

RICHMOND FLYING SQUIRRELS

2019 FINAL NOTES

Richmond Flying Squirrels | 3001 N Arthur Ashe Blvd., Richmond, VA 23230 | 804-359-3866 | SquirrelsBaseball.com | @GoSquirrels

FOR THE RECORD: The Flying Squirrels posted a 55-84 record, sixth place in the Eastern League Western Division, 22.5 games behind first-place Erie and last in the Eastern League overall. In the league's first-ever split season, Richmond went 23-44 in the first half, 17.5 games behind first-place Harrisburg. The team went 23-40 in the second-half standings, 14.0 games behind first-place Bowie. The Flying Squirrels started the season 3-0 for the first time in franchise history. The team's overall record was the worst in franchise history and seventh-worst in all of full-season minor league baseball for 2019. The Flying Squirrels -136 run differential was the worst in franchise history, second-worst in all of Double-A and seventh-worst in all of minor league baseball.

2019 FLYING SQUIRRELS

A SERIES OF UNFORTUNATE EVENTS: On the year, the Flying Squirrels won 11 series, lost 27 and split four. At The Diamond, Richmond won four, lost 15 and split two series. On the road, the team won seven, lost 12 and split two sets. From May 2-June 3, the Flying Squirrels lost or split nine consecutive series. The Flying Squirrels finished the season winning four of the final five series beginning August 17, with the lone exception being a four-game sweep in Akron from August 22-25.

HOME-FIELD DISADVANTAGE: After winning the first series of the season (3 games to 1 over Hartford), the Flying Squirrels lost or split the next 17 home sets (15 lost and two split). They snapped that streak with a two-game, rain-shortened sweep against Harrisburg on August 17 and 18, starting a stretch of winning the final three home series to finish the year. After starting the year 5-2 at home through April 18, the Flying Squirrels went 10-42 over the next 52 home games from April 20-August 10. Richmond went 8-2 over the final 10 games at The Diamond from Aug. 11-Sept. 2. For the year, the Flying Squirrels' 23-46 home record was the worst in franchise history.

PACKING THE HOUSE: The Flying Squirrels drew 400,321 fans at The Diamond this season, the highest overall total for the franchise since 2014, second-highest in the league and fourth-highest in Double-A this year. The Flying Squirrels averaged 6,255 fans per game, the highest since 2014 for the franchise, highest in the Eastern League and third-highest in Double-A. The team drew these numbers despite dropping six dates to postponements, including three Friday night games and the Fourth of July. Those attendance numbers do not include the 7,112 fans who attended the Eastern League Home Run Derby on July 9 or the 9,560 fans at the Eastern League All-Star Game on July 10. The Flying Squirrels sold out their Opening Day game on April 4 for the 10th consecutive year, matching a single-game team record with 9,845 fans.

2019 ATTENDANCE INFO

2019 Home Attendance	400,321 (2nd in EL)
Average Attendance	6,255 (1st in EL)
Home Openings	64
Single-Game High Attendance	9,845 (4/4)
EL All-Star Game	9,560
EL Home Run Derby	7,112
All-Time Attendance	4,193,993
All-Time Average	6,288

SHINING STARS: For the first time in franchise history, the Flying Squirrels hosted the Eastern League All-Star Game this year. The sold-out crowd of 9,560 fans was the largest on record in the event's history. Richmond had seven players selected for the All-Star Game, the most in the league this year and the most in team history, including Caleb Baragar, Tyler Cyr, Melvin Adon, Jonah Arenado, Zach Houchins, Jalen Miller and Jacob Heyward. The Western Division won the game, 5-0. Baragar was the game's starting pitcher and picked up the win with a scoreless first inning. Miller picked up the game's first RBI in the first inning. Heyward added a solo homer to lead off the sixth inning and was selected as the game's Most Valuable Player. Cyr pitched parts of the eighth and ninth innings and Adon got the final two outs on the mound, touching 103 miles per hour with his fastball.

AWARDS SEASON: Prior to the game on Sunday, Sept. 1, the Flying Squirrels announced their team awards for 2019. Johnheshwy Fargas was named Player of the Year, Ryan Halstead was named Pitcher of the Year, Jalen Miller was named Puritan Cleaners Dirty Squirrel of the Year and Matt Winn was named the recipient of the Community Service Award.

GRAND LARCENY: The Flying Squirrels finished the season with 130 stolen bases, most in the Eastern League and third-most in all of Double-A. The team was also caught stealing 76 times, most in the league. Johnheshwy Fargas stole his 50th base of the year on Sept. 1, surpassing the franchise record set by Kelby Tomlinson in 2014. His 50 steals led the league and ranked fourth in all of MiLB. He also tied for the eighth-most stolen bases in a season in the Eastern League since 2000. Fargas also led the minors and set a team record being caught stealing 23 times. Jalen Miller picked up 27 stolen bases, seventh in the league, and was caught 13 times, tied for third-most in the league.

TAKE A WALK: Jacob Heyward surpassed the single-season franchise walks record on August 10, working five walks in that day's double-header against Bowie to move past the previous mark of 62 (Mark Minicucci - 2013). It was part of a stretch of seven games during which Heyward walked 10 times. By the end of the season, he stretched his team record to 80 walks, most in the Eastern League and most in all of Double-A. He added three walks in his two late-season games with Triple-A Sacramento, bringing his total to 83, which was tied for seventh-most in all of minor league baseball. Heyward had a .357 on-base percentage for the season, sixth-best in the league.

