WHO WILL BE THE 2019 PLAYOFF CHAMPIONS?

MINOR LEAGUE BASEBALL
WEAR YOUR FUN

June 2019

Dear NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE Fans:

The 2019 season is the 81st consecutive year of the NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE – the oldest, continuously-operated CLASS A® league in professional baseball.

During the 2018 season, the Mahoning Valley Scrappers (a Cleveland Indians affiliate) fought hard to win the NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE's PINCKNEY DIVISION with a record of 42-33 (a .560 winning percentage) and slipped past second place Auburn Doubledays (a Washington Nationals affiliate), which earned the wild card spot in the playoffs with a 41-35 record (a .539 winning percentage). The Hudson Valley Renegades (a Tampa Bay Rays affiliate) seized the McNAMARA DIVISION title with a League-best 45-30 record (a .600 winning percentage) and the Tri-City ValleyCats (a Houston Astros affiliate) topped the STEDLER DIVISION with a 42-33 record (a .560 winning percentage). The Renegades, which claimed the 2017 NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE championship, was seeking its 3rd championship in 6 years. In the semi-finals, the Renegades and ValleyCats swept the Doubledays and Scrappers in two games. The final championship ending was exciting. In the top of the 12th inning, ValleyCat's Alex Holderback hit a two-run game winning RBI single to take the lead 4-2. In the top of the 12th, ValleyCat's relief pitcher Jacob Billingsley held off a bases-loaded Renegade rally to earn a save and to win the 2018 NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE championship for the Tri-City ValleyCats.

The Staten Island Yankees (a New York Yankees affiliate) will host the 2019 NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE All-Star Game at Richmond County Bank Ballpark (Staten Island, NY) on Wednesday, August 20th. For tickets to or more information about the 2019 ASG, visit www.milb.com/Staten-Island.

For more information about the League or its clubs, including schedule, game times, box scores, standings, statistics, and more, visit www.NewYork-PennLeague.com.

So, sit back and relax, and allow NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE clubs to supply that special magic of NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE baseball at affordable prices in an enjoyable, family-friendly surrounding.

Very truly yours,

NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE

Charlie Wride

December 16, 1936-June 21, 2018

Charlie Wride has served Auburn baseball in almost every way imaginable outside of putting on the uniform. Has been a board member, PA announcer, and general goodwill ambassador. Wride, a New York-Penn League Hall of Famer (Class of 2014) was also the only league historian and had been a part of the baseball scene in Auburn since 1964.

Wride, a lifelong resident of Auburn, was also a beloved high school teacher at Mynderse Academy in Seneca Falls, NY. He could be seen at Falcon Park-both old and new stadiums-in a variety of roles throughout the years. He served as Director of Auburn Community Baseball for 10 years (1964-1974), then Vice President from 1975-1995. Wride was also the Public Address announcer the final year of the old stadium (1995) until 2005. He helped in various other roles at the ballpark including creating and selling gameday programs, generating media guides for teams and personnel, Auburn Community Baseball historian, official scorekeeper, media coordinator and liaison for umpires.

His extensive experience, knowledge and background in the New York-Penn League eventually turned into a new role when he was appointed league historian in 1998, and he maintained that role even through his most recent struggles with his health. His role as league historian was vital to revising the league's statistics for the annual media guide, as well as compiling a running list of former New York-Penn league players, coaches and umpires to appear in Major League Baseball. That current list is over 3,000 participants. Furthermore, his research was also deemed invaluable in helping to "fill in the blanks" for many records, statistics, rosters and players in league history.

Charlie had a way with people that was endearing to so many that came in contact with him. His sharp wit, great sense of humor and welcoming nature went beyond the ballpark and blossomed into several friendships throughout the baseball world. He would befriend any baseball fan and always gave time to help where needed. Even to the time of his passing, Charlie was still in contact with over 175 current and former umpires, as well as numerous other managers, coaches, coordinators and more.

