth quarter (125.1) and has thrown all seven of his touchdown passes in the fourth period this season. He finished the game 11-for-19 for 181 yards and one interception, going three-for-three for 47 yards in the final quarter. His performance helped Houston grab their fourth victory before heading into the bye week.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-5) improved to the best record they have had after 10 games with a 23-10 win over the New Orleans Saints in Reliant Stadium. Houston scored 17 points before halftime and stayed on top with tough defense in the second half that kept the Saints (4-6) scoreless. The Texans fumbled on their opening drive when TE Owen Daniels got hit high by CB Mike McKenzie. The Saints recovered at Houston's 38-yard line and then capitalized with a 52-yard field goal by K Olindo Mare. On the ensuing possession, WR Andre Johnson, who had missed the last seven games with a knee sprain, got in front of CB Jason David for a 73-yard touchdown pass from QB Matt Schaub to put Houston ahead 7-3. Early in the second quarter, CB Von Hutchins intercepted a pass tipped by TE Eric Johnson. Houston fumbled on its next possession and QB Drew Brees drove the ball 43 yards, connecting with WR Devery Henderson on a six-yard touchdown pass to give the Saints a 10-7 lead. The Texans immediately responded with Schaub marching the offense downfield 70 yards and hitting TE Joel Dreessen in the end zone with a 10-yard pass to make it 14-10 with 2:16 left in the second quarter. On the next possession DE Mario Williams sacked Brees and knocked the ball loose for his first career forced fumble and a 10-yard loss. It looked like the Texans had recovered, but officials ruled the Saints had possession. A Texans' three-and-out defensive stop helped to set up a 36-yard field goal by K Kris Brown at the end of the first half, giving Houston a 17-10 lead. Early in the fourth quarter, Johnson tipped a pass from Brees that was intercepted by LB Morlon Greenwood to give Houston the ball at the 38. The interception resulted in Brown booting in a 53-yard field goal to make the score 20-10. The Saints then drove the ball to Houston's 43-yard line, but on fourth-and-two CB Fred Bennett batted down a pass intended for WR David Patten. The Texans then relied on RB Ron Dayne to eat up the clock before Brown kicked a 23-yard field goal that made it 23-10 with 1:57 to play. Dayne finished the game with 89 yards rushing and Johnson recorded 120 receiving yards to help the Texans earn the 23-10 victory.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-6) fell on the road to the Cleveland Browns (7-4) 27-17 in Cleveland Browns Stadium. Both defenses flexed their might throughout most of the first quarter, coming up with consecutive three-and-out stops. Houston ended the point drought when QB Matt Schaub drove the ball 61 yards and hit WR Kevin Walter in the end zone with a 17-yard touchdown pass, making the score 7-0 with 2:29 remaining in the quarter. Early in the second period, the Texans looked like they were on a roll, driving the ball to the Cleveland 36. However, Schaub's pass intended for TE Joel Dreessen was picked off by LB Andra Davis. On the ensuing drive, QB Derek Anderson drove the ball 70 yards, connecting with WR Braylon Edwards on a 19-yard pass to even the score at 7-7. The Texans immediately responded, marching the ball to the Cleveland 23. However, the team ended up settling for a 41-yard field goal by K Kris Brown to make the score 10-7. Houston got the ball back when CB Fred Bennett intercepted a pass from Anderson intended for Edwards, but the Texans were not able to capitalize on the turnover. The Browns finished the first half with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Anderson to WR Kellen Winslow to put Cleveland ahead 14-10. The third period belonged to the defenses as neither team scored a touchdown. DE Mario Williams recorded his sixth sack of the season, taking down Anderson for a five-yard loss. Midway through the quarter, the Browns managed a 25-yard field goal from K Phil Dawson to increase their lead to 17-10. Early in the fourth period, Cleveland then booted in a second field goal, a 27-yarder from Dawson, to make the score 20-10. On the next possession, Schaub threw an interception on a pass intended for WR Andre Johnson, and Cleveland scored on a one-yard run from RB Jamal Lewis. Houston got the ball back and marched downfield 80 yards with Schaub hitting TE Owen Daniels with a six-yard touchdown down pass. That brought Houston within 27-17 with 3:17 left in the game. Cleveland, however, handed the ball over to Lewis, who ran the clock down for the remainder of the period. Schaub finished 22-of-36 for 256 yards and two touchdowns and the Texans ultimately fell to the Browns by a score of 27-17. this season. He finished the game 11-for-19 for 181 yards and one interception, going 3-for-3 for 47 yards in the final quarter. His performance helped Houston grab their fourth victory before heading into the bye week.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-7) fell in a tough road loss at LP Field. Houston marched its way down the field on the opening possession to take a 7-0 lead thanks to a one-yard TD run by RB Ron Dayne. Tennessee responded with a long drive of its own, tying the score at 7-7 on a one-yard TD run by RB LenDale White. On the Texans' next possession, QB Matt Schaub was knocked out of the game with a separated left shoulder after being sacked by Titans DE Antwan Odom. K Kris Brown nailed a 45-yard FG near the end of the second quarter to put the Texans back on top, 10-7. In the third quarter, the Titans outscored the Texans 14-0 on the strength of two QB Vince Young TD passes, one to WR Roydell Williams for 43 yards and the other an 11-yard hookup with WR Justin Gage that made the score 21-10 Tennessee heading into the final period. Houston cut the deficit to four when QB Sage Rosenfels connected with WR Andre Johnson for a 28-yard TD. The Texans then forced Tennessee into a three-and-out, but WR Jacoby Jones fumbled the punt return and the Titans recovered, setting up a seven-yard TD run by RB Chris Brown. With the score 28-17, rookie CB Fred Bennett picked off Young for his third interception of the season, and the Texans capitalized when Brown made a 50-yard FG to bring the Texans within one possession. Texans DE Mario Williams' second solo sack of the game led to a quick Tennessee punt, but Rosenfels was intercepted by S Michael Griffin on the Texans' ensuing possession to quash the Texans' comeback hopes. In the loss, Mario Williams finished with 2.5 sacks to become the Texans' all-time single-season sacks leader with 8.5, LB DeMeco Ryans tallied a season-high 14 tackles, and Brown moved to a perfect five-of-five on field goal attempts from 50+ yards on the season.

