NEW ORLEANS BABY CAKES (3-1) vs. NASHVILLE SOUNDS (1-3)

RHP Joe Gunkel (0-0, 3.00) vs. LHP Eric Jokisch (0-0, 0.00)

12:00 p.m. CT
Game #5
Home Game #5

THE BABY CAKES – The New Orleans Baby Cakes conclude their season-opening five-game series today against the Nashville Sounds. The ‘Cakes dropped 11 of 16 meetings with Nashville last year, including five of seven at the Shrine. A win today would give New Orleans four victories in its first five games for the first time since starting 8-1 in 2012.

YESTERDAY’S NEWS – Ben Meyer gave up one hit in 5.0 innings and combined with two relievers on a two-hit shutout as the Baby Cakes blanked Nashville, 4-0. Meyer needed only 12 pitches to strike out the side in the first inning, and did not give up a hit until Renato Nunez singled up with one out in the fourth. He struck out five and walked two before turning the ball over to Drew Rucinski and Severino Gonzalez, who each chipped in 2.0 scoreless frames to record the Baby Cakes’ first shutout of the year. The ‘Cakes scored all four runs in the first three innings off former New Orleans left-hander Eric Jokisch. Isaac Galloway led off the game with a single and scored two batters later on a grounder by Jonathan Rodriguez. In the second, Galloway brought in a run on a fielder’s choice and a throwing error by Sheldon Neuse allowed another run to score on the play. Scott Van Slyke drilled the Baby Cakes’ first home run of 2018 leading off the third inning, extending the advantage to 4-0.

ON THE HILL – Joe Gunkel takes the mound in the series finale for his first start of the year. Gunkel worked 3.0 innings out of the bullpen on Opening Night, when he was charged with one run on four hits. He inherited a bases-loaded jam with no outs in the fourth and permitted all three runners to score. Gunkel has been primarily a starter in his five-year pro career, starting 87 of his 126 appearances entering this season, including 22 of 27 last year with Oklahoma City and Jacksonville. His one start in the PCL came against Nashville on 4/20, when he gave up two runs - one earned - and six hits in 4.0 innings.

ON THIS DATE ...

1999: Ryan Thompson belts a first-inning grand slam and Wade Miller, who had missed the final four months of the 1998 season with a finger injury, pitches 5.0 scoreless innings to beat Fresno 6-1. Lance Berkman tacked on a two-run homer in the eighth.

THE SKIPPER – Arnie Beyeler returns to the ‘Cakes for his third season at the helm, joining Chris Bando (1993-95), Tony Pena (1999-2001) and Chris Maloney (2002-04) as the only managers to manage the club for three seasons. Entering his 15th season as a minor league manager, during which he has gone 926-909 (.505), Beyeler is 284-279 in four seasons at the Triple-A level, including an International League crown with Pawtucket in 2012, and owns a 124-153 mark with New Orleans. He spent the previous three seasons as the first base coach and outfield instructor for the Boston Red Sox, with whom he won the World Series in 2013.

THE STAFF – Pitching coach Jeremy Powell and hitting coach Tommy Gregg join the staff, along with returning assistant Robert Rodriguez. Powell is in his seventh season in the Marlins organization, the last two of which were with High-A Jupiter, where his 2017 pitching staff ranked second in the Florida State League in ERA and shutouts. Gregg joins the Marlins after 11 years in the Royals system, including the last eight with AAA Omaha. Gregg also worked for five seasons in the PCL as the hitting coach for Memphis. Rodriguez, the older brother of Pirates infielder Sean, is back for a second season after serving as the head baseball instructor for Total Baseball Sports Academy in Miami. Athletic trainer Greg Harrel also returns for his second season in New Orleans following a 10-year run in the Dodgers organization, the last two of which were with AAA Oklahoma City. Strength coach Rob Reichert, a University of Louisiana graduate, and video coordinator Andrew Dunn-Bauman are in their first seasons with the Baby Cakes.

IN THE NICK OF TIME – Nick Wittgren retired the side in order in the ninth inning on Saturday and has set down 20 of the last 21 Sounds he has faced dating back to the 2015 season. In nine career appearances against Nashville, Wittgren owns a 1.64 ERA (2 ER/11.0 IP) with four saves. Saturday was his first save for New Orleans since May 19, 2016 at Albuquerque, and the 22nd of his NOLA career, moving into a tie with Nate Field (2008-09) for sixth place on the franchise list.

DOCTOR OF STYLE – Scott Van Slyke belted the Baby Cakes’ first home run of the season. New Orleans has been the PCL’s last remaining team without a home run in 2018. Van Slyke has reached base nine times in 15 plate appearances, and yesterday charted the team’s first three-hit effort of the season.

DAZZLING DEBUT – After Sandy Alcantara fanned eight batters in his Triple-A debut on Saturday, Ben Meyer followed with 5.0 innings of one-hit ball in his debut yesterday. Over the last three games, featuring starters making their ‘Cakes debuts, Zac Gallen, Alcantara and Meyers have combined to allow one run and 13 hits in 15.2 innings (0.57 ERA).