In 2017, the Doubledays front office announced the creation of the Wride Club, a special VIP experience at Falcon Park, that was dedicated in honor of this great man. The Doubledays have decided to donate proceeds from any individual that purchases a Wride Club membership during the season to the NY-P League Charitable Foundation.

Charlie will be greatly missed by all who knew him. ■

NYPL Scholarship Program

For the eleventh consecutive year, the New York-Penn Charitable Foundation will host a scholarship competition for graduating high school seniors from each of the league's 14 markets. This year a total of $10,250 in one-time scholarships will be awarded as part of the competition in the form of three scholarships of $2,500 and eleven scholarships in the amount of $250.00.

The NYPL Scholarship Program is open to any graduating senior from a public or private high school within the league's footprint, who has been accepted at any two or four-year college or university, vocational or technical education institution. Applicants will be judged based on academic performance, volunteer and extracurricular activities, and the impact their local NYPL club and Minor League Baseball has had on their lives.

The Scholarship Program consists of two stages - a local round and the league round. Students apply directly to their local NYPL team in the local round and one applicant is chosen by each of the 14 clubs to advance to the league round. The 14 local winners compete for three $2,500 scholarships and the other eleven local winners receive $250 each for books.

"The New York-Penn League Charitable Foundation initiated the scholarship program in 2009 as a way to assist high school seniors from within our league's footprint who not only meet and exceed traditional scholarship criteria, but have also demonstrated the positive benefits their local NYPL club has had on their life," said Ben J. Hayes, President of the New York-Penn League. "The Foundation is pleased to have this scholarship program in place and to support our 14 member clubs in their year-round community outreach efforts."

