About the Champions Tour

Collectively, the Champions Tour has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game, with many of its 32 members in the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events. The Tour also counts numerous other major championship winners among its members. The Champions Tour is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. Points earned in official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2013 determined Kenny Perry as the Charles Schwab Cup champion, the season-long competition designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Mike Stevens is President of the Champions Tour. The PGA TOUR's website is pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Follow the Champions Tour at facebook.com/ChampionsTour and on Twitter @ChampionsTour.

History

1980 – 2013. The Tour enters its 35th season in 2014.

Charity

The Champions Tour and its tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. In 2013, tournaments on all six Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, NEC Series-PGA TOUR Latinoamerica, PGA TOUR Canada, PGA TOUR China) generated more than $130 million for local charitable organizations. In 2014, the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions will surpass $2 billion. The Champions Tour's charitable mission is an integral component of its value proposition, and charitable donations have a significant impact in the communities served by Champions Tour events.

2014 Schedule

The official 2014 season will begin on the Big Island of Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 13-19), where the Champions Tour's version of the Tournament of Champions will feature recent tournament champions and other notable players. The first full-field event, the Allianz Championship, will be played in Boca Raton, Fla., the week of Feb. 3-9.

Notable changes for the 2014 schedule include the introduction of the Tour's first Invitational format. The Insuperity Championship will become the Insuperity Invitational (April 28-May 4) and will have a purse increase from $1.8 million to $2 million. Also, the Montreal Championship will move farther north in Canada, to Quebec City, and be known as the Quebec Championship (Sept. 1-7). The event will be played at La Tempete Golf Club.

The first major of the 2014 season, the Regions Tradition (May 12-18), held annually at Shoal Creek, returns to May after being played in June the past two years.

Kenny Perry, the 2013 Champions Tour Player of the Year, will return to Fox Chapel Golf Club to defend his first major championship title when the club hosts the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship for a third consecutive year.

The Tour achieved several milestones during the Champions Tour's 2013 season. A record five tournaments surpassed $1 million in charitable donations in a season, led by the Shaw Charity Classic, with $2.27 million distributed to youth-related charities throughout Calgary in the event's inaugural year. The Champions Tour also crowned its 1,000th winner, Bart Bryant, at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and played its 1,000th event, at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn. Bryant was one of five rookies to win in 2013, matching the all-time Champions Tour record for the number of rookie winners in a season. Rocco Mediate, who posted two victories, was voted Champions Tour Rookie of the Year, while Bernhard Langer, the leading money winner, and Fred Couples, with a 68.64 scoring average, also claimed year-end awards.

The 2014 season will conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 27-Nov. 2) which returns to the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale, Ariz., where it was contested in 2012.

The Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament (Nov. 17-23) will be conducted at Orange County National in Orlando, Fla., at the conclusion of the 2014 season.

Major Championships (5)

The 2014 Champions Tour's major championships begin with the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek (May 12-18) in Birmingham, Ala., immediately followed by the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid (May 19-25) at The Golf Club at Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Mich. One month later, the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship (June 23-29) returns to Fox Chapel Golf Club in Pittsburgh, Pa. The U.S. Senior Open (July 7-13) is set for Oak Tree National in Edmond, Okla. The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex (July 21-27) heads to Royal Porthcawl Golf Club in Mid Glamorgan, Wales, for the first time in Champions Tour history. The 2013 major championship winners are;

Regions Tradition, David Frost

Senior PGA Championship, Kohki Idoki

Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, Kenny Perry

U.S. Senior Open, Kenny Perry

The Senior Open Championship, Mark Wiebe

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, now in its 14th season, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships. Double points will also be awarded to the entire 30-player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The season-long points competition kicks off in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 13-19). The Road to the Charles Schwab Cup culminates at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 27-Nov. 2) in Scottsdale, Ariz., at Desert Mountain Club (Cochise Course), with $2.1 million in payouts awarded to the season's top five leading performers. The winner receives $1 million. Kenny Perry won his first Charles Schwab Cup in 2013.

Size of Field

In 2014, the field size for Champions Tour events will again be 81 players, except at those tournaments that have specific eligibility criteria.

Membership

Champions Tour members hail from around the globe. In 2014, 22 international players will have fully exempt status on the Champions Tour. Sixteen countries besides the United States are represented; they include Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, Fiji, Germany, Ireland, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Scotland, South Africa, Sweden, Taiwan, Wales and Zimbabwe.

World Golf Hall of Fame Members

Fred Couples and Colin Montgomerie, inducted in 2013, are the most recent Champions Tour members to be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame, bringing the total number of Champions Tour members in the Hall to 32, some of whom continue to be active on the Champions Tour: Isao Aoki, Seve Ballesteros, Deane Beman, Tommy Bolt, Julius Boros, Jack Burke, Jr., Billy Casper, Bob Charles, Ben Crenshaw, Roberto De Vincenzo, Nick Faldo, Raymond Floyd, Doug Ford, Hubert Green, Hale Irwin, Tony Jacklin, Tom Kite, Bernhard Langer, Gene Littler, Sandy Lyle, Johnny Miller, Larry Nelson, Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Nick Price, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Paul Runyan, Charlie Sifford, Sam Snead, Curtis Strange, Peter Thomson, Lee Trevino, Lanny Wadkins and Tom Watson.

Fan Features

The Champions Tour's Fan Features are designed to give the Tour a distinct identity, complementing the high level of skill displayed by its members. The Champions Tour strives to be the most approachable, accessible and fan-friendly arena in all of sports. The program has had significant impact as evidenced by the positive feedback received weekly from tournament organizers, sponsors and fans, with players going out of their way to support the initiatives. Fan Features include live television interviews during play, gallery in the fairway, honorary observers walking inside the ropes, caddie for a day, behind-the-scenes tours, junior clinics, a game-improvement platform, and more.

TV

Each event will be televised nationally in the United States, with most receiving complete coverage on Golf Channel, the Tour's exclusive cable-television partner that reaches some 84 million homes in the United States. Three events will have network coverage on the weekend (NBC: Senior PGA Championship, Senior U.S. Open; CBS and ESPN: The Senior Open Championship).

International TV

Champions Tour telecasts are distributed internationally in Canada, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Asia, Australasia and Latin America through various distribution partners. The events air live, tape-delayed or in a highlights-package format in excess of 205 countries and territories, reaching more than 145 million households.

Awards

The Champions Tour presents the following awards annually:

- Charles Schwab Cup
- Champions Tour Player of the Year/Jack Nicklaus Award
- Champions Tour Rookie of the Year
- Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner)
- Byron Nelson Award (scoring leader)
- CTTA "Bruno" Award (contributions to the Champions Tour)
- Champions Tour Charity of the Year
- Champions Tour Volunteer of the Year

The Champions Tour also recognizes its Player of the Month (January through November).

"Rookies"

For players to become eligible to compete in Champions Tour events they must attain age 50 on or before the day of their first tournament 'obligation,' such as the Wednesday pro-am, the date of pre-qualifying or the date of event qualifying. If a player plays less than six tournaments in his first season of eligibility he is considered a rookie the following season.

Newcomers for 2014 with two or more PGA TOUR wins include Vijay Singh (eligible 2/22/13), Jose Coceres (8/14/13), Billy Andrade (1/25/14), Woody Austin (1/27/14), Jeff Maggert (2/20/14), Joe Durant (4/07/14), Davis Love III (4/13/14), Stephen Ames (4/28/14), Paul Goydos (6/20/14), Kevin Sutherland (7/4/14), Scott Verplank (7/9/14), and Lee Janzen (8/28/14).

Note: Sutherland has one PGA TOUR win but is eligible via career money earnings.

Those rookies who successfully advanced through the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament to gain membership for 2014 are Wes Short, Jr., who was medalist, Scott Dunlap, who earned the No. 4 card, Greg Bruckner (No. 6), Doug Garwood (No. 8), and Jeff Coston (No. 11).

Also, Miguel Angel Jimenez (1/5/14) is a prominent professional who is still active on the European Tour. Additional "rookie" prospects becoming eligible in the near future include:

Skip Kendall (September 9, 2014), Nolan Henke (November 25, 2014), Jesper Parnevik (March 7), Carlos Franco (May 24), Scott McCarron (July 10), Brandt Jobe (August 1), J.P. Charles Schwab Cup

Overview

The Charles Schwab Cup is a season-long, points-based competition launched in 2001 to determine the Champions Tour's leading player. The program rewards both consistency and top-10 finishes week-in and week-out at all Charles Schwab Cup events.

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

Points are awarded to the top-10 finishers and ties in all official tournaments and are based on the money distribution for each tournament, with every $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Points are doubled at the Champions Tour's five major championships and for the entire 30 player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November.

Website Information and updates are available throughout the year on PGATOUR.COM.

2013 Charles Schwab Cup Recap

The season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco, Calif., brought together the best of the Champions Tour, with the top-30 players on the 2013 money list earning their way to the Championship.

The $2.5 million tournament decided not only that week's champion, but it was also the culmination of the season-long points race to determine the Charles Schwab Cup champion.

Two players entered the week with a chance to win the Charles Schwab Cup—Kenny Perry, who was looking to capture his first Schwab Cup, and Bernhard Langer, who was seeking to win the Schwab Cup for a second time after claiming it in 2010.

Perry had taken the lead in the Charles Schwab Cup competition for the first time in his career following his first major championship victory, at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in June, jumping from ninth to first in the standings to take a 91-point lead over David Frost.

"It's neat to have the lead, something I can tell my grandkids I actually led it at some point in my life," said Perry, following his win at Fox Chapel in Pittsburgh.

The very next week, Perry won the U.S. Senior Open in Omaha for back-to-back major titles and earned 1,000 points to extend his lead, an advantage he retained all the way through to the season finale.

"I don't think any lead's comfortable, but it's always nice to have a lead," said Perry. "I still need to keep my foot on the gas because anything can happen. Over the last few years, it's always come down to the last tournament and sometimes the last putt. It's definitely not over."

Perry was spot on in his assessment. It wasn't over. Following a playoff victory over Langer at the AT&T Championship the week before the season finale at TPC Harding Park, Perry held a healthy 612-point lead over Langer. With 880 points available to the winner, the World Golf Hall of Fame member from Germany would need a victory at the final event of the season to capture the Cup, while Perry could finish fifth or better and still claim the Schwab Cup.

While the pre-tournament focus was on Perry and Langer, it was Fred Couples who took control in San Francisco, winning his first title of the year at the season-ending tournament by a comfortable six strokes over Peter Senior, Mark O'Meara and Langer. Perry eventually finished in a four-way tie for fifth and claimed the Charles Schwab Cup by 412 points over Langer (3,273 points). For the 12th time in the 13-year history of the Charles Schwab Cup, the champion was determined at the season-ending tournament.

Perry received the $1-million annuity that goes with the trophy and immediately declared a portion of the money would be distributed to several charitable beneficiaries he supports in his home state of Kentucky. Langer earned $500,000, while Fred Couples ($300,000), David Frost ($200,000) and Duffy Waldorf ($100,000) took home bonus money.

"Not too many people have one of these (Charles Schwab Cup trophy) and to be able to say that I did it once in my career is a dream come true, at 53, to finally achieve something pretty significant in my golfing career," said an emotional Perry.

Message to the Media

Tim Finchem
Commissioner

Michael D. Stevens
President
Champions Tour

Welcome to the 2014 season of the Champions Tour. On behalf of our players, staff, tournaments and sponsors, we would like to thank the members of the media for the coverage you provide. We look forward to working with you in the year ahead.

The Charles Schwab Cup, our season-long competition, will enter its 14th season in 2014. Designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, it rewards top finishes and consistency in all official events. Last year, Kenny Perry captured the Charles Schwab Cup to collect the Cup's first-place annuity of $1 million. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with one Charles Schwab Cup point earned for each $1,000 earned. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships and to the entire 30-man field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, which returns to Desert Mountain Club (Cochise Course) in Scottsdale on October 27-November 2.

Our television partners will broadcast each event, with Golf Channel airing coverage of most tournaments. Two events will have network coverage on NBC on the weekend. Additionally, The Senior Open Championship will be carried on ESPN.

In 2014, we welcome PGA TOUR winners such as Stephen Ames, Billy Andrade, Woody Austin, Lee Janzen, Davis Love III and Scott Verplank who will be making the transition to the Champions Tour. They will compete regularly with established Champions Tour stars Bernhard Langer, Fred Couples and, of course, Perry. Thirty-two members of the Champions Tour are also members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, many of whom are still active on Tour.

Our Champions Tour players are committed to making each tournament week rewarding and enjoyable, and they pride themselves on their accessibility and interaction with the media, sponsors and fans. That commitment also extends off the course, with many players and their spouses involved with charitable initiatives of their own—along with those charitable endeavors in the communities served by our tournaments each week.

The extensive charitable mission of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour makes a significant impact in communities across the country, and we appreciate your efforts in conveying to your readers and viewers how our tournaments continue to generate charitable contributions that touch the lives of so many people.

The digital version of the Champions Tour Guide can be accessed via pgatourmedia.com, along with more information, such as the media credential application process for each specific event of the 2014 season.

We appreciate your continued support of the Champions Tour. The Communications Department at PGA TOUR Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla, as well as our media officials on site at each tournament, is ready to assist you with your interview and informational requests. Enjoy the 2014 season.

Sincerely,

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 20th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2013. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, the TOUR created The Presidents Cup in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After 10 stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar. The Presidents Cup 2015 will be contested for the first time in South Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. He has shown personal dedication to the success of The First Tee initiative, as he serves as chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors and in 2011 was the co-chair of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. The organization announced in 2012 that individuals, corporations and foundations provided more than $106.2 million in gifts and pledges in support of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. Through 2017, The First Tee's goal is to reach 10 million additional young people and grow the network to 1,200 programming locations at golf facilities, 10,000 elementary schools and 350 other youth-serving locations.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, Ill., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

1–Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. P1–Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(2): 1989 Bell's Scottish Open. 2003 Southern Arizona Open.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Won multiple events for the second consecutive season and placed among the top 10 on the money list for the second straight year and the third time in the last four seasons...Was among the top five in more than a third of his 24 starts (nine times)...First of two titles came in late March when he won the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic after making birdies on two of the final three holes to finish one shot better than Bernhard Langer near Biloxi. Began the final round at Fallen Oak two strokes back, but seven birdies in his first 13 holes, including five in a row on Nos. 3-7, helped him grab the lead. Struggled a bit late in his round, with bogeys on three of his final five holes, including one at No. 18 when he missed a 4-foot par putt that dropped him into a tie with Langer at 11-under. However moments later, Langer, playing two groups behind, made a critical bogey at No. 16 which proved to be the difference...In late October, notched his fifth career Champions Tour title when he captured the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn over Olin Browne with a birdie on the first play-off hole. Birdied two of the final three holes in regulation to catch Browne and then won with a two-putt birdie from 12 feet on the par-5 18th...Was T4 with teammate David Frost in defense of their title at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf...Turned in a steady performance at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in late June, shooting four rounds in the 60s, including a closing-round 65, to finish T4 near Pittsburgh...Also, despite a final-round 71, posted a T4 finish at the Montreal Championship after being in contention through 36 holes...Was on the leaderboard all four rounds at the Regions Tradition and was in contention for most of Sunday's final round before back-to-back bogeys on Nos. 15 and 16 dropped him back to a T5 finish. It marked the third successive year he had posted a top-10 finish at Shoal Creek, the the only player to do so...Led at the halfway mark of the U.S. Senior Open, carding a second-round 63 at Omaha CC to forge a five-stroke advantage, the largest 36-hole lead in championship history. Was still up by two strokes after 54 holes but settled for a solo-fifth-place effort after his 2-over 72 on the final day...Was one of five players to finish T5 at the Shaw Charity Classic...One week prior to his victory in Hickory, was among the leaders all three rounds at the SAS Championship before eventually finishing T5.

PERSONAL:

Planned to be a stockbroker before turning to golf...Won the 2003 Southern Arizona Open with his daughter Christy serving as his caddie...As a 14-year-old he and a friend hiked the Pacific Crest Trail from Lake Tahoe to Yosemite, a distance of 210 miles. The trip took the pair three weeks.

1991 Kemper Open. 1991 Buick Classic. 1998 Bell Canadian Open. 2000 Invensys Classic at Las Vegas

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made one of three cuts on the PGA TOUR with one top 10...In just his second start of the season, playing as a sponsor's exemption, overcame an opening-round, 1-over 73 at the Sanderson Farms Championship by shooting rounds of 66-67-65 over his final 54 holes to finish T5 with his son Cameron as his caddie. Prior to the week at Annandale GC, he had not posted a round in the 60s since carding a 66 in the first round of the 2009 Travelers Championship. The top-10 was his first on TOUR since the 2006 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee (T6). His T5 finish came just six months before his 50th birthday...Joined forces with Bill Haas to finish second at the unofficial CVS Caremark Charity Classic in Rhode Island. The duo finished four shots behind the winning team of Steve Stricker-Bo Van Pelt at the 36-hole event at Rhode Island CC.

PERSONAL:

Along with Brad Faxon, runs Billy Andrade/Brad Faxon Charities for Children, Inc., which has raised more than $15 million for children in Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts, largely through the CVS Caremark Charity Classic the duo co-hosts at Rhode Island CC each summer. In 1999, duo was honored by Golf Writers Association of America with Charlie Bartlett Award, given to playing professionals for their unselfish contributions to society...Inducted into the Wake Forest Hall of Fame in 2004.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(3): 1980 NCAA Championship [indiv]. 1988 Utah Open. 1991 Argentine Open.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Among his four top-10 finishes were two runner-up efforts...Fell one stroke short of Bernhard Langer at The ACE Group Classic despite carding a 68 in the final round at TwinEagles that matched the low Sunday score. Came from five strokes back to catch Langer and then temporarily took the lead with a birdie at the 13th hole. However, played his last five holes in 1-over to finish as the runner-up...Finished second again in early June at The Principal Charity Classic, when he three-putted from 50 feet on the 17th green to fall out of a tie with Russ Cochran. Missed an 8-foot birdie putt on the final hole that would have sent the event into overtime...He and teammate Roger Chapman held the 36-hole lead at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf before eventually finishing T16...Tied a Champions Tour mark in late-August when he made three eagles in the same round Saturday at the Shaw Charity Classic. His eagles came on Nos. 4, 11 and 15 at Canyon Meadows G&CC, making him just the seventh player in history to do so. Had four eagles in the tournament (along with Rocco Mediate), which also matched a Champions Tour record...Closed the year with a T9 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, an event he won two years earlier at TPC Harding Park...Earned a spot in the U.S. Open when he was the medalist at the qualifying tournament held at Old Warson CC in early June. Shot rounds of 71-68 in the qualifier. It was his first U.S. Open appearance since 2003. Opened with a 74 at Merion and went on to miss the cut.

PERSONAL:

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

His season was limited to just 14 starts after he missed five months of the campaign due to a stress fracture in his back. Finished T12 in his final start, at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, in late-Match before being sidelined until the Boeing Classic in late-August...Recorded his best finish since winning the U.S. Senior Open in 2011 when he lost in a playoff to Michael Allen at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn. His final-round 64 included five consecutive birdies on the back nine, and he appeared in the driver's seat to win until Allen birdied two of the final three holes in regulation to force overtime. Allen eventually won with a birdie on the first extra hole...Posted his first top-10 of the year one month after his return when he was T9 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Narrowly missed another top-10 in his next start when he was T11 at the SAS Championship in North Carolina a week prior to his finish in Hickory.

PERSONAL:

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1–Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

OTHER SENIOR VICTORIES:

(1): 2013 Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf [Raphael Division with Ian Baker-Finch].

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 1988 Florida Open.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was fully healthy for the first time since 2009 and took advantage during his Champions Tour rookie year, finishing among the top 20 on the final money list, thanks to seven top-10 performances in 20 official starts...Proved to himself he could again play at a high level with earnings of more than $950,000, the most he's made in a season since 2008, his career-best earnings year on the PGA TOUR ($1.7 million)...Highlight of his season came in August when he became the Champions Tour's 1,000th champion, claiming his first title, at the Dick's Sporting Open, in his 14th career start. Victory in Central New York led to him being selected as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month. Coupled with older brother Brad's wins, made the Bryants the third set of brothers to win Champions Tour events. Win ended a victory drought of 7 years, 9 months, 11 days since capturing the title at the 2005 TOUR Championship. Forged a four-stroke lead after tying the tournament record with a 62 in the second round. Then managed to hold off Russ Cochran and Corey Pavin by a stroke on Sunday despite an even-par 72 on the last day...Early in the season, teamed with Ian Baker-Finch to win the unofficial Raphael Division competition at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Was a late addition to the field, and after being added just one day before the start of the event. The pair needed to go three extra holes before Baker-Finch's 10-foot birdie putt ended the playoff against Blaine McCallister and Keith Fergus in Savannah...Closed with 67 at TPC Twin Cities to finish T4 at the 3M Championship...Appeared on his way to a high finish at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, but bogeys on his final two holes led to a T5 at TPC Harding Park...Was among the early leaders at the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship and eventually finished T7 near Atlanta after an even-par 72 Sunday at TPC Sugarloaf...Was one stroke off the lead through 36 holes of The Principal Charity Classic after establishing the competitive course record at the Wakonda Club. Fired an 8-under 64 in the second round that included eight birdies. Eventually finished T7 in the event after an even-par 72 Sunday...Started his year by playing a pair of PGA TOUR events on a Major Medical Extension. Was T41 at the Sony Open in Hawaii and then missed the cut at the Humana Challenge. Failed to meet the terms of his Major Medical Extension after those two starts on the TOUR, coming up short on the amount of money he needed for conditional status.

