HISTORY OF STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMATS

1917-18 — The regular season is split into two halves. The winners of both halves face each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship and the right to meet the Pacific Coast Hockey Association (PCHA) champion in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1918-19 — Same as 1917-18, except that the NHL Final is extended to a best-of-seven series.

1919-20 — Same as 1917-18, except that the Ottawa Senators (1917) win both halves of their split regular-season schedule to earn an automatic berth in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final against the PCHA champions.

1922-23 — The top two teams at the conclusion of the regular season face each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship. The NHL champion then moves on to play the PCHA champion in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Semifinal, and the winner of the Semifinal plays the WCHL champion, who had been given a bye, in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Final.

1923-24 — The top two teams at the conclusion of the regular season face each other in a two-game, total-goals series for the NHL championship. The NHL champion then moves on to play the loser of the PCHA-WCHL playoff (the winner of the PCHA-WCHL playoff earns a bye into the Stanley Cup Final) in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Semifinal. The winner of this series meets the PCHA-WCHL playoff winner in the best-of-three Stanley Cup Final.

1924-25 — The first-place team (Hamilton Tigers) at the conclusion of the regular season is scheduled to play the winner of a two-game, total-goals series between the second- (Toronto St. Patricks) and third- (Montreal Canadiens) place teams. However, Hamilton refuses to abide by this new format, demanding greater compensation than offered by the League. Thus, Toronto and Montreal play their two-game, total-goals series, and the winner (Montreal) earns the NHL title and then plays the WCHL champion (Victoria Cougars) in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1925-26 — The format that was intended for 1924-25 goes into effect. The winner of the two-game, total-goals series between the second- and third-place teams faces off against the first-place team in the two-game, total-goals NHL championship series. The NHL champion then moves on to play the Western Hockey League champion in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final. After the 1925-26 season, the NHL becomes the only major professional hockey league still in existence and consequently takes over sole control of the Stanley Cup competition.

1926-27 — The 10-team league is divided into two divisions – Canadian and American – of five teams apiece. In each division, the winner of the two-game, total-goals series between the second- and third-place teams faces the first-place team in a two-game, total-goals series for the division title. The two division title winners then meet in the best-of-five Stanley Cup Final.

1928-29 — The first-place teams in the two divisions play each other in a best-of-five series. The second-place teams in the two divisions play each other in a two-game, total-goals series – as do the two third-place teams. The winners of these latter two series then play each other in a best-of-three series for the right to meet the winner of the series between the two first-place teams. This Stanley Cup Final is a best-of-three.

Series A: Team #1 in Canadian Division vs. Team #1 in American Division (best-of-five)

Series B: Team #2 in Canadian Division vs. Team #2 in American Division (two-game, total-goals)

Series C: Team #3 in Canadian Division vs. Team #3 in American Division (two-game, total-goals)

Series D: Winner of Series B vs. Winner of Series C (best-of-three)

Series E: Winner of Series A vs. Winner of Series D (best-of-three) for Stanley Cup

1930-31 — Same as 1928-29, except that Series D is changed to a two-game, total-goals format and Series E is changed to best-of-five.

1936-37 — Same as 1931-32, except that Series B, C and D are each best-of-three.

1938-39 — With the NHL reduced to seven teams, the two-division system is replaced by one seven-team League. Based on final regular-season standings, the following playoff format is adopted:

Series A: Team #1 vs. Team #2 (best-of-seven)
Series B: Team #3 vs. Team #4 (best-of-three)
Series C: Team #5 vs. Team #6 (best-of-three)
Series D: Winner of Series B vs. Winner of Series C (best-of-three) Series E: Winner of Series A vs. Winner of Series D (best-of-seven)

1942-43 — With the NHL reduced to six teams (the “Original Six”), only the top four finishers qualify for playoff action. The best-of-seven Semifinals pits Team #1 vs. Team #3 and Team #2 vs. Team #4. The winners of each Semifinal series meet in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup Final.

1967-68 — When it doubles in size from six to 12 teams, the NHL once again is divided into two divisions – East and West – of six teams apiece. The top four teams in each division qualify for the playoffs (all series are best-of-seven):

Series A: Team #1 (East) vs. Team #3 (East)
Series B: Team #2 (East) vs. Team #4 (East)
Series C: Team #1 (West) vs. Team #3 (West)
Series D: Team #2 (West) vs. Team #4 (West)
Series E: Winner of Series A vs. Winner of Series B
Series F: Winner of Series C vs. Winner of Series D
Series G: Winner of Series E vs. Winner of Series F

1970-71 — Same as 1967-68, except that Series E matches the winners of Series A and D, and Series F matches the winners of Series B and C.

1971-72 — Same as 1970-71, except that Series A and C match the first- and fourth-place teams, and Series B and D match the second- and third-place teams.

1974-75 — With the League now expanded to 18 teams in four divisions, a completely new playoff format is introduced. First, the #2 and #3 teams in each of the four divisions are pooled together in the Preliminary Round. These eight (#2 and #3) teams are ranked #1 to #8 based on regular-season record:

Series A: Team #1 vs. Team #8 (best-of-three)
Series B: Team #2 vs. Team #7 (best-of-three)
Series C: Team #3 vs. Team #6 (best-of-three)
Series D: Team #4 vs. Team #5 (best-of-three)

The winners of this Preliminary Round then are pooled together with the four division winners, who had received byes into this Quarterfinals. These eight teams are again ranked #1 to #8 based on regular-season record:

Series E: Team #1 vs. Team #8 (best-of-seven)
Series F: Team #2 vs. Team #7 (best-of-seven)
Series G: Team #3 vs. Team #6 (best-of-seven)
Series H: Team #4 vs. Team #5 (best-of-seven)

The four Quarterfinals winners, who moved on to the Semifinals, are then ranked #1 to #4 based on regular-season record:

Series I: Team #1 vs. Team #4 (best-of-seven)
Series J: Team #2 vs. Team #3 (best-of-seven)
Series K: Winner of Series I vs. Winner of Series J (best-of-seven)

1977-78 — Same as 1974-75, except that the Preliminary Round consists of the #2 teams in the four divisions and the next four teams based on regular-season record (not their standings within their divisions).

1979-80 — The League expands its playoff structure to include 16 teams. The four first-place teams in the four divisions automatically earn playoff berths. Another 12, according to regular-season record, also earn berths. All 16 teams then are pooled together and ranked #1 to #16 based on regular-season record:

Series A: Team #1 vs. Team #16 (best-of-five)
Series B: Team #2 vs. Team #15 (best-of-five)
Series C: Team #3 vs. Team #14 (best-of-five)
Series D: Team #4 vs. Team #13 (best-of-five)
Series E: Team #5 vs. Team #12 (best-of-five)
Series F: Team #6 vs. Team #11 (best-of-five)
Series G: Team #7 vs. Team #10 (best-of-five)
Series H: Team #8 vs. Team #9 (best-of-five)

The eight Preliminary Round winners, ranked #1 to #8 based on regular-season record, move on to the Quarterfinals:

Series I: Team #1 vs. Team #8 (best-of-seven)
Series J: Team #2 vs. Team #7 (best-of-seven)
Series K: Team #3 vs. Team #6 (best-of-seven)
Series L: Team #4 vs. Team #5 (best-of-seven)

The four Quarterfinals winners, ranked #1 to #4 based on regular-season record, move on to the Semifinals:

Series M: Team #1 vs. Team #4 (best-of-seven)
Series N: Team #2 vs. Team #3 (best-of-seven)
Series O: Winner of Series M vs. winner of Series N (best-of-seven)

1981-82 — The first four teams in each division earn playoff berths. In each division, the first-place team opposes the fourth-place team and the second-place team opposes the third-place team in a best-of-five Division Semifinal (DSF) series. In each division, the two winners of the DSF meet in a best-of-seven Division Final (DF). The two DF winners in each conference meet in a best-of-seven Conference Final (CF). In the Prince of Wales Conference, the Adams Division winner opposes the Patrick Division winner; in the Clarence Campbell Conference, the Smythe Division winner opposes the Norris Division winner. The two CF winners meet in a best-of-seven Stanley Cup Final.

1986-87 — The Division Semifinals changes from best-of-five to best-of-seven.

1993-94 — The NHL's playoff draw is conference-based rather than division-based. At the conclusion of the regular season, the top eight teams in each of the Eastern and Western Conferences qualifies for the playoffs. The teams that finish in first place in each of the League's divisions are seeded first and second in each conference's playoff draw and assured of home-ice advantage in the first two playoff rounds. The remaining teams are seeded based on their regular-season point totals. In each conference, the team seeded #1 plays #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6; and #4 vs. #5. All series are best-of-seven with home ice rotating on a 2-2-1-1-1 basis, with the exception of matchups between Central and Pacific Division teams. These matchups are played on a 2-3-2 basis to reduce travel. In a 2-3-2 series, the team with the most points can choose to start the series at home or on the road. The Eastern Conference champion faces the Western Conference champion in the Stanley Cup Final.

1994-95 — Same as 1993-94, except that in first-, second- or third-round playoff series involving Central and Pacific Division teams, the team with the better record has the choice of using either a 2-3-2 or a 2-2-1-1-1 format. When a 2-3-2 format is selected, the higher-ranked team also has the choice of playing games 1, 2, 6 and 7 at home or playing games 3, 4 and 5 at home. The format for the Stanley Cup Final remains 2-2-1-1-1.

