PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 130 official-money tournaments on six tours—the PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Champions, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada and Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Three other golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-TOUR co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf for the United States and Mexico, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club hosts the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees The Open Championship and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

PGA TOUR

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf tour, with 2016-17 official-money events beginning in October 2016 and ending in September 2017. This is the 11th season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.

Competition Awards: FedExCup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Courage Award, Rookie of the Year

PGA TOUR Champions

PGA TOUR Champions is a membership organization of golfers age 50 and older, with the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game - including 34 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame. The season-long Charles Schwab Cup gives way to the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs – a three-tournament, season-ending series to determine the Tour's top player. The Charles Schwab Cup will celebrate its 17th season during the Tour's 2017 campaign.

Competition Awards: Charles Schwab Cup, Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year.

Web.com Tour

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR, whereby all 50 TOUR cards come via the Web.com Tour's Regular Season and the season-ending Web.com Tour Finals. More than 440 PGA TOUR titles – including 22 major championships and six PLAYERS Championships – have been won by former Web.com Tour players, while three out of four 2016-17 PGA TOUR members have Web.com Tour roots. The 2015 Web.com Tour Finals produced 10 winners during the TOUR's 2015-16 season, including three of the first four events.

Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with promoters, clubs and national golf federations in Latin America. The inaugural season in 2012 featured 11 tournaments in seven countries in the Latin American region. Since then, it has grown to include 18 events across 12 different countries in 2016. The Tour visits Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Panama, Peru, Uruguay and the United States.

The leading money winner at the end of each season is awarded the Roberto De Vicenzo Award, and the top-five money winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada

The Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf tour played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour in 1971, PGA TOUR Canada has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Since 2013, the Mackenzie Tour has been part of the path to the PGA TOUR, providing access to the Web.com Tour for the top-five finishers on the Order of Merit. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends, but also many of its most prominent international players, who have collectively won 126 PGA TOUR titles, through 2015-16.

Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series

The Ping An Bank China Tour – PGA TOUR China Series is a professional golf tour that made its debut in 2014. The Series provides playing opportunities for natives of China, based on their ranking within the China Golf Association. The Series attracts other players mainly from Asia and other Pacific Rim countries, although membership includes players from five continents. The top-five money winners from the PGA TOUR China Series Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season. For the first time in 2016, the Series played an official event outside Mainland China, the Clearwater Bay Open in Hong Kong.

Overview

The PGA TOUR entered a new era in 2007 with the introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering $35 million in bonus money and culminating with the PGA TOUR's first-ever Playoff system. In 2016-17, the four Playoffs events will offer $35 million in prize money, meaning a total of $70 million is on the line over the four weeks of FedExCup Playoff competition.

Over the span of 43 weeks of competition, players vie to become the FedExCup champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the PGA TOUR season, but also excels through the pressure of the FedExCup Playoffs. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup in 2007 and its $10-million top prize and won again in 2009. Others to hoist the FedExCup trophy include Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013), Billy Horschel (2014), Jordan Spieth (2015) and Rory McIlroy (2016).

During the PGA TOUR season, TOUR members earn points based on their finish, with a strong emphasis placed on winning and high finishes. Once the PGA TOUR season concludes, the top-125 players advance to the Playoffs, a series of four $8.75-million tournaments offering quadruple points relative to PGA TOUR season events.

The Playoffs feature a progressive cut, beginning with THE NORTHERN TRUST outside New York City (125 players), continuing with the Dell Technologies Championship outside Boston (100 players) and the BMW Championship outside Chicago (70 players). A reset takes place, seeding the top-30 players for the culminating TOUR Championship in Atlanta, where the FedExCup champion is crowned.

PGA TOUR Season

The 2016-17 PGA TOUR season consists of 43 events in 39 weeks beginning in October 2016, with the Safeway Open, and ending in August of 2017 at the Wyndham Championship. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the PGA TOUR season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The Masters Tournament, THE PLAYERS Championship, U.S. Open, The Open Championship and the PGA Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner.
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the winner.
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 300 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The PGA TOUR season points standings will carry over to the FedExCup Playoffs for the FedExCup.

FedExCup Playoffs

The FedExCup Playoffs consist of four events immediately following the PGA TOUR season—THE NORTHERN TRUST, Dell Technologies Championship, BMW Championship and the TOUR Championship. The PGA TOUR season points standings determine the top-125 players who qualify for the first event, THE NORTHERN TRUST, held in Old Westbury, New York. Each playoff event offers 2,000 points (quadruple the PGA TOUR season). The second event, the Dell Technologies Championship in Norton, Massachusetts, will have a 100-player field. The third tournament, the BMW Championship in Lake Forest, Illinois, will have 70 players (with no cut). The finale, the TOUR Championship in Atlanta, will be comprised of the top-30 qualifiers following the BMW Championship.

Following a points reset, those players will compete for the FedExCup with all 30 players having a mathematical chance to be crowned the FedExCup champion.

Note: In case of ties, reset points will be distributed between the tying positions using the same method for dealing with ties during events—the total points for each of the tying positions are divided equally among all players in the tying position. In the event that a player who qualifies for a Playoff event chooses not to play in that event, there will be no alternates and the field will be shortened. FedExCup points are subject to change.

A Brief History of the PGA TOUR

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, R.I. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not “tour” golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, Mass., golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, N.C., in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first “playing pros” organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early ‘60s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game.

Most golf historians trace the “formal” beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the “Tournament Players Division” split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by four-time PGA TOUR winner Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman’s administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Tim Finchem, previously the TOUR’s Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR’s third commissioner, on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR’s core business, its competitions, to expand the TOUR’s international scope and to prepare it for the 21st century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf’s five world-governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made its debut in 1999 with three events—today called the Mexico Championship, the Dell Match Play and the Bridgestone Invitational. The HSBC Champions in China was added in 2009. The 2007 season marked the inception of the FedExCup, a season-long points race with four Playoffs events to conclude the season and crown the FedExCup champion.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated more than $2 billion to charity, having surpassed that milestone in January 2014.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today, thanks to the PGA TOUR Champions, Web.com Tour and the International Tours—PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada and Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series. PGA TOUR Champions, in its 37th season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. Fans and television viewers are able to get closer to the game on this Tour, both on site and with instructional platforms. The Charles Schwab Cup will be contested for the 17th time in 2017.

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR, whereby all 50 TOUR cards come via the Web.com Tour. Among the former players on the Web.com Tour who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR include Jason Day, Ernie Els, Jim Furyk, Zach Johnson, Jimmy Walker and Bubba Watson.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves. In May 2007, the reworked PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass, with refurbished fairways and rebuilt greens and a new, enlarged clubhouse, debuted for THE PLAYERS Championship. Further competitive enhancements and improvements were made to the PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass following the 2016 event that will further its stature as the truest test in golf.

For the first time since 1904, golf took part in the Summer Olympics in Rio in 2016, with PGA TOUR members Justin Rose (Gold) of England, Henrik Stenson (Silver) of Sweden and Matt Kuchar (Bronze) of the United States taking home medals on the men’s side.

The successful debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the inaugural FedExCup title. The PGA TOUR celebrated 10 years of the FedExCup in 2016, with Rory McIlroy taking home the FedExCup at East Lake Golf Club in Atlanta.

TPC Sawgrass hosts THE PLAYERS Championship each May.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible.®

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live is a primary focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the Together, anything's possible campaign.

The PGA TOUR and its tournaments generated a record $160 million for charity in 2015, marking the first time they surpassed the $150 million threshold in a single year. This total includes donations made by tournaments on the PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Champions, Web.com Tour, Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada, PGA TOUR China and PGA TOUR Latinoamérica.

With the announcement, the all-time total donated to charity is $2.3 billion since the first charitable contribution of $10,000 was made by the 1938 Palm Beach Invitational. Of that total, more than $1.3 billion has come since the TOUR surpassed the $1-billion plateau in 2005. The $2-billion mark was passed in January of 2014.

Entering its seventh year, Together, anything's possible is the platform to share the PGA TOUR's charity story and offers a greater focus on the charitable activities of TOUR stakeholders.

The Together, anything's possible website (PGATOUR.com/together) has been an effective tool in telling the positive stories of tournaments, players, sponsors, charities volunteers and fans and has been a centerpiece in communicating the TOUR's charity message. Since its launch in 2010, the site has received more than 4.7 million page views.

PLAYERS

The Together, anything's possible platform continues to grow in terms of player and tournament involvement, with over 300 players and charity profiles from all tournaments among PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour featured.

Under the Together, anything's possible platform, the TOUR has committed resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, or digital support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR offers assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those interested in getting started.

"I feel like playing on the PGA TOUR almost comes second," said two-time PGA TOUR champion Jonas Blixt. "What we get to do for charity, what the PGA TOUR gives back to the community, is the greatest thing about playing on the PGA TOUR."

The success stories over the last several years are countless.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a one-day tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

In 2011, country music star Darius Rucker wrote a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceeds from downloads were distributed to PGA TOUR charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

Phil Mickelson and his wife, Amy, began the "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 as a way to support charities that build homes for disabled troops, provide educational opportunities for the spouses and children of servicemen and women killed in action and other avenues of support. In December 2012, the Mickelsons, along with The Greenbrier Resort owners Jim and Cathy Justice, hosted the Birdies for the Brave Pro-Am and Gala at TPC Sawgrass to benefit nine military home front groups.

In 2013, the PGA TOUR Wives Association celebrated its 25th anniversary through a variety of events and activities, including the creation of a cook book, also observing the organization's history as told through the personal stories of TOUR families. Since its incorporation, the Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and performing a myriad of services, ranging from Habitat for Humanity builds to cooking in soup kitchens to fitting children for glasses, to filling school backpacks for kids in communities where tournaments are held.

Players are using the Together, anything's possible platform more and more to assist with their own charitable initiatives.

Erik Compton, who has played five years on the PGA TOUR despite two heart transplants during his lifetime, donates his time and energy at PGA TOUR events to promote Donate Life America, an organization set up to spread news about the importance of organ donation. He appears at clinics and hospitals and visits with transplant patients while also making media appearances.

For several years, the Kate and Justin Rose Foundation has helped students who participate in school lunch programs. For many of those students, lunch at school Friday is the last meal until they return Monday for breakfast. The "Blessings in a Backpack" program ensures these students have food over the weekends. In addition to the financial assistance, the Rose family helps empower less-than-fortunate kids with what they deem to be life's most valuable lesson: when you can see it, you can be it.

In August 2015, the vision of Ernie and Liezl Els came to fruition with the grand opening of the Els Center for Excellence. The Center, based in Jupiter, Fla., serves local, national and international autism communities and is a game-changing resource in the field. Els' philanthropic focus, along with the way he carries himself on and off the golf course, led to him being named the 2015 Payne Stewart Award recipient.

Players continue to become involved in the causes about which they are passionate. Jason and Ellie Day launched their Brighter Days Foundation in 2016 and held a fundraising event at Muirfield Village Golf Club to benefit children's charities in Ohio.

The players, tournaments and communities are encouraged to share their stories through the Together, anything's possible platform. It's not only an avenue through which efforts are brought to light, but how the charities can be supported and successes shared.

THE PLAYERS Championship and TPC Sawgrass

OVERVIEW

When the strongest field in golf takes on the game's greatest stadium, fans flock to the Florida sun to experience one of golf's most prestigious tournaments—THE PLAYERS Championship.

Each May, THE PLAYERS showcases excitement and intensity, not to mention the beauty of one of the most recognized courses in the world—THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass. THE PLAYERS brings the world's top competitors to this superior, demanding golf course and offers a fan experience unlike any other, creating one of the most dynamic, compelling events in all of golf.

HISTORY

Since 1974, when THE PLAYERS was first contested at Atlanta Country Club, the era's best players have battled to take home the trophy. It's fitting that the event's inaugural winner was none other than Jack Nicklaus, the World Golf Hall of Famer who captured a tournament-record three PLAYERS titles in the first five years (1974, 1976 and 1978).

THE PLAYERS moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977 and five years later, the PGA TOUR's flagship event found a permanent home at TPC Sawgrass, Pete Dye's masterpiece and golf's original stadium. Jerry Pate won that first year and celebrated his 1982 triumph by diving into the lake next to the 18th hole, taking Dye and then-PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman with him.

That memorable moment has been followed by many others, including Hal Sutton's "Be the right club today" shot from the fairway on the final hole to defeat Tiger Woods in 2000 and win THE PLAYERS for the second time, and Woods' "Better than most" putt from 60-plus feet during the third round of his 2001 victory. History was made when 2015 winner Rickie Fowler played the final four holes at TPC Sawgrass with just 11 strokes, the best score on THE PLAYERS Stadium Course's finishing holes. One year later, Jason Day continued a strong stretch of play by defeating the best field in golf, becoming just the fifth wire-to-wire winner in history of the event.

GOLF COURSE

Home to the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has established itself as one of the premier tournament venues in all of golf.

THE PLAYERS Stadium Course was designed by renowned golf-course architect Pete Dye. Since its inception, the course's final three holes have evolved into the greatest risk/reward finish in golf, highlighted by the iconic 17th island green, one of the most recognized and photographed holes in the game.

Beginning immediately after THE PLAYERS 2016, the PGA TOUR embarked on a significant construction project to further elevate the world-class experience that is TPC Sawgrass and THE PLAYERS Championship. All greens at the Stadium Course were re-grassed with TifEagle Bermuda and some greens were modified; hole No. 12 was shortened to add more risk-reward shots; Nos. 6 and 7 were reshaped to make them more dramatic; and the practice grounds were enhanced.

CLUBHOUSE

Following THE PLAYERS Championship 2006, heavy equipment replaced golf carts on the greens as crews started the demolition process of the 25-year-old clubhouse. The changes, completed in May 2007, have elevated the reputation of TPC Sawgrass as a world-class resort.

The TPC Sawgrass clubhouse is an expansive, 77,000 square-foot Mediterranean Revival Style building, reminiscent of the history and architectural heritage of Northeast Florida. The clubhouse blends elegant, old-world charm with modern-day comforts and state-of-the-art technology, providing a one-of-a-kind setting for meetings and events of all sizes.

Fronted by a terraced-event lawn offering panoramic views of the ninth and 18th holes, the clubhouse is preceded by a magnificent Walk of Fame entryway and features displays depicting the history and legends of the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship.

In advance of THE PLAYERS 2017, the PGA TOUR made significant investments in the creation of an entry experience as grand as the clubhouse itself and befitting the world-class stature of THE PLAYERS; and upgrades to fan parking and routing to ensure the entire experience – from arrival to departure – is the best on TOUR.

CHARITY

Regardless of the name on the trophy at the end of THE PLAYERS, the true winners will always be the local charitable organizations that benefit from the tournament each year. Thanks to the support of the Northeast Florida community and the tournament's Proud Partners—Morgan Stanley, PwC and Optum—THE PLAYERS has generated more than $75 million to First Coast charities since the event moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977, including a record $8.1 million in 2015.

In 2011, THE PLAYERS announced a committed goal of generating $50 million for youth-related charities over a 10-year period. The focus of this goal is to improve the opportunities for the community's youth through education, character development and health and fitness. THE PLAYERS has already made strides towards this goal through scholarship endowments at both the University of North Florida and Florida State College at Jacksonville for first-generation students. Additionally, THE PLAYERS Center for Child Health was established in partnership with the local children's hospital in Jacksonville, Wolfson Children's Hospital.

Making this positive impact on the community, however, would not be possible without the leadership of the tournament's Red Coats and the hard work and dedication of the tremendous volunteer force. Nearly 2,000 volunteers from more than 40 states give their time and talents each year to help stage this first-class event. From parking cars, shuttling players and staffing the hospitality venues to keeping scores and statistics, volunteers at THE PLAYERS touch every aspect of the tournament.

Tournament volunteers not only help ensure a world-class event, but each year they also create new hope and opportunity in their local communities. This effort continues to prove that giving back is at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

REACH

When the best golfers in the world descend on Ponte Vedra Beach in early May for THE PLAYERS Championship, coverage is at an all-time high thanks to live telecasts on NBC and Golf Channel reaching more than 200 countries and territories around the world. In addition, digital platforms and radio broadcasts give fans myriad options to catch all the action THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has to offer. In 2016, there was a strong presence onsite from Golf Channel, ESPN and Snapchat, making THE PLAYERS the center of the sporting world in early May.

The First Tee

OVERVIEW

Since 1997, The First Tee has introduced the game of golf and its positive values to millions of young people, and in 2015, the organization reached more than 4.7 with character-building programs.

MISSION

To impact the lives of young people by providing educational programs that build character, instill life-enhancing values and promote healthy choices through the game of golf.

ON GOLF COURSES

With more than 1,080 locations in the U.S. and several other countries, The First Tee uses golf to teach youth ages 7 to 18 life lessons and leadership skills. Teaming up with experts in positive youth development, The First Tee helps youth become good golfers and even better people.

What makes The First Tee effective in building positive character traits in young people is The First Tee Life Skills Experience™, a curriculum developed with the help of academic, sport psychology, youth development and golf experts to proactively teach these lessons for life as part of the basic program. The Life Skills Experience is delivered by trained coaches, and through this experience, participants learn to apply life skills and transfer the positive values of golf to everyday life.

IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

In more than 8,000 elementary schools across the United States, many students are teeing off for the first time thanks to The First Tee National School Program. The program brings our curriculum to students during physical education class. Physical educators take professional development training and obtain age-appropriate curriculum and equipment for effective implementation into their programs. By teaching elementary students The First Tee Nine Core Values and Nine Healthy Habits, we're putting them on the course to a healthy and active lifestyle.

Individuals, companies, parent-teacher associations, golf-industry organizations and more provide funding for schools and school districts to implement the program, which continues to expand throughout the United States.

AT YOUTH CENTERS

We believe our values extend beyond the golf course, which is why we launched a program to meet youth where they spend time. Specifically designed for youth-serving organizations, like the Y and the Boys & Girls Club, The First Tee DRIVE gives kids the chance to learn about golf and develop character through fun golf games. The program modifies traditional sports—including baseball, football, bowling and tennis—to incorporate the four basic golf shots: putt, chip, pitch and full swing. Each activity empowers young people to explore their abilities and develop life-enhancing values along the way by integrating The First Tee Nine Core Values™ in each lesson.

The First Tee DRIVE has been introduced to more than 700 youth-serving organizations.

FOUNDING PARTNERS

The First Tee has been successful in creating a broad network of support, thanks to its Founding Partners: PGA TOUR, LPGA, the Masters Tournament, PGA of America and the USGA. Shell Oil Company is the Founding Corporate Partner. Johnson & Johnson is the Legacy Partner, and Southern Company is the Education Patron.

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 23rd year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2016. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate.

Charity has also been a significant focus of Finchem's tenure as commissioner. In January 2014, the TOUR and its tournaments reached the $2-billion milestone in charitable contributions since the first donation in 1938, with $1 million of that total having been raised under Finchem's leadership as commissioner.

Under Finchem's leadership, the TOUR created The Presidents Cup in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After 11 stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar, and in 2015, was conducted in Asia for the first time when it was held just outside Seoul, Korea at the Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. He has shown personal dedication to the success of The First Tee initiative, as he serves as chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors. Since its inception in 1997, The First Tee has grown to reach more than 4.7 million young people annually through its network which includes 1,080 locations in the United States and in select international locations.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR has expanded under Finchem's guidance, with the growth of PGA TOUR Champions, the Web.com Tour and international tours. With many of the game's most recognizable and accomplished players competing regularly on PGA TOUR Champions, golf's future stars follow The Path to the PGA TOUR through the Web.com Tour. The competition has never been stronger as all 50 PGA TOUR cards are awarded through the Web.com Tour, making it the destination for players from the Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada, Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series and PGA TOUR Latinoamérica.

In May 2016, Finchem and LPGA Commissioner Mike Whan announced a new strategic alliance between the two organizations designed to further promote the growth of golf. The partnership includes schedule coordination, joint marketing programs, domestic television representation, digital media and exploring the potential development of joint events.

A member of the International Golf Federation Board of Directors, Finchem was instrumental in golf's successful return to the Summer Olympics in 2016. After a 112-year hiatus, 41 countries were represented in the golf competition in Rio with six different countries taking home medals. This cross-section of participation afforded a unique opportunity to grow the game in underexposed territories and to achieve greater visibility with the potential television audience.

Born in Ottawa, Ill., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Life-time Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

PGA TOUR Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer

Jay Monahan was appointed Deputy Commissioner of the PGA TOUR on April 1, 2014, with Chief Operating Officer added to his title on April 1, 2016.

Prior to his move to the Office of the Commissioner, Monahan served as PGA TOUR Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer, overseeing business development, corporate marketing and partnerships, title sponsor relations, retail licensing and media sales. Prior to being named CMO in March of 2013, Monahan was the Senior Vice President for Business Development where he was responsible for securing new sponsors and managing existing PGA TOUR title sponsorship relationships. He came to the PGA TOUR from Fenway Sports Group (FSG) in June 2008 to become executive director of THE PLAYERS Championship.

At FSG, Monahan served as executive vice president since October 2005, leading the sales and business development team for the property ownership and representation divisions. Prior to joining FSG, Monahan spent three years as executive director at IMG Worldwide, where played an integral role in the development of the Dell Technologies Championship in Norton, Mass., and served as the first tournament director. Additionally, he directed FSG's sponsorship sales operations for the Boston Red Sox, Major League Baseball Advanced Media, NASCAR's Roush Fenway Racing and Boston College Athletics.

Monahan began his sports sponsorship career as director of global sponsorships and branding programs at EMC Corporation. Previously, he worked at Arnold Advertising and Bob Woolf Associates.

Monahan graduated from Trinity College in 1993, where he was a four-year member of the golf team and a Division II Academic All-American his senior year. He earned a masters degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1995.

Jay and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Sophie and Phoebe.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):
 2014 South Georgia Classic.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:
 T3—The Honda Classic.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time, thanks to four top-25 finishes in 26 starts through the Wyndham Championship. Of those, he finished inside the top 10 at The Honda Classic (T3). In his first start in a Playoffs event, struggled to a 4-over 75 in the final round of The Barclays to finish T41 and just outside the top 100 in FedExCup points at No. 101, failing to advance to the next Playoffs event, the Deutsche Bank Championship... On a challenging PGA National layout, posted four rounds of par or better at The Honda Classic to claim T3 honors, his career-best finish. In the final round, the former Auburn Tiger was paired with friend and former University of Alabama standout Justin Thomas, with whom he finished at 5-under 275.

PERSONAL:

Disqualified himself for a rules violation (signing an incorrect scorecard) after advancing through the first stage of the 2012 PGA TOUR Qualifying School at Callaway Gardens in Pine Mountain, Ga. after apparently brushing a leaf in a bunker in the fourth round, assessed himself a one-stroke penalty, when in fact, the penalty should have been two strokes. He played the final two rounds because his caddie was certain the leaf had not moved in the first place. After wrestling with the decision for six days, he called the PGA TOUR and disqualified himself to protect the field. "I continued to pray about it and think about it, and I just did not have any peace about it," Barber told Golfweek. "I knew I needed to do the right thing. I knew it was going to be disqualification." His honesty allowed six other players to advance to the second stage... On May 28, 2015, wife Morgan gave birth to the couple's first child, Emma Elizabeth... Twitter handle is @BlayneBarberAU.

