Today's Preview: The Grasshoppers (A, Marlins) continue their most strenuous stretch of the season as they play Games 2 and 3 of this 6-games-in-4-days series vs. the Crawdads (A, Rangers) at First National Bank Field. The back-to-back doubleheaders on Tuesday and Wednesday are the result of an April 7 rainout in Greensboro as well as an April 26 rainout in Hickory.

Hoppers Hurlers: Dustin Beggs, 24, makes his third start and 12th appearance of the season in Game 1 of Tuesday's doubleheader, facing Hickory for the first time in 2018. Last year against the Crawdads, Beggs went 2-1 with a 3.71 ERA (7 ER/17.0 IP) and 11 strikeouts in four games (four starts). In his two starts this year, he has thrown 8.2 scoreless innings, striking out nine and walking two. As a reliever, he is 2-0 with a 4.95 ERA (11 ER/20.0 IP) and 26 strikeouts. In his second outing of the year, Beggs matched his career-high with eight strikeouts in a 3.0-inning relief appearance on April 27 at Asheville. He spent all of 2017 with Greensboro in the starting rotation, going 10-6 with a 3.86 ERA (64 ER/149.1 IP) and 107 strikeouts in 26 games (26 starts). Miami selected Beggs in the 16th round of the June 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of Kentucky.

Going In Game 2: Nestor Bautista, 26, makes his first start of the year and first since the 2015 season. Bautista, who has not faced Hickory this season, is 1-0 with a 0.79 ERA (1 ER/11.1 IP) and 12 strikeouts in six games at home compared to posting a 5.00 ERA (10 ER/18.0 IP) and 20 strikeouts in eight road outings. Bautista is coming off a season-long-tying 3.2 innings of work, allowing a run on three hits, on June 7 at Delmarva. His most recent start came in his finale outing of 2015, a Sept. 4 with Batavia at State College when he tossed 4.1 innings, allowing five runs (four earned) on 10 hits. He worked a career-long 6.0 innings with the GCL Marlins in a scoreless outing against the GCL Mets on Aug. 15, 2014. The Marlins selected Bautista in the 32nd round of the June 2014 First-Year Player draft out of Ball State.

Last Time Out: Catcher Will Allen drove in a career-high four runs and finished a triple shy of the cycle, but the Grasshoppers fell short in an 8-7 loss to the Hickory Crawdads on Monday night at First National Bank Field. Greensboro (29-32) and Hickory traded the lead in the middle innings until the Crawdads broke a tie game in the top of the eighth. Allen finished 3-for-4 with a double, a home run, four RBI, and two runs scored. Greensboro scored three runs in the second inning when Allen smacked a 2-run double, scoring J.C. Millan and Baranek before coming home on a Garvis Lara base hit. Hickory responded with a 5-run fourth inning highlighted by Yonny Hernandez's bases-clearing triple. With the Crawdads ahead 5-3 going into the bottom of the fourth, the Grasshoppers tied the game on Allen's 2-run home run (2). Greensboro pulled ahead, 6-5, in the fifth when Thomas Jones stole home on a perfectly-executed double-steal, with Devers swiping second base. Hickory tied the game in the top of the sixth when Ryan Dorow doubled, driving in Hernandez and Pedro Gonzalez for a 7-6 lead. The Hoppers tied the game, 7-7, in home half of the sixth when Micah Brown scored on a Lara groundout. Greensboro reliever Michael Mertz plunked Sam Huff to open the eighth inning, and the Crawdads catcher eventually came around to score on a Gonzalez base hit for a late lead, 8-7. Jean Casanova (2-3) earned the win, tossing 2 and 2/3 scoreless relief innings while striking out six and walking one. Mertz (0-3) took the loss, allowing a run on two hits over 2 and 1/3 innings. Hickory's Alex Speas tossed a scoreless ninth for the save (6). Hoppers starter Ryan Lillie started off strong with three scoreless innings before giving up the big frame in the fourth. He finished with seven runs allowed (five earned) on eight hits in 5 and 2/3 innings, striking out five and walking two.

Hoppin' Thieves: Greensboro stole a season-high five bases on Monday against Hickory, with a season-high two players recording multiple swiped bags in a game. Both Cameron Baranek and Thomas Jones stole two bases while Jose Devers added one. The highlight of the game came on a well-executed double-steal as Devers broke for second base, inducing a throw from Crawdads catcher Sam Huff, allowing Jones to break from third and slide head first across the plate. The Grasshoppers' previous season-high was three stolen bases, accomplished three times in 2018.

