Introduction

WELCOME TO THE 84TH EDITION OF THE NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE OFFICIAL GUIDE & RECORD BOOK. The 2014-15 season was the second played under the League's new alignment that features two seven-team divisions – the Central and Pacific – in the Western Conference and two eight-team divisions – the Atlantic and Metropolitan – in the Eastern Conference. Sixteen teams qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs including the top three in each Division and two wild card teams in each Conference. For the second consecutive season, the Western Conference wild card teams, Minnesota and Winnipeg, both came from the Central Division. (See the inside front cover for a list of teams in each division and information on the makeup of the regular-season schedule. Also see page 135 for the 2014-15 Final Standings and page 251 for a complete history of the League's playoff formats.)

Twelve teams finished the season with 100 points or more, topped by the four division winners. The New York Rangers recorded 113 points, Montreal 110 and both St. Louis and Anaheim had 109, but none of these teams earned a berth in the Stanley Cup Final where the third-place team from the Central Division (Chicago, 100 points) defeated the second-place team from the Atlantic Division (Tampa Bay, 108 points) in six close games. Four games in the Final were decided by one goal and three by a 2-1 score. This was the Blackhawks' third championship since 2010 and sixth in franchise history. Over 83 years the franchise won its first three Cup titles. Only six additional campaigns were needed to double that. In the modern NHL where salary cap constraints force clubs to constantly revamp their rosters, Chicago's recent success is a tribute to its strong core group of players led by captain Jonathan Toews and to the management and coaching team assembled by general manager Stan Bowman. Seven players – Toews, Niklas Hjalmarsson, Marian Hossa, Patrick Kane, Duncan Keith, Brent Seabrook and Patrick Sharp – played on all three Cup champions. (Playoff scores are found on page 239. A list of every playoff overtime game since 1918 begins on page 267 with 2015's games on page 270. The names of the champions as they are engraved on the barrel of the Stanley Cup are on page 243. Year-by-year Cup winners are listed on page 242.)

NHL regular-season overtime will have a new look for 2015-16 when teams will play three skaters a side for five minutes before going to a shootout if a goal has not been scored. A five-minute sudden-death overtime period became part of regular-season play beginning in 1983-84. This extra period was played five-on-five until 1999-2000 when four-on-four overtime was introduced along with an extra point in the standings for an overtime loss. The number of overtime games in which a goal was scored jumped from 27% in 1998-99 to 43.8% in 1999-2000. The shootout was added in 2005-06, but the number of games decided in overtime remained largely unchanged, ranging from 39.7% to 44.4% over the last four seasons. A version of three-on-three overtime proved very popular in the AHL in 2014-15 resulting in wide-open play and fewer shootouts so in 2015-16, NHL fans will be treated to the game's best players using lots of open ice to try to pop the winner and give their team an extra point in the standings. (A history of the NHL's Major Rule Changes is found on page 10. Twenty years of team-by-team Regular-Season Overtime Results are found on page 140. A Shootout Summary begins on page 143. Individual Overtime Scoring records are on page 169.)

Format changes in this edition of the NHL Guide & Record Book are found in the NHL Record Book, Draft and Clubs sections. The list of Year-by-Year Individual Regular-Season Leaders (page 192) and the all-time NHL Draft Summary (page 212) have been inverted so that the most recent seasons are at the top of the table rather than the bottom. Also for previous NHL Drafts, players selected who have not played in the NHL are listed in italics. This serves to provide an indicator of the strength of each Draft's top picks. Only five NHL Drafts – 2003, 1983, 1978, 1977 and 1973 – saw every player drafted in the first round reach the NHL. (Draft coverage begins on page 212. The complete 2015 NHL Draft begins on page 218. Top picks from 2014 to 1969 are on pages 218 to 226.)

Clubs (beginning with Anaheim on page 15) again present 30 mini team guides. Each club's four-page section contains key off-season signings, 2015-16 schedule and personnel, 2014-15 results and individual scoring, year-by-year record, club record book, retired numbers, coach and general manager's biographies, coach/captain/g.m. histories, all-time record vs. other clubs, the last 15 years of draft selections and a front office directory. New this year is additional information for the Dallas Stars (page 51) that details the franchise's unique backstory. The Dallas franchise played 26 seasons as the Minnesota North Stars before relocating to Texas in 1993. At the same time Minnesota entered the NHL, another club began play in Oakland, California, as the Seals. This club transferred to Cleveland for the 1976-77 season before merging with Minnesota prior to 1978-79. Oakland/California/Cleveland's results, records and coach/captain/g.m. histories have been added to the Dallas pages.

At the heart of this and every edition of the NHL Official Guide & Record Book is data on every one of the more than 7,000 players who have appeared in an NHL game, plus more than 1,000 prospects who have yet to do so. See the Prospect Register (page 275), Active Player Register (344), Goaltender Register (587), Retired Player Index (612), Retired Goaltender Index (657), regular-season and playoff Record Books (158 and 240), Award Winners (204), All-Star Teams (228) or Hockey Hall of Fame sections (235). A register of 2015's NHL free agent signings is found on page 666, a trade register on page 668 and late additions on page 663.

A key to the abbreviations and symbols used in individual player and goaltender data panels, along with useful information on how to use the Registers, is found on page 274. Each NHL club's minor-pro affiliates are found on page 12. A list of league abbreviations used in the Prospect, Player and Goaltender Registers is found on page 670.

Thanks to readers, correspondents, members of the media and hockey communications professionals throughout the game who make good use of what we produce.

Best wishes,

Referees (from top) Mike Leggo, Tim Peel, Marc Joannette, Kevin Pollock and Brad Meier worked their 1,000th NHL regular-season games in 2014-15. Leggo began his NHL career in 1998; Joannette, Meier and Peel in 1999, Pollock in 2000.

NHL History

1917 — National Hockey League organized November 26 in Montreal following suspension of operations by the National Hockey Association of Canada Limited (NHA). Montreal Canadiens, Montreal Wanderers, Ottawa Senators and Quebec Bulldogs attended founding meeting. Delegates decided to use NHA rules.

Toronto Arenas were later admitted as fifth team; Quebec decided not to operate during the first season. Quebec players allocated to remaining four teams.

Frank Calder elected president and secretary-treasurer.

First NHL games played December 19, with Toronto only arena with artificial ice. Clubs played 22-game split schedule.

1918 — Emergency meeting held January 3 due to destruction by fire of Montreal Arena which was home ice for both Canadiens and Wanderers.

Wanderers withdrew, reducing the NHL to three teams; Canadiens played remaining home games at 3,250-seat Jubilee rink.

Quebec franchise sold to P.J. Quinn of Toronto on October 18 on the condition that the team operate in Quebec City for 1918-19 season. Quinn did not attend the November League meeting and Quebec did not play in 1918-19.

1919-20 — NHL reactivated Quebec Bulldogs franchise. Former Quebec players returned to the club. New Mount Royal Arena became home of Canadiens. Toronto Arenas changed name to St. Patricks. Clubs played 24-game split schedule.

1920-21 — H.P. Thompson of Hamilton, Ontario made application for the purchase of an NHL franchise. Quebec franchise shifted to Hamilton with other NHL teams providing players to strengthen the club.

1921-22 — Split schedule abandoned. First and second place teams at the end of full schedule to play for championship.

1922-23 — Clubs agreed that players could not be sold or traded to clubs in any other league without first being offered to all other clubs in the NHL. Norman Albert made the first broadcast of a hockey game on February 8, 1923. The first NHL game was broadcast on February 14, 1923. Foster Hewitt called his first game on February 16, 1923. All games were broadcast on Toronto radio station CFCA.

1923-24 — Ottawa's new 10,000-seat arena opened. First U.S. franchise granted to Boston for following season.

Dr. Cecil Hart Trophy donated to NHL to be awarded to the player judged most useful to his team.

1924-25 — New franchises granted to Boston and Montreal (later named Maroons). NHL now six team league with two clubs in Montreal. Inaugural game in new Montreal Forum played November 29, 1924 as Canadiens defeated Toronto 7-1. Hamilton finished first in the standings, receiving a bye into the finals. But Hamilton players, demanding $200 each for additional games in the playoffs, went on strike. The NHL suspended all players, fining them $200 each. Stanley Cup finalist to be the winner of NHL semi-final between Toronto and Canadiens.

Lady Byng Trophy donated to NHL. Clubs played 30-game schedule.

1925-26 — Hamilton club dropped from NHL. Players signed by new New York Americans franchise. Pittsburgh Pirates granted franchise. Prince of Wales Trophy donated to NHL. Clubs played 36-game schedule.

1926-27 — New York Rangers granted franchise May 15, 1926. Chicago Black Hawks and Detroit Cougars granted franchises September 25, 1926. NHL now ten-team league with an American and a Canadian Division.

Stanley Cup came under the control of NHL. In previous seasons, winners of the now-defunct Western or Pacific Coast leagues would play NHL champion in Cup finals.

Toronto franchise sold to a new company controlled by Hugh Aird and Conn Smythe. Name changed from St. Patricks to Maple Leafs.

Clubs played 44-game schedule.

The Montreal Canadiens donated the Vezina Trophy to be awarded to the team allowing the fewest goals-against in regular season play. The winning team would, in turn, present the trophy to the goaltender playing in the greatest number of games during the season.

1930-31 — Detroit franchise changed name from Cougars to Falcons. Pittsburgh transferred to Philadelphia for one season. Pirates changed name to Philadelphia Quakers. Trading deadline for teams set at February 15 of each year. NHL approved operation of farm teams by Rangers, Americans, Falcons and Bruins. Four-sided electric arena clock first demonstrated.

1931-32 — Philadelphia dropped out. Ottawa withdrew for one season. New Maple Leaf Gardens completed. Clubs played 48-game schedule.

1932-33 — Detroit franchise changed name from Falcons to Red Wings. Franchise application received from St. Louis but refused because of additional travel costs. Ottawa team resumed play.

1933-34 — First All-Star Game played as a benefit for injured player Ace Bailey. Leafs defeated All-Stars 7-3 in Toronto.

1934-35 — Ottawa franchise transferred to St. Louis. Team called St. Louis Eagles and consisted largely of Ottawa's players.

1935-36 — Ottawa-St. Louis franchise terminated. Montreal Canadiens finished season with very poor record. To strengthen the club, NHL gave Canadiens first call on the services of all French-Canadian players for three seasons.

1937-38 — Second benefit All-Star game staged November 2 in Montreal in aid of the family of the late Canadiens star Howie Morenz.

Montreal Maroons withdrew from the NHL on June 22, 1938, leaving seven clubs in the League.

1938-39 — Expenses for each club regulated at $5 per man per day for meals and $2.50 per man per day for accommodation.

1939-40 — Benefit All-Star Game played October 29, 1939 in Montreal for the children of the late Albert (Babe) Siebert.

1940-41 — Ross-Tyer puck adopted as the official puck of the NHL. Early in the season it was apparent that this puck was too soft. The Spalding puck was adopted in its place.

On May 16, 1941, Arthur Ross, NHL governor from Boston, donated a perpetual trophy to be awarded annually to the player voted outstanding in the league. Due to wartime restrictions, the trophy was never awarded.

1941-42 — New York Americans changed name to Brooklyn Americans.

1942-43 — Brooklyn Americans withdrew from NHL, leaving six teams: Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Montreal, New York and Toronto. Playoff format saw first-place team play third-place team and second play fourth. Clubs played 50-game schedule.

Frank Calder, president of the NHL since its inception, died in Montreal. Meryn "Red" Dutton, former manager of the New York Americans, became president. The NHL commissioned the Calder Memorial Trophy to be awarded to the League's outstanding rookie each year.

1945-46 — Philadelphia, Los Angeles and San Francisco applied for NHL franchises.

The Philadelphia Arena Company of the American Hockey League applied for an injunction to prevent the possible operation of an NHL franchise in that city.

1946-47 — Mervyn Dutton retired as president of the NHL prior to the start of the season. He was succeeded by Clarence S. Campbell.

Individual trophy winners and all-star team members to receive $1,000 awards.

Playoff guarantees for players introduced.

Clubs played 60-game schedule.

1947-48 — The first annual All-Star Game for the benefit of the players' pension fund was played when the All-Stars defeated the Stanley Cup Champion Toronto Maple Leafs 4-3 in Toronto on October 13, 1947.

Criteria for awarding Art Ross Trophy changed. Now awarded to top scorer. Elmer Lach was its first winner.

Philadelphia and Los Angeles franchise applications refused.

National Hockey League Pension Society formed.

1949-50 — Clubs played 70-game schedule.

First intra-league draft held April 30, 1950. Clubs allowed to protect 30 players. Remaining players available for $25,000 each.

1951-52 — Referees included in the League's pension plan.

1952-53 — In May of 1952, City of Cleveland applied for NHL franchise. Application denied. In March of 1953, the Cleveland Barons of the AHL challenged the NHL champions for the Stanley Cup. The NHL governors did not accept this challenge.

1953-54 — The James Norris Memorial Trophy presented to the NHL for annual presentation to the League's best defenseman.

Intra-league draft rules amended to allow teams to protect 18 skaters and two goaltenders, claiming price reduced to $15,000.

1954-55 — Each arena to operate an "out-of-town" scoreboard.

1956-57 — Referees and linesmen to wear shirts of black and white vertical stripes. Standardized signals for referees and linesmen introduced.

1960-61 — Canadian National Exhibition, City of Toronto and NHL reach agreement for the construction of a Hockey Hall of Fame on the CNE grounds. Hall opens on August 26, 1961.

1963-64 — Player development league established with clubs operated by NHL franchises located in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Indianapolis, Omaha and, beginning in 1964-65, Tulsa. First universal amateur draft took place. All players of qualifying age (17) unaffected by sponsorship of junior teams available to be drafted.

1964-65 — Conn Smythe Trophy presented to the NHL to be awarded annually to the outstanding player in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Minimum age of players subject to amateur draft changed to 18.

1965-66 — NHL announced expansion plans for a second six-team division to begin play in 1967-68.

1966-67 — Fourteen applications for NHL franchises received.

Lester Patrick Trophy presented to the NHL to be awarded annually for outstanding service to hockey in the United States.

NHL sponsorship of junior teams ceased, making all players of qualifying age not already on NHL-sponsored lists eligible for the amateur draft.

1967-68 — Six new teams added: California Seals, Los Angeles Kings, Minnesota North Stars, Philadelphia Flyers, Pittsburgh Penguins, St. Louis Blues. New teams to play in West Division. Remaining six teams to play in East Division.

Minimum age of players subject to amateur draft changed to 20.

Clubs played 74-game schedule.

Clarence S. Campbell Trophy awarded to team finishing the regular season in first place in West Division.

California Seals change name to Oakland Seals on December 8, 1967.

1968-69 — Clubs played 76-game schedule.

Amateur draft expanded to cover any amateur player of qualifying age throughout the world.

1970-71 — Two new teams added: Buffalo Sabres and Vancouver Canucks. These teams joined East Division: Chicago switched to West Division. Oakland Seals change name to California Golden Seals prior to season.

Clubs played 78-game schedule.

1971-72 — Playoff format amended. In each division, first to play fourth; second to play third.

1972-73 — Soviet Nationals and Canadian NHL stars play eight pre-season games. Canadians win 4-3-1.

Two new teams added. Atlanta Flames join West Division; New York Islanders join East Division.

1974-75 — Two new teams added: Kansas City Scouts and Washington Capitals. Teams realigned into two nine-team conferences, the Prince of Wales made up of the Norris and Adams Divisions, and the Clarence Campbell made up of the Smythe and Patrick Divisions.

Clubs played 80-game schedule.

1976-77 — California franchise transferred to Cleveland. Team named Cleveland Barons. Kansas City franchise transferred to Denver. Team named Colorado Rockies.

1977-78 — Clarence S. Campbell retires as NHL president. Succeeded by John A. Ziegler, Jr.

1978-79 — Cleveland and Minnesota franchises merge, leaving NHL with 17 teams. Merged team placed in Adams Division, playing home games in Minnesota.

Minimum age of players subject to amateur draft changed to 19.

1979-80 — Four new teams added: Edmonton Oilers, Hartford Whalers, Quebec Nordiques and Winnipeg Jets.

1981-82 — Teams realigned within existing divisions. New groupings based on geographical areas. Unbalanced schedule adopted.

1982-83 — Colorado Rockies franchise shifted to East Rutherford, New Jersey. Team named New Jersey Devils. Franchise moved to Patrick Division from Smythe; Winnipeg moved to Smythe from Norris.

1991-92 — San Jose Sharks added, making the NHL a 22-team league. NHL celebrates 75th Anniversary Season. The 1991-92 regular season suspended due to a players' strike on April 1, 1992. Play resumed April 12, 1992.

1992-93 — Gil Stein named NHL president (October, 1992). Gary Bettman named first NHL Commissioner (February, 1993). Ottawa Senators and Tampa Bay Lightning added, making the NHL a 24-team league. NHL celebrates Stanley Cup Centennial. Clubs played 84-game schedule.

1993-94 — Mighty Ducks of Anaheim and Florida Panthers added, making the NHL a 26-team league. Minnesota franchise shifted to Dallas, team named Dallas Stars. Prince of Wales and Clarence Campbell Conferences renamed Eastern and Western. Adams, Patrick, Norris and Smythe Divisions renamed Northeast, Atlantic, Central and Pacific. Winnipeg moved to Central Division from Pacific; Tampa Bay moved to Atlantic Division from Central; Pittsburgh moved to Northeast Division from Atlantic.

1994-95 — A lockout resulted in the cancellation of 468 games from October 1, 1994 to January 19, 1995. Clubs played a 48-game schedule that began January 20, 1995 and ended May 3, 1995. No inter-conference games were played.

1995-96 — Quebec franchise transferred to Denver. Team named Colorado Avalanche and placed in Pacific Division of Western Conference. Clubs to play 82-game schedule.

1996-97 — Winnipeg franchise transferred to Phoenix. Team named Phoenix Coyotes and placed in Central Division of Western Conference.

1997-98 — Hartford franchise transferred to Raleigh. Team named Carolina Hurricanes and remains in Northeast Division of Eastern Conference.

1998-99 — The addition of the Nashville Predators made the NHL a 27-team league and brought about the creation of two new divisions and a League-wide realignment in preparation for further expansion to 30 teams by 2000-2001. Nashville was added to the Central Division of the Western Conference, while Toronto moved into the Northeast Division of the Eastern Conference. Pittsburgh was shifted from the Northeast to the Atlantic, while Carolina left the Northeast for the newly created Southeast Division of the Eastern Conference. Florida, Tampa Bay and Washington also joined the Southeast. In the Western Conference, Calgary, Colorado, Edmonton and Vancouver make up the new Northwest Division. Dallas and Phoenix moved from the Central to the Pacific Division.

The NHL retired uniform number 99 in honor of all-time scoring leader Wayne Gretzky who retired at the end of the season.

1999-2000 — Atlanta Thrashers added, making the NHL a 28-team league.

2000-01 — Columbus Blue Jackets and Minnesota Wild added, making the NHL a 30-team league.

2007-08 — NHL-record crowd of 71,217 fills Buffalo's Ralph Wilson Stadium on New Year's Day for the 2008 Winter Classic, the first NHL outdoor game in the United States. Sidney Crosby's shootout goal gives the Pittsburgh Penguins a 2-1 win over the Buffalo Sabres.

2011-12 — Atlanta franchise transferred to Winnipeg. Team named Winnipeg Jets.

2012-13 — A lockout resulted in the cancellation of 510 games from October 11, 2012 to January 18, 2013. Clubs played a 48-game schedule that began January 19, 2013 and ended April 27, 2013. No inter-conference games were played.

2013-14 — The NHL's clubs are re-aligned into two conferences each consisting of two divisions. The new alignment places several clubs in more geographically appropriate groupings. The Eastern Conference is made up of the Atlantic and Metropolitan divisions, each with eight teams. The Western Conference is made up of the Central and Pacific divisions, each with seven teams. All 30 teams play in all 30 arenas at least once a season.

2014-15 — Phoenix franchise renamed Arizona Coyotes.

Major Rule Changes

1910-11 — Game changed from two 30-minute periods to three 20-minute periods.

1911-12 — National Hockey Association (forerunner of the NHL) originated six-man hockey, replacing seven-man game.

1917-18 — Goalties permitted to fall to the ice to make saves. Previously a goaltender was penalized for dropping to the ice.

1918-19 — Penalty rules amended. For minor fouls, substitutes not allowed until penalized player had served three minutes. For major fouls, no substitutes for five minutes. For match fouls, no substitutes allowed for the remainder of the game.

With the addition of two lines painted on the ice twenty feet from center, three playing zones were created, producing a forty-foot neutral center ice area in which forward passing was permitted. Kicking the puck was permitted in this neutral zone.

Tabulation of assists began.

1921-22 — Goaltenders allowed to pass the puck forward up to their own blue line.

Overtime limited to twenty minutes.

Minor penalties changed from three minutes to two minutes.

1923-24 — Match foul defined as actions deliberately injuring or disabling an opponent. For such actions, a player was fined not less than $50 and ruled off the ice for the balance of the game. A player assessed a match penalty may be replaced by a substitute at the end of 20 minutes. Match penalty recipients must meet with the League president who can assess additional punishment.

1925-26 — Delayed penalty rules introduced. Each team must have a minimum of four players on the ice at all times.

Two rules were amended to encourage offense: No more than two defensemen permitted to remain inside a team's own blue line when the puck has left the defensive zone. A faceoff to be called for ragging the puck unless shorthanded.

Team captains only players allowed to talk to referees.

Goaltender's leg pads limited to 12-inch width.

Timekeeper's gong to mark end of periods rather than referee's whistle. Teams to dress a maximum of 12 players for each game from a roster of no more than 14 players.

1926-27 — Blue lines repositioned to sixty feet from each goal-line, thereby enlarging the neutral zone and standardizing distance from blue line to goal.

Uniform goal nets adopted throughout NHL with goal posts securely fastened to the ice.

1927-28 — To further encourage offense, forward passes allowed in defending and neutral zones and goaltender's pads reduced in width from 12 to 10 inches.

Game standardized at three twenty-minute periods of stop-time separated by ten-minute intermissions. Teams to change ends after each period.

Ten minutes of sudden-death overtime to be played if the score is tied after regulation time.

Minor penalty to be assessed to any player other than a goaltender for deliberately picking up the puck while it is in play. Minor penalty to be assessed for deliberately shooting the puck out of play.

The Art Ross goal net adopted as the official net of the NHL.

Maximum length of hockey sticks limited to 53 inches measured from heel of blade to end of handle. No minimum length stipulated.

Home teams given choice of end to defend at start of game.

1928-29 — Forward passing permitted in defensive and neutral zones and into attacking zone if pass receiver is in neutral zone when pass is made. No forward passing allowed inside attacking zone.

Minor penalty to be assessed to any player who delays the game by passing the puck back into his defensive zone.

Ten-minute overtime without sudden-death provision to be played in games tied after regulation time. Games tied after this overtime period declared a draw.

Exclusive of goaltenders, team to dress at least 8 and no more than 12 skaters.

1929-30 — Forward passing permitted inside all three zones but not permitted across either blue line.

Kicking the puck allowed, but a goal cannot be scored by kicking the puck in.

No more than three players including the goaltender may remain in their defensive zone when the puck has gone up ice. Minor penalties to be assessed for the first two violations of this rule in a game; major penalties thereafter.

Goaltenders forbidden to hold the puck. Pucks caught must be cleared immediately. For infringement of this rule, a faceoff to be taken ten feet in front of the goal with no player except the goaltender standing between the faceoff spot and the goal-line.

Highsticking penalties introduced.
Maximum number of players in uniform increased from 12 to 15.

December 21, 1929 — Forward passing rules instituted at the beginning of the 1929-30 season more than doubled number of goals scored. Partway through the season, these rules were further amended to read, "No attacking player allowed to precede the play when entering the opposing defensive zone." This is similar to modern offside rule.

1930-31 — A player without a complete stick ruled out of play and forbidden from taking part in further action until a new stick is obtained. A player who has broken his stick must obtain a replacement at his bench.

A further refinement of the offside rule stated that the puck must first be propelled into the attacking zone before any player of the attacking side can enter that zone; for infringement of this rule a faceoff to take place at the spot where the infraction took place.

1931-32 — Though there is no record of a team attempting to play with two goaltenders on the ice, a rule was instituted which stated that each team was allowed only one goaltender on the ice at one time.

Attacking players forbidden to impede the movement or obstruct the vision of opposing goaltenders.

Defending players with the exception of the goaltender forbidden from falling on the puck within 10 feet of the net.

1932-33 — Each team to have captain on the ice at all times. Maximum number of players in uniform reduced to 14 from 15.

If the goaltender is removed from the ice to serve a penalty, the manager of the club to appoint a substitute.

Match penalty with substitution after five minutes instituted for kicking another player.

1933-34 — Number of players permitted to stand in defensive zone restricted to three including goaltender.

Visible time clocks required in each rink.
Two referees replace one referee and one linesman.

1934-35 — Penalty shot awarded when a player is tripped and thus prevented from having a clear shot on goal, having no player to pass to other than the offending player. Shot taken from inside a 10-foot circle located 38 feet from the goal. The goaltender must not advance more than one foot from his goal-line when the shot is taken.

1937-38 — Rules introduced governing icing the puck.

Penalty shot awarded when a player other than a goaltender falls on the puck within 10 feet of the goal.

1938-39 — Penalty shot modified to allow puck carrier to skate in before shooting.

One referee and one linesman replace two referee system.

Blue line widened to 12 inches.

Maximum number of players in uniform increased from 14 to 15.

1939-40 — A substitute replacing a goaltender removed from ice to serve a penalty may use a goaltender's stick and gloves but no other goaltending equipment.

1940-41 — Flooding ice surface between periods made obligatory.

1941-42 — Penalty shots classified as minor and major. Minor shot to be taken from a line 28 feet from the goal. Major shot, awarded when a player is tripped with only the goaltender to beat, permits the player taking the penalty shot to skate right into the goalkeeper and shoot from point-blank range.

One referee and two linesmen employed to officiate games.

For playoffs, standby minor league goaltenders employed by NHL as emergency substitutes.

