BLUE ROCKS BREAKDOWN

HOME: 4-5 | AWAY: 5-6 | STREAK: W1 | LAST 5: 2-3 | LAST 10: 5-5

BLUE ROCKS BLANK P-NATS TO SALVAGE SERIES: Timely hitting and dominant pitching powered the Wilmington Blue Rocks to a 5-0 win over the Potomac Nationals to salvage the three-game series Thursday night at Frawley Stadium. Brandon Downes smacked a home run in his season debut while right-hander Arnaldo Hernandez worked around early trouble to throw five scoreless innings and earned the win. Emmanuel Rivera paced the offense with three hits and also drove in a run. The victory also snapped a three-game losing streak for the Blue Crew.

QUITE THE DEBUT: Outfielder Brandon Downes made his 2018 debut Thursday night and put together a solid game at the plate. He hit a two-run home run in the fourth inning to ignite the offense and also drew two walks. Downes is no stranger to playing in Wilmington and is now in his fourth stint with the Blue Crew. Last season, the South Plainfield, N.J. native led the Rocks with 13 home runs despite battling through two injuries (hip and broken hamate bone) and played in just 71 games. In 2016, he also paced the team with 12 home runs and hit .230 in 130 games.

LONG BALL FUN: With Brandon Downes' two-run blast Thursday night, the Rocks have now clubbed a home run in 12 of the first 20 games.

-That also includes six consecutive games from April 9-14 where the Rocks hit a home run.
-The streak started on April 9 at Salem when Angelo Castellano hit his first home run as a Blue Rock. Xavier Fernandez, Vallot, Rudy Martin, Khalil Lee and Meibrys Vilorio all left the yard during the six-game stretch.

-Wilmington went 2-4 during that span and are 6-6 overall when they hit a home run this season.

-The Rocks are third in the Carolina League with 13 home runs.

-Last season, the Blue Rocks did not hit double digit home runs until May 1.

LEE PLAYING BEYOND HIS AGE: As one of the youngest players in the CL at just 19-years-old, Khalil Lee has shown that he can handle Carolina League pitching.

-He picked up his third, multi-RBI game of the season Wednesday night.

-Rankings in CL: Tied for second in walks (17), 6th in OBP% (.429) and 7th in OPS (.882).

-He is top-five on the team in hits (.882, 1st), hits (17, 2nd), HR (2, T-2nd), runs (10, 2nd), RBI (11, T-2nd)

-He had his 11-game on-base streak snapped on April 18.

-During the streak, he hit .378 (14-for-37) with three doubles, a triple, two home runs, six RBI, 10 walks and posted a 1.186 OPS.

-He also has picked up a hit in all but six games played this season.

ROLLING ON THE RIVERA: Third baseman Emmanuel Rivera has been the most consistent bat in the Wilmington lineup over the last 10 games.

-He posted his first three-hit game of the season and drove in a run Thursday night.

-In his last 10 games, he is hitting .316 (12-for-38) with five runs scored and nine RBI.

-Rivera had his eight-game hitting streak snapped Tuesday night, against Potomac.

-He hit .313 (10-for-32) during the stretch.

-It marked the longest hitting streak by a Blue Rock this season.

-He has also been a run producer and leads the team with 13 RBI.

-Has collected a hit in all but five games this season.

-Coming off 2017 season in which he won the South Atlantic League batting title (.310 in 122 gms)

RUDY BEING RUDY: Rudy Martin continues his success as the Blue Rocks' leadoff hitter.

-Martin picked up a hit and stole a base Thursday and was also the catalyst in the Rocks' early offense in both Tuesday and Wednesday against Potomac.

-On April 19 at Frederick, Martin finished 3-for-5, falling a home run shy of the cycle.

-He also tied a career-high with five RBI in the victory.

-His 14 stolen bases are also the most in the Carolina League, MiLB and MLB. (Trea Turner of Washington has 10 in MLB)

-First in the CL with 20 walks, which is also second-most in all of MiLB.

-Also is second in the Carolina League in on-base percentage (.444).

-In his career, he has stolen 76 bases and only caught 14 times.

RUNNING ROCKS: As a team, Wilmington is second in the Carolina League with 36 stolen bases and have only been caught six times this season. Buies Creek leads the CL with 43.

