ABOUT THE COMMISSIONER

Deane R. Beman

Born: April 22, 1938

Birthplace: Washington, DC

Family: Wife, Judy; five children

Entering his 19th year as Commissioner of the PGA TOUR, since succeeding Joseph C. Dey, Jr., on March 1, 1974, Deane R. Beman has overseen the most explosive period of growth in the TOUR's history.

During the Beman administration, the "business side" of the PGA TOUR has shown dramatic growth and now includes many heretofore uncharted paths, each designed to help encourage continued prosperity and to ensure the future of the game.

PGA TOUR Investments, Inc., created 11 years ago, has already grown to include 15 Tournament Players Clubs nationally with more clubs in the planning stage across the United States. 1989 saw the unveiling of TPC International with a Players Club in Japan. December, 1986 saw the opening of the first "Family Golf Center" in Clearwater, Florida.

The network has grown to include another Family Golf Center at the Golf Club of Jacksonville, a municipal course operated by the PGA TOUR for the city of Jacksonville, in addition to providing tournament state-of-the-art facilities. Tournament Players Clubs have been instrumental in the growth of the PGA TOUR assets, which have climbed from $730,000 to more than $175 million during the Beman era.

The marketing arm of the PGA TOUR continues to make steady progress in its quest to open new opportunities in golf for commercial sponsors and the TOUR's members. Long-term programs with Coca-Cola and IBM, to be initiated in 1992, are the latest in a long line of marketing efforts designed to infuse for the combined benefit of players, sponsors and charities.

1991 also saw the birth of PGA TOUR Partners, whose mission is to enhance the golf experience for serious fans by giving them a unique, inside look at the PGA TOUR, and providing charitable support to worthy non-profit organizations. In less than a year the Partners program now includes over 37 thousand members.

PGA TOUR Productions, created in 1985, is the TOUR's first-ever in-house TV/audio visual production entity. Created to produce tournament highlight video films, vignettes, commercials, specialty pieces and the acclaimed "Inside the PGA TOUR," a weekly half-hour show airing on ESPN, Productions added "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR" in 1991. "Inside the PGA TOUR" was nominated for an ACE Award honoring cable television's best for the second consecutive year.

Other important innovations introduced during the Beman administration include a professional Agronomy department, PGA TOUR Stats Program, Electronic scoreboards, "Official Golf Destinations" and establishment of mobile fitness training centers, sponsored by Centinela, on both TOUR's. Competitively, the Beman era has witnessed the birth of the Senior PGA TOUR which started with two events in 1980 and has grown to its present 43 events. The Ben Hogan Tour, born in 1990, has been a success by all measures and has provided aspiring professionals with TOUR-like competition as a stepping stone to the PGA TOUR. In all, over 120 tournaments are on the combined Tours, and total prize money has increased from $8.2 million in 1974 to over $84 million for the 1992 season.

The player Retirement Plan was instituted in 1983 to help provide PGA TOUR members with a stable source of income upon retirement from tournament competition by virtue of their performance on the TOUR. At the time, establishment of the Plan was viewed as a significant step towards bringing the TOUR closer to the ranks of other "major" sports with respect to player benefits. The Plan has already contributed over $13 million towards the future benefit of active player participants.

Charity has easily been the TOUR's leading money winner during the Beman era. Surpassing the $19 million mark for the third straight year in 1991, the American Golf Sponsors and the PGA TOUR have donated over $115 million over the past six TOUR seasons alone. Combined total of all three tours is expected to top the $25 million mark this year.

During his active years as a player, Beman established an enviable slate of accomplishments, compiling one of the great amateur records of all-time. He won the USGA Amateur title in 1960 and 1963, and the British Amateur Championship in 1959. Beman was a member of four Walker Cup teams, four World Amateur Cup teams and three U.S. America's Cup Squads.