1942-43 — Because of wartime restrictions on train scheduling, regular-season overtime was discontinued on November 21, 1942.

Player limit reduced from 15 to 14. Minimum of 12 men in uniform abolished.

1943-44 — Red line at center ice introduced to speed up the game and reduce offside calls. This rule is considered to mark the beginning of the modern era in the NHL.

1945-46 — Goal indicator lights synchronized with official time clock required at all rinks.

1946-47 — System of signals by officials to indicate infractions introduced.

Linesmen from neutral cities employed for all games.

1947-48 — Goal awarded when a player with the puck has an open net to shoot at and a thrown stick prevents the shot on goal. Major penalty to any player who throws his stick in any zone other than defending zone. If a stick is thrown by a player in his defending zone but the thrown stick is not considered to have prevented a goal, a penalty shot is awarded.

All playoff games played until a winner determined, with 20-minute sudden-death overtime periods separated by 10-minute intermissions.

1949-50 — Ice surface painted white.

Clubs allowed to dress 17 players exclusive of goaltenders.

Major penalties incurred by goaltenders served by a member of the goaltender's team instead of resulting in a penalty shot.

1950-51 — Each team required to provide an emergency goaltender in attendance with full equipment at each game for use by either team in the event of illness or injury to a regular goaltender.

1951-52 — Home teams to wear basic white uniforms; visiting teams basic colored uniforms.

Goal crease enlarged from 3 × 7 feet to 4 × 8 feet.

Number of players in uniform reduced to 15 plus goaltenders.

Faceoff circles enlarged from 10-foot to 15-foot radius.

1952-53 — Teams permitted to dress 15 skaters on the road and 16 at home.

1953-54 — Number of players in uniform set at 16 plus goaltenders.

1954-55 — Number of players in uniform set at 18 plus goaltenders up to December 1 and 16 plus goaltenders thereafter. Teams agree to wear colored uniforms at home and white uniforms on the road.

1956-57 — Player serving a minor penalty allowed to return to ice when a goal is scored by opposing team.

1959-60 — Players prevented from leaving their benches to enter into an altercation. Substitutions permitted providing substitutes do not enter into altercation.

1960-61 — Number of players in uniform set at 16 plus goaltenders.

1961-62 — Penalty shots to be taken by the player against whom the foul was committed. In the event of a penalty shot called in a situation where a particular player hasn't been fouled, the penalty shot to be taken by any player on the ice when the foul was committed.

1964-65 — No body contact on faceoffs.

In playoff games, each team to have its substitute goaltender dressed in his regular uniform except for leg pads and body protector. All previous rules governing standby goaltenders terminated.

1965-66 — Teams required to dress two goaltenders for each regular-season game. Maximum stick length increased to 55 inches.

1966-67 — Substitution allowed on coincidental major penalties.

Between-periods intermissions fixed at 15 minutes.

1967-68 — If a penalty incurred by a goaltender is a co-incident major, the penalty to be served by a player of the goaltender's team on the ice at the time the penalty was called. Limit of curvature of hockey stick blade set at 1½ inches.

1969-70 — Limit of curvature of hockey stick blade set at 1 inch.

1970-71 — Home teams to wear basic white uniforms; visiting teams to wear basic colored uniforms.

Limit of curvature of hockey stick blade set at ½ inch.

Minor penalty for deliberately shooting the puck out of the playing area.

1971-72 — Number of players in uniform set at 17 plus 2 goaltenders.

Third man to enter an altercation assessed an automatic game misconduct penalty.

1972-73 — Minimum width of stick blade reduced to 2 inches from 2½ inches.

1974-75 — Bench minor penalty imposed if a penalized player does not proceed directly and immediately to the penalty box.

1976-77 — Rule dealing with fighting amended to provide a major and game misconduct penalty for any player who is clearly the instigator of a fight.

1977-78 — Teams requesting a stick measurement to be assessed a minor penalty in the event that the measured stick does not violate the rules.

1979-80 — Wearing of helmets made mandatory for players entering the NHL.

1980-81 — Maximum stick length increased to 58 inches.

1981-82 — If both of a team's listed goaltenders are incapacitated, the team can dress and play any eligible goaltender who is available.

1982-83 — Number of players in uniform set at 18 plus 2 goaltenders.

1983-84 — Five-minute sudden-death overtime to be played in regular-season games that are tied at the end of regulation time.

1985-86 — Substitutions allowed in the event of co-incident minor penalties. Maximum stick length increased to 60 inches.

1986-87 — Delayed off-side is no longer in effect once the players of the offending team have cleared the opponents' defensive zone.

1990-91 — The goal lines, blue lines, defensive zone face-off circles and markings all moved one foot out from the end boards, creating 11 feet of room behind the nets and shrinking the neutral zone from 60 to 58 feet.

1991-92 — Video replays employed to assist referees in goal/no goal situations. Size of goal crease increased. Crease changed to semi-circular configuration. Time clock to record tenths of a second in last minute of each period and overtime. Major and game misconduct penalty for checking from behind into boards. Penalties added for crease infringement and unnecessary contact with goaltender. Goal disallowed if puck enters net while a player of the attacking team is standing on the goal crease line, is in the goal crease or places his stick in the goal crease.

1992-93 — No substitutions allowed in the event of coincidental minor penalties called when both teams are at full strength. Minor penalty for attempting to draw a penalty ("diving"). Major and game misconduct penalty for checking from behind into goal frame. Game misconduct penalty for instigating a fight. High sticking redefined to include any use of the stick above waist-height. Previous rule stipulated shoulder-height.

1993-94 — High sticking redefined to allow goals scored with a high stick below the height of the crossbar of the goal frame.

1996-97 — Maximum stick length increased to 63 inches. All players must be clear of the attacking zone prior to the puck being shot into that zone. The opportunity to "tag-up" and return into the zone has been removed.

1998-99 — The league instituted a two-referee system with each team to play 20 regular-season games with two referees and a pair of linesmen. Goal line moved to 13 feet from end boards. Goal crease altered to extend one foot beyond each goal post (eight feet across in total. Sides of crease squared off, extending 4'6". Only the top of the crease remains rounded. Only the top of the crease remains rounded.

1999-2000 — Each team to play 25 home and 25 road games using the two-referee system. Crease rule revised to implement a "no harm, no foul, no video review" standard. Teams to play with four skaters and a goaltender in regular-season overtime. If a goal is scored in regular-season overtime, the winner is awarded two points and the loser one point. In no goal is scored in overtime, both teams are awarded one point.

2000-01 — All games to be played using the two-referee system.

2002-03 — "Hurry-up" faceoff and line-change rules implemented.

2003-04 — Home teams to wear basic colored uniforms; visiting teams to wear basic white uniforms. Maximum length of goaltender's pads set at 38 inches.

2005-06 — The NHL adopted a comprehensive package of rule changes that included the following:

Goal line moved to 11 feet from end boards; blue lines moved to 75 feet from end boards, reducing neutral zone from 54 feet to 50 feet. Center red line eliminated for two-line passes. "Tag-up" off-side rule reinstated. Goaltender not permitted to play the puck outside a designated trapezoid-shaped area behind the net. A team that ices the puck is not permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing faceoff. A player who instigates a fight in the final five minutes of regulation time or at any time of overtime to receive a minor, a major, a misconduct and an automatic one-game suspension. The size of goaltender equipment reduced. If a game remains tied after five minutes of overtime, winner determined by shootout.

2011-12 — Rules and penalties modified to address contact with the head.

2015-16 — Teams to play with three skaters and a goaltender in regular-season overtime. Coaches may request video review of off-sides or goaltender interference when a goal is scored.

Bob Murray Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Kingston, ON, November 26, 1954.

Bob Murray was named executive vice president and general manager of the Anaheim Ducks on November 12, 2008 after 3 1/2 years as senior vice president of hockey operations. He was named to that original position on July 14, 2005. Murray's astute judgment of hockey talent and player evaluation were instrumental in several trades and acquisitions the Ducks made over his tenure, highlighted by a Stanley Cup championship in 2007. Anaheim has won division titles under Murray in 2012-13, 2013-14 and 2014-15. He was named NHL General Manager of the Year in 2014 and finished third in the voting in 2015.

Murray's responsibilities include overseeing all aspects of player development, playing a key role in the club's professional scouting efforts, contract negotiations and all matters relating to the National Hockey League. He has been instrumental in the organization's success at both the NHL and AHL level. Both the Ducks and American Hockey League's Portland Pirates made Conference Final appearances in 2006, making Anaheim the only organization to have both their NHL and AHL teams advance to their league's respective Conference Finals.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Murray worked as a professional scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999 to 2005 under general manager Brian Burke (1998 to 2004). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a scouting consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as general manager from 1997 to 1999. He was promoted to the post after serving as assistant general manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper management, Murray was named the director of player personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup playoffs. In all, Murray had 132 goals and 382 assists for 514 points, and currently ranks second in all-time points among Blackhawk defensemen. He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a professional scout following his retirement in 1990.

Bruce Boudreau

Head Coach

Born: Toronto, ON, January 9, 1955.

Bruce Boudreau was named head coach in Anaheim on November 30, 2011. In his first three full seasons with the team he has led the Ducks to a division title each year.

As head coach of the Washington Capitals between 2007 and 2011, Boudreau won the 2007-08 Jack Adams Award (NHL Coach of the Year) and led his club to the 2009-10 Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's top club in the regular season with a franchise record 54 wins and 121 points.

Before joining the Capitals, Boudreau spent nine seasons as an AHL head coach, including a Calder Cup championship with the Hershey Bears in 2006. He also coached in the Colonial Hockey League, the IHL and the ECHL, winning the Kelly Cup with the Mississippi Sea Wolves of the ECHL in 1999.

Boudreau played parts of eight NHL seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Blackhawks between 1976 and 1986, recording 28 goals and 42 assists for 70 points in 141 career games. In junior with the Toronto Marlboros, he scored 68 goals and added 97 assists for 165 points in 1974-75, a Canadian Hockey League record until Bobby Smith and Wayne Gretzky surpassed the mark during the 1977-78 season. He also was a top-scoring player in the AHL in the 1980s.

Don Maloney General Manager

Born: Lindsay, ON, September 5, 1958.

Don Maloney was signed as the general manager of the Arizona Coyotes on May 30, 2007. In eight seasons as general manager, Maloney has guided the team to a 291-252-79 record and three postseason appearances. He ranks first all-time in franchise history in wins and points (661) by a general manager.

In 2009-10, Maloney led the Coyotes to the most successful regular season in team history by setting club records with 50 wins and 107 points. He was honored as the inaugural winner of the NHL General Manager of the Year Award in 2010. In 2011-12, the Coyotes won their first division title in franchise history and made their first appearance in the Western Conference Final.

Maloney joined the Coyotes from the New York Rangers for whom he served as vice president of player personnel and assistant general manager. He assisted Rangers' vice president and GM Glen Sather in all player transactions and contract negotiations and was involved with the team's professional and amateur scouting operations. Maloney spent 10 seasons in the Rangers' front office. He played a key role in the Rangers' development of several prospects into productive NHL players, including Henrik Lundqvist. Maloney also served as assistant general manager for Team Canada squads that won gold medals at the 2003 and 2004 World Championships.

Maloney's first front office position in the NHL was as assistant general manager of the New York Islanders following his retirement as a player with the club on January 17, 1991. Maloney later served as Islanders' general manager from August 17, 1992 to December 2, 1995. Among the players drafted during Maloney's tenure with the club were Todd Bertuzzi, Bryan McCabe, Ziggy Palffy, Tommy Salo and Darius Kasparaitis. Maloney then served as Eastern professional scout for the San Jose Sharks during the 1996-97 season prior to joining the Rangers' front office.

As a player, Maloney registered 214 goals, 350 assists and 564 points as well as 815 penalty minutes in 765 regular-season games over 13 NHL campaigns with the Rangers, Hartford Whalers and Islanders. He also collected 22 goals, 35 assists and 57 points in 94 career playoff games. Maloney spent 11 seasons with the Rangers after being selected by the club in the second round (26th overall) of the 1978 NHL Draft. He helped lead the Rangers to the 1979 Stanley Cup Final by posting 20 points (7 goals, 13 assists) that postseason, a playoff record for rookies at the time. Maloney played in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1984. He was named MVP of the 1984 game.

Dave Tippett

Head Coach

Born: Moosomin, SK, August 25, 1961.

Dave Tippett was named the 17th head coach in Coyotes franchise history on September 24, 2009. In his six seasons as the Coyotes head coach, he has compiled a 217-176-65 record (499 points) and three postseason appearances. Tippett is the all-time winningest coach in franchise history while his .545 points percentage is the highest of any head coach in team history.

In 2011-12, Tippett led the Coyotes to a 42-27-13 record (97 points) and the franchise's first division title. The Coyotes also won their first postseason series since arriving in Arizona (1996) and advanced to the Western Conference Final for the first time in franchise history. In his first season with the team in 2009-10, Tippett guided the Coyotes to a club-record 50 wins and 107 points and the team's first playoff appearance since 2001-02. Tippett was rewarded with the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year.

Prior to Arizona, Tippett spent seven seasons as the head coach of the Dallas Stars from 2002-03 to 2008-09. Under Tippett's leadership, the Stars won two Pacific Division titles (2002-03 and 2005-06), made the playoffs in five out of six years and reached the Western conference final in 2008. His 271 career regular season coaching victories rank him second all-time in Stars history.

Tippett joined the Stars organization on May 16, 2002 after serving as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Kings for three seasons. Prior to becoming a coach, Tippett played 11 years as a forward in the National Hockey League with the Hartford Whalers, Washington Capitals, Pittsburgh Penguins and Philadelphia Flyers. He played 721 career NHL games collecting 93 goals and 169 assists for 262 points and 317 penalty minutes. He ended his playing career in 1995 as a player-assistant coach with the Houston Aeros (IHL).

Internationally, Tippett captained the 1984 Canadian Olympic team in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, and he earned a silver medal as a member of the Canadian Olympic team in Albertville, France, in 1992. He was a member of the 1982 NCAA Division I championship squad at the University of North Dakota. Tippett became the head coach of the Houston Aeros in 1995-96. In 1999, he led the team to the Turner Cup championship and was named the IHL coach of the year.

Claude Julien

Head Coach

Born: Orleans, ON, April 23, 1960.

The Boston Bruins named Claude Julien the 28th head coach in club history on June 21, 2007. In his first season behind the bench in 2007-08, he guided the Bruins back to the playoffs for the first time since 2003-04. In 2008-09, the Bruins posted the best record in the Eastern Conference and were second overall in the NHL, earning Julien the Jack Adams Award for coach of the year. In 2010-11, he guided the team to a Stanley Cup victory for the first time since 1972. Boston reached the Stanley Cup final again in 2012-13 and won the Presidents' Trophy with the best record in the NHL during the regular season in 2013-14.

Julien joined the Bruins with four years of NHL head coaching experience. In his lone season with New Jersey, he held a record of 47-24-8 before being replaced on April 2, 2007 with three games remaining in the 2006-07 regular season. At the time he was replaced by the Devils, Julien's club was in first place in the Atlantic Division. Prior to being named head coach of the Devils, Julien spent three seasons as the head coach of the Montreal Canadiens, serving from January 2003 until January of 2006. During his tenure with Montreal, Julien led the Canadiens to a record of 72-62-25 in 159 games.

Before joining the NHL coaching ranks, Julien spent four seasons with Hull of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League and three campaigns with Hamilton of the American Hockey League. While with Hamilton, Julien was co-awarded the Louis A. R. Peri Award as the league's outstanding coach during the 2002-03 season. Julien has also coached at the international level, having served as an assistant coach to Team Canada at the 2006 World Championship after he led Team Canada to a bronze medal as a head coach at the 2000 World Junior Championship. He will be an associate coach for Canada at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics.

A defenseman, Julien's professional playing career spanned 12 seasons from 1981 to 1992, highlighted by stints with the Quebec Nordiques between 1984 and 1986.

Don Sweeney

General Manager

Born: St. Stevens, NB, August 17, 1966.

Don Sweeney was named general manager of the Boston Bruins on May 20, 2015. He is the eighth man to hold the position, is the fourth who also played for the team (joining Hap Emms, Milt Schmidt and Mike O'Connell) and is the first former Boston draft pick to rise to the post. He oversees all aspects of the team's hockey operations and he also serves the club as an alternate governor on the NHL's Board of Governors.

Sweeney's ascension to the head of the club's hockey operations continues his long legacy with the club, beginning as the team's eighth pick, 166th overall, in the 1984 NHL Draft. He moved through the organization as a player for 15 seasons and in various front office capacities for the previous nine years. In his six seasons as the team's assistant general manager beginning in 2009, he oversaw the development of the team's drafted prospects at the AHL, junior hockey, college and European levels in addition to having a supervisory role in the day-to-day operations of the hockey department. He also oversaw all hockey operations matters for Boston's AHL affiliate in Providence. Sweeney began his front office career in June, 2006, when he was named the team's director of player development.

After being drafted by the Bruins as their eighth pick, Sweeney went on to play four seasons at Harvard University. He earned both NCAA East All-American and ECAC First Team All-Star honors with the Crimson and played in the 1986 NCAA Finals before graduating with a degree in Economics.

The defenseman played 16 seasons in the National Hockey League, including 15 in a Bruins uniform. He is one of just two defensemen and four players in team history to play over 1,000 games in a Boston sweater and he still ranks third on the team's all-time games played list. He also ranks in the top ten of the club's all-time list in career assists by a defenseman. He played his final NHL season with the Dallas Stars in 2003-04.

Dan Bylsma

Head Coach

Born: Grand Haven, MI, September 19, 1970.

The Buffalo Sabres announced on May 28, 2015, that Dan Bylsma had been hired as the 17th head coach in franchise history. With 479 total games coached during six previous NHL seasons, Bylsma becomes the most experienced head coach to join the Sabres since the team hired Scotty Bowman in 1979.

Bylsma comes to the Sabres after spending six seasons as the head coach of the Pittsburgh Penguins, where he led the team to a 252-117-32 overall regular-season record, becoming the winningest head coach in Penguins history. In 2008-09, his first year as an NHL head coach, Bylsma took over a Pittsburgh team that ranked 10th in the Eastern Conference with just 25 games remaining in the regular season and led them to the franchise's first Stanley Cup title in 16 years. Bylsma won the Jack Adams Award in 2011 as the NHL's coach of the year as the Penguins went 49-25-8 and won the Atlantic Division despite ranking near the top of the league with 350 man games lost due to injury, including Sidney Crosby (41), Jordan Staal (39) and Evgeni Malkin (39). Pittsburgh qualified for the playoffs in all six seasons under Bylsma's leadership, winning two division titles (2012-13, 2013-14) and posting the best record in the Eastern Conference in 2012-13. He became the fastest coach in NHL history to reach 250 wins, a feat he accomplished in just 396 regular-season games. Bylsma led the Penguins to at least 100 points in every full season he spent with the team.

Bylsma has also found success in international competition. He made his international debut as head coach of Team USA at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia, where the United States went undefeated in group play before finishing fourth in the tournament. Bylsma also served as assistant coach at the 2015 World Championship, where the United States again won their group and went on to earn a bronze medal.

At the time of his hiring by the Penguins in February 2009, Bylsma was in the midst of his first season as head coach of Pittsburgh's AHL affiliate, the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, a post he took up after four seasons as assistant coach with the New York Islanders, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton and the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks (AHL). Before his first coaching job as assistant coach in Cincinnati in 2004-05, Bylsma played in parts of nine NHL seasons as a forward for the Los Angeles Kings and the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim, tallying 62 points (19 goals, 43 assists) in 429 regular-season NHL games. He was a member of the 2002-03 Mighty Ducks team that won the first Western Conference Championship in franchise history and eventually fell just one win short of lifting the Stanley Cup.

Tim Murray

General Manager

Born: Shawville, QC, October 31, 1963.

Tim Murray had spent 20 years working in the National Hockey League for five different teams when he was named the seventh general manager in Buffalo Sabres history on January 9, 2014.

Murray came to the Sabres after serving as the assistant general manager of the Ottawa Senators for seven years under his uncle, Bryan Murray. Part of his duties as assistant general manager included serving as general manager of Ottawa's American Hockey League affiliate, the 2011 Calder-Cup champion Binghamton Senators. Murray is renowned to have been a strong voice at the draft table during his time in Ottawa and Anaheim, playing a part in selecting current superstars Corey Perry, Ryan Getzlaf and Erik Karlsson.

Prior to being named the Senators' assistant general manager in 2007, Murray spent three years (2002 to 2005) as the director of player personnel for the Anaheim Ducks, where he was responsible for overseeing the amateur draft and college free agents. He also served as the assistant director of player personnel for the New York Rangers for two years (2005 to 2007), where he evaluated potential free agents and also worked as an amateur scout. Murray began his NHL career in 1993-94, when he was hired as an amateur scout for the Detroit Red Wings. He then moved on to the Florida Panthers, where he served as a scout from 1994 to 2002.

Bob Hartley

Head Coach

Born: in Hawkesbury, ON, September 9, 1960.

The Calgary Flames announced the hiring of Bob Hartley as head coach on May 31, 2012. Hartley joined the Flames following a championship season with the ZSC Lions of Switzerland's National League A in 2011-12. Hartley brings a wealth of experience and winning to the Flames, having coached the Colorado Avalanche for five seasons, during which they won the 2001 Stanley Cup, and coaching the Atlanta Thrashers for parts of five seasons. He also led the Hershey Bears to the 1997 Calder Cup and has Junior A and Major Junior championship rings among his accomplishments. In 2014-15, he led the Flames to the playoffs for the first time since 2008-09 and won the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year.

Hartley began his coaching career with the Junior A team in his hometown of Hawkesbury, Ontario. He was named head coach of the QMJHL's Laval Titan in 1991. After an appearance in the 1993 Memorial Cup, he was hired as an assistant coach by the Quebec Nordiques AHL affiliate, the Cornwall Aces. He took over as head coach in 1994 and led the Aces to two division titles.

When the Nordiques relocated to Colorado, Hartley became the head coach of their AHL affiliate, the Hershey Bears. He guided the team to four consecutive playoff appearances and a Calder Cup title in 1997. A season later, Hartley was hired as the Colorado Avalanche bench boss. During his five seasons, the Avalanche won four division titles and made four appearances in the Conference Finals and won the Stanley Cup in 2001. When his tenure with the Avalanche franchise ended in December of 2002, he had a franchise record 193 wins.

One month later, Hartley was appointed head coach of the Atlanta Thrashers. He guided the young Thrashers through four seasons of steady improvements including the 2006-07 campaign in which they won their first Southeast Division title and first playoff berth. A slow start for the Thrashers in 2007-08 season resulted in Hartley and the club parting ways.

Hartley went on to work as a television hockey analyst, but in the summer of 2011, he signed as head coach for the ZSC Lions in Zurich, Switzerland.

Brad Treliving

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Penticton, BC, August 18, 1969.

Brad Treliving joined the Calgary Flames organization as general manager on April 28, 2014. In his first season with the Flames in 2014-15, Calgary reached the playoffs for the first time since 2008-09. Treliving reports directly to president of hockey operations Brian Burke. He is responsible for all team personnel decisions, both players and staff; managing the amateur and pro scouting staffs; as well as other administrative duties. He is also responsible for all player personnel assignments with Flames' minor league affiliates.

Treliving served as the vice president of hockey operations and assistant general manager with the Phoenix Coyotes for seven seasons prior to coming to Calgary. With Phoenix, Treliving worked closely with general manager Don Maloney on the day-to-day administration of the Coyotes' hockey operations. Treliving also served as general manager of the club's American Hockey League affiliate, the Portland Pirates.

Prior to his role with the Coyotes, Treliving served as the president of the Central Hockey League (CHL) for seven years. During his tenure, he guided the CHL to remarkable growth and development including the establishment of numerous successful expansion franchises. In 1996 Treliving co-founded the Western Professional Hockey League (WPHL) and served as the league's vice president and director of hockey operations for five seasons. He played an integral role in the merger of the WPHL and the CHL in May 2001 upon which he began his tenure as president of the league.

Prior to his front office career, Treliving played five seasons of professional hockey from 1990-91 to 1994-95 in the IHL, the AHL and the ECHL. A defenseman, Treliving registered 17 goals and 85 assists for 102 points and 811 penalty minutes in 243 games in the ECHL. As a junior, the native of Penticton, British Columbia, played in the BCJHL and two years in the WHL.

Bill Peters

Head Coach

Born: Three Hills, AB, January 13, 1965.

Bill Peters began his tenure as head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes on June 19, 2014. He is the 13th person to serve as head coach in franchise history, and the fourth since the team's arrival in North Carolina in 1997.

This marks Peters' first head coaching position in the NHL. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Peters served as assistant coach for the Detroit Red Wings for three seasons, working primarily with Detroit's defensemen and penalty kill units. Before joining Detroit's staff, Peters served as head coach of Rockford of the American Hockey League, guiding the Ice Hogs to consecutive 40-win seasons and Calder Cup playoff appearances in 2008-09 and 2009-10. In his final season with Rockford in 2010-11, Peters directed the second-youngest team in the AHL. He helped 28 Rockford players reach the NHL during his three seasons with the club. Eight players who played under Peters for Rockford went on to win the Stanley Cup with Chicago in 2010 or 2013 - Niklas Hjalmarsson, Jordan Henry, Antti Niemi, Corey Crawford, Bryan Bickell, Nick Leddy, Brandon Bollig and Ben Smith.

Before beginning his AHL coaching career, Peters spent three seasons with Spokane of the Western Hockey League, leading the Chiefs to the Memorial Cup title in 2008. Spokane established franchise records with 50 wins and 107 points that season before winning 16 of 21 WHL playoff games to capture the Ed Chynoweth Cup as WHL champions. Peters then guided the Chiefs to four consecutive victories at the Memorial Cup, topping the host Kitchener Rangers 4-1 in the championship game.

Peters got his first experience as a head coach at the University of Lethbridge, serving as the Proghorns' head coach for three seasons from 2002 to 2005. Prior to that, he served as assistant coach for Spokane for four seasons, helping the Chiefs to a 47-win, 100-point campaign and the WHL Western Conference championship in 1999-2000 under current Red Wings' head coach Mike Babcock.