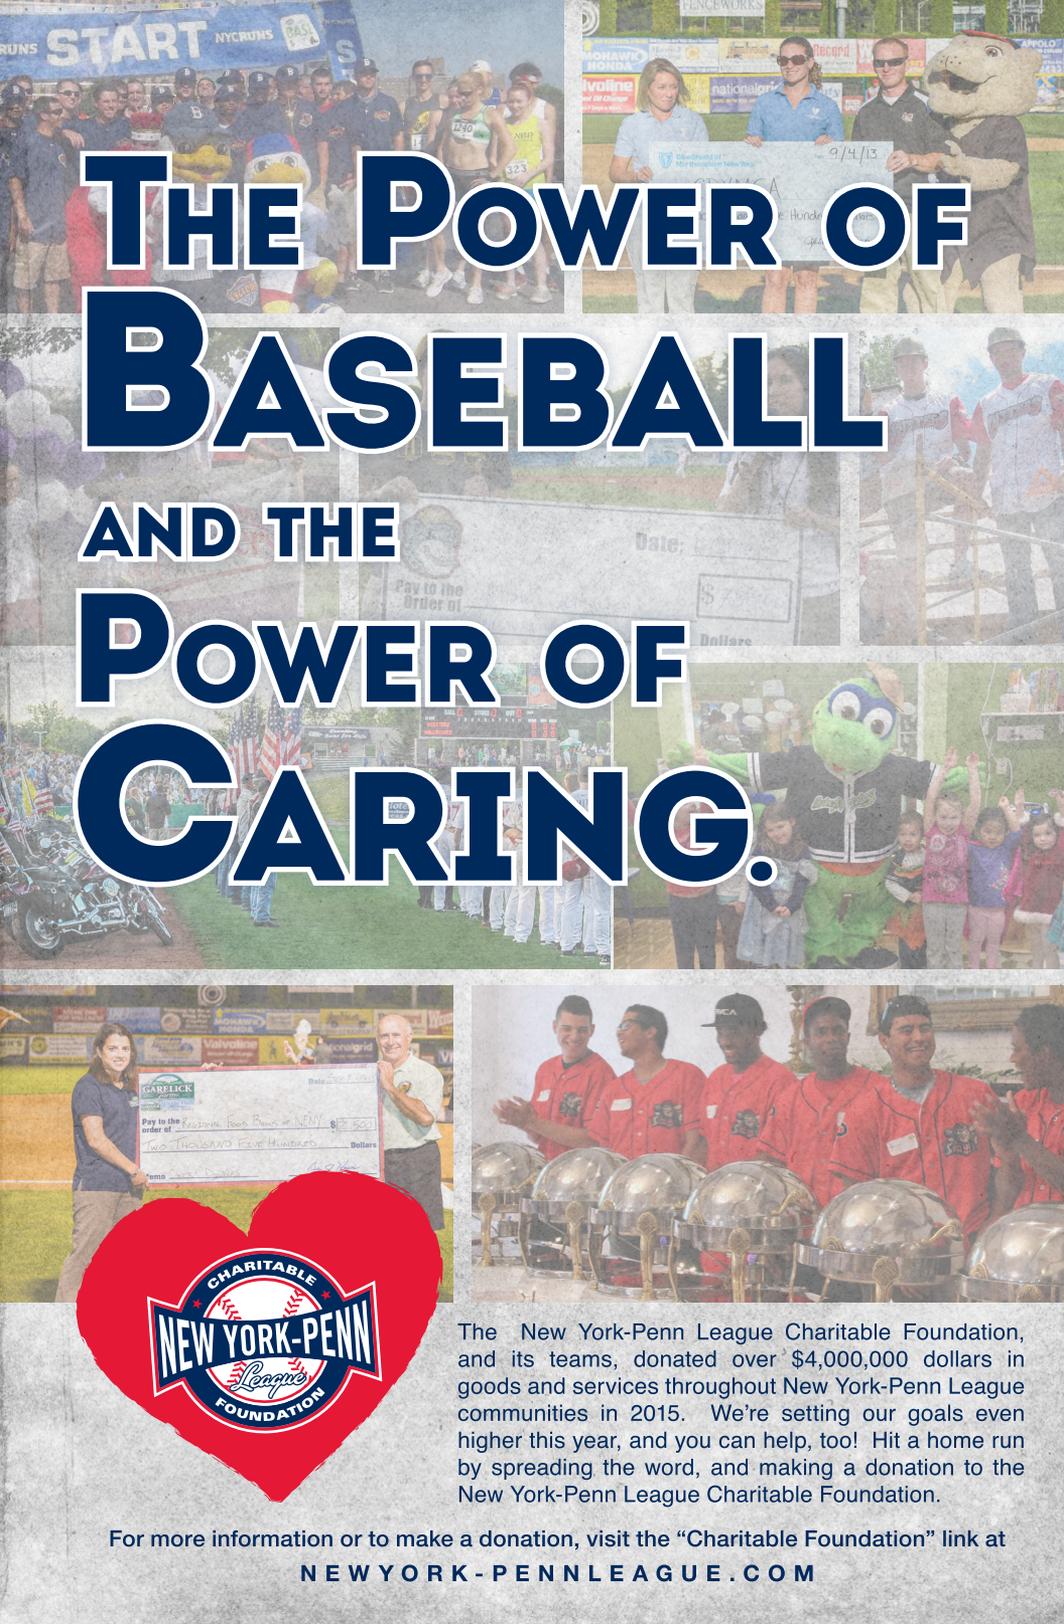

Students must have a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) and participate in extracurricular activities. Applicants should also be involved with community service and must provide letters of recommendation, a copy of their high school transcript, and letter of acceptance to the college or university that they will attend.

The New York-Penn League Hall of Fame was established in 2012 to recognize individuals for their overall accomplishments or contributions to the league both on the field of play or in an administrative role. The Hall of Fame inductions include three parts recognizing NYPL alumni, notable league personnel and team officials, and individuals nominated and voted on by New York-Penn League clubs.

Wade Boggs

Boggs hit .263 for the Elmira Pioneers in 1976. He would not hit below .300 again until 1992, his final year with the Red Sox. While with the Red Sox, Boggs won five American League batting titles, including four consecutive, from 1985-1988. He remains the only player in Major League history to collect 200 hits and score 100 runs in seven consecutive seasons. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2005 and to the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2010.