KEEPING THE BASES EMPTY: Left-handed pitcher Caleb Baragar set a new franchise record with a .192 opponents' batting average this season, surpassing the previous mark held by Eric Surkamp (.213 - 2011). His .191 opponents' batting average as a starting pitcher was also a new record, passing the .216 by Surkamp in 2011 and by Mike Kickham in 2012. Baragar's 1.05 WHIP was the best in team history, topping the 1.08 WHIP by Surkamp in 2011.

SWITCH IT UP: On the year, Gio Brusa led the Flying Squirrels with 12 home runs. That mark was the most in a season by a switch-hitter in franchise history, passing the previous record of 10 by Ryan Cavan in 2012. However, 11 of his 12 home runs came when batting left-handed. His lone right-handed home run came on June 14 at The Diamond against New Hampshire left-handed pitcher Zach Logue. Brusa's .036 HR/PA was the fifth-highest in team history (min. 300 PA).

TOP OF THE CLASS: The Flying Squirrels received top two prospects in the Giants' system on August 9 with the additions of Joey Bart and Heliot Ramos. Bart was ranked first and Ramos was ranked second both MLB.com and Baseball America's top-30 Giants prospects lists. Bart is the highest drafted player in Flying Squirrels history (2nd overall - 2018). Ramos is the third-highest drafted player in franchise history (19th overall - 2017), trailing Tyler Beede (14th overall - 2014). All time, the Flying Squirrels roster has featured 22 players selected in the first round of the MLB Draft. Bart was also the highest ranked player on Baseball America's Top 100 prospects list (No. 16) in Flying Squirrels franchise history.

YOUTH MOVEMENT: Outfielder Heliot Ramos became the youngest player in Flying Squirrels franchise history (19 years, 336 days) with his debut on August 9. He was the first teenager ever to suit up for the Flying Squirrels. With his debut on Sept. 1, Anyesber Sivira became the new youngest player to debut for the Flying Squirrels (19 years, 235 days) and the first player born in the new millennium (January 9, 2000). Sivira and Ramos were the second- and third-youngest players in the Eastern League this season, behind only Harrisburg infielder Luis Garcia (born May 16, 2000).

A LITTLE RELIEF: The Flying Squirrels bullpen combined for a 3.28 ERA on the season, ninth-best in the league and third-best in the franchise's history. Through the first 59 games of the season through June 8, the Richmond bullpen combined for a 4.38 ERA (114/234.1). Over the final 80 games from June 9 through Sept. 2, the bullpen combined for a 2.40 ERA (77 ER/289.0 IP) with 295 strikeouts and 121 walks and held opposing hitters to a .217 batting average. After posting an 8.44 ERA through his first 10 appearances of the season through May 16, Ryan Halstead posted a 1.10 ERA (3 ER/24.2 IP) over his final 18 relief appearances. Melvin Adon posted a 5.00 ERA through his first 14 outings through May 15, but had a 1.00 ERA (3 ER/27.0 IP) with 11 saves in his final 22 outings prior to being promoted to Triple-A. In 18 outings from July 1 through his promotion to Triple-A, Tyler Cyr posted a 0.82 ERA (2 ER/22.0 IP). After posting an 8.53 ERA through his first 10 outings with Richmond on the year, Chase Johnson posted a 1.98 ERA (9 ER/41.0 IP) in his last 19 outings from May 31 until he was promoted to Triple-A. In his final 12 outings with Richmond from June 21 through August 29, Sam Moll posted a 0.57 ERA (1 ER/15.2 IP). Carlos Navas pitched 20 games with the Flying Squirrels on the season, combining for a 1.56 ERA (7 ER/401 IP). Caleb Simpson had a 2.45 ERA (8 ER/291 IP) with the Flying Squirrels on the year. Sam Wolff posted a 1.78 ERA (7 ER/35.1 IP) for the season with Richmond.

ROSTER MAKEUP: The 2019 Flying Squirrels roster featured 60 total players, tying 2018 for the most in a season in team history, and the team made 149 roster transactions. Nine players on this year's Flying Squirrels had previous MLB experience. There were 22 players who had been with the Flying Squirrels prior to 2019 and 38 were with the team for the first time in their careers. There were 20 players who were in their first season with the San Francisco Giants organization. The roster included players born in eight different countries, including 43 in the United States, seven in the Dominican Republic, three in Venezuela, three in Puerto Rico, and one from Cuba, Taiwan, South Africa and Sint Maarten. There were players from 19 different states, including 12 from California, five from Texas, four from Georgia, three from North Carolina, two from Florida, Missouri, Virginia and Washington, and one each from Alabama, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota and Tennessee. The average age of the team was 25 years old. Fernando Abad (33) was the oldest player and Anyesber Sivira (19) was the youngest.

PROSPECT WATCH: Throughout the 2019 season, the Flying Squirrels roster included 10 players who were ranked in MLB.com's top-30 prospect list: Joey Bart (1), Heliot Ramos (2), Logan Webb (5), Sean Hjelle (6), Chris Shaw (11), Heath Quinn (13), Melvin Adon (15), Garrett Williams (21), Ryan Howard (28) and Jalen Miller (29). Baseball America's pre-season top-30 list included Bart (1), Ramos (3), Hjelle (5), Webb (6), Shaw (11), Adon (12), Quinn (15), Williams (21), Howard (24), Conner Menez (25) and Miller (30). MLB.com's updated list included Bart (1), Ramos (2), Webb (5), Hjelle (6), Adon (15), Menez (17), Shaw (21) and Williams (28). Baseball America's mid-season update included Bart (1), Ramos (2), Hjelle (7), Webb (8), Menez (14), Adon (19), Williams (21), Shaw (24) and Raffi Vizcaino (27).