Peters also has gained international head coaching experience for Canada, capturing the gold medal at the 2008 Under-18 Junior World Cup.

Ron Francis

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, ON, March 1, 1963.

Ron Francis was named the eighth general manager in franchise history, and just the second since the team has been located on Carolina, on April 28, 2014. He is the second person to serve as general manager after also playing for the team. Francis spent the previous eight seasons in management with Carolina, most recently serving as vice president of hockey operations. Francis is responsible for all of the team's hockey decisions and also serves as one of the teams' alternate governors.

Following a career in which he established himself as the greatest player in Hurricanes franchise history, Francis re-joined the organization in November 2006 as the team's director of player development. He was promoted to assistant general manager on October 4, 2007, but returned to the team's locker room on December 3, 2008, when he joined new head coach Paul Maurice behind the bench as associate head coach. While serving as a coach, Francis maintained a voice in the Hurricanes' front office decision-making, serving as the team's director of player personnel. He returned to the front office full-time in June 2011, accepting the role of director of hockey operations.

Francis announced his retirement as a player on September 14, 2005, following a 23-year NHL career with Hartford, Pittsburgh, Carolina and Toronto. In 1,731 NHL regular-season games, Francis scored 549 goals and earned 1,249 assists (1,798 points), to rank him fourth all-time on the league's points list behind Wayne Gretzky, Mark Messier and Gordie Howe. Francis' 1,249 assists rank second only to Gretzky (1,963), and he ranks third on the games-played list behind Howe (1,767) and Messier (1,756). The Hartford Whalers drafted Francis in the first round, fourth overall, in the 1981 NHL Draft. He played with the Whalers for 10 seasons before joining Pittsburgh at the trading deadline of the 1990-91 season, helping them win the Stanley Cup in 1991 and 1992. He spent seven full seasons with the Penguins before rejoining the organization that drafted him, when the relocated Carolina Hurricanes signed him as a free agent on July 13, 1998. In 16 seasons with the Hartford/Carolina franchise, Francis played in 1,186 games, scoring 382 goals and earning 793 assists for 1,175 points — all of which are franchise records. The Hurricanes officially retired his number 10 jersey to the arena's rafters on January 28, 2006, and on November 12, 2007, Francis was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame. The impact Francis had for the sport of hockey in North Carolina was further recognized on May 2, 2013, when he became the first hockey player inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

Joel Quenneville

Head Coach

Born: Windsor, ON, September 15, 1958.

Joel Quenneville was named the 37th head coach in Chicago Blackhawks history on October 16, 2008 and in 2009-10 he guided the team to its first Stanley Cup championship since 1961. He led Chicago to Stanley Cup titles again in 2013 and 2015. On March 19, 2014, Quenneville joined Scotty Bowman and Al Arbour as just the third coach in NHL history to reach the 700-win plateau. He originally joined the Blackhawks as a pro scout in September 2008. Quenneville has been a proven winner throughout his career as a head coach in the NHL, including seven seasons with the St. Louis Blues (1996 to 2004) and three with the Colorado Avalanche (2005 to 2008). In his first season behind the bench in Chicago, he led the Blackhawks to the Western Conference Final in just their second playoff appearance since the 1996-97 season.

One of only two men in the history of the NHL (along with Jacques Lemaire) to have played in 800 or more games and coached 1,000 or more, Quenneville is the winningest coach in Blues history, having compiled a 307-191-95 record. He won the 2000 Jack Adams Award as the league's top coach. Quenneville was drafted by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the first round (21st overall) of the 1978 NHL Draft. He spent 13 seasons as an NHL defenseman, netting 54 goals, 136 assists, 190 points and 705 penalty minutes in 803 career games with the Toronto Maple Leafs, Colorado Rockies, New Jersey Devils, Hartford Whalers and Washington Capitals.

Quenneville retired as an active player after the 1991-92 season, when he served as a player-coach for the American Hockey League's St. John's Maple Leafs. Quenneville broke into coaching with the AHL's Springfield Indians before serving as an assistant coach for the Quebec Nordiques/Colorado Avalanche organization for two and a half seasons. He helped Colorado capture the 1996 Stanley Cup in that position before accepting his first NHL head coaching job with St. Louis for the 1996-97 campaign.

Jack Adams Award (2000)

Assistant coach Mike Haviland posted a 3-1-0 record as replacement coach when Joel Quenneville was sidelined with an ulcer, February 16 to 23, 2011. All games are credited to Quenneville's coaching record.

Stan Bowman General Manager

Born: Montreal, QC, June 28, 1973.

Stan Bowman was named general manager of the Chicago Blackhawks on July 14, 2009. In his first season on the job in 2009-10, the Blackhawks won the Stanley Cup for the first time since 1961. They won it again in 2013 and 2015. Prior to being named to the position, Bowman had served for eight years in the Blackhawks operations department.

Bowman originally joined the Blackhawks in 2001, serving for four seasons as special assistant to the G.M. before being promoted to director of hockey operations from 2005 to 2007. As assistant G.M. from 2007 to 2009, Bowman attended to the day-to-day administration of the hockey operations department including contract negotiations, free agency, salary arbitration, player movement and player assignment. He also tracked the progress of the Blackhawks prospects at the club's minor league affiliate in Rockford and assisted with player evaluation, prospect development and scouting.

Bowman graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1995 with degrees in Finance and Computer Applications. He was born in Montreal where his father, current Blackhawks senior advisor and Hall of Fame member Scotty Bowman, was coaching at the time.

Patrick Roy

Head Coach and Vice President of Hockey Operations

Born: Quebec City, QC, October 5, 1965.

The Colorado Avalanche announced on May 23, 2013 that the organization had reached an agreement in principle with Patrick Roy to become the franchise's head coach and vice president of hockey operations. He was formally introduced at a press conference on May 28. Roy is the sixth head coach in Avalanche history and the 14th in franchise history. In his first season with the team in 2013-14, the Avalanche jumped from 29th to third in the NHL's overall standings and won the Central Division title. In addition to his head coaching duties, Roy works with executive vice president of hockey operations Joe Sakic in all player personnel decisions.

Roy spent the previous eight seasons before joining Colorado as head coach and general manager of the Quebec Remparts of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. He guided the Remparts to a 348-159-37 record (.674) in 544 regular-season games behind the bench, which included leading Quebec to the 2006 Memorial Cup title as the Canadian Hockey League champions. He is also a part owner of the QMJHL franchise.

Roy, who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2006, retired with the most regular season wins in NHL history (551), a number that currently ranks second all-time. The four-time Stanley Cup champion is still the winningest goaltender in Stanley Cup playoff history with 151 postseason wins. Roy is the only player in league history to win the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP three times (1986, 1993, 2001). The Quebec City native backstopped the Montreal Canadiens to two Stanley Cup championships (1986, 1993), the first of which was his rookie campaign. Traded to Colorado on December 6, 1995, Roy led the Avalanche to the Stanley Cup during the club's first season in Denver (1996) and again in 2001. He is the only goaltender in NHL history to win 200 or more games with two different teams. Roy won the Vezina Trophy three times (1989, 1990, 1992) and the William Jennings Trophy five times (1987, 1988, 1989, 1992, 2002). He was selected to the NHL All-Star Team on six occasions, the First Team in 1988-89, 1989-90, 1991-92 and 2001-02 and the Second Team in 1987-88 and 1990-91. He participated in 11 NHL All-Star Games and was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team in 1985-86.

Roy, who is the Avalanche's all-time goaltending leader in nearly every statistical category, had his number 33 retired by the organization on October 28, 2003.

Joe Sakic

Executive Vice President/General Manager

Born: Burnaby, BC, July 7, 1969

Former Avalanche captain Joe Sakic was named executive vice president of hockey operations on May 10, 2013 and was given responsibility for overseeing all hockey-related decisions. His first move came on May 23, 2013 when he named Patrick Roy head coach/vice president of hockey operations. A month later, Sakic announced Nathan MacKinnon as the first overall pick at the 2013 NHL Draft. On September 19, 2014, the Avalanche officially announced that Sakic was the club's new general manager.

Sakic announced his retirement from the NHL on July 9, 2009, following a career that spanned 20 seasons and 1,378 games with the same organization. He wore the 'C' as team captain for 16 consecutive seasons (17 seasons overall), making him the second-longest serving captain in NHL history. Sakic led the Avalanche to two Stanley Cup titles (1996, 2001) including the city of Denver's first major professional sports championship in 1996. He captured the franchise's first Hart Trophy as league MVP in 2001, won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP in 1996, earned the Lester B. Pearson Award (NHLPA MVP) and Lady Byng Trophy (sportsmanship) in 2001 and was named to the NHL's First All-Star Team on three occasions (2001, 2002 and 2004).

Sakic was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2012, his first year of eligibility. Selected by the Quebec Nordiques in the first round (15th overall) of the 1987 NHL Draft, he retired as the eighth-highest scorer in NHL history with 1,641 career points. He ranked seventh all-time in both playoff goals (84) and playoff points (188-tied), and still holds the NHL record for postseason overtime goals with eight. The Avalanche retired Sakic's number 19 during a pregame ceremony on October 1, 2009.

Todd Richards

Head Coach

Born: Robbinsdale, MN, October 20, 1966.

Todd Richards was named head coach of the Columbus Blue Jackets on May 14, 2012. He joined the Blue Jackets as an assistant coach on June 20, 2011 and took over as interim head coach on January 9, 2012. He spent his first full season as Blue Jackets bench boss in 2012-13. In 2013-14, Columbus set club records with 43 wins and 93 points and reached the playoffs.

Before joining the Blue Jackets, Richards was the head coach of the Minnesota Wild from 2009 to 2011 after being named the second head coach in Wild history on June 16, 2009. In 2008-09, he served as an assistant coach with the San Jose Sharks and helped the club capture the Presidents' Trophy with an NHL-best 53-18-11 record. He was responsible for the power play in San Jose and that unit ranked third in the NHL at 24.2 percent in 2008-09. During his stint with the Wild, the club's power play unit converted nearly 19 percent of its man advantage opportunities.

Prior to his stint with the Sharks, Richards spent two seasons as the head coach of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins in the American Hockey League from 2006 to 2008, leading the club to the 2008 Calder Cup Final. He also coached the PlanetUSA squad at the 2007 AHL All-Star Classic in Toronto. He began his coaching career as an assistant with the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals from 2002 to 2006, helping the club to a pair of West Division titles, two appearances in the Calder Cup Final and the 2004 Calder Cup championship.

Richards played four seasons at the University of Minnesota from 1985 to 1989. He was a three-time WCHA Second All-Star Team pick, helping the Golden Gophers win Western Collegiate Hockey Association titles in 1988 and 1989 and reach the NCAA title game in 1989. He served as the team's captain and earned Second Team All-America honors as a senior. He is the University of Minnesota's all-time leading scorer among defensemen with 30 goals, 128 assists and 158 points.

Montreal's third pick, 33rd overall, in the 1985 NHL Draft, Richards made his professional debut in 1990 and appeared in eight career NHL games with the Hartford Whalers between 1990 and 1992, collecting four assists and four penalty minutes. His playing career would span 13 seasons, mostly in the AHL and International Hockey League. He helped Springfield win the 1991 Calder Cup championship, was a three-time IHL All-Star and won the 2001 Turner Cup title with the Orlando Solar Bears. He wrapped up his career in 2001-02 with Servette Geneve in Switzerland.

General Managers' History

Doug MacLean, 2000-01 to 2006-07; Scott Howson, 2007-08 to 2011-12; Scott Howson and Jarmo Kekalainen, 2012-13; Jarmo Kekalainen, 2013-14 to date.

Jarmo Kekalainen

General Manager

Born: Tampere, Finland, July 3, 1966.

Jarmo Kekalainen was named the third general manager in Columbus Blue Jackets history on February 13, 2013. In his first full season with the club in 2013-14, the Blue Jackets established new franchise highs with 43 wins and 93 points and reached the playoffs. Kekalainen joined Columbus after serving as the president and general manager of Jokerit in the Finnish Elite League since 2010. He works closely with Blue Jackets president of hockey operations John Davidson on all hockey-related matters involving the club. Kekalainen owns a bachelor's degree in management from Clarkson University and earned a master's in business marketing from the University of Tampere.

Prior to his stint with Jokerit, Kekalainen spent eight seasons with the St. Louis Blues from 2002 to 2010. He joined the Blues as director of amateur scouting and was named assistant general manager as well in 2005. Kekalainen was involved in all facets of hockey operations, including professional scouting efforts and overseeing the club's amateur scouting and draft preparations. During his eight years in St. Louis, the Blues drafted players such as David Backes, Roman Polak, David Perron, T.J. Oshie, Patrik Berglund and Alex Pietrangolo.

Kekalainen was a member of the Ottawa Senators hockey operations department from 1995 to 2002 and served in a variety of roles with the club. He served as Ottawa's director of player personnel for three years and also oversaw the amateur draft and the club's scouting efforts in Europe. Among the players selected by Ottawa during this time were Jason Spezza, Marian Hossa, Martin Havlat, Antoine Vermette and Ray Emery. While working with the Senators, he also served as general manager of HIFK Helsinki in the Finnish Elite League from 1995 to 1999 and led the club to the league championship in 1998.

As a player, Kekalainen appeared in 55 career NHL games with the Senators and Boston Bruins during his career. He also played in the American Hockey League and his native Finland before wrapping up his playing career with Vasteras IK in the Swedish Elite League in 1994-95. Before signing with the Bruins, Kekalainen played two seasons at Clarkson University from 1987 to 1989. He was named to the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference First All-Star Team after tallying 19 goals and 25 assists for 44 points in 31 games during the 1988-89 season. He also represented Finland at the 1986 World Junior Championship and the 1991 Canada Cup Tournament.

Lindy Ruff

Head Coach

Born: Warburg, AB, February 17, 1960.

Dallas Stars general manager Jim Nill announced on Friday, June 21, 2013, that Lindy Ruff had been hired as the 22nd head coach in franchise history. He is the seventh head coach in Dallas Stars history. In his first season with the Stars in 2013-14 the team returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2008-09. Ruff recorded his 600th career regular-season victory on March 3, 2014.

Ruff is the 8th-winningest head coach in NHL history, one of only 21 to reach the 500-victory plateau, and has the third-most wins of any active NHL coach. Dallas marks his second stint as an NHL head coach after departing the Buffalo Sabres as their all-time franchise leader in wins with a 571-432-162 record. During Ruff's tenure in Buffalo, the team made eight postseason appearances, including four trips to the Eastern Conference Final as well as an appearance in the 1999 Stanley Cup Final. In 2006, he was awarded the Jack Adams Award as the league's top coach for guiding his team to the Conference Final. Ruff was nominated again for the accolade in 2007 for posting consecutive 50-win campaigns and for leading his club to the Presidents' Trophy, which is earned annually by the top team in the regular season.

In Ruff's eight postseason appearances in Buffalo he earned a 57-44 record, which is tied for the 15th-most playoff victories in NHL history. He is also one of only 21 NHL head coaches to guide his team through at least 100 postseason contests.

No stranger to international competition, Ruff coached Canada's national team to a silver medal at the World Championships in 2009, served as an associate coach for the gold medal-winning team at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver, and served as head coach once more at the 2013 World Championships. He will be an associate coach again at the 2014 Olympics.

Prior to his coaching career, the native of Warburg, Alberta, played 691 games in the NHL from 1979 to 1991, posting 300 points (105 goals, 195 assists). He was Buffalo's second-round selection (32nd overall) in 1979.

Jack Adams Award (2006)

Assistant coaches Brian McCutcheon and Scott Arniel posted an 0-1-0 record as replacement coach when Lindy Ruff was sidelined due to a family medical emergency, March 20, 2006. Game is credited to Ruff's coaching record.

Assistant coach James Patrick posted a 2-1-0 record as replacement coach after Lindy Ruff suffered broken ribs on February 6, 2012 and was sidelined from February 8 to 11. Games are credited to Ruff's coaching record.

Though he played just 65 games in 2014-15, John Klingberg led all first-year defensemen with 29 assists and 40 points. He was named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team.

Jim Nill

General Manager

Born: Hanna, AB, April 11, 1958.

Jim Nill was appointed general manager of the Dallas Stars on April 29, 2013. He is the 11th General Manager in franchise history and the sixth since the team moved to Dallas. In his first season with the club in 2013-14, Dallas returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2007-08.

Nill concluded his 15th season as assistant general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, and his 19th season overall as a member of the management team, in 2012-13. His responsibilities with Detroit included directing the amateur scouting department and overseeing all selections at the annual NHL Draft, as well as managing the development of the organization's prospects at both the professional and amateur levels. During Nill's tenure in Detroit, the Red Wings had more wins than any other franchise in the NHL, won the Stanley Cup four times (1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), the Presidents' Trophy six times (1995, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008), the Central Division title 12 times, and won seven regular season Western Conference titles while never missing the playoffs. He was an integral part of Detroit's drafting of Pavel Datsyuk, Henrik Zetterberg, Niklas Kronwall, Valtteri Filppula, Jimmy Howard and Johan Franzen. Nill was also general manager of Team Canada for the 2004 World Championship, winning a gold medal.

Nill joined the Red Wings' front office in the summer of 1994 following three seasons with the Ottawa Senators. Previously, Nill enjoyed a nine-season NHL career as a right winger with the St. Louis Blues, Vancouver Canucks, Boston Bruins, Winnipeg Jets and Red Wings. He collected 58 goals, 87 assists and 854 penalty minutes in 524 regular season games. Nill later went to Adirondack of the American Hockey League as a player/coach, retiring as a player after the 1990-91 season. A member of the 1979-80 Canadian national and Olympic team, he was a fifth-round pick of the St. Louis Blues (89th overall) in the 1978 draft.

Jeff Blashill

Head Coach

Born: Southfield, MI, December 10, 1973.

The Detroit Red Wings announced on June 9, 2015, that Jeff Blashill had been named the 27th head coach in franchise history. Blashill joined the organization in 2011-12, spending one season behind the Red Wings' bench as an assistant coach before being named head coach of the Grand Rapids Griffins, Detroit's American Hockey League affiliate, on June 25, 2012.

With the Griffins, Blashill led the club to three of the most successful campaigns in franchise history, highlighted by a 2012-13 campaign that saw Grand Rapids capture a regular-season Midwest Division title and eventually the first Calder Cup championship in the franchise's 17-year history. In 2014-15, the Griffins won the Midwest Division after reaching 100 points for the first time during Blashill's tenure. The club advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the second time in three seasons before falling to the Utica Comets in six games.

Born in Detroit and raised in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, Blashill won the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as the AHL's most outstanding coach in 2013-14 and was named head coach for the 2014 AHL All-Star Classic. In his three seasons with Grand Rapids, he compiled a 134-71-23 regular-season record and a 29-21 mark in the postseason, winning seven of nine total playoff series. He is the only coach in Griffins history to qualify for the playoffs in three consecutive seasons, leading the team to 92 points or better each year.

Twenty-four players who skated for the Griffins between 2012 and 2015 went on to play at least one NHL game, including Joakim Andersson, Danny DeKeyser, Luke Glendening, Tomas Jurco, Petr Mrazek, Gustav Nyquist, Riley Sheahan and Tomas Tatar, who all moved up to full-time roles with Detroit after winning the Calder Cup with Blashill in 2013. A total of 15 players who appeared for Detroit in 2014-15 spent time in Grand Rapids over the past three years. Additionally, 11 current Red Wings were also regulars in 2011-12, which Blashill spent as an assistant coach in Detroit, helping the team to a 12th consecutive 100-point season.

Blashill joined the Red Wings' organization after one season as the head coach at Western Michigan University in 2010-11, where he doubled the Broncos' win total from the previous season and led the school to its first appearance in the CCHA championship game since 1986. He finished as a finalist for CCHA coach of the year, and was named national coach of the year by College Hockey News, Inside College Hockey and USCHO.com. Blashill made his head coaching debut with the United States Hockey League's Indiana Ice, compiling a 72-43-5 mark as head coach and general manager from 2008 to 2010. The Ice earned a franchise-record 39 wins in 2008-09 and won the Clark Cup as champions of the USHL.

A former goaltender at Ferris State University, Blashill was the Bulldogs' rookie of the year in 1994-95 and earned a spot on the CCHA all-academic team in 1996-97. He began his coaching career with four seasons as an assistant coach for Ferris State from 1998 to 2002, followed by six seasons in the same role with Miami University in which the RedHawks qualified for the NCAA tournament four times. Blashill represented the United States as an assistant coach at international tournaments on three occasions: the 2009 World Junior A Challenge (gold medal), the 2009 World Junior Championship (fifth place) and the 2006 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament (silver medal).

Ken Holland

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Vernon, BC, November 10, 1955.

Ken Holland has served in the Red Wings front office since 1985, and has been the club's general manager since July 18, 1997 after serving three seasons as the club's assistant general manager. He has established himself as one of the most innovative and aggressive GMs in the National Hockey League. Detroit's Stanley Cup victory in 2008 marked the team's third championship under his leadership and he has a gold medal as part of the management group for Team Canada at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. The Red Wings have made the playoffs for 24 consecutive seasons, the longest current streak in pro sports.

Holland oversees all aspects of hockey operations including all matters relating to player personnel, development, contract negotiations and player movements, though he now takes a less prominent role in the NHL draft than he did during his seven years as the club's director of amateur scouting.

At the conclusion of his playing days as a goaltender, spending most of his pro career at the American Hockey League level, Holland began his off-ice career in 1985 as a western Canada scout followed by five years as an amateur scouting director before promotions led to his current position as general manager.

A native of Vernon, British Columbia, Holland played in the junior ranks for Medicine Hat (WHL) in 1974-75. He was Toronto's 13th pick (188th overall) in the 1975 draft but never saw action with the Maple Leafs. Holland twice signed with NHL teams as a free agent — in 1980 with Hartford and 1983 with Detroit. He spent most of his pro career with AHL clubs in Binghamton and Springfield, along with Adirondack, but did appear in four NHL games, making his debut with Hartford in 1980-81 and playing three contests for Detroit in 1983-84.

Todd McLellan

Head Coach

Born: Melville, SK, October 3, 1967.

The Edmonton Oilers announced on May 19, 2015 that Todd McLellan had been appointed as the club's new head coach. McLellan becomes the 14th head coach in Oilers franchise history. He was hired after serving as the head coach of Team Canada at the 2015 World Hockey Championship, leading Canada to their first gold medal since 2007 with an undefeated record of 10-0.

McLellan spent the previous seven seasons as head coach of the San Jose Sharks, posting a record of 311-163-66 in 540 games. During that span, McLellan led the Sharks to six playoff appearances, four 40-plus win seasons, three 100-point seasons, captured the Presidents' Trophy (2009), three Pacific Division titles and made back-to-back appearances in the Western Conference Final (2010, 2011). No head coach in NHL history has won more games in their first four seasons behind the bench than the 195 collected by Todd McLellan. In, 2010, he became just the third coach in NHL history to record 50-plus wins in his first two seasons as head coach. He was named a finalist for the NHL's Jack Adams Award in 2008-09 and became just the sixth NHL coach (first since 1990) to lead his team to the Presidents' Trophy in his first season as a head coach.

Prior to joining San Jose, McLellan spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the Detroit Red Wings. One of McLellan's key responsibilities was Detroit's power play, which finished first in the NHL in 2005-06 (22.1) and third in 2007-08 (20.7). McLellan won a Stanley Cup in 2008 with the Red Wings, as well as two Presidents' Trophies (2006, 2008). Before entering the NHL coaching ranks, McLellan spent four seasons as a head coach with the American Hockey League's Houston Aeros, capturing the 2003 Calder Cup Championship and being named Minor coach of the year by The Hockey News. He was also selected to coach two AHL All-Star Games during his tenure in Houston. McLellan also spent the 2000-01 season as head coach of the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League.

McLellan spent six seasons in junior hockey as head coach with the Swift Current Broncos of the Western Hockey League, where he also served as the general manager in his final four seasons. He was named the WHL executive of the year in 1997 and WHL coach of the year in 2000. The Broncos also captured division titles in 1996 and 2000 under McLellan. He played his junior hockey in the WHL with the Saskatoon Blades and was drafted by the New York Islanders in the fifth round (106th overall) in the 1986 NHL Draft. He played parts of two seasons with Springfield in the AHL and played in five games with the Islanders in 1987-88, posting two points (one goal, one assist) before a shoulder injury ended his career.

Born: Nepean, ON, August 5, 1964.

Peter Chiarelli was appointed president of hockey operations and general manager on April 24, 2015. He reports to CEO Bob Nicholson, and is responsible for all aspects of hockey operations. Chiarelli served as the general manager of the Boston Bruins for the previous eight seasons. He guided the Bruins to the Stanley Cup Final twice during his tenure in Boston, including winning the Stanley Cup in 2011.

Chiarelli has also served as a member of the management group for Hockey Canada's national men's team, including the 2014 Winter Olympics and the 2013 Men's World Championships.

Chiarelli graduated from Harvard University with an Economics degree in 1987 and he played for the Harvard men's hockey team from 1983 to 1987. He began his career in hockey after graduating with a law degree from the University of Ottawa and was hired as the director of legal relations for the Ottawa Senators in 2000. In 2004, Chiarelli was promoted to assistant general manager of the Senators and he served in that role until being hired by the Boston Bruins in 2006.

Gerard Gallant

Head Coach

Born: Summerside, PEI, September 2, 1963.

Florida Panthers executive vice president and general manager Dale Tallon announced on June 21, 2014 that Gerard Gallant had been named the club's new head coach. Gallant was introduced to the media at a press conference on June 23.

Gallant, who at one time was the head coach of the Columbus Blue Jackets, spent the previous two years (2012 to 2014) serving as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens, helping the team advance to the postseason each year, including the 2014 Eastern Conference Finals. During his two years as an assistant coach, Montreal posted a 75-42-13 mark, including their first 100-point season since 2007-08.

Before coaching in Montreal, Gallant spent three seasons (2009 to 2012) as the head coach of the Saint John Sea Dogs of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. During his three seasons with Saint John, he led the Sea Dogs to three first-place finishes, three league final appearances, two QMJHL championships (2011 and 2012) and one Memorial Cup title (2011). Gallant was also named the QMJHL and Canadian Hockey League Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2011. Jonathan Huberdeau of the Panthers played all three years under Gallant and served as team captain of the Sea Dogs during the 2011-2012 season.

