Knights Fans,

What a pleasure it is to welcome you to the nationally-renowned Truist Field – home of the Charlotte Knights – the Triple-A affiliate of the Chicago White Sox.

As things are getting back to our previous sense of normalcy, it's been wonderful to see so many of our loyal fans return. We're also pleased that a lot of first-time attendees have made their way to Knights' games in the first part of our 2021 season. We can't wait to greet even more of you on this visit and others as we play into September.

In late June and July, we'll host the Norfolk Tides (Orioles' affiliate), Gwinnett Stripers (Braves' affiliate) and Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp (Marlins' affiliate) as the Knights try to work their way into contention in the Triple-A Southeast Division standings. All the while, we're pleased to have our Knights' players readying to potentially be part of a pennant race with the White Sox as the summer continues. While the baseball action heats up, we're here to provide you with other reasons to join us at Truist Field including Friday Night Fireworks, Thirsty Thursday, Bark in the Ballpark, and many other new and traditional events.

Thank you for attending today and for your tremendous support throughout 2020 and 2021. We truly appreciate it. Go Knights!

Sincerely,

Don Beaver

FIRST PITCH SPOTLIGHT - MAJOR LEAGUE KNIGHTS

The 7-5 White Sox win over the Mariners July 27 at Guaranteed Rate Field falls under the category of total team victory.

Zack Collins drove in four, Yermín Mercedes drove in three and Tim Anderson added two hits and a run scored. Luis González even nailed Kyle Seager at the plate to end the sixth in what seemed like just another play at the time, but loomed larger when the Mariners rallied.

"I'm just feeling more comfortable up there," Collins said. "Every at-bat, it's starting to feel like a normal at-bat, nothing crazy like, 'There's 35,000 people in the stands, I better get a hit,' type of thing. Honestly, I feel that, for the first year for me, I feel comfortable and I've been swinging it well."

ROAD TRIP REPORT

CATCHING UP WITH THE KNIGHTS

PRESENTED BY

WRITTEN BY: TOMMY VIOLA

Your Charlotte Knights recently wrapped up a six-game road trip in Nashville, TN against the Nashville Sounds (Triple-A affiliate of the Milwaukee Brewers).

KNIGHTS HIGHLIGHTS:

Charlotte's best offensive showing of the week took place in game two on Wednesday. The Knights scored 13 runs and pounded out 14 hits en route to an impressive 13-6 win over the Nashville Sounds on Wednesday. Offensively, three Charlotte hitters had at least two hits apiece. Infielder Jake Burger led the way with a solid game at the plate. Burger recorded a game-high four hits on the evening. He went 4-for-5 with a double, a ninth-inning home run, four runs scored and two RBIs. The home run was his ninth of the season. Designated hitter Marco Hernández had two runs scored and two RBIs, while infielder Tim Beckham, the reigning Triple-A East Player of the Week, had two RBIs. Additionally, 1B/OF Gavin Sheets had two hits and two runs scored. Outfielder Mike Mahtook chipped in with three hits and an RBI. Catcher Seby Zavala also added two RBIs.

KNIGHTS INFIELDER HAS NINE
HOME RUNS & WEEKLY AWARD IN JUNE

Tim Beckham has put together a mammoth month of June. His offensive numbers have been eye popping – especially during Charlotte’s homestand from June 15 to June 20.

For his efforts during the team’s second homestand in June (15-20), Beckham was honored as the top offensive player in the Triple-A East. His remarkable week, which consisted of a .526 batting average and six home runs, was rewarded when he was named the Triple-A East Player of the Week.