Nellie Fox

Fox hit .304 for the Jamestown Falcons in 1944. Fox spent 19 years in the major leagues, 14 of which playing for the Chicago White Sox, earning 12 All-Star selections during that time. The highlight of Fox's career came in 1959 when he helped lead the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years while being named the American League's Most Valuable Player. Fox was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Phil Niekro

Niekro was 2-1 with a 7.76 ERA for the Wellsville Braves in 1959. Nicknamed "Knucksie" because of his skill and use with the knuckleball, Niekro went on to win 318 games in the majors and was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Tony Perez

Perez played two full seasons for the Geneva Redlegs, hitting .279 in 1960 and .348 with 27 home runs in 1961. Perez was one of the premier RBI men of his generation, driving in 100 or more runs seven times during his 23-year career. Perez, a 7-time All-Star, played in two World Series Championships for the 1975 and 1976 Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000, and the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2011.

Jim Rice

Rice hit .256 for the 1971 Williamsport Red Sox. One of the most feared right-handed hitters of his era, Rice hit 20 or more home runs in 11 of his 12 major league seasons. He led the American League in total bases four times, home runs three times, RBIs twice, and slugging percentage twice. Rice was named an All-Star 8 times and won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1978. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2009, and to the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2011.

Warren Spahn

Spahn played for the 1940 Bradford Bees, finishing the season 5-4 with a 2.73 ERA. Spahn would dominate the opposing hitters throughout his 21 year career and is the 5th winningest pitcher of all time (363 wins). Spahn was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973.

NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE HALL OF FAME

Robin Yount

Yount played for the Newark Co-Pilots in 1973 hitting .285 in his only minor league season. Yount played 20 seasons, all with the Milwaukee Brewers, and led all other players in hits during the 1980s. In addition to his 1982 and 1989 Most Valuable Player awards, Yount earned 3 All-Star selections, 3 Silver Slugger awards and a Gold Glove. He finished his career with 3,142 hits and was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, and the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2010.

Robert Julian

Served as President of the NYPL from 1992 until 2001. He presided over numerous franchises shift to larger markets during his presidency that saw league attendance almost tripling from 684,000 fans in 1992 to 1.6 million fans in 2001. The league's yearly individual award for Community and Baseball Service is named in his honor.

Vince McNamara

McNamara was named president of the New York-Penn League in 1948 and served as head of the loop for 37 years. In 1972, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues paid tribute to McNamara for his years of service by saluting him as the "King of Baseball." One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as is the award for the Outstanding Club in the NYPL.

Sam Nader

After helping to bring baseball back to Oneonta with the Oneonta Red Sox, he purchased the newly named Oneonta Yankees in 1967. Nader served in many roles and held titles as an owner and executive with the team until selling the franchise in 2008. He was an integral part of the league in his over 40 years as an owner

Leo Pinckney

In 1958, he spearheaded a successful fundraising campaign to get Auburn's city team into the New York-Penn League. He served as the Auburn's first president and was later named the president of the New York-Penn League, a position he held from 1984 until 1992. One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as well as the league's Promotional Award given annually to the team deemed best in the areas of promotions.

Robert Stedler

Stedler is considered a "founder" of the New York-Penn League. He served as League President for 10 years. One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as well as the Stedler Award, given yearly to the player in the league deemed likely to go the farthest in pro baseball. In addition, the yearly individual award for the Executive of the Year is named after him.

John Elway

Elway spent the summer of 1982 playing for the Oneonta Yankees of the New York-Penn League. He would hit .318 with 4 home runs and 25 RBI in 45 games. He, of course, went on to have a Hall of Fame career as quarterback for the NFL's Denver Broncos.

Randy Johnson

The 6-foot-10-inch left hander began his professional career with the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League during the 1985 season, starting 8 games and striking out 21 batters. In 22 MLB seasons Johnson would amass 303 victories. His 4,875 strikeouts are the most all-time by a left-handed pitcher and second overall behind only Nolan Ryan.

