About the Champions Tour

Collectively, the Champions Tour has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game with many of its 30 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events and numerous other major championship winners among its members. The Champions Tour is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. Points earned in 23 official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2012 will determine the Charles Schwab Cup champion, the season-long competition designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. In 2011, tournaments on all three Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour) generated more than $118 million for local charitable organizations, bringing the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions to more than $1.7 billion. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Mike Stevens is President of the Champions Tour. The PGA TOUR's website is www.pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL. Follow the Champions Tour at Facebook.com/Champions Tour and on Twitter @ChampionsTour.

History

1980 – 2011. The Tour enters its 33rd season in 2012.

Charity

The Champions Tour and its tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. In 2011, tournaments on all three Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour) generated more than $118 million for local charitable organizations, bringing the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions to more than $1.7 billion. The Champions Tour's charitable mission is an integral component of its value proposition and charitable donations have a significant impact in the communities served by Champions Tour events.

2012 Schedule

Seven new tournament venues and several previously announced date changes for existing tournaments are the most significant developments for the 2012 season.

The official 2012 season begins on the Big Island of Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 16-22), with the first full-field event coming three weeks later at the Allianz Championship (Feb. 6-12), in Boca Raton, FL.

The ACE Group Classic (Feb. 13-19) returns to The TwinEagles Club (Talon Course), which hosted the event from 2002-2006.

TPC Tampa Bay plays host to the Tampa Bay Pro-Am (Apr. 9-15) for the 21st consecutive year as the tournament celebrates its 25th anniversary in the Tampa area.

The Regions Tradition, played at Shoal Creek in Birmingham, AL, will move from the early May date it previously occupied to the week of June 4-10. The Inspirity Championship (Apr. 30-May 6), played at The Woodlands in Houston, TX, will depart its traditional October timeslot and take over the spot vacated by Regions Tradition.

La Vallee du Richelieu Golf Club (Vercheres Course) will host The Montreal Championship (June 18-24), after two years at Club de golf Le Fontainebleau.

The Constellation Senior Players Championship (June 25-July 1), played in the fall for the last five years, moves to the last week of June. Fox Chapel Golf Club in Pittsburgh, PA will host the championship, being contested for the 30th time.

The Dick's Sporting Goods Open (Aug. 13-19) moves from June to August to allow the En-Joie Golf Course more time to recover after sustaining major flooding damage when Tropical Storm Lee caused the Susquehanna River to overflow at record levels earlier this year and almost completely cover the course. En-Joie Golf Course, in Endicott, NY, has hosted the event since its inception in 2007 and had previously hosted the PGA TOUR's B.C. Open from 1972 to 2006.

The season will conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 29-Nov. 4,) which moves from TPC Harding Park in San Francisco to the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale, AZ. The Jack Nicklaus-designed course returns to the Champions Tour schedule having previously hosted the Tradition from 1989-2001.

The Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament-Final (Nov. 12-18) will be conducted at TPC Eagle Trace in Coral Springs, FL.

Major Championships (5)

The Champions Tour's major championships will feature an adjusted lineup this year. The Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid (May 21-27) at The Golf Club at Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Michigan will be the first of five majors. Two weeks later, the Regions Tradition (June 4-10) will continue at Shoal Creek in Birmingham, Alabama. After five consecutive years in the fall, the Constellation Senior Players Championship (June 25-July 1) relocates to Fox Chapel Golf Club in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in the summer. The United States Senior Open (July 9-15) heads to Indianwood Golf & Country Club just outside Detroit, Michigan. The Senior British Open presented by Rolex (July 23-29) is set to return to Tumbery's Ailsa Course in Scotland for the seventh time, and the first since 2006 when Loren Roberts defeated Eduardo Romero to claim the title.

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, now in its 12th season, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships. Double points will also be awarded to the entire 30-player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The season-long points competition kicks off in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 16-22). The Road to the Charles Schwab Cup culminates at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 29-Nov. 4) in Scottsdale, Arizona at Desert Mountain's Cochise Course, with $2.1 million in payouts awarded to the season's top five leading performers. The winner receives $1 million.

“Rookies”

For players to become eligible to compete in Champions Tour events they must attain age 50 on or before the day of their first tournament ‘obligation’, such as the Wednesday pro-am, the date of pre-qualifying or the date of event qualifying. If a player plays less than six tournaments in his first season of eligibility he is considered a rookie the following season.

Newcomers for 2012 who have multiple PGA TOUR victories include Kirk Triplett (March 29 – 3 wins), Andrew Magee (May 22 – 4 wins), Duffy Waldorf (August 20 – 4 wins), Gene Sauers (August 22 – 3 wins), Rick Fehr (August 28 – 2 wins) and Brian Henninger (October 19 – 2 wins).

Triplett, at age 49, became the Nationwide Tour’s oldest winner in August of 2011 with a victory at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville, TN. It was his first win anywhere since the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson on the PGA TOUR.

Those rookies who successfully progressed through the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament to gain membership for 2012 include Jeff Freeman, who was medalist. Freeman becomes eligible when he turns 50 on April 15. Jeff Hart (4th) and P.H. Horgan (5th) were the other rookies to gain fully-exempt status by finishing in the top five. Jim Carter won a three-way playoff to finish 6th, which was significant as he will earn a spot as one of the five exempt players until Freeman turns 50 in April. Sonny Skinner, who played two events in 2011 and three events in 2010, finished 7th and also gained conditional status for 2012.

Stan Utey (January 16), Brandel Chamblee (July 2), Fred Wadsworth (July 17), Neal Lancaster (September 15) and Dennis Paulson (September 27) each have a single PGA TOUR victory and will be eligible for the 2012 rookie class of the Champions Tour but will have limited status.

Additional “rookie” prospects becoming eligible in the near future include:

2013 – Bart Bryant (November 18, 2012), John Inman (November 26, 2012), Steve Elkington (December 8, 2012), Rocco Mediate (December 17, 2012), Vijay Singh (February 22), Billy Ray Brown (April 5), Jose Coceres (August 14), Jim Benepe (October 24).

2014 – Billy Andrade (January 25), Woody Austin (January 27), Jeff Maggert (February 20), Joe Durant (April 7), Davis Love III (April 13), Stephen Ames (April 28), Paul Goydos (June 20), Kevin Sutherland (July 4), Scott Verplank (July 9), Lee Janzen (August 28), Skip Kendall (September 9).

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

Points are doubled at the Champions Tour's five major championships and to the entire 30 player field as the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November.

Web Site Information and updates are available throughout the year on PGATOUR.COM.

2011 Recap

The season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco brought together the best of the Champions Tour, with the top-30 on the 2010 money list earning their way to the Championship.

The $2.5 million tournament decided not only that week's champion, but it was also the culmination of the season-long points race to determine the Charles Schwab Cup.

Tom Lehman was the favorite heading into the tournament, having established a substantial lead in the points race, thanks to his consistent play during a season that had already seen him win three times, including the first major championship of the year, the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek.

Five players entered the week with a mathematical chance to win the Charles Schwab Cup – Lehman, Mark Calcavecchia, Peter Senior, John Cook and Russ Cochran. However, most eyes turned to Calcavecchia during the final round of the year as he appeared to be the only player with an opportunity to claim the Cup from Lehman. Calcavecchia won the Boeing Classic in late August for his maiden Champions Tour victory and had accumulated 14 top-10 finishes during the season and trailed Lehman by 382 points entering the week. Calcavecchia had to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, or at worst finish in a two-way tie for second and hope Lehman struggled at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco to have a shot at claiming the Cup.

For the 10th time in the 11-year history of the Charles Schwab Cup, the champion was set to be determined at this tournament.

The week got off to a fitting start, with 2011 U.S. Senior Open champion Olin Browne conducting the Charles Schwab Cup Junior Clinic for The First Tee of San Francisco. Early discussion centered around Hale Irwin, at age 66 and making his 14th appearance, as the oldest player to qualify for the season-ending championship, while four players were making their first starts in the event – Jay Don Blake, Kenny Perry, John Huston and Chip Beck.

It was Blake who made headlines at the end of the week when he claimed the tournament title by two strokes for his second victory of the year following his win at the Songdo IBD Championship in Korea. Four players tied for second including local favorite Michael Allen, who finished second at last year's event, and shared that spot again in 2011 with Loren Roberts, Jay Haas and Calcavecchia, who finished just 74 points behind Tom Lehman in the race for the Charles Schwab Cup.

In the final round, Lehman was out early and shot his third-consecutive 72 to finish at 2-over 286. When Calcavecchia finished and posted 6-under 278, both players had to sit and wait for the last three pairings to finish and determine the outcome.

"I thought Calc had to finish second alone to win the Cup," said Lehman. "Then I found out it could be a two-way or three-way tie. Every par on 18 was golden for me. When Loren made the 2-putt from the back of the green, that was huge. I gave him a big hug and told him what a good friend he was."

With Calcavecchia and Roberts in at 6-under, Allen needed a final-hole birdie to extinguish Calcavecchia's chance to claim the Cup. Allen's chip came close and he tapped in to make it three players tied at 6-under with just Blake (8-under) and Haas (6-under) remaining on the course with one hole to play. Lehman breathed a sigh of relief when Haas made a solid par and Blake won the tournament with a spectacular par after a beautiful pitch from the rough below the green.

It was Blake's second title of his Champions Tour career and he became the first player since Mark McNulty in 2004 to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in his first appearance.

"To have that win in Korea really helped me win here," said Blake, who had close to 20 family members with him at TPC Harding Park. "I've played pretty well all year but once I got that win it relieved a little bit of pressure. Coming here with the top 30 players, it's pretty special to win with this kind of field here this week and it means a lot to have my whole family here."

Lehman became the seventh different player to claim the Charles Schwab Cup in its 11-year history, earning the $1 million annuity. Lehman tied for 18th and earned 84 Schwab Cup points. He finished the season with 2,422 points and a 74-point margin over Calcavecchia, the fourth-closest margin in Schwab Cup history.

"The ending was pretty tight, right down to the wire, but I'm thrilled to win the trophy," said Lehman. "It's been a long year. From the second week I've had that yellow jersey and had a lot of times where guys were closing in and I had to play a good week and have a good tournament and I did."

Many players who have won the $1 million annuity that comes with winning the Charles Schwab Cup have contributed significant amounts to charities, and Lehman is no different.

"We're pretty involved with our community and with different organizations," said Lehman, who resides in Scottsdale, AZ with his wife Melissa and four children. "I don't know exactly what we'll do, but I'm sure some of it is going to find its way to some pretty worthwhile organizations."

Lehman finished the year with three wins, 12 top-10s and $2,081,526 to earn the Arnold Palmer Award for finishing No. 1 on the money list.

About the Commissioner

Finchem is the third commissioner of the PGA TOUR, succeeding Deane Beman. Beman served for 20 years, replacing Joe Dey, who had been the TOUR's commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Prior to becoming commissioner on June 1, 1994, Finchem was deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of the TOUR.

He joined the TOUR as vice president of business affairs in 1987.

Tim Finchem began his 18th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2011. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGATOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGATOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGATOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, The Presidents Cup was created in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After nine stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar. The 2013 event will be played at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, OH, while The Presidents Cup 2015 will be contested in South Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA TOURs and the World Golf Foundation. His personal dedication to the success of the The First Tee initiative has meant that, since the youth development organization's inception in 1997, The First Tee has grown to include programming at more than 200 chapters, 4,300 elementary schools and 120 military installations, reaching more than five million young people. Finchem currently serves as the co-chair of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People and chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the PGATOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Although he didn't win, Peter Senior was the picture of consistency, with 12 top-10s and a third-place finish in the Charles Schwab Cup.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2011 Songdo IBD Championship Presented by Korean Air. 2011 Charles Schwab Cup Championship

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

P1–Songdo IBD Championship Presented by Korean Air. 1–Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

OTHER VICTORIES:

(3): 1980 NCAA Championship [indiv]. 1988 Utah Open. 1991 Argentine Open.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned a good year into an outstanding season with a pair of wins in the last five of his 20 appearances. Started the campaign as a conditionally-exempt player (34th on prior-year earnings list) but ended the season with a pair of victories, the last of only four players with multiple wins on the year, and over $1.5 million in earnings, more than twice what he made in his first two Champions Tour years combined...Broke through for his first title at the Songdo IBD Championship in South Korea. Prevailed in a five-hole playoff over John Cook, Peter Senior and Mark O'Meara. Birdied the fifth extra hole to defeat Cook after Senior and O'Meara were eliminated after three extra holes. South Korea victory made him the fourth of six first-time winners on the 2011 Champions Tour and came in his 424th career start on all three Tours since last winning on the PGA TOUR at the 1991 Shearson Lehman Brothers Open in San Diego. Victory in South Korea also netted him the biggest winner's check of his career, $456,000, and also pushed him over the $1-million mark in earnings for the first time...Earned September Player of the Month honors as a result of his triumph in Asia...Closed the season in style by winning the Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco. Moved atop the leaderboard after a 66 in the third round. With an even-par 71 in the final round, he managed to hold off four contenders by two strokes in cool, windy conditions. Became the eighth player to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in his first appearance and the first to do so since Mark McNulty in 2004. Earned 880 Charles Schwab Cup points and vaulted from 13th place to fourth in the final standings, earning him an additional $200,000 payout...Nearly won his first event in mid-April but fell in a one-hole playoff with Cook at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Appeared he would merely be in line for a top-three finish after posting a 9-under-par 204. However, Cook and Russ Cochran, both playing one group behind, made double-bogeys at No. 18, leaving Cook tied at 9-under-par and Cochran two behind. Cook eventually prevailed in a playoff with a birdie on the first playoff hole. Teamed with Art Ensley to win the pro-am portion of the event by two strokes over Cook and his partner Todd Wagner...Started 2011 campaign by matching his Champions Tour career-best score with an opening-round 64 at the Allianz Championship and eventually finished T6...Trailed by three strokes after 36 holes of the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and eventually finished T6 in Endicott...Followed up his Songdo victory with a T6 at the SAS Championship.