SUMMARY

The Texans (6-7) returned home after two games on the road to defeat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 28-14 at Reliant Stadium. QB Sage Rosenfels started for an injured QB Matt Schaub and threw three touchdown passes in the victory. The Buccaneers' opening drive ended when S Will Demps stuffed RB Earnest Graham on a fourth-down attempt. The Texans got the ball at their 34 and Rosenfels and WR Andre Johnson helped put together a 66-yard drive that resulted in a four-yard touchdown pass from Rosenfels to Johnson to give the Texans a 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, Rosenfels fumbled the ball on a sack by DE Greg White and Tampa Bay recovered. QB Luke McCown and Graham helped put together a 25-yard drive that ended with Graham scoring on a four-yard run to tie the game at 7-7. The Texans' defense responded when Demps forced a fumble and returned the ball to Tampa Bay's 26-yard line. The Texans then capitalized with Rosenfels hitting WR Kevin Walter with an eight-yard touchdown pass to make the score 14-7. The third quarter began with WR André Davis running in a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown to increase the Texans' lead to 21-7. Tampa Bay came back with a 69-yard drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown run by Graham to make the score 21-14. White sacked Rosenfels for the third time, forcing his second fumble. It was recovered by the Buccaneers, but the team wasn't able to convert when McCown couldn't handle the snap three plays later. S C.C. Brown recovered and Rosenfels found TE Owen Daniels on a 4-yard pass for his third touchdown throw to put Houston ahead 28-14. The fourth quarter belonged to Houston's defense. LB Morlon Greenwood and DE Earl Cochran each got sacks in the period. Williams sacked McCown late in the fourth quarter to push his sack total to 9.5 this season. The Texans' defense recorded four sacks in the game with DE N.D. Kalu and DT Amobi Okoye sharing one early on, and McCown was harassed for most of the day in the Texans' 28-14 win.

SUMMARY

In their first nationally televised, prime-time game of the year, the Houston Texans (7-7) defeated the Denver Broncos 31-13 at Reliant Stadium. QB Sage Rosenfels started a second consecutive game for an injured QB Matt Schaub. Rosenfels put the Texans ahead early when he capped a 69-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown run on the opening drive. The Broncos got to the Houston 13 early in the second quarter, but a penalty and a pass for a loss of five yards forced third-and-20. S Will Demps knocked QB Jay Cutler's pass down in the end zone and Denver settled for a 41-yard field goal by K Jason Elam that made it 7-3. WR André Davis opened the Texans' ensuing drive with a 50-yard kickoff return and a 20-yard reception. Houston capped the drive with a 41-yard field goal by K Kris Brown to give the Texans a 10-3 lead midway through the second quarter. Denver responded with Elam booting in a 47-yard field goal to make the score 10-6 at halftime. In the third quarter, DE Mario Williams sacked Cutler to force a fourth down and the Broncos went for it, but the pass fell short, giving Houston the ball. RB Ron Dayne, who didn't start because of a sore ankle, scored on a six-yard run on the ensuing drive to push Houston's lead to 17-6. TE Tony Scheffler caught a short pass from Cutler and leaped for a touchdown in the final minute of the third quarter for Denver to make it 17-13. The fourth quarter began with WR Andre Johnson grabbing a four-yard touchdown reception for his career-high seventh touchdown of the season, making the score 24-13. Williams then notched his third sack of Cutler, forcing the Broncos to punt. Williams' three sacks made him Houston's career sack leader with 17.5. He has had a sack in a team-record five straight games and has 13 for the season and nine in the last five games. The Texans stretched the lead to 31-13 when FB Vonta Leach scored on a 1-yard run with 3:20 remaining. The Texans maintained that lead for the rest of the game to earn the team's seventh win of the season, which tied the franchise record for victories.

