Today's Preview: The Clinton LumberKings (A, Mariners) meet the Bowling Green Hot Rods (A, Rays) for the first and only time this season with the second game of a three-game series. In the two teams' only meeting, at Ashford University Field in Clinton, in 2017 the LumberKings won a three-game series, 2-1. The LumberKings trail the all-time series, dating back to 2010, 10 to 134. Since Clinton has been affiliated with the Seattle Mariners (2009) they trail the head-to-head matchups 10 games to 14.

LumberKings Starter: Tommy Romero, 20, makes his fifth start of the season for the LumberKings. The Florida native earned the win his last time out against the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers in in Grand Chute. In another matinee, Romero worked 5.2 shutout innings in an eventual 7-3 LumberKings win. He held Wisconsin to five hits while striking out six and did not issue a walk for the first time this season. Romero has been one of the most reliable starters in the LumberKings rotation, he turned in the first quality start of the season on April 13 in Cedar Rapids. The Seattle Mariners took Romero in the 15th round of the 2017 MLB Draft and came into the 2018 season as the 25th ranked prospect in the Seattle Mariners system according to Baseball America.

Hot Rods Starter: Tobias Myers, 19, makes his fourth start and fifth appearance of the season for the Bowling Green Hot Rods. The righty took the loss his last time out despite not allowing an earned run to the Lake County Captains. He worked four innings allowing three hits while walking three and striking out five. Myers has failed to make it through the fifth inning in his last three outings. During his time out this season, he has been hit hard when behind in counts. Over 5.1 innings, when behind in counts, he has posted a 10.13 ERA allowing six of his nine earned runs including both of his home runs. The Florida native was originally drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 6th round of the 2016 draft out of Wood Haven High School. At the traded deadline last year, he was traded by the Orioles to the Tampa Bay Rays straight up for shortstop Tim Beckham.

Last Time Out: The Clinton LumberKings fell to the Bowling Green Hot Rods on Tuesday night at Ashford University Field, 2-1, in the team's first extra inning contest of the season. The free base runner placed on second to start each extra inning proved to be the deciding run in an otherwise exciting pitcher's duel. The LumberKings (14-7) and Hot Rods (13-11) allowed a run apiece over the first nine innings. Clinton starter Nick Wells surrendered the first run of the night in the top of the second. With two out in the frame, Bowling Green strung three hits together with Devin Davis scoring Moises Gomez with an RBI double. Wells turned in a quality start for the LumberKings, his first of the season, and gave up just one run over six innings of work while allowing four hits, walking two, and striking out four. The Hot Rods scored what proved to be the game's deciding run in the top of the tenth off Adonis De La Cruz (0-1). Per new Minor League Baseball rules, the inning opened with a runner at second. Gomez. A wild pitch and a sacrifice fly later scored him for the games deciding run. Zombro (1-0) worked around the LumberKings free base runner in the bottom of the inning with a strikeout, pop out, and ground out to receive his first win of the season.

Best in the West: The LumberKings open the month of May as the best team in the Midwest League and are in first place in the Western Division by 2.0 games over the Cedar Rapids Kernels. A 14-6 record for Clinton in April gave the LumberKings their best month of baseball since the 2016 team went 19-10 in August. In 2017, it took the LumberKings till August to record their first and only winning month of the year, going 15-14.

Um...Wow: Jack Larsen added to his bases loaded loor on Sunday afternoon in Beloit. The LumberKings outfielder cleared the bases with a triple to give Clinton a come from behind win. He now has 10 RBI with the bases loaded this season and is 3-for-5 (.600) with a double, triple, and home run. He is slugging 1.800 with a LumberKing at every base this season.

Not a Warm Reception: Clinton LumberKings fans made their displeasure known regarding the adoption of Minor League Baseball's rule for extra innings. In the first LumberKings extra inning game of the season, fans saw for the first time each extra half inning begin with a runner at second base. They booed in the top of the tenth when the rule was announced, placing a Hot Rod at second, and they booed in the bottom of the inning when again the rule was announced placing a LumberKing at second.

League Leaders: As the LumberKings open the month of May, they bring in several of the Midwest League leaders. Following a road trip that included 13 RBI, Jack Larsen has brought his RBI total to 19 good for third in the league, trailing only Kevin Smith, 25, and Kacy Clemens, 22, of the Lansing Lugnuts. Ariel Sandoval, despite not hitting a home run over his last 14 games, is still tied for fourth in the league in long flies with four. Infielder Ryan Costello is tied for second in the league in doubles, 8, and tied for second in extra base hits, 11. On the pitching side, starter Tommy Romero can boast the second highest strikeout per nine inning ratio in the league, 12, and reliever Adonis De La Cruz owns the lowest walk ratio per nine innings, 0.71, in the Midwest League.

10 Strikeouts: Tuesday night marked the 12th time this season that LumberKings pitching had combined to strikeout 10 batters or more. Clinton ranks in the middle of the pack (8th) in the Midwest League for strikeouts as a team. They are closing in on their 200th save as a team and enters Wednesday's matinee with 196 strikeouts as a team.

Here Comes the East: The Bowling Green Hot Rods make their first and only trip to Clinton this season. The Hot Rods will be followed by the Dayton Dragons in a six-game home stand that features the first matchups with the Eastern Division this season. Due to a quirk in the schedule this will be the first time in LumberKings franchise history where they have hosted the Hot Rods in back-to-back seasons.

This date in baseball history: On this date in 1926, Chattanooga right-hander Satchel Paige makes his professional pitching debut, blanking the New Orleans Algiers, 1-0. The Black Lookouts rookie gives up only two hits in the Negro Southern League contest.

Broadcast Information: Erik Oas returns for his second season as the "voice" of LumberKings baseball. All games will be broadcast live on 100.3 FM WCCI and online at LumberKings.com via the TuneIn Radio App.