PERSONAL:

A drag-racing aficionado, he attended the National Hot Rod Association driving school in December 1995. A regular competitor, won hot-rod sprint in fall of 1996. Professional drag racer Bob Vandergriff, Jr. has caddied for him...Knew by age 12 he wanted to be a professional golfer.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2011 U.S. Senior Open Championship

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

1-U.S. Senior Open Championship.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Enjoyed his best year since 2005 on the PGA TOUR, finishing among the Champions Tour's top-10 money-winners for the first time, thanks to the biggest triumph of his career...His eight top-10s last year were more than he had in his first two years on the Champions Tour combined and started the season with five straight top-10s, three of them coming in Florida events...His first Champions Tour win was a memorable one. Led wire to wire in late July to capture the U.S. Senior Open at Inverness in Toledo. Opened with a 7-under-par 64 (lowest first-round score by a winner in the event), added a 6-under-par 65 to his scorecard in the third round and then held off Mark O'Meara in the final round for a three-stroke victory. Capped the championship by draining a 30-foot birdie putt at the 72nd hole. Became the fifth player to secure his first Champions Tour victory at the U.S. Senior Open and just the second player in U.S. Senior Open history to lead from start to finish, joining Dale Douglass (1986). Victory earned him a check for $500,000, the largest in Champions Tour history, and triumph also gave him at least one win on all three Tours (Ron Streck, Keith Fergus, Tom Lehman and Gary Hallberg). Set a U.S. Senior Open nine-hole scoring record with a 5-under-par 29 on the back nine in the third round...Followed his Senior Open triumph with T8 finish at the 3M Championship. Posted 63 in the final round, the low score of the tournament, and his career-best on the Champions Tour. Sunday score vaulted him up 40 spots and helped to move him past the $1-million mark in single-season earnings for the first time on the Champions Tour...Kicked off his season with a T4 at the Allianz Championship. Playing in his first round of the year, made an ace on the par-3 eighth hole at The Old Course at Broken Sound. It was his first Champions Tour ace, becoming the fourth player to make at least one hole-in-one on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour (Dave Barr, Chip Beck and Jim Thorpe)...Was T6 at the ACE Group Classic in Naples, T8 at the Toshiba Classic, T5 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic and T7 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Run of five straight top-10s included a streak of 15 straight sub-par scores...Late in the year, was T4 at the rain-shortened Insuperity Championship...Made one start on the PGA TOUR but missed the cut at the Crowne Plaza Invitational in Fort Worth.

PERSONAL:

After winning the 1993 Monterrey Open in Mexico, gave victory speech in Spanish. Knows language because of his father's Chilean heritage...Did not start playing golf until he was 19. Got hooked on game while attending Occidental College in Los Angeles...Son, Olin, Jr., played golf at Pepperdine for John Geiberger, son of former PGA TOUR and Champions Tour player Al Geiberger.

2011 Boeing Classic

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

P1-Boeing Classic.

OTHER SENIOR VICTORIES:

(1): 2011 Nedbank Seniors Golf Challenge.

OTHER VICTORIES:

(1): 2011 Wendy's 3-Tour Challenge [with Kenny Perry and Jay Haas].

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Despite winning just once, turned in a stellar first full season on the Champions Tour, earning the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest stroke average (69.04) and finishing second in official earnings, with more than $1.8 million...Made a late run at the Charles Schwab Cup before coming up just 74 points shy of Tom Lehman. Needed to win or finish in a two-way T2 at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship to have a chance to unseat Lehman and made a valiant effort before ending in a four-way tie for the runner-up spot to come up just short...Led the Champions Tour in top-10 finishes, with 15 in his 22 starts on the circuit and was among the top-five in five events, including three majors. Finally broke through for his first career victory in late August at the Boeing Classic near Seattle. Birdied the last three holes of regulation and then birdied the first playoff hole to edge Russ Cochran for the win in his 31st career Tour start. Appeared to have won the event in regulation until Cochran made a 12-foot eagle putt at No. 18 to match his final round of 7-under 65 and send the event into overtime. On the first extra hole, he two-putted from 25 feet for birdie on the par-5 18th as Cochran made bogey after landing in the greenside bunker in two. Win at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge ended a TOUR victory drought of 4 years, 5 months, 17 days and was his third TOUR title in the Pacific Northwest (1997 Greater Vancouver Open and 2005 Bell Canadian Open). Also became the first player in Boeing Classic history to make that event his first Champions Tour title...Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month for August...Prior to winning, was the 18-, 36- and 54-hole co-leader at the Senior British Open and was tied for the lead with Russ Cochran early in the final round before he four-putted the 9th hole at Walton Heath and made double-bogey to fall out of contention. Eventually closed to within two strokes of Cochran late in the round and finished second...Continued his stellar play the following week where he posted four straight rounds in the 60s to claim a solo third-place finish at the U.S. Senior Open at Inverness. Was the only player in the field to post four straight rounds in the 60s...At the season's first major, was the 36- and 54-hole leader at the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek but struggled with a 3-over-par 75 on Sunday, leaving him T5 in Alabama...Near the end of the year, finished second at the AT&T Championship in October after three successive rounds in the 60s at TPC San Antonio...Led the Champions Tour in Sub-Par Rounds with 57 and, along with Peter Senior, had the most Rounds in the 60s with 43...Following the end of the official season, teamed with Kenny Perry and Jay Haas to win the Wendy's 3-Tour Challenge in Las Vegas...Also won the Nedbank Seniors Golf Challenge at Sun City, South Africa, edging Bernhard Langer and Ian Woosnam by one stroke in the 36-hole event at Gary Player Country Club...Teamed with Nick Price to finish T2 at the Franklin Templeton Shootout in Naples in early December...Played in six PGA TOUR events, making two cuts...Finished T33 at the PGA TOUR's Bob Hope Classic in January after five straight rounds in the 60s in the 90-hole event...Was T59 at the Children's Miracle Network Classic late in the year...A closing-round 67 led to a one-stroke victory over Bernhard Langer and Ian Woosnam at the Nedbank Senior Challenge in South Africa in December.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (3):

2010 Posco E&C Songdo Championship Presented By Gale Int'l.. 2010 SAS Championship. 2011 The Senior Open Championship

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

1--The Senior Open Championship.

OTHER VICTORIES:

(4): 1983 Magnolia Classic, Greater Baltimore Open. 1991 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. 2011 Lime Jamaica Open.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made just 17 appearances and was sidelined from late April until early July with a right-wrist injury, returning to action at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Still managed to finish among the top-five money-winners for a second consecutive year, thanks to top-five finishes in five of his first seven tournaments and eventually the biggest victory of his career in late July in England...Traveled across the Atlantic Ocean and won the Senior British Open at Walton Heath, defeating Mark Calcavecchia by two strokes to become the first left-hander to win a major championship since the Senior British became an official Champions Tour event in 2003. Was tied for the 54-hole lead with Calcavecchia, but got off to a fast start in the final round and never looked back, making birdies on six of his first 10 holes Sunday. Third career victory on the Champions Tour earned him a spot in the 2012 British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes and earned him Player of the Month honors for July...Also fell to Calcavecchia in a playoff at the Boeing Classic a month later. Final-round 65 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge included a dramatic 12-foot eagle putt on the last hole of regulation to send the tournament into overtime. Lost the overtime when he bogeyed the same 18th hole from the greenside bunker on the first extra hole and Calcavecchia two-putted from 25 feet for birdie...Early in the season, shared the first-round lead with Bernhard Langer at The ACE Group Classic and eventually finished T3 along with Nick Price, five strokes back of Langer...Led the Outback Steakhouse by as many as three strokes at the turn in the final round before disaster struck at No. 14 at TPC Tampa Bay when he made a triple bogey. Coupled with a birdie by John Cook, the four-stroke swing dropped him into second place. Saw any chance to win slip away when he finished with a double bogey at No. 18, leaving him T3...Teamed with Mark Wiebe to finish T3 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo shot a final-round, 12-under 60, the low Sunday score in the team, better-ball format, to finish one stroke out of a playoff. Effort in Savannah would be his last until early July...Opened the campaign with a career-best, 10-under-par 62 that also matched the lowest first-round score in Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai tournament history. 36-hole score of 17-under 127 also tied the tournament record and was the best 36-hole score of his career...Near the end of the year, traveled to Jamaica and won the Lime Jamaica Open, defeating Dave Rummells and Dave Levesque by two strokes in the 54-hole event at Rose Hall.

PERSONAL:

Avid University of Kentucky basketball fan...Started playing with ladies' golf clubs because he couldn't find any other left-handed clubs...Son Ryan scored a hole-in-one at age 6, one of youngest ever to record an ace. Ryan shot 67 in Monday qualifier for 1998 FedEx St. Jude Classic, missing a playoff for final tournament spot by one stroke...Youngest son, Case, plays golf at Texas A&M...Middle son, Reed, is a student at the University of Kentucky Law School.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished third on the official money list for the third consecutive season and among the top-five money-winners for a fourth straight year. Won three official events in a year for the first time since the 1992 PGA TOUR season, tying Tom Lehman for most Champions Tour victories. Also lost two other tournaments in playoffs...Picked up right where he left off in 2010, winning the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Win on the Big Island made him the first player since Gil Morgan in 1997-98 to claim the season-ending event the previous year and the season-opening event the following season. Shot 64-64 on the weekend at Hualalai, the lowest final-36 of the 2011 season, and Sunday 64 included five consecutive birdies to start the back nine which propelled him past a faltering Russ Cochran. Sunday round also was his 12th straight sub-70 score dating to 2010 campaign, one short of Hale Irwin's all-time record of 13 straight rounds in the 60s. Victory on the Big Island was also his second TOUR title in Hawaii (1992 United Airlines Hawaiian Open)...Added a second win in mid-April with a playoff victory over Jay Don Blake at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am at TPC Tampa Bay. Win near Tampa ended a winless streak in the Sunshine State of 106 combined PGA TOUR-Champions Tour appearances. Was seemingly in control of his fate with a two-stroke lead heading to the final hole, but he made a double bogey, dropping him into a tie with Blake. Quickly ended the affair with a 6-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to win. The victory was his first after four previous playoff setbacks...In early July, bagged his third victory of the season when he was a three-stroke victor over 36-hole leader Chien Soon Lu at the Montreal Championship, a year after finishing second in the event. Shared the opening-round lead with John Huston after they each fired 9-under-par 63s. Trailed by one stroke after 36 holes but posted a bogey-free, 6-under-par 66 Sunday to pull away for his second career win in Canada (1983 Canadian Open)...In late August, lost on the third hole of a playoff at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship when Fred Couples made a short birdie putt. Appeared to be in the driver's seat early on the back nine, but played his last eight holes in two-over to allow Couples to forge a tie at the end of regulation. Performance at Westchester was his third runner-up finish in a senior major...Was also one of four players in the playoff at the Songdo IBD Championship in South Korea in September and battled eventual winner Blake for five extra holes before losing when Blake sank a birdie putt for his first career win. Peter Senior and Mark O'Meara were also participants but were eliminated after the third extra hole...Continued his strong play at the AT&T Championship late in the season, finishing T3 for his fifth top-five finish in five starts in the Alamo City...Made one PGA TOUR start and finished third at the Mayakoba Golf Classic, his first appearance in a TOUR event since 2007. It was his first top 10 on TOUR since the 2006 Reno-Tahoe Open (T5)...Late in the season, Couples named him as an assistant captain on the U.S. Presidents Cup team, replacing basketball star Michael Jordan in that role...The week prior to The Presidents Cup, finished T23 in the Australian Open in mid-November.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Back problems limited his play to just 10 Champions Tour events and made just one start from early May through late July (missed cut, the Memorial Tournament). After undergoing Orthokine therapy during the summer in Germany, returned to the Champions Tour at the 3M Championship (T26) and after the Minnesota event, proceeded to win two of his last six starts and was the last of 13 players to pocket over $1 million in official money on the Champions Tour in 2011...In late August, claimed his first major title on the Champions Tour when he defeated John Cook with a birdie-3 on the third extra hole of a playoff to win the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship. Triumph at Westchester CC also made him just the third player to claim both a PLAYERS Championship and a Senior Players Championship in his career. Hit a 76-yard second shot with a sand wedge to 3 feet from the hole for eventual birdie in the overtime that gave him the win...Became the last of four multiple winners in 2011 when he won his second title of the season, and sixth of his Champions Tour career, at the AT&T Championship with a tournament-record, seven-stroke victory over Mark Calcavecchia in San Antonio. Shattered the old record at the event with a 54-hole total of 23-under-par 193, which included a 10-under-par 62 Saturday, equaling his career best in any TOUR event. Had 26 birdies in the three-day event, tying Loren Roberts' all-time record set at the 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai...Performance in San Antonio led to October/November Player of the Year honors...Made five appearances on the PGA TOUR highlighted by a T7 at the Northern Trust Open after holding the 36-hole lead at Riviera. Performance outside Los Angeles was his best on the TOUR since a sixth-place effort at the 2010 Masters. It was his 14th top-10 finish in this event in 29 career starts...Had another good showing at the Masters, finishing T15...In mid-November, finished T15 in the Australian Open...For the second consecutive time, captained the U.S. Presidents Cup team to victory, winning 19-15 at Royal Melbourne in Australia.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Recovered from ankle injury during the summer of 2010 to post his highest finish on a single-season money list (14th) last year and earnings of $982,904 proved to be his best financial season ever in nine fully-exempt years on the circuit...Highlight of his year was teaming with good friend Mark McNulty to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, his fourth career title on the Champions Tour. Duo started the final round four strokes off the lead, but carded an 11-under 61 in the better-ball, team format to forge their way into a playoff they eventually won. Eger made a 35-foot birdie putt on the last hole of regulation to get the team to 27-under 189 and then, after a McNulty par, found himself on the winning team when both Scott Hoch and Kenny Perry missed short par putts on the second playoff hole...Nearly won a second event just over a month later when he fell in a one-hole playoff to Tom Watson at the Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla in late May. Missed a 5-foot birdie opportunity on the 72nd hole, which would have given him the outright lead, and then missed a 10-foot birdie opportunity on the first extra hole before Watson sank his winning putt. Had rebounded from an opening round, 2-over-par 74 at Valhalla with three successive rounds in the 60s to get himself into the playoff...Added another runner-up finish in mid-July when he was among three players finishing T2 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Closed his season with a T7 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, shooting 66-69 on the weekend at TPC Harding Park.