In 1967, at the age of 29, he left a prosperous insurance brokerage firm in Bethesda, MD, to join the PGA TOUR as a full-time player. During his 6-year professional career, won the 1969 Texas Open, 1970 Greater Milwaukee Open, 1972 Quad Cities Open and the 1973 Shrine-Robinson Classic before hanging up his spikes to become the Commissioner in 1974.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE PGA TOUR

"The PGA TOUR is enjoying these days the healthiest period of its existence. The reasons are too numerous to mention here, but in the opinion of many, including myself, the PGA TOUR is one of the last true forms of capitalism left in the world of sports today. Everyone starts out at zero the first of the year, and in the most literal sense, everyone starts out the same each week...One is merely paid for performance on the professional golf tour, and that may be one of the reasons it is held in such high esteem by the public. We as players, along with administrators, must endeavor to protect this idea forever."

From the forward by Ben Crenshaw in the Doubleday book, The History of the PGA TOUR, by Al Barkow.

It is not always easy to discover the exact beginning of something. So it is with the PGA TOUR. Certainly, there were professionals who competed against each other from the earliest days of the game.

Then on New Year's Day, 1895, ten professional golfers played 36 holes of stroke play and competed for money. The total purse was $150 and the winner took home $75. Due to the fact that a large gallery had come to witness the event, the New York Times covered the tournament. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country. There was the Western Open in 1899. But this was not "tour" golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving and when John McDermott became the first home-bred to win the U.S. Open, enthusiasm for the game blossomed.

Helping this growth was a commercially backed "tour" by Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray. The duo travelled across the country and attracted good crowds wherever they stopped during the warmer months of 1913. However, the biggest explosion for the game occurred that September. A 20-year old "local boy", Francis Ouimet, defeated the pair in a playoff for the United States Open Championship at Brookline, MA. Suddenly, golf became front page news and a game for everyone.

In the early twenties, the PGA TOUR could have seen its first development. Tournaments were held on the West Coast, Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the TOUR was doing relatively well--offering $77,000 in total. What's more, resorts, hotels and Chambers of Commerce began to realize the publicity value professional golf brought to their facilities. Names like Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Bobby Jones became folk heroes.

In the thirties, the TOUR continued to grow. The PGA of America was providing support and despite the nation's financial woes during the period, golf tournaments continued to attract good crowds. It is interesting to look back at some figures of the time. Paul Runyan was the leading money winner of 1934 with $6,767.

The names of the golfers continued to become household words. In the late 1930's and early 1940's Sam Snead's name started to appear in the headlines with regularity. Then came Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Jimmy Demaret and others who were beginning to gain nationwide fame.

The TOUR became more structured following World War II and then exploded in the late 1950's and early 60's. Flip through the Facts and Figures section of this TOUR Book and look at such areas as leading money winners and growth of tournament purses to witness the sudden and continuing growth.

Once television became a player in the game, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game and at the same time, TV rights fees sent purses soaring. The bulk of these rights fees, which are distributed by the PGA TOUR to all co-sponsors, have gone back into the purses, accounting for the tripling of prize money in the last decade.

The touring professionals began to gain some control of the TOUR in late 1968. Joseph C. Dey was the first commissioner of what was then called the Tournament Players Division. He served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974 and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman, who took office March 1, 1974.

During the Beman administration, the value of tournament purses has escalated at an unprecedented rate: PGA TOUR assets have grown from $730,000 in 1974 to nearly $180 million today, and total revenues have increased from $3.9 million to over $210 million in 1992.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated over $185 million dollars to charity. Over $100 million of that total has been donated since 1984. The slogan, "The leading money winner on the PGA TOUR is Charity," is definitely not just a catch phrase.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR is also much broader today. The SENIOR PGA TOUR is considered by many as the sports success story of the 1980's. In 1990 the PGA TOUR, with the help of the Ben Hogan Company and PGA of America sections, added another addition to its family. Named for one of golf's greats, the Ben Hogan Tour was created to help golfers sharpen their skills with hopes of earning a place on either the PGA TOUR or the Senior PGA TOUR.

Also continuing to grow is the Tournament Players Club Network. When the PGA TOUR opened the Tournament Players Club at Sawgrass in 1980, it beckoned the era of Stadium Golf. Owned and operated by the TOUR, the concept means these courses are the only major league sports arenas owned by the players themselves.

