Today's Preview: The Grasshoppers (A, Marlins) look to bounce back against the Tourists (A, Rockies) in this 4-game series as they play Game 3 following a pair of defeats to open the set. Greensboro pitching is coming off a rough game in which it fell victim to its own hitter-friendly ballpark as Asheville hit six home runs en route to a 13-6 win on Sunday. In the loss, the Grasshoppers were out-hit 15-11 to fall to 1-7 against the Tourists in 2018.

Hoppers Hurler: Edward Cabrera, 20, makes his 17th start of the season and his second against the Tourists. He is coming off a win on July 11 to open this home stand, striking out seven batters over 5.0 innings while allowing two runs on six hits to beat Kannapolis. In two starts in July, he is 1-0 with a 3.38 (4 ER/10.2 IP) and 15 strikeouts after finishing June 2-1 with a 2.81 ERA (8 ER/25.2 IP) and 26 strikeouts in what has been his best month of the season so far. Cabrera struggled in one start against Asheville on April 28 at McCormick Field, lasting just 1.1 innings and allowing four runs on four hits including three home runs in a no decision – an eventual 10-8 loss. He has been better at home than on the road, going 2-3 with a 2.37 ERA (10 ER/38.0 IP) in seven games (starts) at First National Bank Field compared to 2-3 with a 4.30 ERA (22 ER/44.0 IP) in nine away starts. Last season with Short-A Batavia, he went 1-3 with a 5.30 ERA (21 ER/35.2 IP) and 32 strikeouts in 13 games (six starts).

About Last Night: Bret Boswell and Casey Golden each belted a pair of home runs as part of the Tourists' 6-homer game as the Grasshoppers fell 13-6 on Sunday at First National Bank Field. Greensboro allowed runs in seven of the nine frames played as Asheville improved to 7-1 against the Hoppers in 2018. Boswell finished with a game-high four hits, going 4-for-5 with a double, two home runs, two RBI, and four runs scored. Golden, a Siler City native playing in front of family and friends, homered in the third and eighth innings while going 2-for-5 with three RBI and two runs scored. Derrik Watson (1-1) earned a relief win despite allowing three runs in the fifth. Asheville relievers Austin Moore and Braxton Lorenzini combined to work the final 4.0 innings, giving up one run on five total hits. Greensboro starter Daniel Castano (2-2) took the loss despite striking out eight batters with no walks for the third time in four starts. He allowed seven runs (four earned) on nine hits -- including four home runs -- over 5.0 innings. Castano has now fanned 31 batters in 25.0 innings without allowing a walk since joining the Grasshoppers. Tristan Pompey led the Grasshoppers offense, going 3-for-5 with a run scored. Marcos Rivera chipped in with a 2-run home run as part of a 2-for-4 afternoon.

Jonesing for Hits: Outfielder Thomas Jones went 1-for-5 on Sunday to extend his hitting streak to eight games, his longest streak of the year from July 6-15. He is batting .344 (11-32) with three doubles, a triple, three RBI, and five runs scored. He has upped his average from .238 entering the streak to .252 (60-238) on the season. Previously, Jones had hit safely in six straight games with the Grasshoppers from June 16-26. Prior to this season, he twice had put together 5-game hitting streaks, once in 2016 and again in 2017.

Bombs Away: Asheville hit six home runs on Sunday, the most by a Greensboro opponent in a single game in 2018 and two shy of the South Atlantic League record. Bret Boswell and Casey Golden each hit two home runs – the fourth and fifth Hoppers opponents with multi-home run games this season – while Sean Bouchard and Todd Czinege also added big flies of their own. The Hoppers had previously allowed four home runs in a game twice this season, on April 28 at Asheville and June 27 vs. Delmarva. The league record of eight home runs has been reached two times, by the Columbus Red Stixx on June 16, 2005, and most recently by the Asheville Tourists on August 27, 2011.

Multiple Homers against the Hoppers: Bret Boswell and Casey Golden each homered twice against Greensboro on Sunday, joining Anderson Franco (5/2 vs. HAG), Chad Spanberger (5/9 at ASH), and Trevor Craport (6/27 vs. DEL) as the only players with multi-homer games against the Hoppers in 2018.

IN THE WEEDS: GRASSHOPPERS NOTES

Thieves in the Night: Greensboro swiped a season-best seven bases July 11 against Kannapolis, two more than the team's previous season-high. The Hoppers stole five on June 11 against Hickory. Six different players stole at least one base with Ricardo Cespedes becoming the sixth Grasshoppers with two stolen bases in a game this season and the first since Garvis Lara and Thomas Jones each stole two bags on June 25 against Kannapolis. In total, Greensboro successfully stole seven bases in nine chances en route to a 6-2 win in the series opener.

