RANCHO CUCAMONGA QUAKES (87-53) AT Lancaster JetHawks (70-70)

RHP Isaac Anderson (10-6, 3.67 ERA) vs. RHP Antonio Santos (4-3, 5.21 ERA)

TODAY'S GAME: The Quakes continue the first round of the South Division Playoffs at The Hangar taking on the Lancaster JetHawks (Colorado Rockies Affiliate). Today is game two of a best-of-five series to decide who will represent the South Division in the California League Championship Series.

VS LANCASTER: The Quakes square off against Lancaster for the third straight year in the California League playoffs. Last season, the JetHawks eliminated in Quakes in game four of the South Division Finals. This year, Rancho owned the upper-hand in the over season series besting Lancaster 17-11 but were just 4-8 at The Hangar.

LAST TIME OUT: The Quakes scuffled out of the gate in the opener of the California League South Division Finals, dropping the first game of a best-of-five series to the JetHawks 8-4. Rancho's pitching staff allowed four home runs on the night and the offense was unable to overcome a late six-run deficit. Leo Crawford was tagged for four runs in the first inning while his counterpart Brandon Gold retired the first nine Quakes hitters. Jeren Kendall singled home Connor Wong in the fifth to open Rancho's scoring. Bret Boswell was locked in on Wednesday night, smashing his second home run of the game off Dan Jagiello in the seventh to make it 8-2 Hawks. Gold (1-0) worked into the eighth but was tagged for back-to-back home runs by Omar Estevez and Cody Thomas before being pulled. The right-hander struck out seven over 7.1 innings and earned the win while Crawford (0-1) suffered his first loss as a Quake.

TITLE DREAMS: The Quakes enter the 2018 playoffs chasing their third California League Championship in franchise history. Rancho's two previous titles were in 1994 over the Modesto A's and in 2015, sweeping the San Jose Giants. This is the 15th overall playoff appearance in franchise history and the fourth consecutive for the Quakes.

POST-SEASON AWARDS: California League Post-Season Awards were announced by the league office on August 21st and for the fourth time in team history, the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes are sporting the league's MVP, as former Quake Rylan Bannon has been voted as the 2018 California League Most Valuable Player. Bannon was also named the league's Rookie of the Year, an award given to a Cal League Player in his first "full" year in pro baseball. It's the second time in as many years that the Quakes have swept both the MVP and ROY awards, as DJ Peters nailed down both those honors in 2017. Over 89 games with the Quakes in 2018, Bannon, the former eighth-round pick out of Xavier in 2017, hit .296 with a league-high 20 homers (at the time of the trade) and 61 RBIs. He also led the league in walks (59) and had an on-base percentage of .402. Gavin Lux (SS), Cody Thomas (OF) and Dustin May (P) were also recognized as Cal League post-season All-Stars.

SINGLE SEASON WINS RECORD: Following a 16-5 win over Inland Empire on August 26th, the Quakes secured their 81st win of the season and set the franchise's single season wins record. The 2018 Quakes surpass the 2011 ball club that finished the year 80-60. Rancho ended the year 34-games over the .500 mark (87-53), the third best overall record in minor league baseball behind only the Bowling Green Hot Rods (90-49, Midwest League) and Lakewood BlueClaws (87-51, South Atlantic League).

OHH MY OMAR: INF Omar Estevez closed the regular season on a 25-game hitting streak, the longest streak in the California League this season, besting JetHawk Colton Welker's previous best 20-game streak. Over the stretch, Estevez batted .354 (39-for-110) with 24 RBI's and ten multi-hit games. Estevez tied the longest Rancho hitting streak since the turn of the decade when Roberto Lopez hit in 25 straight games during the 2010 season under Angels affiliation.

RECENT ROSTER MOVES: On Tuesday, RHP Sven Schueller was placed on the Disabled List and LHP Austin Hamilton was transferred to Rancho Cucamonga from Double-A Tulsa of the Texas League. On Saturday, LHP Michael Boyle was transferred to Double-A Tulsa of the Texas League and RHP Yimi Garcia was optioned from the Los Angeles Dodgers to Rancho Cucamonga.