-Overall, the Blue Rocks have five different players with multiple stolen bases this season.

-Martin (14), Nick Heath (7), D.J. Burt (6), Lee (5) and Gabriel Cancel (2).

-On April 7, at Potoamc, the Rocks set a franchise single-game record by swiping five bases. Martin stole three, while Burt and Heath each swiped a bag in a 5-4 win for Wilmington. The Blue Crew matched the mark on 4/14 at home against Lynchburg.

DASHES ON THE DASH: The 2018 roster for the Winston-Salem Dash is arguably the most prospect-laden squad in the Carolina League. The current roster features eight of the Chicago White Sox top-30 prospects per Baseball America. Outfielder Luis Robert (No. 4) leads the way but is on the disabled list. The other notable names on the roster are outfielders Blake Rutherford (No. 8), Micker Adolfo (No. 17), Luis Alexander Basabe (No. 18), Jake Call (No. 21), infielder Gavin Sheets (No. 9), and pitchers Dylan Cease (No. 10) and Bernardo Flores (No. 26) round out the talented group. The Dash are managed by first-year skipper Omar Vizquel. Vizquel, a 24-year MLB veteran, was a three-time All-Star and won 11 Gold Gloves, the second-most by a shortstop. He started his career with the Seattle Mariners (1989-1993) before enjoying most of his success with the Cleveland Indians (1994-2004). He then moved on to play for the San Francisco Giants (2005-2008), spent a season with the Texas Rangers (2009) before playing his final three seasons with the Chicago White Sox (2010-11) and the Toronto Blue Jays (2012).

THEY SAID IT, MANAGER DARRYL KENNEDY: (On series finale win): "Any time you can stop a losing streak before it gets out of hand is always big. A couple disappointing losses the last couple nights, but we were able to put it together (Thursday night). The pitching did a great job for us tonight. It was still a close game up until the seventh inning, but I thought we worked out of some jams and made some pitches when we really needed it and that was the difference."

Tonight's Starters

TODAY'S BLUE ROCKS STARTING PITCHER

#43 LHP Cristian Castillo

Acquired: Signed as non-drafted free agent on December 15, 2014 by Kansas City

Born: Monterrey, Mexico

Age: 23 (Sept. 25, 1994)

Resides: Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico

Ht: 6'0 Wt: 190

Bats/Throws: L/L

Pitch Repertoire: Fastball, Changeup, Curveball, Slider

THE BOOK ON CRISTIAN CASTILLO: Castillo signed as a 20-year-old out of Mexico in December of 2014 and returns to Wilmington for his second season. In 2017, he went 7-12 with a 4.13 ERA in 26 starts. Last season with Wilmington, the lefty was a Carolina League All-Star and was one of the best pitchers leading up to the mid-summer classic with a 5-1 record and 2.32 ERA during May and June. He also ranked fifth overall in the Carolina League in innings pitched at season's end. The southpaw allowed three earned runs or less in 19 of his 26 starts with the Blue Rocks last season. Since joining the Royals' organization, all he has done in three pro seasons is rack up the accolades at every level he's pitched at. Castillo earned the Appalachian League Pitcher of the Year in 2016 by going 6-3 with a 3.13 ERA, 73 strikeouts and just 14 free passes in 72 frames. He led the league in innings pitched, strikeouts and WHIP, and was fourth in earned run average. In his first season in the system in 2015, he was named the Royals Pitcher of the Year for their Dominican Summer League when he posted a 2.64 ERA, fanned 58 and walked only 15 in 67.1 innings worked. Despite all of his awards for excellence, the six-foot, 190-pounder is not ranked among the Royals top-30 prospects by Baseball America or MLB.com. He did however impress the Royals brass enough to jump both Rookie Idaho Falls and Low-A Lexington a year ago to begin the season with Advanced-A Wilmington. The southpaw was the Opening Day starter for the Blue Rocks this season. In his last time out on April 21 at Frederick, he did not factor in the decision and allowed a career-high eight earned runs and tied his career-high with 11 hits allowed in 2.2 innings of work. In each of his previous three starts, he allowed just three earned runs or less.