2015-16 SEASON:

Split his time between the Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR in the 2015-16 season. On the PGA TOUR, made six cuts in 12 starts, highlighted by his first career win in his 386th career TOUR start. Prior to his win in Reno, claimed two top-10 finishes on the Web.com Tour in nine starts. Ended the season at No. 142 in the FedExCup standings... Fired 67-67-67 to take a share of the 54-hole lead with Julian Etulain at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open on the Web.com Tour. Entered the final round 12-under par and posted a 2-over 73 for a T7... In his fourth start of the Web.com Tour season at the United Leasing & Finance Championship, posted his second top-10 of the year with a tie for 10th...Broke through in his 386th career PGA TOUR start for his first win at the Barracuda Championship. With only conditional status on the PGA TOUR for the 2015-16 season, won in his seventh start of the season after missing five consecutive cuts. The victory marked his first top-10 finish on the PGA TOUR since a T10 at the 2013 RSM Classic. Prior to his win, his best finishes on TOUR were a pair of T2s at the 2000 Kemper Insurance Open and 2009 Buick Open. Became the first player to win in his 40s on the PGA TOUR in 2015-16 season. Only the 12th different left-handed player to win on the PGA TOUR and first since Bubba Watson (2016 Northern Trust Open). Stormed into the 36-hole lead with point totals of 14 and 10 to open. Playing with the lead in the third round, recorded the second-best score of the day with 15 points to open up a six-point lead. Entered the final hole on Sunday with a one-point lead over Gary Woodland, who was already in the scorer's tent, and needed just a par to win. Instead, stiffed his second shot into the par-5 to five feet and holed the putt for eagle and a six-point victory. By virtue of his victory, earned a two-year exemption on TOUR and the final spot into The Open Championship.

In his fifth start in the Deutsche Bank Championship, held a one-stroke lead after 36 holes after a second-round 7-under 64 which included six birdies, one eagle and one bogey for a 7-under 64. Posted 71-73 to finish T8 with six others...In his first start in the TOUR Championship, made a late bogey at No. 17 in the final round, only his third bogey for the week, to fall into a tie for the lead at 12-under. A par at the final hole of regulation led to a three-way playoff with Ryan Moore and eventual-winner Rory McIlroy, which he exited after a par at the first extra hole. Takes a leading role with his wife, Heather, in support of Love146, an international group dedicated to eradicating the sexual exploitation of children in Thailand, Cambodia and the Philippines... Hosts "Day With the Pros" every year with Discovery Land Co., an endeavor which has raised more than $5 million for charity... Is the mastermind behind the "Golf Boys" video that he starred in along with Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan and Bubba Watson... Was age 5 when his grandfather taught him how to play golf... Doesn't like to know who he will be paired with, saying, "I looked up to a lot of these guys who I'm now playing with. So, I didn't want to have to go to sleep thinking about it. And so that's kind of been my routine. I never want to know who I'm playing with. Just tell me the time. In 2002, at the (AT&T) Byron Nelson I played with Ernie Els in the final round, and it worked well because I watched Ernie play a lot of golf on TV. So we just kind of kept that routine going. I just never look and find out on the first tee."

 4—The RSM Classic; T9—Valero Texas Open.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for a second consecutive time, thanks to three top-10 finishes in 27 starts through the Wyndham Championship. Kept himself alive through the first three of four Playoffs events, before ending his season after the BMW Championship at No. 66 in the FedExCup standings... Closed with matching 4-under 66s on the weekend to finish solo-fourth at The RSM Classic, a distant nine strokes behind runaway-champion Kevin Kisner. It marked his first top-10 since a T10 at the 2015 Travelers Championship (the last of his five top-10s during the 2014-15 season)... Posted four sub-par scores at the Valero Texas Open in April to claim a share of ninth place with three others... In his first appearance at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, opened with 68-67-68 before a 2-under 70 resulted in a sudden-death playoff with William McGirt. Playing in the penultimate grouping, he missed a 15-foot putt on the 72nd hole. Also narrowly missed from 25 feet on the first playoff hole for the win but his par was matched by McGirt, who made a spectacular recovery from a greenside bunker. Bogeeyed the second extra hole when his approach into 18 went long, leaving a difficult up-and-down. His tap-in bogey was no match for McGirt's par. The runner-up result was his third top-10 finish of the season and his second playoff defeat of his career (lost to Alex Cejka at 2015 Puerto Rico Open).

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the ninth consecutive time in his career, making it to the TOUR Championship for the sixth time. Entered the season finale in the No. 4 position on the FedExCup standings, but when he was forced to withdraw from East Lake with a back injury, which also forced him to withdraw from the BMW Championship, ended his season No. 6 in the FedExCup standings. Recorded 16 top-25 finishes from 20 starts. Of those, seven were top-five showings, including three wins, tying the most for the season. Accounted for the only two wire-to-wire wins in 2015-16...At 17-under 271, including rounds of 66-65-70-70, edged Kevin Chappell by one stroke to win the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard for his eighth career PGA TOUR win. Became just the fourth official wire-to-wire winner (no ties) of the event, joining Mike Nicolette (1983), Paul Azinger (1988) and Fred Couples (1992) and the first champion to hold at least a share of the lead after each round since Tiger Woods in 2002. The win, which came at age 28 years, 4 months, eight days in his 176th PGA TOUR start, propelled him from No. 121 to No. 18 in the FedExCup standings and from No. 3 to No. 2 in the Official World Golf Ranking. At the conclusion of the event, has played his last 190 holes on TOUR without a 3-putt, with his last coming on the ninth hole in the second round of the 2016 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. Dominance on the greens included just 100 putts for the and a field-leading Strokes Gained - Putting stat of 14.853. The win came in his sixth start at Bay Hill (previous-best finish was T17 in 2015) and made him just the fifth international-born player, and second Australian to win the Arnold Palmer Invitational; Scotland's Martin Laird (2011), South Africa's Ernie Els (1998 and 2010), Australia's Rod Pampling (2006) and Vijay Singh of Fiji (2007)...Claimed his ninth TOUR win and second World Golf Championships-Dell Match Play title on the heels of his win at Bay Hill to join Adam Scott as the second Australian player to win back-to-back titles in 2015-16. Despite suffering a back injury on the opening day and subsequently receiving more than 10 hours of treatment during the week, he defeated Graeme McDowell (3 and 2), Thongchai Jaidee (5 and 3) and Paul Casey (conceded) to advance out of Group Play. He faced Brandt Snedeker in the fourth round and won, 3 and 2. With a 3-and-2 win over Brooks Koepka in the quarterfinals, he regained the No. 1 position in the Official World Golf Ranking. In semifinals match against defending champion Rory McIlroy, his only match all week to go beyond the 16th hole, he won 1-up, holing a 12-foot putt for par after both players missed the final green in regulation. Defeated fellow 2015 Presidents Cup teammate Louis Oosthuizen, 5 and 4, in the final. It marked his 50th career top-10 and he surpassed $30 million in career earnings...Two weeks later, his T10 finish at the Masters, coupled with Jordan Spieth's T2 showing, was enough to hang on to the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Rankings. Managed to finish inside the top 10 at Augusta National, despite just one sub-par score, a 1-under 71 in the third round...Posted a final-round 6-under 66 in the rain-shortened Zurich Classic of New Orleans to finish T5. Was the first No.1 player in the Official World Golf Ranking to compete in New Orleans since David Duval in 1999. Ranked No. 1 in driving distance for the week (312.2) and was also the highest finisher of the seven Zurich ambassadors in the field...Claimed seventh victory in a 17-month stretch, and 10th title on TOUR with four-stroke win at THE PLAYERS Championship. Joined Tiger Woods, Rory McIlroy, Phil Mickelson and David Duval as the only players to reach double-digit wins on TOUR before age 29. With 9-under 63 in opening round at TPC Sawgrass, joined Fred Couples (1992), Greg Norman (1994), Roberto Castro (2013) and Martin Kaymer (2014) as course-record holders. Colt Knost joined the group with 63 in second round of 2016. Bogey-free 63-66--129 (-15) set the 36-hole tournament record at THE PLAYERS and four-stroke margin through 36 holes was also a tournament record. Marked the first time in his career he went bogey free in first 36 holes at any TOUR event. Was the first wire-to-wire winner of THE PLAYERS since Hal Sutton in 2000. Victory was the fifth consecutive win on TOUR where he held 54-hole lead and went on to win. Fourth Australian to win THE PLAYERS following Steve Elkington (twice), Greg Norman and Adam Scott. Joined Tiger Woods (2001, 2013) and Greg Norman (1994) as the only players to win THE PLAYERS while ranked No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking. Led the field in Scrambling, with 17 of 20, as well as Driving Distance (311.6 yards). Ranked third in total distance of putts holed with 392 feet. Earned 600 FedExCup points to overtake fellow Australian Adam Scott as No. 1 in FedExCup standings with a 192-point margin...Finished T8 at the U.S. Open for his 12th top-10 finish in 23 major championship starts. Stood 10 strokes behind first-round leader Andrew Landry after a 6-over 76, but fought his way back into contention until a double bogey on the par-4 17th hole on Sunday derailed his title hopes. Would have marked the largest 54-hole comeback in U.S. Open history, topping Jack Fleck's nine-stroke comeback over the final 54 holes to win the 1955 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club. Marked his fifth top-10 in six U.S. Open starts (2nd-2011, T59-2012, T2-2013, T4-2014, T9-2015, T8-2016)...Held solo 36-hole lead and share of 54-hole lead at World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Reached 7-under to lead in final round before bogey at 15th hole, followed by double bogey at No. 16 and bogey on 18 to close with 72 and finish T3. Ended a streak of converting five consecutive 54-hole leads/co-leads into victories. Dropped from No.

Season was highlighted by a top-five performance on the PGA TOUR in his professional debut and his maiden professional victory on the Web.com Tour, securing his 2016-17 PGA TOUR card in his first-ever Web.com Tour start...Made his professional debut at the 2016 RBC Heritage, finishing T4 and just four strokes behind champion Branden Grace. Carded rounds of 70-69-72-68 at Harbour Town Golf Links en route to his first professional paycheck ($259,600)...Prior to his professional debut in Hilton Head, made five amateur starts on the PGA TOUR: 2015 FedEx St. Jude Classic (T45), 2015 U.S. Open (MC), 2015 John Deere Classic (MC), 2016 Arnold Palmer Invitational (T27), 2016 Masters Tournament (T21). Highlighting those events was a final-round 66, while playing alongside Rory McIlroy, to finish T27 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational...In addition to those amateur TOUR starts, had four European Tour starts, led by a T18 finish at the 2016 Omega Dubai Desert Classic. Led the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship with a first-round 64, going on to finish T54...Closed with a 4-under 67 to finish runner-up by two strokes to 56-year-old Peter Senior at the 2015 Australian Masters in late November. Would have been the first-ever amateur to win that event...Finished T15 in his second U.S. Open start...Earned a spot in the Web.com Tour Finals via non-member FedExCup Points following 10 starts on the PGA TOUR...Won in his Web.com Tour debut at the DAP Championship. In the first event of the Web.com Tour Finals, shot a 6-under 64 in the opening round to get within one shot of Bobby Wyatt's lead. Finished the second round in a five-way tie for the 36-hole lead with four other players at 6-under par, then surged into sole possession of the 54-hole lead with a 2-under 68 in the third round. Led Zack Sucher by one shot entering the final round but struggled early with bogeys on two of his first six holes. Tied the lead with his first birdie of the final round at the par-5 ninth and took a one-shot lead with his second birdie of the day at the par-5 16th. On the par-3 17th, fell into a share of the lead with three others after three-putting for the first time of the week. After hitting his approach into the left rough on the 18th, made a clutch up-and-down to secure a spot in a four-way playoff. Answered Andres Gonzales' 30-foot birdie with a three-foot birdie of his own to force another playoff hole, where he defeated Gonzales with a par for his first professional victory. Locked up his PGA TOUR card for the 2016-17 season with rounds of 64-70-68-71--273 (-7) and the $180,000 first-place check. 2015 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with Brandt Snedeker].

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—CareerBuilder Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation; T6—DEAN & DELUCA Invitational; T8—U.S. Open, TOUR Championship; T9—The RSM Classic, Sony Open in Hawaii.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the eighth time in his career, making it to the TOUR Championship for the fifth time in the No. 27 position in the FedExCup standings. Finished T8 at East Lake to end his season No. 19 in the FedExCup standings, his best result since 2013 when he finished at the same spot. Recorded 12 top-25 finishes from 28 starts. Of those, six were top-10 showings, including a win at the CareerBuilder Challenge. Making his first start at The RSM Classic, posted rounds of 67-70-66-69 to finish T9. It was his first top-10 finish since a T8 in late-May 2015 at the AT&T Byron Nelson. Teamed with Brandt Snedeker to win the Franklin Templeton Shootout in mid-December with a final-round 11-under-par 61. Their winning total of 30-under-par 186 was the highest winning score since Ian Poulter and Dustin Johnson finished at 30-under 186 in 2010. Finished T9 at the Sony Open in Hawaii, for consecutive top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR for the first time since matching T9 finishes at the 2014 World Golf Championships-Dell Match Play and WGC-Cadillac Championship. It also marked his first top-10 in eight starts at the Sony Open in Hawaii, with his previous-best finish a T13 in 2007. A week later, claimed his fourth career TOUR title at the CareerBuilder Challenge in sudden death over David Lingmerth. Took a two-stroke lead into the final round at 23-under, but was caught after 72 holes by David Lingmerth, who posted a bogey-free 7-under 65. Shot of the tournament came from Dufner at the par-3 17th Sunday. When his tee shot found the rocks over the green, a remarkable recovery chip tapped the pin, stopping just inches away. In sudden death, a clutch, seven-foot putt for par on the first extra hole, No. 18, sent the pair back to the 18th tee for a second extra hole. When Lingmerth's approach found the water hazard, Dufner's par was good enough for the win. Finished 9-under 271 and T6 at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, eight strokes behind champion Jordan Spieth. The former AT&T Byron Nelson champion was seeking to become the 16th player to win the "DFW Double". With his fourth top-10 of the season, moved to No. 14 in the FedExCup standings. Two starts later, finished T8 at Oakmont Country Club for his third top-10 in 10 U.S. Open starts, to go with back-to-back T4s at the 2012 & 2013 U.S. Opens. In his first appearance at the TOUR Championship since 2013, posted a 4-under 66 in the third round to sit sixth through 54 holes. Closed with a final-round 70 to finish T8, marking his sixth top-10, the most in a season since 2012 (8).

PERSONAL:

Born in Cleveland, Ohio and family moved to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. when he was 14. Did not start playing golf until age 15. Walked on at Auburn University where he won three times. Lists Ben Hogan as his hero. Charity is the Jason Dufner Foundation, which focuses on ending childhood hunger in Lee County, Ala. Provides weekend meals for more than 1,200 children throughout the school year and over summer break.

2015-16 SEASON:

Made nine cuts in 20 PGA TOUR starts, including two top-10s, to finish No. 153 in FedExCup points, outside the top 125 who advance to the FedExCup Playoffs. Earned $773,025 to finish No. 118 on money list and remain exempt for 2016-17 season, the last time players could retain their PGA TOUR card for the next season by finishing inside the top 125 on the money list...In Saturday's third round at THE PLAYERS Championship, with winds gusting to 20 mph, posted a 7-under 65 that many players suggested might be the round of the year given the firm, fast greens at TPC Sawgrass. Starting on hole No. 10, the round included five consecutive birdies on holes 3-7. It was the low round of the day when only two other players (Hideki Matsuyama/67, Graeme McDowell/69) posted rounds in the 60s. It was also 10.592 strokes better than the field average, the most of any player averages versus the field at THE PLAYERS since 1983. His T3 finish at 10-under allowed him to jump 47 spots in the FedExCup standings from No. 194 to 147, the greatest improvement of any player that week...Four starts later, posted his second top-10 of the season at the FedEx St. Jude Classic (T9).

PERSONAL:

As a seventh grader, was diagnosed with scoliosis. The Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock, Ark., determined he had a 26 percent curvature of the spine and advised him to wear a back brace 23 hours a day. Two years later, with the curvature reaching 51 percent, he underwent surgery. Without the procedure, the pressure on his lungs and heart might have become life-threatening. Surgeons attached a 16-inch metal rod to his spine to facilitate straightening. Remarkably, just months later he returned to his high school golf team—and playing in a back brace—won medalist honors at a district tournament. In 2009, the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences established The Ken Duke Endowed Chair in Scoliosis. Funds from the chair treat spinal deformities, tumors and fractures...He credits his dad for giving him his start in golf but says legendary instructor Bob Toski changed his swing and his life. His biggest golf thrill was playing a round at Augusta National in 2009 with Toski, who was 82 at the time...An avid fisherman and country music fan...Lists Larry Bird as his hero...Was inducted into the Arkansas Golf Hall of Fame in October 2013 at Pleasant Valley CC in Little Rock...Pledged $25,000 to Travelers Championship charities at awards ceremony after his 2013 victory, issuing a personal check before leaving TPC River Highlands that evening...Along with former teammates, helped raise money for the Ken Duke Golf Center on the campus of Henderson State. The state-of-the-art facility, which opened in the summer of 2016, includes coaching staff offices, classrooms, TrackMan simulators and an indoor putting green.

2015-16 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 16 starts, one win, one runner-up and eight cuts made. Was 34th in the final priority-ranking order...Picked up his maiden Tour victory in Cartagena in his 136th start on Tour. Opened the Servientrega Championship Presented by Efecty with a 1-under 71 in blustery conditions. Took full advantage of calm conditions on Friday morning and fired a 7-under 65 to take the outright lead by one over Jonathan Byrd and Jorge Fernandez-Valdes. Struggled on Saturday and posted a 2-under 70. Entered the final round trailing Kevin Tway by a shot. Birdied the 72nd hole to force a playoff with Ollie Schniederjans. Won with a par on the first extra hole after Schniederjans rinsed two balls in the water...In his next start, opened with a 6-under 66 at the El Bosque Mexico Championship, and was within a shot of the lead after the first round. Recorded a 65 on Friday and shared the 36-hole lead with Wesley Bryan before a Saturday 69 gave him a two-shot cushion heading into the final round. Was tied for the lead with Bryan most of the final round until an errant tee shot at the par-3 seventh found the water. Had a chance to finish solo-second but missed a five-foot putt for birdie on the 72nd hole and settled for a T2, locking up his return to the PGA TOUR...Secured his PGA TOUR card for the 2016-17 season with a 14th-place finish on the 2016 Web.com Tour Regular Season money list...Missed the cut in three Web.com Tour Finals events.

Bush...Met his wife, Megan, on eHarmony.com...Bucket list includes dropping the puck at a NHL playoff game...Not many people know that he never broke par in high school...If he didn't play golf professionally, he would want to work for some kind of law enforcement or homeland security. Planned to go to law school if he hadn't turned professional...Enjoys watching football or hockey.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—U.S. Open; T5—Travelers Championship; T10—Wyndham Championship.

2015-16 SEASON:

Despite missing several tournaments while recovering from a wrist injury and not making his first start of the season until May, advanced to FedExCup Playoffs for 10th consecutive season, one of 16 players to achieve this feat. Finished No. 86 in the FedExCup standings and failed to advance beyond the Deutsche Bank Championship for the first time in history of the Playoffs... In his first start since withdrawing from the first round of the 2015 BMW Championship due to a wrist injury, missed the cut at the Wells Fargo Championship... In his fifth start of the season, finished T2 at the U.S. Open, three strokes behind champion Dustin Johnson, for his 30th runner-up finish on the PGA TOUR (to go with 17 TOUR victories). Marked first top-10 since a T4 at the 2015 Deutsche Bank Championship, giving him at least one top-10 finish in each season since joining the PGA TOUR in 1994 (180 overall). The 2003 U.S. Open champion now has 23 top-10s in 82 major championship appearances. Week highlighted by a final-round 4-under 66 (the best score of the final round) to equal his second-best final round in 82 major starts, second only to 65 to close the 2014 Open Championship en route to a fourth-place finish. The runner-up finish was his 16th top-five finish in major championships, with two coming at Oakmont (2007, 2016)... Became the first player in PGA TOUR history to shoot 58, achieving the feat in the final round of the Travelers Championship at TPC River Highlands. Round included 10 birdies and a hole-out eagle on the par-4 third hole from 135 yards for a 12-under-par total. He moved from T-70 to T5 with the round and beat the final-round scoring average by 10.66 strokes. After making eagle at the third, made five more birdies on the front side en route to a 27, which is one off the TOUR record for nine holes, 26 set by Corey Pavin on the front nine of the first round of the 2006 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. The front-nine 27 bested the tournament record for the front nine by two shots. Seven consecutive birdies or better is a career-best. Is one of six players to record 59 on the PGA TOUR, and also the most recent, recording 59 in the second round of the 2013 BMW Championship. With his 58 in the final round of the Travelers Championship, is now the only player in history to break 60 twice on the PGA TOUR. After rounds of 73-66, made the cut on the number at 1-under par before weekend rounds of 72-58 for the T5 finish... Two days after his 58, was named the 2016 Payne Stewart Award recipient which is presented annually to a professional golfer who best exemplifies Stewart's steadfast values of character, charity and sportsmanship. Was chosen for the honor by a selection committee comprised mainly of past Payne Stewart Award winners and heads of leading golf organizations. The award was presented in a

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—AT&T Byron Nelson; 2—The Honda Classic; T5—U.S. Open, The Open Championship.

