Stockton Ports (51-54, 18-19) AT RANCHO CUCAMONGA QUAKES (62-43, 21-16)

RHP Brady Feigl (5-6, 4.09 ERA) vs. LHP John Rooney (1-1, 4.35 ERA)

TODAY'S GAME: Game No. 106 of the 2019 season is set for a 12:05 PM first pitch against the Stockton Ports (Oakland Athletics affiliate), as Rancho finalizes a three-game set at LoanMart Field. After the conclusion of today's contest, the Smile Generation presents Post-Game Kids Run the Bases, as the little ones are free to practice their best home-run trot!

VS STOCKTON: This is the 13th of 16 total meetings between the Quakes and the Ports and the sixth of six games to be played at LoanMart Field. So far in 2019, Rancho holds a two-game advantage over Stockton, taking seven out of the twelve tilts. The last time these two clubs squared off, from Saturday, July 20th to the Monday, the 22nd, the Quakes snatched two out of three from the Ports at Banner Island. However, in the series finale, Stockton salvaged a win in historic fashion with their first no-hitter since 1990.

ANOTHER RUBBER GAME: The Quakes (62-43, 21-16) dropped game two of the set to the Ports (51-54, 18-19) on Saturday night by a final tally of 7-3. After dominating in game one, Rancho got dominated by Stockton in game two. Dillon Paulson and Jeter Downs provided the only offensive highlights of the night, as Paulson tallied his first RBI of the season with a double in the second, and Downs gave the club some too-little-too-late life with a two-run two-bagger in the ninth. Stockton was led by Lazaro Armenteros, as he belted a two-run homer in the top of the seventh to put the nail in the coffin. The win went to Michael Danielak (1-0), tossing a scoreless 1.2 innings. Gerardo Carrillo (2-7) shouldered the loss, surrendering three earned in three-plus frames.

WHAT'S ON THE LINE?: If the Boys in Blue fall tomorrow to Stockton, they will have lost four out of five for the second time in as many weeks. It would also serve as their fourth series loss in their last five attempts, something they have not come close to doing all year long.

SCUFFLIN' TOWARDS AUGUST: After starting the month at 12-1, the Quakes now find themselves just 5-8 in their last 13 games. Rancho has dropped three out of their last four series, all coming to teams with significantly worse overall records than them (Stockton: 51-54, San Jose: 49-57, Inland Empire: 39-67). In their last six defeats, the offense has gone silent, as they have scored three or less in five out of those six contests.

WHAT'S GOING ON?: In the month of July, Rancho is hitting .227 as a team. That is the worst clip in all of the California League. However, even amidst their team-average struggles, they have scored the most runs (136) this month. Furthermore, the Quakes' pitching staff has the Cal League's best ERA in the month of July (2.93).

WINNING THE MONTH: Despite their recent struggles, Rancho has already clinched a fourth-straight winning month of baseball (April: 16-10, May: 15-12, June: 14-12). In the month of July, the Quakes are playing to the tune of a 17-9 record. They kicked off the month with a nine-game win streak and made it to a season-high 22 games over the .500 mark, following a win over this Ports squad on July 13th.

DOWN TO THE NITTY-GRITTY: As the Cal League finds itself in the second half of the second half, the standings in both divisions are neck-and-neck. Coming into play on Sunday, Stockton sits at 18-19, just three games back of the North Division's current second-half leader, Visalia (21-16). San Jose, who is 8-2 in their last 10 games, is just two games back of the Rawhide. In the South, due to a loss by both Rancho and Lancaster, and a win by Lake Elsinore on Saturday, first place is separated by just two games. The Quakes and the JetHawks are tied at 21-16, while the Storm are lurking at 19-18.

JOHN ROONEY: The Melrose, NY native, LHP John Rooney toes the slab for Rancho on Sunday afternoon, making his third start for the Quakes on the year. In 2019 with the Quakes, Rooney has pitched to a 1-1 record with a 4.35 ERA. Rooney's last start came on the July 23rd, against Inland Empire, as he tossed five-plus innings, allowing two earned on five hits, while notching three strikeouts and three walks. In an eventual 4-3 win for the Boys in Blue, the southpaw earned his first career Cal League win. Sunday's start against the Ports marks his first-career start against the ball club. In 2019 with Great Lakes, Rooney went 5-2 in 11 starts with 2.63 ERA. The Los Angeles Dodgers drafted the Hofstra University product in the third round of the 2018 draft.

BRADY FEIGL: Right-hander Brady Feigl makes his 19th start and 21st overall appearance of the year for Stockton in the final game of the series. In his last outing, versus Modesto (July 24th), he shouldered the loss, allowing six earned runs on eight hits over 3.1 innings. Over the course of his last two outings, the Chesterfield, MO native has surrendered 15 runs (11 earned) in a total of just four innings. Sunday afternoon's start will be the third time in Feigl's career that he faces Rancho, in what is his first stint in the Cal League. Feigl sports a 5-6 record, accompanied by a 4.09 ERA so far in his second professional season. Feigl was drafted by Oakland out of Ole Miss in the fifth round of the 2018 draft.
