NEWS & NOTES

ABOUT LAST NIGHT: The TinCaps lost 11-0 to Great Lakes on Saturday night. The Loons pounded out 11 runs on 10 hits, including three home runs. Carlos Belen tossed a solid relief outing for the 'Caps, surrendering just one hit in two scoreless innings while fanning three batters.

BURNIN' UP: The 'Caps have won 11 of their last 17 games dating back to May 16. Pitching has propelled Fort Wayne during this stretch. Entering Saturday night's game, the TinCaps led the Midwest League in WHIP (1.17), had the second best ERA (3.09) and had allowed the second fewest earned runs allowed (46). Fort Wayne had also surrendered the fewest walks (36) since May 16.

BUT WAIT, THERE'S MORE: Improved hitting has also helped during this successful stretch: entering Saturday's game, Fort Wayne led the Midwest League in doubles (36), was 5th in BA (.263), and was 6th in OBP (.337) and SLG% (.392) since May 16. The TinCaps had also struck out the fewest times in the league (110) during that span.

X IS A FACTOR: Infielder Xavier Edwards not only leads the MWL in batting average (.366—no one else is batting better than .326), he ranks in the top ten of all of Minor League Baseball. The only big leaguer with a better average than Edwards is the Dodgers' Cody Bellinger (.379). Edwards also leads the MWL in OBP (.424) and hits (68).

MORE ON X: Edwards has the lowest swinging strike % in the league, as he's swung and missed at only 3.4% of the pitches he's seen. His K% of 10.1% is the 4th lowest in the league. With 20 walks to 22 strikeouts, Edwards' 0.95 BB/K ratio is the 4th best in the MWL. Xavier has made a living on swinging early in the count: he's posted a BA of .548 this season on the first pitch of an at bat (best on the TinCaps), and 23 of his league-leading 68 hits have come while swinging at the first pitch of the at bat.

LOPEZ LOCKED IN: Infielder Justin Lopez, who turned 19 on May 9, has had a solid few weeks. In 21 games since May 11, Lopez has slashed .247/.307/.506. His power numbers have been great, with nine extra-base hits (2 doubles, 2 triples, 5 homers) and 15 RBIs.

HUNTING HITS: After a sluggish start to the season, Blake Hunt is starting to turn it around at the plate. Hunt went 0-3 on Saturday night, but was robbed twice of base hits on hard-hit balls. The 20-year-old catcher had hits in five straight games since May 26 (9-20) with four doubles and three RBIs. Hunt went 2-for-5 on Friday night with another double and a run scored.

IN CONTROL: TinCaps pitchers have the best ratio of strikeouts to walks in the MWL this season. Fort Wayne pitchers are averaging 3.01 strikeouts for every walk (156 walks, 471 strikeouts). 'Caps pitchers have also walked the fewest batters in the MWL.

ROSTER MOVES: Infielder Luis Almanzar was placed on the 7-Day IL Saturday, while catcher Luis Roman was transferred to Fort Wayne from Extended Spring Training.

AUSTIN POWERS: Right-handed reliever Austin Smith tossed a gem in relief on Friday night, going 3.2 hitless and scoreless innings with five strikeouts and just one walk. The former second round pick now has a 2.00 ERA in nine relief outings this season (18.0 IP) with 18 strikeouts and four walks. Smith also owns a 0.83 WHIP.

DWS EQUALS RBIs: Outfielder Dwanya Williams-Sutton smacked a three-run home run and also drove in another run via an RBI double on Friday night, marking his first four RBI game of the season. "DWS" had gone 1 for his last 18 at the plate (with 10 strikeouts) prior to his big night on Friday.

CHASING HISTORY: Anthony Contreras, who's in his 4th season as the team's skipper, won his 200th game as TinCaps manager on April 11. His win total now stands at 220. The franchise leader in that category is Doug Dascenzo (227, 2007-09). Randy Ready (2004-06) now ranks 3rd with 209 victories.

FOREVER YOUNG: The average age for a TinCaps position player thus far has been 20.1, the youngest in the Midwest League (MWL average: 21.2). The average age for a 'Caps pitcher is 20.9, also the youngest (MWL average: 21.9). This marks the 6th consecutive year Fort Wayne has had the league's most youthful lineup, going back to 2014. The TinCaps had the youngest pitching staff in the league in 2016 and ranked tied for 2nd youngest in '18, 2nd youngest in '12, '13, and '17.

260 TO THE SHOW: 181 former Fort Wayne players have reached the big leagues since the franchise was founded in 1993. 8 'Caps alums have broken through this year with SS Fernando Tatis Jr., RHP Chris Paddack, LHP Nick Margevicius, RHP Pedro Avila, RHP Gerardo Reyes, INF Ty France and C Austin Allen appearing for the Padres, plus INF Josh VanMeter with the Reds.

WELCOME BACK: 12 of the team's 25 players appeared in at least 1 game with the TinCaps last year: INF Luis Almanzar, LHP Joey Cantillo, C Juan Fernandez, RHP Henry Henry, INF Justin Lopez, RHP Adrian Martinez, INF Kelvin Melean, RHP Gabe Mosser, RHP Jose Quezada, OF Agustin Ruiz, LHP Ryan Weathers, and RHP Carlos Belen, who was a corner infielder with the 'Caps in 2016 and '18.