1998-99 — The NHL's teams are realigned into two conferences, each consisting of three divisions. The number of teams qualifying for the Stanley Cup Playoffs remains at 16. First-round playoff berths are awarded to the first-place team in each division as well as to the next five best teams based on regular-season point totals in each conference. The three division winners in each conference are seeded first through third, in order of points, for the playoffs and the next five best teams, in order of points, are seeded fourth through eighth. In each conference, the team seeded #1 plays #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6; and #4 vs. #5 in the Conference Quarterfinals. Home-ice advantage in the Conference Quarterfinals is granted to those teams seeded first through fourth in each conference. In the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals, teams are reseeded according to the same criteria as the Conference Quarterfinals. Higher-seeded teams gain home-ice advantage. Home-ice advantage for the Stanley Cup Final is determined by regular-season points. All series remain best-of-seven.

2013-14 — The NHL's teams are realigned into two conferences, each consisting of two divisions. The number of teams qualifying for the Stanley Cup Playoffs remains unchanged at 16. Twelve first-round playoff berths are awarded to the top three finishers in each of the four divisions. These teams are the first three "seeds" in each division. Two additional "Wild Card" berths are awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of division. The first-place finisher with the highest number of regular-season points in the conference is matched against the Wild Card team with the lowest number of regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-highest number of regular-season points in the conference is matched against the Wild Card team with the second-lowest number of regular-season points.

In each division, the team seeded #1 plays #4; #2 plays #3.

The two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in the Conference Finals.

The Eastern and Western Conference champions meet in the Stanley Cup Final.

Home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup Final is determined by regular-season points.

2019-20 — The NHL announces on May 26, 2020, the conclusion of the 2019-20 regular season as well as a modified competitive playoff format that features 24 teams – the top 12 in each conference based on points percentage at the time of the League’s pause (through games of March 11, 2020).

The NHL pauses its season on March 12, 2020, due to concerns about COVID-19, having played 85.1 percent of the 2019-20 regular-season schedule that started in early October 2019 (1,082 of 1,271 games). The remaining 189 games originally scheduled from March 12 – April 4, 2020, are canceled.

2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers

The 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs begin with the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers, which feature both a Round Robin and Qualifying Round.

The top four teams in each conference compete in a seeding Round Robin, which features regular-season overtime rules. Ties in the Round Robin are broken by regular-season points percentage. The seeding order for these teams remains the same throughout the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

The following eight teams in each conference play in the Qualifying Round, featuring best-of-five series (#5 vs. #12, #6 vs. #11, #7 vs. #10, #8 vs. #9) to determine who advances to the First Round of the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs. These series use playoff overtime rules.

“Seeding” Format

In each succeeding round of the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, the highest remaining seed in each conference faces the lowest remaining seed, the second-highest remaining seed in each conference faces the second-lowest remaining seed, etc.

Series Lengths

All rounds after the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers feature best-of-seven series (First Round, Second Round, Conference Finals, Stanley Cup Final).

“Home” Ice

In the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers, the higher-seeded team is designated as the home team in Games 1, 2 and 5. The lower-seeded team is designated as the home team in Games 3 and 4.

In the 2020 First Round, Second Round and Conference Finals, the higher-seeded team is designated as the home team in Games 1, 2, 5 and 7. The lower-seeded team is designated as the home team in Games 3, 4 and 6.

In the 2020 Stanley Cup Final, the team with the higher regular-season points percentage is designated as the home team in Games 1, 2, 5 and 7. The team with the lower regular-season points percentage is designated as the home team in Games 3, 4 and 6.

Hub Cities

The 12 participating Eastern Conference teams play at Scotiabank Arena in Toronto, while the 12 participating Western Conference teams compete at Rogers Place in Edmonton for the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers as well as the 2020 First Round and Second Round.

The 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs shift entirely to Edmonton for the Conference Finals and Stanley Cup Final.

PITTSBURGH PENGUINS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Pittsburgh Penguins, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the 15th consecutive season and 36th time in franchise history.

1. The Penguins are the ninth different franchise in NHL history to make 15 or more consecutive postseason appearances – the Detroit Red Wings and Montreal Canadiens each had two runs of at least that length. Overall, this is the 11th time a team has made 15 or more consecutive trips to the Stanley Cup Playoffs and the longest such run since the Red Wings made the last of their 25 straight appearances in 2016.
2. Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin each can make their 10th consecutive postseason appearance for the Penguins (each missed the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs due to injury), trailing only Jaromir Jagr (11; 1991-2001) for the longest such stretch in franchise history. The last NHL players to make 10 or more consecutive trips to the postseason with one franchise were Pavel Datsyuk (14; 2002-16) and Henrik Zetterberg (13; 2003-16), both with the Red Wings.
3. Sidney Crosby (68-121—189 in 168 GP) needs one point to tie Brett Hull (103-87—190 in 202 GP) for seventh place in career points during the Stanley Cup Playoffs. He also needs two assists to tie Jaromir Jagr (123) for ninth place in playoff history. Crosby's next playoff goal will break a tie with Gordie Howe (68) on the all-time NHL list; he trails only Alex Ovechkin (69) and Patrick Marleau (72) among active NHL players. He also ranks fourth in NHL history for career playoff points in road games.
4. Evgeni Malkin (106) has the second-most career playoff assists among active NHL players and needs one helper to tie Peter Forsberg (107) for 21st place in NHL history. Malkin (63-106—169 in 166 GP) needs three points to tie Mario Lemieux (76-96—172 in 107 GP) for the second-most playoff points in Penguins history. Only six teams have players on their current roster who rank first and second in career playoff points for that franchise (Columbus Blue Jackets, Nashville Predators, Tampa Bay Lightning, Vegas Golden Knights, Washington Capitals and Winnipeg Jets).
5. Sidney Crosby is looking to become the seventh player in NHL history to captain one franchise to four or more Stanley Cups. Jean Beliveau (5, MTL), George Armstrong (4, TOR), Yvan Cournoyer (4, MTL), Maurice Richard (4, MTL), Denis Potvin (4, NYI) and Wayne Gretzky (4, EDM) are the only captains to do so.
6. Six of the seven Stanley Cup champions on the Penguins' roster have won with the franchise: Sidney Crosby (2009, 2016 and 2017), Kris Letang (2009, 2016 and 2017), Evgeni Malkin (2009, 2016 and 2017), Brian Dumoulin (2016 and 2017), Bryan Rust (2016 and 2017) and Jake Guentzel (2017). The other, Jeff Carter (2012 LAK and 2014 LAK), will look to become the ninth player to play for the Philadelphia Flyers (461 GP from 2005-06 to 2010-11) and later win a Stanley Cup with the cross-state rival Penguins.
7. Kris Letang (21-59—80 in 136 GP) leads all active defensemen in career playoff goals (21) and ranks second in assists (59) and points (80). His next playoff point will move him ahead of Eric Desjardins and Doug Wilson and into a tie with Dan Boyle on the all-time NHL list among defensemen.
8. Pittsburgh (38-24 in 62 series) ranks second among non-Original Six franchises in best-of-seven series victories, trailing only the Flyers (39-34 in 73 series). The Canadiens (78-42 in 120 series), Red Wings (55-45 in 100 series), Boston Bruins (53-52 in 105 series) and Chicago Blackhawks (42-44 in 86 series) are the only teams with more.
9. Mike Sullivan (39-30 in 69 GC w/ PIT) ranks second in franchise history behind Dan Bylsma (43-35 in 78 GC) for both career postseason wins and games. He is one of three active NHL head coaches (also Joel Quenneville: 3 and Darryl Sutter: 2) – and among a group of only 18 in League history – with multiple Stanley Cup wins as a head coach.
10. Tristan Jarry and Casey DeSmith have combined for one appearance in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, a 2-0 defeat for Jarry in Game 4 of the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers. In the expansion era, two teams have reached the Stanley Cup Final with goaltenders who entered the postseason with fewer than two combined playoff games (minimum: 1 GP in that regular season): the Anaheim Ducks in 2003 and Tampa Bay Lightning in 2015.

NEW YORK ISLANDERS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the New York Islanders, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the third consecutive season and 27th time in franchise history.

1. The Islanders will participate in the postseason for a third consecutive season, tying the second-longest run in franchise history (3 from 2002 to 2004) behind only the franchise's 14-season run from 1975 to 1988 that included four consecutive Stanley Cups (1980-83).

2. The Islanders have advanced past the opening round in each of the last two playoff years, reaching the Conference Finals in 2020 and the Second Round in 2019. Should they win a playoff series again in the 2021 Stanley Cup Playoffs, it would mark the first time since a run of seven consecutive postseasons from 1979 to 1985 that the team has won at least one playoff series in three or more consecutive seasons.

3. Barry Trotz (72-71) ranks 15th in NHL history among head coaches with 72 postseason victories – the only active head coaches with more are Joel Quenneville (119-100), Darryl Sutter (89-81), Alain Vigneault (78-77) and Peter Laviolette (75-68).

4. The Islanders have a 17-13 record in the postseason since Barry Trotz took over behind the bench, marking the most wins by a head coach through their first 30 postseason games with the Islanders – one ahead of the legendary Al Arbour (16-14).

5. Lou Lamoriello has an all-time series record of 29-22 as an NHL general manager. He can become the second GM in NHL history to guide his teams to 30 series victories, following Glen Sather (41-20).

