Champions Tour

Welcome to the 2011 season of the Champions Tour. On behalf of our players, staff, tournaments and sponsors, we would like to thank the members of the media for the coverage you provide. We look forward to working with you in the year ahead.

For 2011, the Champions Tour will feature 24 official Charles Schwab Cup events, with further announcements on additions to the schedule expected early in the season. The Champions Tour will play in 14 states and three international countries.

The Charles Schwab Cup, our season-long competition, will enter its 11th season in 2011. Designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, it rewards top finishes and consistency in all official events. Last year, Bernhard Langer earned 3,597 points and captured his first Charles Schwab Cup by 826 points over Fred Couples to collect the Cup's first-place annuity of $1 million. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with one Charles Schwab Cup point earned for each $1,000 earned. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships and to the entire 30-man field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, which returns to TPC Harding Park in San Francisco on October 31-November 6.

Our television partners will broadcast all events, with Golf Channel airing coverage of each tournament. Five events will have network coverage on NBC and CBS on the weekend. Additionally, the Senior British Open will be carried on ESPN.

In 2011, we welcome PGA TOUR players such as Kenny Perry, Steve Lowery, Mark Brooks, Jim Gallagher, Jr., Tom Byrum, Ian Baker-Finch, Steve Pate, John Huston and Brad Faxon—all making the transition to the Champions Tour. They will compete regularly with established Champions Tour stars like Bernhard, Fred, Nick Price, Mark O'Meara and Russ Cochran, all multiple winners last year. Twenty-nine members of the Champions Tour are also members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, with many still active on Tour.

Our Champions Tour players are committed to making each tournament week rewarding and enjoyable, and they pride themselves on their accessibility and interaction with the media, sponsors and fans. That commitment also extends off the course, with many players and their spouses involved with charitable initiatives of their own—along with those charitable endeavors in the communities served by our tournaments each week.

The extensive charitable mission of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour makes a significant impact in communities across the country, and we appreciate your efforts in conveying to your readers and viewers how our tournaments continue to generate charitable contributions that touch the lives of so many people.

The digital version of the Champions Tour Media Guide can be accessed via pgatourmedia.com, along with more information, such as the media credential application process, for each specific event of the 2011 season.

We appreciate your continued support of the Champions Tour. The communications department at PGA TOUR headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, as well as our media officials on site at each tournament, are ready to assist you with your interview and informational requests. Enjoy the 2011 season.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem

PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 100 official-money tournaments on three Tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-TOUR co-sponsored tournaments.

The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with official money events from January through November. This year is the fifth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

Membership: 89 international players, 23 countries

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT

Competition Awards:

FedExCup (Season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Trophy (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Comeback Player of the Year.

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 11th season.

Membership: 46 international players, 15 countries

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, ESPN2

Competition Awards: Charles Schwab Cup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Trophy (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Comeback Player of the Year.

The Nationwide Tour is the official proving ground of the PGA TOUR. It celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2009. Through 2010, 288 PGA TOUR titles have been won by former Nationwide Tour players. Two-thirds of the PGA TOUR members in 2011 have Nationwide Tour roots. "The 25" (top-25 money winners) earn PGA TOUR cards for the following season.

Membership: 64 international players, 18 countries

TV: Golf Channel

About the Champions Tour

Collectively, the Champions Tour has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game, with many of its 29 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events and numerous other major championship winners among its members. The Champions Tour is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. Points earned in official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2011 will determine the Charles Schwab Cup champion, the season-long competition designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. In 2010, tournaments on all three Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour) generated $120 million for local charitable organizations, bringing the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions to more than $1.6 billion. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Mike Stevens is President of the Champions Tour. The PGA TOUR's Web site is pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

History

1980 – 2010. The Tour enters its 32nd season in 2011.

Charity

The Champions Tour and its tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. In 2010, tournaments on all three Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour) generated more than $120 million for local charitable organizations, bringing the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions to more than $1.6 billion. The Champions Tour's charitable mission is an integral component of its value proposition and charitable donations have a significant impact in the communities served by Champions Tour events.

2011 Schedule

The 32nd season of the Champions Tour will be played in 14 states and three countries outside the U.S., including Canada, England and South Korea.

The most significant developments for the 2011 season are venue changes and adjustment of dates for two major championships—the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and the Regions Tradition. Both tournaments appear on the schedule earlier than they did last year.

Regions Financial Corporation elevated its involvement with the Champions Tour, becoming the new title sponsor of the first major championship of the 2011 season. The Regions Tradition (May 2-8), previously played in mid-August, relocates from Sunriver, OR, to Shoal Creek, just outside Birmingham, AL. Shoal Creek previously hosted two PGA Championships, in 1984 and 1990, along with the 1986 U.S. Amateur.

After conducting successful events at Baltimore Country Club, and a one-time visit to TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm, the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship relocates to the Westchester Country Club in Harrison, NY, marking the first time Westchester has hosted a Champions Tour event. The club previously hosted the PGA TOUR for 41 years, from 1967 until 2007. The event will be played August 15-21 in 2011.

The official 2011 season kicks off on the Big Island of Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 17-23), with the first full-field event coming three weeks later, at the Allianz Championship (Feb. 7-13), in Boca Raton, FL. The season will again conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 31-Nov. 6) at the newly named TPC Harding Park in San Francisco. TPC Harding Park was the site of the 2010 Charles Schwab Cup Championship and the 2009 Presidents Cup.

The AT&T Championship (Oct. 10-16) will remain in San Antonio as the last full-field event of the season but will relocate to the TPC San Antonio AT&T Canyons Course after nine consecutive years at Oak Hills Country Club. The TPC San Antonio AT&T Oaks Course hosts the PGA TOUR's Valero Texas Open.

The Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort & Spa in Savannah, GA, will once again serve as host to the Champions Tour's and PGA TOUR's longest-running event with a single sponsor, the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (April 18-24), which enters its 34th year. The Legends Division remains a two-man better-ball event counting as an official win and official prize money for each team member.

The Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament (Nov. 14-20) is scheduled for TPC Scottsdale (Champions Course), in Scottsdale, AZ.

Major Championships (5)

The Champions Tour's major championships will feature an adjusted lineup this year. The Regions Tradition (May 2-8) will be the first of five majors. The newly titled tournament will relocate from Sunriver, OR, to Shoal Creek, just outside Birmingham, AL. Three weeks later, the Senior PGA Championship (May 23-29) takes place at Valhalla Golf Club in Louisville, KY. Valhalla was the site of the United States Ryder Cup team victory in 2008 and previously hosted the 2004 Senior PGA Championship. The Senior British Open (July 18-24) is set to be contested at Walton Heath Golf Club in London, England, and the U.S. Senior Open (July 25-31) returns to Inverness Club in Toledo, OH, for the first time since 2003 when Bruce Lietzke captured the title. After several successful events at Baltimore Country Club, and a one-time visit to TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm last year, the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship (Aug. 15-21) relocates to Westchester Country Club, in Harrison, NY, marking the first time Westchester hosts a Champions Tour event. The club previously hosted the PGA TOUR for 41 years, from 1967 until 2007.

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, now in its 11th season, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships. Double points will also be awarded to the entire 30-player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The season-long points competition kicks off in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. The Road to the Charles Schwab Cup culminates in San Francisco at TPC Harding Park, with $2.1 million in payouts awarded to the season's top five leading performers. The winner receives $1 million.

Size of Field

In 2011, the field size for Champions Tour events will be 78 players, except at those tournaments that have specific eligibility criteria.

Membership

Champions Tour members hail from around the globe. In 2011, 46 international players have full or partial Tour exemptions. Fifteen countries besides the United States are represented. They are Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, Germany, Ireland, Japan, New Zealand, Philippines, Puerto Rico, Spain, South Africa, Taiwan, Wales and Zimbabwe.

World Golf Hall of Fame Members

Doug Ford is the latest Champions Tour member to be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame, bringing the total number of Champions Tour members in the Hall to 29, many of whom are regularly active on the Champions Tour. They are

The Champions Tour also recognizes its Player of the Month (January through October).

"Rookies"

For players to become eligible to compete in Champions Tour events they must attain age 50 on or before the day of their first tournament 'obligation', such as the Wednesday pro-am, the date of pre-qualifying or the date of event qualifying. If a player plays less than six tournaments in his first season of eligibility he is considered a rookie the following season.

Kenny Perry (two events in 2010), Steve Lowery (two), Paul Azinger (four), Jay Delsing (one), Tom Byrum (two), Willie Wood (one), Mark Carnevale (four), Robert Wrenn (one) and Jodie Mudd (four) are all examples of players who are considered rookies for the 2011 season even though they have already played on the Champions Tour. Former U.S. Open champion Steve Jones is yet to make a start on the Champions Tour, having turned 50 in 2009.

Newcomers for 2011 with major championship wins on their resume include Ian Baker-Finch (1991 British Open), who turned 50 on October 24, 2010, and Mark Brooks (1996 PGA Championship), who will turn 50 on March 25, 2011.

Baker-Finch will continue his commentary duties with CBS Sports but is eligible to compete.

Other players expected to compete regularly include Jim Gallagher, Jr. (five TOUR wins, March 24), Steve Pate (six TOUR wins, May 26), John Huston (seven TOUR wins, June 1) and Brad Faxon (eight TOUR wins, August 1).

Pate, a former U.S. Ryder Cup team member, became the Nationwide Tour's oldest winner in March of 2010 with a victory at the Bogota Open in Colombia, his first win anywhere since 1998.

Those who successfully progressed through the Champions Tour National Qualifying School to gain membership for 2011 include Frankie Minoza and Lee Rinker. Roger Chapman and Mark Mouland, both former winners on the European Tour, earned conditional status by finishing sixth and eighth, respectively, at the Q-School. Mouland, who turns 50 on April 23, is the only player from this group who is required to wait before making his debut in 2011.

Minoza, from the Philippines, has won seven titles on the Japan Golf Tour. He has also won titles in Indonesia, Taiwan, Singapore, Pakistan, South Korea, the Philippines and Malaysia. At one time in his career he was ranked in the top 50 in the world.

Rinker, who tied for second with Minoza at the Q-School, competed on the PGA TOUR in the late 1990s, earning a pair of runner-up finishes in 1997, at the GTE Byron Nelson Classic and the B.C. Open.

Greg Twiggs (October 31, 2010), Bob Lohr (November 2, 2010), Ernie Gonzalez, Jr. (February 19), Jim Carter (June 24) and Chris Perry (September 27), who all have a single PGA TOUR victory to their names, are also eligible for the 2011 rookie class of the Champions Tour but will have limited status.

Additional "rookie" prospects becoming eligible in the near future include:

2012 – Kirk Triplett (March 29), Andrew Magee (May 22), Duffy Waldorf (August 20).

2013 – Bart Bryant (November 18, 2012), John Inman (November 26, 2012), Steve Elkington (December 8, 2012), Rocco Mediate (December 17, 2012), Vijay Singh (February 22), Billy Ray Brown (April 5), Jose Coceres (August 14).

2014 – Billy Andrade (January 25), Woody Austin (January 27), Jeff Maggert (February 20), Joe Durant (April 7), Davis Love III (April 13), Stephen Ames (April 28), Paul Goydos (June 20), Kevin Sutherland (July 4), Scott Verplank (July 9), Lee Janzen (August 28), Skip Kendall (September 9).

2010 Recap

The season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco brought together the best of the Champions Tour, with the top-30 on the 2010 money list earning their way to the Championship.

The $2.5 million tournament decided not only that week's champion, but it was also the culmination of the season-long points race to determine the Charles Schwab Cup winner.

Bernhard Langer was the favorite heading into the tournament, having established a large lead in the points race, thanks to his sensational season that had already seen him win five times, including back-to-back major championships.

However, most eyes were on Fred Couples during the week as he was the lone player with an opportunity to claim the Charles Schwab Cup from Langer, who led by 582 points going into the final event of the year. Couples had won the Administaff Small Business Classic in his previous start to close the gap on Langer. Couples had to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and hope Langer did not finish in a two-way tie for fourth or better in San Francisco to have a shot at claiming the Cup.

For the 10th time in the 11-year history of the Charles Schwab Cup, the champion was set to be determined at this tournament.

The week got off to a busy start, with Harding Park Golf Course being renamed TPC Harding Park, becoming part of the TPC Network of courses. Couples was honored and thanked by the California Fire Foundation for a donation he had made after the 2009 Presidents Cup, also held at Harding Park. Champions Tour caddies paid tribute to the San Francisco Giants by wearing Giants jerseys during Wednesday's pro-am, just two days after the Giants had claimed the World Series. The jerseys were later auctioned, with all funds benefiting the Giants Foundation and The First Tee of San Francisco.

John Cook stole the headlines at the end of the week when he claimed the tournament title by two strokes for his second consecutive victory at the season-ending event after a mighty battle with Michael Allen, who had shot 61 to take the 54-hole lead. It was the fourth 61 on the Champions Tour in 2010.

In the final round, Allen first made a 30-foot birdie from the fringe at No. 10, but Cook topped him with a 15-foot birdie of his own to preserve a one-stroke lead. Both players made pars over the next five holes before Cook widened his margin to two shots with a two-putt birdie from the front fringe at the driveable, par-4 16th hole. Allen was unable to get up and down from the greenside bunker, missing a 12-foot birdie putt. It was Cook's fifth title of his Champions Tour career, and he became the first player since Jeff Sluman (2008 and 2009 First Tee Open at Pebble Beach) to successfully defend a Champions Tour title.

"If I had gone through this year without a win, it would have been disappointing," said Cook, who has claimed all five of his career titles on the Champions Tour in October and November. "This is the Champions Tour. It's about winning out here. People remember who your champions are."

Germany's Langer became the first international player to claim the Charles Schwab Cup, earning the $1-million annuity. Langer tied for third and earned 389 Schwab Cup points. He finished the season with 3,597 points, the second-largest point total in Schwab Cup history (Tom Watson had 4,370 points in 2003). Langer's 826-point differential was also the widest margin since Watson won the Schwab Cup by 1,324 points over Jim Thorpe in 2003.

"Looking back, it's been an unbelievable year," said Langer. "I've achieved a lot of my goals. It's hard to do that year after year. And winning the Charles Schwab Cup was the thing I hadn't done, so winning this is a big deal for me. There are so many great players out there. To come out on top is a great feeling, and it's worth all the hard work over the years."

Many players who have won the $1-million annuity that comes with winning the Charles Schwab Cup have contributed significant amounts to charities, and Langer is no different.

"I support a lot of charities already," he said. "I'm heavily involved with four or five charities. We have a number of orphanages that we support—underprivileged kids. I have my own foundation in Germany that helps families who are not so well off, and we also spread the gospel. We were doing that before I won this, and we're going to be able to do more now."

Couples eventually tied for 10th at the season-ending event, his 13th top-10 finish in 17 starts, including four victories. He also set an all-time record for lowest scoring average in a Champions Tour season, claiming the Byron Nelson Award with a stroke average of 67.96, shattering the old mark of 68.59 by Hale Irwin in 1998.

At the end of the season, players voted Langer as the Player of the Year. It was his third consecutive honor, and he summed up his Champions Tour career, which began in 2007, after claiming his first Charles Schwab Cup.

"This was probably my best year since I've been on the Champions Tour," he said. "The consistency was there all three years—it's just the first two years I played steady in the majors but just didn't win any of them. When I joined this Tour I wanted to be one of the better players out here, and so far I've proven that."

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 17th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2010. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, The Presidents Cup was created in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After eight stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar, and the 2011 event is scheduled for Royal Melbourne in Australia.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's The First Tee initiative has meant that, in just more than 10 years, The First Tee has grown to include more than 200 chapters that reach more than 2.2 million young people.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. From 2007-2010, the FedExCup brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001 and the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002. He was awarded the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005.

Finchem is the third commissioner of the PGA TOUR, succeeding Deane Beman. Beman served for 20 years, replacing the late Joe Dey, who had been the TOUR's commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Prior to becoming commissioner on June 1, 1994, Finchem was deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of the TOUR. He joined the TOUR as vice president of business affairs in 1987.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

2010 SEASON:

Split time between the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR and narrowly missed out on being fully-exempt on both circuits for 2011. Made 14 starts on the Champions Tour and was among the top-10 seven times, including three second-place performances. Finished 9th on the Champions money list with $1,196,770, the most money made by a player last year without a victory and also the most money he's ever made in a single season on any Tour in his career...Late-season run allowed him to finish fourth in the final Schwab Cup standings with 1,846 points and earned him a $200,000 annuity...Fired a closing-round 67 to finish T2, one stroke behind Fred Funk at the JELD-WEN Tradition in August. Led all players in the event with 25 birdies and was the clubhouse leader at 11-under-par on Sunday before Funk made a birdie at No. 16 to grab the lead for good...Was runner-up again in October when he fell in a one-hole playoff to Mark O'Meara at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship. Made a late run with three birdies in his final five holes to pull even at the end of 72 holes, but hit his tee shot on the first extra hole into the right rough which eventually led to a bogey and his second-place finish in the year's final major championship...Duelled John Cook down the stretch at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship before finishing in solo second, two strokes back. With support from a partisan San Francisco crowd, carded a 10-under 61 in the third round at TPC Harding Park and enjoyed a one-stroke lead over Cook after play on Saturday. Round not only a tournament record but was his career best on any Tour and the last of four 61s posted on the Champions Tour in 2010...Opened Champions Tour campaign with a solo third-place effort at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Carded a 6-under 66 in all three rounds, but still finished four strokes back of Tom Watson...On the leaderboard throughout most of the U.S. Senior Open and eventually was T6 at Sahalee...Shared the first-round lead at the inaugural Posco C&E Songdo Championship and trailed by three after 36 holes before eventually finishing T7 in South Korea...Made 17 starts on the PGA TOUR and dropped out of the top 125 in the season's final event when he posted rounds of 74-70 and missed the cut at the Children's Miracle Network Classic at Walt Disney World Resort. Came into the week at No. 124 on the 2010 PGA TOUR money list but ended up at No. 130 after the missed cut at Disney...For the seventh straight year, finished among the top-25 three/more times and turned in his best performance in early October when he finished solo second at the Viking Classic in Mississippi, three strokes back of Bill Haas, the eventual winner. Was tied for the lead with Haas after 12 holes on Sunday, but got a bad break at No. 13 when his drive hit a cart path and went out of bounds. Performance near Jackson, MS was his best showing in a PGA TOUR event since he was second at the 2007 Turning Stone Resort Championship...Shot a final-round 65 on the South Course at Torrey Pines to finish T5 at the Farmers Insurance Open...Also in contention through three rounds of the Sony Open in Hawaii before posting a 2-over 72 Sunday at Waialae to finish T25 in his first PGA TOUR start of the season.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Made just three starts on the Champions Tour while still competing on the PGA TOUR...Parlayed a sponsor's exemption at the Senior PGA Championship into his first career Champions Tour win. Rebounded from a 4-over-par 74 start with rounds of 66-67-67 to win the crown at the Canterbury GC near Cleveland. Became the first sponsor exemption to win a Champions Tour event since Mark Wiebe did so at the 2007 SAS Championship. Also became the 14th player to win in his debut...Was T13 at the Senior British Open and T30 at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in his other two starts...Made 21 starts on the PGA TOUR, with his lone top 10 coming at the Wyndham Championship, where he was T5. Finished 109th on the final PGA TOUR money list in 2009.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Long-time PGA TOUR member who played on TOUR on and off from 1990-2010 with just over $6.1 million in official earnings...Recorded a second-place finish at the 2007 Turning Stone Resort Championship, which earned him exempt status for the 2008 season...Made his 13th trip to the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament finals in 2007 and earned his card for a record ninth time. In 2004, finished in the top 125 on the money list for just the second time in his career and first since finishing 73rd in 1993. His $882,872 was more than he had earned in his first 187 events on TOUR ($740,360)...First top-10 of the 2004 season was T9 at the Reno-Tahoe Open. Last time he finished in the top-10 on TOUR was at the 1995 Quad Cities Open, where he finished T5...Posted a hole-in-one on the 193-yard par-3 fourth hole with a 6-iron in the third round at the 2004 FedEx St. Jude Classic...Posted career-best finish with a solo second at the 2004 Chrysler Classic of Greensboro. Birdie putt on 72nd hole put him in solo second, worth $92,000 and payday of $496,800 jumped position on money list from No. 153 to No. 84...Played primarily on the 2003 Nationwide Tour, where he was also a member from 1997-2001, with two top-10s in 24 events. Finished T2 at the Monterey Peninsula Classic...Using a long putter, earned his first career Nationwide Tour victory at the 1998 Greater Austin Open, shooting a final-round 76 as winds in excess of 40 mph dropped the wind chill into the low 20s. Effort was his first top-three finish in a Champions Tour event since finishing as runner-up at the rain-shortened 2002 Royal Caribbean Classic. Second-round 66 was his best single-round performance since posting the same score in the first round of the 2005 Ford Senior Players. 2005: Was the first-round leader at the SBC Classic, thanks to a 3-under 69, the only player in the field to break 70 on Friday. Eventually T14 at Valencia CC. 2004: Highlight of his year was selection for the World Golf Hall of Fame from the International ballot early in the year and inducted along with Tom Kite, Charlie Sifford and Marlene Streit in ceremonies in November... Lone top-10 finish was a T6 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic near Austin. Trained by just one stroke through 36 holes, but even-par 72 on Sunday left him three strokes back. 2003: T6 at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic, his fifth top-10 finish at Crandon Park... Made his 1,000th professional start at the Ford Senior Players Championship. 2000: Started the final round of the State Farm Senior Classic four shots behind Leonard Thompson, but forced a playoff with a final-round 65 that included birdies on three of the last four holes. His 65 on Sunday, coupled with his record 60, helped him establish a then-Champions Tour mark for best consecutive rounds (60-65-125), breaking the record of 126 by Jim Colbert (62-64 in 1994) and Bob Murphy (63-63 in 1995)...Second five times, with two of those coming in majors—The Tradition and PGA Seniors' Championship. 1996: Defeated Jay Sigel and Graham Marsh by a stroke for the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland title...One month later, claimed the Kroger Senior Classic by five strokes over Rocky Thompson and Mike Hill. 2010 SEASON:

Solid rookie season on the Champions Tour included three runner-up finishes and 10 top-10 performances in 23 starts. Ended his first season on the Champions Tour as the last of 13 players over the million-dollar mark in official earnings...Finished second to Fred Couples in his Champions Tour debut at The ACE Group Classic in mid-February. Fired an 11-under-par 61 in the final round, matching the Champions Tour 2010 low for best score in relation to par. Trained Couples by seven strokes after five holes Sunday before playing the next dozen holes at 10-under to grab a share of the lead with a birdie at No. 17. However, Couples answered with a birdie at the same hole moments later to earn a one-stroke win. His 61 set a course record at The Quarry in Naples and was just one stroke shy of a career-best 60 he shot at the 1999 Las Vegas Invitational. Final round included nine birdies and an eagle...Also finished second at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, one stroke back of David Eger. Was one shot ahead of Eger after four consecutive birdies (Nos. 11-14) on the back nine on Sunday but missed a short birdie putt on the par-5 15th and then three-putted for bogey at the par-3 17th to fall back...Registered a third runner-up finish at The Principal Charity Classic. Was tied for the 36-hole lead with Nick Price, but final-round 71 at Glen Oaks left him four strokes back at the end...Was the 18-hole leader following a 9-under-par 63 at the 3M Championship in August near Minneapolis. Remained on the leaderboard throughout the weekend before finishing T3 with three others at the TPC Twin Cities...In his next start at the JELD-WEN Tradition, posted four straight sub-par rounds to finish T6 in Oregon...Was also among the final-round leaders at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn before eventually finishing T7. Earned $59,500 to go past the $1-million mark in season earnings...Along with Tim Simpson, held a share of the 36-hole lead at the Allianz Championship. Second-round 64 at Broken Sound included a run of five consecutive birdies, tying the Champions Tour's best birdie streak in 2010...Became the ninth player in Champions Tour history, and first since Brad Bryant in 2007 (Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach), to record four eagles in an event when he did so at The Cap Cana Championship (T13)...Made five appearances on the PGA TOUR and made it to the weekend only once, finishing T63 at the Farmers Insurance Open near San Diego.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A fixture on the PGA TOUR for over 20 years...A two-time winner who was among the top 125 on the money list 11 times, with a career-best total of $1,501,256 in 2008 on the strength of five top-10s—T2 at the Travelers Championship, T3 at the AT&T National, T6 at the Puerto Rico Open, T7 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans and a T10 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial...First career victory came in 1990 when he defeated Jim Thorpe by five strokes at the Phoenix Open in his first start of the season...Had to wait 13 years for his second, but it came in record-setting fashion. After playing with a conditional exemption for most of the season, turned it around in September, 2003, with a second career victory at the Valero Texas Open. Posted rounds of 64-62-63-65—254. The 254 total (26-under par) broke Mark Calcavecchia's all-time 72-hole TOUR mark of 256 set in winning at the 2001 Phoenix Open. His 54-hole total of 189 matched the all-time TOUR record shared by Calcavecchia and John Cook (1996 FedEx St. Jude Classic). Did not post a bogey until the back nine Sunday. In relation to par for a par-70 course, his score also broke the all-time PGA TOUR record of 22-under par set by Donnie Hammond at the 1989 Texas Open. Win was worth $630,000, the largest payday of his career. Made 33 starts on the Nationwide Tour, with most of them coming early in his career. Recorded a pair of victories, both in 1994 and both in the state of Ohio. Claimed the Miami Valley and Cleveland Opens in consecutive weeks to become first player ever to win back-to-back Nationwide Tour events. Finished seventh on Nationwide Tour money list to gain a spot on the 1995 PGA TOUR...Played in the 1994 U.S. Open at Oakmont CC, site of his grandfather's 1927 U.S. Open victory...Played on the European and Asian Tours until the fall of 1987...Won the 1983 Mexican Open and the 1981 New Mexico State Amateur...Underwent back surgery in June 2009 to remove a bone chip which was bothering his sciatic nerve.

Grandfather, known as "The Silver Scot," won the 1927 U.S. Open, 1931 British Open, 1930 PGA Championship and is a member of the World Golf Hall of Fame...Got his start in golf from his mom and dad...After record-setting performance at the 2003 Valero Texas Open, commented on colorful career, "You only get one trip around life. Golf is just something that I love to do. I don't play for the money, I never have. I've made a lot of good friends playing golf professionally."

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T3—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2010 SEASON:

Finished outside the Champions Tour's top-30 money-winners for the first time... Highlight of his year was a third-place finish at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April in Savannah. He and teammate, Chien-Soon Lu, led by one stroke after 36 holes but finished one shy of the two-team playoff between Mark O'Meara-Nick Price and John Cook-Joey Sindelar. Lu was a replacement for his original partner Jerry Pate, who had to withdraw due to a knee injury days before the start of the event... Was also T12 at the Regions Charity Classic, shooting 67 on the final day at Ross Bridge... A Saturday 64 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open was one stroke off his Champions Tour career low.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Made the most money without posting a victory, more than $1.3 million in official earnings. Finished seventh on the money list, the highest standing of his

Champions Tour career...Was second five times over his 24 starts...A runner-up to Bernhard Langer by one stroke in the season-opener at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Started the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader Brad Bryant and moved into contention by playing his first 10 holes in 5-under par...Closed with 7-under 65 to finish T2 at The Cap Cana Championship...Was second again to Langer in mid-July at the 3M Championship. Playing one group apart, the two were tied for the lead with one hole remaining before Langer holed a 20-foot eagle chip on No. 18 and Bean could do no better than birdie on the final hole...Added a fourth second-place finish when he and Russ Cochran were T2 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, two strokes behind Jay Haas. Helped his cause with an eagle-3 on the final hole Sunday. Runner-up check in Hickory for $140,000 moved him over the $1-million mark in season earnings for a third time on the Champions Tour...Was T2 again in late October when he finished one stroke back of Phil Blackmar at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. Shared the 36-hole lead with Cochran, but after two birdies on the front nine Sunday, did not make another over his final 11 holes...Ended his season with a 9-under 63 Sunday at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. His performance at Sonoma GC matched his career-low round on the Champions Tour and equaled the best final-round score in event history. 2008: Enjoyed a career season, claiming two wins for the first time since 1986 and finishing eighth on the final money list, with more than $1.5 million in earnings...Posted the signature win of his Champions Tour career when he blitzed the field by nine strokes to win the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in California. Led by just one stroke after 36 holes but broke things open Sunday when he was forced to play 32 holes after rain forced postponement of most of Saturday's third round. Built his lead to four strokes after 54 holes and then fired a 6-under-par 30 on the front nine and never looked back. Earned a career-best check for $442,000, more than four times greater than his largest on the PGA TOUR ($108,000 at the 1986 Byron Nelson Golf Classic) and it nearly matched his best year on the PGA TOUR ($491,938 in 1986)...Earlier in the year, won the Regions Charity Classic near Birmingham, edging Loren Roberts by one stroke in mid-May. At the time, was his second career victory on the Champions Tour and first in 40 starts. Made a crucial par on the final hole to preserve the win. After a wayward drive, hit a 4-iron second shot from 230 yards out of the left rough to within 20 feet of the flagstick and then two-putted for par. Victory made him the 16th different winner of the Regions Charity Classic...Slowed early in the year with a back problem which caused him to miss the first two events in Hawaii. Underwent a procedure to correct the problem in the spring and won three weeks later in Birmingham. 2007: Was the 36-hole co-leader at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am with Wayne Levi. Eventually finished T2 with Jay Haas, one stroke behind Tom Watson. Was in control at the TPC Tampa Bay until he made a double bogey-7 at the par-5 14th...Was within one stroke of the lead after 36 holes at the AT&T Champions Classic but finished two strokes over par on the front and eventually finished T4, two strokes out of a playoff. 2006: Played some of his best golf in the latter stages of the season...Broke through with his first Champions Tour victory when he defeated R.W. Eaks with a birdie on the first playoff hole at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in early October. The win came in his 91st start on the Champions Tour and was his first official victory in 20 years, 4 months, 20 days. His opening-round, 9-under 63 matched the tournament course record, and he went on to become the year's fourth wire-to-wire winner on the Champions Tour...Flirted with the leaderboard in the final round at the U.S. Senior Open after a strong showing on the weekend at Prairie Dunes CC. Fired a 6-under-par 64 Saturday and was tied for the lead after 12 holes Sunday with D.A. Weibring, Tom Watson and eventual winner Allen Doyle before bogeys on Nos. 13 and 14 dropped him from the lead. Eventually finished T5...In contention down the stretch in the Commerce Bank Championship but missed a playoff after his 6-foot par putt on the final hole didn't drop. His T3 effort on Long Island was his best since T2 at the same event in 2004. 2005: Registered just one top-10 finish in 25 official starts, yet was among the top-20 eight times...Best effort came early in the year when he was T6 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah. Was on the leaderboard after an opening-round 67 at the Westin Savannah Harbor...Made first start of the 2005 season at The ACE Group Classic in Naples following off-season knee surgery. 2004: In contention for his first Champions Tour victory at the Farmers Charity Classic, but was forced to withdraw after having an allergic food reaction, which sent him to the hospital prior to the start of his final round. Had shared the 36-hole lead with Bob Gilder, three strokes clear of the rest of the field. Bounced back from his misfortune the next week by opening with a 7-under-par 65 and finishing T3 at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am...Challenged again in the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic, but eventually T2, one stroke shy of Jim Thorpe. Final-round 67 at Eisenhower Park earned him at the time a career-best check of $110,000, but he missed on a playoff spot when his 7-foot birdie effort on the final hole didn't drop...Had the longest recorded drive during the season—a 375-yarder in the second round at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. 2003: Made Champions Tour debut in March and T26 at the Toshiba Senior Classic...Best finish of his rookie season was a T8 at the SAS Championship near Raleigh.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was inside the top 20 twice among his 18 starts, with both performances coming in Texas...Best effort came at the end of the campaign when he was T14 at the AT&T Championship at Oak Hills in San Antonio...Also was T16 in Austin at the Triton Financial Classic in June...Was the only Champions Tour player to record a pair of aces in 2009. First hole-in-one came in the final round at the Senior PGA Championship at the Canterbury GC near Cleveland. Used a 4-iron on the 188-yard 13th hole. It was his first competitive ace since he made a hole-in-one on the par-4 ninth hole at the Nationwide Tour's Omaha Classic in 2003. Initial ace made him only the third player, along with Dave Barr and Jim Thorpe, to have a hole-in-one on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Added a second ace in October's AT&T Championship when he used a 5-iron from 196 yards in the opening round at No. 18. 2008: Best performance of the season was a T4 at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, his top effort since the 2006 AT&T Championship (T2). Was tied for the opening-round lead in the event and then carded a final-round 68 at Pebble to move from T17 into the top five...Posted consecutive rounds of 69 on the weekend to finish T7 at the Bank of America Championship near Boston in June. Forced to withdraw after two rounds at the Toshiba Classic due to an elbow injury he suffered in a fall on ice at his home during the winter. 2007: Had two top-10s in 22 appearances, both coming during the summer...Fast finish in early August at the 3M Championship allowed him to T8 in Minnesota. Final-round 66 at TPC Twin Cities featured a back-nine 29, establishing the low nine-hole score on the circuit in 2007. After making birdie at No. 14 Sunday, holed a 6-iron shot for an eagle at No. 15 (followed by Jay Haas' eagle on same hole in the next grouping) and then finished the round with three straight birdies to also record the best birdie-eagle run on the Champions Tour for the year...T10 at The Principal Charity Classic in June...Final-round 66 at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship vaulted him to a T13, his best performance in a senior major...Forced to withdraw early in the final round of the Bank of America Championship due to a rotator cuff injury to his left shoulder...Won the Kenojo Senior Open on the Japan Senior Tour in November where he defeated Katsunara Takahashi in a one-hole playoff. 2006: Among the top five in four of his first five appearances and was par or better in all 13 rounds played...Debuted on the circuit near Baltimore and was T5 in his first start at the Constellation Energy Classic just five days after turning 50. Closed with a 6-under-par 66 Sunday and got within a shot of the lead with a pair of late birdies, but eventually finished three strokes behind winner Bob Gilder...A solo third-place finisher in his next start at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, posting three consecutive rounds in the 60s. Closed at 5-under-par on the back nine and eventually placed two strokes out of a playoff with R.W. Eaks and eventual-winner Andy Bean...Was T2 the next week at the weather-shortened SAS Championship near Raleigh...Other runner-up effort came in his last start of the year at the AT&T Championship. Final-round 65 at Oak Hills was the low round of the day and gave him the lead late Sunday. Eventually lost by one stroke when Fred Funk made birdies on three of the last four holes, including a clutch par save at No. 18, to preserve the victory.

Received $500,000 from Hilton Hotels for his historic feat, with another $500,000 going to set up the Chip Beck Scholarship Foundation...Best year on the PGA TOUR was 1988, when he won the Los Angeles Open at Riviera CC and the USF&G Classic at English Turn...Won again in New Orleans in 1992 at the Freeport-McMoRan Classic...Had two runner-up finishes in 1993—Masters Tournament and Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic—which helped him earn a place on U.S. Ryder Cup team that year...Singles victory over Barry Lane at The Belfry in 1993 provided margin of victory for the United States...Also played on United States Ryder Cup squad in 1989 and 1991...1988 Vardon Trophy winner...Played a partial Nationwide Tour schedule from 2001-06 and finished third at the 2002 Omaha Classic. Playing on a sponsor's exemption at Oak Hills CC, he did not make a bogey over his final 37 holes and managed to hold off Jay Haas, Andy Bean and fellow University of Texas product Tom Kite by one stroke. The win allowed him to move from 57th to 30th on the money list and earned him the last spot in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Fired a 6-under 64 in the third round to move up 27 spots but shot even-par 70 on Sunday...A week after winning the AT&T event, finished solo fifth at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. 2010 SEASON:

For second straight year, joined Gary Player on the winning team in the Demaret Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. The duo fired a record-setting total of 19-under-par 125 to win by two strokes over the team of Tom Shaw and Don Bies. Also teed it up at the Senior British Open, his 24th appearance in the event, but missed the cut at Carnoustie. Bettered his age in all three rounds with scores of 70-73-68 at the Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open in Switzerland on the European Senior Tour. Also played at the Ryder Cup Wales Senior Open.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Teamed with Gary Player for a one-stroke victory in the Demaret Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. Became the oldest player to compete in a Nationwide Tour event when, just two days shy of his 73rd birthday, he teed it up in the Michael Hill New Zealand Open. Missed the cut in the tournament after shooting rounds of 73-79 at The Hills GC in Queenstown. Missed cuts at both the Senior PGA Championship and the Senior British Open, although he bettered his age with an opening-round 70 in the first round of the Senior British Open. 2008: Highlight of his year was being selected for the World Golf Hall of Fame through the Veterans Category in July and being inducted in November, the first left-handed player to earn the honor. Made three official starts on the Champions Tour, with first appearance not coming until late April. Bettered his age in the second round of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, shooting 71. Was on the first-round leaderboard at the Regions Charity Classic after posting a 68 on Friday, four shots lower than his age. Eventually finished T35 at Ross Bridge. Also teamed with Stewart Ginn to finish T2 in the Raphael Division of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, one stroke back of Gary Koch-Roger Maltbie. Duo had the first-round lead, carding a 10-under 62 in the 36-hole, better-ball event. Made six starts on the European Senior Tour and best performance on that circuit came in his first appearance in late June when he was T15 at the Irish Seniors Open. Managed to shoot his age/better in five of six events in Europe (16 rounds; shot age twice, bettered age six times). His 69 in the second round of the Casa Serena Open near Prague, Czech Republic, was three strokes lower than his age. 2007: Bettered his age in both the first (70) and third (68) rounds of The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. Matched his age (71) in the opening round at the Senior British Open at Muirfield and eventually finished T34. Made six other appearances on the European Senior Tour during the summer. Was runner-up to Des Smyth at the Wentworth Senior Masters in England. Matched his age in both the first and second rounds and then bettered his age by one in the final round to end up two strokes short of Smyth. 2006: T47 at the U.S. Senior Open and $9,113 check at Prairie Dunes put him over the $9-million mark in senior career money. Matched his age with a final-round 70. 2005: Matched his age with a 69 in the opening round of the Constellation Energy Classic and joined Gary Player, Dale Douglass, Mike Hill and Jim Albis as the fifth different player to shoot his age or better during the 2005 season. On the European Senior Tour, had a nice week at the Ryder Cup Wales Seniors Open, finishing T2 at Royal St. David's GC.