Do It Like Devers: After hitting two triples in a game on Friday, Hoppers shortstop Jose Devers continued his strong weekend at the plate by going 3-for-4 with a double and two RBI on Saturday. Through Monday, the 18-year-old infielder has hit safely in seven straight games since June 5, batting .433 (13-30) with a double, two triples, four RBI, and three runs scored in that span. He has also upped his season average from .250 to .276 during this stretch. In 21 games at First National Bank Field, Devers is batting .308 (28-91) compared to .253 (22-87) in 22 road games.

IN THE WEEDS: GRASSHOPPERS NOTES

DOUBLE THE TRIPLES

Jose Devers became the first Grasshopper to triple twice in a game this season on June 8 against the BlueClaws. He finished 3-for-5 with a pair of RBI-triples, two of the team's season-high three triples in the game. In the first inning, he scored Cameron Baranek from first base with a drive to the right-field corner, and in a fit of déjà vu, hit a similar ball in the third that also brought Baranek across the plate.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

The Grasshoppers will be well-represented when in the 59th Annual South Atlantic League All-Star Game presented by Pizza Hut on Tuesday, June 19, at First National Bank Field with two players and four members of the field staff selected for the event. Starting pitcher Ryan Lillie joins designated hitter Lazaro Alonso as the two Grasshoppers players selected, while manager Todd Pratt, pitching coach Mark DiFelice, athletic trainer Eric Reigelsberger, and strength & conditioning coach Brady Fitzgerald will serve on the field staff for the Northern Division Squad.

FIRING BLANKS BACK-TO-BACK

The Grasshoppers tossed back-to-back shutouts on May 20 against Lakewood to run the pitching staff's scoreless innings streak to 17.0 innings, including the final three innings May 19 against Lakewood. Since the franchise became the Grasshoppers in 2005, the team has thrown consecutive shutouts seven times, including thrice in both games of a doubleheader.

MULTI-HOMER HOPPERS

For the first time since 2016 and the eighth time since the start of the 2008 season, Greensboro had two men with two home runs in the same game as both Micah Brown and Marcos Rivera hit a pair of big flies on June 1 vs. West Virginia, part of a 5-home run game for the Grasshoppers.

Jhonnny Santos put on a show for Hoppers fans May 21 against Kannapolis, hitting two home runs in a 5-3 win over the Intimidators in Greensboro. Santos' first career multi-HR game is the 50th by a Hoppers hitter since the start of 2008 and second this year.

In his first three games with Greensboro (May 2-4), he went 2-for-4 in each game with at least one home run in all contests. In total, he hit four home runs in three games while batting .500 (6-12) with a double and six RBI. The Marlins selected Jones, now 20 years old, in the third round of the June 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of Laurens (S.C.) High School.

WALKING OFF THE SUNS

Michael Hernandez gave the Grasshoppers their first walk-off home run of the season on May 2 as part of his career day, driving in four runs in an 10-8 win over the Hagerstown Suns. Hernandez finished 3-for-5 with a pair of RBI-singles to go along with his game-winning 2-run home run off Jared Brasher with no outs in the bottom of the ninth. It was the Grasshoppers second walk-off win of the season and seventh win in the final at-bats during the 2018 season.

IT'S MILLER TIME

Brandon Miller opened his May 1 start against the Suns by retiring the first 16 batters faced, taking a perfect game one out into the sixth inning in his fifth start of the season. Hagerstown eventually caught up to Miller, chasing him from the game after 5.1 innings pitched. The right-hander took no decision that day, allowing four runs on three hits with a walk and five strikeouts in the outing.

EVERYBODY HITS

All nine batters hit safely for the first time in 2018 when Greensboro fought off Asheville, 11-7 in 10 innings, on April 29. Infielders Jose Devers and Lazaro Alonso led the 16-hit charge with three hits each as the Grasshoppers batted around in the top of the 10th for a 7-run inning. In the big frame, the team collected six hits, including four doubles, to run away from the Tourists after Asheville rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth to force the extra inning.

BEGGS BAFFLES BATTERS

Dustin Beggs dominated out of the bullpen on April 27 at Asheville, striking out eight batters over 3.0 nearly-perfect innings of work. He struck out the first six batters he faced in perfect sixth and seventh innings. After inducing a groundout to open the bottom of the eighth and allowing a base hit – the lone batter to reach against him on the night – the right-hander fanned the final two batters he faced to close his outing. Greensboro fell to Asheville, 3-2.

SHARP STINGER AGAINST THE GREENJACKETS:

In their first series against the new-look Augusta GreenJackets, Greensboro was stung early as Malique Ziegler led off the game for Augusta with a first-pitch home run off Hoppers starting pitcher Taylor Braley. The GreenJackets hit two home runs in the opening frame, with Ryan Kirby adding a 2-run blast, en route to a 7-4 lead over the Grasshoppers.
