DURHAM BULLS [1-4, 4TH, -3.0 GB] AT GWINNETT STRIPERS [4-1, 1ST, +0.5 GA]

RHP JAKE FARIA [0-0, 16.88] vs. RHP MIKE FOLTYNEWICZ [0-0, ---]

TODAY's GAME

The Durham Bulls play game two of a two game series at the Gwinnett Stripers at Coolray Field in Lawrenceville, Georgia. Durham lost the series opener by a final score of 7-2 and now send right-hander Jake Faria on the mound for his second start of the season. He will face right-hander and five-year Major League veteran Mike Foltynewicz, who is in Gwinnett on a rehab assignment from the Atlanta Braves.

LAST TIME OUT

The Bulls dropped the series opener against the Stripers by a final score of 7-2. Starter Ryan Merritt lasted just 0.2 innings, allowing six earned runs on seven hits. Reliever Casey Sadler made his season debut in relief, going 4.0 innings, allowing one earned run and striking out seven. Infielders Jake Cronenworth and Nick Solak extended their respective hitting streaks to five games, combining for three hits.

BULLS VS. STRIPERS

In 2019, the Bulls are 0-1 against the Stripers and have been outscored 7-2.

In 2018, the Bulls and Stripers met 22 times, splitting the season series 11-11. The Bulls got off to a hot start, winning six of the first seven games against Gwinnett, before the series evened out in the second half. Anthony Banda won two of his four games against Gwinnett, while the Bulls bullpen was a balanced attack, with Ian Gibaut, Ryne Stanek, Hunter Wood and Diego Castillo each recording a save.

BULL-ET POINTS

- Andrew Velazquez hit a home run in the first at-bat of the season. The last time this occurred was in 2017, when Johnny Field opened the season with a home run at Gwinnett.
- Velazquez set a career high in RBI's with five on April 4th.
- After tallying just two four-hit games in his career, Velazquez recorded two four-hit games on back-to-back days (April 4th-April 5th).
- Jake Cronenworth tied his career high in hits with four on April 5th and April 6th, marking the first he's accomplished this since 2016 with Bowling Green (A)
- Mike Brosseau and Nick Solak have each recorded their first Triple-A hits, RBI's and home runs this year.
- Kean Wong notched International League Midseason and Postseason All-Star honors last season.
- Nate Lowe hit his second home run on April 7th in just four games, the fastest he has ever reached this mark. Lowe hit 27 home runs last season.
- The 11 runs by the Bulls offense is the most on Opening Day since 2013 (11 at Norfolk).
- The Bulls feature three players ranked in the Rays Top 30 Prospects by MiLB.com including Nate Lowe (#8), Nick Solak (#12) and Colin Poche (#17).

HOMECOMING

Quinton McCracken returns to the Durham Bulls for the first time as a coach, after spending the 2000 season with the team as a player. A veteran of 12 Major League seasons, McCracken was a part of the 1998 inaugural Tampa Bay Devil Rays team, and spent three seasons in the Devil Rays system. McCracken hit .260 with two home runs and 28 RBI's in 85 games with the Bulls.

McCracken is also a local product, having attended Duke University prior to his Major League career. McCracken joins the Bulls after spending 2018 with the Miami Marlins as a Minor League Coordinator. Beforehand, McCracken spent six seasons with the Houston Astros as the Director of Player Personnel.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

Despite the 1-4 start, the Bulls are off to one of their best offensive starts in history. The Bulls offense is one of the top in the International League and team history. Durham leads the league in hits (61), batting average (.326), doubles (15), total bases (99), OBP (.394). In addition, the 35 runs scored is the most in the first five games since 2017.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

The Bulls offense is prolific and much of it has to do with how well-rounded the lineup is. Five players are hitting over .350 and five different players have tallied at least one home run. Nine of the 12 players have notched an extra-base-hit, 11 of the 12 position players have recorded a hit and all 12 have reached safely in the first five games. Leadoff hitter Andrew Velazquez leads the team in RBI's with eight and the power hitters Nate Lowe and Mike Brosseau have combined for four home runs and 10 RBI's, providing a fearsome middle of the order.

NOTE-A-BULLS

Infielder Jake Cronenworth was named the International League's Batter of the Week on April 8th. Cronenworth went 13-for-18 with three RBI's, five doubles and eight runs scored over four games against the Charlotte Knights. Over the season, Cronenworth leads the International League in several categories including batting average (.636), hits (14), doubles (5), total bases (19) and OBP (.652).

The award is the first of its kind for Cronenworth, who has never won a Batter of the Week honor. However, Cronenworth has won Midseason All-Star honors in the New York-Penn League (2015), Midwest League (2016) and Florida State League (2017).