PERSONAL:

Served two stints as a member of the PGA TOUR staff. The first was from 1982-92 when he was Director of Tournament Administration and the second was from 1995-96 when he was the TOUR's Vice President of Competition...Also served as Senior Director of Rules and Competition at the United States Golf Association from 1992-95...Says his biggest thrill in golf was playing on three Walker Cup teams...Favorite courses are Pine Valley and Cypress Point...Lists "Caddyshack" and "Get Shorty" as his favorite movies...His favorite TV show is "Seinfeld"...One of the golf instructors he has worked with is David Leadbetter...Enjoys spending leisure time playing golf with wife, Tricia.

This result came the week after successfully qualifying for the U.S. Open at Woodmont CC...Shot the low Sunday round at the Senior British Open to move up into a T7 at Walton Heath. Final-round 66 included a run of five straight birdies...Was also T7 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, thanks to consecutive weekend 68s at Fallen Oak...On the PGA TOUR, was T57 at the Sony Open in Hawaii after field was cut to low 60 for 36-hole Sunday...Also qualified for his 22nd appearance in the U.S. Open but missed the cut at Congressional CC.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Nearly earned a place among the top-30 money-winners for the first time in three years but fell one spot shy, finishing 31st on the final money list—seven spots better than his finish the previous year...Won his 10th career Champions Tour title and second victory in West Des Moines, Iowa, when he birdied three of the last four holes to overtake Mark Brooks at The Principal Charity Classic. Trailing Brooks by four strokes heading to the 15th tee Sunday, but after birdies at Nos. 15 and 16, holed a dramatic 30-foot birdie putt on the final hole and then watched a faltering Brooks miss a 5-foot par putt that would have sent the event to a playoff. Win in Iowa ended a victory drought of 4 years, 8 months 13 days, and he joined Jay Haas as a multiple winner of the Principal event. Victory at 60 years, 6 months, 5 days, made him the oldest winner of the Iowa event and, coupled with 61-year-old Tom Watson's win the week prior at the Senior PGA Championship, gave the Champions Tour its first back-to-back winners over age 60 in the history of the circuit. Best finish in a stroke-play event prior to coming to Iowa was a T56 twice, but made 15 birdies and just one bogey at Glen Oaks for the victory. Iowa appearance was his 178th consecutive for which he was eligible, passing Mike McCullough for second on the all-time list behind Dana Quigley (278 straight). Streak came to an end the following week when he chose to take a European vacation rather than play at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn...Was on the leaderboard throughout the Boeing Classic and eventually finished T5 near Seattle, thanks to three consecutive sub-par scores at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge...Made his 53rd consecutive start in a senior major at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, extending his all-time record.

PERSONAL:

Played collegiately at Arizona State where he was a teammate of Tom Purtzer, Howard Twitty and Morris Hatafsky. Joined the team as a walk-on and eventually won the Western Athletic Conference individual title in 1973 and was an honorable mention All-America...Enjoys racing cars and raced seriously from 1985-92 in some Trans-Am races...Enjoys spy movies...Favorite golf course is Harbour Town GL in South Carolina...Says the best shot of his career was his double eagle in the third round on the 18th hole at Westchester in 1982.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Rebounded from three sub-par seasons to finish 27th on the final money list, his best showing since 2007. Nearly matched his total earnings for his two previous years...His seven top-10 finishes were four more than he had in the previous three years combined...Added another record to his impressive Champions Tour resume in July when he was T4 at the U.S. Senior Open at Inverness. It was the 204th top-10 finish of his Champions Tour career, which moved him into first place all time in that category, one ahead of Bob Charles. Finished the event with an impressive 10-under-par 274, which included a 5-under-par 66 in the third round. With his T4 finish he became the oldest player to finish in a top five in a major championship on the Champions Tour at 66 years, 1 month, 28 days. Had set the mark earlier when he was fourth at the Senior PGA Championship at 65 years, 11 months, 26 days...Followed up U.S. Senior Open with a T8 at the 3M Championship. Carded a 66 Sunday, matching his age for the third time in his career...Final-round 67 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open moved him into a T10 at En-Joie GC, his 203rd career top-10 finish, tying him with Charles for most career top-10s...Nearly became the oldest winner on the Champions Tour in late May when he was in contention all four rounds at the Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla. Seven years after winning the tournament at the same venue, he shared the 54-hole lead with Japan's Kiyoshi Murota but struggled with his putter Sunday, eventually finishing in fourth...Reached a milestone at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic when he was T7 at Fallen Oak, thanks to back-to-back weekend rounds of 68. Performance was his 200th top-10 finish on the Champions Tour and also made him the oldest player to record a top 10 since 66-year-old Dave Stockton finished T4 at the 2008 Administaff Small Business Classic...Made the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career when heaced No. 9 in the opening round of the Boeing Classic. He used a 6-iron on the 185-yard hole for his 10th career hole-in-one.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Saw his streak of consecutive finishes among the top 30 on the money list come to a halt at 11 consecutive years when he was 43rd on the final money chart, with a career low $357,838 in earnings...Posted just one top-10 finish during the year, and that came in his first start when he was seventh at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Became the first player in Champions Tour history to make a trio of eagles on the same nine and just the sixth player overall to make three eagles in a round when he did so in the second round of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Holed a wedge from 84 yards for an eagle at the par-5 14th, then after making birdie at the par-3 15th hole, holed another wedge from 100 yards for an eagle at the par-4 16th hole. He finished his first nine by making eagle on the par-5 18th hole, chipping in from just short of the green...He became the 12th player in Champions Tour history to combine to play in 1,000 PGA TOUR and Champions Tour events when he teed it up at the SAS Championship outside Raleigh in October.

PERSONAL:

After wearing glasses since age 12, had LASIK surgery in late January 1998 to correct acute nearsightedness...Started playing golf at age 6 by following his father around and won his first tournament at 11...Three of his last four PGA TOUR victories came on holidays—1992 BellSouth Classic (Mother's Day), 1992 U.S. Open (Father's Day), 1993 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic (Valentines Day)...Biggest thrill in golf was being selected as the Ryder Cup captain in 1997...Has worked with such teachers as Harvey Penick, Bob Toski, Peter Kostis, Chuck Cook, Jim McLean, Dave Pelz and Dave Phillips...His daughter, Stephanie, was a former gymnast at the University of Alabama and was a member of its national championship squad in 2002. Son David played golf at South Carolina and is now an assistant men's golf coach at The College of Charleston...Lists Pebble Beach as his favorite golf course and Michael Jordan as his favorite athlete...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in November 2002, along with Charlie Sifford, Marlene Streit and Isao Aoki...Dream foursome would include Bobby Jones, Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Walter Hagen "because they were the best players of all time that I never had a chance to play with."...The first car he owned was a 1957 Chevy...Enjoys Mexican food...He and his family have two dogs, Maja, a shepherd mix, and Mulligan, a foxhound...Says the best shot of his career was when he holed his lob wedge for a birdie on the seventh hole at Pebble Beach during the last round of the 1992 U.S. Open that helped him to a two-stroke win...Would like to continue his golf course design work in the future, with his son David joining him.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Collected his first Charles Schwab Cup as well, holding off Mark Calcavecchia by just 74 points at the season's final event. Took the Schwab Cup lead after the second event of the season (Allianz Championship) and never relinquished it...Was also the circuit's only $2-million man, earning the Arnold Palmer Award with a personal-best $2,081,526...Along with John Cook, led the Champions Tour with three victories and claimed all three of his wins within the first seven of his 21 starts last year. Highlight of his year was when he won his second career major championship on the Champions Tour and third title of the season at the Regions Tradition. Defeated Peter Senior in a two-hole playoff at Shoal Creek after starting the day two strokes behind 54-hole leader Mark Calcavecchia. Played his last 27 holes without a bogey and his final-round 69 got him into the playoff. After getting up and down on the first extra hole, he two-putted from 21 feet for the win when Senior missed a five-footer for par to extend the overtime session. Win in Birmingham put him over the $1-million mark in season earnings in just his seventh start. Did not have a three-putt at Shoal Creek during the week...A month earlier, recorded his second victory of the season at the Mississippi

Gulf Resort Classic, a four-stroke triumph over Jeff Sluman, Nick Price and David Frost. Win near Biloxi came 20 years after he claimed a title on the Nationwide Tour at nearby Windance CC in Gulfport, MS. Shot a Fallen Oak course-record 64 in the second round to take the 36-hole lead and then used three birdies on the front nine on Sunday to pull away from the field. Final-round 69 at Fallen Oak was his 12th consecutive sub-70 score, tying him for second with Fred Couples for second on the all-time list of consecutive sub-70 rounds, one short of Hale Irwin's record...Captured first win in 2011 when he sank a six-foot birdie putt on the final hole to defeat Jeff Sluman and Rod Spittle at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. Birdied two of the final three holes to get into the overtime session...Started season with a runner-up finish to John Cook at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Closed with a final-round 64 that included a 6-under-par 30 on the back nine but still finished two strokes back of Cook...In his first appearance in his native Minnesota as a Champions Tour member, was T2 at the 3M Championship, one stroke back of Jay Haas. Missed out on a playoff opportunity when Haas birdied the final hole to win...Selected as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for January-February...Also teamed with Corey Pavin to finish T3 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Had a nice showing at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio in October, posting three straight scores in the 60s to finish T3...Hit 77.68 percent of greens in regulation, the second-best percentage in Champions Tour history, just short of Tom Kite's record of 78 percent in 2000...Played in five PGA TOUR events, making the cut in four appearances. Finished T22 at the British Open at Royal St. George's, his fifth consecutive made cut in that event...Shot rounds of 66-69 on the weekend to finish T13 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic...Also was T37 at the Waste Management Phoenix Open and T46 at the Children's Miracle Network Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2002 NFL Golf Classic

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

P2--Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made just seven Champions Tour appearances and did not play in an event until he open qualified for the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Shot 62 on the Jackson Course at Rock Barn in the open qualifier and nearly parlayed that effort into a victory in the event. After shooting rounds of 65-65 on the weekend to tie Mark Wiebe at the end of regulation, lost to Wiebe on the third playoff hole when he three-putted from 25 feet for a bogey, missing a 5-foot par effort to extend the overtime session. His performance in North Carolina was his best in a Champions Tour event since winning on the circuit in 2002. The runner-up check for $154,000 earned him status in the remaining events from the reshuffle...Made a hole-in-one in the second round of the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Scottsdale (Champions) in November. Used a 5-iron on the 194-yard sixth hole. Went on to earn conditionally-exempt status for the 2012 season by finishing 11th in the event. Earned the 11th position with a birdie on the first extra hole.

PERSONAL:

Family owned Sky Valley Resort in north Georgia from 1975-91...Lowest competitive round was a 62 in an American Senior Golf Association event in 2002...Biggest thrill in golf was playing in the 1997 PGA Championship at Winged Foot...Once served as the assistant pro at Druid Hills CC in Atlanta...Heroes include Arnold Palmer, Jack Nick-laus and chef Emeril Lagasse...Loves to cook in his free time...Nicknamed "Big Daddy" when in school at Auburn...Started wearing knickers in the mid-'80s after he and his wife visited the Teabury Knicker Company in California and he purchased several pairs...Once roomed with Fuzzy Zoeller when they were starting their professional careers.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made a nice return to the Champions Tour after a 10-month absence due to right-knee-replacement surgery. Finished 32nd on the final money list in a year highlighted by his victory with teammate David Eger in Savannah at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. The duo started the final round four strokes off the lead but carded a 61 Sunday to post a 27-under 189 that forced a playoff with Scott Hoch/Kenny Perry. On the second extra hole, the duo managed to get up and down for a par from just left of the green and then watched both Hoch and Perry miss short par putts...Was T8 at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai in his first start since his surgery. Was among the first-round leaders after posting a 7-under 65 Friday.

PERSONAL:

Was a solid athlete is several sports as a youth but excelled at golf...Has managed to rebound from a series of physical setbacks in his career. Escaped with facial injuries when his car collided with a bus near his parents' farm in 1980. While on vacation in Cape Town in December 1993, suffered a freak nerve injury in his neck while playing cricket with his kids. Knee injury curtailed his 1995 season...Best shot of his career was his pitch to nine feet from 68 yards on the final hole that beat Ian Woosnam at the 1987 British Masters...Favorite golf course is the Old Course at St. Andrews, but only when the weather is ideal...First modeled his game after Arnold Palmer and then refined it like Gary Player as he grew older...Plays the piano...Dream foursome would include Bobby Locke, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen.

