MANAGER

Robert Paul Melvin

Named as A's interim manager, June 9, 2011

Birthdate: October 28, 1961Birthplace/Resides: Palo Alto, California / Berkeley, CaliforniaContract Status: Signed through 2021

Bob Melvin returns for his 11th season as manager of the A's, which are the second most seasons in Athletics history to Connie Mack's 50 years at the helm from 1901-50. Melvin's tenure has included six postseason appearances and two American League Manager of the Year awards. He has a 767-688 (.527) record since being named interim manager, June 9, 2011 and his wins are third most in franchise history behind Mack (3,582) and Tony La Russa (798). No other active manager has a longer uninterrupted tenure with their current team. Melvin is now 1260-1196 (.513) in 17 seasons as a Major League manager, including stints with the Seattle Mariners (2003-04) and Arizona Diamondbacks (2005-09). Among active managers, only La Russa (2,728), Dusty Baker (1,892), Terry Francona (1,702) and Joe Maddon (1,278) have more wins.

Melvin was named AL Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and the Sporting News in 2018 and Major League Manager of the Year by Baseball America. It was third time he was named Manager of the Year by the BBWAA (2007 with Arizona and 2012 with Oakland) and he is the eighth manager to win the award three or more times, joining Dusty Baker, Bobby Cox, Tony La Russa, Jim Leyland, Joe Maddon, Lou Piniella and Buck Showalter. He was already just the sixth manager to win the award in both leagues and he and Tony La Russa (1988 and 1992) are the only managers to win the award in an Oakland uniform.

In 2020, the A's won their third AL West title under Melvin after reaching the postseason as the AL Wild Card in each of the previous two years with back-to-back 97-win seasons. He now has six postseason appearances with the A's (2012-14, 18-20), which are the most by a manager in Oakland history and trail only Connie Mack, who had eight World Series appearances, in Athletics history.

Melvin guided the A's to a 47-52 (.475) record in 2011 after Oakland started the season 27-36 (.429). He then led the A's to back-to-back AL West titles in 2012 and 2013 with records of 94-68 and 96-66. Melvin became the first manager to lead the A's to consecutive division titles since Tony La Russa won three straight from 1988-90. He was named AL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA in 2012 after the A's became the fifth team in Major League history to win a Pennant or Division after trailing by 13 or more games and the first to come back when trailing by five or more games with fewer than 10 games remaining. That club employed 19 rookies, including 12 pitchers.

The A's finished 88-74 in 2014 but reached the postseason for the third consecutive year as a Wild Card. Oakland logged back-to-back 90-loss seasons in 2015 and 2016 before going 75-87 in 2017. On July 29, 2017, Melvin became the 64th manager in ML history to win 1,000 games.

Oakland then went 97-65 in 2018, which was a 22-win improvement and the third time a Bob Melvin-managed team increased its win total by 20 or more games from the previous season. In his first season with Arizona in 2004, the Diamondbacks posted 77-85 record after going 51-111 in 2003. He then took the A's from a 74-win season in 2011 to a 94-68 record and an AL West title in 2012.

Melvin signed a three-year contract through the 2014 season, Sept. 21, 2011, a two-year extension through 2016, Jan. 14, 2013, another two-year extension through 2018, Sept. 9, 2015, a one-year extension through 2019, Sept. 28, 2017, and a two-year extension through 2021, Oct. 29, 2018. The Bay Area native is the 30th manager in franchise history and the 18th in Oakland history.

In his previous managerial stint, he guided Arizona to a 337-340 (.498) record in four-plus seasons. He was named manager of the D-backs Nov. 5, 2004 and led the club to a 77-85 mark in his first season, a 26-game turnaround from a franchise-worst 51-111 mark in 2004. After a 76-86 finish in 2006, Melvin was named National League Manager of the Year by the BBWAA in 2007 after guiding Arizona to a league-best 90-72 record. He also earned NL Manager of the Year honors from The Sporting News and the Negro League Baseball Museum's C.I. Taylor Legacy Award. The Diamondbacks followed up their NL West title with a second-place finish in 2008, finishing 82-80. Melvin became the winningest manager in Arizona history that season when he earned his 304th win Aug. 14, surpassing Bob Brenly. Melvin was relieved of his duties as D-backs manager May 8, 2009 after a 12-17 start.

Prior to being named A's manager, Melvin had rejoined the Diamondbacks as a special baseball advisor to President & CEO Derrick Hall in May of 2011, assisting the baseball operations department and other business divisions of the organization. He was a professional scout for the New York Mets in 2010.

Melvin began his managerial career in 2003, guiding the Mariners to a 93-69 record in shattering the team record for wins by a first-year Mariners manager set by Lou Piniella in 1993 (82-80). His 93 wins also tied for the 15th-most by any rookie manager in Major League history at the time. The Mariners then fell to 63-99 in 2004 and he left Seattle with a 156-168 (.481) record in two seasons.

Melvin began his coaching career as Manager Phil Garner's bench coach from 1999-2000, first with the Brewers in 1999 and then in 2000 with the Tigers. While with the Brewers, he also managed the Maryvale team in the Arizona Fall League in 1999. He was inducted into the AFL Hall of Fame in 2013. Melvin then served as Bob Brenly's bench coach with the D-backs from 2001-02 when the club won back-to-back NL West titles and the World Series in 2001. Prior to those bench coach roles, he spent three seasons with Milwaukee in various capacities, serving as a scout in 1996, roving instructor in 1997 and as assistant to General Manager Sal Bando in 1998.

A 10-year Major League veteran, Melvin's playing career included stops in Detroit (1985), San Francisco (1986-88), Baltimore (1989-91), Kansas City (1992), Boston (1993), the New York Yankees (1994) and the Chicago White Sox (1994). He posted a .233 batting average with 35 home runs and 212 RBI while playing in 692 games. The former catcher was drafted by Detroit

FIRST BASE COACH

Michael Peter Aldrete

Named A's bench coach, October 27, 2014

Named A's first base coach, November 12, 2015

Named A's assistant hitting coach, December 4, 2017

Named A's first base coach, October 31, 2019

Birthdate: January 29, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: Carmel, California / Salinas, California

Mike Aldrete returns for his seventh season on the A's coaching staff, his fourth as first base coach. He rejoined Manager Bob Melvin for a third time in his coaching career as bench coach in 2015, spent two seasons as the A's first base and outfield coach from 2016-17 and was assistant hitting coach in 2018. Aldrete, who served as bench coach for the St. Louis Cardinals from 2012-14, previously worked under Melvin as first base coach for the Seattle Mariners in 2004 and as hitting coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks from 2005-06. The 2021 season will mark his 17th on a Major League coaching staff.

He began his coaching career in 2001 as hitting coach for Yakima in the Diamondbacks minor league system. He was promoted to manager of Yakima the following season and then managed Arizona's High Class A club in Lancaster in 2003. His first coaching opportunity in the majors came in 2004 when he was named first base coach on Melvin's staff in Seattle. He moved to Arizona the following year when Melvin was named manager of the Diamondbacks, serving as hitting coach there for two seasons.

Tony La Russa, whom Aldrete had played for in Oakland, hired him as assistant hitting coach with St. Louis in 2008. After four seasons in that position, including the 2011 Cardinals team that was crowned World Series champions, he was promoted to bench coach in 2012 when Mike Matheny replaced the retiring La Russa as manager. During his three-year stint as bench coach, the Cardinals advanced to the World Series in 2013 and to the National League Championship Series in both 2012 and 2014.

Born in Carmel, Calif., and a graduate of Monterey High School and Stanford University, the former first baseman/outfielder played for seven different teams during his 10-year Major League career, including both the San Francisco Giants (1986-88) and the Oakland A's (1993-95). A .263 lifetime hitter in 930 games, Aldrete also played for Montreal (1989-90), San Diego (1991), Cleveland (1991), the California Angels (1995-96) and the New York Yankees (1996).

Aldrete's finest season as a player was with the Giants in 1987, when he batted a career-high .325 on a team that lost to St. Louis in the National League Championship Series. He split his final season between California and New York in 1996, ending his career as a member of the World Series Champion Yankees.

A third team All-American his senior season at Stanford, Aldrete was chosen by San Francisco in the seventh round of the June Draft in 1983. He enjoyed a pair of trips to the College World Series with the Cardinal and was a member of the U.S. Collegiate All-Star Team that toured Japan in 1982. Aldrete graduated from Monterey (Calif.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football.

Aldrete makes his off season home in Salinas, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and their three children; Michael, Blake and Nicolette. Michael (RHP) was selected by the Cardinals in the 2012 First Year Player Draft out of San Jose State (39th round).

Named A's hitting coach, October 30, 2014

Birthdate: January 18, 1974

Birthplace/Resides: Columbus, Ohio / Englewood, Florida

Darren Bush completed his sixth season as the A's hitting coach in 2020 after serving as the bullpen coach from 2013-14. Under his guidance, the A's set franchise record for home runs (257) and extra base hits (572) in 2019. The 2020 season marked Bush's 16th in the A's organization, which includes two seasons as a minor league hitting coach, six seasons as a manager and eight seasons on the Major League coaching staff.

Bush compiled a 462-386 (.545) record in six seasons as a manager with Single-A Stockton (2007-08), Double-A Midland (2009-10) and Triple-A Sacramento (2011-12). He guided the River Cats to back-to-back division titles with a mark of 88-56 in 2011 and 86-58 in 2012. Bush also led the RockHounds to playoff appearances in 2009 and 2010, including a Texas League Championship in 2009. He also skippered Single-A Stockton to the California League Championship in his second year as a manager in 2008. Bush joined the Athletics in 2005 as hitting coach at Stockton and spent two seasons in that capacity before taking over as manager for the Ports in 2007.

Prior to joining the A's organization, Bush coached in independent leagues. He was the hitting coach and Director of Player Personnel with Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002 and then spent two seasons as a manager in the Northeast League with Berkshire (41-51 in 2003) and Quebec (58-34 in 2004).

A former outfielder, Bush began his playing career with three seasons in the independent Frontier League. He played for Zanesville in 1996 and Springfield in 1997-98, hitting .302 with 26 home runs and 133 RBI in 224 games. Bush signed with the San Diego Padres organization Dec. 24, 1998 and hit .259 with 16 home runs and 114 RBI in 231 games in two seasons at Single-A Rancho Cucamonga (1999-2000) and one year at Single-A Clearwater (2001) in the Phillies farm system. He also played one game for Triple-A Las Vegas in 2000 and went 2-for-4. He concluded his playing career by hitting .417 in seven games for Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002. Bush had a .284 average in 456 games overall.

Bush attended Dunedin High School and Valdosta State University. He resides in Englewood, Fla., during the offseason. Bush is married, Rebecca, and has two children, Wyatt and Maggie.

RYAN CHRISTENSON

BENCH COACH

Ryan Alan Christenson

Named A's bench coach, October 19, 2017

Birthdate: March 28, 1974

Birthplace/Resides: Redlands, California / Tyrone, Georgia

Ryan Christenson returns for his fourth consecutive season as Bob Melvin's bench coach, his first assignment on a Major League coaching staff. This is his 16th season in the A's organization, which includes five years as a minor league manager and seven seasons as a player.

Prior to his promotion in Oakland in 2018, Christenson spent five seasons managing in the A's farm system. After Single-A stints at Beloit in 2013 and Stockton in 2014, he guided Double-A Midland to back-to-back Texas League Championships in 2015 and 2016. Christenson served as manager at Triple-A Nashville in 2017 and also manned the third base coaching box for team USA in the 2017 All-Star Futures Game. His teams have a 391-307 (.560) record in five seasons.

Christenson played parts of six seasons in the majors with Oakland (1998-2001), Arizona (2001), Milwaukee (2002) and Texas (2003) and was a .222 hitter with 16 home runs and 102 RBI in 452 games. His best season came in his rookie campaign in 1998 when he hit .257 with five home runs and 40 RBI, all career-highs. Christenson batted .237 in 351 games in his four seasons with the A's and was a member of the 2000 American League West champions. His playing career concluded at Triple-A Albuquerque in the Marlins farm system in 2004.

Christenson was selected by the A's in the 10th round of the 1995 June draft out of Pepperdine University. He was West Coast Conference Player of the Year in his final season with the Waves after leading the league with a .376 batting average. Christenson is a 1992 graduate of Apple Valley High School.

Christenson resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Micki, and children, Cassidy and Cameron.

Emerson's coaching career began in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in 2000 when he was named the pitching coach for the Pirates Gulf Coast Rookie League club at Bradenton. He spent two years in the GCL and one at Single-A Williamsport in 2002 before joining the A's organization.

Emerson pitched professionally for six seasons in the Baltimore (1992-95), Boston (1995-96) and Arizona (1997) organizations. He was a 10-game winner at Single-A Albany in 1993 and was traded to the Red Sox organization early during the 1995 season. The left-hander signed with Arizona after being released by Boston in the spring of 1997. He pitched in three games for Single-A High Desert before concluding his professional career with Rio Grande Valley of the independent Texas-Louisiana League in 1997. Emerson was 27-29 with a 4.16 ERA in 135 games, 79 starts in his career.

