BlueClaws Fans,

Welcome back to another exciting season of BlueClaws Baseball here at FirstEnergy Park! This promises to be another special summer for the BlueClaws, the Township of Lakewood, the Jersey Shore, the Phillies organization, and you, our great fans.

My name is Art Matin, managing partner of Shore Town Baseball. As you may know, Shore Town Baseball acquired operating interest of the BlueClaws late in the 2017 season and this year is our second full season as partners. From the minute we came on board, the entire community has been overwhelming in their support, and we are just as excited today as we continue to build the BlueClaws as we were when we started this process.

Our pledge remains the same - to keep the BlueClaws as the Shore's leader in affordable, family entertainment.

Last year, we opened a brand-new Mini Golf Course down the right field line, the Toyota World of Lakewood Home Run Pavilion in centerfield, a new Biergarten down the left field line, as well as upgrading the HVAC system on the Luxury Suite level. This year, we have made substantial improvements to our Picnic Areas. These improvements include enhanced seating, both in quality and view, upgraded menus, and other fan amenities.

Further, the BlueClaws are thrilled to participate in Minor League Baseball's Copa de la Diversion program this year as we bring the Medusas de Lakewood to life. We will be celebrating the best in Hispanic culture and heritage across four games this summer with special food items, live music, and more. We have additional information included in this program or at BlueClaws.com/Copa.

I would like to thank our tremendous Corporate Partners, without whom we would not be able to do all we can for you, the fans. Our Corporate Partners have been incredibly supportive over the entirety of the BlueClaws and we are honored to have built such relationships. Additionally, we thank business leaders around the Shore and our municipal and state leaders including senator Robert Singer and Lakewood Mayor Ray Coles. We would also like to thank our partners with the Phillies, and wish them the best this season.

Finally, we'd like to thank you, our great fans. The two decades of support you have shown the BlueClaws is something we are honored to have received and something we will continue to strive to earn moving into the future.

CHECKING IN WITH JIWAN JAMES

BY DAVID SCHOFIELD

What you notice first is the smile, the ever present joy with the game. You notice this before you notice the laser like line drives to the gaps, before the lightning speed, before the acrobatic dives and leaps in the outfield. Yes, the first thing you notice about Jiwan James is the smile.

2010 marked an historic year for the Lakewood BlueClaws. They won the South Atlantic League Championship for the third time and for the second consecutive year. Some of the players on the Championship team, Darin Ruf, Domingo Santana, Jon Singleton, Sebastian Valle, Jon Villar, Jarred Cosart, Jake Diekman, Trevor May, Jon Pettibone and Josh Zied have enjoyed time in the big leagues. A key player in that group was Jiwan James, the centerfielder. JJ quickly became a fan favorite and a favorite of those of us working with the team. His speed, hustle and exciting brand of play in centerfield endeared him to every fan who came out to those games. Injuries halted what all assumed would be a swift rise to Citizens Bank Ballpark for Jiwan.

"My time in Lakewood was nothing short of amazing. It's by far the most enjoyable moment of my professional career."

JJ was a standout athlete at Williston HS in Central Florida, not far from Gainesville and the University of Florida. He was offered scholarships in three sports, football, basketball and baseball. Jiwan accepted a baseball scholarship to Florida which is why teams did not draft him in the early rounds. When the Phillies heard that JJ was available, because the Florida coaching staff that recruited him had been fired, they quickly took him in the 22nd round. him in the 22nd round.

"Had I known (those) coaches that I signed with at the University of Florida would all be getting fired an hour later, I would've been ready to sign and go play ball immediately."

He reached Lakewood in 2010. It was a year that BlueClaws fans and Jiwan will always remember.

"My time in Lakewood was nothing short of amazing. It's by far the most enjoyable moment of my professional career. The fans were awesome, the workers at the stadium were great. I had a great host family, our team all enjoyed one another, we became a family and to top it off we won the Championship." In the post-season Jiwan was held hitless in the two-game first round but in the championship round, he went 6-15, scoring three times and driving in two.

What BlueClaws fans will always remember about Jiwan is his total love of the game and the joy with which he played the game every night. He always had a smile on his face and a burning desire to win. Since retiring from the game he loves, Jiwan has found a way incorporate his love of the game into a career that includes helping others. He is teaching PE at the middle school in his hometown of Williston, FL. In conjunction with his teaching, Jiwan is helping to coach the high school baseball team. As of this printing the Williston team was 8-2 in their 2019 season. In conjunction with the high school coaching, he has taken his experience and knowledge into a baseball school and travel team, which he works with former MLB infielder Esix Snead.