WHAT HE LEARNED FROM 2017: Making the kind of jump Castillo did can be a tough adjustment for many young pitchers due to the length of the season and the constant stress on a player's body. Castillo recognized the challenges first hand. "I learned how to work during a long season. It was my first year in full-season baseball and it showed me I had to work a little more this offseason to be ready for this year. Last year, I felt a little tired but I think that was part of the process. Now, I feel ready for this season. I worked hard on my conditioning, my legs and I lifted weights to be ready for spring. As a pitcher, legs are always a key when you are on the mound. I believe that and being healthy overall is the most important thing. Without having health, you can't pitch."

ON HIS ABILITY TO THROW FOUR QUALITY PITCHES: Although Castillo has yet to be tabbed a top-30 prospect, scouts are impressed with the southpaw's ability to command all four pitches. Castillo thinks the command of his repertoire is vital to his success. "That's helped me a lot in my career. I can throw whatever pitch I want no matter the count. This year, I want to try and throw my slider more. It's become a really good pitch and I have it faster than my curveball, but for me it doesn't matter. I will throw all my pitches, but the slider is something I want to work on." Castillo said he wants to incorporate his entire arsenal right from the start this season. "I had the slider last year, but I didn't use it enough. To start the season, I used only three of my pitches and in the second season I used my slider to give me four pitches. This year, I will start throwing my slider in my first start."

PROUD OF HIS HERITAGE: Castillo always cracks a smile when asked what it means to represent his home country of Mexico. "I feel proud to represent my country. I always like to listen to Mexican music before every start in the clubhouse. It helps me get ready and give more than 100% every game." He also grew up idolizing a popular Los Angeles Dodgers pitcher and fellow Mexico native. "I really enjoy watching Fernando Valenzuela who is the most famous player from Mexico and he's a left-hander. So I try to learn from what he did during his games. I never had the chance to meet him, but I was able to learn about him from my family. They taught me a lot about him. Now, I can watch videos of him pitching and enjoy it. Here in the U.S. you face a lot of good hitters and talented players every day. But in Mexico, you need to play very well and be the best you can just to get the chance to be able to play here."

BEING NAMED OPENING DAY STARTER VS. CL-ALL STAR: Being named an All-Star and then Opening Day starter a year later could give young pitchers added excitement. For Castillo, the calm demeanor he possesses on the mound translates off the field as well. "It made me proud (to be named Opening Day Starter) because I know I've been working hard to help the team. For me it doesn't matter. Both are really great and I'm just happy I can represent my team and organization."

Notes: Drafted in the 26th round of the 2016 June MLB Amateur Draft by Kansas City out of University of California Irvine. He went to the College World Series as a freshman. 2018 Notes: Longest H.S./O.B.S.: +2 (4/20-4/21) / 4/20 - present) -Made season debut on 4/20 @ FRE and went 2-for-4. 2017 Notes: Started the season with Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) -In 52 games he hit .323 with four home runs and 21 RBI. Also clubbed 12 doubles and a triple. -Posted a .416 on-base percentage during that span. -Hit first-career Adv. A home run on 8/22 @ Frederick with a solo homer. Also finished the game with his first three-hit contest as a Blue Rock (3-for-4, R, HR, RBI, SO) 2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Royals (Arizona League/Rookie) and Wilmington Blue Rocks. -Hit .343 with nine doubles, a triple and drove in 24 runs in AZL. -Ranked second in the Arizona League in batting average, and third in hits and on-base percentage (.395). -Played in three games with the Blue Rocks and collected three hits in 12 at-bats. They said it: "Going to the College World Series was awesome, one of the best experiences of my life. UC Irvine was a great program. They helped me get better every year. It's amazing how much better you can get year-by-year when you look back. That's the goal to continue. When you look back and you weren't better than you were last year, that's a problem. That's what UC Irvine did for me. It's a great school, great facility, and has great coaches. To be able to go the College World Series, which is everyone's dream, lives up to the hype and then some. For anyone that wants to go and check it off their bucket list, I highly suggest it... (On recruiting for UC Irvine) It's tough to get recruits for some reason. They always want to go to USC or UCLA for some reason. Even with the amazing coaching and facilities at Irvine, getting those amazing prospects isn't as easy. They have to do a good job of recruiting the best players they can. Once they get there it's about creating that style of play that is consistent. If everyone plays to that style, they can be very successful when that happens. They helped me learn to be scrappy, learn to play different positions, and be that type of player so I owe a lot to what I learned there... (On facilities at UC Irvine) The field (at UC Irvine) is unbelievable. Nolan Arenado comes, Albert Pujols comes, Skip Schumaker comes and they all take ground balls at our field. They say there is really no big league field that is better. That was one of the biggest draws to me. Mike Guillespie, the head coach there, actually coached my dad when he was in college. He is a legend. My dad told me you are going to learn a lot from him and I did. Continued success for Irvine year in and year out is owed to him and the coaching staff... Player he idolizes: Michael Young, who played for my dad, is truly the person I idolized growing up. I tried to emulate him on the field, his swing, his defensive prowess of playing a bunch of different positions, and how he handles himself off the field. Just watching that, he is a great role model. Him and Skip Schumaker, who also played from my dad, are two great role models I've been able to watch, interact with, text, and work with. It's been a blessing to see these guys and their careers. Now they are both retired but they still stay in contact with me. They don't have to do anything like