Emerson was drafted by San Diego in the 21st round of the 1990 June draft out of Shadow Mountain HS (Phoenix, Ariz.) but did not sign. He attended Scottsdale Community College and signed with the Baltimore organization after the Orioles selected him in the 40th round of the 1991 June draft.

Emerson and his wife, Jill, make their offseason home in Rockingham, N.C.

BULLPEN COACH

Marcus Christian Jensen

Named A's assistant hitting/catching coach, October 30, 2014

Named A's bullpen coach, December 4, 2017

Birthdate: December 14, 1972

Birthplace/Resides: Oakland, California / Scottsdale, Arizona

Oakland native Marcus Jensen returns for his seventh season on the A's Major League coaching staff and his 15th in the A's organization. He took over as bullpen coach in 2018 after serving as the A's assistant hitting/catching coach from 2015-17.

Jensen spent the 2014 season as the A's minor league roving hitting instructor. He joined the A's organization in 2007 as hitting coach for the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League and served two years in that capacity. Jensen took over the managerial duties for that club in 2009 and guided the A's to a 141-136 (.509) record and one playoff appearance in five seasons. In 2013, he also served as the A's minor league roving catching instructor.

A former catcher, Jensen was drafted by San Francisco out of Skyline HS in Oakland following the first round of the 1990 June draft as a compensation pick for the loss of free agent Craig Lefferts. He batted .184 with six home runs and 29 RBI in 145 games in seven seasons with seven different teams.

Jensen made his Major League debut with San Francisco in 1996 and appeared in 39 games over two seasons with the Giants before he was dealt to Detroit in July 1997. After spending parts of the 1998 and 1999 seasons with Milwaukee and St. Louis respectively, Jensen saw his most big league action with Minnesota in 2000 when he batted .209 with three home runs and 14 RBI in 52 games. He split the 2001 season between Boston and Texas and returned to Milwaukee in 2002, appearing in 40 games in his final big league campaign. Jensen spent the 2003 season at Triple-A Columbus in the New York (AL) farm system and played for Cancun in the Mexican League in 2004. He spent his final two seasons as a professional with Mesa (2005) and Reno (2006) of the independent Golden Baseball League. Jensen was also a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that defeated Cuba for the gold medal.

Jensen makes his offseason home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Lila, and three children, Mariah, Jahir and Jirah.

THIRD BASE COACH

Mark Steven Kotsay

Named A's bench coach, November 12, 2015

Named A's quality control coach, November 2, 2017

Named A's third base coach, December 3, 2020

Birthdate: December 2, 1975

Birthplace/Resides: Whittier, California / Rancho Sante Fe, California

Mark Kotsay returns for his sixth season on the A's coaching staff, his first as the A's third base coach. He spent the previous three seasons from 2018-20 serving as the A's quality control coach. Kotsay joined the A's as the bench coach in 2016 and filled that role until taking a leave of absence June 19, 2017. He made his professional coaching debut as the San Diego Padres hitting coach in 2015.

Kotsay spent 17 seasons in the Major Leagues from 1997-2013, including a four-year stint with Oakland from 2004-07. He was acquired from San Diego following the 2003 season for Ramon Hernandez and Terrence Long and went on to hit .282 in 472 games with the A's. Kotsay batted a career-high .313 in 2004 and tallied a career-high 82 RBI in 2005 while belting 15 home runs in each season. He was a member of the A's American League West champions in 2006 and sparked Oakland to its first ALCS appearance in 14 years with an inside-the-park home run in Game 2 of the ALDS at Minnesota.

A former outfielder, Kotsay batted .276 with 127 home runs and 720 RBI in 1914 games during his career, which also included stops in Florida (1997-2000), San Diego (2001-03, 12-13), Atlanta (2008), Boston (2008-09), Chicago-AL (2009-10) and Milwaukee (2011). He made his ML debut with Florida in his second professional season in 1997 and appeared in a career-high 154 games in his rookie season of 1998. After batting .298 in 2000, he was traded to San Diego five days prior to Opening Day in 2001. He hit .292 with a career-high 17 home runs in 2002. Following his stay with Oakland, Kotsay returned to the LCS in 2008 with Boston and 2011 with Milwaukee. He concluded his playing career with San Diego in 2012 and 2013.

Kotsay retired following the 2013 season and spent 2014 in the Padres front office as a special assistant to the general manager and baseball operations. In that role, he was involved in all aspects of the club's baseball operations.

A graduate of Sante Fe (Calif.) High School, Kotsay attended Cal State Fullerton where he led the Titans to the College World Series Championship in 1995. He was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award and was named Collegiate Player of the Year that year and hit .404 in his collegiate career. Kotsay was the Marlins first round pick and the ninth selection overall in the 1996 draft and also played for the United States in the 1996 Olympics.

Kotsay is married, Jamie, and has three children, Grace, Sienna and Trey. He resides in Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., during the offseason.

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Anthony Eric Martins

Named A's assistant hitting coach, October 31, 2019

Birthdate: November 19, 1972Birthplace/Resides: Los Angeles, California / Mesa, Arizona

Eric Martins made his debut on a Major League coaching staff in 2020 as the A's assistant hitting coach and returns in that capacity in 2021. This is Martins' 21st season in the A's organization, which includes seven years as a minor league player, seven years as an area scout and five years as a minor league hitting coach.

Martins' coaching career began in 2015 when he was named hitting coach for Double-A Midland. He was promoted to Triple-A Nashville in 2016 and spent three seasons with the Sounds before moving west to Las Vegas in 2019 when the A's switched Triple-A affiliates.

Prior to coaching, Martins spent seven seasons as an A's area scout for Southern California from 2008-14. During that time, he was responsible for signing A.J. Griffin, Daniel Robertson, and 2014 first-round selection Matt Chapman, among others.

Originally a 17th round selection by Oakland in the 1994 draft, Martins hit .276 with 21 home runs and 262 RBI in 661 games over seven seasons in the A's farm system from 1994-2000. He was named to the Northwest League All-Star Team in 1994 after hitting .324 in his professional debut. The former infielder was part of the 1997 Edmonton team that captured the Pacific Coast League Championship and the 1999 Vancouver club that won the Triple-A World Series. Martins also played for Long Beach of the independent Western League (2001-02), Somerset of the independent Atlantic League (2003) and Nettuno in Italy (2004).

A graduate of La Serna High School in 1990, Martins attended Long Beach State. He was signed by Ed Crosby.

Martins lives in Mesa, Ariz., with his wife, Madison.

A's IN POSTSEASON: The A's returned to the postseason for the third consecutive season, sixth time in the last nine years and 11th time in the last 21 seasons...are one of six teams to reach the postseason in each of the last three years (Astros, Braves, Brewers, Dodgers, Yankees)...over the last nine years, only the Dodgers (8) have more than six postseason appearances and over the last 21 seasons only the Yankees (17), Cardinals (14), Dodgers (12) and Braves (12) have more...it was the 29th postseason appearance in franchise history, which includes 21 with Oakland and eight with Philadelphia...that is fourth most all-time...qualified for the postseason by winning their first American League West championship since 2013...it was the A's third AL West title in the last nine years, their seventh in the last 21 and their 17th overall...the 17 division titles are fourth most all-time...defeated Chicago in the American League Wild Card Series, 2 games to 1, to win their first postseason series since the 2006 ALDS against Minnesota...snapped their Major League record nine-game losing streak in winner-take-all postseason games...then lost to Houston in the ALDS at Dodger Stadium, 3 games to 1...have now lost 13 of their last 15 postseason series (includes one-game wild card games) after winning 11 of their first 15 postseason series in Oakland through the 1990 ALCS.

THE FINAL 26 GAMES: The A's were 22-12 (.647) when their season was halted on Aug. 30 due a positive Covid-19 test...had the third best record in the majors at the time...the Aug. 30 game at Houston and a three-game series at Seattle from Sept. 1-3 were postponed and Oakland was off for five days before resuming play on Sept. 4...went 14-12 (.538) over the final 26 games, which was the 13th best record in the majors...played 26 games over the final 24 days of the regular season, which were the A's most games over a 24-day stretch since July 21-Aug. 13, 1978 when they had 27 games in 24 days...had a stretch from Sept. 8-14 where they played three doubleheaders in three different cities in three different time zones (Sept. 8 vs. Houston, Sept. 12 at Texas, Sept. 14 at Seattle)...went 6-4 over that stretch and the 10 games were the A's most over a seven-day stretch since June 16-22, 1966...played four games in three different cities in three different time zones over a span of 56 hours and 47 minutes from Sept. 13-15 and lost three of those four games...played 16 games in 13 days from Sept. 4-16 and went 9-7 over that span...it was the first time the A's played 16 games in 13 days since July 18-30, 1975.

THE RULE CHANGES: The A's finished with a 6-1 record in extra inning games...six of the games were decided in the first extra inning (10th inning five times, eighth inning once) and the other (Aug. 7 vs. Houston) in 13 innings...scored the runner from second in 6 of 10 innings while the A's pitching staff did not allow the runner that started the inning on second to score in 7 of 10 innings...outscored the opposition 12-6 in extra innings...hit .276 (8-for-29) with two doubles, two home runs and five walks...the opposition was 6-for-34 (.176) with three walks...the average time of game in the A's extra inning games was 3 hours and 25.7 minutes...however, played five seven-inning doubleheaders necessitated by social justice protests (Aug. 29 at Houston, Sept. 12 at Texas) and Covid-19 (Sept. 8 vs. Houston, Sept. 14 at Seattle and Sept. 26 vs. Seattle) and were 3-7 in those games...were swept on Aug. 29 at Houston and Sept. 26 vs. Seattle and split the other three...the five doubleheaders were the A's most in a season since 1986 when they also had five...entering the season, had played just 16 games fewer than nine innings since moving to Oakland in 1968...prior to this year, the most recent was on Aug. 27, 2013 at Detroit, a 6-3 A's win that was called because of rain with no outs in the top of the sixth...the average time of game in the 10 doubleheader games was 2 hours and 27.1 minutes...overall, the A's average time of game was 2 hours and 57 minutes, which was second quickest in the majors...it was the first time they averaged under 3 hours since 2016 (2:56).

162-GAME PROJECTIONS: The A's won 36 games, which projects to 97.2 wins over a 162-game season...Oakland won 97 games in each of the previous two seasons...were hit by a pitch 39 times, which was more than 20 seasons in Oakland history...the hit by pitches project to 105.3 in a 162-game season and the Athletics record is 88 in 2001...Ramón Laureano was hit 12 times, which tied for ninth most in Oakland history...that would be 32.4 in 162 games and the Athletics record is 20 (Don Baylor, 1976; Jason Kendall, 2005)...Mark Canha and Marcus Semien tied for the A's team-lead with 47 hits, which would be 126.9 over a full season...the fewest hits by an Oakland team-leader in a non-strike season in 136 by Dave Revering in 1979...Matt Olson had 77 strikeouts, which put him on pace for the first 200-strikeout season in Athletics history (207.9)...the A's had just 91 doubles, or 245.7 in 162 games...the last time the A's had fewer than 250 doubles in a 162-game season was in 1992 (219).

OFFENSE: The A's batted .225, which was sixth lowest in the majors but second lowest in the 120-year history of the Athletics franchise...the low is .223 by the 1908 Philadelphia A's...however, ranked third in the majors in hit by pitches (39) and seventh in walks (238)...had a .322 on-base percentage, which was .097 points higher than the team batting average...the was the largest difference in Oakland history ahead of the 1999 club, which had a difference of .096 (.259 batting average, .355 on-base percentage)...were successful in 26-of-29 (89.7%) stolen base attempts, which was the best percentage in Major League history ahead of the 2007 Phillies (138-of-157, 87.9%)...hit four grand slams, which matched the A's season total from 2018 and 2019 and was second in the majors to San Diego (7)...two of the grand slams came in the ninth inning and the other was in the 10th and the A's are the 18th team in Major League history with three grand slams in the ninth inning or later in a season (last: Toronto, 2018)...also ranked fourth in the majors in slugging (.635) and extra base hits (8) with the bases loaded, tied for fourth in walks (7), sixth in RBI (53) and seventh in batting (.308)...the slugging percentage was second highest in Oakland history (.712 in 2000)...however, hit .228 with runners in scoring position, which was second lowest in the majors (Texas, .218) and the lowest in Oakland history (previously: .232 in 1977)...averaged 4.20 plate appearances per strikeout, which was the second lowest mark in Athletics history (4.11 in 2017)...the A's number three hitters batted a combined .178, which was second lowest in the majors (Texas, .145) and the lowest in Athletics history (previous: .220 in 1979)...averaged 4.02 pitches per plate appearance, which ranked eighth in the majors but was the best in Oakland history since pitch data was tracked beginning in 1988.