PERSONAL:

Older brother Brad is also a member of the Champions Tour, and they are one of only 12 winning brother combinations in PGA TOUR history...Suffered a left-wrist injury near the end of the 2009 season and a pair of subsequent surgeries kept him out of action for almost three years, returned to the PGA TOUR midway through the 2012 season...Prior to that, 2003 season was cut short due to elbow surgery...In 2001, missed the first half of the PGA TOUR season due to rehabilitation from elbow surgery that occurred in December, 2000. Also underwent rotator cuff surgery in 1992...Some of his favorite TV shows are "Everybody Loves Raymond" and "Grimm"...Also enjoys watching football as well as some basketball...Enjoys 70's rock and contemporary Christian music...His favorite team as a kid was the Dallas Cowboys and favorite player was Roger Staubach...Would love to trade places for a day with anyone who "hits it over 320 yards," just to feel what it's like to hit one long drive...His favorite meal is country fried steak, mashed potatoes, fried okra, mac-n-cheese made by his mom...His all-time favorite movies include "Braveheart", "For Love of the Game" and "Father of the Bride"...His most memorable vacation was going to New York City with my wife for their 25th wedding anniversary...Would most like to sit down for a discussion with Abraham Lincoln...Drives an Acura MDX and a Harley Davidson Ultra Classic Limited...Most memorable shot was his putt on No. 18 to win the Memorial Tournament...Supports the House of Hope, CRU and his local church...Enjoys taking road trips on his Harley when not playing golf...His bucket list includes taking his motorcycle from Orlando to Alaska and back as well as winning a major championship.

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

2–Shaw Charity Classic.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Did not make his first start until late-May, at the Senior PGA Championship, but went on to play 11 events (three as an open-qualifier) over the final five months of the year and finished 45th on the money list...Had a great showing at the inaugural

Shaw Charity Classic when he open-qualified and then finished second overall in Calgary. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s, including a closing-round, 7-under-par 64, for his best-career finish in a Champions Tour event. The second-place performance earned him a spot in the next tournament, the Montreal Championship and helped him in the late season re-shuffle which got him a spot in the final five full-field events...His other top-10 finish came during that span when he posted three straight rounds in the 60s at the SAS Championship to finish seventh.

PERSONAL:

After graduating from high school in Onida, S.D., joined brother Curt in Albuquerque, N.M., where Tom worked at a country club and was a walk-on on the University of New Mexico golf team. After two years, transferred to New Mexico State in Las Cruces where one of his teammates was Bart Bryant... Involved in a nine-hole course, The Training Station, where golfers of all ages play three, six or nine holes.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Claimed multiple titles in a season for the first time since 2010 and finished fifth on the final money list, the third time in the last four years he's placed among the top five in single-season Champions Tour earnings...Ended an almost-two-year victory drought by prevailing at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa. Edged Jay Don Blake by one stroke when Blake three-putted the 17th green to fall out of a tie for the lead at the Wakonda Club in Des Moines.

Victory ended a run of 35 tournaments since his last triumph in England at the 2011 Senior Open Championship...Added a second win in mid-October when he edged David Frost by one stroke at the SAS Championship, the same event he won three years earlier. Trailed by as much as three strokes late in the final round but edged Frost for the title when he ran off four straight birdies Sunday for the victory...Was in contention down the stretch at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, shooting three consecutive rounds of 67 to finish T2 along with Corey Pavin, one stroke back of winner Bart Bryant. Bogey on the final hole kept him out of a playoff...In late March, rebounded from an opening-round, 2-over-par 74 with consecutive rounds of 67 on the weekend to finish T3 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic...Managed a T5 at the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek, closing with a 5-under-par 67...Was just two strokes off the lead after 36 holes at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but a final-round, 2-over 74 led to a fifth-place finish...Opened with rounds of 69-66 at the Senior PGA Championship in May at Bellerive CC and shared the 36-hole lead with Kenny Perry. Remained in contention through 54 holes before a 1-over-par 72 on Sunday left him T6...Began his year by open-qualifying for the PGA TOUR's Sony Open in Hawaii and eventually finished T41 in Honolulu.

PERSONAL:

Avid University of Kentucky basketball fan...Started playing with ladies' golf clubs because he couldn't

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished just outside the top 10 on the money list for the first time, but still pocketed more than $1 million in single-season earnings for the sixth consecutive year. Seemed to play his best golf in the first part of the year, registering a win and two third-place efforts within his first 10 events of the campaign...Got his year started with a bang with a playoff victory over David Frost at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Started his final round two strokes behind Frost and trailed throughout Sunday before finally pulling even with a 15-foot birdie on No. 18 to set up the a playoff. After each player made birdie on the first playoff hole, he won with a 12-foot birdie on the second extra hole for his ninth career title and second in the last three years on the Big Island. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, the third player in tournament history to do so...Had a nice performance in Seattle during the final third of the season. Equaled the low Sunday round, shooting 66 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge and finished second, two strokes back of John Riegger at the Boeing Classic...After his win in Hawaii, closed with rounds of 68-68 on the weekend in Naples to finish T3 at The ACE Group Classic. Sunday score matched the low round of the day...A closing-round, 6-under-par 66 got him into contention at the Regions Tradition before eventually finishing T3 at Shoal Creek in June...In early October, was inducted into the Southern California Golf Association Hall of Fame.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

After experiencing a series of runner-up finishes earlier in the season, finished his year on a high note with a six-stroke victory at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Was the only player in the 30-man field to post four consecutive rounds in the 60s at TPC Harding Park and outdistanced Mark O'Meara, Bernhard Langer and Peter Senior for his ninth career Champions Tour win. Victory in San Francisco was also his fifth official career Tour-sponsored victory in the Golden State. The $440,000 first-place check at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship pushed his single-season earnings on the circuit to more than $1.7 million, the most he's made in a year on the Champions Tour since 2010. Also earned 880 Charles Schwab Cup points for the victory at TPC Harding Park, and that moved him up into third place on the final Schwab Cup points list, earning him another $300,000 in a bonus payout...Also picked up his second consecutive Byron Nelson Trophy, his third in the last four years, for lowest scoring average (68.64). Of his 47 rounds at stroke play, 31 were in the 60s...Early in the season, finished a distant second to David Frost at the Toshiba Classic after trailing him by just one stroke through 10 holes Sunday. Played his last eight holes at Newport Beach CC in even par and lost by five shots when Frost birdied four of his last five holes...Reeled off three consecutive runner-up finishes in three straight starts during the month of June. Was a runner-up to Frost for a second time when he finished one stroke shy at the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek near Birmingham, Alabama. Was one of several in contention Sunday afternoon. Saw his chances slip away on the final two holes. Hit an indifferent pitch at No. 17 and missed a 30-foot birdie opportunity and then saw his birdie attempt at No. 18 from 10 feet just slide by on the left side, allowing Frost to two-putt for the win...Made a run at Craig Stadler on the final day of the inaugural Encompass Championship before finishing second, one stroke shy of a playoff. Final-round 66 at North Shore CC was the low Sunday score, but he missed an opportunity to win when his 9-iron second shot from the middle of the 18th fairway landed in a greenside bunker and he could not convert a par. Was T2 the following week at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Held a two-stroke lead after 54 holes and stayed near the top of the leaderboard throughout Sunday's final round but was done in by putting woes, shooting a 2-under-par 68 and finishing two strokes behind a charging Kenny Perry...Was also third in his hometown of Seattle at the Boeing Classic. Equaled the low Sunday round at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge, shooting 66...He and teammate Jay Haas finished T4 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. Were tied for the lead at one point in the final round but made just one birdie over the final five holes to fall out of contention...Made all four of his cuts on the PGA TOUR and captained the U.S. team to victory for a third straight time at The Presidents Cup at Muirfield Village GC...Turned in another strong showing at The Masters, finishing T13. Was tied for second after 36 holes, but fell out of contention during his final five holes Saturday, playing those holes at 5-over par. By making the cut, it marked the 24th consecutive year he had done so, setting a new Masters record for consecutive cuts made in the tournament. Had been tied with Gary Player entering the event. It was also the 27th time overall he made the cut, tying him with Raymond Floyd for third place on the all-time list for cuts made, behind Jack Nicklaus (37) and Player (30)...Placed T46 in his 31st appearance at the PGA TOUR's Northern Trust Open in February near Los Angeles. The 31 starts gave him the record for most career appearances in the event, a mark he previously shared with Gene Littler...Finished T50 at the Memorial Tournament in June and also was T32 at The Open Championship at Muirfield...Highlight of his year came in May when he was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame with Colin Montgomerie, Willie Park, Jr., Ken Schofield and former U.S. Open champion Ken Venturi.

PERSONAL:

Roomed with Blaine McCallister and CBS broadcaster Jim Nantz at the University of Houston...His charity is Millie Medlin Violet Sobich Couples Fund, in memory of his mother...Served as host of the Fred Couples Invitational, a charity event in hometown of Seattle...Introduced to game by his father, who worked in the Seattle Parks and Recreation Department...Inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in Chicago in November 2007...Selected for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in the fall of 2011.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

After starting the campaign as a conditionally-exempt player from the 2012 National Qualifying Tournament, took advantage of open qualifying (three times) and strong tournament play to finish 44th on the money list. Earned $304,935 in his final six events ($50,823 per start) and moved up 56 spots on the money list, from No. 100 prior to his start at the Montreal Championship...Played some of his best golf in the last two months of the season, finishing in the top 10 in four of his final six starts...Was among five players tied for the lead after 36 holes at the AT&T Championship in October in San Antonio and remained among the leaders until two bogeys and a double bogey doomed his chances over the final 10 holes. Eventually claimed a T6 showing...Enjoyed his top Champions Tour performance when he contended in September at the Montreal Championship, eventually finishing T4. Was on the leaderboard throughout the final round before two late bogeys proved his undoing...Started the week as the eighth alternate into the field at the SAS Championship but eventually got into the field. Fired three straight rounds in the 60s that led to a T5 finish near Raleigh which got him into the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn the following week...Parlayed his SAS Championship showing into a second consecutive top-10 finish in Western North Carolina. Was tied for the first-round lead at Rock Barn before eventually finishing T6 which earned him a berth into the AT&T Championship in San Antonio the following week...Attended the National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Scottsdale in November in an attempt to try to improve his status by gaining one of the five fully-exempt positions. Could not bounce back from an opening-round 74 and eventually finished 12th overall to remain conditionally-exempt...Also played six events on the European Senior Tour, with his best finish a T18 at the Berenberg Masters.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had his best season on the Champions Tour, with more than $1.8 million in earnings and a fourth-place finish in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings. Was among the top three six times in 25 appearances and won twice for the second consecutive year...Broke through for his first career win in a major championship when he held off Fred Couples by a stroke at the Regions Tradition in June at Shoal Creek. Grabbed the third-round lead after a 6-under-par 66 Saturday and then added a 68 Sunday to hold off Couples who failed to birdie the easy par-5 17th down the stretch. Victory at Shoal Creek made him the fourth international player to claim the Regions Tradition, joining Graham Marsh, Eduardo Romero and Mark McNulty...Initial win of the season came in wire-to-wire fashion, besting Couples by five strokes at the Toshiba Classic. Birdied four of the last five holes to win easily after being just one stroke ahead of Couples after 10 holes Sunday. His 54-hole total of 19-under 194 tied the tournament record, and his five-stroke winning margin also tied the tournament mark...Started the year with a strong performance at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Was the 18- and 36-hole leader in Hawaii before eventually finishing second, losing on the second hole of a playoff to John Cook, who won with a birdie...Appeared ready to win his third title of the campaign in October when he led Russ Cochran by three strokes at one point on the back nine Sunday at the SAS Championship. Despite playing bogey-free in the final round, though, Cochran closed with four straight birdies to edge him by one stroke...Was T3 at the inaugural Encompass Championship. Came to the final hole with a shot at winning the event but flew the green with his second shot and could do no better than bogey...Played in the final grouping on Sunday at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale but shot even-par 70 Sunday and finished T3, three strokes out of a playoff...Was also T4, with Michael Allen, at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf and T4 at the Montreal Championship in September...At one point early in the season, had a string of 295 consecutive holes without a three-putt before it ended on the sixth hole in the final round at the Allianz Championship. He started the year with a streak of 200 consecutive going to the 2012 season...Played at the PGA TOUR's Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial in May and finished T46.

PERSONAL:

Took up game with father while caddying for him at age 14...In 1994, established 300-acre vineyard with brother Michael in heart of wine-producing region of South Africa. 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Battled through a case of vertigo during the year and was among the top three three times over his 24 Champions Tour appearances...He and teammate Mike Goodes finished T2 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah in April, thanks to a closing-round, 9-under-par 63 that helped them move from T17 Saturday to their runner-up finish...Was the only player to record four consecutive par-or-better scores at the U.S. Senior Open, but he still finished five strokes back of Kenny Perry at Omaha CC. It marked his second consecutive runner-up finish in the event and, along with his victory in 2009, he's finished second in the championship (2008) three times...Late in the year, closed with 67 to finish T3 at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio...Capped his year with a 7-under-par 64 at TPC Harding Park, his best round of the season that eventually led to a T9 finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Made four starts during the year on the PGA TOUR, including three on the 2013-14 schedule. Missed the cut by one stroke at the Sony Open in Hawaii in January and also missed the cut at the Frys.com Open and The McGladrey Classic. Withdrew after one round at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba.

PERSONAL:

T2–2013 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T2–Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made five official starts on the Champions Tour after turning 50 in March. Finished 57th on the money list, aided by two strong showings during the year...The first came in September at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, where he claimed a T2 finish after open-qualifying earlier in the week. That top-10 finish earned him a berth in the SAS Championship (T11) near Raleigh...First open-qualified for the Champions Tour at The Principal Charity Classic, where he was T7...Also T24 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship and T61 at the Boeing Classic as a qualifier...Attended the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in November and finished eighth overall. Saw his opportunity to earn one of the five fully-exempt positions available slip away when he three-putted for bogey on the final hole of regulation and fell back into a T4 with four others. Eventually dropped four spots when he made a double bogey on his second playoff hole. Will be conditionally-exempt in 2014.

PERSONAL:

Lists Jack Nicklaus among his heroes. Father got him started in the game. Held various retail and insurance jobs during time away from the golf course. Says making it to the final stage of the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament was his biggest thrill in golf.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished 25th on the final money list, his highest standing in single-season earnings since 2009 when he placed 24th. Earnings of more than $677,000 were a personal best for a year...Was a runner-up twice, with both second-place performances coming in consecutive weeks during the spring...Teamed with Fred Funk in April to claim a T2 finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The pair posted a 9-under-par 63 Sunday to move up 15 places in the team event, finishing one stroke shy of a playoff...Best opportunity to win came the week after when he lost to Esteban Toledo in a three-man playoff at the Insperity Championship. Missed a 6-foot par putt on the third extra hole to give the title to Toledo. Led the tournament after the first round by carding a 69 in breezy conditions at The Woodlands, the only sub-70 score Friday. Trailed Gene Sauers by two strokes after 36 holes, and a final-round 72 left him in a playoff with Sauers and Toledo...Late in the season, matched his career-low round with a second-round, 9-under-par 63 at the AT&T Championship to share the second-round lead with four others at 8-under-par 136. However, closed with a 75 to finish T18...Had posted 63 earlier in the year when he temporarily tied the competitive course record at Canyon Meadows G&CC during the second round of the Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary.

PERSONAL:

Attended the University of North Carolina...Owns a packaging company and is a partner in a plastic-recycling business...Lists Winged Foot as his favorite golf course...Favorite entertainer is John Wayne and reads anything by John Patterson...Arnold Palmer is his favorite athlete...Appeared on the January 12, 1962 cover of Golf World as a 5-year-old after attending the annual Christmas golf outing at Pinehurst in North Carolina.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

On the PGA TOUR, missed the cut in both of his starts as he continued to rehab from left-wrist surgery from 2012. Will have 19 events in the 2013-14 season to earn $590,290, which, coupled with 2012 earnings of $57,220, would equal No. 125 from the 2012 money list.

PERSONAL:

Was a substitute teacher in Long Beach, Calif., at the time of his 1992 Yuma Open victory...Was the 1996 EA Sports Golf Challenge champion. Donated $10,000 prize to Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital...Says the first and only autograph he ever received was from California Angel Sandy Alomar, who signed his mitt at a game in Anaheim Stadium in 1974. "No, I don't know where the glove is now. I don't have it."...His favorite movie is "Monty Python and the Holy Grail."...Was hitting balls at the Long Beach State driving range in college when football coach and Pro Football Hall of Fame member George Allen decided he wanted to use the range for practice. "He yelled, 'Get that golfer off my football field.' I never met the man, but let's just say he definitely knew who I was."...On March 13, 2012, underwent surgery to remove a large bone spur on his left wrist, which was rubbing against a tendon and creating discomfort. The surgery didn't produce the desired results and he remained on the sidelines away from competitive golf for the remainder of the year. While sidelined due to wrist surgery, couldn't stay away from the game and ventured into the TV arena. In early May 2012, spent a week as guest host of "Morning Drive" on Golf Channel...Also received Major Medical Extensions in 2004 and 2005 because of sinus surgery and hip problems.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was among the top-30 money-winners on the Champions Tour for a ninth consecutive year and six of his seven top-10 efforts during the campaign came in the first half of the season...Played his best golf during a stretch of four events when he was not outside the top-seven. Best effort during that run came when he was T2 at the Senior PGA Championship at Bellerive. Shared the first-round lead and was in contention all four rounds in May in St. Louis. Birdies on his final two holes moved him into the runner-up position along with Kenny Perry...In mid-March, closed with rounds of 66-67 at the Toshiba Classic to finish T3 along with Peter Senior...He and teammate Fred Couples finished T4 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. They were tied for the lead at one point in the final round but posted just one birdie over the final five holes to fall out of contention...Was also T4 at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round 65 at the TPC Twin Cities...One week after the Legends event, matched the low Sunday round at the Insuperity Championship as his 67 allowed him to jump into a T6 at The Woodlands CC...The week after the Senior PGA Championship, finished T7 in defense of his Principal Charity Classic title. Fell four strokes short of a chance at a fourth victory in Iowa despite posting four straight sub-par scores at the Wakonda Club...Served as a captain's assistant to Fred Couples on the victorious U.S. Presidents Cup team at Muirfield Village...Inducted into the Illinois Golf Hall of Fame in October.

PERSONAL:

Will be fully exempt for the 2014 season after securing one of the five exempt positions at the season-ending National Qualifying Tournament at TPC Scottsdale in November. Was among five players at T4 at the end of regulation. Made par on the first playoff hole, which earned him the fifth spot...Started the season conditionally exempt after finishing 47th on the prior-year's money list. However, parlayed solid play during a three-event run in the early summer, which netted him nearly half his season earnings and helped him in the late-season reshuffle. Finished the year 40th on the money list...Matched his best career Champions Tour finish when he was T6 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in Pittsburgh in late June...Followed that with a T14 at the U.S. Senior Open in Omaha, shooting 65 in the final round...Was T8 at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale, closing with 3-under 67.

PERSONAL:

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Resume for the season included just 11 events, but a pair of strong showings in major championships highlighted his season...Enjoyed his best finish since 2010 when he was T8 at the Regions Tradition. Was just two off the lead after 54 holes before closing with a 1-under-par 71. At the time, it was his best showing in a major championship since he was T8 at the 2009 Regions Tradition...Finished T6 later in the month at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship near Pittsburgh, where he posted rounds of 66-67 on the weekend at Fox Chapel. It was his best major championship finish since he was fourth at the 2005 Senior PGA Championship. It also marked the first time since 2002 that he had a pair of top-10 finishes in majors in the same season.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

After missing all of the 2012 season following left-hand surgery and portions of the three previous seasons with various health issues, came back to play in 20 events. They represented his most starts in a season since 2008...Had his best stretch of golf in September when he finished T5, T9 and T13 in successive tournaments...Sandwiched a pair of 65s around a second-round 70 to finish T5 at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary in early September...Continued his strong play the next week in Montreal. Rebounded from a 4-over-par 76 in his opening round to finish T9, thanks to weekend rounds of 69-70...Was T13 in his next start at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Posted his first top-10 finish of the season in August when he was T10 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, his first top-10 finish since he and Kenny Perry lost in a playoff to Mark McNulty and David Eger at the 2011 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

PERSONAL:

Donated $100,000 of 1989 Las Vegas Invitational winnings to Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital in Orlando. Has a floor named after him at the Arnold Palmer Hospital, thanks to his family's donations. Although son Cameron was successfully treated elsewhere for rare bone infection in right leg, he and wife Sally are strong supporters of Orlando facility...Family has also made large donations to area hospitals and churches...Brother Buddy was a professional bowler, while their father won All-American honors in baseball at Wake Forest...Lists Harbour Town GL, Muirfield Village and the CC of North Carolina as his favorite courses...Favorite entertainer is Frank Sinatra, favorite movies include "It's a Wonderful Life" and "Blazing Saddles"...Favorite athlete is Michael Jordan...Has experienced his share of medical issues in recent years. Underwent left-hand surgery during the week of the 2005 FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World. Doctors removed two pieces of bone and cartilage in his hand and repaired a torn tendon that had snapped in April of that same year...Had played just four PGA TOUR events in 2003 with a nagging wrist injury and then sprained left wrist during the 2004 PGA Championship when, during the second round, he put his hands out to break a fall, after walking off the tee box and the ground gave way...Says one historical event he would have liked to have witnessed first hand was being the first to step on the moon...Once played a round of golf with three Presidents at one time—George H. Bush, Bill Clinton and Gerald Ford at the 1995 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic...Had an opportunity to play with his idol when he was paired with Arnold Palmer in the first round at his first Masters (1979).