Charlie Wride

Wride has been a board member, team historian, PA Announcer, umpire attendant, and general goodwill ambassador. In recognition of his efforts, Charlie was inducted into the Auburn Baseball Wall of Fame in 2007. Charlie has devoted countless hours to the New York-Penn League as the circuit's historian, since 1998. His research has been critical in helping to "fill in the blanks" for many records, statistics, and rosters in league history.

Jim Leyland

As a member of the 1965 Jamestown Tigers, Leyland hit .237 in 82 games as a catcher and third-baseman. It was as a manager in the Major Leagues that Leyland found his greatest success on the diamond, leading the Florida Marlins to a World Series championship in 1997, and the Pittsburgh Pirates to three straight division titles (1990, 1991, and 1992). Guiding the Detroit Tigers to the 2006 American League Championship, Leyland became the seventh manager in history to win pennants in both the National and American Leagues. He is a three-time Manager of the Year Award winner, twice in the National League (1990 and 1992), and once in the American League (2006).

Don Mattingly

Playing first-base and outfield for the Oneonta Yankees in 1979, "Donnie Baseball" hit .349 with 31 RBI's in 53 games. In his 14-year Major League playing career, he amassed 2,153 hits, 442 doubles, 222 HR, and 1,099 RBI and posted a lifetime batting average of .307. Mattingly won the 1984 American League batting title, was selected as the American League MVP in 1985. He was a six time all-star and nine time gold glove winner at first base. His number 23 was retired by the Yankees in 1996.

Paul Velte

Velte began his 39-year association with the NYPL in 1976 when he was appointed to Geneva Community Baseball (Geneva Cubs) Board of Directors later serving as vice-president and president of the team. He purchased the Geneva Cubs in 1988, eventually moving the team to Williamsport prior to the 1994 season. He remained owner/president of the Williamsport franchise through the 2014 season. Velte served as a member of various league committees and was a valuable and longtime member of the leagues Executive Committee.

Dick Allen

Allen began his professional career with the NYPL's Elmira Pioneers in 1960, hitting .281 with 8 home runs and 42 RBI. In his 15-year MLB career, Allen hit .292 with 351 home runs and 1,119 RBI. He was the NL Rookie of the Year in 1964 with the Philadelphia Phillies and the AL MVP in 1972 with the Chicago White Sox. Famed baseball historian Bill James ranks Allen with Jimmie Foxx and Mickey Mantle, and just a notch below Babe Ruth, as the four top long-distance sluggers ever to wield a baseball bat.

Jorge Posada

Posada was drafted by the NY Yankees in the 24th round of the 1990 amateur draft. In 1991, he appeared in 71 games for the Oneonta Yankees playing the majority of his time at second base (64 games), but it was in Oneonta that Posada began his transformation into a catcher. Posada made his MLB debut for the Yankees in 1995 and would go on to play 17 seasons in New York, serving as the primary catcher for the team from 1998 through 2010. For his career, he hit .273 with 275 home runs and 1,065 RBI. In 125 postseason games, he added 103 hits, 11 home runs, and 42 RBI. He was a five-time all-star, and part of five World Series championship teams.

Pete Rose

Nicknamed "Charlie Hustle" for his style of play, Rose began his professional career in the NYPL with the 1960 Geneva Redlegs hitting .277 on a team that also included National Baseball Hall of Fame member Tony Perez. Rose made his MLB debut with the Cincinnati Reds in 1963 when he was named the NL Rookie of the Year. In 24 MLB seasons, he hit .303 with 160 home runs and 1,314 RBI's. Rose is the holder of numerous MLB career records including; hits (4,256), games (3,562), at-bats (14,053) and singles (3,215). He won 3 NL batting crowns, was named to 17 NL All-Star teams at 5 different positions and was part of 3 World Series championship teams (1975, 1976, 1980).

