HOME: 0-0 | AWAY: 2-3 | STREAK: L2 | LAST 5: 2-3 | LAST 10: 2-3

ROCKS DROP SERIES OPENER: For the second time in as many games, the Wilmington Blue Rocks (2-3) squandered a lead and fell to the Salem Red Sox (4-1) in the opening game of the series by the score of 6-2 Monday night at Haley Toyota Field. The Red Sox scored six unanswered runs to take the victory from Wilmington. Shortstop Angelo Castellano produced the offense for the Blue Rocks with a two-run home run while Kort Peterson had a three-hit game in the defeat.

SOLID EFFORT FROM STARTING ROTATION: Four of the five starters for the Blue Rocks allowed three earned runs or fewer through their first turn in the rotation. -Last night, Arnaldo Hernandez (5IP, ER -- WIL lost 6-2) -On Sunday, Gerson Garabito shined in his Class-A Advanced debut. (6IP, 0R, 9Ks) -Ofreidy Gomez (4.0 IP, 3 ER on Saturday @ POT -- WIL won 5-4)) -Cristian Castillo (4.2 IP, 2ER on Thursday @POT -- WIL won 5-3)

GOING THE EXTRA BASE:

-Of the 38 hits for the Blue Rocks through the first five games, 14 of them have gone for extra-bases. -Six different players have hit at least one double and four different players have hit one home run. -Third baseman Emmanuel Rivera and outfielder Khalil Lee are tied for the early lead in the CL in extra-base hits with four apiece. -Rivera has three doubles and a home run to his ledger while Lee has two doubles, a triple and homer.

LEE PLAYING BEYOND HIS AGE: As one of the youngest players in the CL at just 19-years-old, Khalil Lee has shown early on that he can handle Class-A Advanced pitching. -Through his first five games, the top prospect has hit .412 (7-for-17) with four runs scored, three runs batted in, six walks and has 14 total bases.

-Carolina League Rankings: First in slugging-percentage (.824) tied for second in hits (7), runs scored (4), second in on-base percentage (.565) and tied for third in batting average (.412).

RUN, RUDY, RUN!: Outfielder Rudy Martin is wasting no time taking advantage of his blazing speed on the base paths.

-Martin has swiped seven bases and has yet to be caught. The rest of the team has five SB. -He leads the CL in the department and no other player in the league has more than three stolen bases. Also leads all of MiLB with his mark. -In his career, Martin has stolen 69 bases and has only been caught 11 times.

SHOWING A BETTER EYE AT THE PLATE:

-Compiled 29 strikeouts and just one walk through the first two games of season. -In the last three games, Wilmington has drawn 27 walks and have struck out 29 times. -The Blue Rocks lead the league with 58 strikeouts, but also pace the circuit with 28 walks.

LOOKING FOR CLUTCH HITS: The Blue Rocks have had plenty of opportunities to cash in and score runs to start the season. However, they have been unable to find the clutch hit.

-Wilmington is hitting just .140 (7-for-50) with RISP. -Mark is only better than Lynchburg, who is hitting just .103 (4-for-39) in that situation.

FAMILIAR FOE IN SALEM: The Blue Rocks face another Northern Division foe in the Salem Red Sox to start the week. These two teams will meet 26 times in 2018 with the first six meetings being played in Salem.

-Last season, Wilmington took the head-to-head series 14-13 which included the Blue Rocks eliminating Salem of playoff contention in the first half. -The Blue Crew have won 6 of their last 10 games against the Red Sox dating back to last season.

PROSPECTS AND FAMILIAR FACES GALORE:

-The 2018 roster features 12 returning players from 2017 and five top-30 prospects according to both Baseball America and MLB.com.

-Entering the season, outfielder Khalil Lee (#1 by MLB.com/#2 per Baseball America), catchers Chase Vallot (#12 B.A./#26 MLB.com) and Meibrys Vilorio (#18 MLB.com/#24 B.A.), right-hander Gerson Garabito (#16 B.A. / #30 MLB.com) and infielder Emmanuel Rivera (#11 MLB.com/#27 B.A.) are the top-30 prospects listed by each publication. -Other returners include Anthony Bender, D.J. Burt, Justin Camp, Cristian Castillo, Chris DeVito, Grant Gavin, Nick Heath, Kort Peterson, Jared Ruxer, Walker Sheller, and Chase Vallot.