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played some of his best golf in the final month of the season, with nine of his final 10 rounds below par...Turned in his best Champions Tour performance since March 2012 when he was T6 at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic. Posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s...Continued his solid play the following week when he rebounded from an opening-round 73 with rounds of 67-68 on the weekend to finish T9 in San Antonio's AT&T Championship...Started his late-season run with a T11 at the SAS Championship...Was also T8 at the Inspireity Championship in May...Made his first Champions Tour hole-in-one in the opening round of the event, holing a 7-iron shot from 194 yards on the par-3 16th hole at The Woodlands CC...Finished T9 in his first start of the year, at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Played in the final grouping Sunday at the 3M Championship but carded an even-par 72 to drop into a T14 at TPC Twin Cities.

PERSONAL:

After wearing glasses since age 12, had LASIK surgery in late January 1998 to correct acute nearsightedness...Started playing golf at age 6 by following his father around and won his first tournament at 11...Three of his last four PGA TOUR victories came on holidays—1992 BellSouth Classic (Mother's Day), 1992 U.S. Open (Father's Day), 1993 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic (Valentines Day)...Biggest thrill in golf was being selected as the Ryder Cup captain in 1997...Has worked with such teachers as Harvey Penick, Bob Toski, Peter Kostis, Chuck Cook, Jim McLean, Dave Pelz and Dave Phillips...His daughter, Stephanie, was a former gymnast at the University of Alabama and was a member of its national championship squad in 2002. Son David played golf at South Carolina and served a stint as an assistant men's golf coach at the College of Charleston...Lists Pebble Beach as his favorite golf course and Michael Jordan as his favorite athlete...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in November 2002, along with Charlie Sifford, Marlene Streit and Isao Aoki...Dream foursome would include Bobby Jones, Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Walter Hagen "because they were the best players of all time that I never had a chance to play with."...The first car he owned was a 1957 Chevy...Enjoys Mexican food...He and his family have two dogs, Maja, a shepherd mix, and Mulligan, a foxhound...Says the best shot of his career was when he holed his lob wedge for a birdie on the seventh hole at Pebble Beach during the last round of the 1992 U.S. Open that helped him to a two-stroke win...Would like to continue his golf course design work in the future, with his son David joining him.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Earned his fifth Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner in the last six years when he claimed the title, earning $2,448,428 in official money, $200,000 more than runner-up Kenny Perry. Was unable to overcome Perry's lead in the Charles Schwab Cup in the final few weeks of the season and eventually finished second in the season-long race when he was T2 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and needed a victory to have any chance at overtaking Perry..Also finished second to Fred Couples for the Byron Nelson Trophy despite a scoring average of 68.92...Led the Champions Tour in top-10s, with 18, over his 24 starts...Won a pair of titles early in the campaign and then missed on a number of chances for a third victory during the last half of the season...In mid-February, won for the second time in three years in Naples, claiming The ACE Group Classic in wire-to-wire fashion, edging Jay Don Blake by a stroke. It marked the seventh straight year he's claimed at least one Champions Tour event, currently the longest active streak. Opened with a 62 Friday, which proved to be the best start by a winner in event history, and his final-round 72 was the highest final-round score by an ACE Group Classic champion...Claimed his 18th career Champions Tour title at the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship. Victory near Atlanta made him the first of eight multiple winners on the season. Shot a final-round 67 that included a clutch chip-in birdie at the 10th hole to ease past Tom Lehman and Tom Pernice, Jr., by three strokes at TPC Sugarloaf. Opening-round 73 was the highest start by a winner since Russ Cochran shot a first-round 73 at the 2009 Posco E&C Songdo Championship in South Korea and won...In late July, squandered a golden opportunity to win the Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale. Eventually lost to Mark Wiebe on the fifth hole of a playoff after making double bogey on the 72nd hole to fall into the overtime session. Found the greenside bunker on the par-4 18th and then left his third shot in the bunker before eventually missing a 7-foot bogey putt that would have given him the win...Made a late bid for the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship before finishing one stroke out of a playoff at Kapolei. Three-putt from 16 feet at the 16th hole proved costly after he tied for the lead with a birdie a hole earlier...The following week, tied the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach tournament 18-hole scoring record with a 9-under-par 63 in the opening round at Del Monte GC. However, consecutive 74s on the weekend led to an eighth-place finish...Started his year by making a late run at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalal, shooting an 8-under-par 64 to tie Perry for the event's low round. Sunday effort came up one stroke shy of a berth in the playoff between David Frost and eventual-winner John Cook. At one point in his final round, made nine birdies in an 11-hole stretch, including five straight...Finished T2 in his next outing at the Allianz Championship. Put together three consecutive rounds in the 60s and battled Tom Pernice, Jr., and eventual-winner Rocco Mediate throughout the final round before falling two strokes shy...Had another runner-up finish in March when he was one-stroke shy of Michael Allen at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Was one of four players tied for the lead after 36 holes and was tied with Allen late in his final round, but a costly bogey on the 16th hole ended his chances when his second shot plugged in a bunker leaving him with virtually no third shot on the par-4 hole that eventually led to his bogey...One of just two players with three straight rounds in the 60s at North Shore CC and was T3 at the inaugural Encompass Championship. Made a late run at Craig Stadler, but a bogey at the par-5 16th hole ended his chances...Led the Boeing Classic with nine holes to play, but a back-nine 38 dropped him down into a T4 near Seattle...Was the 36-hole leader at the Montreal Championship in September, but a pair of double bogeys in the final round eventually led to a T4 finish, two strokes shy of making the playoff between Perry and eventual winner Esteban Toledo...Finished eighth at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, where he posted a third-round 63, the best third-round score in tournament history (matched later in the day by Perry)...Played in the final group at the SAS Championship and finished T8 in defense of his title...Was the 36-hole leader by two at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, but a 1-under 69 in the final round left him two strokes short of a playoff. Was in contention down the stretch, but a three-putt bogey from 50 feet at the par-3 17th at Rock Barn ended his chances...The next week suffered disappointment for the second year in a row at the AT&T Championship. Was one of five players tied for the lead after 36 holes, finished regulation tied then lost in a one-hole playoff to Perry, a year after losing in a playoff to David Frost. Made a clutch birdie at the 17th hole Sunday to grab a share of the lead with Perry but could not close things out. Had to settle for a par on the 54th hole and then after his third shot came up short on the first extra hole, Perry drained a 10-footer for a birdie and the win...Tied the Shoal Creek competitive course record with a closing-round, 9-under-par 63 at the Regions Tradition...Placed T25 in his 31st appearance at the Masters. Was tied for ninth after 54 holes and climbed into contention with three consecutive birdies to start his final round. Played his final 15 holes at 7-over to fall out of contention...Made one appearance on the European Senior Tour, finishing second at the Berenberg Masters, one stroke back of Steen Tin-ning in Germany.

PERSONAL:

To combat putting yips, has used a variety of putting grips, most recently utilizing a long putter that he began using at the end of the 1996 season...Father settled in Bavaria after jumping a Russian prisoner-of-war train bound for Siberia...Developed fever cramps several times as a child (ages 2-5) and nearly died as a result... Took up golf at age 7 through caddy-ing and turned pro at 15...Developed back problems when he was 19, during an 18-month stint as a member of the German Air Force. Marching with 30-pound pack and rifle led to two stress fractures and bulging discs...Devout Christian, helped organize the regular meetings of the European Tour Bible Class...Website is bernhardlanger.de...Started skiing at age 4 and would say he's a "scratch skier"...Also enjoys driving fast cars...Conducts an annual charity event for Youth for Christ. Event has raised $140,000...Favorite courses are Cypress Point and Augusta National...Dream foursome would include Lee Trevino, Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson...Admires Mother Teresa...Best tip he ever received is to pay attention to fundamentals...Favorite book is The Bible...Top athlete is Bjorn Borg...First job was as a teaching professional...Daughter, Christina, plays golf at Florida Atlantic University.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Didn't win for the first time as a member of the Champions Tour but was still among the top 10 in over half of his 17 appearances. Best effort of the season came in late-April when he closed with a bogey-free 67 that included birdies on three of his last four holes to finish T2 at the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship, three strokes back of Bernhard Langer...Was on the leaderboard throughout the final round of the Encompass Championship before earning a T3 finish at North Shore CC...Was the 36-hole leader by two strokes at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach after consecutive rounds of 67. Closed with a 74 to eventually finish fourth...Was also in contention at the Boeing Classic through 36 holes, but a final-round 70 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge dropped him into a T4...Sandwiched rounds of 68-66 around a second-round 73 to finish T6 at the Allianz Championship, an event he won in 2011...Made two appearances on the PGA TOUR. Missed the cut at the Crowne Plaza Invitational and then finished T58 at The Open Championship at Muirfield.

PERSONAL:

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

On the PGA TOUR, finished No. 162 in the FedEx-Cup standings to miss the Playoffs for the first time since 2008. Ended a streak of 27 consecutive years inside the top 100 on the TOUR money list. However, he tied Jay Haas for most consecutive seasons winning $100,000 or more with 28. Also increased his record of most consecutive seasons winning $200,000 or more to 25 years. Withdrew from the Waste Management Phoenix Open and AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am due to a neck injury. Had surgery on February 8 to help relieve numbness and weakness caused by spinal stenosis and joint bone spurs in the neck. Returned to action at THE PLAYERS Championship in May and finished T48...With four rounds of par or better at The Greenbrier Classic, good for T9 honors, extended to 28, his streak of claiming at least one top-10 finish a year. He birdied the par-4 first hole all four days en route to the finish.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

The Champions Tour's Rookie of the Year had an outstanding first-year campaign on Tour, joining Esteban Toledo as the other first-year player with a pair of victories. He also pocketed more than $1.3 million in earnings. That total was the most he's earned since 2008 on the PGA TOUR...Became the 16th player in history to win his first Champions Tour event when he was a two-stroke winner over Tom Pernice, Jr., and Bernhard Langer at the Allianz Championship in February. Led after 36 holes by three strokes following a career-best and tournament-record, 11-under-par 61. Eventually held off a final-round charge by Pernice and Langer for the two-stroke victory. Was tied with Pernice heading to No. 17, but took the lead for good when Pernice made a bogey on the second-to-last hole. He added a birdie at No. 18 to finish with a 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199, matching the tournament mark set in 2010 by Langer and John Cook. Ironically, his first PGA TOUR win also came in South Florida, at the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open...Added a second title during the latter part of the summer, in Canada, when he blitzed the field at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary. Went wire to wire for the victory north of the border. Opened with a course-record, 8-under-par 63 at Canyon Meadows G&CC and then followed with back-to-back, 7-under 64s to run away from the field by seven strokes, the largest margin of victory since Fred Couples won by the same margin in 2011 (AT&T Championship). His winning 54-hole total of 191 matched the Champions Tour 54-hole scoring mark set in 2002 by Bruce Fleisher and later matched by three others. He also tied a Tour record with four eagles in the event. His play on the back nine was the difference, shooting a cumulative 18-under-par on the second nine holes for the week at Canyon Meadows. The victory made him the first rookie with multiple wins in a season since Couples in 2010...In contention throughout the U.S. Senior Open before eventually finishing T3 along with Corey Pavin, six strokes back of winner Kenny Perry...Followed up victory in Boca Raton with a T5 at The ACE Group Classic, thanks to birdies on the last three holes of the tournament. Started with an even-par 72 Friday, but his 67 Saturday equaled the low second-round score...Closed his season with a T5 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship on the strength of weekend rounds of 66-68 at TPC Harding Park...Made one PGA TOUR start, missing the cut at the Frys.com Open.

PERSONAL:

Started using a long putter to help with back pain and became the first player to win on TOUR using a long, broom putter when he won the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Currently putts conventionally. Finished 600th out of 5,619 players in his first appearance at the 2005 World Series of Poker's Main Event. Began playing poker in 2004...Grew up in Greensburg, Pa., just miles from Arnold Palmer's home in nearby Latrobe. Played with Palmer for the first time when he was 19, at Latrobe CC...Worked early in his career with former Champions Tour member Jim Ferree, who was a club professional in Pennsylvania.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the Champions Tour in late-June, making his debut at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and finishing T9 after weekend rounds of 69-65. . . Went on to compete in 10 events and was 47th on the final money list. . . Turned in his best finish in the year's final full-field event, in San Antonio. He shared the 36-hole lead with four others and moved atop the leaderboard Sunday with birdies on five of his first six holes at the AT&T Championship. After posting a 5-under par 31 on the front nine, he watched his chances slip away with four bogeys over his final nine holes. Eventually finished T3. . . Posted three consecutive sub-70 scores the TPC Twin Cities to finish T7 at the 3M Championship. . . Won the Travis Perkins Senior Masters on the European Senior Tour by six strokes in early September. . . Was also T4 at the Russian Open Golf Championship. . . Also made seven starts on the European Tour during the year and made three cuts, with a T29 at the Volvo Golf Championships his best showing of those three. . . Received the highlight of his career when he was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame at a ceremony in May in St. Augustine, Fla.

PERSONAL:

Born in Scotland and raised in Yorkshire, where father, James, was a company director. Attended Houston Baptist University. Father retired as Royal Troon secretary in 1997. Received Member of the British Empire (MBE) from H.M. the Queen in 1998 and Order of the British Empire (OBE) in 2005 from Prince Charles. Has represented Scotland 10 times in the World Cup, playing with eight different partners. . . Enjoys music, cars and films. . . Received the Asia Pacific Lifetime Achievement Award, along with Jeev Milkha Singh in December 2012. . . Established The Elizabeth Montgomerie Foundation in memory of his mother who died of lung cancer. The EMF aims to raise money for cancer patients and their families. The Foundation focuses on funding for two Maggie's Cancer Centers in Scotland, built in his mother's name. The first opened in Aberdeen in September, 2013.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in 20 events and finished 71st on the final money list...His run of five straight birdies Sunday led to a 68, matching the day's best score, and moved him up into a T7 at The ACE Group Classic, his lone top-10 finish during the year...Was also T15 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship...Open-qualified and shared the first-round lead following a 6-under-par 66 at the SAS Championship in October. Slipped down the leaderboard after playing the final two rounds with a heavy heart following the passing of his father late that week...Returned to the National Qualifying Tournament in November and finished ninth, securing conditionally-exempt status for 2014. Was one of four players to T9 at 11-under-par and made a par on the first playoff hole to earn the ninth spot.

PERSONAL:

Got started in the game through his grandfather and father, who were professional golfers. His late father, Sid, was a six-time Welsh champion...His dream foursome would include Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Ben Hogan...Favorite athlete is Hogan, and his heroes are Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus...Was involved in a serious head-on car crash in 1986, breaking both feet and ankles as well as sustaining a number of facial cuts. It took emergency personnel more than an hour to cut him out of the car.

He was sidelined for nearly two months...Favorite courses are Wentworth Club, Sunningdale and Torrey Pines GC...Is one of the organizers of the British Par-3 Championship, an event his father helped resurrect in the mid-90s...Biggest thrill outside of golf was the birth of his two daughters...Favorite book is Lance Armstrong's It's Not about the Bike...Said if he weren't playing golf for a living he would like to be running a beach bar on an island...Carries an old ball marker as a lucky charm...Has been involved recently with corporate golf outings. As involved in a short-game and junior academy in England...Website is markmouland.com.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Eclipsed the seven-figure mark in single-season earnings for the fourth time in five years and registered nine top-10s in his 22 starts, the most appearances he's made in a Champions Tour season...Best performance of the campaign came in his final start of the season when he was T2 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship at TPC Harding Park. Played in the final grouping with Fred Couples but ended up six strokes back after a 1-under 70 Sunday...Was also T3 at the inaugural Encompass Championship. Made a bid for victory in Chicago but was just 1-under over his last six holes at North Shore CC and fell two strokes short of Craig Stadler...His strong weekend play at the Senior PGA Championship in May was instrumental in his fourth-place finish in St. Louis. Shot rounds of 68-65 at Bellerive over the final two days...Was one of just three players to post three consecutive rounds in the 60s on his way to a T4 effort at the Allianz Championship...Had another T4 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf, with teammate Esteban Toledo...Made his 29th start at the Masters, but missed the cut after making a triple bogey on his final hole Friday...Opened with a 4-under-par 67 at The Open Championship at Muirfield and was T2 after the first round before eventually finishing T58...Lone appearance on the European Tour came in early February at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic, where he was T59 after opening with 67.

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

P2–Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. T2–3M Championship. T2–Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in his best earnings year since his 2006 PGA TOUR season, thanks to five top-three finishes in a row during the summer when he was perhaps the Champions Tour's hottest player...Came close to winning on multiple occasions in succession after notching two T3 performances to start his run...Shot 66 on the final day of the 3M Championship but, along with Jeff Sluman, came up one stroke short of winner Tom Pernice, Jr., at TPC Twin Cities in Minnesota...A week later, was T2 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, along with Russ Cochran, one stroke back of Bart Bryant. Had a chance to tie Bryant on the last hole but his 30-foot birdie putt missed...After taking a month off, returned at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship and lost in a playoff to Mark Wiebe when he missed a 10-foot par save on the second extra hole after

Wiebe made a 20-foot par putt just moments earlier. Appeared as if he would win the event in regulation, but Wiebe made a 7-foot birdie putt to send the event into overtime. Runner-up finish at Kapolei was his third consecutive and matched Fred Couples' three consecutive runner-up finishes earlier in the campaign...Streak of top threes began in mid-July when he closed with rounds of 64-67 to climb from a tie for 25th at the halfway mark up into an eventual T3 at the U.S. Senior Open Championship. Final-round 67 at Omaha CC included a run of five straight birdies, matching the best birdie streak in U.S. Senior Open history...Followed that third-place effort at the U.S. Senior Open with a T3 two weeks later at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale. Shot a bogey-free 65 Sunday, the best final-round score among the field and the round also equaled the best score of the championship. Finish was his third top-three performance at The Senior Open Championship in the last four years. His 69 Saturday at Royal Birkdale kicked off a run of 11 straight scores in the 60s, the season's best sub-70 streak on the Champions Tour...Early in the campaign, posted three straight rounds in the 60s to T4 in defense of his Allianz Championship title...Was one of four players tied for the 36-hole Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic lead but had a disastrous final round, shooting a 6-over 78 which led to a T27 finish. Had opened with rounds of 69-67 and started his second round with six consecutive birdies, his best career streak in that category since he also had six straight in the opening round of the 2006 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee which was the last of his 15 PGA TOUR victories...Received a sponsor exemption for the PGA TOUR's Northern Trust Open near Los Angeles in February but missed the cut...Made his 30th consecutive start at the PGA TOUR's Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial in May but missed the cut by one stroke...Made his first Champions Tour ace in June when he holed a 6-iron shot from 173 yards on No. 8 in the third round of the Regions Tradition. His seven PGA TOUR aces tie him for fourth most since the TOUR began tracking holes-in-one in 1971.

PERSONAL:

With his son Ryan won Disney's father-child event for Ryan's age group (1996)...Serves as host for Corey Pavin Golf Classic benefiting Big Brothers and Big Sisters in Ventura County, Calif...Had LASIK surgery in November 1998...Caddied for former UCLA teammate Jay Delsing at 2003 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament, where Delsing earned his card for the 2004 TOUR season...Joined TOUR members Frank Lickliter II, Jerry Kelly, Donnie Hammond and Howard Twitty on a USA/Armed Forces Entertainment tour of the Persian Gulf for Thanksgiving 2006 and went to the region again in November 2009 with Tom Watson, Tim Simpson and Twitty...Is a long-time friend of former San Antonio Spurs' star David Robinson...Has played golf with Gerald Ford, George W. Bush and Bill Clinton, the latter when he was in office. After winning the 1995 U.S. Open, he received a congratulatory call from President Clinton who told him "I see all those tips I gave you helped you out!"

1-3M Championship.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played his first full season as a Champions Tour member and finished seventh on the money list, with more than $1.4 million in earnings, thanks to 12 top-10 finishes that included six performances where he placed third or better...Claimed his second career victory, at the 3M Championship, when he birdied the final two holes for a one-stroke victory over Jeff Sluman and Corey Pavin. Win in Minnesota was his first in 51 Champions Tour events, dating to the 2009 SAS Championship, his first tournament as a Champions Tour member. Holed a 40-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole to tie Sluman and Pavin for the lead and then won the tournament with a two-putt birdie on the par-5 18th after hitting his second shot from 200 yards to within 8 feet of the flag...Got his season off to a strong start when he was either second or third in four of his first five tournaments...Started his year with a T2 at the Allianz Championship. Played in the final grouping with eventual-winner Rocco Mediate and carded a final-round 70 at Broken Sound to finish two strokes back. Had grabbed a share of the lead with Mediate with a birdie at No. 14. Missed a critical birdie putt at No. 17, giving Mediate a lead he never relinquished...Was in the mix early on the back nine and then late in the final round of the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship before eventually finishing T2 at TPC Sugarloaf. Appeared out of contention after making double bogey at the 12th hole. But three holes later, holed an 8-iron second shot from 157 yards on the par-4 15th for an eagle to draw within two of Bernhard Langer, who would go on to win by three...The week after the Allianz event, played in the final grouping at The ACE Group Classic, but a final-round 72 left him three strokes back of Langer in a T3. Carded five straight birdies in his opening round...In late March, was just one off the lead at one point late at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic before eventually finishing T3...In late-June, closed with a 67 at North Shore CC to move into a T3 at the inaugural Encompass Championship...Rounds of 68-68 on the weekend moved him up into a T4 at the Boeing Classic...Was in the final grouping at the Shaw Charity Classic, with Mediate and Bobby Clampett and finished T5...Reeled off 14 straight sub-par rounds (fourth round at The Senior Open Championship to the first round at the Montreal Championship), a season best later equaled by Kirk Triplett.