6. Mathew Barzal has recorded 7-17—24 in 30 career postseason appearances. Among players to make their NHL debut with the Islanders, only two had more points through their first 30 playoff appearances with the franchise: Denis Potvin (10-23—33 in 30 GP) and Mike Bossy (16-14—30 in 30 GP).

7. Semyon Varlamov posted back-to-back shutouts in the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, blanking the Washington Capitals in a series-deciding 4-0 win in Game 5 of the First Round and stopping all 29 shots he faced in a 4-0 victory over the Philadelphia Flyers in Game 1 of the Second Round. In total, his shutout sequence of 138:17 spanning four games set a new postseason franchise record, besting the previous mark held by Billy Smith (136:59).

8. Ilya Sorokin has shared the crease with Semyon Varlamov in 2020-21, recording the most wins by an Islanders rookie in a single season since Kelly Hrucey (19 in 1984-85). Sorokin can become the fourth rookie netminder in franchise history to earn a postseason victory and first since the aforementioned Hrucey, while Roland Melanson (1-0 in 3 GP in 1981) is the only Islanders rookie goaltender to earn a playoff win in a season in which the team captured the Stanley Cup.

9. Since 2018-19, the Islanders have averaged 2.33 goals against per game in the postseason, second among all teams over that span (MTL: 1.90). The franchise's 17 wins across the previous two postseasons are the most of any team that did not reach the Stanley Cup Final in one of the two campaigns.

10. Josh Bailey led the Islanders with 2-18—20 in 22 games during the 2020 postseason – only two players in franchise history have recorded more assists in a single postseason: Bryan Trottier (23 in 1982) and Bob Bourne (20 in 1983). Bailey also was the first Islanders player to record 20 points in a single postseason since Ray Ferraro in 1992-93.

WASHINGTON CAPITALS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Washington Capitals, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the seventh consecutive season and 31st time in franchise history.

1. Washington has reached the postseason for the 13th time in 14 seasons (since 2007-08), one of two teams to do so in 2020-21 – the Pittsburgh Penguins have extended their active run to 15 straight postseason appearances.
2. The Capitals' run of seven consecutive postseason appearances is the second-longest such stretch in franchise history (14 straight trips from 1983 to 1996). It also is tied for the second-longest active run in the NHL behind the Penguins (15; 2007-21).
3. Alex Ovechkin and Nicklas Backstrom, who between them own the Capitals records for career playoff goals, assists, points and games played, will extend their shared franchise benchmark for most years in the postseason (currently 12). They are two of 13 active players with at least 100 career playoff points, and one of five sets of current teammates on that list (also Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin, PIT; David Krejci and Patrice Bergeron, BOS; Patrick Kane and Jonathan Toews, CHI; and Patrick Marleau and Logan Couture, SJS).
4. Alex Ovechkin ranks 18th in NHL history with 69 career playoff goals, trailing only Patrick Marleau (72) among active players, and is among the top 50 in career playoff points (131; 44th). Ovechkin has scored at least four goals in 11 of his 12 previous postseason appearances, second to only Wayne Gretzky (12x) for the most such playoff performances.
5. As one of the last three winners of the Stanley Cup, the Capitals rank third in the League in terms of both the number of individual Stanley Cup winners on their roster (14) and their total combined championships (17), trailing the two most recent winners in each category (Tampa Bay Lightning: 21 players, 22 championships; and St. Louis Blues: 17 players, 18 championships).
6. Nine members of Washington's 2018 Stanley Cup team remain with the teams: Nicklas Backstrom, John Carlson, Lars Eller, Michal Kempny, Evgeny Kuznetsov, Dmitry Orlov, T.J. Oshie, Alex Ovechkin and Tom Wilson.
7. Stanley Cup champion Zdeno Chara (2011 BOS), 44, can become the seventh player in NHL history to appear in a playoff game at age 44 or older. He would follow Gordie Howe (52 years, 11 days in 1980), Chris Chelios (47 years, 122 days in 2009), Johnny Bower (44 years, 149 days in 1969), Lester Patrick (44 years, 99 days in 1928), Jacques Plante (44 years, 78 days in 1973) and Jaromir Jagr (44 years, 69 days in 2016), who all are listed with their age at the time of their last playoff game. Chelios (1-6—7 in 44 GP), Howe (1-1—2 in 3 GP) and Jagr (0-2—2 in 6 GP) all registered points; the others were goaltenders, including Patrick who traded his duties as New York Rangers coach to guard the net for one playoff game. Only Chelios (age 46 in 2008) and Patrick (1928 NYR) won the Stanley Cup at age 44 or older.
8. Carl Hagelin, Justin Schultz and Conor Sheary all won the Stanley Cup with Pittsburgh in 2016 and 2017, while Trevor van Riemsdyk was with the Chicago Blackhawks for their 2015 win. Hagelin, Schultz and Sheary can become the first set of teammates since 1997 to win multiple Stanley Cups with one team and then skate in the postseason together with another franchise – that last happened in 1997 when Wayne Gretzky, Mark Messier, Esa Tikkanen and Jeff Beukeboom all played for the Rangers after winning multiple championships together with the Edmonton Oilers.
9. John Carlson (18-48—66 in 112 GP) ranks fifth among active defensemen with 66 career playoff points – teammate Zdeno Chara (18-52—70 in 195 GP) is one of the blueliners ahead of him on that list. Carlson is one of five active skaters who leads his current franchise in career playoff goals, assists, points and games played among defensemen (also Drew Doughty, LAK; Kris Letang, PIT; Victor Hedman, TBL; and Shea Theodore, VGK).
10. Vitek Vanecek and Ilya Samsonov enter the playoffs with fewer than 80 combined career regular-season starts. Only 10 NHL teams have won the Stanley Cup after dressing goaltenders in the postseason who had a combined 100 or fewer career regular-season starts, including only two instances in the past 80 years (1945 Toronto Maple Leafs – Frank McCool: 50 GS and 1944 Montreal Canadiens – Bill Durnan: 50 GS).

BOSTON BRUINS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Boston Bruins, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the fifth consecutive campaign and 12th time in the last 14 seasons.

1. This marks the 74th season in which Boston has qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, the second-highest total in NHL history behind the Montreal Canadiens (85).

2. The Bruins are no strangers to putting together strings of postseason appearances – they qualified for an NHL-record 29 consecutive seasons from 1967-68 to 1995-96, clinched nine straight berths from 1934-35 to 1942-43 and more recently seven consecutive campaigns from 2007-08 to 2013-14, with the latter including a Stanley Cup win in 2011.

3. The Bruins (2011, 2013 and 2019) are the only team to appear in the Stanley Cup Final three times over the last 10 seasons (since 2010-11). The Los Angeles Kings (2012 and 2014), Chicago Blackhawks (2013 and 2015), Tampa Bay Lightning (2015 and 2020) and Pittsburgh Penguins (2016 and 2017) all did so twice over that span.

4. Tuukka Rask (51-42) needs two wins during the Stanley Cup Playoffs to tie Gerry Cheevers (53-34) for the most in franchise history. Only Marc-Andre Fleury (81) and Henrik Lundqvist (61) have more career playoff wins among active goaltenders.

5. Brad Marchand (37-58—95 in 121 GP) sits five points shy of becoming the seventh player to record 100 playoff points with the Bruins – teammates David Krejci (40-75—115 in 145 GP) and Patrice Bergeron (42-69—111 in 149 GP) already have reached the milestone. No current team has more than two players on their roster with 100 career postseason points.

6. Patrice Bergeron is three goals shy of tying Rick Middleton (45) for third all-time in Bruins postseason history and four away from Phil Esposito (46) for second. Bergeron also has scored nine career game-winning goals in the postseason – only Cam Neely (11) has more with the franchise.

7. David Pastrnak has recorded 20-33—53 in 52 career postseason games – his 1.02 points per game in the playoffs is the eighth-highest total in Bruins history. Only three Boston players have recorded more career postseason points before their 25th birthday (Pastrnak will turn 25 on May 25): Craig Janney (17-56—73 in 68 GP), Bobby Orr (20-46—66 in 50 GP) and Cam Neely (33-27—60 in 57 GP).

8. Taylor Hall, who is in search of his first Stanley Cup, was acquired by the Bruins prior to the 2021 NHL Trade Deadline. The 11-season veteran was selected first overall by the Edmonton Oilers in the 2010 NHL Draft, one spot before Boston picked Tyler Seguin, who was a member of Boston's Stanley Cup-winning team in 2011. The first two picks of a draft year only have gone on to win a Stanley Cup with the same franchise twice – and both occurred with the Canadiens. Rejean Houle (No. 1 in 1969 by MTL) helped Montreal capture the Stanley Cup in 1971, 1973, 1977, 1978 and 1979, while Marc Tardif (No. 2 in 1969 by MTL) was part of the 1971 and 1973 championships. Additionally, Bobby Smith (No. 1 in 1978 by MNS) and Ryan Walter (No. 2 in 1978 by WSH) teamed up to help the Canadiens win the Stanley Cup in 1986.

9. Bruce Cassidy has a 27-28 record in the playoffs as head coach of the Bruins. Only two head coaches in Boston history have recorded 30 postseason victories prior to their 60th playoff game behind the Bruins bench: Claude Julien (52 GP) and Don Cherry (53 GP). Mike Sullivan (47 GP w/ PIT) and Jon Cooper (54 GP w/ TBL) are the only active head coaches who have required fewer than 60 games to reach 30 postseason wins with their current team.

