MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL CODE OF CONDUCT: HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

All people working in and around Major League Baseball must be treated equally -- with dignity and respect -- regardless of race, color, creed, national origin or citizenship status, ancestry, religion, gender, sexual orientation, actual or perceived gender identity, physical or mental disability, age, or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state, or local laws ("Protected Characteristics")

MLB'S PRINCIPLES

- Major League Baseball and its Clubs strive to create environments in which all individuals, including MLB and Club personnel, employees of MLB's business partners, and members of the press, are accepted and respected. Moreover, when an individual believes this standard is not upheld, they are comfortable speaking up without fear of recrimination, retaliation, or ostracism. The environments include any venue in which MLB and/or Club personnel are engaged on behalf of the League or Club, including in a Club's front office, in the Clubhouse, on the playing field, and any location in which people working in and around the game of Baseball interact. All MLB and Club personnel will be held accountable for inappropriate conduct, regardless of their seniority, rank, or stature.
- MLB and Club personnel will respect one another's differences, regardless of any Protected Characteristic, and work together to create an inclusive culture in which employees can be their best.

REPORTING BEHAVIOR CONTRARY TO MLB'S PRINCIPLES

Standing up for what is right is not always easy, but it is necessary. For MLB to achieve an inclusive culture, we must all take responsibility for addressing behavior that is inconsistent with these principles. There is no requirement to confront an alleged wrongdoer; however, victims of inappropriate conduct may attempt to resolve issues or disagreements on their own if they choose. If attempts to do so are unsuccessful or if an individual does not feel safe or comfortable addressing an incident directly, it is imperative that either MLB or the Club is made aware of inappropriate conduct. There are several options to do so. First, an MLB or Club employee can speak to a supervisor, or an individual in their respective Human Resources or Legal Departments. Alternatively, individuals, including those not employed by MLB or a Club, can make a complaint by calling MLB's Speak Up hotline at 1-844-993-0562. The hotline system is operated by an outside third party. Complaints made to hotline will be investigated either by the Club or the Commissioner's Office depending on the nature of the allegations. While an individual has the option to remain anonymous when submitting a complaint, the more information that is provided will aid in any investigation that is conducted.

WHAT IS HARASSMENT OR DISCRIMINATION?

Harassment is any verbal, physical, or visual behavior directed at another individual because of a Protected Characteristic, that (i) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating, or offensive environment; or (ii) adversely interferes with an individual's work performance.

Discrimination is any adverse job-related decision or less favorable treatment of an individual or group because of a Protected Characteristic.

MLB POLICY ON HIRING

Major League Baseball is an equal opportunity employer that considers all employees and applicants without regard to race, color, creed, national origin or citizenship status, ancestry, religion, gender, sexual orientation, actual or perceived gender identity, physical or mental disability, age, political activities, or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state, or local laws.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL AND CLUB EMPLOYEES' COMMITMENTS

- Treating all co-workers, partners, and individuals associated with the game of Baseball with dignity and respect.
- Understanding that inappropriate comments or conduct based on an individual's Protected Characteristic(s) have no place within MLB regardless of whether such words or actions are in the workplace, on social media, in electronic communications, or in casual conversation.
- Not engaging in conduct contrary to these principles, such as (i) making demeaning comments, slurs, insults, or jokes regarding an individual's or groups' Protected Characteristic(s); (ii) bullying; (iii) distribution or display of pornography; and (iv) physical, verbal, or visual sexual harassment, or any other harassment, towards any individual associated with the game of Baseball.
- Representing yourself, your Club and Major League Baseball -- at all times -- as a supporter of these principles.
- Speaking up if you observe conduct that is contrary to these principles.

"Major League Baseball aspires towards a collective culture of acceptance and mutual respect for the individual differences of the people that make the game of Baseball truly unique and exceptional." -- Robert D. Manfred, Jr., Commissioner of Baseball

CÓDIGO DE CONDUCTA DE LAS GRANDES LIGAS DE BÉISBOL: ACOSO Y DISCRIMINACIÓN

Todas las personas que trabajan en las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol y en torno a sus actividades deben ser tratadas por igual, con dignidad y respeto, independientemente de su raza, color, credo, nacionalidad o ciudadanía, ascendencia, religión, género, orientación sexual, identidad de género real o percibida, discapacidad física o mental, edad o cualquier otra característica protegida por las leyes federales, estatales o locales aplicables ("Características protegidas").

