BEST OF THREE: Game 1 Wednesday, Sept. 5 • 7:05PM • P.K. Park, Eugene, Oregon

Games 2 & 3 Thu., Sept. 6 and (if necessary) Fri., Sept. 7 • 7:05PM • Ron Tonkin Field, Hillsboro, Oregon

TOP RIVALRY IN NORTHWEST LEAGUE

RESUMES: There is no question that Hillsboro and Eugene have the best rivalry in the NWL, and this will be the third straight year they have met in the South Division Series. See details on the rivalry on the next page.

SECOND TO ONE: The top ten 2018 regular season winning percentages in professional baseball, Class A to MLB (entering 9/5/18):

(Key: SS-A = short-season single-A; Adv-A = Advanced Class A)

NWL STANDINGS 2013-18

NWL cumulative regular season standings from the time the Hops entered the league in 2013 through the end of the 2018 season:

	W	L	PCT	GB
Hillsboro (AZ)	261	194	.574	---
Everett (SEA)	233	223	.511	28½
Vancouver (TOR)	231	223	.509	29½
Salem-Keizer (SF)	221	233	.487	39½
Spokane (TEX)	221	234	.486	40
Eugene (SD/CHC)	219	237	.480	42½
Tri-City (COL/SD)	218	238	.478	43½
Boise (CHC/COL)	217	239	.476	44½

NOTE: Cubs NWL affiliation (Boise 2013-14, Eugene 2015-18) is 244-212, 17½ games behind the D-backs affiliation, the Hops.

NOTE: Hops began first year 8-25 thru 33g; since 7/18/13, they are 253-169 (.600)

DRIVE FOR FIVE SUCCESSFUL: When they clinched a 2018 playoff berth by winning the first-half title back on July 20th, Hillsboro tied the NWL record by earning a playoff berth for the fifth consecutive season (matching the mark set by Vancouver from 2010-14). The NWL has been in existence for 64 years.

ALL GAS, NO BREAKS: There is no coasting for Hillsboro once a playoff berth is secured. The Hops won the South Division first-half flag in 2014, '15, '17 and '18... and each time, they also won the second half. Yes, the Hops have won EIGHT of the last 10 halves in the South, with Eugene winning the other two (both in 2016, with the Hops also advancing to the playoffs that year).

THEY REMEMBER: The Hops have four players who were on the postseason roster for the Hops' South Division Series loss to Eugene last year: OF Jorge Perez, OF Dan Swain, INF Ryan Tufts and LHP Kenny Hernandez. Perez was 1-for-5 in the Hops' two playoff games. Swain pinch-ran and scored a run in his only appearance. Tufts and Hernandez didn't play. ... 1B Francis Martinez and 3B Joey Rose were late-season call-ups to Hillsboro from the AZL in 2016, and were with the Hops for Hillsboro's first South Division Series loss to Eugene, though neither saw action.

ON THE AIR: The Hops' flagship station is NBC Sports Northwest Rip City Radio 620 AM in Portland, and online at ripcityradio.com.

All remaining games will air on Rip City Radio 620AM. Home games streamed live at MLB.tv. Radio pregame shows for all remaining games begin 30 minutes before the first pitch.

Rich Burk and Matt Richert call the action. Travis Demers will fill in on selected games.

HOPS & EMS THROUGH THE YEARS:

Hillsboro and Eugene have one of the best rivalries in minor league baseball. To wit:

June 17, 2013: Hops beat Eugene 12-0 in the first-ever game at Ron Tonkin Field.

August 28-30, 2013: Hops enter final home series of first season in first-place tie with six games remaining. Hillsboro drops 2 of 3 to Eugene—both losses by one run—to fall a game back; Hops finish a game out and miss playoffs.

July 20, 2014: Hops clinch 1st-half title in Eugene—Hillsboro’s first-ever playoff berth—with 3-2 win on next-to-last day of half. Go-ahead run scores on George Roberts’ routine 4-3 ground out in top of 9th when Eugene inexplicably plays infield back with runners on 1st & 3rd and none out. Ems manager Robbie Wine afterwards admits his mistake. Hops have raucous champagne celebration—endorsed by Ems’ front office—in visiting clubhouse at P.K. Park.

August 30-Sept. 1, 2014: Hops cap a 9-3 season mark against Eugene with a sweep of the Ems in Hillsboro in the final regular season series, part of a franchise-record eight-game winning streak (including playoffs). Hops would later win their first-ever NWL championship.

Sept. 4-6, 2015: Emeralds enter final 3 games of season at The Tonk needing ONE WIN to clinch the 2nd-half title (Hillsboro had won the 1st half). Eugene’s front office—with approval of the Hops’ front office—wheels in a cart of champagne before Friday’s first game of the series, but after 2-0 and 4-1 Hops wins, the bubbly is still unused. Hops lead final game 3-2 entering top 9th, and Eugene puts tying run at second with one out. Diving plays by 1B Trevor Mitsui and RF Stephen Dezzi end the game and Eugene’s season. Still-wrapped champagne is wheeled back to the car for the trip back to Eugene. Hops later win 2nd-straight NWL title.