Notes: Signed as a non-drafted free agent by Kansas City on July 16, 2011. Was named Dominican Summer League Player of the Year in 2013. Was recipient of 2017 Carlos Fortuna Award which awarded to a player who is dedicated to improving his English, genuine work ethic and conduct. Has versatility in the infield and can play second base, short-stop and third base. 2018 Notes: Longest H.S./O.B.S.: +5 (4/21 - present) / +5, twice, (4/6-4/11 & 4/21 - present) -Currently riding a five-game hit streak and hitting .333 during stretch. (6-for-18, 2R, 2RBI) -Posted first multi-hit game of the season on 4/26 vs. POT. -Hit first-career Adv. A home run on 4/9 @ Salem (2-R HR) 2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) -Hit .245 with eight homers and 43 RBI in 116 games. -Ranked in the top-five on the team in multiple categories including walks (2nd, 51), stolen bases (3rd, 19), run scored (3rd, 63), games played (4th, 116) and hits (4th, 106). -Had 29 multi-hit games, including a trio of four-hit games. -Hit eight home runs in 433 at-bats (54.1 AB/HR) after hitting just two homers in his previous 957 at-bats (478.5 AB/HR). 2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Idaho Falls Chukars (Rookie/Pioneer League) -Hit .283 with a pair of homers and 47 RBI in 64 games. -Struck out once every 10.50 plate appearances, the fifth-best rate in the league. They said it: (On playing in most games in career last year) ..."It's hard to do it that for the first time. I had to make a lot of adjustments and work every day. It's 140 games which is a lot more than where I was two years ago where I just played in 60 games. It was more of a mental adjustment for me. It's a lot of playing and a lot of games. If you didn't do good one week, you have to keep working. I dealt with my struggles by staying positive, trust in the process and come to work every day... (On who helped him get through the season) My hitting coach last year in Lexington really helped me a lot and talked to me a lot. My teammates as well, including (Meibrys) Vilorio also helped me a lot... (On Winning Carlos Fortuna Award) That means a lot to me. I knew Carlos Fortuna and he was a great person. The organization recognized me and how I am like him in some ways and that means a lot to me... (On learning how to speak English) It's been hard. I didn't know too much when I came to the United States. I try to keep close to the American teammates and talk to them. I don't try to use a lot of translation because the more I talk to people without help, the more I can learn... (Coming to the United States) I first came in 2008 with my family and went to Orlando for a week on vacation. We went to Disney World and it was a lot of fun. I came later in 2013 and went to Kansas City because I won the Player of the Year in the Dominican Summer League... (Culture shock moving to U.S.) In the Dominican Leagues you are just in the complexes that they have 24/7. Here in the United States, we go to hotels, we can walk to different places, go to dinner and it is a bit of a shock... (Goals this season) I just want to keep going and have better numbers and stay healthy. It's a long season and I want to do what I can to help the team win."