PERSONAL:

Teammates at UCLA included Jay Delsing, Corey Pavin, Steve Pate and Duffy Waldorf...All-conference wrestler in high school...Daughter Brooke has a genetic disease, Leber's Amrosis, which causes blindness. Her retinas did not develop fully at birth. Joined Brooke to win the National Car Rental Golf Classic at Walt Disney World Resort father-child event for Brooke's age group in 2001. (3): 2005 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with John Huston]. 2008 Merrill Lynch Shootout [with Scott Hoch]. 2012 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with Sean O'Hair].

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

The winner of the Champions Tour's Jack Nicklaus Award as the Player of the Year, he claimed three titles, including victories in consecutive starts in major championships during the summer and then the AT&T Championship in October near the end of the campaign...Was the only player on the circuit with three titles, a first on the Champions Tour since 2011...Back-to-back wins in majors were also a first on the Champions Tour since Bernhard Langer won both the 2010 Open Championship and U.S. Senior Open in consecutive weeks. Those wins catapulted him to his first Charles Schwab Cup, eventually finishing 412 points in front of Langer after leading by more than 1,000 points over David Frost after the U.S. Senior Open. Took the lead for good in the points-based competition after winning the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship on the last day of June...Finished second to Langer on the money list, with more than $2.2 million...Prevailed by two strokes over Fred Couples and Duffy Waldorf at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS at Fox

Chapel GC near Pittsburgh. Used 16 birdies and an eagle on the weekend to pull away from Couples and Waldorf. After an opening-round, 1-over 71, strung together rounds of 63-63-64, which included bogey-free rounds Saturday and Sunday. His 72-hole total of 19-under 261 was the lowest score in a Champions Tour major since Fred Funk shot 20-under 268 at the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick. His 261 tied Jack Nicklaus' tournament numerical mark of 261 (27-under) in 1990 at Dearborn CC in Michigan. He also became the first player to win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS with an opening-round above par (1-over 71). His 54-hole total of 20-under 190 (63-63-64) set the all-time record for consecutive three-round score, besting Nicklaus' mark of 19-under 197 (65-68-64) set in 1990 at Dearborn CC. His final-round 64 also matched the lowest Sunday score in tournament history by a winner established in 1990 by Nicklaus and later matched by Jay Haas in 2009 at Baltimore CC...Followed Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS victory with a five-stroke win at the U.S. Senior Open in Omaha in his next Champions Tour appearance. Trailed Michael Allen by two strokes after three rounds but shot 7-under 63 Sunday to cruise to the victory over Fred Funk. Win in Nebraska made him the ninth player to claim consecutive majors, and he joined Gary Player (1987) and Orville Moody (1989) as the third man to claim a Senior Players and U.S. Senior Open in the same season. His 63 Sunday at Omaha CC matched the Senior Open record for best final-round score (Allen Doyle in 2005), and his 72-hole total of 13-under 267 matched Hale Irwin's record score at the 2000 U.S. Senior Open. Rounds of 64-63 on the weekend set a U.S. Senior Open record for the last 36 holes, and his 10-stroke comeback at the halfway mark was also an all-time best in the championship...Won his third title in late October when he defeated Langer in playoff fashion at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. Opened with a 7-under-par 65 and was one of five players tied for the lead after 36 holes. Remained in contention throughout the final round and helped his cause when he made two clutch par saves on Nos. 17 and 18. Sank a 4-footer at 17 and an 18-footer on the final hole. Ended his duel with Langer when he hit an 8-iron approach from 176 yards to 10 feet and sank the birdie putt on the first extra hole for the win...Earlier in the year appeared in a great position to claim the Senior PGA Championship in May at Bellerive CC in St. Louis after starting his final round with a two-stroke margin. Made birdies on three of his first five holes on Sunday but failed to make another birdie until the final hole when the contest had been decided and was T2. Had posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s to build his 54-hole lead but saw his chances slip away as eventual-winner Kohki Idoki closed with a 6-under-par 65 to win the crown...Also made a run at victory in September but eventually lost in a three-hole playoff with Esteban Toledo at the Montreal Championship. Appeared on his way to a win with a two-stroke margin late in the final round, but a bogey at No. 17 coupled with a birdie by Toledo at No. 16 left the pair tied after 54 holes. Toledo chipped in from 35 feet on the third hole for the win...In late April, teamed with Gene Sauers to finish T2 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April in Savannah. The pair posted the low final round in the event, a 10-under-par 62, which moved them up 18 places in the final standings. Was slated to team with Russ Cochran, but Cochran was replaced by Sauers when he missed his pro-am time resulting in a DQ...One of just two players with three straight rounds in the 60s at North Shore CC. His final-round 67 moved him into a T3 at the inaugural Encompass Championship outside Chicago...Two days after The ACE Group Classic, underwent left-knee surgery for a torn meniscus in Nashville. Was out of action until mid-April...Named the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for June, July and October...Made three starts on the PGA TOUR. Finished T33 at the PGA TOUR's HP Byron Nelson Championship in May and was also T41 at The Greenbrier Classic in July...Also missed the cut at the Memorial Tournament.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 7 with encouragement from his father, who spent hours teeing balls up for him...Recipient of the 2009 Payne Stewart Award as well as the 2002 Charles Bartlett Award, given to a professional golfer for his unselfish contributions to the betterment of society, by the Golf Writers Association of America. Perry donates five percent of his winnings to Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tenn., to provide scholarships for Simpson County students. He also built Kenny Perry's Country Creek Golf Course, a public course in his hometown of Franklin, Ky. In 1995, he bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in the town. He designed it for mid-to-high handicappers and kept it affordable: 18 holes with a cart is $30 on weekdays. Works from time to time behind the counter and is often asked, "Do you know Kenny Perry?"...Is a big drag racing fan and also a fan of '68 Camaros...Hosts the annual Kenny Perry Charity Golf Invitational, benefiting the Boys & Girls Club of Franklin-Simpson...Some of his favorite golf courses are Muirfield Village, Augusta National, The Club at Olde Stone and Country Creek

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1-Boeing Classic.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Did not become eligible for the Champions Tour until midway through the season but made an impact quickly, winning the Boeing Classic near Seattle in just his fifth start. Then, despite only playing 12 events, he finished 28th on the money list, with a pair of top-10 performances in October...Used an 8-under-par 64 on Saturday to forge a three-stroke lead at the Boeing Classic and his final-round 68 included birdies on three of the last four holes for his two-stroke victory over John Cook at the TPC Snodgrass Ridge. Became the fifth rookie on the season to win, tying a Champions Tour record. Also became the first player to make the Boeing Classic his first victory on the circuit. Joined Esteban Toledo (In-Sperity Championship) as the second 2012 Q-school graduate to win a tournament...Vaulted into the top 30 for good when he placed fifth at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic in late October. Was in contention for the first two rounds at Rock Barn before a final-round, even-par 70 left him in solo fifth place...One week later, sealed a spot in the top 30 when he posted a closing-round, 5-under-par 67 at the AT&T Championship to earn a T6 at TPC San Antonio. Had entered the event 30th on the money list but jumped two places with his finish...Made his Champions Tour debut at the inaugural Encompass Championship and finished T26 at North Shore CC...Had a pair of eagles in a round on two occasions during the year. The first came in the first round at the 3M Championship and the other in the final round at the Shaw Charity Classic...Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in four Web.com Tour events. Missed the cut at both the Panama Claro Championship and Columbia Championship before finishing T22 at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Also withdrew from the WNB Golf Classic in Texas after an opening-round 75.

PERSONAL:

Grew up in Southern Illinois, across the Ohio River from fellow Champions Tour player Russ Cochran, who lives in Paducah, Ky...Used five-time U.S. Open 9-ball champion Earl Strickland as his caddie at the 2000 Wichita Open on the Web.com Tour...Enjoys ESPN and "Realtree Outdoors," as well as the NBA and the Los Angeles Lakers...Musical tastes include Luke Bryan and various other country artists...His favorite baseball team as a kid was the St. Louis Cardinals, and his favorite athlete was Lee Trevino...Would love to trade places for a day with Michael Waddell "because I always wanted my own hunting show."...Bookmarks include southernlwhitetails.com and usatoday.com...The first job he ever had was mowing greens at Metropolis CC in Illinois...Favorite meal is a bone-in ribeye, mashed potatoes and cream corn...When he's on Tour, he enjoys visiting Mexican restaurants as well as eating barbecue, especially at Starnes in Paducah...One talent he'd most love to have would be able to build things. "I wanted to be an architect," he says...His all-time favorite movies include "Tin Cup." "Follow the Sun" and any action movie...His favorite athlete in another sport is the Lakers' Kobe Bryant...Would love to play Pine Valley GC...His most memorable vacation was going to Cabo San Lucas with his family...Says his most memorable shot was his first tee shot on the PGA TOUR on No. 10 at Cypress Point in 1987...Would love to sit down for a discussion with Phil Jackson and learn how he motivates athletes...Drives a 2011 750 Li BMW and a 2005 Dodge Ram 3500...The first concert he ever attended was AC/DC...When not playing golf he enjoys bow hunting for deer and elk, as well as spending time with his family...His bucket list includes taking his wife to Europe for a romantic vacation.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

After finishing 55th on the final money list, regained his fully-exempt status for 2014 by finishing T2 at the National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Scottsdale in November. Started the final round outside the top 12, but his 7-under-par 65 matched the day's low round and allowed him to move up 11 places to his finishing position. It was the third consecutive year he has been among the top five at the Q-School...Highlight of his year came in May when he posted the low round of the Senior PGA Championship with his 7-under-par 64 Sunday, and it helped him finish T6 at the year's first major championship. Rebounded from an opening-round 75, and the T6 finish matched his best Champions Tour showing...Shot a Sunday 62 at Newport Beach CC and vaulted 43 places into a T8 at the Toshiba Classic. Score was his personal-best on the Champions Tour and the low round of the tournament...Went four extra holes in August to defeat fellow Champions Tour member Rod Spittle and win his third Mr. Lube PGA Seniors' Championship of Canada in the last four years.

PERSONAL:

Got started in golf at age 11 by a friend of the family...Lists St. Andrews and The National GC (Toronto) as his favorite courses...Lists his favorite book as the yardage book of the week...Among his favorite TV shows are "Seinfeld" and "Storage Wars," as well as watching hockey on TV and following the Vancouver Canucks...Favorite team as a kid was the Harlem Globetrotters and favorite player was Meadowlark Lemon...Would love to trade places for a day with Clint Eastwood (as Dirty Harry)...His first job was cleaning golf clubs...His favorite meal is his wife's homemade roasted, stuffed chicken...Enjoys dining at Bonfish Grill, Outback Steakhouse & P.F. Chang's...One talent he'd most love to have is be able to ice skate...Among his favorite athletes in other sports are Wayne Gretzky and Steve Nash...His all-time favorite movies include "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," any Dirty Harry movie and "Misery"...One course he's never played that he'd love to play is Augusta National...His most memorable vacation was going to Bali, Indonesia, with his wife and son along with his mother and father-in-law...Most memorable shot was his putt on No. 18 to win the New Zealand PGA Championship in 2006...Supports the Victoria (B.C.) Hospice...The first concert he attended was Madonna in Toronto...In his free time, he enjoys fixing up his house, barbecuing with his son and catching up...His bucket list includes owning a 1963 split-window Corvette and a garage to put it in, be mortgage-free and have a lifetime exemption to the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Georgia Open. 1990 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Put together a solid first full Champions Tour season, with seven top-10 finishes among his 22 overall starts...Finished just inside the top 20 on the money list, his highest standing ever and earnings of almost $1 million that were easily his best single-season (surpassing 2002 on the PGA TOUR when he made $715,605 to finish 99th)...All three of his top-three finishes came within his first five appearances of the year, coming closest to winning in Houston in early May. Was the 36-hole leader by two at the Insuperity Championship but carded a final-round 74 at The Woodlands to fall into a three-man playoff that he would eventually lose when his second shot went in the water on the second extra hole, eliminating him from the overtime session. Appeared to be headed to victory in regulation until he made a disastrous, triple bogey-8 on No. 15 when he hit his tee shot out of bounds and then three-putted...The week prior, was a late addition to the Legends Division field at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf when he joined Kenny Perry in the team event after Russ Cochran was disqualified for missing his program time. He and Perry closed with a 10-under-par 62 to move up 18 spots and finish T2...One month earlier, finished T3 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. At the time, it was his best finish in a Tour event since he won the 2002 Air Canada Championship on the PGA TOUR...Was T4 in consecutive events in August. Three straight sub-70 rounds at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open led to a T4 finish at En-Joie GC...Was T4 at the Boeing Classic, the event where he had made his debut the year prior, posting back-to-back 67s on the weekend at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge...Was the first-round leader at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale and eventually placed 10th.

PERSONAL:

Prior to joining the Champions Tour, suffered from a rare skin condition, Stevens-Johnson syndrome. At first, doctors treated him for rheumatoid arthritis but the condition worsened and blood vessels in his arms and legs were clogged. eventually causing his skin to burn from the inside out. Skin was taken from his upper thighs and shins and grafted to the affected areas and he was "stapled back together"...Avid sport fisherman who has won a number of fishing tournaments...Youngest son, Dylan Thomas, is not named for the Irish poet...Started the game at age 9 when he would tag along to the golf course on the weekends with his father, who played at Columbus College in Georgia...Some of his favorite TV shows are "It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia," "The Universe" and "How It's Made,

How It Works"...Also enjoys watching college football...Musical tastes include the Marshall Tucker Band, Jackson Browne, and Vince Gill, among others...Says he'd love to trade places for a day with Jay Haas and his putting stroke...Favorite teams to follow as a kid were the Miami Dolphins and Florida Gators, and his favorite athlete was Jack Nicklaus...Bookmarks The Weather Channel and Sport Fishing Boats...First job he ever had was a delivery boy...Among his favorite foods are Makuch's Pepper Steak and Chicken Parmesan...Enjoys Ruth's Chris and Carraba's...Says one talent he'd most love to have is to be able to dunk a basketball!...Favorite athlete in another sport was Larry Bird of the Boston Celtics...Enjoyed the movie "Ferris Bueller's Day Off"...Would love to have the opportunity to play Pine Valley GC...His most memorable vacation was going to the Florida Keys and catching lobsters...The first concert he ever attended was the Doobie Brothers in Savannah, Ga...Most memorable shot was chipping in to win the Hawaiian Open...Supports Children's Hospital of Savannah and Stevens-Johnson syndrome...When not playing golf he enjoys fishing for marlin, tuna, dolphin or wahoo...Items on his bucket list are to travel around in his sport fishing boat with his kids while catching fish and winning on the Champions Tour.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Missed the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time in his career and failed to record a top-10 on TOUR for the first time since the 1991 season. Ended a streak of 20 consecutive years inside the top 70 on the final money list. Made 12 of 19 TOUR cuts...Made his Champions Tour debut in September at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship, finishing T6 at Kapolei GC after a final-round, 1-over 73...One of four players to post all four rounds in the 60s at the Frys.com Open (69-67-65-68) to begin the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season, finishing runner-up by two strokes to champion Jimmy Walker. It marked his first top-10 on TOUR since a T4 at the 2012 Frys.com Open (his only other start at the event). At age 50 years, 7 months, 21 days, was seeking to become the TOUR's oldest winner since Fred Funk won the 2007 Mayakoba Golf Classic at age 50 years, 8 months, 11 days...Traveled to Australia in mid-November to play in the Talisker Masters. At Royal Melbourne GC, shot a tournament-best, third-round, 8-under 63 to jump into contention. Could only shoot an even-par 71 on the final day to finish solo third, four shots behind winner Adam Scott... Lone Champions Tour start came in September when he finished T6 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. Was second after 36 holes, but a final-round 73 was his undoing...Also teamed with son, Qass, to finish T2 at the PNC Father-Son Challenge in December.

PERSONAL:

Fiji's only world-class golfer...Learned game from his father, an airplane technician who also taught golf...Admired Tom Weiskopf while growing up and used Weiskopf's swing as early model for his own...Noted for his rigorous practice routine...Once held a club professional position in Borneo...Of Indian ancestry, first name means "victory" in Hindi...Served as Honorary Chairperson for 1999 National Golf Day, PGA of America's annual fundraiser for junior golf...Teamed with son Qass in Office Depot Father-Son from 2003-2008...Established, with wife and son, the Vijay Singh Charitable Foundation, benefiting charities and non-profit agencies that provide assistance, shelter, counseling and support to women and children who are victims of domestic abuse. The Betty Griffin House of St John's County, Fla. (Safety Shelter of St. John's County), was one of the first beneficiaries of the foundation.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

For the third straight year, played in every Champions Tour event and was among the top 20 on the money list for the fifth consecutive season...Highlight of his year was in April when he won his fifth career Champions Tour title by teaming with good friend Brad Faxon for a one-stroke victory over the teams of Fred Funk-Mike Goodes and Kenny Perry-Gene Sauers in the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah. The pair fired a final-round, better-ball, score of 7-under-par 65. The round included no bogeys. With his $230,000 check, he surpassed the $25-million mark in all-time PGA TOUR and Champions Tour earnings...Almost came from seven shots back to win the 3M Championship, eventually T2 with Corey Pavin, one stroke short of winner Tom Pernice, Jr. Final-round 62 at TPC Twin Cities included birdies on the first seven holes, a Champions Tour first since 2002, and his nine-hole score of 8-under 28 was the low-nine of the season...Played in the final grouping at the inaugural Encompass Championship and finished T3 at North Shore CC...Recorded his first top-10 finish in a U.S. Senior Open when his 68 on the last day at Omaha CC was good enough for a T6...Recovered from an opening-round 76 by equaling the low round of the tournament a day later with 66 Saturday at TPC Sugarloaf. Eventually went on to finish T7 at the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship near Atlanta...Was the first-round leader after an opening-round, 7-under-par 65 at the Regions Tradition. Trailed by one shot after 36 holes. However, fell out of contention with a third-round 72 and eventually finished T8 at Shoal Creek.

PERSONAL:

Loves Formula One auto racing...Big fan of the Florida State Seminoles, Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs...Serious wine collector, owns about 2,000 bottles dating to 1957...Co-owner, with Dudley Hart, of Lakeshore GC in Rochester, N.Y., a course he played regularly growing up...Good friend of 1986 Indianapolis 500 winner Bobby Rahal...After disqualifying himself at 1996 Bay Hill Invitational, refused to take undue credit for act, quoting Bobby Jones: "It would be like congratulating someone for not robbing a bank..." Teamed with office supply retailer OfficeMax to create The Jeff Sluman & OfficeMax "Drive for Hope"—a charity fund that is poised to raise $450,000 to $750,000 for the City of Hope and other charities. . . Started in the game at age 4 but didn't think about turning pro until after his senior year of college...Favorite movies are "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," "Pulp Fiction," "Caddyshack," "Patton" and "Crash"...Followed the Pittsburgh Pirates as a kid and favorite player was Roberto Clemente...Says his most memorable shot was his 5-iron on the 72nd hole at the 1987 PLAYERS Championship...TV favorites include "30 Rock," "Curb Your Enthusiasm" and "Entourage," as well as college and pro football...His first job was working at a bowling alley (Dewey Gardens) in Rochester...His favorite meal is a Caesar salad, a dry-aged USDA prime ribeye with asparagus and a potato...Made his first ace at age 14 at Ridgemont CC in Rochester. Hit a 7-iron but never saw it go in since it was a blind hole...If he had one course to play the rest of his life it would be Pebble Beach...Purchased a Porsche after his first big golf payday...Says the one historical event he would have liked to have witnessed first hand was the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T4-3M Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(2): 1977 Canadian Amateur. 1978 Canadian Amateur.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Narrowly missed finishing in the top 30 on the money list and earning a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Ended the year No. 31...Had an good opportunity at the AT&T Championship, the final full-field event of the year. At one point was projected to finish in the 30th position during his final round but was done in by a pair of bogeys over his final nine holes, (Nos. 14 and 16)...A final-round 68 at TPC Twin Cities led to his best finish of the campaign, a T4 at the 3M Championship which got him into the Dick's Sporting Goods

Open...At that New York event, finished T7 that was a strong enough performance to earn him an invite to the Boeing Classic...Enjoyed a good week in Eastern Canada in early September when he finished T9 at the Montreal Championship...Turned in a strong performance at the Senior PGA Championship in May in St. Louis when he finished T6, his best showing in a Champions Tour major championship...Was just one stroke off the lead after an opening-round 64 at Calgary's Shaw Charity Classic, the second-lowest round of his career. Eventually finished T29...Lost in a four-hole playoff to fellow Champions Tour member Jim Rutledge at the Mr. Lube PGA Seniors' Championship of Canada in August.