Gallant served as head coach of Columbus for parts of three seasons (2003-04, 2005-06, 2006-07) after serving as an assistant with the Blue Jackets (2000 to 2003). He also was an assistant with the New York Islanders (2007 to 2009), the International Hockey League's Fort Wayne Komets (1998-99) and the American Hockey League's Louisville Panthers (1999-2000). Gallant began his coaching career in 1995-96 with the Summerside Capitals of the Maritimes Junior Hockey League and led the team to the Royal Bank Cup in 1997.

A native of Summerside, PEI, Gallant was selected by Detroit in the sixth round (107th overall) in the 1981 NHL Draft. He played in 615 NHL games for Detroit (1984 to 1993) and Tampa Bay (1993 to 1995) registering 480 points (211 goals, 269 assists) and 1,674 penalty minutes. Gallant recorded four 70-plus point seasons, including his most successful year in 1988-89 when he registered a career high 93 points (39 goals, 54 assists) and was selected as a NHL Second Team All-Star

Darryl Sutter

Head Coach

Born: Viking, AB, August 19, 1958.

Darryl Sutter was named the 24th head coach in Kings history on December 20, 2011. The team had a record of 15-14-4 when Sutter took over and posted a mark of 25-13-11 under him. A strong finish saw them claim the eighth and final playoff spot in the Western Conference and an impressive 16-4 playoff run saw the Kings win the Stanley Cup for the first time in franchise history. It was also Sutter's first Stanley Cup win. The Kings reached the Western Conference final in 2012-13 and won the Stanley Cup for the second time in three years in 2013-14. They also tied a club record with 46 wins in the regular season.

Sutter had a career head coaching record of 409-320-131 in 860 regular season games over 12 seasons when hired by the Kings. His team's had eclipsed the 40-win mark four times, 100 points twice and finished in first place three times. He is also only one of nine head coaches in NHL history to lead three different teams to 100 wins. Only Scotty Bowman and Ron Wilson have coached four different teams to 100 wins. Sutter led the Calgary Flames to Game 7 of the 2004 Stanley Cup Final and Chicago to the 1995 Western Conference Final.

Before coming to Los Angeles, Sutter was the general manager of the Flames from the 2003-04 season until he resigned on December 28, 2010. Sutter also served as Calgary's head coach from 2002-03 through 2005-06. He was the head coach of the San Jose Sharks for parts of six seasons (1997-98 through the start of the 2002-03 season), where he worked under current Kings president/general manager Dean Lombardi, then the GM of the Sharks. As in Calgary, the Sharks increased their point total every season Sutter was the head coach. He led San Jose to a first-place finish in the Pacific Division in 2001-02 with a 44-27-11 record (99 points). Sutter was relieved of his duties with the Sharks on December 1, 2002.

Sutter was the head coach of the Chicago Blackhawks for three seasons (1992-93 through 1994-95) and served as Chicago's assistant coach in 1987-88 and as associate coach in 1990-91 and 1991-92. He led Chicago to a first-place finish in the Norris Division (and the best record in the Campbell Conference) in 1992-93 with a 47-25-12 record and 106 points. Sutter's head coaching experience also includes two seasons in the International Hockey League, where he coached the Saginaw Hawks in 1988-89 and he led the Indianapolis Ice to the Turner Cup Championship in 1989-90.

As a player, Sutter played in 406 career NHL regular season games (all with the Blackhawks), recording 279 points (161 goals, 118 assists) and 288 penalty minutes. He scored 20-plus goals in five of his eight NHL seasons, including a career-high 40 goals in 1980-81. He served as Chicago's captain from 1982 to 1985 and again in 1986-87. Darryl is one of seven Sutter brothers, six of whom played in the NHL. His son Brett currently plays in the Carolina Hurricanes organization.

Dean Lombardi

President and General Manager

Born: Holyoke, MA, March 5, 1958.

The Kings entered into a new executive era when the club hired Dean Lombardi as president and general manager on April 21, 2006. Coming to Los Angeles as a veteran of 20 NHL seasons in the front office as an executive and a pro scout, Lombardi brought a well-earned reputation for being one of hockey's true visionaries while possessing a solid track record of success, building from within, and of development on the ice and infrastructure off the ice. In 2010, the Kings returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2002 and in 2012 they became Stanley Cup champions for the first time in franchise history. Los Angeles reached the Western Conference final in 2012-13 and won the Stanley Cup for the second time in three years in 2013-14.

Lombardi was formerly a member of the San Jose Sharks front office for 13 years, including seven seasons as general manager, followed by three years as a pro scout for the Philadelphia Flyers from 2003 to 2006. As an executive in the San Jose front office beginning in 1990, Lombardi first served as assistant general manager (a post he held the previous two seasons with the Minnesota North Stars) for the expansion Sharks before being elevated to vice president, director of hockey operations in 1992. Four years later, he was promoted to executive vice president and general manager. During his tenure as general manager in San Jose from 1996 to 2003, Lombardi helped build the Sharks into one of the premier teams in the NHL.

Prior to joining the North Stars, Lombardi spent three seasons as a player representative, including the representation of five members of the 1988 United States Olympic team, and at the time he joined Minnesota's front office Lombardi was only the second former player agent to be employed in an NHL front office (Brian Burke/Vancouver Canucks was the other).

Born in Holyoke, Massachusetts, and raised in nearby Ludlow, Lombardi received his undergraduate degree from the University of New Haven where he finished third in his class. On the ice he was the hockey team's captain his final two seasons, and he received a full athletic scholarship and the school's student-athlete of the year award. In 1985, Lombardi earned his Law degree (with honors) from Tulane Law School where he specialized in Labor Law.

Mike Yeo

Head Coach

Born: North Bay, ON, July 31, 1973.

Mike Yeo was named head coach of the Minnesota Wild on June 17, 2011. The hiring came 366 days after Yeo had been tabbed to lead the Houston Aeros, the Wild's primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. In his one year as a head coach, he led the Aeros to an appearance in the Calder Cup Finals. Yeo joined the Wild franchise with the Aeros after spending the previous five seasons as assistant coach of the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins. During Yeo's tenure in Pittsburgh he helped lead the Penguins to the 2008-09 Stanley Cup championship. Yeo led the Wild to their first playoff appearance since 2008 in 2013 and the team returned to the playoffs again in 2014 and 2015.

Yeo played five seasons with the Aeros (1994 to 1999) and was the captain of Houston's 1999 Turner Cup Championship team. He joined the Aeros in 1994 after playing the previous four seasons with the Sudbury Wolves (Ontario Hockey League). As a left winger, he accumulated 127 points (55 goals, 72 assists) and 511 penalty minutes over 317 games during his Aeros playing career. Yeo enjoyed career-highs of 20 goals, 21 assists, 41 points and 128 penalty minutes during the 1997-98 season while serving as team captain. The native of North Bay, Ontario posted 18 points (six goals, 12 assists) and 65 penalty minutes in 57 games during the 1998-99 season. He also added four assists and 11 penalty minutes in nine games during the Aeros' run to the Turner Cup. Yeo joined the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins for the 1999-2000 season and played in 19 games before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

After his injury, Yeo joined the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton coaching staff where he spent six seasons as the assistant coach of Pittsburgh's AHL affiliate. During his tenure in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, Yeo helped the Penguins to a Western Conference championship in 2001, an Eastern Conference championship in 2005, and two trips to the Calder Cup Finals. He made the jump to the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins under head coach Michel Therrien in December 2005. During his first full season in 2006-07, Yeo helped the Penguins to a 47-point improvement from the previous season, the fourth-largest turnaround from one season to the next in NHL history. In Yeo's second season, he helped lead the Penguins to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since the 1992 season. Yeo remained on staff in Pittsburgh during the 2008-09 season after Dan Byslma replaced Therrien on February 15, 2009, and the Penguins went on to win their third Stanley Cup championship in franchise history.

Chuck Fletcher

General Manager

Born: Montreal, QC, April 29, 1967.

The Minnesota Wild announced the hiring of Chuck Fletcher as the second general manager in club history on May 22, 2009. During the summer of 2012, Fletcher made his mark with the acquisition of Zach Parise and Ryan Suter, two of the biggest names available on the free-agent market, and the Wild made their first playoff appearance since 2008 in the spring of 2013. They returned to the playoffs again in 2014 and 2015.

Fletcher has been to the Stanley Cup Final in management with three different teams (Florida, Anaheim and Pittsburgh). With the Penguins from 2006 to 2009, he worked closely with general manager Ray Shero on all hockey-related matters, including scouting, overseeing the development of young prospects and contract negotiations. Fletcher also managed hockey operations for the club's American Hockey League affiliate, the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins. Under his leadership, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton reached the AHL's Calder Cup finals in 2007-08, and the division finals in 2008-09.

Fletcher, the son of Hockey Hall of Famer Cliff Fletcher, had extensive NHL management experience before he joined the Penguins in July 2006 – including a four-year stint with the Anaheim Ducks from 2003 to 2006 as director of hockey operations, assistant general manager, and vice president of amateur scouting and player development.

The Montreal native also spent nine years in the front office of the Florida Panthers from 1993 to 2002, working seven seasons as assistant general manager and part of one season (2001-02) as interim general manager. In 1996, the Panthers advanced to the Stanley Cup Final.

Fletcher graduated from Harvard in 1990 and spent one year as the sales and merchandising coordinator for Hockey Canada and two years as a player representative for Newport Sports Management before making the transition to the front office.

Michel Therrien

Head Coach

Born: Montreal, QC, November 4, 1963.

The Montreal Canadiens announced the appointment of Michel Therrien as the club's head coach on June 5, 2012. After finishing 15th in the Eastern Conference in 2011-12, Therrien led the Canadiens to a division title in 2012-13. Montreal enjoyed a 100-point season in 2013-14 and reached the Eastern Conference Final. The Canadiens won another division title in 2014-15.

This is Therrien's second stint with the Canadiens, having previously served as a head coach in the organization from 1997 to 2003. The Montreal native joined the franchise in June 1997 taking over behind the bench of the Canadiens' American Hockey League affiliate in Fredericton. In 1999-2000, he became the first head coach of the Quebec Citadelles leading the team to the Atlantic Division Championship in its inaugural season. On November 20, 2000, Therrien became the 25th head coach in Canadiens history. He led the Canadiens to their first playoff appearance in four years in 2001-02.

After Montreal, Therrien spent six years with the Pittsburgh Penguins organization, coaching the club's AHL affiliate in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton from 2003 to 2005, before being promoted to Pittsburgh and leading the Penguins to new heights from 2005 to 2009. Therrien's team was off to a 21-1-3 start in the AHL when he was summoned to Pittsburgh to take over as head coach on December 15, 2005. In 2006-07, his second season behind the Pens' bench, he was a finalist for the Jack Adams Award as NHL coach of the year after leading the Penguins to 105 points and a 47-point improvement over the previous season. It was the fourth-biggest turnaround from one season to the next in NHL history. In 2007-08 under Therrien's guidance, the Penguins kept the same pace and earned 102 regular season points making their way to the Stanley Cup Final, dropping a six-game decision to the Detroit Red Wings. It was the Penguins first division title since 1997-98 and their first berth to the Cup finals since 1991-92.

Before joining the Canadiens, Therrien coached the Laval Titan and the Granby Predators in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League, winning the Memorial Cup with Granby in 1996. In his playing days, he was a solid defenseman who captured the Calder Cup in 1985 as a member of the Sherbrooke Canadiens.

Marc Bergevin

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Montreal, QC, August 11, 1965.

The Montreal Canadiens announced the appointment of Marc Bergevin as executive vice president and general manager on May 2, 2012. Bergevin became the 17th general manager in Canadiens history after having spent the previous seven seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks where he was the assistant general manager under Stan Bowman in 2011-12. After finishing 15th in the Eastern Conference in 2011-12, the Canadiens won a division title in 2012-13 and Bergevin finished third in voting as NHL General Manager of the Year. He finished second in voting in 2013-14 after the Canadiens posted a 100-point season and reached the Eastern Conference Final. Montreal won another division title in 2014-15.

Bergevin held various positions within the Blackhawks organization, including director of player personnel for two seasons (2009 to 2011), and won the Stanley Cup in 2009-10. He served as an assistant coach on Joel Quenneville's staff during the 2008-09 campaign and also spent three years on the Blackhawks scouting staff (2005 to 2008), including one season as director of professional scouting (2007-08).

Originally selected by the Blackhawks in the third round (60th overall) in the 1983 NHL Draft, Bergevin enjoyed a 20-season career as a defenseman in the National Hockey League, collecting 181 points (36 goals, 145 assists) in 1,191 regular season games with Chicago, the New York Islanders, Hartford Whalers, Tampa Bay Lightning, Detroit Red Wings, St. Louis Blues, Pittsburgh Penguins and Vancouver Canucks. Bergevin also skated in 80 playoff contests, reaching the Conference Finals in 1996 (Detroit) and in 2001 (Pittsburgh). He played his junior hockey in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League with the Chicoutimi Saguenéens, from 1982 to 1984.

Peter Laviolette

Head Coach

Born: Norwood, MA, December 7, 1964.

The Nashville Predators hired 2006 Stanley Cup-winning coach Peter Laviolette as the second head coach in team history on May 6, 2014. In his first season with the club in 2014-15, the Predators posted 104 points and returned to the playoffs after a two-year absence. Laviolette finished third in voting for the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year.

Prior to Nashville, Laviolette spent parts of 12 seasons with the New York Islanders (2001 to 2003), Carolina Hurricanes (2003 to 2009) and Philadelphia Flyers (2009 to 2014) and each of the three teams improved exponentially in the first full season after he took the helm. Laviolette won 52 games in his first full season with Carolina in 2005-06 — earning him runner-up honors for the Jack Adams Award in the closest vote in award history — and winning the Stanley Cup. Laviolette's offensive-minded philosophy is evidenced by his teams' often ranking about the NHL's top 10 in goals scored. Multiple young, developing players who have gone on to become dependable NHL players and in some cases superstars were cultivated under Laviolette's watch, including Eric Staal in Carolina and Claude Giroux in Philadelphia. Second in wins among U.S.-born NHL coaches, Laviolette has led the United States' entry at the World Championships in 2004 (bronze), 2005 and 2014. He has also represented his country in four Olympic Games, first as a player in the 1988 Calgary Games and the 1994 Lillehammer Games, then as a head coach at the 2006 Torino Games, and as an assistant at the 2014 Sochi Games.

After amassing 268 points (78 goals, 190 assists) in 594 minor-league games in the American and International hockey leagues (Indianapolis, Colorado, Denver, Flint, Binghamton, Providence and San Diego) from 1986 to 1997, and appearing in 12 games for the New York Rangers in 1988-89, Laviolette began his coaching career with the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers in 1997. After posting a 37-24-9 record and reaching the conference finals in his rookie coaching season, he was hired as head coach of the AHL's Providence Bruins, and led the team to an AHL-best 56 wins and a Calder Cup in 1998-99, just one season after the team had won just 19 games and finished last in the league. Following the 1999-2000 season, the 1999 AHL Coach of the Year was promoted to assistant coach of the parent Boston Bruins, which he held for a single campaign (2000-01) before starting his NHL head coaching career with the Islanders in 2001-02.

General Managers' History

David Poile, 1998-99 to date.

David Poile

President of Hockey Operations and General Manager

Born: Toronto, ON, February 14, 1949.

Hired as the first general manager in franchise history on July 9, 1997, David Poile has been committed to building the team through the NHL Draft. In 2003-04, Nashville reached the playoffs for the first time in franchise history. During the 2006-07 season, the team was in contention for first overall in the NHL, setting club records with 51 wins and 110 points. Though forced to rebuild the roster for 2007-08, the Predators reached the playoffs for the fourth year in a row. Poile has an impressive reputation as an NHL leader and in 2001 he received the Lester Patrick Trophy for his contributions to hockey in the United States. His father, Norman "Bud" Poile, had won the honor in 1989. He served as Associate G.M. for the 2010 U.S. Olympic Team and U.S. squads for the 2009 and 2010 IIHF World Championships and was the general manager of the 2014 U.S. Olympic team at Sochi. He was a finalist for the NHL's inaugural G.M. of the Year Award in 2010 and was a finalist for the award again in 2011 and 2012.

Prior to joining Nashville, Poile spent 15 seasons as vice president/general manager of the Washington Capitals. During his tenure in Washington, the Capitals made 14 postseason appearances, winning their only Patrick Division title in 1989 and advancing to the Conference Finals in 1990. During Poile's 15 years in Washington, the Capitals compiled a record of 594-454-132, finished second in the Patrick Division seven times and recorded 90-or-more points seven different seasons.

Poile started his professional hockey career as an administrative assistant for the Atlanta Flames in 1972, shortly after graduating from Northeastern University in Boston. At Northeastern, he was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years. In 1977, he was named assistant general manager of the Atlanta Flames (who moved to Calgary in 1980), serving as the manager and coordinator of the Flames farm club.

Poile was instrumental in the NHL's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's man of the year for his leadership on the issue. He has also been honored three times as The Sporting News NHL executive of the year in 1982-83, 1983-84 and 2006-07. Poile served as general manager of the 1998 and 1999 U.S. national teams for the World Championships.

Ray Shero

Executive Vice President/General Manager

Born: St. Paul, MN, July 28, 1962.

Ray Shero was named the fourth general manager in New Jersey Devils history on May 4, 2015.

Shero spent eight seasons, 2006-07 through 2013-14, as executive vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins. During that time, the team compiled a 373-193-56 (.645) mark, won the 2009 Stanley Cup championship, two consecutive Eastern Conference titles in 2007-08 and 2008-09 and had three first-place divisional finishes. He was named the 2012-13 recipient of the General Manager of the Year Award, as voted on by the 30 NHL general managers, a panel of NHL executives, as well as print and broadcast media. Previously, Shero spent 14 seasons as an assistant general manager with the Ottawa Senators (1993 to 1998) and Nashville Predators (1998 to 2006). Shero has been actively involved with USA Hockey, is a member of its national team advisory board, and most recently served as associate general manager for the 2014 Winter Olympic Games. He also spent seven seasons as a player agent prior to making the transition to the front office.

A forward in his playing days, Shero was drafted by Los Angeles in the 11th round (216th overall) of the 1982 NHL Draft. He played four seasons collegiately at St. Lawrence University (Canton, New York), and served as the team's captain on two occasions. He led the school in scoring twice, and graduated in 1984 as one of the top-ten scorers in Saints' history. The son of the late Hockey Hall of Fame head coach Fred Shero, Ray and his dad are one of the few father-son tandems to both have their names engraved on the Stanley Cup. Fred Shero served as the Devils' radio commentator in the 1980s.

John Hynes Head Coach

Born: Warwick, RI, February 10, 1975.

The New Jersey Devils named John Hynes as the 17th head coach in team history. The announcement was made by Devils' general manager Ray Shero on June 2, 2015.

Hynes joins the Devils after spending the previous six seasons with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton (AHL), including the past five years, 2010-11 through 2014-15, as head coach. During that time, he led the Penguins to a 231-126-27 (.637) mark, including five straight 40-plus victory campaigns. Hynes guided Wilkes-Barre/Scranton to five consecutive playoff berths, including consecutive AHL Eastern Conference finals appearances in 2012-13 and 2013-14. His teams allowed the league's fewest goals in four of the five years. In Hynes' first season behind the Pens' bench, he was named the 2010-11 coach of the year after finishing with the AHL's best record. Hynes became the second-fastest coach in AHL history to reach the 100 career wins mark, doing so in just 152 games. In the second round of the 2013 Calder Cup playoffs, the Pens became the first team in league history to overcome a 3-0 deficit by winning games six and seven on the road. Hynes originally joined the organization as an assistant coach in 2009-10.

Hynes spent six seasons from 2003 to 2009 as head coach of USA Hockey's national team development program, posting an overall record of 188-131-26. He led the U.S. under-18 national team to three medals at the World Under-18 Championships, winning the gold in 2006, silver in 2004 and bronze in 2008. Hynes also served as assistant coach on the U.S. squad that won gold at the 2004 World Junior tourney. He worked as an assistant coach at both Wisconsin in 2002-03 and UMass-Lowell in 2000-01. Hynes began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Boston University under legendary coach Jack Parker. A forward, he spent four seasons at B.U. including four straight NCAA Frozen Fours, and was a member of the Terriers' 1995 NCAA Championship Team.

Jack Capuano Head Coach

Born: Cranston, RI, July 7, 1966.

Jack Capuano was named the interim head coach of the New York Islanders on November 15, 2010. Islanders general manager Garth Snow announced his decision to remove the "interim" title and officially name Capuano the club's head coach on April 12, 2011. In 2012-13, he guided the Islanders into the playoffs for the first time since 2007. They returned to the postseason again in 2014-15.

Capuano made his debut in the midst of one of the worst winless streaks in team history and was tasked with turning the season around. Right after Capuano took the reigns, the team posted a 1-8-2 record, but that wouldn't last. After their rough start, Capuano led the Islanders to a 25-21-8 record in their last 54 games of the season, making the Islanders one of the best teams in the Eastern Conference after December 15. The coach had a 15-12-6 record after the All-Star Break.

Capuano joined the Islanders organization in the 2005-06 season as an assistant coach with the Islanders. The native of Cranston, Rhode Island, was named head coach of the Bridgeport Sound Tigers on April 30, 2007. In four seasons he had a 133-100-22 mark as head coach of the Sound Tigers. From 1997 to 2005 he served as the general manager of the Pee Dee Pride of the East Coast Hockey League. Capuano also served as the head coach of the 2005 U.S. Under-18 Select Team at the Five Nations Cup in Slovakia.

Capuano began his coaching career in 1995 as an assistant coach with the Tallahassee Tiger Sharks of the ECHL after ending a pro playing career that included stints with Toronto, Vancouver and Boston of the NHL and Newmarket, Springfield and Maine of the American Hockey League. The former First Team AHCA All-American captained the University of Maine to a Hockey East championship and NCAA Frozen Four appearance in 1998.

Garth Snow

General Manager

Born: Wrentham, MA, June 28, 1969.

Former Islanders' goaltender Garth Snow retired as a player on July 18, 2006 to become the fifth general manager of the New York Islanders. In his first season as general manager, Snow successfully bolstered the lineup with several key additions that helped to propel the Islanders into the postseason for the first time since the 2003-04 season and earned Snow the title of NHL Executive of the Year from Sports Illustrated.

Snow spent four seasons with the Islanders and 12 in the NHL. The goaltender was 135-147-44 with a 2.80 goals-against average and .901 save percentage over 368 games with Quebec, Philadelphia, Vancouver, Pittsburgh and the Islanders. Originally selected in the sixth round by Quebec in the 1987 NHL Draft, the native of Wrentham, Massachusetts signed with the Islanders as a free agent on July 1, 2001.

Born: Quebec City, QC, May 14, 1961.

The New York Rangers officially named Alain Vigneault as the club's head coach on June 21, 2013. He is the 35th head coach in franchise history. A three-time Jack Adams Award finalist, and the 2007 winner of the award presented to the NHL's top coach, Vigneault joined the Rangers after spending seven seasons with the Vancouver Canucks. In his first season in New York, Vigneault led the Rangers to the Stanley Cup Final. In 2014-15, the Rangers won the Presidents' Trophy and Vigneault was runner-up for the Jack Adams Award. He previously coached the Canucks to a pair of Presidents' Trophy wins - in 2010-11 and 2011-12 - six Northwest Division titles, five seasons with 100 or more points, and an appearance in the 2011 Stanley Cup Final, where Vancouver lost in seven games to the Boston Bruins. Vigneault is Vancouver's all-time leader in coaching victories with 313.

After being a successful head coach in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League and as an assistant with the Ottawa Senators, Vigneault earned his first NHL head coaching job with the Canadiens in 1997-98. Vigneault led the Canadiens to the second round of the playoffs that season, before missing out on the postseason the next two years - although he still earned a Jack Adams nomination for his outstanding work in 1999-2000. After being relieved of his duties by Montreal 20 games into the 2000-01 campaign, Vigneault coached once again in the QMJHL and then in the minor leagues for Vancouver before becoming the Canucks head coach prior to the 2006-07 season. His most successful season behind the bench in Vancouver was 2010-11 when the Canucks won 54 games, totaled 117 points, captured the Presidents' Trophy as the top team in the league over the regular season, and then fell just one victory shy of winning the Stanley Cup. A year later Vigneault's Canucks edged the Rangers by just two points, 111 to 109, to win the Presidents' Trophy again.

Dave Cameron

Head Coach

Born: Summerside, PE, July 29, 1958.

Dave Cameron took over as head coach of the Ottawa Senators on December 8, 2014. The club was 11-11-5 at the time and went 32-15-8 under Cameron to make the playoffs. He had spent the previous three-plus seasons as assistant coach with the Senators after being appointed to the position on June 23, 2011.

Prior to joining the Senators, Cameron spent four seasons as the head coach and general manager of the Mississauga St. Michael's Majors of the Ontario Hockey League. In his final season with the Majors, he led the club to the OHL's best record and the Memorial Cup and OHL finals. In four years with Mississauga, the Majors posted a 145-87-40 record in 272 regular-season games. Cameron also served as head coach for Canada's national junior team, winning a silver medal at the 2011 World Junior Championship. He was an associate coach for the national junior team in 2010, winning a silver medal after winning a goal medal as an assistant coach in 2009 when the tournament was held in Ottawa. Prior to joining Mississauga, Cameron spent three seasons in the Senators organization as the head coach of the American Hockey League's Binghamton Senators.

Cameron came to Binghamton from the Toronto St. Michael's Majors of the OHL, where he had served as head coach and director of hockey operations. Cameron also served as head coach of Canada's national men's summer under-18 team at the 2004 U-18 Junior World Cup, winning a gold medal. He led the same team to a fourth-place finish at the tournament in 2003. As a player, Cameron appeared in 168 NHL games, recording 53 points (25 goals, 28 assists) with the Colorado Rockies and the New Jersey Devils between 1981 and 1984. He was originally selected by the New York Islanders in the eighth round (135th overall) of the 1978 NHL Draft.