PITCHING: The A's compiled a 3.77 ERA, which was fifth lowest in the majors...had the fifth lowest opponents on-base percentage (.302), the ninth lowest OPS (.693) and 10th lowest slugging percentage (.392)...the on-base percentage was seventh lowest in Oakland history...had the second fewest hit batters in the majors (15), issued the third fewest walks (165) and tied for the sixth fewest home runs (69)...however, the average of 1.21 home runs per nine innings was fifth highest in Oakland history...struck out 506 batters, which tied for ninth fewest in the majors...however, averaged 8.84 strikeouts per nine innings, which was the highest mark in Athletics history (previous: 7.98 in 2019)...also had the highest strikeout-to-walk ratio in A's history with a mark of 3.07 (previous: 3.06 in 2014)...tied for the fewest triples allowed in the majors (3), had the fourth fewest wild pitches (16), tied for the fifth fewest extra base hits (157) and tied for the sixth most shutouts (5) and pickoffs (5)...averaged 136.7 pitches per game, which was the fewest in the majors and second fewest by an A's team since pitch count data was tracked beginning in 1988 (134.2 in 1990)...had the second fewest pitches per inning in the majors (15.9).

STARTING PITCHING: A's starting pitchers went 22-19 with a 4.49 ERA...tied for third in the majors in wins, ranked seventh in innings pitched (307.0) and eighth in fewest walks (88)...however, the average of 5.12 innings pitched per start was second lowest in Athletics history to a mark of 5.09 in 2018...tossed seven innings or fewer in all 60 games...now have a streak of 176 consecutive games with eight innings pitched or fewer dating back to May 18, 2019, which is second longest in Oakland history (186, Aug. 20, 2016-Sept. 14, 2017)...had one complete game in 2020 and it was a seven-inning complete game by Mike Minor on Sept. 14, which snapped a 172-game streak without a complete game...that was second longest in Athletics history...allowed a .260 opponents batting average, which was ninth highest in the majors...averaged 8.30 strikeouts per nine innings, which was the highest mark in Athletics history (previous: 7.65 in 2014)...had a 3.22 strikeout-to-walk ratio, which was also the best (2.98 in 2014).

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

RELIEF PITCHERS SAVE RULE

A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game with the potential tying run on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITHOUT BEING NO-HIT

When the Cincinnati Reds were no-hit by the Cubs Jake Arrieta on April 21, 2016, the A's took over the longest active streak of consecutive games with one or more hits, a streak that reached 4,605 at the conclusion of the 2020 season. The streak is fourth longest in American League history and would need to last another six years before breaking the record set of 5,550 set by Kansas City from May 16, 1973 to May 18, 2008. The last time the A's were no-hit was July 13, 1991 when Bob Milacki, Mike Flanagan, Mark Williamson and Gregg Olson combined to no-hit Oakland for Baltimore.

From Rickey Henderson's 1,704 games to Daulton Jefferies' 1, a total of 979 players have played for the Oakland A's.

HISTORY

ATHLETICS HISTORY

From its beginnings in Philadelphia to its current version in Oakland, the Athletics franchise has been one of the most storied in Major League history. The A's have won nine World Championships, 15 Pennants and 17 Division Titles in 120 years in the American League. Only the New York Yankees (27) and St. Louis Cardinals (11) have won more World Series and only the Yankees (40) have more American League Pennants.

The A's were one of the eight original AL franchises when the league was born in 1901. Connie Mack was named manager of the Philadelphia entry and would guide the A's for 50 years, winning five World Championships and 3,582 games. The Hall of Famer was also an owner of the club for all 54 years in Philadelphia.

Under Mack's leadership, the A's would win six of the first 14 AL Pennants, including World Series titles in 1910, 11 and 13. The first dynasty featured the "$100,000 infield" of Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry and Frank "Home Run" Baker as well as Hall of Fame pitchers Chief Bender, Eddie Plank and Rube Waddell. Waddell led the AL in strikeouts each year from 1902-07 and Baker earned the "Home Run" nickname by topping the AL in round trippers from 1911-14, with 11, 10, 12 and nine.

The A's won 99 games in 1914 but dropped off to 43 wins in 1915 as the club sold off many of its star players, a pattern that would continue throughout the history of the franchise. The A's had seven straight last place finishes through 1921, but a second dynasty was on the horizon.

Mack again began to assemble Hall of Fame talent in the mid-20's, putting together one of the most feared batting orders in baseball history with catcher Mickey Cochrane, first baseman Jimmie Foxx and outfielder Al Simmons. Add in another Hall of Famer on the mound in Lefty Grove and the A's would win 100 games in three straight seasons, including back-to-back World Championships in 1929 and 30.

The A's won their ninth AL Pennant with a 107-win season in 1931 as Grove won AL Most Valuable Player honors. Foxx won back-to-back MVPs in 1932 and 1933, setting franchise records for home runs (58) and RBI (169) in 1932. However, economics again led Mack to sell or trade his best players. The club would post 13 consecutive losing seasons from 1934-46 and would finish no higher than fourth place in the final 21 years in Philadelphia.

Connie Mack managed his final season in 1950 at the age of 87 and the Mack family sold the club to Arnold Johnson, who moved the A's to Kansas City in 1955.

The A's finished in sixth place in their first season in Kansas City, but that would be their highest finish in the midwest, which featured 13 losing seasons. The club again began to develop talent, but most, including the likes of Roger Maris and 1952 AL MVP Bobby Shantz, would end up being traded to the Yankees. Following the death of Johnson in 1960, the A's were sold to Charlie Finley.

Finley began assembling another talented group of A's players, signing Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Rollie Fingers, Bert Campaneris and Joe Rudi and drafting Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando and Vida Blue. While most of these players had limited time with the Kansas City A's, they would form the nucleus of the next A's dynasty.

The A's moved to Oakland in 1968 and won 82 games that year for their first winning season in 16 years. After back-to-back second place finishes in 1969 and '70, the A's won five straight American League West titles from 1971-75. Anchored by Hall of Famers Hunter, Fingers and Jackson, the A's won three straight World Championships from 1972-74.

Although the A's won 98 games in 1975, the third Athletics dynasty was already coming to an end with the departure of Hunter via free agency prior to the season. The rest of the players would be traded in the next two years and the A's reached a low in Oakland with a 108-loss season in 1979. However, that year saw the debut of the next A's superstar, Rickey Henderson.

Billy Martin was hired to manage the A's in 1980 and Henderson flourished under Martin, stealing 100 bases that year and a record 130 in 1982. Finley sold the A's to Haas Family following the 1980 season and Billy Ball, featuring Henderson on the bases and starting pitchers going the distance, was born. The A's won the West in the strike-shortened 1981 season but would face a seven-year drought before returning to the postseason.

The turnaround began in 1986 with the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the signing of Dave Stewart as a free agent. A trade for future Hall of Famer Dennis Eckersley in 1987 led to the emergence of the modern day closer, and three straight rookies of the year in Jose Canseco (1986), Mark McGwire (1987) and Walt Weiss (1988) gave the A's the ingredients for a run of four AL West Championships in five years from 1988-92.

Oakland made three straight World Series appearances from 1988-90, including a World Championship in 1989 that was buoyed by the return of Henderson to Oakland. Two years later on May 1, 1991, Henderson would break Lou Brock's Major League stolen base record with his 939th steal.

The A's had MVPs in 1988 (Canseco), 1990 (Henderson) and 1992 (Eckersley) and Cy Youngs in Bob Welch (1990) and Eckersley (1992), but this time it was age that ended the A's run. While the A's have not won the World Series since the 1989 sweep of the cross-bay rival San Francisco Giants, there has been no shortage of postseason berths in the 21st century.

The Moneyball teams of the early 2000's featuring the Big Three of Tim Lincecum, Mark Mulder and 2002 Cy Young winner Barry Zito, and the offensive power of 2000 MVP Jason Giambi, 2002 MVP Miguel Tejada and Gold Glover Eric Chavez, made four straight postseason appearances from 2000-03 and another in 2006. The 2002 club set a then-AL record with a 20-game winning streak, capped off by a Scott Hatteberg pinch hit home run.

The Bob Melvin-led A's have returned to the postseason six times in the last nine years, including back-to-back AL West titles in 2012-13 and another in 2020.

* The Baseball Writers' Association of America has officially balloted and named the MVP in each major league since 1931. The earlier awards were known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928.

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

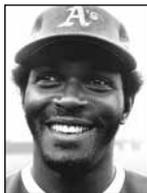

The Athletics Hall of Fame was founded in 2018 to honor the individuals who have shaped the identity and success of the Athletics franchise.

The inaugural class of seven featured the five Oakland A's National Baseball Hall of Famers: Catfish Hunter, Rollie Fingers, Reggie Jackson, Dennis Eckersley and Rickey Henderson, as well as four-time 20-game winner Dave Stewart and owner Charlie Finley.

The first induction ceremony took place on Sept. 5, 2018. Members of the Athletics Hall of Fame will be honored with a display in the future.

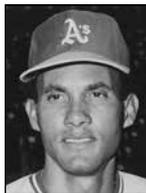

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAMERS

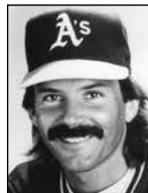

Vida Blue
Oakland A's 1969-77
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Vida Blue made his Major League debut in 1969 eight days before his 20th birthday, tossed a no-hitter in 1970, and then burst onto the national scene in 1971 when he won both the American League Cy Young Award and Most Valuable Player Award after compiling a 24-8 record, a league-leading 1.82 ERA and 301 strikeouts. Blue started two All-Star Games for the AL in 1971 and 1975, and in between pitched for the A's three consecutive World Champions.

Bert Campaneris
Kansas City A's 1964-67;
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

When you trace the roots of the A's three straight World Championships from 1972 to 1974, it all began on April 25, 1961, when the Kansas City A's signed a 19-year-old Cuban named Dagoberto Campaneris. "Campy" played 13 seasons for the A's and was a six-time All-Star. He stole 649 bases in his career and led the American League in steals six times. Campaneris homered twice in his debut and famously played all nine positions in a nine-inning game on Sept. 8, 1965.

Dennis Eckersley
Oakland A's 1987-95
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

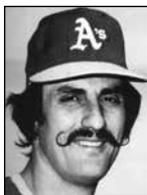

When Dennis Eckersley was traded to the A's in April of 1987, he had a successful 12-year career as a starting pitcher. By the time his nine seasons in Oakland concluded, he redefined the role of closer, saving an Athletics record 320 games. Born in Oakland and raised in Fremont, he was the AL MVP and Cy Young winner in 1992. Eckersley was a four-time All-Star with Oakland and was a member of the A's World Champions in 1989.

THE RON BERGMAN AWARD

The Ron Bergman Award was established in 2019 to honor a journalist for meritorious contributions to the coverage of the Athletics. The award is named after the inaugural recipient, Ron Bergman, who covered the A's for the Oakland Tribune and San Jose Mercury News, and was the author of Mustache Gang, which chronicled the A's first World Championship in Oakland in 1972.

Rollie Fingers
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Rollie Fingers made his ML debut with Oakland in 1968 and was used both as a starter and reliever over his first four seasons. He moved to the bullpen full time in 1972, when the A's began their run of three consecutive World Championships. Fingers spent the first nine seasons of his 17-year Hall of Fame career with Oakland. The mustachioed right-hander was a four-time All-Star with the A's and earned 1974 World Series MVP honors.

Charlie Finley
Kansas City A's 1961-67;
Oakland A's 1968-80
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

After purchasing the Kansas City A's following the 1960 season, Charlie Finley moved the club to Oakland in 1968 where the team he assembled would win three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74. He would be remembered as much for his off-field antics and innovations, as he proposed the designated hitter, interleague play and World Series night games. Finley also introduced baseball to Charlie O the mule, Harvey the mechanical rabbit, white cleats, colorful uniforms and more.

Walter A. Haas, Jr.
Oakland A's 1981-95
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Walter A. Haas, Jr. purchased the A's following the 1980 season and during his 15 years as owner, Oakland won five American League West titles, three AL Pennants and the 1989 World Championship. The A's set franchise records for attendance five times, but Haas will be remembered just as much for his commitment to the community and staying in the background while bright young innovators grew the A's reputation to one of the best in baseball.

Rickey Henderson
Oakland A's 1979-84, 89-93,
94-95, 98
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Raised in Oakland and drafted by the A's, Rickey Henderson went on to become the greatest player in Oakland A's history and one of the greatest leadoff hitters of all time. He played 14 of his 25 seasons in an Oakland uniform and finished his career in 2003 as the all-time leader in stolen bases (1,406), runs scored (2,295) and walks (2,190). Henderson was a six-time All-Star with the A's, AL MVP in 1990 and a member of the 1989 A's World Champions.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter
Kansas City A's 1965-67;
Oakland A's 1968-74
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Jim "Catfish" Hunter was the anchor of the A's teams that won three consecutive World Championships from 1972 to 1974. He had four straight 20-win seasons with Oakland, including a career-high 25 victories in 1974 when he won the AL Cy Young. Hunter was a six-time All-Star with the A's and tossed the first perfect game in Oakland history on May 8, 1968. He pitched three seasons in Kansas City and seven in Oakland and was inducted to the National Hall of Fame in 1987.