TONIGHT'S BLUE ROCKS STARTING PITCHER

#43 LHP Cristian Castillo

Acquired: Signed as non-drafted free agent on December 15, 2014 by Kansas City

Born: Monterrey, Mexico

Age: 23 (Sept. 25, 1994)

Resides: Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico

Ht: 6'0 Wt: 190

Bats/Throws: L/L

Pitch Repertoire: Fastball, Changeup, Curveball, Slider

THE BOOK ON CRISTIAN CASTILLO: Castillo signed as a 20-year-old out of Mexico in December of 2014 and returns to Wilmington for his second season. In 2017, he went 7-12 with a 4.13 ERA in 26 starts. Last season with Wilmington, the lefty was a Carolina League All-Star and was one of the best pitchers leading up to the mid-summer classic with a 5-1 record and 2.32 ERA during May and June. He also ranked fifth overall in the Carolina League in innings pitched at season's end. The southpaw allowed three earned runs or less in 19 of his 26 starts with the Blue Rocks last season. Since joining the Royals' organization, all he has done in three pro seasons is rack up the accolades at every level he's pitched at. Castillo earned the Appalachian League Pitcher of the Year in 2016 by going 6-3 with a 3.13 ERA, 73 strikeouts and just 14 free passes in 72 frames. He led the league in innings pitched, strikeouts and WHIP, and was fourth in earned run average. In his first season in the system in 2015, he was named the Royals Pitcher of the Year for their Dominican Summer League when he posted a 2.64 ERA, fanned 58 and walked only 15 in 67.1 innings worked. Despite all of his awards for excellence, the six-foot, 190-pounder is not ranked among the Royals top-30 prospects by Baseball America or MLB.com. He did however impress the Royals brass enough to jump both Rookie Idaho Falls and Low-A Lexington a year ago to begin the season with Advanced-A Wilmington. The southpaw was the Opening Day starter for the Blue Rocks and he did not factor in the decision on April 5 at Potomac. He allowed two earned runs on five hits in 4.2 innings of work. He walked two and also struck out a pair of batters.

WHAT HE LEARNED FROM 2017: Making the kind of jump Castillo did can be a tough adjustment for many young pitchers due to the length of the season and the constant stress on a players body. Castillo recognized the challenges first hand. "I learned how to work during a long season. It was my first year in full-season baseball and it showed me I had to work a little more this offseason to be ready for this year. Last year, I felt a little tired but I think that was part of the process. Now, I feel ready for this season. I worked hard on my conditioning, my legs and I lifted weights to be ready for spring. As a pitcher, legs are always a key when you are on the mound. I believe that and being healthy overall is the most important thing. Without having health, you can't pitch."

ON HIS ABILITY TO THROW FOUR QUALITY PITCHES: Although Castillo has yet to be tabbed a top-30 prospect, scouts are impressed with the southpaw's ability to command all four pitches. Castillo thinks the command of his repertoire is vital to his success. "That's helped me a lot in my career. I can throw whatever pitch I want no matter the count. This year, I want to try and throw my slider more. It's become a really good pitch and I have it faster than my curveball, but for me it doesn't matter. I will throw all my pitches, but the slider is something I want to work on." Castillo said he wants to incorporate his entire arsenal right from the start this season. "I had the slider last year, but I didn't use it enough. To start the season, I used only three of my pitches and in the second season I used my slider to give me four pitches. This year, I will start throwing my slider in my first start."

PROUD OF HIS HERITAGE: Castillo always cracks a smile when asked what it means to represent his home country of Mexico. "I feel proud to represent my country. I always like to listen to Mexican music before every start in the clubhouse. It helps me get ready and give more than 100% every game." He also grew up idolizing a popular Los Angeles Dodgers pitcher and fellow Mexico native. "I really enjoy watching Fernando Valenzuela who is the most famous player from Mexico and he's a left-hander. So I try to learn from what he did during his games. I never had the chance to meet him, but I was able to learn about him from my family. They taught me a lot about him. Now, I can watch videos of him pitching and enjoy it. Here in the U.S. you face a lot of good hitters and talented players every day. But in Mexico, you need to play very well and be the best you can just to get the chance to be able to play here."