Notes: Drafted in the 8th round of the 2016 Amateur Draft by Kansas City out of the University of New Mexico. Was a catcher and designated hitter for New Mexico and won Player of the Year honors in District VIII by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America. 2018 Notes: Longest H.S./O.B.S.: +4 (4/5-4/8) / +4 (4/5-4/8) -Started the season picking up a hit in four straight games. -Fifth on team with eight RBI. -Has played in all but one game this season. 2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) and the Wilmington Blue Rocks. -With the Legends, he put up impressive numbers hitting .347 with 11 homers and 38 RBI in 30 games. -He led the team and was top-five in the South Atlantic League in multiple offensive categories before his promotion to Wilmington. -Led all Minor League players in total bases (86), home runs (11, tied) and RBI (38) when he was promoted to Wilmington. -With the Blue Rocks, DeVito hit .240 with 10 homers and drove in 53 runs in 103 games. -Led Wilmington in RBI and third in home runs. -On June 2 at Winston-Salem he hit for the cycle, achieving the feat in the sixth inning with a home run to go back-to-back with Brandon Downes. -Became first Blue Rock player since Dee Brown (April 18, 1999) to hit for the cycle and only player in the Carolina League to hit for the cycle. -Named CL Player of the Week for May 29 - June 4. Hit .462 in six games. -Overall, ranked second among Royals farmhands with 91 RBI and fourth with 21 HR. -Hit .304 vs RHP but just .129 vs LHP. 2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League) -Hit .261 with 13 doubles, nine homers and 50 RBI in 60 games. -Paced Burlington in his professional debut season in home runs and ranked second in the league in RBI. They said it:(On what led to great success in Lexington to start the 2017 season) "Honestly, my teammates. My first couple of games weren't very good and my teammates knew I could do it, they had my back and I couldn't have done it without my teammates and the great coaching staff we have down there... (On attending the University of New Mexico) I loved that school. Great school, great place to hit. Coach (Ray) Birmingham is a great head coach and knows what he is talking about with hitting. His support staff as well with Buddy Goldsmith, Ken (Jacome), the pitching coach, and Tony Cappuccilli were all great coaches and had great team environment there... (on moving from California to New Mexico) It is definitely different. It was the best place for me to go play baseball. My best friend from high school, Jared Holly, went to New Mexico first. He was a sophomore there my freshman year and he helped me in a lot of ways to make the transition easier... (On transition from catcher to first base...) I absolutely love it. Catching is rough, I respect those guys for being back there. Those guys grind and put their bodies on the line. Being at first is definitely a lot easier on the body... (On hitting for the cycle) Absolutely not, I've never done that before I was just super happy to get the win and happy to contribute. (If cycle was in his mind after the triple) A little bit, but not much. I know (triples) are incredibly hard to get and I'm not a big triples guy. I was just happy to get it done early and didn't have to worry about it."