2015-16 SEASON:

Eight top-25 finishes in 13 starts, including a win at the AT&T Byron Nelson and three additional top-five finishes, helped him advance to the FedExCup Playoffs for a 10th consecutive time, one of 16 players to qualify for all 10 seasons of the FedExCup Playoffs. After not competing in The Barclays, kept himself alive through the next two Playoffs events, before ending his season after the BMW Championship at No. 32 in the FedExCup standings...After finishing regulation in a four-way tie at 14-under, emerged victorious in a playoff to win the Asian Tour's Ho Tram Open in Vietnam in early December. Entered the 71st hole with a two-shot lead before a double bogey gave new life to India's Himmat Rai, Thailand's Thaworn Wiratchant and Chinese Taipei's Wentang Lin. Pars on the first extra hole eliminated Thaworn and Lin, while Garcia sank a 35-foot birdie putt and Rai birdied from five feet to advance. An errant drive for Rai on the second hole opened the door for Garcia, who went on to par the hole for his first victory since the 2014 Qatar Masters...In his sixth start at The Honda Classic, went from three strokes down to one ahead in the span of one hole in the third round, following Adam Scott's quadruple bogey-7 at the par-3 15th hole. By day's end, the pair was tied for the 54-hole lead at PGA National at 9-under 201. When bogeys on two of his final three holes in Sunday's final round resulted in a 1-over 71, settled for second place to Scott by a stroke. The runner-up finish marked his 15th on the PGA TOUR and was his 90th top-10...Serving as tournament host, finished solo-third and just two strokes behind champion Andrew Johnston at the Real Club Valderrama Open de Espana, hosted by the Sergio Garcia Foundation...Entered the final round of the AT&T Byron Nelson trailing 54-hole leader Brooks Koepka by three strokes. With a final-round 2-under 68 leading to a 15-under 265 total, advanced to a playoff with Koepka, who closed with a 1-over 71. With Koepka hitting his tee shot in the water on the first playoff hole (No. 18) en route to a double bogey, the door was open for Garcia to win the AT&T Byron Nelson for the second time in his career (winning in 2004 in a playoff as well). Garcia's par led to his ninth PGA TOUR victory at the same event where he made his first start as a professional in the United States (finishing T3 in 1999). Improved his playoff record to 5-6, snapping a streak of three straight losses in playoffs. With nine PGA TOUR victories, tied Seve Ballesteros for the most wins on TOUR by a player from Spain. Jumped from No. 48 to No. 12 in the FedExCup standings. Became the 10th international winner at the AT&T Byron Nelson since 2000 and the first multiple winner of the event since it moved to TPC Four Seasons Las Colinas in 1983...Came back in his next PGA TOUR start with a T5 at Oakmont CC, finishing four strokes behind U.S. Open champion Dustin Johnson. Holds the distinction among active players with the most consecutive major championship starts without a victory, with the U.S. Open marking his 68th straight major championship start (dating to the 1999 Open Championship)...Recorded his second consecutive top-five in a major with a T5 at The Open Championship at Royal Troon, marking the third time in his career he's posted top-fives in majors in the same season (2005 and 2006). Now owns 12 top-five finishes (including four runner-up finishes) in 72 major championship appearances overall...Represented Spain when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Finished T8 in the 60-player field...Making his eighth start at the Ryder Cup, went 1-2-2 in his five matches in the European team's 17-11 defeat to the United States at Hazeltine. Halved his singles match with Phil Mickelson, with the twosome combining for 19 birdies and a score of 14-under 58.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—RBC Heritage; T4—PGA Championship; T5—World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions, U.S. Open; T9—Valero Texas Open; T10—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs in his first season as an official PGA TOUR member, thanks to six top-10 finishes, including his first victory at the RBC Heritage, in 15 starts in the regular PGA TOUR season. Kept himself alive through the first three Playoffs events, before ending his season after the BMW Championship at No. 41 in the FedExCup standings...Recorded rounds of 67-70-69-67 to finish T17 at the CIMB Classic in Malaysia, his first start of the season...The following week, held the first-round lead at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions after a bogey-free, PGA TOUR career-low 63. Started the second round with a two-stroke advantage and fell behind after a 71 Friday. Carded 70-68 over the weekend, resulting in a T5...Batting windy conditions up to 35 mph on the weekend, dropped just one shot over his final 51 holes en route to a two-stroke victory over Thorbjorn Olesen and Rafa Cabrera Bello at the Commercial Bank Qatar Masters, becoming the first player to win the event in back-to-back seasons. Entered the final round trailing two-time champion

Paul Lawrie by two strokes, but with Lawrie struggling to a final-round 78, his 69 on the final day (one of just four sub-70 rounds in the final round) led to the two-stroke victory and his seventh European Tour title...Captured his first PGA TOUR victory at the RBC Heritage, carding a final-round 5-under 66 and coming from three strokes back to win by one stroke over Scotland's Russell Knox and England's Luke Donald. Began the week sharing the first-round lead with Luke Donald at 5-under 66. The win came in his 51st PGA TOUR start at the age of 27 years, 10 months and 28 days. It marked just his second start at the RBC Heritage, having finished T7 in 2015 via a sponsor's exemption from the tournament. Continues to find Harbour Town Golf Links to his liking, as he has just one round over par (74/R2/2016) in his eight trips around the course. With the victory, became the 11th first-time winner of the RBC Heritage and the first since Boo Weekley in 2007. In addition, became the 10th international winner this season and 11th to win the RBC Heritage, joining Graeme McDowell (2013), Carl Pettersson (2012), Aaron Baddeley (2006), Peter Lonard (2005), Jose Coceres (2001), Nick Price (1997), Greg Norman (1988), Bernhard Langer (1985), Nick Faldo (1984) and Graham Marsh (1977). Was the only player during the week to reach double-figures under-par, making pivotal birdies on Nos. 12 and 13 to move to 10-under and a three-stroke cushion. Despite a bogey on the par-3 17th hole, parred the famed 18th hole to record the victory. At No. 14 in the Official World Golf Ranking, was the second-highest ranked player in the field...A week later in his third start at the Valero Texas Open, jumped 20 spots up the leaderboard with a final-round 67 to finish at 8-under 280 and T9 with three others...Next top-10 came two starts later at Oakmont Country Club, finishing T5 (and four strokes behind champion Dustin Johnson) in his fourth U.S. Open start (2012-T51, 2013-MC, 2015-T4, 2016-T5). The T5 finish was his fourth top-10, equaling his career-high mark from the 2014-15 season...Final-round 68 earned T10 finish at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, his third top-10 at a World Golf Championships event (T9/2015 Dell Match Play, T5/2015 HSBC Champions)...Following a third-place finish in last year's PGA Championship at Whistling Straits, posted a 3-under 67 in the final round at Baltusrol GC to claim a share of fourth place with Hideki Matsuyama and Brooks Koepka in the season's final major championship. The finish marked his 10th top-10 showing on the PGA TOUR and fifth of the season. It was his fourth top-10 finish in 19 major championship starts.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

T19—World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions.

2015-16 SEASON:

Held off a final-round charge, a Black Mountain Golf Club course record 63 from hometown favorite Piya Swangarunporn, to win the True Thailand Classic. Entered the day with a six-stroke advantage over Swangarunporn, but that lead turned into a one-stroke deficit with five holes left to play. Went on to birdie Nos. 14 and 17 to close with a 68, good for a slim one-stroke victory (his second European Tour title). The victory was sweet redemption from a disappointing finish to the same event in 2015, where he also held the 54-hole lead but an eventual bogey on No. 17 kept him out of the winner's circle. With the victory, became the fifth different Australian to win on Tour this season, the first time that happened in European Tour history. Extended his record of consecutive winning years worldwide to five, inclusive of 2016, dating to 2012. In addition, owns victories in Asia in seven different destinations: Indonesia, Cambodia, China, Taiwan, Macau, Hong Kong and Thailand...Came close to his third European Tour title with a runner-up finish to Alex Noren at the Omega European Masters. Both players posted four rounds in the 60s to finish regulation at 17-under 263, but it was Noren coming out on top with a birdie on the first extra hole... The victory and runner-up finish were highlights of another steady year, adding top-10 finishes at the KLM Open (T4), Shenzhen International (T4) Volvo China Open (T6) and Omega Dubai Desert Classic (T8)...Made the cut in all five PGA TOUR starts during the 2015-16 season, with a T19 at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions his best outing...Represented Australia when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Finished T39 in 60-player field.

PERSONAL:

Was a state representative at indoor cricket in his native Australia...Won a tournament in Canada four days after being married, with wife, Leanne, as his caddie...First golf memory was caddieing for his dad and watching the wildlife on the course...If not a professional golfer, would probably be a dog trainer in the military...Biggest thrill in golf was playing in his first U.S. Open and getting a PGA TOUR card in 2004...Favorite courses played are The National GL and TPC Sawgrass...Favorite teams are Brisbane Lions and Manchester United...Favorite athlete is Nascar racer Jimmy Johnson of the "Lowe's 48 car"...Would trade places with his kids for a day "to show them why I'm away so much"...Dream foursome is "anyone on Sunday as long as I'm leading"...Most people don't know he likes Dean Martin...Bucket list includes attending the Monaco F1 and owning a Ferrari...First-tee intro song would be "Burn It Down" by Linkin Park...Website is scotthend.com.

2016 Shell Houston Open.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2010 Moonah Classic.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Shell Houston Open; T10—CIMB Classic.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the second consecutive year, thanks to five top-25 finishes in 26 starts during the regular season, including his first TOUR win at the Shell Houston Open. Kept himself alive through three of four Playoffs events with two additional top-25s at The Barclays (T22) and BMW Championship (T24), before ending his season after the BMW Championship at No. 42 in the FedExCup standings. Following a 72nd-place finish and missed cuts in first two starts of the 2015-16 PGA TOUR season, posted rounds of 70-66-68-67 to T10 at the CIMB Classic in Malaysia. Earned his first career PGA TOUR title at the Shell Houston Open in his 106th TOUR start at the age of 38 years, 4 months, 29 days. Won by one stroke over Henrik Stenson. With the win, claimed the last spot in the following week's Masters Tournament, becoming the first player since Matt Jones in 2014 to play his way into the Masters via a win at the Shell Houston Open. With rounds of 69-69-67-68—273 (-15) in Houston, posted four rounds in the 60s for just the fourth time in his career. Became the 16th player in tournament history to make the Shell Houston Open his maiden PGA TOUR victory. Missed the cut in his Masters debut. Made starts in each major for the first time in his career, with The Open Championship his only made cut (T43).

PERSONAL:

Started playing golf at age 9 by tagging along with father and brother, Tom, at the local municipal course. By age 12, after mom dropped him off at the course, he played from dawn until dusk, using an all-day youth ticket. Favorite course played is Pebble Beach. Would most like to play Cypress Point. Favorite college team is the Cincinnati Bearcats. Favorite professional team is the Cincinnati Bengals. Favorite TV show is "SportsCenter." Favorite movie is "Tin Cup." Favorite food is a rare steak, with A1 Sauce. Would round out his dream foursome with his dad, brother and son, Andrew. Is perhaps best known for working as an assistant club pro at Trump National Bedminster in New Jersey in 2006-07. Has played numerous rounds with Donald Trump and Trump's celebrity friends. Enjoys the travel aspect of the TOUR and often plays classic golf courses located near that week's TOUR stop. Hopes to play every course that has hosted a U.S. Open, The Open Championship and The Amateur Championship. Has never had a swing coach or sports psychologist. Marks his ball on the green with Presidential dollar gold coins. Roommate from his assistant-pro days, Steven Wyder, a high school history teacher, picks the "lucky" coins each week depending on event locations and dates. Ball marker has its own Twitter handle, @POTUSBallMarker, so his fans can follow.

2015-16 SEASON:

Qualified for the FedExCup Playoffs for the eighth consecutive season. Entered the TOUR Championship in the No. 1 position in the FedExCup standings and finished T6 at East Lake to end his season No. 2 in the FedExCup standings. Recorded 19 top-25 finishes from 22 starts. Of those, 11 were top-five showings, including his first major victory at the U.S. Open, a victory at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and a win at the BMW Championship. Recorded 15 top-10 finishes, the most of any player in 2015-16, four more than the next best player (Patrick Reed/11). Has won at least once in each of his first nine seasons on the PGA TOUR, the TOUR's current best streak. Season was heralded with awards including the Arnold Palmer Award (for finishing first on Official Money List with $9,365,185), the Byron Nelson Award (for leading the TOUR in Adjusted Scoring Average with a 69.17 average) and his first Player of the Year honor. Made his season debut in Shanghai at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. Opened with a 7-under 65 and was just two back of first-round leader Branden Grace. After a 71 in the second round, fired a bogey-free 65 Saturday and stood one back of Kevin Kisner and Russell Knox through 54 holes. Was in the mix early Sunday before he spun his wedge-shot approach off the green and into the water on the par-5 eighth hole. The double bogey dropped him out of contention, and he failed to regain his standing. Carded a 71 Sunday for a T5, his third top-10 in his last three starts going back to the 2014-15 season. Recorded his fourth top-10 in last four starts at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, where he finished in a five-way T10, 15 strokes behind runaway winner Jordan Spieth. Finished fourth at the Northern Trust Open, two shots behind winner Bubba Watson, continuing his strong play at Riviera CC. Marked the fourth time he finished in the top four in the last five years (T4 in 2012, missed the cut in 2013, second in 2014 and T2 in 2015). Advanced out of group play of the World Golf Championships-Dell Match Play after winning a sudden death playoff with Thailand's Kiradech Aphibarnrat on the first extra hole when the two were tied with two points each. Defeated Patrick Reed, 3 and 2, in the fourth round then lost, 2 and 1, to Louis Oosthuizen in the quarterfinals. In his fifth start at the Shell Houston Open, collected his second top-five finish. Ranked first in Strokes Gained: Putting (2.191). The third-place showing was his fifth top-10 in eight starts for the season. A week after Houston, claimed T4 at the Masters, with J.B. Holmes and Paul Casey, at 1-under 287. Offset two double bogeys in the final round at Nos. 5 and 17, par-4s, with five birdies to post a 1-under 71 and claim his best finish in seven starts at the Masters. Shot 8-under 64, which included 10 birdies to be first-round leader at the Memorial Tournament, eventually finishing solo third for his seventh top-10 this season. Was his ninth consecutive start at the Memorial Tournament and his second top-10 at Muirfield Village (fourth in 2011). Ranked third in Greens In Regulation (55 of 72) for the week (76.4 percent). Recorded his second top-five finish in as many weeks with a fifth-place finish in his next start at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. Opened with rounds of 66-69, but moved down the leaderboard with a third-round 3-over 73. Closed with the low round of the tournament, a 7-under 63. Narrowly missed the water on his approach shot into the

72nd hole, then chipped in for birdie to get to 9-under 271 for the tournament. The performance marked his third top-10 in five starts at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, having won in 2012 and posting a T10 in 2013. Got the proverbial monkey off his back the following week, breaking through with his first major championship with a three-stroke win over Jim Furyk, Shane Lowry and Scott Piercy at the 116th U.S. Open. Entered the final round trailing 54-hole leader Lowry by two strokes before a final-round 1-under 69 (which included a one-stroke penalty for his ball moving on the par-4 fifth green) led to his 10th PGA TOUR victory. The win came in his 193rd start at age 31 years, 11 months, 28 days. With the win, became the first player to follow a runner-up finish at the U.S. Open with a victory the next season since Tiger Woods (2007-08), with the others including Payne Stewart (1998-99), Jack Nicklaus (1971-72) and Bobby Jones (three times). Has now won at least one tournament in each of his first nine seasons on the PGA TOUR (the TOUR's current best streak). By comparison, Woods won in his first 14 seasons (1996-2009). Sunday's final round marked the 12th consecutive U.S. Open round that he had been ranked sixth or better on the leaderboard, dating to the first round of the 2014 U.S. Open. Woods (1999-2000) and Stewart (1998-99) are next on the list, with eight straight rounds, with all three players winning during their respective stretch. Opened this week with rounds of 67-69, becoming just the second player (Hale Irwin, 1994) to open a U.S. Open at Oakmont with two rounds in the 60s. Went on to post a 4-under 276 winning score, the lowest score in the record nine U.S. Opens hosted by Oakmont Country Club. Owns eight top-10 finishes in his last 10 major championship starts, with 12 top-10s overall in majors. Joined Woods, Ernie Els, Geoff Ogilvy, Rory McIlroy, Justin Rose and Martin Kaymer as players with victories at the U.S. Open and a World Golf Championships event, as well as becoming the ninth player with at least one major championship victory and multiple World Golf Championships wins. Won in his next start at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational posting back-to-back victories for the first time in his career. Shot consecutive rounds of 66 on the weekend to rally from three strokes behind at start of final round for his third career World Golf Championships victory. Finished two groups ahead of 54-hole co-leader Jason Day who dropped four strokes in last four holes to finish T3 and three strokes back. Earned 550 points to overtake Jason Day at No. 1 in the FedExCup standings, the first time he has been ranked No. 1 in the standings since winning the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Became first player since Spieth in 2015 to win next start after winning U.S. Open. Earned his 11th PGA TOUR title and his 10th top-10 finish of the season. Led Strokes Gained: Off-the-Tee for the week...Opened The Open Championship at Royal Troon with an even-par 71, ending his streak of six consecutive sub-par opening rounds on TOUR. Ensuing rounds of 69-72-70 resulted in a T9 finish, his fourth consecutive top-10 in the last four majors, dating to the 2015 PGA Championship... Posted 6-under 66 to share 18-hole lead with Luke List at the RBC Canadian Open. Pair retained the co-lead through 36 holes at 137 (-7). Entered final round one stroke back of Brandt Snedeker but final-round 3-under 69 came up one stroke shy of Jhonattan Vegas' 12-under winning total. Ranked No. 1 in Driving Distance for the week with 334.9 yard average...Offset a third-round, 4-over 75 at the Deutsche Bank Championship with scores of 68-66-66 in rounds one, two and four, respectively to finish T8 at TPC Boston with six others...A week later, won his 12th career PGA TOUR title and second at the BMW Championship. Joined Tiger Woods as players who won a major championship crown, World Golf Championships title and a FedExCup Playoffs event in the same season. Played the 16 par-5s at Crooked Stick in 15-under and set a new course record of 63 in the second round. With the win, collected 2,000 FedExCup points and moved to No. 1...Came to the TOUR Championship as the No. 1 player in the FedExCup standings after a win in his last start at the BMW Championship. After holding at least a share of the lead for each of the first three rounds, finished T6 with a final-round 3-over 73. Upon finishing, waited to see the outcome of the three-way playoff with Rory McIlroy, Ryan Moore and Kevin Chappell. With his fate as prospective winner of the FedExCup in McIlroy's hands, he saw his chance to be FedExCup champion slip away when McIlroy was victorious. If McIlroy had failed to win the playoff for the TOUR Championship, would have become the FedExCup champion. Final-round 73 snapped a string of eight consecutive rounds in the 60s. Moved to second all-time in top-10 finishes at Playoffs events with 15, one back of Jim Furyk. With three victories this season (U.S. Open, World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, BMW Championship), joined Rory McIlroy, Jason Day, Jordan Spieth, Adam Scott and Russell Knox as one of six players to capture multiple victories this season...Making his third Ryder Cup appearance, went 2-2 in his four matches in the United States' 17-11 victory in the biennial event against the European team. Ended the week at Hazeltine on a high note with a 1-up singles victory over Chris Wood.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Shriners Hospitals for Children Open; T8—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T10—Frys.com Open, Quicken Loans National.

2015-16 SEASON:

In his rookie season, advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs with four top-10 finishes in 25 regular season starts, including a victory in the second event of season at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Was No. 33 heading into third FedExCup Playoffs event but T56 at BMW Championship contributed to missing the TOUR Championship, ending the season at No. 43 in the standings... Claimed his first top-10 finish, a T10, in his first start as a PGA TOUR member at the Frys.com Open. Opened and closed with 4-under 68s to finish at 11-under 277 in the season's first event... The following week, carded a final-round 10-under 61 (which came 2½ hours before the final group holed out) to finish the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open at 16-under 268, winning on the PGA TOUR for the first time by one stroke over six players. In the process, he became the 10th player since 2000 to post his first career victory at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, joining Phil Taurangi (2002), Andre Stolz (2004), Wes Short, Jr. (2005), Troy Matteson (2006), George McNeill (2007), Marc Turnesa (2008), Martin Laird (2009), Kevin Na (2011) and Ben Martin (2014-15). His closing-61 (equaling the best final round ever in Las Vegas) marked the lowest finish on TOUR by a winner since Tommy Gainey closed the 2012 McGladrey Classic with a 10-under 60. His final-round, seven-stroke, come-from-behind victory marked the largest in Las Vegas and the largest on TOUR since Gainey came from the same number back to win in Sea Island in 2012. Joined Emiliano Grillo (Frys.com Open) as rookie winners to start the season, marking the first back-to-back rookie winners on TOUR since 2011 when Charl Schwartzel won the Masters and Brendan Steele won the Valero Texas Open. The victory came in his fifth career PGA TOUR start (second as a member) at age 23 years, 10 months, 25 days, making him the fifth consecutive winner under age 30 to win the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Since the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open moved to a 72-hole event in 2004 (12 events), he became the first champion who failed to record all four rounds in the 60s, carding scores of 67-72-68-61 for the week... 2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the third consecutive season, making it to the TOUR Championship for the second time. Entered the Playoffs finale in the No. 19 position in the FedExCup standings and finished 26th at East Lake to end his season No. 23 in the FedExCup standings. Recorded 10 top-25 finishes from 27 starts. Of those, three were top-five showings, including his maiden PGA TOUR title. . . In his third start of the 2015-16 PGA TOUR season, had a chance to earn his first PGA TOUR victory at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. Failed to have a practice round in at Sheshan International Golf Club because he injured his back on Sunday at the CIMB Classic in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia a week before. Grabbed the 36-hole lead with rounds of 64-66 and was two in front of eventual-champion Russell Knox heading into the weekend. Posted a 70 in the third round and was tied with Knox for the lead after 54 holes. Struggled most of the final round, but birdied the 72nd hole to finish runner-up for his fourth second-place showing since April of last season. . . Opened with the first-round lead at The RSM Classic with a bogey-free 7-under 65, then followed with rounds of 67-64-64 to finish with a tournament-record 22-under 260, winning on the PGA TOUR for the first time by a tournament-record six strokes over Kevin Chappell. Previously, one shot (three times) was the largest margin of victory at Sea Island to go with two playoffs. The win marked the sixth out of the first seven of the 2015-16 season to be won by a first-time winner, with OHL Classic at Mayakoba champion Graeme McDowell the exception. Collected 500 points for the win (which came in his 109th career PGA TOUR start at the age of 31 years, 9 months, 7 days) to lead the FedExCup Standings through the fall series. Other highlights of the week included an opening 54-hole total of 196, marking the lowest 54-hole score at the event. With the victory, became the 11th former Georgia Bulldog to win on the PGA TOUR joining Chip Beck, Harris English, Brian Harman, Russell Henley, Ryuji Imada, Chris Kirk, Billy Kratzert, Tim Simpson, Brendon Todd and Bubba Watson. Began the week by "coaching" the PGA TOUR players to a 7-6 victory over their wives Tuesday night in the annual PGA TOUR Wives Association Wiffle Ball Classic. . . Finished ninth at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions in his first appearance at the winners-only event. The showing was good enough to hold the No. 1 ranking in the FedExCup. Played with eventual-champion Jordan Spieth in the final pairing on Saturday. . . Maintained his lead in the FedExCup with a T5 finish at the Sony Open in Hawaii, his fourth consecutive top-10 finish of the season. Finished five strokes behind champion Fabian Gomez following a final-round even-par 70. Held a five-way share of the first-round lead with a 7-under 63 and after matching middle rounds of 4-under 66, was paired in Sunday's final group just one behind co-leaders Zac Blair and Brandt Snedeker. . . Carded a final-round 4-under 66 to finish T10 and nine strokes behind champion Jordan Spieth at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational. It marked his second consecutive top-10 at Colonial, having finished T5 the year before. . . Picked up his sixth top-10 of the season at the Wyndham Championship, finishing T10. Posted six birdies, one eagle and a bogey (at the last) to close with a 63. Tied his career-best six top-10s in a season.