BEING NAMED OPENING DAY STARTER VS. CL-ALL STAR: Being named an All-Star and then Opening Day starter a year later could give young pitchers added excitement. For Castillo, the calm demeanor he possesses on the mound translates off the field as well. "It made me proud (to be named Opening Day Starter) because I know I've been working hard to help the team. For me it doesn't matter. Both are really great and I'm just happy I can represent my team and organization."

They said it: (On his style of play)...That's my game, speed and getting on and creating havoc on the bases. I told myself I had two pitches and then I'm out...It took its own form (on 62-game on-base streak). I pretty much just rolled with it. I ended the season in Idaho and pretty much knew about my streak but when I started in Lexington in 2016. I didn't even think about it. (On what is important to him on the field) I think defense is the number one key to me. That helps wins games. I know hitting does too but if you have pitching and defense, that can help make a run in the playoffs... (On players he tries to emulate) I know Brandon Phillips doesn't really run like that but I compare myself to him. Jose Altuve as well."

Was recipient of 2017 Carlos Fortuna Award which awarded to a player who is dedicated to improving his English, genuine work ethic and conduct. 2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League)
 -Hit .245 with eight homers and 43 RBI in 116 games.
 -Ranked in the top-five on the team in multiple categories including walks (2nd, 51), stolen bases (3rd, 19), run scored (3rd, 63), games played (4th, 116) and hits (4th, 106).
 -Had 29 multi-hit games, including a trio of four-hit games.
 -Hit eight home runs in 433 at-bats (54.1 AB/HR) after hitting just two homers in his previous 957 at-bats (478.5 AB/HR).

 -Hit .283 with a pair of homers and 47 RBI in 64 games.
 -Struck out once every 10.50 plate appearances, the fifth-best rate in the league.

They said it: (On playing in most games in career last year)..."It's hard to do it that for the first time. I had to make a lot of adjustments and work every day. It's 140 games which is a lot more than where I was two years ago where I just played in 60 games. It was more of a mental adjustment for me. It's a lot of playing and a lot of games. If you didn't do good one week, you have to keep working. I dealt with my struggles by staying positive, trust in the process and come to work every day...(On who helped him get through the season) My hitting coach last year in Lexington really helped me a lot and talked to me a lot. My teammates as well, including (Meibrys) Vilorio also helped me a lot...(On Winning Carlos Fortuna Award) That means a lot to me. I knew Carlos Fortuna and he was a great person. The organization recognized me and how I am like him in some ways and that means a lot to me...(On learning how to speak English) It's been hard. I didn't know too much when I came to the United States. I try to keep close to the American teammates and talk to them. I don't try to use a lot of translation because the more I talk to people without help, the more I can learn...(Coming to the United States) I first came in 2008 with my family and went to Orlando for a week on vacation. We went to Disney World and it was a lot of fun. I came later in 2013 and went to Kansas City because I won the Player of the Year in the Dominican Summer League...(Culture shock moving to U.S.) In the Dominican Leagues you are just in the complexes that they have 24/7. Here in the United States, we go to hotels, we can walk to different places, go to dinner and it is a bit of a shock...(Goals this season) I just want to keep going and have better numbers and stay healthy. It's a long season and I want to do what I can to help the team win."

They said it:(On what led to great success in Lexington to start the 2017 season)"Honestly, my teammates. My first couple of games weren't very good and my teammates knew I could do it, they had my back and I couldn't have done it without my teammates and the great coaching staff we have down there...(On attending the University of New Mexico) I loved that school. Great school, great place to hit. Coach (Ray) Birmingham is a great head coach and knows what he is talking about with hitting. His support staff as well with Buddy Goldsmith, Ken (Jacome), the pitching coach, and Tony Cappuccilli were all great coaches and had great team environment there...(on moving from California to New Mexico) It is definitely different. It was the best place for me to go play baseball. My best friend from high school, Jared Holly, went to New Mexico first. He was a sophomore there my freshman year and he helped me in a lot of ways to make the transition easier...(On transition from catcher to first base.)..I absolutely love it. Catching is rough, I respect those guys for being back there. Those guys grind and put their bodies on the line. Being at first is definitely a lot easier on the body... (On hitting for the cycle) Absolutely not, I've never done that before I was just super happy to get the win and happy to contribute. (If cycle was in his mind after the triple) A little bit, but not much. I know (triples) are incredibly hard to get and I'm not a big triples guy. I was just happy to get it done early and didn't have to worry about it."