Reggie Jackson
Kansas City A's 1967;
Oakland A's 1968-75, 87
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

"Mr. October" was born in 1973 when Reggie Jackson earned World Series MVP honors as the A's won their second of three straight World Championships. He was also named AL MVP that year after leading the league in runs, home runs and RBI. Jackson made his debut with the Kansas City A's in 1967, spent the next eight seasons with Oakland and then concluded his 21-year Hall of Fame career with the A's in 1987. He played in six All-Star Games in an Oakland uniform.

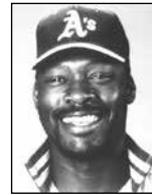

Tony La Russa
Oakland A's 1986-95
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Tony La Russa managed the A's for 10 seasons from 1986 to 1995. Under his guidance, the A's won four American League West titles, three consecutive AL Pennants from 1988 to 1990 and the World Championship in 1989. La Russa won 798 games during his tenure with Oakland, including 104 in 1988 when he was named AL Manager of the Year. He would garner the honor again in 1992 and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014.

Mark McGwire
Oakland A's 1986-97
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Mark McGwire played 12 seasons with Oakland and hit 363 home runs, breaking the franchise record in 1996. He was named to nine American League All-Star teams, including six straight beginning in 1987 when he was named AL Rookie of the Year after hitting 49 home runs. He earned the AL Gold Glove for first basemen in 1990 and hit 52 home runs in 1996. The A's reached the Postseason four times with McGwire, highlighted by a World Championship in 1989.

Dave Stewart
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Born in Oakland and a graduate of St. Elizabeth High School, Dave Stewart spent six seasons in the majors with three teams before breaking through with the A's. He joined Oakland in 1986 and would go on to win 20 games in four consecutive seasons from 1987-90. The big-game pitcher went 8-3 with a 2.22 ERA in 14 postseason starts for Oakland, including two wins in the 1989 World Series when he earned MVP honors in the A's sweep of the Giants.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP YEARS

1910: Finished with a 102-48 record and outdistanced the New York Highlanders by 14.5 games in the American League standings...defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games to win the first of five World Championships in Philadelphia...102 wins set a new American League record...opened the season in Washington in a game attended by President William Howard Taft, who honored the game by throwing out the first ball, setting a precedent which was followed by each of his successors until the Senators left Washington following the 1971 season...the pitching staff, headlined by Jack Coombs, Chief Bender, Cy Morgan and Eddie Plank, finished with a 1.79 ERA...Coombs emerged as the ace of the pitching staff and finished with a 31-9 record and a 1.30 ERA, including 13 shutouts...compiled a 46-inning scoreless streak during the season...the infield of Stuffie McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry and Frank Baker would become known as the "$100,000 Infield"...won the first three games of the World Series before the Cubs took game four, 4-3 in 10 innings...Coombs won his third game of the series in Game 5, out-pitching Mordecai Brown to lift the A's to their first world title.

1911: Dominated the American League for the second straight season, finishing with a 101-50 record...defeated the New York Giants in six games to capture a second straight world championship...offense was paced by Eddie Collins, Frank Baker, Stuffie McInnis, Eddie Murphy and Bris Lord...Baker captured the American League home run title with 11 round trippers, earning him the nickname "Home Run" Baker...clinched the pennant on Sept. 26 with an 11-5 win over Detroit at Shibe Park, as Baker hit two doubles and two home runs...faced the New York Giants in the World Series in a rematch of the 1905 Fall Classic, won by the Giants...Christy Mathewson and Chief Bender squared-off in Game 1, just as they did in the 1905 Series finale...a run-scoring double by New York's Josh Devore in the seventh inning broke a 1-1 tie as the Giants captured the first game...the A's won Game 2, 3-1, behind the pitching of Eddie Plank and a home run by Baker...A's took a 2-1 lead in the series by winning Game 3, 3-2 in 11 innings at the Polo Grounds...after heavy rains forced postponement of the series for a week, the A's captured Game 4 at Shibe Park, 4-2, as Bender outdueled Mathewson...the Giants staved off elimination by winning Game 5 at the Polo Grounds, 4-3 in 10 innings...the A's routed the Giants, 13-2 in Game 6 to capture their second straight World Series title.

1911 World Champion Philadelphia Athletics

1913: The Athletics posted a 96-57 regular season record and outdistanced Washington by six-and-a-half games to reclaim the American League pennant...defeated the New York Giants in five games to capture their third World Series title in four years...moved into first place in April and stayed atop the AL standings the rest of the way...Jack Coombs, three years removed from a 31-win season, missed the entire campaign with typhoid fever...Chief Bender (21-10), Eddie Plank

(18-10), Boardwalk Brown (17-11), Byron "Duke" Houck (14-6) and rookie "Bullet" Joe Bush (14-6) anchored the pitching staff...the "$100,000 Infield" turned in another solid season...Frank Baker hit .336 to go along with an American League-best 12 home runs and 117 RBI...Stuffy McInnis hit .324 with 90 RBI, Collins finished with a .345 average while Barry batted .275...the Athletics and Giants split the first two games of the series before the A's won Games 3, 4 and 5 to capture their third World Series title.

1929: Behind a high-powered offense that featured six .300 hitters and the league's best pitching staff paced by Lefty Grove and George Earnshaw, the A's finished with a 104-46 record and captured the American League pennant by 18 games over the New York Yankees...defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games to win their fourth World Series title...the championship was the culmination of a long journey back to the top of the baseball world for Connie Mack's club...after winning the 1914 pennant, the A's spent the next seven seasons in the AL cellar before finishing seventh in 1922...finished sixth in 1923, fifth in '24, second in '25, third in '26 and second in '27 and '28 before winning the pennant in 1929...Al Simmons leads the American League with 157 RBI and finished second with a .365 batting average...Jimmie Foxx hit .354 with 33 home runs while catcher Mickey Cochrane finished with a .331 average...Bing Miller (.335), Jimmy Dykes (.327) and Mule Haas (.313) also topped the .300 mark for the season...Earnshaw (24-8, 3.29) and Grove (20-6, 2.81) combined for 44 wins.

1930: After posting a 102-52 regular season record, the Athletics successfully defended their World Championship by defeating a hard-nosed St. Louis Cardinals team in six games...offensively, Al Simmons led the AL with a .381 average to go along with 36 home runs...Jimmie Foxx hit .335 and his 37 home runs ranked tied for third in the league behind Babe Ruth (49) and Lou Gehrig (41)...Mickey Cochrane finished the year with a .357 average...Lefty Grove posts a 28-5 record to go along with a 2.54 ERA while George Earnshaw finished with a 22-13 record and a 4.44 ERA...the 1931 Athletics won a franchise record 107 games, but were denied a third straight championship after losing to the St. Louis Cardinals in a seven-game World Series...after finishing second in 1932 and third in 1933, the A's would average 92 losses a season for the next 21 years before relocating to Kansas City for the 1955 season.

1972: The Swingin' A's finished with a 93-62 regular season record and held off the Chicago White Sox to capture a second straight American League West title...defeated the Detroit Tigers in five games in the American League Championship Series to advance to the World Series, where they defeated the heavily-favored Cincinnati Reds in seven games...the pitching staff, led by Jim "Catfish" Hunter (21-7), Ken Holtzman (19-11), John "Blue Moon" Odom (15-6) and closer Rollie Fingers (11-9, 21 saves), finished second in the American League with a 2.58 ERA...a contract dispute forced Vida Blue, who won both the AL Cy Young Award and league MVP honors a year before, to miss spring training and he did not make his first start until May 28th...led by Mike Epstein (26) and Reggie Jackson (25), the A's led the American League with 134 home runs...Jackson tore a hamstring muscle in the fifth game of the ALCS vs. Detroit and was sidelined for the World Series...Gene Tenace, who hit just .225 with five home runs during the regular season, hits a then-Fall Classic record four home runs to go along with a .348 average to earn World Series MVP honors.

1973: The A's claimed their third straight AL West title with a 94-68 record and dispatched the Baltimore Orioles to win a hard-fought five-game ALCS...defeated the New York Mets in seven games to capture a second straight World Championship...Reggie Jackson led the American League in home runs (32) and RBI (117) and hit .293 to earn AL MVP honors...after hitting just .143 against Baltimore in the ALCS, Jackson earned World Series MVP honors after hitting .310 with three doubles, a triple and a home run against the Mets...third baseman Sal Bando hit .287 with 29 home runs and 98 RBI while playing all 162 games at third base...All-Star shortstop Campy Campaneris reached the 150-hit plateau for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in 10 years...hit .333 vs. Baltimore and set then-ALCS records for total bases (14) and stolen bases (3) and tied an ALCS record with two home runs...hit .290 with six runs, three stolen bases, a triple and home run vs. the Mets in the World Series...Dick Green bounced back from an injury-plagued 1972 campaign to set a then-Oakland record for highest fielding percentage by a second baseman (.988)...Bill North, acquired in a trade with the Cubs in the off-season, emerged as the A's everyday center fielder, but a late season ankle injury forced him to miss both the ALCS and World Series...catcher Ray Fosse was acquired from Cleveland during spring training and established career highs in games played (143), at bats (492), doubles (23) and triples (2)...pitching staff was paced by 20-game winners Catfish Hunter (21-5), Ken Holtzman (21-13) and Vida Blue (20-9)...Hunter posted his third straight 21-win season despite missing a month of the season with an injury...strung together 13-straight victories from June 2 to September 5... Hunter posted two wins over Baltimore in the ALCS, including a 3-0 shutout in Game 5...he kept his record perfect in World Series play, winning Game 6 against the Mets...Holtzman won seven games in the month of May and finished with four shutouts among his 16 complete games...after a slow start, Blue won 11 of his last 13 decisions down the stretch to notch his second 20-win season in just his third full Major League season...Blue tossed a team-high four shutouts during the season...Manager Dick Williams resigned shortly after the season after failing to come to terms on a new contract.

1974: Under new manager Alvin Dark, the A's defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers to claim their third straight World

Series...finished the regular season with a 90-72 record and won their fourth straight AL West title by five games over Texas...defeated the Baltimore Orioles in a four-game ALCS to set up the first ever All-California World Series against the Dodgers...Catfish Hunter captured the American League Cy Young Award after winning a career high 25 games to go along with a 2.49 ERA...Rollie Fingers made a career high 76 appearances to set a then-Oakland record...he was named World Series MVP after chalking up a win, two saves and a 1.93 ERA in four appearances...Fingers earned the win in Game 1 as he worked 4.1 innings in relief of Ken Holtzman...Campy

Campy Campaneris hit a career high .290 and stole over 30 bases for the 10th straight season...Campy batted .353 in five World Series games against the Dodgers...Joe Rudi led the AL in doubles (39) and total bases (287) while finishing third in RBI (99), fourth in slugging (.484) and fifth in hits (174)...Sal Bando finished second in the American League with 103 RBI...he hit game-winning home runs in the second and third games of the ALCS vs. Baltimore...Reggie Jackson started the season by batting .399 with 15 home runs and 42 RBI over the first 50 games...he made his fifth All-Star Game appearance in six years and amassed over 3.5 million votes in the fan balloting, nearly 800,000 more than runner up Hank Aaron...after a blazing start, Jackson hit just .239 with 14 home runs and 51 RBI over the final 104 games of the season...Claudell Washington made the jump from Double-A to appear in 73 games and was named to Topps Rookie All-Star Team.

1989: The A's posted a regular season mark of 99-63 and finished seven games ahead of Kansas City in the American League West Division...defeated Toronto in five games to win a second straight American League pennant...swept the San Francisco Giants in the "Battle of the Bay" World Series, which will always be remembered for the devastating earthquake that struck on Oct. 17 at 5:04 p.m., just minutes before the first pitch of Game 3 at Candlestick Park...for the second straight season, won more regular season games than any team in the Majors...never led the AL West by more than 4.5 games until the final week and never were more than three games out of the division lead...were an injury-plagued team for the first four months of the season as 11 different players spent time on the disabled list, including Jose Canseco, Mark McGwire,

Storm Davis, Walt Weiss, Dennis Eckersley and Bob Welch...pitching staff posted the lowest ERA in the American League (3.09) for the second straight season...tossed a Major League-best 20 shutouts on the year...starting pitchers Dave Stewart (21-9), Mike Moore (19-11), Storm Davis (19-7) and Bob Welch (17-8) combined for a 76-35 record with a 3.25 ERA...Stewart became the first pitcher to string together three 20-win seasons since Hall of Famer Jim Palmer accomplished the feat from 1975-78...became just the second player in Oakland history to reel off three straight 20-win seasons...was the first since Catfish Hunter won 20 or more games during a four year stretch from 1971-74...was 4-0 in four postseason starts and earned World Series MVP honors...third baseman Carney Lansford set an Oakland single-season record with a .336 batting average, which was the second best mark in the AL... offense received a tremendous boost when the team reacquired Oakland native Rickey Henderson in a trade with the New York Yankees on June 20th...Henderson hit .294 and reached base safely in 80 of the 85 games he played with Oakland down the stretch...tied Wade Boggs for the AL lead in runs scored (.113) and topped the loop with a career high 126

POSTSEASON SERIES YEAR-BY-YEAR RECAP

1905 WORLD SERIES

The A's make their first appearance in the World Series and lose to the New York Giants, four games to one. Three of the losses come against Christy Mathewson who tosses three complete game shutouts. The A's collect just 25 hits in the series for a .161 batting average and score just three runs. Topsy Hartsel paces the A's offense with a .294 batting average and Bris Lord has the only two RBI. The A's use three pitchers in the Series and all toss complete games. Chief Bender makes two starts and has a 1.06 ERA.