Entered the Playoffs finale in the No. 8 position in the FedExCup standings and finished 23rd at East Lake to end his season No. 10 in the FedExCup standings. Recorded 11 top-25 finishes in 25 starts, including two wins, one of six multiple winners in 2015-16...Picked up his maiden PGA TOUR victory in his 93rd start on TOUR at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in Shanghai. Carded a 5-under 67 in the first round and was four back of Branden Grace after 18 holes. Moved into contention with a flawless 7-under 65. Started the third round two back of Kevin Kisner and pulled within one of Kisner through 17 holes before darkness suspended the third round. Was given the choice to complete Saturday's round and elected not to tee off the 18th hole. Came back to finish his third round at 7:45 a.m. on Sunday morning and made birdie for a third-round 68. Held a share of the 54-hole lead with Kevin Kisner. Carded a final-round 68 and posted 20-under 268 total, good for a two-stroke win over Kisner. Aside from Jeff Maggert, who won the very first World Golf Championships event at the 1999 Accenture Match Play Championship, Knox was the first player in World Golf Championships history to win his first World Golf Championships title while playing for the first time in the four-tournament series...In his next start, lost in a playoff at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba in his attempt to become the first player to win his first two victories in back-to-back starts since Camilo Villegas at the 2008 BMW Championship and TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Needed a par on the 72nd hole to win outright in the unscheduled Monday finish, but a bogey forced the tournament to a playoff with Jason Bohn and eventual-champion Graeme McDowell all tied at 18-under 266. With a win and runner-up in consecutive weeks, Knox captured the No. 1 spot in the FedExCup standings through six tournaments in the 2015-16 PGA TOUR season...Was named Scottish Player of the Year in front of 650 guests at an awards ceremony in Edinburgh in March, an honor accepted by his radio DJ sister, Diane, who co-hosted the event... It marked his third appearance at Harbour Town (T9/2014, T18/2015, T2/2016)...Arrived at the famous 17th hole in the third round of THE PLAYERS Championship at 8-under and in contention before dumping three balls in the water to record a 9 on the par-3 hole. A final-round 68 Sunday led to a T19 finish in his hometown event... Led with three holes to go at the Irish Open hosted by the Rory Foundation, but a birdie-par-eagle finish by Rory McLroy at the K Club was too much to overcome, finishing three strokes back and in a tie for second place with Bradley Dredge... Won his second PGA TOUR victory in his 110th PGA TOUR start at the age of 31 years, 1 month and 17 days. Began the final round three shots behind Daniel Berger but secured the win with a par putt of 12 feet, 1 inch on the 72nd hole for a one-shot victory over Jerry Kelly. Ended the American domination at the Travelers Championship becoming just the third international winner of the event since 1996, joining Freddie Jacobson (2011) and Marc Leishman (2012). Moved from seventh to fourth in the FedExCup Standings... Kept himself alive through the first three of four Playoffs events, with top-10s at The Barclays (T7) and Deutsche Bank Championship (T8), before ending his season after a T17 at the BMW Championship at a career-best No. 33 in the FedExCup standings...Matched his career-best finish on the PGA TOUR with a T2 performance at the Northern Trust Open in February, one shot behind winner Bubba Watson. 71-68-68, earned a final pairing with 54-hole leader Luke Donald at the RBC Heritage. Was one behind Donald at the beginning of the day, but posted a 2-over 73 on the final day (including a double bogey on the final hole) to finish T6 and five strokes behind champion Branden Grace. Added a pair of 69s on the weekend at Bethpage Black to finish T7 with Ryan Moore and Rickie Fowler. The finish marked his second top-10 in four starts in the event (T9/2013)...A week later at the Deutsche Bank Championship, closed with a 5-under 66 at TPC Boston to finish T8 with six others. Marked just the second time of his career to collect top-10 finishes in back-to-back starts on TOUR (T7/2015 Valspar Championship, T6/2015 Arnold Palmer Invitational).

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the 10th consecutive time in his career, one of 16 players to reach the FedExCup Playoffs every season since its inception. Progressed to the TOUR Championship for the seventh consecutive time. Entered the Playoffs finale in the No. 16 position in the FedExCup standings and finished T15 at East Lake to end his season No. 18 in the FedExCup standings (the seventh consecutive top-20 finish in the FedExCup). Recorded 10 top-10 finishes from 26 starts, just one shy of his career-high 11 top-10 finishes during the 2010 and 2013-14 seasons... Began his season in style at the Fiji International in October 2015. At the blustery and difficult Natakola Bay GC in Suva, was the only player in the field to finish under par. Sat at 2-over through 36 holes until a pair of 69s on the weekend left him at 4-under and gave him the co-sanctioned OneAsia Tour-PGA Tour of Australasia victory by four shots over Aron Price. The victory was his first non-PGA TOUR title that didn't involve a teammate... Teamed with Harris English to finish second for the second straight year at the Franklin Templeton Shootout in mid-December. The team finished two strokes behind Jason Dufner and Brandt Snedeker and have combined for a 93-under-par total in their last nine rounds... Carded the only bogey-free final round, a 4-under 67, at the Northern Trust Open to move up the leaderboard and finish T8 at Riviera CC... Advanced out of group play at the World Golf Championships-Dell Match Play with wins over Anirban Lahiri (6 and 5), Justin Rose (3 and 2) and a halved match with Fabian Gomez before losing to Brooks Koepka (1-up) in the round of 16 for a T9 result... In his bid for his second Tartan Jacket (2014), finished T9 and six strokes behind champion Branden Grace at the RBC Heritage. It marked his third consecutive (out of five overall) top-10 finish at the event (won-2014, 5th-2015, T9-2016)... Posted rounds of 71-67-72-68 at THE PLAYERS Championship, one of five players to shoot four rounds of par or better at THE PLAYERS Stadium course during the week (Kevin Chappell, Francesco Molinari, Graeme McDowell, Bryce Molder). T3 finish was second top-10 in 12 starts at THE PLAYERS... On the heels of a T3 finish at THE PLAYERS, extended his streak to nine made cuts in as many attempts at the AT&T Byron Nelson, finishing solo-third and just one stroke out of the Sergio Garcia-Brooks Koepka playoff. It marked his first back-to-back top-10 finishes since the 2015 Sony Open in Hawaii (T3) and CareerBuilder Challenge (T2)... Bounced back from an opening 3-over 73 at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational with rounds of 67-63-68 to finish T6 and eight strokes behind champion Jordan Spieth. The finish was his third top-10 in nine starts at Colonial (9-2008, 2-2013, T6-2016). The finish was his third consecutive top-six finish, having finished T3 at THE PLAYERS, third at the AT&T Byron Nelson and T6 at the Dean & Deluca Invitational... Held a share of the 36- and 54-hole leads at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, and reached 16-under to share the lead in the final round before struggling on the inward nine to post a 1-over 73 and finish T4 at 13-under 275 for his fourth consecutive top-six finish of the season. Followed a bogey at the par-3 12th with a double bogey-6 at 13 and another bogey at 15... Posted fifth top-six finish in last six starts with T3 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Final-round 66 was just one of three bogey-free rounds all week (William McGirt, 64 in the first round, Phil Mickelson, 68 in the final round). Ranked T1 in Greens In Regulation (47 of 72) for the week. Marked his 10th top-10 in 22 World Golf Championships starts... Posted four sub-par rounds to finish T9 at the RBC Canadian Open. Team RBC ambassador joined Ricky Barnes (T5 at RBC Canadian Open, T9 at RBC Heritage) as only two players with top-10 finishes at both RBC-sponsored events on TOUR... Represented the United States when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Matched course record of 8-under 63 (set by Australian Marcus Fraser in first round) in the final round to capture the bronze medal with 13-under 271 and stand on the podium alongside gold medal winner Justin Rose (Great Season included career-best numbers with 11 made cuts, four top-10s and six top-25s... Struggled Sunday, recording a 2-over 74 to finish T10 with six others at 11-under 277 in the season's first event... Finished T10 at the Sanderson Farms Championship in a Monday finish due to weather... Shot 66-66-67-68 to finish T3 at 21-under at the CareerBuilder Challenge for his best showing on the PGA TOUR. He was the only player in the top five to make a double bogey, posting two, one each in rounds two and three. Ranked third in driving distance for the week with 310.6 yards... Held the first- (co-lead) and second- (solo) round leads at the Wells Fargo Championship before a 2-over 74 in the third round moved him three shots back of Rickie Fowler's 54-hole lead. Closed with a 1-under 71 at Quail Hollow to secure a T4 finish alongside Phil Mickelson, Rory McIlroy and Rickie Fowler... Held the first-round lead at the Travelers Championship after opening with a 6-under 64. Posted a 76 in the second round to miss the cut... Opened with a 64 in his next event, the John Deere Classic, en route to a T16 finish, his first made cut in his last eight starts.

PERSONAL:
 Favorite golf memory is shooting a 64 to get to final stage of the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament in 2012... Favorite college team is LSU, and favorite pro team is the New Orleans Saints... Would most like to be featured in Field and Stream... Earned all-state honors in basketball twice and was invited to the Louisiana All-Star game (didn't play due to injury). Baton Rouge's The Advocate named him its High School Athlete of the Year as a junior in 2006. Averaged 21.6 points per game during his senior season and holds Episcopal High School's all-time record for three-pointers in a season.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Zurich Classic of New Orleans; T6—CareerBuilder Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard; T7—Sony Open in Hawaii; T9—The RSM Classic.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time in his career, finishing No. 49 in the final standings. Season highlighted by career-best numbers for made cuts (19), top-25 finishes (nine) and top-10 finishes (five)... Making his first-ever start at The RSM Classic, posted four rounds in the 60s (69-68-67-68) to finish T9. Had just three bogeys during the week, highlighted by a bogey-free 3-under 67 on Saturday. The finish marked just the second top-10 of his PGA TOUR career (2009 Frys.com Open)... In his next start, posted all four rounds in the 60s at the Sony Open in Hawaii to finish T7 and six strokes behind champion Fabian Gomez, giving him back-to-back top-10s for the first time in his career.

Had missed the cut in his other two starts at Waialae, having never broken par... Got into contention again at the CareerBuilder Challenge where he trailed leader Jason Dufner by one stroke after 36 holes, and two strokes after 54 holes, shooting 65-65-65. After making just one bogey in the first 54 holes, he struggled in the final round while playing in the final group, with eventual-winner Dufner, posting three double bogeys in a seven-hole stretch during the middle of the final round, eventually posting a 1-over 73 at PGA West Stadium Course to finish T6 at 20-under 268... Making just his second start at the Arnold Palmer Invitational (missed the cut in 2010), posted four under-par scores to finish 11-under 277 and six strokes behind champion Jason Day. The T6 finish marked his fourth top-10 showing in his first 13 starts of the season... Made par at the par-5 final hole of regulation play in the rain-shortened Zurich Classic of New Orleans, missing a 10-foot putt that would have won the tournament. Also made par again on the 18th hole in the subsequent three-man playoff to stay in with a chance, while Byeong-Hun An dropped out with a bogey. Eventually lost on the second playoff hole to a Brian Stuard birdie at No. 18. In regulation play, he excelled on the 12 par-5s with nine birdies and three pars... Opened the Playoffs with a T22 at The Barclays, moving to 40th in the FedExCup. Following a 71st-place finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship, fell to 49th. Retained that same position at the end of the season after a T32 at the BMW Championship.

PERSONAL:

Favorite music is country and his favorite band is Switchfoot... Favorite food is Italian... Went to high school at Torrey Pines High in San Diego, the same school that turned out Tony Hawk, Shaun White and John Lynch.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—U.S. Open; T6—Waste Management Phoenix Open.

2015-16 SEASON:

Made the cut in 12 of 17 PGA TOUR starts, with a T2 at the U.S. Open his best finish. Ranked 87th in the FedExCup following the Wyndham Championship, but opted to play in the final European Tour event before the European Ryder Cup team was decided. Finished the season No. 102 in the FedExCup... At the European Tour's British Masters in early October, made a late run at victory at Woburn GC. After opening with a 5-under 66, shot back-to-back 69s to sit in a tie for fifth, three shots behind leaders Kiradech Aphibarnrat and Matthew Fitzpatrick. Shot a 4-under 67 on the final day but it wasn't enough to catch Fitzpatrick, who shot a 68 of his own to win by two strokes... Shot a final-round 66 at the Turkish Airlines Open to pick up a top-10 in the first event of the Race to Dubai's Final Series. Ended the tournament in Atalya at solo eighth... Made his first PGA TOUR start of the year at the Farmers Insurance Open, where he finished T7... In his first start at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, held a share of the 18-hole lead before ensuing rounds of 70-72-68 resulted in a share of sixth place with four others. Birdied five of his last seven holes in the final round to post the 68, including the renowned par-3 16th... En route to his first-round, 7-under 65, made history at THE PLAYERS Championship, posting 7-under 29 on the back nine at THE PLAYERS Stadium Course to become the first player to post sub-30 score on the back nine. Feat was matched by Rory McIlroy and Kevin Chappell later in the week. Also holed out from 120 yards for eagle-2 on No. 18 in round two, becoming just the sixth player to record an eagle on the closing hole. Finished T16 after only over-par round of the week, a 6-over 78 in the third round, followed by a 1-under 71 on Sunday... Entered the final round of the U.S. Open with a four-stroke lead over Dustin Johnson and Andrew Landry, but struggled to a 6-over 76 to finish T2. Became the first player to lead a U.S. Open by four or more strokes and not win since Payne Stewart in 1998 (led by four over Tom Lehman and Bob Tway). Runner-up showing was best finish in four U.S. Open starts (2011-MC, 2014-MC, 2015-T9, 2016-T2). Was seeking to join Martin Kaymer (2010 PGA Championship, 2011 WGC-HSBC Champions) as the only players to record their first two PGA TOUR victories at a major championship and World Golf Championships event. Like U.S. Open champion Dustin Johnson, his week included a one-stroke penalty during the second round when his ball moved after he addressed it on the 16th hole (his seventh hole of the round).

PERSONAL:

His father, Brendan, was a well-known and successful Gaelic football star who played on the All-Ireland Championship team (County Offaly in 1982)... Began playing golf at age 13, inspired by his uncles, who were avid fans of the sport. Was a 12 handicap after one year of playing and was a single-digit player before his 15th birthday... Also competed in rugby, soccer, Gaelic football and hurling.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:
 T33—PGA Championship.

2015-16 SEASON:

Phenomenal start to the European Tour season, with eight top-15 finishes in his first nine starts. Began the season with matching T5 finishes at the Alfred Dunhill Championship and Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship. Later added top-10 finishes at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic (T8) and True Thailand Classic (sixth). Came close to notching his fifth European Tour victory (and first since the 2014 ISPS Handa Wales Open) with back-to-back runner-up finishes at the Real Club Valderrama Open de España and Shenzhen International, finishing one stroke behind Andrew Johnston and two strokes behind Soomin Lee, respectively. . . Later added his seventh and eighth top-10 finishes of the season, with a T6 effort at the Lyonesse Open and T9 at the French Open. . . Represented Netherlands when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Finished T27 in 60-player field. . . Delighted the hometown fans by picking up his fifth European Tour victory, closing with a course-record tying 63 to make up a three-stroke deficit to win the KLM Open by three strokes over Bernd Wiesberger. The 63 equaled the best closing score by a winner this season joining Henrik Stenson (Open Championship) and Charl Schwartzel (Tshwane Open). At 19-under 265, became the first Dutch player to win the event twice (2013) since it joined the European Tour schedule in 1972. During that stretch, joined KLM Open multiple winners Seve Ballesteros, Bob Byman, Graham Marsh, Bernhard Langer, Stephen Leaney and Simon Dyson. Luiten and Wiesberger went toe-to-toe during the final round, but birdies on three of his final holes propelled Luiten to the winner's circle in the midst of a stellar season — now including nine top-10 finishes (the most on Tour). His fifth European Tour win came in his 201st start.

A spectacular par-save from the front bunker on No. 18, the first playoff hole, kept him alive as Curran two-putted for par from 25 feet. On the second extra hole, No. 18 again, an up-and-down par from behind the green, as Curran made bogey, was good for his first career PGA TOUR win in his 165th start at the age of 36 years, 11 months and 15 days. It was his first playoff on the PGA TOUR. The victory carried a three-year exemption to the PGA TOUR, taking him through the 2018-19 PGA TOUR season. With 500 FedExCup points, he moved from No. 37 to No. 10 in the FedExCup standings with 1,183 points. 2015-16 PGA TOUR season, finished T11 at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. The T4 performance was his sixth top-10 in seven starts at the Wells Fargo Championship...Posted a second-round 8-under 64 at THE PLAYERS Championship that included 7-under 29 on the back nine at THE PLAYERS Stadium Course, a day after countryman Shane Lowry was the first player in tournament history to post sub-30 (29) for the back nine. Used 22 putts for just the fourth time in his career, and the second time in 2016 (R4/Arnold Palmer Invitational). Finished T12, his fourth consecutive top-15 finish at TPC Sawgrass...Closed with a birdie-par-eagle finish at the Irish Open hosted by the Rory Foundation to edge Russell Knox (who led with just three holes to play) and Bradley Dredge in the European Tour event at the K Club. With his 13th European Tour victory, snapped a streak of three consecutive missed cuts at the event. With the win, became the first Irishman to win the event since Shane Lowry in 2009. Began the day with a three-stroke lead, but the stellar play of Knox throughout the first 15 holes forced an aggressive finish by McIlroy. Became the first player to win on the European Tour event while serving as the tournament host, donating all of his winning prize to the Rory Foundation. Victory set up by two solid approach shots on the final three holes, including a 271-yard 3-wood leading to a birdie on the 16th hole and a 253-yard second shot to a tap-in eagle on the 72nd and decisive hole...Birdied Nos. 15-17 in final round of the Memorial Tournament for 4-under 68 and T4 at 13-under 275. Posted 71-73 over the next two rounds to sit T18 and 12 strokes back heading into the final round. Closed with a 67 to sneak into the top five, finishing T5 alongside England's Tyrrell Hatton and Sergio Garcia. Marked his eighth top-10 in his last 11 major starts...In early September, the 2012 Deutsche Bank Championship winner returned to TPC Boston, where he found himself six strokes off the lead after 54 holes. Second shot into the par-5 18th hole lipped out in the third round, setting him up for an easy eagle to get within six strokes of the lead. Birdied six of his first 12 holes in the final round on Labor Day Monday en route to a 6-under 65, tying the low round of the day with Adam Scott. In doing so, claimed his second tournament title by two strokes over 54-hole leader Paul Casey and marked the largest final-round comeback in tournament history. Became the second multiple winner of the Deutsche Bank Championship, joining Vijay Singh (2004 and 2008). Twelfth career PGA TOUR win came more than a year after his last at the 2015 Wells Fargo Championship...Holed out for eagle from 137 yards on No.

16 in the final round of the TOUR Championship to move to 11-under and one stroke behind leader Kevin Chappell at the time. A final-hole birdie in regulation moved him to 12-under and forced a three-way playoff with Chappell and Ryan Moore. After Chappell exited the playoff with a par at the first extra hole (No. 18) and Moore had made birdie, needed to hole an eagle putt from five feet to claim the TOUR Championship title, and the FedExCup, but his putt lipped out on the right side. He and Moore returned to the 18th for a second playoff hole, which was halved with pars. Another hole required a fourth extra hole, the 18th, where he had holed out earlier in the day. After Moore had saved par with a putt from 17 feet, drilled his birdie putt from 15 feet to claim the title. By winning the TOUR Championship, earned 2,000 FedExCup points for a 3,120 points total to surpass Dustin Johnson in the FedExCup standings and finish 740 points ahead to become the third international player to lift the FedExCup (Henrik Stenson/2013, Vijay Singh/2008), and seventh international player to win the TOUR Championship. Win was 13th PGA TOUR title in his 117th start on TOUR at the age of 27 years, 4 months, 21 days. Holds record for second-most wins (13, behind Tiger Woods 18) on the PGA TOUR since the start of the 2008 season. Recorded his fourth win in a FedExCup Playoffs event, the most of any player in FedExCup Playoffs history. One of six players to capture multiple victories in 2015-16...Making his fourth start at the Ryder Cup, went 3-2 in his five matches in the European team's 17-11 loss to the United States at Hazeltine. Week ended with a 1-down loss to Patrick Reed in the opening singles match on Sunday, what some considered one of the most exciting matches in Ryder Cup history.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:
 T46—The Open Championship.

2015-16 SEASON:
 Became the European Tour's fifth multiple winner of the season when he won his second title of the year via a playoff victory over Scott Hend at the Omega European Masters. It marked his second victory in the event at Crans-sur-Sierre Golf Club (2009). Final-round 65 (which included four consecutive birdies on Nos. 6-10) left him tied with Hend following regulation at 17-under par. With a wayward drive by Hend, capitalized in dramatic fashion by rolling in a 30-foot birdie on the first playoff hole for the victory. Winning score of 263 marked the lowest of the European Tour season. Also marked his first come-from-behind win among his six Tour titles. His sixth European Tour win came in his 220th European Tour start, with four of those wins coming in two events (Omega European Masters, Nordea Masters). With the victory, joined Seve Ballesteros (1977, 1978, 1989), Hugh Baiocchi (1973, 1979), Manuel Piñero (1976, 1981), Eduardo Romero (1994, 2000) and Thomas Bjørn (2011, 2013), as players to record multiple victories in the Omega European Masters since the event became part of the European Tour in 1972. The win continued his excellent form during the 2016 season, marking his sixth top-10 in his last 11 starts: T6 in the Real Club Valderrama Open de España, T9 in the Volvo China Open, T8 in the 100th Open de France, first in the Aberdeen Asset Management Scottish Open, first in the Aberdeen Asset Management Paul Lawrie Match Play and first again in the Omega European Masters... Claimed his fifth Tour title earlier in the season with a one-stroke victory over Tyrrell Hatton at the Aberdeen Asset Management Scottish Open, with Nicolas Colsaerts, Danny Lee and Matteo Manassero finishing two shots behind. With the win, won in consecutive seasons for the first time on Tour, showing he has fully recovered from 2014 wrist injuries. Entered the final round with a two-stroke advantage, meaning all five of his European Tour victories have come while holding the lead/co-lead through 54 holes. Victory at Castle Stuart Golf Links topped his previous best finish in eight starts at the Scottish Open-T3 in 2012... Made four starts on the PGA TOUR in 2015-16, where the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions (T54) was his only non-major start.

PERSONAL:
 Played collegiately at Oklahoma State, where he started as a freshman and was a two-time All-American selection. Teammates included Hunter Mahan and Pablo Martin. Grew up playing all sports before his attention focused on golf at age 8... Made first hole-in-one at age 12... If he weren't a golfer would want to be a F1 driver... Twitter account is @alex_noren.