2017 Notes: Started the season with Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League)

 -Stole 36 bags which led the Pioneer League and were ten more than anyone else in the league.
 -He finished with the third most stolen bases of any farmhand in the Royals system.

They said it: (On injury earlier last season) I got hurt in (Low-A) Lexington, pulled my hamstring. I went down to Arizona (Rookie League) for a while, rehabbed it. I took that rehab processes really seriously so I could get back on the field. I thought I would end up going back to Lexington to keep on playing, but they ended up asking me to come up to Wilmington and hop in the lineup. Like I said, I took that rehab process pretty seriously. I guess leg injuries aren't too much to mess around with and I want to be able to stay on the field and try to contribute to the team....
(On having any other major injuries during career) I had Tommy John surgery, but that was back in college. In my professional career, the (hamstring injury) was the first injury I've had. My first leg injury as well, so it was kind of new to me; the steps, the process to get through it. A little bit of prayer and a little bit of work with our trainers, I'm able to get back on the field. (On seeing familiar faces with the Rocks) I think it makes that transition to a different level of ball easier. You are not so in awe of everything that is going on. You are realizing you are really cool with the guys that are around you and you fit in with them so it makes that transition easier, a lot more fun and less hectic....I think what led to the success (with Idaho Falls) was me buying into the process that these guys told me to buy into when they first drafted me. It was kind of new to me how they did everything around here. The offseason and prepping myself before games, staying up the middle and being able to go the other way, not necessarily pull the ball so much, just try to get myself on base, let my legs work and do what it can for the team. I think that helped me out a lot. It took a lot of stress and pressure off of me at the plate....(If base stealing is majority of his game) "I wouldn't say (stealing) is the name of my game. I definitely want to get on and be able to score runs, put myself into a position where guys get pitches that they can drive and make the pitcher have to work when I'm on base. Stealing bases helps me out, helps the team out and I just want to do whatever I can to help the team win."

I just want to continue that success and keep it going...(On initial impressions of playing outfield at Frawley Stadium) If you are going to be a center fielder or an outfielder in general here, you're going to need to have speed to cover a lot of ground. I feel like this ballpark is just what I need...(On being highly regarded high school pitcher) I miss it sometimes and want to get out there. I try to beg my managers to let me go out there for one inning. I do miss it and it was a lot of fun...(On being born in Newark, DE) My parents lived here a few years and I'm sure they had a great time. We don't talk too much about Delaware because they are from Baltimore. I definitely think they will be happy to come back to watch me play...(On his goals for the season) I want to keep progressing as a hitter and a teammate as well. One of my goals it to be a Carolina League All-Star So I want to do that and hopefully move up to the next level...(Something people might not know about him) I like to dance a lot. It might be during batting practice, a pitching change that's just something I like to do...(On any other skills he has) I played the saxophone in middle school. I don't know if I could still play now, but I was pretty good at it."

 -Was promoted to Wilmington in early June and played in just 11 games with the Blue Rocks after suffering a season-ending injury to his shoulder two weeks later.
 -In the small sample size, Peterson showed some pop in his bat. He went 13-for-39 at the plate (.333) with three doubles, two triples and a home run.

2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League).
 -Hit a team-leading .347 to go along with 21 extra-base hits (12 doubles, four triples, five home runs).
 -He also paced the league with his .437 on-base percentage.
 -Was named the Burlington Player of the Year for his efforts in his professional debut in addition to earning Appalachian League postseason All-Star and MLB.com Organization All-Star honors.