ROAD TO THE SHOW: In 2019, six Flying Squirrels alumni made their debuts in the majors, all pitchers and all with the San Francisco Giants. Shaun Anderson (2018 Flying Squirrels) debuted with the Giants on May 15. Sam Coonrod (2016-17) made his debut on May 26. Conner Menez (2018-19) made his first MLB debut on July 21. Sam Selman (2019) debuted on August 1. Logan Webb (2018-19) made his first start on August 17. Tyler Rogers (2015-16) debuted on August 27. Menez, Selman and Webb were all members of the 2019 Flying Squirrels. Additionally, three members of the 2019 Flying Squirrels who had previous MLB experience returned to the big leagues in 2019: Andrew Moore (Seattle), Fernando Abad (San Francisco) and Chris Shaw (San Francisco).

2019 NOTES

APRIL

THE WILLIE HARRIS ERA: Willie Harris returned for a second season managing the Flying Squirrels, becoming just the second manager in the franchise's history to lead the club for multiple seasons (Dave Machemer - 2011-13). Harris was officially appointed as the manager of the Flying Squirrels on December 14, 2017.

HOME EARLY: The 2019 opener on April 4 tied for the earliest home opener in franchise history, tying the Flying Squirrels' Opening Day game on April 4, 2013, a 1-0 loss to the New Britain Rock Cats. It also tied for the second-earliest season-opener in team history behind only Opening Day in 2014, when Richmond started the season on April 3 in Connecticut against the Rock Cats.

SELLOUTS: On April 4, the Flying Squirrels sold out their home opener for the tenth consecutive year, all ten years of the franchise's history. It tied the 2018 home opener for the largest crowd in franchise history with 9,845 fans, and it was one of four crowds in franchise history to surpass the official sellout mark of 9,560. The 2019 opener marked the 49th sellout in Flying Squirrels history, and a win in the game improved the team's record to 33-19 (including three double-headers) when The Diamond is at capacity.

HOME COOKIN': In the franchise's first ten home openers, the Flying Squirrels have combined to go 8-2, including wins in each of the last five home openers. Richmond also won the franchise's first three home-opening games from 2010-12, and the only two losses came in back-to-back seasons in 2013 and 2014.

OPENING WITH THE GOATS: The Flying Squirrels opened the season against the Yard Goats for the third time in the last four years. In 2016, the Flying Squirrels were supposed to begin the season in Hartford, but the game was relocated to The Diamond due to construction delays with Dunkin' Donuts Park. In that game, the first in the history of the Hartford franchise, the Flying Squirrels lost, 5-4. Richmond won the opener against the Yard Goats in 2017, 11-1, the most lopsided Opening Day score in Flying Squirrels history. This season, the Flying Squirrels won, 1-0.

BACK IN RVA: This year's season-opening roster included five Flying Squirrels players who had suited up on an Opening Day for Richmond in previous seasons. Ryan Howard, Jonah Areando and Dylan Davis were with the Flying Squirrels on Opening Day in 2018. Catcher Matt Winn was in the Flying Squirrels' starting lineup on Opening Day in 2016 and 2017. Chris Shaw was the starting first baseman in 2017.

BLANK SPACE: The Flying Squirrels' 1-0 win on April 4 was the first Opening Day shutout win in franchise history. It avenged a season-opening shutout loss against the New Britain Rock Cats (now Hartford Yard Goats) exactly six years earlier on April 4, 2013 at The Diamond, which is the only time the Flying Squirrels have been blanked on Opening Day. It was also one of three shutouts of the five Eastern League games played on April 4 this year to open the season.

STARTING SCORELESS: In his April 4 start, Logan Webb became just the second pitcher in Flying Squirrels history to toss a scoreless outing on Opening Day. Webb pitched 5.0 innings without allowing a run, despite surrendering two hits and four walks. It was the longest scoreless start on Opening Day in team history. Craig Westcott holds the other Opening Day start without allowing a run, working 4.0 scoreless innings for the Flying Squirrels against New Britain on April 4, 2013.

FAST START: After a rainout on April 5, the Flying Squirrels played a double-header against Hartford on April 6. Richmond swept the twinbill, 2-1 and 3-0. The Flying Squirrels started a season 3-0 for the first time in franchise history. The team had previously won back-to-back games to open a season just once, which occurred during the 2015 season with 3-2 and 1-0 wins against Bowie.

BEACHY'S RETURN: On April 7, Brandon Beachy made his first appearance in an affiliated game since July 29, 2016 with his start against Hartford. Beachy had made 46 career starts with the Atlanta Braves but a series of injuries slowed a stellar start to his MLB career. He posted a 2.00 ERA over 13 starts in 2012, the best in the majors, before undergoing Tommy John surgery. He returned in 2013 but had to have Tommy John surgery for a second time prior to the start of the 2014 season. Beachy signed with the Dodgers in 2015 and made a brief return to the majors that year, and injuries held him to one outing in the Arizona League in 2016. He did not pitch at all in 2017. He made just 25 appearances from 2014-2017. Beachy made his return to professional baseball in 2018 with 12 appearances with the New Britain Bees, including two starts. In his Flying Squirrels debut, Beachy allowed three runs, all in the second inning, as part of his 4.0-inning outing. He made a second start on April 15 at Hartford and allowed one hit over 5.0 scoreless innings. He was scheduled to start the second game of a double-header against Altoona on April 20, but was scratched and placed on the IL with a calf strain, keeping him out until June.