Matched or bettered his age in the first two rounds (68-69) but ended five strokes back of Carl Mason despite a final-round 70. Matched or bettered his age in three other rounds on the European Senior circuit, including a closing 66 at the Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open in Switzerland. 2004: Played in the New Zealand Open at Heretaunga, venue of his first win in that event 50 years earlier as an 18-year-old in 1954. Had a productive outing in his initial Champions Tour appearance of the season, teaming with Stewart Ginn to win the Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah. Drained a 54-foot birdie putt on the final hole to help snag the team's $110,000 first prize. Tied for the lead after 36 holes at the FedEx Kinko's Classic before shooting a final-round 76 to slip to T27. Was T10 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, his best effort since T5 at the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic. At 68, became the oldest player to register a top-10 finish on the Champions Tour since then 69-year-old Joe Jimenez finished T10 at the 1995 GTE Northwest Classic. Bettered his age for the second year in a row in Boston when he posted a 6-under 66 in the second round of the Bank of America Championship and then matched his age with a final-round 68 at the SBC Championship in October. 2003: Bettered his age when he fired a 7-under 65 at age 67 in the second round of the Bruno's Memorial Classic and shot 65 again in the final round of the FleetBoston Classic. A 67 in the second round of the SAS Championship matched his age. Made the fifth hole-in-one of his career in the second round of the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship in Sonoma, CA. 2002: Was T5 at the Greater Baltimore Classic, just two strokes shy of J.C. Snead. Would have shot his age Saturday but was assessed a two-stroke penalty during his round and shot a 4-under-par 71. The two strokes also left him two shots shy of Snead's winning total of 13-under-par 203. Performance was his best in a Champions Tour event since placing sixth at the 1999 Cadillac NFL Golf Classic. 2001: Bettered his age for the first time when at age 65, shot an 8-under 64 on the second day of the stroke-play portion of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car Match Play Championship and tied for medalist honors. Eventually lost to Ted Goin in the round of 16, with the match going 23 holes. Made 34th and final appearance in the British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes, but missed the cut. 1998: Fell in a two-hole playoff with Jim Dent at The Home Depot Invitational and then was one of five players in a playoff at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic won by Hugh Baiocchi. Just prior, Funk had missed a 2-foot birdie chance at No. 18 in regulation which would have given him the win. The victory earned him a record first-place check for $456,000 and it was his first win in 405 starts in PGA TOUR-sanctioned events. It was also his first since the 1991 Centel Western Open, a span of 19 years, 2 months, 5 days...Backed up South Korea victory with a wire-to-wire triumph in his next start at the SAS Championship in Cary, NC. Enjoyed a four-stroke lead after two rounds at Prestonwood and managed to outdistance defending champion Tom Pernice, Jr. by two strokes despite posting a final-round 71. SAS win allowed him to join Bernhard Langer, Fred Couples, Nick Price and Mark O'Meara as multiple winners in 2010, and he also became the third player in 2010 to win consecutive events, joining Couples and Langer. He also joined Tom Watson (Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai) as just the second start-to-finish winner during the year and he also became the first left-hander to win multiple titles in a season since Bob Charles in 1993 when the New Zealand legend won three times that year. Was just two shots off the lead after 36 holes but eased back after an even-par 71 Sunday...Final-round 65 at the Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach equaled the low Sunday round, and 7-under 29 on the front nine matched the nine-hole tournament record. Was in contention throughout the final round, but Jay Haas birdied five of his last six holes to pass him. Performance in North Carolina vaulted him from 41st to 28th on the money list and he eventually finished 17th...Contended again the following week near Raleigh before finishing T5 at the SAS Championship. Was tied for the first-round lead at Prestonwood, with Denis Watson and then trailed Tom Pernice, Jr. by one stroke after 36 holes. 2010 SEASON:

For the second consecutive year, he closed out his season on a high note, defending his title at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park in early November. Held off Michael Allen for a two-stroke win, his fifth title in California. Trained Allen by just one stroke after 54 holes, and the two battled throughout the final round before he took a two-stroke advantage over Allen to the final hole. It appeared there might be a two-stroke swing at No. 18 after each hit their second shots, but after chipping to 14 feet from off the green, he drained his par putt for the win, the fifth of his career. The win earned him $440,000 and helped vault him to third place on the money list for the second straight year, with a career-best $1,924,305. He also earned 880 points in the Charles Schwab Cup race, leading to a third-place finish in that category, as well. With his victory, he became the first player to successfully defend a title on two different courses since Bernhard Langer did so in 2007 and 2008 at the Administaff Small Business Classic and the first to defend a title since Jeff Sluman at Pebble Beach in 2009...Prior to his victory, had been a runner-up three times. He and teammate Joey Sindelar fell in a two-hole playoff to Mark O'Meara and Nick Price at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April in Savannah. The pair shot a 28-under-par total of 188 and played bogey-free golf all 54 holes until each made a bogey on the second extra hole to finish second...Earlier in the year, despite making just one bogey in the tournament and missing five greens in regulation, was a hard-luck loser to Bernhard Langer in a playoff at the Allianz Championship. Appeared to be in position for the victory on the first extra hole only to have Langer hole an improbable 45-foot bunker shot from a plugged lie for an eagle. Had a chance to extend the overtime session, but his 25-foot eagle putt caught the right edge of the hole and lipped out. Playoff loss was his third overall on the Champions Tour and second in succession after falling to Mike Reid in overtime at 2009 JELD-WEN Tradition. Became the first player since Brad Bryant to be involved in consecutive playoffs...Was the 36-hole leader at the inaugural Montreal Championship but, despite posting a final-round 68, came up one stroke short of a hard-charging Larry Mize. For the second time in 2010, made just one bogey and also missed only six greens. However, not converting his 3-foot birdie putt at the 16th hole on Sunday proved costly in Canada...In early June, used a final-round, 5-under 66 to move into a T3 at The Principal Charity Classic in Des Moines...Also closed with a final-round 67 at the U.S. Senior Open at Sahalee near Seattle to move up into a T3, his fifth top-five effort in a senior major...Stormed into contention at the SAS Championship with an 8-under 64 in the second round that included a rare 8-under 29 on the back-nine (his first nine), a record for 9 holes at Prestonwood. Eventually finished third at the SAS event after a final-round 70 that included three birdies over his last eight holes...Other third-place finish came at the AT&T Championship in October when he was T3, one stroke out of the two-man playoff between his former Ohio State teammate Rod Spittle and Jeff Sluman...Closed with rounds of 69-67 to finish T5 in defense of his Administaff Small Business Classic title...Birdied four of his first six holes in the final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition to get into contention, but played his final 12 holes in 3-over-par to finish T6 in Oregon...Was T7 at the inaugural Posco E&C Songdo Championship in mid-September in South Korea...At one point during the year, strung together 70 consecutive holes without a bogey. The streak started at the second hole in the opening round at the Montreal Championship and continued through 17 holes in the first round at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie...Once again played some of his best golf in the final portion of the year. Since joining the Champions Tour, all five of his wins have come in October and November, he owns 10 top-10 finishes in the last four years and is a combined 103-under in 48 rounds during that span...Was among the leaders in Top-10 finishes (13, T2), Rounds in the 60s (36, second) and Sub-Par Rounds (46, T2).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Closed the year with a bang...Rolled to a five-stroke victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and set a new tournament standard with his 22-under-par 266, breaking the old mark of 20-under-par 268 set in 2003 by Jim Thorpe and later matched by Thorpe (2007) and Andy Bean (2008). Also matched his career-low round with a tournament-record 10-under-par 62 in the second round. His 54-hole total of 197 matched Jack Nicklaus' three-round total of 19-under 197 at the 1990 Mazda Senior Players Championship as the lowest 54-hole score in a 72-hole Champions Tour event. Earned $442,000 for his win, the largest check of his Champions Tour career. He also picked up 884 points in the Charles Schwab Cup race, which vaulted him from fifth to second in the final standings. His second-place finish earned him a $500,000 annuity...Just two weeks earlier, won for the fourth time in his pro career in Texas when he came from two strokes back to win the Administaff Small Business Classic. Final-round 68 near Houston included a clutch 12-foot birdie putt at the par-4 17th, and he eventually held off Jay Haas and Bob Tway to win by two strokes. Trained Dan Forsman early on the back nine Sunday and was the beneficiary when Forsman's tee shot at No. 14 found the water...Made a strong bid for a win at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Appeared in control with a one-stroke lead with one hole remaining over Mike Reid, but made a bogey on his 72nd hole, ending a run of 54 holes without a bogey. He then fell on the first extra hole in a playoff when Reid made a birdie. Made a hole-in-one in the first round when he aced No. 13 with an 8-iron from

165 yards...Was in contention through three rounds of the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship before a 2-over 72 Sunday dropped him into a T5...Teamed with former college teammate Joey Sindelar to finish T3 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. The pair finished one stroke shy of making the two-team playoff eventually won by Bernhard Langer-Tom Lehman...Nineteen of his opening rounds were below par. Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month for October. 2008: Finally broke through into the victory column late in the year when he successfully defended his AT&T Championship at Oak Hills, cruising to a three-stroke win over Keith Fergus. Win in San Antonio made him just the third player in event history to successfully defend a title and first ever at Oak Hills. Trailing by six strokes after the first round but weekend scores of 63-65—128 matched the lowest score of the year for the last 36 holes. Second career win on the Champions Tour was also his third title in Texas. Win was his 15th top-10 finish of the year and that led all Champions Tour players...Earlier in the year appeared in control heading into his final nine holes at the Senior British Open at Royal Troon. However, made a double bogey at No. 11, a bogey at No. 12 and was nursing a one-stroke advantage over Bruce Vaughan going to the final hole. Missed a 15-foot par putt at No. 18 and then fell on the first playoff hole when Vaughan drained a 20-footer for a birdie and he missed a 12-footer which would have sent it to a second extra hole...The following week at the U.S. Senior Open in Colorado Springs, was in contention throughout before shooting a final-round 77 at The Broadmoor to place fifth...Made a double eagle at The Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach in the second round (14th hole, driver and 3-wood), his first albatross in competition. 2007: Claimed his first Champions Tour event in his second career start, winning the AT&T Championship in San Antonio in mid-October by two strokes over good friend Mark O'Meara. Clutch 7-foot par putt at the final hole at Oak Hills preserved the victory after he trailed by two strokes through 36 holes. Win in San Antonio came just 19 days after he turned 50, making him the youngest winner in tournament history and the eighth-youngest all-time on the Champions Tour. Victory at the AT&T Championship ended a personal drought of 6 years, 1 month, 25 days between victories (2001 Reno-Tahoe Open)...Made his Champions Tour debut the week prior at the Administrators Small Business Classic and finished T36 near Houston...Troubled by health problems for most of the year and made just 13 starts on the PGA TOUR prior to turning 50...Best event of the season was a T26 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic in Mexico.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won 11 times in his career on the PGA TOUR, with last title coming at the 2001 Reno-Tahoe Open. Held the 36-hole lead but fell six strokes behind Jerry Kelly after third-round 74. Stormed back Sunday with 64 to overtake Kelly by a stroke for his first win since the 1998 Byron Nelson Classic...At 1997 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, trailed leader Mark Calcavecchia by five after third round but matched the then-PGA TOUR record for consecutive rounds when he closed with 62-63 for a one-stroke victory...At 1996 FedEx St. Jude Classic, tied then all-time PGA TOUR record with opening rounds of 16-under-par 126 (64-62) and added third-round 63 to tie TOUR record for first 54 holes of 24-under-par 189. Closed with a 69 to fall one stroke shy of all-time 72-hole mark but won the event by seven over John Adams. Added second victory of the year at CVS Charity Classic by three strokes over Russ Cochran...In 1992, surpassed $1 million in season earnings for first time, winning three events. Captured five-man playoff at Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, outlasting Gene Sauers with three birdies and an eagle over a four-hole stretch. Posted two-stroke victories at the United Airlines Hawaiian Open and Las Vegas Invitational. Finished as the runner-up in the British Open and T2 at PGA Championship that year...Biggest win came when he defeated Johnny Miller on sixth extra hole for 1983 Canadian Open title...First TOUR victory came in five-man playoff at 1981 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am...In

2010 SEASON:

His record-setting rookie season was a memorable one. The Champions Tour Rookie of the Year posted four wins, established new records in three statistical categories and set a career best with earnings, totaling $2,344,894. ... Broke Hale Irwin's all-time Scoring Average record in a season (68.59/1998), with a 67.96. He also bettered Irwin's 1998 mark for Putting Average (1.700), finishing the season at 1.693. He also broke Irwin's 1998 Birdie Average mark (4.80) at 5.00. ... Finished second to Bernhard Langer in both the money and Charles Schwab Cup races. ... Won his first Champions Tour title in just his second career start when he held off a furious, final-round charge by Tommy Armour III (Sunday 61) to claim

The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Led by as many as seven strokes early in the final round before Armour's move earned him a share of the lead with a birdie at No. 17. However, Couples regained the lead moments later with a birdie at the same hole and then two-putted for par at No. 18 to post an 8-under-par 64 and win by one stroke. Win in Naples allowed him to join Tom Watson, Lee Trevino, Gil Morgan and Miller Barber as players who were victorious in their second Champions Tour appearance. ... Captured his second victory in his next start when he rolled to a four-stroke win at the Toshiba Classic in Newport Beach. Following a second-round 64, led by two strokes after 36 holes and then closed with a 6-under-par 65 to finish four better than Ronnie Black. ... Made Champions Tour history with a two-stroke victory over Corey Pavin at The Cap Cana Championship. Became the first player to win three of his first four career starts and also became the first player since Jay Haas in 2006 to win three consecutive Champions Tour starts. Also became the first player in Champions Tour history to win three consecutive events with sub-200 totals. Carded a Punta Espada GC course-record 10-under 62 on the final day to overtake Pavin. Round matched his career-best on the PGA TOUR (1990 Nissan Los Angeles Open/third round) and included birdies on six of the last eight holes. ... Fell short in his quest for a fourth consecutive title when he finished T12 at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Streak of rounds in the 60s ended at 12 straight, one short of Hale Irwin's all-time record, when he carded an even-par 71 in the first round. Second-round 67 moved him up the standings but could not improve his position Sunday after the final round was washed out by heavy morning rains. ... Near the end of the season, won his fourth title, at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston, the first time he's ever claimed four TOUR-sponsored events in the same season. Trained Pavin by two strokes after 10 holes Sunday but played the final eight in 7-under to eventually win easily over Mark Wiebe at The Woodlands. Back-nine 29 was a record and included an eagle, his second of the day, as well as five birdies. Sunday's 63 was the best score since the tournament changed courses in 2008. Became the first since Tom Watson (2007 Senior British Open) to win both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same area and joined Jay Haas (2006) as players who have claimed both an Administaff title and Shell Houston Open crown. Seven-stroke margin of victory matched David Frost's seven-stroke win at the 3M Championship as the widest margin on the Champions Tour in 2010. ... Teamed with Haas to finish T4 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah. Earned $83,750 with his finish, pushing him over the $1-million mark in season earnings in just his sixth event, the fastest ever to one million in a season, breaking the all-time record of eight events set in 1998 by Hale Irwin and matched in 2006 by Loren Roberts. ... Was a cumulative 81-under-par in his first five stroke-play events on the Champions Tour. ... Finished second in his first official Champions Tour appearance at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai when Watson birdied the last two holes to nip him by a stroke. Looked to be in the driver's seat after making birdie at No. 16 Sunday but pars at the last two holes, including a missed 10-foot birdie putt at No. 18, proved to be his undoing. Made just one bogey in the tournament and his 8-under 64 Sunday equaled the best final-round score in his TOUR career. His 21-under-par 195 total matched the second-lowest score ever posted on the Champions Tour that did not win (Allen Doyle, 2001 Gold Rush Classic). ... Was the 36-hole leader at the Senior PGA Championship, and despite a third-round 75, joined David Frost and eventual winner Tom Lehman in a playoff. Helped his own cause with consecutive eagles on Nos. 15 and 16, becoming the first player to accomplish that feat since Denis Watson at the 2008 FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin. However, saw his chances evaporate on the first playoff hole when he hit his tee shot into a bush and was forced to take an unplayable lie, which eventually led to the double bogey. ... With a partisan crowd cheering him on, shared the 54-hole lead with Langer at the U.S. Senior Open near Seattle. Appeared to be taking control of the event in his hometown after making birdie on the first hole Sunday. However, triple bogey-8 at No. 2 derailed his chances and he eventually finished second at Sahalee, three strokes back of Langer. ... Four weeks after his showing at the U.S. Senior Open, returned to the Seattle area and finished solo third at the Boeing Classic at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge. ... Was the 36-hole leader by two strokes at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn in October, but finished one stroke shy of Gary Hallberg, who closed with an 11-under-par 61. Had a chance to force a playoff at No. 18, but missed his 8-foot birdie opportunity. Performance at Rock Barn lifted him past the $2-million mark in official season earnings for the first time in his career. ... Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game at Royal Kaanapali GC on Maui in Hawaii. Teamed with Nick Price to finish third in the event, garnering three skins and $190,000. ... Earned Player of the Month honors on the Champions Tour for January/February as well as March. ... Was the first-round leader at the Masters after firing a 6-under 66 Thursday and trailed by just two strokes at the turn Sunday. Even after finding the water with his tee shot on the par-3 12th hole, he played his last six holes in 3-under and finished sixth, the best performance by a player over 50 since Jack Nicklaus was T6 in 1998. Had the lowest 72-hole total of anyone 50 years or older. His 66-75-68-70—279 was four strokes better than Nicklaus in 1998. On the PGA TOUR, also posted a T14 finish at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, thanks to successive weekend rounds in the 60s. ... Was slated to make his 27th start in The PLAYERS Championship in May but had to withdraw prior to the start of the event due to back problems. ... Withdrew after just one round at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship due to back problems. ... Led all players in Final-Round Scoring Average by more than two strokes (66.67; Tom Watson was second at 68.91), in Putts Per Round (28.20) and Total Eagles (17). CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2007: Was T15 at the Commerce Bank Championship on Long Island. 2006: Posted first top-10 in nearly two years when he was T6 at the Allianz Championship in early June. Carded three straight rounds of 68 and also had a pair of 68s in his two pro-am rounds at Glen Oaks... Nearly matched the Champions Tour record for driving accuracy when he hit 41 of 42 fairways at The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Shares the Tour mark of 42 of 42 with Calvin Peete. 2005: Played a full season for the first time since 2003... His best effort, a T12, came at the Bank of America Championship. 2004: Returned to action in late June following his off-season shoulder surgery and was T57 in his first start at the Bank of America Championship near Boston... Best finish was a T7 at The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. 2003: Experienced shoulder problems late in the season... Closed with 66 in Nashville to T4 at the Music City Championship at Gaylord Opryland... T4 again three weeks later at the Farmers Charity Classic... Underwent right shoulder surgery in October. 2002: Was the 36-hole leader by two strokes at the Audi Senior Classic and eventually T4... Was in contention at the U.S. Senior Open, trailing by four strokes after three rounds. Shot a 1-under 70 on Sunday and finished solo fourth at Caves Valley... Also T4 at the RJR Championship in September. 2001: Enjoyed his finest season in professional golf... Went over the $1-million mark in earnings as a result of career-best 10 top-10 finishes...

Recorded wire-to-wire victory at the TD Waterhouse Championship. Tied the Champions Tour record for lowest 54-hole score in relation to par (Raymond Floyd/1993 Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational) at the time, when he blitzed the Tiffany Greens GC course with a 22-under-par 194 total. His 36-hole score of 16-under 128 also tied the then-Champions Tour's all-time mark in relation to par (Hale Irwin/1997 Vantage Championship) for the first two rounds. His 10-under 62 on Friday was a Champions Tour career-best and was his lowest score since shooting 62 at the 1992 Chattanooga Classic on the PGA TOUR. Made a 12-foot birdie putt on the last hole to win by eight strokes over Walter Morgan, Hugh Baiocchi and Dana Quigley, the largest margin of victory in a 54-hole event since the 1993 Franklin Quest Championship... Almost won again at the AT&T Canada Senior Open. Fired a 6-under 65 on the last day to come from five strokes back and catch Walter Hall in regulation. Fell to Hall on the first playoff hole after making bogey for the second time on Mississauga's 18th hole on Sunday. 2000: Registered his first victory in 69 Champions Tour starts at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic. Defeated Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan with a tournament record score of 19-under-par at Bunker Hills. The $240,000 first-place check was more than he made in his best year on the PGA TOUR (1992/$237,525). Was the August Player of the Month... Shot 19-under 197 again at the Gold Rush Classic, but finished second to Jim Thorpe by two strokes... Had his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the SBC Championship. 1999: Took advantage of his first full year on the Champions Tour by earning over $900,000 and a spot among the top 20 money-winners... Made headlines by being the 18-, 36- and 54-hole leader at the U.S. Senior Open at Des Moines G&CC. Lost to Dave Eichelberger on the final day by three strokes... Took a one-stroke lead into the final round of the TD Waterhouse Championship, but finished two shots back of Allen Doyle despite a final-round 68... Was again the runner-up the next week at the Comfort Classic, falling two strokes short of Gil Morgan... Was also the 36-hole leader at the Kroger Senior Classic, but lost to Morgan again by two strokes despite posting a final-round 67. 1998: Made debut on the Champions Tour in May at the Saint Luke's Classic and T19 in Kansas City... Best finish came near his home in the Philadelphia area. Playing on a sponsor exemption, he closed with a 64 at Hartefeld National and T3 at the Bell Atlantic Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Long-time player on the PGA TOUR, where he competed from 1975-97... Had 460 starts in his career and made 243 cuts... No doubt the high point of his PGA TOUR career came in 1995 when he prevailed at the Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. Idled much of the early portion of the year by a shoulder injury suffered while lifting one of his vintage pinball machines, he shot rounds of 68-68-70 and stood in seventh place, three behind Dickey Thompson after 54 holes. Finished with a 66, which included 32 on the second nine and that was good enough to give him a two-stroke win over Gil Morgan. The victory, at age 47, made him the oldest first-time winner on the PGA TOUR since John Barnum captured the 1962 Cajun Classic at age 51... Lost in a playoff to Jim Gallagher, Jr. at the 1990 Greater Milwaukee Open and was also second at the Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic and the Chattanooga Classic in back-to-back weeks in 1992... Best year on the TOUR was in 1992, when he made $237,525... Made three successful trips to the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament in 1983, 1986 and 1989... Named PGA of America's Club Professional of the Year in 1985 after winning the Club Professional Championship at Mission Hills CC in Rancho Mirage, CA... Has had six holes-in-one during competitive rounds, including two each on the PGA TOUR (1991 Northern Telecom Open and 1992 Nissan Los Angeles Open) and Champions Tour (2000 SBC Championship and 1990 GTE Kaanapali Classic).

The score also made him, at the time, the second-youngest player in Champions Tour history to better his age (Joe Jimenez shot 63 at age 65 in the 1991 GTE Northwest Classic; Walter Morgan later shot 60 at AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship at age 61). T5 in the rain-shortened event in Milton, his best performance since the 1999 campaign...Later matched his age with a 5-under-par 66 in the second round of the Allianz Championship. 1999: T2 at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic. 1998: Appeared headed for a playoff with Gil Morgan at the LG Championship before Morgan made eagle on the final hole to drop him into a second-place tie with Raymond Floyd...Teamed with Charles Coody for their third Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title. 1997: Earned almost one-third of his season earnings at the PGA Seniors' Championship, making $105,000 for a distant T2 behind Hale Irwin. Runner-up performance at PGA National was his best in a major since the 1994 Tradition...1996: At the Bell Atlantic Classic, became the second of only five Grand Champions (60 and older) to double dip when he claimed the Georgia-Pacific event and won the overall tournament the next day in a playoff with Tom Wargo and John Schroeder. 1994: Shot best score of his career, a final-round 61 at Rancho Park, in defense of his title at Ralphs Senior Classic, but still finished second at the event to Jack Kiefer...Also lost to Raymond Floyd on the first playoff hole at The Tradition despite four straight rounds in the 60s and a 17-under-par total for 72 holes. 1993: Shot a sizzling 64 on Sunday and then defeated Jim Dent with birdie on first playoff hole to win the Ralphs Senior Classic at Rancho Park. 1992: Won the rain-shortened NYNEX Commemorative (defeated Terry Dill in a playoff) and the Ameritech Senior Open. 1991: Surpassed $600,000 in season earnings with victory at Showdown Classic in Utah...Trio of second places were among 17 top-10 finishes. 1990: Beat Gary Player in a playoff for Bell Atlantic title and also teamed with Charles

Coody for first of three wins at unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1988: Victorious at GTE Suncoast Senior Classic, leading event from start to finish. 1986: Had banner rookie year, finishing third on the money list and garnering four wins, including U.S. Senior Open at Scioto CC by one stroke over Gary Player...Was the leader or co-leader in eight of his first 10 rounds on the Champions Tour, including seven straight. Of those seven, he held sole possession of the lead in six which was instrumental in back-to-back wins at The Vintage Invitational and the Johnny Mathis Seniors Classic. Streak could have been more impressive but, after finishing tied with Charles Owens at the Del E. Webb SENIOR PGA TOUR Roundup in his first start, he lost in a playoff.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Among the top 25 in four events, with his best individual effort a T21 at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Made his first official career hole-in-one in competition on the Champions Tour in the final round of that event, a 7-iron shot at the 178-yard fifth hole. Ace came just one week after he had a hole-in-one during the pro-am at the Boeing Classic near Seattle. 2008: Finished second at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai, two strokes back of Fred Funk. Was the 36-hole leader at the season-opening tournament and then led with nine holes to play before Funk eventually passed him for good on the 17th hole. Opening-round 63 at Hualalai matched a career best on the Champions Tour. 2007: Despite an opening-round 65, his low score of the year, came up just short in his bid for a second ACE Group Classic title. Appeared in control after holing a wedge shot for eagle at the ninth hole at Quail West. However, played the final nine holes in even par and fell one shy of Bobby Wadkins at the end... Followed Naples performance with a T9 at the Toshiba Classic. 2006: Claimed one of the year's premier events when he defended his title at the U.S. Senior Open at Prairie Dunes CC in Hutchinson, KS. Trained by two strokes after 54 holes but closed with a 2-under-par 68 to defeat Tom Watson by two strokes. Sealed his 11th career victory when he drained a curling 15-foot birdie putt at the par-5 17th hole to maintain a two-stroke margin after Watson had hit his third shot to within two feet at the same hole. Victory made him the oldest winner in Senior Open annals at 57 years, 11 months and 17 days, breaking the old mark of 57 years, two months and 15 days (Roberto De Vicenzo/1980). Also posted four rounds in the 60s, just the third player to do so (Gary Player/1987; Tom Weiskopf/1995). Win also earned him the distinction of being just the third player to defend a U.S. Senior Open title, joining Miller Barber (1984-85) and Player (1987-88)... Competed in the U.S. Open at Winged Foot and narrowly missed the cut, finishing with a 36-hole total of 10-over-par 150, one shy of the 36-hole cut. 2005: Arthroscopic left-knee surgery on September 27 curtailed his season... Was among the top six in four events, with three of those performances coming in the four major events he appeared in... Won the U.S. Senior Open, his third different major, coming from nine strokes back in the final round, the second-biggest comeback in any major championship (Paul Lawrie/10 strokes/1999 British Open) and made up the second-largest deficit in Champions Tour history (Jay Sigel/10 strokes/1994 GTE West Classic). Bypassed 15 players Sunday with a South Course-record 8-under 63 at NCR CC, tying his career-low score and Don Pooley's mark (2002/third round) for the lowest round ever posted in U.S. Senior Open history at the time. Round also was the lowest by a winner on the Champions Tour that season. His $470,000 first-place check was the largest of his career at the time and accounted for over half his official money that season... Was T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship just prior to his U.S. Senior Open triumph. Opened with a 2-over 74 in Dearborn, but bounced back with three straight rounds in the 60s on the TPC Michigan layout... T6 at the Senior PGA Championship at Laurel Valley. 2004: Won for the second time near Kansas City when he claimed the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am by a stroke over Jerry Pate. Made a short birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday to give himself a one-stroke cushion over Pate and then was declared the winner when Sunday's final round was canceled due to course damage from overnight storms... Was also among a handful of players who battled it out in Sunday's final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Trained by one stroke at the start and remained in contention down the stretch, but failed to birdie either of his final two holes and was T2, one stroke behind Craig Stadler...Champions Tour Player of the Month for June. 2003: Tied with Tom Jenkins for the most sub-par rounds on the Champions Tour with 64... Won for the first time in just over two years when he prevailed at the FleetBoston Classic. The native of nearby Norwood, MA, broke the 18-hole tournament record at Nashawtuc and equaled his career-low score with a second-round, 8-under-par 63 that included a 6-under-par 29 on the front nine. His 54-hole total of 198 also matched the tournament scoring mark, held by Chi Chi Rodriguez, and helped him defeat Bruce Fleisher and defending champion Bob Gilder by two strokes for his eighth career win...Contended at the Columbus Southern Open title near his home in Georgia and eventually finished one stroke short of Morris Hatalsky. 2002: Runner-up to Hale Irwin at the Toshiba Senior Classic after owning sole possession of first place after the opening round. 2001: The Champions Tour's mark of consistency, with 25 top-10 finishes in 34 starts, one top-10 short of Lee Trevino's all-time senior record (1990)...Battled Bruce Fleisher down the stretch for both the Charles Schwab Cup and the overall money title and claimed both honors...Also received the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award after a vote of his peers...Donated his entire $1 million annuity for winning the Schwab Cup to six different charitable organizations...Earned $2,553,582, the third-highest single-season total in Champions Tour history at the time...Led the Champions Tour with 55 (out of 102) rounds in the 60s and had 81 sub-par rounds, one short of Tom Wargo's record (1994)...Won twice and came close to winning four other tournaments...Claimed both of his titles in playoffs over a span of three weeks starting in mid-July. Holed a 35-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to jump into a playoff with Doug Tewell at the Ford Senior Players Championship and then defeated Tewell with a par on the first extra hole for his second major championship on the Champions Tour...Won again two weeks later at the State Farm Senior Classic. Rebounded from an opening-round 73 to get into a tie with Fleisher at the end of regulation and then outlasted Fleisher with a four-foot par putt on the third playoff hole. 2000: Claimed the rain-shortened Toshiba Senior Classic. Birdied the 18th hole of Saturday's second round to open a one-stroke lead over Howard Twitty and Jim Thorpe. Slim margin held up when heavy rains before and during Sunday's final round made the Newport Beach CC course unplayable... Matched his career low of 63 in the second round of the EMC Kaanapali Classic...Also had a rare double eagle in the second round of The Home Depot Invitational, holing a 3-wood second shot on the second hole at the TPC Piper

Glen. 1999: Finished third on the final official earnings list despite occasional back problems...Won four times in his first full season and claimed his first senior major championship among those victories...Went wire-to-wire for his initial triumph at The ACE Group Classic, easily defeating Vicente Fernandez by five strokes. Win made him the first player ever to triumph on both the Champions Tour and Nationwide Tours...Returned to Florida just over a month later to defeat Fernandez again at the PGA Seniors' Championship at PGA National. Came from four strokes back on Sunday with an 8-under-par 64 and won by two shots, the best come-from-behind effort on the circuit that season...Despite having back problems throughout the final round, bested Joe Inman in a playoff for the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic title...Used a then-course-record 63, his lowest career round, on the first day of the TD Waterhouse Championship and went on to edge Ed Dougherty by two strokes. 1998: Became fully exempt for the 1999 season by garnering medalist honors at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe...His 13-under-par 275 total was a National Qualifying Tournament record at the time...Made six appearances after turning 50 in June, and had his best finish at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic, finishing T4 near Sacramento.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: 1—Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

2010 SEASON:

Had his season cut short after suffering a broken right ankle in a June fall. Missed more than two months during the summer and then did not play after the Ensure Classic in September, missing the last four events of the season due to issues with his ankle... Won for the first time since 2005 when he edged Tommy Armour III by one stroke to win the inaugural Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic near Biloxi. Victory was his third official title and ended a drought of 118 starts and four-and-a-half winless years. Was the only player in the field to record three straight rounds in the 60s on the Tom Fazio-designed Fallen Oak layout. Dueled Armour on the back nine and was the beneficiary of a two-stroke swing when he birdied the par-4 16th hole just after Armour three-putted for bogey at the par-3 17th hole... Posted a pair of T12 finishes at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am and the Regions Charity Classic... Had a nice run early in the year when 16 of his 18 rounds were under par.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Carded rounds of 67-68 on the weekend to finish T4 at the Toshiba Classic... Also was one of only five players to post three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Principal Charity Classic, finishing solo fifth in Des Moines... Was T5 at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, thanks to a final-round 69, one of just four rounds in the 60s Sunday. Won the pro-junior portion of the event with Will Bishop of The First Tee of Lexington, KY. Duo carded a better-ball score of 17-under-par 199, one stroke better than the Ericka Schneider-Jeff Sluman team. 2008: Best finish came in his last start of the year when he was T5 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Was just three strokes back of Andy Bean at the halfway point but played his final 36 holes in Sonoma in just 1-under. 2007: Posted a career-best earnings total of $889,560 on the strength of nine top-10 finishes... Not fully-exempt when the year started, but got off to a great start for the second straight year, with six top-10s in his first nine events, including three straight on two occasions... Best outing came in August when he nearly won for the second time in three years at the Boeing Classic near Seattle. Fired a closing-round, 6-under-par 66 to claim a spot in the record seven-man playoff but was eliminated on the first extra hole when three players (R.W. Eaks, Craig Stadler and Denis Watson) made birdies to move on. One hole later, Watson's eagle ended the affair... Parlayed strong play on the weekend at the AT&T Champions Classic in March to get into contention at the event where he eventually finished third. Carded rounds of 67-69 on the weekend and was among the leaders heading down the stretch before a bogey at No. 16 derailed his chances. The error eventually left him one stroke shy of a spot in the Tom Purtzer-Loren Roberts playoff. 2006: Best performance came at the Toshiba Classic when he shot 68s in both the first and last rounds and T5 at Newport Beach. 2005: Won his second career title when he cruised to a three-stroke victory at the inaugural Boeing Greater Seattle Classic at the TPC Snoqualmie Ridge. Matched his career low with an 8-under-par 64 in the second round to share the 36-hole lead with Craig Stadler and Morris Hatafsky. Started the final round with four birdies in the first eight holes and never looked back. Victory marked the second time in his career he had won at a new venue... Posted a Champions Tour career low with a 6-under-par 64 in the first round of the Blue Angels Classic and eventually T9 near Pensacola. 2004: Made a late push to secure his position among the top-30 money-winners for the second consecutive year. Started the month of September in 35th position on the money list but earned almost half of his total money in the last seven tournaments when he finished among the top 10 four times... Was the first-round leader at The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and eventually T5, one of two top-five efforts during this stretch in the fall... Was on the leaderboard for most of the last 36 holes at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and eventually T5 in Sonoma... Best effort of the campaign came in mid-June when he was T3 at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am. Was involved in a car accident on Sunday morning in Kansas City and suffered minor injuries that forced him to miss the Bank of America Championship in Boston two weeks later. 2003: Among the top 30 for the first time in his career, placing 23rd on the final money list with $851,217... Birdied three of the final four holes to edge Hale Irwin, Eamonn Darcy, Tom Jenkins and Bruce Lietzke by one stroke for the MasterCard Classic title at Bosque Real CC near Mexico City. Started the final round four strokes back, but closed with a 7-under-par 65 for his first professional victory. Win earned him $300,000, the largest check of his career... Also made a late run at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Was T2 along with Dana Quigley, one stroke back of Bruce Lietzke. Made just one bogey during the week and played his last 39 holes of the Legends event without a blemish... Champions Tour Player of the Month for March. 2002: Lone top-10 was a T9 at the SBC Senior Open... Earned fully-exempt status for 2003 after a T5 at the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall. Was tied for the first-round lead at World Woods GC with Des Smyth and then slipped back in the pack before rallying with rounds of 67-69 on the final two days of the event... Was T6 at the regional qualifier at Marsh Creek CC in St. Augustine, FL, to move into the finals. 2001: Conditionally exempt for the 2002 season after finishing 14th at the National Qualifying Tournament in Calimesa, CA. One of four players who T14 at 3-under-par 285 and secured the Victory was his first since the 1999 Novell Utah Showdown and triumph near Pensacola at age 58 made him, at the time, the circuit's oldest winner since Jim Colbert won the 2001 SBC Senior Classic at 60 years, 2 days. Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour at The Moors, holing a 7-iron shot from 190 yards on the eighth hole in the opening round. 2000: Made the cut at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach and finished T57. His second-round 69 matched Tiger Woods for the day's lowest round...Made his 1,000th career start (PGA/Champions Tour combined) at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T37). 1999: In the span of three weeks in July, became a multiple winner in the same season for the first time in his professional career. First won his biggest tournament ever, claiming the U.S. Senior Open at Des Moines G&CC. Outdueled Ed Dougherty over the final nine holes and eventually triumphed by three strokes...Rebounded from a double-bogey down the stretch to win the Novell Utah Showdown title in a playoff over Dana Quigley. His two best rounds of the season came on consecutive days at Park Meadows and 15-under-par 129 total for the first 36 holes was a '99 best. 1997: Played his best golf of the year late in the year. First was the runner-up at the Vantage Championship, after he shot a career-low 62 on the last day and equaled Hale Irwin's Tanglewood Park course record at the time. Then won his third Champions Tour title the next week at The Transamerica and became the circuit's 20th different winner that year. Overcame a three-stroke deficit to win by four at Silverado. 1996: Outdueled local favorite Jim Colbert to win the VFW Senior Championship by two strokes. 1995: Did not win an event, but recorded 11 top-10 finishes, including a playoff loss to Bruce Devlin at the rain-shortened FHP Health Care Classic in Ojai, CA. 1994: Selected by his peers as the Comeback Player of the Year after claiming his first win in 13 years at the Quicksilver Classic...Also fell to Bob Murphy in a five-hole playoff at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush later in the season. 1993: Made Champions Tour debut at the GTE North Classic in Indianapolis after turning 50 in early September.

Defeated Phil Mickelson by two strokes at the New England Classic. Second title that season came when he had a 14-point final round that was good enough for a two-point victory over Lee Janzen at The INTERNATIONAL. Also lost playoffs to Steve Elkington at the Infiniti Tournament of Champions and to Dan Forsman at the Buick Open...Initial official PGA TOUR title came in 1991 when he defeated Chip Beck in a playoff at the Buick Open...Had earned unofficial title at the 1986 Provident Classic when he defeated Scott Hoch by one stroke... After winning twice in 1992, went almost five years before claiming his fourth career title at the Freeport-McDermott Classic in New Orleans. Open title with a one-stroke victory over Esteban Toledo. Spent July 16-17 in Scotland, attempting to qualify for the British Open. After failing to earn a spot in the field, he caught a flight home to play in the B.C. Open. Started with a 68-66 and was T2 through 36 holes, trailing Toledo by three strokes. Third-round 68 lifted him into a tie for the lead after 54 holes and final-round 68 secured his sixth TOUR victory... Earned a victory for the third consecutive year when he won the 2001 Sony Open in Hawaii by four strokes over Tom Lehman. Made an eagle during each round and 65 at En-Joie on Sunday allowed him to cruise to an easy win...Waited almost five years before claiming his last title at the 2005 Buick Championship, his eighth career victory on the circuit, in dramatic fashion. Started the final round seven shots off the lead, and posted a career-best 9-under 61 to overcome third-round leader Justin Rose and Tjaart van der Walt, eventually defeating van der Walt in a sudden-death playoff. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T5—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T6—Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, Boeing Classic; T8—SAS Championship.

2010 SEASON:

Narrowly missed finishing in the top 30 on the money list for the fifth consecutive year when he placed 32nd in the final standings...Best showing among four top-10 finishes came in April near Tampa. Posted a pair of 68s at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am and finished T5 when rain washed out the final round. Performance was his best Champions Tour effort since winning the 2009 Regions Charity Classic...Opened the season with a T6 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Was also T6 at the Boeing Classic in late August near Seattle...Rallied from an opening-round 75 to finish T8 at the SAS Championship. Saturday score of 8-under 64 included the 35th double eagle in Champions Tour history (3-iron, 210 yards) on the par-5 17th hole.

During the round, was 8-under for a seven-hole stretch, which included the double eagle, a first on the Champions Tour since Jay Haas made an albatross at the 2009 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Once again was among the leaders in Driving Distance, finishing fourth, with a 290.4-yard average.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Won two titles in a season for the first time since 1994 on the Nationwide Tour and was the second of just five players to claim multiple titles. Both victories came within a span of four starts during the spring...Claimed his second career title on the Champions Tour when he prevailed by one stroke at The Cap Cana Championship in March. Made a dramatic eagle on the 17th hole to grab the lead after trailing Mark O'Meara by as many as four strokes during the final round. Holed a sand-wedge approach from 95 yards for the decisive eagle. Was 1-over-par in his Sunday round after 11 holes but played his next six holes in 5-under par, which gave him the lead and his first win since 2007...Added a second title in May when he won the rain-shortened Regions Charity Classic near Birmingham, AL. Fired consecutive rounds of 66 to win by three strokes over Gene Jones...Recorded two other top-10s during the fall campaign...Was T7 at the AT&T Championship in October in San Antonio, thanks to a final-round 67...His Sunday 65 at the SAS Championship was the low round of the tournament and left him T9. 2008: Turned in another steady campaign, with six top-10s, including three in his first five starts of the season when he opened the year with 15 consecutive rounds of par/better...Best effort came in the last full-field event of the season. Fired a final-round 65 at Oak Hills to jump up into second place at the AT&T Championship, three strokes back of winner John Cook.

2007: Registered his first victory on the Champions Tour and surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings for the first time...First win came in his 72nd start when he outlasted Hale Irwin and Mark O'Meara at the inaugural Ginn Championship at Ocean Hammock. Victory made him just the second of three players ever to post titles on the PGA TOUR, Nationwide Tour and Champions Tour (Ron Streck, in 2005, and Tom Lehman, in 2009, are the others). One-stroke victory over O'Meara and Irwin came despite bogeys on two of the final three holes on the Ocean Club at Hammock Beach. Win ended a TOUR victory drought of just over 12 1/2 years (1994 Boise Open on the Nationwide Tour)...Shot consecutive 67s on the weekend at the SAS Championship to finish T3 near Raleigh. His $132,000 check moved him over the seven-figure mark in single-season earnings for the first time in his career...Was T6 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Was in contention through 54 holes at Crosswater before receiving a two-stroke penalty after his third round for inadvertently testing the condition of a hazard on the 17th hole...At one point during the year, went 229 holes without a three-putt. 2006: Nearly doubled his previous year's earnings and earned a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Took full advantage of his appearance, finishing solo third. Made a late Sunday charge but fell three strokes shy of winner Jim Thorpe...Two months earlier, nearly won his first Champions Tour title at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August but lost in a one-hole playoff to Tom Kite. Closed with an 8-under-par 64 Sunday, his best Champions Tour effort. Playing well ahead of the leaders, he narrowly missed a potential eagle putt on the final hole in regulation, leaving his putt inches short. Had he converted, he would have eventually earned the title outright. In the playoff, watched his second shot carom off the cartpath and into a skybox behind 18, effectively ending his chances as Kite made a birdie-4 on the hole.

2005: Top efforts came in back-to-back weeks in March during the early California swing...Had a T6 at the SBC Classic near Los Angeles. Opened with an even-par 72 before firing a 7-under-par 65, which gave him a one-stroke lead over Mark McNulty after 36 holes. However, closed with a 5-over-par 77 at Valencia on Sunday...Continued his strong play at the Toshiba Senior Classic, grabbing a T2, his second consecutive top-five effort at Newport Beach. Trailed eventual winner Mark Johnson by three strokes entering the final round and lost by four after a final-round 71...Led the Champions Tour in Total Driving...Earned fully-exempt status for 2006 by finishing T4 at the National Qualifying Tournament in Beaumont, CA. Was T40 after an opening-round 77 and moved into a T9 after five rounds. Moved into the top seven after posting a final-round 70 in windy conditions.