They said it: (On his season-ending injury in 2017) "It came at a bad time because I was starting to get a little hot. When it happened, I definitely knew something was wrong. I wasn't sure if it was season-ending or not, unfortunately it turned out to be that way. After that, I was hoping to be back soon. A month passed, I went to Arizona and did a lot of stimulation work to try and get my deltoid fired up and get it working again. Throughout the whole offseason I did that. I've been strengthening the muscles around it in case it doesn't come back. Unfortunately, nothing much has changed too much, but all the muscles around it have gotten a lot stronger. It's been a crazy process and hopefully my deltoid will come back. I played great in Spring Training without it so we'll see what happens... (How it has changed his game) It's definitely been a struggle with fatigue. It gets tired more quickly, especially throwing and hitting. I've made some adjustments so it doesn't fatigue as fast. I moved my elbow a little lower in my stance and my trap has compensated a lot for the loss for throwing. I was struggling with that in the offseason in terms of the strength, but it's getting better and things are looking up... (Playing in cold weather coming back from injury) I actually do like playing in cold weather. I come from a foggy beach town, so I'm used to the cold weather and overcast skies. It doesn't bother me. Obviously, if you still get jammed, it's going to hurt your hands pretty bad. In regards to my injury, I can't feel my shoulder. So it doesn't bother me either in hot or cold weather... (Having some experience in Wilmington) I'm very happy that I played a little bit here last year. I know what I'm getting myself into regarding what the area is like, what the ballparks are like and what some of the other teams are like. Especially to know how Frawley Stadium plays because the air is a little thick and you aren't going to hit too many home runs. I think it's good to know how each ballpark plays and that's a good thing."

They said it: (On success in Lexington last season) Just going to the cages every day with my hitting coach in Lexington really helped me. We did a bunch of different drills hitting of the tee and front toss. I continued to work hard every day and it was a good year... (On bouncing back after tough first two seasons in system)...The first two seasons in the organization was very hard for me. I never saw pitchers throw 90-94 m.p.h. It took me about a season to get adjusted to that kind of pitching. Last year, I was able to see the pitches better and it was great. It's important to make adjustments and I was late at the plate when I first started and worked on my timing and now I feel comfortable... (On going through a transition on defense)...Before I was signed, I played shortstop. After my first practice, the coaches moved me to third base. I played shortstop for five years before joining the Royals. I miss it sometimes. I played it since I was five years old. At third base, the reaction time is the biggest difference from the two positions. It takes a lot of practice to get better with my reaction... (On coming to the U.S.)...I came to the U.S. four years ago and the biggest difference was the language. I try to speak English the best I can. My family and friends are still in Puerto Rico and were affected by Hurricane Irma. They had no lights, no gas, no power for months. It was bad. I've talked to my friends and family and they were telling me how bad it was. It's getting better now, but where I grew up, it was hit by the storm. My family still lives in the house I grew up and it was damaged."

They said it: (On thoughts on 2017 season) "Definitely could have been better. From an overall standpoint, strikeouts could have been a little high, batting average was kind of low. This year (I'm) being more aggressive and swinging at a lot more pitches that are strikes... (On season-ending injury) It was very frustrating. Whatever had happened, we were in Carolina and I didn't play for probably about seven days and then the team decided they were going to send me to Kansas City to get MRI's and X-Rays and stuff. So I went there and got the X-Rays and the MRI and the team physician decided it would be in my best interest to shut it down for the rest of the year so the injury doesn't get worse and once I had heard that, it just didn't feel good. It was kind of like a stab. There's nothing you can do about that. You just got to bounce back and continue to move forward. God has plan for everybody and I just had to deal with it at the time... (On ability to speak Spanish and using it during games) I do. It depends on who's on the mound. Some guys are fringe on English so I try to my best in Spanish. I've been practicing since I got to pro ball. It's getting a lot better. Still not 100%

They Said It: (Thoughts on last season) "It was a long season last year. I tried to go out and play hard every night. I started out struggling, but I worked with my hitting coach and it helped me a lot. I watched a lot of video on my swing to watch my mechanics. I hit with a leg kick which is more difficult. If you don't have your timing down with a leg kick, you don't have a chance. I had to make adjustments mentally during the first month of the season. If you aren't strong mentally, you can't play this game... (On feeling pressure as one of the youngest player in the SAL) I felt pressure being in A-ball for the first time in my career. I just wanted to go out and just play. I wanted to just play my game and put the ball in play... (Lifestyle in Colombia) It's too hot. Where I'm from in Cartagena it is really hot. We have everything though. We have a lot of beaches and lakes and it's fun. I miss the food the most, especially the fish. I miss my family too. They won't be able to see me play this year because of a family matter, but maybe next year."