SIX-GAME SLIDE: From April 20 through April 26, the Flying Squirrels lost six straight games, tied for the longest losing streak of the season. The six-game losing slide was the longest since a seven-game losing streak from July 18 (G2)-July 25, 2018. During the losing streak, the Flying Squirrels scored just five runs and were shut out three times, all by Altoona. The Richmond offense scored just one run in 29 innings from April 20-23. The offense hit .126 (21-for-167) and hit .059 (2-for-34) with runners in scoring position and left 37 runners on base.

ARENADO AWAKENS: After hitting .200 in 2018, Jonah Arenado hit .348 (24-for-69) in April to open the 2019 season. His batting average was fifth-best in the league for April. He closed the month with at least one hit in 16 of 20 games. In April, he also ranked seventh in the league in on-base percentage (.400) and tenth with a .907 OPS. Over his next 91 games prior to his release in August, Arenado hit .220 (68-for-309).

STARTING STRONG: Through the first 17 games of the season, Richmond starting pitchers combined to go 3-6 with a 2.42 ERA. Conner Menez went 1-1 with a 1.31 ERA in four starts. Logan Webb went 1-2 with a 2.14 ERA in four starts.

MILLER TIME: From April 14-18, Jalen Miller hit three homers in four games. He added home runs in back-to-back games on April 28 and 30, bringing his total to five homers in the month of April, which was tied for fourth in the league.

WEBB'S WORK: Logan Webb made five starts for the Flying Squirrels in April, going 1-2 with a 2.00 ERA. He made his season debut on Opening Night against Hartford and issued five walks, but he allowed two hits over 5.0 scoreless innings. He issued just two more walks over his next four starts, spanning 22.0 innings pitched. He allowed four runs in a loss on April 17 at Hartford, but only allowed three total runs in his other four starts. After striking out nine batters in 5.0 innings in a loss on April 23 against Reading, allowing one unearned run, he topped it with 6.0 innings of work and 10 strikeouts on April 29 at Bowie. After that start, Webb was served with an 80-game suspension as part of the Major League Baseball Joint Drug Prevention and Treatment Program for testing positive for Dehydrochlormethyltestosterone (DHCMT).

APRIL WRAP: The Flying Squirrels went 9-13 in the month of April and closed the month in fifth place in the Western Division, 10.5 games behind first-place Harrisburg (21-4). Jonah Arenado ranked fifth in the league in batting average (.348), tied for seventh in on-base percentage (.400) and tenth in OPS (.907). Jalen Miller ranked tied for fourth in homers (5) and second in stolen bases (6). Ryan Howard ranked tied for seventh in walks (15). Logan Webb ranked tenth in the league in innings pitched (27.0) and tied with Conner Menez for third in the league with 31 strikeouts.

MAY

POWER SURGE: The Flying Squirrels entered their game on April 14 as one of four teams in the minors without a home run hit on the season. Jalen Miller hit the team's first homer of the year that game in the third inning, one of two home runs in the game for the Flying Squirrels. It started a stretch of hitting eight homers over five games through April 18. The Flying Squirrels hit 21 home runs over a 16-game stretch from April 14-May 1. In that stretch, Miller hit five homers, Chris Shaw hit four, Jacob Heyward hit three, Jonah Arenado, Ryan Howard and Brock Stassi hit two homers and Johnheshwy Fargas, Hamlet Marte and Heath Quinn each hit one homer. The Flying Squirrels hit four homers on May 1 at Bowie (two by Heyward, one by Stassi and one by Shaw), the first four-homer game for Richmond since 2016. Over four games from April 28-May 1, the Flying Squirrels hit 10 homers with two three-homer games and the four-home run performance. Despite not hitting a home run in the first seven games of the season, the Flying Squirrels ranked third in the league in homers through May 1.

MENEZ MASTERFUL: Through his first six starts of the season, Conner Menez went 2-1 with a 2.01 ERA (7 ER/31.1 IP) with 39 strikeouts and held opposing batters to a .174 average. He allowed two or less runs in five of his first six starts, including two scoreless outings. He worked 6.0 scoreless innings on May 5 and allowed one hit with no walks and eight strikeouts. Through May 10, Menez ranked tenth in the league in ERA (2.01), tied for fourth in strikeouts (39), fourth in opponents' batting average (.174) and fifth in WHIP (0.89).

WHEN THE LEVI BREAKS OUT: After going 0-for-22 (0 BB, 1 HBP) from April 18-26, Levi Michael hit .375 (9-for-24) over his next six games from April 28-May 3 with two doubles, one RBI, four strikeouts and three steals in three attempts. He was promoted to Triple-A Sacramento on May 6.

BROCK STAR: Over 25 games played with the Flying Squirrels, Brock Stassi hit .315 with two homers and 10 RBIs. At the time of his promotion to Triple-A Sacramento on May 10, Stassi ranked ninth in the league in batting average (.315) and fifth in on-base percentage (.412). He hit .300 in his first eight games through April 16, but he made just one start from April 17-26 and went 1-for-7 (.143) with one walk. Back in an everyday role in his last 11 games from April 27-May 8, Stassi hit .361 (13-for-36) with two homers and seven RBIs with nine walks.

PITCH IT: In the first 15 games of the season through April 22, the Flying Squirrels pitching staff combined for a 2.62 ERA (37 ER/127.0 IP), which was second-best in the league. Richmond starters posted a 2.55 ERA (19 ER/67.0 IP) and relievers had a 2.70 ERA (18 ER/60.0 IP). Over the next 15 games from April 23-May 8, the Flying Squirrels' pitching staff combined to go 4-11 with a 5.73 ERA (84 ER/132.0 IP). During that stretch, the Richmond starters went 2-4 with a 5.03 ERA (35 ER/62.2 IP). The Richmond bullpen went 2-7 with a 6.36 ERA (49 ER/69.1 IP).