ANDERSON THE ACE: RHP Isaac Anderson is scheduled to make his first appearance of the playoffs tonight in game two of the South Division Finals. During the regular season, Anderson finished 10-6 with a 3.67 ERA becoming the only pitcher to touch the 10-win mark on the season. Over three meetings against Lancaster this season, opposing hitters batted .370 against Anderson (17-for-46) with one home run and seven runs scored over 11 innings. The Wichita, KS native was picked up by the Dodgers in the 40th round of the 2015 draft out of Wichita State.

OPPOSING PITCHER: RHP Antonio Santos is called upon to start today in place of LHP Ty Culbreth, who was scratched from today's scheduled appearance. Santos wrapped up the regular season with 12 starts for the JetHawks, finishing the year with a 4-3 record and a 5.21 ERA following his callup from Low-A Asheville in July. Santos faced Rancho Cucamonga three times during the year and allowed an opponent batting average of .345 with six home runs and 15 runs allowed over 12.1 innings. Santos was signed out of the Dominican Republic by the Rockies in 2015 at 18-years-old.

REHABBERS: After Julio Urias's trio of outings, the Quakes have had eight Dodgers join the club as apart of major league rehab assignment this season. LHP Hyun-Jin Ryu and RHP Zac Rosscup both joined the Quakes on August 2nd and combined for five shutout innings. RHP Walker Buehler joined the Quakes for a rehab start on July 3rd. Rich Hill joined the Quakes for a start in Lake Elsinore on 6/14, striking out ten over 4.1 innings. Dodgers INF Justin Turner put on the uniform along with INF Logan Forsythe in a weekend series vs. Visalia (5/12-5/13). Turner was 0-for-6 at the plate while Forsythe finished 1-for-10 with a double during the time in Rancho. Yasiel Puig joined the club on rehab assignment for one game (5/8) in Lake Elsinore. Puig was 0-for-4 at the plate and was removed from the game in the seventh inning.

FIRST-HALF CHAMPS: The Quakes put together an impressive winning stretch over the final three weeks of the first half en route to their first-half championship. Winners of 13 of their final 19 games heading into the All-Star Break while also taking the upper hand in six of the last seven series, Rancho also held the best divisional record in the league over the first half at 26-17. The first-half championship is the third in the Dodger era (2011, 2015, 2018) and first under manager Drew Saylor, sending the Quakes to the California League Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season.

SAYLOR & THE STAFF: The skipper of the Quakes for a third consecutive year is Manager Drew Saylor, who has led the team to the Cal League Playoffs in each of his three seasons. Saylor, whose team went 76-64 last season, is just the third manager in team history to lead the team for three seasons (Mike Basso 1996-1998, Bobby Meacham 2002-2004). The hitting coach is Justin Viele, a Fullerton native who enters his second year with the Dodgers. In 2017, the former Santa Clara Bronco was the hitting coach for the Ogden Raptors of the Pioneer League. Taking over pitching coach duties is Connor McGuinness who also enters his second year in the Dodgers' system. Last season, the Arlington, Virginia native worked in the same role for the Great Lakes Loons of the Midwest League, after spending three of the four previous years working for his alma mater, Emory University. The final member of Saylor's staff is assistant coach Petie Montero, another second-year member of the Dodgers' system, who coached in the Dominican Summer League last year.

NINE AND ON TIME: The Quakes completed 69 of their 70 first-half games in nine innings and have played just three extended games all season. The Quakes first needed extras in the 68th contest of the year on June 15th at Inland Empire. The Quakes pulled out a 3-0 victory over the 66ers and are 2-1 in extra inning games after an 8-3 defeat of the Giants in ten innings on July 5th. Rancho is outscoring opponents 9-2 in extra innings this season.