IN THE DUGOUT: Anthony Contreras is back for his 4th season as TinCaps manager, becoming the first skipper in the franchise's 27-year history to lead the team for more than 3 years... Hitting coach Jonathan Mathews (2nd season), fielding coach Jhony Carvajal (3rd), athletic trainer Allyse Kramer (3rd), and strength coach Sam Hoffman (2nd) are also back. Matt Williams is the team's new pitching coach, succeeding Burt Hooton—the club's pitching coach for the last 6 seasons—who's missing the season as he recovers from knee surgery in March.

PADRES ON DECK: MLB.com, Baseball America, and ESPN have rated San Diego's farm system as baseball's best. The 'Caps have 4 players on MLB.com's Top 30 list for the Pads (see list on Page 1). Not to be overlooked, ESPN's Keith Law ranks INF Justin Lopez at No. 19. He also notes RHP Efraín Contreras as another to watch with OF Agustin Ruiz & LHP Joey Cantillo.

VAMOS TINCAPS: A team of Padres minor league prospects ventured to Mexico City to play the Diablos Rojos del México and open up Estadio Alfredo Harp Helú, which is named after a member of the Padres' ownership team, with a pair of games March 23-24. Both games drew a sell-out crowd of 20,000+ fans and Mexican President Andrés Manuel López Obrador threw out the ceremonial first pitch. LHP Ryan Weathers started Game 1, while RHP Efraín Contreras and Adrian Martinez also pitched, joined by catcher Blake Hunt, infielders Xavier Edwards, Justin Lopez, Tucupita Marcano, and outfielders Grant Little and Agustín Ruiz. The Padres on Deck team impressively won both games.

2018 IN REVIEW: The 2018 TinCaps missed out on reaching the Midwest League Playoffs by a game. In fact, it came down to the final day of the regular season on Labor Day, as the TinCaps and West Michigan Whitecaps were in a tie for the Eastern Division's second-half wild card. Ultimately, Fort Wayne fell in extra innings, 3-2. The TinCaps finished the season with an overall record of 64-74 (32-37 in both halves). Nevertheless, the TinCaps featured one of the most prospect-laden teams in Minor League Baseball. The squad included the MWL's Left-Handed Pitcher of the Year in Osvaldo Hernandez as well as Left-Handed Reliever of the Year Travis Radke. Radke and fellow lefties Nick Margevicius and Aaron Leasher, along with catcher Luis Campusano, were all MWL Mid-Season All-Stars. Other top prospects with the club during the year were LHP MacKenzie Gore, RHP Luis Patiño, OF Tirso Ornelas, OF Jeisson Rosario, INF Gabriel Arias, INF Owen Miller, and INF Esteury Ruiz. The team's pitching staff had the lowest walk rate in the league (2.9 / 9 IP) and the best strikeout to walk ratio (3.13).

CAPS ON MiLB.TV: For the first time, this season TinCaps home games are available to watch on MiLB.TV (in addition to being broadcast around Indiana for Xfinity customers on Comcast Network 81). Fans can save $10 on their subscription by using the promo code TINCAPS.

ON THE FRANCHISE: The franchise was founded in 1993 as the Fort Wayne Wizards. The team was affiliated with the Minnesota Twins from 1993-98. The organization has been affiliated with the San Diego Padres since '99. The Wizards played at Memorial Stadium, about 3.5 miles north of Downtown Fort Wayne. The team moved into Parkview Field in 2009 and rebranded as the TinCaps, paying homage to John Chapman aka Johnny Appleseed, who's buried in Fort Wayne.

- THROWS: 4-seam Fastball, 2-seam Fastball (only throws to lefties), Slider, Changeup
- 2019: On Opening Day roster
- 2018: Made 1 appearance with Short-Season Tri-City before being transferred to Fort Wayne on July 20...In seven relief appearances with the TinCaps, allowed 9 total runs (5 earned) in 11.2 innings for a 3.86 ERA...13 strikeouts and 5 walks with Fort Wayne last season...also posted a 1.20 WHIP.
- DRAFTED: By the Padres in the 10th round in the 2018 MLB Draft (Signed for $5,000) out of Texas Tech
- COLLEGE: Played at Texas Tech University his last 2 seasons... Pitched in the College World Series in 2018... Appeared in Texas Tech's second game in the CWS against Arkansas on June 20 – 3.1 IP, allowed 3 hits, 1 run, and collected 3 strikeouts... During senior season, appeared in 22 games with a 2.21 ERA in 36.2 IP with 41 Ks... In his junior season, he had 24 appearances and held a 3.55 ERA in 38.0 IP with 52 Ks... Transferred to Texas Tech after 2 season at Howard College (Big Spring, TX), where he was named a Western Junior College Athletic All-Conference player 2 times
- BACKGROUND: Was born & raised in Chihuahua, Mexico (about 4 hours south of El Paso), before moving to Northglenn, Colorado, before his junior year of high school... At the time he moved, he didn't know any English & he admits it was a struggle during his junior & senior years at Northglenn High School... He played shortstop & second base during his junior and senior year in high school, but coaches were impressed with his strong arm at the positions to offer him a scholarship at Howard College.
- YO QUIERO BASEBALL: The Chihuahua dog breed is named after Quezada's native state...Both folklore and archaeological finds show that the breed has origins in Mexico.
- OFFSEASON: Went back to Lubbock to train at Texas Tech... Also worked part-time at a Nike outlet store
- FUN FACTS: Grew up a fan of Derek Jeter and the Yankees...His favorite food is Chick-Fil-A...Says his hobbies outside of baseball are "playing ping pong, reading, and lifting"... Avid reader... Aspirations to own a gym in the future