Base on Balls for Brown: Micah Brown drew a team-best three walks in the July 11 win, 6-2, over Kannapolis, matching the most by a Grasshoppers batter in a game this season. On April 29, Aaron Knapp drew three walks in an extra-inning game at Asheville.

Turning Two, Four Times: The Grasshoppers matched the team's high watermark for double plays in the July 11 win over the Intimidators with four twin-killings in the 6-2 victory. All four double plays came in their own unique style. First baseman Micah Brown started a 3-6-3 double play with Jose Devers returning fire in the second inning. The Hoppers turned a traditional 5-4-3 from Marcos Rivera to Garvis Lara to Brown as well as 4-3 two-ball from Lara to Brown. The most unusual double play came in the form of batters interference on a strikeout that obstructed catcher Michael Hernandez's throw to try to pick off a runner at second base. The batter and base runner were both ruled out on the play. The only other 4-double play game Greensboro posted this season came May 3 vs. Hagerstown.

Walk This Way: Kannapolis issued 10 walks to Greensboro on July 11, giving the Grasshoppers their most free passes in a game this season. The Hoppers previous high came on April 11 when they drew seven walks at home against Augusta, including six by GreenJackets starting pitcher Garrett Cave. In the game, Intimidators starting pitcher Zach Lewis walked seven batters over 4.1 innings to set a new single-game high by a Hoppers opposing pitcher this season.

The Comeback: With Lexington ahead 8-2 after five innings on July 8 -- thanks to three in the second and five in the fifth -- Greensboro rallied in the top of the eighth with a 5-run frame of their own en route to an 11-10 win in 11 innings. Jose Devers, Garvis Lara, and Tristan Pompey led off the frame with three straight base hits to get one run back before Soto belted a 3-run blast to pull the Grasshoppers within two, 8-6. With the basepaths empty and no outs, Tad Ratliff replaced Collin Snider on the mound. Micah Brownsmaeked a 1-out double, and Michael Hernandez drove him in with an RBI-single to cut the Legends' lead to one. In the top of the ninth, the Grasshoppers tied the game, 8-8, on Soto's sacrifice-fly to cash Devers. Vincenzo Aiello tossed a scoreless bottom of the ninth to pitch Greensboro into extra innings. The 6-run deficit overcome for a win matches the largest comeback with by Greensboro this season (the Hoppers trailed the Greenville Drive 8-2 through five innings on May 4 before charging back to win 9-8 thanks to a 6-run sixth inning).

Silky Soto: Isael Soto's 5-RBI night on July 8 matched the most by a Hoppers hitter in a game this season, tying Zach Sullivan's 5-RBI game on May 9 at Asheville. Soto and Michael Hernandez each finished 3-for-5 to lead the six Hoppers hitters who had a multi-hit day.

Extra! Extra!: The Grasshoppers scored an extra-innings win July 8 at Lexington, 11-10 in 11 innings, their first since April 29 at Asheville with an 11-7 victory over the Tourists. Greensboro is now 4-1 in extra-innings games this season with the team's first four extra-inning contests all coming during the season's first month. The Hoppers won 10-9 (10) at Hagerstown on April 12, lost 5-4 (10) at Lakewood on April 17, and won 5-4 (10) at Lakewood on April 18 before playing the team's most recent extra-innings game prior to this series with the win at Asheville.

Take Your Time: Sunday's game was the longest for the Grasshoppers this season both in terms of the number of innings played (11) and the time of the game (3:54). The team's four previous extra-innings games all finished in 10 innings while the Hoppers longest game of 2018 by time before Sunday came April 29 at Asheville in a 3-28 contest. Sunday's game was Greensboro longest by time since August 5, 2017, when the Grasshoppers needed 4:39 to beat Kannapolis 5-4 in 15 innings.

LUCKY 13

Greensboro pitchers matched the team's season-high with 13 strikeouts in a 5-4 win on July 5 in a home win over Lakewood. This marked the fifth time the Grasshoppers fanned 13 batters in a game in 2018.

4/9 vs. Augusta
5/10 at Asheville
6/5 at Delmarva
6/29 vs. Delmarva
7/5 vs. Lakewood

STREAKING TO JUPITER

Cameron Baranek, who was promoted to Class-A Advanced Jupiter to being the Second Half, finished the first half on a 13-game hitting streak (since June 1) and 21-game on-base streak (since May 24) with Greensboro. Both are the longest by a Hoppers hitter this season. He surpassed an 11-game hitting streak by Jose Devers and a 20-game on-base streak by Jhonny Santos earlier this season. Baranek is batting .420 (21-50) with two home runs, two doubles, and eight RBI over his 13-game hit streak, the longest active streak the SAL and tied for the 10th-longest in 2018. His 21-game on-base streak is the longest by a Grasshopper since James Nelson reached base safely in 37 straight games from April 28-June 9, 2017.