Notes: Selected in the 7th round of the 2014 June MLB Amateur Draft by Kansas City out of University of Virginia. In 2011 he was selected by Boston in the 43rd round of the First-Year Player Draft, but chose to attend the University of Virginia. Sister Kelly played softball at Drexel University. 2018 Notes: Longest H.S./O.B.S.: -Hit home run in season debut on 4/26 vs. POT. (Two-run HR, also walked twice) 2017 Notes: Spent season with Wilmington and hit .245 with 13 home runs and drove in 35 runs in 72 games. -Led team with 13 home runs. -Hit homers in back-to-back games twice, (6/2-6/3 @ W-S) / (8/12-13 @SAL). -Drew two-out, bases loaded walk for walk-off win vs. LYN 7/14. Was third straight walk-off win for WIL. -Earned CL Player of the Week for the week of June 26-July 2 (.455/3/5) -29 of his 61 hits went for extra-bases. -Recorded multi-homer game on 7/2 vs. SAL with a pair of solo home runs. -Joined Chase Vallot as only other Blue Rocks with multi-homer game. -Rejoined the team on 6/25 @SAL and hit a HR after being placed on DL for second time. (Hip) -Hit in five of his first seven games when he returned from the from DL the first time. (7-for-26, 3HR, 6RBI) -Started the year with Wilmington. Played in five games and hit .278 with two triples and a home run before breaking a bone in his hand. Was placed on disabled list on April 12. 2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Wilmington Blue Rocks (Adv. A/Carolina League) and Omaha StormChasers (AAA/Pacific Coast League). -Hit .230 with 12 home runs and 66 RBI in 130 games with Wilmington. -Ranked second among Royals farmhands with 56 doubles, 34 of which came at Wilmington, where he ranked fifth in the Carolina League in two-base hits. -Played in five games with Omaha and hit .308 with a pair of doubles in 13 at-bats. -Had 26 multi-hit games last season. 2015: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) Wilmington Blue Rocks. -Hit .251 with 14 home runs and 59 RBI in 106 games with Lexington. -Ranked second on team in doubles, home runs and RBI for Lexington. -Played in just one game in Wilmington and in his lone at-bat struck out. -Fell a home run shy of the cycle on 5/15. (5-for-5 3 2B, 3B, RBI) 2014: Spent the season with the Idaho Falls Chukars (Rookie/Pioneer League) -Hit .308 with three home runs and 23 RBI in 41 games. Finished fifth on the team with 13 doubles. They said it: (Having a stint in Triple-A) "Honestly I went in there care free. If I get out, it's supposed to happen because I'm the guy from A-Ball so I took it the right way. I just went out there and felt comfortable and enjoyed myself. I honestly had no pressure on myself and that's the way I should play here too which is what I'm going to try to do. It was enjoyable. The postgame spread was unbelievable. You get big leaguers buying the spread and it is steak and lobster for dinner which was very awesome. The field was incredible. (Difference from Wilmington and Omaha) There was a ton of fans. I'm not saying we have a bad fan base, but it's a step away from the big leagues and kids are going crazy for you. It was cool to be around older guys who have been there or guys that are close to being there. The league itself was very cool. I met one of my teammates from Virginia, Chris Taylor, he got traded to the Dodgers and we were playing them during the six games I was there and it was good to see him. It's a whole different atmosphere. There's 35-year-old guys pitching to you and you do one thing wrong and they know what that weakness is, they can repeatedly make that pitch so it definitely was a big jump but definitely awesome. (Playing close to home) It's definitely a big thing. There's a lot of ups and downs, especially if you get homesick, which I haven't gotten that much in my career so far. It's definitely a blessing to have your family come out."

I've been blessed to move up every year. I just want to continue that success and keep it going. (On initial impressions of playing outfield at Frawley Stadium) If you are going to be a center fielder or an outfielder in general here, you're going to need to have speed to cover a lot of ground. I feel like this ballpark is just what I need... (On being highly regarded high school pitcher) I miss it sometimes and want to get out there. I try to beg my managers to let me go out there for one inning. I do miss it and it was a lot of fun... (On being born in Newark, DE) My parents lived here a few years and I'm sure they had a great time. We don't talk too much about Delaware because they are from Baltimore. I definitely think they will be happy to come back to watch me play... (On his goals for the season) I want to keep progressing as a hitter and a teammate as well. One of my goals it to be a Carolina League All-Star So I want to do that and hopefully move up to the next level... (Something people might not know about him) I like to dance a lot. It might be during batting practice, a pitching change that's just something I like to do. (On any other skills he has) I played the saxophone in middle school. I don't know if I could still play now, but I was pretty good at it."

On his great success at stealing bases "We really worked on it at Spring Training. We harp on keying on what certain pitchers do, studying them and the game so it could help me during the season. I might notice that a pitcher has a quick pickoff move, but he's slow to home. So things like that help me. Stealing bases is what I have to do... Player he tries to emulate "A guy I look at now is Mookie Betts. He doesn't strikeout a lot, he can steal bases, he's not the biggest guy and he plays hard every day. On dealing with injuries past two seasons "The year before last I broke my hamate bone and that was in Spring Training. That was pretty frustrating because I couldn't get a chance to go to a full-season club and show what I could do. I overcame that and then last season, I suffered the face injury when I ran into Gabriel Cancel, our second baseman. I was having decent years, but I have good teammates and they have helped me overcome those injuries. If a play like that happens (collision with Cancel) again, I still won't think twice about going for the ball.