10. The Bruins have competed in a Game 7 on 28 occasions (15-13) – the most Game 7 wins and appearances in Stanley Cup Playoffs history. Boston has more Game 7 wins than 20 active franchises have appearances in seventh-and-deciding games.

CAROLINA HURRICANES: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Carolina Hurricanes, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the third consecutive season and 16th time in franchise history (8x as Carolina, 8x as Hartford).

1. The Hurricanes have reached the playoffs in three consecutive seasons for the first time since moving to Raleigh in 1997-98 and second time in franchise history – the Hartford Whalers made seven straight appearances from 1986 to 1992.

2. Jordan Staal leads all current Hurricanes players in career playoff goals (27), assists (19), points (46) and games played (96), and is one of three members on the roster with a Stanley Cup (2009 PIT). He can join his brother Marc Staal (107 GP) as the second member of his family to skate in 100 career playoff games; only eight sets of brothers in League history have accomplished the feat. Brother Eric Staal (now w/ MTL) is the Hurricanes/Whalers franchise leader in career playoff goals (19) and points (43).

3. Cedric Paquette (2020 TBL) and Teuvo Teravainen (2015 CHI) are the other current Hurricanes to win the Stanley Cup. Paquette aims to become the second player in as many seasons, fourth in the NHL's expansion era (since 1967-68) and ninth in League history to win a championship in consecutive seasons with different teams; he would be the second to do so by leaving the Tampa Bay Lightning to join the Hurricanes (Cory Stillman).

4. Sebastian Aho has had 12 points in each of his first two trips to the postseason, pacing the Hurricanes in scoring in both 2019 and 2020 (totaling 8-16—24 in 23 GP). He has at least one point in 74 percent of his playoff appearances (17 of 23 GP), trailing only Nathan MacKinnon and Mikko Rantanen (both 81%, 22 of 27 GP) for the highest such percentage since 2019 (minimum: 20 GP).

5. Andrei Svechnikov (7-5—12 in 15 GP) can become the second player in Hurricanes/Whalers history to skate in the playoffs in each of his first three NHL seasons (Scott Young: 1988-90).

6. Head coach Rod Brind'Amour captained Carolina to its first Stanley Cup in 2006 and ranks among the franchise's top three in career playoff games played (1st; 72), goals (2nd; 18), assists (3rd; 20) and points (3rd; 38). Brind'Amour (12-11 in 23 GC) also trails only Paul Maurice (25-28 in 53 GC) and Peter Laviolette (16-9 in 25 GC) on the franchise lists for career playoff wins and games among head coaches. Overall, he has participated in 94 percent of all Hurricanes playoff games since the franchise relocated to Raleigh in 1997-98 (72 GP + 23 GC of 101 GP).

7. After going 0-3 in Game 7s while based in Hartford, the franchise has posted a perfect 5-0 record in the seventh game of a series since relocation – including a double-overtime multi-goal comeback win in the 2019 First Round. Rod Brind'Amour scored the winning goal in the first such contest for Carolina (2006 CF vs. BUF).

8. Alex Nedeljkovic can become the fourth rookie goaltender to appear in a playoff game for the Hurricanes (Cam Ward in 2006) or Whalers (Peter Sidorkiewicz and Kay Whitmore, both in 1989). Ward is the only one of that group to record a postseason victory, posting 15 of Carolina's 16 wins in 2006 to claim both the Stanley Cup and Conn Smythe Trophy.

9. Jacob Slavin had nine assists in the 2019 First Round, a franchise record for any player in a single series. Only eight other defensemen in NHL history have had nine or more assists in one playoff series: Paul Coffey (2x), Phil Housley, Mark Howe, Erik Karlsson, Kris Letang, Al MacInnis and Larry Murphy.

10. Vincent Trocheck (0-3—3 in 10 GP) is one of three Hurricanes skaters with playoff experience who is in search of his first career postseason goal (Brett Pesce: 0-6—6 in 15 GP and Morgan Geekie: 0-1—1 in 8 GP). His first career playoff point came in a Florida Panthers uniform, in Game 6 of the 2016 First Round (at NYI).

NASHVILLE PREDATORS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Nashville Predators, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the seventh consecutive season and 14th time in franchise history.

1. The Predators (14) are tied for the second-most postseason appearances among all NHL teams since 2004, when they reached the playoffs for the first time. Only the Pittsburgh Penguins (15, including 2021) have more postseason appearances in that span, while the San Jose Sharks also have 14.

2. Among franchises to join the NHL in the 1990s or later, only the Sharks (21), Ottawa Senators (16) and Anaheim Ducks (14) have as many playoff appearances as Nashville – all in at least five more seasons.

3. The Predators' run of seven consecutive postseason appearances is tied for the second-longest active streak in the NHL behind the Penguins (15; 2007-21); the Washington Capitals also have reached the playoffs each year since 2015.

4. The only Stanley Cup champion to play for Nashville this season is Brad Richardson, who won with the Los Angeles Kings in 2012.

5. Nine players who helped the Predators reach the Stanley Cup Final in 2017 remain with the team: Viktor Arvidsson, Mattias Ekholm, Ryan Ellis, Filip Forsberg, Calle Jarnkrok, Roman Josi, Pekka Rinne, Juuse Saros and Colton Sissons.

6. Roman Josi (Bern, Switzerland) is aiming to become the first Swiss-born captain in NHL history to lead his team to a Stanley Cup. Nicklas Lidstrom (Vasteras, Sweden; 2008 DET), Zdeno Chara (Trencin, Slovakia; 2011 BOS) and Alex Ovechkin (Moscow, Russia; 2018 WSH) are the only non-North American players to captain a Stanley Cup winner.

7. Filip Forsberg ranks first on the Predators' all-time list for career playoff goals (26) and points (49). He also holds the franchise record for most points in a single postseason (16), set in 2017 and matched in 2018.

8. Pekka Rinne has played in 89 of the 115 postseason games in Predators history (77.4%) and is the leader among all current Nashville players in career playoff games played. He is one of three goaltenders in to appear in more than 70 percent of a current franchise's total postseason games. The others: Martin Brodeur (79.1% w/ NJD) and Connor Hellebuyck (77.1% w/ WPG).

9. Juuse Saros reached the 20-win mark in a single regular season for the first time in his career in 2020-21. He appeared in all four Predators postseason games in 2020 (1-3, 3.22 GAA, .895 SV%), which also were his first four career postseason starts (11 GP).

10. Ryan Johansen leads all current Predators in career playoff assists (32) and ranks second in both goals (16) and points (48). He has recorded 10 or more points in a single postseason twice with the Predators (2017 and 2018), tied with Filip Forsberg (also 2017 and 2018) for the most in franchise history.

FLORIDA PANTHERS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Florida Panthers, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the second consecutive season and seventh time in franchise history.

1. After reaching the Stanley Cup Qualifiers in 2020, the Panthers are making consecutive postseason appearances for the second time in franchise history (also 1996 and 1997).
2. In 1996, the Panthers became the first of the seven 1990s expansion franchises to reach the Stanley Cup Final. The Tampa Bay Lightning (2004, 2015 and 2020), Anaheim Ducks (2003 and 2007), Ottawa Senators (2007), San Jose Sharks (2016) and Nashville Predators (2017) have since followed suit. Florida looks to follow Tampa Bay (2004 and 2020) and Anaheim (2007) as the third 1990s expansion team to hoist the Stanley Cup.
3. When the Panthers made their run to the 1996 Stanley Cup Final, they accomplished many feats that later were achieved by the Vegas Golden Knights in 2018. Florida became the first NHL franchise to win each of its first three playoff series; the fifth to reach the Stanley Cup Final in its first playoff appearance; and the eighth to reach the Stanley Cup Final within its first three seasons.
4. Florida is one of three teams from the Discover NHL Central Division (also CHI and TBL) with a player who has won the Stanley Cup more than once (Patric Hornqvist: 2016 PIT and 2017 PIT). In 2017, Hornqvist became the second player in NHL history to score a Stanley Cup-clinching goal versus the team that drafted him (also Rick MacLeish, 1974).
5. After winning the Stanley Cup as a rookie with rival Tampa Bay in 2020, Carter Verhaeghe aims to become the second player in as many seasons, fourth in the NHL's expansion era (since 1967-68) and ninth in League history to win a championship in consecutive seasons with different teams. Verhaeghe also can become the first player in NHL history to win a Stanley Cup in each of his first two NHL seasons with different teams, as well as the eighth ever to win a championship with multiple NHL franchises based in the same state or province.
6. Aleksander Barkov and Jonathan Huberdeau, the top two highest-scoring players in regular-season franchise history, are the only current Panthers with multiple career postseason goals for the team. Barkov (Tampere, Finland) aims to become the first Finnish-born captain in NHL history to lead his team to a Stanley Cup. Nicklas Lidstrom (Vasteras, Sweden; 2008 DET), Zdeno Chara (Trencin, Slovakia; 2011 BOS) and Alex Ovechkin (Moscow, Russia; 2018 WSH) are the only non-North American players to captain a Stanley Cup winner.
7. Joel Quenneville hoisted the Stanley Cup for the first time in 1996 as an assistant coach, when his Colorado Avalanche defeated the Panthers in Game 4 of the Final at Miami Arena. He has since become one of 11 head coaches in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup three times (2010 CHI, 2013 CHI and 2015 CHI). He ranks third among head coaches with 119 career playoff wins and fourth in series victories (23), behind Scotty Bowman (49), Al Arbour (30) and Dick Irvin (25).
8. Keith Yandle is one of 12 active NHL players with 1,000 or more career regular-season games who is in search of his first Stanley Cup. Yandle, who owns the second-longest consecutive games played streak in NHL history, will look to become the fifth member of the top 10 on that list to win the Stanley Cup – he would follow Doug Jarvis, Phil Kessel, Steve Larmer and Jay Bouwmeester.
9. Sam Bennett (11) has the second-most career playoff goals among current Panthers (behind Patric Hornqvist: 25), all with the Calgary Flames. In 2014-15, at age 18, Bennett notched a point in both his first career NHL regular-season and playoff games – doing so four days apart en route to helping the Flames to their first playoff series victory in more than a decade.
10. The Panthers will aim to halt a run of six consecutive postseason series defeats that dates to the 1996 Stanley Cup Final, tied with the Toronto Maple Leafs (6 straight from 2004 CSF to 2020 SCQ) for the longest active run of consecutive postseason series losses.