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

T3–Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. T3–The Senior Open Championship.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Among the top 20 on the Champions Tour money list for a second straight season and reeled off 24 consecutive scores of par or better from the Senior PGA Championship (T8) in late May through the third round of the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship (T17) in late August...Led the Champions Tour in both Driving Accuracy (82.11 percent) and Putting Average (1.709)...Best efforts were a pair of T3s—at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (with Tom Lehman) and the Senior British Open. At the Legends, three-round better-ball total of 26-under was one stroke short of getting into a playoff...Trailed the leaders by just one stroke after 54 holes of the Senior British but eventually finished three strokes back of Russ Cochran despite posting a third consecutive 69 at Walton Heath. Performance in England was his second straight top-three finish in the Senior British...Started his season by going bogey free over all 54 holes at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and it led to a sixth-place finish in Hawaii...Made four appearances on the PGA TOUR, making the cut in two tournaments. ## CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2009 SAS Championship

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

T5–Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. T5–Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Split his time between the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour. On TOUR, claimed two top 10s in just 12 starts, including one at year's end which altered his plans for 2012. Beginning the week of the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic as the fifth alternate and ranked 143rd on the money list, he capitalized on his opportunity in the season's final official event. Posted a third-round, 4-under 68 to start Sunday tied for sixth and within striking position of becoming the PGA TOUR's second-oldest winner. Following a final-round, 3-under 69, he waited until virtually the last putt dropped Sunday to see if it was good enough to elevate him to within the top 125. Finished T3 at the tournament, worthy of a 121st place money-list finish and fully-exempt status for 2012, at age 52, the oldest to ever earn exempt status from the top-125 category the previous year...He was last exempt on TOUR in 2009 after finishing No. 80 on the 2008 money list...In mid-July, nearly became the second-oldest winner of a PGA TOUR event when he finished T2 at the Viking Classic in Mississippi. After a third consecutive 67, he finished at 21-under-par 267 and was the clubhouse leader until rookie Chris Kirk, playing three groups behind, made a key birdie at No. 17 to take the lead for good and go on to his first career win at 22-under par. Had he prevailed at age 51 years, 10 months, 12 days, he would have been the second-oldest winner in TOUR history behind Sam Snead, who was 52 when he won the 1965 Greater Greenboro Classic. He also would have been the first over-50 player to win on the PGA TOUR since Fred Funk in 2007, at the Mayakoba Golf Classic, and just the third member of the Champions Tour to win on the PGA TOUR, joining Funk and Craig Stadler (2003 B.C. Open)...Enjoyed a nice Champions Tour season, garnering six top-10 finishes in 16 starts...Opened the season with a T13 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Despite three rounds in the 60s, saw streak of top-10s on the Champions Tour end at nine straight... Finished T5 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am...Was just two strokes behind 54-hole leader Mark Calcavecchia at the Regions Tradition before a final-round 74 dropped him to a 10th-place finish... Thanks to three straight sub-par rounds finished T5 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in July.

PERSONAL:

2011 SAS Championship

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

1--SAS Championship.

OTHER SENIOR VICTORIES:

(1): 2011 Wendy's 3-Tour Challenge [with Mark Calcavecchia, Jay Haas].

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Split time between the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, making 10 appearances on the senior circuit...Was among the top-10 seven times and late in the year, experienced a bittersweet first career win on the Champions Tour when he captured the SAS Championship one day after his sister Kay passed away with breast cancer. Rebounded from a double bogey early on the back nine at Prestonwood by first making birdie on the 16th hole to tie Jeff Sluman and then holing a 30-foot eagle putt at the par-5 17th hole to secure the one-stroke victory over Sluman and John Huston. Win in Cary, NC, came in his 11th career Champions Tour start and made him the fourth player in SAS history to claim his first title at the event. Also became the fifth of six first-time winners on the 2011 Champions Tour...Made a run at winning his first title in early August when he posted a final-round 66 to finish T2 at the 3M Championship in Minnesota, one stroke short of Jay Haas. Hole No. 9 at TPC Twin Cities was his bugaboo. Played the par-4 in 4-over for the week, including a double bogey Sunday...Also had a good chance to notch his first title in April when he teamed with good friend Scott Hoch at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and the duo eventually lost in a playoff to David Eger-Mark McNulty. Had a chance to win the title in regulation, but lipped out a 25-foot birdie putt and then both he and Hoch missed short par putts on the second extra hole to hand the trophy to Eger-McNulty...In his first appearance in a senior major championship, was among the leaders after 36 and 54 holes at the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek and eventually finished T5...Was also tied for the 36-hole lead at the Boeing Classic, but a final-round 72 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge dropped him into a T5...Shot a Champions Tour career-best 10-under-par 62 in the last round of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn and it led to a T8 finish in Hickory, NC...Teamed with Jay Haas and Mark Calcavecchia to win the Wendy's 3-Tour Challenge in Las Vegas during the fall season...Made 13 PGA TOUR appearances, making five cuts...Finished T39 at THE PLAYERS in May and was also T39 at The Greenbrier Classic during the summer.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 7 with encouragement from his father, who spent hours teeing balls up for him...Member of Western Kentucky University and Kentucky Athletic Golf Halls of Fame...Recipient of the 2009 Payne Stewart Award as well as the 2002 Charles Bartlett Award, given to a professional golfer for his unselfish contributions to the betterment of society, by the Golf Writers Association of America. Perry donates five percent of his winnings to Lipscomb University in Nashville, TN, to provide scholarships for Simpson County students. He also built Country Creek, a public course in his hometown of Franklin, KY. In 1995, he bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in the town. He designed it for mid-to-high handicappers and kept it affordable: 18 holes with a cart is $28 on weekdays. Works from time to time behind the counter and is often asked, "Do you know Kenny Perry?"

BEST 2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINSHES:

T2—Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Troubled with shoulder and upper-back issues for the latter half of the year and was out of action for over a month from mid-June to late-July. Was forced to withdraw prior to starting defense of his title at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in June as a result of these injuries...Winless season ended a run of six consecutive years with at least one Champions Tour title...Was among the top-eight in four events, with three of them coming in a four-event stretch during the late-spring/early-summer...Closed his season on a solid note with a T2 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, two strokes back of Jay Don Blake. Jumped into contention with a 6-under 65 at TPC Harding Park in the third round which proved to be the low round of the event. Added a final-round 70 to finish second along with Michael Allen, Jay Haas and Mark Calcavecchia. Holed a five-foot par putt on the final hole to help secure the Charles Schwab Cup for good friend Tom Lehman...First made noise in 2033 when he fired a final-round, 7-under-par 65 at Shoal Creek, which led to a third-place finish at the Regions Tradition, his best finish in that championship since winning it in 2005...Was T8 in his next start at the Senior PGA Championship, where he was on the leaderboard throughout much of the event at Valhalla...Two weeks later, was one of three players to play three straight bogey-free rounds (Peter Senior and Hal Sutton the others) at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn and 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199 was good enough for a T5 in North Carolina.

PERSONAL:

Earned the nicknamed "Boss of the Moss" for his putting ability. Nickname was coined by fellow TOUR member David Ogrin in 1985...Cary Middlecoff said of him in the mid-1980s: "We've got a kid back home (in Tennessee) who is just a beautiful putter. He'll just break your heart on the greens, he's so pure. If he ever gets to believing in himself, he could really be something to watch."...Inducted into Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998...Heroes are his mom and Byron Nelson...Dream foursome would include himself, Nelson, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen...Favorite golf courses are any built prior to 1950 and those designed by A.W. Tillinghast...Served as an assistant club professional before embarking on a professional career at San Luis Obispo CC and Morro Bay Municipal. One of his jobs as an assistant was making milkshakes and he still enjoys doing it...First job was a paper boy...Says if he weren't playing golf for a living he'd be a golf professional at a private club...Two of his best friends in golf are Tom Lehman and Vance Veazey...Said one of the strangest things he ever signed was a Roger Clemens-autographed baseball.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Came tantalizingly close to earning his first Champions Tour win, finishing second three times (twice in playoffs) and third once, one stroke out of a playoff. Along with Tom Lehman, finished second in top-10s, with 12 in his 22 appearances. As a result, he made in excess of $600,000 more than he made in his Champions Tour rookie year, finishing seventh on the final money list. Earnings of $1,434,119 were the third highest money total in a season without the benefit of a victory, and he became the first player ever to register two bogey-free events in the same season—Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn (T29) and the AT&T Championship (fifth). Has been bogey-free in three events in his Champions Tour career...Was also the only player to finish among the top 10 in four of the Champions Tour's five majors...Nearly claimed his first major championship in May at the Regions Tradition. Posted four consecutive sub-par rounds, including a 4-under-par 68 Sunday at Shoal Creek which got him into a playoff with eventual-winner Lehman. Saw his 35-foot birdie opportunity for victory on the 72nd hole catch the left edge of the hole before sliding by. Eventually fell on the second extra hole when he missed a five-foot putt for par to extend the overtime...At the Songdo IBD Championship in South Korea, matched the tournament course record with a Champions Tour career-best, 8-under-par, 64 in the final round. However, in a four-man playoff with Mark O'Meara, John Cook and Jay Don Blake, was eliminated on the third extra hole along with O'Meara when each made a bogey...Was in the final group Sunday and battled both Fred Couples and John Cook down the stretch before registering a third-place effort at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship...Turned in a strong effort at the Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla, finishing T5 in Louisville...Also had a nice performance at the U.S. Senior Open in July, claiming a sixth-place finish at the Inverness Club...On the PGA TOUR, finished T64 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship and also qualified for the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, but elected to play the Champions Tour's 3M Championship instead. Was the 36-hole co-leader at the Minnesota event, but a final-round 70 at TPC Twin Cities left him T2, one stroke back of Jay Haas...Tied Mark Calcavecchia for most rounds in the 60s, with 43 and was one short of Calcavecchia for most sub-par rounds (56) despite stringing together 16 straight scores below par at one stretch, a season best on the Champions Tour...Was T4 at the Australian Masters at Victoria GC in December.

PERSONAL:

Career was threatened by putting problems until Sam Torrance converted him to the broom handle model...Hosts an annual pro-am to raise funds for the cancer research unit at the Royal Brisbane Children's Hospital. The event has raised more than $1.2 million...When in the army in Singapore, his dad introduced him to golf with a starter set to keep him out of trouble...Admires people who work hard and excel at what they do...Favorite golf courses are Kingston Heath in Australia, Carnoustie in Scotland and Pebble Beach in the United States...Enjoys reading anything by Wilbur Smith...Favorite athlete is Tiger Woods...Has had 10 career holes-in-one...Low professional round is a 62 while playing in the Rich River Classic in Australia...Recently sold his stake in a pawnbroking business, Cash Converters, that he co-owned with his brother in Australia...Enjoys watching "Two and a Half Men" on TV as well as any sporting event, especially Rugby League...Favorite team as a kid was the Brisbane Broncos of the Australian Rugby League, and his favorite player was Wally Lewis...Favorite athlete is tennis standout Roger Federer...His favorite movies are "Trading Places," "The Terminator" and "Aliens"...Favorite vacation was going to Canada with his family over a previous Christmas and having his family see snow for the first time...Most memorable shot was a 1-iron he hit on the 12th hole at The Lakes in Sydney in the final round of the Johnnie Walker Classic...His bucket list includes going to Egypt to see the pyramids as well as going to Antarctica...Says he'd most like to sit down with an archaeologist because he would love to hear about relics and treasures that have been dug up.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Reclaimed a spot among the top-10 money-winners after a year's absence, finishing sixth on the money list for the second time in the last three seasons...Along with Rod Spittle, played in all 24 official events...Won his fourth career title overall and his third in the last four years in early July, at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Victory was his third in the last four years on the Monterey Peninsula. Started Sunday's final round three strokes behind Jay Haas, but his play remained steady throughout the final round as various leaders stumbled on the famed course. Made birdies on Nos. 13 and 14 and then made a clutch save out of the bunker at No. 17 to hold off various challengers.

His final-round 70 matched the highest score by a winner at the event and his 10-under-par 206 matched his winning total in 2009...Got his year off to a fast start with four top-10 efforts in his first five events and put together a streak of 25 consecutive rounds at par or better from the end of 2010 through the opening round of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am (second-round 73 ended the string)...After a T4 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, finished T2 at the Allianz Championship where he was in contention throughout the final round and held the lead on the back nine before finishing one stroke shy of Tom Lehman. Birdied two of the final three holes but his downfall was a bogey at No. 17...In early April, finished T2 again to Lehman at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Was the first-round leader and trailed Lehman by one stroke after 36 holes before finishing four strokes back along with David Frost and Nick Price...Third runner-up effort came late in the year when he was T2 along with John Huston at the SAS Championship, falling one stroke short of Kenny Perry near Raleigh. Led on the back nine Sunday until Perry made birdie at the 16th hole to tie him and then went ahead for good when he eagled the par-5 17th hole...Also finished fourth at the Boeing Classic after being tied for the 36-hole lead at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge...Ranked third on the Champions Tour in sub-par rounds with 55.

The 62 was an 18-hole record for the tournament and vaulted him up into a T7 finish in his native Canada...Was a co-leader through 36 holes of the Senior British Open at Walton Heath but struggled in the final two rounds and finished T12 in England.