SUMMARY

The Texans (7-8) lost their fifth division game the season as the Indianapolis Colts beat the Texans in their final appearance at the RCA Dome, 38-15. QB Sage Rosenfels led the Texans down the field on the opening possession, completing four-of-five pass attempts for 51 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown pass to WR Kevin Walter. Rookie RB Darius Walker carried the ball two times on the drive for 30 yards. The Colts drove the ball down the field on their first possession, but the Texans defense held Indianapolis to a 29-yard field from K Adam Vinatieri. RB Joseph Addai capped off the Colts 12-play, 92-yard drive with a touchdown run from two yards out, giving the Colts a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter that they would not relinquish the rest of the day. Indianapolis' defense stopped the Texans again, forcing a P Matt Turk 46-yard punt that pinned the Colts down at the eight-yard line. On the ensuing drive, QB Peyton Manning hooked up with TE Dallas Clark on a six-yard touchdown pass. When the Texans took over, Rosenfels threw an interception, his first of three interceptions on the day, to S Bob Sanders, setting the Colts up deep in Texans territory. Manning found Clark in the end zone again for his second touchdown of the day, putting the Colts on top 24-7. After another Texans punt, Indianapolis was driving, when Houston CB Fred Bennett forced a fumble by WR Reggie Wayne that was recovered by DE Earl Cochran, the first recovery of his career. Rosenfels drove the Texans into field goal range, but K Kris Brown missed a 49-yard field goal wide right with four seconds remaining in the first half. The Colts scored touchdowns on each of their first two possessions in the second half, the first a four-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Dawson and the second was a seven-yard touchdown reception by Wayne from Manning. Late in the fourth quarter, Rosenfels led the Texans on a four play, 31 yard drive that was capped when WR Andre Johnson got free over the middle for a six-yard touchdown reception. Walker completed the scoring by running in the two-point conversion attempt to make the score 38-15.

SUMMARY

The Texans (8-8) earned their best record in franchise history with a 42-28 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars in Reliant Stadium. WR André Davis became just the seventh player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for touchdowns. The Texans' 42 points were a team record. RB Ron Dayne began the Texans' scoring spree with two-yard touchdown run at the beginning of the second quarter to tie the score at 7-7. Minutes before the half, TE Owen Daniels gave the Texans the lead, catching a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Sage Rosenfels. The Jaguars responded with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Quinn Gray to WR. Ernest Wilford to tie the game at 14-14. On the ensuing possession, Davis returned his first kickoff for a touchdown, cutting to the outside and tight-ropeing down the sidelines for a 97 yards. The touchdown came 15 seconds before halftime, giving the Texans a 21-14 lead. On the first play of the second half, Davis turned in the longest return in Texans' history. He dashed 104 yards on the opening kickoff to make it 28-14. When the Texans got the ball back, they put together a 64-yard drive that resulted in a 12-yard touchdown run by RB Ron Dayne to increase the lead to 35-14. Jacksonville finished the quarter with WR Matt Jones catching a five-yard touchdown pass from Gray to make the score 35-21. On the ensuing possession, the Texans marched the ball up the field 71 yards with RB Darius Walker finding the end zone on a one-yard touchdown run. The score gave the Texans a 42-21 lead early in the fourth quarter. The Jaguars managed another score on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Gray to Wilford, but the damage had already been done. The Texans finished with 170 yards on the ground. Dayne added two touchdowns and 88 yards rushing in his return after missing two starts with a sore ankle. He also set a career-high with 773 yards this season. Davis' pair of kickoffs for touchdowns helped give him a 30.3 return average for the season. The win was Houston's first in AFC South play and helped Houston reach .500 for the first time in franchise history.

TEXANS TIDBIT

Brown's Career Day

K Kris Brown had the best day of his career in Houston's 22-19 win over Miami (10/7). Brown set or tied three team records and tied an NFL record in the game.

He set a team record with his 54-yard field goal in the second quarter, matched it with another 54-yarder in the third period and then set a new record with his 57-yard game-winner in the fourth.

Brown became the third player in NFL history to make three field goals of 50 or more yards in a game, and he is the only player to make three from 54 or longer. He joined Morten Andersen, who hit from 51, 55 and 55 as an Atlanta Falcon vs. New Orleans on 12/10/95 and Arizona K Neil Rackers, who made two 55-yarders and a 50-yarder vs. Seattle on 10/24/04.