"Coaching travel ball and teaching the game with Esix has been great. He's the main reason I am coaching."

Snead was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals out of the University of Central Florida and also went to Williston.

"I've learned so much about the game of baseball from being beside him. Not every day you get to coach along side someone who's played at the major league level."

Anyone who got to know Jiwan when he was in Lakewood cannot be surprised that he has carried his enthusiasm and joy for the game into a productive career after his professional career. And it is no surprise that he is passing his knowledge on to young men and giving back to the game he played so well.

I asked who his favorite player was growing up. Without hesitations he said, "my favorite athlete growing up was Derek Jeter." And Jiwan paid attention to Jeter's career and how he carried himself because Jiwan carried himself the same way. He called Jeter a "role model". I guess he should know, because Jiwan James has become quite a role model himself.

IVING

The next wave of BlueClaws ballpark enhancements comes in the form of brand-new, revamped Investors Bank Picnic Areas will be available for BlueClaws fans throughout the season.

Included with the new picnic area is an extensive redesign that will incorporate comfortable mesh swivel seats, tables and food service. The area also comes with better views of the game for fans, and new food and beverage menus as well. The new picnic area on the third base side is perfect for business and networking opportunities.

Meanwhile, the picnic area that is located on the first base side of the stadium, near Mini Golf and Shore Town Soft Serve, is ideal for family outings and other parties.

The picnic re-design comes one year after the BlueClaws opened a brand-new Mini Golf Course in right field, the Toyota World of Lakewood Home Run Pavilion in centerfield, and the Biergarten down the line in left field.

Bohm, Sweet Bohm

Alec Bohm, the third overall pick in the 2018 draft, launched a home run on April 14th at Delmarva. The 6-5 Omaha, Nebraska native who went to Wichita State, crushed a ball down the left field line at Perdue Stadium, which hung inside the foul pole for Bohm's first professional home run. After a 1-13 start to the season, Bohm settled in nicely anchoring the second-spot in the BlueClaws lineup.

"The 1-13 didn't affect me at all. I hit the ball hard and wasn't having much luck. I started to get some hits, including some soft hits and things started to go a bit better from a luck standpoint and the swing has been better," he said.

Bohm also drew seven walks in his first 50 BlueClaws plate appearances and walked more than he struck out in his junior year in Wichita.

"It's developed," Bohm said of his plate patience. "Early on in my college career I was super-aggressive, but each year I've gotten more selective and looked for something I want to hit instead of just swinging."

Bohm is the 11th first-round pick to play for the BlueClaws, and only 2017 BlueClaw Mickey Moniak, the first overall pick in 2016, was taken higher than Bohm.

Bouncing Around

When he arrived in Člearwater for Spring Training, Cole Stobbe had with him two third base gloves. Shortly after he arrived in Lakewood with the rest of his teammates, he had already added three more to his collection – a first baseman's glove, a glove for second base, and an outfielder's glove.

Coming into 2019, Stobbe had only played third base and shortstop since being drafted by the Phillies in 2016. However, in a five-day period over the season's second week, the 21 year old played his first professional games at second base, first base, and in left field.

"It's been smooth," Stobbe said. "Working with [manager] Mike [Micucci] and [coach] Adam [Godwin], they get their point across on what you're supposed to do on a day to day basis. They prepare us for the game."

Learning the outfield has been different for Stobbe, a life-long infielder. "The only time you get to work at game speed is when you power shag during BP," he said. "That's one of the main things that they have been preaching and I've tried to get some live reps every day."

Hatter vs. Hatter

On April 15th in West Virginia, it was Hatter against Hatter – Stetson Hatter against Stetson Hatter that is. BlueClaws starter Jack Perkins, an 11th round pick last year, squared off against his college teammate Logan Gilbert, the Mariners' first-round pick last year.

Perkins struck out seven over four scoreless innings while Gilbert gave up one run in five innings, striking out eight. A third Hatter, West Virginia's Benjamin Onyshko, was the winning pitcher as the Power topped the BlueClaws in the 11th.

Why the Hatters? John B. Stetson was chairman of DeLand Academy when the school was re-named in his honor. Their athletic teams were given the nickname "Hatters" in 1901 in honor of their chairman, maker of Stetson hats.