Bryan Murray Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Shawville, QC, December 5, 1942.

On June 18, 2007, Bryan Murray was appointed as the seventh general manager of the Ottawa Senators. Murray had joined the organization on June 8, 2004, when he was named the club's head coach. Murray resigned as senior vice president and general manager of Anaheim to take the coaching position in Ottawa. As coach in Ottawa in 2006-07, Murray led the Senators to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in franchise history, only to lose to his former Anaheim team. He also has previous front office experience as vice president and general manager of the Florida Panthers from 1994 to 2001, assembling a team that reached the Stanley Cup Final in just its third year of existence in 1996.

Murray, who was back behind the bench in Ottawa briefly in 2007-08, began his NHL career as head coach of the Washington Capitals in 1981. He has served 16+ years behind the bench, coaching more than 1,300 regular-season and playoff games, including 672 wins. He earned the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year in 1983-84. Murray's regular-season coaching record in Ottawa is 107-55-20 and includes winning the 2007 Prince of Wales Trophy as the NHL's Eastern Conference champions.

Dave Hakstol

Head Coach

Born: Warburg, AB, July 30, 1968.

Philadelphia Flyers general manager Ron Hextall announced on May 18, 2015 that Dave Hakstol had been named the 19th head coach in Flyers history. Hakstol joined the Flyers from the University of North Dakota where he spent the previous 11 seasons compiling an overall record of 289-143-43 with a .654 winning percentage in 475 games. In 2014-15, he led North Dakota to a 29-10-3 record with a .726 winning percentage and a berth in the NCAA Frozen Four.

North Dakota made the NCAA tournament in every one of Hakstol's 11 seasons and reached the Frozen Four seven times in that span, which is the most of any program in the country during that period. Hakstol led North Dakota to an overall postseason record of 54-24 for a .692 winning percentage, including a 17-11 record in the NCAA tournament, during his tenure. He joined the school's coaching staff in 2000 as an assistant coach, and took over the head coaching job four years later. Under Hakstol's watch, North Dakota won three regular season conference championships – two in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (2008-09, 2010-11) and one in the National Collegiate Hockey Conference (2014-15). North Dakota also won WCHA playoff championships in 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12. Hakstol received conference coach of the year honors twice, in the WCHA in 2008-09 and in the NCHC in 2014-15. He was also an eight-time finalist for the Spencer Penrose Award as national coach of the year.

Hakstol's program produced 20 NHL players and a total of 46 that have played professionally at some level. His former players include Jonathan Toews, Matt Greene, T.J. Oshie, Travis Zajac, Drew Stafford and Chris VandeVelde. He has also had seven players named Hobey Baker Award finalists, including Ryan Duncan who won the award in 2007, and 11 players named All-Americans.

Ron Hextall

General Manager

Born: Brandon, MB, May 3, 1964.

Ron Hextall was named general manager of the Philadelphia Flyers on May 7, 2014 after serving as assistant GM and director of hockey operations during the 2013-14 season. Hextall returned to the Flyers after spending the previous seven seasons with the Los Angeles Kings, where he held the title of vice president and assistant general manager. In Los Angeles, Hextall assisted in all facets of the Kings' hockey operations department while helping the team win the 2012 Stanley Cup championship. He also served as the general manager of the Manchester Monarchs, Los Angeles's primary affiliate in the American Hockey League.

Prior to joining the Kings, Hextall spent seven seasons in the Flyers front office. He became a pro scout in 1999 upon his retirement as a player, and served in that role for three seasons before being promoted to director of pro player personnel in 2002. In his front office positions with the Flyers, Hextall was instrumental in the club's three Atlantic Division titles and two trips to the Eastern Conference Finals while the club averaged nearly 102 points per season.

Hextall played 11 years of his 13-year career with the Flyers, while also playing a year each with Quebec and the New York Islanders. He led the Flyers to the Stanley Cup Final in his rookie season of 1986-87, winning the Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender and the Conn Smythe Trophy as Most Valuable Player in the 1987 Stanley Cup Final, despite losing to the Edmonton Oilers in seven games. He was also named to both the NHL All-Rookie and NHL First All-Star Teams that season. Hextall played for the Flyers until 1992 and then returned to Philadelphia from 1994 until his retirement in 1999, making another trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1997. He is the franchise's all-time leader among goaltenders in games played (489) and wins (240), while ranking third in shutouts (18). His NHL career included a total of 608 regular season games, a 296-214-69 record including 23 shutouts, a 2.97 goals-against-average and a .895 save-percentage. On December 8, 1987, he became the first goaltender in the history of the NHL to score a goal by shooting the puck into the net as the Flyers defeated the Boston Bruins by a score of 5-2 at the Spectrum. On April 11, 1989, during a Flyers 8-5 playoff victory against the Washington Capitals at the Capital Centre, he collected his second career goal and became the first goalie to score a goal in an NHL playoff game.

A native of Brandon, Manitoba, Hextall was originally selected by the Flyers in the sixth-round (119th overall) of the 1982 NHL Draft. He is the fourth Hextall to play in the NHL following his father, Bryan Jr., his grandfather, Hall of Famer Bryan, Sr., and his uncle Dennis, who played for the Kings during the 1969-70 season. His son Brett was drafted by the Phoenix Coyotes in the sixth-round of the 2008 NHL Draft.

Jim Rutherford

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Beeton, ON, February 17, 1949.

Jim Rutherford was named general manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins on June 6, 2014. Rutherford, one of the most respected executives in hockey, was general manager of the Carolina/Hartford franchise for 20 years and led the Carolina Hurricanes to the Stanley Cup in 2006. He stepped down from that position in April of 2014. He had been expected to continue in an advisory role with the Hurricanes until the Penguins opportunity arose.

Rutherford was named general manager of the NHL's Hartford Whalers on June 28, 1994 and helped transition the club to Carolina in 1997. He also served as team president. He was named the NHL's Executive of the Year by The Hockey News in 2002 and 2006 and by The Sporting News in 2006. Under Rutherford's leadership, the Hurricanes made two trips to the Stanley Cup Final, winning the Eastern Conference championship in 2002 and 2006, reached the conference finals in 2009 and captured three division titles.

Rutherford played 13 seasons in the NHL as a goaltender, including parts of three seasons with the Penguins from 1971 to 1974. He was a first-round draft pick of the Detroit Red Wings in 1969 and played in the NHL from 1970 to 1983 with Detroit, Pittsburgh, Toronto and Los Angeles. He appeared in 115 games with the Penguins, posting a 44-49-14 record and a 3.14 goals-against average.

When his playing career ended, Rutherford joined the Compuware Sports Corporation as director of hockey operations in 1983. He oversaw youth and junior hockey for the Detroit-based company and was named general manager of the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League after Compuware bought the major junior franchise in 1984. He was honored as the OHL's Executive of the Year in 1987 and 1988.

Ken Hitchcock

Head Coach

Born: Edmonton, AB, December 17, 1951.

Ken Hitchcock was named the 24th head coach in St. Louis Blues history on November 6, 2011. The team was 6-7-0 at the time. Hitchcock led the Blues to a record of 43-15-11 the rest of the way and third place in the overall standings. He was rewarded with the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year. His Blues set a franchise record with 52 wins in 2013-14. St. Louis won the Central Division title in 2014-15 and Hitchcock joined Scotty Bowman, Al Arbour and Joel Quenneville as the only coaches in NHL history to reach 700 wins.

In 14 full seasons behind the bench prior to his arrival in St. Louis, Hitchcock led his teams to nine Stanley Cup playoff appearances and six division titles while recording at least 40 wins nine times and 100 points on eight occasions. He won the Stanley Cup with Dallas in 1999 when the team set club records with 51 wins and 114 points. He also won the Presidents' Trophy twice and was nominated for the Jack Adams Award three times. In Philadelphia from 2002 to 2006, he posted three straight 100-point seasons. While coaching Columbus, Hitchcock became the 13th coach in NHL history to record 500 wins on February 19, 2009.

Hitchcock began his professional coaching career as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Flyers from 1990 to 1993 before spending two-plus seasons as the head coach of the Kalamazoo Wings/Michigan K-Wings, Dallas' International Hockey League affiliate. Prior to joining the professional ranks, Hitchcock was one of the winningest coaches in the history of the Western Hockey League with the Kamloops Blazers from 1984 to 1990. He was the league's coach of the year in 1986-87 and 1989-90 and was also named the Canadian Major Junior coach of the year in 1989-90 after leading Kamloops to the WHL championship.

Hitchcock has also represented Canada at numerous international competitions, including serving as an associate coach at the Winter Olympics in 2002 (gold), 2006, 2010 (gold), and 2014 (gold). He also helped Team Canada win the World Cup of Hockey Tournament in 2004 as an associate coach and was an assistant on gold medal-winning squads at the 2002 World Championship and the 1987 World Junior Championships.

Doug Armstrong

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Sarnia, ON, September 24, 1964.

Doug Armstrong was named the Blues' executive vice president and general manager on July 1, 2010 after serving two seasons with the club as vice president of player personnel. In his second season on the job in 2011-12, Armstrong was the NHL G.M. of the Year after his moves (which included hiring Ken Hitchcock as coach) helped the team rebound from a slow start to post the best defensive record in the NHL and a 109-point season. The Blues set a club record with 52 wins in 2013-14 and had 111 points. They won the Central Division title in 2014-15.

Prior to being hired in St. Louis, Armstrong spent 17 years with the Dallas Stars organization and the last six seasons (from January 25, 2002, to 2008) as the club's general manager. He was a part of the Stars' organization since the club moved to Dallas in 1993 and helped lead the franchise to two Presidents' Trophies, two Western Conference titles and the 1999 Stanley Cup championship. Prior to being named the team's seventh general manager, Armstrong served nine years as the assistant general manager under Bob Gainey. As Gainey's assistant, Armstrong worked on contract negotiations and season scheduling, and handled the day-to-day operations of the hockey department.

On the international level, Armstrong was the associate director of player personnel for Team Canada at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver and was involved with the management team again at Sochi in 2014, helping Canada earn a pair of gold medals. He also served as general manager for Team Canada and won the silver medal at the 2009 World Championship in Switzerland. He was the assistant general manager for Team Canada at the 2002 World Championship and 2008 World Championship (silver medal) and served as a special advisor to Steve Yzerman for the Canadian team that won gold at the 2007 World Championship. Armstrong is the son of former NHL linesman Neil Armstrong who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1991.

Peter DeBoer

Head Coach

Born: Dunnville, ON, June 13, 1968.

San Jose Sharks general manager Doug Wilson announced on May 28, 2015, that Peter DeBoer had been named the eighth head coach in Sharks franchise history. This season will mark DeBoer's 21st consecutive season as a head coach, serving at both the NHL and Canadian Hockey League levels.

DeBoer spent the previous three-plus seasons as head coach of the New Jersey Devils. In 248 games coached with New Jersey, DeBoer posted a 114-93-41 record and ranks as the second-winningest coach in Devils franchise history, behind Jacques Lemaire. In 2011-12, after finishing with 102 points, he led the team to the Stanley Cup final, alongside current Sharks director of player development Larry Robinson, who served as assistant coach on DeBoer's staff. The Devils fell to the Los Angeles Kings in six games. Prior to coaching in New Jersey, DeBoer spent three seasons as head coach of the Florida Panthers. In 2008-09, his first season as an NHL head coach, he coached the Panthers to their then second-best season in franchise history with 93 points. In 246 games coached with Florida, DeBoer posted a 103-107-36 record.

Prior to coaching in the NHL, DeBoer was one of the most distinguished coaches in Ontario Hockey League history. He spent 13 seasons coaching with Detroit, Plymouth and Kitchener in the OHL, won the Memorial Cup in 2003 and the OHL championship in 2003 and 2008 with Kitchener. Winner of the OHL coach of the year award in 1999 and 2000 with Plymouth, he was also named the Canadian Hockey League coach of the year in 2000. During his time in the OHL, he led his team to the league's best overall record four times (1998-99, 1999-2000, 2002-03, 2007-08) and is one of only eight coaches in OHL history to reach the 500+ win mark.

Internationally, DeBoer has frequently been selected to represent his native Canada, including serving as an assistant coach for the Canadian World Championship squad in 2015 (gold medal), 2014 and 2010. Additionally, he was a member of the coaching staff for Canada's World Junior Championship team in 2005 (gold medal) and 1998. He also served on the Team Canada coaching staff for the 2007 Canada-Russia Super Series. DeBoer was selected by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1988 NHL Draft (12th round, 237th overall) while playing for the Windsor Spitfires (OHL). He played three seasons (1989 to 1991) professionally with the Milwaukee Admirals of the International Hockey League. DeBoer holds a law degree from the University of Windsor and University of Detroit through the Dual J.D. Program.

With 37 goals in 2014-15, Joe Pavelski led the Sharks for the second straight season. He finished third overall in the NHL with 41 goals in 2013-14.

Doug Wilson Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Ottawa, ON, July 5, 1957.

Since taking charge of the Sharks hockey department on May 13, 2003, Doug Wilson has guided the team to its most successful era since the franchise's inception, capturing the Presidents' Trophy (2009) and five Pacific Division titles (2004, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011). Under Wilson, the Sharks advanced to the Western Conference Final in 2004, 2010 and 2011.

Wilson has overall authority regarding all hockey-related operations. He oversees player personnel decisions, contract negotiation, scouting, player evaluation and draft day preparation. In his previous role as the team's director of pro development (1997 to 2003), the 16-year NHL veteran's responsibilities included evaluating talent at all professional and minor league levels and continuous assessment of the Sharks roster and reserve list. Working closely with the entire hockey department, Wilson has played a major role in creating a positive atmosphere in the Sharks dressing room.

Wilson draws on a vast amount of hockey knowledge. He was an integral member of the NHL Players' Association for four years (1993 to 1997) and is a past president of the NHLPA and served a consultant to Team Canada, winners of four consecutive World Junior gold medals in the 1990s. His brother Murray was a member of four Stanley Cup championship teams with Montreal in the 1970s. With the Ottawa 67's in junior, Wilson played for Hall of Famer Hec Kilrea, junior hockey's winningest coach.

In 2004, Wilson was named to the NHL's Game Committee, a panel of players, coaches, executives and media responsible for examining all aspects of the game. This committee included Hall of Fame Coach Scotty Bowman, Pittsburgh's Mario Lemieux and St. Louis Blues President of Hockey Operations John Davidson, among others.

A first-round draft choice (sixth overall) by the Blackhawks in 1977 after a stellar junior career, Wilson played 14 seasons in Chicago and still ranks as that club's highest scoring defenseman with 225 goals and 554 assists for 779 points. He led all Blackhawks defensemen in scoring for 10 consecutive seasons (1980-81 through 1990-91) and captured the 1982 James Norris Memorial Trophy, as the League's top defenseman, when he tallied 39 goals and 85 points — still Blackhawks single-season records for goals and points for a defenseman.

Acquired by San Jose from Chicago just before the Sharks inaugural season (1991-92), Wilson brought instant credibility and respect to the young franchise. He played two seasons for the Sharks, serving as the franchise's first team captain (1991 to 1993). He played his 1,000th NHL game on Nov. 21, 1992 and was named San Jose's nominee (1992 and 1993) for the King Clancy Award for leadership and humanitarian contributions both on-and off-the-ice.

Wilson announced his retirement as a member of the Sharks during training camp in 1993-94 after playing 1,024 regular-season and 95 playoff games. He played in seven NHL All-Star Games (six with Chicago and one with San Jose) and earned one First and two Second Team All-Star selections.

Jon Cooper

Head Coach

Born: Prince George, BC, August 23, 1967.

The Tampa Bay Lightning named Jon Cooper as the eighth head coach in franchise history on March 25, 2013. In his first full season with the club in 2013-14, Cooper led the Lightning back to the playoffs after a two-year absence. The team tied a club record with 46 wins and he finished third in voting for the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year. In 2014-15, the Lightning set club records with 50 wins and 108 points and reached the Stanley Cup Final.

Cooper joined the Lightning after having spent the previous three seasons behind the bench of Tampa Bay's top minor league affiliate, the Norfolk Admirals, from 2010 to 2012 and the Syracuse Crunch in 2012-13. He compiled a 133-62-26 regular-season record (.661) in 221 games in the American Hockey League.

Cooper was awarded the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as the AHL's top coach in 2011-12 after guiding the Admirals to a franchise-record 55 wins and 113 points en route to the team's first Calder Cup Championship. Along the way, Cooper and his team set a North American professional hockey record, winning a remarkable 28 consecutive games. Norfolk also earned the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as the AHL's regular-season points champion, while capturing the league's East Division title. Cooper led Norfolk to a 94-44-18 record in the regular season and a 17-7 mark in the playoffs during two seasons behind the bench. In 2012-13, he led the Syracuse Crunch to a 39-18-8 record, the best in the AHL at the time, despite a number of key players being recalled to the Lightning before he himself was summoned to Tampa Bay.

Before joining the AHL ranks, Cooper also found success in the United States Hockey League with the Green Bay Gamblers, posting an 84-27-9 record in two seasons. Under Cooper's guidance the Gamblers posted back-to-back seasons with the best record in the USHL and won the 2010 Clark Cup. In his first season in 2008-09, Green Bay saw a 50-point improvement from the previous year, setting a USHL record for largest single-season improvement. He was rewarded with the 2009 and 2010 USHL General Manager of the Year Awards, as well as being named the 2010 USHL Coach of the Year.

Cooper played high school hockey at Notre Dame in Wilcox, Saskatchewan. He then moved on to Hofstra University in the NCAA, where he played four seasons of Division I lacrosse and spent one season on Hofstra's hockey team. He then went on to earn a law degree from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing, Michigan, eventually closing his practice in 2003 to pursue a career in coaching.

Steve Yzerman

Vice President and General Manager

Born: Cranbrook, BC, May 9, 1965.

Steve Yzerman – the iconic Detroit Red Wing player and executive – was named the sixth general manager in Lightning history on May 25, 2010. In his first season with the club in 2010-11 Yzerman was a finalist for the G.M. of the Year award as Tampa Bay returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2006-07 and reached the Eastern Conference Final after tying a club record with 46 wins during the regular season. In 2014-15, Tampa Bay set new club records with 50 wins and 108 point en route to reaching the Stanley Cup Final and Yzerman was rewarded as G.M. of the year.

Before joining the Lightning Yzerman spent four seasons as vice president with the Red Wings, working closely with general manager Ken Holland, senior vice president Jim Devellano and assistant general manager Jim Nill on evaluating talent at both the professional and amateur levels. He also contributed valuable input on trades, free agent signings and at the NHL Draft each summer. Yzerman served as general manager for Canada at the 2007 and 2008 World Championships, bringing home gold and silver respectively. He then led Canada to an Olympic gold medal victory on home ice in Vancouver at the 2010 Winter Olympics as executive director, and won gold again in that role at the 2014 Sochi Olympics. Yzerman also won an Olympic gold medal as a player with Canada in 2002.

Yzerman is a four-time Stanley Cup champion, winning three as a player (1997, 1998 and 2002) and another as a member of Detroit's management team (2008). Overall he spent 27 seasons with the franchise. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2009, his first year of eligibility. Recognized as one of the best centers in NHL history, Yzerman retired on July 3, 2006 after a remarkable 22-year NHL career with the Red Wings. He ranks among the NHL's all-time leaders with 1,514 career games, 692 goals, 1,063 assists and 1,755 career points. Even more impressive than his career statistics may be his 20-year run as captain in Detroit, the longest tenure in NHL and major sports history. Yzerman was named captain of the Red Wings prior to the 1986-87 season, making him the youngest captain in franchise history at 21-years-old.

During his illustrious career Yzerman was selected to the NHL All-Star Game on nine occasions. He also won the Bill Masterton Trophy (perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey) in 2003, the Frank J. Selke Trophy (best defensive forward) in 2000, the Conn Smythe Trophy (playoff MVP) in 1998, the Lester B. Pearson Award (the NHLPA's top player) in 1989 and was also selected to the NHL All-Rookie Team in 1984.

Mike Babcock

Head Coach

Born: Manitouwadge, ON, April 29, 1963.

Brendan Shanahan, president and alternate governor of the Toronto Maple Leafs, announced on May 20, 2015, that Mike Babcock had been named the 30th head coach in the club's history. Babcock joined the Leafs after serving as head coach of the Detroit Red Wings for the previous 10 seasons.

Under his leadership in Detroit, Babcock posted a 458-223-105 regular season record as he became their franchise leader in games coached (786) and wins. In his time with the Red Wings, the club twice captured the Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's regular-season champion (2005-06 and 2007-08) and made the playoffs in each of his 10 seasons. In 2007-08, Babcock led the Red Wings to a Stanley Cup championship in just his third season with the team, securing his first NHL title and the 11th in team history. Babcock was named a finalist for the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's coach of the year in 2008 and 2014.

Prior to joining the Red Wings, Babcock spent two seasons with the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim (2002 to 2004), where in his first season as head coach he led the Ducks to their first appearance in the Stanley Cup final. Throughout his tenure as an NHL head coach, Babcock has led his teams to the Stanley Cup final three times and the Western Conference Finals four times. Before stepping behind the bench in Anaheim, Babcock spent two seasons (2000 to 2002) as head coach of the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks of the American Hockey League. He had moved to Cincinnati following a six-year run at the helm of the Spokane Chiefs of the Western Hockey League (1994-95 through 1999-2000).

In international play, Babcock has represented Canada at several competitions. Most notably, he became the only coach in hockey history to lead Canada to gold medals in consecutive Olympic appearances after guiding Canada in Vancouver (2010) and Sochi, Russia (2014). In 2004, he led Team Canada to a gold medal at the World Championships. In 1997, he took part in his first international coaching experience at the World Junior Championships as Canada also captured gold. Babcock is the only coach in the "Triple Gold Club," an exclusive group of individuals who have captured the three most prestigious championships in hockey (a World Championship, an Olympic gold medal and the Stanley Cup).

Lou Lamoriello

General Manager

Born: Providence, RI, October 21, 1942.

Brendan Shanahan, president and alternate governor of the Toronto Maple Leafs, announced on July 23, 2015 that Lou Lamoriello had been named the 16th general manager in the club's history. Lamoriello joined the Leafs after spending the previous 28 years in the New Jersey Devils organization.

Lamoriello first joined the Devils as president and general manager in 1987. Under his leadership, New Jersey went to the Stanley Cup playoffs 21 times, won nine division titles, went to the Stanley Cup Final five times and won the Cup on three occasions (1995, 2000 and 2003). The Devils also made 13 consecutive postseason berths from 1997 to 2010 and finished with a winning record every season from 1992-93 through 2009-10.

Lamoriello also served as interim head coach during three different seasons — most recently the 2014-15 season as he served as co-coach alongside Scott Stevens and Adam Oates for the final 46 games of the regular season (20-19-7). On May 4, 2015, Ray Shero was introduced as the Devils' new general manager while Lamoriello remained in his role as president of hockey operations. He finished as the longest serving general manager of any one team in the history of the NHL at 28 years (1987 to 2015).

In 1996, Lamoriello served as general manager for Team USA as they won the World Cup of Hockey. He was also general manager of Team USA at the 1998 Nagano Winter Olympics. His many accomplishments have earned him a number of prestigious awards, including induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder category in 2009 and into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2012.

Willie Desjardins

Head Coach

Born: Climax, SK, February 11, 1957.

Vancouver Canucks general manager Jim Benning announced on June 23, 2014 that Willie Desjardins had been named head coach of the Vancouver Canucks. With the appointment, Desjardins became the 18th head coach in club history. In his first season with the club in 2014-15, Desjardins led the Canucks back to the playoffs after missing the postseason in 2013-14.

Desjardins joined the Canucks from the Texas Stars, whom he had led to the 2014 Calder Cup championship six days before. In his first year with the Stars in 2012-13, he led Texas to its first South Division regular season title and the number-one seed in the Western Conference for the 2013 playoffs and was rewarded with the Louis A.R. Pieri Award as the American Hockey League's coach of the year.

Prior to his tenure in the AHL, Desjardins spent two seasons in the NHL as an associate coach with the Dallas Stars from 2010 to 2012. He also served as head coach (2002 to 2010) and general manager (2005 to 2010) of the Western Hockey League's Medicine Hat Tigers, where he led the team to two Memorial Cup tournaments and to the Memorial Cup final in 2007. Desjardins won the Dunc McCallum Memorial Trophy as WHL coach of the year for the 2005-06 season and was also the recipient of the Brian Kilrea coach of the year award as the top coach in the Canadian Hockey League in 2006. His first stint in the WHL was as head coach of the Saskatoon Blades in 1997-98. He previously spent six seasons (1988 to 1994) as head coach at the University of Calgary, leading the Dinos to two Canada West University Athletic Association championships, followed by two seasons coaching in Japan, where he won a championship in 1994-95.

On the international stage, Desjardins has represented Canada as head coach in 2010 (silver medal) and assistant coach in 2009 (gold) at the World Junior Championships. He was an assistant coach for the Canadian national men's team in 1998-99, when the team finished fourth at the 1999 World Championship in Norway.

Desjardins played major junior hockey for the Lethbridge Broncos of the Western Hockey League from 1974 through 1977. He won the 1982-83 Major W.J. "Danny" McLeod Award as the University Cup Tournament MVP, selected by the members of the CIS Men's Hockey Coaches Association.

Jim Benning General Manager

Born: Edmonton, AB, April 29, 1963.

Vancouver Canucks president of hockey operations Trevor Linden confirmed at a Canucks' Town Hall Meeting on May 21, 2014 that Jim Benning had been named general manager of the team. Benning was officially introduced on May 23, 2014. In his first season in the role in 2014-15 the Canucks returned to the playoffs after having missed the postseason the previous year.

Benning is the 11th general manager in club history. He joined Vancouver after serving in the capacity of the Boston Bruins assistant general manager for seven years. In that role he acted as an advisor to general manager Peter Chiarelli on all matters pertaining to player evaluation, trades and free agent signings, in addition to assisting the general manager in overseeing all individuals in their specific duties for the Bruins. Benning initially joined the Bruins as director of player personnel in 2006.