HITS FOR HEATH: After hitting .086 (3-for-35) through April 20 in his first 13 games of the season, Heath Quinn started a 19-game on-base streak on April 22 that ran through May 14, his final game with the Flying Squirrels for the season before going on the injured list with a left hamstring strain. The on-base streak was still active when he went on the IL. In those 19 games, Quinn hit .274 (17-for-73) with two homers, three doubles, a triple, eight RBIs and 10 walks. He hit .359 (14-for-39) over an 11-game stretch from April 26-May 7. After a rehab assignment in the Arizona League, Quinn was reinstated from the IL and assigned to the San Jose Giants for the remainder of the season in late June.

STRINGING THEM TOGETHER: Through May 17, the Flying Squirrels were 12-25 on the year were 3-9 in games following a win. The team had strung together consecutive sets of wins just twice - a three-game winning streak to open the season and back-to-back wins on April 14 at Reading and April 15 at Hartford.

HEYWARD'S HIGHS AND LOWS: In his 15 games in April, Jacob Heyward hit .313 (10-for-32) with a .488 on-base percentage. He missed eight days with a quad strain from April 23-30. Heyward returned on May 1 and homered on the first pitch he saw, picking up three hits and two homers in the game. In his first seven games back, Heyward hit .375 (9-for-24), raising his season batting average to .339 through May 7. He went 0-for-16 with 13 strikeouts over five games from May 8-14, including 10 straight plate appearances with a strikeout, picking up three walks. He recovered by hitting .391 (9-for-23) over a seven-game hitting streak from May 15-22. Through May 22, Heyward ranked second in the league in on-base percentage (.438), ninth in slugging percentage (.495), sixth in OPS (.933) and tied for fifth in walks (25). He had walked in 20.7 percent of his plate appearances, which was the highest in Double-A and fourth in all of MiLB. He also ranked second in the league with a .426 BABIP through May 22. Heyward was named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week on May 5.

LOOKING FOR LENGTH: Through the first 41 games of the season through May 22, Flying Squirrels starting pitchers failed to work at least 5.0 innings 21 times. Starting pitchers in that span averaged 4.1 innings pitched. Due to weather, injuries or pitch counts, Richmond starters worked 4.2 innings twice, 4.1 innings four times, 4.0 innings seven times, 3.2 innings twice, 3.0 innings once, 1.2 innings three times and 1.0 inning once. A Richmond starter only pitched 6.0+ innings eight times in the first 41 games. In 15-game stretch from April 26-May 11, Richmond's starter failed to work at least 5.0 innings 10 times.

EXTRA STRUGGLES: The Flying Squirrels went 1-5 in their first six extra-inning games of the season through May 29. They won their first game in extras on April 6 against Hartford with a walk-off sac fly by Heath Quinn, but lost the next five. With a runner placed at second base per MiLB's pace-of-play rules, the Flying Squirrels offense failed to score in seven straight extra frames. Through May 31, the Flying Squirrels were batting .043 (1-for-23) in extra innings with 12 strikeouts. On May 24, the Flying Squirrels lost to Akron, 2-1, in 13 innings at Canal Park, and Richmond went 0-for-11 with four intentional walks, 10 strikeouts and grounded into a double play.

MAY WRAP: The Flying Squirrels went 9-19 in May, worst in the league. It was tied for the second-worst record in a single month in franchise history (9-19, May 2016), behind only a 3-14 April in 2015. In the month of May, Chris Shaw hit .305 (9th in EL), posted a .505 SLG (9th), an .891 OPS (8th) had 29 hits (T-9th), 48 total bases (9th) and scored 17 runs (T-17th). Johnheshwy Fargas tied the league lead with three triples and Jacob Heyward ranked tied for third with 16 walks. Fargas tied the league lead with ten steals and Jalen Miller was tied for third with four. Conner Menez ranked tenth in ERA (2.54), first in BAA (.153) and second in WHIP (0.78). Melvin Adon tied for first in games pitched (12) and tied for second in saves (5). As a team, the Flying Squirrels hit .238 (7th) and posted a 4.40 ERA (11th).

JUNE

HOLD ON: In losing eight of 10 games from May 27-June 4, the Flying Squirrels held a lead at some point in all but one of those games, including four-run leads in two of the losses. The Richmond bullpen posted a 5.58 ERA (20 ER/30.2 IP) in that stretch and also allowed 10 unearned runs.

ROAD WARRIOR: From May 24-June 9, the Flying Squirrels played 15 of their 18 games on the road. In that span, the Flying Squirrels traveled approximately 2,288 miles (44 bus hours) around the northeast, almost long enough to cover the direct distance between Richmond and San Francisco. The span included a season-long 11-game road trip to Reading, Portland and New Hampshire from May 31-June 9.

NO NO-NO: The Flying Squirrels were held to one hit in a 2-0 loss at New Hampshire on June 9. In the next game on June 11, the Flying Squirrels were held to three hits by Harrisburg. On June 12, the Flying Squirrels were no-hit through the first nine innings by Harrisburg's Ben Braymer and Bryan Bonnell, but the game was scoreless heading into the tenth. After holding Harrisburg off the board in the top of the tenth, Jalen Miller hit a walk-off single for Richmond's first and only hit in the bottom of the tenth. Over those three games, the Flying Squirrels hit .059 (5-for-85). Richmond was held to three or less hits five times in 12 games from June 9-22.

MCELROY ATTACK: In his first eight games with the Flying Squirrels, C.J. McElroy hit .074 (2-for-27). In a five-game span from June 4-8, McElroy batted .348 (8-for-23) with a double, a triple and an RBI. He picked up a stolen base in each of his first two Richmond games. He added four more steals in a four-game stretch from June 3-6. He was placed on the IL twice, once from May 25-30 and again on June 12 with a right thumb sprain and ultimately did not play another game.