2004: Joined Tour after turning 50 in early March. Made 18 starts, primarily through the PGA TOUR Career Victory category...In contention for the first time when

Was a five-stroke victor over Irwin, and in the process, set Champions Tour 36- and 54-hole scoring records. His 54-hole total of 191 (19-under-par) broke the previous three-round low by two strokes (set in 1989 by Bob Charles and later matched by Charles Coody in 1991 and Gibby Gilbert in 1992) and his 36-hole score also broke the old mark by two strokes (set by Jim Colbert in 1994 and matched by Hale Irwin in 1997). Opened the tournament by tying the Champions Tour 18-hole record with a 60 (10-under-par) that included pars on the last four holes. Made 10 birdies and had just 23 putts on the par-70 Tanglewood course. Victory made him the last of three wire-to-wire winners during the year (Tom Kite, MasterCard Championship, and Bob Gilder, FleetBoston Classic. 2001: Earned over $2 million for the third straight year and went down to the wire with Allen Doyle for the top spot in the first Charles Schwab Cup competition and the single-season money list...Of his 94 rounds, 48 were in the 60s, and he had 70 sub-par scores during the campaign...Among his three victories was his first senior major championship on the Champions Tour. Claimed his biggest career title at the U.S. Senior Open at Salem CC near Boston, one year after losing the 54-hole lead at Saucon Valley and finishing second to Hale Irwin. Was among four players four strokes back with one round to play, but carded a steady 68 in the final round to edge Gil Morgan and Isao Aoki by one stroke...Went on to join Doyle as the only players to finish in the top 10 in all four senior majors...First win of the season came at the Las Vegas Senior Classic when he overcame a two-stroke deficit to win by three strokes...During the spring, became just the sixth player in Champions Tour history to win the same event three straight times when he won The Home Depot Invitational near Charlotte with a tournament-record score of 15-under 201. Was the only player in the field to post three rounds in the 60s and was three strokes better than John Bland. 2000: Successfully defended three titles during the year...Edged Vicente Fernandez by two points at the Royal Caribbean Classic, thanks to five birdies on Sunday in the Modified Stableford format event...Bested Hubert Green in a playoff at The Home Depot Invitational, making birdie on the third extra hole of overtime. Went wire-to-wire for the second year in a row to claim the Lightpath Long Island Classic, defeating Dana Quigley by two strokes...Had outdistanced Quigley by four strokes earlier in the year at the GTE Classic in Tampa and earned February Player of the Month honors. GTE Classic win gave him nine victories in his first 36 senior career starts and the nine wins came in a period of one year, 15 days, the fastest anyone has reached that mark in Champions Tour history...Suffered his most disappointing defeat of the season at the U.S. Senior Open at Saucon Valley. Fired a course-record, 7-under 64 on the first day and was also the 36- and 54-hole leader before being overtaken by Hale Irwin on Sunday. 1999: Was the dominant player on the Champions Tour and collected every top post-season honor, including Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year and the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.19)...Was the first rookie since Lee Trevino in 1990 to win the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner with $2,515,705 ($78,894/start), the second highest single-season total in the history of the circuit at the time...Also joined Trevino (1990), Bruce Crampton (1986) and Miller Barber (1981) as the only players to win seven official events in their first year on the Champions Tour...Had 56 rounds in the 60s, a record at the time, and was under par in 75 of his 96 rounds played (78.1 percent)...Became the eighth player in Champions Tour history to win his debut when he went wire-to-wire in claiming the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne...Won the American Express Invitational in Sarasota by three strokes over Larry Nelson the very next week to become the first player ever to claim his first two starts on the circuit...Added a third title in late April at The Home Depot Invitational, edging Terry Dill and Jim Holtgrieve by a stroke in Charlotte...Used a 9-under-par 63 on Saturday, his low round of the year, to nip Al Geiberger by a shot for the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland title in Nashville...Went wire-to-wire in early August to clip Allen Doyle by two strokes at the Lightpath Long Island Classic...Outdueled Doyle again late in the season at The Transamerica, then clinched the money title two weeks later by edging Doyle again at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. 1998: Earned a full exemption for the 1999 season after finishing second at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe...Fired four consecutive sub-par rounds and ended up three strokes back of Doyle.

Matched his age for the first time with a final-round, 8-under 63, one off his Champions Tour career-best, on The Raven Course at Sandestin. Eventually finished one stroke short of Bobby Wadkins but still became the third-youngest player in Champions Tour annals to shoot his age in a round that included five consecutive birdies on the back nine. Moved up two spots from ninth to seventh on the final money chart and surpassed the $1-million mark for the second year in succession while also winning his second career title...Claimed his second Champions Tour crown in May, a three-stroke victory at the Regions Charity Classic. After an opening-round 68, matched a personal-best with a 10-under-par 62 Saturday, which included a 6-under-par 30 on the back nine. Continued his stellar play on the front nine Sunday, fashioning another 6-under-par 30. Made consecutive birdies on Nos. 10 and 11 to build a five-stroke margin on the field and was never threatened after that despite back-to-back bogeys on Nos. 13 and 14. His 54-hole total of 20-under-par 196 fell just one stroke shy of the 54-hole scoring record set in 2001 by Hale Irvin. Became the 18th different winner of the event in 19 years...Was also the 36-hole leader at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and held the lead midway through the back nine Sunday before struggling down the stretch with three bogeys in his last five holes to finish T3 in Endicott. Performance at En-Joe was his second straight top-five effort in the Dick's event...Closed with a final-round, 7-under 65 to finish T3 again the following week at the inaugural Montreal Championship...Added a third T3 finish late in the year at the Administaff Small Business Classic. Played his first four holes of the tournament in 3-over but his final 50 holes in 12-under to tie Brad Bryant. Both players shot 66-66 on the weekend, the second-lowest weekend totals at The Woodlands...Second-round 66 at TPC Tampa Bay allowed him to move into an eventual T5 finish at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Heavy rain washed out the final round Sunday morning...Was T5 again at The Principal Charity Classic in Des Moines. However, fell back out of contention after an even-par, front-nine start Sunday...Finished T2 in Sub-Par Rounds (46) and T3 in Rounds in the 60s (34). CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was among the top 10 in more than a third of his starts in his first full Champions Tour season and finished ninth on the final money list, his highest standing ever on any Tour, with over $1.2 million...Highlight of his year came early in the campaign when he won his first Champions Tour event, the AT&T Champions Classic. The victory came in his 12th career start on the circuit. Shot 66 in the final round to come from five strokes back and then defeated Don Pooley with a 10-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole at Valencia CC. Caught a break on the final hole of regulation when his second shot on the par-5 18th drifted right of the green and was barely inbounds, allowing him to eventually make a crucial par...Fired three consecutive rounds in the 60s and appeared on the weekend leaderboard at the Boeing Classic, eventually posting a T3 finish near Seattle...Was also the early leader in the final round of the SAS Championship and finished solo fourth after playing the back nine Sunday at Prestonwood in even par...Appeared to be in command early on the back nine at the Administaff Small Business

Classic but found the water with his tee shot on the par-3 14th hole. A triple bogey on that hole eventually led to a T4 finish near Houston. His 8-under 64 Friday included six birdies in a row, matching Mark James (Allianz Championship) for best birdie streak in 2009. His first-round score also matched his career-low round on the Champions Tour...Posted rounds of 68-65 on the weekend at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open to T5 in Endicott, NY.

2008: Turned 50 on July 15 and made his Champions Tour debut that week in Minnesota at the 3M Championship. Finished T39 in his first start after posting a final-round 66 at TPC Twin Cities...Best effort in eight events in his rookie season came in the last full-field tournament, the AT&T Championship, in San Antonio. Was one stroke off the lead after opening with a 7-under 64 at Oak Hills and eventually finished T8...Also was T12 at the Boeing Classic near Seattle after closing with a final-round, 8-under-par 64 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Victory in Pennsylvania led to a career-best season with $1,318,570. Span of events between wins was 246 tournaments, or 10 years, 1 month, 6 days. Was one of five players in his 40s to win in 2002. Eagled the 72nd hole to defeat Robert Allenby and Billy Andrade by one stroke. Opened with a 73 but secured win by shooting 16-under the rest of the way. Posted a second-round 68 and a course-record-tying 64 in third round which put him in position to win and shot a final-round 65 which gave him the win...Reached the $1-million mark the following year when he had four top-10 finishes on his way to $1,140,209 in earnings...Enjoyed best season at the time on TOUR in 1992 when he won the Buick Open, defeating Brad Faxon and Steve Elkington with a par on the second playoff hole and finished second three times on way to a 10th-place finish on final money list. Had three runners-up finishes that year prior to victory at Warwick Hills...Was T7 at the PGA Championship and THE TOUR Championship that year, as well...Posted third career win at the 1990 Shearson Lehman Hutton Open, by two over Tommy Armour III...In 1986 won the rain-shortened Hertz Bay Hill Classic with rounds of 68-67-67—202...One year earlier, earned first TOUR victory when he prevailed at the Lite

2010 SEASON:

Took full advantage of his first full Champions Tour season, playing in 25 of 26 events and finishing 11th on the final money list... Broke through for his first Champions Tour victory when he lapped the field by seven strokes at the 3M Championship in August. Was tied with Mark Calcavecchia after 36 holes, but after a birdie-birdie-eagle start, pulled away and was never threatened. Shot a 7-under-par 29 on the front nine, and after draining a 25-foot eagle putt on No. 18 (his second eagle in the round), posted a tournament-record, 11-under-par 61 in his final round. That score matched the low round by a tournament winner in Champions Tour history (Rocky Thompson at the 1994 GTE Suncoast Classic; Loren Roberts at the 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai) and it was later duplicated by Gary Hallberg at the 2010 Ensure Classic at Rock Barn. His 54-hole total of 25-under-par 191 tied the all-time Champions Tour 54-hole scoring mark. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, becoming the 10th player (13th overall) to do so and win the event. It was his 20th start on the Champions Tour and it ended a winless streak of 267 tournaments in PGA TOUR-sanctioned events, dating to his win at the 1997 MasterCard Colonial... Stellar play on the weekend at the Senior PGA Championship nearly proved successful. Set a new competitive-course record in the third round, with a 7-under-par 65 at the Colorado GC and followed with a 4-under-par 67 Sunday, the day's best round to finish in a three-way tie with Fred Couples and Tom Lehman at the end of play. However, his good fortune ended with a double bogey on the first extra hole, and he finished T2 in the year's first major championship... Shared the 36-hole lead with Brad Bryant and eventual-winner David Eger at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Final-round 74 dropped him into a T7 at Fallen Oak... Started his season with a T8 at The ACE Group Classic in Naples... Closed

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was ranked among the top-25 players in the world every year but one from 1987-1996 and won nine of his 10 PGA TOUR titles and nine of his 12 international events during that span...After finishing 11th on the PGA TOUR money list in 1987 and earning the Byron Nelson Award for lowest scoring average (70.09), received attention with a pair of victories late in the 1988 season and was among the top-three eight times overall during the year. After finishing third three times in his first seven starts that year—Phoenix Open, Hertz Bay Hill Classic and THE PLAYERS Championship, and then registering three runner-ups in a six-week stretch in the spring—MCI Heritage Classic, Memorial Tournament and Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic, finally broke through with a pair of victories during the fall. Also won his third Million Dollar Challenge in South Africa and the Dunlop Phoenix event in Japan...Best year on the PGA TOUR came in 1993 when he finished fifth on the final money list with $1,030,717, eclipsing the seven-figure mark for the only time in his TOUR career. Both of his wins that season came in consecutive weeks during the month of September. First held off Fred Couples by a stroke at Glen Abbey GC to win the Canadian Open and then successfully defended his Hardee's Golf Classic title, cruising to a seven-stroke victory over Payne Stewart and D.A. Weirbring with a four-round score of 21-under 259, two strokes off the 72-hole TOUR record...Ninth TOUR title came in 1994 when he edged Norman by a stroke for the Canon Greater Hartford Open crown...Following three years without a TOUR victory, earned his 10th title in impressive form at the MasterCard Colonial. After rounds of 66-63, shared 36-hole lead with Brad Faxon and Paul Goydos and eventually won by two strokes over Faxon and David Ogriin thanks to a front-nine 32 in the final round. Dedicated win to Ben Hogan, who had inspired him since he came to America...Set the PGA TOUR's all-time 72-hole putting record with 92 total putts at the MCI Heritage. Old mark had held up for 16 years (93, Kenny Knox, 1989 MCI Heritage). One-putted his first 11 greens in the first round, had 49 one-putts for the week and holed out two times from off the green...Represented South Africa nine times in the Dunhill Cup and won in consecutive years with Ernie Els (1997) and Retief Goosen (1998)...Also was a member of the International Team at the 1994 and 1996 Presidents Cup matches.

2010 SEASON:

Once again finished among the leading money-winners on the Champions Tour, surpassing the $1-million mark for the third successive season... Two years after winning the JELD-WEN Tradition in Oregon, added a second title at the event to his resume in August when he was a one-stroke winner over Michael Allen and Chien-Soon Lu. Made a 12-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole and held off a handful of players on Sunday for his third major title. The win also gave him at least one victory in five straight seasons. Failed to make a bogey on the back nine all week and hit an amazing 54 of 56 fairways on his way to the win... Victory at Tradition made him just the third multiple winner of the event and first since Gil Morgan claimed back-to-back Traditions in 1997-98... Nearly added a second title in September when he lost in a one-hole playoff to Russ Cochran at the inaugural Posco E&C Songdo Championship in South Korea. Was the 36-hole leader after rounds of 69-67 and could have closed it out on the 54th hole, but he missed a 2-foot birdie putt, which sent the players to a playoff where Cochran prevailed with a birdie on the first extra hole... For the second consecutive year, made a run at winning the Dick's Sporting Goods Open only to finish as a runner-up. Posted a final-round 7-under 65 at En-Joie GC and held a share of the lead late until Loren Roberts birdied the final hole to finish one stroke ahead... Turned in a solid performance at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie in July. Shot a 4-under-par 67 Saturday to get himself into contention, but a final-round, 1-over-par 72 left him one of four players to T3... Recorded his first top-10 finish since his knee operation when he was T4 at the inaugural Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic... In first start since undergoing right-knee-replacement surgery, finished T21 at The ACE Group Classic in Naples... Four straight sub-par rounds gave him a T5 finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November... Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the final round of the 3M Championship. Used a 5-iron from 186-yard fourth hole at the TPC Twin Cities... Champions Tour Player of the Month for August... Made initial start on the PGA TOUR at the Transitions Championship in March and finished T55... Finished T39 at THE PLAYERS Championship thanks, in part, to a third-round 66... Made the cut at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach, finishing T70, the 13th time in 21 U.S. Open starts he's played on the weekend... Fellow Champions Tour player Mike Goodes handled caddie duties for him at the PGA TOUR's Children's Miracle Network Classic in November... Was T2 in Sub-Par Rounds, with 46... Underwent a clean-up procedure on his right knee after the season.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Finished among the top 10 in over half of his Champions Tour starts and was the only player to finish among the top 10 in all five majors... Was third on the final Charles Schwab Cup points list, just two points back of runner-up John Cook. He was also fifth in official earnings, with more than $1.5 million despite not starting his season until The ACE Group Classic in Naples after suffering a staph infection in his right knee in late December 2008... Highlight of his year came in early August when he blew away the field at the U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick in Indiana with a blistering final round. Led by just one stroke after 54 holes, but fired a bogey-free 7-under-par 65 on Sunday to win by six strokes, the largest victory margin in the championship since Gary Player bested Doug Sanders by six in 1987 at Brooklawn CC... His 72-hole score of 20-under-par 268 set a new standard for most strokes under par for 72 holes in a USGA event, breaking Hale Irwin's mark of 17-under in 2000. Made just three bogeys over his final 60 holes in capturing his second major title and did not have a three-putt during the course of four rounds. In winning his fifth Champions Tour title, he overtook Bernhard Langer for the Charles Schwab Cup lead and held it until early October... Prior to U.S. Senior Open victory, had finished second three times, losing two events in playoffs... Held the lead for most of the final round at The Principal Charity Classic but eventually finished T2 in Iowa along with Nick Price, losing to Mark McNulty on the fourth hole of a playoff. Made an 8-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to extend the event and, after Price was eliminated, had a 15-foot birdie effort on the following hole for outright win lip out... Was the 18- and 36-hole leader at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open but, despite a final-round 69 at En-Joie GC, finished T2 along with Ronnie Black, three strokes back of Lonnie Nielsen. Two-day total of 15-under 129 matched the best first 36-hole score of the season... Lost a second three-way playoff at the Senior British Open. After setting a record low 36-hole score at Sunningdale and holding the lead midway through the back nine Sunday, made par on every hole on the inward nine to fall into a tie after regulation with Mark McNulty and Loren Roberts. Was eventually eliminated on the first extra hole when he did not convert his birdie effort... Was T5 at the Senior PGA Championship in May at Canterbury GC and also T5 at the JELD-WEN Tradition after being one stroke off the pace after 36 holes... T7 at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship thanks to a final-round 67 at Baltimore CC... Made six appearances on the PGA TOUR, including his 20th appearance in the U.S.

Open, earning his way into the field through a regional qualifier in Maryland. Made his seventh consecutive cut in the event and 12th overall, eventually finishing 60th at Bethpage State Park...Named Champions Tour Player of the Month in July. 2008: Plagued by knee problems through much of the year and underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee in mid-May before returning to action in early June at the PGA TOUR's Stanford St. Jude Championship...Despite splitting time between the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, still managed to win twice on the senior circuit and was third on the final Champions Tour money list, with over $1.7 million in official money...Made a strong run for the Charles Schwab Cup title before finishing second, 12 points behind Jay Haas, the closest race in the eight-year history of the season-long points chase. Finished T25 in the year's final event and his performance outside the top 10 in Sonoma failed to move him past Haas on the final points list...Got his year off to a quick start when he birdied the last two holes to edge Allen Doyle for the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai...Managed to finish either first or second in all three senior major championships he played in last year...Was voted as the Champions Tour's August Player of the Month after he became a multiple winner for the first time since 1995, claiming his first major championship at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Final-round 69 allowed him to win by three strokes over Mike Goodes after he was leading by six shots early on the back nine on Sunday. Became just the second player, and first since Gil Morgan in 1997, to win the JELD-WEN Tradition with four straight rounds in the 60s. Win came two weeks after his runner-up performance at the U.S. Senior Open. In his first start on the Champions Tour since early May (FedEx Kinko's Classic), finished second to Eduardo Romero in Colorado Springs. Was the 18- and 36-hole leader at The Broadmoor and played with Romero in the final pairing Sunday. Final-round 75 included a triple-bogey-7 at the 13th hole that proved to be the turning point in the championship...In early October, was in contention throughout the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and final-round 66 left him one stroke short of D.A. Weibring. Had chances to tie Weibring but could not convert birdie putts on any of the three closing holes at Five Farms. Runner-up finish at Baltimore CC earned him 458 Charles Schwab Cup points and temporarily moved him ahead of Haas in the season-long battle...On the PGA TOUR, among his 14 starts was a T10 at the Sony Open in Hawaii. 2007: Narrowly missed pocketing seven figures on both Tours...Made just nine starts prior to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship but parlayed those appearances into a 10th start by qualifying for the season-ending tournament for the Tour's top-30 money-winners. Finished T2 in Sonoma and was tied for the lead at one point Sunday before eventual-winner Jim Thorpe pulled away from a crowded leaderboard with four straight birdies down the stretch...Rolled to an all-time, 54-hole-record, 11-stroke victory at the Turtle Bay Championship. Led wire to wire for the second time in his brief Champions Tour career and also played bogey-free golf over the three days...Also T3 at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in October near Baltimore. Trailed third-round leader Loren Roberts by three strokes after 54 holes but was unable to catch Roberts, who pulled away with five birdies in the first nine holes Sunday...Was T3 again at Oak Hills in defense of his AT&T Championship title...

Victory south of the border made him the fifth-oldest champion in PGA TOUR history and the oldest since Art Wall (51 years, 7 months, 10 days) at the 1975 Greater Milwaukee Open. Posted rounds of 62-69-64-71—266 and beat Jose Coceres with a birdie on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff, hitting a 4-iron on the par-3 10th to 6 feet...Also finished fifth at the Travelers Championship, aided by rounds of 67-69 on the weekend. 2006: Made three Champions Tour appearances after becoming eligible in June. Managed to win his first title in his last start on the circuit, claiming the AT&T Championship late in the season in San Antonio. Went wire-to-wire at Oak Hills, a first at the tournament since Jim Albus in 1994. Found himself two strokes back of Chip Beck with just four holes to play, but rallied with three consecutive birdies and a clutch up-and-down save for the clinching par from just left of the 18th green. Went ahead of Beck for good with a 12-foot birdie putt on No. 17. Victory at Oak Hills was the second of his career in Texas...Debuted on the Champions Tour at the U.S. Senior Open in early July and T11 at Prairie Dunes in Kansas...Finished T11 again a week later at the Ford Senior Players Championship in Dearborn, MI...Played a full PGA TOUR schedule and recorded three top-10s in 29 events...Best effort on the PGA TOUR came in Louisiana when he finished T2 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Moved into the lead on Saturday with a course-record 63 on the Port Course at Harborside International...In September, rallied from two strokes down with eight holes to play to win the Allianz Championship. opening MasterCard Championship in Hawaii (37th), but was forced to miss almost the next three months of the season after undergoing additional tests and treatments for a cancerous growth on his throat and tongue... Despite a loss of strength and weight, came back again in mid-April at the Blue Angels Classic in Pensacola, FL. 2003: Season cut short in June after being diagnosed with a cancerous growth on his left tonsil and back of his tongue during a routine dental examination in May. Opted to begin radiation and chemotherapy sessions in early July and missed the remainder of the year while undergoing nearly six weeks of treatment for the disease at Shands Hospital in Gainesville, FL. Lost over 30 pounds during the treatment... Was just one stroke off the lead through 36 holes of the Farmers Charity Classic and eventually T4 in Grand Rapids, three strokes out of a playoff spot in his next-to-last start in June... T4 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf... Returned from an inconsistent 2001 season in a big way, finishing 16th on the money list after dropping to 51st the previous year... Claimed his first title in nearly two years when he defeated Hale Irwin in a seven-hole playoff at the Lightpath Long Island Classic. Was tied for the 36-hole lead with Irwin, but fell behind by as many as four strokes with 12 holes to play. However, collected five birdies over the last 11 holes and then drained a 25-foot putt on the seventh extra hole for the victory. Birdied eight of his first 10 holes Sunday en route to a Champions Tour career-low round of 62 at LaVista CC and a five-stroke triumph over Jim Colbert, Dean Overturf and Doug Tewell... Also Made an eagle, par and four birdies over his last six holes to beat Hale Irwin by a stroke at Greystone G&CC... Carded his first ace on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the Comfort Classic. 1997: During a streaky rookie season, posted nine top-10 finishes and collected more than $500,000 in official earnings, over twice what he made in his best year on the PGA TOUR (1978/$247,406)... Made a serious bid for his first Champions Tour title at the Northville Long Island Classic. Was one stroke off the lead after 36 holes before finishing T3, one stroke out of playoff contention... BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T4—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf; T5—Montreal Championship; T8—Senior British Open, Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2010 SEASON:

Streak of seasons with at least one victory ended at five consecutive years and did not record a top-three finish in any event for the first time as a Champions Tour member. After having the second-best scoring mark from 2006-2009, averaged more than a stroke higher in 2010 and slipped to 19th, the first time over 70 (70.44)...Recorded seven top-10s overall but best performance came when he teamed with Fred Couples to finish T4 at the Liberty Mutual

Legends of Golf in April in Savannah...Top individual effort came in Canada when his final-round 67 at Club de Golf Fontainebleau gave him a T5 finish at the inaugural Montreal Championship...Finished T8 in his next start, at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie...Also finished T8 at the Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, his fifth top-10 performance at that tournament in six appearances...Early in the season, was tied for the first-round lead at the Allianz Championship after an 8-under 64 Friday. Eventually finished T9 in Boca Raton after posting a final-round 68...Posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s to finish T9 at the AT&T Championship...Opening-round 75 at The ACE Group Classic ended a streak of consecutive par/better rounds (23) and sub-par rounds (15) dating to the fall of the 2009 season...Twenty-two years after his victory in Palm Springs, was on hand to witness his son Bill's initial PGA TOUR triumph at the Bob Hope Classic. Became the eighth father-son duo in PGA TOUR history to win the same event...Made his record 29th appearance at The PLAYERS Championship but missed the cut by two strokes after rounds of 71-73 at the TPC Sawgrass. Was in position to make the cut until a double bogey on the 18th hole derailed him.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Won multiple titles for a fifth straight year and finished fourth in official earnings and fifth in the Charles Schwab Cup race...Played his best golf late in the season when he was either first or second in four of his last five appearances and claimed titles in consecutive starts for the second straight year...Ended a drought of 26 consecutive Champions Tour events without a victory when he won his 13th career title in record fashion at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Returning to action after nearly a month off due to tendinitis in his left elbow, he birdied five of the final six holes to post a two-stroke triumph over Russ Cochran and Andy Bean at the Rock Barn Golf & Spa. His 54-hole score of 18-under-par 198 was a tournament record, bettering R.W. Eaks' previous mark of 17-under-par 199 set in 2007. Got off to a fast start in Hickory with a Champions Tour career-best, 10-under-par 62 in the opening round that also equaled the lowest 18-hole score on the circuit in 2009...Followed victory in Hickory by claiming the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, his third major title and 14th win overall on the Champions Tour. A birdie on the final hole capped a final-round, 6-under 64 at Baltimore CC and gave him a one-stroke win over Tom Watson...Fell just short in his quest for three wins in a row when he was T2 at the Administaff Small Business Classic, one week after serving as Fred Couples' Captain's Assistant on the victorious U.S. Presidents Cup team. Was tied with John Cook, the eventual winner, with four holes to play but eventually fell two strokes back when he three-putted the final hole from the back fringe and Cook made birdie at No. 17...Stellar play continued the following week at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. Was among the weekend leaders, and only a bogey on his final hole kept him out of a playoff with eventual winner Phil Blackmar. Saw his bunker shot for par and a chance to tie Blackmar hang on the lip at No. 18, leaving him one stroke short and T2...Recorded the 34th double eagle in the history of the Champions Tour when his three-wood second shot found the cup on the 11th hole at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort during the second round of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Finished second in Scoring Average for the fourth straight year...Took time out in early March to watch his daughter, Georgia, and her school, Christ Church Episcopal School of Greenville, win the South Carolina Class A high school girls' basketball championship. 2008: Claimed his second Charles Schwab Cup on the strength of two victories and 14 top-10 finishes. Took over the Schwab Cup lead for good with a T3 at the AT&T Championship, the last full-field event of the year. Had tied John Cook for the lead in the final round with an eagle at the 10th hole but eventually finished four strokes back. Earned 109 Charles Schwab Cup points for his efforts at Oak Hills to jump past Fred Funk. Went into the season-ending event in Sonoma with just a 12-point margin over Funk and, despite not finishing in the top-10 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, claimed the Schwab Cup and $1-million payout when Funk did not record a top-10 finish either. Margin of victory in Schwab Cup race was the tightest in history...Highlight of his year came in Rochester, NY, when he won his second Senior PGA Championship, holding off Langer by one stroke at Oak Hill CC. Winning score of 7-over 287 on the East Course was the highest in relation to par in Senior PGA Championship history and the second highest in Champions Tour annals. Victory was the 11th of his Champions Tour career and made him the 13th different player to win multiple Senior PGA titles...One week later, successfully defended his title at The Principal Charity Classic when he posted a final-round, 6-under-par 65, the low round of the tournament, to beat Andy Bean by one stroke. Started the day two strokes behind second-round leader Nick Price but took the lead with successive birdies on Nos. 14-16 and never trailed again...Earlier in the season, almost defended his title at the Toshiba Classic in March but fell in a seven-hole playoff with Langer at the Newport Beach CC. Fired a closing-round, 6-under par 65 to make up four strokes on Langer on Sunday but eventually missed a critical 3-foot birdie putt on the seventh playoff hole, which would have extended the overtime session. It was his first playoff loss in a PGA TOUR/Champions Tour event after five consecutive wins...Posted the low round of the day and his low round of the year, a 7-under 64, Sunday at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, a score that eventually led to a T2 finish with Scott Hoch, one stroke back of winner Tom Watson... Champions Tour Player of the Month for May...Lost Byron Nelson trophy to Bernhard Langer by one-hundredth of a point (69.66)...Missed a couple of starts in the summer due to a hamstring injury. 2007: Grabbed the Arnold Palmer Award as the Champions Tour's leading money-winner for the second consecutive year and posted a Tour-best four victories. His performance eventually led to Player of the Year honors for a second consecutive season...Led all players with 18 top-10 finishes and finished second to Loren Roberts in the Charles Schwab Cup race...First of his four wins came in March when he was a two-stroke victor over R.W. Eaks at the Toshiba Classic. Finished with a record-setting, 54-hole total of 19-under 194, breaking Hale Irwin's record of 196 set in 2002...Became the only player to successfully defend a Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in individual stroke-play format the following month when he defeated Tom Kite on the first hole of a playoff for his eighth career Champions Tour win. Got up and down from the greenside bunker on the 54th hole to force overtime with Kite. Eventually won in Savannah when he chipped to within two feet and holed a short par putt after Kite missed his par attempt from 5 1/2 feet moments earlier...Added a third victory to his resume when he went wire to wire at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa in June. Fired three successive rounds in the 60s on his way to his ninth career win...Continued his stellar play in his next start at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Opened with a 1-under 71, but followed with rounds of 66 on the weekend for a three-stroke come-from-behind victory at Nashawtuc CC. With the victory, he joined his uncle, Bob Goaly, as the tournament champion. Goaly won the inaugural event in 1981...Tied for the 36-hole lead at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton but eventually finished two strokes back of Mark James on The Old Course at Broken Sound. Runner-up effort at the Allianz event equaled his best effort on TOUR in Florida (T2—2003 PLAYERS Championship)...Along with Andy Bean, was T2 the following week at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, one stroke back of Tom Watson. Moved into contention down the stretch when he posted a 2-under 69 Sunday in adverse weather conditions, one of only two sub-70 scores posted the final day at the TPC Tampa Bay...Was also second at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round 63 at the TPC Twin Cities, one stroke short of D.A. Weibring who birdied the final three holes to win...T2 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn following a final-round 6-under 66, the low Sunday round...Player of the Month in both April and June. 2006: Became the first player since Hale Irwin in 2002 to claim both the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money winner and the season-long Charles Schwab Cup crown... Battled Loren Roberts to the wire for the two titles before claiming both at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, thanks to his T6 finish. Earned a Champions Tour career-best $2,420,227 to win the money title by $54,832, but his margin in the Charles Schwab Cup race was only 20 points as Roberts missed a short putt for on No. 18 which would have given Roberts the title. Charles Schwab Cup title earned him a $1-million payout...Won four titles during the season, sharing that distinction with Roberts... Claimed one of the biggest wins of his career in late May when he prevailed in a playoff to win the Senior PGA Championship at Oak Tree GC in Edmond, OK. The victory was his first major championship in 90 starts in his PGA TOUR career and gave him three consecutive victories on the Champions Tour. Made a clutch birdie putt on the 72nd hole which appeared to be the clincher, but Brad Bryant answered with a birdie putt on the same hole minutes later to set up a playoff. Rolled in a par putt on the third extra hole to defeat Bryant and become the second player (Loren Roberts the other) to win three straight events in 2006...The first of those victories came in April when he went wire-to-wire at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Held off late challenges by Craig Stadler and Peter Jacobsen on Sunday for a five-stroke victory in Savannah. Made key birdies on Nos. 16 and 17 on his way to a closing-round, 5-under-par 67. Stellar play on the back nine during the event was the difference. Was 13-under-par on the final nine at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort, with just one bogey. His winning score of 15-under-par 201 was a tournament record...Made it two straight wins the following week when he came from three strokes behind on Sunday to win the FedEx Kinko's Classic at The Hills CC near Austin. Matched the tournament scoring record with a final-round, 7-under-par 65, highlighted by five straight birdies on Nos. 2-6 and a 5-under-par 31 on the front nine. Added birdies on three of the final four holes to pull away from his challengers. Needed just 21 putts Sunday as he was victorious for the fifth time in his professional career in Texas. Two victories were enough to earn him April Player of the Month honors...Added a fourth title late in the year at the Administaff Small Business Classic. Five-stroke victory at the rain-shortened event was his sixth TOUR title in Texas and made him just the second player (Bob Charles, the other) to claim both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour title in the Houston area. Separated himself from the field Saturday, thanks to an Augusta Pines course-record 63. Maintained his five-stroke advantage through five holes Sunday before heavy rains in the early afternoon rendered the course unplayable...Held the lead briefly on the back nine at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before eventually finishing T2 along with David Edwards, one stroke back of winner Scott Simpson...Also T2 in his next outing at the Constellation Energy Classic, finishing with birdies on the final two holes Sunday...Fifth-place finish at the weather-shortened SAS Championship near Raleigh moved him over the $2 million in season earnings...Moved ahead of Tom Kite on the PGA TOUR's all-time record for most cuts made (591) when he played on the weekend at the U.S. Open. Made the cut in a third decade at Winged Foot, eventually finishing T37...Had tied Kite's all-time mark for career cuts when he played all four rounds at the Memorial Tournament, eventually finishing T29 in Ohio...Made it 592 career cuts made by making it to the weekend at the PGA Championship at Medinah. 2005: Was voted as the Champions Tour Rookie of the Year after turning in an outstanding month of October. Starting with the last round of the JELD-WEN Tradition, posted 17 straight sub-par scores, the best streak on the Champions Tour that year...Made headlines when he won for the first time in 304 combined starts (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour/Nationwide Tour), capturing the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in western North Carolina. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s, including a closing, 7-under-par 65 for his initial Champions Tour triumph. Completed his day with three straight birdies to pull away from Loren Roberts and Dana Quigley for the two-stroke victory, his first in 11 years, 11 months, 23 days...Claimed a second title just two weeks later at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Two-stroke victory at Oak Hills made him the 12th different player to claim PGA TOUR/Champions Tour titles at the same venue. Came from two strokes back of Dana Quigley with a final-round 66 to best Tom Purtzer by two...Almost claimed a third consecutive crown at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Looked to be in control after taking a six-stroke lead after 54 holes but was eventually passed by a hard-charging Tom Watson and fell one stroke short in Sonoma...Played in his 28th PLAYERS Championship, tying Ben Crenshaw and Tom Kite for most appearances and finished T24...Also played in his 29th consecutive MCI Heritage, including making his 23rd cut at Hilton Head—just one shy of Hale Irwin, who has made the most cuts at Harbour Town, with 24. 2004: Made his Champions Tour debut at the Senior PGA Championship in Louisville, where he finished second, one stroke back of Hale Irwin after Irwin two-putted for birdie from 40 feet on the final hole...Among the leaders throughout the U.S. Senior Open before finishing T3, two strokes behind Peter Jacobsen. He and Jacobsen were the only two players in the field to post four consecutive sub-par scores at Bellerive... Was runner-up to Craig Stadler in his third and final start on the Champions Tour when he finished three strokes back at The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Sank a 12-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to give him and son Bill a victory in the two-day CVS Charity Classic at Rhode Island CC in late June...Son Bill qualified for the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills GC to join Jay as the first father-son duo to compete in the same U.S. Open twice.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
 1—Ensure Classic at Rock Barn; T9—Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

2010 SEASON:

He was the seventh of eight first-time Champions Tour winners...Broke through for his first victory since his 2002 Nationwide Tour win with a one-stroke triumph over Fred Couples at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn. Win in North Carolina came in dramatic fashion. Started the final round five strokes behind Couples, but closed with an 11-under-par 61, his career-low round, and then secured the title when Couples missed a birdie chance at No. 18. It was the largest come-from-behind win on the Champions Tour in 2010 and his 61 tied the lowest final-round score by a tournament winner in Champions Tour history (Rocky Thompson at the 1994 GTE Suncoast Classic; Loren Roberts at the 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai; David Frost at the 2010 3M Championship). It tied the 18-hole tournament record as well set by R.W. Eaks in 2008 (first round). The victory made him the fourth player to have won on all three Tours, joining Ron Streck, Keith Fergus and Tom Lehman and earned him an immediate one-year exemption. Check for $262,500 was the largest of his career...Only other top-10 finish was a T9 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, thanks to a course-record-tying, 6-under 66 Saturday...Was one of four players to make two eagles in a round twice during the year. First did so in the opening round of the Toshiba Classic and also in the opening round of the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Lone top-10 finish came during the summer when he was T8 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open after recording three consecutive sub-par scores. 2008: Joined the Champions Tour in mid-June at the Bank of America Championship and was T16 in his debut on the circuit... Best performances in his rookie season came in back-to-back starts in July when he was a combined 28-under par for six rounds. In just his third career appearance, shot a final-round, 8-under-par 64 for an eventual T10 finish at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Then two weeks later, carded a final-round 65 at TPC Twin Cities to finish a distant second to R.W. Eaks at the 3M Championship in Minnesota. Performance there was his best in a Tour-sponsored event since winning the 2002 Northeast Pennsylvania Classic on the Nationwide Tour...Also carded second-round 64 at the AT&T Championship, the last full-field event of the season.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the PGA TOUR in 1980 and appeared in 564 events in his career, making 288 cuts...Was a three-time winner on the TOUR, with last victory coming at the 1992 Buick Southern Open. Shot rounds of 68-69-69 to defeat Jim Gallagher, Jr., by one stroke in the weather-shortened event...Highlight of his 1987 Greater Milwaukee Open victory was a birdie chip-in on No. 17. Win came on Monday after weather delayed the final round...Trailed Tom Kite by four strokes after 54 holes in his first victory at

After getting into the event as the eighth alternate, shot three consecutive rounds in the 60s at the AT&T Championship to eventually finish T6 and earn a career-best check for $63,000... Worked his way onto the leaderboard after 36 holes at the 3M Championship (T6), but closed with a final-round 74 to slip to a T21 finish... Was also T38 at The ACE Group Classic, his first start of the Champions Tour season... Earned conditional exemption for the 2011 season after finishing 10th at the 2010 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at TPC Eagle Trace in Coral Springs, FL. Made a birdie on the seventh playoff hole against J.L. Lewis to claim the 10th spot.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Earned fully-exempt status on the 2010 Champions Tour after finishing T2 at the National Qualifying Tournament at TPC Scottsdale in November. Was the 36- and 54-hole leader. Despite a final-round 74 on the Champions course, finished as a runner-up along with Ronnie Black and Joe Ozaki, three strokes back of Peter Senior. It marked his first successful trip through a national qualifier after missing out 14 times at the PGA TOUR's final stage... Made his Champions Tour debut after open qualifying for the U.S. Senior Open. Finished T22 in the event at Crooked Stick near Indianapolis.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the Nationwide Tour in its inaugural 1990 season, and played full time, with the exception of 1997, until the end of the 2005 campaign. Is second in career starts on the Nationwide Tour (370) and T3 in cuts made (192)... Posted a second-round 65 to get to 13-under and waited for the rest of the field to catch him Sunday. Did not pick up a club Sunday as tournament officials reduced the event to 36 holes. Money earned was official but win was unofficial because players did not complete 54 holes... In 2000, was September Player of the Month on the Nationwide Tour after finishing T2 at the Boise Open, six strokes back of Tim Clark, and T6 at the Tri-Cities Open the week after... Also had a playoff loss to Zach Johnson at the 2003 Rheem Classic... Played in 13 PGA TOUR events in his career, making three cuts. In 1990, finished T38 at the Phoenix Open.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

5—Ensure Classic at Rock Barn; T10—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2010 SEASON:

For the second consecutive year, posted a pair of top 10s yet slipped out of the top 40 on the single-season earnings list for the first time as a Champions Tour member. Had his best finish in three years when he was fifth at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn in October, thanks to three straight rounds in the 60s at the Rock Barn Golf & Spa. Was T10 with partner Don Pooley at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Finished 37th on the official money list for the second straight season and had a pair of top-10 efforts during the campaign. Final-round 65 jumped him into a T6 at The Principal Charity Classic. Performance in Des Moines in late May was his best since early in 2007. Added a second top-10 finish in August when he was T8 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Led all players with only 28.33 putts per round. 2008: Best individual effort came in July when he was T7 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open after posting three consecutive rounds in the 60s. Also teamed with good friend Don Pooley to finish T7 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo was just three strokes off the opening-round lead after posting a 10-under 62 Friday in the better-ball team event. Fired a 64 in second round of the Toshiba Classic, his best on the Champions Tour since last day of 2006 Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am (64). Performance left him three strokes out of the 36-hole lead at Newport Beach. Played in final grouping Sunday for first time since 2006 3M Championship but final-round 73 left him T21.

Also made a hole-in-one in the second round at the SAS Championship, the first ace in tournament history (No. 8, 7-iron from 157 yards) and went on to finish T10. It was his first Champions Tour ace and first PGA TOUR-sanctioned hole-in-one since the 1994 New England Classic. 2007: Best performance of the year came early on at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. Was one stroke off the lead through 36 holes at Broken Sound and then briefly tied for the lead early in the final round before eventually finishing T3 in south Florida. Teamed with his junior partner, Harold Varner of Gastonia, NC, to win the pro-junior competition at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach by four strokes.