PRINCIPIOS DE MLB

- Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol y sus Clubes se esfuerzan por crear entornos en los que todas las personas, incluido el personal de MLB y del Club, los empleados de los socios comerciales de MLB y los miembros de la prensa, sean aceptadas y respetadas. Además, cuando una persona cree que este estándar no se respeta, se siente cómoda al expresarse sin temor a recriminaciones, represalias u ostracismo. Los entornos incluyen cualquier lugar en el que el personal de MLB o del Club se desempeñe en nombre de la Liga o del Club, lo que incluye la recepción de un Club, el Clubhouse, el campo de juego y cualquier sitio en el que interactúen las personas que trabajan en el juego de béisbol y alrededor de este. Todo el personal de MLB y del Club será responsable de la conducta inapropiada, independientemente de su antigüedad, rango o categoría.
- El personal de MLB y del Club respetarán las diferencias entre sí, independientemente de cualquier característica protegida, y trabajarán en conjunto para crear una cultura inclusiva en la que los empleados puedan dar lo mejor de sí.

DENUNCIAR CONDUCTAS QUE SE OPONEN A LOS PRINCIPIOS DE MLB

No siempre resulta fácil defender lo correcto, pero es necesario hacerlo.

Para que MLB logre una cultura inclusiva, todos debemos asumir la responsabilidad de abordar el comportamiento que no sea coherente con estos principios. No existe ningún requisito para confrontar a un presunto infractor; sin embargo, las víctimas de una conducta inapropiada pueden intentar resolver problemas o desacuerdos por su cuenta si así lo desean. Si los intentos por hacerlo no son satisfactorios o si una persona no se siente segura o cómoda al abordar un incidente de manera directa, es indispensable que MLB o el Club tomen conocimiento de una conducta inapropiada. Existen diversas alternativas para hacerlo. En primer lugar, un empleado de MLB o del Club puede hablar con un supervisor o con una persona de su respectivo Departamento Legal o de Recursos Humanos. Como alternativa, las personas, incluidas aquellas que no son empleadas de MLB o de un Club, pueden presentar una queja llamando a la línea directa de denuncias Speak Up de MLB al 1-844-993-0562. El sistema de línea directa es operado por un tercero externo. El Club o la Commissioner's Office (Oficina del Comisionado) investigará las quejas presentadas a la línea directa, según la naturaleza de las acusaciones. Si bien una persona tiene la opción de permanecer en el anonimato al presentar una queja, mientras más información proporcione, facilitará cualquier investigación que se realice.

¿QUÉ ES EL ACOSO O LA DISCRIMINACIÓN?

El acoso es cualquier comportamiento verbal, físico o visual dirigido a otra persona debido a una característica protegida, que (i) tiene el propósito o efecto de crear un entorno intimidante, hostil, degradante, humillante u ofensivo; o (ii) interfiere negativamente en el desempeño laboral de una persona.

La discriminación es cualquier decisión laboral adversa o trato menos favorable de una persona o grupo debido a una característica protegida.

POLÍTICA DE CONTRATACIÓN DE MLB

Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol son un empleador que ofrece igualdad de oportunidades y que consideran a todos los empleados y postulantes sin distinción de raza, color, credo, nacionalidad o ciudadanía, ascendencia, religión, género, orientación sexual, identidad de género real o percibida, discapacidad física o mental, edad, actividades políticas o cualquier otra característica protegida por las leyes federales, estatales o locales aplicables.

COMPROMISOS DE LOS EMPLEADOS DE LAS GRANDES LIGAS DE BÉISBOL Y DEL CLUB:

- Tratar a todos los compañeros de trabajo, socios e individuos asociados al juego del béisbol con dignidad y respeto.
- Comprender que las conductas o los comentarios inapropiados en función de las características protegidas de una persona no tienen lugar dentro de MLB, independientemente de si dichas palabras o acciones se manifiestan en el lugar de trabajo, en las redes sociales, en comunicaciones electrónicas o en una conversación casual.
- No participar en conductas que se opongan a estos principios, como (i) hacer comentarios degradantes, calumnias, insultos o bromas con respecto a las características protegidas de una persona o grupo; (ii) hostigar; (iii) distribuir o exhibir pornografía; y (iv) provocar acoso sexual físico, verbal o visual, o cualquier otro acoso, hacia cualquier persona asociada con el juego de béisbol.
- Representarse a usted mismo, a su club y a las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol, en todo momento, como defensor de estos principios.
- Expresarse sin reservas si observa una conducta que se opone a estos principios.

"Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol aspiran a una cultura colectiva de aceptación y respeto mutuo por las diferencias individuales de las personas que hacen que el juego del béisbol sea verdaderamente único y excepcional". – Robert D. Manfred, Jr., Comisionado de Béisbol

MLB Speak Up

How to Report a Complaint?

Major League Baseball encourages the prompt reporting of complaints and information regarding known or suspected violations of its Code of Conduct. If you are subject to or observe a situation that may violate our Code of Conduct, you should report it via one of several channels available, which include: your manager, your employer's Human Resources or Legal Department, or MLB's externally hosted Hotline.

MLB's Commitment

Major League Baseball is committed to ensuring that all individuals working in and around Major League Baseball are treated equally – with dignity and respect – regardless of race, color, creed, national origin or citizenship status, ancestry, religion, gender, sexual orientation, actual or perceived gender identity, physical or mental disability, age, or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state, or local laws.

Harassment and discrimination have no place within Major League Baseball – we must work together to build an even playing field for all those involved in our beloved game.

MLB's Principles

Major League Baseball and its Clubs strive to create an environment in which all individuals, including MLB personnel, Club personnel, employees of MLB's business partners, and members of the press, are accepted and respected. And, when an individual believes this standard is not upheld, they are comfortable speaking up without fear of recrimination, retaliation or ostracism. The environment includes any venue in which MLB or Club personnel are engaged on behalf of the League or Club, including in a Club's front office, in a Clubhouse, on the playing field, and any location in which people working in and around the game of Baseball interact. MLB employees and Club personnel will be held accountable for inappropriate conduct, regardless of their seniority, rank, or stature.

MLB and Club personnel must accept one another's differences, regardless of any Protected Characteristics, and work together to create an inclusive culture in which employees can be their best.

SPEAK UP

Speaking up when wrongdoing occurs is essential to ensuring MLB's Principles are upheld. MLB and Clubs are not able to address and remedy issues if they are unaware a problem exists.

Any individual, including MLB or Club personnel, employees of MLB's business partners, and members of the press, should report conduct that is contrary to MLB's Principles. If you believe you have information of such conduct, the following reporting options are available to you:

1. Speak Up with the Alleged Wrongdoer Directly.

Although not required, and only if comfortable doing so, an individual may discuss inappropriate conduct with the alleged wrongdoer directly. If the inappropriate conduct continues, the individual must alert his employer.

2. Speak Up to a Supervisor, or your Human Resources or Legal Departments.

An individual may always report inappropriate conduct by speaking to a supervisor, or a representative in their employer's Human Resources or Legal Department.

3. Speak Up by Using MLB's Hotline.

An individual may also report inappropriate conduct using the Speak Up Hotline at a special toll-free telephone number: 1-844-993-0562. (Note: The Speak Up Hotline is not an Emergency Service. If there is an immediate threat to life or property, an individual should call 9-1-1.)

Investigation

All reports of conduct contrary to MLB's Principles will be taken seriously and will be investigated in a timely fashion. If wrongdoing is found to have occurred, remedial action will be taken. Depending on the severity of the situation, remedial action may take the form of a warning, a suspension, termination of employment, or any other measures available to a Club or the Commissioner.

Confidentiality

All reports of inappropriate conduct will be kept confidential to the extent possible to conduct a thorough investigation and permitted by law.

No Retaliation

An individual will not be retaliated against in any way by either a Club or Major League Baseball for making a complaint in good faith. Any retaliation against an individual for reporting in good faith inappropriate harassment or discrimination, or for participating in an investigation, of Major League Baseball policies and MLB's Principles is a serious violation. Any individual found to have retaliated against an individual for making a good faith complaint of harassment or discrimination would be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or any other measures available to the Club or Commissioner. Any act of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately.

¿Cómo presentar una queja?

Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol alientan la presentación inmediata de quejas e información sobre infracciones posibles o conocidas de su Código de Conducta. Si usted está sujeto a una situación que podría infringir nuestro Código de Conducta, o si observa una situación que podría infringirlo, debe denunciarla a través de uno de los diversos canales disponibles, que incluyen: su gerente, el Departamento de Recursos Humanos o el Departamento Legal de su empleador, o la línea directa externa de MLB.