The Edmonton, Alberta native also previously held a 12-year tenure with the Buffalo Sabres. For eight of those seasons, Benning served as the team's director of amateur scouting. In that position, he oversaw the club's scouting staff and led the team at the annual NHL Draft, in addition to scouting prospects at the high school, college and junior hockey levels as well as in Europe.

A former defenceman, Benning was drafted by the Toronto Maple Leafs with their first pick, sixth overall, in the 1981 NHL Draft and played nine seasons in the National Hockey League with the Maple Leafs and Vancouver Canucks. Benning accumulated 243 points (52 goals, 191 assists) and 461 penalty minutes in 605 career games. He played one season in Europe before retiring as a player in 1992 and attended college for one year before joining the Anaheim organization as an amateur scout.

Head Coach

Born: Winnipeg, MB, July 15, 1962.

Majority owner Ted Leonsis and president Dick Patrick announced on May 26, 2014 that they had named Barry Trotz as the team's head coach. Trotz is the 17th coach in Capitals history and joined Washington after spending 15 seasons as coach of the Nashville Predators. In his first season with the Capitals in 2014-15, the team had 101 points and returned to the playoffs.

Trotz was previously the longest tenured coach in the NHL and only coach in the Predators history. Trotz has put himself among some legendary names, ranking third all-time in both games coached (1,196) and wins (557) with a single franchise. He is one of just six coaches in all four major North American sports leagues to have coached or managed each of a team's first 15 seasons of existence (MLB: Connie Mack - 50, Philadelphia (AL); NFL Curly Lambeau - 29, Green Bay, Tom Landry - 29, Dallas, Hank Stram - 15, Kansas City, Paul Brown - 15, Cleveland). Trotz has also been the finalist for the Jack Adams Award, awarded annually to the NHL's top head coach, twice (2010 and 2011) while finishing in the top five on four other occasions since 2006.

Prior to joining the Predators, Trotz spent five seasons (1992 to 1997) as the coach of the Capitals' primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. He was named coach of the Baltimore Skipjacks in 1992 after one season as an assistant coach. Following the franchise's relocation to Portland, Maine, in 1993, he led the Portland Pirates to two Calder Cup finals appearances during the next four seasons. In 1994-95, Trotz coached Portland to a Calder Cup championship and a league-best 43-27-10 record and captured AHL Coach of the Year honors. In 2006 he was honored with election to the Pirates' Hall of Fame.

Trotz earned the first of his back-to-back Jack Adams nominations in 2009-10 when he was runner-up for the award after leading his club to a 100-point season (47-29-6) despite the NHL's 28th-highest payroll. Trotz was again nominated for the award in 2010-11 after guiding the Predators to the fifth seed in the Western Conference (44-27-11) despite losing 348 man-games due to injury, a number that ranked among the top three in the league, and being the fifth youngest roster down the stretch and the youngest among playoff teams. That success continued in 2011-12 when he finished fifth in Adams voting after steering the team to their third-best record in franchise history and to top 10 rankings in goals for (eighth), goals against (eighth), power-play percentage (first) and penalty-kill percentage (10th). On November 12, 2011, against the Montreal Canadiens, he hit the 1,000-game milestone, and on March 30, 2012, reached the 500-win mark.

Brian MacLellan

Senior Vice President and General Manager

Born: Guelph, ON, October 27, 1958.

Majority owner Ted Leonsis and president Dick Patrick announced on May 26, 2014 that the Washington Capitals had promoted Brian MacLellan to senior vice president and general manager. MacLellan is the sixth general manager in Capitals history after spending the previous 13 seasons with Washington, seven as the team's assistant general manager, player personnel. In his first season as general manager in 2014-15, the team had 101 points and returned to the playoffs.

In his previous role MacLellan oversaw the club's professional scouting staff and worked closely with the team's American Hockey League affiliate, the Hershey Bears, who won the Calder Cup in 2006, 2009 and 2010. MacLellan, who served as a pro scout for the Capitals from 2000 to 2003 and then was promoted to director of player personnel, assisted and advised the general manager in all player-related matters.

MacLellan, who won a Stanley Cup with the Calgary Flames in 1989, had a 10-year NHL career in which he skated for the Los Angeles Kings, New York Rangers, Minnesota North Stars, Calgary Flames and Detroit Red Wings. A forward who played 606 NHL games, MacLellan recorded 172 goals, and 241 assists for 413 points. He also won a silver medal with Team Canada at the 1985 World Championship in Prague.

The Guelph, Ontario, native played hockey at Bowling Green State University from 1978 to 1982, where he graduated with a bachelor of science in business administration. In 1982 he was named an All-America defenseman and First-Team All-CCHA. MacLellan earned his MBA in finance from the University of St. Thomas in 1995 and went on to work for an investment consulting firm in Minneapolis before joining the Capitals as a pro scout.

Paul Maurice Head Coach

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, ON, January 30, 1967.

The Winnipeg Jets announced on January 12, 2014 that Paul Maurice had been hired as their head coach. He is the second head coach in franchise history since the team's move from Atlanta to Winnipeg in 2011. In his first full season behind the bench in 2014-15, Maurice led the Jets to the playoffs for just the second time in franchise history.

Maurice had a career NHL coaching record of 460-457-167 in 14 seasons with the Carolina Hurricanes/Hartford Whalers and the Toronto Maple Leafs. He won his 400th career NHL game when the Hurricanes defeated the Buffalo Sabres in overtime on February 11, 2010, and on November 28, 2010, he became the 19th coach, and the youngest in history, to coach 1,000 NHL games. In his first head coaching stint with the Hurricanes, Maurice guided Carolina to the 2002 Eastern Conference title and two Southeast Division crowns as well as four consecutive winning seasons from 1998 to 2002. On March 16, 2010, he became just the 10th coach in NHL history to spend more than 800 games behind the bench for one franchise.

Prior to re-joining the Hurricanes, the Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario native collected a record of 76-66-22 during two full seasons as head coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs from 2006 to 2008. Maurice led the Maple Leafs to 40 victories in 2006-07 and recorded his 300th NHL victory on March 6, 2007. Most recently, Maurice spent the 2012-13 season as head coach of Magnitogorsk Metallurg of the KHL.

Prior to moving to the NHL level during the summer of 1995 as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers, Maurice spent two seasons as head coach of the Ontario Hockey League's Detroit Jr. Red Wings. While in Detroit, he compiled a regular-season record of 86-38-8 and led the team to the 1995 OHL Championship and an appearance in the Memorial Cup. That season, he finished second in voting to Guelph's Craig Hartsburg for the Matt Leyden Trophy, which is annually awarded to the OHL's Coach of the Year.

Maurice played his junior hockey with the OHL's Windsor Spitfires (1984 to 1988) and was Philadelphia's 12th choice, 252nd overall, in the 1985 NHL Draft. Maurice had his career cut short due to an eye injury, and began coaching as an assistant with the Jr. Red Wings shortly thereafter.

Kevin Cheveldayoff

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Blaine Lake, SK, February 4, 1970.

Kevin Cheveldayoff was given his first assignment as general manager of an NHL hockey club when he was named to the position by the Winnipeg Jets on June 8, 2011. In 2014-15 the team reached the playoffs for the first time.

Prior to joining the Jets, Cheveldayoff had spent two seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks and served as the club's assistant general manager/senior director, hockey operations in 2010-11. During his tenure in Chicago, the Blackhawks won the 2010 Stanley Cup championship, the team's first since 1961.

Before joining the Blackhawks on August 3, 2009, Cheveldayoff spent the previous 12 seasons as the general manager of the Chicago Wolves, guiding the franchise to four league championships, which included the 2002 and 2008 Calder Cup titles in the American Hockey League and the 1998 and 2000 International Hockey League's Turner Cup. Overall, Cheveldayoff was a part of seven league championships during his 15-year management career before being hired in Winnipeg, including two Turner Cup titles in three seasons as the assistant vice president of hockey operations and assistant coach for the Denver and Utah Grizzlies (1994 to 1997).

Cheveldayoff was the architect of 12 Wolves teams that compiled a .615 regular-season winning percentage (544-320-114) and 10 postseason berths from 1997 to 2009. Eight of those clubs reached the 100-point mark during the regular season while earning four division titles and six postseason conference championships.

Cheveldayoff was originally drafted by the New York Islanders with their first pick (16th overall) in the 1988 NHL Draft. He began his career in the AHL with the Capital District Islanders, serving as the alternate captain from 1991 to 1993. He held the same role with the Salt Lake Golden Eagles in 1993-94, earning the team's "Unsung Hero Award" after racking up a career-high 216 penalty minutes in 73 games. Known as a defensive defenseman during his playing days, a knee injury cut his professional career short after five seasons.

NHL Individual Scoring Records – History

Six individual scoring records stand as benchmarks in the history of the game: most goals, single-season and career; most assists, single-season and career; and most points, single-season and career. The evolution of these six records is traced here, beginning with 1917-18, the NHL's first season. New research has resulted in changes to scoring records in the NHL's first nine seasons.

* Match Misconduct penalty not included in total penalty minutes.

1946-47 was the first season that a Match penalty was automatically written into the player's total penalty minutes as 20 minutes.

Beginning in 1947-48 all penalties, Match, Game Misconduct, and Misconduct, are written as 10 minutes.

Only Wayne Gretzky and Mario Lemieux have had more points in a single season than the 155 Steve Yzerman scored in 1988-89. With 65 goals and 90 assists in 80 games that year, Yzerman averaged 1.94 points-per-game.

Calgary's Joe Nieuwendyk (left) was just the second rookie in NHL history (behind Mike Bossy) to score 50 goals when he had 51 for the Flames in 1987-88. Johnny Gaudreau (right) didn't set any rookie records, but the Flames freshman led all rookies with 40 assists during the 2014-15 season.

Jean Béliveau passed away on December 2, 2014 and was commemorated throughout the rest of the season with a number 4 on a patch on the Canadiens' sweaters and on the ice behind the nets at the Bell Centre in Montreal. On February 11, 1971, Béliveau became the fourth player in NHL history to score 500 goals.

Individual Awards

Hart Memorial Trophy

Art Ross Trophy

Calder Memorial Trophy

James Norris Memorial Trophy

HART MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association in the 30 NHL cities at the end of the regular schedule.

History: The Hart Memorial Trophy was presented by the National Hockey League in 1960 after the original Hart Trophy was retired to the Hockey Hall of Fame. The original Hart Trophy was donated to the NHL in 1924 by Dr. David A. Hart, father of Cecil Hart, former manager-coach of the Montreal Canadiens.

2014-15 Winner: Carey Price, Montreal Canadiens
Runners-up: Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals
John Tavares, New York Islanders

Goaltender Carey Price is the winner of the Hart Memorial Trophy for the first time in his career. Price was a runaway winner, receiving 139 first-place votes from the 157 ballots cast. Named on 155 ballots, he received 14 second-place votes and two third-place votes for a total of 1,498 points. Alex Ovechkin of Washington was named on 150 ballots, with eight first-place votes, 75 seconds, 45 thirds, 18 fourths and four fifth-place votes for a total of 888 points. John Tavares was named on 151 ballots, including four first-place votes, and had 739 points to finish in third place. No one else received any first-place votes. Rounding out the top ten in balloting were Sidney Crosby of Pittsburgh (138 points), Ryan Getzlaf of Anaheim (70 points), Pekka Rinne of Nashville (49 points), Erik Karlsson of Ottawa (32 points) and Jonathan Toews of Chicago (31 points).

Price, who also won the Vezina Trophy and shared the William M. Jennings Trophy with Chicago's Corey Crawford, backstopped the Canadiens to their best regular season since 1988-89. He led the NHL in wins (44), goals-against average (1.96) and save percentage (.933), becoming the first goaltender to lead in all three categories since Ed Belfour in 1990-91. In doing so, Price surpassed the franchise record for wins in one season (42), set by Jacques Plante in 1955-56 and equaled by Plante in 1961-62 and Ken Dryden in 1975-76. The first-time Hart Trophy finalist is the first goaltender to capture MVP honors since Montreal's Jose Theodore in 2002.

ART ROSS TROPHY

An annual award "to the player who leads the league in scoring points at the end of the regular season."

History: Arthur Hovey Ross, former manager-coach of the Boston Bruins, presented the trophy to the National Hockey League in 1947. If two players finish the schedule with the same number of points, the trophy is awarded in the following manner: 1. Player with most goals. 2. Player with fewer games played. 3. Player scoring first goal of the season.

2014-15 Winner: Jamie Benn, Dallas Stars
Runners-up: John Tavares, New York Islanders
Sidney Crosby, Pittsburgh Penguins

Left wing Jamie Benn of the Dallas Stars won his first career Art Ross Trophy. Benn entered the final day of the regular season third in the NHL scoring race with 83 points, one behind Pittsburgh Penguins center Sidney Crosby and New York Islanders center John Tavares. Benn moved to the front by tallying four points (three goals, one assist) in a 4-1 win over Nashville, including a goal and an assist in the final 2:05 of the third period. His late surge increased his season total to 87 points (35 goals, 52 assists), one more than Tavares (38 goals, 48 assists, 86 points), who notched a goal and an assist in a 5-4 shootout loss to Columbus, and three more than Crosby (28 goals, 56 assists, 84 points), who did not record a point in his team's 2-0 win at Buffalo that clinched the Penguins a playoff berth. Benn, the first player in Stars history to win the scoring title, notched multiple points in five of his final six games of the season (7 goals, 8 assists, 15 points), including 10 points in his last three contests. The Stars captain established career highs in goals, assists and points, ahead of his previous highs of 34, 45 and 79, respectively, set in 2013-14.

CALDER MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player selected as the most proficient in his first year of competition in the National Hockey League." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: From 1936-37 until his death in 1943, Frank Calder, NHL President, bought a trophy each year to be given permanently to the outstanding rookie. After Calder's death, the NHL presented the Calder Memorial Trophy in his memory and the trophy is to be kept in perpetuity. To be eligible for the award, a player cannot have played more than 25 games in any single preceding season nor in six or more games in each of any two preceding seasons in any major professional league. Beginning in 1990-91, to be eligible for this award a player must not have attained his twenty-sixth birthday by September 15th of the season in which he is eligible.

2014-15 Winner: Aaron Ekblad, Florida Panthers
Runners-up: Mark Stone, Ottawa Senators
Johnny Gaudreau, Calgary Flames

Florida Panthers defenseman Aaron Ekblad won the Calder Memorial Trophy. Ekblad, who began the season as an 18-year-old (born February 7, 1996), was selected first overall in the 2014 NHL Draft. He is the second Panthers player in the past three years to be voted the league's top rookie, following Jonathan Huberdeau's Calder Trophy win in 2013. Ekblad won the vote in a close three-way race, receiving 71 first-place votes, 39 second-place votes, 24 third-place votes, 12 fourth-place votes and eight fifth-place votes for a total of 1,147 points. Ekblad was named on 154 of the 157 ballots cast. Mark Stone of Ottawa had 47 first-place votes and finished as runner-up with 1,078 points. Calgary's Johnny Gaudreau had 33 first-place votes to finish third with 1,026 points. Filip Forsberg of Nashville received the final six first-place votes and finished fourth with 594 points. John Klingberg of Dallas (127 points), Ottawa's Mike Hoffman (57), Kevin Hayes of the Rangers (15), Michael Hutchinson of Winnipeg (13), Anders Lee of the Islanders (12) and Jake Allen of St. Louis (10) rounded out the top 10.

Ekblad set Panthers club records for goals (12), assists (27) and points (39) by a rookie defenseman. His 39 points were two shy of the NHL record for an 18-year-old defenseman set by Bobby Orr in 1966-67 (13 goals, 28 assists, 41 points). Ekblad led the Panthers in plus-minus (+12) and was on the ice for 88 Florida goals scored, the most of any player on the roster.

JAMES NORRIS MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the defense player who demonstrates throughout the season the greatest all-round ability in the position." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: The James Norris Memorial Trophy was presented in 1953 by the four children of the late James Norris in memory of the former owner-president of the Detroit Red Wings.

2014-15 Winner: Erik Karlsson, Ottawa Senators
Runners-up: Drew Doughty, Los Angeles Kings
P.K. Subban, Montreal Canadiens

Erik Karlsson of the Ottawa Senators won the James Norris Memorial Trophy for the second time in his career. Karlsson, who previously captured the award in 2012, joins Duncan Keith as the NHL's only active defensemen with multiple Norris Trophy wins. Karlsson was named on 146 of 157 ballots, including 44 first-place votes and 42 second-place selections, accumulating 964 points in a tight three-way race. Drew Doughty of Los Angeles received 53 first-place votes but only 889 points overall. P.K. Subban of Montreal was named first on 24 ballots and collected 801 points. Nashville's Shea Weber had 26 first-place votes but finished fourth with 614 points. Roman Josi of Nashville had three first-place votes and 222 points to finish fifth. Mark Giordano of Calgary, Duncan Keith of Chicago, Kris Letang of Pittsburgh, Ryan Suter of Minnesota (two), Dustin Byfuglien of Winnipeg and Niklas Kronwall of Detroit also received first-place votes.

Karlsson led all defensemen in points (66) for the third time in the past four seasons, including a career-high 21 goals. He appeared in all 82 games for the second consecutive campaign, ranking third in the NHL in total time on ice (2,234:55) and average time on ice (27:15) to carry the Senators to a 23-4-4 record down the stretch en route to their 15th playoff berth in franchise history.

Vezina Trophy

Lady Byng Memorial Trophy

Frank J. Selke Trophy

William M. Jennings Trophy

VEZINA TROPHY

An annual award "to the goalkeeper adjudged to be the best at his position" as voted by the general managers of each of the 30 clubs.

History: Leo Dandurand, Louis Letourneau and Joe Cattarinich, former owners of the Montreal Canadiens, presented the trophy to the National Hockey League in 1926-27 in memory of Georges Vezina, outstanding goalkeeper of the Canadiens who collapsed during an NHL game on November 28, 1925, and died of tuberculosis a few months later. Before the 1981-82 season, the goalkeeper(s) of the team allowing the fewest number of goals during the regular season were awarded the Vezina Trophy.

2014-15 Winner: Carey Price, Montreal Canadiens
Runners-up: Pekka Rinne, Nashville Predators
Devan Dubnyk, Minnesota Wild

Carey Price of the Montreal Canadiens captured the Vezina Trophy for the first time. Twelve other goalies in Canadiens history have had their names engraved on the trophy, more than any other team. Price was a near unanimous choice with 27 of 30 first-place votes from NHL general managers and three second-place votes for 144 points. Pekka Rinne of Nashville had one first-place vote and 60 points. Devan Dubnyk of Minnesota had one first-place vote and finished third in the balloting with 28 points. Braden Holtby of Washington had 26 points to finish in fourth place. Henrik Lundqvist of the Rangers received one first-place vote and one third-place vote to finish fifth with six points. Chicago's Corey Crawford had a second-place vote for three points, while Andrew Hammond of Ottawa, Jonathan Quick of Los Angeles and Cam Talbot of the Rangers all had one third-place vote for a single point.

Price led the NHL in wins (44), goals-against average (1.96) and save percentage (.933), becoming the first to pace the league in all three categories since Ed Belfour with the Blackhawks in 1990-91. Price broke the franchise record of 42 wins in one season set by Jacques Plante in 1955-56 and 1961-62 and equaled by Ken Dryden in 1975-76. Price's save percentage was the third highest since the NHL began tracking the stat in 1976-77. He also tied for second in the NHL with a career high nine shutouts, the most for Montreal since Ken Dryden had 10 in 1976-77.

LADY BYNG MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: Lady Byng, wife of Canada's Governor-General at the time, presented the Lady Byng Trophy in the 1924-25 season. After Frank Boucher of the New York Rangers won the award seven times in eight seasons, he was given the trophy to keep and Lady Byng donated another trophy in 1936. After Lady Byng's death in 1949, the National Hockey League presented a new trophy, changing the name to Lady Byng Memorial Trophy.

2014-15 Winner: Jiri Hudler, Calgary Flames
Runners-up: Pavel Datsyuk, Detroit Red Wings
Anze Kopitar, Los Angeles Kings

Jiri Hudler of the Calgary Flames was the winner of the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy. Hudler polled 700 voting points, including 52 first-place ballots, for a tight win over four-time Lady Byng Trophy winner Pavel Datsyuk of Detroit. Datsyuk had 29 first-place votes and 648 points. Anze Kopitar of Los Angeles finished third with 11 first-place votes and 379 points. Daniel Sedin of Vancouver was fourth with six first-place votes and 267 points. Sean Monahan of Calgary had 13 first-place votes but finished fifth overall with 232 points. Minnesota's Jason Pominville had eight first-place votes and finished sixth overall with 205 points. Matt Moulson of Buffalo (150 points), Logan Couture of San Jose (148), Ryan O'Reilly of Colorado (139) and Chicago's Patrick Kane (130) rounded out the top 10.

Hudler finished eighth in the NHL scoring race and established career highs in goals (31), assists (45) and points (76), helping the Flames qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs for the first time since 2009. Hudler tallied 23 points in March for the most points by any player in a calendar month in 2014-15 and the most by a Flames player since December, 2006 when Jarome Iginla had 10 goals and 16 assists. Hudler was assessed just 14 penalty minutes all season, fewest among the NHL's top 20 scorers.

FRANK J. SELKE TROPHY

An annual award "to the forward who best excels in the defensive aspects of the game." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: Presented to the National Hockey League in 1977 by the Board of Governors of the NHL in honor of Frank J. Selke, one of the great architects of Montreal and Toronto championship teams.

2014-15 Winner: Patrice Bergeron, Boston Bruins
Runners-up: Jonathan Toews, Chicago Blackhawks
Anze Kopitar, Los Angeles Kings

Center Patrice Bergeron of the Boston Bruins captured the Frank Selke Trophy for the second year in a row and the third time in four seasons. Bergeron garnered 1,083 voting points, including 75 first-place votes, to finish ahead of Jonathan Toews of Chicago in a very tight race. Toews had 51 first-place votes and 1,051 points in a finish that recalled the neck-and-neck race of 2013 when Toews edged Bergeron 1,260-1,250. Anze Kopitar of Los Angeles was third with five first-place votes and 364 points. David Backes of St. Louis garnered seven first-place votes but finished fourth in the balloting with 363 points. Detroit's Pavel Datsyuk was fifth with three first-place votes and 238 points. Max Pacioretty of Montreal had seven first-place votes and 156 points to finish in sixth place.

Bergeron was the NHL's top performer in the face-off circle in 2014-15, leading the league in total face-offs (1,951), wins (1,175) and winning percentage (60.2). He also ranked among the league's top five forwards in a host of statistics that measure team puck possession while on the ice at five-on-five, including SAT (shot attempts differential), SAT Rel% (ratio of player's on-ice SAT vs. off-ice SAT) and SAT Close (SAT in one-goal games in periods one and two, and tie games in period three).

WILLIAM M. JENNINGS TROPHY

An annual award "to the goalkeeper(s) having played a minimum of 25 games (13 games in 2012-13) for the team with the fewest goals scored against it." Winners selected on regular-season play.

History: The Jennings Trophy was presented in 1981-82 by the National Hockey League's Board of Governors to honor the late William M. Jennings, longtime governor and president of the New York Rangers and one of the great builders of hockey in the United States.

2014-15 Winners: Corey Crawford, Chicago Blackhawks
Carey Price, Montreal Canadiens
Runners-up: Henrik Lundqvist/Cam Talbot, New York Rangers

Corey Crawford of the Chicago Blackhawks and Carey Price of the Montreal Canadiens won the William M. Jennings Trophy. The Blackhawks and Canadiens finished the regular season tied with an NHL-low 189 goals allowed, and Crawford and Price saw the most action for their respective teams. This marks the first time that goaltenders on two teams claimed the Jennings Trophy since 2002-03, when New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Philadelphia's Roman Cechmanek and Robert Esche captured Jennings honors after the Devils and Flyers tied for the league's lowest goals-against total. Crawford captured the Jennings Trophy for the second time in three seasons, posting a 32-20-5 record with a 2.27 goals-against average, .924 save percentage and two shutouts in 57 appearances. Price, who won his first Jennings Trophy, set a franchise record for victories by going 44-16-6, and led the NHL in wins, goals-against average (1.96) and save percentage (.933). He shared second place in shutouts (nine) with Braden Holtby of the Washington Capitals.

Jack Adams Award

Bill Masterton
Memorial Trophy

Lester Patrick Trophy

Conn Smythe Trophy

JACK ADAMS AWARD

An annual award presented by the National Hockey League Broadcasters' Association to "the NHL coach adjudged to have contributed the most to his team's success." Winner selected by a poll among members of the NHL Broadcasters' Association at the end of the regular season.

History: The award was presented by the NHL Broadcasters' Association in 1974 to commemorate the late Jack Adams, coach and general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, whose lifetime dedication to hockey serves as an inspiration to all who aspire to further the game.

2014-15 Winner: Bob Hartley, Calgary Flames
Runners-up: Alain Vigneault, New York Rangers
Peter Laviolette, Nashville Predators

Calgary Flames head coach Bob Hartley was the winner of the Jack Adams Award. Hartley was a top-three selection on 63 of the 75 ballots cast, including 37 first-place votes, for 237 voting points. The Jack Adams win is a first for both Hartley and the Flames. Alain Vigneault of the New York Rangers was second with 14 first-place votes and 121 points. Nashville's Peter Laviolette finished third with 81 points, including six first-place votes. Paul Maurice of Winnipeg also received six first-place votes, but was fourth overall with 79 points. Barry Trotz of Washington (two), Ottawa's Dave Cameron (two), Mike Babcock of Detroit (three), Jon Cooper of Tampa Bay (one), Willie Desjardins of Vancouver (one), Jack Capuano of the Islanders (two) and Gerard Gallant of Florida (one) also received first-place votes.

Hartley led the Flames (45-30-7 for 97 points) to a 20-point gain in the standings over 2013-14, the highest jump among Western Conference teams and the third highest in the NHL overall, in capturing their first playoff berth since 2009. Calgary was among the NHL's best late-game teams, tying for first place in overtime wins (nine), ranking second in third-period goal differential (+31), third in wins when trailing after two periods (10) and fifth in points percentage when leading after 40 minutes (.923, 24-1-1). The Flames also recorded 1,557 blocked shots, tops in the NHL and the highest single-season total since the statistic was introduced.