In the Web.com Tour Finals, finished inside the top 25 in each of the three events contested to finish 23rd on the Web.com Tour priority list...Finished T61 at

PERSONAL:

Began playing primarily in the United States beginning in 2000 when the Aussie relocated to Flower Mound, Texas...Wife, Angela, is a clinical psychologist. "She gets to see everything I do out there. I'm kind of lucky. I have a psychologist out there 24 hours a day. She doesn't lie. I can't kid myself..." After finishing 124th on the 2011 money list to earn TOUR card for 2012, contacted tournament directors who granted him sponsor exemptions to thank them. "I've been doing this 25 years. I'm not saying I've never had a guy call me and thank me for doing that, but it's the first in a long time," former AT&T National Tournament Director Greg McLaughlin told the Associated Press. "It's very rare. All the other guys are thankful and appreciative. But rarely do I get one after the season when a guy gets his card and calls you to thank you. As far as I'm concerned, he can play in one of my tournaments if he ever needs a spot. He's set for life..." Worked as a golf course superintendent... If he weren't in golf he would be a race-car driver... Twitter account is @RodPampling

Opened the 2015-16 PGA TOUR season with four rounds in the 60s (68-68-66-69) to finish 17-under par at the CIMB Classic good for a T10 showing... Fired rounds of 65-70-68-70 the following week at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions to T7 with Matthew Fitzpatrick, Jordan Spieth and China's Haotong Li... One week later, finished second to Kristoffer Broberg in a sudden-death playoff at the BMW Masters in Shanghai. Opened with rounds of 71-69-64 and took a one-shot lead on the back nine on Sunday with an eagle out of a bunker on No. 15 followed by a birdie on No. 16. Marked his sixth consecutive top-10 worldwide dating to the UBS Hong Kong Open... Making his title defense at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, finished solo-second, but a distant eight strokes behind champion Spieth. Did not have a bogey until the 69th hole of the tournament (par-5 15th). When Hoffman sank a clutch birdie putt for the win, Reed finished alone in second place. Opened with a 7-under 65 to sit just one back of Brendan Steele's 18-hole lead. The finish marked his second runner-up of the 2015-16 season and his eighth top-10 finish in 13 starts... Picked up his ninth top-10 of the season at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide (T8)... Playing in the final pairing in the final round with Fowler, was tied with nine holes to play before Fowler bogeyed No. 11. Doubled his lead over Fowler with birdie at No. 12. When Fowler dropped out of contention with a double bogey at No. 16, all he needed was a bogey on the final hole to win by a stroke over Sean O'Hair and Emiliano Grillo, both already in the clubhouse. A plugged lie in a fairway bunker led to a forced lay-up and an eventual two-putt bogey for a 1-under 71 and a one-stroke victory. At No. 7 in the FedExCup standings, entered the FedExCup Playoffs as the highest-ranked player without a win. The Barclays marked his second come-from-behind win, a feat he also achieved at the 2015 Hyundai Tournament of Champions. It was also the third time he went on to win after holding the solo 36-hole lead... A week after claiming his fifth TOUR title at The Barclays, posted four sub-par scores at the Deutsche Bank Championship to claim a share of fifth place with Fabian Gomez and James Hahn. Marked his second straight top-five finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship following a T4 showing in 2015... Making his second Ryder Cup appearance, went 3-1-1 in his five matches to lead the American team to a 17-11 victory over Europe in the biennial event (the first win for the United States since 2008). He and Jordan Spieth were the only Americans to play in all five matches at Hazeltine. Went head-to-head with Rory McIlroy in one of the most thrilling matches (particularly on the front nine) in Ryder Cup history, eventually making birdie on No. 18 for a 1-up victory, cementing his stature as one of the game's best match play competitors. Improved his overall Ryder Cup record to 6-1-2.

2015-16 SEASON:

Finished No. 51 in the FedExCup standings, snapping a streak of six consecutive top-15 finishes in the FedExCup dating to 2010. One of 16 players to advance to the Playoffs in all 10 seasons of the FedExCup. A third-place finish at the Wells Fargo Championship marked his best of five top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR... In his first start at the Frys.com Open, opened with a 5-under 67 at Silverado Resort and Spa. Ensuing rounds of 69-68-72 resulted in a T6 with three others, at 12-under 276... The following week, entered the final round of the UBS Hong Kong Open tied with Denmark's Lucas Bjerregaard. Shot a third-round 64 to Bjerregaard's 7-under 63. On the final day at Hong Kong GC, entered the final nine trailing Bjerregaard by two strokes. Picked up a shot on the 10th hole when he birdied to Bjerregaard's par. When Bjerregaard bogeyed No. 11, the duo was again tied. Made a par to Bjerregaard's double bogey on the par-4

to take a one-shot lead. Bjerregaard then parred in. The victory was the 15th of his career and fifth European Tour title... In December, the Albany resident closed the Hero World Challenge with an Albany course record of 10-under 62, finishing 13th. The record round came one day after eventual-champion Bubba Watson and Paul Casey set the mark with 9-under 63s... Finished T6 and five strokes behind champion Vaughn Taylor in his first start at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and his first-ever TOUR event at Pebble Beach... Finished T9 for his fourth top-10 finish in 11 starts at the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Opened with under-par scores of 68-66-71 and entered the final round trailing 54-hole leader Jason Day by four strokes before a 1-over 73 left him T9 and seven behind Day. It marked his fifth finish of T17 or better in his first six starts of the season... A year after finishing T2 at the Masters, returned to Augusta National, where he opened with a 3-under 69, three strokes off Jordan Spieth's pace after 18 holes. Ensuing rounds of 77-73-70 resulted in a T10 at 1-over 289 in his 11th Masters appearance... In his 10th start of the season, earned his fifth top-10 of 2015-16, finishing alone in third at the Wells Fargo Championship. His 1-under 71 in the final round was one stroke shy of making the playoff with Roberto Castro and eventual-champion James Hahn... Finished T19 at THE PLAYERS Championship but his opening-round 7-under 65 featured an eagle-birdie-birdie-birdie streak on holes 16, 17, 18, 1 and 2 to match the best birdie-eagle streak in tournament history. He also hit 18 Greens in Regulation for the first time in his TOUR career during round one... Represented Great Britain when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Birdied the final hole of the competition to shoot 16-under 268 and win the gold medal by two strokes over Sweden's Henrik Stenson. Created additional history in the opening round when he recorded the first hole-in-one in Olympic Golf with a 7-iron going in the hole at the 191-yard No. 4... Failed to reach the TOUR Championship for just the third time in the last 10 years, ending his season after the third FedExCup Playoffs event at No. 51 in the standings... Making his fourth start at the Ryder Cup, went 2-3 in his five matches in the European team's 17-11 defeat to the United States at Hazeltine.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the 10th consecutive season, one of 16 players to achieve this feat in the 10 seasons of the FedExCup Playoffs. Made it to the TOUR Championship for the seventh time. Entered the Playoffs finale in the No. 3 position in the FedExCup standings and finished T8 at East Lake to end his season No. 4 in the FedExCup standings. Recorded 14 top-25 finishes from 20 starts. Of those, seven were top-five showings, including back-to-back wins at The Honda Classic and World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. ...Playing in the Japan Open Golf Championship in mid-October on the Japan Golf Tour, opened with a pair of 70s and closed with a 3-under 69 to T7 with Hideto Tanihara and K.T. Kim. ...In his first start of the PGA TOUR season, finished second to Justin Thomas at the CIMB Classic at the Kuala Lumpur G&CC in Malaysia. During the four rounds, putted with a conventional-length putter using a claw grip. ...At the Australian Open in late November, posted a 6-under 65 in Sunday's final round to claim a share of second place with defending champion Jordan Spieth at 7-under 277. The runner-up performance marked his third consecutive, top-five finish in the event. ...Playing in Albany (his second home), carded rounds of 67-70-66-69 for a 16-under 272 total and T10 finish at the Hero World Challenge. It marked just his second start at the Tiger Woods-hosted event, having finished T14 in 2006. ...Held the lead during stretches of the final round of the Northern Trust Open in February and chipped in for birdie on the 72nd hole, but ended up finishing T2 behind winner Bubba Watson at The Riviera Country Club. Began his final round with an eagle at the opening par-5 first hole. He made over 100 feet of putts in the first four holes of his final round, but just 142 feet of putts for the round total. ...In his fifth start at The Honda Classic, made seven birdies and no bogeys through 14 holes of the third round. On the daunting, par-3 15th hole, took a quadruple bogey-7 to fall into an eventual tie with Sergio Garcia through 54 holes at 9-under 201. An even-par 70 in Sunday's final round proved enough to give him a one-stroke win over Garcia. With the win, became just the second Australian to win The Honda Classic, joining Stuart Appleby (1997). With the win, he also became the first player to win on the PGA TOUR, despite a quadruple bogey during the week, since Phil Mickelson at the 2009 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. ...Came from three strokes back of Rory McIlroy in the final round to win the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship for back-to-back wins in consecutive weeks, the first player to do so since Billy Horschel won the 2014 BMW Championship and the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Overcame double bogeys on Nos. 3 and 5 in the final round to shoot a 4-under 32 on the back nine. His second shot on the par-4 18th landed on the bank inside the water hazard left of the green and he pitched to 6' 8" below the hole to salvage par and a one-stroke victory for his second World Golf Championships title to go along with his 2011 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational win. ...Finished T10 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in his 48th World Golf Championships start. ...Fired third-round 6-under 65 at The Barclays, holing 150 feet of putts, compared to 89 feet combined in rounds one and two. With final-round 71 (E), finished T4 after entering final round solo third, two shots back. Ranked T2 in Greens in Regulation for the week hitting 54 of 72 greens. ...A week later, the 2003 Deutsche Bank Championship winner returned to TPC Boston, where his 6-under 65 in the final round tied the low round of the day with winner Rory McIlroy. His solo-fourth at 11-under finish (3rd in 2013) in his last three starts at the event... Came back the following week with a playoff loss (dropping his playoff record to 2-1) to Fabian Gomez at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Began the week in a five-way tie for the first-round lead following a 7-under 63 (topping his previous-best score at Waialae by five strokes), then held solo possession of the second round lead at 12-under 128. Won his fourth title in California at age 35 years, 1 month, 24 days in his 247th TOUR start. Marked the first time a player made the cut on the number and went on to win since Carl Pettersson at the 2010 RBC Canadian Open. The top-10 finish marked his third top-10 showing at Augusta in nine starts...Entered final round of RBC Canadian Open as 54-hole leader but failed to go on to win, posting a final-round 71 to earn T5 finish...Making his 10th consecutive start in the Wyndham Championship, finished T3, his fifth top-10 in the event. Headed into the FedExCup Playoffs ranked No. 6. Went on to make the cut in all four Playoffs events to finish No. 15 in the FedExCup... Making his second Ryder Cup appearance, went 3-0 to help lead the United States to a 17-11 victory over the European team in the biennial event, the only American without a loss on his resume at Hazeltine. Wrapped up the week with a 3&1 victory over Andy Sullivan in their singles match.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES (1):

2014 Emirates Australian Open [Aus].

OPHTER VICTORIES (1):

2014 Hero World Challenge.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season, progressing to the TOUR Championship each time. Entered the season finale in the No. 7 position in the FedExCup standings and finished T17 at East Lake to end his season No. 9 in the FedExCup standings (the best finish by a defending FedExCup champion). Recorded 16 top-25 finishes from 21 starts. Of those, four were top-five showings, including wins at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions and the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational. In his season debut, carded 68-72 to open the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in Shanghai. Climbed into contention with a third-round, bogey-free, 9-under 63, his lowest round on TOUR since a 10-under 61 in the third round of the 2015 John Deere Classic. Regained the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking with his T7 performance. At the Australian Open in late November, the defending champion had a chance to force sudden death with Matt Jones with an eagle-3 at the 72nd hole. Unable to convert, settled for birdie and a share of second place with Aussie Adam Scott at 7-under 277. Finished off the 2015 calendar year with a solo fourth-place showing in his title defense at the Hero World Challenge in December, five strokes behind champion Bubba Watson. Week included a hole-in-one on the par-3 second hole during the first round (6-iron). Ran away from the field at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, winning by eight strokes (one shy of the tournament record for largest margin of victory) over defending champion Patrick Reed. At 30-under 262, became just the second player in TOUR history to win a 72-hole event with a 30-under-par score or better, with Ernie Els winning the 2003 Hyundai Tournament of Champions at 31-under 261. The win was the seventh of his career, tying him with Tiger Woods for the most wins at the age of 22 or younger. Only Horton Smith with 14, has more before reaching 23 years of age. Improved his record when holding the 54-hole lead/co-lead to five of nine, winning for the fifth consecutive time when holding at least a share of the lead heading into the final round of a TOUR event. Following a week off after winning in Maui, played back-to-back weeks overseas, finishing T5 at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship and runner-up at the Singapore Open. In the latter event, was one of 13 players who failed to finish Sunday due to thunderstorms. Came back Monday morning to sink a five-foot birdie putt on the final hole to cap off a 5-under 66, taking the clubhouse lead at 11-under 273. South Korean Song Young-han closed with three pars Monday (including a clutch 12-foot putt on the 16th hole) to win the co-sanctioned Asian and Japan Tour event. With his regular caddie resting from an ankle injury suffered in Abu Dhabi, manager Jay Danzi filled in for caddie duties in Singapore. The former Dartmouth college golfer was also on the bag for Spieth at the 2014 Dunlop Phoenix, also resulting in a second-place finish. Advanced out of Group Play at the WGC-Dell Match Play with wins over Jamie Donaldson (3 and 2), Victor Dubuisson (5 and 4) and good friend Justin Thomas (3 and 2) before losing to eventual runner-up Louis Oosthuizen (4 and 2) in the Round of 16 for a T9 result. Coming to the par-3 11th hole in his match against Oosthuizen, both players hit into the water off the tee. Oosthuizen was able to win the hole with bogey and lead 2-up, continuing that momentum to the conclusion of the match. Was one of six players to win all three matches in Group Play. Making his title defense at the Masters Tournament, opened with a 6-under 66 to grab a two-shot lead over Danny Lee and Shane Lowry. With subsequent rounds of 74-73, also held the outright lead following the second and third rounds. Lost a five-shot lead on the back nine at Augusta National, with a quadruple bogey on the par-3 12th hole. Ended the week sharing second place with Lee Westwood, three strokes behind champion Danny Willett. Was seeking to win the Masters for the second consecutive season in wire-to-wire fashion. With rounds of 64-65 at his hometown AT&T Byron Nelson, found himself one stroke back of the leader after each of the first two rounds. With a third-round 67, entered the final round in second place again, this time two strokes behind Brooks Koepka. Struggled to a final-round 4-over 74 to finish T18 and five strokes behind champion Sergio Garcia. Came back the following week with a three-stroke victory over Harris English at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, delighting the Fort Worth crowd as he earned his first professional victory in his native Texas. With the victory, his eighth on the PGA TOUR, became the fifth Texan to win the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, joining Ben Hogan (1946, 1947, 1952, 1953, 1959), Homero Blancas (1970), Lee Trevino (1976, 1978) and Ben Crenshaw (1977, 1990). His eighth win moved him above Tiger Woods (7) for most wins on TOUR before the age of 23, trailing only Horton Smith who had 14. Entered the final round with a one-stroke lead over Colonial Country Club member Ryan Palmer and Webb Simpson, improving his record to six of 11 when holding the lead/co-lead going into the final round (including six of his last seven attempts). The victory also snapped a streak of seven consecutive come-from-behind winners at Colonial. Finished no worse than T14 in four starts at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational (T7-2013, T14-2014, T2-2015, 1-2016). Finished T3 at WGC-Bridgestone Invitational despite middle rounds of 71-71. Was 2-over after hitting just two greens in regulation through 12 holes in first round before hitting last five greens in regulation to birdie final four holes and post opening 68. Third-round 71 included 8 (+3) at par-5 16th hole. Had most one-putts each round, except round two (13/R1, 12/R3, 11/R4), and required just 95 putts all week, the least number of putts for any player on TOUR in the 2015-16. T3 was best finish in three starts at Bridgestone Invitational and best finish in 12 World Golf Championships starts. Hit 17 of 18 greens in a final-round 69 at The Barclays to finish T10 with Justin Thomas, his seventh top-10 of the season and 39th of his TOUR career. Opened the BMW Championship with a

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the fifth consecutive season, thanks to seven top-25 finishes in 12 starts during the regular PGA TOUR season. Of those, three were top-five finishes, including his first major title at The Open Championship at Troon. Withdrew from The Barclays with a recurrence of a knee injury after an opening-round 74.

Finished T41 at the Deutsche Bank Championship and decided not to compete at the BMW Championship and instead rest up for the Ryder Cup, therefore ending his season at No. 36 in the FedExCup standings... Held at least a share of the lead through 36 holes at the Nedbank Golf Challenge on the Sunshine Tour in December 2015, before weekend rounds of 70-72 resulted in a runner-up finish, six strokes behind winner Marc Leishman... Underwent surgery in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 9, 2015 to repair a meniscus in his right knee... Returned to action in January on the European Tour, finishing T3 in Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship... Took five starts on the PGA TOUR before first top-10, a T3 finish at the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Marked his third consecutive top-five performance in the event (2016/T3, 2015/2 and 2014/T5). His 1-under 71 in the final round marked his 10th consecutive under-par round at Bay Hill and 17th out of his last 18... In his next start, finished runner-up at the Shell Houston Open, one stroke behind winner Jim Herman. Was his third top-three finish in Houston. Led the field in total birdies with 22... Withdrew during the second round of the U.S. Open... Won his 10th European Tour title and second at the BMW International Open in June. Became the first player to win the BMW International Open at two different courses... Became the first player from Sweden to win a major championship, winning the 145th Open Championship at Royal Troon. Three days after Phil Mickelson became the 26th player to post a 63 in a major, recorded his own 63 in the final round, becoming just the second player to shoot a 63 in the final round of a major and go on to win (Johnny Miller, 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont). Broke the record for lowest aggregate total score in a major (264), and tied the record for lowest 72-hole score in relation to par in a major (-20). His 20-under-par 264 broke the tournament record for lowest winning total in relation to par since 1963 (19-under par, Tiger Woods, St. Andrews, 2000). Victory marked his fifth career PGA TOUR win in his 154th career start at the age of 40 years, 3 months, 12 days, becoming the oldest first-time major winner since Darren Clarke won The Open Championship in 2011 at the age of 42. Became just the fourth player to win The Open Championship after posting four rounds under 70, and first at Royal Troon. Ernie Els carded four rounds in the 60s at Troon in 2004 (69-69-68-68), but lost in a playoff. Became the seventh consecutive Open Championship winner who played the week prior to his win (having finished T13 at the Scottish Open the week before)... Two weeks later finished T7 at the PGA Championship at Baltusrol. Followed three opening 67s with a 1-over 71 in the final round to finish at 8-under 272. Was under par in the final round, before a double bogey at the par-4 15th dropped him to 1-over... Ended his season after a T41 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, finishing at No. 36 in the FedExCup... Making his fourth start at the Ryder Cup, went 2-3 in his five matches in the European team's 17-11 loss to the United States at Hazeltine. 2015-16 SEASON:

Breakthrough season was highlighted by his first European Tour victory and a runner-up finish... Despite squandering a five-stroke cushion to fall two behind at one point during the final round, held on for a final-round 71 (including four birdies during a five-hole stretch) and a two-stroke victory over countryman Christiaan Bezuidenhout at the BMW South Africa Open in January, notching his first win on the European Tour. BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

1—AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am.

2015-16 SEASON:

On the strength of his third career win on the PGA TOUR, advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the sixth time and first since 2011. Played his way through the first three of four Playoffs events, before ending his season at No. 62 in the standings after the BMW Championship. ...Playing out of the Past Champion category, carded a final-round 7-under 65 to win the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am by one stroke over Phil Mickelson, with Mickelson missing a 5'1" birdie putt on the last hole that would have forced a playoff. Earned his third PGA TOUR victory in his 288th start at age 39 years, 11 months and 5 days, with his first wins coming at the 2004 and 2005 Barracuda Championship. Entered the final round trailing 54-hole leader Mickelson by six strokes (the same number Mickelson came back from to win at Pebble Beach in 2012), but caught fire on the back nine with four consecutive birdies on Nos. 13-16 for a back-nine 5-under 31. Round highlighted by a 28'11" bomb on the par-4 16th hole for birdie to take the outright lead at 17-under par. With the victory, earned a return visit to the Masters Tournament in his hometown of Augusta, Ga., marking his first start at the event since 2008. Earned 500 points to make a huge jump in the FedExCup, moving from No. 183 to No. 15. The victory came in his ninth start at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, topping his previous-best finish of T10 in 2015. With his win, extended the stretch of American-born players to win the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am to 12, with Vijay Singh in 2004 the last international winner. Teamed with Gregg Ontiveros to win the pro-am portion of the tournament by one stroke over Jonas Blixt and Jamie Williamson, marking the 10th time in tournament history that a player has won the individual and pro-am team title in the same year and the first since 2013 (Brandt Snedeker and Toby S. Wilt). In 2012, Ontiveros triumphed in the pro-am format with TOUR winner Brian Harman.

PERSONAL:

Moved to Augusta, Ga., as an infant. Attended high school (Hephzibah High) and college (Augusta State) there and still resides near his parents.

A year after losing to Patrick Reed in a playoff, finished T10 in Hawaii at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, marking first top-10 of the 2015-16 PGA TOUR season. . . . Entered the final round of the Farmers Insurance Open one shot off the lead. Took a one-shot lead in the final round after 10 holes when play was called for the day. Returned

2014 Mission Hills Haikou

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES (2):

2016 Trophée Hassan II [Eur]. 2016 AfrAsia Bank Mauritius Open [Eur].

2015-16 SEASON:

Two weeks after fellow Korean Soomin Lee won the Shenzhen International, claimed his first European Tour title at the Trophée Hassan II in playoff fashion over Nacho Elvira. Victory at the Royal Golf Dar Es Salam layout came in dramatic fashion as he birdied the par-5 18th hole three times Sunday, doing so by holing nearly 90 feet of putts. After Elvira finished regulation at 5-under 283, he forced a playoff by holing an 18-foot putt on the final hole. On the first playoff hole, Elvira reached the par-5 18th in two but watched as his competitor rolled in a dramatic 50-foot birdie putt to set the stage for a second playoff hole. Playing the 18th again, rolled in a 20-footer for the victory...Came back the next week with a one-stroke victory over Siddikur Rahman at the AfrAsia Bank Mauritius Open, becoming the European Tour's first player to win in back-to-back weeks since Rory McIlroy won the 2014 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and PGA Championship. Entered the final round one stroke behind Rahman and then found himself three back as he approached the 16th hole. A double bogey on No. 16 and bogey on No. 17 by Rahman opened the door. He capitalized with a par-par-birdie finish for the one-stroke victory, just seven days clear of his win at the Trophée Hassan II in Morocco. In the process, became the youngest player in European Tour history to win in consecutive weeks and the first Asian to perform the feat...Making just his fourth start of the season, finished T2 (along with Anirban Lahiri) at the Hero Indian Open, two strokes behind champion S.P.P. Chawrasia...Recorded his fourth consecutive top-10 on the Asian Tour, turning in a tie for third at the Queen's Cup in Thailand in mid-June. Opened and closed with 2-under 69s in a week that included a career-low 62 in the third round. Had any hopes of victory dashed on his back nine Sunday when he double bogeyed the 11th hole and bogeyed the 15th... Represented South Korea when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Finished T43 in 60-player field...Made his first-ever PGA TOUR starts in 2016, missing the cut at The Open Championship and PGA Championship.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Northern Trust Open; 2—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T10—Hyundai Tournament of Champions, TOUR Championship.

2015-16 SEASON:

Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the 10th consecutive season, one of 16 players to reach the FedExCup Playoffs every season since its inception. Made it to the TOUR Championship for the seventh time. Entered the Playoffs finale in the No. 24 position on the FedExCup standings and finished T10 at East Lake to end his season No. 21 in the FedExCup standings. Recorded nine top-25 finishes from 19 starts. Of those, two were top-five showings, coming in back-to-back starts with a win at the Northern Trust Open and runner-up finish at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship... Followed up a third-round 9-under 63 (at the time the Albany Course record until broken by Justin Rose a day later) with a final-round 6-under 66, to win the 2015 Hero World Challenge by three strokes over Patrick Reed and four over Rickie Fowler. With a winning score of 25-under 263, came up just one stroke shy of tying Jordan Spieth's Hero World Challenge record of 26-under 262 from the previous season. Was originally in the field before withdrawing while waiting for a passport for one of his children, but later rejoined the field when Jason Day withdrew. Win came at the age of 37 years, 1 month and 1 day and in his sixth start at the event (T14/2010, T6/2011, T9/2012, T3/2013, T11/2014, 1/2015)... Recorded his first top-10 of the season at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions in his fifth start at the event. Has three top-10s in those five appearances, with his best finish a T4 in 2013... Finished birdie-birdie-par over the final three holes at the Northern Trust Open in February to win his second career Northern Trust Open, becoming the 16th multiple winner in the 90th playing of the event. Began the final round with a one-shot lead. The win, his ninth career PGA TOUR victory, improved his standing in the Official World Golf Ranking to No. 4... Posted his third runner-up finish at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship while making his first start after his Northern Trust Open win... Finished T25 in his title defense at the Travelers Championship... The following week, represented the United States when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Finished T8 in the 60-player field... Following a T13 at The Barclays and a missed cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship, finished T20 in his ninth appearance at the BMW Championship, as one of three players who have qualified for the BMW Championship every year of the FedExCup (Phil Mickelson and Charley Hoffman)... After missing out on a Captain's Pick for the 2016 Ryder Cup, became a last-minute addition as a vice-captain after asking Captain Davis Love III to ensure he was on the team in some capacity.