The A's lose the first game in Philadelphia, 3-0, as Mathewson tosses a four-hit shutout. Chief Bender returns the favor in the second game of the series as he tosses a four-hit shutout and strikes out nine in a 3-0 A's win at New York. Lord has RBI singles in the third and eighth innings. Mathewson tosses a four-hit shutout in the Giants 9-0 win in Game 3 and Joe McGinnity blanks the A's on five hits in a 1-0 win in Game 4. Eddie Plank allows just four hits in Game 4 and the only run of the game is unearned after a Monte Cross error. Mathewson tossed a six-hit shutout in Game 5 as the Giants clinch the series with a 2-0 win.

1910 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their first World Series and use just two pitchers to defeat the Chicago Cubs, four games to one. Jack Coombs wins three of the games and posts a 3.33 ERA while Chief Bender is 1-1 with a 1.93 ERA. Eddie Collins paces the A's offense with a .429 batting average and four doubles and Frank Baker hits .409. Danny Murphy connects for the only home run of the series and leads the A's with nine RBI. The A's hit .316 and score 35 runs in the five games while the two pitchers combine for a 2.76 ERA and allow 15 runs.

The A's win the first two games in Philadelphia as Bender tosses a three-hitter in Game 1 and strikes out eight in a 4-1 win while Baker has three hits and two RBI. Coombs allows eight hits and nine walks in Game 2 but the Cubs strand 14 in a 9-3 A's win. Eddie Collins has three of the A's 14 hits and all nine Athletics collect at least one hit. The series moves to Chicago for Game 3 and Coombs comes back on one day of rest and defeats the Cubs, 12-5, collecting three hits and three RBI. Harry Davis and Jack Berry add three hits each and Barry and Murphy have three RBI. Bender suffers the A's only loss in Game 4 when the Cubs win 4-3 in 10 innings. The A's have a 3-2 lead entering the ninth but the Cubs score once in the ninth and once in the 10th for the win. The A's wrap up the series with a 7-2 win in Game 5 as Coombs picks up his third win of the series. Collins has three hits and the A's score five times in the eighth to break open a 2-1 game.

The A's win their second consecutive World Championship as they defeat the New York Giants, four games to two. The A's pitching staff, which consists of Chief Bender, Jack Coombs and Eddie Plank, allows just 13 runs in the series for a 1.29 ERA. Bender goes 2-1 with a 1.04 ERA, Coombs is 1-0 with a 1.35 ERA and Plank is 1-1 with a 1.86 ERA. Frank "Home Run" Baker earns his nickname as he paces the A's offense with a .375 batting average, two home runs and five RBI. Jack Barry hits .368 and the A's offense hits .244 with 27 runs scored in the six games.

The A's lose Game 1 at New York by a 2-1 score as Bender strikes out 11 in eight innings in a complete game effort but loses to Christy Mathewson who tosses a six-hitter. The A's then win each of the next three games, beginning with a 3-1 win at Philadelphia in Game 2. Plank tosses a five-hitter and Baker breaks a 1-1 tie with a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Game 3 lasts 11 innings at New York and the A's are 3-2 winners. Trailing 1-0 entering the ninth inning, Baker homers to tie the game and the A's score two in the 11th for the win. Coombs goes the distance, allowing just three hits in 11 innings. The series is delayed for seven days because of rain but it resumes with a 4-2 A's win in Philadelphia in Game 4. Bender tosses a seven-hitter, Barry has three hits and Eddie Collins, Danny Murphy and Baker have two hits each. The A's lead 3-0 after six innings in Game 5 but the Giants score once in the bottom of the seventh, twice in the ninth and once in the 10th for the win. The A's then wrap up the series with a 13-2 win at Philadelphia, scoring seven times in the seventh inning. Murphy has four hits, Bris Lord adds three and Bender tosses a four-hitter.

The A's win their third World Championship over a four-year span as they defeat the New York Giants, four games to one. The A's use just three pitchers in the series with all going the distance, including Chief Bender, who wins Games 1 and 4, and Eddie Plank, who posts a 1-1 record and a 0.95 ERA. Frank Baker paces the A's offense with a .450 batting average and matches Wally Schang for the team-lead with seven RBI. Eddie Collins hits .421 and steals three bases.

Bender allows 11 hits in Game 1 at New York, but the A's defeat the Giants, 6-4. Collins goes 3 for 3 and scores three runs and Baker is 3 for 4 with three RBI, including a two-run home run. The A's lone loss comes in a Game 2 at Philadelphia, a 3-0 decision in 10 innings. Plank tosses nine shut-out innings before allowing three runs in the top of the 10th, while Christy Mathewson blanks the A's on eight hits. The series returns to Philadelphia for Game 3 and the A's score five times in the first two innings en route to an 8-2 win. Collins has his second three-hit game of the series and drives in three runs and Joe Bush tosses a five-hitter. The A's take a 6-0 lead into the seventh inning of Game 4 at Philadelphia and hold on to win 6-5. Jack Barry has three hits and Schang goes 2 for 2 with four RBI. The A's then clinch the series at New York with a 3-1 win in Game 5 as Plank tosses a two-hitter, allowing just one unearned run in the fifth inning. The A's score early again as Baker has a sacrifice fly in the first inning and a RBI single in the A's two-run third.

1914 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the fourth time in five years but are swept in four games by the Boston Braves. The pitching staff posts a 3.41 ERA in the series, including 1.00 by Eddie Plank. The offense is held to a .172 batting average and scores just six runs in the four games. Frank Baker leads the A's with four hits in the series.

The A's drop a 7-1 decision in Game 1 at Philadelphia as Dick Rudolph limits the A's to an unearned run in the second inning. Chief Bender takes the loss, allowing six runs in 5.1 innings. Bill James shuts out the A's 1-0 in Game 2, yielding just two hits. The game is scoreless over the first eight innings before Plank allows a Les Mann RBI single with two outs in the top of the ninth. The series moves to Boston for Game 3, a 5-4 A's loss in 12 innings. The score is tied at 2-2 when Frank Baker delivers a two-run single in the top of the 10th inning. Joe Bush, who goes the distance for the A's, then allows two runs in the bottom of the 10th. Bush takes the loss when his own throwing error on a Herbie Moran sacrifice bunt attempt in the 12th allows the winning run to score. The A's then drop a 3-1 decision in Game 4 as Rudolph again holds the A's to just one run. Starting pitcher Bob Shawkey allows three runs in 5.0 innings for the loss.

The A's return to the World Series for the first time in 15 years and win their fourth World Championship, besting the Chicago Cubs four games to one. The pitching staff posts a 2.40 ERA, including 1.42 by Howard Ehmke. The offense hits .281 and scores 26 runs in the five-game series. Jimmy Dykes hits .421 and Mickey Cochrane adds a .400 batting average. Jimmie Foxx, Mule Haas and Al Simmons all hit two home runs each.

Ehmke strikes out 13 and tosses an eight-hitter in the opener as the A's win 3-1 at Chicago. Foxx breaks a scoreless tie with a solo home run in the seventh inning and the A's have a 3-0 lead before Ehmke allows an unearned run in the bottom of the ninth. In Game 2, Simmons drives in four runs and Foxx is 3 for 5 with three RBI and his second home run in a 9-3 victory. The series moves to Philadelphia for Game 3 when the A's lose their only game of the series, 3-1. George Earnshaw goes the distance and strikes out 10, after tossing 4.2 innings two days earlier. The A's fall behind 8-0 in Game 4 before scoring 10 times in the bottom of the seventh inning to win, 10-8. Haas and Simmons both homer in the inning and Haas and Jimmy Dykes drive in three runs each as the A's send 15 batters to the plate. Philadelphia then clinches the series with a 3-2 win in Game 5. Ehmke allows two runs in 3.2 innings before Rube Walberg comes on to pitch 5.1 innings of scoreless relief. The A's trail 2-0 entering the bottom of the ninth before Haas hits a two-run home run to tie the game. Bing Miller then has a walk-off double to drive in Simmons and win the series.

1930 WORLD SERIES

The Athletics win back-to-back World Series for the second time, defeating St. Louis four games to two. The pitching staff allows 12 runs in the six-game series for a 1.73 ERA. George Earnshaw goes 2-0 with a 0.72 ERA in three starts and Lefty Grove picks up the other two wins, posting a 1.42 ERA in three games, two starts. Offensively, the A's hit just .197 but add six home runs. Al Simmons hits .364 with two home runs and Jimmie Foxx bats .333. Mickey Cochrane adds two home runs and Jimmy Dykes drives in a team-best five runs.

Grove tosses a complete game in Game 1, a 5-2 A's win at Philadelphia. The A's are held to just five hits in the game, including a pair of solo home runs by Simmons and Cochrane. Earnshaw fires a six-hitter in the A's 6-1 win in Game 2. Simmons has two hits and Cochrane homers again, a solo shot in the first inning. The Cardinals win Game 3 in St. Louis as Bill Hallahan shuts out the A's on seven hits in a 5-0 win. Jesse Haines four-hits the A's in a 3-1 loss in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. Earnshaw and Grove then combine on a three-hit shutout in a 2-0 win in Game 5. Foxx hits a two-run home run in the ninth inning to account for all the scoring. The series returned to Philadelphia for Game 6 and the A's win their fifth and final World Championship in Philadelphia with a 7-1 victory. Earnshaw tosses a complete-game five-hitter and Dykes and Simmons both homer.

1931 WORLD SERIES

The A's and Cardinals meet in the World Series for the second consecutive season but the A's lose in seven games. The pitching staff posts a 2.66 ERA, including 1.88 by George Earnshaw and 2.42 by Lefty Grove, who picks up two of the A's three wins. Earnshaw and Grove both start three games each. The offense hits .220 and scores 22 runs in the seven-game series. Jimmie Foxx hits .348 and Al Simmons bats .333 with two of the A's three home runs and eight RBI.

The series opens in St. Louis and the A's take a 1-0 lead with a 6-2 win in Game 1. Grove goes the distance, allowing 12 hits, and Simmons drives in three runs, including a two-run home run in the seventh. Bill Hallahan tosses a three-hit shutout as the A's lose Game 2, 2-0. The A's then fall behind in the series with a 5-2 loss in Game 3 at Philadelphia. Burleigh Grimes no hits the A's over the first seven innings before Bing Miller singles in the eighth. Al Simmons hits a two-run home run in the ninth for the A's only runs. The A's even the series at two games each with a 3-0 win in Game 4. Earnshaw tosses a two-hit shutout and Foxx hits a solo home run in the sixth. St. Louis wins the final game in Philadelphia, 5-1, but the A's win Game 6 at St. Louis, 8-1 to force a seventh game. In the final game, Grimes again shuts down the A's in a 4-2 win. He does not allow a run over the first eight innings before yielding a pinch hit two-run single to Doc Cramer with two outs in the ninth. Max Bishop comes to the plate as the potential winning run but Hallahan relieves Grimes and gets Bishop to fly out to end the series.

1971 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

In their first trip to the ALCS, the Oakland A's ran into the defending World Champion Baltimore Orioles, losing in three straight games. Touted A's pitchers Vida Blue and Jim "Catfish" Hunter ran into problems during the series, leading to the A's downfall. Offensively, the A's got solid performances out of third baseman Sal Bando and right fielder Reggie Jackson, who hit .364 and .333 respectively.

In Game 1, Vida Blue took a 3-1 lead into the bottom of the seventh before allowing a RBI single to Mark Belanger, a RBI double by Curt Motton and a two-run double by Paul Blair. ALCS MVP Mike Cuellar tossed a complete game six-hitter to defeat the A's in Game 2. Jim Hunter also went the distance for the A's, allowing seven hits, including four home runs. In Game 3, Reggie Jackson homered twice and Sal Bando once but that was the A's only scoring as Jim Palmer tossed a complete game seven-hitter.

