VS LANCASTER: This is the seventh of 25 overall meetings between the two clubs and the first of 13 games at LoanMart Field. The Quakes last played the JetHawks in a three-game series at The Hangar 4/27-4/29 and lost two-of-three against the South Division opponents. Entering Friday's contest, the season series is currently tied at three games apiece.

LAST TIME OUT: The Quakes allowed just two hits on Thursday night behind the strong pitching of Tony Gonsolin, earning their third shut-out victory of the season in a 3-0 final over the Storm. After retiring the Storm in order to open the game, the Quakes instantly snagged the game-winning run on their first at-bat of the contest. Gavin Lux, who was back in the lineup following a day off on Wednesday, hammered a solo home run on the first pitch of the inning to put Rancho up 1-0. In the third, Rancho sparked a two-out rally on a Jeren Kendall double that scored Lux. Cristian Santana followed with a single to bring Kendall around, jumping Rancho to the 3-0 lead. With the early advantage, Gonsolin (3-1) held the Storm in check, allowing just two hits and striking out four before departing with one out in the seventh inning en route to the win, the third straight for the Quakes.

GROUNDING THE HAWKS: On the offensive end, Gavin Lux and Rylan Bannon have shown the most success against Lancaster pitching this season. REHABBERS: The Quakes have had three different Dodgers join the club as apart of major league rehab assignment this season. Dodgers INF Justin Turner joined the Quakes along with INF Logan Forsythe in a weekend series vs. Visalia. Turner was 0-for-6 at the plate while Forsythe finished 1-for-10 with a double during their time in Rancho. Yasiel Puig joined the club on rehab assignment Tuesday (5/8) in Lake Elsinore. Puig was 0-for-4 at the plate and was removed from the game in the seventh inning.

FAMILIAR FACES ON THE FARM: A total of 16 former Quakes returned to Rancho Cucamonga to start the 2018 campaign, including 12 of the 14 original pitchers on the roster. Jordan Sheffield and Tony Gonsolin, ranked 18th and 24th in the Dodgers' system, by MLB Pipeline.com, return to the Quakes to help anchor the rotation. Former Quakes Dean Kremer, Issac Anderson and Andrew Sopko will also pitch out of the rotation. The bullpen began the year made up entirely of former Quakes, with Stetson Allie, Chris Matthewson, Parker Curry, Andrew Istler, Nolan Long, Ryan Moseley and Jason Richman making up the relief core. California League 2017 All-Star Ibandel Isabel, who mashed 28 home runs for last year's club, returned to the Quakes for a second year but was traded to the Cincinnati Reds. He was joined by returning infielder Omar Estevez and outfielder Logan Landon.

SAME SKIPPER, NEW STAFF: The skipper of the Quakes for a third consecutive year is Manager Drew Saylor, who has led the team to the Cal League Playoffs in each of the last two seasons. Saylor, whose team went 76-64 last season, is just the third manager in team history to lead the team for three seasons (Mike Basso 1996-1998, Bobby Meacham 2002-2004). The hitting coach is Justin Viele, a Fullerton native who enters his second year with the Dodgers. In 2017, the former Santa Clara Bronco was the hitting coach for the Ogden Raptors of the Pioneer League. Taking over pitching coach duties is Connor McGuiness who also enters his second year in the Dodgers' system. Last season, the Arlington, Virginia native worked in the same role for the Great Lakes Loons of the Midwest League, after spending three of the four previous years working for his alma mater, Emory University. The final member of Saylor's staff is assistant coach Petie Montero, another second-year member of the Dodgers' system, who coached in the DSL last year.

NINE & ON TIME: The Quakes are the only team in the California League that have yet to play an extra-inning game under the new MiLB rules this season. As a result, Rancho has completed all games in under four hours with the longest contest clocking in at 3:49 vs. Inland Empire on April 14th. April 14th marked the closest the Quakes have come to playing extras, tied at 6-6 in the ninth inning, Rancho scored the game-winning run in the bottom half and secured their first walk-off win of the season.

BY THE NUMBERS

12

Gavin Lux's 12-game hitting streak was the longest by any Quake this season. Lux passed Rylan Bannon who held the previous season long streak of eleven games. Over the stretch (Apr 26-5/11), Lux was 23-for-51 at the plate with six-multi hit games during the streak.

3

Rylan Bannon homered in three consecutive games during the series with Lake Elsinore becoming the first Quakes player to do so this season. Bannon is also the only player this year to hit three home runs in a single game when he did so on April, 18th at The Hangar in Lancaster.

27

The Quakes RBI-Leader Cristian Santana has been one of the most effective hitters with runner in scoring position this season. 27 of his 36 RBI's have come with RISP and he is batting at a .267 clip over those situations. With the bases loaded, Santana's average sky rockets to .375 where he is 3-for-8 with 9 RBI's.