PERSONAL:

He and his wife, Angie, adopted their son (Caleb) on March 26, 2012 and adopted their daughter (Dakota) in December 2014... Wife is 6-foot-4 and a former University of Georgia, WNBA and European professional basketball player... Formed the Bubba Watson Foundation in January 2014. The foundation's mission is to enhance the everyday lives of people in need and placing a particular emphasis on helping and inspiring children, young adults and those associated with the U.S. military... Also created Bubba's Bash, an annual charity concert comprised of artists of varying genres and guest speakers who share a love of God... Returned to the University of Georgia to complete his degree without telling family or friends. Wanted to encourage kids to get an education and pursue their dreams... Dedicated his 2010 Travelers Championship win to his wife and father, Gerry, who was battling lung cancer and later passed away in October 2010. Father was a lieutenant in the Green Berets' Special Forces during the Vietnam War and was honored prior to the clinic for his military service with a plaque presented to him by Gen. Steven Duff, commander of U.S. Army Special Forces Command (Airborne) at Fort Bragg, N.C. "It's special. With my dad's situation, it's brought to my heart that the military is much more important than what we do for a living. So I needed to do something for the Green Berets and bring light to the Pensacola area"... Self-taught player who learned the game by hitting Wiffle balls around his house. "The house was probably an acre-and-a-half yard with big trees in downtown Bagdad (Fla). The house is sitting here, and I drew in the dirt driveway. I'd draw a big circle, and that would be my hole, a 5-foot circle. I'd go around it to the left and then I'd go around it to the right. So I learned to cut it. If you know about Wiffle balls or plastic balls, it's hard to cut. Then I learned to hook it the other way, hit it high over limbs, hit it low under limbs. I'd say non-stop every day from 6 to 12 years old. Instead of playing with trucks out in the yard, I'd play with a ball and a club"... Attended the same high

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Masters Tournament; T3—World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions, World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship.

2015-16 SEASON:

Highlighted by his win at the Masters, collected a total of three top-10 finishes in just nine starts on the PGA TOUR. Claimed five top-10 finishes in 14 starts on the European Tour, one of which was a victory in Dubai...In his first start of the PGA TOUR season, finished T3 at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in Shanghai. Closed the tournament with a 10-under-par 62 for the low round of the day. Round was not recognized as tying the tournament record due to utilizing preferred lies...Won all three matches, including a 3&1 singles result over Byeong Hun An, for the victorious Europe side in the Eurasia Cup in Kuala Lumpur in January...Won his fourth European Tour title at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic, held at the Emirates GC. After beginning the day with a one-shot lead, pushed that lead to three strokes on a couple different occasions during the final round but eventually needed a clutch 15-foot par putt on the last to cap off a 3-under 69 to finish 19-under 269, holding off Andy Sullivan and Rafa Cabrera Bello by one stroke. Joined Mark James (1989) and David Howell (1999) as English winners of the event...Carded a 3-under 69 in the final round of the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship to finish T3, his third top-three finish in a World Golf Championships event in eight starts...With the birth of the couple's first child, a boy, due in early April, opted against taking Special Temporary Membership to the PGA TOUR for the season. When his son, Zachariah James, was born in late-March, as opposed to the expected due date in early April, made a late decision to compete in his second Masters Tournament. The decision proved to be a life-changing one. Began the final round at Augusta National three strokes behind Jordan Spieth. At one point Sunday, his deficit to Spieth was five strokes. A bogey-free, 5-under 67, combined with a Spieth collapse, resulted in a three-stroke win over fellow Englishman Lee Westwood and Spieth, his first PGA TOUR win. The last time a Masters champion emerged from three or more strokes behind was in 2012, when Bubba Watson overcame a three-stroke deficit after 54 holes to beat Louis Oosthuizen in sudden death. His total of 28 putts in the final round included eight one-putts, five of which came on the last seven holes. His only three-putt for the week was No. 16 in round two. The victory marked the first European win at the Masters since Spain's Jose Maria Olazabal in 1999, and the fourth title for England, joining three-time winner Nick Faldo. His win moved him inside the top 10 in the Official World Golf Ranking to No. 9. As such, he became the highest-ranked Englishman in the OWGR and first for England in the standings for the 2016 Olympics in Rio. With his win, received a lifetime exemption into the Masters, along with five-year exemptions into the U.S. Open, The Open Championship, PGA Championship and THE PLAYERS. Following the win, joined the PGA TOUR as an official member. His non-member FedExCup points (44) from a start at the Valspar Championship also become retroactive and his total of 644 FedExCup points moved him to 27th in the standings entering the Valero Texas Open. Per PGA TOUR regulations, he did not receive retroactive FedExCup points for his three 2015-16 World Golf Championships starts...Represented Great Britain when golf returned to the Olympics for the first time since 1904 in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Finished T37 in 60-player field, while countryman Justin Rose took home the gold medal...Despite finishing No. 75 in the FedExCup standings, did not compete in the Playoffs, with the PGA Championship his last start on the PGA TOUR in 2015-16...Making his first-ever start at the Ryder Cup, went 0-3 in the European team's 17-11 loss to the United States at Hazeltine.

2015-16 SEASON:

Recorded the biggest of his three European Tour titles at the BMW PGA Championship, holding off Rikard Karlberg by one stroke and Masters champion Danny Willett by two strokes. Became the first Englishman to win the event since Luke Donald in 2012... Sanderson Farms Championship

NOTES

Peter Malnati made 495'7" of putts en route to winning the Sanderson Farms Championship by one stroke over David Toms and William McGirt. The University of Missouri alum claimed his first career PGA TOUR victory in his 22nd start at the age of 28 years, 4 months and 27 days.

Peter Malnati became the fifth consecutive first-time winner of the 2015-16 PGA TOUR Season, joining Emiliano Grillo (Frys.com Open), Smylie Kaufman (Shriners Hospitals for Children Open), Justin Thomas (CIMB Classic) and Russell Knox (World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions). The last time the PGA TOUR produced five straight first-time winners was in 2002 and the Sanderson Farms Championship was the site of the fifth winner: Charles Howell III (Michelob Championship at Kingsmill), Phil Tataurangi (Shriners Hospitals for Children Open), Bob Burns (Disney Golf Classic), Jonathan Byrd (Buick Challenge) and Luke Donald (Sanderson Farms Championship).

Plagued by weather, it took William McGirt the span of three days to post his second-round 6-under 66 and two days to post a third-round 66. It took just Monday afternoon for him to post a final-round 4-under 68 and claim a share of second place with David Toms.

Peter Malnati became the eighth player to make the Sanderson Farms Championship his first career PGA TOUR win: Nick Taylor (2014-15), Chris Kirk (2011), D.J. Trahan (2006), Luke Donald (2002), Cameron Beckman (2001), Willie Wood (1996), Ed Dougherty (1995) and Brian Henninger (1994).

Making his 10th start in the Sanderson Farms Championship and 594th on the PGA TOUR, 54-hole co-leader David Toms played 26 holes Sunday and 26 holes Monday to come away at 17-under 271 and T2 honors. Rounds of 67-69-66-69 resulted in Toms' best finish since finishing solo second at the 2012 RSM Classic.

Roberto Castro, who opened with a 10-under 62 to lead through 36 holes, posted a bogey-free 4-under 68 in the final round, coming up two strokes short at 16-under 272. Castro's T4 finish marked his first top-10 finish since a T8 at the 2014 Wells Fargo Championship.

NOTES

Jordan Spieth, who entered the final round of the Hyundai Tournament of Champions with a five-stroke advantage over Brooks Koepka, carded a final-round 6-under 67 for an eight-stroke victory over defending champion Patrick Reed. The eight-stroke win was the largest on the PGA TOUR since Jimmy Walker won by nine at the 2015 Sony Open in Hawaii.

Making his second appearance in the winners-only event, Jordan Spieth recorded his seventh career PGA TOUR victory in his 85th start at the age of 22 years, 5 months and 14 days.

Patrick Reed finished solo second in his attempt to become the first player to successfully defend his Hyundai Tournament of Champions title since Geoff Ogilvy in 2009-10. Since the event moved to Kapalua in 1999, Stuart Appleby is the only other player to win in back-to-back starts, doing so in 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Sony Open in Hawaii

NOTES

Fabian Gomez defeated Brandt Snedeker with a birdie on the second playoff hole to win his second PGA TOUR title at the age of 37 years, 1 month and 21 days. It was the first career playoff for Gomez and the first playoff at the Sony Open in Hawaii since 2004, when Ernie Els defeated Harrison Frazar.

With a final-round 62, Fabian Gomez tied the lowest final round in Sony Open in Hawaii history (Ernie Els-2005, Rory Sabbatini-2006, Retief Goosen-2010), and recorded the lowest final round by a winner in tournament history.

With the win, Fabian Gomez became the fourth Argentinian to win multiple tournaments on the PGA TOUR, joining Roberto De Vincenzo (5), Angel Cabrera (3) and Jose Coceres (2).

Fabian Gomez became the first international winner of the Sony Open in Hawaii since K.J. Choi in 2008.

Runner-up Brandt Snedeker opened the week with a 7-under 63, topping his previous best score at Waialae by five strokes (first-round 68 in 2008). All four of his rounds (63-65-66-66) bettered his previous best at the course.

Zac Blair was attempting to become the 10th player to make the Sony Open in Hawaii his first PGA TOUR win: Ted Makalena (1966), Grier Jones (1972), John Schlee (1973), Gary Groh (1975), Isao Aoki (1983), David Ishii (1990), John Morse (1995), Jerry Kelly (2002), Russell Henley (2013).

Two-time defending champion Jimmy Walker fell short of his bid to become the first player since Steve Stricker at the John Deere Classic (2009-11) to win the same event three years in a row. He recorded a T13 finish at 12-under, eight shots out of the playoff. His streak of rounds in the 60s at Waialae Country Club was extended to 17.

NOTES

Jason Dufner led the field in birdies for the week with 30, four clear of David Lingmerth and Andrew Loupe. The 72-hole tournament record is 32 by Patrick Reed in 2014.

Louisiana native Andrew Loupe followed scores of 6-under 66s in rounds one and two with weekend scores of 67-68 to finish T3, his best showing on the PGA TOUR in 44 starts. His previous-best was T4 at the 2014 Valero Texas Open.

In the third round, Kevin Na posted a birdie-eagle stretch on hole Nos. 3-9 (B-B-B-B-E-B-B) on the Nicklaus Tournament Course, one shy of the CareerBuilder Challenge record of eight in a row set by Ryan Palmer (6 birdies, 2 eagles) in 2015 at the Nicklaus Private Course in the second round. Na matched John Huston's stretch of six birdies and one eagle set in the fifth round at Indian Wells CC in 1997.

In the second round, Robert Allenby recorded his 10th career ace on the PGA TOUR on the Nicklaus Tournament Course's 12th hole, using a 7-iron from 165 yards, to tie Hal Sutton for the most holes-in-one by a player on the PGA TOUR.

Farmers Insurance Open

NOTES

Without hitting a shot the entire day Brandt Snedeker, who finished his final round at 1:40 p.m. PT Sunday at 3-under 69 for a tournament-total 6-under 282, waited nearly 24 hours for the final round to be completed and declared the 2016 Farmers Insurance Open champion. As the only player in the field to break par in the final round, Snedeker won his eighth career PGA TOUR event, and second title at Torrey Pines at the age of 35 years, 1 month, 24 days in his 247th TOUR start.

The course was closed to spectators for Monday's final round due to high winds and storm conditions. The last time a course was closed due to weather issues was at the 2012 Quicken Loans National.

The 2016 event marked just the second Monday finish of the Farmers Insurance Open. In 2013, Tiger Woods claimed his seventh title in the event on a Monday (due to dense fog over the weekend).

South Korea's K.J. Choi, 54-hole co-leader, missed a putt for birdie on the 72nd hole to force sudden death with Brandt Snedeker. He posted a final-round 4-over 76 to finish alone in second.

Brandt Snedeker's victory marked the first time a player made the cut on the number and went on to win since Carl Pettersson at the 2010 RBC Canadian Open.

Waste Management Phoenix Open

NOTES

In the final round, Rickie Fowler held a two-shot lead with two holes to play when he bogeyed No. 17 after his tee shot found the water hazard. After a birdie on the par-4 18th to enter sudden death with Hideki Matsuyama, Fowler lost on the fourth extra hole to move his playoff record to 2-2, with both losses coming in Phoenix. Fowler lost the 2009 Frys.com Open at Grayhawk Golf Club in his second start as a professional.

Hideki Matsuyama became the sixth player in the last seven years of the Waste Management Phoenix Open to come from behind in the final round and win. In 2013, Phil Mickelson converted his 54-hole lead into victory at TPC Scottsdale.

Georgia native Harris English posted a 5-under 66 in the final round to claim third place. He began the final round six strokes back, and missed the playoff by two strokes.

DANNY LEE

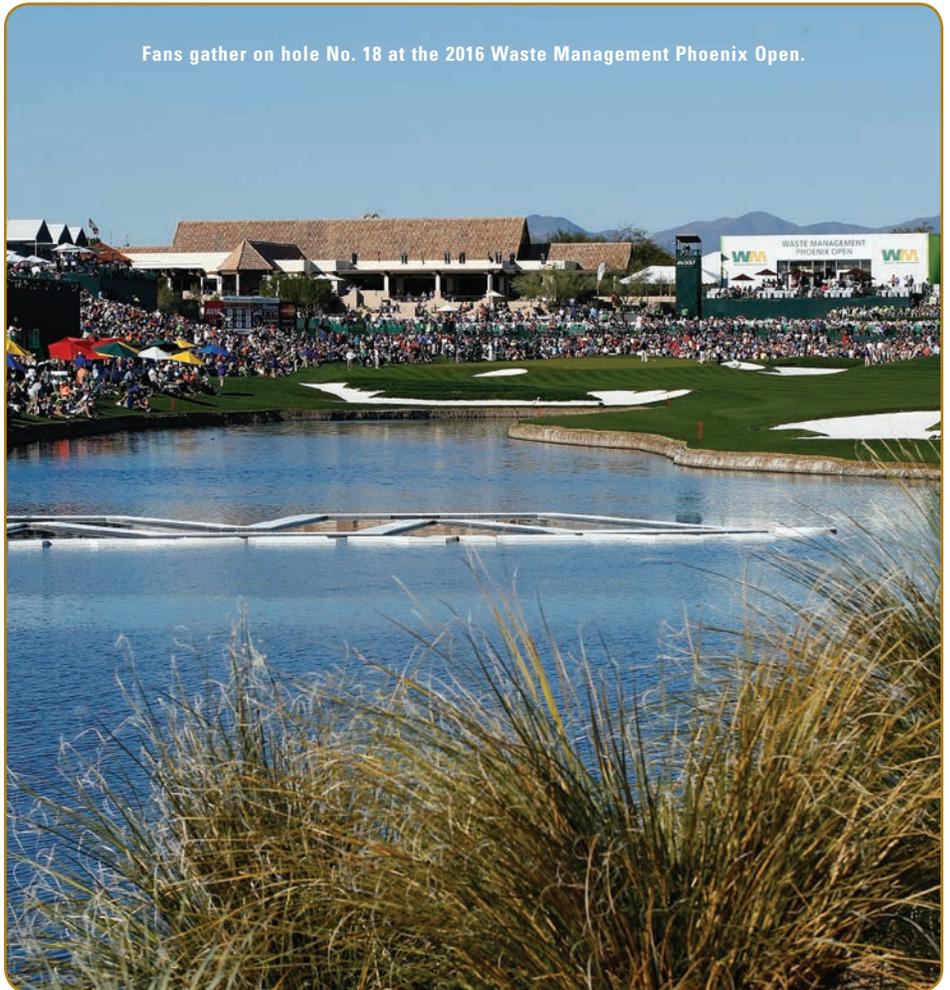

Danny Lee held his first 54-hole lead on the PGA TOUR, heading into the final round with a three-stroke lead at 13-under. He closed with a 2-over 73 to finish fourth.

Hideki Matsuyama became the first international-born player to win the Waste Management Phoenix Open since Aaron Baddeley in 2007. Since moving to TPC Scottsdale in 1987, he became the fifth international winner of the event, joining Baddeley (2007), Jesper Parnevik (1998), Vijay Singh (1995, 2003) and Sandy Lyle (1988).

AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am

AT&T
PEBBLE BEACH
PRO-AM

NOTES

Jonas Blixt held a share of the lead late into the final round until a bogey at the par-5 14th hole resulted in a final-round 69 and solo third. It was his first top-10 at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am in his third start (2014-MC, 2012-T40).

JONAS BLIXT

An Augusta native, Vaughn Taylor earned an invitation to the Masters Tournament in April for the first time since 2008.

During the second round, Sung Kang of South Korea fired an 11-under 60 at Monterey Peninsula Country Club, carding nine birdies and an eagle on the round, to set a new course record and the new low round at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, both previously held by Charlie Wi with a 9-under 61 in 2012 (the course changed from par-70 to par-71 in 2014).

Vaughn Taylor became the eighth player since 2000 to come from behind in the final round to win the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. The last player to do so was Phil Mickelson in 2012, who also came back from six strokes.

Playing with Phil Mickelson in the final group during the final round, Japan's Hiroshi Iwata was tied for the lead after 15 holes. He closed bogey-par-bogey to finish the tournament at 14-under (T4).

The last international winner of the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am was Vijay Singh in 2004. Vaughn Taylor extended the stretch of American-born players to win the event to 12.

The Honda Classic

NOTES

After entering the final round tied with Sergio Garcia, Adam Scott parred the final hole at The Honda Classic to win his 12th career PGA TOUR title at the age of 35 years, 7 months and 12 days in his 250th career start on the PGA TOUR. It marked the seventh time Scott converted a 54-hole lead/co-lead on the PGA TOUR.

Adam Scott became just the second Australian to win The Honda Classic since its inception in 1972.

Stuart Appleby won the event in 1997.

For the 15th time in his PGA TOUR career, Sergio Garcia finished runner-up, one stroke behind Adam Scott. The runner-up showing was Garcia's 90th top-10 on TOUR.

In search of his first career PGA TOUR win, Blayne Barber posted a final-round, even-par 70 to share third place with Justin Thomas. Barber was looking to become the sixth player since 2000 to make The Honda Classic his maiden PGA TOUR title following Matt Kuchar (2002), Padraig Harrington (2005), Mark Wilson (2007), Y.E. Yang (2009) and Michael Thompson (2013).

Justin Thomas, who finished T3, was the only player in the 2016 field to post all four rounds in the 60s. Thomas missed the cut in 2015, his tournament debut.

Rickie Fowler became the first player to play his first 36 holes without a bogey since the tournament moved to PGA National in 2007. The bogey-free start also marked the first time in his career Fowler played his opening 36 holes bogey free.

Defending champion Padraig Harrington was unable to break par in either weekend round, posting 72-71 in rounds three and four, respectively. At 4-over 284, Harrington finished T43. The only player to successfully defend a title at The Honda Classic was Jack Nicklaus in 1978.

World Golf Championships—Mexico Championship

NOTES

Adam Scott became the first to win with two double bogeys in the final round since Padraig Harrington at the 2015 Honda Classic.

PGA TOUR rookie Smylie Kaufman was one of four players who qualified for the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship via the top 10 in the FedExCup standings after The Honda Classic. He capitalized on his World Golf Championships debut by finishing T8 at Trump National Doral, the best performance by a player making his first start in a WGC event. He was also one of three players to record four under-par rounds.

Adam Scott became the fifth international winner of the Cadillac Championship, joining Geoff Ogilvy (2008) as the second Australian winner. Canadian Mike Weir won in 2000, South African Ernie Els (2004, 2010) claimed the title twice and Englishman Justin Rose (2012) was the most recent international winner.

Bubba Watson posted his fourth top-five finish at the Cadillac Championship in the last five years. In six starts, Watson finished runner-up three times (2012, 2014, 2016) and third in 2015.

Valspar Championship

NOTES

Charl Schwartzel posted the low final round to erase a five-stroke deficit and force sudden death with 54-hole leader Bill Haas at the Valspar Championship. With a par on the first extra hole, Schwartzel defeated Haas to earn his second career PGA TOUR victory at the age of 31 years, 6 months, 11 days in his 129th career start on TOUR.

Charl Schwartzel became the seventh winner in the last nine years to come from behind in the final round to win the Valspar Championship. He won in his second start at Innisbrook, having missed the cut in 2012.

The Schwartzel-Haas playoff marked the Valspar Championship's third playoff, and second consecutive. The first occurred in 2012 when Luke Donald defeated Jim Furyk, Robert Garrigus and Sangmoon Bae, while Jordan Spieth defeated Sean O'Hair and Patrick Reed in 2015.

After opening with a 5-over 76, defending champion Jordan Spieth rebounded with second- and third-round scores of 68-67 to jump 108 spots and move six strokes off pace heading into the final round. Spieth struggled in the final round, taking three bogeys and a double bogey (par-3 eighth) against just two birdies (par-5 14th, par-4 18th) to post a 2-over 73 and finish T18 at even-par 284.

South Africa's Charl Schwartzel became the seventh international winner of the Valspar Championship, combining for nine wins. He joined K.J. Choi (2002, 2006), Retief Goosen (2003, 2009), Vijay Singh (2004), Carl Pettersson (2005), Luke Donald (2012) and John Senden (2013-14).

A day after posting the field-low third round (5-under 66), amateur Lee McCoy closed with a 2-under 69 to finish at 4-under 280 and alone in fourth, marking the fifth time in the last 25 years an amateur finished inside the top five of a PGA TOUR event.