Notes: Drafted in the 23rd Round of the 2016 June Amateur Draft by Kansas City from UCLA and hit .271/.416/.402 as a junior with a team-leading (tied) 36 RBI in 56 games, was named UCLA Student-Athlete of the Week (March 7-13) after batting .429 (6-for-14) with the first two home runs of his career, including a walk-off shot to beat Texas on March 12.
2018 Notes: Longest H.S./O.B.S.: +4, twice (4/9-4/12 & 4/17-4/21) / +7 (4/16 - present) -Hit pair of homers on 4/20 @ FRE and drove in career-high five RBI. -Was first-career multi-homer game. -Hit first homer of the season on 4/18 vs. Carolina (2-R HR) -First on team in HR (3), second in total bases (27), third in runs (9) and fourth in RBI (10).
2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) and the Wilmington Blue Rocks. -With the Legends, Peterson hit .290 with 12 doubles, a pair of triples and one home run to go along with 19 RBI in 49 games. -Was promoted to Wilmington in early June and played in just 11 games with the Blue Rocks after suffering a season-ending injury to his shoulder two weeks later. -In the small sample size, Peterson showed some pop in his bat. He went 13-for-39 at the plate (.333) with three doubles, two triples and a home run.
2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League) -Hit a team-leading .347 to go along with 21 extra-base hits (12 doubles, four triples, five home runs). -He also paced the league with his .437 on-base percentage. -Was named the Burlington Player of the Year for his efforts in his professional debut in addition to earning Appalachian League postseason All-Star and MLB.com Organization All-Star honors.
They said it: (On his season-ending injury in 2017) "It came at a bad time because I was starting to get a little hot. When it happened, I definitely knew something was wrong. I wasn't sure if it was season-ending or not, unfortunately it turned out to be that way. After that, I was hoping to be back soon. A month passed, I went to Arizona and did a lot of stimulation work to try and get my deltoid fired up and get it working again. Throughout the whole offseason I did that. I've been strengthening the muscles around it in case it doesn't come back. Unfortunately, nothing much has changed too much, but all the muscles around it have gotten a lot stronger. It's been a crazy process and hopefully my deltoid will come back. I played great in Spring Training without it so we'll see what happens... (How it has changed his game) It's definitely been a struggle with fatigue. I moved my elbow a little lower in my stance and my trap has compensated a lot for the loss for throwing. I was struggling with that in the offseason in terms of the strength, but it's getting better and things are looking up... (Playing in cold weather coming back from injury) I actually do like playing in cold weather. I come from a foggy beach town, so I'm used to the cold weather and overcast skies. It doesn't bother me. Obviously, if you still get jammed, it's going to hurt your hands pretty bad. In regards to my injury, I can't feel my shoulder. So it doesn't bother me either in hot or cold weather... (Having some experience in Wilmington) I'm very happy that I played a little bit here last year. I know what I'm getting myself into regarding what the area is like, what the ballparks are like and what some of the other teams are like. Especially to know how Frawley Stadium plays because the air is a little thick and you aren't going to hit too many home runs. I think it's good to know how each ballpark plays and that's a good thing."

2017 Notes: Spent the season with the Wilmington Blue Rocks. -Hit .231 with 22 doubles, 12 homers and 37 RBI in 89 games. -His season we cut short on July 27 after suffering a low back muscle strain. -He finished second on the team in home runs, tied for first with 64 walks, but did pace the team with 127 strikeouts. -Played in a career-high 89 games and also set career highs in doubles (22), walks (64) and on-base percentage (.380). -His 64 walks tied for sixth in the Carolina League with teammate DJ Burt, while his 12 homers tied for third among the league's catchers. -Recorded his first multi-homer game on June 26 at Frederick, hitting a two-run shot and a solo homer in an 8-6 loss. -Also set a career-high with four hits (4-for-4) at Frederick on May 19. -He hit two grand slams making him the only Blue Rock to do so in 2017. -Entered the season as the No. 7 prospect in the organization according to Baseball America .
2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Royals (Rookie/Arizona League) and Lexington Legends (Low-A/South Atlantic League) -Hit a combined .235 with 15 home runs with 46 RBI in 92 games. -Rehabbed in Arizona League for 10 games after being struck in the face by a pitch before returning to the Legends. -With Lexington hit .246 with 13 home runs and 44 RBI in 82 games. -Finished second on the team in home runs, fourth in RBI and second in doubles (20). -Named a mid-season All-Star.
They said it: (On thoughts on 2017 season) "Definitely could have been better. From an overall standpoint, strikeouts could have been a little high, batting average was kind of low. This year (I'm) being more aggressive and swinging at a lot more pitches that are strikes... (On season-ending injury) It was very frustrating. Whatever had happened, we were in Carolina and I didn't play for probably about seven days and then the team decided they were going to send me to Kansas City to get MRI's and X-Rays and stuff. So I went there and got the X-Rays and the MRI and the team physician decided it would be in my best interest to shut it down for the rest of the year so the injury doesn't get worse and once I had heard that, it just didn't feel good. It was kind of like a stab. There's nothing you can do about that. You just got to bounce back and continue to move forward. God has plan for everybody and I just had to deal with it at the time... (On ability to speak Spanish and using it during games) I do. It depends on who's on the mound. Some guys are fringe on English so I try to my best in Spanish. I've been practicing since I got to pro ball. It's getting a lot better. Still not 100% fluent."