TEXANS TIDBIT

Special Teams' Special Year

The Houston Texans special teams had the best year in team history, tying three NFL records. Houston became the fourth team in NFL history to return four kickoffs for touchdowns in a season and the first to do so in 13 years. K Kris Brown matched an NFL record by making three field goals in one game of 50 or more yards in Week 5 vs. Miami. WR André Davis tied another NFL mark by becoming the seventh player to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in a game in the season finale vs. Jacksonville.

TEXANS TIDBIT

New Number = New House

Prior to the 2007 season, RB Ahman Green signed with the Houston Texans following an illustrious career with the Green Bay Packers. He requested his familiar number 30 jersey, but S Jason Simmons had worn that number since joining the team in 2002. Simmons agreed to turn over the number under one condition: that Green make a down payment on a home for a single parent family.

After an extensive search for a recipient, Regina Foster was selected and received a $50,000 home down payment grant. Green donated $20,000, Simmons donated $5,000 and Texans owner Bob McNair matched their contributions with a $25,000 grant. Foster, whose seven-year old son is autistic, was chosen from five finalists that were being considered for the grant.

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first dome stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of Reliant Stadium.

Reliant Stadium, the first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in their first home preseason game. Houston's regular season debut against Dallas on Sept. 8 was televised nationally on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

Counting preseason contests, the Texans have played to 60 consecutive sellouts and set a team record in 2004 with 565,192 fans during the regular season, an average of 70,649 per game. The Texans' largest crowd to date was 70,780 as the Texans took down the New Orleans Saints in November 2007, the largest non-Super Bowl crowd in the city's history.

And speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's biggest sports spectacle returned to Houston for the first time in 30 years in 2004 as Reliant Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII between the New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a raucous crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pre-game and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

Reliant Stadium also has played host to numerous college football games, including the Texas Bowl and the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Championship Games. The stadium has also played host to the Inaugural Texas Bowl and the 2007 East/West Shrine All-Star Game.

The stadium also has become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The five largest crowds for soccer matches in Texas history have all been at Reliant Stadium, including the 2006 FC Barcelona US Tour, the 2003 and 2008 United States versus Mexico matches and the 2005 and 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cups.

The Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2007, boasting such acts as Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Dierks Bentley and Hannah Montana. Reliant Stadium has also played host to The Rolling Stones, Metallica, Disney on Ice and the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ground broke on Reliant Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,200 club seats and 187 suites. The suites are the closest to the field in the NFL.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric, and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When it opens, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones. The roof can withstand winds as strong as 140 miles per hour when closed and secured.

The climate-controlled stadium also features a natural grass-playing surface. The grass is grown on eight-foot square trays then transported to the stadium.

Reliant Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is the largest in the league. The players can also take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Houston's working media has its own offices and library on the ground level of Reliant Stadium. Texans head coach Gary Kubiak conducts his weekly press conference in the media workroom. His post-game press conferences are held in one of the team's two media auditoriums on the ground level. The stadium's the club level. The main concourse is 40-feet wide, which makes it the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions enabling Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

Reliant Stadium also can boast a larger than life scoreboard. Following the trend that was started with the Astrodome scoreboard, Reliant Stadium houses two of the largest in the league. Both include out of town scores, down and distance, the game clock and a host of other traits. The video boards are among the largest in the NFL.

press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Methodist Training Center features three grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Texans also have an indoor practice field outfitted with Field Turf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE POLICIES

Alcohol may not be brought into Reliant Stadium. Guests who appear to be under age 35 are required to show valid photo ID indicating legal proof of age when purchasing alcohol at Reliant Stadium. Alcohol sales are limited to two (2) drinks per person per transaction. All public alcohol sales will end at the end of the third quarter.

Please note that different areas of Reliant Stadium are licensed for different types of alcoholic drinks (beer only, both beer and liquor or neither). The Reliant Stadium staff will prevent certain drinks from being taken from a licensed area into a non-licensed area. For instance, beverages purchased in a Verizon Wireless Club Lounge must be consumed in the Lounge and may not be removed from that area. These policies are the law and will be strictly enforced.

BAG SEARCHES

For your safety, bag searches will be performed at all entrances to Reliant Stadium. In order to expedite this process, please leave all unnecessary items in your vehicle or at home and have any items open for search before you approach a gate. Items not permitted into the Stadium must be returned to your vehicle or discarded. Staff may not store or hold items for you until postgame. Please see the Prohibited Items section at HoustonTexans.com for a list of items not permitted to be brought into the Stadium. Please be aware that at certain times pat-down searches or additional security measures may be implemented upon all persons entering Reliant Stadium. Please be prepared and arrive early to the game to allow for this extra security procedure.