2006: Ended a three-year victory drought when he prevailed by one stroke over Scott Simpson at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic in Mexico. Victory capped a run where he finished T2, T4 and first over four starts. Third career win on the Champions Tour earned him $240,000 for the victory, the largest check of his professional career. Effort helped secure Player of the Month honors for March. Also T2 for the second year in succession at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Fired a closing-round, 7-under 64 Sunday to get himself in position for his first win in three years. But Jerry Pate ended any playoff possibilities when he made a birdie on the final hole to earn the victory. 2005: Among the top-10 in 12 of 25 tournaments, including five straight top-10s and seven top-10s in eight starts at one point early in the season. Eighth-place finish on the money list was his highest standing ever, and only Gil Morgan earned more without a victory in 2005. Was the Saturday- and Sunday-night leader at the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am before Hale Irwin overtook him in a rare Monday finish near Tampa and he was T2 along with defending champion Mark McNulty one stroke back. Was involved in another Monday finish in early May at the Blue Angels Classic, his first playoff appearance on the Champions Tour. Lost to Jim Thorpe on the third extra hole at The Moors.

Was on the verge of winning the event Sunday evening, but fell into a playoff when Thorpe made an 11-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation. Matched his career-best round with a 7-under 63 that included a run of six straight birdies (Nos. 11-16) on the first day at The Moors. Along with Thorpe, 54-hole total of 16-under-par 194 was the numerical low on the circuit last year. Posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s on the Monterey Peninsula and finished one stroke back of Irwin again at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and then, in his next start, finished four shots back of Bob Gilder at the Constellation Energy Classic even though he made just one bogey in his last 38 holes at The Hayfields. Trained by two strokes heading into the final round, thanks to a course record-tying, 8-under 64. Placed solo fourth at the Senior PGA Championship, his best career effort in a senior major. 2004: Was second to Tom Purtzer at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Performance in Orange County was his best effort since finishing as a runner-up at 2003 3M Championship. 2003: Victorious at the Columbus Southern Open. Claimed second Champions Tour career title when he defeated Allen Doyle by one stroke in Georgia. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, and in the process became the first player to win an event without a bogey since Bruce Fleisher at the 1999 Transamerica. Extended his bogey-free streak to 98 holes to set a new Champions Tour standard, breaking the old record of 97 set by the late Jack Kiefer in 1994. Started his streak on the 12th hole of his second round at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am and saw it end at the second hole of his second-round at the Music City Championship. Nearly won a second title in August when he finished T2 with Gil Morgan at the 3M Championship, one stroke behind Wayne Levi. Narrowly missed a birdie putt at 18, which would have eventually earned him a playoff spot opposite Levi. Recorded the longest-measured putt of the year when he drained one from 110 feet, five inches on No. 17 in the second round at the JELD-WEN Tradition. 2002: Voted by his peers as the Rookie of the Year. Was one of the great success stories of the season. Began the year as a non-exempt player. However, took full advantage of open qualifying, sponsor exemptions and his Past Champion status to parlay those early appearances into exempt status via the Tour reshuffle. Registered his first Champions Tour victory at the Uniting Fore Care Classic. Pulled away from

Marsh to claim his first Champions Tour title in 17 months at the Kroger Senior Classic. Win at Kings Island made him the eighth man to win a Champions Tour and PGA TOUR event on the same layout. Had won the 1977 Ohio Kings Island Open on the same Grizzly Course. 1994: Only player this year to successfully defend a title when he won the IntelliNet Challenge in Naples. 1993: Captured both the Better Homes & Gardens Real Estate Challenge and the PaineWebber Invitational before the end of May. 1992: A trio of titles included a second consecutive official victory at the Doug Sanders Kingwood Celebrity Classic and second consecutive Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title with Lee Trevino. 1991: Shared Player of the Year honors with George Archer and won the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour after recording five victories...Went over $1 million in earnings for the only time in his career, and was the leading money-winner in all of golf that season. runner-up to Trevino on the money list...First Champions Tour title came at the GTE Suncoast Classic near Tampa, a two-stroke victory over Trevino. 1989: Was ninth on the final money list and was runner-up to Bob Charles at the Digital Seniors Classic.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH:

3—The ACE Group Classic.

2010 SEASON:

Made just one Champions Tour start before left-wrist problems returned and curtailed his season...After being out of action for six months, returned to action at The ACE Group Classic and finished third thanks to three consecutive sub-par rounds in windy conditions in Naples. Had just one bogey over his final 36 holes...Withdrew prior to the start of the opening round of the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton the following week and did not play again. Had planned on returning to action in the summer but suffered a broken collarbone in a freak bicycle accident.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Played in only 12 events during the year and none after the U.S. Senior Open in early August...Missed much of the second half of the season due to recurring issues with his left wrist and had surgery in early October...Shot three straight rounds in the 60s in July to finish in third place at the 3M Championship near Minneapolis... Was also T4 at the Triton Financial Classic at The Hills CC near Austin, TX in early June...Shared the first-round lead at the Senior PGA Championship and trailed by two strokes after 36 holes, but fell out of contention after a 6-over-par 76 in the third round. He eventually placed T17 at Canterbury near Cleveland...Returned to the PGA TOUR in July, making the cut for the 16th time in 18 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee appearances and eventually finishing T24 at Brown Deer Park GC. 2008: Was the first multiple winner in 2008, claiming a pair of titles in Florida in back-to-back starts early in the campaign...Was also among the top-three in three other events and pocketed more than $1.4 million in earnings, his best money-making year since 2002...First win of the season came at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. Birdied three of his final four holes on the Old Course at Broken Sound to prevail by one stroke over Bruce Lietzke and Brad Bryant. Appeared out of contention after being 1-over through 10 holes in his final round but birdied five of his last eight holes to win, including a 22-footer at No. 17 to draw even with Bryant. With Bryant already finished, he two-putted for a birdie from 23 feet at No. 18 to claim the title... Won the following week near Naples at The ACE Group Classic. Trailing by two strokes after 36 holes but a closing, 4-under-par 68 included a critical birdie on the 18th hole that eventually got him into a playoff with Tom Kite, Tom Jenkins and Bryant. Made an 8-foot birdie on the first extra hole to win. Victory gave him multiple wins in a season for the first time since 2001 on the PGA TOUR... Almost won a third Florida title at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Was tied with Tom Watson for the lead standing in the 18th fairway on the last day but eventually missed a 4-foot par putt that dropped him into a T2 with Jay Haas...Also T2 in defense of his FedEx Kinko's Classic crown. Had a chance to join Denis Watson in a playoff but missed a long birdie attempt at the last hole...On the leaderboard during the weekend at the Senior PGA Championship and eventually finished T3 at Oak Hill, two strokes back of Jay Haas...Made his first appearance on the PGA TOUR since 2005 at The Honda Classic and was T65 at PGA National...Closed his season by teaming with Kenny Perry to win the unofficial Merrill Lynch Shootout by four strokes over Boo Weekley and J.B. Holmes in Naples, FL, site of his Champions Tour win earlier in the year at The ACE Group Classic. 2007: In first full season on the Champions Tour, broke through for victory at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, prevailing by two strokes over D.A. Weibring near Austin, TX. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s and made just one bogey in the 54-hole event. Win came in just his 10th start on the Champions Tour. 2006: Spent majority of the season rehabbing left hand from surgery in October 2005...Made his Champions Tour debut at the Constellation Energy Classic in September and shot 72-70-69 to T27 at Hayfields CC. Appearance in Maryland was his first tournament on any TOUR since March 2005 when he reinjured the same hand during the Bay Hill Invitational and withdrew after the opening round...Two weeks later, was T8 at the rain-shortened SAS Championship near his native Raleigh, NC, shooting rounds of 69-71 at Prestonwood CC.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was perhaps the PGA TOUR's most consistent performer from 1982 through 2002 when he finished among the top 40 on the money list every year during that 20-year span except for 1992 when surgery to repair a shoulder injury slowed him...Collected 160 top-10s in his PGA TOUR career...Last of 11 PGA TOUR victories came at the 2003 Ford Championship at Doral, his fifth win since turning 40. Shared the third-round lead with Bob Tway, then went on to defeat Jim Furyk with birdie on the third extra hole. Play was suspended due to darkness on Sunday night while both players were on the green on the second playoff hole. First Monday finish since the 2001 Buick Classic. $900,000 paycheck was the largest of his career. Victory in Miami gave him the 10th-longest span between first and last wins (22 years, seven months and 21 days) in PGA TOUR history...Had his career year in money earnings in 2001 when at age 45, he made $2,875,319 (seventh on money list) and claimed a pair of tournament titles. Became the first 45-year-old to win twice in a single season since Hale Irwin in 1990. Only Julius Boros (age 47 and 48 in 1967 and '68), Sam Snead (age 47 in 1960), Kenny Perry (age 47 and 48 in 2008 and 2009) and Irwin had won multiple times at age 45 or older...Victory at 2001 Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic was first in 94 starts and at 45 years, five months and five days, made him the oldest TOUR winner since Tom Watson won the 1998 MasterCard Colonial at age 48...Fired a closing-round 64 to claim the Advil Western Open, edging Davis Love III by a stroke. 267 total broke the tournament record set by Sam Snead in 1949 and equaled by Chi Chi Rodriguez in 1964... First victory came in rookie season of 1980, winning first

It was his 197th career top-10 Champions Tour finish, leaving him second in that category behind Bob Charles, who has 203. Performance on the Big Island of Hawaii was his best in a Champions Tour event since finishing second at the 2007 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and, along with sixth-place finish at the 2009 AT&T Championship, gave him back-to-back top-10s for the first time since spring of 2007. Carded three consecutive sub-70 rounds at Hualalai, a first for him since the 2007 Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach...Played in his 1,000th combined PGA TOUR-Champions Tour event when he teed it up at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am in April...Notched his 198th top-10 finish when he and teammate Larry Nelson finished T8 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April in Savannah...Matched his age for the first time when he shot a 6-under-par 65 in the opening round at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio in October...Tied a Champions Tour record when he hit all 42 fairways at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn. Calvin Peete set the mark in 1996 at the VFW Senior Championship and Ed Dougherty later matched it at the 2005 The ACE Group Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Received Ambassador of Golf Award at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in August. The award is annually given by the Northern Ohio Golf Charities, presented annually to a person who has fostered the ideals of the game on an international level and whose concern for others extends beyond the golf course...Ended a string of 41 consecutive starts without a top-10 finish when he closed the year with a sixth-place finish at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. Made just one bogey over his final 36 holes...Went over the $25-million mark in earnings with $8,610 check for a T43 finish at The Cap Cana Championship. 2008: Did not register a top-10 finish during the season for the first time in his Champions Tour career and saw streak of years among the top-30 money winners end at 13...Best finish was a solo 12th at the 3M Championship, posting three straight sub-par scores in an event for the only time during the year...Only other top-20 performance was a T18 at the Allianz Championship. 2007: Was a five-stroke winner at the season-opening MasterCard Championship at Hualalai in Hawaii. Tied his career-low round on the Champions Tour with a second-round, 10-under 62 and was never threatened Sunday on his way to his 45th career Champions Tour victory. It was his ninth win in the Aloha State, including eight on the Champions Tour, and it was also his second victory in the event. Win at Hualalai also marked the 13th time he had won the same event on the Champions Tour, and his 23-under-par total of 193 was his career-low total in a 54-hole Champions Tour event...Eclipsed the $30-million mark in combined career (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour) earnings when he finished T7 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 2006: Did not win an event for the first time since joining the Champions Tour (streak was 11 in a row) and did not win at least $1 million in a season (streak ended at 10). In addition, record streak of top-10 finishes on the money list ended at 11...Best performance of the year came in defense of his title at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, a T2 at TPC Tampa Bay after holding a one-stroke lead with two holes remaining. 2005: Enjoyed another record-setting year as he led all players with four wins and narrowly missed earning $2 million for the eighth time in his career...Made history in late January when he rolled to a five-stroke victory at the Turtle Bay Championship. Win gave him five straight titles at the event, the first time a player had ever won a PGA TOUR-sanctioned tournament five straight times. Win was also his sixth overall at the event and was his 100th top-three finish in his 230th start on the Champions Tour...Won his 42nd career title at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Monday finish resulted in a one-stroke victory over Morris Hatafsky and Mark McNulty. Found himself one stroke back of Hatafsky after playing three holes on Sunday before play was suspended for the day. Eventually made two birdies and a 5-foot par save on the final hole to prevail on Monday afternoon. Win in Tampa was his 22nd different tournament victory and ran his streak of years with multiple titles to a record 11 straight seasons...Won for the 43rd time on the Champions Tour when he prevailed by one stroke over Craig Stadler, Morris Hatafsky and Gil Morgan at the Walmart First Tee Open. Shared the 36-hole lead with Morgan, and his final-round, 4-under-par 68 made him the year's first three-time champion. The win also marked the 12th time a player won a Champions Tour and PGA TOUR on the same venue (he also did it at Riviera CC near Los Angeles) and made him the 14th player over age 60 (60 years, 3 months, 1 day) to win a Champions Tour event...Added a fourth title and 44th career crown when he was a two-stroke victor at the SAS Championship near Raleigh in October. Entered the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader R.W. Eaks, but eventually won by two strokes over Bob Gilder and Tom Jenkins. Led the Schwab Cup race for 11 weeks during the summer and then slipped into second place for four weeks before regaining the top spot for good after his runner-up finish at the Administrivia Small Business Classic...Survived a grueling week at Valhalla to claim his fourth Senior PGA Championship and his 40th career Champions Tour title. Two-putted from 40 feet to birdie the 72nd hole to claim the weather-plagued event by one stroke over Jay Haas. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T17—Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, The Cap Cana Championship; T25—Toshiba Classic, Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

Injuries once again played havoc with his year, limiting him to 14 events and just one start in the final three months of the season—at the Administaff Small Business Classic in late October...After suffering from persistent pain in his left leg stemming from nerve damage in his

L-3 and L-4 discs, underwent back surgery on August 16. Surgery was performed by Dr. Michael Weiss at the Laser Spine Institute in Scottsdale, AZ...Posted two T17 finishes during the year, which were his best outings. First was at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and the second came at The Cap Cana Championship in the Dominican Republic...Withdrew from the U.S. Senior Open in late July after an opening-round 74 at Sahalee due to back problems.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Made eight official starts but did not play his first event until early June at the Triton Financial Classic in Austin. During preparation for 2009 season, damaged his rotator cuff in left shoulder and underwent surgery on Jan. 16, with Dr. Michael Havig in Naples, FL...Best performance of the season came in his last appearance at the AT&T Championship. Final-round 66 was his best round since early 2008 and vaulted him into a T22 in San Antonio. 2008: Season was reduced due to right-knee replacement surgery on April 2 in Naples, FL, and subsequent rehabilitation. Returned to action in late June at the Commerce Bank Championship (T74) but only played two more events shortly thereafter and none after the U.S. Senior Open in early August...Played in only seven official events and finished T13 twice. Was T13 at The ACE Group Classic in mid-February and again at the 3M Championship in late July...In late February, grabbed a win with Fuzzy Zoeller at the unofficial Wendy's Champions Skins Game. The pair won the final skin worth $100,000 on the first playoff hole to capture the title at Royal Ka'anapali GC on Maui. 2007: Riddled by lower-back issues throughout the year. Withdrew from The ACE Group Classic prior to the start of the second round and subsequently underwent micro-surgery on his lower back at the Laser Spine Institute in Tampa, FL, in early March...Came back just over a week later to T5 at the Toshiba Classic in California. Carded a second-round, 7-under 64 at Newport Beach, matching his career-low score on the Champions Tour... Was then forced to withdraw from the AT&T Champions Classic the following week and did not play again until late May after undergoing additional procedures in late March...Withdrew again before the final round of the JELD-WEN Tradition with lower-back issues...Was T10 in his final appearance of the season at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Sandwiched rounds of 68 around a second-round 74. 2006: Season came to a halt in late July when subsequent left-hip problems forced him to the sidelines after the Senior British Open. Eventually had left hip-replacement surgery September 9 in Naples, Fla. and did not return to competition despite earning a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the third consecutive year...Best showing was a T3 at the U.S. Senior Open. After an opening round, 2-over-par 72, followed with three consecutive rounds in the 60s to remain among the leaders throughout the final three rounds. Was 3-under-par after eight holes Sunday, but his undoing was a double bogey on No. 9 and a bogey at No. 11...Hobbled by a sore right knee at the start of the season and eventually had a series of synthetic cartilage injections in hopes of avoiding knee replacement... Finished T4 in the AT&T Classic at Valencia and then made a spirited run on the final day of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf before finishing T2 behind Jay Haas. 2005: Was a top-30 finisher despite knee woes which limited him to just 10 Champions Tour starts. Initially underwent surgery on his right knee at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, CO, on Feb. 14 and was out of action until THE PLAYERS

Championship at the end of March, where he missed the cut. Had surgery on the same knee again on September 7 at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic to remove floating pieces of torn cartilage and returned in late October at the FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort...Just prior to the second surgery, knee problems forced him to withdraw from the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before the start of the final round...Highlight of the campaign came in July when he picked up his second win in a major championship on the Champions Tour, nipping Hale Irwin by one stroke at the Ford Senior Players Championship near Detroit. Key birdies on two of the final three holes were instrumental in his come-from-behind win. Had started the final round three strokes behind Irwin but closed with a 6-under-par 66 for the win. Victory made him just one of three golfers (Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus) whose first two Champions Tour wins came in major championships...Finished T10 at the season-opening MasterCard Championship and then did not play again on the Champions Tour until the Blue Angels Classic near Pensacola in early May. Opened and closed with rounds of 65 to T3 at The Moors, three strokes out of a playoff... Played in 11 events on the PGA TOUR and made the cut in five of them, including the U.S. Open at Pinehurst No. 2 where he finished T15. It was his first start in the U.S. Open since 1996 (T23) and earned an exemption into the tournament after winning the 2004 U.S. Senior Open. It was his first made-cut in a major on the PGA TOUR since the 1997 PGA Championship (T67). Made a hole-in-one on 175-yard No. 9 (7-iron) on Saturday, which led to a one-under 69 in the third round, his first sub-70 performance at a PGA TOUR major championship since posting a 69 in the final round of the 1996 British Open and his first score in the 60s at a U.S. Open since shooting 64 during the final round of the 1998 event at The Country Club in Brookline, MA. 2004: Officially joined the Champions Tour at the SBC Classic in March shortly after turning 50, but subsequent left hip surgery in April kept him out of action on the Tour for nearly three months...Highlight of his season came in his third start on the Champions Tour in late July when he was one-stroke victor over Hale Irwin in the U.S. Senior Open near St. Louis. Posted rounds of 69-68 Sunday, despite walking all 36 holes in 90-degree heat at Bellerive with a sore left hip. Became the second-youngest champion in U.S. Senior Open history at 50 years, 4 months, 28 days (Dale Douglass is youngest at 50/3/24)...Nearly won his second major title less than a month later. Shared the third-round lead with Vicente

Fernandez at the JELD-WEN Tradition near his home in Portland, but couldn't hang on in Sunday's final round. Was among a half-dozen players slugging it out down the stretch on Sunday's back nine but saw his chances go awry when he made a double bogey at No. 17. Birdied the final hole, but his closing-round, 1-over-par 73 left him T4...Appeared to be in the driver's seat down the stretch at the inaugural Administaff Small Business Classic but dumped his second shot in the water from a fairway bunker on the par-5 final hole and fell one stroke short of a playoff with Hale Irwin and eventual winner Larry Nelson...Had to withdraw from both the Ford Senior Players Championship and the Senior British Open with hip problems prior to his U.S. Senior Open win...Finished third in his Champions Tour debut at the SBC Classic at Valencia in early March. Was among the first-round leaders after opening with 5-under 67...After almost three months away from competition, was tied for the first-round lead at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic after establishing his career-best score on the Champions Tour, a 6-under 64 on Friday...Had undergone left-hip surgery in early April to repair a torn labrum and did not play again until early July at Eisenhower Park.

Defeated Chris Riley by two strokes at the TPC River Highlands. Victory came 19 years since last win at Hartford (1984), joining Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Paul Azinger and Phil Mickelson as multiple winners of the event. Triumph also came in his 27th season on the PGA TOUR (624th career tournament), making him seventh-oldest winner in TOUR history at 49 years, 4 months, 23 days. 2010 SEASON:

Will be conditionally-exempt for the 2011 after claiming the 50th spot on the 2010 money list...His lone top-10 finish came in May when he posted rounds of 69-69 on the weekend to finish T4 at the inaugural Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic...Played some of his best golf over the final month of the season, posting three top-20 finishes, including a T11 at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and a T13 at the AT&T Championship, where a final-round 68 allowed him to claim the 50th position on the money list.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Started year with limited status but took advantage of 17 starts with five top-10 finishes and narrowly missed on a trip to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship when Phil Blackmar won the AT&T Championship, the last full-field event of the year...Was T4 at the Allianz Championship on The Old Course at Broken Sound, his top effort of the campaign. Put together a string of six consecutive birdies in the opening round, the best birdie streak on the Champions Tour that season...Also teamed with Des Smyth to finish T5 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. The pair fired consecutive 10-under-par 62s on the weekend in the better-ball event...Also won the Son Gual Mallorca Senior Open in Spain in early May on the European Seniors Tour, defeating Eamonn Darcy with a birdie on the third playoff hole. 2008: A T5 showing in the final full-field event of the year paid dividends, allowing him to grab the 50th and final conditionally-exempt slot on the final 2008 money list...Had entered the AT&T Championship 57th on the money list, but after opening with an 8-under-par 63, followed with rounds of 68-70 to earn $68,200 and jump from 57th to 50th on the money list. Was the first-round leader in the event after his Champions Tour, career-best, 8-under 63 Friday in San Antonio. Round included six consecutive birdies to start the back nine, matching the best birdie streak of the year...Only other top-10 finishing during the campaign came in May when he was T10 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic near Austin. 2007: Was back among the top 30 money winners after a season which saw him win his third Champions Tour title...After spending three weeks skiing in the French Alps, he made his initial appearance on the Champions Tour at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton, and won the event, defeating Jay Haas by two strokes. Found himself in a three-way tie for the lead with Craig Stadler and Haas through 36 holes but eventually prevailed despite playing his last 10 holes in even par. Victory was his third career title on the Champions Tour and second win in Florida...Was the first-round leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and trailed by one stroke after 36 holes. Appeared to be in the driver's seat but eventually placed third in Savannah after three-putting the final two holes for bogeys. 2006: Missed a trip to the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship by $17,359 when Mark McNulty jumped him with T7 effort at AT&T Championship in San Antonio, the last full-field event of the year...Played his best early in the year...Finished T2 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Shared the second-round lead with Hale Irwin and Mark McNulty and remained in contention until a bogey on the 17th hole left him one stroke shy of winner Jerry Pate, along with Morris Hatalsky and Irwin...At the FedEx Kinko's Classic, finished T2 after rounds of 69-67 on the weekend, two strokes shy of winner Jay Haas...Led the Champions Tour in Total Driving for the second time in three years, becoming the first international player to claim the top spot in this category twice. 2005: Finished in the top 30 on the money list for the second consecutive year and earned a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...In his third start of the season he won his second title (in his 23rd career start) at The ACE Group Classic in mid-February. Edged Hale Irwin and Tom Wargo by two strokes with birdies on the final two holes. Was the only player in the field to record three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Club at TwinEagles...Had another strong finish in the next-to-last event of the year in San Antonio at the SBC Championship, solo third at Oak Hills...On the European Seniors Tour, won the Bovis Lend Lease European Senior Masters title in a one-hole playoff against Sam Torrance at the Woburn GC in England. 2004: Enjoyed highly successful rookie season and played some of his best golf in the Champions Tour majors...Claimed one of the year's biggest prizes when he was a one-stroke victor over Jose Maria Canizares at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Win near Detroit was the first by a European-born player in a Champions Tour major championship, and he earned a career-best check for $375,000 in Michigan. Started with three straight rounds in the 60s but a 1-over-par 73 was good enough to hold off Canizares by one stroke for the title...Followed his win in Michigan with another strong showing at the Senior British Open in Northern Ireland, placing fourth, two strokes behind winner Pete Oakley at Royal Portrush...Earned July Player of the Month honors as a result of his outstanding play...Made his debut on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic

2010 SEASON:

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Among the top 30 for the 10th time in 12 years and, at age 61, finished 22nd on the final money list for the second consecutive year. Was one of three players over age 60 to earn a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Was T4 in three events, all coming before mid-May. In his opening start of the season in Florida, shared the 36-hole lead with Gil Morgan at the Allianz Championship before shooting a final-round 71, which left him T4 with Morgan and Mark James...In early March, was T4 again at the Toshiba Classic, making just two bogeys in the event and posting three consecutive rounds in the 60s at Newport Beach CC...Added another T4 finish in May at the rain-shortened Regions Charity Classic in Birmingham after carding rounds of 68-69...Also used rounds of 68-67 on the weekend to finish T6 at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa and was T8 at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. 2008: Had a strong effort early in the campaign in Naples, where he was T2 at The ACE Group Classic. Led by two strokes after 36 holes but missed critical birdie opportunities on his final two holes to eventually finish in a four-way tie. Was joined in the extra session by Scott Hoch, Brad Bryant and Tom Kite. Hoch made a birdie on the first extra hole for the win...Also finished T2 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in mid-September. Was tied for the 36-hole lead with R.W. Eaks but carded a final-round 75 and finished in a tie for the runner-up spot with Tom Kite, four strokes back om Eaks. His 19 birdies in the Hickory event were the most made in a 2008 event. Underwent surgery on his left knee in December to repair a torn medial meniscus. 2007: Streak of years among the top-30 money-winners ended at eight straight after finishing 31st in earnings, just $4,079 back of Jim Thorpe for the 30th spot which would have qualified him for the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Pocketed $600,959, ending his run of consecutive million-dollar seasons at eight straight, as well...Best effort among five top-10s was a T4 at the AT&T Champions Classic in March. 2006: Broke through for his seventh career victory when he was a one-stroke winner over Loren Roberts and Chip Beck at the weather-shortened SAS Championship near Raleigh. Fired rounds of 68-66 and held a one-stroke margin following Saturday's round before overnight rains forced cancellation of the final round. Picked up $300,000 for his win, the largest check of his career...Also lost to John Harris in a playoff in the Commerce Bank Championship at the Red Course at Eisenhower Park. Was the 36-hole leader in the event but was caught by Harris on the final day despite shooting a 2-under 69 in the final round. Made a sparkling par save on the first hole of overtime only to lose to a birdie by Harris moments later...Fired a tournament record-tying and career-best, 11-under-par 61 at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic which led to a T3 finish. 2005: Earned a career-best total of nearly $1.484 million which placed him sixth on the money list, his highest standing ever...Won for the sixth time on the Champions Tour, defeating D.A. Weibring with a 5-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole at the Allianz Championship near Des Moines. Birdied four of six holes during one stretch on the back nine and kept his composure after missing a 3-foot birdie putt on No. 17 that would have given him the win in regulation. Win capped a run of five top-five finishes in six appearances that started when he was the runner-up to Des Smyth at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Also finished T2 at the SAS Championship, two strokes behind Hale Irwin who played the final nine holes in 6-under-par... Was T2 earlier in the year at the Bruno's Memorial Classic... Made his third career ace on the Champions Tour during the second round of the 3M Championship (4-iron, 200 yards, No. 13). Hole-in-one in Minnesota was his 12th eagle of the season. Eventually finished with 17 eagles which led all Champions Tour players. 2004: Lone victory came in April when a final-round 63 helped him cruise to a five-stroke win at the Blue Angels Classic, his fifth career title on the Champions Tour. Moved into contention with a second-round 65 at The Moors and then vaulted into the lead for good with birdies on three of his first four holes Sunday... Second to Craig Stadler at the SAS Championship in September and finished three shots behind D.A. Weibring at the Allianz Championship. 2003: Tied Allen Doyle for the most sub-par rounds during the year (64) and 41 of his 94 total rounds were in the 60s (T2)... Highlight of his season came in early May when he registered his fourth career win on the Champions Tour at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Broke away from Bruce Fleisher and Hale Irwin with a final-round 67 for a three-stroke victory. Needed just 78 total putts over 54 holes at Greystone and became eligible for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (five combined career titles) as a result of his triumph near Birmingham... Came close to winning earlier in the year in Mexico, but along with three other players, fell one stroke short of first-time winner David Eger at the MasterCard Classic... His 7-under-par 63 in the final round at the Long Island Classic included a 6-under 28 on the front nine, the season's lowest numerical nine-hole score... Joined John Bland as the only other Champions Tour player with multiple aces during the year. First made a hole-in-one in the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition when he aced No. 7 at The Reserve with a 4-iron from 203 yards and then notched his seventh career ace in the second round of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he used a 9-iron from 138 yards on No. 17 at Sonoma GC. Was T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship, his top effort in a senior major (since equalled at 2005 Senior PGA Championship and 2005 JELD-WEN Tradition). 2002: Won north of the border for the second time when he triumphed at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Opened with a 63 at Essex and closed with 64 to defeat Walter Morgan, Morris Hatalsky and Bruce Lietzke by three strokes. In winning, became first player since Don January (1983-84) to win multiple Champions Tour titles in Canada... Made strong bid for second win of the year, closing with a career-best 10-under-par 62 at the Kroger Senior Classic, which also tied the course record set earlier in the day by Bruce Lietzke. However, fell in a two-hole playoff with Bob Gilder, the second year in succession he lost in a playoff at the event... T10 at the Toshiba Senior Classic after playing all 54 holes without a bogey, the first senior to do so since Joe Inman at the 2000 EMC Kaanapali Classic. 2001: The only one of 16 millionaires that season who did not win an event... Knocked on the victory door three times only to come up short with three runner-up finishes. Was in the hunt throughout The Instinet Classic, but finished two strokes back of Gil Morgan. One of only three players in the Novell Utah Showdown field to card three consecutive sub-70 rounds, but came up one stroke shy of Steve Veriato in Park City. Had victory snatched from his grasp at the Kroger Senior Classic. Closed with a then-career-best 7-under 63 at Kings Island on Sunday and was two strokes up on Jim Thorpe with one hole to play. Dramatic eagle by Thorpe forced a playoff and then a birdie by Thorpe on the first extra hole proved to be the winner. 2000: Earned his second career title as a senior at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Made birdie on the final hole to nip Kermit Zarley by a stroke at St. Charles CC in Winnipeg. Victory came just over a month after his wife, Martha, delivered Tom Jr. 1999: Voted by his peers as the Champions Tour's Comeback Player of the Year... Won the Bell Atlantic Classic in a playoff. Defeated Jim Thorpe with a birdie on the first extra hole for his first Champions Tour victory and first TOUR title since the 1975 IVB-Philadelphia Classic. Win at Hartefeld National made him the fifth of a record 11 first-time winners on the season. 1998: Contended for the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship crown in Calgary, but finished T2 behind Brian Barnes. 1997: Earned a conditional exemption for 1998 by placing 10th at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in November.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

3—Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach; 4—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T8—U.S. Senior Open.

2010 SEASON:

Narrowly missed finishing in the top 20 on the money list for the 11th straight time in his Champions Tour career when he was 21st on the final list. Still earned his 11th consecutive trip to the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the top-30 money winners and finished ninth at TPC Harding Park, his eighth top-10 finish in his 11 appearances. His 11 consecutive appearances are the best current streak on the Champions Tour, and his eight top-10 finishes tied him with Gil Morgan in that category, just one shy of Hale Irwin's record nine top-10s in the season finale. For the third consecutive year recorded seven top-10 finishes during the season, highlighted by a pair of third-place efforts. The first came at the inaugural Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic near Biloxi, his best since near the end of the 2009 season. The second came in California where he was the only player in the field to post three straight rounds in the 60s at the Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and eventually finished T3 after being tied for the lead with one hole to play. Also was solo fourth at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am when he carded rounds of 68-67 at the TPC Tampa Bay. Did not have a chance to improve his position in the event after heavy rains on Sunday morning washed out the final round. Performance was his best in this event in 10 career appearances. Was T8 at the U.S. Senior Open at Sahalee. Was in good shape for a top-five finish until making a 9 at the par-4 16th hole on Sunday. Was T9 at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn in October. Also posted a T11 finish at The ACE Group Classic in his first start since off-season shoulder surgery. Rebounded from a 2-over-par 74 in the second round with a closing-round, 3-under-par 69. Saw his string of consecutive appearances in major championships on the Champions Tour come to a halt at 48 straight when he did not play the Senior British Open in July at Carnoustie. Made one PGA TOUR start but missed the cut at the Puerto Rico Open presented by Banco Popular.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Underwent surgery on Nov. 4 to repair a torn bicep tendon in his left shoulder, which troubled him most of the season. Was among the top-30 money-winners for the 10th consecutive year and earned another trip to the season-ending event in Sonoma, CA. Nearly ended his winless streak in his home state (0 for 126) in the last full-field event of the season. Closed with a 68 to finish T2 at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, his best showing in 23 starts in Texas on the Champions Tour. Fired three straight rounds in the 60s at TPC Twin Cities in July to earn a fourth-place finish at the 3M Championship in July. Was among the contenders through two rounds of The Principal Charity Classic. Final-round 69 allowed him to finish T6 in Iowa. One week later, he grabbed a T7 finish at the Triton Financial Classic near his home in Austin, TX. Was in the 60s all four rounds of the Senior British Open and eventually finished T8 at Sunningdale. Trained by just one stroke after 54 holes at the Senior PGA Championship before he shot a final-round, 5-over-par 75 to finish T14. Started the year with a T11 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and at one point in the event, made birdie or better (nine birdies, one eagle) on 10 consecutive par-5s. 2008: Continued to be a force on the Champions Tour and made his ninth straight trip to the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the top-30 money winners. Will go into the 2009 season with the longest streak on Tour in that category. One of 19 players to reach $1 million in season earnings, the eighth time in nine seasons he has done so. Highlight of his year came in August when he posted his first win in two years, beating Scott Simpson by two strokes at the Boeing Classic. He came from three strokes behind in the final round to earn his 10th career Champions Tour title. Needed just 78 putts in his victory to lead all players in that category. It also marked the second time in this event Kite had begun the final round three strokes behind. He trailed Don Pooley by that margin in 2006 when he came from behind to win. Three weeks following his Boeing title, used a final-round 67 at Rock Barn to finish T2 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Sunday score matched the low round of the day. Continued his good fortune in North Carolina one week later when he was runnerup to Eduardo Romero at the SAS Championship near Raleigh. Also finished T2 at The ACE Group Classic in Naples in February, where his 7-under 65 in the closing round helped him join three others in a playoff (Scott Hoch, Tom Jenkins and Brad Bryant), eventually won by Hoch with a birdie on the first extra hole. Was the first-round leader at the Bank of America Championship following a 9-under-par 63, matching the tournament scoring record. Made his first PGA TOUR appearance since the 2006 Booz Allen Classic when he played in the Puerto Rico Open. Missed the cut (77-74) at Trump International GC, a course he designed. 2007: Earned the most money of any player without registering a victory. Resume included three runner-up finishes as well as a trio of third-place efforts. Got his season off to a great start with successive T2 finishes in Hawaii. Shared the runner-up spot with Jim Thorpe at the MasterCard

Championship at Hualalai before joining a group of four others who were second to Fred Funk at the Turtle Bay Championship the following week...Made a spirited bid for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in Savannah, eventually falling to Jay Haas on the first playoff hole when he missed a par putt of 5 1/2 feet. Was in contention throughout and final-round 68 allowed him to post a 9-under 207 two groups before Haas finished. Haas forced overtime with a sand save from the greenside bunker at the last hole in regulation...Solo third at the Administaff Small Business Classic late in the season and then finished T3 the following week at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. Held a share of the lead with Mark O'Meara through 36 holes at Oak Hills and was the sole leader with nine holes to play before eventually coming up three strokes short of John Cook...Also T3 at the Regions Charity Classic, where he shot a 6-under on the back nine Sunday to just miss by a stroke getting into the Brad Bryant-R.W. Eaks playoff. 2006: Bounced back from a winless 2005 season in a big way. Nearly doubled his previous year's money total as well as picking up two victories and a fourth-place finish on the final money list...Cruised to an easy five-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the AT&T Classic and, in the process, ended a victory drought of just over 19 months (30 events). Win at Valencia was his 10th on TOUR in the state of California (six on the PGA TOUR; four on the Champions Tour) and third in the Los Angeles area. Joined Joe Imman and Gil Morgan as a multiple winner of the event. Five-stroke winning margin was the largest in tournament history as well, one of the three largest on the Champions Tour for the year. Moved into the lead with an 8-under 64 in the second round that matched the course record...Added a second title in August at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic when he prevailed in a one-hole playoff with fellow Texan Keith Fergus. Made a birdie-4 on the first extra hole to post his ninth career Champions Tour win and third in a playoff. It marked the first time he had earned multiple victories in a season since 2002. Needed just 72 putts on his way to victory and led all players in that category...Shot a bogey-free, final-round 64 at TPC Twin Cities to jump into a T4 at the 3M Championship. Along with eventual-winner David Edwards, missed only one fairway (41 of 42/97.6 percent) in Minnesota...His performance during the month of August earned him Player of the Month honors...Surpassed the $20-million mark in career earnings when he finished T22 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April...Notched his top performance in Texas by finishing T2, two strokes behind Jay Haas...Closed out his season with a strong showing at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Contended all four rounds before eventually finishing second, two strokes behind winner Jim Thorpe at the Sonoma GC. Made headlines at the tournament when he made a pair of eagles on par 4s (Nos. 9 and 11) in the opening round, becoming the first player to accomplish the feat since Larry Ziegler at the 1999 Nationwide Championship. Came back the following day with a third par-4 eagle (again No. 11)...His runner-up effort helped him place third in the final Charles Schwab Cup race which earned him a $300,000 annuity...Finished the season second in the All-Around statistical category behind Jay Haas. 2005: Split his time between the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR where he used his one-time exemption as one of the PGA TOUR's top-50 money winners...On the Champions Tour, appeared in 18 events, fewest since he joined the Tour...Was T2 at Bruno's Memorial Classic, where he tied the course record with a 9-under-par 63 in the second round. Led the tournament at one point Sunday before finishing two strokes behind D.A. Weirbring, along with Tom Jenkins...Also had a second-place finish at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August, but three straight rounds in the 60s still left him three strokes shy of David Eger...Closed his Champions Tour season in strong fashion, finishing solo third at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Made a valiant run at becoming the oldest PGA TOUR winner ever. Was the 54-hole leader at the Booz Allen Classic at Congressional CC, but carded a final-round, 3-over 74 on the famed layout to T13, his best PGA TOUR finish since a T5 at the 2001 U.S. Open...Also made cuts at the Sony Open in Hawaii and the Wachovia Championship...Overall made 12 starts on the PGA TOUR. 2004: Started slowly for the second consecutive year, but went on to finish third on the final earnings list, his highest standing ever, with more than $1.8 million, a career best. Also placed third on the final Charles Schwab Cup points list...Had more top-five finishes than any other Champions Tour player, with all 10 top-fives coming after the start of May. Led the Champions Tour in sub-par rounds (58) and also had 39 rounds in the 60s (second to Irwin) out of 86 (45 percent) played...Ended nearly a 22-month victory drought by winning the 3M Championship, his seventh overall title on the Champions Tour, and came close to winning on several other occasions. One-stroke win over Craig Stadler at TPC Twin Cities came during the midst of five consecutive top-five performances and was his first victory in 47 official starts on the Champions Tour. Took the lead with a 13-foot birdie putt on the 13th hole and then used a clutch two-putt birdie from 68 feet on the final green to notch the win...The week prior, had led for most of the last 36 holes of the U.S. Senior Open, but played the last four holes at Bellerive in 4-over to drop back into a T3 with Jay Haas...Was in contention the week earlier for all four days at the Senior British Open at Royal Portrush GC before falling one stroke short of eventual winner Pete Oakley in Northern Ireland...Was T2 at the Bank of America Championship, four strokes back of Craig Stadler and also finished second to Mark McNulty at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship despite shooting an 8-under 64 in the first round and holding a two-stroke advantage going into the final round...Low round of the campaign was an 8-under 63 on Friday at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am...Became one of the oldest players to earn a spot in the U.S. Open when he earned a berth at a qualifying tournament near Houston. Made the field in the prestigious event for the 31st consecutive year and 33rd time overall, tying Arnold Palmer and Gene Sarazen for third all-time. Made the cut at Shinnecock Hills and finished T57. 2003: Did not win an event for the first time in four years on the Champions Tour and $1,549,819 in earnings were the most money ever in a season without a victory, breaking Dana Quigley's mark of $1,327,659 set in 1999...Made a spirited run in the final round of the SAS Championship before eventually finishing T2 along with Bobby Wadkins, one stroke back of D.A. Weirbring. Posted a career-best 11-under 61 on Sunday at Prestonwood and almost came from 11 strokes back to win. Final round included just 22 putts, with one-putts on each of the last nine holes...Also T2 at the JELD-WEN Tradition near Portland, one stroke back of Tom Watson. Missed sending the event into a playoff when he didn't convert a 5-foot birdie putt on the final hole...Equaled the TPC Michigan course record with a 63 and vaulted from 10th into a T2 at the Ford Senior Players Championship. His 9-under round was the lowest Sunday score in tournament history...Was the 36-hole leader at the Turtle Bay Championship before falling by two strokes to Hale Irwin in October. Traded leads with Irwin in the final round before hitting his second shot into the water on the 18th hole...Appeared to be in control at the Kinko's Classic in his hometown of Austin with two holes to play, but bogeys on 17 and 18 proved costly as he slipped into a T4, two strokes out of the Irwin-Watson playoff...Had more rounds in the 60s than any other player (42)...Played in the U.S. Open at Olympia Fields, but missed the cut. 2002: Three victories, equaling the total of his first two years on the circuit, and a first for him since 1989...Was a six-stroke winner at the first official event, the MasterCard Championship. Became just the third player to go wire-to-wire in the tournament after opening with a Hualalai course-record 63 that included a pair of eagles on the front nine. Victory in Hawaii made him just the fourth player to claim the season-opening event on both the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR (joining Jack Nicklaus, Al Geiberger and Don January)...Defeated Tom Watson in a playoff to win the SBC Senior Classic. Forced the overtime session with a birdie on the 18th hole and then made par on the second extra hole for the victory...Won his ninth TOUR title in the state of California near the end of the season. Held off Bruce Fleisher and Fred Gibson to win the Napa Valley Championship by one stroke despite shooting an even-par 72 on Sunday, the highest final-round score by a winner in 2002 and also the highest finish by a winner in the history of the event. Win at Silverado came 30 years after he successfully made it through the PGA TOUR Qualifying School at the same venue...Made consecutive eagles in the final round of the AT&T Canada Senior Open, a Champions Tour first since Steve Veriato made back-to-back eagles at the 2002 Gold Rush Classic...Played in four PGA TOUR events, including first Masters since 1998, but missed the cut at Augusta National...Finished T36 at THE PLAYERS Championship, the 23rd time he made the cut in the event, a tournament record...Missed the cut at the MasterCard Colonial, ending a streak of 28 straight years in which he made the cut in the Fort Worth event. 2001: Won the Gold Rush Classic by one stroke over Allen Doyle. Three-round total of 22-under 194 at Serrano CC tied an all-time 54-hole Champions Tour record in relation to par and included a 62 in the second round, 17-under 127 score after two days was the lowest first 36-hole total of the year and 15-under 129 on Saturday and Sunday was the lowest last 36-hole total in 2001. 2000: Posted first Champions Tour victory in his fifth start, a three-man playoff with Larry Nelson and Tom Watson at The Countrywide Tradition. 2010 SEASON:

