CAREER DAY FOR DE LEON PUSHES RIDERS TO SERIES WIN: Michael De Leon went 2-for-3 with a homer and a career-high five RBIs in a 7-3 win over Corpus Christi Monday morning. De Leon's three-run homer put the Riders on the board in the second and his two-run single made it 5-0 in the fourth. Corpus Christi managed just one run in six innings against Riders starter Wes Benjamin, who earned his third consecutive win.

OH, WHAT A TURNAROUND: Since starting the season 7-28 (lowest winning percentage in Minor League Baseball), the Riders have gone 7-2, including a five-game winning streak last Tuesday through Saturday.

MASHING AT THE PLATE: A big reason for the club's recent turnaround has been the resurgence of the club's bats.

ERUPTING FROM THE BOTTOM: The Riders were extremely productive from the bottom third of the order in the four-game series against Corpus Christi this weekend.

BACK-TO-BACK SERIES WINS: The Riders snagged their second consecutive series win yesterday and just their third this season. The club lost eight consecutive series (four sweeps) prior to taking a four-game set in Midland last week.

ATTENDANCE RECORD TOPPLED: Yesterday's crowd of 11,844 marked the largest crowd for a day game in team history and the fifth-largest crowd overall. The Riders lead all of Double-A in attendance and have done so each of the last 13 seasons.

COMING OFF THE DL REJUVENATED: Since coming off the DL May 11, catcher Jose Trevino has been a key contributor for the Riders at the plate.

- Trevino is 12-for-30 (.400) in his first nine games back with two doubles, a triple, three homers and seven RBIs. His average has increase from .184 to .245 during this stretch.
- He has hits in eight of his first nine games back (inlcuding a current seven-game hitting streak), with multiple hits in three.
- His triple last Sunday in San Antonio was the sixth of his career and first since August 13, 2015 with Class-A Hickory. The 2017 Texas League Midseason and Postseason All-Star missed 11 games after going on the DL April 29 with a right quad injury.

KEEPING THE BALL IN THE YARD: The Riders have only allowed two home runs in the last 12 games, improving on a tough start to the year in that statistical category.

Prior to this stretch, Frisco hurlers went 10 straight games with at least one long ball (17 total home runs). After ranking last in the league in homers allowed, the Riders no longer trail in the category, having yielded 51 long balls this year (seventh in the Texas League). Still, the group is on pace to allow 162 roundtrippers, which would surpass last year's franchise record of 146 and challenge the league's single-season record of 178 (Arkansas, 2006).