BANNERS AND SIGNS

The Houston Texans and Reliant Stadium welcome signs and banners but request that you adhere to specific guidelines in order to ensure that these articles do not detract from the enjoyment of other guests. Banners and signs should in no way infringe on the sightlines of other fans and must be small enough for one person to hold. They may not be affixed to anything in Reliant Stadium or held so that they block the view of scoreboards or any permanent signage in the Stadium. In addition, poles are prohibited in Reliant Stadium, so banners or signs affixed to a pole will not be permitted into the Stadium. All banners and signs must be in good taste, must be in the spirit of the event and must not have any corporate name, logo or message. The Texans reserve the right to remove any banner or sign that does not meet these guidelines.

CAMERAS AND VIDEO RECORDERS

Fans are welcome to bring small flash photography cameras into Reliant Stadium, but no professional lenses are permitted. Digital cameras are also permitted as long as they do not record video. Please do not block any aisles or the view of other fans while taking pictures.

Video cameras and audio recorders are not permitted in Reliant Stadium and will not be stored during the game.

EMERGENCY PHONE NUMBERS AND PAGING

To contact someone during a game in the event of an emergency, please visit a Guest Services Information Booth or call 832.667.1400. Pages will only be made for emergency situations. If you are anticipating an emergency phone call, please report your name and seat number to the Guest Services Information Booth so you can be easily located.

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Reliant Stadium staff are trained to handle any emergency situation that arises. Should an evacuation become necessary, please make sure that you are aware of the Exits nearest your seat and be prepared to follow the instructions of the Reliant Stadium staff.

FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

Reliant Stadium is a fan-friendly environment. We are committed to creating a safe, comfortable and enjoyable experience for everyone. Our staff will proactively intervene to support an environment where the game will not be disrupted by the interference of guest actions or any unauthorized persons on the playing field. This includes refraining from obscene or indecent language and gestures, as well as inappropriate clothing. All guests must show their ticket when requested and only sit in their ticketed seat.

The Houston Texans Two Strike Program allows for a warning to fans who are disruptive or acting inappropriately by giving out a yellow card with a reminder about our Fan Code of Conduct. However, if a staff person must approach someone a second time during a game for inappropriate behavior, the fan will be required to leave Reliant Park property. Any fan acting in a disruptive manner will be asked to leave immediately. Evicted guests are not welcome to return for the remainder of the game and may be subject to further disciplinary action, including the revocation of season tickets.

LOST AND FOUND

Found articles may be turned into any Guest Services Information Booth and will be recorded by Reliant Stadium staff. Guests needing assistance in retrieving lost items during games may proceed to a Guest Services Information Booth or call the Reliant Park Lost and Found phone number (832.667.1714) on weekdays. Items will be held for 30 days.

LOST CHILDREN

If you are separated from a child, please proceed to the nearest Guest Services Information Booth for assistance. In addition, if you should find a child that has been separated from his or her group, please request assistance from the nearest staff person or police officer. If outside of Reliant Stadium, please call 832.667.1400.

NOISEMAKERS

National Football League policy prohibits noisemakers from being brought inside the Stadium. This includes, but is not limited to, all horns, including air horns, cow bells and whistles. We reserve the right to confiscate any item that does not adhere to this policy.

PROHIBITED ITEMS

For your safety and the continuity of the game on the field, the following items are prohibited in Reliant Stadium: backpacks, bags larger than 11"X17", beach balls, bottles, cans, containers, coolers, fireworks, footballs brought in from outside, Frisbees, illegal substances, laptop computers, laser pens, noisemakers, outside food and beverages and weapons/firearms. Please note that this is not an exhaustive list and other items may be prohibited from Reliant Stadium if they are deemed to be dangerous or disruptive. Guests are not permitted to bring outside food, beverages, thermoses, coolers, backpacks, bags or jugs into Reliant Stadium. Children's juice boxes, infant bottles and items necessary for medical purposes are permitted.

RE-ENTRY INTO RELIANT STADIUM

Once you leave Reliant Stadium, you may not re-enter. In the event of an emergency, please visit a Guest Services Information Booth (see maps on pages 24 and 25). Please note that the Go Texan Store and Budweiser Plaza cannot be accessed from inside the Stadium until after the first quarter.

SECURITY

Suspicious activity, disruptive guests and guest related problems should be reported to a Guest Services Team Member or police officer immediately. Uncooperative guests showing disregard for Reliant Stadium or the Texans may be ejected from the facility. Intoxicated fans will not be allowed into the Stadium. An ejected guest is no longer welcome for the remainder of the game and must vacate Reliant Stadium and the Reliant Park grounds. They may not re-enter the building, even with a valid admission ticket. Re-entry by an ejected guest is grounds for arrest.

You and your belongings may be searched upon entry into the Stadium. By tendering this ticket and entering the Stadium, you consent to such searches and waive any related claims that you might have against the NFL, its member clubs, their affiliates and stadium landlord, or their agents. If you elect not to consent to the searches, you will be denied entry into the Stadium.