2011 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made 12 appearances on the Champions Tour for the third consecutive year but still managed to post his highest standing on the final money list since 2007 thanks to a history-making performance at the Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla in late May...Won his 14th career title and sixth major championship on the Champions Tour when he prevailed in a one-hole playoff over David Eger at the Senior PGA Championship in Kentucky. It was his first major triumph since the 2007 Senior British Open and the victory came 10 years, 2 days after he won the same event in 2001 at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey. At 61 years, 8 months, 25 days, he became the oldest player to win a major championship since the advent of the Champions Tour in 1980 and he also became the third-oldest winner of any Champions Tour event. Hale Irwin had previously held that distinction of the oldest to win a major when he won the 2004 Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla at age 59 years, 11 months, 28 days. His sixth major title also tied him with Gary Player for third place on the all-time majors list, two behind Jack Nicklaus and one behind Irwin. Du-eled David Eger near the end of the event and, after missing an opportunity to win in regulation on the final hole, made amends minutes later when he drained a 3-foot birdie putt to defeat Eger...Had a good chance to claim a second consecutive major at the Senior British Open at Walton Heath. After opening with 75, rallied with rounds of 68-69-67 for a T3, three strokes back of Russ Cochran. Performance was his best at this championship since last winning in 2007...At the start of the year, made a spirited run at defending his Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai title but final-round 68 left him third, three strokes back of John Cook. Performance was his eighth top-10 on the Big Island, the most by a player in event history...Completed early Hawaii schedule by successfully defending his Kaanapali Champions Skins Game title with Jack Nicklaus. After a four-hole carryover, holed a key 12-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole that gave the duo $250,000 and clinched the title. Duo finished the competition with $310,000, edging out Bernhard Langer-Mark O'Meara by $10,000. Win was his fourth overall in Senior Skins and third with Nicklaus as a partner...Made his 38th career start at the Masters (missed cut)...Also aced No. 6 in the second round of the British Open at Royal St. George's, his fifth PGA TOUR hole-in-one, with all of them coming at venues that have hosted major championships (Riviera CC, Torrey Pines GC, Pebble Beach GL, Baltusrol GC, Royal St. George's). Eventually finished T22 in the event...Champions Tour Player of the Month for May.

John Cook's finishing kick on the back nine propelled him to a two-stroke victory over Tom Lehman in the Champions Tour's season-opening event at Hualalai. Cook trailed 36-hole leader Russ Cochran by one stroke after his front nine Sunday, but he reeled off five straight birdies beginning at the par-5 10th to take command of the tournament. After making a nice up-an-down par save from left of the green at No. 15, Cook holed a clutch 4-foot birdie at the 16th to put the tournament away. Lehman trailed Cook by four strokes after his birdie at No. 13 but, despite playing his final five holes in 4-under par, Lehman still fell two shots short.

With his victory, John Cook became the first player since Gil Morgan in 1997-98 to claim the season-opening event after winning the last official tournament the previous year.

John Cook's final-round 64 allowed him to rally from three strokes back for victory. It was the first time since Loren Roberts in 2006 that a player made up that large of a margin on the final day and, for the first time since 2005, the winner of the Mitsubishi Electric Championship did not come from the final Sunday pairing.

Corey Pavin played all 54 holes without making a bogey and finished sixth in the tournament.

John Cook shot 22-under-par 194, his lowest 54-hole score ever in a three-round Champions Tour event.

Tom Watson made a spirited run in defense of his Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai title and eventually tied for third. It was Watson's eighth top-10 finish in the event.

No. 17 Nicklaus/Watson win five skins with birdie-2, collect $250,000.

No. 18 Nicklaus/Watson and Couples/Price halve with par-4s.

Playoff - 17 Nicklaus/Watson, Langer/O'Meara, Crenshaw/Zoeller halve with par-3s. Price/Couples eliminated with bogey-5.

-18 Langer/O'Meara win one skin with par-4, collect $100,000.

Keys to Victory:

After not winning a skin since the 2nd hole on Saturday, Tom Watson made a clutch 12-foot birdie putt on the par-3 17th hole to win five skins and $250,000 thus allowing the Jack Nicklaus-Watson team to clinch the competition with $310,000 and successfully defend their Kaanapali Champions Skins Game title. For Nicklaus, it was his fifth Kaanapali Champions Skins game victory (1991, 2005, 2007, 2010, 2011) and his third with Watson as his partner. The victory was Watson's fourth Skins title overall (2004, 2007, 2010, 2011). Nicklaus set Watson up for the winning putt at No. 17 by rifling a 136-yard, 6-iron shot into a howling left-to-right wind to 12 feet. After Bernhard Langer lipped out his birdie putt from 15 feet, Watson stepped up and converted the winning putt. Langer and Mark O'Meara made a two-putt par on the second playoff hole (18th) to claim the final skin worth $100,000 and the duo finished second in the competition with $300,000. Both the Nicklaus-Watson team and the Langer-O'Meara team earned seven total skins over the two-day event.

Notes:

For the first time in the last six events using the team, alternate-shot format, a winning team didn't have a double-digit skins total. Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson won with a winning total of $310,000, the lowest amount in the team, alternate-shot format. Fuzzy Zoeller/Peter Jacobsen (2008) and Jack Nicklaus/Tom Watson (2007) both won with $320,000, the previous lowest money total.

Tom Watson's birdie putt at No. 17 was worth $250,000 to the Jack Nicklaus-Watson team, the most money earned on one hole since 2009 when Ben Crenshaw/Fuzzy Zoeller pocketed $300,000 for a birdie at the par-3 12th hole. For the second consecutive year, there was a five-hole carry-over and as was the case in 2010, Nicklaus-Watson claimed the money at a key time. In 2010, the duo had a birdie-3 at No. 5 after the first four holes had been halved.

Jack Nicklaus owns 10 Kaanapali Champions Skins Game records, including most career skins (121), most career money ($2,760,000). His 77 skins on the front nine are more than every other competitor's total skins. Raymond Floyd is the next closest with a total of 69 skins. Nicklaus is second to Floyd (47 skins) for most back-nine skins with 46. Tom Watson has 63 total skins in this event and earnings of $1,475,000.

A combined total of 10 birdies were made in the competition compared to the 19 birdies made by the four teams in the 2010 Kaanapali Champions Skins Game competition, but there were no eagles recorded. In the 24-year history of this event, there have only been five eagles made and Jack Nicklaus has made four of them. Tom Watson also recorded an eagle in 2004.

For the first time at Kaanapali, all four teams earned money in the competition. All four teams earned money in the 2007 event at Wailea Golf Club on Maui.

The playoff in 2011 marked the 20th time in 24 events that extra holes were needed to decide the title. The extra holes in 2011 ran the total number of playoff holes to 43 in event history.

Tom Lehman sank a 6-foot birdie putt on the final hole to win the Allianz Championship. Lehman drained his winning putt moments after Rod Spittle missed a 6-foot birdie opportunity which would have given him a one-stroke lead. However, Spittle's birdie attempt slid by the left side of the hole, leaving the door open for Lehman. His putt earned him his third Champions Tour victory.

The win gave Tom Lehman a victory in each of the last three years. He teamed with Bernhard Langer to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in 2009 and then defeated Fred Couples and David Frost in a one-hole playoff at the 2010 Senior PGA Championship.

Olin Browne made an ace during the first round. Browne also had hole-in-ones on both the Nationwide Tour and PGA TOUR, making him the fourth player to do so. The others are Jim Thorpe, Chip Beck and Dave Barr.

Sunday's scoring average was 71.900 and the average was 71.685, the highest average in the five-year history of the tournament.

Tournament Record:
 196 - Bernhard Langer (2011)

Current Course Record:
 61 - The Quarry - Tommy Armour III (2010)

Bernhard Langer, the three-time Champions Tour Player of the Year, carded a final-round 66 to easily win in Naples. Langer led Fred Funk by three strokes after 10 holes Sunday, but his lead was trimmed to two for the only time in the final round after he fluffed his third shot from a greenside bunker at the par-4 11th and needed to convert a 7-foot putt for a bogey. Funk was unable to apply any pressure the rest of the way, making par on his last six holes. Langer iced the tournament when he hit a wedge 3 feet from the par-5 14th hole and made a short birdie putt after Funk missed his birdie effort from 10 feet.

Bernhard Langer's 20-under-par 196 total was an ACE Group Classic tournament record, one stroke better than the previous mark of 19-under 197 by Jimmy Powell at The Vineyards in 1992.

Bernhard Langer picked up his 14th career title on the Champions Tour in his 71st start on the circuit. With his win, Langer moved into a tie for 15th on the all-time victory list, with Raymond Floyd, Jay Haas, Dave Stockton and Tom Watson. As a comparison, Hale Irwin won his 14th of 45 career Champions Tour wins in his 62nd start, while Lee Trevino won his 14th of 29 career Champions Tour titles in his 66th career start.

The last group continues to be a good place to play the final round of The ACE Group Classic. Bernhard Langer became the 11th consecutive player to win from the final grouping Sunday at this event. The last winner of this event to not play in the final grouping was Lanny Wadkins in 2000.

Bernhard Langer's four-stroke margin of victory is the largest at The ACE Group Classic since Allen Doyle won by a tournament-record five strokes in 1999.

Tournament Record:

194 - Jay Haas (2007)

Current Course Record:

60 - Newport Beach CC - Nick Price (2011), Tom Purtzer (2004)

Nick Price two-putted for par on the final hole and then watched Mark Wiebe's 14-foot birdie putt slide by the hole giving him a one-stroke victory in Newport Beach. It was Price's fourth Champions Tour title and third in the last 11 months. Price started the day with a two-stroke edge over Wiebe and pushed it to three after a birdie at No. 10. Price's bogey at No. 12 dropped it back to two strokes and then Wiebe cut it to one with a birdie at No. 15. However, neither could make a birdie over the final three holes and Price emerged with the win.

Nick Price matched the Champions Tour's 18-hole scoring record in the opening round, posting an 11-under-par 60 in the opening round. Isao Aoki set the mark in 1997 at the Emerald Coast Classic, and it was later matched by five others prior to this year's tournament, including Tom Purtzer at this event in 2004.

Nick Price's five-stroke margin on Friday tied the largest 18-hole lead in Champions Tour history and he became the first wire-to-wire winner of the event.

Lee Trevino bettered his age for the first time in his career when he fired a 1-under-par 70 Friday. Two days later Trevino matched his age with a final-round, even-par 71. Trevino had matched his age in 2006 when he closed with a second-round 66 at the AT&T Championship.

Nick Price's 36-hole total of 128 was a 36-hole tournament record.

Joe Ozaki played in the final pairing on the final day for the first time in his Champions Tour career, a span of 101 career starts. Ozaki tied for third.

Gil Morgan matched his age for the first time in his career when he fired a 7-under-par 64 in the second round.

Ian Baker-Finch finished tied for 78th in his Champions Tour debut.

Defending champion Fred Couples finished tied for fifth in his second Champions Tour start of the year.

Weather: Partly to mostly cloudy early in the week with highs in the mid-to-upper 70s. Thunderstorms moved through the area Wednesday morning and the course received .75 inches of rain. The start of play was delayed 15 minutes Saturday due to fog in the area.

Tournament Record:
 200 - Tom Lehman (2011)
Current Course Record:
 64 - Fallen Oak - Tom Lehman (2011)

Tom Lehman bogeyed his first hole to drop back into a tie at 12-under-par with Jeff Sluman, but the former PGA TOUR Player of the Year put down the accelerator and pulled away from the field for a four-stroke victory at Fallen Oak. Lehman birdied Nos. 4, 6 and 8 to build a three-stroke margin at the turn and never looked back. It was his second win of the season.

Tom Lehman shot a blistering, 7-under-par 29 on the back nine on his way to a course-record 8-under-par 64 in the second round. His 64 matched his low round on the Champions Tour. He shot a closing-round, 8-under-par 64 in the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai earlier in the year.

Tom Lehman's win came 20 years after he won on the Nationwide Tour, at Windance Country Club in Gulfport, MS, in a playoff with Tim Straub and John Wilson. One of the other competitors in that event was Olin Browne, who tied for fifth at Windance, the same position he finished at Fallen Oak in 2011.

Hale Irwin reached a milestone with his tie-for-seventh finish. It marked the 200th top-10 finish in his career.

Mark Brooks tied for 18th in his Champions Tour debut, and fellow "rookie" Jim Gallagher, Jr., tied for 45th.

John Cook sank an 6-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Jay Don Blake and win the 24th annual Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Cook had gone to the 54th hole with a two-stroke lead over Russ Cochran and Blake and appeared in command. However, he hit his second shot into the water, which eventually resulted in a double bogey. Cook still had an opportunity to win the title outright but missed a 23-foot putt, sending him into the playoff with Blake after Cochran made a bogey at No. 18 that took him out of contention. In the overtime, Cook hit two good shots and his second, a 6-iron from 168 yards, landed 6 feet short of the flagstick. He converted the putt for the win after Blake's drive and second shot found bunkers.

Jay Don Blake and Art Ensley (Houston, TX) teamed to capture the pro-am portion of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. The pair finished with a 54-hole total of 25-under-par 188. It was Ensley's fourth appearance in the tournament. John Cook and his partner Todd Wagner finished two behind.

Tom Lehman fell short in his quest to equal Hale Irwin's all-time record of 13 straight sub-70 rounds, shooting a 2-over 73 in the first round of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

Two players who hadn't played a Champions Tour event in more than a year returned at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Scott Hoch, out of action since playing in the 2010 ACE Group Classic, tied for 25th, while Jim Thorpe, who last played at the 2009 AT&T Championship, tied for 59th. Jeff Sluman's 2-over 73 in the second round ended his run of par/better scores at 25 straight, a Champions Tour best in 2011.