Sept. 3-5, 2016: Eugene brings an eight game winning streak—and a remarkable 54-19 record—to Hillsboro for the final series of the regular season. Eugene had already won both halves—and they already knew Hillsboro would be their first-round playoff opponent. Hops seemingly gain momentum by sweeping three from Eugene to end the regular season.

Sept. 7-9, 2016: Hops & Ems square off in the postseason for the first time ever; Eugene had won both halves with a 54-22 record, but Hillsboro took Game One of the best-of-three South Division Series at Ron Tonkin Field when little-used C Jose Queliz hit a walkoff single in bottom of 10th. Eugene, however, takes game two at home 6-2 to force a deciding third game. In the most excruciating loss in Hops franchise history, Hillsboro goes 0-for-15 with runners in scoring position and loses 2-1. Ems advance to NWL Championship Series, where they beat Everett to win their first outright NWL title in 41 years. Some people predict that the end of the Ems’ drought means their parent club, the Cubs, will break their curse. Indeed, 50 days after Eugene wins their title, the Cubs win the World Series for the first time in 108 years.

Sept 6-7, 2017: The two clubs met for the second consecutive yera in the South Division Series. This time Hillsboro won both halves... and yet Eugene swept the series in two games.

In Game One in Eugene, the Hops led 2-1 entering the bottom of the 7th. The Ems tied it on a two-out 7th-inning single by Zach Davis, and went ahead on a two-out 8th-inning single by Gustavo Polanco. Eugene won 3-2

Back at Ron Tonkin Field for Game Two, Hillsboro scored a run in the bottom of the 8th to tie the game 4-4, but Eugene scored six times in the top of the 9th en route to a 10-4 win and a series sweep.

And this year: Eugene spoiled Hillsboro’s home opener on June 20th with a 4-3 win. Hillsboro went on to win both halves again, going 8-4 against the Ems during the regular season.

THROUGH THE BACK DOOR: What about other teams who—like the Emeralds this year—have entered the playoffs against a team that won both halves? It’s happened seven times in the previous eight seasons the NWL has used a split-season format, and the team that didn’t win either half has won three Division Series and lost four. (Two wins by the underdogs occurred in 2013, when Salem-Keizer in the South and Everett in the North each won both halves, but lost their division series to Boise and Vancouver respectively. And the third came last year when Eugene beat Hillsboro.)

SUSTAINED SUCCESS: In the six seasons since entering the NWL in 2013, the Hops lead the league in postseason appearances with 5:

Club	Playoff App.*	NWLCS App.*	NWL Titles*
Hillsboro	5	2	2
Everett	4	1	0
Spokane	4	0	0
Vancouver	3	3	2
Eugene	3	2	1
Salem-Keizer	2	0	0
Boise	2	1	0

* “Playoff appearances” are through 2018; “NWL Championship Series appearances” and “NWL Titles” are through 2017.

WELCOME TO THE HOPS: The Arizona Diamondbacks have added three players to the Hops’ roster for the postseason, all from Rookie-level Missoula (which missed the playoffs). This includes 1B Zack Shannon (who led the Pioneer League in batting average and home runs, and finished four RBIs short of winning the Triple Crown), C Zach Almond and 3B Buddy Kennedy. Detailed bios can be found on the following pages.

BUCK THIS TREND: The Hops are 0-3 in the postseason at P.K. Park—6-2 and 2-1 losses in 2016, and a 3-2 loss in 2017. In those three games, Hillsboro is 1-for-25 with runners in scoring position.

MONEY WELL SPENT: If the Hops win the NWL title this year, team owners Mike & Laura McMurray will have to buy a lot of championship rings. Hillsboro used 60 players in 2018, the most in the NWL, and three shy of the league record of 63... set in 2016, by the Hops. (Hillsboro added three new players from Rookie-level Missoula in the Pioneer League for the postseason, but league records don’t usually include postseason numbers.) Eugene used the second-most (58), while Vancouver used the fewest (41).

Yet, the number of players used can be misleading; there has been plenty of stability. Many seldom-used players have come and gone, while 22 players from the Hops’ current 35-player postseason roster were with the club as early as June. And an informal count shows only eight key contributors no longer with the club—OF Tra Holmes, SS Ryan Dobson, INF Jose Caballero, starting pitchers Adrian Del Moral and Franklyn Soriano, and relievers Luis Castillo, Kyler Stout and West Tunnell. All have been gone since July.

PITCHING & DEFENSE: Hillsboro won the league ERA title, with a staff mark of 3.24. They also had the fewest errors in the league, 58.

ONE-RUN WONDERS: Hillsboro went 22-7 in one-run games in 2018, and their all-time mark in one-run games is an incredible 93-51.

ODD STAT: Yes, Hillsboro had the best record in minor-league baseball (Class A and above)... but they just four wins by starting pitchers all year long. Why? They had three pitchers (Matt Mercer, Jackson Goddard and Ryan Weiss) who were drafted this year out of college and who were on strict innings limits; they never went the required five innings to be eligible for a win. And three others—Matt Tabor, Luis Frias and Adrian Del Moral—all began the season as teenagers, and as such were never allowed to work more than five innings.