PERSONAL:

Did not turn professional until 2004, working 25 years as a corporate insurance executive...Biggest thrill away from golf was becoming a grandfather...Heroes are Arnold Palmer and Bobby Orr...One of his superstitions is marking his ball on the putting green with a Canadian dime...Dream foursome would include his dad and his two sons...Favorite golf courses are Brookside CC, Scioto GC and Shoal Creek...One of the things he carries in his golf bag is one of his dad's yellow golf balls...Favorite athlete in another sport is Peyton Manning...Enjoys watching Golf Channel's "Morning Drive" and college football, while his favorite all-time movies include "Top Gun," "The Rookie" and "The Untouchables."...His first job was putting bumper stickers on cars at Marineland in Niagara Falls...Says he'd love to trade places for a day with James Bond...His favorite team as a kid was the Boston Bruins and favorite player was Orr...Two courses he'd love to play are Augusta National and St. Andrews...His most memorable shot was his par putt to win the AT&T Championship...Supports the Special Olympics in Columbus, Ohio...His bucket list includes buying a house on the beach.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Earned a spot among the top 30 on the money list for the first time since 2008, thanks largely to a surprise victory midway through the year at the inaugural Encompass Championship. Biggest of his four top-10 finishes, also the most he's had in a year since 2008, came when he holed a 12-foot par-saving putt on the last hole to avoid a playoff with Fred Couples and win at North Shore CC just outside Chicago. Victory in Illinois was his ninth career Champions Tour title and ended a winless drought of 8 years, 8 months, 28 days, an all-time Champions Tour record for longest time between victories (previous mark was held by J.C. Snead, at 6 years, 11 months, 7 days between the 1995 Ford Senior Players and the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic). Win came in his 171st start since last title at the 2004 SAS Championship. He also became the 21st winner over age 60 and the first since Bob Gilder, at the 2011 Principal Charity Classic. Was the 36-hole leader, and the margin grew to five shots early on the front nine. However, bogeys at Nos. 12 and 14 with Couples charging fast reduced his lead to a stroke, eventually setting up the key, left to right, curling putt at the 18th to preserve the win. Credited Billy Harmon, the younger brother of deceased longtime swing instructor, Dick Harmon, for helping him rework his game...Two months before winning, he and teammate Kirk Triplett were among the leaders all three rounds at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf before eventually finishing T4 in Savannah...In early August, shot rounds of 66-65 on the weekend to move into a T7 at the 3M Championship...Made the second hole-in-one of the season when he aced the 13th hole at Newport Beach CC with a 6-iron from 171 yards during the final round of the Toshiba Classic. It was his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour and first ace since the 2008 Senior Open Championship at Royal Troon in Scotland...Competed in his 37th Masters

Tournament in April but did not make the cut.

PERSONAL:

Nicknamed "The Walrus" and is one of golf's most colorful and popular personalities...A California native who lives near Denver and is an ardent fan of the NHL's Colorado Avalanche...Inducted into San Diego's Breithard Hall of Fame in February of 1996...Son Kevin turned professional and won the 2002 Colorado Open in a playoff with his father as his caddie. After playing on the Nationwide Tour in both 2004 and 2006, is now a PGA TOUR member...Kevin won the 2006 Johnnie Walker Classic on the European Tour...Younger son, Chris, played college football at Lake Forest College in Illinois and served as his dad's caddie when he won the 2003 B.C. Open...Got started in golf at age four by his father...Favorite golf course is Harbour Town on Hilton Head Island, S.C...Favorite athlete is Wayne Gretzky...Enjoys reading any book authored by Wilbur Smith...Always uses a dull penny for a ball marker...Lists Arnold Palmer as his hero.

2005 Lake Erie Charity Classic at Peek 'n Peak Resort

BEST 2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

P1–Insperty Championship. P1–Montreal Championship.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a magical season in professional golf, rising from a player with partially-exempt status to a two-time winner on the circuit, one of two rookies (Rocco Mediate) with a pair of Champions Tour victories. Earnings of more than $1.2 million were over $500,000 better than his best year on the PGA TOUR (2002)...After securing the seventh position at the 2012 Qualifying Tournament in the fall of 2012, got into events from his position-number before John Riegger and Jeff Brehaut both turned 50 in mid-June. Took full advantage of his opportunity and fittingly, first victory came on Cinco de Mayo. Became the first player from Mexico to win on the Champions Tour when he claimed the Insperty Championship near Houston, defeating Mike Goodes and Gene Sauers in a playoff to win the title after shooting a final-round 67 to come from seven strokes back and get into the overtime session. After Sauers dropped from the playoff with a bogey on the second extra hole, he made a par on the third playoff hole and then watched Goodes miss a 6-foot par-saving putt. Win came in his ninth career Champions Tour start and was his first TOUR-sponsored title since the 2005 Lake Erie Charity Classic on the Web.com Tour, ending a victory drought of 7 years,

10 months, 1 day. Matched the biggest comeback on the final day in Insperty Championship history, equaling Larry Nelson's comeback from seven shots in the inaugural event in 2004, and it was also the biggest come-from-behind win on the 2013 Champions Tour...Added a second title in early September when he chipped in from 35 feet on the third playoff hole to defeat Kenny Perry at the Montreal Championship. Started the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader Bernhard Langer and trailed Perry by two late in the final round. Playing in a group one ahead of Perry, he made a birdie at No. 16 to pull within one, and minutes later, Perry dropped into a tie after a bogey at No. 17, leaving the pair tied at 5-under-par 211 at the end of regulation. After each made pars on No. 18 twice, he chipped in for the win at No. 10 for the win...Posted rounds of 69-67 on the weekend at Shoal Creek in June to post a T3 finish at the Regions Tradition...Also, matched the low round of the day Sunday, shooting 66 at Kapolei to move up into a T4 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship...Earlier in the year, was a late addition to the field at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf and partnered Mark O'Meara to a T4 finish in the better-ball, team event in Savannah...Played with a heavy heart at the Toshiba Classic after learning of his older brother Mario's death prior to the start of the event. Shot three consecutive 68s to finish T6 at Newport Beach CC, the venue where he was previously an honorary member. Traveled to Mexicali, Mexico, for the funeral Thursday of tournament week...Was the 36-hole leader at the Greater Gwinnett Championship, and played in the final grouping in the final round. Shot 75 to drop back into a T7 at the TPC Sugarloaf near Atlanta. Held the lead at the start of the back nine but was done in by consecutive double bogeys at Nos. 11 and 12...Made one start, at the PGA TOUR's OHL Classic at Mayakoba, but missed the cut.

PERSONAL:

Learned to play golf while working at a driving range in Mexico. Youngest of 11 children who grew up in a home with dirt floors and no plumbing. Was a professional boxer for four years, but appendicitis ended that career. Had 16-1 record. As youngster, fished balls out of pond at Mexicali CC and sold them back to golfers. A future dream is to build a church for impoverished children in the La Posalera section of Mexicali. Featured on HBO's "Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel" in 2002 and hosted "Inside the PGA TOUR" on Feb. 22, 2004. Ambassador of To Get a Grip Foundation, which makes golf and education accessible to all children. Also hosts the Esteban Toledo PGA TOUR Pro-Am every February, benefiting the Foundation. Nominated by 2003 Hispanic Chamber of Commerce as top Hispanic sports figure of the year...In January 2007, while riding in a car on a Los Angeles freeway, he rescued two sisters after their car collided with another, then crashed into a divider, flipped, rolled over twice and stopped on its roof. He pulled them from the wreck, called 911 and took control of the situation until paramedics arrived...Is a big supporter of Mexico's national soccer team and favorite athlete was Hugo Sanchez, a striker on the national team who also played professionally in Europe...Enjoys cooking, and lists "Pretty Woman" as his favorite movie.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in a solid second Champions Tour season, finishing among the top-10 on the money list, thanks to 13 top-10s in 22 starts...Played his best golf in the second half of the year when he recorded seven straight top-10 performances and nine top-10s in a span of 10 tournaments starting at the U.S. Senior Open. At one point during his run, recorded 14 consecutive sub-par rounds, equaling Tom Pernice, Jr.'s 14 sub-par rounds in a row as a Champions Tour season-best...Named the Champions Tour's September Player of the Month...Highlight of his year came during that month when he defended his title at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late September. Started the final round three strokes behind 36-hole leader Tom Lehman, but a bogey-free 68 at Pebble Beach gave him his second career Champions Tour title. In addition to his win, he also teamed with Michelle Xie to win the pro-junior competition. Second straight win at Pebble Beach made him the first player to successfully defend a title since Lehman went back to back at the 2011 and 2012 Regions Tradition. He was also the first player whose first two wins came in the same event since John Cook at the AT&T Championship in 2007 and 2008...Made a bid for a win in his next start, at the SAS Championship at Prestonwood CC. Shot three consecutive rounds in the 60s and was in the final grouping Sunday before eventually placing third. Saw his streak of consecutive holes without a three-putt end at 191 consecutive...In his next start after the SAS Championship in late-October, was among the leaders all three rounds at the AT&T Championship before posting a T3 finish...In early June, birdied three of his last four holes to shoot 67 Sunday and move into a T3 at The Principal Charity Classic...Run of consecutive top-10s late in the year started with a T3 at the Shaw Charity Classic, where he was on the leaderboard throughout at Canyon Meadows CC in Calgary...In late-April, teamed with Craig Stadler for a T4 finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. The pair was among the leaders all three days before falling two strokes shy Sunday.

PERSONAL:

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was the only player among the top 10 on the Charles Schwab Cup points list without a victory, and his 12 top-10 performances were also the most by a player during the season without a victory. Was among the leaders throughout the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in late June and held the Sunday lead at one point, fueled by an opening-round, 6-under-par 29 on the front nine. Even-par back nine led to 64 and a T2 performance, two strokes back of Kenny Perry...Was the 36-hole leader at The Principal Charity Classic but could only manage a 1-under 71 in the final round at the Wakonda Club and finished T3 in Iowa...Registered back-to-back third-place finishes in Canada during late summer. Shot three straight rounds in the 60s to finish T3 at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary...One week later, continued his stellar play with a third-place finish at the Montreal Championship, finishing one stroke shy of a playoff with Kenny Perry and eventual-winner Esteban Toledo...Registered consecutive fourth-place efforts during August. Moved into contention after a 65 Saturday at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, but eventually placed T4 after a Sunday 69. The following week, used a birdie-birdie-eagle finish at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge to vault into a T4 at the Boeing Classic...Had four straight top-10s in senior majors. In June, sat atop the leaderboard after 36 holes of the Tour's second major, the Regions Tradition, after rounds of 67-68. Shot 71-70 on the weekend and eventually slipped to a T5 finish in Alabama...Shared the first-round lead with Jay Haas at the Senior PGA Championship in May after a 5-under-par 66. Was on the leaderboard for most of the event before eventually finishing T6...After runner-up effort at Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS, shot a closing-round 67 at Omaha CC to move up into a T9 at the U.S. Senior Open...Made three appearances on the PGA TOUR, finishing T39 at the Puerto Rico Open and T48 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship while missing the cut at the Valero Texas Open...Made one Web.com Tour start, finishing 64th at the South Georgia Classic in Valdosta.

PERSONAL:

He is a connoisseur of fine wine...His family and occasional others adorn the golf balls he uses each week with messages and designs. During his 2000 victory at Walt Disney World Resort, there was a picture of Mickey Mouse on one side of the golf ball and on the other side, his wife wrote, "Mouse in the House"...Got his nickname Duffy from his grandparents when he was small. Tagged along on the golf course and they called him "Little Duffer."

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 1989 Colorado Open.

2013 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Claimed multiple titles for the first time in his career, with both tournament victories coming in the second half of the season. Claimed his pair of titles in play-offs. His first victory came across the pond in England. Won the biggest event of his career in improbable fashion, capturing The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale by coming from four strokes back Sunday with a final-round 66 and then outlasting Bernhard Langer in a five-hole playoff. Got into the playoff when Langer double-bogeyed the 18th hole. Won the playoff Monday morning with a par when darkness forced the suspension of play Sunday night after both players halved two holes with pars. After both made a par and a bogey on the third and fourth extra holes, he two-putted from 35 feet for his par on the fifth while Langer chipped 12 feet past the hole and then missed his par effort. Four-stroke comeback was the largest in a final round in Senior Open Championship history, and the victory was his first in almost two years, ending a drought of 49 events...Seven events later, defeated Corey Pavin in a playoff for the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. Holed a 20-foot par putt on the second extra hole and then watched Pavin miss his 10-foot par attempt moments later. Went wire to wire for his fifth career title...Spent the first part of the season recovering from elbow and lower-back issues and had not registered a top-10 performance all season prior to his Senior Open Championship triumph.

PERSONAL:

Conducts a charity golf tournament annually for the benefit of Adam's Camp, a Colorado-based non-profit organization created to provide a variety of intensive, personalized and integrated therapeutic programs for children with special needs and their

John Cook sank a 12-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat David Frost and win the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai for the second time in the last three years. Cook played all 54 holes in regulation without a bogey. It was Cook's second playoff win on the Champions Tour. His other came in 2011 when he beat Jay Don Blake to win the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Bernhard Langer made a late final-round run, shooting an 8-under-par 64, but fell one shot shy of the playoff.

The victory was the ninth Champions Tour title for John Cook, a player who also won 11 times on the PGA TOUR.

John Cook became the third player to play all three rounds bogey-free at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, joining D.A. Weibring (2006, tied for third) and Corey Pavin (2011, finished sixth). He was also the 12th player to play bogey-free and win an event.

John Cook is the sixth player to post multiple wins in this tournament. The others were Miller Barber, Al Geiberger, George Archer, Dana Quigley and Hale Irwin.

Kenny Perry and Bernhard Langer each fired final-round, 8-under-par 64s to post the low rounds for the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Langer's final score included a stretch of 11 holes midway through his round where he made nine birdies, including five in a row. Langer finished third overall, one stroke shy of the playoff, while Perry tied for fifth.

In his 400th Champions Tour start, Hale Irwin tied for ninth at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, increasing his record total of top-10 finishes on the Champions Tour to 209.

Steve Elkington tied for ninth in his Champions Tour debut.

John Cook, David Frost, Bernhard Langer, Fred Couples and Kirk Triplett all posted three rounds in the 60s.

Cut: There was no cut; all 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Mostly cloudy, with occasional sprinkles early before becoming partly sunny in the afternoon, with highs in the low-80s and WNW wind at 5-15 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy with a few sprinkles and a high of 78. Wind NE at 10-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. Sunday: Mostly cloudy, with a few light showers and highs in the upper-70s. Wind E at 10-20 mph, with gusts to 25 mph.

Tournament Record:

199 - John Cook (2010), Bernhard Langer (2010)

Current Course Record:

63 - The Old Course at Broken Sound - Craig Stadler (2007)

Rocco Mediate's final-round 71 was good enough for a win in his Champions Tour debut. Mediate started Sunday with a three-stroke lead but found himself tied with Tom Pernice, Jr., after 14 holes and Bernhard Langer lurking only one stroke back. The tournament swung in Mediate's favor at the par-4 17th when Pernice could not get up and down from a greenside bunker, missing an 8-foot par putt. Langer meanwhile, three-putted from 35 feet for bogey. With a one-stroke lead, Mediate avoided tree trouble in the 18th fairway, and after his second shot ran just through the back of the green on the par-5, he pitched to within 2 feet of the hole and tapped in for victory.

At 50 years, 1 month, 24 days, Rocco Mediate became the Allianz Championship's youngest winner, surpassing Tom Lehman (51 years, 11 months, 6 days) in 2011.

Rocco Mediate also became the third player in the last five years to make the Allianz Championship his first Champions Tour win. Both Mike Goodes (2009) and Corey Pavin (2012) won their only Champions Tour titles at this tournament.

Rocco Mediate became the 16th player in Champions Tour history and first since Tom Pernice, Jr., at the 2009 SAS Championship (3 years, 4 months, 14 days), to win in his Champions Tour debut.

Rocco Mediate set a new 18- and 36-hole tournament record in Saturday's second round. His 11-under-par 61 broke Craig Stadler's 18-hole record (63 in the first round in 2007), and his 36-hole total of 16-under-par 128 erased the old mark of 13-under-par 131 set in 2010 by Tommy Armour III and Scott Simpson.

Bobby Wadkins made the second hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career when he aced No. 8 with a 6-iron from 164 yards in the second round. It was the fourth in this event and third on No. 8.

Bart Bryant, playing with his brother Brad Bryant for the first time since the second round of the PGA TOUR's FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort in 2005 (7 years, 3 months, 18 days), shot 5-under 67 in his debut round on the Champions Tour and went on to tie for 33rd. Taiwan's Chie-Hsaing Lin also made his Champions Tour debut and tied for 75th.

Defending champion Corey Pavin made 17 birdies and tied for fourth. As a result, the Moabery Family Foundation contributed $17,000 to the nonprofit Boca Raton Champions Golf Charities ($1,000 per birdie). Tom Lehman, sponsored by Allianz, also made 17 birdies during the week. As a result of Lehman's 17 birdies, $17,000 went to the South Florida chapter of Junior Achievement and the Southeast Florida Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association.

Bernhard Langer, Corey Pavin and Mark O'Meara all posted three rounds in the 60s. In 2012, there were no players with three straight scores in the 60s and, in 2011, only champion Tom Lehman recorded three straight sub-70 rounds.

John Cook tied for ninth. Cook has shot under par in each of the 18 rounds he's played at The Old Course at Broken Sound during his Champions Tour career.

Cut: There was no cut; 79 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Thursday: The first front moved through the area and a series of heavy showers stopped the afternoon pro-am at 3:22 p.m., with more than two inches of rain saturating the golf course. Friday: A light rain continued to fall for most of the day. Officials allowed preferred lies, with temperatures reaching the upper-60s. Saturday: Partly cloudy. A second front moved through the area during the afternoon. Temperatures reached 70, with afternoon WNW wind at 10-20 mph, with higher gusts. Sunday: The front moved through the area overnight and temperatures only reached 61, with N wind at 10-15 throughout the day.

Tournament Record:
 196 - Kenny Perry (2012), Bernhard Langer (2011)

Current Course Record:
 62 - TwinEagles GC (Talon Course) - Larry Mize (2012), Kenny Perry (2012)

Bernhard Langer's scrambling bogey 5 at the par-4 15th hole helped to preserve a one-stroke victory over Jay Don Blake. After Langer saved a bogey at No. 15, he then made three routine pars coming home to win for the second time in three years in Naples. Langer was seemingly in full control early in the final round after making two birdies in his first three holes to open up a four-stroke cushion. However, Langer's double-bogey at the fourth hole and subsequent back-to-back bogeys at Nos. 9-10 dropped him into a three-way tie for the lead. Blake temporarily moved in front after a birdie at the par-5 13th hole, but he played his final five holes in 1-over, missing a par putt from 3 feet at No. 16, that ultimately left him one stroke short. Langer regrouped with birdies at the 13th and 14th, but it was his bogey save at the par-4 15th that proved to be the difference. After hitting his approach shot with a wedge from the middle of the fairway into the water, Langer took a penalty drop, rifled a lob wedge to within 5 feet from the flag and converted the putt. Blake could apply no more pressure to Langer, and when his 19-foot birdie putt grazed the last hole, it allowed Langer to two-putt from 50 feet for the par and victory.

Bernhard Langer's second win in three years (2011), allowed him to become the sixth player in the 26-year history of the event to win this event twice. Lee Trevino (1990-91), Mike Hill (1993-94), Hale Irwin (1997 and 2002), Gil Morgan (1998 and 2001), and Loren Roberts (2006 and 2009) are the others.

Bernhard Langer became the third player to win The ACE Group Classic in wire-to-wire fashion, joining Lee Trevino (1990) and Allen Doyle (1999).

Bernhard Langer's final-round 72 matched the highest Sunday score by a winner in tournament history (Craig Stadler in 2004). His 62 in the opening round was the best start by a winner in The ACE Group Classic history.

Bernhard Langer's first-round, three-stroke advantage was the largest opening-round margin since Dale Douglass led after the first round in 1991 by a record four strokes.

Since winning the 2012 Boeing Classic, Jay Don Blake has finished second twice, and both times he's been a runner-up to Bernhard Langer.

In his first appearance on the Champions Tour in more than a year (2011 AT&T Championship), Scott Hoch tied for 20th. Hoch had been struggling with hand and wrist issues that kept him out of action throughout the 2012 season.

Defending champion Kenny Perry tied for 10th, thanks to a final-round 69. Tuesday following the tournament, Perry underwent left knee surgery for a torn meniscus.

Champions Tour pros, caddies, volunteers, spectators and staff accepted a friendly challenge to track the miles walked during the week of The ACE Group Classic. The NCH Healthcare System Foundation received a $10,000 donation from The ACE Group Classic for its winning efforts.

David Frost shook off some early jitters and then won going away. Frost completed the wire-to-wire victory with a final-round 65. Despite briefly being tied for the lead with Fred Couples after a bogey at the opening hole, Frost rallied quickly, making four birdies over his next five holes to earn a four-stroke advantage heading to the seventh tee. Couples managed to pull within one stroke of Frost after making birdie at No. 10, but that would be as close as he would get as Frost pulled away with birdies on four of the last five holes, including a 45-footer from the front of the 17th green. Frost's closing birdie on the final hole allowed him to tie Jay Haas' tournament record score of 19-under 194 set in 2007. He also matched the largest winning margin in Toshiba Classic history, five strokes by Hale Irwin in 2002.

David Frost's Toshiba Classic win was his second Champions Tour title in his last six starts, dating to his triumph at the 2012 AT&T Championship. Frost also won the MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius on the European Senior Tour in December of 2012.

David Frost became the sixth different international player to win the Toshiba Classic, joining Jose Maria Canizares (2001), Rodger Davis (2003), Bernhard Langer (2008), Eduardo Romero (2009) and Nick Price (2011).

David Frost became just the second wire-to-wire winner in tournament history, joining Nick Price (2011).

Craig Stadler aced the 13th hole with a 6-iron from 171 yards for just the third hole-in-one in Toshiba Classic history. It was the first ace at Newport Beach Country Club since 2006, and the second made at No. 13 (Sammy Rachels/first round in 2002).