Kenny Perry and Scott Hoch both missed short par putts on the second playoff hole, handing the Legends Division title to Mark McNulty/David Eger. McNulty and Eger teamed for a final-round, 11-under 61 to post a 27-under-par score, but Perry almost holed a birdie putt on the final hole of regulation that would have won the tournament outright, lipping out from 25 feet. After both teams made par on the first extra hole, all four players missed the 18th green with their approach shots on the second extra hole. McNulty first saved his par from just left of the green, chipping to within 3 feet of the hole and converting the par save. Hoch then missed his par bid from the same distance. Just when it looked as if the playoff would be extended to a third extra hole, Perry pulled his putt from 3 feet, giving McNulty and Eger the win.

Notes:

The win was the eighth official title for Mark McNulty and his first Champions Tour win since the 2009 Principal Charity Classic. For David Eger, it was his fourth victory on the circuit and first since last year's Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

David Eger and Mark McNulty played together in 2008 (tied for 10th) and 2009 (tied for 16th) but did not play as a team in 2010 due to McNulty's knee replacement. In 2010, Eger teamed with Ronnie Black to tie for 17th.

For the third consecutive year, a team has come from off the pace to win. David Eger and Mark McNulty rallied from four strokes back to win the Legends Division in a playoff, and it equaled the biggest come-from-behind win in the long history of this event.

The playoff in 2011 was the third consecutive in the Legends Division at the Westin Savannah Harbor Resort & Spa and all have gone two holes.

Defending champions Nick Price and Mark O'Meara tied for 12th.

Mark Wiebe/Russ Cochran combined to shoot a 12-under 60 in the final round, equaling the low round of the tournament (Wayne Levi/Keith Fergus in the second round).

With ideal scoring conditions during the week, 25 teams in the Legends Division had 54-hole totals of 20-under-par or better, a record at this event. In 2008, 16 teams had three-round scores of 20-under or better.

Liberty Mutual donated $100 to the Chaplains' Consolidated Tithes and Offering Fund at Hunter Army Airfield Fund for every birdie made on the par 3s during the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Teams made a total of 139 birdies on the par 3s during the three tournament rounds.

Tom Lehman won the 2011 Regions Tradition when Peter Senior lipped out a 5-foot par putt on the second playoff hole. It appeared as if Senior was in the driver's seat on the first playoff hole, but he missed a 15-foot birdie putt and Lehman was able to get up and down from the collection area right of the 18th green, making a 5-foot par putt of his own. On the second extra hole, Senior missed the green to the right in the same collection area from where Lehman had just played, he chipped 5 feet past the flag. Lehman's 21-foot birdie putt missed right, but he won the event after Senior's par attempt to extend the overtime session missed. Lehman played the last 27 holes without a bogey and made two key par saves in regulation (10th hole from 15 feet, 17th hole after a bad drive in the trees) that allowed him to get into the playoff.

Tom Lehman claimed his third victory of the 2011 season in his seventh event of the year.

Tom Lehman has won a pair of Champions Tour major titles, with both victories coming in playoffs. In 2010, Lehman won the Senior PGA Championship at Colorado Golf Club near Denver, defeating both Fred Couples and David Frost in overtime.

Tom Lehman went over the $1-million mark in season earnings in just his seventh event of 2011. A year earlier, Fred Couples set an all-time record for quickest to seven figures in earnings in a season, doing so in his sixth event, the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

The playoff between Peter Senior and Tom Lehman was the eighth in the 23-year history of the Regions Tradition and second overtime session in the last three years. Since 2008, the Champions Tour has had at least one playoff in a major championship during the year.

Australian Peter Senior matched his career-best Champions Tour finish with a runner-up performance at the Regions Tradition. Senior's previous-best effort in a Champions Tour event came in Birmingham in 2010 when he tied for second at the old Regions Charity Classic at Ross Bridge.

Loren Roberts' final-round 65 was the low round of the day and matched the low round of the tournament (Mark Calcavecchia/second round, Kenny Perry/second round). The final-round 65 also allowed Roberts to become the only player to finish among the top five in the last two professional events at Shoal Creek. Roberts tied for fifth in the 1990 PGA Championship.

Players made 14 eagles at Shoal Creek during the week, but only one came on a par-4 (Jeff Sluman/No. 7 in the final round). Gil Morgan, the 1997 and 1998 Tradition champion, was the only player to make a pair of eagles during the week.

Ten years and two days after winning his first Senior PGA Championship, Tom Watson added a second to his resume when he made a 3-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole to defeat David Eger and claim the title. Both Eger and Watson missed short putts on the final hole in regulation which would have given them the win. However, in the playoff, after Eger missed his birdie opportunity from 10 feet, Watson made his 3-footer for the win after blasting out from a bunker from 45 feet away.

Tom Watson became the third-oldest winner in Champions Tour history at 61 years, 8 months, 25 days. He was also the oldest winner of a major championship since the Champions Tour began in 1980. Hale Irwin previously held that distinction when he won the 2004 Senior PGA Championship here at Valhalla at age 59 years, 11 months, 28 days.

Tom Watson's six Champions Tour major titles tied him with Gary Player. Jack Nicklaus leads all players with eight major titles followed by Hale Irwin with seven. Watson has won a combined 14 major titles, including eight on the PGA TOUR.

Tom Watson eclipsed the $24-million mark in all time earnings with his win ($24,008,243).

Hale Irwin's fourth-place finish was his best in a senior major championship since he was second at the 2005 Ford Senior Players Championship. It was Irwin's best in a Senior PGA Championship since he won in 2004.

Defending champion Tom Lehman tied for 22nd after shooting a final-round 77.

Sonny Skinner had the best showing by one of the 12 club professionals who made the cut. He tied for 45th.

Sunday's playoff was the fourth consecutive on the Champions Tour in 2011. The last time there were four straight playoffs was in 2005, the first of those coming at the Senior PGA Championship at Laurel Valley Golf Club when Mike Reid defeated Dana Quigley and Jerry Pate.

Steve Pate tied for eighth in his Champions Tour debut.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Sunny with temperatures in the mid-to-upper-80s throughout the week. Light rain early Tuesday morning and a brief shower on Thursday during the pro-am.

Tournament Record:
 197 - Gil Morgan (2006)

Current Course Record:
 63 - Glen Oak CC - Keith Fergus (2011), Tommy Armour III (2010), Massy Kuramoto (2007), John Bland (2002)

Bob Gilder's downhill 30-foot birdie putt on the final hole, coupled with Mark Brooks' three-putt bogey from 25 feet gave the 2011 Principal Charity Classic an improbable winner. Brooks led from the opening round until the last hole. He clung to a one-stroke lead after salvaging a bogey with an eight-foot putt after hitting his second shot on the par-4 17th into the water. Brooks appeared to be in control after hitting his second shot on the green and appeared to need only a two-putt to win. Gilder then holed his dramatic putt to temporarily tie Brooks at 14-under. Brooks then ran his birdie putt five feet past the hole and missed his comeback effort for par handing the event to Gilder. Gilder trailed Brooks by four strokes heading to the 15th tee but inched to within two strokes after making birdies at both the 15th and 16th holes.

With his win, Bob Gilder joined Jay Haas as the second multiple winner of The Principal Charity Classic. He also won at Glen Oaks in 2002.

At 60 years, 6 months, 5 days, Bob Gilder became the oldest winner of The Principal Charity Classic. It was just the 20th time in 943 official events on the Champions Tour that a player over age 60 has won.

Bob Gilder's victory, coupled with 61-year-old Tom Watson's victory the previous week at the Senior PGA Championship, marked the first time in Champions Tour history that players over 60 have won back-to-back events.

Keith Fergus carded an 8-under 63 to not only tie the tournament's 18-hole record, but he also posted his career-low Champions Tour score. Fergus joined John Bland (second round, 2002), Massy Kuramoto (third round, 2007) and Tommy Armour III (first round, 2010) with the fourth 63 in Principal Charity Classic history.

John Huston, a seven-time winner on the PGA TOUR, shot a final-round 67 and tied for 16th in his Champions Tour debut. Damon Green, best known as Zach Johnson's caddie on the PGA TOUR, shot 3-under 68 and tied for 46th in his first Champions Tour start.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 players completed 54 holes

Weather: Sunny and very hot throughout the week with temperatures in the mid-90s.

Tournament Record:
 197 - James Mason (2011), Mark Wiebe (2011)

Current Course Record:
 61 - Rock Barn G&S - Gary Hallberg (2010), R.W. Eaks (2008)

Mark Wiebe won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn when, on the third playoff hole, he two-putted from 40 feet for a par and then watched James Mason three-putt from 25 feet for a bogey, missing a five-foot par effort that would have extended the overtime session. In regulation, Mason two-putted the par-5 18th hole from 25 feet for a birdie to tie Wiebe at 19-under. Both players played the 18th again and Wiebe hit a wedge to within 12 feet and made the birdie putt. However, Mason answered with a seven-footer of his own and then play was immediately suspended by lightning in the area for 1:05 before the 18th could be played again. After Wiebe's third shot stopped nine feet from the hole, Mason pulled his third with a wedge into the back bunker, but he managed to get up and down for par, holing a clutch 7-foot putt. Wiebe's birdie putt for the win slid just past the hole, forcing a deciding third extra hole at the par-3 17th.

This marked the second consecutive year that a player came from off the pace to win this event. Prior to Gary Hallberg's victory at Rock Barn in 2010, four straight tournaments in Hickory were won by the 36-hole leader/co-leader.

The Champions Tour's all-time record for most birdies made in a 54-hole tournament was shattered as players made 1,147 birdies in regulation at this year's Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. The old mark was set at the 2010 Allianz Championship, when players made 1,012 birdies on the Old Course at Broken Sound.

Loren Roberts (tied for fifth), Hal Sutton (tied for 15th) and Peter Senior (tied for 31st) all turned in bogey-free tournaments, marking the first time in Champions Tour history that as many as three players were bogey-free in the same event.

With 69 of the 81 players in the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn field shooting sub-par rounds on Friday, it smashed the previous-best sub-par numbers for any round on the Champions Tour in a 54-hole event (63 in the third round of the 2000 Gold Rush Classic).

There were seven eagles made during the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn and Tom Kite had three of them. Kite became the first player in Champions Tour history to make a trio of eagles on the same nine (second round) and just the sixth player overall to make three eagles in a round.

Tom Kite's 8-under 28 on the back nine (his first nine) during the second round tied Mike Goodes' nine-hole record set the day before. It also bested the previous-low back-nine score in tournament history—30 (Jim Thorpe, second round in 2003, R.W. Eaks, first round in 2007 and Olin Browne, second round in 2009).

Mark Wiebe and James Mason's 19-under 197 total was a Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn tournament record. The previous-best for 54 holes at this event was 18-under 198 by Jay Haas in 2009 and Gary Hallberg in 2010. This was the first time since 2005 that the winner shot in the 60s all three days.

The cumulative scoring average of 69.008 for the event was easily an all-time Champions Tour record in relation to par since records were first kept in 1988. Seventy-two of the 81 players in the field who started broke par.

Defending champion Gary Hallberg tied for 52nd after closing with 5-under 67 Sunday.

Wayne Levi disqualified himself from the tournament Sunday morning after he discovered he had signed for a 3 at the ninth hole when he actually had made a 4 during the second round. Levi was at 6-under (tied for 38th) through 36 holes before calling rules officials with the infraction.

Cut: There was no cut; 79 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Partly to mostly cloudy through much of the week with occasional showers. The course received a half-inch of rain Thursday, which resulted in two suspensions of play during the pro-am. Daytime highs ranged from the low 80s early in the week to the low 70s on the weekend.

Tournament Record:
 195 - Lonnie Nielsen (2009)
Current Course Record:
 62 - En-Joie GC - R.W. Eaks (2007)

John Huston closed with a 7-under-par 65 and had just one bogey on his card as he cruised to a three-stroke victory. It was just his third Champions Tour start. Huston started the day two strokes behind 36-hole leader Mark Wiebe, but a three-hole stretch on the back nine led to Wiebe's eventual downfall. After birdies on Nos. 10 and 11, which allowed him to maintain his two-stroke advantage, he made three consecutive bogeys, on Nos. 12-14, to relinquish the lead for good.

John Huston's win comes just 25 days after turning 50, making him the 11th-youngest winner in Champions Tour history (tied with Dale Douglass).

The win came in John Huston's 156th start since his last victory, at the 2003 Southern Farm Bureau Classic.

One of the keys for John Huston in the tournament was his play on the back nine. He did not make a bogey in any of his three rounds and was a combined 9-under-par.

Nick Price went over the $1-million mark in season earnings for the fourth straight year with his second-place check ($154,000).

Mark Wiebe's string of consecutive holes without a bogey ended at 75 when he bogeyed No. 12 Sunday. The 36-hole leader finished third.

Hale Irwin's tie for 10th was the 203rd of his illustrious career, tying him with Bob Charles for the most top-10 finishes in Champions Tour history.

Local favorite Joey Sindelar tied for fourth, his highest finish since the Allianz Championship in February, 2010 (tied for third). Sindelar was the only player in the field to post three sub-70 rounds (68-69-68).

Peter Jacobsen posted his first top-10 finish since the Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in 2007 (tied for 10th) when he tied for sixth this year at En-Joie.

Tournament Record:

195 - John Cook (2011)

Current Course Record:

62 - Club de Golf Fontainebleau - Rod Spittle (2011)

John Cook posted a bogey-free, 6-under-par 66 and claimed his second title in Canada when he prevailed by three strokes over Chien Soon Lu. Cook started the day one stroke behind Lu but grabbed the lead with two quick birdies on Nos. 1 and 2. He pushed his lead to three at the turn, and a birdie at No. 10 gave him a four-stroke margin. Lu birdied Nos. 13 and 14 to close the gap, but Cook made a clutch par putt at No. 15 from 12 feet and added a birdie at No. 17 to lead by two going to the final hole. Cook had just one bogey over his final 51 holes.