2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League) -Hit .249 with 13 doubles, four triples and two homers in addition to 27 RBI in 58 games.
2015 Notes: Spent the season with the Royals (Rookie/Arizona League) and in 38 games hit .174 with five doubles and 14 RBI in his professional debut. He stole a career-high nine bases in 13 attempts.
They said it: (On success in Lexington last season) Just going to the cages every day with my hitting coach in Lexington really helped me. We did a bunch of different drills hitting of the tee and front toss. I continued to work hard every day and it was a good year... (On bouncing back after tough first two seasons in system) The first two seasons in the organization was very hard for me. I never saw pitchers throw 90-94 m.p.h. It took me about a season to get adjusted to that kind of pitching. Last year, I was able to see the pitches better and it was great. It's important to make adjustments and I was late at the plate when I first started and worked on my timing and now I feel comfortable... (On going through a transition on defense) Before I was signed, I played shortstop. After my first practice, the coaches moved me to third base. I played shortstop for five years before joining the Royals. I miss it sometimes. I played it since I was five years old. At third base, the reaction time is the biggest difference from the two positions. It takes a lot of practice to get better with my reaction... (On coming to the U.S.) I came to the U.S. four years ago and the biggest difference was the language. I try to speak English the best I can. My family and friends are still in Puerto Rico and were effected by Hurricane Irma. They had no lights, no gas, no power for months. It was bad. I've talked to my friends and family and they were telling me how bad it was. It's getting better now, but where I grew up, it was hit by the storm. My family still lives in the house I grew up and it was damaged."

2016 Notes: Spent the season with the Idaho Falls Chukars (Rookie/Pioneer League) -Put together his best pro season and hit .376 with 28 doubles, three triples, six homers and 55 RBI in 58 games. -Had a league-best 20-game hitting streak (July 7- Aug. 7) to help earn him MLB.com Pioneer League Player of the Month for July. -Was a mid-season All-star, led the Pioneer League in hitting and earned MVP honors in the league and Idaho Falls Player of the Year. -Behind the plate, he threw out 34% of base stealers.
2015 Notes: Spent the season with the Burlington Royals (Rookie/Appalachian League) -Hit .260 in 45 games with no 39 hits, all being singles.
They Said It: (Thoughts on last season) "It was a long season last year. I tried to go out and play hard every night. I started out struggling, but I worked with my hitting coach and it helped me a lot. I watched a lot of video on my swing to watch my mechanics. I hit with a leg kick which is more difficult. If you don't have your timing down with a leg kick, you don't have a chance. I had to make adjustments mentally during the first month of the season. If you aren't strong mentally, you can't play this game... (On feeling pressure as one of the youngest player in the SAL) I felt pressure being in A-ball for the first time in my career. I just wanted to go out and just play. I wanted to just play my game and put the ball in play... (Lifestyle in Columbia) It's too hot. Where I'm from in Cartagena it is really hot. We have everything though. We have a lot of beaches and lakes and it's fun. I miss the food the most, especially the fish. I miss my family too. They won't be able to see me play this year because of a family matter, but maybe next year."