Canadian Jim Rutledge carded his career-low round on the Champions Tour, and his bogey-free, 9-under 62 matched the best final-round score in tournament history. Both Hale Irwin (1998) and Tom Watson (2010) shot 62s Sunday at Newport Beach Country Club.

Defending champion Loren Roberts tied for 39th in 2013, and his final-round, 1-over 72 snapped his streak of sub-par scores at Newport Beach Country Club at 12 consecutive.

Cut: There was no cut; 79 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Mostly cloudy and breezy, with occasional afternoon showers. Highs were in the upper 60s with SE wind at 10-15 mph with some higher gusts. Saturday: Cloudy and humid, with passing afternoon showers. A brief thunderstorm moved through the area, causing a suspension of play from 1:04-2:30 p.m. Highs in the low-70s, with SE wind at 5-10 mph. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect. Sunday: Sunny and breezy, with highs in the low-70s. Wind NW at 10-15 mph, with some gusts to 25 mph.

Tournament Record:
 200 - Tom Lehman (2011)
Current Course Record:
 63 - Fallen Oak - Fred Couples (2012)

One year after having his bid for victory stifled when Fred Couples birdied the 54th hole, Michael Allen made sure he didn't suffer the same fate two years in a row. Closing with a final-round, 5-under-par 67, he finished one stroke better than Bernhard Langer at Fallen Oak. Leading by one shot heading to No. 18, Allen missed a 4-foot putt for par to temporarily drop back into a tie for the lead with Langer, who was two holes behind. Moments after Allen's miss, Langer bogeyed No. 16 after his second shot plugged in the bunker. Langer was unable to recover from that error, giving Allen the title.

With his victory, Michael Allen won his fourth Champions Tour title, his third within a 12-month period. It was his 63rd Champions Tour start.

With his tie for sixth, David Frost posted his eighth consecutive top-10 finish, dating to 2012. During the stretch he won twice and earned $1,008,000, an average of $126,000 per start.

Defending champion Fred Couples tied for 12th after a closing-round, 2-over 74.

Former PGA TOUR winners Brian Henninger (tied for 44th) and John Inman (tied for 48th) made their Champions Tour debuts.

The most-difficult hole was the par-4 second, with an average score of 4.278. There were just 17 birdies on the hole over the three rounds, including seven Sunday. The easiest was the par-5 sixth, with an average of 4.614.

Corey Pavin made six consecutive birdies to start his second round for the second best streak on the Champions Tour in 2013.

Cut: There was no cut, 75 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: The tournament start was delayed for four hours as a front moved through the area, producing a steady rain in the morning and eventually, cooler temperatures in the afternoon. Play started at 3 p.m. after the course absorbed 0.4 inches of rain, and lift, clean and place conditions were utilized. Temperature at the start of the day was in the low-70s, but at the time of the suspension it had fallen into the mid-40s. The first round was suspended for the day due to darkness at 8:05 p.m., with 57 players left to complete their opening rounds. Saturday: The opening round of the tournament restarted at 8 a.m., under sunny skies. with temperatures in the high-30s. Players completed the round at 10:15 a.m. Highs during the afternoon were in the mid-60s. Wind from the NNW at 10-15 mph. Sunday: Sunny, with highs in the upper-60s and NE wind at 10-15 mph.

Bernhard Langer used a clutch chip-in birdie on the 10th hole and two more birdies on the final three holes to ease past Tom Lehman (his partner at the following week's Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf) and Tom Pernice, Jr., to win the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship by three strokes at TPC Sugarloaf. It was Langer's son, Jason, who figured in the morning that his father would need 67 to win. Despite breezy conditions, that's exactly the score Langer shot. The World Golf Hall of Famer took the lead with three straight birdies (Nos. 3-5) on the front nine and shook off a three-putt bogey at the par-4 seventh. Pernice appeared as if he might stage a late rally when he holed an 8-iron second shot from 157 yards for an eagle at the par-4 15th hole to close to within two of Langer's lead.

Bernhard Langer claimed his fourth career title in Georgia (1985 and 1993 Masters Tournament and the 2009 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf with Tom Lehman as his partner). Bernhard Langer's 73 in the opening round was the highest start by a winner on the Champions Tour since Russ Cochran opened with 73 and still won the 2010 Posco E&C Songdo Championship in South Korea.

Two former winners of the PGA TOUR's BellSouth Classic finished among the top 10 in the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship. Mark Calcavecchia, a winner at Atlanta Country Club in 1995, tied for fifth at TPC Sugarloaf, while Wayne Levi, a two-time winner at Atlanta Country Club, in 1985 and 1990, tied for seventh.

Bernhard Langer won for the second time in his last four starts on the Champions Tour (The ACE Group Classic), becoming the first two-time winner in 2013. His win also marked the fifth time in his six full seasons on the Champions Tour that he's claimed multiple titles.

The field scoring average for the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship was 73.744, the highest for a non-major championship since the 2008 Ginn Championship (74.280). Just 16 players broke par in the 54-hole tournament. Both Bernhard Langer and Jeff Sluman shot 66 Saturday, the lowest rounds of the tournament.

Brad Faxon and Jeff Sluman fired a final-round, 7-under-par 65 to post a one-stroke victory over the teams of Fred Funk/Mike Goodes and Kenny Perry/Gene Sauers. The leaderboard changed several times during the final round but Faxon and Sluman prevailed with their bogey-free final round. Their decisive birdie came at No. 14 when Sluman made an eight-foot putt. Sluman had been a two-time runner-up previously when he teamed with Craig Stadler in 2008 and 2009. They lost in a two-hole playoff with Bernhard Langer and Tom Lehman in 2009. Sluman and Faxon also tied for third in 2012.

Brad Faxon and Jeff Sluman each won $230,000 with the victory as well as 230 points in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race. The pair also earned a two-year exemption to the season-opening event in Hawaii, the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

With his winner's check for $230,000, Jeff Sluman surpassed the $25-million mark in career earnings in combined PGA TOUR and Champions Tour events ($25,080,658).

Savannah native Gene Sauers tied for second with his partner, Kenny Perry. Sauers was an alternate at the start of the week and was slated to play in the Raphael Division with Ian Baker-Finch, but when officials disqualified Russ Cochran for missing his pro-am time, Sauers slid over to play with Perry. The result was a check for Perry and Sauers of $123,000 apiece.

With Jay Don Blake and Roger Chapman tying for 16th, it marked the fifth consecutive year the second-round leaders have failed to go on to win the event. The last team to lead after two rounds and win the event was Andy North and Tom Watson in 2008.

Joe Daley made the third Champions Tour hole-in-one of the year and the 10th in tournament history, when he aced No. 8 from 178 yards with a 7-iron in Sunday's final round. The ace was Daley's first since turning 50.

Esteban Toledo, who was a late addition to the field when Nick Price withdrew, picked up $57,125 by teaming with Mark O'Meara.

It turned out to be a great week for Bart Bryant. The three-time PGA TOUR winner wasn't even entered in the field when the week began. His partner, Ian Baker-Finch, was originally slated to play with Eduardo Romero, but Romero withdrew due to illness. Gene Sauers became his replacement, but when an opening occurred in the Legends Division (Russ Cochran was disqualified), Sauers moved over to team with Kenny Perry. Jim Rutledge became Baker-Finch's third partner, but John Huston's withdrawal also earned Rutledge a spot in the Legends Division, with Gary Hallberg. Contacted Thursday afternoon, Bryant drove from his home in Orlando and arrived late that evening having never seen the golf course. After sitting through the start of the Legends Division and the possibility of another withdrawal, which would have moved him to the Legends Division, Bryant finally joined Baker-Finch at the start of the Raphael Division. Baker-Finch rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt on the third extra hole to give the pair the title in the 36-hole Raphael Division over Blaine McCallister and Keith Fergus. The teams finished at 14-under 130 and matched birdies on the first two extra holes before Baker-Finch made his putt for the win. Baker-Finch and Bryant each won $60,000.

Tournament Record:
 191 - Bernhard Langer (2007)

Tournament Course Record:
 62 - Michael Allen (2011)

On Cinco de Mayo, Mexico's Esteban Toledo two-putted for a par from 12 feet on No. 17, the third playoff hole, and then watched Mike Goodes miss a 6-foot par putt to hand him his first career Champions Tour title. Gene Sauers, the third member of the playoff and the 36-hole tournament leader, appeared headed to victory until making a triple bogey-8 at the par-5 15th hole, the easiest on the course. He hit his tee shot out of bounds and then three-putted. He was eliminated on the second playoff hole after hitting his 8-iron second shot into the water at No. 18. Toledo started the final round seven strokes behind Sauers, and he eventually shot 67, equaling the best Sunday round.

Esteban Toledo claimed his first Champions Tour victory in his ninth career start. He joined Rocco Mediate as a first-time winner and second rookie to win on the 2013 Champions Tour.

Esteban Toledo became the first player from Mexico to win on the Champions Tour.

Esteban Toledo became the first Q-school graduate to win on the Champions Tour since Eduardo Romero won the 2006 JELD-WEN Tradition in Oregon. Toledo finished seventh at the 2012 Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament.

Esteban Toledo matched the largest come-from-behind win in Insperity Championship history, coming from seven strokes back to equal what Larry Nelson did when he won the inaugural event in 2004.

Only seven players broke par in the tournament, the fewest in a 54-hole event since only five players finished below par at the 2007 Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

The 2013 playoff was only the second in tournament history and the first since 2004 when Larry Nelson beat Hale Irwin with a birdie on the first extra hole at Augusta Pines.

The field average for the 2013 Insperity Championship was 74.643, easily the highest ever for this event. The previous highest-scoring average at The Woodlands Country Club was 72.554 in 2009 when the course ranked as the ninth hardest of 26 events.

Tom Kite made his first career Champions Tour ace when he made a hole-in-one in the opening round, holing his tee shot from 194 yards with a 7-iron on the par-3 16th hole. Kite had played 17,674 official holes on the Champions Tour before his ace. He made two aces during his PGA TOUR career.

Dave Stockton, Johnny Miller and Tony Jacklin teamed to shoot 11-under and win the second annual 3M Oil & Gas Greats of Golf Competition following the second round. The defending champions, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player finished second, four strokes back.

Bryan Naugle, the executive director of the Insperity Championship, was the recipient of the 2013 Dave Marr Award, awarded annually to honor individuals who exemplify sportsmanship, honesty, character, integrity and a passion for the game of golf.

Kohki Idoki's first trip to the United States will always be a memorable one. A long-time player on the Japan Golf Tour, Idoki surprised a star-studded field with a two-stroke victory over Jay Haas and Kenny Perry at the 74th Senior PGA Championship. Perry started the day with a two-stroke advantage over Haas and looked to be in control with birdies on three of his first five holes. But he failed to make another birdie until the final hole when the contest had already been decided. Idoki started five strokes back but played a bogey-free final round, taking the lead for good when he made a 15-foot downhill birdie putt at No. 17.

Kohki Idoki, who resides in Osaka, became the first Asian player to win a Champions Tour major championship, and he earned a full one-year exemption (through May 26, 2014) on Tour as well as a five-year exemption into the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

With his victory, Kohki Idoki joined 23 previous players who won the Senior PGA Championship in their first attempts. Since the start of the Champions Tour in 1980, that group includes, Arnold Palmer (1980), Miller Barber (1981), Gary Player (1986), Tom Wargo (1993), Hale Irwin (1996), Allen Doyle (1999), Doug Tewell (2000), Fuzzy Zoeller (2002), Mike Reid (2005), Denis Watson (2007) and Michael Allen (2009).

Kohki Idoki became the second consecutive first-time and rookie winner on the Champions Tour, following Esteban Toledo's victory at the Insuperity Championship. In addition, rookie Rocco Mediate was a first-time winner earlier this year at the Allianz Championship.

Kohki Idoki became the second player from Japan to win a Champions Tour event, joining World Golf Hall of Famer Isao Aoki. Aoki is a nine-time Champions Tour winner.

Bernhard Langer rebounded from a disastrous opening-round, 8-over 79 Thursday. He followed with three consecutive rounds of 67 and played bogey-free golf over his final 55 holes.

Jim Rutledge shot a final-round, 7-under-par 64, the low round of the week. He tied for sixth, matching his best finish at the time, on the Champions Tour (also tied for sixth at the 2011 Allianz Championship).

Jeff Coston (Blaine, Wash.) and Mark Mielke (East Norwich, N.Y.) shared honors as the low club professionals in the field. Each finished with 72-hole scores of even-par 284 and tied for 28th.

None of the players in the field posted four straight sub-par rounds.

The overall scoring average for the event was 72.80, and the most-difficult hole was the par-3 sixth, with an average score of 3.486. The par-5 fourth hole was the easiest, at 4.686.

Three Japanese players finished the tournament with the fewest putts, including 2013 champion Kohki Idoki. The others were Joe Ozaki and Kazuhiro Takami. They all had 108 putts for the week.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 players completed all 54 holes.

Weather: A series of thunderstorms rolled through the area Monday morning producing almost four inches of rain. Rain returned to the area Wednesday and Thursday. Friday: Sunny and breezy, with temperatures in the mid-70s and SW wind at 10-20 mph. Officials used preferred lies. Saturday: Cloudy, with highs only in the upper-60s and W wind at 10-15 mph. Again, players were allowed to use preferred lies. Sunday: Overcast and cool in the morning, with NNW wind at 10-15 mph. Sunny in the afternoon, with wind decreasing to 5-10 mph.

Tournament Record:
 197 - Jay Haas (2012), Gil Morgan (2006)

Tournament Course Record:
 62 - Kirk Triplett (2012) - Glen Oaks CC

Russ Cochran outlasted Jay Don Blake for his fourth career victory on the Champions Tour despite a three-putt bogey at No. 16 that originally seemed to damage his chances for victory. Cochran's bogey dropped him into a tie with Blake, and he made a clutch two-putt par from 50 feet at the par-3 17th to remain tied. But as Cochran was walking up to the 18th green, Blake three-putted from 50 feet at No. 17 and suddenly Cochran had the lead for good. After Cochran made par to finish his round, he then watched as Blake's birdie bid from 8 feet to tie at the final hole slid just right of the cup. Midway through the final round, Blake appeared to be riding the momentum after making six birdies in a nine-hole stretch to briefly seize the lead from Cochran. However, Cochran birdied the par-5 13th hole from 12 feet to move back into a tie with Blake. Blake's undoing down the stretch was his inability to birdie either of the par-5s on the back nine, missing a 2-footer on the 13th hole and then failing to get up and down from the greenside bunker for birdie at No. 15.

Russ Cochran won The Principal Charity Classic in his fourth appearance. Cochran's previous-best performance in the Principal event was a tie for fifth in 2010.

Russ Cochran's 11-under-par 205 total was the highest-winning score at The Principal Charity Classic since Mark McNulty won the 2009 event in a playoff after shooting 10-under 203 at Glen Oaks Country Club.

Russ Cochran's opening-round 71 was the highest start by a winner in tournament history. He became the first player to shoot any round in the 70s and win The Principal Charity Classic since Jay Haas in 2008. He was also just the fourth winner ever to do that (D.A. Weibring in 2004 and Tom Jenkins in 2005).

After his victory, Russ Cochran announced he was donating five special-needs bicycles to Variety - The Children's Charity from his winnings. Each of the bikes costs between $1,500-$3,000.

Defending champion Jay Haas carded a final-round 68 but tied for seventh in his bid to win a fourth Principal Charity Classic title. It marked the first time Haas recorded a top-10 finish in Des Moines and didn't win the tournament.

Former European Ryder Cup captain and 1991 Masters champion Ian Woosnam recorded his career-best finish in a Champions Tour stroke-play event when he tied for seventh in Des Moines. Woosnam teamed with Sandy Lyle to tie for third at the 2008 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, a two-man, better-ball event. His previous-best at stroke-play was a tie for eighth at the 2010 Senior Open Championship.

Doug Garwood's first Champions Tour start was productive. A veteran of the Web.com Tour, with 95 appearances on the circuit, Garwood turned 50 on March 31 and open-qualified for the tournament before tying for seventh and earning $45,281.

The par-72 Wakonda Club played to a field average of 72.577 in its first year as the venue for The Principal Charity Classic. It was the highest scoring average in a Principal Charity Classic since 2004 when the par-71 Glen Oaks Country Club course in West Des Moines played to a stroke average of 72.797. Players made 12 eagles and 707 birdies. In 2012, at Glen Oaks, there were 19 eagles made and 790 birdies.

David Frost edged Fred Couples by one stroke for his first senior major championship, capturing the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek after both players carded 68s in the final round. Down the stretch, both Frost and Couples matched birdies at the 16th hole to separate themselves from the rest of the field. Frost maintained his one-stroke advantage when Couples hit an indifferent pitch for a third shot on the par-5 17th hole and then missed his 30-foot birdie putt. On the par-4 18th, Frost rifled an 8-iron shot over the top of the flag to within 10 feet of the hole. But Couples followed by hitting his approach 12 feet away. Couples' birdie bid to tie slid by the cup on the left side, allowing Frost to two-putt for the victory.

David Frost's previous-best Champions Tour major championship finish was a three-way playoff loss to Tom Lehman at the 2010 Senior PGA Championship, a playoff which also included Fred Couples.

David Frost's Regions Tradition victory was his second Champions Tour title in seven starts (Toshiba Classic), and he joined Bernhard Langer as the second player with multiple wins in 2013.

Bernhard Langer's 9-under-par, final-round 63 included 10 birdies and was not only the best round posted at the Regions Tradition since the event relocated to Shoal Creek in 2011 but also matched Gary Player's course record set in the second round of the 1984 PGA Championship.

Peter Senior tied for 12th, and his check for $44,733 moved him ahead of Joey Sindelar with the most career money won on the Champions Tour without a win. Senior had earned $3,784,986 at this point, while Sindelar was second, with $3,777,748, in career money without a title.

South African David Frost became the fourth international player to win the Regions Tradition, joining Australia's Graham Marsh (1999), Argentina's Eduardo Romero (2006) and Zimbabwe's Mark McNulty (2007).

David Frost won the Regions Tradition in his fourth appearance. His previous-best finish in this event was 11th in 2011.

Tom Lehman fell short in his quest for a third straight Regions Tradition title, tying for 23rd.

Michael Allen, with his tie for fifth, became the only player to post top-10 finishes in each of the three Regions Traditions that have been played at Shoal Creek. Allen was fourth in 2011 and tied for ninth in 2012.

For the second straight year, a player made 23 birdies in the event. In 2013, it was winner David Frost. In 2012, Brad Bryant had 23 birdies.

Cut: There was no cut; all 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Mostly cloudy, with highs in the mid-80s and wind in the morning from the SW at 5-15 mph. A thunderstorm moved into the area, and officials suspended play from 12:22-3:50 p.m. After the round resumed, the temperatures dropped into the mid-70s and wind blew briefly at 15-25 mph. Officials eventually suspended play for the day at 8:21 p.m. due to darkness, with 23 players left to finish their opening rounds. Saturday: The first round resumed at 7:30 a.m. and was completed at 8:54 a.m. Early morning showers gave way to mostly cloudy weather, with occasional sun breaks during the afternoon hours. Highs were in the mid-80s, with WSW wind at 5-15 mph. Sunday: A mix of sun and clouds, with highs in the mid-80s. SSW Wind at 10-20 mph.

Craig Stadler made a 12-foot, par-saving putt on the last hole to avoid a playoff with Fred Couples and win the inaugural Encompass Championship just north of Chicago. After making four birdies in his first six holes to open a five-stroke lead, Stadler began to waver down the stretch, and bogeys at the 12th and 14th holes reduced his lead to a stroke. However, Couples bogeyed the last hole from the middle of the 18th fairway, hitting his second shot into the bunker right of the green. But Stadler bogeyed the 15th hole just moments later, failing to get up and down from the greenside bunker. After two-putting from 35 feet for a par at the 211-yard, par-3 17th hole to preserve his one-stroke advantage, Stadler ripped a drive down the middle of the 18th fairway. With Couples posted at 12-under and waiting to see if there would be a playoff, Stadler pushed his second shot into the same bunker at No. 18 that got Couples' ball earlier in the day. After an indifferent bunker shot, Stadler then holed a curling left-to-right breaking putt for victory. It marked the first time since David Frost's win at the Toshiba Classic in March that a Saturday leader went on to claim a 54-hole Champions Tour event.

Craig Stadler won his ninth career title on the Champions Tour and ended a victory drought of 8 years, 8 months, 28 days, breaking the Champions Tour's all-time mark for longest time between victories. (J.C. Sneed previously held the record of 6 years, 11 months, 7 days (1995 Ford Senior Players Championship-2002 Greater Baltimore Classic).

Craig Stadler's win came in his 171st Champions Tour start since his last victory at the 2004 SAS Championship.

Craig Stadler became the 21st winner over age 60 in Champions Tour history. He became the first to win since Bob Gilder won the 2011 Principal Charity Classic.

Craig Stadler won an inaugural event for the second time in his Champions Tour career. He also won the first playing of The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach (2004).

Fred Couples' final-round 66 was the best Sunday score, and he had finished among the top-four in five of his last six starts. He was a runner-up at Toshiba Classic, Regions Tradition and the Encompass Championship.

John Riegger and Jeff Brehaut both made their Champions Tour debuts at the Encompass Championship. Riegger tied for 26th at North Shore Country Club, while Brehaut tied for 59th in Glenview. Both players became eligible on June 13 when they turned 50. Brehaut earned the No. 2 spot at the 2012 National Qualifying Tournament, while Riegger secured the fifth spot.