TAMPA BAY LIGHTNING: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Tampa Bay Lightning, who are in the postseason as the defending Stanley Cup champions for the second time (also 2006). This is their fourth consecutive playoff berth and 13th in franchise history.

1. This is the second time the Lightning have made four consecutive postseason appearances, equaling a run achieved from 2003-07 during which they also won the Stanley Cup. Among franchises to join the NHL in the 1990s or later, Tampa Bay was the first to both win a Stanley Cup (ahead of the Anaheim Ducks) and to win it more than once.

2. The Lightning will aim to become the ninth different NHL franchise to repeat as Stanley Cup champions – and fifth among teams to join the League in 1967-68 or later (Philadelphia Flyers, New York Islanders, Edmonton Oilers and Pittsburgh Penguins).

3. Tampa Bay (2) can become the second Florida-based franchise to win at least three titles in either the NHL, NBA (Miami Heat: 3), NFL (Miami Dolphins: 2; Tampa Bay Buccaneers: 2) or MLB (Miami Marlins: 2). The Heat (2012 and 2013) and Dolphins (1973 and 1974) repeated as NBA and Super Bowl champions, respectively. The Florida Panthers, whom the Lightning have yet to face in the postseason despite sharing a division for each of their 27 seasons in the League together, are in search of their first Stanley Cup.

4. Victor Hedman won the Conn Smythe Trophy in 2020 after leading all defensemen – and ranking fifth in the entire NHL – with 10 goals, joining Paul Coffey and Brian Leetch as the third blueliner in NHL history to score at least 10 goals in a playoff year. Hedman, the Lightning leader in playoff games played (109), needs three goals to become the 15th defenseman in NHL history to accumulate 20 career playoff goals for one franchise – a feat achieved by only two active blueliners (Kris Letang: 21 G w/ PIT; Brent Burns: 20 G w/ SJS).

5. Andrei Vasilevskiy (Tyumen, Russia) can become the first Russian and second goaltender born outside North America to win the Stanley Cup more than once – Dominik Hasek (Pardubice, Czech Republic) is the only one to do so to date. However, Vasilevskiy has a chance to become the first goaltender born outside North America to earn multiple Stanley Cup-clinching victories – Hasek was part of the Detroit Red Wings championship teams in both 2002 and 2008, but only claimed the clinching victory in 2002.

6. After becoming the franchise leader in career playoff wins in 2020, Andrei Vasilevskiy (33-22) will have a chance to become the NHL's all-time leader in postseason victories among Russian-born goaltenders – he trails only Nikolai Khabibulin (39-31; Sverdlovsk, Russia). Evgeni Nabokov (42-42), who was born in Kazakhstan, is the only netminder of Russian nationality with more career playoff wins than either Vasilevskiy or Khabibulin.

7. After becoming the eighth different player in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup in consecutive seasons with different teams, Pat Maroon now will look to become the first player in nearly 40 years to win three consecutive championships. The last players to do so were members of the Islanders dynasty that claimed the last of four straight Stanley Cups in 1983.

8. Including Nikita Kucherov, who missed the entire 2020-21 regular season, the Lightning have six players with at least 20 career playoff goals (also Ondrej Palat, Tyler Johnson, Alex Killorn, Steven Stamkos, Brayden Point) – the highest such total in the NHL ahead of Pittsburgh and the Washington Capitals, who each have five.

9. Jon Cooper (54-39 in 93 GC) currently ranks ninth in career playoff wins among active head coaches, two back of tying former Lightning bench boss John Tortorella (56-64 in 120 GC). Cooper can become the 11th head coach in NHL history to serve at least 100 postseason games with a single franchise.

10. The Lightning worked overtime in 2020, becoming the first team in NHL history to reach the Stanley Cup Final via the three series-clinching wins in overtime and finishing with a League-record 221:14 of overtime minutes during the 2020 postseason – equivalent to nearly four extra regulation games. Tampa Bay logged 216:14 of overtime from the First Round onward, beginning with a victory in the fourth-longest NHL game ever played (150:27).

COLORADO AVALANCHE: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Colorado Avalanche, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season and 26th time in franchise history (17x as Colorado, 9x as Quebec).

1. Colorado returns to the Stanley Cup Playoffs for a fourth consecutive year, the longest streak for the franchise since making 11 straight trips from 1995 to 2006. The only other time the franchise reached the playoffs in four or more consecutive years was a seven-season run from 1981 to 1987 as the Quebec Nordiques.
2. The Avalanche are averaging 3.33 goals per game in the postseason during their current streak of appearances (since 2018); only the Edmonton Oilers (3.75) have a higher rank in that same timeframe. Colorado has scored six or more goals in a playoff game five times since 2018 – only the Boston Bruins (6x) have more over that span.
3. Nathan MacKinnon is averaging 1.35 points per game throughout his playoff career (20-34—54 in 40 GP), the fourth-highest total among players to appear in at least 15 postseason games behind only Wayne Gretzky (1.84), Mario Lemieux (1.61) and Barry Pederson (1.53). MacKinnon had a point in 14 consecutive games during the 2020 postseason.
4. Nathan MacKinnon ranks 10th in franchise history with 20-34—54 in 40 postseason appearances (his 1.35 P/GP ranks first in COL/QUE history). MacKinnon is closing in on a trio of key 1990s Avalanche contributors on the all-time franchise playoff points list – all of whom played 22 or more playoff games with the team than he has to date. MacKinnon needs one point to tie Claude Lemieux (21-34—55 in 62 GP), two to match Adam Deadmarsh (22-34—56 in 88 GP) and six to equal Valeri Kamensky (25-35—60 in 64 GP).
5. Gabriel Landeskog (Stockholm, Sweden) aims to become the second Swedish-born captain in NHL history to lead his team to a Stanley Cup. Nicklas Lidstrom (Vasteras, Sweden; 2008 DET), Zdeno Chara (Trencin, Slovakia; 2011 BOS) and Alex Ovechkin (Moscow, Russia; 2018 WSH) are the only non-North American players to captain a Stanley Cup winner.
6. Cale Makar burst onto the scene with a goal in his NHL debut, which occurred in Game 3 of the 2019 First Round against his hometown Calgary Flames. Makar (5-16—21 in 25 GP) has continued to produce in the postseason and already ranks fourth in franchise history for playoff points by a defenseman, behind Sandis Ozolinsh (18-47—65 in 82 GP), Rob Blake (16-27—43 in 68 GP) and Adam Foote (7-35—42 in 170 GP) – all of whom won a Stanley Cup with Colorado.
7. Mikko Rantanen has 13-26—39 in 33 career postseason games. Only four players have required fewer than 40 contests to record their first 40 playoff points with the franchise: Peter Stastny (28 GP), Joe Sakic (30 GP), Nathan MacKinnon (33 GP) and Peter Forsberg (36 GP).
8. Colorado's roster features three Stanley Cup winners: Andre Burakovsky (2018 WSH), Philipp Grubauer (2018 WSH) and Brandon Saad (2013 CHI, 2015 CHI).
9. Philipp Grubauer has a 12-5-1 record across two postseasons as a member of the Avalanche (2.15 GAA, .924 SV%, 2 SO). Among goaltenders in franchise history to appear in at least 10 postseason games, Grubauer ranks first in save percentage and second in goals-against average behind David Aebischer (2.07 GAA).
10. Nazem Kadri led the League with five game-winning goals during the 2020 postseason. The only player in Avalanche/Nordiques history to record more in a single playoff year is franchise icon and current GM Joe Sakic, who netted six game-winning goals in the 1996 Stanley Cup Playoffs en route to the club's first championship.

ST. LOUIS BLUES: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the St. Louis Blues, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the third straight year and ninth time in 10 seasons.