SMOKING

In consideration of the health and comfort of others, smoking is not permitted in the seating area or on the concourses. There are designated smoking terraces located on all four sides of the Field Level and the Verizon Wireless Club Level and also in each corner of the Upper Level. Please note that certain smoking terraces may be closed at times; however, alternate smoking terraces on the same level will remain open.

STANDING ROOM ONLY

Every ticket has a seat assignment. Please note that there are no standing room only tickets, and ushers will be clearing the top of each section and aisle. We appreciate your cooperation in keeping the sightlines clear for all fans.

STROLLERS

Although not a prohibited item, the Houston Texans and Reliant Stadium request that you do not bring strollers into the Stadium, as there is no place to store them and they pose a trip hazard when left in aisles or seating areas.

TICKETING AND WILL CALL

If any tickets are available for single games, they will go on sale in July of 2008. These tickets will be available at Ticketmaster outlets, by calling Ticketmaster at 713.629.3700 or by visiting www.ticketmaster.com.

- Children: All children two years of age and older must have a ticket. Those children under the age of two do not need a ticket and are expected to sit on an adult's lap during the game.
- Exchanges/Refunds: No exchanges or refunds will be given once a game ticket has been purchased.
- Lost or stolen tickets: Please remember that game tickets are like cash and should be secured at all times. For directions on procedures to follow if game tickets are lost or stolen, please contact the Houston Texans Ticket Office at 866.GO.TEXANS. Please note that there will be a $15 per ticket lost ticket fee.

- Resale/Scalping: Reselling or scalping tickets is strictly prohibited in Reliant Stadium or on Reliant Park property. Violators are subject to prosecution by the Houston Police Department.
- Will Call: Gameday will call windows, located on the south side of Reliant Stadium (near the Amegy Bank Gate), open two hours prior to kickoff and remain open until halftime. A picture ID is required and tickets will only be released to the person whose name appears on the ticket envelope. Third party will call will not be accepted. Anyone experiencing a problem regarding lost, stolen, damaged or forgotten game tickets is encouraged to visit the Houston Texans Ticket Office in Budweiser Plaza, near the Amegy Bank Gate. On non-gamedays, please contact the Houston Texans Ticket Office at 866.GO.TEXANS for assistance.

UMBRELLAS

Umbrellas are permitted in Reliant Stadium if they are small enough to be stored under your seat during the game.

ABC-13/KTRK-TV is the official television home of the Houston Texans and the flagship station of the Houston Texans Television Network. The announcers for three of the Texans' 2008 preseason games will be veteran broadcasters Joel Meyers and Spencer Tillman. Meyers spent 10 years as a play-by-play voice for NBC's NFL coverage, the NBA, Major League Baseball, the Olympics and golf. He also has extensive play-by-play experience with FOX Sports and ESPN. Tillman, a former San Francisco 49er and Houston Oiler, is a college football analyst for CBS Sports' "College Football Today" and a former host of "NFL Sunday Ticket".

On the sidelines and hosting pregame and postgame coverage will be ABC-13's Eyewitness Sports Team members Bob Allen (Sports Director), Tim Melton (Weekend Sports Director) and Bob Slovak (Sports reporter/anchor).

PRESEASON TELEVISION SCHEDULE (all times central)

Sat., Aug. 9	Denver Broncos	7:00 p.m.
Sat., Aug. 16	@ New Orleans Saints	7:00 p.m.
Thurs., Aug. 28	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	7:00 p.m.

SportsRadio 610 (KILT 610AM) and heritage country radio station KILT-FM (100.3 FM) are the flagship stations and broadcast home for the Houston Texans Radio Network. The game broadcasts are simulcast on both stations with SportsRadio 610 broadcasting pre and post-game programs in addition to weekly player and coach's shows. CBS Radio Houston sister stations Hot 95-7 and CNN 650 Radio News are promotional partners with the Houston Texans as well.

SportsRadio 610 morning co-host Marc Vandermeer enters his seventh season as the "Voice of the Houston Texans". Vandermeer brings a solid 20 years of broadcasting experience to the booth. Prior to his work in Houston, Vandermeer was the voice of the University of Miami Hurricanes football and basketball teams. Joining Vandermeer in the booth to provide analysis is Heisman Trophy winner and SportsRadio 610 morning co-host Andre Ware. Ware, a native Houstonian, played his college football at the University of Houston before becoming the first-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions. After his football career, Ware the jump into the broadcast booth as color commentator for the Houston Cougars. He currently serves as an analyst for college football games on ESPN. Ware was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. Long time Houston broadcaster and SportsRadio 610 Afternoon co-host is Rich Lord.

CBS Radio signed a 10-year agreement with the Houston Texans in September 2000. This agreement gave CBS Radio the Exclusive right to broadcast Houston Texans Football through the 2012 season as well as produce numerous ancillary programming for the team.