In his first Champions Tour start since withdrawing from the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in August of 2012, World Golf Hall of Fame member Nick Price tied for 76th. Price had been rehabbing from recent elbow issues and made just eight starts in 2012.

Five players shared the first-round lead at the Encompass Championship with 67 (5-under), the most players tied for a first-round lead in a Champions Tour event since Friday at the 2010 AT&T Championship when five players were tied at 6-under 65.

Steve Pate and his amateur partner, Lee Tenzer ran away with the pro-am portion of the tournament. The pair had a 36-hole total of 25-under-par 119 in the better-ball format and finished five shots better than three other teams.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 professionals completed 72 holes.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly cloudy, with morning showers that delayed the start of play from 7:29 a.m.-12:20 p.m. Officials used a two-tee start when play began. Friday: The weather pushed tee times back until 8:50 a.m., again using a two-tee start. A mix of sun and clouds, with occasional light showers late in the morning. Temperatures in the upper-70s, with light SW wind at 5-10 mph. An afternoon thunderstorm moved into the area and dumped 0.5 inches of rain on the course in a 15-minute period. Officials suspended play for the day at 1:49 p.m. as the golf course was unplayable. Sixty-six players were still on the course at the time of the suspension. Saturday: The second round resumed at 8 a.m. and was completed at 9:55 a.m. Mostly sunny in the afternoon before becoming partly cloudy late in the day. Highs were in the upper-70s, with SW wind at 5-10 p.m. Sunday: Partly cloudy, with highs near 80 and light SW wind at 5-10 mph. Preferred lies were used each day of the competition.

Tournament Record:
 261 - Jack Nicklaus (1990)

Kenny Perry was rock solid down the stretch, making birdie on two of his final three holes to pull away from Fred Couples and Duffy Waldorf and win the 2013 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Perry's victory avenged his final-round collapse at the Senior PGA Championship a little more than a month earlier. He started the final round two strokes back but, after making birdies at Nos. 2, 4 and 7, he took the lead for good at No. 15 when Couples three-putted from eight feet for bogey and Waldorf made bogey after a wayward second shot and a poor chip. Perry then added a tap-in birdie at No. 16 and made a five-foot birdie at the par-3 17th to distance himself from both Couples and Waldorf. Overall, Perry played the final 37 holes of the championship without a bogey and in a cumulative 14-under par.

Kenny Perry claimed his first major title on the Champions Tour in his 10th appearance in a senior major and became the 28th different winner of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.

Kenny Perry earned an exemption into the 2014 THE PLAYERS Championship on the PGA TOUR at TPC Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

Kenny Perry's 19-under 261 total tied Jack Nicklaus' numerical mark of 261 (27-under), set in 1990 at Dearborn Country Club in Michigan.

Kenny Perry became the first player to win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS with an opening-round above par (1-over 71). His final 54-hole total of 20-under 190 (63-63-64) set an all-time record for lowest consecutive three-round score, besting Jack Nicklaus' mark of 19-under 197 (65-68-64) set in 1990 at par-72 Dearborn Country Club. Perry's final-round 64 also matched the lowest Sunday score by a winner (Jack Nicklaus, 1990, Dearborn Country Club and Jay Haas, 2009, Baltimore Country Club).

Fred Couples' runner-up performance marked the first time since 2008 that a player finished second in three straight starts. Couples was second at both the Regions Tradition and Encompass Championship. In 2008, Brad Bryant posted three consecutive runner-up finishes.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Colin Montgomerie tied for ninth in his Champions Tour debut, carding a final-round 65 at Fox Chapel.

Duffy Waldorf's 6-under 29 on the front side at Fox Chapel in the final round was the best nine-hole score of the tournament. Waldorf was the only player to finish among the top 10 in the first three majors in 2013. He tied for sixth at the Senior PGA Championship, tied for fifth at the Regions Tradition and tied for second at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS.

Sixty-one year-old Morris Hatafsky recorded a second consecutive top-10 finish in a major championship. After tying for eighth at the Regions Tradition, Hatafsky tied for sixth at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. It was the first time since 2002 he had a pair of top-10s in majors in the same season.

There were four bogey-free rounds during the tournament, one each day:

First Round.....Mark Calcavecchia (68)

Second Round..Fred Couples (62)

Third Round.....Kenny Perry (63)

Fourth Round...Kenny Perry (64)

Defending champion Joe Daley tied for 34th in defense of his title at Fox Chapel.

Kenny Perry went out in 5-under-par 30 and never looked back, overcoming a two-stroke deficit at the start of the day, by posting a 63 to cruise to a five-stroke victory over Fred Funk at the U.S. Senior Open. The win was Perry's fourth career victory on the Champions Tour, and he claimed a second consecutive senior major championship in his 11th career start. Perry's 63 in the final round matched Allen Doyle's final-round score in 2005 as the lowest by a winner in U.S. Senior Open annals. His 72-hole total of 13-under 267 matched Hale Irwin's number at the 2000 U.S. Senior Open as the lowest four-round score in the history of the championship.

Coupled with his victory at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship two weeks earlier at Fox Chapel Golf Club near Pittsburgh, Kenny Perry became the second player in the last four years on the Champions Tour to win consecutive majors. Bernhard Langer achieved the feat in 2010.

Kenny Perry's victory marked the third time in the last four years that a player has claimed multiple majors in a Champions Tour season. Bernhard Langer won The Senior Open Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in 2010. Roger Chapman won both the Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open in 2012.

Kenny Perry became the third player to win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS and the U.S. Senior Open in the same year, joining Gary Player (1987) and Orville Moody (1989).

Kenny Perry became the first player since Michael Allen to record consecutive wins on the Champions Tour. Allen won the 2012 Encompass Insurance Pro-Am of Tampa Bay and then teamed with David Frost to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf the next week.

Kenny Perry became the third multiple Champions Tour winner in 2013. Bernhard Langer was the first multiple champion, claiming The ACE Group Classic and Greater Gwinnett Championship. David Frost won the Toshiba Classic and the Regions Tradition.

Kenny Perry's win earned him an exemption into the 2015 U.S. Open scheduled for Pinehurst's No. 2 Course. He is also exempt into the U.S. Senior Open for life.

Fred Funk finished second in the U.S. Senior Open for the second consecutive year.

Steve Elkington's final-round 65 moved him up into a tie for sixth, his top Champions Tour effort in his rookie season.

Duffy Waldorf posted a tie for ninth at the U.S. Senior Open. He is the only player to record top-10 finishes in each of the Champions Tour's first four majors in the 2013 season. Waldorf tied for sixth at the Senior PGA Championship, tied for fifth at the Regions Tradition and tied for second at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.

Corey Pavin (five consecutive birdies in the final round, Nos. 7-11) and South African Chris Williams (five consecutive birdies in the third round on Nos. 1-5) matched the best birdie streak in event history. Prior to the 2013 championship, six other players had made five consecutive birdies during a round at the U.S. Senior Open.

In the first Monday finish in Senior Open Championship history, Mark Wiebe won an improbable playoff with Bernhard Langer at Royal Birkdale for the first major title of his career. Wiebe's two-putt par from the front of the 18th green, the fifth playoff hole, was good enough to win after Langer missed his par effort from 12 feet after chipping from just short of the green. Wiebe appeared as if he would be the runner-up but Langer's double bogey on the final hole of regulation Sunday allowed him to get into the overtime session. In near darkness later that night, both players halved two extra holes with pars and resumed the playoff Monday morning. After making pars on the third extra hole, both Langer and Wiebe failed to get up and down from the greenside bunker and halved the fourth extra hole with a bogey.

Mark Wiebe won his fourth overall title on the Champions Tour and first since the 2011 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. It was his first major championship in 31 career appearances in majors on the Champions Tour.

Prior to this win, Mark Wiebe's highest finish in a senior major championship was a tie for third at the 2009 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.

Prior to this win, Mark Wiebe had not registered a top-10 finish in 2013, suffering through elbow and back injuries for most of the year. His previous-best effort in 14 starts in 2013 was a tie for 14th at The ACE Group Classic.

With his win, Mark Wiebe earned a trip to the 143rd Open Championship at Royal Liverpool Golf Club in July 2014.

The playoff was the 10th in the 27-year history of the Senior Open Championship and third on the 2013 Champions. The five-hole playoff between Bernhard Langer and Mark Wiebe was also the longest in Senior Open Championship annals.

Mark Wiebe's four-stroke comeback Sunday was the biggest come-from-behind victory in Senior Open Championship history, surpassing Tom Watson's three-stroke comeback in 2003 at Turnberry.

The Monday finish was the first in a Senior Open Championship and the first on the Champions Tour since the 2005 Bayer Advantage Classic near Kansas City.

Corey Pavin's final-round, 5-under 65 equaled the low round of the championship and moved him into a tie for third. It was Pavin's third top-three finish in four years in the Senior Open Championship. He tied for third in 2011 and was second in 2010.

Defending champion Fred Couples tied for 21st at the Senior Open Championship.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Colin Montgomerie, a winner of 31 European Tour events, tied for 21st in his first Senior Open Championship.

Current Course Record:
 61 - TPC Twin Cities - David Frost (2010)

Tom Pernice, Jr., birdied his final two holes to hold off final-round charges by Corey Pavin and Jeff Sluman. Pernice drained a 45-foot putt on No. 17 to grab a share of the lead and then two-putted from 8 feet for a birdie on the final hole. Jeff Sluman put pressure on the leaders all day, posting his 10-under 62 more than an hour before the leaders finished. After starting the day with seven straight birdies and birdies on nine of his first 10 holes, Sluman shot his low round on the Champions Tour, and it matched his low round on the PGA TOUR, as well. Playing one group in front of Pernice, Pavin made a birdie at 18 to match Sluman and Pernice at 16-under, but minutes later Pernice earned the win with his second straight birdie.

This was Tom Pernice, Jr.'s second victory on the Champions Tour and his first since the 2009 SAS Championship in Cary, N.C. The win came in his 51st start since that victory in North Carolina, his first start on the Champions Tour.

One of the big keys for Tom Pernice, Jr., was his play on the par-5 holes at TPC Twin Cities. Pernice made birdies on 10 of the 12 par-5s.

Tom Pernice, Jr., became the fifth player to win this tournament in his first appearance. He joined Vicente Fernandez (1996), Bruce Lietzke (2001), David Edwards (2006) and David Frost (2010).

Jeff Sluman's seven consecutive birdies to start the final round were the most in succession since Joe Ozaki tied a Champions Tour mark with eight straight at the 2006 Ford Senior Players Championship (second round). The last time a player made seven birdies to start a round was at the 2002 Senior PGA Championship when Seiji Ebihara started his final round with seven in a row.

Kenny Perry fell short in his bid for a third consecutive Champions Tour win, tying for seventh.

Craig Stadler rebounded from a tie-for-53rd position after the opening round to tie for seventh. He posted rounds of 66 and 65 on the weekend.

In the 10th Annual Greats of Golf Challenge, Team Majors shot a 16-under-par 56 to claim the Miller Barber Cup by two strokes over Team USA and Team LPGA. Team Majors was captained by Don January and included Lee Trevino, David Graham and Fuzzy Zoeller.

Bart Bryant's Sunday score was 10 strokes worse than his Saturday score but it was good enough to allow him to win his first Champions Tour title and, in the process, become the Champions Tour's 1,000th winner. Bryant equalled the course record of 10-under 62 Saturday to earn a four-stroke lead heading into the final round. But his advantage dwindled to a single shot over Russ Cochran after Cochran birdied the par-4 16th hole. Cochran pulled his approach shot on the final hole and missed an 8-foot putt for par. The bogey allowed Bryant to play the final hole with a two-stroke lead. Despite a three-putt bogey from 30 feet, Bryant won by a stroke over Cochran and Corey Pavin.

Bart Bryant became the 1,000th champion in the history of the Champions Tour and the 190th different player to win a tournament. Don January, the winner of the first official Champions Tour event in 1980, was on hand to present the trophy to Bryant.

Bart Bryant's victory, coupled with older brother Brad Bryant's four career Champions Tour titles, made them the third set of brothers to claim Champions Tour victories. Dave Hill (six) and Mike Hill (18) and Lanny Wadkins (one) and Bobby Wadkins (four) were the others.

Bart Bryant is the fifth player in Dick's Sporting Goods Open history to make this event his first win and third consecutive. The others are 2007 winner R.W. Eaks, 2009 champion Lonnie Nielsen, 2011 winner John Huston and 2012 titlist Willie Wood.

Bart Bryant became the fourth 2013 rookie to win on the Champions Tour, joining Rocco Mediate (Allianz Championship), Esteban Toledo (Insperty Championship) and Kohki Idoki (Senior PGA Championship).

Bart Bryant's even-par 72 Sunday was the highest final-round score by a winner in Dick's Sporting Goods Open history. None of the other six past champions had posted a final round higher than 69 (Eduardo Romero shot 69 in 2008).

Bart Bryant's second-round 62 tied the 18-hole tournament record at En-Joie, originally set in the second round of the 2007 event by R.W. Eaks.

Rick Fehr's five straight birdies (Nos. 4-8) on the front nine during the second round matched the Dick's Sporting Goods tournament record and was the seventh time it's happened in event history. Prior to Fehr's birdie run, John Cook was the last player to have five straight birdies at En-Joie Golf Course (first round of 2012).

With his performance at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, Corey Pavin finished among the top-three in his last four Champions Tour events. Pavin's 69 in the final round was his eighth consecutive sub-70 score.

Russ Cochran (tied for second with Corey Pavin) has finished second in each of his last two appearances at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Cochran was a runner-up to John Huston in 2011 at En-Joie. He didn't play in the 2012 event at Endicott due to injury.

Both John Cook and Chien Soon Lu carded 7-under 65s for the best final rounds. Lu jumped 11 places into solo sixth, while Cook moved up 16 places into a tie for seventh.

Officials disqualified Mark Moulard after he signed an incorrect scorecard in the final round.

Current Course Record:
 61 - TPC Snoqualmie Ridge - Tom Jenkins (2006), Scott Simpson (2006)

John Riegger birdied three of his last four holes to outdistance John Cook by two strokes and win the 2013 Boeing Classic. Needing just two putts from 20 feet on the final hole to avoid a playoff with Cook, Riegger finished in style, sinking the birdie putt at No. 18. Cook briefly tied Riegger for the lead with his 15-foot birdie at the 16th hole, but Riegger regained the advantage for good when he two-putted for birdie at the par-5 15th and then followed with another birdie at No. 16.

John Riegger won his first Champions Tour event in his fifth official start and became the fifth rookie and fifth first-time winner on the circuit this year, equaling the Champions Tour record for most rookies to triumph in a season (five in 1989, 1999 and 2007).

John Riegger is the first player to make the Boeing Classic his first career victory on the Champions Tour.

John Riegger is the second Q-school graduate to win on the 2013 Champions Tour, joining Esteban Toledo (Insperty Championship).

John Riegger's check for $300,000 was his largest career payday, and it vaulted him to 31st on the season money list at the time.

Hometown hero and World Golf Hall of Fame member Fred Couples fired a final-round 66, his lowest round at TPC Snoqualmie, to finish third, his best performance in this event.

John Cook's runner-up performance surpassed his third-place effort in 2008 as his best finish in this tournament. It was Cook's best showing on the Champions Tour since his season-opening victory at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Bobby Clampett's tie for fourth matched his best career Champions Tour performance. Clampett also tied for fourth at the 2012 Insperty Championship and the 2010 SAS Championship.

The winner of the Boeing Classic has come from the final grouping in five of the last six years. The only time it didn't happen during that stretch was in 2012, when Jay Don Blake was in the second-to-last grouping and won in a playoff.

Kenny Perry made the only eagle of the week at the driveable par-4 14th hole. It kept alive a streak of nine straight years that at least one eagle has been made on the hole known as Bear's Canyon. Overall, players made only 17 eagles, the fewest in a Boeing Classic since players made just 12 in 2007.

Cut: There was no cut. All 81 professionals completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Mostly sunny in the morning before becoming cloudy in the afternoon. Morning wind light, increasing in the afternoon from the NW at 15-30 mph. Daytime high reached 77. Saturday: Sunny and pleasant, with a high of 76. Wind light and variable at 5-10 mph. Sunday: Sunny and pleasant, with a high of 77. SE wind light and variable at 5-10 mph.

After rounds of 63-64 to open the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic, Rocco Mediate closed with a 7-under-par 64 for an impressive seven-stroke victory at the Canyon Meadows G&CC in Calgary. It was Mediate's second win of the year following victory at the Allianz Championship, his first start on the Champions Tour. Tom Byrum, who open-qualified earlier in the week, finished second. Mediate was the third rookie winner in a row on the Champions Tour, following Bart Bryant (Dick's Sporting Goods Open) and John Riegger (Boeing Classic). He became the fourth multiple winner in 2013, joining Bernhard Langer, David Frost and Kenny Perry.

Rocco Mediate's 36-hole score of 15-under-par 127 was the lowest first 36-hole total on the 2013 Champions Tour.

Rocco Mediate's 54-hole winning total of 191 (22-under) matched the lowest three-round score in Champions Tour history. He was 18-under par on the back nine for his three rounds.

Players broke the course record at Canyon Meadows Golf and Country Club four times during the week. The original mark was 66 which J.K. Kim broke with a 65 in the qualifier. Four players shot 64s Friday before Rocco Mediate surpassed that score later that day with a 63. Mike Goodes matched Mediate's 63 in the second round before Bill Glasson broke the record when he closed with a 9-under-par 62 Sunday. Glasson's round included nine birdies, and it helped him tie for 10th.

Sixty-eight-year-old Hale Irwin bettered his age by four strokes when he posted a final-round 64 at Canyon Meadows.

Jay Don Blake tied a Champions Tour record when he made three eagles in the second round of the Shaw Charity Classic, becoming the seventh player to accomplish the feat and the first since Tom Kite did so in the second round of the 2011 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Four players—Rocco Mediate, Esteban Toledo, Jay Don Blake and John Riegger—made two eagles in a round during the week. Two players—Gene Jones and David Eger—made aces at Canyon Meadows.

The Shaw Charity Classic marked the sixth tournament won by a rookie in 2013.

By virtue of his top-10 finish (solo second), Tom Byrum earned a berth in the following week's Montreal Championship. Byrum's finish was his best Champions Tour result and his best showing in a Tour event since he finished second at the PGA TOUR's Michelob Championship in 1999, losing in a playoff with Notah Begay III.

Bobby Clampett led all players with 20 birdies for the week and eventually tied for fifth.

There were 1,000 birdies during the event, the fourth most in a 54-hole Champions Tour event.

Duffy Waldorf turned in his third straight top-five finish when he tied for third. He had also tied for fourth at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and the Boeing Classic events.

Cut: There was no cut all 80 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Intermittent showers early in the week before clearing on Wednesday and Thursday with a mix of sun and clouds and highs in the mid-60s. Friday: Sunny and breezy, with highs in the mid-60s. Wind SW at 15-25 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy and breezy before becoming cloudy with occasional afternoon drizzle. Highs in the low-70s. Wind SW at 10-20 mph, with gusts to 25 mph. Sunday: A mix of sun and clouds, with highs in the low-to-mid-60s. Winds NW at 10-20 mph, with gusts to 25 mph.

Tournament Record:
195 - John Cook (2011)

Esteban Toledo chipped in from 35 feet on the third extra hole to defeat Kenny Perry and win for the second time in 2013. Toledo started the day four strokes behind 36-hole leader Bernhard Langer and just one behind Perry. However, Langer saw his two-stroke lead disappear with a double bogey at No. 4 and watched his chances slip away with another double at No. 16. Perry appeared in command, with a two-stroke edge late in the round, but a birdie by Toledo at No. 16 pulled him within one of Perry. However, Perry missed a four-foot putt for par at No. 17 to drop back into a tie where it remained at the conclusion of regulation. After Perry and Toledo made two pars at No. 18, Toledo ended it with his chip-in at No. 10, the third extra hole.

Esteban Toledo's victory was the seventh by a rookie in 2013. He joined Rocco Mediate with a pair of "rookie" victories.

Esteban Toledo's win was also the fourth consecutive event won by a rookie, joining Bart Bryant, John Riegger and Rocco Mediate. It marked the first time since 1980 that rookie winners won in succession.

The Montreal Championship win marked the second time in 2013 that Esteban Toledo won a playoff on the third extra hole. Earlier in the year, he claimed his first career win on the Champions Tour when he outlasted Mike Goodes and Gene Sauers to win the Insuperity Championship.

The Montreal Championship playoff was the fourth on the Champions Tour in 2013 and first since Mark Wiebe defeated Bernhard Langer in a Monday finish at the Senior Open Championship.

It marked the fourth consecutive year in Montreal Championship history that the 36-hole leader has had sole possession of the lead and not gone on to win.

Duffy Waldorf finished third, giving him four top-five finishes in his last four starts. At the Dick's Sporting Goods Open he tied for fourth. He also tied for fourth at the Boeing Classic and tied for third at the Shaw Charity Classic. During this four-tournament stretch Waldorf was a combined 42-under-par and earned $419,857 ($104,964 per start).

Toledo's 54-hole score of 5-under-par 211 was the highest winning score in a three-round event since Jerry Pate posted a similar score at the 2008 Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii.

After rounds of 73-72 the first two days, Ken Green fired a final-round 80 but still posted a respectable tie for 58th. It was his best showing since losing the lower part of his right leg in an accident in 2009.

Rod Spittle turned in the best finish by the three Canadian players in the field. Spittle tied for ninth, his second top-10 finish in Montreal (2011, tied for seventh). Jim Rutledge tied for 73rd, while Marc Girouard was 78th.