2019 NOTES

HELLO, HOUCINS: In a span of 18 games from May 29-June 15, Zach Houchins hit .368 (25-for-68) with six homers, five doubles and 18 RBIs, posting a 1.103 OPS. Over a ten-game stretch on a road trip from May 31-June 8, Houchins hit .395 with five homers and 15 RBIs at Reading, Portland and New Hampshire, and he had multiple hits in eight of those games. Houchins hit four homers in six games from June 3-8 and drove in 12 runs, batting .478 (11-for-27). He was named Eastern League Player of the Week on June 9.

EAST FEAST: From May 28-June 23, the Flying Squirrels played 23 of 26 games against teams from the Eastern Division. The Flying Squirrels went 9-14 in games against the East during that stretch.

K: On June 18 at Trenton, the Flying Squirrels set the franchise record for the most strikeouts in a nine-inning game with 19. It also matched the most strikeouts by a team's offense in a single game in the Eastern League since 2005, as far back as the data is available (BIN vs. NH on 7/24/06 and POR @ ERI on 6/24/07). Trenton starting pitcher Deivi Garcia had 15 strikeouts, which surpassed the most ever by an opposing pitcher against the Flying Squirrels (14 by Harrisburg's Brad Peacock on 5/13/11 at The Diamond). It was also the most by an EL pitcher since Reading's Jesse Biddle had 16 on 4/22/2013.

THERE'S ALWAYS NEXT YEAR HALF: The Flying Squirrels wrapped up the first half of the Eastern League season on June 18 with a 23-44 record, worst in the league. This year was the Eastern League's first season adopting the split-season format, with the two division champions from the first half and the two from the second half qualifying for the postseason. Prior to this year, the Eastern League was the only full-season league below Triple-A not adopting the split-season format, and playoff teams were decided by each division's champion and one runner-up wild-card team from each division. Harrisburg and Trenton clinched the league's first-half titles against the Flying Squirrels.

WILLIAMS HAS IT WORKING: Over a five-start span from June 6-June 29, Garrett Williams posted a 1.33 ERA (4 ER/27.0 IP). That stretch included four scoreless starts. He worked 6.0 scoreless innings at Portland on June 6 and worked around four hits, two hit batters and four walks with five strikeouts and four double plays. In three of the four scoreless starts, Williams allowed just one hit: 5.0 innings against Harrisburg on June 12, 5.0 innings at Binghamton on June 23 and 7.0 innings with a season-high nine strikeouts against Hartford on June 29.

JUNE WRAP: The Flying Squirrels went 12-17 in the month of June. The pitching staff combined for a 3.05 ERA, tied for third in the league, and had the third-most strikeouts with 244. The Richmond offense hit .203 in the month, last in the league, ranked second with 102 walks and led the circuit with 37 stolen bases. Zach Houchins ranked third in the league in total bases (51), tied for third in homers (5) and tied for fourth in RBIs (17). Jacob Heyward ranked tied for second with 17 walks. Johneshwy Fargas led the league with 21 steals. Garrett Williams was second in the league with a 1.67 ERA. Melvin Adon was tied for fifth with four saves. Caleb Baragar ranked tied for fifth with 34.1 IP. Baragar and Williams were tied for second with 35 strikeouts. Williams had the best BAA (.152) and Baragar was second (.174).

JULY

THE SELLOUT THAT WASN'T: The Flying Squirrels announced their game on July 4 was sold out, however the game was not played due to rain. The Flying Squirrels had sold out their July 4 openings in each of their first nine seasons (10 games).

BARAGAR'S BREAKOUT: Left-hander Caleb Baragar joined the Richmond roster on May 10 after spending time with A-Adv. San Jose and one game with Triple-A Sacramento. Over his first 12 outings (11 starts), Baragar went 2-2 with a 2.98 ERA (21 ER/63.1 IP), the fifth-best ERA in the league during that span. His performance earned him an Eastern League All-Star selection and he was named as the Western Division's starting pitcher for the All-Star Game.

AT THE BREAK: At the All-Star Break, the Flying Squirrels held a 32-54 overall record, worst in the league. The team hit .219 in the first half, last in the league. The pitching staff had a 3.67 team ERA, ninth in the EL. Jonah Arenado led qualified hitters on the Flying Squirrels roster with a .249 batting average. Jalen Miller led the team with nine homers. Johneshwy Fargas had a team-high 34 stolen bases. Jacob Heyward led the team with 47 walks. Alfred Gutierrez led the team with six wins. Caleb Baragar led the team with a 2.98 ERA. Garrett Williams had a team-high 74 strikeouts.

GOING UNDER: The July 11 loss by the Flying Squirrels against the Senators dropped the team's overall record to 32-55. It marked the first time the team has ever held a record 23 games under .500. The mark surpassed the previous low at 22 games under .500, which was reached three separate times during the 2016 season, most recently on August 10, 2016.

THE NEW GUYS: On June 25, Bryce Johnson and Peter Maris were assigned to Richmond from A-Adv. San Jose. After going 0-for-4 in his Richmond debut on June 26, Johnson had seven hits over his next three games, including a homer, a double and a triple. In 18 games from June 27-July 17, Johnson hit .356 (21-for-59) with three homers, five doubles, a triple and 13 RBIs. Maris picked up a pinch-hit RBI single in his Flying Squirrels debut on June 26 and collected an RBI in three of his first four games. Maris hit .298 (14-for-47) in his first 17 games with the Flying Squirrels through July 17.