Capped his stellar year by winning nearly all the Champions Tour major awards, including the Charles Schwab Cup (points leader), the Jack Nicklaus Trophy (Player of the Year) and the Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner). He also became the first Champions Tour players to win the Jack Nicklaus Trophy and the Arnold Palmer Award three consecutive years...His season earnings of $2,648,939 was the fourth-best total in Champions Tour annals, and he averaged $115,171 per start while posting five wins. The five victories were the most in a season since Craig Stadler also won five in 2004, and he was also the first international player to win five times in a season since Bob Charles in 1989...Earned Player of the Month honors for July when he claimed consecutive major titles on the Champions Tour, a first on the circuit since Tom Watson in 2003...Claimed his first major when he prevailed by one stroke over Corey Pavin at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie. Started with a 4-under-par 67 and shared the 18- and 36-hole leads before opening a three-stroke margin at the 54-hole mark. Closed with a 1-over-par 72 in the final round but still withstood a late challenge from Pavin. Victory pushed him past the

$1-million mark in season earnings for the third consecutive year and allowed him to grab the lead in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race for good. He also became the first non-U.S. player to win the tournament since Noboru Sugai in 2002. The win also earned him a berth in the 2011 British Open at Royal St. George's GC...The following week, became Germany's first USGA champion when he held off hometown favorite Fred Couples near Seattle for the U.S. Senior Open title. Three-stroke victory came as a result of four straight rounds in the 60s at Sahalee, a first in his Champions Tour career. Trained by one stroke after the first hole on Sunday but benefitted from a four-stroke turnaround at No. 2 when he birdied and Couples made triple bogey. Became the sixth different international player to triumph at the U.S. Senior Open and win made him the first foreign-born player to hold multiple major titles since Gary Player in 1987. Victory at Sahalee also was his fourth title of the season, equaling his win total for 2009...Fell short in his bid for a third straight major title when he finished T10 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Was among three players T2 after 54 holes, but his bid ended with a closing round 73...Won for the fifth time the following week when he prevailed by three strokes at the Boeing Classic. Took the 36-hole lead after a second-round, 9-under-par 63 and then battled Nick Price for much of the final round before pulling away with birdies on three of his final four holes. His fifth victory gave him 13 career titles which moved him into a tie for 17th in all-time wins on the Champions Tour. Victory near Seattle also moved him past the $2-million mark in season earnings for the third straight year, and he joined Lee Trevino (New York area) and Hale Irvin (Los Angeles area) with two victories in the same metropolitan area in a season...Started the final round at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn just one stroke off the lead but finished third despite a final-round 5-under-par 67...First of five wins in 2010 came in dramatic fashion at the Allianz Championship. After making a short birdie putt on the last hole of regulation to tie John Cook, holed a dramatic 45-foot bunker shot from a plugged lie for an eagle on the first playoff hole for the victory in front of his adopted hometown fans in Boca Raton. Victory was first on the Champions Tour since July 2009 and ended a drought of 10 appearances without a title...Second victory came near Tampa at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. His 6-iron shot to five feet and subsequent birdie putt on No. 18 proved to be the difference when play was canceled Sunday due to heavy rains during the morning. Birdie on the final hole Saturday gave him a one-stroke win over Mark O'Meara and Mike Reid...The following week teamed with Tom Lehman to finish T4 in defense of their title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Carded back-to-back rounds of 68 on the weekend at the SAS Championship to finish T4 near Raleigh...Missed the cut at the Masters after carding rounds of 71-78 at Augusta National...Played in the BMW International Open in June on the European Tour, finishing T61 in Munich...Led all players in Rounds in the 60s (49), Sub-Par Rounds (54) and Top-10 finishes (15).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Won his second consecutive Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner and also picked up his second straight Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average on the Champions Tour (68.92). It was the lowest mark since Tom Watson has a 68.81 in 2003...His 15 top-10 finishes and 68.32 final-round scoring average led all players in those categories...Went wire-to-wire in the money race after getting his year off to a fast start with a win at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, his fifth Champions Tour career title in just his 26th start. Started the final round one stroke behind Brad Bryant and held off a late charge by eventual runner-up Andy Bean for his one-shot win...Captured a second title in April when he and teammate Tom Lehman captured a two-hole playoff victory over the team of Jeff Sluman/Craig Stadler. Drained a 45-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole only to have Stadler match it moments later. However, Lehman ended the playoff with a par on the second extra hole in Savannah...Became the first player to go over the $1-million mark for the season when he ran away from the field at the Triton Financial Classic. His six-stroke, wire-to-wire victory, his third of the year, was the largest winning margin in tournament history and his 54-hole total of 15-under-par 201 tied the tournament mark set in 2007 by Scott Hoch. The win was his third in Texas on the Champions Tour...Continued his stellar play in his next start on the Champions Tour. Sank a 20-foot eagle chip on the final hole to claim the 3M Championship by one stroke over Bean at TPC Twin Cities in July. In the process, he became the first player to win an event with an eagle on the final hole since Loren Roberts at the 2006 Turtle Bay Championship...Competed at the BMW International Open on the European Tour in late June and turned in a strong performance. Was second to Retief Goosen after 54 holes but closed with an even-par 72 to eventually T9 in Germany in an event won by Nick Dougherty. It was his first top-10 finish on that Tour since he was T3 at the 2007 KLM Open in the Netherlands...Competed in a second European Tour event in September when he took a hiatus from the Champions Tour and finished T23 at the Mercedes-Benz Championship in Cologne. The following week was T5 in defense of his title at the Casa Serena Open in Prague on the European Seniors Tour...Selected as the Champions Tour Player of the Month for January/February and again in June...Finished fourth in the final Charles Schwab Cup race. 2008: Was a major force in his first full season on the Champions Tour and was the only player to finish among the top 10 in all five senior majors...Won the Arnold Palmer Award as the Champions Tour's leading money winner, with $2,035,073 and narrowly earned the Byron Nelson Award as the scoring leader over Jay Haas. Finished with a 69.65 to 69.66 for Haas...Finished third in the Charles Schwab Cup race, only 96 points behind Haas and went on to earn Player of the Year honors...Tied for second in top-10 finishes with Haas, one shy of John Cook's Champions Tour's best 15...Named the Player of the Month in March as a result of a pair of victories and a T5 run during the month. First battled Haas over the course of seven playoff holes to claim the Toshiba Classic title. Started the final round with a three-stroke lead but had to hole a 12-foot birdie putt on the 54th hole to get into a playoff with Haas. After the pair traded punches for six holes, he emerged with his second Champions Tour title with a tap-in birdie on the seventh hole to end Haas' bid to defend his 2007 title...Claimed a second title two starts later when he steamrolled the field at The Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach. Led by two strokes after 36 holes and cruised to an easy victory in northern Florida with a final-round 71 in windy conditions, one of just three Sunday rounds under par on the Ocean Course. His $375,000 check at the Ginn event was his largest on the Champions Tour and third career title on the circuit matched his entire PGA TOUR career victory total...Added a third crown to his resume when he prevailed by two strokes over Lonnie Nielsen at the Administaff Small Business Classic in October. Trained Nielsen by one stroke after nine holes in the final round but birdied Nos. 11, 13 and 14 to grab the lead and never relinquished it as he successfully defended his title near Houston. Victory moved him back atop the money list...Was the third-round leader at the Senior PGA Championship, but final-round 76 at Oak Hill left him in second place, one stroke short of Haas...Also a distant second along with Gary Hallberg at the 3M Championship, six strokes back of R.W. Eaks...Started the season with a T3 at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai, thanks to a final-round 65...Was the 36-hole co-leader at the JELD-WEN Tradition before eventually finishing T7 in Oregon...A T7 again at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship made him the only player on the Champions Tour to finish among the top 10 in all five major championships on the circuit...Went over the $1-million mark at the Regions Charity Classic (T5), his 10th start, the first player in 2008 to hit seven-figures...Contended for much of THE PLAYERS Championship in May. Trained by just one stroke after 36 holes following a second-round, 5-under-par 67. He was T4, three strokes back after 54 holes. However, a closing-round, 5-over-par 77 in Sunday's windy conditions left him T15...Had a strong showing at the Senior British Open in late July at Royal Troon, where he was in contention throughout before slipping to fourth place overall following bogeys on the final two holes Sunday...Made a 40-foot birdie putt on the last hole of the U.S. Senior Open to post a final-round 66, the best score of the day, and jump into a T6 at The Broadmoor...Finished T37 in the BMW International Open in June on the European Tour...Claimed the inaugural Casa Serena Open on the European Seniors Tour in September in Prague, where he bested Ian Woosnam by three strokes...One week later, was T58 at the Mercedes-Benz Championship on the European Tour. 2007: Dominated the field at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston, earning his first Champions Tour title in his fourth start on the circuit. Opened the event with a course-record, 10-under 62 at Augusta Pines and eventually equaled the all-time Champions Tour 54-hole scoring mark of 25-under 191 (Loren Roberts, 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai; Bruce Fleisher, 2002 RJR Championship). Eight-stroke triumph over Mark O'Meara was the second-largest victory margin of the season...Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and T10...Also closed with a final-round 66 at the SAS Championship, the lowest Sunday round, to move into a T11 near Raleigh...Had a nice year on the PGA TOUR...Opened with a 4-under 66 at The Honda Classic en route to a T10 finish...Posted four rounds under par to finish T9 at the Shell Houston Open...Finished T10 at the Wachovia Championship, thanks to a final-round 69, which tied the low round of the day...Best finish since the 2001 FedEx St. Jude Classic (second) came in late May after firing four rounds in the 60s at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial to force a playoff with Rory Sabbatini and Jim Furyk. Missed an 8-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole to finish T2 with Furyk after Sabbatini made a 15-footer. The finish came just three months shy of his 50th birthday...Also made three starts on the European Tour and finished among the top three in two events. Was T3 at the BMW International Open in June and then T2 at the KLM Open in the Netherlands in August, where he was joined in the field by his son, Stefan...Played in the Mercedes-Benz Championship in Germany in September and was T27...Recorded a hole-in-one in the third round at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, his first PGA TOUR ace.

First American professional to win at that venue and the first since amateur Bobby Jones in 1926. Closed out his year with a dominant performance at THE TOUR Championship. After sharing the first-round lead with Vijay Singh (66), shot a 67 to open a four-stroke margin through 36 holes.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T3—Dick's Sporting Goods Open..

2010 SEASON:

Enjoyed his most-productive outing when he was T3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in June. Was the first-round leader after a 7-under-par 65 and remained in contention throughout the tournament before eventually finishing two strokes behind champion Loren Roberts. Performance in Endicott before family and friends was his best Champions Tour effort since he was third at the 2007 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, its final year using an individual stroke-play format. Final-round 68 at the SAS Championship moved him into a T24 and included a rare two eagles on par-4 holes. Holed out his second shot on No. 2 (5-iron, 176 yards). Two holes later, he holed second shot at No. 4 (6-iron, 170 yards). It marked the first time that had happened on the Champions Tour since Tom Kite in the opening round of the 2006 Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Underwent a double-bypass heart operation in early April and was out of action until late June when he returned at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Finished T33 at En-Joie GC, shooting back-to-back 69s on the weekend. Made five starts prior to his surgery, with his best finish a T11 at The ACE Group Classic in Naples. 2008: Tumbled from 36th to 73rd on the final money list after failing to register a top-10 finish for the first time in his Champions Tour career. Best individual finish was a T20 at Dick's Sporting Goods Open in Endicott, NY, site of one of his dozen PGA TOUR titles. Also T11 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, where he teamed with Keith Fergus. 2007: Along with Andy Bean, was the 36-hole co-leader at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Eventually placed sixth at the TPC Tampa Bay after shooting a 4-over 75 in the final round, with temperatures in the low 50s and gusting winds to 30 mph. Was the early leader Sunday at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and narrowly missed getting in a playoff with Jay Haas and Tom Kite when he three-putted the final green. His T3 performance in Savannah was his best since a T3 at the Greater Seattle Classic in 2006. His second-round 65 at the Toshiba Classic was his best round on the circuit since shooting the same number in the opening round of the 2005 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. 2006: Final-round 66 vaulted him up into a T3 at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic. 2005: Was one of the hottest players on the Champions Tour during the first part of the season, with seven top-10 finishes in his first eight starts. Made impressive showing at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Fired three consecutive sub-par rounds to finish T2, four strokes behind winner Mark Johnson. Was the 36-hole leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah, but finished T3 after shooting a 76 Sunday in cool, windy conditions. Was the 36-hole co-leader the following week at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, but slid to T3 after posting a final-round 73 in Austin. Was T5 at the U.S. Senior Open in Dayton, his best performance in a major championship on the Champions Tour. 2004: Enjoyed his finest season on the Champions Tour, surpassing the $1-million mark for the first time and finishing 11th overall on the money list. Won for the second time in his career when he went wire-to-wire at the Constellation Energy Classic in early October. Held off a late charge from Hale Irwin for a two-stroke win near Baltimore. Opened with an 8-under-par 64 in his next start at the Administaff Small Business Classic and held a two-stroke margin over D.A. Weibring after 36 holes, but a closing-round 72 left him T3. Earlier was T2 at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic. Besides eventual winner Jim Thorpe, was the only other player to post three straight rounds in the 60s on Eisenhower Park's Red Course. Missed a playoff with Thorpe when his uphill 15-foot birdie putt from the fringe on the last hole came up short. 2003: Registered his first victory since the 1990 Canadian Open. Became the sixth of seven first-time winners on the Champions Tour when he triumphed by one stroke at the 3M Championship near Minneapolis in August. Put together three straight rounds in the 60s and sank a 4-foot birdie putt on the final hole to nip Gil Morgan and Morris Hatafsky for the victory. Earned $262,500, the largest check of his professional career. Victory at the TPC Twin Cities came in the midst of a run of 13 straight par-better rounds. 2002: Finished a respectable 28th on the money list in his first full year on the Champions Tour. Made his debut in early March at the SBC Senior Classic near Los Angeles and T37 at Valencia CC. Best finish among seven top-10 efforts was a T4 at the Farmers Charity Classic in Michigan. Was the 36-hole leader at the Senior PGA Championship, but faded Saturday with a 5-over 75 and eventually T6 at Firestone.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR full time from 1977-97. Had career year in 1990, for which he was selected by peers as the first PGA TOUR Player of the Year. Claimed four victories from May to September, making him the first since Curtis Strange in 1988 to win four times. Became the fifth player to earn more than $1 million in one season, finishing second to Greg Norman on the money list with $1,024,647. In near darkness, captured the BellSouth Atlanta Classic, an event he also won in 1985, by one stroke over Keith Clearwater, Larry Mize and Nick Price. Two weeks later, captured the Centel Western Open by four over Payne Stewart. Also shot four straight rounds in the 60s for a two-stroke victory at the Canon Greater Rolled in a 30-foot birdie putt on the fourth playoff hole to defeat Fred Funk after Nick Price had been eliminated on the second extra hole. Made four birdies in the last seven holes he played at Glen Oaks, including a 10-footer on No. 17 to tie Funk in regulation. Win in Des Moines was his first since the 2007 JELD-WEN Tradition (42 starts) and was his second triumph on the circuit in a playoff (2005 Bank of America Championship). Victory in Iowa also made him the first international player to win the event...Almost claimed a second title at the Senior British Open at Sunningdale in July. Final-round 64, his low round of the year, included an inward 31, but could have been better as he missed birdie putts of less than 10 feet on both the 17th and 18th holes in regulation. Eventually lost to Loren Roberts on the third playoff hole after Fred Funk had been eliminated by birdies on the first extra hole. Errant drive forced him to take a drop from an unplayable lie, handing the title to Roberts... Shared the 36-hole lead with Roberts at the Boeing Classic in late August near Seattle, but finished with a

3-over-par 75 to drop to eighth place in the final standings...Started his year by earning a T4 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai in the season-opener in Hawaii...Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month in May. 2008: Among the top-10 in 10 of 25 appearances, the most he's had in a season since 2005. All came after mid-April and, during one stretch in the summer, was among the top-10 performers in eight of 11 tournaments. Season bests came during this period when he was T3 at the Bank of America Championship and then third at the U.S. Senior Open. Opened with a 7-under-par 65 at the Bank of America event and then a pair of 70s on the weekend were good enough for third place at Nashawtuc near Boston. Was third again in August at the U.S. Senior Open at The Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, CO. Was among the leaders throughout the event, and a final-round 68 allowed him to be the last of only three players (Eduardo Romero and Fred Funk were the others) to finish under par (1-under, 279) for 72 holes. Amazingly, he was the only player in the field to go all four rounds without a three-putt green...Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn on Sunday, making an ace at the 17th hole with a 4-iron...At the SAS Championship, matched his career-low round on the Champions Tour with a 9-under 63 on Saturday. 2007: After struggling through much of the first part of the season, finally turned things around in the late summer. Did not record a top-10 finish until the JELD-WEN Tradition in August where he cruised to an easy victory in Oregon. Defeated David Edwards by five strokes, the third-largest winning margin in event history, despite making double bogey on the final hole. Was tied for the lead with Edwards after 54 holes but made four lengthy birdie putts on the front nine Sunday to pull away from the field. Victory at Crosswater was his sixth career win on the Champions Tour and first in almost two years...Turned in a strong performance in his final event of the season. After shooting a 2-over round Thursday at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, followed with rounds of 66-65-67 to finish fourth overall. 2006: Used a T7 performance at the AT&T Championship, the final full-field event of the year, to leapfrog Mark

Edged James for a spot in the Schwab Cup Championship field by $21,359...Appeared headed for victory at the Regions Charity Classic in early May near Birmingham before disaster struck. Had a two-shot cushion with two holes remaining, but a double bogey-bogey finish put him two strokes behind Brad Bryant. Hit his second shot into the water at No. 17 for a double bogey while Bryant made birdie to take over the lead. Then hit his second shot into the water at No. 18, as well, ending any chances he had for the win at the Robert Trent Jones Trail at Ross Bridge. 2005: Followed a solid rookie season with a stellar second year on the Champions Tour that saw him win twice and claim the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.41)...Ended up third on both the 2005 money list and in the Charles Schwab Cup standings...His 15 top-10s tied Dana Quigley for the most by a player that season...First found the winner's circle at the Bank of America Championship in late June. Held off Larry Nelson and a hard-charging Fuzzy Zoeller for his initial triumph at the TPC Tampa Bay...Missed almost two months (most of August and all of September) due to degenerative disks in his back, but returned to the circuit strong, posting back-to-back victories at the close of the season...Won his second title in record-setting fashion. Posted rounds of 63-65 on the weekend at Oak Hills CC and cruised to an easy victory at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Eight-stroke win over Gary McCord was the largest victory margin on the Champions Tour since Ed Dougherty won by eight strokes at the 2001 TD Waterhouse Championship. His 18-under 195 at Oak Hills shattered the tournament record and was the lowest three-round numerical score on the circuit all season. Hit 45 of 54 greens in regulation for the week, including 24 in a row at one stretch, and needed just 81 total putts...Followed San Antonio win with a come-from-behind victory at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma. Trained by five strokes entering the final round but carded a 66, the lowest Sunday score, to eke out a one-stroke victory over Kite. Became the fifth rookie to claim the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, and $440,000 was easily his largest in check in the U.S. Vaulted into the fifth position in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings with his win in Sonoma...Voted as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for October. 2003: Became eligible for the Champions Tour in late October and earned fully-exempt status for 2004 by being the medalist at both the regional qualifier at Walt Disney World and the National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Eagle Trace near Fort Lauderdale, FL. Became the fifth international player, and second consecutive, to earn medalist honors at the Q-school final when he carded a bogey-free 68 in the final round to coast to a three-stroke victory over England's Mark James. Irwin's Champions Tour record of 10 straight seasons... Ended a victory drought of more than two years when he rallied to defeat Loren Roberts at the Allianz Championship. Was two strokes down with two holes remaining, but drained a 34-foot putt on No. 17 to seize the lead when Roberts made a double bogey. After Roberts failed to make his 9-foot birdie putt on No. 18, he sealed his win with a two-putt par. It was the 24th victory of his career, tying him with Miller Barber for third place on the all-time Champions Tour victory list. His 54-hole total of 16-under-par 197 was a new tournament mark. Victory came just one week after suffering disappointment at the Senior PGA Championship. Appeared in a good position to win the event in late May near his home in Edmond, OK, but faltered with a final-round, 3-over-par 74 to finish in third place. Was the 18- and 54-hole leader at the Oak Tree GC but could not hold off Brad Bryant and eventual playoff winner Jay Haas on Sunday... Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month for June... Rallied in his 2006 debut to T5 at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. After opening with a 5-over 41 on the front nine Friday, was an amazing 25-under-par over his last 45 holes, closing with rounds of 63-62—125. His final 36-hole score of 19-under set a Champions Tour record in relation to par for consecutive rounds and was just one stroke off the all-time numerical mark. His 10-under 62 on Sunday also tied a career-best round... Finished a distant second to Tom Kite at the AT&T Classic. Underwent hernia surgery after the conclusion of the season. 2005: Saw his streak of years winning at least one event end at nine consecutive seasons, tying Miller Barber for the second longest run in Champions Tour history behind Hale Irwin (11 straight)... Pocketed $1,364,170 without claiming a title, the second-highest amount ever at the time (Tom Kite/$1,549,819/2003) without posting a victory in a season... Had several good opportunities to extend his victory run during the campaign... Was one of three players in a playoff (Dana Quigley and Tom Watson) at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic that was eventually won by Quigley with a birdie on the first extra hole. Had completed his round early Sunday before rain forced the tournament into a Monday finish... Shared the 36-hole lead with Hale Irwin at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but fell one stroke short and finished T2 despite back-to-back rounds in the 60s on the weekend... Birdied five of his last seven holes at Augusta Pines, but came up one stroke short of Mark McNulty at the Administaff Small Business Classic when he missed a 31-foot birdie putt on the final hole... Made the second hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career, and 11th overall, when he ace'd No. 9 in the final round of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn with a 4-iron from 201 yards. 2004: Highlight of his season came early during the midst of 23 consecutive par-or-better rounds, a 2004 best... Redeemed himself by winning his third SBC Classic, one year after losing the event on the final hole. Cruised to a two-stroke victory over Larry Nelson at Valencia. Win was his fifth Tour title in the Los Angeles area on a fourth different course. SBC triumph was also his 23rd career victory on the Champions Tour, tying him with Bob Charles for fourth place on the all-time wins list... Was the 36-hole leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in late April and battled Hale Irwin down the stretch before a bogey at the final hole dropped him to a T2 with Gary Koch, one stroke back of Irwin... Celebrated his 200th career start on the Champions Tour when he almost successfully defended his Kroger Classic title late in the year. Closed with a 66 at the TPC River's Bend, but lost to Bruce Summerhays by one stroke when he three-putted from 70 feet for a par-5 on the final hole... Improved his first-round score at the SBC Championship by 15 strokes with a Champions Tour career-best 9-under 62 on Saturday. Round equaled the Oak Hills course record (David Ogren/1994 Texas Open pro-am) and included 10 birdies. 2003: Third in single-season earnings, his highest standing on the money list since back-to-back second-place finishes in 1997-98... Had a two-stroke, wire-to-wire, victory over Doug Tewell at the Kroger Classic. Win was the 22nd of his illustrious career on the Champions Tour, tying him with Don January and Chi Chi Rodriguez for fifth place on the all-time victory list. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s and won the event near Cincinnati for the second time (1999). Fought off challenges from as many as four other players in the final round before sealing his victory with a birdie on the final hole... Was also the 36-hole leader at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and led by one stroke with one hole to play before losing out to Dave Barr. Missed a 7-foot par putt on the final hole after an errant drive cost him a penalty stroke... Came close again at the SBC Classic. Was a victim of a three-shot turnaround at the final hole at Valencia CC. Three-putted the 18th hole after Tom Purtzer holed a 58-foot eagle putt. 2002: Registered his 21st Champions Tour title at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. Emerged from a pack of players with birdies on two of the last three holes for an eventual three-stroke triumph over Mike McCullough, Bruce Fleisher and Dana Quigley. Win was his second at Springhouse GC and the victory marked the second year in succession he had won on Father's Day... Made the first ace of his Champions Tour career (10th overall) when he holed a 6-iron shot from 165 yards on Firestone's 12th hole during the second round of the Senior PGA Championship. 2001: Earned his second consecutive Byron Nelson Trophy for best Scoring Average (69.20)... Held off Dana Quigley by two strokes to win The ACE Group Classic, his second senior victory in Naples. Final-round 66 at Pelican Marsh GC included a clutch birdie at the par-3 17th hole when his 7-iron shot 3 feet from the hole. Followed his win in Naples with a runner-up performance at the Verizon Classic and then lost to Jose Maria Canizares in a nine-hole playoff at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Successfully defended his title at The Instinet Classic, going wire-to-wire to edge J.C. Snead and Tom Jenkins by two strokes. His 9-under 63 in the opening round at the TPC Jasna Polana was a course record and included both a double eagle (No. 7-driver/3-iron) and eagle, a first on the Champions Tour since 1996. 2000: Missed the first two months of the year following an off-season rib-cage injury... Earned his first Byron Nelson Award with a Scoring Average of 68.83, the second-best mark at the time in Champions Tour history... First of three victories came in his first official 2000 appearance near Pensacola, FL. Went wire-to-wire at the Emerald Coast Classic, winning by four strokes over Larry Nelson... Second victory came in late July when he came from behind at the The Instinet Classic... Added his third title at the rain-shortened Comfort Classic. Successfully defended his crown when he birdied the final two holes Saturday to overtake Jim Ahern. Was declared the winner on Sunday when bad weather washed out the final round at Brickyard Crossing... Set a Champions Tour standard when he put together an amazing 31 straight sub-par rounds. Started the streak at the Ford Senior Players Championship and saw it come to an end after one round of the SBC Senior Classic in Los Angeles. Had established the previous record of 26 consecutive in 1997. 1999: Posted a pair of victories. Carded a final-round 69 at the Comfort Classic and edged Ed Dougherty by two strokes. At the Emerald Coast Classic in April, finished as a runner-up—the third time that occurred in his first seven starts of the season. Ended four strokes back of Bob Gilder despite playing his last 36 holes at The Moors without making a bogey... Late in the season, held the 36-hole lead at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, but finished second after a final-round 70... Matched his Champions Tour career-best round for a seventh time with a 7-under 63 on the final day of the Columbus Southern Open, his lowest score since the final day of the 2001 SBC Championship in San Antonio. 2002: Two best events came in back-to-back starts during May. Was the 36-hole leader at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but slipped to third, one stroke out of playoff contention, after a final-round 70 at Greystone... Backed up Birmingham performance with a solo second effort at the rain-shortened TD Waterhouse Championship. 2001: Eclipsed the $2-million mark in earnings for a second straight year and again led the Champions Tour in official victories with five... Claimed the first two events of the season—the MasterCard Championship by one stroke over Jim Thorpe and the Royal Caribbean Classic by one point over Isao Aoki. Became the first player to win the first two tournaments in a season since Don January did so in 1981... Added a third victory in late June by defending his title at the FleetBoston Classic (by three strokes over Bruce Fleisher), the fifth player in the history of the Boston event to win in successive years. Defended again at the Farmers Charity Classic in Michigan, nipping Jim Ahern by one shot for his fourth victory of the season... Picked up his fifth win late in the campaign at the SBC Championship, defeating Bob Gilder and Gary McCord by two strokes. 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199 at The Dominion was a tournament record... Matched the low round of his career when he fired a second-round 63 at the Toshiba Senior Classic and also carded 63 in the final round of the SBC Championship. 2000: Voted by his peers as the winner of the Jack Nicklaus Award, symbolizing the Champions Tour's Player of the Year... Earned $2,708,005, the third-highest money total in Champions Tour history at the time, and claimed the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour. Second win came near St. Louis when he posted a three-stroke victory over Tom Watson at the Boone Valley Classic, thanks to a dramatic eagle on the 17th hole... Was 4-under-par over his last nine holes at Nashawtuc and claimed the FleetBoston Classic by four over Jim Thorpe... Cruised to a wire-to-wire victory the following week and beat Dave Stockton by three strokes at the Foremost Insurance Championship in Grand Rapids. His 18-under 198 total at Egypt Valley included a course-record 63 on the final day... Took the lead in the money race for good when he edged Bill Brask and Jim Thorpe by a stroke at the Bank One Senior Championship in Dallas... Went on to best Gil Morgan and Jim Dent in a six-hole playoff at the Vantage Championship... Set Champions Tour standards for Rounds in the 60s (59/ breaking Bruce Fleisher's old mark of 56 in 1999)... Raised eyebrows when he fired a 12-under-par 58 (29-29—58) in the Thursday Pro-Am at the Kroger Senior Classic (missed 15-footer on the last hole for 57). 1999: Bothered by a herniated disc in his neck at several points during the year, but still won multiple official titles... Thwarted Bruce Fleisher's attempt at winning a third straight Champions Tour start when he prevailed by two strokes at the GTE Classic near Tampa... Birdied three of his last seven holes to edge Dana Quigley for the Bruno's Memorial Classic title near Birmingham. 1998: Won three times in his first full year on the Champions Tour and lost two other events in playoffs... Initial victory came at the American Express Invitational in Sarasota... Opened with a sizzling 9-under 63 and cruised to a wire-to-wire, four-stroke win over Dave Stockton... Registered another easy start-to-finish win at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic. After building a Champions Tour record-tying eight-stroke lead after 36 holes, waltzed to a five-shot triumph over Bob Duval at Sewickley Heights... CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Claimed his second Champions Tour title, at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, besting Fred Funk and Ronnie Black by three strokes at En-Joie GC. Started the final round three strokes back of Funk, but quickly took the lead early Sunday when he opened with a run of four birdies and an eagle. His 20-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole provided the cushion he needed to cruise to victory, his second title in the state of New York. His final-round 63 matched a career-low, and his 21-under 195 total was the best 54-hole score on the Champions Tour during the year. Posted 24 birdies in his run to victory, the most by any player in a 54-hole event in 2009 and the most since R.W. Eaks had 24 at the 2008 3M Championship. Closing-round 63 was low finish by a winner...Was four strokes off the lead after 36 holes of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am and carded a final-round 70 at TPC Tampa Bay to finish T3, three strokes back of Nick Price. 2008: Improved his standing on the money list for the fifth consecutive year, placing 11th, six spots higher than in 2007. Had a career-best season, capped by reaching the $1-million mark in earnings for the first time ($1,224,012), with a career-high nine top-10 finishes, matching his combined totals of the previous two years...Was the first-round leader at The Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach and eventually finished T2 along with Tim Simpson, eight strokes back of Bernhard Langer. Performance at Palm Coast was his best since winning the 2007 Commerce Bank Championship...Made a strong bid at defending his Commerce Bank Championship title but, along with Nick Price, eventually finished T2 on Long Island, one stroke back of Loren Roberts. Started the final round three strokes back of Roberts and carded a final-round 66 on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park...Earned another second-place finish when he ended two strokes shy of Bernhard Langer at the Administaff Small Business Classic in October. Held a one-stroke lead over Langer starting the back nine Sunday, but Langer made birdies on Nos. 11, 13 and 14 to take the lead for good...Made the biggest comeback of any player in the field at the Regions Charity Classic. Eventually finished T5 in Birmingham after being ranked T45 after the first round. Carded scores of 66-68 on the weekend at Ross Bridge. 2007: Experienced a breakout season on the Champions Tour and earned a trip to the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for a third consecutive year...At the time, earned a personal-best $989,722 and finished 17th on the money list, his highest standing at the time...Highlight was his first win on the Champions Tour in his 92nd career start. Edged Loren Roberts by two strokes at the Commerce Bank Championship. Moved into the lead Saturday with his low round of the year, a 7-under 64 that included four birdies in a five-hole stretch on the back nine. Took a three-stroke lead into the final round and sealed the deal with key par saves down the stretch. Victory came just two days after his 54th birthday and made him the third consecutive first-time winner at Eisenhower Park...Two weeks later, continued his success in New York when he grabbed a solo third-place finish at the inaugural Dick's Sporting Goods Open. 2006: Made a serious challenge for his first career win but fell in a one-hole playoff to Eduardo Romero at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August near Portland, OR. Fired four straight sub-par rounds and made a birdie on the 72nd hole to earn a spot in the playoff with Romero. However, hit an errant tee shot into a bunker on the first extra hole and was never able to recover as Romero ended the playoff with a birdie to earn his first American victory. 2005: Top effort came in August at the 3M Championship where his birdie-eagle finish on the final two holes included making 124 feet of putts that vaulted him into a T2 with Craig Stadler, one stroke back of eventual winner Tom Purtzer. 2004: Best performance in his first full season came in late September when he finished T5 at the SAS Championship near Raleigh...Attempted to improve his exempt status at the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall. Finished in a tie with Des Smyth after six rounds at the King and Bear in St. Augustine, FL, and eventually placed ninth when Smyth did not participate in a playoff. 2003: Earned fully-exempt status for 2004 by finishing T4 at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Eagle Trace in Florida. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1—Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf; T2—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; 4—Senior PGA Championship.

Was eighth on the final money list for the second year in succession, but more importantly, won two times, including his first individual title on the Champions Tour when he prevailed in a one-hole playoff over Michael Allen at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in October. Led by two strokes after 54 holes and appeared in control on the back nine before a late Sunday charge by Michael Allen left the two tied at 7-under-par after 72 holes at the TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm. Hit two near-perfect shots on the first playoff hole and then two putted from 25 feet for the win after Allen's tee shot landed in the right rough which eventually led to a bogey. The victory earned him a spot in the 2011 THE PLAYERS Championship and allowed him to go over the $1 million mark in season earnings for the third time in the last four years. Was the lone player in the starting field of 78 players to post four rounds in the 60s...Earlier in the year, broke through for his first Champions Tour win when he teamed with Nick Price to win the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in a two-hole playoff with John Cook and Joey Sindelar. The win came in his 58th career start on the Tour and it was also his first win in a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event since the 1998 British Open, a span of 238 events. The duo posted a winning score of 28-under-par 188 in Savannah and played all 54 holes without a bogey...One week earlier, finished T2 at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Was the tournament's first-round leader after a 6-under 65 Friday, but his second-round 69 dropped him into a tie with Mike Reid, one stroke back of Bernhard Langer. Even after making birdie on his opening hole Sunday to tie Langer, heavy rains wiped out the final round shortly afterward and he became a runner-up for the ninth time on the Champions Tour...Contended at the Senior PGA Championship in May. Trailing by just two strokes after 54 holes before eventually finishing fourth overall...Finished T10 at the 3M Championship in August after three consecutive rounds in the 60s...Traveled to Dubai to play in the European Tour's Omega Dubai Desert Classic but missed the cut...Played in the PGA TOUR's AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and Masters but missed the cut in both events...Teamed with Nick Price to win the ADT Skills Challenge in a playoff against Fred Couples and Dustin Johnson in November.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Put together his best year on the Champions Tour, with earnings of $1.2 million, eighth on the final earnings list. Was among the top 10 in half of his 20 appearances on the circuit but, despite several strong bids for victory, finished second four times and third once. Game and attitude rejuvenated by engagement to Meredith Berkman during Masters week and subsequent wedding on June 27...First came close to winning initial Champions Tour title at the Toshiba Classic. Was tied for the 36-hole lead at Newport Beach CC but final-round 70 left him T2 along with Joey Sindelar, one stroke short of Eduardo Romero...Contended again later in the month of March at The Cap Cana Championship. Was a 36-hole co-leader along with Romero and eventual-winner Keith Fergus. Held a four-stroke advantage on the front side and held the lead or a share of the lead for most of the remainder of the round until the 17th hole when Fergus holed a wedge shot from an eagle to take the lead for good. Eventually finished T2 along with Andy Bean, one stroke behind Fergus...Was a distant second to Bernhard Langer at the Triton Financial Classic near Austin, TX, in June...Narrowly missed when he finished second, one stroke behind Loren Roberts at the Boeing Classic at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge. Blistered the course with a final-round, 8-under-par 64 only to have it go for naught when Roberts birdied the final two holes to beat him by one stroke. Runner-up effort in Seattle marked the eighth time in his career he's been second in a Champions Tour event...Had another chance for victory the following week at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Was two strokes off the pace after 36 holes, but did not make a birdie in his final round until the 18th hole and was T3, three strokes back of Jeff Sluman...Missed the cut at the Masters and was T70 in the British Open at Turnberry. 2008: Posted just two top-10 finishes in 16 starts, with both coming in successive outings in the spring...Teamed with Nick Price for a T7 finish at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and, the following week, was T10 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Texas...Made five starts on the PGA TOUR. Made lone cut at the Buick Invitational, where he was T66...Made two appearances on the European Tour and made the cut at both stops on consecutive weeks in March. Was T39 at both the Dubai Desert Classic and the Emaar-MGF Indian Masters in New Delhi. 2007: Was a runner-up four times on the Champions Tour in his rookie season...First was at the inaugural Ginn Championship, where he joined Hale Irwin, one stroke back of Keith Fergus at Hammock Beach despite recording three straight sub-70 rounds at Palm Coast. Appeared to be out of contention early Sunday but played his last five holes in 2-under to surge back up the leaderboard. First-round 69 included a pair of eagles and no birdies, a first in his career...Posted another T2 finish in July when, along with Stewart Ginn, he finished one stroke shy of Tom Watson at the Senior British Open at Muirfield...Closed his season with back-to-back runner-ups in Texas. Was a distant second near Houston at the

Used a 7-iron on the 167-yard hole. It was his second Champions Tour ace to go with three PGA TOUR holes-in-one. 2008: Recorded his best performance in a major since the 2004 Senior British Open (T5) when he T6 at the Senior PGA Championship. Even-par 70 Sunday at Oak Hill, one of just seven par-or-better scores in the final round, moved him up. 2007: Missed nearly two months of action due to a bulging disc in his neck. Did not play from late May until mid-July...Made the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career, and seventh ace overall, on Friday at the JELD-WEN Tradition when he holed a 5-iron shot at the 189-yard seventh hole at Crosswater in the second round...A closing-round 67 was instrumental in his T4 finish at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. 2006: Opened his season with a runner-up finish at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. Shared the first-round lead with Loren Roberts and Tom Watson after carding a 9-under 63 and then took sole possession of the 36-hole lead with a tournament-record 17-under 127. Two-day, 36-hole score on the Big Island matched the Champions Tour all-time record in relation to par. Seemed poised for victory until Roberts passed him on the back nine Sunday, and he eventually ended one stroke short despite shooting a final-round 65. His 24-under 192 at Hualalai was the lowest 54-hole score ever posted on the Champions Tour that didn't win...Was the 36-hole leader at the Constellation Energy Classic in September near Baltimore but eventually was among three players who finished T2, two strokes behind Bob Gilder...Was also the 36-hole leader at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August, but a double bogey on No. 13 Sunday proved disastrous, dropping him to a T3, one stroke out of a playoff...Had a pair of eagles in the second round of the Senior British Open that led to a 63, matching his Champions Tour career low. 2005: Returned to form after two injury-plagued seasons and finished in the top 30 on the money list for the first time since 2002...Had a career-best 10 top-10 finishes, which surpassed his two previous years combined...His total earnings for the season also exceeded his previous two-year totals...Was inside the top 20 a total of 18 times and finished outside the top 20 just one time in his last 10 starts...Best showing came at the Bank of America Championship in June. Birdied the final two holes Sunday to post a closing-round, 7-under-par 65 to earn a berth in a three-man playoff with Tom Purtzer and eventual winner Mark McNulty. Bogeys the first extra hole and was eliminated before McNulty won the title...Fired successive rounds in the 60s at the Blue Angels Classic and matched his Champions Tour career-best with a final-round 63, which helped him to a T3. His weekend rounds of 66-63 gave him a 36-hole total of 129, matching the best final 36-hole total for the year on the Champions Tour. 2004: Underwent hernia surgery in the spring and also battled back problems in the latter stages of the campaign...Made nice showing at the Senior British Open. Shared the first- and second-round leads at Royal Portrush GC and remained in the hunt all four days before eventually finishing T5 in Northern Ireland, three behind winner Pete Oakley. His opening-round, 3-under-par 69 included consecutive eagles on Nos. 9 and 10. 2003: Underwent surgery on January 3 at the Hughston Clinic in Columbus, GA, to repair a labrum tear in his left shoulder. Originally injured the shoulder in the spring of 2002, hitting balls on a wet surface at Bruno's Memorial Classic...Was scheduled to return to the circuit in April but re-injured the shoulder during rehab and did not start his season until the Columbus Southern Open in mid-May with a T45 in Georgia...Completed his comeback with a three-stroke victory at the Allianz Championship in Iowa, thanks to three consecutive sub-70 rounds. Used an eagle on the par-5 11th hole at Glen Oaks to overtake Rick Rhoden and then cruised to an easy victory...Showed signs that he was ready to contend again two weeks earlier in Minnesota. Set a new course and tournament record at the 3M Championship in August when he shot a 9-under-par 63 in the second round at the TPC Twin Cities. Was just one stroke off the pace after his record round, but shot a 1-over-par 73 on Sunday to finish T10...Voted by his peers as Comeback Player of the Year. 2002: One of only two players (Rodger Davis) to finish among the top 31 money-winners after earning exempt status at the 2001

Had his best year on the Champions Tour, winning multiple official titles for the first time on TOUR since 1994 and led the circuit in the All-Around stats category (52)... Credited a switch to the belly putter in late February in Boca Raton as the reason for his success and reeled off eight top-10 performances in nine starts after changing putters... First of two titles came in late April, when he teamed with Mark O'Meara to win the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. His par on the second playoff hole gave the team the victory over John Cook/Joey Sindelar. Duo finished with a 54-hole, bogey-free total of 28-under-par 188... Was selected as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for June after he added a second title at The Principal Charity Classic. Avenged a playoff loss the year prior with a four-stroke victory over Tommy Armour

III, thanks to a final-round 67 at Glen Oaks. Became the first player since R.W. Eaks at the 2007 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn to win a tournament after losing in a playoff the year prior... Later that same month, was T3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open after leading midway through the final round... Forced to withdraw from the U.S. Senior Open at Sahalee in late July after suffering a freak toe injury just prior to the event... One week later, finished T3 at the 3M Championship, thanks to an 8-under-par 64 in the final round. His check for $105,000 pushed his season earnings over the $1-million mark for the third straight year... In late August, flirted with another victory at the Boeing Classic near Seattle before finishing solo second. Opened with a 9-under-63 and trailed Bernhard Langer by one stroke after 36 holes. However, a slow start in Sunday's final round (2-over-par on front nine) would prove costly and, despite birdies on his final two holes, finished three strokes back of Langer... Had several other opportunities to win during the season. Was among a large group tied for the lead early in the final round of the Allianz Championship and remained in contention until a double bogey at No. 15 dropped him into an eventual T9 in Boca Raton. Also was one stroke off Corey Pavin's 36-hole lead at The Cap Cana Championship, played in the final grouping and was in contention early Sunday before eventually finishing T4 in the Dominican Republic... Opened his season by teaming with Fred Couples to finish third at the 2010 Wendy's Champions Skins Game. Duo captured three skins and $190,000 in Hawaii... Closed his season by teaming with O'Meara again to win the ADT Skills Challenge in Palm Beach, defeating Couples and

Dustin Johnson in a playoff...Topped the Champions Tour in Round 1 Scoring Average (68.06) and ranked second in overall Scoring Average (69.09)...Was also fourth overall in Top-10 Finishes (12).