Mark Wiebe holed an 8-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole of regulation to get into a playoff with Corey Pavin. He then eventually defeated him with a 20-foot par-saving putt on the second extra hole. On the second playoff hole, it appeared that Pavin was in better position to win after chipping his third shot to within 10 feet of the flag. Wiebe putted from the fringe for his third shot, but when he failed to get his ball over the ridge in the sloping 18th green, it eventually rolled back to 20 feet. However, Wiebe holed his putt and then watched Pavin come up short on his bid to continue the playoff.

Mark Wiebe won his fifth career Champions Tour title, becoming a multiple winner for the first time in his professional career. Earlier in the season, Wiebe won The Senior Open Championship.

Mark Wiebe became the sixth player with a pair of titles on the 2013 Champions Tour, joining Bernhard Langer, David Frost, Kenny Perry, Rocco Mediate and Esteban Toledo.

For the first time since the 1985 Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic, Mark Wiebe had his wife, Cathy, in attendance for the victory.

Mark Wiebe became the fourth wire-to-wire winner in 2013, joining Bernhard Langer (The ACE Group Classic), David Frost (Toshiba Classic) and Rocco Mediate (Shaw Charity Classic).

World Golf Hall of Fame member and 34-time PGA TOUR winner Vijay Singh was tied for the lead after 11 holes Sunday, but he played his final seven holes in 2-over par to drop into a tie for sixth in his Champions Tour debut. After making just one bogey in his first 48 holes, Singh made two bogeys and a double bogey over his last six holes at Kapolei Golf Club.

Corey Pavin's final-round 69 was his 11th consecutive round in the 60s on the 2013 Champions Tour, a streak that started with a 69 Saturday of The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale. The playoff loss was his third consecutive runner-up effort and fifth straight tournament where he's finished either second or third. The playoff loss was also Pavin's sixth consecutive top-10 performance.

Champions Tour rookie Brian Henninger recorded his first top-10 finish on the Champions Tour, a tie for sixth at Kapolei Golf Club. Prior to this event, Henninger's best effort in 11 previous appearances was a 14th-place performance at the Boeing Classic.

The par-72 Kapolei Golf Club played to a stroke average of 72.149 for the week week compared to 71.516 in 2012.

Bruce Summerhays, a three-time winner on the Champions Tour, finished 80th in his first appearance on the circuit since he last played at the 2010 Principal Charity Classic. The 69-year-old Summerhays had been serving as an LDS mission president in Tampa, Fla., for the previous three years.

Current Course Record:

64 - Del Monte Golf Course - Mark Brooks (2011), Mark Calcavecchia (2010), Des Smyth (2007), D.A. Weibring (2006)
 63 - Pebble Beach Golf Links - Craig Stadler (2004)

Steady proved best Sunday for Kirk Triplett at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Starting the day three strokes behind 36-hole leader Tom Lehman, Triplett played bogey-free in the final round and took full advantage as other contenders fell by the wayside at Pebble Beach Golf Links. Triplett posted three birdies on his front nine to move into contention and avoided missteps on the back nine for the win and successful defense of his 2012 title.

Kirk Triplett successfully defended the Nature Valley First Tee Open title he won at Pebble Beach in 2012, thanks in large part to his stellar play on the par-5s. Triplett birdied seven of the eight par-5s at Pebble Beach and was a combined 9-under-par on those holes during the week. He joined Jeff Sluman as the only two players to post multiple wins in this tournament. Triplett also joined Craig Stadler (2004) as the only players to win the tournament as well as the Pro-Junior competition.

Michelle Xie from The First Tee of Silicon Valley and Palo Alto, Calif., teamed with Triplett to win the pro-junior portion of the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Xie and Triplett finished two shots better than the teams of Tom Lehman/Parker Hill and Jeff Sluman/Parker Reddig. Hill, who resides in Maples Grove, Minn., represented The First Tee of Three Rivers Park District, and Reddig represented The First Tee of St. Paul.

Doug Garwood, who open-qualified for the Nature Valley First Tee Open, tied for second and earned a spot in the SAS Championship as a player not previously exempt into the field. This marked the fourth time Garwood had open qualified in 2013.

Dan Forsman's tie for second at the Nature Valley First Tee Open paid dividends as it moved him from 35th on the money list to 28th. The finish eventually propelled Forsman into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Kirk Triplett was the only player in the 81-man field to post a bogey-free final round.

Bernhard Langer tied the tournament 18-hole scoring record when he fired a 9-under-par 63 in the opening round at the Del Monte Golf Course. Langer matched Craig Stadler's second-round 63 in 2004 at Pebble Beach Golf Links.

Bernhard Langer's four-stroke margin after the opening round was the largest 18-hole lead in a Champions Tour event since Nick Price led by five strokes at the 2011 Toshiba Classic.

Jay Haas' younger brother, Jerry, made his Champions Tour debut at the tournament, just 11 days after turning 50. Jerry Haas is the head golf coach at Wake Forest and upstaged his more well-known brother, tying for 35th while Jay was 73rd.

Tony Johnstone, one of Nick Price's International team's assistant captains at the 2013 Presidents Cup, made his first start in a 54-hole Champions Tour event, finishing 79th.

Current Course Record:
 61 - Prestonwood CC - Tom Kite (2003)

Russ Cochran birdied the final four holes to win his second SAS Championship in the last four years. Cochran trailed David Frost by as many as three shots late in the round, but four consecutive birdies allowed him to overtake Frost for the win. Playing one group in front of Frost, Cochran tied him with a birdie at No. 17 and then claimed the title by draining an 8-footer on the final hole for his second victory in 2013. Kirk Triplett birdied his final two holes to finish in third place, one better than Gary Hallberg.

Russ Cochran became the first player to post multiple wins at the SAS Championship. He also won at Prestonwood in 2010.

Russ Cochran was a combined 13-under par for the week on the back nine at Prestonwood Country Club. His only bogey in the three rounds on the back nine came at No. 13 Sunday.

With Russ Cochran's four straight birdies to close his final round, it marked the first time a player had made four consecutive birdies to win an event since Mark Calcavecchia birdied the final three holes and then the first playoff hole to win the 2011 Boeing Classic. Calcavecchia defeated Cochran in that playoff.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Nick Faldo, making his initial Champions Tour start in the United States, withdrew after 12 holes with an elbow injury. He was 1-over-par at the time.

Larry Nelson's first-round, 6-under-par 66 was special. It allowed Nelson to match his age for the first time in his Champions Tour career.

A final-round, 6-under-par 66 helped Gary Hallberg finish fourth. It was his best finish since he was second to Fred Couples at the 2012 Senior Open Championship. It was also his first top-10 of the 2013 season.

After starting the week as the eighth alternate and getting into the field on Thursday after a withdrawal, Anders Forsbrand took full advantage of his opportunity. The native of Sweden tied for fifth, and by virtue of that finish he earned a berth in the following week's Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn as a top-10 finisher not otherwise exempt. It was the second time he had done so. A month earlier, he tied for fourth at the Montreal Championship to earn a spot at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship.

Joe Daley posted his first top-10 finish of the 2013 season when he tied for eighth.

Bob Gilder and Larry Nelson each played in their 13th SAS Championship. They are the only two players who have played in every event.

Jeff Sluman was disqualified prior to his second round Saturday for signing an incorrect scorecard. After shooting a 4-under-par 68 Friday, Sluman discovered Saturday morning that he had mistakenly used two different types of golf balls during his first round. He informed Tour officials Saturday morning and was disqualified. By rule, he would have had to add two penalty strokes to each hole that he played a different ball, with a maximum of four penalty strokes.

Michael Allen's two-putt birdie from 15 feet on the first playoff hole allowed him to best Olin Browne in overtime for his second victory of the 2013 season. Allen birdied two of the final three holes in regulation to move past a faltering Bernhard Langer and catch Browne. After both players returned to the par-5 18th hole for the overtime session, Allen hit his second shot on the green, 12 feet from the cup. Browne laid up with his second shot in the right rough but played a lackluster pitch short. He then ran his first putt from 40 feet 10 feet past by the hole, allowing Allen to two-putt for the victory. Langer, the 36-hole leader, held a two-stroke lead after his birdie at No. 4 and stayed in contention until three-putting the par-3 17th hole from 50 feet. The playoff between Allen and Browne was the third in the 11-year history of the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn.

Due to the extensive damage caused by torrential rain on July 27, the 2013 Greater Hickory Kia Classic used a modified course. The course was a combination of holes from the 36-hole venue and was named the Champions Course. It was a par-70 versus the par-72 layout of the Jones Course that has been used for the first 10 years.

Michael Allen won for the second time in 2013, his second consecutive year with multiple Champions Tour titles. In March of 2013, he won the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, and he became the eighth player in 2013 with a pair of titles. It was his fifth career Champions Tour title in his 80th start.

Michael Allen was the ninth different winner in the 11-year history of the Greater Hickory Kia Classic. In his only other appearance prior to this year at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic, Allen tied for 16th in 2012.

Michael Allen's 13-under-par 197 winning score was the highest score to par to win the Greater Hickory Kia Classic since Craig Stadler claimed the inaugural event in 2003 with a score of 13-under 203.

Olin Browne's runner-up performance was his best Champions Tour effort since winning the 2011 U.S. Senior Open at Inverness Club. Browne was making just his 13th start of the season, having missed five months with an injury to his back.

Bernhard Langer's third-place finish was his eighth consecutive top-10 performance, and his $115,200 check made him the first player on the Champions Tour in 2013 with more than $2 million in season earnings ($2,066,895).

Bill Glasson posted his best round in a TOUR-sponsored event, and he equaled the 18-hole tournament record when he carded a 9-under-par 61 in the final round. Glasson's round shot him up 54 places in the tournament standings into a tie for ninth, the biggest move by a player in the field Sunday. Glasson's round equaled the 11-under 61s shot by R.W. Eaks (first round in 2008) and Gary Hallberg (third round in 2010) on the Jones course as the best scores at Rock Barn.

Bruce Vaughan, the medalist at the open qualifier for the Greater Hickory Kia Classic, shot his career-low score on the Champions Tour, a bogey-free 8-under 62 in Saturday's second round.

Sweden's Anders Forsbrand registered a second consecutive top-10 finish when he tied for sixth at Greater Hickory Kia Classic. At the previous week's SAS Championship, Forsbrand tied for fifth to earn a spot into the Greater Hickory Kia Classic.

The overall stroke average to par on the reconfigured par-70 Champions Course at Rock Barn was 69.805 compared to 72.008 when the course played to a par 72 in 2012 on the Jones Course. Overall, the par-4 first hole yielded only 16 birdies for the week and played as the most difficult (4.320).

Olin Browne made the most birdies by a player in the field (18).

Allen Doyle withdrew with a hand injury before the start of the second round.

Kenny Perry made two huge par saves on Nos. 17 and 18 and then birdied the first playoff hole to defeat Bernhard Langer for his third win in 2013. Perry made a 4-footer at No. 17 and then made a clutch 18-footer on No. 18 to finish at 13-under. Playing one group behind, Langer birdied No. 17 to tie Perry, but he failed to birdie the final hole to set up the playoff. After hitting his second shot (8-iron from 176) on 18 in the playoff to 10 feet, Perry stepped up and sank the putt for the win after Langer's third shot from behind the green was well short of the hole.

Kenny Perry's win in San Antonio gave him three victories in 2013, the first player to win three times since John Cook and Tom Lehman each had three wins in 2011.

The victory earned Kenny Perry $285,000 and pushed him over the $2-million mark, a first in his Champions Tour career.

For the second consecutive year, Bernhard Langer was defeated in a playoff. David Frost birdied the second extra hole for the win over Langer in 2012.

Colin Montgomerie finished T3, his best finish in 10 starts on the Champions Tour in 2013. He moved up to 47th on the final money list with $322,945.

There were no changes in the top 30 on the money list following the AT&T Chamampionship for the fourth straight year as all 30 held their spots to earn a berth in the following week's Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Two players made their first starts on the Champions Tour at the AT&T Championship. Scott Dunlap, a veteran of the PGA TOUR and Web.com Tour, finished T15, while Jose Coceres, a two-time winner on the PGA TOUR, was 80th.

Five players tied for the 36-hole lead, the most to share the lead after 36 holes in a Champions Tour event since eight players were tied for the lead at the 2006 Ford Senior Players Championship.

Defending champion David Frost bounced back from a 5-over 77 in the opening round to finish T22.

Mike Goodes matched his career-low round on the Champions Tour with a 9-under-par 63 in the second round. Goodes also had a second-round 63 at the 2013 Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary.

Loren Roberts made an ace on No. 13 in Friday's opening round, using a 6-iron on the 174-yard hole. It was his 10th hole-in-one of his competitive career and the eighth overall on the Champions Tour in 2013. Roberts' ace was the 12th in tournament history and the first at the TPC San Antonio.

Fred Couples closed with a 2-under-par 69, his fourth consecutive round in the 60s, to win the Charles Schwab Championship by six strokes. Mark O'Meara, who started the final day five behind Couples, made a double bogey on the final hole to drop from solo second place into a three-way tie for second with Bernhard Langer and Peter Senior. The victory was Couples' first 2013 win.

Fred Couples' win was his first as a member of the World Golf Hall of Fame. He joined Bernhard Langer (The ACE Group Classic and Greater Gwinnett Championship) as the second member of the World Golf Hall of Fame to win on the Champions Tour in 2013.

Fred Couples was the lone player in the field to post four consecutive rounds in the 60s at TPC Harding Park.

Fred Couples was the 18th different winner on the Champions Tour in 2013 and the 17th different champion of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in the 24-year history of the event. He extended to four his streak of consecutive years with at least one Champions Tour title.

Fred Couples' six-stroke victory marked the eighth consecutive year that the champion of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship has won by two or more strokes. It's also the second year in succession that the winner has enjoyed a six-stroke margin.

Peter Senior's 8-under 63 in the first round matched his lowest round on the Champions Tour (63 in the second round at the 2012 Senior PGA Championship).

With his tie for third, Bernhard Langer closed the year with 10 consecutive top-10 finishes and 13 top-10 finishes in his last 14 starts. Langer claimed the Arnold Palmer Award as the Champions Tour's leading money-winner for the fifth time in the last six years. He completed the year with $2,448,428 in earnings.

Of the seven rookies in the field, Rocco Mediate and Bart Bryant had the best finishes. They both tied for fifth.

Fred Funk made an ace in the second round on No. 8 with a 4-iron from 204 yards. Funk now has two holes-in-one on the Champions Tour, with the other coming at the 2010 3M Championship at TPC Twin Cities.

Kenny Perry captured the Charles Schwab Cup by a 412-point margin over Bernhard Langer and was awarded the $1-million annuity. Langer earned $500,000 for his runner-up showing, while Fred Couples ($300,000), David Frost ($200,000) and Duffy Waldorf ($100,000) also won bonus money.

Players recorded eight eagles at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Chevron donated $100,000 ($10,000 for every eagle made, plus $30,000 for the final-round eagle by David Frost) through its Eagles For Education program. Each eagle provides funding for 1,000 kids to participate in The First Tee of San Francisco program for one year.

Cut: There was no cut; 66 of 78 players completed 72 holes.

Weather: Perfect on Tuesday with sunshine and high temperatures in the mid-70s with light winds from the SW at 5-10 mph. Clouds moved into the area on Wednesday afternoon with highs in the mid-70s and light winds from the SW at 5-10 mph. Overcast on Thursday with highs in the low-70s and winds from the S in the afternoon at 10-15 mph. Rain off and on throughout the day on Friday with highs in the upper 60s and light winds from the ESE at 5-10 mph. After over an inch of rain fell on Thursday night, the course was unplayable until 10:30 a.m. and the start of the final round on Friday was delayed for three hours. Lift, clean and place rules if effect. After an additional inch of rain fell overnight on Friday, playoffs for exempt positions were done on Saturday at 8:30 a.m.

Tournament Record:
 264 - Jeff Freeman (2011)

Neither rain, nor near-sleet, nor gloomy skies, could keep Wes Short, Jr. (Austin, Texas) from his appointed final round. After a three-hour rain delay at the start, Short battled through adverse weather conditions and then near darkness late in the day to win the 2013 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the par-71 Champions Course at TPC Scottsdale. With temperatures only reaching the low-60s, Short, the 36- and 54-hole leader, posted a 3-under 68 in a steady afternoon drizzle in Friday's final round and his 72-hole total of 20-under 264, tied an all-time Champions Tour record for a four-round qualifier, originally set by Jeff Freeman at this same venue two years ago.

Short, Jr. easily outdistanced both Mike Reid (Westminster, Md.) and Canadian Jim Rutledge (Victoria, B.C.) by five strokes, earning him $30,000 and medalist honors by the largest margin in a National Qualifier since Bob Gilder waltzed to a record seven-stroke victory in 2000 at Lake Buena Vista, Fla.

Short birdied three of his first four holes and never looked back, holing nine-foot birdie putts at Nos. 1, 3, 4. He enjoyed as much as a six-stroke lead midway through the front nine and then played the back nine in 1-under to coast to an easy win. The 2005 Michelin Championship at Las Vegas champion on the PGA TOUR, Short turned 50 on December 4, 2013, and will enjoy fully-exempt status on the 2014 Champions Tour.

"I didn't think we'd finish today even if we managed to get started which didn't look like it was going to happen early. It really helped me to get off to the start that I did. It allowed me to play more conservative the rest of the way, especially near the end," Short said. "This was a rough year this year. I missed so much competitive golf and really haven't been in golf shape for about the last six years. I really prepared hard for this Q-School and felt like my game was back in pretty good shape when I got here this week. I'm now really looking forward to the Champions Tour."

Rutledge started the day outside the top 12 and was looking at having no exempt status for 2014 before he teed off. However, after turning in 2-under 33, the Canadian made four birdies on the back nine to shoot 65, equaling the low round of the day, and he quickly moved up the leaderboard into an eventual T2, the fourth straight year he's finished among the top eight at the National Qualifier. Rutledge also finished T2 at TPC Scottsdale in 2011.

Reid, a two-time major championship winner on the Champions Tour, regained fully-exempt status for the 2014 season after making just seven appearances in 2013 due to his limited status from the combined-career (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour) money list. Reid strung together four straight rounds in the 60s and was steady down the stretch in the final round, playing his last 15 holes bogey-free and in 3-under.

The last two fully-exempt spots, as well as several conditionally-exempt positions, were decided in playoffs following the completion of regulation play. Scott Dunlap (Duluth, Ga.) and Jeff Hart (Solana Beach, Calif.) secured the fourth and fifth positions after both made pars on the first playoff hole. Greg Bruckner (Phoenix, Ariz.) earned the sixth position with a par on the third extra hole while Willie Wood (Edmond, Okla.) secured the seventh spot after making a bogey on the third playoff hole. Doug Garwood (Stevenson Ranch, Calif.), who three-putted the final green on Friday to make bogey and drop back into the five-way playoff, ended up eighth after hitting his drive out of bounds and making double-bogey on the second playoff hole.

Several other conditional spots were decided on the first playoff hole when Mark Mouland (Kenilworth, England) made a par for the ninth position, Ben Bates (Pensacola, Fla.) made a bogey for the 10th spot and Jeff Coston (Blaine, Wash.) got the 11th position after making a double-bogey when his drive landed out of bounds. Anders Forsbrand (Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.) did not participate in the playoff as a result of a partial exemption in 2014 from finishing 44th on the 2013 money list.

The remaining players who finished among the top 30 at TPC Scottsdale will be eligible to compete for spots in open qualifiers at all co-sponsored events on the Champions Tour in 2014.

Stewart Cink - 61 (-11)
 Steve Elkington - 62 (-10)
 Jack Nicklaus - 63 (-9)
 David Duval - 64 (-8)
 Hale Irwin - 64 (-8)
 Davis Love III - 64 (-8)
 Vijay Singh - 64 (-8)

Cut: 36-hole scramble; all 20 teams completed 36 holes.

Weather: Partly sunny on Saturday with highs near 80 degrees and winds from the SSE at 10-15 mph. Rain during the morning on Sunday with gradual clearing near noon. Partly sunny in the afternoon with highs in the mid-70s and winds from the NW at 10-15 mph.

Tournament Record:

119 - Michael Allen (2010), Larry Nelson (2004), Raymond Floyd (1999), Jack Nicklaus (1999), Bob Charles (1998), Raymond Floyd (1995), Ray Floyd, Jr. (1995)

Stewart and Conner Cink rallied from an early bogey, overtaking Steve Elkington and his son Sam down the stretch to win the 2013 PNC Father/Son Challenge by three strokes, the largest winning margin since 2004. The Cinks made bogey at the par-4 2nd hole to fall three strokes back of the Elkingtons and trailed until the 14th hole when Conner Cink, an engineering major at Clemson, holed a 30-foot eagle putt at the par-5. His father followed with birdie putts at the next two holes and then closed the event in style, holing a 22-foot eagle putt at the par-5 18th. The Cinks had a 9-under 27 score on the back nine and needed just nine total putts.

With their victory, the team of Stewart and Conner Cink became the first team since Raymond Floyd and Ray Floyd Jr. in 1995 to claim the PNC Father/Son Challenge in their first appearance. Nick and Greg Price also made their first appearance in this event and finished 20th.

Defending champions Davis Love III and his son Dru finished fourth.

This year's field included 12 World Golf Hall of Famers and the 20-player field, the largest ever in the history of the event, had won a combined 497 TOUR-sponsored titles, including 64 major championships.

Raymond Floyd, Larry Nelson, Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino have now played in all 16 father/son tournaments.