LA TREMENDA 1010 AM

KLAT La Tremenda 1010 AM is proud to be the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans for the fifth consecutive season. Representing 37.4 percent of Houston's 1.9 million people, the Hispanic community offers a huge fan base for the Texans. Since the team's inception, the Texans have realized the power of Hispanic Houston and recognized how many long-time fans they stood to gain. It's no wonder they turned to Houston's Heritage Spanish Station, La Tremenda, to reach Hispanic fans with their broadcast. So get your team spirit pumping, strap on the pads and ask yourself: Are you ready for some fútbol Americano?

La Tremenda 1010 AM is owned and operated by Univision Communications Inc., the premier Spanish-language media company in the United States, which currently owns and/or operates 68 radio stations in 17 of the top 25 U.S. Hispanic markets and four stations in Puerto Rico. In Houston, they also broadcast KLTN-FM (Estereo Latino 102.9 FM), KOVE-FM (Recuerdo 106.5FM), KQBU-FM (Que Buena 93.3 FM), KRTX-AM (Tejano 980 AM) and KPTY-FM (Party 104.9 FM).

An avid sports fan, Rolando Becerra will continue to serve as the play-by-play voice for the Texans on La Tremenda. Becerra is the only Hispanic commentator to have done play-by-play broadcasts for five major sports teams: the Houston Astros (1986-1992), the Houston Rockets (1988-1993), the Houston Oilers (1995-1997), the Houston Aeros (1999-2000) and the Texans (2002-07).

Becerra, originally from Cuba, began his radio career in Miami in 1973. He's been a Houston resident and radio constant for more than 30 years. You can also catch him on KLAT-AM as host of "Hoy Con Rolando Becerra," which airs Monday through Friday from 6-9 a.m. Becerra has been married to his wife, Jenny, for 38 years and they are parents to four children: Barbra, Jason, Jaron and Megan.

Enrique Vasquez returns to handle color commentary duties for Texans broadcasts on La Tremenda. Vasquez came back to the Houston football scene after a two-year run doing color commentary for the Dallas Cowboys, where he also did play-by-play in the late 1990s. He has also done sports broadcasting for Fox Sports, covering everything from basketball to the Olympics to Super Bowls. Some Texans fans and La Tremenda listeners may remember Vasquez as one of the Spanish broadcast voices for the Houston Oilers from 1992 to 1995. Vasquez also writes a popular weekly column for the Spanish section of HoustonTexans.com.

ROLANDO BECERRA

ENRIQUE VASQUEZ

A-C Joint	Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct	Movement of any extremity away from the body.
Abrasion	Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess	An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Achilles Tendon	The tendon at the back of the heel.
Abductor	Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.
Adhesion	Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic	Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.
Anabolic Steroids	Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.
Anaerobic	Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)	Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome	Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.
Anti-Inflammatory	Any agent which prevents inflammation (such as aspirin or ibuprofen).
Arteriogram	Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).
Arthrogram	X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).
Arthroscope	An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."
Arthroscopy	Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.
Aspiration	The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).
Asymptomatic	Without symptoms.
Atrophy	To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis	Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).
Avulsion	A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.
Axilla	The armpit.
Baker's Cyst	Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.
Bennett's Fracture	Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (of the thumb).
Biceps	Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for blending the elbow.
Bone scan	"Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.
Brachial Plexus	Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.
Bruise	A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.
Burner	Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.
C.P.R.	Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of the blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.
Calcaneus	The heel bone.
Calf	Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.
Capsule	An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage	Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
Cellulitis	Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Charley Horse	A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
Chondral Fracture	Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.
Chondromalacia	A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.
Clavicle	The collar bone.
Collagen	A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.
Concussion	Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Congenital	Existing before birth; to be born with.
Contusion	An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortisone	An anti-inflammatory medication.
Costochondral	The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Cyst	Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.
Degenerative Joint Disease	Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Dehydration	Loss of body water.
Deltoids	Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.
Disc	A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.
Dislocation	Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Ecchymosis	Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Ectomy	Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).
Edema	Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion	Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.
Electrolyte	Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.
Electrolyte Drink	Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.
EMG	Electromyogram test to check nerve function.
Epicondylitis	Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.
Eversion	Turning outward.
Extension	Motion of straightening a joint.
Extensor	A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.
External Rotation	Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.
Fascia	A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.
Femur	Thigh bone.
Fibula	The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.
Flexibility	The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.
Flexibility Exercise	A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.
Flexion	Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.
Flexor	A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.
Fracture	Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb	Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.
Glenohumeral	The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.
Glenoid	A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).
Groin	Junction of the thigh and abdomen.
Hamstring	Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.
Heat Stroke	Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.
Heat Exhaustion	Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.
Heat Cramps	Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.
Hematoma	A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer	Contusion to the iliac crest.
Humerus	Bone of the upper arm.
Hyperextension	Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.
Iliotibial Band	A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.
Impingement Syndrome	Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Isokinetic Exercise	A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.
Isometric (static) Contraction	A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.
Isokinetic	A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.
Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction	A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).
Itis	Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).
Joint Mobilization	Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)	Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Ligament	Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbosacral	Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)	Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.
Malleolus	Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.
Medial	Pertaining to or near the middle.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)	Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Meniscus	Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.
Meniscectomy	An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.
Metacarpals	Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.
Metatarsals	Five long bones of foot, just below toes.
Mobilization	Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.
Myositis	Inflammation of a muscle.
Myositis Ossificans	Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.
Necrotic	Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neuritis	Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic	Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Osteochondritis Dissecans	A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.
Osteomyelitis	An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.
Parasthesia	Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella	The kneecap.
Patella Tendinitis	Inflammation of the patella tendon.
Pathology	Study of the nature and cause of disease.
Pectorals	Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.
Peroneal	Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.
Plantar Fascia	The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica	A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation)	An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)	Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.
Quadriceps (Quads)	The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.
Radiography	Taking of X-rays.
Radius	Forearm bone on thumb side.
Reconstruction	Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.
Referred Pain	Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.
Rotator cuff	Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.
S-C joint	Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.
Sacroiliac	Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.
Scan	Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).
Scapula	The shoulder blade.
Sciatic Nerve	Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.
Sciatica	Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.
Sesamoid Bones	Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.
Shin splint	A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.
Spasm	Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.
Spleen	Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis	Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis	Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.
Spondylosis	Abnormal vertebrae fixation or immobility.
Sprain	A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.
Stinger	Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain	A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.
Stress X-Ray	A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.
Stress Fracture	A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.
Stretching	Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.
Subluxation	Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.
Synovial Fluid	Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.
Synovitis	Inflammation of the synovium.
Talus	The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.
Tarsus	Arch of foot.
Tendinitis	Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.
Tendon	Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.
Tennis Elbow	General term for lateral elbow pain.
Tibia	Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.
Tomograph	A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.
Trachea	The windpipe.
Trapezius	A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps	Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.
Turf Toe	Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Turf Burn	Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.
Ulna	One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.
Ulnar Nerve	Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.
Wrist	The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