With his victory, John Cook won for the third time in 2011, joining Tom Lehman with a trio of titles. Cook also won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

John Cook's win was also eighth of his Champions Tour career and his second Tour win in Canada. He won the PGA TOUR's 1983 Canadian Open in a six-hole playoff with Johnny Miller at Glen Abbey.

John Cook has finished first and second in two starts at the Montreal Championship. He was the 36-hole leader in 2010 before being passed in the final round by Larry Mize.

Canada's Rod Spittle (tied for seventh) broke the tournament scoring record when he closed with a 10-under-par 62, two better than his career low on the Champions Tour (two times).

Chien Soon Lu's second-place finish was the second runner-up performance of his career. He tied for second at the 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition in Oregon.

The field rolled up 1,059 birdies for the week along with 29 eagles. Overall, the field scoring average was 69.219.

Jeff Sluman made it three wins in his last four starts at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach when he prevailed by two strokes at the famed Northern California venue. Sluman, who won the event in 2008 and 2009, started the day three strokes behind 36-hole leader Jay Haas. However, Sluman was able to avoid the pitfalls the others faced on Sunday on a course that became more difficult as the week progressed. Sluman made birdies at Nos. 13 and 14 on the back nine and despite a bogey at No. 15, he parred his final three holes, including a great save from the bunker at No. 17. Haas was among three others who led or shared the lead on Sunday. However, after a quick start with consecutive birdies on Nos. 1 and 2, he played his final 16 holes in five-over-par. A disastrous three-hole stretch (Nos. 10-12) ended Mark Brooks' chances and two double bogeys and a bogey proved Bobby Clampett's downfall.

The win was Jeff Sluman's fourth on the Champions Tour. In addition to three wins at Pebble Beach, his other victory came at the 2008 Bank of America Championship.

Jeff Sluman's 54-hole total of 10-under-par 206 matched his winning total from 2009, the highest winning score in tournament history. Sluman's 2-under-par 70 matched the highest final round score by a winner (Ted Schulz in 2010).

Jeff Sluman credited part of his victory to his birdies on No. 14 on the weekend. It ranked as the second most difficult hole on the course for the tournament. Overall, Sluman had 17 birdies, the most by a winner since Hale Irwin in 2005.

In his first appearance on the Champions Tour since suffering a wrist injury at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in late April, Russ Cochran fired a bogey-free 7-under-par 65 in the first round which included a run of six straight birdies on his second nine (Nos. 3-8 at Pebble Beach), eclipsing the old tournament record of five consecutive birdies by five different players. Cochran's six straight birdies also equaled the 2011 best streak on the Champions Tour—Tom Lehman (Senior PGA Championship), Mike Goodes (Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn).

With his tie for second, Jay Haas has recorded six top-10 finishes in seven starts in this tournament. It was Haas' third second-place finish here. He was second in 2004 and tied for second in 2006.

Brad Bryant's tie-for-second performance was his best showing since he tied for second at the 2008 AT&T Champions Classic in California.

Weather: Thursday: Variable clouds, breezy and cool, with highs only in the low-60s. Steady rain during the afternoon did not cause any delays. Winds NNE at 10-15 mph. Friday: Sunshine early gave way to cloudy skies later. Temperatures reached the mid-60s, with NW at 5-10 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy, with highs in the low-60s and NW winds at 8-12 mph. Sunday: Plenty of sunshine, with highs in the low-70s and NW winds at 10-15 mph.

Russ Cochran broke away from a crowded leaderboard, making six birdies in his first 10 holes, and then held off Mark Calcavecchia down the stretch to win by two strokes. The turning point on Sunday came in a span of two minutes on the front nine. Both players were tied for the lead until Cochran holed an 8-foot birdie putt at No. 7 just moments after Calcavecchia four-putted the par-3 ninth hole from 18 feet for a double bogey. With a three-stroke lead, Cochran added a short birdie at No. 8 and his margin increased to five strokes after he made another birdie at No. 10.

Russ Cochran's win was his third career Champions Tour victory in his 50th start.

Russ Cochran won his first major championship in his 11th attempt. His previous-best finishes in majors were ties for third at the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick and at the 2010 Senior British Open at Carnoustie. This was his third appearance in the event.

Russ Cochran became the first left-hander to win a major on the Champions Tour since Bob Charles claimed his second Senior British Open in 1993 when it was an unofficial event.

Russ Cochran's win earned him a check for $315,600 and an exemption into the 2012 British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes.

For the first time since 2002, the Senior British Open was decided by more than one stroke or in a playoff. Japan's Noboru Sugai defeated John Irwin by two strokes that year at Royal County Down in Northern Ireland.

Fred Funk turned in Sunday's low round. He used a run of five straight birdies to post a 6-under 66. Funk's score was one of only eight rounds in the 60s Sunday and moved him up 14 spots into a tie for seventh in the final standings.

Defending champion Bernhard Langer tied for 12th. It was Langer's first Champions Tour appearance since he recovered from thumb surgery in March.

England's Barry Lane (fifth) and Mike Goodes (tied for seventh) were the only players in the field with four straight sub-par scores at Walton Heath.

It was quite a week in London for Russ Cochran's two sons. Reed, taking a short break from law school, was on his father's bag for his first major championship. Older son Ryan, a former collegiate golfer at Florida, caddied for Mike Goodes at Walton Heath and Goodes tied for seventh.

Olin Browne's first Champions Tour victory was a memorable one as he captured the first major championship of his career. Browne had started the day two strokes better than Mark O'Meara, but O'Meara pulled even with a birdie at the fourth hole. The two remained tied at 14-under from Nos. 8-12 before O'Meara's bogey at No. 13 dropped him out of a share of the lead. Browne would never trail after that, building his margin to two strokes when O'Meara bogeyed No. 16. Browne sealed the win with a 30-foot birdie putt on the final hole.

Olin Browne's wire-to-wire victory earned him a check for $500,000, the largest of his Champions Tour career. He was the first wire-to-wire winner of this championship since Dale Douglass in 1986.

Olin Browne became the fifth player to post his first Champions Tour win in the U.S. Senior Open. He joins Roberto De Vincenzo (1980), Larry Laoretti (1992), Don Pooley (2002) and Peter Jacobsen (2004).

Olin Browne has won at least one event on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour, joining Ron Streck, Keith Fergus, Tom Lehman and Gary Hallberg.

Olin Browne's opening-round 64 was the lowest score in the first round by a winner in this tournament. The old mark was 65 by Peter Jacobsen in 2004.

Olin Browne set a U.S. Senior Open nine-hole scoring record, with a 5-under-par 29 on the back nine in the third round. Browne's 29 broke the nine-hole scoring record of 30 set in 1983 by Richard King. It had been matched 15 times, most recently by Browne on the front nine in the 2010 final round at Sahalee CC.

Olin Browne's 54-hole total of 198 was the best 54-hole total in tournament history, breaking Simon Hobday's 199 mark in 1994.

Hale Irwin became the Champions Tour's all-time leader in top-10 finishes with his tie for fourth. It was the 204th top-10 of his career, one more than Bob Charles had in his career. Irwin also has 31 top-10 finishes in majors, one more than Jack Nicklaus had in his career. Irwin also has eight top-five finishes in this event to lead all players in that category.

Hale Irwin fired a 5-under-par 66 Saturday, matching his age for the second time in his career. He posted a 65 at the 2010 AT&T Championship in San Antonio.

Mark Calcavecchia was the only player in the field who posted four consecutive rounds in the 60s.

Defending champion Bernhard Langer tied for ninth.

Dale Douglass made his 600th career Champions Tour start, and it was also his record 26th consecutive U.S. Open appearance. Douglass, the winner of the 1986 U.S. Senior Open, had been tied with Arnold Palmer at 25 consecutive appearances before his record-setting start in 2011.

D. A. Weibring made the 18th ace in tournament history and the first since 2007 when he made a hole-in-one at No. 3 in the second round. Weibring used a 6-iron on the 170-yard hole.

Weather: Friday: Sunny and warm, with highs in the low-80s. Saturday: A mix of sun and clouds before thunderstorms moved through the area in the afternoon, suspending play from 2:34-4:30 p.m. Winds were from the SSW during the day at 10-20 mph and rainfall was .36 inches to go with the nearly one inch of rain that fell early in the week. Sunday: Mostly cloudy in the morning before becoming partly sunny in the afternoon, with highs in the upper-70s. Winds ENE at 5-10.

Jay Haas birdied the final hole to post a one-stroke victory over Kenny Perry, Peter Senior and local favorite Tom Lehman. Haas shared the lead with Perry and Lehman when he went to the 18th tee, but after hitting his second shot on the green in two, all he needed was a two-putt birdie from 30 feet. He rolled his third shot to within a foot and sank the putt for the win.

Jay Haas ended a winless streak of 41 events with his victory. Before triumphing in Minnesota, the last title came at the 2009 Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in Maryland.

It was Jay Haas' 15th career victory, moving him to 15th place on the all-time Champions Tour victory list.

Jay Haas (first round) became the first player since Jeff Sluman to make an ace and go on to win the event. Sluman did so at the 2009 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Haas' first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career came when he aced No. 4 with a 5-iron on the 180-yard hole. It was the ninth ace in tournament history.

Hale Irwin matched his age for the second consecutive week and the third time in his career when he fired a 6-under-par 66 on Sunday. Irwin also added another top-10 finish (tied for eighth) to his record career total, increasing the number to 205.

Olin Browne posted his best score on the Champions Tour with a final-round, 9-under-par 63. The round helped him vault 40 places from a tie for 48th to a tie for eighth at the finish. The tie-for-eighth performance moved him over the $1 million mark in season earnings for the first time.

Brad Faxon tied for 53rd in his first Champions Tour appearance. Fred Couples tied for 26th in his first Tour start since May.

Perhaps the most bizarre stat of the event was the tournament scoring average. The field averaged 70.333 for the three rounds, the exact average as in 2010. In addition, there were 104 rounds in the 60s, the same number as the year before.

Fred Couples made a 3-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to defeat John Cook for his first senior major championship. Couples trailed Cook by one stroke with three holes to play in regulation, but Cook opened the door for Couples at the par-3 16th by making bogey after a poor pitch shot from short of the green. Couples was over the green on the 225-yard hole, but he managed to save par and force a tie by holing a 15-foot putt just after Cook missed his par effort from 25 feet. After both players made routine pars on the final two holes of regulation and the first playoff hole, Couples appeared to have the advantage when he hit the par-5, 18th hole in two. However, he squandered the opportunity to win by three-putting for par from 70 feet. The duo went back to the par-4 17th hole. Cook pulled his wedge shot from the fairway 18 feet left of the hole. Couples, just barely in the right rough, launched a sand wedge shot that stopped a mere 3 feet from the hole. After Cook missed his birdie putt, Couples tapped in for the victory.

The playoff was the fourth in the 29-year history of the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and the second consecutive. In 2010, Mark O'Meara defeated Michael Allen in overtime. All three of the other playoffs at this event went only one hole.

Fred Couples claimed his first Champions Tour major championship in his fifth appearance in a senior major and joined Jack Nicklaus and Raymond Floyd as just the third player to claim both a PLAYERS Championship title and a Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship crown.

Fred Couples ensured himself of an exemption into the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai for the next five years. He also earned an exemption into the 2012 PLAYERS Championship.

John Cook's playoff loss was the third time he's lost an overtime session in a Champions Tour major championship. Cook fell to Bruce Vaughan at the 2008 Senior British Open at Royal Troon and also lost to Mike Reid in a playoff at the 2009 JELD-WEN Tradition at Crosswater near Bend, OR.

Peter Senior's third-place finish made him the only player to place among the top 10 in four of the Champions Tour's five majors in 2011. Senior lost in a playoff at the Regions Tradition, tied for fifth at the Senior PGA Championship and was sixth at the U.S. Senior Open.

Chip Beck's final-round 65 was the low score Sunday and matched the low round of the championship (Jeff Sluman/first round, Joe Ozaki/second round).

Mark Calcavecchia two-putted for birdie on the first playoff hole to defeat Russ Cochran for his first victory on the Champions Tour. Calcavecchia appeared to be in the driver's seat on the final hole of regulation after two-putting for birdie from 25 feet. However, Cochran forced overtime by holing a 12-foot eagle putt after knocking his second shot on the green on the par-5 with a hybrid club from 235 yards. Both players were locked in a duel on the back nine and Calcavecchia broke the deadlock by chipping in for birdie at No. 16. After Cochran appeared to answer back by rifling a 6-iron shot to within a foot of the hole at the 211-yard, par-3 17th hole, Calcavecchia responded by holing an 18-foot birdie putt from the collar of the green to maintain a one-stroke advantage. Both players matched Jim Rutledge's 65 posted earlier in the day as the low round of the tournament. Earlier in the year, Cochran out-duelled Calcavecchia at the Senior British Open at Walton Heath near London.

The playoff was the third in the seven-year history of the Boeing Classic. In 2006, Tom Kite beat Keith Fergus in overtime and in 2007, Denis Watson won a seven-man playoff, the most players ever in overtime in a Champions Tour event.

For the first time in five years, the winner of this event did not post three straight rounds in the 60s. In 2006, Tom Kite shot 71 in the first round and eventually won in a playoff.

The winner of the Boeing Classic has now come from the final grouping in each of the last four years.