Compromiso de MLB

Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol tienen el compromiso de garantizar que todas las personas que trabajan en las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol y en torno a sus actividades sean tratadas por igual, con dignidad y respeto, independientemente de su raza, color, credo, nacionalidad o ciudadanía, ascendencia, religión, género, orientación sexual, identidad de género real o percibida, discapacidad física o mental, edad o cualquier otra característica protegida por las leyes federales, estatales o locales aplicables.

El acoso y la discriminación no tienen lugar dentro de las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol: debemos trabajar juntos para construir un campo de juego parejo para todos los que participan en nuestro querido juego.

Principios de MLB

Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol y sus Clubes se esfuerzan por crear un entorno en el que todas las personas, incluido el personal de MLB y el del Club, los empleados de los socios comerciales de MLB y los miembros de la prensa, sean aceptadas y respetadas. Además, cuando una persona cree que este estándar no se respeta, se siente cómoda al expresarse (speaking up) sin temor a recriminaciones, represalias u ostracismo. El entorno incluyen cualquier lugar en el que el personal de MLB o del Club se desempeñe en nombre de la Liga o del Club, lo que incluye la recepción de un Club, el Clubhouse, el campo de juego y cualquier sitio en el que interactúen las personas que trabajan en el juego de béisbol y alrededor de este. Los empleados de MLB y el personal del Club serán responsables de la conducta inapropiada, independientemente de su antigüedad, rango o categoría.

El personal de MLB y del Club deben aceptar las diferencias entre sí, independientemente de cualquier característica protegida, y trabajarán en conjunto para crear una cultura inclusiva en la que los empleados puedan dar lo mejor de sí.

EXPRESARSE SIN RESERVAS

Expresarse sin reservas cuando ocurre un delito es esencial para garantizar que se respeten los Principios de MLB. MLB y los Clubes no pueden abordar y solucionar problemas si no están al tanto de que existe un problema.

Toda persona, incluido el personal de MLB o del Club, los empleados de los socios comerciales de MLB y los miembros de la prensa, deben denunciar conductas que se opongan a los Principios de MLB. Si cree que tiene información sobre dicha conducta, tiene a su disposición las siguientes opciones de denuncia:

- Expresarse directamente ante el presunto infractor. Aunque no es obligatorio, y solo si se siente cómodo al hacerlo, una persona puede conversar sobre una conducta inapropiada directamente con el presunto infractor. Si la conducta inapropiada continúa, la persona debe alertar a su empleador.

- Expresarse ante un supervisor o con su Departamento Legal o de Recursos Humanos.

Una persona siempre puede denunciar una conducta inapropiada ante un supervisor o un representante del Departamento Legal o de Recursos Humanos de su empleador.

- Expresarse a través de la línea directa de MLB.

Una persona también puede denunciar conductas inapropiadas a través de la línea directa de denuncias Speak Up, que es operada por un tercero, a un número de teléfono gratuito especial: 1-844-993-0562. (Nota: La línea directa de denuncias Speak Up no es un servicio de emergencia. Si existe una amenaza inmediata para la vida o los bienes, se debe llamar al 9-1-1).

Investigación

Todas las denuncias de conducta que se opongan a los Principios de MLB se tomarán con seriedad y se investigarán de manera oportuna. Si se descubre que se ha producido una infracción, se tomarán medidas correctivas. Según la gravedad de la situación, las medidas correctivas pueden tomar la forma de una advertencia, una suspensión, el despido o cualquier otra medida disponible para un Club o el Comisionado.

Confidencialidad

Todas las denuncias de conducta inapropiada se mantendrán confidenciales en la medida de lo posible para llevar a cabo una investigación exhaustiva y que la ley permita.

Sin represalias

Una persona no será objeto de represalias de ninguna naturaleza por parte de un Club o de las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol por presentar una queja de buena fe. Constituye una infracción grave de las políticas de las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol y los Principios de MLB cualquier represalia contra una persona por denunciar de buena fe acoso o discriminación inapropiados, o por participar en una investigación. Toda persona que se determine que ha tomado represalias contra otra por presentar una queja de acoso o discriminación de buena fe estará sujeta a medidas disciplinarias, que pueden incluir hasta el despido o cualquier otra medida disponible para el Club o el Comisionado. Cualquier acto de presunta represalia debe denunciarse de inmediato.