BILL MASTERTON MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award under the trusteeship of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association to "the National Hockey League player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." Winner selected by a poll among the 30 chapters of the PHWA at the end of the regular season. A $2,500 grant from the PHWA is awarded annually to the Bill Masterton Scholarship Fund, based in Bloomington, MN, in the name of the Masterton Trophy winner.

History: The trophy was presented by the NHL Writers' Association in 1968 to commemorate the late Bill Masterton, a player with the Minnesota North Stars, who exhibited to a high degree the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey, and who died January 15, 1968.

2014-15 Winner: Devan Dubnyk, Minnesota Wild
Runners-up: Andrew Hammond, Ottawa Senators
Kris Letang, Pittsburgh Penguins

Minnesota Wild goaltender Devan Dubnyk is the 2014-15 recipient of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy. Dubnyk earned his team's Masterton Trophy nomination on the strength of a remarkable second-half run. Eight points outside of a playoff spot when he made his team debut on January 15, 2015, the 29-year-old backstopped the Wild (his fifth NHL organization in the past two seasons) to their third consecutive trip to the Stanley Cup playoffs. Dubnyk set a franchise record with 38 straight starts following his acquisition from Arizona, and went 27-9-2 with a 1.78 goals-against average, a .936 save percentage and five shutouts with the Wild. Overall, he finished the season second in the NHL with a 2.07 goals-against average and .929 save percentage and was voted a finalist for the Vezina Trophy as the league's top goaltender.

LESTER PATRICK TROPHY

An annual award "for outstanding service to hockey in the United States." Eligible recipients are players, officials, coaches, executives and referees. Winners are selected by an award committee consisting of the commissioner of the NHL, an NHL governor, a representative of the New York Rangers, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame builder's section, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame player's section, a member of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, a member of the NHL Broadcasters' Association and a member of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association. Each except the League Commissioner is rotated annually. The winner receives a miniature of the trophy.

History: Presented by the New York Rangers in 1966 to honor the late Lester Patrick, longtime general manager and coach of the New York Rangers, whose teams finished out of the playoffs only once in his first 16 years with the club.

2014 Winner: Bill Daly 2015 Winner: Bob Crocker
Paul Holmgren Jeremy Jacobs

Bill Daly was named deputy commissioner of the NHL on July 22, 2005. He serves as the chief consultant to Commissioner Gary Bettman on all issues that impact the league's operation and overall business. Daly is the point person for the NHL's dealings with USA Hockey, College Hockey Inc., the American Hockey League and United States Hockey League.

Paul Holmgren, president of the Philadelphia Flyers, played 10 seasons for the Flyers and the Minnesota North Stars from 1975 to 1985. He served as assistant coach, head coach, assistant general manager, and general manager of the Flyers before assuming his current position in 2014. Holmgren has been widely involved in furthering the sport throughout his career in various roles for USA Hockey.

Bob Crocker is the dean of New England hockey scouts. A graduate of Boston University, he later coached the team's first-year recruits before becoming head coach at Penn from 1973 to 1976. He then put in 15 years as an assistant general manager with the Hartford Whalers. Since then, he has been a scout for the New York Rangers and Los Angeles Kings, helping to win the Stanley Cup in 1994, 2012 and 2014.

Jeremy Jacobs has owned the Boston Bruins since 1975 and is one of the most respected sports business leaders in the world. He has served as Chairman of the NHL Board of Governors since 2007 and serves on its Executive Committee. Jacobs is frequently cited as one of the most influential people in sports business.

CONN SMYTHE TROPHY

An annual award "to the most valuable player for his team in the playoffs." Winner selected by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the conclusion of the final game in the Stanley Cup Final.

History: Presented by Maple Leaf Gardens Limited in 1964 to honor Conn Smythe, the former coach, manager, president and owner-governor of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

2014-15 Winner: Duncan Keith, Chicago Blackhawks

Chicago Blackhawks defenseman Duncan Keith is the winner of the Conn Smythe Trophy. He is the first defenseman to be named playoff MVP since Scott Niedermayer of Anaheim in 2007 and the tenth defenseman to win it since the award was first presented in 1965. Keith led all playoff performers with 715:37 of ice time, averaging 31:06 of time on ice per game. His 21 points in the playoffs equaled Chris Chelios's team record for a defenseman set in 1991-92 and were tied for the most by a defenseman in the last 20 years with Chris Pronger in 2006. Defensemen Paul Coffey (25 in 1985), Al MacInnis (24 in 1989), Brian Leetch (23 in 1994) and Bobby Orr (19 in 1972) are the only ones to have more assists in one playoff year than the 18 Keith had in 2015. All three goals he scored stood as game-winning tallies, including his goal to give Chicago a 1-0 lead in their game-six Stanley Cup-clinching victory against Tampa Bay. His plus-minus rating of +16 was the best in the postseason and surpassed his previous playoff high of +10 when Chicago won the Stanley Cup in 2013. Keith was also a member of Chicago's 2010 Cup champions.

King Clancy
Memorial Trophy

NHL General Manager of the Year Award

Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy

Ted Lindsay Award

Presidents' Trophy

KING CLANCY MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and has made a noteworthy humanitarian contribution in his community."

History: The King Clancy Memorial Trophy was presented to the National Hockey League by the Board of Governors in 1988 to honor the late Frank "King" Clancy.

2014-15 Winner: Henrik Zetterberg

Detroit Red Wings forward Henrik Zetterberg is the recipient of the King Clancy Memorial Trophy. The Red Wings captain rebounded from an injury-shortened 2013-14 campaign to lead his club in assists (49) and points (66) in 2014-15. Zetterberg capped a productive campaign with four points in the final two games of the regular season, rallying the Red Wings to a berth in the Stanley Cup playoffs for a franchise-record 24th consecutive season - the longest active streak in North American professional sports. Honored in 2013 with the NHL Foundation Player Award for outstanding charitable and community work, Zetterberg and his wife, Emma, give back to the Metro Detroit community through numerous initiatives including Metro Detroit area children's hospitals and mentoring nonprofits at each Red Wings home game during the regular season in the Zetterberg Foundation Suite. Zetterberg also funds a high school hockey scholarship each year and underwrites the Hockey Weekly High School All-Star Banquet. As the team spokesman for the Red Wings' annual Smoke Detector Collection since 2006, Zetterberg personally matches all donations. He and his wife also built the Chige Primary School in Kemba, Ethiopia, in cooperation with Action Aid Ethiopia. Construction of the Belta Telo Middle School began in 2013 and was completed in 2014. In May 2014, the Zetterberg Foundation broke ground on a Water Project in the village of Kemba which will supply 3,000 people of the village with clean, drinkable water for life when it is complete in December of 2015. He also supports microloan programs in Ethiopia and Guatemala to provide women with the opportunity to start their own businesses and work themselves out of poverty. In addition, the Zetterberg Foundation has financed and built six houses for former debt slaves in Nepal.

NHL GENERAL MANAGER OF THE YEAR AWARD

An annual award presented to recognize the work of the league's general managers, voting for this new award is conducted among the 30 club general managers and a panel of NHL executives, print and broadcast media at the conclusion of the regular season.

History: This award was first presented in 2010.

2014-15 Winner: Steve Yzerman, Tampa Bay Lightning
Runners-up: Glen Sather, New York Rangers
Bob Murray, Anaheim Ducks

Steve Yzerman of the Tampa Bay Lightning is the winner of the NHL General Manager of the Year Award. Yzerman received nine first-place votes, ten second-place votes and five third-place votes for a total of 80 points. Glen Sather of the New York Rangers received seven first-place votes and 49 points. Bob Murray of Anaheim, who won the award in 2013-14, was third in voting this year with three first-place votes and 36 points. Ottawa's Bryan Murray received five first-place votes but finished fourth with 32 points, while Garth Snow of the Islanders had three first-place votes and 28 points. Calgary's Brad Treliving (three), Nashville's David Poile (two), Winnipeg's Kevin Cheveldayoff (two), Minnesota's Chuck Fletcher (one), Chicago's Stan Bowman (one) and Washington's Brian MacLellan (one) all received first-place votes as well.

After leading Tampa Bay to the Conference Finals in 2010-11, his first season in charge, Yzerman oversaw the rebuild to a roster that reached the Stanley Cup Final with just two holdovers from the 2011 squad: cornerstone center Steven Stamkos and defenseman Victor Hedman. Bolstered by key acquisitions at the Entry Draft (Nikita Kucherov, Ondrej Palat), via free agency (Brian Boyle, Valteri Filppula, Tyler Johnson, Anton Stralman) and trades (Ben Bishop, Ryan Callahan, Braydon Coburn, Jason Garrison), the Lightning set franchise records with 50 wins and 108 points during the 2014-15 season and led the NHL with 262 goals and 32 home wins.

MAURICE "ROCKET" RICHARD TROPHY

An annual award "presented to the player finishing the regular season as the League's goal-scoring leader."

History: A gift to the NHL from the Montreal Canadiens in 1999, the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy honors one of the game's greatest stars. During his 18-year career with the Canadiens from 1942-43 through 1959-60, Richard was the first player in NHL history to score 50 goals in a season and 500 in his career. He played on eight Stanley Cup champions and led the League in goal scoring five times.

2014-15 Winner: Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals
Runners-up: Steven Stamkos, Tampa Bay Lightning
Rick Nash, New York Rangers

Washington Capitals forward Alex Ovechkin claimed his third consecutive and fifth career Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the NHL's goal-scoring leader, adding to the ones he earned in 2007-08, 2008-09, 2012-13 and 2013-14. Ovechkin became the sixth player in NHL history to record six 50-goal seasons, joining Mike Bossy (9), Wayne Gretzky (9), Marcel Dionne (6), Guy Lafleur (6) and Mario Lemieux (6). He also led the league and set a career high/franchise record with 25 power-play goals, while his 11 game-winning goals paced the NHL and matched a personal best. Ovechkin, who finished 2014-15 ahead of Tampa Bay Lightning center Steven Stamkos (43) and New York Rangers left wing Rick Nash (42), scored 41 of his 53 goals in the final 55 games of season (0.75 GPG). He posted his 473rd and 474th career goals on April 2, 2015 to surpass Peter Bondra (472) as the leading goal-scorer in Capitals history.

TED LINDSAY AWARD

The Ted Lindsay Award is presented annually to the "most outstanding player" in the NHL as voted by fellow members of the National Hockey League Players' Association. The winner receives $20,000, and the two finalists receive $10,000 each to donate to the grassroots hockey program of their choice, through the NHLPA's Goals & Dreams Fund.

History: On April 29, 2010, the Ted Lindsay Award was introduced to recognize Lindsay's pioneering efforts in the establishment of the NHL Players' Association. Carrying on the tradition established by the Lester B. Pearson Award, it remains the only award voted on by the players themselves. The award was originally created in 1971 in honor of the late Lester B. Pearson, former Prime Minister of Canada.

2014-15 Winner: Carey Price, Montreal Canadiens
Runners-up: Jamie Benn, Dallas Stars
Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals

Goaltender Carey Price of the Montreal Canadiens is the winner of the Ted Lindsay Award. Price joins three-time "Most Outstanding Player" winner Guy Lafleur (1976-77, 1977-78, 1978-79) as the only members of the Canadiens to win the award and joins Mike Liut (1980-81) and Dominik Hasek (1996-97, 1997-98) as the only goaltenders to be so honored.

During the 2014-15 regular season, Price played 66 games and helped lead the Canadiens to the second-best record in the NHL with a mark of 50-22-10. Price was 44-16-6, leading the NHL and setting a new Canadiens record in wins, as well as leading the league in goals-against average (1.96) and save percentage (.933), which earned him both the Hart Memorial Trophy and the Vezina Trophy as well.

MARK MESSIER NHL LEADERSHIP AWARD presented by Bridgestone

An annual award presented "to the player who exemplifies great leadership qualities to his team, on and off the ice during the regular season." Suggestions for nominees are solicited from fans, clubs and NHL personnel, but the selection of the three finalists and the ultimate winner is made by Mark Messier himself.

History: Presented by Bridgestone in honor of one of hockey's great leaders, this award was first handed out in 2007.

2014-15 Winner: Jonathan Toews, Chicago Blackhawks
Runners-up: Ryan Getzlaf, Anaheim Ducks
Andrew Ladd, Winnipeg Jets

Jonathan Toews of the Chicago Blackhawks is the recipient of the Mark Messier NHL Leadership Award. Chicago's captain since he was just 20-years-old, Toews led the club with 28 goals and 38 assists for 66 points during the 2014-15 regular season to guide the Blackhawks to their seventh consecutive playoff berth. He also built upon his work in the community, where he actively participates in various team endeavors, including Make-A-Wish visits and the Four Feathers Golf Invitational. Independently, Toews served as the honorary chairperson for the Israel Itonije Fundraiser, which helps underserved communities by providing programs focused on social and emotional life skills; supported The Winnipeg Foundation in creating its Nourishing Potential campaign; and continued his role with Misericordia, a Chicago group that offers care for those with mild to profound developmental disabilities.

PRESIDENTS' TROPHY

An annual award to the club finishing the regular-season with the best overall record. History: Presented to the National Hockey League in 1985-86 by the NHL Board of Governors to recognize the team compiling the top regular-season record.

2014-15 Winner: New York Rangers
Runners-up: Montreal Canadiens
Anaheim Ducks

The New York Rangers captured the Presidents' Trophy for the second time in franchise history in 2014-15, leading the NHL with 113 points on a record of 53-22-7. The Rangers, who won the award previously in 1993-94, broke the franchise records for wins (52) and points (112) that had been set that season. The Rangers were the only team that ranked third or higher in the NHL in both goals per game (third - 3.02) and goals against per game (third - 2.28) and finished a season third or higher in both categories for the first time since 1972-73. The Blueshirts also established franchise records for road wins (28) and road points (58). Their 28 road wins were tied for the most by an Eastern Conference team in one season in NHL history. The Montreal Canadiens won their second division title in the past three seasons, finishing atop the Atlantic Division with a record of 50-22-10 for 110 points, while the Anaheim Ducks won the Pacific Division and finished first in the Western Conference with a record of 51-24-7 and 109 points.

NHL FOUNDATION PLAYER AWARD

An annual award presented to "an NHL player who applies the core values of hockey – commitment, perseverance and teamwork – to enrich the lives of people in his community." In recognition of this dedication, the NHL Foundation annually awards $25,000 to a current player's charity.

History: NHL players have a long-standing tradition of supporting charities and other important causes in their communities. NHL member clubs are constant in their quest to help local schools, hospitals and charitable organizations. Clubs submit nominations for the NHL Foundation Player Award and the finalists are selected by a judging panel. This award was first presented in 1998.

2014-15 Winner: Brent Burns, San Jose Sharks
Runners-up: Mark Giordano, Calgary Flames
Henrik Lundqvist, New York Rangers

San Jose Sharks defenseman Brent Burns is the recipient of the 2014-15 NHL Foundation Player Award. Burns has selected two beneficiaries for the financial award: Defending the Blue Line, affording children of military members the opportunity to participate in the game of hockey by providing hockey equipment, game tickets and unique experiences with professional athletes, and Folds of Honor, which provides educational scholarships for family members of injured and/or deceased military men and women.

Burns is heralded for his passion for giving back to the game and fans. He has established "Burnzie's Buzzcut" – a fundraiser in which he and his teammates share their heads to raise money and awareness for charities such as the San Francisco Zoo and the Katie Moore Foundation, in support of close friend and former teammate Dominic Moore.

E.J. MCGUIRE AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

An annual award presented to the NHL Entry Draft prospect who best exemplifies commitment to excellence through strength of character, competitiveness and athleticism.

History: First presented in 2015, this award commemorates E.J. McGuire, who joined the NHL's Central Scouting Bureau in 2002 and assumed day-to-day responsibility for the department in 2005. McGuire was responsible for several advancements in scouting including the implementation of new technology. He also did much to improve the NHL's annual scouting combine. He passed away in 2011.

2014-15 Winner: Travis Konecny, Philadelphia Flyers

Travis Konecny, who was selected 24th overall by the Philadelphia Flyers at the 2015 NHL Entry Draft, is the inaugural winner of the E.J. McGuire Award of Excellence. As captain of the Ottawa 67's (OHL), the 18-year-old Konecny recorded 68 points (29 goals, 39 assists) in 60 games and also was voted Best Skater and ranked second for Best Stickhandler in a poll of the OHL's Eastern Conference coaches for the 2014-15 regular season. Throughout the past season and at various tournaments and events including the NHL Scouting Combine, Konecny displayed the skills, qualities and character that distinguish him as an ideal teammate and role model.

Notes on 2015 First-Round Selections

- 1. EDMONTON • CONNOR McDAVID (KAW-nuhr muhk-DAY-vihd), C. A highly skilled player with excellent vision, hockey sense, anticipation and timing. Connor McDavid can do it all at top speed. McDavid was granted exceptional player status by Hockey Canada to enter the 2012 OHL Priority Selection as a 15-year-old and became rookie of the year in 2012-13. In 2014-15 he was the OHL and CHL player of the year after collecting 44 goals and 76 assists for 120 points in just 47 games for the Erie Otters. He was a tournament All-Star as Canada won gold at the 2015 World Junior Championships.
- 2. BUFFALO • JACK EICHEL (JAK IGH-kuhl), C. A dominating center with smarts and speed, Jack Eichel has elite skills. As a freshman at Boston University in 2014-15, Eichel won the Hobey Baker Award, leading all NCAA Division I skaters with 71 points (26 goals, 45 assists) in 40 games. He helped lead the Terriers to their first conference title in six years and reach the finals of the NCAA Frozen Four. A graduate of the U.S. National Team Development program, Eichel played at the World Junior Championships and the World Championships in 2015.
- 3. ARIZONA • DYLAN STROME (DIH-luhn STROHM), C. A skilled and driven player with a competitive edge, Dylan Strome is not a physical player but he doesn't shy away from traffic. Strome led the OHL in scoring with the Erie Otters in 2014-15, collecting 45 goals and 84 assists for 129 points in 68 games, clinching the title with six points (two goals, four assists) in the final game. He also won the OHL trophy for sportsmanship. Brother Ryan Strome plays for the Islanders.
- 4. TORONTO • MITCH MARNER (MIHTCH MAHR-nuhr), C. Only 5'11" and 160 pounds at the Draft, Mitch Marner has a high-end skill set with puckhandling and playmaking ability. He's also an excellent skater with good quickness and agility who doesn't shy away from traffic. Still only 17 in 2014-15, he finished second in the OHL in scoring with 126 points (44 goals, 82 assists) for the London Knights. Marner won a gold medal for Canada at the 2014 Ivan Hlinka Memorial.
- 5. CAROLINA • NOAH HANIFIN (NOH-uh HAN-ih-fihn), D. An exceptional skater and gifted offensive player, Noah Hanifin is a defenseman who excels at the transition game. At age 17 when the 2014-15 season began, he was the youngest player in Boston College history. Hanifin captained Team USA to gold at the 2014 U-17 Hockey Challenge and won gold at the U-18 World Championship as well. He also played at the 2015 World Junior Championships.
- 6. NEW JERSEY • PAVEL ZACHA (PAH-vehl zah-KUH), C. At 6'3" and 210 pounds, Pavel Zacha is a physical presence with high-end skill. He plays a strong two-way game and is an excellent competitor. Zacha was mentored by former NHLer Peter Nedved with Liberec in the Czech Republic in 2013-14 before coming to North America with the Sarnia Sting in 2014-15. His many international tournaments include winning a silver medal at the 2014 U-18 World Championship.
- 7. PHILADELPHIA • IVAN PROVOROV (IGH-vuhn PROH-voh-rawv), D. A physical defenseman who is composed with the puck, Ivan Provorov has excellent vision on the ice and a good hockey IQ. He led all WHL rookies with 61 points (15 goals, 46 assists) for the Brandon Wheat Kings in 2014-15 and helped Brandon reach the WHL final. Provorov was the youngest member of Russia's silver medal-winning team at the 2015 World Junior Championships.
- 8. COLUMBUS • ZACHARY WERENSKI (ZA-kuh-ree wuh-REHN-skee), D. A great skater who thinks the game well, Zachary Werenski remains calm under pressure. Starring at age 17 with Michigan in 2014-15, Werenski was named to the All Big-Ten Hockey First Team as well as to the All Big-Ten Freshman Team. Internationally, he won gold at the 2014 U-17 World Challenge and represented the United States at the World Junior Championships in 2015.
- 9. SAN JOSE • TIMO MEIER (TEE-moh MIGH-uhr), RW. A solid and strong skater with and without the puck, Timo Meier has high-end hockey sense and reads the play very well. Meier led the Halifax Moosehead with 44 goals in 2014-15, setting a club record with 23 power-play goals and leading the QMJHL with 10 game-winning goals. He has represented Switzerland at several international tournaments, including the 2015 World Junior Championships.
- 10. COLORADO • MIKKO RANTANEN (MEE-koh ran-TA-neh), RW. At 6'4" and 211 pounds, Mikko Rantanen is a physically strong power forward with good speed and quickness. He also has good playmaking ability and a hard shot. Rantanen played for TPS of the Finnish elite league in 2014-15 and scored four goals in five games for Finland at the 2015 World Junior Championships. He also played at the U-18 World Championship in 2014.
- 11. FLORIDA • LAWSON CROUSE (LAW-suhn KROWS), LW. A big (6'4", 215 pounds), powerful player who protects the puck, Lawson Crouse has good hands and sees the ice well. Crouse is known as "The Sheriff" for the way he looks after his teammates with the Kingston Frontenacs. Crouse made the OHL All-Rookie Second Team in 2013-14 and led Kingston in goals (29) and points (51) in 2014-15. He won a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2015 World Junior Championships and bronze at the 2014 U-18 Championship.
- 12. DALLAS • DENIS GURIANOV (DEH-nihs goo-REE-an-awv), RW. A dynamic player who is full of surprises, Denis Gurianov is a strong, tough, power forward who goes to the net. He protects the puck well and is difficult to stop at full speed. Gurianov spent most of his time with Togliatti's junior team in 2014-15 and led all Russian players with six goals and seven points in five games at the 2015 U-18 World Championship. He won a bronze medal at the 2014 U-17 World Challenge and World Junior A challenge.
- 13. BOSTON • JAKUB ZBORIL (JAY-kuhb zuh-BAW-rihl), D. A solid, two-way defenseman who models his game on Nicklas Lidstrom, Jakub Zboril plays well with and without the puck. He finished third among rookie defensemen in the QMJHL with 33 points (13 goals, 20 assists) for the Saint John Sea Dogs in 2014-15, setting a new club record for goals by a rookie blueliner. He won a silver medal with the Czech Republic at the 2015 Ivan Hlinka tournament and at the 2014 Under-18 World Championship.
- 14. BOSTON • JAKE DeBRUSK (JAYK duh-BRUHsk), LW. The son of former NHL player Louie DeBrusk, Jake DeBrusk is a skilled player who is not afraid to go to the front of the net. He is a tireless worker who competes hard and has an excellent work ethic. DeBrusk led the Swift Current Broncos with 42 goals and 81 points in 2014-15 under coach Mark Lamb, who was a teammate of his father with the Edmonton Oilers. He plays in all situations.
- 15. BOSTON • ZACHARY SENYSHYN (ZA-kuh-ree SEH-nih-shihn), RW. A strong skater with good finish around the net, Zachary Senyshyn has excellent puck skills. He finished second among OHL rookies with 26 goals and 45 points for the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds in 2014-15 and posted a plus-minus rating of +30 to earn a spot on the Second All-Rookie Team. In 2013-14, he led all 16-year-olds in scoring in the Central Canada Hockey League with 22 goals in 57 games as a member of the Smiths Falls Bears.
- 16. NY ISLANDERS • MATHEW BARZAL (MA-thew BAHR-zahl), C. An excellent skater who is smart and poised with the puck, Mathew Barzal has great vision and puck skills. Despite an injury, he had 57 points (12 goals, 45 assists) in 44 games in 2014-15 with the Seattle Thunderbirds, who had made him the first choice in the 2012 WHL Bantam Draft. Barzal won gold for Canada at the 2015 Ivan Hlinka tourney and bronze at the 2014 U-18 World Championship.
- 17. WINNIPEG • KYLE CONNOR (KIGH-uhl KAW-nuhr), LW. A gifted puckhandler who skates with a good stride and quickness, Kyle Connor is a solid two-way player. In his third year in the USHL in 2014-15, he led the league with 80 points (34 goals, 46 assists), helping the Youngstown Phantoms set a league record with a 17-game winning streak en route to winning USHL player of the year. He won a gold medal in 2014 with Team USA at the U-18 World Championship.
- 18. OTTAWA • THOMAS CHABOT (TAW-muhs shuh-BAWT), D. An excellent skater who is smooth and fluid, Thomas Chabot is a smart player with the puck. He is a two-way defenseman who led Saint John Sea Dogs blueliners with 41 points (12 goals, 29 assists) in the QMJHL in 2014-15, nearly doubling his total from the previous season. As a member of Team Canada at the 2015 U-18 World Championship, he had five points (one goal, four assists) in five games and won a bronze medal.
- 19. DETROIT • EVGENY SVECHNIKOV (ehv-GEH-nee svech-NIH-kawv), LW. A skilled skater who is strong on the puck, Evgeny Svechnikov plays a physical game. He finished second among QMJHL rookies with 78 points (32 goals, 46 assists) with Cape Breton in 2014-15. In 2013-14, Svechnikov had 27 points (14 goals, 13 assists) in 29 games to help Bars Kazan win their conference in Russia's junior league. He played at the U-18 World Championship in 2013 and 2014.
- 20. MINNESOTA • JOEL ERIKSSON EK (JOHL AIR-ihk-suhn EHK), C. A competitive player with great speed, Joel Eriksson Ek has a good, strong shot and is an excellent puckhandler. He is creative on offense and reliable on defense. Eriksson Ek split the 2014-15 season between Farjestad's junior team and the elite league club, leading the junior league with 21 goals in 25 games. He represented Sweden at the 2015 U-18 World Championship and the 2014 Ivan Hlinka tournament.
- 21. OTTAWA • COLIN WHITE (KAWL-ihn WIGHT), C. A strong two-way player with good hockey sense, Colin White is a solid competitor with high-end skill. He is a graduate of the U.S. National Team Development program who scored the gold medal-clinching goal in overtime at the 2015 U-18 World Championship and had a hat trick versus Canada in the semi-finals. He had 18 points (10 goals, eight assists) in six games to help the U.S. win the U-17 World Challenge in 2014. He is committed to Boston College for 2015-16.
- 22. WASHINGTON • ILYA SAMSONOV (IHL-yah sam-SAWN-awv), G. A big goalie at 6'3" and 203 pounds, Ilya Samsonov plays at the top of the crease and effectively squares to the shooter. He shows good instincts, is well balanced and can make acrobatic saves. Samsonov played most of the 2014-15 season with the Magnitogorsk junior team and earned top goalie honors at the 2015 U-18 Five Nations tournament. He had a 46-save shutout in the bronze medal game at the 2014 U-17 World Challenge.
- 23. VANCOUVER • BROCK BOESER (BRAWK BEH-suhr), RW. A strong skating forward who is very effective at getting to open space, Brock Boeser possesses a hard, accurate shot and has the ability to create opportunities off the rush. He tied for the lead in the USHL with 35 goals for the Waterloo Blackhawks in 2014-15. Boeser won gold with the U.S. team at the 2014 World Junior A challenge and captained his team to a bronze medal at the 2014 Ivan Hlinka tournament. He has committed to North Dakota for 2015-16.
- 24. PHILADELPHIA • TRAVIS KONECNY (TRA-vihs koh-NEH-kee), C. A highly skilled forward who never stops working, Travis Konecny skates well and has excellent speed. Despite being only 5'10" and 177 pounds he battles hard and is not afraid to take the puck to the net. He was the OHL rookie of the year in 2013-14 after leading all rookies in goals (26) and points (70) and was captain of the Ottawa 67's in 2014-15. He scored a key game-winning goal to help Canada earn a bronze medal at the 2014 U-18 World Championship.
- 25. WINNIPEG • JACK ROSLOVIC (JAK raws-LOH-vihk), C. A smart player with good quickness and energy, Jack Roslovic is a graduate of the U.S. National Team Development Program. He scored the tying goal in the third period to spark the U.S. to a 2-1 overtime win over Finland in the gold medal game of the 2015 U-18 World Championship and also won gold at the 2014 U-17 World Challenge. He is committed to Miami University for 2015-16.
- 26. MONTREAL • NOAH JUULSEN (NOH-uh JOOL-suhn), D. A competitive player with good puck skills, Noah Juulsen has a good shot and is good on the power-play. He was the top-scoring defenseman with 52 points (nine goals, 43 assists) for the Everett Silvertips, who finished atop the U.S. Division in the WHL in 2014-15. There was no All-Star contest during the calendar year of 1966 because the game was moved from the start of season to mid-season. In 1979, the Challenge Cup series between the Soviet Union and Team NHL replaced the All-Star Game. In 1987, Rendez-Vous '87, two games between the Soviet Union and Team NHL replaced the All-Star Game. In 1995, 2005 and 2013 the All-Star Game was not played due to a labour disruption affecting the NHL. In 2006, 2010 and 2014 the All-Star Game was not played because of NHL players' participation in the Olympics.