Two-stroke victory over Larry Nelson at TPC Tampa Bay also ended a TOUR victory drought of 111 events, dating to the 2002 MasterCard Colonial. Was the 36-hole leader at The Principal Charity Classic and made a clutch, downhill 23-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation to get into a playoff with Fred Funk and eventual winner Mark McNulty. Was eliminated from the overtime on the second extra hole when Funk and Price both made birdies...Made another strong bid at the SAS Championship, tying both David Frost and Tom Pernice, Jr. for the lead with a birdie on No. 17 Sunday. It was his third victory in the event and each has come with a different partner. 2008: Was among the top-five in more than a third of his appearances on the Champions Tour, but missed some golden opportunities to win during the season. Finished fourth on the circuit in scoring average (69.71) and went over seven figures in official money for the first time since the 2003 PGA TOUR season despite taking two months off during the summer to vacation with his family...Had first brush with a victory in his second start of the year at The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Had a chance of joining the four-man playoff, which included eventual-winner Scott Hoch, but missed a birdie opportunity at No. 18 leaving him one stroke shy and in a T5...Second shot at a win came in early May at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. Appeared to be in control midway through the final round at The Hills but eventually finished T2 in the event, one stroke back of fellow countryman Denis Watson. Enjoyed a three-stroke lead with four to play but made back-to-back double-bogeys on No. 15 and No. 16 after his ball found the water on each hole. Still had a chance to send the event into a playoff, but missed a 15-foot birdie effort on the final hole that left him one stroke short...Next chance at a win came at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa. Was the 36-hole leader at Glen Oaks but eventually finished third, two strokes back of Jay Haas, despite carding a final-round 69...In his next start after Iowa, was T2 again at the Commerce Bank Championship, one stroke back of Loren Roberts. Made a Sunday charge up the leaderboard with a final-round 65 at Eisenhower Red that matched the low round of the tournament...Final attempt at a win came late in the season. Was the 54-hole leader at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship but eventually finished T3 at Baltimore CC, two strokes back of D.A. Weibring. In the final grouping Sunday for the first time in his Champions Tour career when he was T2 after 54 holes. Eventually finished third at Kiawah Island, SC, three strokes back of childhood friend Denis Watson...Carded a final-round 63 at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T20—Montreal Championship; T25—JELD-WEN Tradition.

2010 SEASON:

Had just two top-25 performances, with both coming during the summer. Finished outside the top 50 on the single-season money list for the first time as a Champions Tour member...Was among the first-round leaders at the Montreal Championship after a 66 Friday. Eventually finished T20 in the inaugural event in Canada...Was T9 through two rounds of the JELD-WEN Tradition, but rounds of 72-73 on the weekend at Crosswater dropped him back into a T25...Once again, ranked among the leaders in Driving Distance (291.3 yards).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was one stroke off the lead after 18 holes at the AT&T Champions Classic and eventually ended T8 at Valencia, his seventh overall top-10 in that event. 2008: Got his year off to a flying start when he was the first-round leader at the season-opening event, thanks to a 10-under 62. Eventually finished fifth at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai...Was among the leaders throughout much of the final round at The Principal Charity Classic before he finished bogey-double bogey to drop to T5...Claimed the Driving Distance title for the fourth time and second year in succession, averaging 295.5 yards per tee shot. 2007: Won for the first time since the 2005 3M Championship when he defeated Loren Roberts in a four-hole playoff at the AT&T Champions Classic at Valencia CC in Valencia, CA. Rolled in a 17-foot birdie putt on the fourth hole to end the longest playoff on the Champions Tour since the 2002 Lightpath Long Island Classic. His win was the second at the tournament after also prevailing in 2003...Early in the season, finished T2 at the Turtle Bay Championship, where he improved his score by two strokes each day...Had an unusual statistical double, leading the Champions Tour in both Driving Distance (297.6 yards per drive) as well as Greens in Regulation (76.24 percent)...Also paced all players with 17 eagles and had the longest-measured drive during the season, a 383-yard effort on the 10th hole in the opening round of the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. 2006: Best finish of the season was T2 at the rain-shortened Administaff Small Business Classic. Shared the first-round lead with Jay Haas and Dick Mast, thanks to a 7-under 65, but then found himself five strokes back of Haas despite posting a 68 Saturday. Was unable to make a run at Haas on Sunday when afternoon rains in Houston rendered the Augusta Pines course unplayable. 2005: The second of three players to go wire-to-wire for a victory during the year, joining Ron Streck and Bob Gilder...Claimed his third career Champions Tour victory at the 3M Championship, the first time in his career he led an event from start to finish. Opened with a 9-under-par 63 that included his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour. Made a 7-foot par putt on the last hole to avoid overtime with Craig Stadler and Lonnie Nielsen. First-place check of $262,500 was his largest ever. Victory in Minnesota avenged misfortunes of two previous years where he was the 36-hole leader and did not win...Came close to winning in late June at the Bank of America Championship. Was one of three players in a playoff (Don Pooley and Mark McNulty), but fell short when McNulty made birdie on the second extra hole after Pooley was eliminated with a bogey on the first hole. Got himself in overtime when he birdied the final hole in regulation...Also finished second late in the year at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Was T41 after opening with a 1-over 72, but rallied on the weekend at Oak Hills with rounds of 66-63. His 13-under 129 total equaled Champions Tour-best for last 36 holes in 2005...As a former champion, played at the Bank of America Colonial on the PGA TOUR and finished T21, helped in large part by a final-round, 6-under-par 64, tying him for low score of the day...Took advantage of the month-long Champions Tour break in April and claimed the Australian PGA Seniors title by five strokes. Had originally made the trip to Australia to visit his daughter Ashley who was attending Sydney University as an exchange student. 2004: Back problems (sliding disc in lower back) troubled him for most of the season...Tied the Champions Tour's all-time record and set a course record with an 11-under 60 (nine birdies and an eagle) in the first round of the Toshiba Senior Classic before going on to win at Newport Beach CC by one stroke over Morris Hatalsky. Used birdies on two of the last four holes to secure the Toshiba victory, his second title on the Champions Tour...Was the 18- and 36-hole leader at the Bank of America Championship, but eventually T2 near Boston, four strokes back of Craig Stadler, after posting an even-par 72 Sunday...Champions Tour Player of the Month in March. 2003: Earned his first Champions Tour victory when he drained an eagle putt of 58 feet, 3 inches to edge Gil Morgan at the SBC Classic by one stroke. Came to the final hole trailing Morgan by two strokes, but became the first player to make an eagle on the final hole and win an event since Sammy Rachels did so at the 2001 Transamerica. Had a hole-in-one in the opening round, the first player to do so and win the event since Bob Gilder at the 2002 Kroger Senior Classic. 2002: Official earnings of $760,056 topped his best year on the PGA TOUR (1991:$750,568)...Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Classic and T7. It was his first top 10 since finishing T4 at the 1998 Walt Disney World Classic on the PGA TOUR...Best performance of the season was a T3 at the SBC Senior Classic near Los Angeles in early March. Was the first-round leader at Valencia CC and one of just two players to break par, after carding a 2-under 70 in cool, windy conditions Friday.

Champions Tour until early August and managed a T13 at the Boeing Classic in his second start back, his top effort of the year.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: After battling nagging shoulder issues during the early part of the 2009 campaign, had his season cut short when he underwent surgery in mid-September to repair two tears in his left shoulder...Top performance was a solo third at the Triton Financial Classic in Texas, his best Champions Tour outing in nearly a year. 2008: Out of the top 30 on the money list for the first time since joining the Champions Tour full time in 1998...Did not record his first top-10 finish until late June when he was T3 at the Bank of America Championship. Effort near Boston was the start of a five-event run where he posted 16 consecutive rounds at par or better...Was T9 at the 3M Championship in Minnesota after being the first-round leader in the tournament, a first for him since the 2005 Walmart First-Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Matched his career-low round on the Champions Tour by shooting 10-under 62 Friday at TPC Twin Cities, the 18-hole tournament record. Round included a front-nine 29 that featured a streak of three birdies, an eagle and another birdie. 2007: A top-30 finisher on the money list for the 10th consecutive year...Recorded a pair of runner-up finishes near the end of the season...Was involved in a historic seven-man playoff in August at the Boeing Classic and was eliminated on the first hole near Seattle...Three starts later, shot 15-under 201 at Prestonwood CC near Raleigh but finished second to Mark Wiebe by three strokes. 2006: Saw his streak of consecutive million-dollar seasons end at eight and was out of the top 20 on the money list for the first time since his rookie year in 1997...Was first diagnosed with high blood pressure at the Toshiba Classic and was bothered by this condition for the majority of season...Managed to successfully defend his title in Kansas City in early July. Victory at the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic was his third at that event and was the 11th title of his Champions Tour career...Near the start of the season, partnered with Raymond Floyd to win 10 skins and a record $510,000 at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game in Hawaii. 2010 SEASON:

Scattered seven top-10 finishes, the most he's ever had in one season on the Champions Tour, and ended up 22nd on the final earnings list, his highest standing since 2005...Was among the top five twice early in Florida. Best performance of the campaign was a T2 at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa in mid-April. Along with Mark O'Meara, trailed Bernhard Langer by one stroke after carding a 3-under 68 Saturday at TPC Tampa Bay. However, final round was washed out due to heavy rains Sunday morning...Three starts earlier in Boca Raton, held a portion of the lead early in the final round of the Allianz Championship and eventually finished T5 at Broken Sound. For the first time since the 2008 AT&T Championship, put together three consecutive rounds in the 60s in a 54-hole event...Late in the summer, closing round, 5-under-par 67 at the Boeing Classic led to an eventual T4 finish at the Seattle-area event...Best performance in a major came when he rebounded from a 3-over-par 73 in the opening round to finish seventh at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in October...Also partnered Ken Green for Green's inspirational comeback to the Champions Tour at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Despite finishing T26 in the Legends Division, duo received national attention..

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was among the top 30 on the money list for the first time since 2005...Ended a winless drought of more than four years when he claimed the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August with a 12-foot birdie on the first extra hole to defeat John Cook. The win came in his 95th start since his win at the Senior PGA Championship in 2005, which also came in a playoff. The victory was also his first top-10 finish since he was T3 at the 2007 ACE Group Classic. With his win he joined Peter Jacobsen as the only active players whose first two wins both came in major championships. He also earned a check for $392,000, the largest of his professional career...Carded back-to-back 68s on the weekend at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship to finish T9 at Baltimore CC. 2008: Did not record a top-10 finish in 22 starts, but did place in the top 20 seven times...Best showing was a T11 at the Regions Charity Classic in May.

2007: Played well early in the year, with three top-10 finishes in his first five starts, but would fare no better than T18 the remainder of the season...Was two strokes off the pace through 36 holes of The ACE Group Classic and posted a final-round 69 at Quail West to finish T3 in Naples, his best effort on the Champions Tour since T3 in Mexico in 2006. 2006: Slipped to 39th on the money list after finishing 21st the previous year and saw his earnings drop nearly in half from his 2005 total...After failing to finish no higher than T33 in his first five starts of the season, finally worked his way into the top 10 in his sixth outing, earning a T5 at the Toshiba Classic in March...Followed that in his next start when another strong performance resulted with a T3 finish at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic in Mexico...Struggled getting off to a quick start. Posted 12 first-rounds over-par in 23 starts. Just two of his opening rounds were in the 60s. Ranked 64th in First-Round Scoring Average for the year. Slipped from 26th to 49th in Putting Average.

2005: Enjoyed immediate success after playing a full-time schedule on the Champions Tour for the first time...Earned a career-best $863,006, over $300,000 more than his best season on the PGA TOUR...Selected as the May Player of the Month after winning his first Champions Tour event in his 17th career start at the Senior PGA Championship. Won in a playoff after being the beneficiary of a three-stroke turnaround at the final hole of regulation. Made an eagle on the par-5 18th at Laurel Valley and then watched Jerry Pate three-putt for a bogey. Two-putted for birdie on the first extra hole (18th again) to defeat Pate and Dana Quigley for his first win on TOUR since 1988 (16 years, 9 months, 2 days). Was the only player in the Senior PGA field to break par all four days. His four consecutive rounds of 70 marked the first time since Miller Barber at the 1982 Suntree Classic (66-66-66-66) that a Champions Tour player shot the same score each day over four rounds to win...Came close to a second straight title the following week at the Allianz Championship. Was the 36-hole leader but eventually missed on a playoff berth with Tom Jenkins and D.A. Weibring after posting an even-par 71 on Sunday...Contended for the first time at The ACE Group Classic when he made a pair of eagles in the final round and eventually finished T4...Made the first hole-in-one in his Champions Tour career when he aced hole No. 7 with a 4-wood from 228 yards in the final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition. It was his first since the 1985 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic. 2004: Made his debut at the Senior British Open, where he was T57...Registered his best performance at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati. His four-stroke victory earned him a place in 1988 NEC World Series of Golf, which he won in a playoff with Tom Watson. Made par on the first extra hole which earned him a 10-year PGA TOUR exemption. That victory helped him to his best earnings year on the PGA TOUR with $533,343, placing him 15th on the money list. Also had a second-place finish at THE PLAYERS Championship that year (four behind Mark McCumber) and was T3 at the Kemper Open...Followed his 1988 campaign with another strong season in 1989, earning $401,665, his second-most lucrative year on TOUR. However, it was a little bit of a bittersweet season for him. Looked to be in command at the PGA Championship at Kemper Lakes with three holes to play but made bogey, double bogey on

2010 SEASON:

Went over the million-dollar mark for the fifth consecutive season and played his best golf during a three-event run early in the summer...Highlight of his year was when he celebrated his 55th birthday by winning the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, his 12th career Champions Tour victory. Came from four strokes back Sunday and capped the win with a clutch, 7-foot birdie putt on the final hole to finish one ahead of Fred Funk. Final-round 65 included a back-nine, 5-under-par 30 that began when he holed out a short wedge shot from the right rough on the par-5 12th hole at En-Joie GC. Extended to six, the number of consecutive years with at least one title on the Champions Tour, the longest active streak...Two weeks prior to winning, was T3 at The Principal Charity Classic, thanks to rounds of 66-68 on the weekend at Glen Oaks...A week after claiming the Dick's title, notched his third consecutive top-five finish when he shot 66-67 on the weekend at Club de Golf Fontainebleau to T5 at the inaugural Montreal Championship...Was not among the top three again until October near Washington, D.C. After an opening-round even-par 70, shot three consecutive rounds in the 60s to grab a solo third-place finish at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship...Early in the season was T5 at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton...Followed that effort with another T5 in his next start at the Toshiba Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Claimed his second Charles Schwab Cup title when he finished 319 points in front of John Cook. Clinched the crown with a T6 finish at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...His three wins were the most since 2006...Played his best golf in the second half of the season...After taking most of the month of June off, came back to claim two wins among eight top-10 finishes in his final 10 starts...Highlight of his season was winning his second Senior British Open in four years at Sunningdale GC near London. Victory was his fourth senior major title and 10th overall win on the Champions Tour. Triumph came in a dramatic playoff with Mark McNulty and Fred Funk. Along with McNulty, made birdie on the first extra hole to eliminate Funk and then won the championship on the third extra hole with a par after McNulty hit an errant tee shot that forced him to take a drop from an unplayable lie...The following month, made clutch birdies on the final two holes to post his second straight, 7-under-par 65 to earn his third win of the season, a one-stroke victory over Mark O'Meara at the Boeing Classic. His clutch putting was the difference in the win. One-putted 13 of his final 14 holes Saturday and then needed just nine putts on the back nine Sunday. Overall, had just 73 putts in the event, the fewest by a winner on the Champions Tour since Tom Kite had 72 at the same event in 2006. Victory near Seattle clinched August Player of the Month honors...Claimed his first title in 2009 early in the year when he made birdie on three of his last four holes to slip past Gene Jones and win The ACE Group Classic in Naples, FL. Victory was his ninth career Champions Tour title and was his second victory in Naples...Also was T3 at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship after being four strokes back of Tom Watson through 54 holes...Was T4 at the U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick. Closed with an 8-under-par 64, the low round Sunday, which helped him jump from T15 to his T4 finish and also finished T5 at the JELD-WEN Tradition, in Oregon...Made his first PGA TOUR cut since 2007 when he played on the weekend at the St. Jude Classic near Memphis. In his record-setting 25th appearance at his hometown event, finished T42 and tied a tournament record for most cuts made with 20...Again played the weekend on the PGA TOUR, finishing T24 at the U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. Enjoyed four sub-70 rounds at Brown Deer Park GC. 2008: Among his 13 top-10 finishes was a victory at the Commerce Bank Championship, a one-stroke triumph over Nick Price and Lonnie Nielsen, the event's defending champion. Went wire to wire for his eighth career Champions Tour title, matching his PGA TOUR victory total. Win was instrumental in him earning June Player of the Month honors...Earlier in the year, made a miraculous chip-in for an eagle on the 54th hole at the AT&T Champions Classic to earn a spot in the three-man playoff with Brad Bryant and eventual winner Denis Watson. After Bryant was eliminated on the second hole, Watson ended the playoff when he made a birdie on the third extra hole. Had lost in a playoff with Tom Purtzer a year earlier...Was second again at the Regions Charity Classic near Birmingham, AL. Made a late run at Andy Bean but came up one stroke short at Ross Bridge. Missed a 16-foot birdie putt at the last hole that would have sent the event into overtime...Was the 36-hole leader at the Bank of America Championship in June and battled Jeff Sluman throughout the final round before Sluman birdied three of the final four holes to post a two-stroke win near Boston. 2007: Claimed the prestigious Charles Schwab Cup and also was second again to Jay Haas on the money list, with over $2 million in earnings ($2,170,627)...Posted his signature win of the season when he blew away the field by six strokes at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in October near Baltimore. Shot four straight sub-par rounds at Baltimore CC, and after leading by just three strokes through 54 holes, posted a 5-under 30 on the front nine Sunday to pull away for his third major title in as many years. Became only the fifth Champions Tour player to win a major championship three years in succession, joining Hale Irwin and Miller Barber (five years in succession each) along with Gary Player and Raymond Floyd (three years each). Victory was Roberts' third different major title, making him the ninth player with three different majors. Victory in Baltimore also vaulted him atop the

Charles Schwab Cup list for good, and the $390,000 first prize was the largest of his Champions Tour career... Other win came in early June when he ended an 18-tournament winless string with his sixth career Champions Tour victory at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. Rallyed from three strokes back with a final-round 65, eventually defeating Eduardo Romero by three shots. Earlier in the season, fell to Tom Purtzer in a four-hole playoff at the AT&T Champions Classic. Made key birdies on Nos. 15 and 16 Sunday to get himself in position, but saw his chances come to an end when Purtzer made a birdie-4 on the fourth extra hole. Set a new Champions Tour record in the opening round when he posted a 5-under-par 67, his 33rd consecutive round at par or better, breaking Larry Nelson's mark (2002). Eventually had streak end at 37 straight when he shot a final-round 75 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf... Earned January/February Player of the Month honors and was also the Champions Tour's Player of the Month in October... For the second straight year, secured the Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (69.31) on the strength of his play in the year's final event. His back-to-back Nelson trophies were a first since Gil Morgan in 2000-01. 2006: Finished second to Jay Haas in the race for the money title and narrowly lost to Haas in the Charles Schwab Cup race. Fell 20 points short. Had a chance to grab the crown and the $1-million annuity but missed a 4 1/2-foot putt for par on the 72nd hole at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship to just fall short. Still earned a $500,000 annuity and donated entire amount to charity... Earned a career-best $2,365,395, with four wins... Led all players with 18 top-10 finishes in 21 starts... Earned the Byron Nelson Award as the scoring leader at 69.01... Opened the season with three consecutive victories. His bid for a record-tying fourth straight win fell short when he finished T5 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Became the first player in Champions Tour history to win the first three events in a season when he prevailed by one stroke over R.W. Eaks and Brad Bryant at The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Despite not making a birdie over his final 12 holes, still managed to hold off a late charge by Hale Irwin. Did not make a bogey over his final 35 holes at the TwinEagles GC and became the sixth player to win three straight events... First two titles of the season came in Hawaii. Completed a two-week Hawaiian sweep, holing a 9-foot eagle putt on the final hole of the Turtle Bay Championship for a two-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Scott Simpson. Win on Oahu made him the first player since Larry Nelson in 2001 to claim his first two starts of a season... Opened his Champions Tour campaign with a one-stroke victory over Don Pooley at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. Shot 25-under 191, breaking the Champions Tour's 54-hole record in relation to par and matching the circuit's stroke mark. His 26 birdies set an all-time record for a three-round Champions Tour event, easily breaking the old mark of 24 birdies by three different players. Final-round 61 at Hualalai was a career best and an 18-hole tournament-record. Used the 11-under-par round Sunday to come from three strokes back of Pooley and edge him by one... Picked up his fourth victory of the season at the Senior British Open at Turnberry. Playoff win over Eduardo Romero was his second senior major championship since turning 50. Blew a five-stroke lead in regulation but rebounded in the playoff, making a clutch 14-foot par putt on the first extra hole just before Romero missed a 6-foot putt for a par. Final-round 75 in Scotland was the highest finish by a winner since 1998 (Hale Irwin, 75 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic) and the highest in a senior major since 1994 (Simon Hobday, 75 at U.S. Senior Open)... $88,000 check for finishing T3 at the Boeing Championship at Sandestin moved him over the $1-million mark in his eighth start of the season, tying Hale Irwin's all-time record (1998) for fastest to seven figures in a year... Surged past the $2-million mark in season earnings when he finished T2 at the weather-shortened SAS Championship in early October in North Carolina... Finished T9 at the U.S. Senior Open but made headlines in the third round when he set a U.S. Senior Open and tournament course record with his 8-under-par 62 at Prairie Dunes. The 62 was also the lowest round in the history of any USGA championship and also tied the record for the lowest 18-hole score in any of the 13 USGA national championships, breaking the U.S. Senior Open mark of 63 by Allen Doyle in 2005 and Don Pooley in 2002. 2005: Joined the Champions Tour in July and had an immediate impact while continuing to split time between the PGA TOUR and the Champions Tour... Won his first Champions Tour title when he defeated Dana Quigley in a two-hole playoff at the JELD-WEN Tradition in his third start. Posted four straight sub-par rounds and got up and down for a birdie on the final hole in regulation to earn a spot in the playoff. After a birdie on the first extra hole, had a two-putt bogey on the second that was good enough to defeat Quigley... Was solo fifth in his Champions Tour debut at the Senior British Open in July. Was the first-round leader at Royal Aberdeen, with a 1-over 72 and was in contention throughout in Scotland... Co-leader after both the second and third rounds of the U.S. Senior Open but eventually finished T2 after a disappointing 73 on Sunday... Selected as the Champions Tour August Player of the Month.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the PGA TOUR in 1981 but did not post the first of eight career victories until 1994 when he won The Nestle Invitational at Bay Hill, with a closing-round 67 to defeat Fuzzy Zoeller, Vijay Singh and Nick Price by one stroke. After failing to finish in the top 30 on the money list in 1998 for the first time since 1993, returned with a solid year in 1999. Fired a third-round 62, matching career-low which produced 54-hole lead at GTE Byron Nelson Classic and a tournament-record 16-under-par 194. Finished tied with Steve Pate, with tournament record 18-under-par 262 then won playoff with par on first extra hole. His father, who spent 1998 looking after his Alzheimer's-stricken wife, was in attendance for first time in nearly a year and joined his son when Byron Nelson presented championship trophy... Won a second Greater Milwaukee Open crown in 2000, which helped him earn a then-career best $1,932,280.

Continued success at Brown Deer Park GC (also second in 1994 and '97) when he finished with a 72-hole score of 260, breaking Carlos Franco's previous record by four strokes... In 2002, nearly duplicated that number, earning $1,919,047, including a win at the Valero Texas Open in San Antonio. At 47 years, 3 months, 5 days, became the oldest player to win a TOUR event since 48-year-old Tom Watson won the 1998 MasterCard Colonial. His 19-under total of 261 tied Jeff Sluman (Greater Milwaukee Open) and Jonathan Byrd (Buick Challenge) for low 72-hole total on TOUR that season. Co-leader through 36 holes with Pat Perez after 7-under-par 63, his best round since a 63 at the 2000 Greater Milwaukee Open. Entered final round with one-shot lead over Frank Lickliter II, Garrett Willis, Bob Tway and Matt Peterson. After trailing Fred Funk and Fred Couples by one making the turn, birdied four of final six holes to secure three-shot victory over Funk, Couples and Willis. Victory in Texas led to September Player of the Month honors... Six of his eight TOUR victories occurred after turning 40... In four of his eight victories, set tournament records. Owns the tournament record at the MCI Classic and the Greater Milwaukee Open, shares it at GTE Byron Nelson Classic and held the 72-hole record for the CVS Charity Classic, which is no longer part of the TOUR schedule... Member of two Presidents Cup teams (1994 and 2000), with a career record of 4-2-1 and also played on the American Ryder Cup team in 1995. Compiled a 3-1 record at Oak Hill CC... Along with Corey Pavin, served as an Assistant Captain to Tom Lehman at the 2006 Ryder Cup matches in Ireland... Led the PGA TOUR in Putting in 1994... CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Secured his only victory of the year, at the Toshiba Classic, his 100th as a professional. Made four birdies in the first six holes on the back nine Sunday to ease past Mark O'Meara and Denis Watson and eventually finish one stroke in front of O'Meara and Joey Sindelar. Victory was his fifth overall on the Champions Tour and fourth in a stretch of 10 starts, dating to 2008. Became the fourth international player to win at Newport Beach CC...Shared the 36-hole lead at The Cap Cana Championship with Mark O'Meara and eventual winner Keith Fergus before a final-round 74 left him T11...Turned in a nice performance in his final start of the season, finishing ninth at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. 2008: One of the stalwarts on the Champions Tour and one of just two players to earn three wins during the year, joining Bernhard

Langer...Was seventh on the money list, with a career-best $1,615,099. Started the final round tied for second, one stroke behind Bruce Fleisher, but opened with a 4-under-par 31 on the front nine and built a lead of as much as four strokes. finished third at the Senior British Open Championship at Royal Troon. Shared the first-round lead following a 3-under-par 68 and was among the leaders throughout before making a costly bogey at No. 18 in the final round which left him one shy of the John Cook-Bruce Vaughan playoff. 2007: Surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings for the first time ($1,189,455) when he finished 12th on the final money list...Posted 10 top-10 finishes in 19 starts...Led the Senior PGA Championship for 67 holes but eventually finished second behind Denis Watson at Kiawah Island, SC. Ran into disaster with a double bogey on the par-3 14th hole at The Ocean Course on Sunday. Miscue resulted from an unplayable lie that set up a crucial three-shot swing, giving Watson the two-stroke advantage he needed to eventually prevail...Finished second the following week at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. Was tied for the opening-round lead with Tom Purtzer after carding a 9-under 62, a career-best on the Champions Tour. Trailing by two strokes after 36 holes and eventually finished three shots back of Loren Roberts. 2006: Was conditionally exempt to start the year following a 15th-place finish at the 2005 National Qualifying Tournament, but took full advantage of the Champions Tour reshuffle in the summer to secure an exemption for the remainder of the year. Parlayed opportunity into fully-exempt status for 2007...Major breakthrough came in August when he became the Champions Tour's only international winner in 2006, defeating Lonnie Nielsen in a one-hole playoff at the JELD-WEN Tradition near Portland, OR. Fired a 7-under-par 65 in the final round, the low round in the tournament and then made a birdie on the first playoff hole to post his win. Played near-flawless golf the final two days, playing bogey-free over that span while adding 10 birdies and an eagle. Played his final 38 holes without a bogey and made just two bogeys over his final 66 holes. Made up five strokes the final day, the largest come-from-behind margin in tournament history.

In winning, became the second player from Argentina to win a major championship on the Champions Tour, joining Roberto De Vicenzo with that honor...One month earlier, secured a spot in the reshuffle when he almost won in his third start of the season at the Senior British Open. Caught Loren Roberts twice in the final round at Turnberry to force a playoff but lost to Roberts on the first extra hole when he three-putted from 30 feet. Moved into contention with a 9-under 63 Friday, the low round of the event. Defended his title at the Wentworth Senior Masters on the European Senior Tour in early August. 2005: Finished 15th at the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament at the PGA of Southern California GC to earn the final conditionally-exempt spot for the 2006 season...Played primarily on the European Tour in 2005, with several appearances on the European Senior Tour...Claimed his first victory on the European Senior Tour when he romped to an eight-shot win at the Wentworth Club in the Wentworth Senior Masters. 2004: Finished T2 at the Senior British Open at Royal Portrush in Northern Ireland.

Never went more than four starts during the year without a top-10 finish, and his two best efforts on Champions Tour came in October...In the season's final full-field event, saw his bid for at least one win in a third straight season fall short at the AT&T Championship when he lost in a one-hole playoff to Rod Spittle. The pair finished at 12-under-par 201 at Oak Hills, but after hitting his tee shot into the bunker, he blasted out to 14 feet and missed his par putt. Moments later, Spittle converted a 4-footer for par and the win in San Antonio...Earlier in the month, enjoyed a strong outing when he was solo fourth at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship. Bounced back from a third-round, 3-over-par 73 with a final-round, 4-under-par 66, one of just two players to post the day's low round (runner-up Michael Allen the other) at the TPC Potomac...Registered two other top-five efforts within a three-event span during the spring. Was a T5 finisher at the Regions Charity Classic in mid-May near Birmingham after three successive rounds in the 60s...Also T5 in early June at The Principal Charity Classic in Des Moines, thanks to rounds of 68-69 on the weekend at Glen Oaks...Made an impressive showing at the 3M Championship in August near Minneapolis. Joined champion David Frost in playing all 54 holes without a bogey, finishing T6 at the TPC Twin Cities. In the process became the second player (Peter Senior the other at the Regions Charity Classic) to play all 54 holes bogey free on the Champions Tour in 2010 and not win the event...Pushed bogey-free-holes total to 72 through the first round of the JELD-WEN Tradition before making a bogey...Took time out to serve as an assistant to U.S. captain Corey Pavin at the Ryder Cup matches in Wales...Ended his year on a positive note when he won the 36-hole Nedbank Senior Challenge in South Africa, getting into the field late after Corey Pavin had to withdraw. Two-day total of 6-under 138 at Sun City was two strokes better than Tommy Armour III.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was one of only four players to compete in all 25 official events. His 51 sub-par rounds led the Champions Tour...Finished sixth on the 2009 money list, thanks to a victory and nine other top-10s during the season...Was the only player to successfully defend a title, claiming a second straight Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, his third career Champions Tour win. Carded a final-round 68 that included a hole-in-one (No. 5) at Pebble Beach, the lowest score Sunday, and came from six strokes back to defeat Gene Jones by two strokes. Ace made him the first player since R.W. Eaks at the 2007 Dick's Sporting Goods Open to make a hole-in-one and go on to win. Six-shot comeback was the largest come-from-behind Champions Tour win since Denis Watson rallied from seven shots back to win in a playoff at the 2008 AT&T Champions Classic...Almost won in late April at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, where he teamed with Craig Stadler for the second straight year. The pair were tied with Bernhard Langer and Tom Lehman after 54 holes, but saw their bid for a win end with missed par putts on the second extra hole while Lehman made a short putt for par...Got his season off to a fast start by posting 14 sub-par scores in his first 15 rounds. Opening-round, 3-over 75 at The ACE Group Classic ended his streak of par/better scores carrying over from 2008 at 31 straight, the third-longest run in Champions Tour annals...Ended his season with a T3 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship after being tied for the opening-round lead at Sonoma GC...Was also in contention through 36 holes of the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and eventually finished T4 in Hawaii...Trailing by just one stroke after 54 holes at the Senior PGA Championship before a final-round, 3-over-par 73 led to a T5 finish...The Champions Tour's Player of the Month in September...Recorded a milestone in July when he made his 700th PGA TOUR start, playing in the U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. A two-time winner of that event (1998 and 2002), he made the cut for the 15th time in 21 appearances, finishing T18. 2008: After getting a taste of the Champions Tour late in 2007, took full advantage of his rookie season, winning twice and earning more than $1.7 million, his best financial year on TOUR since 2002...Claimed multiple official titles in a season for the first time ever and 11 top-10s during the year were also a personal best...Won his first Champions Tour title in dramatic fashion in June when he defeated Loren Roberts by two strokes at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Final-round 64 at Nashawtuc matched his low round on the Champions Tour and proved to be the lowest finish by a winner on the circuit in 2008. Birdied three of the final four holes on his way to victory in his 18th start on the circuit. After trading birdies early in the round with Roberts, he took the lead for good with a 13-foot birdie at No. 15. Increased his lead to two strokes with a 30-foot birdie at No. 17 and then closed the door with a 34-footer for a final birdie at No. 18. Played his final 43 holes without a bogey...Followed win in Boston with a second title, at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Five-stroke victory over Fuzzy Zoeller and Craig Stadler on the Monterey Peninsula was the largest in tournament history. Win also came 16 years after his playoff loss to Mark O'Meara at the 1992 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and runner-up finish to Tom Kite at the 1992 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach. Started the final round in a four-way tie for the lead but birdied four of his first eight holes Sunday to take command. Clutch par saves at No. 9 and No. 11 provided added distance from Fred Funk, his closest pursuer at the time...In late April, finished T2 with teammate Stadler in the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. The pair closed with an 11-under 61 but fell one stroke shy of the team of Andy North and Tom Watson...Carded 64 again in the third round of the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, matching the best third-round score in event history. Round moved him within two strokes of Nick Price entering the final round and he eventually finished T3, two strokes back of D.A. Weirbring. 2007: Played in five Champions Tour events after turning 50 in early September and was T15 in his debut on the circuit at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn...Best effort was a T12 at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston, where he was among the early contenders after shooting 66 in the opening round.

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T32—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2010 SEASON:

Played in just five events and teamed with Bobby Wadkins to finish T32 in the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2007: Made the first hole-in-one of the year on the Champions Tour. Aced the 172-yard 12th hole at Quail West during the second round of The ACE Group Classic. The ace was the 16th of his career and sixth on the Champions Tour, moving him out of a tie with Graham Marsh and Jimmy Powell for the most career holes-in-one by a player on the circuit. Ace was also the ninth in the history of the Naples event. 2005: Teed it up in his 1,000th (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined) event at the Senior PGA Championship, becoming just the seventh player to reach that milestone. Missed the cut at Laurel Valley after posting rounds of 77-79. 2003: Made his fifth career hole-in-one on the Champions Tour at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am, tying him with Charlie Sifford for most career aces on the over-50 circuit. Holed a 6-iron shot from 162 yards on No. 4 at The National GC of Kansas City in the final round...Also made consecutive eagles during the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition. Holed a pitch shot on the par-5 15th hole at The Reserve and then followed by hitting the par-5 16th green in two and making a 22-foot putt. 2002: Ended nearly a seven-year victory drought when he prevailed by one stroke at the Greater Baltimore Classic. Sank a 10-foot par putt on the final hole to nip John Mahaffey, Doug Tewell and Bobby Wadkins. Became only the fifth player, and first since Gary Player in 1998, to win both the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title and the overall tournament.

Victory at 61 years, 8 months and 9 days made him the third oldest player to win a Champions Tour event behind Mike Fetchick (63 years) and Player (62 years, 9 months, 22 days). The win was also his first since the 1995 Ford Senior Players Championship and set a record for longest time between Champions Tour victories (6 years, 11 months, 7 days), eclipsing the old record of 6 years, 10 months and 3 days by Larry Ziegler (1991 Newport Cup-1998 Saint Lukes Classic). 2001: T2 at The Instinet Classic, two strokes behind Gil Morgan. 2000: Along with Gary McCord, lost to Tom Wargo (won with birdie on third extra hole) in a playoff at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational. 1999: Closed with a final-round 65 at Serrano CC and T3 at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic. 1998: T2 at the Northville Long Island Classic along with Walter Hall, one stroke short of Gary Player. Recorded a hole-in-one in the final round of The Home Depot Invitational. 1996: Closing round, 6-under 65 helped him to a runner-up finish to Jack Nicklaus at the GTE Suncoast Classic, one of three second-place finishes. 1995: Enjoyed his most lucrative season with more than $950,000 in official money...Defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff for the Royal Caribbean Classic title and then bested Jack Nicklaus in overtime for the Ford Senior Players Championship title, the biggest win of his career. 1993: Broke into the Champions Tour winner's circle when he braved the elements for a one-stroke victory at the Vantage at The Dominion in San Antonio. His 54-hole score of 2-under 214 was impressive, considering a freak winter storm that moved through south Texas during the event. 1990: T21 in his debut on the Champions Tour at The Transamerica Senior Golf Championship in Napa, site

Made just five starts, but final appearance of the season was a big one...As an open-qualifier into the event, claimed the last full-field tournament of the season, the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. Prevailed in a one-hole playoff with Jeff Sluman. Trained 36-hole leader Larry Nelson by two strokes, but tied Sluman for the lead after 17 holes, thanks to consecutive birdies on Nos. 15-17. After the two finished at 12-under, he won on the first extra hole with a 4-foot par putt. In the process, he became the 11th open-qualifier to win an event in Champions Tour history and the first since Pete Oakley at the 2004 Senior British Open. Win at the AT&T

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
T10—The Cap Cana Championship, JELD-WEN Tradition.