1. The Blues are in the postseason for the 44th time in franchise history, the most among non-Original Six franchises (ahead of the Philadelphia Flyers: 40). St. Louis made 25 of its 44 appearances from 1980 to 2004, tied for the third-longest stretch of consecutive playoff appearances in NHL history.
2. St. Louis is one of three NHL teams that has reached the postseason in at least nine of 10 campaigns since 2011-12 (also Pittsburgh Penguins: 10 and Washington Capitals: 9).
3. In 2019, the Blues ended the longest wait in NHL history (51 seasons) for a team to win its first Stanley Cup; they eclipsed the Los Angeles Kings, who held the distinction after winning the Stanley Cup for the first time in 2012, their 44th season. The Blues now will look to follow the Kings' lead by winning a second title only two seasons later.
4. The Blues' roster includes 17 players who have won the Stanley Cup, including 16 members of their historic 2019 championship team: Ivan Barbashev, Jordan Binnington, Sammy Blais, Robert Bortuzzo, Tyler Bozak, Vince Dunn, Carl Gunnarsson, Ryan O'Reilly, Colton Parayko, David Perron, Zach Sanford, Brayden Schenn, Jaden Schwartz, Oskar Sundqvist, Vladimir Tarasenko and Robert Thomas. Kyle Clifford (2012 LAK and 2014 LAK) is St. Louis' only other Stanley Cup winner.
5. Ryan O'Reilly, winner of the Conn Smythe Trophy in 2019, has 12-22—34 in 35 career postseason games with the Blues after notching 3-4—7 in 13 playoff contests with the Colorado Avalanche (in 2010 and 2014). O'Reilly had 4-7—11 during the 2020 postseason, including 4-4—8 against the Vancouver Canucks (6 GP) – only Colorado's Nathan MacKinnon (3-7—10 in 5 GP) and Vancouver's Elias Pettersson (3-6—9 in 6 GP) had more points in the 2020 First Round. In 2019, O'Reilly posted a four-game goal streak in the Stanley Cup Final, the longest by any player in the series since Wayne Gretzky had an equal run in 1985 with the Edmonton Oilers.
6. Vladimir Tarasenko has 33 career playoff goals (74 GP), two back of tying Bernie Federko (35 G in 91 GP) for second place in franchise history behind Brett Hull (67 G in 102 GP). Tarasenko's 11 career power-play goals in the postseason rank third in team history behind Hull (27 PPG) and Federko (13 PPG).
7. Jaden Schwartz, who ranks fourth in franchise history with 26 career playoff goals, has the most career postseason points among all current Blues (26-28—54 in 84 GP). His 54 career playoff points rank fifth in St. Louis history, one back of Doug Gilmour (17-38—55 in 49 GP) for fourth place and four behind Al MacInnis (14-44—58 in 82 GP) for third place.
8. Torey Krug leads all current Blues in career playoff assists (41), five of which came against St. Louis in the 2019 Stanley Cup Final. Krug collected four points in his first-ever playoff game in St. Louis (Game 3 of 2019 SCF: 1-3—4), establishing a Boston Bruins franchise record for points in a Stanley Cup Final game.
9. Torey Krug will look to become the 10th player in the NHL's expansion era (since 1967-68) to lose to a team in the Stanley Cup Final and later win a championship with that franchise. The last players to achieve that feat were Kimmo Timonen and Daniel Carcillo in 2015 with the Chicago Blackhawks, after losing to Chicago in the 2010 Stanley Cup Final as members of the Philadelphia Flyers. Carcillo also won with Chicago in 2013.
10. Jordan Binnington (31 GP) is tied with Grant Fuhr and Glenn Hall for fifth place in career playoff appearances among Blues goaltenders and is within reach of climbing into second place in the First Round. Binnington (16-15) also needs one playoff victory to pull ahead of Curtis Joseph (16-16) and into a tie with Greg Millen (17-17) and Mike Liut (17-20) for the most in franchise history.

VEGAS GOLDEN KNIGHTS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Vegas Golden Knights, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the fourth time in as many NHL seasons.

1. The Golden Knights are the fourth franchise in NHL history to make the playoffs in each of their first four seasons, following the Edmonton Oilers (13; 1980-92), New York Rangers (9; 1927-35) and St. Louis Blues (6; 1968-73). Each team did so under different rules and circumstances, with only Vegas and Edmonton achieving the feat after the 1967-68 expansion season.
2. In 2020, Vegas became the third franchise in League history to earn at least one series win in two of its first three seasons and the first to reach the Conference Finals at least twice in its first three campaigns. The Golden Knights (5-3) now have as many or more series wins as five active NHL franchises.
3. Marc-Andre Fleury can pass Tony Esposito and become the first goaltender in NHL history – and 21st player at any position – to skate in 15 consecutive postseasons. Only four goaltenders in League history have made 15 playoff appearances at any point in their careers.
4. Marc-Andre Fleury is the League's active leader in playoff wins (81) and games played (146). He is in position to tie Grant Fuhr (150 GP) for fourth place in history for games played among goaltenders and within reach of equaling Billy Smith and Ed Belfour – who each have 88 wins – for fourth place in career playoff victories.
5. Vegas has the goaltending tandem with the most playoff experience in the NHL (172 GP), with Robin Lehner (26 GP) playing the bulk of games in the 2020 postseason (16 of 20 GP). Lehner matched the NHL record for shutouts in a single playoff series, blanking the Vancouver Canucks three times in the 2020 Second Round.
6. The Vegas roster includes four Stanley Cup champions: Marc-Andre Fleury (2009 PIT, 2016 PIT, 2017 PIT), Alec Martinez (2012 LAK, 2014 LAK), Alex Pietrangelo (2019 STL) and Chandler Stephenson (2018 WSH). Fleury is one of eight active NHL players – and the only active goaltender – with his name on the Stanley Cup at least three times; he can become the 13th netminder in NHL history to have his name engraved four or more times.
7. Ten current Golden Knights players helped the team reach the 2018 Stanley Cup Final: William Carrier, Marc-Andre Fleury, William Karlsson, Jonathan Marchessault, Brayden McNabb, Tomas Nosek, Ryan Reaves, Reilly Smith, Shea Theodore and Alex Tuch.
8. Reilly Smith is one of seven players who have appeared in all 47 postseason games in Golden Knights history and is the franchise leader in playoff assists (31) and points (42). Only 18 players in League history have skated in each of a franchise's first 50 all-time playoff games; Daniel Alfredsson (99 GP with OTT) is the only player to do so for a team that joined the NHL in the 1990s or later.
9. Vegas will enter the playoffs with a designated captain for the first time, with Mark Stone donning the "C" after collecting 13-16—29 through 27 postseason games with the team. Stone ranks among the top 10 in the NHL for playoff points since 2019 when he joined the Golden Knights.
10. Max Pacioretty leads all current Vegas players with 20 career postseason goals (61 GP), half of which have come across 23 playoff games with the Golden Knights (also 10 G in 38 GP w/ MTL).

MINNESOTA WILD: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Minnesota Wild, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the second consecutive season – after an appearance in the 2020 Qualifying Round – and 11th time in franchise history.

1. Minnesota has reached the postseason for the eighth time in nine seasons (since 2012-13), one of four NHL teams to do so (also Pittsburgh Penguins, St. Louis Blues and Washington Capitals). Each of the other three has won the Stanley Cup at least once in that span.
2. The Wild (2000-01) are trying to become the first expansion franchise from the NHL, NBA, NFL or MLB to play their inaugural season in the 2000s or later and win a championship. Only two teams that have entered the NHL since the start of the 1990s have won a Stanley Cup (Tampa Bay Lightning: 2004 and 2020; Anaheim Ducks: 2007).
3. Zach Parise has skated in 40 playoff games since signing with the Wild ahead of the 2012-13 campaign. The Minneapolis, Minn., native has since overtaken the franchise records for playoff goals (14), assists (20) and points (34). Before joining his home state team, Parise helped the New Jersey Devils reach the 2012 Stanley Cup Final – sharing the League lead in goals (8) and ranking second on New Jersey in points (15) during the postseason run.
4. Zach Parise ranks third among active U.S.-born players in postseason goals with 35. Only Joe Pavelski (61) and Patrick Kane (52) have more.
5. Ryan Suter has appeared in 81 career games during the Stanley Cup Playoffs, notching 6-24—30 in those contests while averaging 27:26 of time on ice per game. Only six players have averaged a higher such total since Suter made his NHL debut in 2005-06.
6. Kirill Kaprizov topped all Wild skaters in goals and points during the regular season. Only three other rookies since 1993-94 have led a team in points during the regular season, while also helping them qualify for the playoffs: Auston Matthews (2016-17 w/ TOR), Filip Forsberg (2014-15 w/ NSH) and Trent Hunter (2003-04 w/ NYI).
7. Kirill Kaprizov can become the seventh Wild rookie to score a goal in the postseason – Erik Haula (4 in 2013-14) and Matt Dumba (2 in 2014-15) are the only two with multiple playoff goals as a rookie.
8. Cam Talbot holds an all-time record of 12-11 in the postseason (0-1 w/ NYR; 7-6 w/ EDM; 5-4 w/ CGY). Should he go on a run with Minnesota, he can become the 10th goaltender in NHL history (and only active) to record five or more playoff wins with three or more different franchises.
9. The Wild have two former Stanley Cup champions on their roster – both were part of Pittsburgh's back-to-back wins in 2016 and 2017: Nick Bonino and Ian Cole.
10. Minnesota will look to begin the postseason with a victory for the fourth time in franchise history, with the prior wins coming in 2003, 2015 and 2020. In any best-of-seven series, the Wild are just 2-11 in the opening game (with wins in 2003 and 2015, both on the road). On the other end of the spectrum, Minnesota boasts a perfect 3-0 record in Game 7s.

TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Toronto Maple Leafs, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the fifth consecutive season and 70th time in franchise history.