1972 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Forty-one years after the Philadelphia Athletics won the American League Pennant, the Oakland A's recorded the organization's next pennant with a hard fought three games to two triumph over Detroit. It was the first time in the four-year history of the ALCS that the playoffs had gone more than three games. The A's used superb pitching, scoring just a total of 13 runs in the five games, but allowing only 10. The series also saw a near brawl between Tigers manager Billy Martin and A's shortstop Campy Campaneris, who threw his bat at Tiger hurler Lerrin LaGrow after being hit by a pitch.

In Game 1, the Tigers scored a run in the top of the 11th inning on an Al Kaline home run to take a 2-1 lead but Gonzalo Marquez tied the game in the bottom of the inning on a pinch-hit RBI single. A Kaline throwing error on the play allowed Gene Tenace to score the winning run. ALCS MVP Blue Moon Odom tossed a three-hit shutout in a 5-0 A's win in Game 2. Campaneris had three hits, two runs and two steals but was suspended for the remainder of the playoffs by American League President Joe Cronin after the bat throwing incident. Joe Coleman blanked the A's 3-0 on seven hits in Game 3 and the Tigers won 4-3 in 10 innings in Game 4. The A's scored two runs in the top of the 10th for a 3-1 lead but the Tigers scored three times in the bottom of the 10th, including the game-winning single by Jim Northrup. In Game 5, Vida Blue pitched four innings of shutout relief to pick up the save for Odom. Gene Tenace's two-out RBI single in the fourth inning scored George Hendrick with the winning run.

1972 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their first World Championship in Oakland, the first for the Athletics franchise since 1930, defeating Cincinnati, four games to three. Six of the seven games are decided by one run and Gene Tenace picks up the offensive slack for Reggie Jackson who misses the entire series after pulling a hamstring in the ALCS. Tenace hits .348 with four home runs and nine RBI in the seven games to earn World Series MVP honors.

Tenace homered in his first two at bats of the series, hitting a two-run homer in the second and a solo shot in the fifth to lead the A's to a 3-2 win in Game 1. Catfish Hunter tossed 8 2/3 innings of six-hit, one-run baseball in Game 2 before yielding to Rollie Fingers who got the final out in the A's 2-1 win. Joe Rudi homered and made a spectacular catch off the bat of Denis Menke in the ninth. After a rainout in Oakland, the Reds won Game 3, 1-0 on a combined three-hitter by Jack Billingham and Clay Carroll. In Game 4, the A's trailed 2-1 entering the bottom of the ninth before scoring twice on pinch hit RBI singles by Don Mincher and Angel Mangual to take a 3-1 lead in the series. The Reds scored once in the eighth and once in the ninth off Rollie Fingers to win Game 5, 5-4 and then won 8-1 in Game 6 to even the series at three games each. In Game 7, the score was tied at one after five innings when Tenace delivered a RBI double to give the A's the lead. Sal Bando followed with a RBI double and Rollie Fingers pitched two scoreless innings for the save.

The A's win their second consecutive American League Pennant, defeating Baltimore three games to two. It was the second consecutive year that the ALCS had gone the maximum five games after having been decided in three games each year previously. In a rematch of the 1971 ALCS, it was pitching again that was the key, this time for the A's. Five of the six A's pitchers had ERAs under 2.00 for the series.

Jim Palmer tossed a five-hit shutout to defeat the A's 6-0 in Game 1 but the A's evened the series with a 6-3 win in Game 2. Sal Bando homered twice off Dave McNally and Campy Campaneris and Joe Rudi also homered for the A's. The A's won Game 3, 2-1 in 11 innings as both Ken Holtzman and Mike Cuellar went the distance. Holtzman allowed just three hits and Cuellar had allowed just three before Campaneris homered to lead off the bottom of the 11th. The A's appeared to have the series locked up in Game 4 as they had a 4-0 lead after six innings. Baltimore then scored four times off Vida Blue in the seventh and once off losing pitcher Rollie Fingers in the eighth for a 5-4 win. ALCS MVP Catfish Hunter then tossed a five-hit shutout in Game 5 as the A's won 3-0 to clinch the series.

1973 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive World Championship, winning Games 6 and 7 to defeat the New York Mets, four games to three. Reggie Jackson was named MVP of the series after hitting .310 with a home run and six RBI and Ken Holtzman was the winning pitcher in two of the A's four victories. The series also featured the "firing" of Mike Andrews by A's owner Charlie Finley after his two 12th-inning errors in Game 2 helped the Mets to a 10-7 win. Andrews did make another appearance in the series, grounding out as a pinch hitter in Game 4.

Holtzman picks up the win in the A's 2-1 victory in Game 1. The A's collect just three hits off Mets starter Jon Matlack but all come in the third inning as Holtzman doubles and scores on an error and Joe Rudi has a RBI single. The Mets score four runs off Rollie Fingers in the 12th inning of Game 2 to defeat the A's 10-7, but only one run was earned as Andrews committed two errors. Game 3 went 11 innings but the A's won 3-2 on a RBI single by Campy Campaneris in the top of the 11th. The A's lost Game 4, 6-1 as Rusty Staub was a perfect 4-for-4 to even the series at two games apiece. Jerry Koosman and Tug McGraw then combined to three-hit the A's in a 2-0 win in Game 5 but the A's came back to win the final two games in Oakland. In Game 6, Reggie Jackson doubled twice, singled and drove in two runs in the A's 3-1 victory. The A's had gone the entire series without a home run before Campaneris hit a two-run home run in the third inning in Game 2. Jackson added a two-run homer later in the inning and Darold Knowles retired Wayne Garrett with runners on first and third in the ninth to save the A's 5-2 win.

1974 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's and Orioles square off in the American League Championship Series for the third time in the last four years and the A's win their third straight American League Pennant, defeating the Orioles three games to one. Pitching was the key as Vida Blue, Ken Holtzman and Blue Moon Odom combined for 21.1 innings of scoreless pitching. Ray Fosse paced the A's offense with a .333 batting average, one home run and three RBI.

The A's lose Game 1 of the series, 6-3 as Paul Blair, Brooks Robinson and Bobby Grich all homer off A's starter Catfish Hunter. Ken Holtzman gets the A's back on track in Game 2 with a five-hit shutout in the A's 5-0 win and Ray Fosse adds three hits and three RBI. Game 3 is a pitchers duel between ALCS MVP Vida Blue and Jim Palmer and Blue comes out on the winning end when Sal Bando hits a solo home run in the fourth inning for the only run of the game. Palmer would allow just three other hits but Blue allowed just two and did not walk a batter. Jim Hunter tosses seven scoreless innings in Game 5 and A's pitchers extend their scoreless streak to 30 innings before Rollie Fingers allows a run in the ninth in the A's 2-1 win. The A's collect just one hit but walk 11 times.

1974 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their third consecutive World Championship to become the first team to win at least three straight since the New York Yankees won five straight, 1949-53. The A's defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers in five games in a series where four of the five games were decided by a 3-2 score. Bert Campaneris hit .353 in the series and Joe Rudi topped the A's with four RBI. World Series MVP Rollie Fingers had a win and two saves while posting a 1.93 ERA and the A's used just five pitchers the entire series.

The A's open the series with a 3-2 win as Rollie Fingers pitched 4.1 innings of relief for the win before Catfish Hunter comes on to strike out Joe Ferguson in the bottom of the ninth with the tying run at first base. The Dodgers even the series with a 3-2 win in Game 2 as Don Sutton shuts out the A's on four hits over the first eight innings. Joe Rudi has a two-run single in the ninth but the A's rally falls short. Hunter starts Game 3 and kept the Dodgers off the board over the first seven innings in a 3-2 win. Ken Holtzman is the winning pitcher in the A's 5-2 win in Game 4 and he also contributes to the A's offense with a solo home run in the third inning. The A's trailed 2-1 entering the bottom of the sixth but score four times, highlighted by Jim Holt's two-run pinch hit single. Rollie Fingers clinches his series MVP honors by pitching two scoreless innings for the save in the A's 3-2 win in Game 5. Joe Rudi homers to lead off the seventh inning to break a 2-2 tie.

1975 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's streak of three consecutive American League Pennants is snapped by Boston as the Red Sox sweep the A's in three games. After posting a team ERA under 3.00 in each of the previous three ALCS wins, the A's team ERA in 1975 ballooned to 4.32. Sal Bando paced the A's offense with a .500 batting average and Reggie Jackson drove in three of the seven runs the A's scored in the series.

Luis Tiant pitched a three-hitter in Boston's 7-1 win in Game 1 at Fenway Park. Three A's errors led to two runs in the first inning but the A's still trailed just 2-0 before Boston scored five in the seventh. The A's took a 3-0 lead in Game 2, highlighted by a Reggie Jackson two-run home run in the first inning but Boston tied the game with three in the fourth off Vida Blue. Rollie Fingers then allowed three runs in four innings as the A's lost 6-3. The series moved to Oakland for Game 3 but the Red Sox built a 4-0 lead in a 5-3 win. The A's started their Game 1 starter, Ken Holtzman, and he allowed four runs in 4 2/3 innings.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's sweep a three-game series from Kansas City in baseball's first ever Division Series, pitting first and second half winners in each division in a season interrupted by a strike. The A's pitching staff allows just two runs in the entire series and the offense is paced by Dwayne Murphy who is 6-for-11 in the three-game series.

Mike Norris tosses a four-hit shutout in Game 1, a 4-0 A's victory at Kansas City. Wayne Gross hit a three-run home run in the fourth inning. The A's get their second consecutive complete game in Game 2 as Steve McCatty pitches a six-hitter in the A's 2-1 win. Tony Armas had a RBI double in the first inning, and after the Royals tied the game in the fifth, Armas added a RBI double in the eighth for the win. The A's complete the sweep with a 4-1 win in Oakland in Game 3. Armas had a RBI single in the first and three Kansas City errors led to a run in the third. After the Royals scored a run in the fourth, Dave McKay homered and Dwayne Murphy had a RBI single in the bottom of the inning.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's are swept by the New York Yankees in three games in their first ALCS appearance in seven years. The A's are outscored 20-4 in the three-game set, compiling a .222 batting average while allowing a 6.84 ERA. Rickey Henderson provides most of the offense as he is 4-for-11 with two doubles, a triple, an RBI and two stolen bases.

The Yankees score three times in the first inning off A's starter Mike Norris in Game 1 en route to a 3-1 victory. Dwayne Murphy drives in Rob Picciolo with the A's lone run in the first inning. The A's take a 3-1 lead in Game 2 before New York scores seven times in the bottom of the fourth inning to take an 8-3 lead. Steve McCatty takes the loss, allowing five runs on six hits in 3 1/3 innings and all five A's pitchers allow at least one run. The Yankees then clinch the series with a 4-0 victory in Game 3 as Dave Righetti, Ron Davis and Rich Gossage combine to blank the A's on five hits.

1988 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's sweep the Boston Red Sox in four games to win their first American League pennant in 14 years. The A's hit .299 in the series and the pitching staff posts a 2.00 ERA while holding the Red Sox to a .206 batting average. Dennis Eckersley was named ALCS MVP after saving all four games and the bullpen recorded three of the wins. Dave Henderson hit .375 and Jose Canseco hit three of the A's seven home runs.

Jose Canseco homers in the fourth inning of Game 1 but Dave Henderson provides the game-winning single in the eighth inning in the A's 2-1 victory. Game 2 is a scoreless tie until the Red Sox score twice in the sixth off Storm Davis but Jose Canseco hit a two-run home run and Mark McGwire added a RBI single in the seventh to give the A's a 3-2 lead. After the Red Sox tie the game, Walt Weiss has the game-winning RBI single in the ninth. The A's outscore the Red Sox 10-6 in Game 3 as Carney Lansford, McGwire and Ron Hassey have three hits each while Hassey drives in three runs. The A's clinch the series with a 4-1 win in Game 4 as Dave Stewart allows one run in seven innings for the win. Jose Canseco homered in the first and Dave Henderson had an RBI single in the third before the A's score two insurance runs in the eighth.

The A's return to the World Series for the first time in 14 years when they also met the Dodgers. After winning the series in five games in 1974, the A's lose to the Dodgers in five games in 1988. The A's hit just .177 in the series and are outscored 21-11 in the five games. Jose Canseco collects just one hit in the series but leads the A's with five RBI. Storm Davis loses twice and posts an 11.25 ERA.

Canseco hits a grand slam in the second inning of Game 1 to give the A's a 4-2 lead before Kirk Gibson hits a pinch-hit, two-out, two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth to lift the Dodgers to a 5-4 win. Orel Hershiser shuts out the A's on three hits in a 6-0 Los Angeles win in Game 2. Davis allows six runs in 3.1 innings and Dave Parker has all three of the A's hits. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and the A's get their only win of the series when Mark McGwire breaks a 1-1 tie with a one-out home run in the bottom of the ninth. The Dodgers score two runs in the first inning of Game 4 and lead the rest of the way in a 4-3 win. Dave Henderson collects four hits. Hershiser clinches World Series MVP honors by tossing a four-hitter in Game 5 to defeat the A's 5-2.