2010 SEASON:

Troubled for much of the year with hip problems and made only 15 appearances...Was sidelined the final two months of the year after undergoing total left-hip-replacement surgery on September 15 in Los Angeles...His campaign included a pair of top-10 finishes...Rounds of 69-69 on the weekend at Punta Espada GC led to a T10 finish at The Cap Cana Championship...Birdied five of his first six holes on the back nine in the final round to temporarily earn a share of the lead at the JELD-WEN Tradition but finished with three straight bogeys to finish T10...Jumped into contention at the Montreal Championship after posting a 7-under 65 Saturday, his low round of the year. Was in the final grouping Sunday for the first time since the 2007 Allianz Championship in Boca Raton but struggled with a final-round 73 and eventually was T29 in Canada...Missed the cut at the Masters, his 32nd consecutive appearance at Augusta National...Also made his 20th appearance in the Bob Hope Classic but missed the cut.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Had a pair of top-10s and came closest to ending his victory drought when, for the second straight year, he finished runner-up with teammate Jeff Sluman at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. The pair tied Bernhard Langer and Tom Lehman at the end of regulation but saw their bid for a win end when Lehman made par on the second extra hole after they missed par attempts. Extended the overtime session to a second hole when he drained a 45-foot birdie putt on the opening playoff hole, matching a similar effort moments earlier by Langer...Closed with rounds of 66-69 on the weekend at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge to record a sixth-place finish at the Boeing Classic, his best performance in a non-team event since a T2 at the 2008 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. 2008: Despite being troubled by hip problems during the last half of the season, returned to a spot among the top-30 money-winners after a year's absence...Finished second twice and had six top-10 efforts overall, the most he's registered in a season since 2005...Recorded his top individual performance of the year at the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, finishing T2 along with Fuzzy Zoeller, five strokes back of Jeff Sluman. Started the final round one stroke behind four different players and carded a final-round 71 at Pebble to move up into a second-place tie in the event...Teamed with Sluman for a second-place finish at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah. The pair made a strong, final-round charge with an 11-under par 61 but finished one stroke behind the team of Andy North and Tom

Watson...Was also T3 at the inaugural Cap Cana Championship, posting back-to-back scores of 67 at Punta Espada on the weekend...Made a hole-in-one on the famed Postage Stamp hole at Royal Troon (No. 8) in the opening round at the Senior British Open, securing 123 bottles of Hardys Wine as part of the European Seniors Tour promotion for holes-in-one. He used a pitching wedge on the 123-yard hole for his ace, the fifth of his career. 2007: Highlight of his year was his performance at the Boeing Classic near Seattle in late August. Was one of the players to earn a spot in the record seven-man playoff. Along with Lonnie Nielsen, ended one stroke short in Minnesota...Matched the Champions Tour's all-time scoring record for lowest 18 holes when he fired a 10-under 60 at The Moors on Saturday at the Blue Angels Classic. Had a chance for 59 but missed from 27 feet, 5 inches on his last hole of the round. 2004: Was voted by his peers as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year after a career-best five victories in a single season, the most

Led the season-long race during the month of September before finishing 39 points back of Hale Irwin at season's end...Was among the top three in over a third of his 21 starts, and five victories included three consecutive wins during the summer, a first on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan won three consecutive starts on the Champions Tour (1997-98)...Started the run by earning his second major championship on the Champions Tour at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Closed with four straight birdies in the final round to win by one stroke over Jerry Pate and Allen Doyle. Took over the lead in the money race for good with his $345,000 first-place check near Portland. Helped his cause when he made a rare double eagle on the 16th hole Saturday, nailing a perfect 4-iron from 207 yards. Was 11-under-par on the critical par 5s at The Reserve... Made it two straight wins the following week by capturing the inaugural First Tee Open at Pebble Beach presented by Wal-Mart. Won by three strokes over Jay Haas, after opening with an even-par 72 at the Bayonet GC. Was 14-under-par on the back nine en route to a tournament-record score of 17-under-par 199. Check for $270,000 at the SAS event pushed his season earnings past the $2-million mark, the first player to do so in two years... Started the year by winning The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Prevailed by making a 27-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a playoff with Tom Watson and Gary Koch at TwinEagles. Appeared to be out of contention after a double bogey at the 13th hole on Sunday left him three behind leader Koch. However, a birdie at 15, coupled with bogeys by Koch at 14 and 17, opened the door...Also rallied from four strokes back on the final day to win by four at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Final-round 64 at Nashawtuc was the lowest Sunday score in tournament history and victory became extra

Became the 14th player in history to record his first victory at a major championship and became the youngest winner in Ford Senior Players Championship history (50 years, 1 month, 11 days). Trained by six strokes at the halfway point, but rebounded with rounds of 65-66, with only 51 putts in the final two rounds at the TPC Michigan...Added a second Champions Tour title at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Started two strokes back in the final round, but made birdie on five of his first seven holes and cruised to a two-stroke win over Larry Nelson, his first in North Carolina since the 1991 TOUR Championship...Joined Tom Watson as the only other player on the Champions Tour to win in consecutive starts when he cruised to a four-stroke win over Bob Gilder at the SBC Championship in San Antonio, two weeks after winning in North Carolina. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T52—The Principal Charity Classic.

2010 SEASON:

Made just five appearances on the Champions Tour and played his final Champions Tour event at The Principal Charity Classic, finishing T52 in Des Moines, his best effort of the year. Stepped away from professional golf after 17 years on the circuit to begin a three-year stint as a mission president supervising missionaries for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints near Tampa, FL.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Made 11 Champions Tour appearances for the second straight year. His lone top-10 effort came in his third start of the campaign when he was T6 in Iowa at The Principal Charity Classic, posting rounds of 67-68 on the weekend at Glen Oaks. Performance was his best on the Champions Tour since 2004 when he won the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati. It also marked the first time since the 2008 Administaff Small Business Classic that a player over age 65 finished in the top 10 (Dave Stockton, age 66, T4). 2008: Best performance of the year came in late June when he was T11 at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Posted three consecutive sub-par rounds at Nashawtuc for the only time during the season... Second-round 66 at the 3M Championship was his low round of the year. 2007: Best effort of the season came at the Commerce Bank Championship when he finished T9 at Eisenhower Park, thanks to a 65 Saturday on the Red Course, his low round of the year. Finish was his best since 2005 campaign...Saw his streak of consecutive events for which he was eligible end at 166 when he did not compete in the Senior British Open in July. The streak was the third-longest in Champions Tour history, behind Dana Quigley (278) and Mike McCullough (177). 2006: Made the first hole-in-one of his senior career, and last of 10 on the Champions Tour during the year, when he aced the 11th hole in the final round of the JELD-WEN Tradition. Used a 5-iron on the 185-yard hole for the 10th ace in tournament history. 2004: Won for the third time on the Champions Tour at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati late in the year. Win ended a victory drought of 6 years, 2 months and 7 days (209 starts). At 60 years, 6 months and 28 days old, he became the eighth oldest winner in Champions Tour history at the time and the oldest champion since 61-year-old J.C. Snead's triumph at the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic. Rallied from six strokes back for victory, thanks to a final-round 64 at the TPC River's Bend, his best round in over four years. Got up and down for a clutch birdie on the last hole to post a 15-under-par 201 total and then watched his closest pursuers fail in their bids to catch him. 2003: Placed solo third at the Senior British Open, thanks to a final-round 65...Also T3 at the Turtle Bay Championship. 2002: Closed with a 68 on Sunday at The Countrywide Tradition and fell just one stroke shy of earning a berth in a playoff with John Jacobs and eventual winner Jim Thorpe. 2001: Led all players in Eagles, with 19. 2000: Opened with a career-low 10-under 62 at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational and was the 36-hole leader at the TPC Prestancia before eventually T8 in Sarasota...Best overall finish was a solo third at SBC Senior Open near Chicago. 1999: Finished second at the Bank One Championship, five strokes back of Tom Watson...T2 at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic, two strokes behind Joe Inman. 1998: Tasted victory at the State Farm Senior Classic near Baltimore. Made a 20-foot birdie putt on the 18th green at Hobbit's Glen to avert a playoff with Walter Hall and Hale Irwin. 1997: Earned his first Champions Tour victory in his 102nd start. Claimed the Saint Luke's Classic in suburban Kansas City in a playoff over Hugh Baiocchi. Trained by six strokes entering the final round, but made birdie on two of the last three holes to tie Baiocchi, then defeated him with a par on the second extra playoff hole. Saw his string of consecutive official events end at 96 straight when he skipped the BankBoston Classic in August due to a back problem. 1996: Earned the "ironman" title after setting a Champions Tour record by playing an amazing 119 rounds (the old mark was 115 by Rives McBee and John Paul Cain in 1990). 1995: Blitzed the GC of Georgia with a course-record 63 in the first round of the Nationwide Championship. Eventually settled for a T2 with Hale Irwin, two behind Bob Murphy...Came close again in his native Utah, but was one of six players to fall one stroke short of Tony Jacklin at the Franklin Quest Championship...Also led with six holes to play at The Transamerica, but lost to Lee Trevino down the stretch. 1994: Earned a full exemption for 1995 after a fourth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament...Played in four events (three Monday qualifying, one sponsor exemption).

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T4—Boeing Classic; T8—The ACE Group Classic, Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T9—Ensure Classic at Rock Barn.

2010 SEASON:

Three of his four top-10s came at events where he had a top-10 performance in 2009. Enjoyed his best earnings year since pocketing a little more than $939,000 on the PGA TOUR in 2003. Best effort came in late August when he opened with a 6-under-par 66 and went on to T4 at the Boeing Classic in August near Seattle. In his first start of the season, rebounded from a 1-over-par 73 in the opening round at The ACE Group Classic with weekend scores of 70-69 in windy conditions to finish T8 in Naples. Added another T8 effort at April's Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. In early October, posted three straight sub-par rounds to claim a T9 finish at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was among the top 10 three times in his first full Champions Tour season. His 19 starts were the most he's made since he played 24 PGA TOUR tournaments in 2003...Had a chance to finish among the top-30 money-winners on the Champions Tour until he was slowed by lower-back problems in October and ended up 34th... After shooting 74 Friday at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, rallied with rounds of 64-69 on the weekend to finish T3 in Tampa, his best career Champions Tour effort and highest tournament finish in a TOUR-sanctioned event since placing third at the 2003 MCI Heritage Classic...In late September, fired a closing-round, 7-under-par 65 to share fourth place with Nick Price at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn...Registered his low round on the Champions Tour when he closed with a 9-under-par 63 at the Boeing Classic in late August, helping him to a fifth-place finish near Seattle. The 63 was his best round as a professional since a 63 at the 2003 Valero Texas Open. 2008: Turned 50 in late April but did not make first of his two appearances on the Champions Tour until mid-October when he debuted at the Administaff Small Business Classic. Carded three consecutive par/better rounds at The Woodlands and finished T23. Appearance near Houston was his first in a TOUR event since the 2006 Nissan Open, where he missed the cut.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A 14-time PGA TOUR winner over a career that went from 1982-2006...Finished inside the top 10 on the money list six times and collected multiple victories in five different seasons...Won seven times in his 20s, once in his 30s and six times in his 40s, with his last victory coming at the 2001 Shell Houston Open. Closing 69 near Houston brought him from two strokes back to 14th title. His $612,000 payday also lifted him over $1 million for fourth consecutive season...Won twice in 2000 for a total of five in a three-year stretch, the best run of his career. In his first win that season, went head to head with Tiger Woods at THE PLAYERS Championship and came away with one-stroke, wire-to-wire victory. Sutton and Woods played in the last group Sunday and Sutton held a three-stroke lead on the 12th hole when lightning suspended play for the day. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T24—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2010 SEASON:

Made his first start in an official stroke-play event on the Champions Tour since February, 2007 when he played in the inaugural Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic and finished T69...Also teamed with Bob Gilder to finish T24 in the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: Had a pair of top-10s in his last full season on the Champions Tour with both coming in majors. Was ninth at the Senior PGA Championship and T9 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. 2005: Chose to have elbow surgery after being troubled with discomfort for much of the first four months of the season. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left elbow May 10 near his home in Oklahoma City to clean out scar tissue...Best showing came at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Shared the 54-hole lead with his neighbor Gil Morgan, but closed with a 1-over-par 73 to drop to a T5 finish. 2004: Ended a victory drought of just over a year when, after borrowing a Ping Anser putter from the stash of surplus clubs at the home of his fellow professional Walter Hall, used the club to win the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Made a clutch 13-foot birdie putt on the last hole to edge Bruce Fleisher by one stroke and win the western North Carolina event. Shot an 8-under-par 64 in the last round to come from three strokes back of Fleisher on Sunday. Victory was his eighth on the Champions Tour and gave him five straight years with at least one win. Went bogey-free over his 54 holes at Rock Barn, a first since Morris Hatalasky won the 2003 Columbus Southern Open without making a bogey. 2003: Victory near Grand Rapids came in dramatic fashion. Came from three strokes back on Sunday to claim his seventh career title at the Farmers Charity Classic. Tied Eamonn Darcy after 54 holes as a result of a clutch 18-foot eagle putt on the 17th hole at Egypt Valley. Eventually defeated Darcy with a 15-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole. Victory made him the 16th different winner in 2003, tying the all-time Champions Tour record for longest span without a repeat winner. 2002: The third of six multiple winners on the season...Came from three strokes back to win the Verizon Classic by one stroke over Hale Irwin. Was the only player in the field to record three consecutive rounds in the 60s at the TPC Tampa Bay and hit 41 of 42 fairways...Held off Bobby Wadkins by a stroke to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Again drove the ball in 41 of 42 fairways at the King & Bear course...Made the first hole-in-one of the 2002 season when he aced the 217-yard eighth hole with a 4-iron at Hualalai GC during the opening round of the MasterCard Championship. Ace was the first in MasterCard Championship history. 2001: In April, closed with a Cochrise course-record 10-under-par 62 at Desert Mountain, the lowest score ever shot in a major championship on the Champions Tour, and completed a wire-to-wire victory at The Countrywide Tradition. Victory at Desert Mountain GC was his second major victory on the Champions Tour. Needed just 19 putts in his final round and his 72-hole total of 23-under-par 265 was the best four-round score on the Champions Tour since Jack Nicklaus posted an all-time record of 27-under 261 at the 1990 Ford Senior Players Championship. Victory near Phoenix was his fourth Champions Tour title, coming in his 40th career start. Did not register his fourth win on the PGA TOUR until his 541st start... Almost claimed a second major title at the Ford Senior Players Championship, but fell in a one-hole playoff to Allen Doyle. Appeared on the verge of winning the title before Doyle drained a 35-foot putt on the 72nd hole to force the overtime session. 2000: Earned Rookie of the Year honors, thanks to three victories, including a win in a Champions Tour major...Broke through in a big way with his first Champions Tour title, the rain-shortened PGA Seniors' Championship. Victory was his first since the '87 Pensacola Open. At the time, became just the 10th player ever to make his first victory on the Champions Tour a major when he waltzed to a seven-shot triumph over Dana Quigley, Tom Kite, Larry Nelson and Hale Irwin at PGA National...Added his second victory at the SBC Championship in San Antonio, holing a birdie putt on the final hole for a one-stroke win over Walter Hall and Larry Nelson...Claimed his third title at the Novell Utah

Showdown, outdistancing his neighbor, Gil Morgan, by two strokes in Park City. 1999: Turned 50 in August, but did not play his first event until early October due to a back injury he sustained right before he was eligible to play...Made debut on the Champions Tour at the Vantage Championship and finished T15.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Was T4 at the rain-shortened Regions Charity Classic in May near Birmingham...Had a pair of other top-10 finishes...Was T8 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am and T10 in his final start of the season at the AT&T Championship, thanks to back-to-back 69s on the week-end. 2008: Saw his streak of top-30 finishes come to an end at nine when he placed 35th on the final money list... In his second start of the year, trailed Gil Morgan by two strokes after 36 holes of the Turtle Bay Championship and was briefly tied for the lead midway through the final round before finishing T2 along with Fulton Allem, two strokes back of Jerry Pate. Final-round 74 in relentless tradewinds included a birdie on the last hole that moved him into runner-up spot. 2007: For the second consecutive year, saved his best performance for the year's final event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Claimed the season-ending tournament in style by making birdie on the final four holes to easily defeat both Fred Funk and Denis Watson by three strokes at Sonoma GC. His 20-under 268 tied his own tournament scoring record and was his third overall victory at Sonoma, matching Tom Watson's three wins (2000, 2002, 2005). Win was also his 13th career title on the Champions Tour and extended his streak of years with at least one victory to eight consecutive seasons. Joined Jay Haas and Brad Bryant as players who successfully defended titles in 2007. The $442,000 paycheck was his largest as a professional and put him over the $1-million mark in season earnings for the eighth straight season...Almost did not make the field at Sonoma, having to hold off Tom Jenkins for the 30th spot on the 2007 earnings list the week prior at the AT&T Championship. Came into the season's final full-field event ahead of Jenkins on the money list and T38 at Oak Hills allowed him to end up $4,079 ahead of Jenkins after play ended in San Antonio... Was T2 at the season-opening MasterCard Championship at Hualalai in Hawaii. Second-round, 9-under 63 turned out to be his low round of the season. 2006: Won his second Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Shot four consecutive sub-par rounds to cruise to a two-stroke victory over Tom Kite in the season-ending event in Sonoma, CA...Nearly won the Ford Senior Players Championship in July, finishing second to Bobby Wadkins at the TPC Michigan near Detroit. Fired four straight sub-par rounds but missed a 7-foot par putt on the 72nd hole, eventually costing him the opportunity for a playoff with Wadkins. It was his third runner-up finish in the event...Matched the 18-hole tournament record with a 9-under 63 in the final round of the Regions Charity Classic. Score set a Robert Trent Jones Trail at Ross Bridge course record, as well as established a record for the best final-round score in tournament history. 2005: Picked up two victories, with first win coming in May when he claimed the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin. Birdied four of his last five holes at The Hills CC to break away from the pack and win by four strokes. Gave his entire $247,500 first-place check to his church, Crossings Community Church, in Lake Mary, FL. Was the only player in the field to post three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Hills...Followed up win in Austin with a playoff victory over Morris Hatalsky in the Florida panhandle at the Blue Angels Classic. Defeated Hatalsky with a birdie on the third extra playoff hole of a Monday finish at The Moors after the duo was deadlocked at 16-under on Sunday evening after 54 holes. Win near

Pensacola was his 11th career Champions Tour title and 194 total was the lowest winning 54-hole score on the 2005 Champions Tour. 2004: Got his year jump-started when he was a one-stroke victor over Fred Gibson at the Farmers Charity Classic, despite a double bogey on the final hole. Came from three strokes back in the final round, thanks to seven birdies in the first 14 holes on Sunday... Rallied from four strokes back to win his second straight Commerce Bank Long Island Classic title a month later. Joined Bruce Fleisher, Lee Trevino and George Archer on the list of players who have successfully defended titles on Long Island. Final-round 67 included three birdies on the front nine that allowed him to overtake 54-hole leader Jerry Pate. Avoided a playoff with a clutch par save from 19 feet on the last hole. 2003: Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf when he was among the top-three six times starting in mid-July. Appeared to be out of the Charles Schwab Cup competition through the first half of the season, but eventually finished second in the Schwab Cup race behind Tom Watson when he became the Champions Tour's hottest player after mid-August. Was voted the Champions Tour Player of the Month for both August and October. Also placed second behind Watson in the final money standings with a personal-best $1,830,306...In the winner's circle for the first time in 16 months when he slipped by Bob Gilder for a one-stroke victory at the Long Island Classic with a tournament-record score of 15-under 195. Tied a Champions Tour record in the second round when he shot a 10-under-par 60 on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park. Record-tying score gave him a two-stroke cushion entering Sunday's final round and 3-under-par 67 proved to be good enough for the win...Capped his year with a wire-to-wire victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA, a first in the season-ending event since Jim Colbert in 1995. His 20-under-par total over 72 holes at Sonoma GC, included playing the par 5s in 13-under, was the lowest 72-hole score in relation to par on the Champions Tour in 2003. Was locked in a duel with Tom Watson down the stretch, but holed a 67-foot eagle putt from the fringe on the par-5 16th and then made a 10-foot birdie putt on No. 17 to seal the win. 2002: Won the only major championship of his career at The Tradition. Bested John Jacobs on

2010 SEASON:

Finished just outside the top-30 money-winners in his first full season on the Champions Tour...Best performance of the season came late in the campaign when he claimed a fourth-place finish at the Ensure Classic at Rock Barn in early October. Fired a final-round, 10-under-par 62, his best round on the Champions Tour. The 62 Sunday included not only a pair of eagles but also a stretch of five holes where he was 6-under par, the season's best birdie-eagle streak. Eagle during that run was his second hole-in-one of the season, the first time a player made multiple aces in a year since Chip Beck in 2009. Used a 6-iron from 186 yards at Rock Barn's ninth hole...Was a sixth-place finisher with teammate Blaine McCallister at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April in Savannah. The pair trailed by just one after 36 holes before closing with a 4-under-par 68 to slip to sixth. Helped his team's cause by recording his first ace of the year on the 15th hole in the second round, using an 8-iron from 157 yards...Posted three straight rounds in the 60s and eventually finished T7 at the Regions Charity Classic in May near Birmingham...Was also one of three players tied for the opening-round lead at the Toshiba Classic before eventually finishing T17...Also made two eagles in a round on the final day of the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic and ended the season ranked second to Fred Couples in Eagle Frequency (105.1 holes per).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T17—Toshiba Classic; T21—The ACE Group Classic.

2010 SEASON:

Struggled with lower-back issues off and on during the year and did not register a top-10 finish in any of his 22 starts, a first in his Champions Tour career...Best efforts during the season came in two of his first four appearances when he was T21 at The ACE Group Classic and then T17 at the Toshiba Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Posted just one top-10 finish, a T9 at the Toshiba

Classic in March. 2008: Among his four top-10 finishes was a T4 effort early in the year at the Allianz Championship. Was among a handful of players who contended, but four bogeys in an eight-hole stretch Sunday proved his undoing. Had started the day just two strokes behind 36-hole leader Jerry Pate...Made double eagle in the opening round of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, holing a 5-iron second shot from 191 yards at the par-5 12th at TPC Tampa Bay, the first albatross in event history. Double eagle was second on the Champions Tour...Was T5 at The Principal Charity Classic and T7 in his next outing at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. 2007: Holed a 13-foot birdie putt on the final hole to edge Allen Doyle for The ACE Group Classic title in February. The victory in Naples, FL, his fourth career title, came seven years after brother Lanny won the same event. Victory marked only the third time a brother combination had claimed the same Champions Tour event (Dave/Mike Hill, 1987/1990 Fairfield Barnett Space Coast Classic; 1988/1993 PaineWebber Invitational). 2006: Had his best year as a professional, winning a pair of titles, including a major championship, and finishing among the top-10 money-winners for the first time ever...Went over the seven-figure mark in single-season earnings for the first time since 2002...Claimed the biggest win of his career at the third major championship on the schedule, the Ford Senior Players Championship at TPC Michigan in July. Started his final round with a bogey on the first hole and trailed 54-hole leader Loren Roberts by as much as six strokes at one point Sunday. However, five straight birdies on Nos. 11-15 and a disastrous four-hole stretch by Roberts allowed him to move into the lead and win the title despite a double bogey at No. 18. Made a 13-foot putt on the final hole that closed the door on a possible playoff with Jim Thorpe. The one-stroke victory over Thorpe and two-stroke margin over four others, including Roberts, was worth $375,000, his largest check ever, as well as a berth in the 2007 PLAYERS Championship. His 14-under 274 total was the low 72-hole score of the year in relation to par. Earlier in the season, ended a 125-event victory drought by claiming his second title on the Champions Tour at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. Went wire-to-wire for victory on Mother's Day on The Raven Course. Opened with a course-record, 9-under 62 on Friday, the lowest first-round score by a winner in 2006. Held off a hard-charging Raymond Floyd on Sunday with a clutch seven-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole...Also T2 at the Toshiba Classic, one stroke short of Brad Bryant. Appeared to be in the driver's seat early Sunday but fell back after three-putting for bogey on No. 17 and did not get up and down for birdie on the final hole...Almost won for a third time in August, and came close to garnering a second major title, when he contended all four days at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Missed a playoff by one stroke and settled on a third-place finish near Portland...Made the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career at the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic when, with brother Lanny and son, Casey, in the same group, aced the 182-yard second hole in the second round at Nicklaus GC at LionsGate with a 4-iron. 2004: Qualified for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship with a solo third-place finish at the SBC Championship the week prior. Was in the 37th position and moved up into the 29th spot on the money list after posting consecutive rounds of 67 on the weekend at Oak Hills that earned him a $108,000 check in San Antonio...T2 on July 4 at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic, one stroke shy of Jim Thorpe. Stood in the fairway on the final hole with a chance to win the event but pushed his 5-iron approach right of the 18th green and could not get up and down for par. 2003: Had a trio of second-place finishes...Battled through back spasms at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic in his second start and eventually T2 at Key Biscayne. Missed a seven-foot birdie putt on the final hole which would have forced a playoff...Runner-up for second consecutive year at the Senior PGA Championship, finishing two strokes behind John Jacobs at Aronimink GC near Philadelphia...Made a strong bid for a win at the SAS Championship in Raleigh in September before eventually coming up one stroke short of D.A. Weirbring. Snead despite closing with a 6-under-par 66 on Sunday. 2001: Made his first appearance on the circuit a memorable one. as the youngest winner (50 years, 11 days/ 1996 Ralphs Senior Classic). His 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole at the Meadow Brook Club gave him his first win in TOUR event in his 778th start. Helped his cause early in the final round when he rebounded from a double bogey with a double eagle on the third hole (driver, pitching wedge from 135 yards). 2010 SEASON:

Lone top-25 performance came midway through the season in Canada... Was T18 at the inaugural Montreal Championship after sharing the first-round lead with Russ Cochran. Carded a 7-under 65 on the opening day, besting his age by two strokes, a first for him in his Champions

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Best showings were a T3 in the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf Raphael Division with Dave Eichelberger and a T13 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. 2008: Season was limited to 14 events, the fewest in his career and none after playing just one round at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in July... Lone top-25 finish came at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, where he was T15 with teammate Dave Eichelberger. 2007: Lone top-10 finish came in July when he was T9 at the Commerce Bank Championship on Long Island. 2006: Best finish a T7 at the Commerce Bank Championship on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park, his best effort since a T2 at the 2005 ACE Group Classic. 2005: Had his best year since 2002 with three top-10 finishes... Performance in Naples was his best on the Champions Tour since winning in Sarasota at the 2000 LiquidGolf.com Invitational... Finished T4 the following week near Tampa at the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Made a late run during a rare Monday finish, with birdies on four of his last six holes. Performance at the TPC Tampa Bay was his best there since he was T4 in 1993... Added another T4 to his season resume at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October. 2002: Had his season cut short in mid-September when he suffered a heart attack just prior to the start of the final round at the RJR Championship.

Underwent angioplasty shortly after in Winston-Salem, NC, and did not play the remainder of the year... Best showing came near Kansas City where he vaulted from a T25 into a T3 at the rain-shortened TD Waterhouse Championship... Had a rare feat at the AT&T Canada Senior Open when he eagled the par-5 13th hole at Essex all three days. Was 6-under on that hole, but played his other 51 holes for the week 1-over par. Made his third hole-in-one on the Champions Tour (12th overall) in the opening round of the Ford Senior Players Championship. Aced the 192-yard fourth hole with a 5-iron. 2000: Ended a victory drought of nearly five years when he defeated Gary McCord and J.C. Snead in a three-hole playoff at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational, his first Champions Tour title since the 1995 Dallas Reunion Pro-Am (120 starts). Came from three strokes back of Bruce Summerhays with a final-round 68 at The TPC Prestancia. 1998: Second by two strokes to Gil Morgan at The Tradition. 1997: T3 at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC near Chicago. His 54-hole score of 13-under 197 was seven shots better than Dave Stockton and Dave Eichelberger... Almost captured the Emerald Coast Classic, but fell to Raymond Floyd in a playoff. 1994: Was the Champions Tour's "ironman," playing in 36 tournaments and 112 rounds... Defeated Bob Murphy at the Doug Sanders Kingwood Celebrity Classic... Journeyed across the pond and won the Senior British Open at Royal

Was among the top-10 in a third of his 12 official starts on the Champions Tour last year...Got his season off to a quick start with back-to-back wins in Hawaii...Birdied the last two holes at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai to overtake Fred Couples for his 13th career Champions Tour title. Holed an 8-foot birdie putt on No. 17 to tie Couples and then won the tournament with a 5-foot birdie putt on the final hole. Victory ended an 0-for-33 drought on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour in Hawaii and gave him official titles in five different decades. Win at 60 years, 4 months, 20 days also made him the 13th-oldest winner in Champions Tour history and first player over 60 to win since Gil Morgan at the 2007 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. His 22-under-par 194 total was the lowest 54-hole score of his Champions Tour career and he also became the first wire-to-wire winner of the Mitsubishi event since Tom Kite in 2002... One week earlier, started his season teaming with Jack Nicklaus to win the Wendy's Champions Skins Game at Royal Kaanapali GC on Maui in Hawaii. Duo combined for 10 skins and $350,000...Tied his Champions Tour career low when he shot a final-round 62, leading to a T3 finish at the Toshiba Classic in March. Round included eight birdies and an eagle...Closed with a final-round 66 at Sahalee to finish solo fifth at the U.S. Senior Open. Became the first player over age 60 to record a top-five finish at that championship since 61-year-old Jack Nicklaus was T4 in 2001 U.S. Senior Open at Salem CC...Also T8 at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am...Early in the year, made his first appearance on the European Tour in almost 17 years (1993 German Masters) and shot a final-round 68 at Emirates GC to finish T8 at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic. Became the oldest player ever to register a top-10 finish in a regular European Tour event...Was among the first-round leaders at his 37th Masters after posting a 5-under 67 at Augusta National. Round matched his best Masters score. With son Michael caddying, eventually finished T18 after rounds of 73-73 on the weekend...One day following the Masters, received a special exemption to play in the 2010 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach, where he finished T29 at age 60, making him the second-oldest player to make the cut in the tournament (Sam Snead remains the oldest at age 61, finishing T29 in 1973). Watson also became the first player to compete in all five U.S. Opens staged at the historic layout on the Monterey Peninsula... Missed the cut at the British Open after posting rounds of 73-75 on the Old Course at St. Andrews.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Nearly pulled off one of the all-time great stories in sports in July when he lost a four-hole playoff to Stewart Cink at the British Open at Turnberry. Appeared on the verge of claiming his sixth Open title when he headed to the 72nd hole with a one-stroke lead on the field. After a near-perfect drive, his second shot, an 8-iron, rolled through the green and down a slope. He putted to within 8 feet and, needing a par to claim the title, saw his putt fall short, forcing a playoff with Cink. After posting a bogey and par on the first two holes, he followed with a double bogey and a bogey, ending his bid to become the oldest winner of the event, at age 59... Four of his seven top-10s on the 2009 Champions Tour came in major championships... Suffered another heartbreaking defeat at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship. Was in command with a four-stroke lead through 54 holes at Baltimore CC and, despite a final-round 70, was nipped by a stroke when a hard-charging Jay Haas carded a final-round 64. Second-place finish in Maryland vaulted him into the top 30 on the money list for the ninth time in the last 10 seasons... Fired a 4-under-par 66 in his final round at the Senior PGA Championship which eventually led to a fourth-place finish at the Canterbury GC near Cleveland... Was T5 at the JELD-WEN Tradition in August, after posting rounds of 69-67 on the weekend. It was his seventh top-10 finish in the event in nine career starts... Also was T8 at the Senior British Open at Sunningdale. Was in contention through 36 holes, but an even-par 70 dropped him back... Trained Dan Forsman by two strokes after 36 holes of the Administaff Small Business Classic but a final-round 72 on the Tournament Course at The Woodlands led to a T7 finish, his first appearance in the Houston area since 1986... Also teamed with Andy North to finish T11 in defense of the duo's title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. However, they kept their string of consecutive holes without a bogey alive, increasing it to 216 at the event... Closed his season with a T6 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, his seventh top-10 in eight appearances at the season-ending tournament. 2008: Saw his season come to a halt in the fall when he underwent left-hip replacement surgery on October 2 in California... Became the first player to successfully defend his title at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Edged Scott Hoch and Jay Haas by one stroke. Managed to scramble for a bogey on the final hole after dunking his second shot in the water at No. 18. When it appeared there would be a playoff, he was the beneficiary of Hoch's missed putt for par from 4 feet. Victory was his 11th on the Champions Tour and 50th overall in a Tour-sanctioned event. Joined Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino as the only players with at least 10 wins on the Champions Tour, 20 victories on the PGA TOUR and a combined 50 titles on both Tours... Followed his victory in Tampa by teaming with Andy North to win the Legends Division title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. The pair opened with a 13-under par 59 and followed with rounds of 62-64 for a wire-to-wire victory in Savannah. Played all 54 holes without a bogey for the fourth straight year, a stretch of 162 holes. The pair had won three consecutive titles in the unofficial Raphael Division before the win in the Legends Division, which became an official event in 2008. 2007: A two-time winner for the first time since 2005... Continued his run of success at the Senior

British Open when he prevailed in adverse conditions to win by one stroke over Mark O'Meara and Stewart Ginn at Muirfield in July. Despite a double bogey at the 72nd hole, claimed the event for the third time, duplicating victories in 2003 and 2005. Victory gave him eight official wins in the British Isles (five British Opens and three Senior British Opens), including seven in Scotland and 13 major championships overall. The win also made him the second three-time champion of that event, joining Gary Player. Triumph at the Senior British was his 10th career win on the Champions Tour and was his 49th official title on both the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined... First victory of 2007 season came in February. Braved chilly and windy conditions near Tampa to win the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, holding off both Jay Haas and Andy Bean by a stroke at the TPC Tampa Bay. The win ended a 0-93 victory drought in Florida (0-77 on the PGA TOUR and 0-16 on the Champions Tour). Played his last nine holes in 3-under and made key par saves on two of his last four holes to preserve the win, his first since the end of the 2005 season... Also teamed with good friend Andy North to win a third straight Raphael Division title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo edged Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie by one stroke in the 36-hole better-ball competition in Savannah and did not make a bogey for the third consecutive year... Teamed with Jack Nicklaus to win nine skins and a split of the $320,000 first prize at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game on Maui in January... Champions Tour Player of the Month for July. 2006: Led the Champions Tour in Greens In Regulation, hitting over 76 percent, the best percentage on the circuit since Tom Kite in 2000... Made a strong bid for the U.S. Senior Open in July at Prairie Dunes CC. Held a two-stroke margin over eventual winner Allen Doyle after 54 holes, but started Sunday's final round with bogeys on three of the first six holes and eventually could not hold off a Sunday charge from Doyle... Teamed with Andy North to win second consecutive Raphael Division title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo fired 36-hole better-ball score of 62-61—123 (21-under). 2005: Had a magical finish to his season. Roared back from a six-stroke deficit to Jay Haas with a final-round, 8-under-par 64 to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, as well as the season-long Charles Schwab Cup for the second time. His final round included 10 birdies and just two bogeys. Drained a 20-foot putt on the final hole to build a one-stroke margin over Haas and then watched as Haas' birdie putt fell short moments later to give him his third win in the event. His 64 was the low finish ever by a winner of the tournament and his first-place check for $440,000 equaled the largest of his Champions Tour career. In the process, earned 1,320 points (based on triple points in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship) and jumped four players to win the Charles

Schwab Cup and the $1-million annuity which goes to the winner... Earlier in the year, ended almost a two-year official victory drought when he triumphed for the second time at the Senior British Open, this time at Royal Aberdeen. Defeated Des Smyth with a par-3 on the third playoff hole after the duo had finished 72 holes on the Balgownie links in 4-under-par 280. Win was his fourth major championship and seventh overall title on the Champions Tour. Overcame a first-round, 4-over 75, the highest start by a winner since Bruce Lietzke won the 2002 Audi Senior Classic after opening with the same score... Earned July Player of the Month honors... Teamed with good friend Andy North to win the unofficial Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf by four strokes. Duo combined for a bogey-free, better-ball score of 16-under 128 over 36 holes. 2004: Made just 12 official starts on the Champions Tour and was troubled by hip and shoulder problems throughout the season... Won his first Wendy's Champions Skins Game early in the season when he two-putted for a par from 25 feet on the third extra playoff hole and then watched Lee Trevino three-putt from 25 feet for a bogey. Finished with eight birdies and an eagle to collect 10 skins and $400,000 at Wailea... Continued to be snakebit at The ACE Group Classic, losing in a three-way playoff with winner Craig Stadler and Gary Koch. 2003: Experienced a bittersweet season as he had his finest year on the Champions Tour at the same time he was teaming with long-time caddie and friend Bruce Edwards in his battle against Lou Gehrig's disease... Was either first or second in half of his 14 appearances on the Champions Tour, and as a result of his stellar play throughout the campaign, earned all of the circuit's top honors, winning the first of two Charles Schwab Cups, the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award, the Arnold Palmer Award and the Byron Nelson Trophy... Donated his $1-million annuity for winning the Schwab Cup to ALS research and patient care and other charities. Throughout the course of the season, helped raise nearly $3 million for ALS-related causes and other charities... Was the leading money-winner for the first time since 1984, with a personal-best $1,853,108, and earned the most money per start on the Champions Tour, $132,365... Earned first Player of the Year honor since 1984... Was under par in 37 of 48 rounds and stroke average of 68.81 was the second lowest in Champions Tour history (Hale Irwin, 68.59, 1998)... Became the first player ever to compete in all nine major championships on the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined in a single season... Won multiple major titles in a season for the first time on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan in 1998 and for the first time in his career since 1982. In July, won his second career major on the Champions Tour when he outdueled Englishman Carl Mason on the Ailsa course at Turnberry for an emotional win at the Senior British Open Championship in Scotland. Only had one three-putt over his 74 holes and posted a final-round 64, the lowest finish ever by a winner in Senior British Open history. His 6-under Sunday score, coupled with Mason's double bogey at the 72nd hole, allowed Watson to get into a playoff. Eventually defeated Mason with a par-4 on the second extra hole to become just the 11th player, and first since Hale Irwin in 1998, to win an official event on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour at the same venue...In his next start in late August, became the first player since Hale Irwin in 1998 to win consecutive majors when he claimed the JELD-WEN Tradition, the first fifth major in Champions Tour history, near Portland, OR. With Edwards on the bag, edged Jim Ahern, Tom Kite and Gil Morgan by a stroke when he got his ball up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie on the final hole. Roller coaster event included a second-round, 10-under 62 at The Reserve, tying the lowest round ever posted in a major on the Champions Tour, and a 1-over 73 on Saturday that made him just the third Tradition winner ever with an over-par score among the four rounds...Edged Jim Thorpe for the money title and also clinched the Charles Schwab Cup at the end of the season with a solo second-place finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA...Received a special exemption to play in his first U.S. Open since 2000 and made headlines on Thursday when he was tied for the first-round lead after posting a 5-under 65. Eventually T28 at Olympia Fields after shooting 7-over 147 on the weekend. 2002: For the second time, saved his best for last and won the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Opened with a 2-over 74, but played the last 52 holes of the event without making a bogey (17-under) despite cold, rainy weather in Oklahoma City. His $440,000 paycheck was largest as a professional...Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour, and 13th of his career, in the opening round (16th hole, 6-iron, 156 yards) at TwinEagles...Lost to Don Pooley in a playoff for the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley. Played his last 10 holes in 5-under to catch Pooley and then matched him with three pars and a birdie in overtime before finally falling to Pooley's birdie on No. 18, the fifth extra hole. 2001: Won his first Champions Tour major title. Triumphed at the Senior PGA Championship in New Jersey. After opening with a 72, followed with rounds of 69-66-67 to edge Jim Thorpe by one stroke at Ridgewood CC. 2000: Saved his best for the last official event of the season, claiming the IR SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach. Was T3 after 54 holes, but fired a 6-under-par 66 on the final day for the victory. Held off a late charge by John Jacobs for a one-stroke win. Win at TPC Myrtle Beach made him the first to claim season-ending events on both TOURS (won

'87 Nabisco Championship of Golf)...T9 at the PGA Championship near Louisville, the best performance by a senior in that event since Sam Snead T3 in 1974. Matched his career-best round in a PGA Championship when he posted a 65 on Saturday at Valhalla. 1999: Claimed his first Champions Tour win in his second start, the Bank One Championship in Dallas...At the time, became the third-youngest player ever to win a Champions Tour event at 50 years, 15 days. Gil Morgan (50 years, 11 days/1996 Ralphs Senior Classic) and George Archer (50 years, 14 days/1989 Gatlin Brothers Southwest Classic)...Made debut on the Champions Tour at the Comfort Classic in Indianapolis just six days after turning 50.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Ranks T10 on the PGA TOUR's all-time victory list, with 39 official titles...Had a remarkable run from 1977 through 1982, when he won at least three titles per year...Has been a runner-up 32 times in his PGA TOUR career...First victory came at the 1974 Western Open, when he defeated Tom Weiskopf and J.C. BEST 2010 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T4—Posco E&C Songdo Championship Presented By Gale Int'l.; T5—Montreal Championship.