Hockey Hall of Fame

(Year of induction is listed after each Honoured Members name)

Location: Brookfield Place, at the corner of Front and Yonge Streets in the heart of downtown Toronto. Easy access from all major highways running into Toronto. Close to TTC subway and Union Station.

Telephone: administration (416) 360-7735; information (416) 360-7765.

Public Hours of Operation: Open every day except Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Induction Day (November 9, 2015). Please call our information number (above) or visit our website (below) for times.

The Hockey Hall of Fame can be booked for private functions after hours.

Website address: www.hhof.com

History: The Hockey Hall of Fame was established in 1943. Members were first honoured in 1945. On August 26, 1961, the Hockey Hall of Fame opened its doors to the public in a building located on the grounds of the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. The Hockey Hall of Fame relocated to its current location and welcomed the hockey world on June 18, 1993.

Honour Roll: There are 388 Honoured Members in the Hockey Hall of Fame. 268 have been inducted as players including four women, 104 as builders and 16 as Referees/Linesmen. In addition, there are 94 media honourees.

Founding/Premier Sponsors: Cisco Systems, Imperial Oil, International Ice Hockey Federation, National Hockey League, National Hockey League Players' Association, PepsiCo Canada, Scotiabank, The Toronto Sun, Tim Hortons, The Sports Network (TSN/RD5).

Two of the best defensemen of their generation, Nicklas Lidstrom and Chris Pronger, shake hands after Detroit eliminated Anaheim in the 2009 Western Conference Semifinal. Lidstrom is a seven-time winner of the Norris Trophy. Pronger won the Norris and the Hart Trophy in 2000.

United States Hockey Hall of Fame

On May 11, 2007, the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and USA Hockey came to a historic agreement that transferred rights to the selection process and induction event associated with the Hall, including the Wayne Gretzky International Award, to USA Hockey. As part of the agreement, the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame Museum, located in Eveleth, Minnesota, formed a separate Board of Directors to govern the national shrine for American Hockey.

There are 169 enshrined members in the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame (www.ushockeyhalloffame.com). New members are inducted annually and must have made extraordinary contributions to hockey in the United States during the course of their career. A special Wayne Gretzky International Award pays tribute to international individuals who have made major contributions to hockey in the USA.

The United States Hockey Hall of Fame Museum was opened on June 21, 1973. It is dedicated to honoring the sport of ice hockey in the United States by preserving those previous memories and legends of the game. It is located in Eveleth, Minnesota, 60 miles north of Duluth on Highway 53. For further information, call 800-443-7825 or 218-744-5167, or visit www.ushockeyhall.com.

International Ice Hockey Federation Hall of Fame

The IIHF Hall of Fame was founded in 1997. It now boasts 201 greats from 23 countries.

Candidates for election as Honoured Members in the player category shall be chosen on the basis of their playing ability, sportsmanship, character and their contribution to their team or teams and to the game of ice hockey in general.

Candidates for election as Honoured Members in the builder category shall be chosen on the basis of their coaching, managerial or executive ability, where applicable, their sportsmanship and character, and their contribution to their organization or organizations and to the game of ice hockey in general.

Candidates for election as Honoured Members in the referee or linesman category shall be chosen on the basis of their officiating ability, sportsmanship, character and their contribution to the game of ice hockey in general. The Paul Loicq Award, named for the longtime former IIHF president, is presented to honor a person for his service to the international hockey community.

Inductees' names are followed by their country and year of induction.

Stanley Cup Record Book

History: The Stanley Cup, the oldest trophy competed for by professional athletes in North America, was donated by Frederick Arthur, Lord Stanley of Preston and son of the Earl of Derby, in 1893. Lord Stanley purchased the trophy for 10 guineas ($50 at that time) for presentation to the amateur hockey champions of Canada. Since 1906, when Canadian teams began to pay their players openly, the Stanley Cup has been the symbol of professional hockey supremacy. It has been contested only by NHL teams since 1926-27 and has been under the exclusive control of the NHL since 1947.

Championship Trophies

PRINCE OF WALES TROPHY

Beginning with the 1993-94 season, the club which advances to the Stanley Cup Final as the winner of the Eastern Conference Championship is presented with the Prince of Wales Trophy.

History: His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, donated the trophy to the National Hockey League in 1925. It was originally awarded to the winner of the first game played in Madison Square Garden, December 15, 1925 (Montreal Canadiens 3 at NY Americans 1). It was then awarded to the NHL playoff champion in 1925-26 and 1926-27. From 1927-28 through 1937-38, the award was presented to the regular-season champion of the American Division of the NHL. (The team finishing first in the Canadian Division received the O'Brien Trophy during these years.) From 1938-39, when the NHL reverted to one section, to 1966-67, it was presented to the team winning the NHL regular-season championship. With expansion in 1967-68, it again became a divisional trophy, awarded to the regular-season champions of the East Division through to the end of the 1973-74 season. Beginning in 1974-75, it was awarded to the regular-season winner of the conference bearing the name of the trophy. From 1981-82 to 1992-93 the trophy was presented to the playoff champion in the Wales Conference. Since 1993-94, the trophy has been presented to the playoff champion in the Eastern Conference.

2014-15 Winner: Tampa Bay Lightning

The Tampa Bay Lightning won the Prince of Wales Trophy on May 29, 2015 after defeating the New York Rangers 2-0 in game 7 of the Eastern Conference Finals. Before defeating the Rangers, Tampa Bay had series wins over the Detroit Red Wings and the Montreal Canadiens.

CLARENCE S. CAMPBELL BOWL

Beginning with the 1993-94 season, the club which advances to the Stanley Cup Final as the winner of the Western Conference Championship is presented with the Clarence S. Campbell Bowl.

History: Presented by the member clubs in 1968 for perpetual competition by the National Hockey League in recognition of the services of Clarence S. Campbell, President of the NHL from 1946 to 1977. From 1967-68 through 1973-74, the trophy was awarded to the regular-season champions of the West Division. Beginning in 1974-75, it was awarded to the regular-season winner of the conference bearing the name of the trophy. From 1981-82 to 1992-93 the trophy was presented to the playoff champion in the Campbell Conference. Since 1993-94, the trophy has been presented to the playoff champion in the Western Conference. The trophy itself is a hallmark piece made of sterling silver and was crafted by a British silversmith in 1878.

2014-15 Winner: Chicago Blackhawks

The Chicago Blackhawks won the Clarence S. Campbell Bowl on May 30, 2015 after defeating the Anaheim Ducks 5-3 in game 7 of the Western Conference Finals. Before defeating the Ducks, Chicago had series wins over the Nashville Predators and the Minnesota Wild.

Prior to 1914, teams could challenge the Stanley Cup champions for the title, thus there was more than one Championship Series played in most of the seasons between 1894 and 1913.

1912-13 — Quebec Bulldogs — Joe Malone (Captain), Joe Hall, Paddy Moran, Harry Mummery, Tommy Smith, Jack Marks, Rusty Crawford, Billy Creighton, Jeff Malone, Rocket Power; M.J. Quinn (Manager), D. Beland (Trainer).

Scores: March 8, at Quebec — Que. Bulldogs 14, Sydney 3; March 10, at Quebec — Que. Bulldogs 6, Sydney 2.

Victoria challenged Quebec but the Bulldogs refused to put the Stanley Cup in competition so the two teams played an exhibition series with Victoria winning two games to one by scores of 7-5, 3-6, 6-1. It was the first meeting between the Eastern champions and the Western champions. The following year, and until the Western Hockey League disbanded after the 1926 playoffs, the Cup went to the winner of the series between East and West.

1911-12 — Quebec Bulldogs — Goldie Prodger, Joe Hall, Walter Rooney, Paddy Moran, Jack Marks, Jack McDonald, Eddie Oatman, George Leonard, Joe Malone (Captain); Charley Nolan (Coach), M.J. Quinn (Manager), D. Beland (Trainer).

The Montreal Shamrocks unseated the Montreal Victorias as Stanley Cup champions when they finished first in the Canadian Amateur Hockey League standings in 1898-99. The Shamrocks were champions again in 1899-1900.

All-Time NHL Playoff Formats

1917-18 — The regular-season was split into two halves. The winners of both halves faced each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship and the right to meet the PCHA champion in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1918-19 — Same as 1917-18, except that the NHL championship was a best-of-seven series.

1919-20 — Same as 1917-1918, except that Ottawa won both halves of the split regular-season schedule to earn an automatic berth into the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final against the PCHA champions.

1921-22 — The top two teams at the conclusion of the regular-season faced each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship. The NHL champion then moved on to play the winner of the PCHA-WCHL playoff series in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1922-23 — The top two teams at the conclusion of the regular-season faced each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship. The NHL champion then moved on to play the PCHA champion in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Semi-Finals, and the winner of the Semi-Finals played the WCHL champion, which had been given a bye, in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Final.

1923-24 — The top two teams at the conclusion of the regular-season faced each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship. The NHL champion then moved on to play the loser of the PCHA-WCHL playoff (the winner of the PCHA-WCHL playoff earned a bye into the Stanley Cup Final) in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Semi-Finals. The winner of this series met the PCHA-WCHL playoff winner in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Final.

1924-25 — The first place team (Hamilton) at the conclusion of the regular-season was supposed to play the winner of a two-game, total-goals series between the second (Toronto) and third (Montreal) place clubs. However, Hamilton refused to abide by this new format, demanding greater compensation than offered by the League. Thus, Toronto and Montreal played their two-game, total-goals series, and the winner (Montreal) earned the NHL title and then played the WCHL champion (Victoria) in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1925-26 — The format which was intended for 1924-25 went into effect. The winner of the two-game, total-goals series between the second and third place teams squared off against the first place team in the two-game, total-goals NHL championship series. The NHL champion then moved on to play the WCHL champion in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

After the 1925-26 season, the NHL was the only major professional hockey league still in existence and consequently took over sole control of the Stanley Cup competition.

1926-27 — The 10-team league was divided into two divisions — Canadian and American — of five teams apiece. In each division, the winner of the two-game, total-goals series between the second and third place teams faced the first place team in a two-game, total-goals series for the division title. The two division title winners then met in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1928-29 — Both first place teams in the two divisions played each other in a best-of-five series. Both second place teams in the two divisions played each other in a two-game, total-goals series as did the two third place teams. The winners of these latter two series then played each other in a best-of-three series for the right to meet the winner of the series between the two first place clubs. This Stanley Cup Final was a best-of-three.

Series A: First in Canadian Division vs. first in American (best-of-five)
Series B: Second in Canadian Division vs. second in American (two-game, total-goals)
Series C: Third in Canadian Division vs. third in American (two-game, total-goals)
Series D: Winner of Series B vs. winner of Series C (best-of-three)
Series E: Winner of Series A vs. winner of Series D (best-of-three) for Stanley Cup

1930-31 — Same as 1928-29, except that Series D was changed to a two-game, total-goals format and Series E was changed to best-of-five.

1936-37 — Same as 1930-31, except that Series B, C and D were each best-of-three.

1938-39 — With the NHL reduced to seven teams, the two-division system was replaced by one seven-team league. Based on final regular-season standings, the following playoff format was adopted:

Series A: First vs. Second (best-of-seven)
Series B: Third vs. Fourth (best-of-three)
Series C: Fifth vs. Sixth (best-of-three)
Series D: Winner of Series B vs. winner of Series C (best-of-three)
Series E: Winner of Series A vs. winner of Series D (best-of-seven)

1942-43 — With the NHL reduced to six teams (the "original six"), only the top four finishers qualified for playoff action. The best-of-seven Semi-Finals pitted Team #1 vs. Team #3 and Team #2 vs. Team #4. The winners of each Semi-Final series met in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup Final.

1967-68 — When it doubled in size from 6 to 12 teams, the NHL once again was divided into two divisions — East and West — of six teams apiece. The top four clubs in each division qualified for the playoffs (all series were best-of-seven):

Series A: Team #1 (East) vs. Team #3 (East)
Series B: Team #2 (East) vs. Team #4 (East)
Series C: Team #1 (West) vs. Team #3 (West)
Series D: Team #2 (West) vs. Team #4 (West)
Series E: Winner of Series A vs. winner of Series B
Series F: Winner of Series C vs. winner of Series D
Series G: Winner of Series E vs. Winner of Series F

1970-71 — Same as 1967-68 except that Series E matched the winners of Series A and D, and Series F matched the winners of Series B and C.

1971-72 — Same as 1970-71, except that Series A and C matched Team #1 vs. Team #4, and Series B and D matched Team #2 vs. Team #3.

1974-75 — With the League now expanded to 18 teams in four divisions, a completely new playoff format was introduced. First, the #2 and #3 teams in each of the four divisions were pooled together in the Preliminary round. These eight (#2 and #3) clubs were ranked #1 to #8 based on regular-season record:

Series A: Team #1 vs. Team #8 (best-of-three)
Series B: Team #2 vs. Team #7 (best-of-three)
Series C: Team #3 vs. Team #6 (best-of-three)
Series D: Team #4 vs. Team #5 (best-of-three)
The winners of this Preliminary round then pooled together with the four division winners, which had received byes into this Quarter-Final round. These eight teams were again ranked #1 to #8 based on regular-season record:
Series E: Team #1 vs. Team #8 (best-of-seven)
Series F: Team #2 vs. Team #7 (best-of-seven)
Series G: Team #3 vs. Team #6 (best-of-seven)
Series H: Team #4 vs. Team #5 (best-of-seven)
The four Quarter-Finals winners, which moved on to the Semi-Finals, were then ranked #1 to #4 based on regular season record:
Series I: Team #1 vs. Team #4 (best-of-seven)
Series J: Team #2 vs. Team #3 (best-of-seven)
Series K: Winner of Series I vs. winner of Series J (best-of-seven)

1977-78 — Same as 1974-75, except that the Preliminary round consisted of the #2 teams in the four divisions and the next four teams based on regular-season record (not their standings within their divisions).

1979-80 — With the addition of four WHA franchises, the League expanded its playoff structure to include 16 of its 21 teams. The four first place teams in the four divisions automatically earned playoff berths. Among the 17 other clubs, the top 12, according to regular-season record, also earned berths. All 16 teams were then pooled together and ranked #1 to #16 based on regular-season record:

Series A: Team #1 vs. Team #16 (best-of-five)
Series B: Team #2 vs. Team #15 (best-of-five)
Series C: Team #3 vs. Team #14 (best-of-five)
Series D: Team #4 vs. Team #13 (best-of-five)
Series E: Team #5 vs. Team #12 (best-of-five)
Series F: Team #6 vs. Team #11 (best-of-five)
Series G: Team #7 vs. Team #10 (best-of-five)
Series H: Team #8 vs. Team #9 (best-of-five)
The eight Preliminary round winners, ranked #1 to #8 based on regular-season record, moved on to the Quarter-Finals:
Series I: Team #1 vs. Team #8 (best-of-seven)
Series J: Team #2 vs. Team #7 (best-of-seven)
Series K: Team #3 vs. Team #6 (best-of-seven)
Series L: Team #4 vs. Team #5 (best-of-seven)
The four Quarter-Finals winners, ranked #1 to #4 based on regular-season record, moved on to the semi-finals:
Series M: Team #1 vs. Team #4 (best-of-seven)
Series N: Team #2 vs. Team #3 (best-of-seven)
Series O: Winner of Series M vs. winner of Series N (best-of-seven)

1981-82 — The first four teams in each division earned playoff berths. In each division, the first-place team opposed the fourth-place team and the second-place team opposed the third-place team in a best-of-five Division Semi-Final series (DSF). In each division, the two winners of the DSF met in a best-of-seven Division Final series (DF). The two DF winners in each conference met in a best-of-seven Conference Final series (CF). In the Prince of Wales Conference, the Adams Division winner opposed the Patrick Division winner; in the Clarence Campbell Conference, the Smythe Division winner opposed the Norris Division winner. The two CF winners met in a best-of-seven Stanley Cup Final (F) series.

1986-87 — Division Semi-Final series changed from best-of-five to best-of-seven.

1993-94 — The NHL's playoff draw is conference-based rather than division-based. At the conclusion of the regular season, the top eight teams in each of the Eastern and Western Conferences qualify for the playoffs. The teams that finish in first place in each of the League's divisions are seeded first and second in each conference's playoff draw and are assured of home ice advantage in the first two playoff rounds. The remaining teams are seeded based on their regular-season point totals. In each conference, the team seeded #1 plays #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6; and #4 vs. #5. All series are best-of-seven with home ice rotating on a 2-2-1-1-1 basis, with the exception of matchups between Central and Pacific Division teams. These matchups will be played on a 2-3-2 basis to reduce travel. In a 2-3-2 series, the team with the most points will have its choice to start the series at home or on the road. The Eastern Conference champion will face the Western Conference champion in the Stanley Cup Final.

1994-95 — Same as 1993-94, except that in first, second or third-round playoff series involving Central and Pacific Division teams, the team with the better record has the choice of using either a 2-3-2 or a 2-2-1-1-1 format. When a 2-3-2 format is selected, the higher-ranked team also has the choice of playing games 1, 2, 6 and 7 at home or playing games 3, 4 and 5 at home. The format for the Stanley Cup Final remains 2-2-1-1-1.

1998-99 — The NHL's clubs are re-aligned into two conferences each consisting of three divisions. The number of teams qualifying for the Stanley Cup Playoffs remains unchanged at 16.

First-round playoff berths will be awarded to the first-place team in each division as well as to the next five best teams based on regular-season point totals in each conference. The three division winners in each conference will be seeded first through third, in order of points, for the playoffs and the next five best teams, in order of points, will be seeded fourth through eighth. In each conference, the team seeded #1 will play #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6; and #4 vs. #5 in the quarterfinal round. Home-ice in the Conference Quarter-Finals is granted to those teams seeded first through fourth in each conference.

In the Conference Semi-Finals and Conference Finals, teams will be re-seeded according to the same criteria as the Conference Quarter-Finals. Higher seeded teams will have home-ice advantage.

Home ice advantage for the Stanley Cup Final is awarded to the team with the higher number of points in the regular season.

All series remain best-of-seven.

2013-14 — The NHL club's are realigned into two conferences each comprised of two divisions. The number of teams qualifying for the Stanley Cup Playoffs remains unchanged at 16. These 16 playoff teams are seeded and placed in four divisional brackets. Eastern and Western Conference teams are on opposite sides of the draw and do not cross over until the Stanley Cup Final.

Twelve of the 16 berths in the first round of the playoffs are awarded to the top three finishers in each of the four divisions. These clubs are ranked as the first three "seeds" in each divisional bracket. Four additional "wild card" berths are awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference regardless of division. Each divisional bracket is comprised of the top three finishers in one division plus a wild card team. Wild cards are seeded fourth in their respective divisional brackets.

In each conference, the wild card team with fewer regular-season points is placed in the bracket that includes the first-place finisher with the most regular-season points. The wild card team with more regular-season points is placed in the bracket that includes the first-place finisher with the second-highest number of regular-season points.

In the first round of the playoffs in each bracket, the team seeded #1 plays #4 and the team seeded #2 plays #3. In the second round, the winners of these two first-round series meet.

The two advancing teams in the East and the two advancing teams in the West meet in the Conference Finals.

The Eastern and Western Conference champions meet in the Stanley Cup Final.

Home ice advantage for the Stanley Cup Final is awarded to the team with the higher number of points in the regular season.

All series remain best-of-seven.

Chicago won the Stanley Cup for the third time in six seasons in 2015. The Blackhawks were nine and two at the United Center in the playoffs and won the Stanley Cup on home ice for the first time since 1938.

2015-16 Goaltender Register

Note: The 2015-16 Goaltender Register lists all active NHL goaltenders, every goaltender drafted in the 2015 Entry Draft, goaltenders on NHL Reserve Lists and other goaltenders. Trades and roster changes are current as of August 14, 2015.

To calculate a goaltender's goals-against per game average (Avg), divide goals against (GA) by minutes played (Mins) and multiply this result by 60.

Abbreviations: GP – games played; W – wins; L – losses; O/T – overtime losses/ties; Mins – minutes played; GA – goals against; SO – shutouts; Avg – goals-against-per-game average; * – league-leading total
♦ – member of Stanley Cup-winning team.

NHL Player Register begins on page 344.

Retired Goaltender Index begins on page 657.

League Abbreviations are listed on page 670.

CHANGES TO DRAFT LOTTERY FORMAT

Lottery Will Be Expanded To Determine First Three Selections in 2016

Changes have been announced to the NHL's Draft Lottery. The Draft Lottery is a weighted system used to determine the order of selection in the first round of the NHL Draft for the 14 Clubs not qualifying for the Stanley Cup Playoffs (or the Clubs that have acquired the first-round drafting positions of those non-playoff teams).

2016 NHL Draft Lottery

Beginning in 2016, the Draft Lottery will be utilized to assign the top three drafting slots in the NHL Draft, an expansion over previous years when the Draft Lottery was used to determine the winner of the first overall selection only.

Three draws will be held: the 1st Lottery draw will determine the Club selecting first overall, the 2nd Lottery draw will determine the Club selecting second overall and the 3rd Lottery draw will determine the Club selecting third overall.

As a result of this change, the team earning the fewest points during the regular season will no longer be guaranteed, at worst, the second overall pick. That Club could fall as low as fourth overall.

Each Club's odds of winning the 1st Lottery draw are unchanged from 2015. For the 2nd and 3rd Lottery draws, the odds of the remaining teams are proportionally increased.

The 11 Clubs not selected in the Draft Lottery will be assigned NHL Draft selections 4 through 14, in inverse order of regular-season points.

Rookies of the Month

Month	Player	Month	Player
October	Tanner Pearson, Los Angeles	January	John Klingberg, Dallas
November	Filip Forsberg, Nashville	February	Anders Lee, NY Islanders
December	Johnny Gaudreau, Calgary	March	Johnny Gaudreau, Calgary

Corey Perry (top) of the Anaheim Ducks was the NHL's First Star of the Month for October. Perry led all scorers with 10 goals in 12 games, including a hat trick in the Ducks' season opener. Anaheim posted an NHL-best 9-3-0 record during the month.

Before an injury cut short his season, Calgary's Mark Giordano (right) was looking like a possible Hart Trophy candidate. Giordano was the First Star of the Month for November, leading all defensemen with 16 points (4 goals, 12 assists) in 13 games as the Flames went 9-4-0 that month.

Ottawa's Andrew Hammond (far right) garnered several honors in March and April. Hammond was 14-0-1 to start his career and went 10-1-1 in March to win First Star of the Month. He was 3-0-1 in the first week in April to help Ottawa clinch an amazing run to a playoff spot.

Buffalo's Tyler Ennis scored one of the season's most acclaimed goals against Montreal's Carey Price on November 28, 2014. Ennis eluded defenseman Alexei Emelin (#74), cut across the crease past Price, leaping over his pads and then backhanding a shot into the net before falling down and crashing into the corner. Still, the Canadiens won the game 2-1.
