Today's Preview: The Grasshoppers (A, Marlins) play to avoid a series sweep and third straight loss in Thursday's series finale against the BlueClaws (A, Phillies) at FirstEnergy Park. Ryan Lillie toes the rubber for Greensboro against lefty Kyle Young in the final game of May. The Hoppers look to turn the page on a tough month by ending on a high note after going 10-18 through the first 30 days of May.

Hoppers Hurlers: Ryan Lillie, 22, makes his 10th start of the season and first against the BlueClaws. He is coming off a complete-game shutout May 26 at Hagerstown in Game 1 of a doubleheader, throwing a 2-hit shutout while striking out four over 7.0 innings. Lillie has now thrown 7.0 scoreless innings in two of his last three starts, including a win against Augusta on May 12. One of his best start of the year came April 19 vs. Charleston with 7.0 scoreless innings, allowing two hits and a walk while striking out eight in an eventual Hoppers win. That day, he faced the minimum through 6.2 innings, inducing three double plays behind him. Lillie made his professional debut in 2017 going 0-5 with a 3.79 ERA (15 ER/35.2 IP) and 34 strikeouts in 12 games (seven starts) across three classifications - the GCL Marlins, Short-Season Batavia, and Greensboro. The Marlins selected Lillie in the fifth round of the June 2017 First-Year Player Draft out of UC-Riverside - the highest-drafted Highlander since 2011. In three years at UCR, he went 6-13 with a 4.50 ERA (63 ER/126.0 IP) and 137 strikeouts in 62 games (10 starts).

Wednesday's Recap: Edward Cabrera made a strong start but was out-dueled as Will Stewart threw a complete-game shutout as the BlueClaws blanked the Grasshoppers, 3-0, on Wednesday.

Stewart (5-0) fanned 10, walking none, and limiting the Grasshoppers to three hits in 9.0 innings. Lakewood plated two runs in the bottom of the second inning. Quincy Nieporte singled with one out, and Daniel Brito followed with a double to put runners in scoring position. Gregori Rivero followed with an RBI-groundout, and Josh Stephen added a run-scoring single for a 2-0 lead. In the eighth, Jake Scheiner added an RBI-double, scoring Kevin Markham from first base for the final run of the game.

Cabrera's Command: Edward Cabrera (1-5) suffered a hard-luck loss, allowing two runs on six hits over 7.0 innings on Wednesday in Lakewood. The right-hander struck out two and walked one while matching the longest outing of his season and career. Cabrera's only other 7.0-inning outing came May 20 against Lakewood when he spun a complete game in Game 1 of a doubleheader.

Sally League Shutouts: Will Stewart joined Hoppers Edward Cabrera and Ryan Lillie as well as Charleston's Dalton Lehen as the only four pitchers in the South Atlantic League to have thrown complete-game shutouts in 2018. Stewart and Lehen each threw 9-inning gems, while the two Greensboro starters accomplished the feats in 7-inning games.

Make It Quick: Wednesday's game in Lakewood lasted 2:04, one of the quickest 9-inning games the Hoppers have played this season.

Alonso in the Clutch: Hoppers first baseman Lazaro Alonso continues to impress at the plate when batting with runners in scoring position and two outs, batting .538 (7-13) with three doubles, a home run, and 10 RBI in those instances. The slugger is batting .444 (12-27) with runners in scoring position in general. As a team, the Grasshoppers as a team are batting .255 in RISP and two outs.

Devers' Streak Snapped: Jose Devers, who entered Tuesday on an 11-game hitting streak dating back to May 19, finished hitless, snapping both his hitting streak as well as his 15-game on-base streak. Devers entered Tuesday with the third-longest active hitting streak in the South Atlantic League. From May 19-28, Devers hit safely in 11 games with a .444 average (16-36) along with two RBI and two doubles during the streak, the longest this season by a Hoppers hitters. He joined Jhonny Santos (10 games, May 2-13) as the only Grasshoppers with double-digit hit streaks this season.

SAL announced Hall of Fame Class of 2018: Eric Krupa, President of the South Atlantic League, has announced the members of the Class of 2018 for the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame. The three new inductees will be honored as part of the festivities surrounding the 59th Annual South Atlantic League All-Star Game, scheduled to be played on June 19, 2018, at First National Bank Field, home of the Greensboro Grasshoppers. This year's class includes three Greensboro natives: a former player in the Western Carolina League, a former mayor and a current executive. Former Hickory Rebels player Ken Free, Former Greensboro Mayor Jim Melvin, and Greensboro Grasshopper President and General Manager Donald Moore will be inducted.