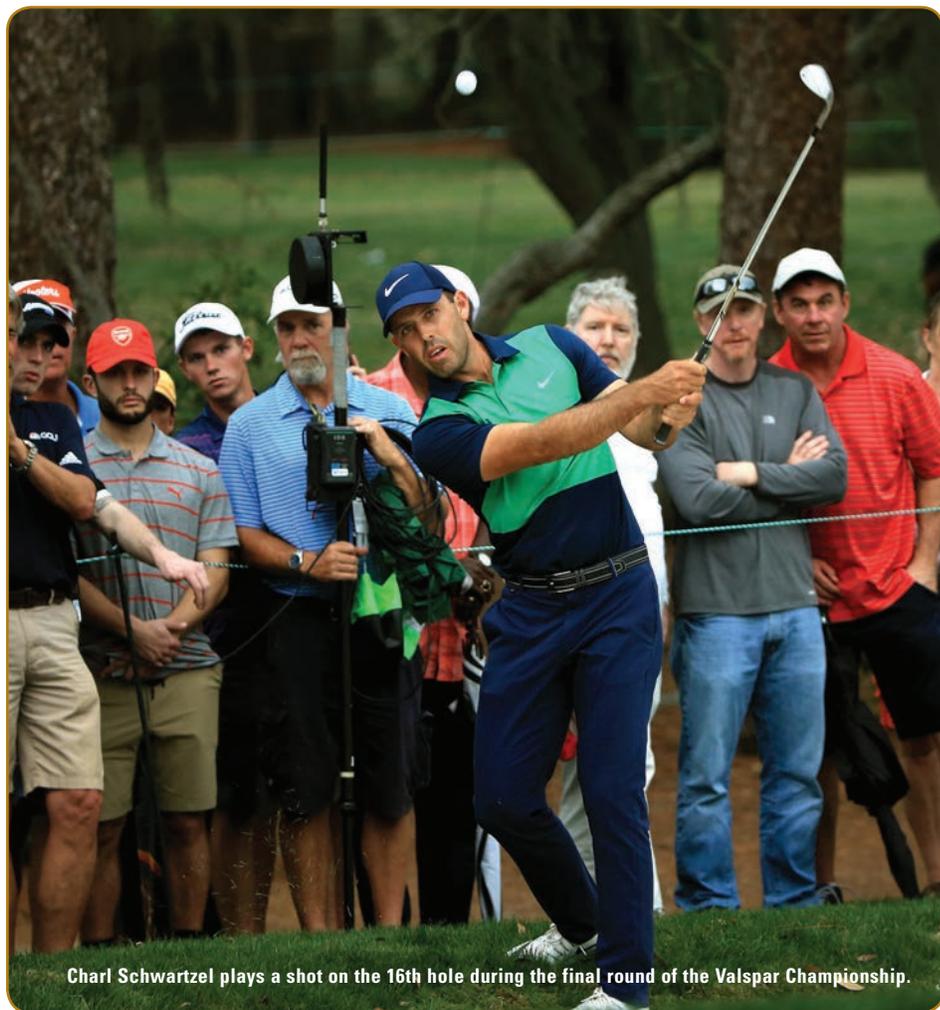

In his 10th start at the Valspar Championship, Ryan Moore posted back-to-back 2-under 69s in rounds two and three to finish alone in third.

Graham DeLaet entered the final round one shot off the lead and in the final group with Bill Haas before carding a final-round 75 to finish in a tie for fifth.

Arnold Palmer Invitational

presented by MasterCard

NOTES

Jason Day became the fourth wire-to-wire winner (no ties) of the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, joining Mike Nicolette (1983), Paul Azinger (1988) and Fred Couples (1992). At the age of 28 years, 4 months, 8 days in his 176th PGA TOUR start, Day won by one stroke over Kevin Chappell, who was seeking his first career PGA TOUR victory.

Jason Day became the fifth international-born player, and second Australian to win the Arnold Palmer Invitational, joining Scotland's Martin Laird (2011), South Africa's Ernie Els (1998 and 2010), Australia's Rod Pampling (2006) and Vijay Singh of Fiji (2007).

A bogey on the final hole kept Kevin Chappell out of a playoff with Jason Day. It marked his fourth runner-up finish on TOUR: 2011 Valero Texas Open (T2), 2013 Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide (2nd), 2015 RSM Classic (2nd) and 2016 Arnold Palmer Invitational (2nd).

Kevin Chappell, who made his 150th PGA TOUR start at the 2016 Arnold Palmer Invitational, was the only player in the field to record four rounds in the 60s (68-68-67-69).

With his T3 finish in 2016, Henrik Stenson earned his fifth consecutive top-15 finish at the Arnold Palmer Invitational (T3-2016, 2-2015, T5-2014, T8-2013, T15-2012).

Troy Merritt birdied five consecutive holes (Nos. 10-14) en route to a final-round 1-under 71 and T3 finish at the 2016 Arnold Palmer Invitational. It fell just one shy of the tournament-record birdie streak of six in a row shared by three players (Duffy Waldorf, Curt Byrum and Darren Clarke).

Adam Scott, who won his last two PGA TOUR starts (The Honda Classic and World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship), finished T12 in his bid for his third win in a row in Florida.

En route to a T27 finish in 2016, Rory McIlroy carded six double bogeys, the most of his career in a single PGA TOUR event.

After three rounds of 72, 2015 U.S. Amateur champion Bryson DeChambeau was paired with Rory McIlroy in the final round and posted his best score of the week, a 6-under 66, to finish T27 with McIlroy. McIlroy countered with a final-round 7-under 65.

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

Jim Herman, who held a share of the 54-hole lead with Jamie Lovemark at 11-under 205, made five birdies and just one bogey to post a 4-under 68 and claim his first career PGA TOUR title in his 106th TOUR start. With the win, Herman earned the final spot into the following week's Masters Tournament, becoming the first player since Matt Jones in 2014 to play his way into the Masters via the Shell Houston Open.

At the age of 38 years, 4 months, 29 days, Jim Herman became the oldest first-time winner on the PGA TOUR since Alex Cejka won the 2015 Puerto Rico Open at the age of 44 years, 3 months, 6 days.

Sweden's Henrik Stenson posted weekend rounds of 66-68 to come up one stroke shy of Jim Herman's 15-under 273 total in his fifth start at the Shell Houston Open. Stenson's runner-up finish marked his third top-three finish at the Shell Houston Open: 2014/T54, 2013/T2, 2012/T21 and 2009/T3.

HENRIK STENSON

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

Dustin Johnson, who finished alone in third, recorded his second top-five finish in five starts at the Shell Houston Open. In 2013, Johnson took a share of fourth place. Johnson withdrew in 2014, following an opening-round 80 and missed the cut in his first two appearances (2008 and 2009).

Coming off a third-place finish at the previous week's World Golf Championships-Dell Match Play, sponsor invite Rafa Cabrera Bello played his last 40 holes without a bogey to finish fourth.

Daniel Berger made nine birdies, off-setting three bogeys to post a 6-under 66 in the final round and finish T5. Berger led the field with a total of 23 birdies.

DANIEL BERGER

Russell Henley (T5) made his fourth consecutive start in the Shell Houston Open and recorded his third consecutive top-10. He finished solo-fourth in 2015 and T7 in 2014. He finished T45 in 2013.

Masters Tournament

NOTES

England's Danny Willett, who began the final round of the 2016 Masters Tournament three strokes off the lead held by Jordan Spieth, closed with a bogey-free, 5-under 67 to win by three strokes over fellow Englishman Lee Westwood and Spieth. The last time a Masters champion emerged from three-or-more strokes behind beginning the final round was in 2012, when Bubba Watson overcame a three-stroke deficit after 54 holes to beat Louis Oosthuizen in sudden death.

Danny Willett's victory at the Masters marked the first European win in Augusta since Spain's Jose Maria Olazabal in 1999, and only the fourth title for England, joining three-time winner Nick Faldo. Willett's final-round 67 came 20 years after his countryman Faldo posted the same bogey-free score in the final round to secure his third and final Green Jacket in 1996.

Danny Willett's first career win on the PGA TOUR at the Masters came in his 23rd TOUR start at the age of 28 years, 6 months, 7 days. Willett's victory comes in his second Masters start. He tied for 38th in 2015. His previous best finish in 11 major championship starts was a tie for sixth at the 2015 Open Championship at St. Andrews.

The 2016 Masters champion Danny Willett was a late arrival to Augusta National, as his wife Nicole was scheduled to deliver the couple's child the same week. When Zachariah James was born on March 30, he was given the green light to play in his second Masters the following week.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

Charley Hoffman, who began the final round two strokes back, made a nine-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole Sunday to hold off Patrick Reed and claim a one-stroke victory. The win marked his fourth PGA TOUR title in his 293rd start at the age of 39 years, 3 months, 28 days.

The 2016 tournament was Charley Hoffman's 11th consecutive start at the Valero Texas Open where he owns five top-10 finishes. Hoffman, who has never missed a cut in the event, only has one finish outside the top 15 (T70 in 2008).

In search of his first career PGA TOUR win in his 222nd start, 54-hole leader Ricky Barnes posted a 2-over 74 in the final round to tie for fourth.

Since moving to TPC San Antonio in 2010, Charley Hoffman became just the third winner to come from behind in the final round to win.

San Antonio native Patrick Reed birdied his 72nd hole to temporarily tie the lead at 11-under par with Charley Hoffman, playing in the same group. When Hoffman sank his birdie putt, Reed claimed second place.

Zurich Classic of New Orleans

NOTES

Brian Stuard became the 16th player since 1990 to make the Zurich Classic of New Orleans his first career PGA TOUR victory and the eighth of the last 12 to do so.

Brian Stuard won in his fourth start in the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, having previously missed the cut in 2010 and 2014. He finished T65 in 2015.

Brian Stuard was the only player in the field to play bogey free. Although the event was cut to 54 holes, the last player to win on the PGA TOUR with no bogeys in a 72-hole event was Lee Trevino at the 1974 Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

Including the playoff, Brian Stuard was a perfect 46 of 46 from putting inside 10 feet for the tournament.

When third-round play resumed Monday morning, sponsor invite Bobby Wyatt had nine holes remaining to complete his round. Having played his front nine in 6-under, he added four birdies and two bogeys on his inward nine to post an 8-under 64, tying the week's low round, to get in at 14-under 202 good for fourth place.

Jason Day, T5, was the first player ranked No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking to compete in the Zurich Classic of New Orleans since David Duval in 1999 (MC).

THE PLAYERS Championship

NOTES

After holding sole possession of the lead after each round, Jason Day won THE PLAYERS Championship by four strokes, his seventh PGA TOUR victory in his last 17 starts on the PGA TOUR. It marked his 10th career PGA TOUR title in his 181st professional start at the age of 28 years, 6 months, 3 days. Day became the fifth player since 1980 to win 10 or more times on the PGA TOUR before his 29th birthday, joining Tiger Woods, Rory McIlroy, Phil Mickelson and David Duval.

THE PLAYERS Championship 2016 marked Jason Day's 12th 54-hole lead/co-lead in stroke-play events on the PGA TOUR, of which he converted for victory six times; five of those times came the last five times he held a 54-hole lead/co-lead.

Jason Day became the third different player to win THE PLAYERS while ranked No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking: Greg Norman (1994), Tiger Woods (2001 and 2013) and Jason Day (2016).

With a final-round 7-under 65, Justin Thomas moved 20 spots up the leaderboard to finish T3 in his second start at THE PLAYERS Championship.

Matt Kuchar, the 2012 PLAYERS Champion, finished T3 for his second top-10 finish in 12 starts at TPC Sawgrass.

Colt Knost (T3) led the field in Greens in Regulation at 80.56 percent (58 of 72). He came into the week 114th on TOUR in GIR (65.08 percent).

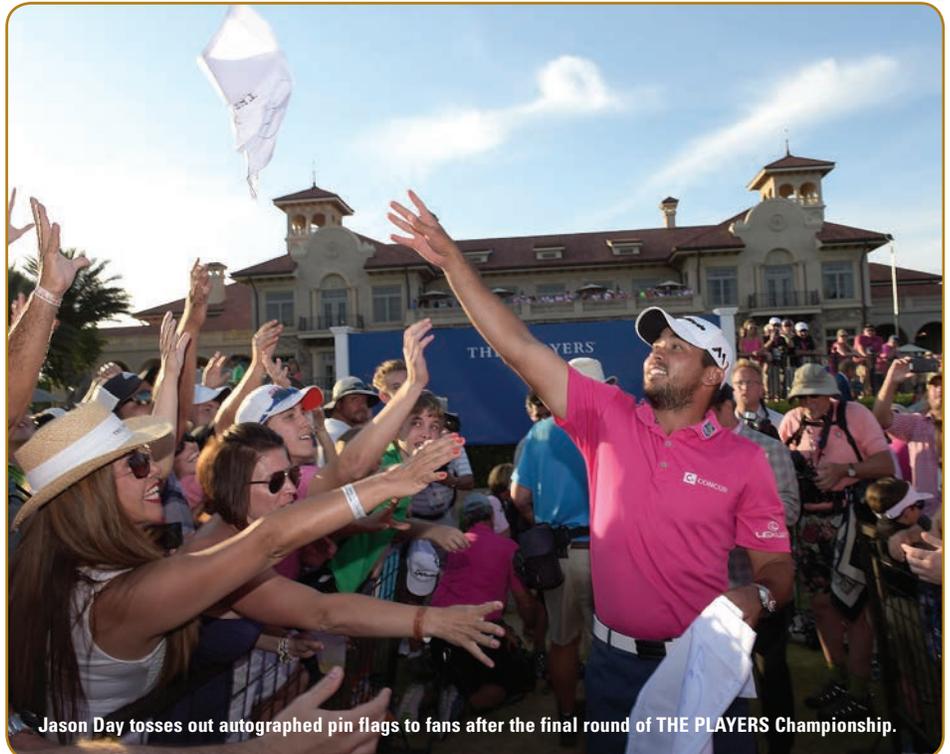

With wire-to-wire wins (no ties) at the 2016 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard and PLAYERS Championship 2016, Jason Day joined Tiger Woods (2000, 2002), Tom Watson (1980) and Johnny Miller (1974) as players to win wire-to-wire twice in the same season dating to 1970.

Kevin Chappell recorded his fifth runner-up finish on the PGA TOUR and third of the 2015-16 PGA TOUR Season. In his last two runner-up performances, he finished second behind Jason Day: 2016 Arnold Palmer Invitational, 2016 PLAYERS Championship.

AT&T Byron Nelson

NOTES

Sergio Garcia defeated 54-hole leader Brooks Koepka with a par-4 on the first playoff hole (No. 18) to win the 2016 AT&T Byron Nelson. It marked Garcia's second win at the AT&T Byron Nelson (2004, 2016; both playoff wins) – which served as the site of his first professional start in the United States back in 1999 (finished T3).

Sergio Garcia earned his ninth career PGA TOUR victory in his 301st start at the age of 36 years, 4 months, 13 days. The most recent of his previous eight TOUR wins was the 2012 Wyndham Championship, exactly 60 PGA TOUR starts since that win, a period of 3 years, 9 months, 3 days.

Sergio Garcia became the first multiple winner of the AT&T Byron Nelson since the tournament moved to TPC Four Seasons Las Colinas in 1983. His victory in 2016 came 12 years and 6 days since his win in 2004.

Sergio Garcia of Spain became the 10th international winner of the AT&T Byron Nelson since 2000 (2000-Jesper Parnevik, 2002-Shigeki Maruyama, 2003-Vijay Singh, 2004-Sergio Garcia, 2008-Adam Scott, 2009-Rory Sabbatini, 2010-Jason Day, 2013-Sangmoon Bae, 2015-Steven Bowditch, 2016-Sergio Garcia).

With Brooks Koepka failing to win, the 54-hole leader/co-leader has won just four times in the last nine years at the AT&T Byron Nelson (Adam Scott/2008, Jason Dufner/2012, Brendon Todd/2014, Steven Bowditch/2015).

Brooks Koepka's 54-hole total of 16-under 194 equaled the AT&T Byron Nelson record set by Loren Roberts in 1999.

Second-round leader Ben Crane's 128 total equaled the best 36-hole score at the AT&T Byron Nelson (Lee Rinker/1997, Tiger Woods/1997 and 1999 and Steve Pate/1999).

Tournament Record:

259, Steven Bowditch (2014-15)

Current Course Record:

60, Keegan Bradley (2013), 62, Dustin Johnson (2014-15)

Tournament Course Record:

60, Arron Oberholser (2006) (Cottonwood Valley Course)

SECTION 3

NOTES

Matt Kuchar has yet to miss a cut in nine starts at the AT&T Byron Nelson (T39-2007, T42-2008, T39-2009, T6-2011, T15-2012, T33-2013, T7-2014, T39-2015, 3rd -2016).

Former Dallas resident Colt Knost followed a T3 at THE PLAYERS Championship with a T4 at the AT&T Byron Nelson, marking the first time since last year's consecutive Texas events that Knost has posted back-to-back top-10 finishes (T10/DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, T10/AT&T Byron Nelson).

Hometown favorite Jordan Spieth played his way into the final pairing and entered the final round two strokes behind Brooks Koepka. A final-round 4-over 74 dropped him to T18. In six starts at the AT&T Byron Nelson, Spieth's final-round scoring average is 72.50 (the highest of any of the four rounds).

Defending champion Steven Bowditch, who made the cut on the number in 2016, carded a third-round 5-over 75 to miss the 54-hole cut. He was hoping to become the first repeat winner of the AT&T Byron Nelson since Tom Watson won three in a row from 1978-80.

Seven past AT&T Byron Nelson winners were in the field: Sergio Garcia (1), Jason Dufner (T24), Ted Purdy (T41), Steven Bowditch (MDF), Keegan Bradley (MC), Ernie Els (MC) and Brendon Todd (MC).

DEAN & DELUCA Invitational

NOTES

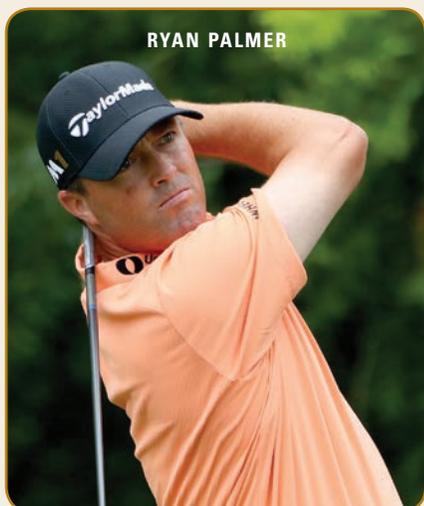

Jordan Spieth posted his eighth career PGA TOUR victory at the 2016 DEAN & DELUCA Invitational in his 95th PGA TOUR start at the age of 22 years, 10 months and 2 days. With his win at the 2016 DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, Spieth became the fifth Texas native to win the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, joining Ben Hogan (1946, 1947, 1952, 1953, 1959), Homero Blancas (1970), Lee Trevino (1976, 1978) and Ben Crenshaw (1977, 1990).

Jordan Spieth's victory at Colonial Country Club in 2016 was his first professional victory in his native Texas. Prior to the win, he had three runner-up finishes in the state of Texas in 2015: DEAN & DELUCA Invitational, Valero Texas Open and Shell Houston Open.

With the win, Jordan Spieth surpassed Tiger Woods for most wins on the PGA TOUR by a player 22 and younger: Horton Smith (14), Jordan Spieth (8), Tiger Woods (7).

Jordan Spieth, who entered the final round with a one-stroke lead over Ryan Palmer and Webb Simpson, snapped a streak of seven consecutive come-from-behind wins at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational.

Colonial Country Club member Ryan Palmer finished inside the top 15 four out of his last five starts at the DEAN & DELUCA Invitational (T3-2016, MC-2015, T5-2014, T14-2013, T5-2012).

presented by Nationwide

NOTES

William McGirt began the final round of the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide tied for the 14-under lead with Matt Kuchar and Gary Woodland, before his final-round 1-under 71 resulted in sudden death with Jon Curran. On the second extra hole, No. 18, par was good for his first career PGA TOUR win in his 165th start at the age of 36 years, 11 months, 15 days. This was McGirt's first playoff on the PGA TOUR.

The 2016 tournament marked the seventh playoff in Memorial Tournament history and third consecutive. Prior to 2014, the last playoff was in 1992 (Danny Edwards). The last event to experience a playoff three consecutive years was the Wells Fargo Championship from 2011-2013.

With his win, William McGirt joined three of the last seven winners, David Lingmerth (2015), Hideki Matsuyama (2014), and Justin Rose (2010), who made the Memorial Tournament their maiden victory on the PGA TOUR. Before Rose, Tom Lehman (1994) was the last player to make the Memorial Tournament his first PGA TOUR victory.

Runner-up Jon Curran made his first start at the Memorial Tournament in his 55th career PGA TOUR start.

For the fourth time in his career, Dustin Johnson recorded 10 birdies in a round during an opening 8-under 64 that gave him the first-round lead. Johnson was making his ninth consecutive start at the Memorial Tournament. His third-place finish was his second top-10 at Muirfield Village Golf Club (4th/2011). His only missed cut came in 2013.

During the first round, Hudson Swafford posted five birdies, one eagle and no bogeys to shoot a 7-under 29 on the front nine, tying the low front-nine scoring record at the Memorial Tournament: John Huston (1996/R2), Mark Wilson (2007/R3), Aaron Baddeley (2014/R1) and Hudson Swafford (2016/R1).

Rory McIlroy's T4 was his third top-10 finish in six Memorial Tournament starts. McIlroy came into the week at No. 122 in Strokes Gained: Putting, but was ranked second for the week at Muirfield Village Golf Club.

U.S. Open

NOTES

Dustin Johnson joined Tiger Woods, Ernie Els, Geoff Ogilvy, Rory McIlroy, Justin Rose and Martin Kaymer as players with victories at the U.S. Open and a World Golf Championships event.

With a 6-over 76 in the final round, 54-hole leader Shane Lowry became the first player since Payne Stewart in 1998 to lose a lead of four or more strokes during the final round at the U.S. Open.

Jim Furyk recorded his 30th runner-up finish following a 4-under 66, the best score of the final round. It marked his second runner-up finish at Oakmont Country Club (2007 U.S. Open).

Lee Westwood entered the final round T4 but a 10-over 80 led to a T32 finish.

Jason Day finished T8 for his 12th top-10 finish in 23 major championship starts.

Jordan Spieth finished T37 in his bid to become the sixth player to win the U.S. Open in back-to-back years: Curtis Strange (1988-89), Ben Hogan (1950-51), Ralph Guldahl (1937-38), Bobby Jones (1929, 1930) and John McDermott (1911-12).

Willie Anderson is the only player to win three straight U.S. Opens (1903-05).

Angel Cabrera, the 2007 U.S. Open champion at Oakmont, finished T37 in his effort to become the first player to defend his U.S. Open title at the same golf course since Jack Nicklaus won at Baltusrol in 1967 and 1980.

Jon Rahm was the only amateur (out of 11) to make the cut, finishing T23. The U.S. Open has been won by an amateur eight times (five players): Francis Ouimet (1913), Jerome D. Travers (1915), Charles Evans Jr. (1916), Robert T. Jones Jr. (1923, 1926, 1929, 1930), John Goodman (1933).

World Golf Championships- Bridgestone Invitational

NOTES

Jason Day, who entered the final round with a share of the lead, reached the 15th green at 7-under par. A bogey on No. 15, double bogey on No. 17 and a bogey on the final hole resulted in a T3 finish. Day ended a streak of converting five consecutive third-round leads into victory on the PGA TOUR.

For the second consecutive event, Scott Piercy finished runner-up to Dustin Johnson, having previously finished second to Johnson in their last start at the U.S. Open.

Among the players making their first appearance in a World Golf Championships event, Kevin Chappell had the best finish, tying for third. Chappell needed just nine putts on his front-nine 5-under 30 and 24 total putts in his final round of 67.

Jordan Spieth posted his best result in three appearances at the Bridgestone Invitational (49/2014, T10/2015, T3/2016).

ZACH JOHNSON

Zach Johnson closed with 5-under 65 to record his lowest round on TOUR since the first round of the 2016 Sony Open in Hawaii (64). The T10 finish, along with T8 at the U.S. Open in his last start, marked top-10s in consecutive starts for the second time this season (5th/Arnold Palmer Invitational, T9/WGC-Dell Match Play).