RECORD RUNS ALLOWED

The June 27 run total against the Shorebirds matched the Grasshoppers' franchise record for runs allowed when Greensboro gave up 20 runs for the second time since the team's inaugural 2005 season. The only other 20-run game for a Hoppers opponent came nearly 10 years ago to the day, on June 28, 2008, in a 20-6 loss to Kannapolis. That night, Greensboro allowed 23 hits, one more than the June 27 loss, 20-2, which was a 22-hit night by Delmarva.

In the process of June 27's 20-2 loss, Delmarva set or tied 11 season high marks for offense against Greensboro, including the following:

| Category                     | 6/27 vs DEL  | Previous Mark/Last Accomplished     |

OFF ON THE WRONG FOOT

June 27's loss began with Greensboro giving up a home run to the first batter of the game for the second time this season. Delmarva's Kirvin Moesquit set the tone early when he launched Scott Sebald's third pitch over the left field wall. On April 9, Augusta's Malique Ziegler hit the first pitch of the game by Taylor Braley out of the park in a 7-4 loss to the GreenJackets.

GIVE ME FIVE

Delmarva's Will Robertson became the first Grasshopper opponent to collect five hits in a game this season when he went 5-for-6 as part of the Shorebirds' 22-hit, 20-2 win in Greensboro on June 27. It was the first 5-hit game by a Hoppers opponent since August 24, 2017, Jake Burger went 5-for-5, hitting for the cycle and driving in three runs for Kannapolis.

AIN'T IT GRAND

Cameron Baranek hit the Grasshoppers' first grand slam of the 2018 season and the 13th in the South Atlantic League this season. The last Greensboro slam came July 3, 2017, when Luis Pinto went yard against Asheville's Jared Gesell. Only three times in the SAL -- Asheville, Lexington, and Rome -- have not hit a grand slam this season.

BEGGS BETTER THAN BATTERS

Dustin Beggs set a new season-high by a Hoppers pitcher when he struck out 10 batters over 5.0 innings in Tuesday's spot-start. He surpassed Taylor Braley's nine strikeouts April 20 against Charleston. Beggs has now fanned 45 batters in 33.2 innings while walking only six. In addition to having the highest-strikeout performance as a starter with 10 on Tuesday, he also holds the season mark for most K's out of the bullpen after fanning eight batters over 3.0 relief innings on April 27 at Asheville.

HOPPIN' THEIVES

Greensboro stole a season-high five bases on June 11 against Hickory, with a season-high two players recording multiple swiped bags in a game. Both Cameron Baranek and Thomas Jones stole two bases while Jose Devers added one. The highlight of the game came on a well-executed double-steal as Devers broke for second base, inducing a throw from Crawdads catcher Sam Huff, allowing Jones to break from third and slide head first across the plate. The Grasshoppers' previous season-high was three stolen bases, accomplished three times in 2018.

DOUBLE THE TRIPLES

Jose Devers became the first Grasshopper to triple twice in a game this season on June 8 against the BlueClaws. He finished 3-for-5 with a pair of RBI-triples, two of the team's season-high three triples in the game. In the first inning, he scored Cameron Baranek from first base with a drive to the right-field corner, and in a fit of déjà vu, hit a similar ball in the third that also brought Baranek across the plate.

NO FREE PASSES

Greensboro pitchers have put together 16 games in 2018 without walking a batter, most recently on July 7 at Lexington.

FIRING BLANKS BACK-TO-BACK

The Grasshoppers tossed back-to-back shutouts on May 20 against Lakewood to run the pitching staff's scoreless innings streak to 17.0 innings, including the final three innings May 19 against Lakewood. Since the franchise became the Grasshoppers in 2005, the team has thrown consecutive shutouts seven times, including thrice in both games of a doubleheader.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

The Grasshoppers will be well-represented when in the 59th Annual South Atlantic League All-Star Game presented by Pizza Hut on Tuesday, June 19, at First National Bank Field with two players and four members of the field staff selected for the event. Starting pitcher Ryan Lillie joins designated hitter Lazaro Alonso as the two Grasshoppers players selected, while manager Todd Pratt, pitching coach Mark DiFelice, athletic trainer Eric Reigelsberger, and strength & conditioning coach Brady Fitzgerald will serve on the field staff for the Northern Division Squad.

MULTI-HOMER HOPPERS

For the first time since 2016 and the eighth time since the start of the 2008 season, Greensboro had two men with two home runs in the same game as both Micah Brown and Marcos Rivera hit a pair of big flies on June 1 vs. West Virginia, part of a 5-home run game for the Grasshoppers.

Jhonny Santos put on a show for Hoppers fans May 21 against Kannapolis, hitting two home runs in a 5-3 win over the Intimidators in Greensboro. Santos' first career multi-HR game is the 50th by a Hoppers hitter since the start of 2008 and second this year.