1. The Maple Leafs aim to win a playoff series for the first time in 17 years. Their last series victory came in the 2004 Conference Quarterfinals against the Ottawa Senators, with Joe Nieuwendyk scoring twice and Ed Belfour making 36 saves in a Game 7 win. Only one player from that game remains in the NHL: Zdeno Chara notched one assist over 24:21 of ice time for the Senators (at age 27).
2. Toronto has required a winner-take-all game in eight of its past 11 series dating to 2002, including seven Game 7s (3-4) and a Game 5 loss to the Columbus Blue Jackets in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers.
3. It has been more than 42 years since the Maple Leafs and Montreal Canadiens have met in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, with their last contest in the 1979 Quarterfinals taking place April 22, 1979 – about two months before Joe Thornton was born (July 2, 1979). Zdeno Chara (March 18, 1977) is the only active NHL player who was alive at the time.
4. The Maple Leafs have yet to face either the Edmonton Oilers or Winnipeg Jets in the postseason.
5. Joe Thornton, Frederik Andersen and TJ Brodie are the only current Maple Leafs with postseason experience against either the Oilers, Jets or Canadiens. Thornton has faced the Canadiens (2-4—6 in 13 GP w/ BOS) and Oilers (2-5—7 in 10 GP w/ SJS), Andersen swept the Jets in 2015 (4-0, 2.20 GAA, .924 SV% in 4 GP w/ ANA) and Brodie helped eliminate the Jets in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers (0-1—1 in 4 GP w/ CGY).
6. Joe Thornton (1,673 GP), who ranks sixth in NHL history for regular-season games played, is in search of his first Stanley Cup. He can join Ray Bourque (1,612 GP) and Dave Andreychuk (1,597 GP) as the third NHL player to win his first championship after skating in 1,500 or more regular-season games.
7. The Maple Leafs' roster includes two of 12 active NHL players with 1,000 or more career regular-season games in search of their first Stanley Cup. Joe Thornton and Jason Spezza are joined on that list by Patrick Marleau (SJS), Ryan Suter (MIN), Brent Burns (SJS), Marc-Edouard Vlasic (SJS), Joe Pavelski (DAL), Andrew Coglian (DAL), Zach Parise (MIN), Shea Weber (MTL), Travis Zajac (NYI) and Keith Yandle (FLA).
8. Auston Matthews and Mitchell Marner have reached the postseason in each of their first five NHL campaigns, a feat achieved by only four other Maple Leafs in the expansion era (since 1967-68): Tomas Kaberle (1998-99 to 2003-04), Dave Williams (1974-75 to 1978-79), Borje Salming (1973-74 to 1980-81) and Ian Turnbull (1973-74 to 1980-81).
9. Mitchell Marner is averaging 0.84 points per game in his playoff career (5-16—21 in 25 GP), tops among current Maple Leafs (John Tavares ranks second: 0.83 P/GP, 15-15—30 in 36 GP).
10. Frederik Andersen (10-14 in 25 GP w/ TOR) needs four wins to move into fifth place in franchise history for career playoff victories. He can become the third goaltender in franchise history to appear in five or more consecutive postseasons (Turk Broda: 2x; and Johnny Bower). Jack Campbell has yet to make his postseason debut.

MONTREAL CANADIENS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Montreal Canadiens, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time since a three-year run from 2013-15 and for the 85th time in franchise history.

1. The Canadiens are the most decorated franchise in Stanley Cup Playoffs history – they have the most Stanley Cup championships (23), playoff seasons (85 including 2021) and series wins (93) of any team since the inception of the NHL in 1917-18.

2. The Canadiens defeated the Pittsburgh Penguins in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers to advance to the First Round, where they fell to the Philadelphia Flyers in six games. Montreal will look to win a postseason series in consecutive years for the first time since advancing to the Conference Finals in 2014 and the Second Round in 2015.

3. It has been a long time since Montreal has faced either the Edmonton Oilers or Toronto Maple Leafs in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. The Canadiens last faced the Oilers in the 1981 Preliminary Round, when Wayne Gretzky (3-8—11 in 3 GP) led Edmonton to a three-game sweep. It has been 42 years since Montreal has faced its Original Six rivals from Toronto – the teams last met when the Canadiens swept the Maple Leafs in the 1979 Quarterfinals on the path to their fourth consecutive Stanley Cup. Montreal never has faced the Winnipeg Jets in the postseason.

4. Six players on the Canadiens roster have won a Stanley Cup, all of whom are in their first season as a member of the team: Jake Allen (2019 STL), Joel Edmundson (2019 STL), Michael Frolik (2013 CHI), Corey Perry (2007 ANA), Eric Staal (2006 CAR) and Tyler Toffoli (2014 LAK).

5. Corey Perry (41-57—98 in 145 GP) has the most career postseason games played, goals, assists and points of any current Canadiens player. He recorded 5-4—9 in 27 games for the Dallas Stars during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs to help the team reach the Stanley Cup Final – including a dramatic winner in double-overtime of Game 5 of the Final to extend the series against the eventual champion Tampa Bay Lightning.

6. Carey Price ranks among the top 10 goaltenders on the Canadiens' all-time list for postseason games played (70; 4th), wins (30; 4th), save percentage (.917; 5th – minimum: 15 GP), goals-against average (2.43; 9th – minimum: 15 GP) and shutouts (7; 3rd). Jake Allen has an 11-11 record in 29 career postseason appearances. Among active goaltenders with at least 15 games of playoff experience, Allen ranks second in career goals-against average (2.06 GAA) and tied for fifth in save percentage (.924 SV%).

7. Canadiens captain Shea Weber has 17-19—36 in 75 career postseason games, including 4-4—8 in 16 appearances with Montreal. Weber has averaged 0.23 goals per game in his playoff career, the highest such average among active defensemen (minimum: 20 GP), just ahead of San Jose Sharks blueliner Brent Burns (0.21 G/GP).

8. Nick Suzuki (4-3—7 in 10 GP) tied for the team lead in goals and points during the 2020 postseason, becoming the first rookie to lead or co-lead Montreal in points in a single playoff year since Guy Lafleur in 1972. Cole Caufield could be the rookie to leave his mark for the Canadiens this postseason, after each of his first two career regular-season goals came in overtime – including against the Maple Leafs on May 3. Caufield became the third player in League history to score each of his first two career goals in overtime, alongside New York Americans forward Albert Hughes in 1930 and Chicago Blackhawks defenseman Brent Seabrook in 2005. Eight rookies in Canadiens history have scored an overtime goal in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, but none since Claude Lemieux (2x) and Brian Skrudland in 1985-86.

9. Tyler Toffoli, who leads the Canadiens in goals this season, recorded 7-7—14 in 26 games to help the Los Angeles Kings win the Stanley Cup in 2014. He topped all rookies in goals and points that postseason, and his goal and point totals from 2014 still stand as the most by a Kings rookie in a single playoff year.

10. The top scorers from the Scotia NHL North Division can expect to see a lot of ice time opposite Montreal's Phillip Danault. Entering play on May 10, in games when both Danault and Toronto's Auston Matthews played, Matthews was on the ice for 42.9 percent of Danault's total ice time. Under the same criteria with Danault and Edmonton's Connor McDavid, the Oilers captain has been on the ice for 51.8 percent of Danault's playing time.

EDMONTON OILERS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Edmonton Oilers, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for a second straight year and the 23rd time in franchise history.

1. Edmonton has reached the playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time since a run of five straight berths from 1997 to 2001. The only other instance in which the Oilers made consecutive postseason appearances was during each of their first 13 NHL campaigns from 1980 to 1992.

2. The Oilers hold the best series winning percentage (.673) and playoff game winning percentage (.597) in NHL history. Edmonton (5) also is tied with the Pittsburgh Penguins (5) for the most Stanley Cup wins among non-Original Six franchises; the Montreal Canadiens (23), Toronto Maple Leafs (13), Detroit Red Wings (11), Boston Bruins (6) and Chicago Blackhawks (6) are the only teams with more titles since the NHL's founding in 1917-18.

3. The Oilers will contest a head-to-head playoff series against a Canadian team for the first time since 1992, when they earned a six-game triumph over the Vancouver Canucks in the Division Finals. Before that, Edmonton faced at least one Canadian team in nine of its 12 trips to the postseason (from 1980 to 1991).

4. Edmonton is 13-1 in 14 series versus Canadian teams in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (.929 W%), with its only loss against the Calgary Flames in the 1986 Division Finals. The Oilers' last such meeting in the opening round came against the Flames in the 1991 Division Semifinals, when Esa Tikkanen (3-1—4) completed a hat trick in overtime as Edmonton rallied from a three-goal deficit to win Game 7.

5. Connor McDavid (10-8—18) and Leon Draisaitl (9-13—22) each have skated in all of Edmonton's 17 postseason games since 2017, totaling 19-21—40 (2.35 P/GP combined). Should they maintain their current ranks in the 2020-21 scoring race, Edmonton will seek to join a short list of teams in the NHL's expansion era (since 1967-68) to win a Stanley Cup after having the top two scorers during the regular season – only the Bruins (1970 and 1972), Oilers (1984, 1985 and 1987) and Penguins (1992) have done so.

6. Connor McDavid (Game 2 of 2020 SCQ) and Leon Draisaitl (Game 6 of 2017 R2) have accounted for each of Edmonton's last two playoff hat tricks. The only Oilers with multiple playoff hat tricks are Wayne Gretzky (7), Jari Kurri (7), Mark Messier (3), Esa Tikkanen (3) and Glenn Anderson (2).