1989 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive American League Pennant by defeating Toronto, four games to one. Rickey Henderson runs away with ALCS MVP honors, batting .400 with eight runs scored, two home runs, five RBI and eight stolen bases in the five game series. Dave Parker also homers twice, Dave Stewart wins both of his starts and Dennis Eckersley saves three of the A's four wins.

The A's win Game 1 by a 7-3 score, but were trailing 3-2 entering the sixth. Mark McGwire ties the game with a solo home run and Henderson breaks up a double play that leads to two more runs. Stewart and Eckersley do not allow a hit after a fourth inning home run by Ernie Whitt. Henderson goes 2-for-2 with two walks, two runs and four steals to lead the A's to a 6-3 win in Game 2 as Mike Moore allows just one unearned run in seven innings for the win. The series moves to Toronto for Game 3 and the Blue Jays record a 7-3 win, scoring six runs off Storm Davis after the A's build a 3-0 lead. Jose Canseco hits a home run into the fifth deck at Skydome to highlight the A's 6-5 win in Game 4. Henderson hits two home runs and also drives in four runs. The A's then clinch the series with a 4-3 win in Game 5, building a 4-0 lead before holding on as the Blue Jays score two in the eighth and three in the ninth. Stewart picks up the win and the A's offense collects just four hits.

1989 WORLD SERIES

Oakland sweeps San Francisco for the A's first World Championship in 15 years in a series halted 12 days after an earthquake struck just prior to Game 3. The A's outscore the Giants 32-14 in the four-game set, hitting nine home runs and batting .301. Dave Stewart earns series MVP honors with two wins and a 1.69 ERA, Mike Moore wins the other two games and Rickey Henderson hits .474.

Stewart tosses a five-hit shutout in Game 1 as the A's win 5-0 in Oakland. The A's score three times in the second and Dave Parker and Walt Weiss hit solo home runs in the third and fourth innings. Moore and the A's bullpen hold the Giants to one run in a 5-1 victory in Game 2. With the score tied 1-1 after three innings, the A's break the game open with a four-run fourth, highlighted by Terry Steinbach's three-run homer. The series moves to San Francisco for Game 3 and the A's outslug the Giants 13-7. Dave Henderson homers twice and Tony Phillips, Jose Canseco and Carney Lansford also homer as the A's tie a series record with five home runs. Moore picks up the win in the A's 9-6 win in Game 4 and also adds a two-run double. Rickey Henderson homers and collects three hits as the A's lead 8-0 entering the bottom of the sixth.

1990 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's sweep Boston in the American League Championship Series for the second time in the last three years and become the first team since the 1976-78 New York Yankees to win three straight pennants. The A's pitching staff held the Red Sox to four runs, one in each game, while the offense hit .299 with no home runs. Dave Stewart picked up two wins and posted a 1.13 ERA to earn ALCS MVP honors and Terry Steinbach (.455), Carney Lansford (.438) and Mike Gallego (.400) all hit .400.

Dave Stewart and Roger Clemens engaged in a pitchers duel in Game 1 and when Clemens left after six innings, the A's trailed 1-0. The A's then scored nine runs off the Sox bullpen, including seven in the ninth, to win 9-1. Rickey Henderson had three RBI, Lansford and Steinbach had three hits each and Stewart allows one run in eight innings. Boston again took a 1-0 lead in Game 2, but the A's scored four unanswered runs this time, tying the game on a Harold Baines RBI single in the fourth and taking the lead on a Baines ground out in the seventh. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and starts in a familiar way as Boston scores a run in the second before the A's score twice in the fourth and sixth innings to win 4-1. The A's finally score first in Game 4, scoring three times in the second highlighted by a two-run double by Mike Gallego. Dave Stewart pitches eight scoreless innings before allowing a run in the ninth and Rick Honeycutt gets the final three outs for the save in the A's 3-1 win.

1990 WORLD SERIES

The A's are swept by Cincinnati in the World Series, the fourth sweep in which the A's were involved in six postseason series from 1988-90. The Reds outscore the A's 22-8, shutting out Oakland in Game 1 and holding the A's to one run in Game 4. The A's hit .207 as a team led by Rickey Henderson (.333). Dave Stewart posts a 2.77 ERA but loses twice.

Former Athletic Jose Rijo shuts out the A's in Game 1 at Cincinnati, 7-0. He combines with Rob Dibble and Randy Myers on a nine-hit shutout as the A's strand 11. Dave Stewart takes the loss, allowing four runs on three hits and four walks in four innings. The A's lose 5-4 in 10 innings in Game 2 as Dennis Eckersley allows three consecutive hits, including the game winning RBI single to Joe Oliver. Jose Canseco's solo home run highlights the A's three-run third which puts Oakland ahead 4-2 but the Reds score one in the fourth and one in the eighth to tie game. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 but the Reds win 8-2, scoring seven times in the third inning. Mike Moore allows six runs in 2 2/3 innings for the loss and Scott Sanderson allows two more. A Harold Baines two-run home run and a Rickey Henderson solo shot account for the A's scoring. Dave Stewart tosses a complete game in Game 4, but the A's lose 2-1 as Jose Rijo and Randy Myers combine on a two-hitter. Carney Lansford has a RBI single in the first. Stewart shuts out the Reds over the first seven innings before Cincinnati scores two in the eighth on a fielder's choice and a Hal Morris sacrifice fly.

1992 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's return to the ALCS for the fourth time in the last five years, but lose for the first time during that stretch as Toronto wins the series, 4-2. The A's hit .251 as a team led by Harold Baines (.440) and Jerry Browne (.400). Ruben Sierra leads Oakland with seven RBI. Dave Stewart has one of the A's two wins and posts a 2.70 ERA.

The A's open the series with a 4-3 win in Game 1 at Toronto as Harold Baines breaks a 3-3 tie with a ninth inning home run. Oakland scores three in the first on home runs by Mark McGwire and Terry Steinbach but Dave Stewart allows single runs in the fifth, sixth and eighth innings. Toronto comes back to win Game 2, 3-1 as David Cone shuts out the A's over the first eight innings before Baines has a RBI single in the ninth. Mike Moore allows three runs in seven innings for the loss. The Blue Jays win the first game in Oakland, 7-5 as Juan Guzman defeats Ron Darling. The A's collect 13 hits but strand 11 runners. Toronto then goes up 3-1 in the series with a 7-6, 11 inning win in Game 4. The A's score five times in the third and lead 6-1 entering the eighth. The Blue Jays score three times in the eighth and then tie the game on a two-run home run by Roberto Alomar off Dennis Eckersley in the ninth. A Pat Borders sacrifice fly off Kelly Downs in the 11th is the game winner. Dave Stewart keeps the A's alive with a complete game seven hitter as Oakland wins Game 5, 6-2. Jerry Browne provides the offense with four hits and two RBI and Ruben Sierra adds three RBI. The series returns to Toronto for Game 6 and the Blue Jays clinch the AL Pennant with a 9-2 win. Mike Moore takes the loss, allowing six runs on seven hits in 2.2 innings.

2000 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's return to postseason play for the first time since 1992 and take the eventual World Champion New York Yankees to five games before losing the series, 3-2. The A's outscore New York 23-19, thanks to an 11-1 win in Game 4. Oakland hits .263 as a team led by Ramon Hernandez (.375). The pitching staff compiles a 3.48 ERA led by Jim Mecir who tossed 5.1 shutout innings and retired 16 of the 17 hitters he faces.

The A's open the series with a 5-3 win in Oakland as Ramon Hernandez has a RBI double in the sixth inning to break a 3-3 tie. Trailing 2-0 after four innings, the A's score three times in the fifth, beginning with a Hernandez RBI single. Gil Heredia allows three runs in six innings for the win. The Yankees come back to win Game 2 as Andy Pettitte and Mariano Rivera combine to shut out the A's on six hits. The series moves to New York for Game 3 and the Yankees win their second straight with a 4-2 victory. Tim Hudson goes the distance for the A's but Orlando Hernandez and Rivera combine to limit the A's to two runs on four hits, including a Terrence Long home run. Facing elimination in Game 4, Barry Zito allows one run in 5 2/3 innings to pick up the victory in the A's 11-1 win. Olmedo Saenz hits a three-run home run in the first inning and Ben Grieve adds a two-run single in the A's three-run sixth. Oakland adds another run in the eighth and four more in the ninth, including a two-run double by Eric Chavez. The series returns to Oakland for Game 5 but the Yankees score six times in the first inning off Gil Heredia for a 7-5 win. The A's score twice in the second, once in the third and two more times in the fourth but are shut out on three hits over the final five innings.

2001 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's face New York in the American League Division Series again and lose to the Yankees in five games for the second straight year. The pitching staff compiles a 2.86 ERA, including 0.93 by Tim Hudson. Johnny Damon leads the A's with a .409 batting average and Terrence Long hits two home runs, both in Game 1.

The A's open the series with a 5-3 win for the second consecutive year as Mark Mulder allows one run on seven hits in 6 2/3 innings for the win. Terrence Long becomes the sixth Athletic to homer twice in a postseason game as he leads off the fourth and eighth innings with home runs. Johnny Damon is 4 for 4 with a walk and steals two bases. Tim Hudson combines with Jason Isringhausen for a 2-0, seven-hit shutout in Game 2. Hudson allows six of the hits in eight innings and Ron Gant homers to start the fourth inning. The series returns to Oakland for Game 3 and Mike Mussina and Mariano Rivera combine to shut out the A's on six hits. Jorge Posada homers with one out in the fifth for the only run and Barry Zito takes the loss, despite allowing one run on two hits and one walk in eight innings. Cory Lidle starts Game 4 and allows two unearned runs in the second, two in the third and two of the Yankees three runs in the fourth in a 9-2 loss. Lidle allows six runs on five hits and three walks in 3 1/3 innings. Miguel Tejada has four hits and Jermaine Dye breaks his leg after fouling off a pitch in the third inning. The series returns to Yankee Stadium for Game 5 and New York completes its comeback with a 5-3 win. RBI singles by Jason and Jeremy Giambi in the first and second innings give the A's a 2-0 lead but New York scores two in the second and unearned runs in the third and fourth off Mulder to take the lead for good. Mulder allows four runs on seven hits in 4 1/3 innings for the loss.

2002 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's reach the postseason for the third consecutive season, facing Minnesota in the ALDS. However, the A's lose in five games for the third straight year. The A's hit .288 in the series, scoring 26 runs in the five games. Scott Hatteberg leads the A's with a .500 batting average and Ray Durham hits two home runs. The A's pitching staff allows 27 runs for a 4.09 ERA.

After winning Game 1 in each of the previous two seasons, the A's drop the opener in 2002, 7-5. The A's take a 5-1 lead after two innings but Tim Hudson allows a run in the third and one of the Twins three runs in the sixth. Ted Lilly allows two runs in two-thirds of an inning for the loss and blown save. The A's win Game 2 9-1 as Eric Chavez hits a three-run home run in the first to give Mark Mulder all the runs he would need. Mulder allows a run on five hits in six innings. The series moves to Minnesota for Game 3 and the A's win 6-3 behind Barry Zito. Ray Durham leads off the game with an inside-the-park home run and Scott Hatteberg follows with a home run to mark the first time in postseason history a team has started a game with back-to-back home runs. The Twins even the series at two with an 11-2 win in Game 4. Miguel Tejada hits a two-run home run in the third inning but Tim Hudson allows two in the bottom of the inning before the Twins score seven unearned runs in the fourth to hand Hudson the loss. Minnesota then wins Game 5, 5-4. The Twins take a 2-0 lead before Ray Durham homers in the bottom of the third. The score remains 2-1 until Billy Koch allows three runs in the ninth. Mark Ellis hits a three-run home run in the bottom of the ninth.

2003 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's reach the postseason for the fourth consecutive season, facing Boston in the ALDS. However, the A's lose in five games for the fourth straight year. The A's hit .213 in the series and outscore the Red Sox 18-17. Eric Byrnes leads the A's with a .462 batting average. The A's pitching staff records a 2.98 ERA and Ted Lilly does not allow a run in 9.0 innings.

The A's win Game 1 in 12 innings as Ramon Hernandez has a bases loaded two-out bunt single in the bottom of the 12th for a 5-4 win. Erubiel Durazo sends the game into extra innings with a two-out RBI single in the bottom of the ninth. Oakland takes a 2-0 lead in the series with a 5-1 win in Game 2. The A's score all five of their runs in the second inning, highlighted by a Hernandez RBI single and an Eric Byrnes two-run double. Barry Zito allows one run on five hits in 7.0 innings and strikes out nine for the win. The series moves to Boston for Game 3 and the Sox win 3-1 in 11 innings on a two-run pinch-hit home run by Trot Nixon. The A's trail 1-0 after five innings before tying the game with a run in the sixth inning, an inning in which Byrnes is tagged out when he fails to touch home and Miguel Tejada is tagged out between third and home when he stops after being obstructed. The A's lose Game 4, 5-4, as starting pitcher Tim Hudson is injured after one inning. The A's lead 4-2 entering the bottom of the sixth but Boston scores a run in the sixth and two more in the eighth off Keith Foulke for the win. Barry Zito has a two-hit shutout after five innings in Game 5 but the Red Sox score four times in the sixth inning off him for a 4-3 win.