TEXANS TIDBIT

Offensive Improvement Under Kubiak

In 32 games under head coach Gary Kubiak, the Texans offense has reached levels of productivity that were never achieved prior to his arrival. Under Kubiak, Houston has averaged 306.3 yards per game, compared to 266.5 yards per game from 2002-05. Houston has gained over 350 yards 10 times in 32 games under Kubiak. In the 64 games before he became head coach, Houston topped 350 yards of offense nine times.

The Texans have passed for 204.0 yards per game under Kubiak, compared to 161.9 before Kubiak. They are allowing 2.0 sacks per game in the last two years compared to 3.6 from 2002-05. The most important improvement has come on the scoreboard. Houston's scoring average has improved from a league-worst 16.2 points per game in 2002-05 to 20.2 points per game over the last two years.

GAME DAY COVERAGE

Credential Requests (Home Games):

Only credential requests from working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication will be honored. Credentials will not be issued to free lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested before 5 p.m. on the Tuesday prior to each home game. The Texans do not credential online-only media outlets. All credential requests must be submitted online at www.houstontexans.com/media.

Credential Requests (Road Games):

If you are a regular member of the Houston media who wishes to cover the Texans on the road, submit request for game credentials and parking passes through Tony Wyllie at twyllie@houstontexans.com. All requests must be submitted to no later than one game previous to a road contest. Credentials will be distributed on either Wednesday or Thursday during open locker room.

Parking:

(Game day) Parking for Texans games must be applied for online at <http://houstontexans.com/media/credentials>. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on game day.

Entry on Game Day:

The media entrance at Reliant Stadium is on the west side of the stadium on the corner of Kirby and Murworth. Enter the media entrance which is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate.

Will Call:

Media will call is located on the west side of the stadium at the corner of Kirby and Murworth. The media will call gate is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window. Please remember to bring a valid ID. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and bags will be checked upon entrance to the stadium.

Phones and Internet:

To request a phone on gameday, contact Jeff Schmitz of the Houston Texans IT department at (832-667-2130) the week prior to the game. The Texans press box offers complementary wireless Internet and high-speed lines upon request. To request high speed Internet access, contact Kevin Cooper at kcooper@houstontexans.com. If you have any questions on game day, see Jeff Schmitz. His post in the press box is located on the third level behind Kevin Cooper and Tony Wyllie.

Postgame Interviews and Locker Room Access:

Members of the media needing to conduct post game interviews will be given access to the Texans' and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game take the media elevator the field level. Videographers without field access will be in the team auditorium for the duration of the game. Gary Kubiak's post-game interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans team meeting room (white arrow). Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult-box to ease congestion at the podium. Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.