HIT PARADE: The Flying Squirrels matched a season high with 13 hits in a July 16 win at Hartford and then set a new season high with 15 hits in the July 17 win at Dunkin Donuts Park. Over three games from July 15-17, the Flying Squirrels hit .327 (37-for-113) and homered four times while averaging 5.7 runs per game (17 total runs). Over the previous seven games (1-6 record) dating back to July 5 (G2), the Flying Squirrels hit .154 (31-for-202).

IT STARTS WITH ONE: The Flying Squirrels have not been no-hit in the franchise's history. However, Richmond's offense was held to one hit five times in the 2019 season. On April 20, the Flying Squirrels had one hit in each game of a double-header against Altoona. On June 9, Nate Pearson and Willy Ortiz of New Hampshire held Richmond to one hit, an infield single by Johneshwy Fargas, in Manchester. Three days later on June 12, Harrisburg's Ben Braymer and Bryan Bonnell did not allow a hit until one out into the tenth inning, when Jalen Miller hit a walk-off single. On July 18, Erie's Spenser Watkins held Richmond hitless two outs into the ninth inning, but Ryder Jones hit a two-strike double down the third-base line to break up the no-hitter.

KEEP IT IN THE YARD: From June 8 through July 17, the Flying Squirrels bullpen did not allow a home run, covering 35 games. Richmond's relievers spanned 129.2 consecutive innings and 533 consecutive batters faced between a home run hit on June 7 in Manchester by Brock Lundquist against Ryan Halstead and a solo home run by Erie's Josh Lester in the sixth inning against Chase Johnson on July 18 at The Diamond. Flying Squirrels relievers combined for a 1.93 ERA (27 ER/125.2 IP) over those 35 games and held opposing batters to a .211 average (95-for-450). On the season, the Richmond bullpen allowed 24 home runs, the fewest in the league.

ROUND 1, PICK 1: With his start against the Flying Squirrels on July 21, Erie right-handed pitcher Casey Mize became the third player selected No. 1 overall to play against the Flying Squirrels at The Diamond. In 2011, Harrisburg's Bryce Harper played five games in Richmond, batting .278 (5-for-18) with a double from July 21-24. This year, Reading's Mickey Moniak has played six games in Richmond, batting .308 (8-for-26) with two doubles and six RBIs. Two other top overall draft picks who played in the Eastern League during the Flying Squirrels' existence, Gerrit Cole and Stephen Strasburg, never pitched at The Diamond. In his start on July 21, Mize allowed a career-high six runs (five earned) on six hits and recorded just two outs, both on strikeouts, before being removed from the game with two outs in the bottom of the first inning. After taking a 6-0 lead in the first inning, the Flying Squirrels ended up losing the game, 14-7, and allowed 11 runs over the final three innings.

JULY WRAP: The Flying Squirrels went 9-18 in the month of July, their second-worst record in a month this season and tied for the worst in the league for the month. Richmond ranked last in the league in batting average (.212) and last in ERA (4.48). Ryan Howard led qualified Richmond batters with a .258 average for the month and Bryce Johnson was second with a .247 average. Brandon Lawson led qualified starting pitchers with a 3.86 ERA, going 2-3 in his six starts. Tyler Cyr posted a 0.75 ERA (1 ER/12.0 IP) in the month of July in his team-high-tying nine outings. The Richmond bullpen (Adon, Cyr, Halstead, Johnson, McNamara, Moll, Navas, Rubio, Simpson, Vizcaino, Wolff) combined for a 2.92 ERA (32/98.2 IP).

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

TOOL SHED: On August 7, Baseball America released its "Best Tools" list for the Eastern League, compiled through surveying managers around the league. Johneshwy Fargas was selected as the "Fastest Baserunner" in the Eastern League. Melvin Adon was named as having the league's "Best Fastball."

TROUBLE AT HOME: From May 22-August 10, the Flying Squirrels went 6-29 in 35 home games. The team lost 15 of 16 home games from July 5-August 10. The Flying Squirrels lost ten straight home games from July 21-August 10, the longest home losing streak in franchise history (prev: 8, 5/9-5/20/16). Richmond lost 10 of 11 home series from May 21 through August 11, with the lone exception being a four-game split against Hartford from June 27-30. After starting the season 5-2 at home through April 18, the Flying Squirrels went 10-42 in 52 games at The Diamond from April 20-August 10. Richmond's only home series win of the season prior was the first home set of the year against Hartford from April 4-7 prior to winning their final three home series. The Flying Squirrels went 14-8 in 22 road games from June 20-August 13.

A LITTLE EXTRA: The Flying Squirrels went to extra innings in six of seven games from August 17-23. That stretch included going to extras in five consecutive games from August 19-23. The Flying Squirrels went 3-3 in those six games. On August 17 against the Senators, Ryan Howard broke a scoreless tie in the bottom of the tenth with a walk-off single. On August 19 against the SeaWolves, Jacob Heyward hit a walk-off, pinch-hit grand slam in the bottom of the tenth for a 7-4 Richmond win. On August 21, the Flying Squirrels matched their longest game of the year by innings in a 13-inning, walk-off win over the SeaWolves. After trailing in the 10th, 11th, and 12th innings, Peter Maris hit a walk-off single in the bottom of the 13th for an 11-10 Richmond win.

FARGAS ON FIRE: In his final 61 games of the season from June 26 through September 1, Johneshwy Fargas hit .280 (53-for-189), tops on the team among qualified hitters. He finished the season with a team-best .249 batting average. He closed the season with a five-game hit streak, going 7-for-21 (.333).