Warner Fusselle

Warner was the original "Voice of the Cyclones," serving as the play-by-play broadcaster for the Brooklyn Cyclones from the team's Inaugural Season in 2001, through his passing in 2011. During his tenure with the Cyclones he also was behind the mic for the New York-Penn League's Inaugural All-Star Game in Brooklyn during the 2005 season. Prior to his passing, Warner did not miss a pitch of the first 11 seasons in Cyclones history. He even returned to "The Catbird Seat" - a name he borrowed from Red Barber - while still wearing a hospital bracelet so Cyclones fans wouldn't miss a beat. In addition to his work with the Cyclones, Warner was well known for his time as a member of This Week in Baseball starring Mel Allen. Fusselle, who began his time contributing TWIB Notes and TWIB Ticker, eventually took over as the host when Allen passed away in 1996. This Week in Baseball is often credited for the explosion of sports television programming, in no small part due to the work of Fusselle.

William L. Gladstone

Gladstone has been a team owner in the New York-Penn League since 1992 when he purchased the Pittsfield Mets. In 2002, he moved the team to Troy, N.Y. where it became highly successful both on and off the field winning league championships in 2010 and 2013. He served 12 years on the Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees as the representative of the New York-Penn League and during that time helped guide the growth of Minor League Baseball. In 1991, Gladstone became a member of the Board of Directors of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. He was crowned The King of Baseball at the 2015 Baseball Winter Meetings.

Buck Showalter

Showalter began his managerial career, at the age of 29, with the New York-Penn League's Oneonta Yankees in 1985. He led Oneonta to a record of 55-23 that season capturing the NYPL Championship. He returned in 1986 and managed the club to a short-season record 59 wins and just 18 losses for an overall winning percentage of .735. From there, it was onward and upward for Showalter, who is now in his 19th season as a skipper in the major leagues. In 1995, he led the NY Yankees to their first post-season berth in 14 years and then guided the Arizona Diamondbacks to their first division title in just their second season of existence in 1999. Since joining the Baltimore Orioles in 2010, Showalter has led an O's resurgence, leading them to playoff berths in 2012, 2014 and 2016. He is a three-time American League Manager of the Year.

Wayne Fuller

Fuller's voice was a constant in Batavia, N.Y., the birthplace of the New York-Penn League. For almost four decades Wayne served various roles for his hometown team including radio broadcaster, PA announcer and Official Scorer from his spot in the Batavia press box which was named the Wayne H. Fuller Press Box in 2009. He also served a variety of roles with Batavia High School sports leading to his selection to the Batavia High School Sports Hall of Fame and was a broadcaster for the Rochester Lancers soccer club of the NASL where he is a member of their Wall of Fame. A man for all seasons, he also, at various times, was a PA announcer for the Rochester Flash (soccer), Rochester Red Wings (baseball) and the Rochester Americans (hockey). Fuller, who passed away in February of 2018, will forever be remembered as a shining example of the connection between a team and a community and will surely be remembered by the countless players, coaches and broadcasters who have passed through Batavia on their way to the big leagues.

Marvin Goldklang

Goldklang serves as chairman of the Goldklang Group who has owned and operated the Hudson Valley Renegades since 1994. The group also owns the Charleston RiverDogs (Class A-South Atlantic League), St. Paul Saints (Independent-American Association) and Pittsfield Suns (Futures Collegiate Baseball League). Goldklang has been a member of the Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees since 2014. He is a 2004 inductee in the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame, a 2010 inductee in the Florida State League Hall of Fame and currently serves as Chairman of the Executive Committee for the South Atlantic League and a member of the New York Penn League Executive Committee. Additionally, he has been a limited partner of the New York Yankees for over thirty years.

Andres Galarraga

Galarraga played for the Jamestown Expos in 1981 hitting .260 with six home runs and 26 RBI in 47 games. He went on to have a 19-year Major League career playing for seven different teams including Montreal, St. Louis, Colorado, Atlanta, Texas, San Francisco and Anaheim. Nicknamed "The Big Cat" for his impressively quick reflexes as a first baseman in spite of his large physical size, Galarraga was a five time All-Star, won two National League Gold Glove Awards and two NL Silver Slugger Awards while being named the MLB Comeback Player of the Year Award on two occasions. He finished his career with 399 major league home runs and a .280 career batting average.