SAL announced Hall of Fame Class of 2018: Eric Krupa, President of the South Atlantic League, has announced the members of the Class of 2018 for the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame. The three new inductees will be honored as part of the festivities surrounding the 59th Annual South Atlantic League All-Star Game, scheduled to be played on June 19, 2018, at First National Bank Field, home of the Greensboro Grasshoppers. This year's class includes three Greensboro natives: a former player in the Western Carolina League, a former mayor and a current executive. Former Hickory Rebels player Ken Free, Former Greensboro Mayor Jim Melvin, and Greensboro Grasshopper President and General Manager Donald Moore will be inducted.

A lifelong Greensboro resident who is in his 17th year as President/GM of the Greensboro club, Donald Moore has been recognized as the SAL Executive of the Year four times (2006, 2007, 2008, 2013). Under Donald's leadership, the Grasshoppers have received the SAL Club Merit Award five times (2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2013), the SAL Community Service Award three times (2014, 2015, 2016) and the Bob Freitas Award, given by Baseball America to the best Class-A organization, in 2008. Donald also serves as chairman of the SAL Scheduling Committee and is also the founder and President of the North Carolina Association of Professional Baseball Teams (NCAPBT), which consists of the 10 minor league teams in North Carolina. Moore was inducted into the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2010 for his outstanding service to the community through his work with the Grasshoppers and many other youth sports initiatives he has been a part of in his lifetime.

LILLIE LILLIE!

Ryan Lillie tossed 7.0 shutout innings with eight strikeouts to pitch Greensboro past Augusta in the team's first game at the new SRP Park in North Augusta, S.C. The right hander worked around three hits and walked no batters in a 3-1 win for the Grasshoppers. Lillie threw 88 pitches with 62 strikes en route to the win, improving to 2-1.

JONES DEBUTS WITH PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Thomas Jones was named the first weekly award winner for the Grasshoppers this season, winning South Atlantic League Player of the Week honors for April 30-May 6, his first week with the team. He hit .350 (7-20) with a double, four home runs, six RBI, and eight runs scored in five games with Greensboro, starting with his debut on May 2.

JONESING FOR OFFENSE

When it comes to first impressions, no Hopper has made a bigger or better one than outfielder Thomas Jones, who joined the team May 2. In his first three games with Greensboro (May 2-4), he went 2-for-4 in each game with at least one home run in all contests. In total, he hit four home runs in three games while batting .500 (6-12) with a double and six RBI. The Marlins selected Jones, now 20 years old, in the third round of the June 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of Laurens (S.C.) High School.

WALKING OFF THE SUNS

Michael Hernandez gave the Grasshoppers their first walk-off home run of the season on May 2 as part of his career day, driving in four runs in an 10-8 win over the Hagerstown Suns. Hernandez finished 3-for-5 with a pair of RBI-singles to go along with his game-winning 2-run home run off Jared Brasher with no outs in the bottom of the ninth. It was the Grasshoppers second walk-off win of the season and seventh win in the final at-bats during the 2018 season.

IT'S MILLER TIME

Brandon Miller opened his May 1 start against the Suns by retiring the first 16 batters faced, taking a perfect game one out into the sixth inning in his fifth start of the season. Hagerstown eventually caught up to Miller, chasing him from the game after 5.1 innings pitched. The right-hander took no decision that day, allowing four runs on three hits with a walk and five strikeouts in the outing.

EVERYBODY HITS

All nine batters hit safely for the first time in 2018 when Greensboro fought off Asheville, 11-7 in 10 innings, on April 29. Infielders Jose Devers and Lazaro Alonso led the 16-hit charge with three hits each as the Grasshoppers batted around in the top of the 10th for a 7-run inning. In the big frame, the team collected six hits, including four doubles, to run away from the Tourists after Asheville rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth to force the extra inning.

BEGGS BAFFLES BATTERS

Dustin Beggs dominated out of the bullpen on April 27 at Asheville, striking out eight batters over 3.0 nearly-perfect innings of work. He struck out the first six batters he faced in perfect sixth and seventh innings. After inducing a groundout to open the bottom of the eighth and allowing a base hit – the lone batter to reach against him on the night – the right-hander fanned the final two batters he faced to close his outing. Greensboro fell to Asheville, 3-2.

SHARP STINGER AGAINST THE GREENJACKETS:

In their first series against the new-look Augusta GreenJackets, Greensboro was stung early as Malique Ziegler led off the game for Augusta with a first-pitch home run off Hoppers starting pitcher Taylor Braley. The GreenJackets hit two home runs in the opening frame, with Ryan Kirby adding a 2-run blast, en route to a 7-4 lead over the Grasshoppers.