EXTRA! EXTRA! The Flying Squirrels played 22 extra-inning games on the season, which was the most in all of MiLB and a franchise record (Akron and Lexington were tied for second with 19 extra-inning games each). Richmond went 8-15 in extra-inning games. The 15 extra-inning losses was a franchise record. The team played 15 extra-inning games at home, also a franchise record and the most in all of MiLB, and went 6-10 in those games.

CYR-IOUS: Reliever Tyler Cyr picked up the 26th save of his Flying Squirrels career on August 28 at Erie, tied for the second-most in a career in franchise history (Derek Law). Cyr trails only Daryl Maday (28) on the list. Cyr collected 18 saves for the Flying Squirrels in 2017, which ranked third in the Eastern League that year. He picked up three saves in 2018 before an elbow injury ended his season in May. He picked up five saves this year.

HALSTEAD'S TURNAROUND: Through his first seven appearances of the season, Ryan Halstead posted an 11.81 ERA, allowing two or more runs in four of those outings. He allowed seven runs over 2.0 innings in an outing at Hartford on April 16. Beginning May 5, Halstead went on to post a 1.72 ERA (11 ER/57.2 IP) over his final 27 games, including a 4.2-inning outing for Triple-A Sacramento. Halstead moved into the starting rotation late in the season and went 1-2 with a 2.67 ERA (8 ER/27.0 IP) in his six starts, the first starts of his career. The turnaround led him to being named the 2019 Flying Squirrels Pitcher of the Year.

LAYING DOWN THE LAW: In his 10 starts after the All-Star Break, Brandon Lawson went 3-4 with a 3.00 ERA (20 ER/60.0 IP), the lowest ERA for all pitchers on the Richmond staff who were primarily starters in that span. It was also the seventh-lowest in the league in that stretch. His best outing came on July 19 against Erie, when he allowed one hit over 8.0 scoreless innings against Erie at The Diamond. In that start, he took a no-hitter into the seventh inning before allowing a single by Jose Azocar.

HOWARD IN AUGUST: Over his last 23 games with the Flying Squirrels from August 8-30, Ryan Howard hit .286 (22-for-77) with a homer, four doubles and nine RBIs, raising his batting average from .203 to .223. He closed his time with Richmond for the year on a seven-game hitting streak from August 24-30, hitting .360 (9-for-25) with a homer and five RBIs.

KEEPING IT CLOSE: From July 25, 28 of the Flying Squirrels' 37 games were decided by two runs or less. In that span, the Flying Squirrels played 15 one-run games (8-7 record) and 13 two-run games (6-7). In that stretch, the Richmond bullpen posted a 2.86 combined ERA and the bullpen picked up 10 saves.

BART BASHING: In his last 13 games, Joey Bart hit .400 (20-for-50) with three homers, four doubles, a triple, eight RBIs and five walks. He tied a career high with four hits on August 26 at Erie and matched it again on August 29. On August 31, Bart lifted the Flying Squirrels to a 3-2 win over the Baysox with a two-run, walk-off double in the bottom of the 10th inning. Bart batted .412 in 10 games on the road, compared to .244 in his 12 games at The Diamond. He was named Eastern League Player of the Week on September 3 for the final week of the Eastern League season.

BARAGAR BACK TO FORM: Coming out of the All-Star Break, Caleb Baragar posted a 6.33 ERA (19 ER/27.0 IP) in his five starts from July 15-August 5. He recovered to go 2-1 with a 1.78 ERA (6 ER/30.1 IP) in his final five starts of the year, the fifth-best ERA in the league in that stretch. For the season overall, Baragar ranked eighth in the league in ERA (3.45), fourth in WHIP (1.05) and second in BAA (.192). He set new franchise records for the lowest WHIP (1.05), lowest average against (.192) and lowest average against as a starter (.191).

GUTI: Over his final six outings (five starts) of the season, Alfred Gutierrez went 3-0 with a 2.67 ERA (8 ER/27.0 IP). He tied a team high with 10 strikeouts in a 6.0-inning win over Harrisburg on August 18. He picked up his first save of the year in his lone relief appearance of 2019 in the season final on September 2. Gutierrez finished the season ranked tied for eighth in the Eastern League in wins (9), sixth in strikeouts (120), tied for first in game starts (26) and sixth in winning percentage (.640).

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER WRAP: The Flying Squirrels went 16-17 over the final 33 games across August and September. The pitching staff posted a 2.69 ERA in that stretch and the offense hit .219. For the month of August, the Richmond pitching staff posted a 2.84 ERA, second-best in the league, and the offense tied for last in the league with a .217 average. Johneshwy Fargas led the team with a .274 batting average, and Ryan Howard was second with a .250 average. Joey Bart led the offense with four homers. Heliot Ramos led the team with 15 RBIs. Jacob Heyward worked 24 walks, tied for the most in the Eastern League. Caleb Baragar led qualifying Richmond pitchers with a 2.60 ERA across his six starts. Brandon Lawson posted a 3.18 ERA in six starts and Alfred Gutierrez had a 3.34 ERA in six starts and one relief appearance.

CLOSING ON A HIGH NOTE: The Flying Squirrels won seven of their final eight games of the season, including a four-game sweep on the road over the Erie SeaWolves at UPMC Park and taking three of four against the Bowie Baysox at The Diamond. In that stretch, the Flying Squirrels outscored their opponents 41-27. The offense combined to hit .268 (69-for-257) with eight homers, eight doubles and three triples. The pitching staff posted a 2.61 ERA (20 ER/69.0 IP) and held opponents to a .215 batting average. The stretch was the only time all season the Flying Squirrels won seven games in an eight-game span.
