THIS SERIES -- The Jackson Generals (Double-A, Arizona Diamondbacks) will convene with the Tennessee Smokies (Chicago Cubs) for the fourth of five series in 2018, hosting the Smokies for the third time at The Ballpark at Jackson. The Generals & Smokies met three times previously in 2018, with the most recent series going Tennessee's way, 3-1, in early July.

SEASON SERIES: AT JACKSON: 6/3-6/7, 7/4-7/7, 8/2-8/6 AT TENNESSEE: 4/11-4/15, 8/19-8/23
AGGREGATE SCORE: Games Played: 14 Head to Head (Wins): JXN 7, TNS 7 Head to Head (Runs): JXN 63, MTG 77

ABOUT LAST GAME --- MONTGOMERY, Ala. – The Jackson Generals, the Double-A affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks, had their daytime final at Montgomery suspended due to weather after an inning and a half on Wednesday at Riverwalk Stadium. The Generals (58-50) and Biscuits (59-50) will finish the currently scoreless contest as part of a double-header during Montgomery's series at Jackson, which occurs August 14-18. A time for the resumption of the suspended game at Jackson has not yet been announced. Statistics and results from the game are not final and will not count toward season totals until the game is completed.

Jon Duplantier started for the Generals on Wednesday and retired each of the three hitters he faced in the first inning, throwing 13 pitches (8 strikes) in his first start since May. Offensively, eight Jackson hitters came to the plate, but only two of them reached base, with none recording hits against Montgomery's Dalton Moats. The Biscuits currently hold an 8-6 lead over Jackson in their season series, with Jackson (58-50) trailing Montgomery (59-50) by a half game in the season standings.

Manager Shelley Duncan and the Generals return home on Thursday, August 2 to begin a five-game series with the Tennessee Smokies. Entering the final month of the season, Jackson is 28-31 against North Division opponents. All six of the Generals' final regular season series feature North Division competition. After winning the North Division in the First Half, the Generals are guaranteed to host two opening-round games in the Southern League Playoffs at The Ballpark at Jackson on September 5 and September 6. The team that wins the North Division in the Second Half will oppose the Generals in that series, which will be a best-of-five series.

OUTFIELDERS LOCKED IN -- Outfielders Ben DeLuzio and Jay Gonzalez did not start a game together from April 27 through July 7 (71 days) because of separate stints on the DL. With DeLuzio returning July 4 and Gonzalez back on July 8, the speedy tandem has done a lot to make up for lost time, batting .355 & .302 respectively in July. Pair them with the July numbers of Daniel Robertson at Jackson (11 R, 27 H, 20 RBI) and you've got a solid threesome to patrol the park and stand tall at the dish.

CLASSIC M&M's vs. NEW M&M's -- Infielders Marty Herum and Kevin Medrano both spent time away from the Generals for different reasons (Herum on the DL, Medrano after a promotion to Triple-A). Neither guy has been quite the same hitter that he was since their original stay in Jackson this season. Both defend well, but the Generals need their bats to remain competitive. Medrano's 2nd Half at JXN: 54 AB, 9 R, 14 H (.259) Herum's 2nd Half at JXN: 109 AB, 9 R, 24 H (.220) Medrano's 1st Half at JXN: 204 AB, 33 R, 75 H (.367) Herum's 1st Half at JXN: 67 AB, 17 R, 22 H (.328)

WALK SOFTLY AND CARRY A BIG STICK -- Generals All-Star first baseman Rudy Flores is off to a good Second Half start, and while he doesn't hold the prospect status of Corey Ray, Zack Collins, or Brent Rooker, Flores does have MVP-type numbers. Flores' 2nd Half Stats: .282/.415/.436, 11 XBH, 23 RBI, 23 BB

STARTERS ROTATING? -- The Generals' starting rotation remained constant between early June and late July, but it changed with the start of August. After an injury to Bo Takahashi and the promotion of Joel Payamps to Reno, right-hander Ryan Atkinson was moved to a bullpen role, while fresh arms were added from High-A Visalia. Tyler Mark and Miguel Aguilar should be a boost to the Generals' bullpen, but right-hander Emilio Vargas--the MLB leader in Ks--has a good shot to make an impact as well. Barry Enright, a former Diamondbacks pitcher who was signed out of the Mexican League earlier this month, made his Jackson debut on July 31.

AA Starter ERAs in July: Widener - 2.76; Donatella - 3.06; Takahashi - 4.91; Duplantier - n/a; Enright - 4.50