WEATHER: Tournament cancelled due to flooding in the area.

NOTES

The PGA TOUR and Greenbrier Resort announced on June 26 that the 2016 Greenbrier Classic had been cancelled due to devastating flooding caused by record rainfalls throughout West Virginia on June 23. The Old White TPC underwent extensive damage from the flooding and TOUR officials determined it was beyond reasonable repair.

Following the flooding, U.S. President Barack Obama declared a major disaster for West Virginia and ordered federal aid to affected individuals in numerous counties, including Greenbrier County.

The 2016 Greenbrier Classic is the first PGA TOUR event cancelled and not rescheduled since the 2009 Sanderson Farms Championship, when heavy rains resulted in unplayable conditions.

The Open Championship

NOTES

With a victory at the 145th Open Championship at Royal Troon Golf Club, Henrik Stenson became the first player from Sweden to win a major championship. Stenson broke the record for lowest aggregate total score in a major (264), and tied the record for lowest 72-hole score in relation to par in a major (-20). He won his fifth career PGA TOUR victory in his 154th career start at the age of 40 years, 3 months, 12 days.

Despite a bogey-free 6-under 65 in the final round, 18- and 36-hole leader Phil Mickelson finished three strokes behind Henrik Stenson, marking his 11th runner-up in a major, second most of any player behind Jack Nicklaus (19).

Phil Mickelson and Henrik Stenson became the 26th and 27th players, respectively, to shoot a 63 in a major championship. In the first round, Mickelson's birdie putt lipped out as he attempted to make history as the first player to post a 62 in a major. En route to his record-breaking victory, Stenson recorded his own 63 in the final round, becoming just the second player to shoot a 63 in the final round of a major and go on to win (Johnny Miller, 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont).

The Open Championship

NOTES

Henrik Stenson became the first international player to win at Troon since South Africa's Bobby Locke won in 1950. He ended the streak of American-born winners at Royal Troon: Arnold Palmer (1962), Tom Weiskopf (1973), Tom Watson (1982), Mark Calcavecchia (1989), Justin Leonard (1997) and Todd Hamilton (2004).

Henrik Stenson became just the fourth player to win The Open Championship after posting four rounds under 70, and first at Royal Troon. Ernie Els carded four rounds in the 60s at Troon in 2004 (69-69-68-68), but lost in a playoff.

Henrik Stenson's 20-under-par 264 broke the tournament record for lowest winning total in relation to par since 1963 (19-under par, Tiger Woods, St. Andrews, 2000).

Advancing to the weekend for just the third time in eight appearances in The Open Championship, J.B. Holmes, finished alone in third, one of two top-five finishes in a major this season (T4/Masters Tournament).

The Open Championship

NOTES

Making his first appearance in The Open Championship since 2012 and 14th overall, Steve Stricker finished alone in fourth, his 13th top-10 in 66 major starts, and best since the 1998 PGA Championship (2nd). Stricker earned a spot in The Open Championship field via a T2 finish in his last PGA TOUR start, the FedEx St. Jude Classic, part of The Open Qualifying Series.

Sergio Garcia recorded his second consecutive top-five in a major, following a T5 at the 2016 U.S. Open, marking the third time in his career he recorded two top-fives in majors in the same season – 2005 (U.S. Open/T5 and Open Championship/T5) and 2006 (Open Championship/T5 and PGA Championship/T3).

Unable to defend his 2014 Open Championship title in 2015 due to an injury, Rory McIlroy finished T5 highlighted by a final-round 67. It marked his eighth top-10 in his last 11 major starts.

Bill Haas, T9, earned his first top-10 in 28 major starts.

Four of the last six winners of The Open Championship were 40 or older at the time of their win: Henrik Stenson (2016), Phil Mickelson (2013), Ernie Els (2012) and Darren Clarke (2011).

Despite missing the cut, 2010 Open Championship winner Louis Oosthuizen made history when he aced the 178-yard par-3 14th in the first round at Royal Troon, becoming the first player in 30 years to make an ace at two different majors in one year, following his hole-in-one in the final round of the 2016 Masters (No. 16).

RBC Canadian Open

NOTES

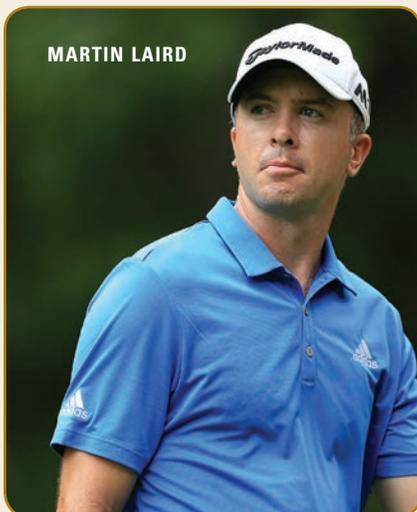

A week removed from his second-round, 11-under 60 at the Barbasol Championship (T4), Jhonattan Vegas reeled off five straight birdies on Nos. 2-6 in the final round of the RBC Canadian Open en route to an 8-under 64 and one-stroke win, his second on the PGA TOUR in his 128th start at the age of 31 years, 11 months, 5 days. Vegas also birdied his last three holes for the 12-under 276 finish.

Jhonattan Vegas began the final round five shots back of the lead. With five consecutive birdies on Nos. 2-6, he became the first TOUR winner with five or more consecutive birdies in the final round since Fabian Gomez made seven straight birdies in the final round of the Sony Open in Hawaii earlier this season.

In just his fourth start as a professional, 21-year-old Jon Rahm claimed a share of second place with Dustin Johnson and Martin Laird, after he erased a three-stroke deficit with a bogey-free 5-under 67 in the final round.

Dustin Johnson finished T2, his fifth top-five performance in his last six starts, dating to a third-place finish at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide. His T2 showing matched his best in four starts in the RBC Canadian Open (2016/T2, 2014/MC, 2013/T2, 2008/WD).

Following an opening-round, 1-over 73, Scotland's Martin Laird rallied with scores of 69-68-67 to claim a share of second place. Laird made his fifth start in the RBC Canadian Open, with a T16 in 2009 his previous-best showing.

RBC Canadian Open

NOTES

Steve Wheatcroft bogeyed No. 17 and needed a birdie at the last hole of the final round to catch Jhonattan Vegas in the clubhouse at 12-under 276. Instead, Wheatcroft bladed a bunker shot and found the water hazard for a final-hole bogey. He finished T5 at 10-under 278.

Team RBC ambassador and 54-hole leader

Brandt Snedeker posted a final-round, 1-under 71 to finish T5 at 10-under 278. Since 2000, only four 54-hole leaders or co-leaders of the RBC Canadian Open have gone on to win (Brandt Snedeker/2013, Mark Calcavecchia/2005, Scott Verplank/2001 and Tiger Woods/2000).

Beginning the final round nine strokes off the lead at even-par 216, Geoff Ogilvy played his last six holes in 6-under par to post a 9-under 63 and finish T9. Ogilvy made eagle at the par-5 16th and par-5 18th holes en route to the score. Brian Harman and George Coetzee also recorded final-round 63s

Jared du Toit, a member of Golf Canada's National Amateur Team, posted a 1-under 71 while playing in the final pairing with 54-hole leader Brandt Snedeker to finish at 9-under 279 (T9).

Defending champion and Team RBC ambassador Jason Day closed with a bogey-free, 5-under 67 to get to 281 (T14).

Adam Hadwin (T49) claimed the Rivermead Cup awarded to the low Canadian professional at the RBC Canadian Open.

Luke List, the 36- and 54-hole co-leader, finished T14.

PGA Championship

NOTES

In the longest final day at the PGA Championship in 64 years, Jimmy Walker produced three big birdies on the back nine at Baltusrol to close with a 3-under 67 for a one-shot victory over World No. 1 and defending champion Jason Day. Walker's first major championship title came in his 258th career start at the age of 37 years, 6 months, 15 days.

Making his sixth start in the PGA Championship, Jimmy Walker's opening 36-hole score of 9-under 131 tied the PGA Championship record for lowest opening 36-hole score. Had it not been for a bogey at his last hole in round two, he would have tied the record for lowest opening 36-hole score in major championship history.

In round two of the 2016 PGA Championship, Robert Streb posted a 7-under 63, tying the record for lowest 18-hole score in major championship history. His 9-under 131 through two rounds gave him a share of the lead with Jimmy Walker and tied the lowest opening 36-hole score in PGA Championship history.

PGA Championship

NOTES

Following wins by Danny Willett (Masters Tournament), Dustin Johnson (U.S. Open), Henrik Stenson (The Open Championship), PGA Championship winner Jimmy Walker continued the trend of first-time major winners in 2016, marking just the fifth time in history a season's four major winners each won their first major.

Defending PGA Champion Jason Day laced his second shot on the par-5 72nd hole with a 2-iron from 258 yards, landing his ball 13 feet from the hole. As Walker watched from the fairway, Day sank the putt for eagle to close to within a stroke. Walker's par proved good enough for his first major championship title and sixth PGA TOUR title.

En route to his solo-third at the 2016 PGA Championship, Daniel Summerhays holed his approach shot on the par-4 second hole in round two from 126 yards for an eagle-2. Summerhays would go on to birdie five of his last seven holes in the final round to claim solo possession of third place.

Two weeks removed from his Open Championship victory, Henrik Stenson opened the 2016 PGA Championship with three consecutive rounds of 3-under 67. A 1-over 71 in the final round thwarted his bid for a second consecutive major championship title and resulted in a tie for seventh place.

Following a twisted ankle after the U.S. Open, Brooks Koepka made three birdies and an eagle on the par-5 18th hole at Baltusrol to claim a share of fourth place with Branden Grace and Hideki Matsuyama.

Travelers Championship

NOTES

Beginning the final round three shots off the lead, Russell Knox posted a final-round 68, highlighted by a 12-foot par putt on the 72nd hole to secure a one-shot victory over Jerry Kelly at the Travelers Championship. The win marked Knox's second career PGA TOUR title in his 110th start at the age of 31 years, 1 month, 17 days. Knox, who won the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions earlier in the season, became the fifth multiple winner of the season, joining Jason Day, Jordan Spieth, Dustin Johnson and Adam Scott.

Jim Furyk became the first player in PGA TOUR history to shoot a 58 with a final round that included 10 birdies and a hole-out eagle on the par-4 third hole. Furyk birdied Nos. 6-12 and posted a front-nine 27, one off the TOUR record of 26. Having previously recorded a 59 in the second round of the 2013 BMW Championship, Furyk is the only player on the PGA TOUR to break 60 twice.

Tournament Record:

Travelers Championship

NOTES

Russell Knox became just the third international player to win the Travelers Championship since 1996, joining Freddie Jacobson (2011) and Marc Leishman (2012).

Jerry Kelly, who went to college at nearby University of Hartford, finished runner-up in his 603rd career start on the PGA TOUR. Kelly was one of three players who opened with a 6-under 64 to share the first-round lead.

Jim Furyk made the cut on the number at 1-under, but his final-round 58 propelled him to a T5 finish, where he beat the final-round scoring average by 10.66 strokes.

Daniel Berger took a three-shot lead into the final round, but a 4-over 74 resulted in a T5 finish.

Justin Thomas recorded a final-round 62 to finish T3, his best round since a 61 at the 2016 Sony Open in Hawaii.

Patrick Rodgers tied for third, his first top-10 since fall 2015. The T3 finish moved him to No. 66 in the FedExCup Standings.

There were six players in the field who competed in the Olympics in Rio the week following the Travelers Championship. All six made the cut:

Patrick Reed (T11), Alex Cejka (T11), Matt Kuchar (T17), Bubba Watson (T25), Soren Kjeldsen (T64), Padraig Harrington (T64).

The 36-hole leading score of 7-under 133 was the highest at the Travelers Championship since 1992 when 134 led after the second round. The last time the 36-hole lead was in a single digit under par was in 2012 when Freddie Jacobson led at 9-under 131.

First-round co-leader Andrew Loupe shot a 6-over 76 in the second round to miss the cut.

John Deere Classic

NOTES

Ryan Moore played his last 46 holes without a bogey to earn his fifth career PGA TOUR win in his 276th start on the PGA TOUR at the age of 33 years, 8 months, 9 days. Despite eight straight pars on his last eight holes, Moore won by two strokes over Ben Martin.

Ryan Moore only recorded two bogeys, the fewest of any player in the field. With four rounds in the 60s, he extended his streak of sub-par rounds at the John Deere Classic to 23.

Runner-up Ben Martin led the field with 25 birdies and had the fewest putts of any player in the field (103).

En route to his tie for third place, Morgan Hoffmann's third-round 62 at the 2016 John Deere Classic tied his career-low round on the PGA TOUR (62–2014 BMW Championship/3).

In his first start as an official member of the PGA TOUR, three-time Web.com Tour winner Wesley Bryan finished T8. Bryan, who held a share of the second-round lead, was looking to become the first player to win in their first PGA TOUR start following a three-win Web.com Tour promotion, and the second player to win a Web.com Tour event and PGA TOUR event in back-to-back weeks (Paul Stankowski/1996).

In his first non-major event on the PGA TOUR, Mackenzie Tour – PGA TOUR Canada player Aaron Wise finished T16, highlighted by a third-round 63. Wise helped the Oregon Ducks to their first-ever NCAA Championship in May of 2016, after capturing the Men's Individual Championship. He then won the Syncrude Oil Country Championship in July, becoming the youngest winner in Mackenzie Tour history at the age of 20 years, 1 month, 10 days.

Three-time John Deere Classic winner Steve Stricker finished T52 in his 15th start, marking his worst finish in the 13 times he made it to the weekend.

THE NORTHERN TRUST

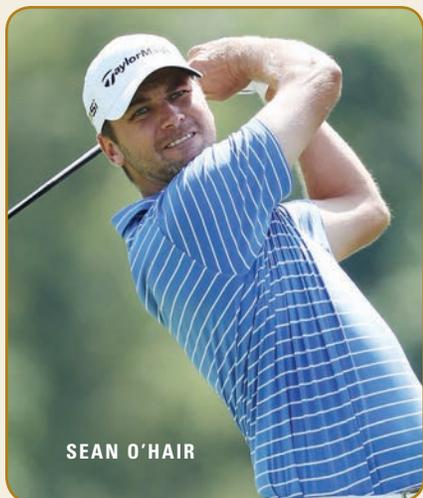

NOTES

Beginning the final round one stroke off Rickie Fowler's 9-under-par lead, Patrick Reed made four birdies and three bogeys en route to a 1-under 70, good for a one-stroke win over Emiliano Grillo and Sean O'Hair at 9-under 275. Reed claimed his fifth career PGA TOUR win in his 121st start at the age of 26 years, 23 days. With the win, he collected 2,000 FedExCup points and moved to No. 1 in the standings.

The Barclays was Patrick Reed's 12th start in a FedExCup Playoffs event. His only other top-10 finish among those starts was a T4 at the 2015 Deutsche Bank Championship.

Beginning The Barclays outside the top 100 in FedExCup points at No. 108, Sean O'Hair kept his season alive thanks to his final-round 5-under 66 and T2 finish at 8-under 276. He moved to No. 15 in the FedExCup to advance to the following week's Deutsche Bank Championship.

Players who entered The Barclays outside the top 100 but played their way into the following week's Deutsche Bank Championship included: Sean O'Hair (T2; from No. 108 to No. 15), Sung Kang (T18; from No. 122 to No. 88), John Huh (T31; from No. 111 to No. 90), Tyrone Van Aswegen (T41; from No. 104 to No. 93) and Derek Fathauer (T31; from No. 118 to No. 99). As a result, the following players dropped outside of the top 100 following The Barclays (Shane Lowry/DNP, Peter Malnati, Robert Streb, Lucas Glover and Jonas Blixt).

NOTES

Rory McIlroy began the final round tied for third and two shots behind co-leaders Kevin Chappell and Dustin Johnson. Coupled with a hole-out for an eagle-2 at No. 16, McIlroy's birdie on the 72nd hole moved him to 12-under and forced a playoff with Chappell and Ryan Moore, marking the 10th time extra holes were required to decide the winner of the TOUR Championship. After Chappell exited the playoff with a par on the first extra hole (No. 18), it took three additional holes, with McIlroy making a 15-foot birdie for the win. The four-hole playoff marked the longest in TOUR Championship history.

Following his four extra holes with winner Rory McIlroy, Ryan Moore was named the final Captain's Pick by Davis Love III for the United States Ryder Cup team.

Playing in the TOUR Championship for the first time in his career, Kevin Chappell was looking to join Chad Campbell (2003), Bart Bryant (2005), Bill Haas (2011) and Henrik Stenson (2013) as players to win the TOUR Championship in their first appearance (not including Tom Watson's win at the first TOUR Championship in 1987).

Entering the TOUR Championship as the No. 1 player in the FedExCup following a win at the BMW Championship, Dustin Johnson, who held at least a share of the lead through the first three rounds, shot a final-round 73, ending his streak of eight consecutive round in the 60s. Johnson finished T6 to end his season No. 2 in the FedExCup.

Coming off runner-up finishes at both the Deutsche Bank Championship and the BMW Championship, Paul Casey finished fourth in his third appearance at the TOUR Championship.

At No. 25 heading into the TOUR Championship, Sean O'Hair was the only player to advance to the TOUR Championship from those who entered the FedExCup Playoffs ranked No. 101 – 125 in the FedExCup standings. O'Hair recorded nine birdies en route to his final-round 5-under 65 to finish T17.

Presidents Cup

The 12th Presidents Cup will be contested at Liberty National Golf Club in Jersey City, New Jersey, USA. Nick Price will return as captain of the International Team, and Steve Stricker makes his debut as the lead for the U.S. Team. One of the world's most picturesque golf courses, Liberty National is located along the Hudson River, with striking views of the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island and the Manhattan skyline. Liberty National will be just the fourth golf course in the United States to host the prestigious team match-play competition, joining Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, (1994, 1996, 2000, 2005), TPC Harding Park in San Francisco, California, (2009) and Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Ohio (2013).

HISTORY

The Presidents Cup, a team match play competition featuring 24 of the world's top golfers – 12 from the United States and 12 from around the world, excluding Europe – is held every two years, and since 1996 has alternated between United States and international venues. The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition. The U.S. Team has won nine of the 11 previous Presidents Cups, and the only outright win by the International Team came at the 1998 event in Melbourne. A historic 17-17 tie came in 2003 when the event was held in South Africa.

The first Presidents Cup was played September 16-18, 1994, at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Virginia, USA. The U.S. Team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International Team, captained by David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held September 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the United States edged Peter Thomson's International Team, 16-1/2 to 15-1/2.

The 1998 Presidents Cup was played December 11-13 at The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. The International Team made the most of home-field advantage, winning 20-1/2 to 11-1/2. Jack Nicklaus served as captain of the U.S. Team, while Thomson repeated his role as captain for the International Team.

In 2000, the Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, with the United States avenging its 1998 loss with a decisive 21-1/2 to 10-1/2 victory over the International Team. Thomson captained the International Team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut as U.S. Team captain.

The 2003 Presidents Cup was held at The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa. The competition ended in a tie, after both teams completed regulation with 17 points. Ernie Els of the International Team and Tiger Woods of the U.S. Team were designated to represent their teams in a sudden-death playoff. After three playoff holes, and as darkness was descending, Captains Gary Player and Nicklaus, in the spirit of the competition, decided that the two teams would share the Cup.

In 2005, Nicklaus and Player returned as captains, and the matches were held once again at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. The tie from 2003 was broken with an 18-1/2 to 15-1/2 U.S. victory.

The U.S. Team wrapped up its fifth Presidents Cup victory in seven tries at The Royal Montreal Golf Club in 2007 with a 19-1/2 to 14-1/2 victory, the U.S. Team's first at an international venue in the competition's 13-year history, led once again by Nicklaus. David Toms earned the most points for the U.S. Team, while Woody Austin earned a new nickname - Aquaman - after falling into the lake on hole 14 while attempting a shot. And while his team did not win, Canadian golf hero Mike Weir thrilled the crowds with a 1-up victory over World No. 1 Tiger Woods in Sunday's singles competition. Player captained the International Team for a third and final time.

In 2009, the Presidents Cup was held at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco, Calif., one of the top public golf properties in the United States. Two of the most dominant players on the PGA TOUR during the 1980s and 1990s, Fred Couples and Greg Norman led the U.S. and International Teams, respectively. The 2009 Presidents Cup marked the first time in event history that both captains were former participants. Couples has appeared four times (1994, 1996, 1998, 2005) for the United States and Norman three (1996, 1998, 2000) for the Internationals, and both factored prominently in victories secured by their respective teams. As first-time captains, Couples and Norman each led strong teams with the U.S. Team retaining the Cup, winning for the sixth time by a score of 19-1/2 to 14-1/2.

The ninth playing of the event occurred November 15-20, 2011, at The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, which was the first international venue to host this prestigious competition more than once. The U.S. Team captured the Presidents Cup for the seventh time, led once again by Captain Couples and a 5-0-0 performance by veteran Jim Furyk. Tiger Woods clinched the Cup for the United States with a 4-and-3 win over Australia's Aaron Baddeley in Sunday Singles. For Woods, it was the second consecutive time he had scored the winning point at the Presidents Cup, becoming only the second player to accomplish that feat (Couples, 1994, 1996) and the first captain's pick to do so. Norman's International Team was outscored 8-3 in foursomes and eventually lost the Cup by four points (19-15).

In 2013, the Presidents Cup was played at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Ohio, which became the first golf course to host the Ryder Cup, The Solheim Cup and the Presidents Cup. Nick Price, who owns the distinction of the captain with the most Presidents Cup experience as a player (five appearances) led the International Team, which was defeated by Couples' U.S. Team, 18-1/2 to 15-1/2, despite an impressive Sunday charge by the Internationals. Woods once again clinched the victory for the U.S. Team for the third straight time, becoming the first player in event history to accomplish that feat. Couples became the winningest captain in Presidents Cup history with a 3-0-0 record.

The Presidents Cup was held in Asia for the first time when the 2015 edition was played at Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea in Songdo IBD, Incheon City, Korea. A tight battle between the United States and International teams brought the competition to the final match and the final hole. Bill Haas, son of U.S. Captain Jay Haas and a captain's pick for the team, secured the winning point in dramatic fashion against South Korea's Sangmoon Bae on the 18th hole.

An important hallmark of the Presidents Cup is the roster of world leaders who have served as honorary chairmen, highlighting the Presidents Cup's global appeal, including U.S. Presidents Barack Obama (twice), Gerald Ford, George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton and George Bush, as well as Australian Prime Minister John Howard, South African President Thabo Mbeki, Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper, Australian Prime Minister Julia Gillard and President of Korea Park Geun-hye.

CHARITY

The Presidents Cup is a unique golf event in that there is no purse or prize money; instead, each player, captain and captain's assistant allocates an equal portion of the funds generated to charities of his choice. Since the inception of the Presidents Cup in 1994, more than $38.4 million has been raised for charity from event proceeds. Over the past 21 years, the Presidents Cup has impacted more than 450 charities in 15 countries worldwide and 35 states in the U.S.

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

David Chu Award

The Award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu died Aug. 12, 2011 in Hong Kong.

Dr. Chu was considered by many as the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills Golf Club in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. A little more than 15 years after breaking ground, Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom gripping China.

The award is an 8-centimeter-by-8-millimeter bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese on either side. It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.