SERIES-LY – New Orleans has clinched the season-opening series, the first time doing so since taking three of four from Nashville to begin 2012. Last year, the Baby Cakes did not win a series until winning two of three against Omaha from July 4-6, a span of 21 series where they lost 12 and tied nine, the longest drought in franchise history.

BUNDLE UP – Yesterday’s first-pitch temperature of 55 degrees was the coldest in the 21-year history of the Shrine on Airline. The previous record was 58 degrees for a 7 p.m. start on May 3, 2011 vs. Memphis.

PROSPECT WATCH – The ‘Cakes roster includes three of the Marlins’ top 14 prospects, according to MLB Pipeline, all of whom were acquired from the St. Louis Cardinals in an offseason trade for All-Star outfielder Marcell Ozuna. Right-handed pitchers Sandy Alcantara and Zac Gallen are rated third and 14th respectively, while outfielder Magneuris Sierra is ranked seventh on the list.

NEW FACES – Of the 25 players on the Opening Day roster, only six have appeared in a New Orleans uniform: pitchers Adam Conley, Severino Gonzalez and Nick Wittgren, catcher Austin Nola, infielder Peter Mooney and outfielder Isaac Galloway.

SIR ISAAC – Isaac Galloway enters 2018 in seventh place on the team’s career stolen base chart with 50. Galloway swiped 31 bags in 2016, tied with Duane Singleton (1995) and Brandon Watson (2005) for the fifth-best single-season total in club history, but was limited to 26 games with the ‘Cakes last year after suffering a sprained MCL in a home plate collision on 5/17 vs. Salt Lake. Prior to the injury, Galloway had just been named the PCL’s Player of the Week after slugging five home runs during a three-game stretch in Reno, becoming the first NOLA player to earn the weekly honor since Jake Marisnick in July 2014.

NAWLINS NOTES – NOLA has won 10 of the last 14 day games going back to last season, outscoring the opposition 67-29 in those victories ... Magneuris Sierra is hitless in 13 at-bats to open the year ... Austin Nola notched his second multi-hit effort in his last 29 contests with the ‘Cakes.

2018 SEASON

SPRING TRAINING – Appeared in one big league spring game with the Marlins, earning the save with one strikeout in an inning of work.

IN THE PEN – Gunkel made his season debut on Opening Night, tossing 3.0 innings of relief. Gunkel inherited the bases loaded with no outs in the fourth inning on 4/5 vs. Nashville and allowed all three runs to score, in addition to a run charged to him. In all, he surrendered four hits and struck out two.

2017 IN REVIEW

NEW FISH – Gunkel opened 2017 in the Dodgers system at AAA Oklahoma City, where he appeared in three games, including one start on 4/20 vs. Nashville. He allowed four earned runs on 12 hits and did not walk a batter with six strikeouts in 9.0 innings and picked up one save. Gunkel was claimed off waivers by the Marlins on 4/27 and assigned to AA Jacksonville, where he spent the rest of the year.

JUMBO SHRIMP – With Jacksonville, Gunkel finished 6-10 with a 4.92 ERA in 24 games (21 starts). His 10 losses were the most on the club, but his six victories were tied with Dillon Peters for second behind Matt Tomshaw (13). Seven of his 21 starting assignments were quality starts.

THE LONG BALL – Gunkel served up 17 home runs, third-most in the Southern League. Twice he allowed three home runs in a game: 7/3 vs. Mobile and 8/14 vs. Mississippi.

WINNER WINNER – After going winless through his first six starts with Jacksonville, Gunkel broke into the win column after surrendering just one unearned run and five hits in 7.0 innings on 6/10 vs. Biloxi. It sparked a four-start stretch where he won twice and posted a 2.52 ERA (7 ER/25.0 IP).

PITCHER OF THE WEEK – Gunkel did not permit an earned run in 13.0 innings over a pair of starts, 7/21 vs. Tennessee and 7/28 at Mississippi, yielding five hits without a walk. For his efforts, he was honored as Southern League Pitcher of the Week.

NO FREE PASSES – In eight of his last nine starts, Gunkel did not issue an unintentional walk, totaling just two free passes in that span. His 20 unintentional walks in 115.1 innings (1.56 per 9.0 IP) led all Southern League starters.

CLOSING STRONG – In his final two starts, on 8/30 at Biloxi and 9/3 at Pensacola, Gunkel worked a combined 12.1 innings (2.19 ERA) and surrendered three runs with eight strikeouts and one intentional walk.

Career: Selected by the Marlins in the 32nd round of the 2011 draft out of California Baptist. Played in 148 games over his first four professional seasons before reaching AA Jacksonville in 2015, where he netted Southern League All-Star honors by hitting .277 in the first half. Limited to 40 games with Jupiter and Jacksonville in 2016 due to injury. Signed with the Yankees and spent most of 2017 with Tampa, batting .208 in 57 games while throwing out 32.1% (25x78) of baserunners. Also played in 15 games with AA Trenton and combined to finish with a career-high seven home runs. Claimed off waivers by the Marlins on 12/14.