2006 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's returned to postseason play for the fifth time in seven years and won a postseason series for the first time since the 1990 ALCS by sweeping Minnesota three games to none in the ALDS. They snap a six-series postseason losing streak and a nine-game losing streak in potential postseason clinching games, which was the longest such streak in Major League history. The A's batted .245 in the series and compiled a 2.33 ERA while outscoring the Twins 16-7. Frank Thomas led the A's with a .500 batting average and two home runs and Marco Scutaro topped the club with six RBI.

The A's win Game 1 in Minnesota, 3-2 as Barry Zito allows just one run on four hits in eight innings for the win. Frank Thomas homers and Marco Scutaro adds a RBI double in the second inning and Zito takes a two-hit shutout into the seventh inning before allowing a home run to Rondell White. Thomas homers again in the ninth inning for an important insurance run as Huston Street allows a run in the bottom of the ninth but gets the save. The A's win Game 2 by a 5-2 score. Oakland scores twice in the fifth inning on a Scutaro RBI double and a Jason Kendall RBI single, but Esteban Loaiza allows back-to-back home runs to Michael Cuddyer and Justin Morneau in the sixth inning. Mark Kotsay then hits a two-run inside-the-park home run in the seventh inning to give the A's the lead for good. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and the A's complete the sweep with an 8-3 win. Scutaro doubles twice and has four RBI and Milton Bradley and Eric Chavez homer. Dan Haren allows two runs in six innings for the win.

2006 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's return to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1992 and the 11th time overall, but are swept in four games by Detroit. The A's hit .221 in the series and score just nine runs in the four games. Milton Bradley drives in five of those runs and homers twice while batting a team leading .500. The A's pitching staff allows 22 runs for a 5.71 ERA.

The A's lose Game 1 in Oakland by a score of 5-1. Barry Zito takes the loss, allowing five runs on seven hits in 3 2/3 innings, but the A's bullpen blanks the Tigers the rest of the way. The A's are limited to a run on eight hits by four Detroit pitchers. Milton Bradley homers from both sides of the plate and is 4-for-5 with four RBI in Game 2 but the A's lose, 8-5. Esteban Loaiza allows seven runs on nine hits in six innings for the loss. The series moves to Detroit for Game 3 and Kenny Rogers and the Tigers bullpen shut out the A's on two hits, 3-0. Jason Kendall singles to start the game and Marco Scutaro has a one-out single in the fifth for the A's only hits. Rich Harden takes the loss, allowing three runs on five hits and five walks in 5 2/3 innings. The Tigers complete the sweep in Game 4 with a 6-3 win. Milton Bradley and Eric Chavez have RBI doubles in the first inning to give the A's a 2-0 lead and Jay Payton adds a solo home run in the fourth inning to make the score 3-0. Dan Haren shuts out Detroit on two hits over the first four innings before allowing two runs in the fifth and one in the sixth. The game remains tied at three entering the bottom of the ninth when Huston Street allows a two-out three-run home run to Magglio Ordonez for the loss.

2012 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's lose to the Detroit Tigers three games to two in their first postseason appearance in six years. It was the A's sixth ALDS appearance in the last 13 years and their fifth loss, with all the losses going the full five games. The A's pitching staff compiled a 2.89 ERA and walked just seven batters in the five-game series, but the offense hit just .194 and scored 11 runs in the five games. Yoenis Céspedes hit safely in all five games and paced the A's offense with a .316 batting average.

The A's lose Game 1 in Detroit, 3-1. Coco Crisp leads off the game with a home run but that is the only run Justin Verlander would allow in seven innings. Jarrod Parker allows a run in the first on a double play, an unearned run in the third and an Alex Avila home run in the fifth. The A's fall behind two games to zero with a 5-4 loss in Game 2. Cliff Pennington breaks a 1-1 tie with a RBI single in the seventh but Sean Doolittle allows two unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh to put Detroit ahead 3-2. The A's then score twice in the eighth when Céspedes scores on a wild pitch and Josh Reddick homers, but the Tigers tie the game in the eighth and win it on a Don Kelly sacrifice fly off Grant Balfour in the ninth. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 where Brett Anderson combines with three A's relievers on a four-hit, 2-0 shutout. Céspedes has a RBI single in the first and Seth Smith homers in the fifth. In Game 4, the A's trail 3-1 entering the bottom of the ninth before scoring three times to send the series to a fifth game. Smith ties the game with a two-run double and scores two outs later on a Crisp RBI single. The A's then lose Game 5 in Oakland 6-0 as Verlander tosses a four-hit shutout. Parker makes his second start of the series and loses for the second time, allowing four runs on seven hits in 6.1 innings.

2013 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's face Detroit in the ALDS for the second consecutive year and lose three games to two for the second consecutive year. Oakland won two of the first three games but then lost two straight to fall to 1-12 in potential clinch games since 2000, including 0-6 in Game 5's. The A's pitching staff compiled a 3.48 ERA and held the Tigers to a .235 batting average, but the offense hit just .217 and struck out 57 times in the five games. Yoenis Céspedes hit safely in all five games and Coco Crisp batted .389.

The A's lose Game 1 in Oakland, 3-2. Bartolo Colón allows three runs in the first inning but those were the only runs he would allow in six innings of work. Max Scherzer blanks the A's on one hit over the first six innings before Céspedes hits a two-run home run in the seventh for the A's only runs of the game. Oakland evens the series at 1-1 when Sonny Gray and Grant Balfour combine on a four-hit, 1-0 shutout in Game 2. Gray tosses eight innings and allows all four of the hits. Justin Verlander tosses seven shutout innings for the Tigers before Stephen Vogt wins the game with a walk-off RBI single off Rick Porcello in the bottom of the ninth. The series moves to Detroit for Game 3, which the A's win, 6-3. Jarrod Parker has a 3-0 lead when he allows three runs in the bottom of the fourth, but the A's take the lead for good when Brandon Moss homers with one out in the fifth. Josh Reddick and Seth Smith also homer in the game. The A's lose Game 4 by an 8-6 margin. Dan Straily had a 3-0 lead before allowing a three-run home run to Jhonny Peralta in the bottom of the fifth. Coco Crisp delivered a RBI single in the seventh to give the A's a 4-3 lead but Sean Doolittle allowed two runs in the bottom of the inning for the blown save. The A's load the bases with no outs in the eighth but are unable to score and the Tigers score three times in the bottom of the eighth to put the game away. The series concludes in Oakland when Verlander and Joaquin Benoit combine on a three-hit shutout in a 3-0 A's loss. Sonny Gray makes his second start of the series and allows three runs in five innings for the loss.

2014 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's travel to Kansas City in their first appearance in the American League Wild Card one-game playoff and lose to the Royals in 12 innings by a score of 9-8. Brandon Moss hits a two-run home run in the first inning and a three-run home run in the A's five-run sixth inning to set an Athletics postseason record with five RBI. The A's take a 7-3 lead into the eighth inning, but the Royals score three times off Jon Lester to pull to within one. Sean Doolittle allows a run in the ninth for the blown save but Alberto Callaspo has a pinch hit RBI single in the 12th to give the A's the lead. The bullpen then allows two runs in the bottom of the 12th, capped by a two-out RBI single by Salvador Pérez. The Royals steal seven bases, including six over the final four innings.

2018 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's face New York in the American League Wild Card game and lose at Yankee Stadium by a score of 7-2. Liam Hendriks is the A's "opener" and allows a two-run home run to Aaron Judge in the bottom of the first inning for the loss. Lou Trivino comes on to pitch the second inning and tosses 3.0 scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and walking one. Shawn Kelley pitches a scoreless fifth to keep the A's close but New York scores four times in the sixth inning off Fernando Rodney and Blake Treinen to put the game away. Khris Davis hits a two-run home run in the eighth to account for the A's scoring. Oakland is held to five hits by five Yankees pitchers, but also draws five walks and leaves nine runners on base.

2019 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's host Tampa Bay in the American League Wild Card game and lose by a score of 5-1. Sean Manaea starts for the A's and allows a home run to Yandy Díaz to start the game. He also surrenders a two-run home run to Avisail García in the second inning and a solo home run to Díaz in the third and is relieved by Yusmeiro Petit with no outs in the third inning and the A's trailing 4-0. Oakland scores its lone run in the bottom of the third when Marcus Semien reaches third on an error by third baseman Mike Brosseau and scores on a Ramón Laureano sacrifice fly. Jesús Luzardo pitches 3.0 scoreless innings of relief to keep the A's close but the Rays bullpen blanks the A's on three hits over the final four innings. Jurickson Profar and Robbie Grossman have two hits each but Oakland does not get a runner into scoring position after the fourth inning.

2020 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD SERIES

The A's returned to the postseason for the third consecutive year and defeated the Chicago White Sox two games to one in the best-of-three American League Wild Card series. The series win was the A's first in the postseason since sweeping Minnesota in the 2006 ALDS. Oakland hit just .194 in the series but out-scored the White Sox 12-11 while compiling a 3.67 ERA. Rookie catcher Sean Murphy went 3-for-8 with a home run and two RBI and Jake Diekman pitched in all three games without allowing a run.

Chicago starter Lucas Giolito retired each of the first 18 Oakland batters in Game 1 en route to a 4-1 win, which extended the A's postseason losing streak to an Athletics record-tying six games. Jesús Luzardo started for Oakland and took the loss, allowing three runs on six hits in 3.1 innings. The A's evened the series with a 5-3 victory in Game 2 after Chris Bassitt allowed just one run in seven innings of work for the win. Oakland scored two unearned runs in the first inning and increased their lead to 4-0 when Marcus Semien hit a two-run home run in the second. Closer Liam Hendriks came in with no outs in the eighth and allowed two runs in 1.2 innings before Diekman recorded the final out with the bases loaded in the ninth. The A's then snapped their Major League record nine-game losing streak in winner-take-all postseason games with a 6-4 victory in Game 3. Oakland trailed 3-0 after three innings but then scored four times in the fourth on a two-run home run by Murphy and back-to-back bases loaded walks by Mark Canha and Matt Olson. Chad Pinder added a pinch hit two-run single in the fifth, Frankie Montas allowed a run in 2.0 innings of relief for the win, and Hendriks struck out the final three batters for the save.

2020 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's faced division rival Houston in their first neutral-site postseason series at Dodger Stadium, but lost the American League Division Series three games to one. Each team hit 12 home runs in the four-game series as the A's set franchise record for home runs hit and home runs allowed in a postseason series. The pitching staff compiled a 7.46 ERA, which was the A's highest in a postseason series of more than one game. Marcus Semien hit .533 and had a .611 on-base percentage, which set an Athletics record for highest on-base percentage in a single postseason series.

The A's took a 3-0 lead in Game 1 on a two-run home run by Khris Davis in the second inning and a solo home run by Sean Murphy in the third but would go on to lose 10-5. Oakland starter Chris Bassitt allowed three runs in the fourth and J.B. Wendelken was charged with the blown save and loss when he surrendered four unearned runs in the fifth. The A's again scored first in Game 2 on a solo home run by Davis but Sean Manaea allowed four runs in 4.1 innings in the A's 5-2 loss. Oakland's lone win came in Game 3 when they tied an Athletics postseason record with five home runs en route to a 9-7 win. The A's took a 4-2 lead into the bottom of the fifth but the Astros scored five times, including twice off Oakland starter Sean Manaea. Chad Pinder then hit a three-run home run in the seventh inning and added a sacrifice fly in the eighth, and Liam Hendriks closed out the game with three scoreless innings of relief for the win. For the fourth time in the series, the A's scored first in Game 4 but would go on to lose, 11-6. Ramón Laureano hit a three-run home run in the second and added a solo shot in the fifth, but Houston scored five times in the fourth off Oakland starter Frankie Montas, and twice each in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings.

DURING THE SPRING

The A's and Giants began playing Spring Training games in the Bay Area in 1983 and have played at least one game in Oakland and San Francisco every year except for 2000. Oakland is 49-43-2 (.532) in those games, which includes 21-16 (.568) in the Coliseum, 16-20-2 (.447) at Oracle Park and 12-7 (.632) at Candlestick Park. The A's have won 17 series, lost 14 and split six. For the last 16 years, the two clubs have played once in Oakland and twice in San Francisco, with the exception of 2014 when the game in Oakland was rained out, and 2020 when there was just one game in each city due to Covid-19. There have been four three-game sweeps, with the A's winning all three meetings in 1989 and 2019 and the Giants taking all three in 2011 and 2017.
