Cardinals' Chirps...

- Last game... The Hooks received another shut-down starting pitching performance on Friday from RHP Enoli Paredes, dealing 6.0 scoreless frames with nine Ks to pace Corpus Christi to the 3-0 win. Paredes and LHP Austin Warner alternated a pair of scoreless stanzas to start, before Hooks CF Ronnie Dawson (2R) and 3B Abraham Toro (solo) went back-to-back with homers in the 3rd to make it 3-0. That was all Warner allowed in his 6.0 quality innings, followed by scoreless relief from RHP Roel Ramirez and RHP Junior Fernandez. However, rehabbing Astros hurlers RHP Joe Smith and RHP Collin McHugh dealt 1.2 perfect relief innings, before 1.1 scoreless frames from RHP Colin McKee to close the three-run win for Corpus.
- Tough to K (normally)... Although the Hooks have struck out an impressive 26 batters through the first two games, the Cardinals have been the 3rd- hardest team to strike out this season with 614 Ks on the campaign. Springfield does not have a single batter ranking in the league's top 25 strikeout totals, with OF Dylan Carlson leading the club with a reasonable total of 55 Ks in 264 at-bats.
- Carlson keeps coming home... OF Dylan Carlson scored again on Wednesday and leads all of Double-A with 51 runs on the season. The 20 year old is on pace to blow past his career-high 68 runs that he scored in 112 games between Low-Peoria and High-A Palm Beach a season ago.
- OK, O'Keefe... C Brian O'Keefe's base hit and walk on Friday continued a great stretch for the backstop, who has hit safely in eight of his last 10 games and is batting .314 (11x35) with three homers, a double, five RBIs, six walks and three runs during that stretch. After hitting .222 in 17 April games, O'Keefe is batting .263 (26x99) with 16 walks in 30 games since May 1.
- Not Miesing around... OF Johan Mieses continued a productive Texas trip with an RBI double on Thursday and is 5x19 with a home run, a double and three RBIs through the first five games in the lonestar state. Looking back a bit further, Mieses has hit safely in 11 of his last 16 games with a .288 clip (17x59), four homers, 12 RBIs, three doubles, five walks and nine runs.
- Love the glove... The Cardinals have continued to be the top fielding team in the Texas League with a .984 fielding %, only committing 41 errors in 2,572 total chances through 73 games. Springfield has only committed six miscues in 19 games in June with only three errors in their last 12 games.
- All-Stars announced... With All-Star rosters announced, OF Dylan Carlson and LHP Austin Warner have both been voted to the North Division squad. Carlson has been one of the most complete players in the circuit this season, ranking among league leaders in a whopping 13 categories, including runs (1st, 51), total bases (2nd, 132), extra-base hits (t-1st, 31), home runs (10th, 10), RBIs (t-7th, 41), average (.10th, .284), hits (5th, 75), triples (3rd, 6), doubles (t-7th, 15), walks (7th, 33), slugging % (6th, .500), on-base % (10th, .367) and on-base-plus-slugging % (6th, .867). Warner currently leads the league with 87 strikeouts, while ranking 7th in ERA (3.83), t-2nd in innings (82.1), 8th in WHIP (1.31) and 8th in BAA (.261).