2010 SEASON:

Season limited to just 19 starts due to a bone spur in his left shoulder. He eventually underwent surgery in late October...Recorded both of his top-10s outside the United States...First top-10 was a T5 at the inaugural Montreal Championship in Canada. Second-round, 9-under-par 63 was a course record at Club de Golf Le Fontainebleau and matched his Champions Tour career-best score. Shot a 6-under 30 on the back nine, the low nine-hole score of the event. Round moved him within three shots of the 36-hole lead and he followed it up with a 68 on Sunday to place among the top five...Was the 36-hole leader at the JELD-WEN Tradition following successive rounds of 67 but could not sustain his success and eventually finished T21 in Oregon...Turned in a nice performance at the inaugural Posco C&E Songdo Championship in South Korea where he finished T4, his best finish on the Champions Tour since his victory at the 2008 Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: A herniated disc in his back as well as family issues forced him to miss some events in the spring as well as three months during the summer. After playing in the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in late June, did not return to action until the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in late September (T31)...The following week near Raleigh, posted three consecutive sub-par scores and finished T9 at the SAS Championship, his best effort of the year...Back woes forced him out of action once again after one round at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and played just one event after that at the Administaff Small Business Classic (T46). Made an appearance at THE PLAYERS Championship but had to withdraw early in the first round with back issues. 2008: Claimed one of the year's big prizes when he won the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship at Baltimore CC in October. It was the first major title of his professional career and ended an 0-for-64 drought in major championships (0-39 on the PGA TOUR, 0-25 on the Champions Tour). His victory at Five Farms during the fall campaign was his fifth overall Champions Tour title, matching his victory total on the PGA TOUR. His 72-hole total of 9-under 271 was the highest score in relation to par to win the Senior Players since Jim Albus claimed the 1991 event with a score of 9-under 279 at the TPC Michigan. Started the final round one stroke back of Nick Price and trailed him by four strokes after four holes Sunday. However, took the lead for good with a par at No. 10 and then played his last eight holes in 1-under for a one-stroke victory over Fred Funk...Closed his season with a nice effort at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, where he was T5. That finish, combined with his win near Baltimore earlier in the month, helped him earn October Player of the Month honors. 2007: Made a 9 1/2-foot birdie putt on the final hole to win the 3M Championship, his fourth career title on the Champions Tour and first victory on the circuit in a little more than two years. Trained Jay Haas by two strokes with three holes to play, but seized the championship with birdies on each of the last three holes at the TPC Twin Cities. Caught Haas with a birdie at No. 17 after he rifled a 5-iron shot to within 3 feet of the flag. His 18-under 198 total was his second-lowest 54-hole score on the Champions Tour that year and was just one stroke off the 3M event record. Donated $10,000 to help the Minnesota chapter of the American Red Cross after the I-35W bridge collapse earlier in the week...Had a nice effort at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in May when he fired three straight rounds in the 60s to finish second, two strokes behind Scott Hoch near Austin. Helped his cause with a first-round hole-in-one, sinking a 6-iron from 193 yards on No. 3...Champions Tour August Player of the Month. 2006: Had his best showing in the opening event of the year, a T3 at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. Was the only player in the field who didn't make a bogey, a first on the Champions Tour since Doug Tewell went bogey-free en route to the 2004 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn title. His 22-under 194 score in Hawaii included a final-round 63, matching his career-low round on the Champions Tour. 2005: Third career win came in May when he was a two-stroke victor over Tom Kite and Tom Jenkins at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Was the only player in the field to have three straight rounds in the 60s...Almost successfully defended his Allianz Championship title two weeks later at the Tournament Club of Iowa. Got off to a fast start and held the final-round lead most of the day before eventually ending in a playoff with Tom Jenkins. Missed a 12-foot birdie putt on the first hole of overtime and then lost play-off when he missed a nine-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole...Narrowly missed another chance earlier in the year when he was T2 at the SBC Classic in March, falling one stroke shy of winner Des Smyth...Led the U.S. Senior Open with two holes to play but slipped into a T2 after a bogey-bogey finish. Was one of just two players (Greg Norman) in the field to post four consecutive sub-par scores in the event. Performance at NCR CC was his best ever at the time in any major championship...Voted as the Player of the Month in June. 2004: Led the Champions Tour with 15 top-10 finishes in 25 appearances...Got an early birthday present when he went wire to wire at the Allianz Championship for his fifth Tour victory in the Midwest. Three-stroke win over Tom Jenkins near Des Moines was his second Champions Tour career title and propelled him to May Player of the Month honors...Also closed with 65 at Nashawtuc and T2 in the Bank of America Championship near Boston, four strokes back of Craig Stadler. 2003: Did not become eligible for the Champions Tour until June, yet was one of three rookies to finish among the top 30 money-winners...Among the top

KEYS TO VICTORY

In one of the Champions Tour's great head-to-head battles of all-time, 60-year-old Tom Watson birdied the last two holes to overtake Fred Couples and win his 13th career Champions Tour title and first at stroke play in almost two years. Couples was bidding to become just the 16th player in history to win his first start and appeared to be in the driver's seat after making a 15-foot birdie putt at No. 16. However, after hitting a 6-iron off the tee at the par-3 17th, Watson holed an 8-foot birdie putt to tie Couples. On the final hole, Watson's wedge shot stopped 5 feet from the cup while Couples' approach at No. 18 landed 10 feet away. After Couples misjudged the speed of his birdie putt and missed left, Watson holed his putt, giving him his first official victory and ending an 0 for 33 drought in Hawaii. Both players made six birdies and an eagle in the final round.

Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai

NOTES

Before winning the 2010 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, Tom Watson's last victory in a stroke-play event came at the 2008 Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. The week after winning in Tampa, he teamed with Andy North to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (17 official events earlier), a better-ball official event.

Tom Watson's win on the Big Island at 60 years, 4 months, 20 days made him the second-oldest winner in Mitsubishi Electric Championship history (Hale Irwin, in 2007, was 61 years, 7 months, 18 days) and the 13th-oldest overall winner in Champions Tour history.

Tom Watson became the oldest winner on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan captured the 2007 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach (60 years, 11 months, 7 days).

Tom Watson's 22-under-par 194 total was the best of his career in a 54-hole event. His previous-best was a 20-under 196 at both the 1999 Bank One Championship and the 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai.

Tom Watson was 17-under-par on the back nine for the week, and his wire-to-wire victory in 2010 was a first at Hualalai since Tom Kite led start to finish in 2002.

Making his first official start on the circuit, Fred Couples finished second in the event, making just one bogey in the tournament and none in his last 51 holes. Corey Pavin tied for 13th in his first Champions Tour start.

Hale Irwin's fifth-place finish at Hualalai was his best performance in a Champions Tour event since finishing second at the 2007 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. It was his 197th top-10 finish of his Champions Tour career and his seventh in this event, tying him with Tom Watson, Allen Doyle, Raymond Floyd, Al Geiberger and Chi Chi Rodriguez for the most in tournament history.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Rookie Fred Couples won his first Champions Tour title, but it didn't come without a fight. Leading the field by as much as seven strokes early in the final round, Couples had to fight off a late charge by Tommy Armour III, who closed with an 11-under-par 61 in his first Champions Tour start. Despite a 5-under-par 31 on the front nine, Couples could not shake Armour, who did one better, opening with a 6-under-par 30 on the front nine. Armour made a string of five birdies in a six-hole stretch, including the last at No. 17, which pulled him into a share of the lead with Couples. However, minutes later Couples, playing two groups behind, made a 5-foot birdie at No. 17 to regain the lead. Couples then two-putted for par at No. 18 to seal the win. Armour's 11-under-par 61 matched the Champions Tour mark for lowest score in relation to par.

NOTES

Fred Couples joined some good company when he won his first event in just his second start. Some other Champions Tour players who had similar success in their second starts include Lee Trevino, Miller Barber, Tom Watson and Gil Morgan.

Fred Couples' win came in his 104th start since his last victory—at the 2003 Shell Houston Open. The winless stretch included 102 PGA TOUR starts.

Tommy Armour III became the first Champions Tour player to shoot a final-round 61 and not win since Tom Jenkins did so at the 2006 Boeing Greater Seattle Classic. Jenkins finished one stroke out of a two-man playoff (Keith Fergus and Tom Kite) at the event, which was won by Kite.

Tommy Armour III's 11-under-par 61 was not a career best. His all-time low was a 60 in the second round of the 1999 Las Vegas Invitational.

The last group continues to be a good place to play the final round of The ACE Group Classic. Fred Couples became the 10th consecutive player to play in the final group and go on to win the tournament. The last winner to not play in the final group was Lanny Wadkins in 2000.

Scott Hoch finished third in his first action since August 2009. Hoch underwent surgery on his left wrist in October 2009.

Rookie Paul Azinger made a nice showing in his Champions Tour debut, firing a 2-under-par 70 in his final round to tie for 21st.

With the staging of the 2010 event at The Quarry, it marked the ninth different site of The ACE Group Classic in its 23-year history.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After Bernhard Langer and John Cook set the tournament record with 17-under-par-199 scores, the playoff provided some fireworks. With Cook on the par-5 18th green in two and getting ready to putt for an eagle on the first extra hole, Langer holed a 45-foot bunker shot from a half-buried lie for an eagle-3. After Langer's eagle, Cook had a chance to extend the overtime session, but his 25-foot putt grazed the right edge of the cup and lipped out. It marked the first time since the 2007 Boeing Classic that a playoff was won with an eagle. Denis Watson eagled the second extra hole in Seattle to defeat six other players. The Allianz Championship victory was special for Langer because it came in front of his adopted hometown of Boca Raton. "I had my family and saw quite a few friends supporting me as I went around today. I'd put this win in my top-three victories of all time. Those two wins at Augusta weren't too shabby either," Langer said.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Fred Couples remained the hottest player on the Champions Tour, making it two wins in his first three starts with his four-stroke victory. Posting three consecutive rounds in the 60s raised his streak to nine in a row to start his Champions Tour career. Couples fired rounds of 64-65 on the weekend to distance himself from runner-up Ronnie Black. Couples was just one under on his front nine Sunday but closed with four birdies and an eagle on the back nine to pull away.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Fred Couples shot a course-record 10-under 62 Sunday (11 birdies and one bogey) and took advantage of an unfortunate break for Corey Pavin to win his third consecutive Champions Tour event. Couples trailed Pavin by one stroke after 13 holes, but Pavin hit a greenside sprinkler head with his second shot on the par-4 14th and his ball landed 60 yards over the green. After watching Pavin's misfortune, Couples hit a wedge 4 feet from the hole and made the birdie putt. Pavin then converted a 20-foot bogey putt, but the lead changed hands for good. Couples added a tap-in birdie on the par-5 15th, his fifth in a row for the second time in the round. He then put the tournament away with a 12-foot birdie at No. 17, his sixth birdie in a seven-hole stretch on the back nine.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Bernhard Langer's 6-iron approach shot to 5 feet and subsequent birdie on No. 18 Saturday proved to be the difference when play was canceled Sunday due to heavy rain. Langer's birdie gave him a one-stroke victory over Mark O'Meara and Mike Reid. Before play was halted for good, Langer and O'Meara managed to get on the course at TPC Tampa Bay. Langer made par on the first hole, while O'Meara chipped in for a birdie that tied them at 9-under. For Langer, it was his 10th career title in just his 51st career Champions Tour start and his second win of the season, with both titles coming in Florida.

NOTES

Bernhard Langer became the sixth international winner of this event. World Golf Hall of Fame members have won this tournament nine times, including five of the last six years.

This was the second event in tournament history shortened to 36 holes due to weather. The 2005 tournament was reduced to 36 holes, with Hale Irwin capturing a one-stroke win over Mark McNulty and Morris Hatafsky.

Fred Couples came up short in his quest to equal Chi Chi Rodriguez's record of four consecutive victories. Couples' even-par 71 Friday also snapped his streak of consecutive rounds in the 60s at 12 consecutive, one short of Hale Irwin's all-time record.

Bernhard Langer and his amateur partner, Rolf Klam (Niceville, FL), won the pro-am portion of the event by one stroke over Peter Senior and his amateur partner, Steve Hand (Tarpon Springs, FL).

KEYS TO VICTORY

Nick Price sank an 8-foot par putt on the second playoff hole to give him and teammate Mark O'Meara a victory over the team of John Cook and Joey Sindelar. The win was the second in Price's Champions Tour career, while O'Meara was victorious for the first time. Both teams had finished at 28-under-par 188 after 54 holes, and it appeared Cook and Sindelar would claim victory on the first extra hole after O'Meara and Price both made a bogey. But Cook's par putt slid past the left edge, sending the teams to the second extra hole where Price ended it with his winning putt.

NOTES

The win by Mark O'Meara and Nick Price was significant because it gave O'Meara his first victory in a Champions Tour event in 58 starts and ended a streak of 238 events without a win in a PGA TOUR event (181 on the PGA TOUR and 57 on the Champions Tour) since his victory at the 1998 British Open. The victory was Price's second on the Champions Tour. He also claimed the 2009 Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

NOTES

Tom Watson and his partner, Andy North, saw their string of consecutive holes without a bogey end at 257 when the pair made a bogey at No. 6 in Sunday's final round.

JAY HAAS/FRED COUPLES

By virtue of his tie-for-fourth finish with teammate Jay Haas, Fred Couples won $83,750, which increased his 2010 earnings to $1,049,317. That made him the fastest player in history to earn $1 million in a season. Couples did it in just his sixth event, breaking the record set by Hale Irwin (eight events) in 1998 and later matched by Loren Roberts in 2006.

The par-4 finishing hole at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort and Spa was the most-difficult in the final round, with a scoring average of 4.182. Only one of 33 teams made a birdie—Hale Irwin (playing with Larry Nelson). The hole also yielded 25 pars and seven bogeys.

KEN GREEN/MIKE REID

Ken Green and his partner Mike Reid tied for 26th. It was Green's first start since losing part of his right leg in an accident in June 2009 while returning from the Triton Financial Classic in Austin, TX.

KEYS TO VICTORY

With winds gusting to 30 mph and rain falling for the majority of the final round, David Eger fired a 3-under-par 69 and edged Tommy Armour III by one stroke at the inaugural event. Eger's 69 was just one of seven scores in the 60s Sunday, and he was the only player in the field to post sub-70 rounds for all three days. Armour made four straight birdies on the back nine (Nos. 11-14) to move into the lead, but Eger pulled even after getting up and down from the front bunker for birdie at the par-5 13th. Eger then took the lead for good at the par-4 16th when his approach shot stopped 3 feet from the hole. Just moments before Eger's short birdie putt, Armour three-putted from 60 feet at the par-3 17th. After running his first putt 3 feet past, Armour missed the comeback effort for par. Even with a three-putt from 25 feet at the final hole, Eger prevailed by a stroke.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Dan Forsman showed no letup after his tournament-record 10-under-par 62 Saturday, firing a 6-under-par 30 on the front to open up a three-shot lead at the turn. He pushed his lead to five strokes with successive birdies on Nos. 10 and 11 and was never threatened after that. He closed with a 6-under-par 66, matching the day's best round and going on to a three-stroke victory, his second on the Champions Tour. Bobby Clampett, who led by one stroke after 36-holes, remained in the chase with birdies on three of the first six holes but made a double at No. 7 and bogeys on Nos. 10 and 11 to fall out of contention.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Lehman made par on the first playoff hole to defeat Fred Couples and David Frost and capture his first senior major title. The lone player to post four consecutive sub-par scores at the windy Colorado Golf Club, Lehman was the only one of the three playoff participants to stay out of trouble on the first extra hole. As the first to tee off, Lehman hit his tee shot down the middle of the fairway. Couples and Frost were unable to duplicate Lehman's success. Couples' tee shot landed in a small bush, forcing him to take an unplayable, while Frost's landed in a fairway bunker. Both would make double bogeys, handing Lehman the title. Couples' late charge in regulation included back-to-back eagles at Nos. 15 and 16 and then barely missing an 8-foot birdie putt which could have given him the win at No. 18. Frost's steady weekend play included a course-record 65 on Saturday and a 67 Sunday, the day's low round.

NOTES

When Fred Couples made consecutive eagles on Nos. 15 and 16 in the final round, he became the first Champions Tour player to do so since Denis Watson at the 2008 FedEx Kinko's Classic.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After suffering a heart-breaking playoff loss last year at Glen Oaks, Nick Price redeemed himself with a four-stroke victory over Tommy Armour III in 2010. Price started the final round tied with Armour for the lead. Price birdied No. 4 to take the lead for good, but it was a chip-in birdie from 75 feet at No. 6 that gave him a cushion. He then added birdies at Nos. 9 and 10 to increase his margin to four strokes over Armour who had made 10 consecutive pars. Price's lead was eventually reduced to two shot after he made only his third bogey of the week at No. 17, but Armour's flickering hopes faded after he pulled his drive in the left bunker on the final hole.

KEYS TO VICTORY

It was the 30th-anniversary week for the Champions Tour, and Loren Roberts carded a back-nine 5-under-par 30 Sunday that included a clutch 7-foot birdie putt on the final hole to ease past Fred Funk for the title. Dan Forsman, the 36-hole leader in the tournament, appeared in control early on the back nine, making four birdies in his first 12 holes. However, Forsman made three bogeys on his closing six holes, including a missed 2-footer for par at No. 14 to eventually drop back into a tie for third. Roberts trailed the leaders by four shots at the turn, but his surge on the back nine started when he holed out a 22-yard wedge shot from the right rough for an eagle on the par-5 12th hole. He followed with short birdie putts on Nos. 13 and 14 to move into contention.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Larry Mize used an eagle and three consecutive birdies on the back nine to ease past a snake-bit John Cook for his first career Champions Tour victory. Mize holed a 40-foot eagle putt at the par-5 10th hole to first take the lead but he then dropped back into a tie with Cook after making bogey at the par-4 12th. Mize regained the lead and the momentum with a 12-foot birdie putt at the par-5 14th hole and then followed by hitting an 8-iron shot to 3 feet for a tap-in birdie at No. 15. He added a third consecutive birdie when his 15-foot putt dropped at No. 16, and it proved to be the deciding margin. Cook staged a late rally with birdies at Nos. 14 and 15 to pull within one shot of Mize, but a missed 3-footer for birdie at No. 16 was his undoing.

R&A

KEYS TO VICTORY

Bernhard Langer held off a Sunday charge by 2010 U.S. Ryder Cup captain Corey Pavin to win a one-stroke victory over Pavin and claim his first major title on the Champions Tour. Langer started the day with a three-stroke advantage on Pavin and built it to four after seven holes. However, consecutive bogeys on Nos. 8 and 9 cut the lead to two at the turn. Pavin's birdie at No. 11 pulled him within one, but the turning point came at No. 15 when Langer had a two-putt birdie from 35 feet and Pavin made bogey after each had birdied No. 14. Langer maintained his margin until No. 18. When Pavin missed his birdie opportunity, Langer just needed to two putt for a bogey and the one-stroke victory.

NOTES

With the win, Bernhard Langer became the first non-American player to win this tournament since Noboru Sugai did so in 2002 when it was an unofficial tournament.

Players from 10 different countries have now won this event with Bernhard Langer's victory.

Close finishes remain the norm in this tournament. Since it became an official event in 2003, there have been five playoffs and three others have been decided by one stroke.

BOB CHARLES

World Golf Hall of Fame member Bob Charles made his 24th appearance and is the only player to have competed in every Senior British Open.

Tom Watson (2003) and Loren Roberts (2009) remain the only players to have won this event with four straight rounds in the 60s.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Bernhard Langer became the first USGA champion from Germany, posting four straight rounds in the 60s at Sahalee Country Club, including a bogey-free 67 Sunday, to win the U.S. Senior Open by three strokes over Fred Couples who was making his first appearance in the championship. Langer thwarted Couples' bid to win the prestigious event in his hometown of Seattle. After Couples took the early lead in the final round with a short birdie putt at No. 1, the championship took a dramatic turn at the par-5 second hole, and the eventual outcome was decided after a four-stroke swing on the hole. After laying up with his second shot, Couples hit a wedge fat into the pond next to the green. Couples dropped under penalty, and his fifth shot went over the green. He then chipped back to 8 feet, missed the putt, and made triple bogey. After hitting the green at No. 2 in two shots, Langer two-putted from 15 feet for a birdie and was suddenly the leader by three strokes. After both players birdied No. 3, Langer extended his margin to four shots with a birdie at the par-4 sixth hole. Couples managed to get within two strokes after birdies at No. 14 and No. 16, but a bogey at the final hole gave Langer a three-stroke winning margin.

NOTES

After going winless in his first 12 appearances in major championships on the Champions Tour, Bernhard Langer became the first player since Tom Watson in 2003 (Senior British Open/JELD-WEN Tradition) to claim consecutive majors and also multiple major titles in a season. Langer also became the first player since Jay Haas in 2008 (Senior PGA Championship/The Principal Charity Classic) to win back-to-back events.

Bernhard Langer's win marks the first time since 1997 that there are international winners in both the U.S. Open (Graeme McDowell/Northern Ireland) and U.S. Senior Open. Thirteen years ago, Ernie Els (South Africa) won the U.S. Open, and Graham Marsh (Australia) claimed the U.S. Senior Open.

Tom Watson's final-round 66 led to a fifth-place finish at the U.S. Senior Open, his sixth overall top-five performance in this championship. Watson is the first player over age 60 to finish among the top five in a U.S. Senior Open since 61-year-old Jack Nicklaus tied for fourth at Salem Country Club in 2001.

KEYS TO VICTORY

David Frost's birdie-birdie-eagle start gave him all the momentum he needed in his final round. Frost tied the tournament nine-hole scoring mark with a 7-under-par 29 on the front nine and successive birdies on Nos. 10 and 11 helped him build a seven-stroke margin and the South African native never looked back. He put an exclamation point on his day by draining a 25-foot eagle putt at No. 18 to tie the Champions Tour 54-hole scoring record of 191 (-25) and close with a tournament record 11-under-par 61. Frost became the 10th player and the 13th overall to finish all 54 holes without a bogey and win the event. Fred Funk was the last at the 2007 Turtle Bay Championship. Hale Irwin did it four times.

NOTES

David Frost's 54-hole total of 191 matched the Champions Tour scoring record set by Bruce Fleisher in 2002 at the Vantage Championship. It was later duplicated by Loren Roberts at the 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai and by Bernhard Langer at the 2007 Administaff Small Business Classic. Fleisher's 54-hole total was 19-under-par, while Roberts and Langer finished at 25-under-par.

David Frost's victory was his first in a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event since he won the 1997 MasterCard Colonial. Last year's win ended a stretch of 267 events without a victory.

In the 18-year history of the tournament, no player has been able to defend his title in this event.

Hale Irwin came the closest, tying for second in 2000.

David Frost became the seventh first-time winner of the 3M Championship. He joined Vicente Fernandez (1996), Leonard Thompson (1998), Ed Dougherty (2000), Bruce Lietzke (2001), Wayne Levi (2003) and David Edwards (2006).

Bruce Lietzke's victory in the 2001 event came just 24 days after he turned 50 and made him the youngest winner in the event history. Chi Chi Rodriguez is the oldest winner in the history of this event. He won his last Champions Tour title at Bunker Hills Golf Club in the inaugural 3M event in 1993 at 57 years, 7 months, 27 days.

Jeff Sluman joined David Frost with bogey-free tournaments. Sluman tied for sixth.

David Frost's final-round 61 matched the best final round by a tournament winner, set in 1994 by Rocky Thompson (GTE Suncoast Classic) and tied by Loren Roberts in 2006 (MasterCard Championship at Hualalai). Gary Hallberg duplicated the feat at the 2010 Ensure Classic at Rock Barn.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Moments after missing a 5-foot birdie putt at No. 15, Fred Funk sank a 12-foot birdie putt at No. 16 which gave him a one-stroke lead over Michael Allen and Funk's decisive birdie held up in his one-stroke victory over Allen and Chien-Soon Lu. Winning the event for the second time in three years, Funk was among six players who led or shared the lead in the final round. Tom Lehman, the 54-hole leader, led by as much as two strokes early on before being done in by a double bogey at No. 7. As the lead see-sawed, Funk seized control with his birdie at No. 16. Allen had moved into sole possession of the lead minutes earlier with a birdie at No. 15, but followed with a bogey at No. 16. Lu also made a late threat, narrowly missing a 40-foot birdie opportunity from the bunker at No. 18.

NOTES

Fred Funk's victory gave him at least one win in five consecutive seasons and he has won a major title in 2008, 2009 and 2010.

Much of Fred Funk's success in the event can be traced to his play on the back nine. Funk did not make a bogey on the back nine in all four rounds. Funk also was near perfect off the tee. He hit 54 of 56 fairways to lead all players in that category.

Bernhard Langer fell short in his bid for a third consecutive major championship, tying for 10th.

Loren Roberts and Tom Watson saw their streaks of consecutive top-10 finishes in this event end at three. Each tied for 15th.

MICHAEL ALLEN

Michael Allen led all players in the event with 25 birdies, but he'd probably trade a few of those for more success on No. 4. Despite finally making a birdie in the final round, Allen still was a combined 6-over par on that hole in the first three rounds.

With the move to Shoal Creek in 2011, the event will now have been staged at five different sites.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Bernhard Langer started the day with a one-stroke advantage over Nick Price, but despite playing even-par golf through 14 holes, he took advantage of Price's three straight bogeys on the front nine to push the margin to four strokes at the turn. A Langer bogey and Price's birdie at No. 11 cut the lead to two strokes, but Langer pushed the margin back to four with birdies on 15 and 16. Despite birdies by Price on Nos. 17 and 18, Langer won by three strokes. His victory matched the largest-winning margin in tournament history, tying David Eger's in 2005, as well as Loren Roberts' 54-hole scoring mark set in 2009.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Ted Schulz became the fifth first-time winner on the 2010 Champions Tour, triumphing at the Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Schulz holed a 12-foot birdie putt on the par-3 17th hole en route to a 2-under-par 70 Sunday and 14-under 202 total that was good enough for a one-stroke victory over Tom Pernice, Jr. Schulz's win came in his 13th career start on the Champions Tour and the victory was his first on TOUR since the 1991 Nissan Los Angeles Open.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Russ Cochran sank a 2-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Fred Funk and claim his first victory in a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event since winning the 1991 Centel Western Open. Funk appeared in position to win his second title of 2010 but missed a 2-foot birdie putt at No. 18 in regulation to force the playoff. Cochran's winning putt came moments after he hit a perfect bunker shot to within two feet on the extra hole. Tom Pernice, Jr. had a chance to join the duo in the playoff but missed a birdie chance at the final hole after draining a 30-plus-foot putt at No. 17 to pull within one. The event was the first official Champions Tour tournament in Asia.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After a shaky start with his putter, Russ Cochran managed two birdies and a saving par over the final three holes to hold off defending champion Tom Pernice, Jr. for the title, his second consecutive win. Down the stretch, Cochran made a key seven-foot birdie putt at No. 16 to build up a three-stroke cushion on Pernice. But Pernice, playing one group ahead of Cochran, rifled a 6-iron second shot to 3 feet from the flag at the par-5 17th hole and temporarily closed to within one stroke after making his eagle putt. But Cochran answered moments later by two-putting from 22 feet for a birdie at No. 17 to increase his lead to two strokes. Cochran then hit his drive at No. 18 near the front lip of the fairway bunker and could only advance the ball 30 yards with his second shot. After watching Pernice make a 5-foot par putt at No. 18, Cochran hit a wedge to four feet of the hole and made the putt for the two-stroke victory.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Gary Hallberg tied the Champions Tour record for lowest final-round score by a tournament winner with an 11-under-par 61 which gave him a one-stroke victory over Fred Couples. Playing three groups in front of the final group which included Couples and Bernhard Langer, Hallberg sank a 6-foot birdie putt at No. 18 to post his 61 and the clubhouse lead. He then had to watch and wait as his challengers finished. Couples birdied Nos. 14, 15 and 16 to move to 17-under but missed birdie opportunities at Nos. 17 and 18. He had a chance to force a playoff but missed from 8 feet. Langer was unable to make birdie on his final six holes to finish two back. The win was especially satisfying for Hallberg, who attended Wake Forest in nearby Winston-Salem.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Mark O'Meara sank a 3-and-a-half-foot par putt on the first extra hole to defeat Michael Allen at the TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm. O'Meara, who narrowly missed winning in regulation when his 30-foot birdie opportunity finished just inches short on the 72nd hole, hit two near-perfect shots in the playoff and then two-putted from 30 feet for the win. Allen made up a three-stroke deficit over the final five holes, with three birdies, but he hit his tee shot into the right rough on the playoff hole which eventually would lead to a bogey-5 and a win for O'Meara.

NOTES

Mark O'Meara was the only player in the field to post four straight sub-par rounds (68-68-69-68).

Mark O'Meara earned a berth in the 2011 PLAYERS Championship by virtue of his victory in the tournament.

Mark O'Meara's winning total of 7-under-par 273 was the fewest strokes under par for the winner of this event in tournament history. The previous low was an 8-under par by Gary Player in 1988.

The Mark O'Meara-Michael Allen playoff was just the third in tournament history and the first since 2001 when Allen Doyle defeated Doug Tewell with a par on the first extra hole. The other was in 1995 when J.C. Snead defeated Jack Nicklaus with a birdie on the first extra hole. Both those events were at TPC Michigan.

FRED FUNK

Fred Funk's bid for a fourth straight top-10 finish in this tournament fell short when he shot a final-round, 2-over-par 72 to tie for 16th.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Fred Couples shook off a double bogey on No. 8 by playing the back nine in 7-under-par 29 to steamroll past a faltering Corey Pavin. Couples' final-round, 9-under 63 was the low round since the event moved to the Tournament Course at The Woodlands Country Club in 2008. Trailing Pavin by two strokes after the 10th hole, Couples birdied Nos. 11 and 12 to tie for the lead. However, the tournament outcome was decided on the par-5 13th hole when Pavin hit his tee shot against the lip of a fairway bunker and eventually bogeyed that hole. Another Pavin bogey at No. 14 ended his chances. Couples, on the other hand, drained a 20-foot eagle putt on No. 13 and, after making birdies at Nos. 14 and 16, his margin was suddenly five shots over Mark Wiebe. Couples holed a 20-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a seven-stroke win over Wiebe, equaling the largest winning margin of the year.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Rod Spittle made a 4-foot par putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Jeff Sluman and become the 11th player in Champions Tour history to open qualify and win a tournament. He was also the first since Pete Oakley did so at the 2004 Senior British Open. The leaderboard was a logjam for most of the afternoon with as many as six players vying for the lead. Sluman took the lead with a birdie at No. 16 before Spittle ran off birdies on Nos. 15, 16 and 17 to tie for the lead at 12-under par. In the playoff, Sluman hit his tee shot into a bunker and blasted out to 14 feet but missed his par putt. Spittle's tee shot landed in the rough just a foot from the back bunker. Despite an awkward stance, he hit a wedge to 4 feet and then sank his winning putt.

NOTES

Rod Spittle became the fourth first-time winner in this event in the last five years. The three previous were Fred Funk (2006), John Cook (2007) and Phil Blackmar (2009).

With his win, Rod Spittle becomes the first Canadian to win on the Champions Tour since Dave Barr at the 2003 Royal Caribbean Classic.

Rod Spittle will join his former Ohio State teammates John Cook and Joey Sindelar as exempt members of the 2011 Champions Tour.

After starting the week as an alternate, Steve Haskins was added to the field early in the week when Nick Price withdrew due to a death in his family. Haskins took full advantage of his opportunity, tying for sixth and earning $63,000.

Hale Irwin reached another career milestone when he matched his age in the opening round with a 6-under-par 65.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After Michael Allen first made a 30-foot birdie from the fringe at No. 10, John Cook topped him with a 15-foot birdie of his own to preserve a one-stroke lead. Both players made pars over the next five holes before Cook widened his margin to two shots with a two-putt birdie from the front fringe at the drivable par-4 16th hole. Allen was unable to get up and down from the greenside bunker, missing a 12-foot birdie putt. Cook held a two-stroke lead going to No. 18 and sealed his win when he made a par putt from 18 feet.

Charles Schwab Cup Championship

NOTES

With his second consecutive victory at the season-ending event, John Cook claimed the fifth title of his Champions Tour career (in his 80th career start on the circuit) and became the first player since Jeff Sluman (2008-09 First Tee Open at Pebble Beach) to successfully defend a title on the Champions Tour. He also became the first to successfully defend a title on two different courses since Bernhard Langer at the 2007-08 Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston. Langer won at Augusta Pines Golf Club and then repeated at The Woodlands Country Club.

John Cook became the third player to win back-to-back season-ending championships, joining Mike Hill (1990-91), Jim Thorpe (2003, and 2006-07) and also became the fifth player to claim multiple Schwab Cup Championships, joining Raymond Floyd (1992 and 1994) and Tom Watson (2000, 2002 and 2005).

John Cook has earned all five of his career titles on the Champions Tour in October and November. In 14 starts during these two months, Cook has 10 top 10s. He's played 48 rounds in October and November, with 33 scores in the 60s and is a combined 103-under.

Germany's Bernhard Langer became the first international player to claim the Charles Schwab Cup, earning a $1-million annuity. Langer tied for third and earned 389 Schwab Cup points. He finished the season with 3,596 points, the second-largest point total in Schwab Cup history (Tom Watson had 4,370 in 2003). Langer's 825-point differential was also the widest margin since Watson won the Schwab Cup by 1,324 points over Jim Thorpe in 2003.

NOTES

Bubba Watson, Dustin Johnson and Boo Weekley finished a combined 14-under in the two-player, best-ball format that allowed each team to discard one score per hole. The group shot 11 under over the final eight holes to overtake the Champions Tour team of Nick Price, Bernhard Langer and Kenny Perry. The Champions Tour trio finished a stroke back.

The LPGA team of Cristie Kerr, Suzann Pettersen and Natalie Gulbis returned to defend the title it won in 2009 and finished third in 2010, three strokes behind the winning PGA TOUR team.

THE PGA TOUR team trailed by two strokes with two holes to play. At the par-5 17th, Dustin Johnson reached the green in two and made an 8-foot eagle putt. Bubba Watson made birdie at the 17th, and the PGA TOUR had erased what was once a four-shot Champions Tour lead after 11 holes.

On the 18th hole, Bubba Watson made a birdie putt to seal the win for the PGA TOUR, which last won this event in 2006 when Zach Johnson teamed with Scott Verplank and Stewart Cink.

Bernhard Langer had a chance to give the Champions Tour team a shot at a playoff, but his 12-foot birdie putt on the 18th slid by the cup.

Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament [unofficial event]

NOTES

The top-five finishers earned fully-exempt status for the 2011 season, while finishers 6 through 12 are conditionally exempt. In addition, the top-30 finishers and ties are eligible to compete for spots in open qualifiers at all co-sponsored events on the 2011 Champions Tour.

Keith Clearwater won medalist honors with his three-stroke victory over Frankie Minoza, Phil Blackmar and Lee Rinker at the 26th annual Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Eagle Trace. The Orem, UT, resident finished with a 72-hole total of 16-under-par 272.

Keith Clearwater flirted with the TPC Eagle Trace course record in the third round, finishing with a 9-under-par 63. It was just one stroke shy of the course mark set in 1989 by Dan Pohl at the Honda Classic and later tied by Tim Herron in 1996 at the same event.

John Morse earned the fifth and final fully-exempt spot in a three-man playoff with Roger Chapman and Robert Thompson. Morse had an opportunity to grab the fifth spot in regulation but three-putted the final hole. However, he made amends on the first extra hole when he sank a 10-foot birdie to take the fifth spot.

Frankie Minoza's birdie at No. 18 in the final round was critical. Not only did it allow him to finish at 13-under-par 275 and tie for second, but it also kept him out of a possible three-man playoff for the final exempt spot, claimed by John Morse.

This was the fifth time TPC Eagle Trace has hosted the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament. It also did so in 2003 as well as 2006-08. The last time it was held at the course, Robert Thompson was the medalist and John Morse finished second. Ironically, one of the players Morse defeated in this year's playoff was Thompson, who eventually finished seventh and he will be conditionally-exempt in 2011.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible.®

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the "Together, anything's possible" campaign.

The charitable effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone. That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, has reached approximately $1.5 billion entering 2010—including $1 billion in the last 15 years—and is the cornerstone of the "Together, anything's possible" campaign. The forecast is for the second billion-dollar mark to be reached within approximately the next five years.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "When we say, 'Together, anything's possible,' we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic times."

A full-scale launch of "Together, anything's possible" began in 2010.

PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

Structure

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for natural disaster relief are apparent.

"Together, anything's possible" aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

Beneficiaries include the Charities of the Year on all three Tours. The Arnold Palmer Medical Center, the primary charity of the Arnold Palmer Invitational, and significant impact is also made by the Volunteers of the Year.

In order to further support the impact of volunteerism, the TOUR has aligned with HandsOn Network, the largest volunteer and civic-action network in the nation. The goal of this partnership is to inspire others to serve and connect to volunteer opportunities through HandsOn Network's 250 affiliates and its network of 70,000 nonprofit organizations. For example, the TOUR will commit assets, such as public-service announcements and Web site coverage, inspiring and directing volunteers to HandsOn in times of crisis or disaster relief. HandsOn can mobilize and equip interested volunteers to assist with relief efforts.

As part of this partnership, HandsOn will assist select Championship Management events and the TPC Network of Clubs in the development of charitable initiatives and will provide volunteers for community projects and fundraising that fall outside a tournament week. In addition, HandsOn will be able to serve as a volunteer resource in other PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour event markets on an as-requested basis.

Tournaments

In the "Together, anything's possible" campaign, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that the participating players and Captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $22 million in the eight playings of the event through the 2009 event in San Francisco.

Players

Players reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and elsewhere.

Under the new "Together, anything's possible" platform, the TOUR will commit resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR will offer assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I am very excited that the TOUR will be helping us all make a bigger impact on our communities," said David Toms. "Two days after Hurricane Katrina hit, I sent an email to about 200 people and asked if they would be interested in supporting the cause. I thought we would be able to raise a little money and help a few more families. The response to that simple email was overwhelming. We had to get volunteers to help answer the phones, and within hours of an interview I did during a PGA TOUR broadcast, over 1,000 online donations crashed our system. It wasn't long before we had raised over $1.5 million. That is an example of how we, as players, can help our communities and charities in times of need. This new, elevated charity platform will be an asset to all players who want to pitch in and make a difference."

Support of the United States military has been quite evident. The AT&T National in Bethesda, MD, over the Fourth of July weekend honors the United States Armed Forces by offering free admission to all military personnel and holding various events around the tournament. Host Tiger Woods pays tribute to his late father, Earl, a Green Beret veteran, by focusing on those who serve our country through various activities.

Phil Mickelson began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 that continues to donate $100 for each birdie and $500 for each eagle he makes in competition and benefits "Homes for Our Troops" and "Special Operations Warrior Foundation." Numerous other players are affiliated with organizations that assist wounded veterans and their families.

Players support amateur golf in various capacities also. For ten years, Australia's Aaron Baddeley has sponsored the Aaron Baddeley International Junior Championship in China each December, with the winning boys and girls earning spots in the Australian men's and women's opens. Bubba Watson sponsors the Bubba Watson Invitational, a women's NCAA Division II golf tournament at his home course in Pace, FL. Fred Funk, who plays on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, has assisted J.T. Townsend, a young man who was paralyzed in a 2004 Jacksonville, FL, high school football game. Funk, with assistance from the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, has spearheaded fund-raisers, including an annual golf tournament, and given a percentage of his earnings to help Townsend's family pay for a wheelchair-accessible home that includes other special amenities. The Townsend family moved into the home in late 2006.

The players' wives are also fully involved in giving back. The PGA TOUR Wives Association was a 2008 recipient of one of Golf Magazine's 10 Innovator Awards for its charitable nature and positive impact on tournament host cities. Since its incorporation in 1988, the PGA TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and giving back much to the game of golf through personal time and monetary contributions.

Fans

The TOUR is in the process of developing a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by its players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective outreach to their fans, the TOUR will develop an overarching communications plan that will add support on a national level. The TOUR will build a charity-landing page at PGATOUR.COM that fans can use as a way to learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site will enable fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR will invest substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

Olympic Golf Approved For 2016

After an absence of more than a century, golf will return as an Olympic sport in 2016 along with rugby sevens following their approval by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) membership during the IOC's 121st Session on October 9, 2009 in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Both sports will be part of the Olympic Programme in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, which was selected as the host city for 2016 Games by the IOC on October 2, 2009. Golf was last an Olympic sport at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, MO, when the United States and Canada were the only two competing countries.

"We are elated that the IOC membership has approved golf as an Olympic sport and look forward to seeing the world's best golfers compete for gold at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro," said Ty Votaw, Executive Director of the International Golf Federation Olympic Golf Committee, which has coordinated golf's Olympic bid. "We thank the IOC for its support and also congratulate rugby sevens for its inclusion in the 2016 Games."

Votaw and Peter Dawson, Chief Executive of The R&A and joint secretary of the International Golf Federation, were accompanied by professionals Pádraig Harrington of Ireland, Michelle Wie of the United States and Suzann Pettersen of Norway, as well as 2009 British Amateur champion Matteo Manassero, of Italy, for a final presentation to the IOC prior to the vote.

"We are extremely grateful that Pádraig, Michelle, Suzann and Matteo were able to join us to help communicate the genuine interest world-class players of all ages share in golf becoming an Olympic sport," Dawson said.

Golf and rugby sevens were recommended for the Olympic Programme by the IOC Executive Board in August 2009 in Berlin, Germany, following an extensive review process involving seven sports that were vying to be added to the 2016 Olympic Games. Although they emerged as the finalists, both sports were still required to secure final approval by a majority of votes cast by the members of the IOC.

Based on player feedback, the IGF has proposed a format of 72-hole individual stroke play for both men and women. In case of a tie for either first, second or third place, a three-hole playoff is recommended to determine the medal winner(s).

The IGF also has recommended an Olympic field of 60 players for each of the men's and women's competitions, using the Official World Golf Ranking as a method of determining eligibility. The top-15 world-ranked players will be eligible for the Olympics, regardless of the number of players from a given country. Beyond the top 15, players will be eligible based on the world ranking, with a maximum of two eligible players from each country that does not already have two or more players among the top 15.