A lifelong Greensboro resident who is in his 17th year as President/GM of the Greensboro club, Donald Moore has been recognized as the SAL Executive of the Year four times (2006, 2007, 2008, 2013). Under Donald's leadership, the Grasshoppers have received the SAL Club Merit Award five times (2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2013), the SAL Community Service Award three times (2014, 2015, 2016) and the Bob Freitas Award, given by Baseball America to the best Class-A organization, in 2008. Donald also serves as chairman of the SAL Scheduling Committee and is also the founder and President of the North Carolina Association of Professional Baseball Teams (NCAPBT), which consists of the 10 minor league teams in North Carolina. Moore was inducted into the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2010 for his outstanding service to the community through his work with the Grasshoppers and many other youth sports initiatives he has been a part of in his lifetime.

Grasshoppers' Hitters: Trevor Rogers, 2B, makes his professional debut against Kannapolis after being selected by the Marlins in the first round (17th overall) in the June 2017 First-Year Player Draft out of Cathedral High School. His 40+ HR campaign against the SAL All-Stars following a High School All-American First Team season in 2017. He is Miami's No. 3 Prospect according to MLB.com. In his final season at Cathedral High, he went 11-4 with a 0.21 ERA, 114 strikeouts and 13 walks while throwing three no-hitters.

NOT A FAN OF BEING FANNED

The Grasshoppers struck out a season-high 15 times on Saturday, May 19, against Lakewood. Greensboro previously fanned 13 times in five games this season.

May 19	vs. Lakewood	15 strikeouts
May 17	vs. Lakewood	13 strikeouts
May 12	at Augusta	13 strikeouts
May 11	at Asheville	13 strikeouts
April 18	at Lakewood	13 strikeouts
April 10	vs. Augusta	13 strikeouts

LILLIE LILLIE!

Ryan Lillie tossed 7.0 shutout innings with eight strikeouts to pitch Greensboro past Augusta in the team's first game at the new SRP Park in North Augusta, S.C. The right hander worked around three hits and walked no batters in a 3-1 win for the Grasshoppers. Lillie threw 88 pitches with 62 strikes en route to the win, improving to 2-1.

JONES DEBUTS WITH PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Thomas Jones was named the first weekly award winner for the Grasshoppers this season, winning South Atlantic League Player of the Week honors for April 30-May 6, his first week with the team. He hit .350 (7-20) with a double, four home runs, six RBI, and eight runs scored in five games with Greensboro, starting with his debut on May 2.

JONESING FOR OFFENSE

When it comes to first impressions, no Hopper has made a bigger or better one than outfielder Thomas Jones, who joined the team May 2. In his first three games with Greensboro (May 2-4), he went 2-for-4 in each game with at least one home run in all contests. In total, he hit four home runs in three games while batting .500 (6-12) with a double and six RBI. The Marlins selected Jones, now 20 years old, in the third round of the June 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of Laurens (S.C.) High School.

WALKING OFF THE SUNS

Michael Hernandez gave the Grasshoppers their first walk-off home run of the season on May 2 as part of his career day, driving in four runs in an 10-8 win over the Hagerstown Suns. Hernandez finished 3-for-5 with a pair of RBI-singles to go along with his game-winning 2-run home run off Jared Brasher with no outs in the bottom of the ninth. It was the Grasshoppers second walk-off win of the season and seventh win in the final at-bats during the 2018 season.

IT'S MILLER TIME

Brandon Miller opened his May 1 start against the Suns by retiring the first 16 batters faced, taking a perfect game one out into the sixth inning in his fifth start of the season. Hagerstown eventually caught up to Miller, chasing him from the game after 5.1 innings pitched. The right-hander took no decision that day, allowing four runs on three hits with a walk and five strikeouts in the outing.

EVERYBODY HITS

All nine batters hit safely for the first time in 2018 when Greensboro fought off Asheville, 11-7 in 10 innings, on April 29. Infielders Jose Devers and Lazaro Alonso led the 16-hit charge with three hits each as the Grasshoppers batted around in the top of the 10th for a 7-run inning. In the big frame, the team collected six hits, including four doubles, to run away from the Tourists after Asheville rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth to force the extra inning.

BEGGS BAFFLES BATTERS

Dustin Beggs dominated out of the bullpen on April 27 at Asheville, striking out eight batters over 3.0 nearly-perfect innings of work. He struck out the first six batters he faced in perfect sixth and seventh innings. After inducing a groundout to open the bottom of the eighth and allowing a base hit – the lone batter to reach against him on the night – the right-hander fanned the final two batters he faced to close his outing. Greensboro fell to Asheville, 3-2.

SHARP STINGER AGAINST THE GREENJACKETS:

In their first series against the new-look Augusta GreenJackets, Greensboro was stung early as Malique Ziegler led off the game for Augusta with a first-pitch home run off Hoppers starting pitcher Taylor Braley. The GreenJackets hit two home runs in the opening frame, with Ryan Kirby adding a 2-run blast, en route to a 7-4 lead over the Grasshoppers.