This year's overall scoring average (72.911) was the highest in the history of the Boeing Classic. The previous high stroke average for the field at this event was 72.485 last year. Mark Brooks (72 in the first round) and Gary Hallberg (66 in the second round) recorded the only bogey-free rounds for the week.

Chip Beck, who recorded his first top-10 finish in a major on the Champions Tour at the previous week's Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship (tied for sixth), birdied four of the last five holes to finish third at the Boeing Classic. It was the first time since 2006, his first year on the Champions Tour, that Beck has recorded back-to-back top-10 finishes in a season.

Sixty-six year old Hale Irwin recorded the first ace of his Champions Tour career in the first round. He made it at the par-3 ninth hole with a 6-iron shot from 185 yards.

During the tournament it was announced that Boeing will continue as the title sponsor of the Boeing Classic and TPC Snoqualmie Ridge will remain as the host venue through 2014.

Tournament Record:

Current Course Record:

Jay Don Blake birdied the fifth extra hole to defeat John Cook in a playoff that started with two other players - Mark O'Meara and Peter Senior. O'Meara and Senior were eliminated with bogeys on the third extra hole. Blake's win earned him a bit of revenge since Cook had beaten him in a playoff earlier this year at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

Jay Don Blake's victory on Sunday came in his 424th start since his last victory on the PGA TOUR at the 1991 Shearson Lehman Brothers Open in San Diego. In 2010, Russ Cochran ended a similar winless string when he defeated Fred Funk on the first extra hole of a playoff. It was Cochran's 405th start since his last victory at the 1991 Centel Western Open.

Sunday's playoff was the third in succession as well as the eighth of the season. It was one shy of the all-time Champions Tour record of nine, in 2002. There were also eight playoffs in 1994 and 2005. It was also first four-man playoff since the 2008 ACE Group Classic.

Mark O'Meara's tie for second allowed him to earn $225,800, which increased his 2011 earnings to $1,150,094, the fourth time in five years he has reached the $1-million mark.

Chien Soon Lu aced No. 17 during the second round of the Songdo IBD Championship. He used an 8-iron from 156 yards. It was his first on the Champions Tour and the fifth of his career.

Bob Gilder tied for 47th in what was his 300th career Champions Tour start.

Defending champion Russ Cochran tied for 14th.

Cut: There was no cut; 78 of 79 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Sunny, warm and humid early in the week with highs in the mid-80s. Winds were from the WSW on Friday at 5-15 mph before a front moved through the area late in the day. Play was suspended on Friday afternoon by thunderstorms in the area from 4:41-6:55 p.m. Partly cloudy, breezy and cool on Saturday and Sunday with highs only in the mid-60s and winds from the NW at 10-15 mph. Lift, clean and place rules in effect for all three days of the competition.

Tournament Record:
 198 - Mark Wiebe (2007)
Current Course Record:
 61 - Prestonwood CC - Tom Kite (2003)

Kenny Perry, playing with a heavy heart after the death of his 59-year-old sister Kay on Saturday night, rallied from a double-bogey at the par-5 12th hole by making a 30-foot eagle putt on the par-5 17th hole to win his first event on the Champions Tour by one stroke over Jeff Sluman and John Huston. Perry had a two-stroke lead over Sluman early on the back nine, but there was a three-stroke swing when Sluman made a short birdie putt just before Perry hit a 5-wood second shot fat in the water at No. 12. After three straight pars, Perry temporarily moved back into a tie for the lead with Sluman with a 10-foot birdie putt at the par-4 16th. His eagle at the 17th gave him a two-stroke cushion that allowed him to bogey the final hole and still win by one shot. Perry's sister died at Vanderbilt University Medical Center after a long battle with breast cancer two years to the day after his mother Mildred passed away at age 79.

Kenny Perry claimed his first Champions Tour title in his 11th career start on the circuit. Previous-best finishes were: T2nd - 2011 3M Championship, P2-2011 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (with Scott Hoch).

Kenny Perry ended a TOUR victory drought of 2 years, 3 months, 3 days (2009 Travelers Championship).

Kenny Perry became the second consecutive Kentuckian to win the SAS Championship following Russ Cochran last year.

Kenny Perry became the first SAS Championship winner to make two double-bogeys in the event and still go on to victory. Perry's winning total of 11-under 205 was the highest winning 54-hole score in tournament history.

After going three years without a champion making an eagle, each of the last three SAS Championship winners has made an eagle en route to victory. Kenny Perry became the first SAS Championship winner since Hale Irwin (2005) to make two eagles in the event.

In eight of the 11 SAS Championships, the winner has carded at least one round of 66.

There were only four rounds in the 60s on Sunday (Mark Calcavecchia/Scott Simpson, 68; Morris Hatalsky/Joey Sindelar, 69) after 12 sub-70 rounds on Saturday and 23 sub-70 rounds on Friday. The overall scoring average this year (72.657) was the highest since the 2005 event.

Defending champion Russ Cochran made a respectable title defense, finishing fourth at Prestonwood this year.

Cut: There was no cut; 78 of 79 players completed 36 holes.

Weather: Partly cloudy with highs in the mid-to-upper 80s during the week. Winds from the SE at 10-15 mph on Friday and 10-20 mph on Saturday afternoon. Cloudy on Sunday before a series of thunderstorms moved into the area late in the morning. Play was suspended from 10:03-11:45 a.m. CT due to lightning in the area. Another band of heavy rain moved through the area and stopped play for good at 12:46 p.m. when the course became unplayable. The tournament was reduced to 36 holes.

Tournament Record:

128 - Jay Haas (2006)

Current Course Record:

63 - The Woodlands CC - Michael Allen (2011), Fred Couples (2010)

Mother Nature might have been the winner on Sunday but Brad Faxon was the beneficiary of torrential rains in the Houston area and he'll take it. Faxon claimed his first Champions Tour event without ever having to hit a shot in the final round when a heavy afternoon downpour made the Tournament Course at The Woodlands Country Club unplayable. After a delay of 1:42 (10:03-11:45 p.m CT) due to lightning, play was eventually stopped for the day at 12:46 p.m. and the event was reduced to 36 holes. Faxon's birdie late in the Saturday round at No. 17, coupled with a wayward drive on the same hole by Eduardo Romero, the leader at the time, resulted in a three-stroke swing that was the difference. Faxon also eased ahead of Tommy Armour III with the six-foot birdie putt after a 7-iron shot.

Brad Faxon won his first career title on the Champions Tour in his sixth career start on the circuit and joined Bernhard Langer (2007) as the second player to make the Insperity Championship his first title on the circuit.

Brad Faxon became the sixth overall first-time winner on the Champions Tour this year and the fourth consecutive (Mark Calcavecchia/Boeing Classic, Jay Don Blake/Songdo IBD Championship, Kenny Perry/SAS Championship), a first on the circuit Tour since 2001.

At 50 years, 2 months, 8 days, Brad Faxon became the second-youngest winner on the Champions Tour this year and ended a victory drought of 111 (106 PGA TOUR/5 Champions Tour) tournaments since the last of his eight career PGA TOUR titles at the 2005 Buick Championship (5 years, 1 month, 10 days).

Brad Faxon became the 19th different winner on the Champions Tour this year, the most on the Champions Tour since there were 21 in 2007.

Brad Faxon's win, coupled with Kenny Perry's victory the week before at the SAS Championship, gave the Champions Tour back-to-back rookie winners for the first time since 2008 - Bernhard Langer (Administaff Small Business Classic) and John Cook (AT&T Championship).

Brad Faxon joined Jay Haas (2006) as only the second player to win a rain-shortened Insperity Championship. It marked the first time since the 2010 Out-back Steakhouse Pro-Am (won by Hale Irwin) that a 54-hole Champions Tour event was reduced to 36 holes.

Even though he didn't win, Tommy Armour III's runner-up performance without hitting a shot on Sunday earned him a check for $149,500 and vaulted him up 10 spots into the top-30 and earned him an eventual spot in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Tournament Record:
 193 - Fred Couples (2011)

Current Course Record:

Fred Couples set a new tournament 54-hole scoring mark and used a solid back-nine to pull away for a seven-stroke victory over Mark Calcavecchia in the 27th annual AT&T Championship. Couples 54-hole total of 23-under-par 193 shattered Mark McNulty's record of 18-under-par 195 set in 2004. McNulty's mark was set on the par-71 Oak Hills C.C. After making just one birdie over his first 10 holes, Couples' lead over Calcavecchia had shrunk to four strokes, but Couples answered with birdies on Nos. 11 and 12 and added three more birdies on three of the final four holes for his sixth career victory on the Champions Tour. He closed his day by chipping in from 20 feet from behind the green on No. 18 for a birdie.

Fred Couples became the third multiple winner on the Champions Tour this year, joining Tom Lehman and John Cook. Couples won the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in August.

Fred Couples seven-stroke victory was the largest on the Champions Tour in 2011.

Fred Couples finished the tournament with 26 birdies, nine more than John Cook and Mark Calcavecchia.

In five appearances at the AT&T Championship, John Cook owns two wins, a pair of T3s and a fifth-place finish. He has earned $792,900, an average of $158,580 per start. During this span, Cook has posted 14 of his 15 rounds in the 60s.

For the second time in 2011, Peter Senior completed a tournament without recording a bogey (Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn). It is the third time in his career he has accomplished the feat. He also went bogey-free at the 2009 Regions Charity Classic where he tied for 12th.

For the second-consecutive year, there were no changes in the top 30 on the money list at the completion of the final tournament before the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco.

Monday qualifier Jeff Hart tied for sixth, which earned him a berth in the 2012 Allianz Championship in February in Boca Raton, FL, as a top-10 finisher not otherwise exempt.

Defending champion Rod Spittle tied for 54th in defense of his title.

PGA TOUR Anti-Doping Program

The objective of the PGA TOUR's Anti-Doping Program is to aggressively deter the use of any prohibited substance. The key elements of the program include player outreach and education, prohibited substances and methods, therapeutic use exemptions, testing protocol and procedure, and guidelines governing sanctions and program administration. A summary of each of these elements follows.

Player Outreach and Education

All PGA TOUR players receive an Anti-Doping Program Manual that is updated annually. The manual contains significant detail about all aspects of the Program. Information about the Program is posted on player-access websites. Players also have 24-hour-a-day confidential access to medical and program advisors who can respond to any questions relating to specific substances, medications or testing procedures. Anti-Doping staff and medical experts will be on site at several tour stops during the 2011 FedExCup schedule to answer any questions players may have about the Program.

Prohibited Substances

The PGA TOUR Prohibited Substances and Methods includes:

- Anabolic Agents (e.g., steroids)
- Hormones and Related Substances (e.g., human growth hormone, testosterone, EPO)
- Agents with Anti-Estrogenic Activity (to artificially increase testosterone level)
- Diuretics and other masking Agents
- Stimulants (e.g. Ritalin)
- Narcotics
- Cannabinoids
- Beta Blockers
- Enhancement of Oxygen Transfer (blood doping)
- Chemical and Physical Manipulation (tampering with a sample)
- Gene Doping

Therapeutic Use Exemptions

The TOUR's Anti-Doping Program includes a process for players to apply to receive a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) to use a banned substance if there is a legitimate medical need as determined by the TOUR's medical committee.

This TUE medical committee is chaired by the TOUR's anti-doping Medical Advisor, Tom Hospel, MD. Dr. Hospel is Board Certified in Sports Medicine, has served as the team physician for The Ohio State University and practices medicine with the Medical Advisor for the NFL Anti-Doping Program. The TUE medical committee also includes a number of other highly regarded physicians from various medical disciplines.

Testing Protocol

As with the overall Anti-Doping Program, the TOUR's primary objective with its testing protocol is to have a credible process that will aggressively and effectively deter the use of any prohibited substance. Under the terms of the program, the TOUR has the authority to test players at any time or place. All testing will be without prior notice. Testing done at tournament sites may be conducted both on practice/pro-am days and before or after competitive rounds. There is not a stated minimum or maximum number of times a year that an individual player may be tested.

The TOUR takes significant steps to ensure that the confidentiality, security and integrity of the entire process is preserved for the membership. To implement the testing process, the TOUR has engaged the National Center for Drug Free Sport (Drug Free Sport). Individuals employed by Drug Free Sport are specifically trained to ensure a confidential and professional testing experience.

Drug Free Sport assists in the player education program in addition to conducting the actual testing. Drug Free Sport also provides drug testing or education services for the national Football League (NFL), Major League Baseball (MLB), National Basketball Association (NBA), National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and hundreds of colleges and universities.

Sanctions

Players who have been tested will be notified of the results by the TOUR Program Administrator. If it is determined that a player committed a violation of the Anti-Doping Program, the player will be notified of the violation and the sanction. Players will have an opportunity to appeal a sanction which will be administered by a panel of independent arbitrators.

Under the program, the TOUR has the authority to impose a variety of sanctions, which may include: disqualification, ineligibility for up to one year for a first violation, up to five years for a second violation, and up to a lifetime ban for multiple violations, and fines up to $500,000.

In addition, for drugs of abuse (marijuana, certain narcotics, cocaine), the Commissioner will have the discretion to require treatment and rehabilitation in lieu of or in addition to other sanctions.

For any player who fails a test and is issued sanctions, the TOUR will disclose that the player violated the TOUR's Anti-Doping Program and will report the penalty.

Program Administration

Andy Levinson, Executive Director, Anti-Doping Program, is the Program Administrator. The TOUR engages outside policy and medical experts to assist in the administration of the program, including player education programs and the testing process. The TOUR has worked closely with Richard Young, one of the world's foremost anti-doping experts and the principal draftsman of the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) Code. Young has served on the WADA Board since 2004.