7. Leon Draisaitl (1.29 P/GP) owns the second-highest playoff points-per-game rate among active players and the fourth-highest such pace in franchise history. He is one of nine players in Oilers history to log three or more points in a playoff game at least four times in his career – each player ahead of Draisaitl did so over the course of 50 or more games, compared to the 17 postseason appearances he has to date.

8. Ryan Nugent-Hopkins, one of 18 players who dressed in at least one game with Edmonton during the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers that remains with the team, led Edmonton with six assists last postseason (2-6—8 in 4 GP).

9. Kyle Turris has three career playoff overtime goals, which trails only Patrick Kane (5), Corey Perry (5), Nicklas Backstrom (4), Patrice Bergeron (4) and Patrick Marleau (4) among active players. Fellow offseason addition Tyson Barrie has 1-13—14 in 26 career postseason contests with the Colorado Avalanche and Maple Leafs, highlighted by a three-assist performance in a series-clinching Game 5 victory for the Avalanche in the 2019 First Round.

10. Josh Archibald (2017 PIT) and Alex Chiasson (2018 WSH) are the only Stanley Cup winners currently with the Oilers. Ken Holland won three Stanley Cups as general manager of the Red Wings (1998, 2002 and 2008) and was assistant general manager when the team claimed the championship in 1997.

WINNIPEG JETS: 10 #NHLSTATS

Ten #NHLStats about the Winnipeg Jets, who are in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for a fourth straight year and sixth time in franchise history.

1. Winnipeg's four consecutive playoff appearances date to 2018, when the Jets earned their first two series wins in franchise history to reach the Conference Finals. Winnipeg fell to the Vegas Golden Knights in five games that year.
2. The only other playoff appearances in franchise history came in 2007, when the team was based in Atlanta, and 2015, its fourth season in Winnipeg. In the franchise's first trip to the postseason, the Atlanta Thrashers were swept by the New York Rangers in the 2007 Conference Quarterfinals. The second saw the return of the "Winnipeg Whiteout" as the city welcomed the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the first time in 19 years, but also resulted in a sweep – this time to the Anaheim Ducks in the 2015 First Round.
3. While the current Jets never have faced the Toronto Maple Leafs, Edmonton Oilers or Montreal Canadiens in the postseason, the original Jets competed in the Stanley Cup Playoffs 11 times, including six head-to-head series against the high-powered Oilers of the 1980s and early 1990s, going 0-6 in those series. Winnipeg, however, enjoyed postseason success against Edmonton when it played in the WHA prior to joining the NHL in 1979-80 – the Jets captured the Avco World Trophy three times over seven seasons (1976, 1978 and 1979), including a six-game triumph against the Oilers in the WHA's final championship series before both teams joined the NHL.
4. Mark Scheifele owns the most career playoff goals in franchise history (16), with 12 of those coming as a visitor. In 2018, Scheifele set NHL records for road goals in a single playoff series (7 in R2 at NSH) and in a playoff year (11) – notching two of those tallies in a winner-take-all showdown as the Jets won the first Game 7 in franchise history (their only one to date). He holds the distinction as having scored the most total goals in a single playoff year (14) and in a playoff series (7) among all Jets players – from either the current or former iteration.
5. Blake Wheeler is the all-time franchise leader in playoff assists and points. Wheeler (Plymouth, Minn.) can become the first player born outside Canada to captain one of the active Canadian NHL franchises to a Stanley Cup.
6. Connor Hellebuyck has accounted for all 12 of the franchise's postseason wins, owning a 12-15 career record in 27 playoff appearances (2.53 GAA, .917 SV%, 2 SO). He is the only goaltender to have the decision for every playoff victory by an active NHL franchise; two netminders did so for defunct teams (Gary Smith w/ Oakland Seals/California Golden Seals/Cleveland Barons and Roy Worters w/ Pittsburgh Pirates/Philadelphia Quakers).
7. Paul Stastny leads all current Jets in career playoff goals (25), assists (42), points (67) and games played (97), including 6-9—15 in 17 games for Winnipeg in 2018 (a year in which he led the team with three game-winning goals).
8. New to the team this year, Pierre-Luc Dubois and Trevor Lewis also bring playoff experience to the Jets lineup. Dubois averaged a point per game during the 2020 postseason with the Columbus Blue Jackets (4-6—10 in 10 GP), highlighted by a hat trick against the Maple Leafs in Game 3 of the Stanley Cup Qualifiers that included scoring the overtime winner. Lewis is the only Stanley Cup winner on Winnipeg's roster, winning with the Los Angeles Kings in both 2012 and 2014 (11-12—23 in 79 GP).
9. Kyle Connor has scored the only playoff overtime goal in franchise history – in Game 4 of the 2019 Second Round when he beat eventual Stanley Cup champion Jordan Binnington to even the series with the St. Louis Blues.
10. Paul Maurice, who has served the most regular-season games as an NHL head coach without winning a championship, reached the Stanley Cup Final with the Carolina Hurricanes in 2002. Assistant coach Charlie Huddy won five Stanley Cups as a defenseman with the Oilers (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988 and 1990), while fellow assistant Dave Lowry – father of Jets forward Adam Lowry – skated in the Stanley Cup Final twice (1996 w/ FLA and 2004 w/ CGY).

STANLEY CUP FACTS

- Oldest trophy competed for by professional athletes in North America
- Crafted in Sheffield, England, in the late 1800s
- First presented in 1893
- Logged more than 1 million miles in travel in the last 10 NHL seasons, including trips to Afghanistan, Alaska, the Arctic Circle, Austria, the Bahamas, Belarus, Belgium, Czech Republic, Dubai, England, Finland, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Russia, Slovenia, Sweden and Ukraine
- Made of silver and nickel alloy, weighs 37 pounds and stands 3 feet tall
- Purchased for 10 guineas ($48.67 at the time) in 1892 by Lord Stanley of Preston, the Governor General of Canada, for whom the Stanley Cup was named
- Lord Stanley of Preston never actually had the opportunity to see a Stanley Cup game because he was called back to England before the trophy could be competed for
- Originally called the “Dominion Challenge Cup”
- The Montreal AAAs (Amateur Athletic Association) were the first winners of the Stanley Cup
- When it was originally bought, the Stanley Cup was a silver bowl measuring 7 inches high and 11.5 inches in diameter
- 1926 was the first year that the Stanley Cup was competed for solely by NHL teams
- In 1927, to accommodate names of players being etched into the Stanley Cup, silver bands were added to the bottom of the bowl
- In 1970, the original bowl crafted in 1892 was retired because it became too brittle to travel; it currently is secured in a locked vault at the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto
- Montreal silversmith Carl Peterson, whose family has been engraving the Stanley Cup since the tradition began, made an exact duplicate, which is currently atop the present-day version of the trophy
- Only trophy in professional sports that is passed along from player to player the summer their team wins it
- So revered by NHL players that many who have not won it refuse to be in its presence
- Only trophy in professional sports that has 24-hour supervision and is accompanied by a full-time bodyguard, known as the “Keeper of the Cup”
- The Keeper of the Cup only handles the trophy while wearing white gloves
- First professional team sports trophy presented to the winning team on the playing surface immediately following its victory; this presentation style has since been copied by other sports
- Travels more than 300 days per year
- Only trophy in professional sports that has the names of winning players, coaches, management and team staff engraved on its silver chalice
- Tradition of engraving names on the Stanley Cup began in 1907 with the Montreal Wanderers
- Only has been four official engravers of the Stanley Cup (that is actually stamped) since 1907, all from the same family tree: Carl Peterson, Arno Peterson, Doug Boffey and Louise St. Jacques
- Takes 13 years to fill the ring of the Stanley Cup with the names of winners
- Three rings (spanning 39 years) have been retired at the Hockey Hall of Fame, including the most recent in 2018
- Names misspelled on the Stanley Cup: Adam Deadmarsh of the Colorado Avalanche in 1996 was spelled “Deadmarch,” but later was changed – the first misspelled name to be corrected; following the Detroit Red Wings’ championship in 2002, Manny Legace’s name also was misspelled and later corrected; Tomas Holmstron was misspelled and corrected following the 2008 Detroit Red Wings engraving; Kris Versteeg was spelled as “Vertseeg” in 2010 with the Chicago Blackhawks, but has been corrected
- Some other misspellings on the Stanley Cup that never have been corrected: Jacques Plante’s name has been misspelled (including “Jac” and “Jacq”); Bob Gainey was spelled “Gainy” when he played for the Montreal Canadiens in the 1970s; Ted Kennedy was spelled “Kennedyy” in the 1940s; New York Islanders was spelled “Ilanders” in 1980-81; the Toronto Maple Leafs was spelled “Leaes” in 1962-63; the Boston Bruins was spelled “Bqstqn” in 1971-72
- Name scratched out: “Basil Pocklington,” former Edmonton Oilers owner Peter put his dad’s name on the Stanley Cup in 1983-84; today, on the trophy, one can see a series of “Xs” over his name
- Only one Stanley Cup, authenticated by the seal of the Hockey Hall of Fame in the bottom of the trophy; this seal can be seen when winning players lift the Stanley Cup over their heads
- Second version of the Stanley Cup remains in the Hockey Hall of Fame; it never travels, but is used for display purposes only when the official Stanley Cup is traveling (this version of the trophy has no misspellings)