The TPC Network has expanded to 15 clubs in cities across the world, with more clubs in either the construction or the planning stages.

Six years ago the PGA TOUR opened its first Family Golf Center in Clearwater, FL, and the TOUR has constructed municipal courses for Florida cities, Jacksonville and Miami. This, and other concepts, are expected to mature with the PGA TOUR.

CHIP BECK TIES TOUR MARK WITH 59

Earns $1 Million Bonus from Hilton Hotels

Chip Beck, using advice from his caddy David Woosley, tied Al Geiberger's 18-hole scoring record and collected $1 million from Hilton Hotels with a 59 during the third round of the Las Vegas Invitational.

By reaching the sub-60 milestone, Beck earned $500,000 as part of the Hilton Tournament Record Challenge. Hilton also gave $250,000 to both PGA TOUR Charities and the PGA of America Junior Golf Fund. Beck's $500,000 will be paid in $25,000 payments for 20 years.

Beck earned a spot in the PGA TOUR record book after starting on the back nine of the Sunrise Golf Club with a 29 and playing the front nine in 30 strokes on the par-72 course. Beck had 13 birdies and five pars during the round--hitting 17 greens in regulation and one-putting 12 times.

Ironically, Beck had not seen the course prior to his Friday round. That's where caddy Woosley came in to help. "This was definitely a team effort", Beck said. "I hadn't seen the course and he gave me great yardage all day."

HILTON TO REWARD TOURNAMENT RECORD SETTERS IN 1992

Million Dollar Bonus For Sub-59 Round

Hilton Hotels, the official Hotel of the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR, Ben Hogan Tour and the PGA of America, will continue their bonus programs for any PGA TOUR or SENIOR PGA TOUR players who set course or tournament records in 1992.

Hilton will also be offering an impressive $1,000,000 bonus for any player who shoots a sub-59 round on either the PGA TOUR or Senior TOUR. The winner of the Hilton One-Million Dollar Bonus will receive $500,000 in annuities with another $250,000 going to PGA TOUR Charities and $250,000 to the PGA of America Junior Golf Fund.

Last year Chip Beck became only the second player in TOUR history to shoot a sub-60 round when he recorded a 13-under-par 59 during the third round of the Las Vegas Invitational. In 1991 the $1 million bonus was offered for any player who shot a sub-60 round. Al Geiberger is the only other player to shoot a 59 in a PGA TOUR event. He achieved the feat during the second round of the 1977 Danny Thomas Memphis Classic.

Hilton also sponsors the Hilton Tournament and Course Record Challenges in which any player who sets a tournament or course record on either the PGA TOUR or SENIOR PGA TOUR will carry a $5,000 credit balance to be used in any domestic Hilton hotel.

The following are the Hilton Course and Tournament Records set on the PGA TOUR last season:

CENTINELA FITNESS CENTER

The "Official Hospital of the PGA TOUR" since 1984, Centinela Hospital Medical Center in Inglewood, CA. will again sponsor the Centinela Hospital Fitness Center (CHFC) on TOUR in 1992.

One of the most popular innovations on the circuit, the CHFC is a mobile gymnasium that includes state-of-the-art exercise equipment, television, stereo, three treatment tables, various physical therapy modalities, and a full line of vitamins.

Staffed by qualified physical therapists, the CHFC travels to the vast majority of TOUR events across the country providing both rehabilitative and preventative care.

Through its first eight years on the TOUR, the Centinela Hospital Fitness Center has attracted the interest of virtually every player with at least 80% using the mobile unit on a regular basis. Housed in a 45-foot long trailer (expandable to 24' wide when parked), the Centinela Hospital Fitness Center enables TOUR pros to maintain peak levels of performance at absolutely no cost to the individual player.

According to Dr. Frank Jobe, Medical Director of the PGA TOUR and team physician to the Los Angeles Dodgers, "Centinela Hospital Medical Center provides each player with a personal physical conditioning program based on that individual current level of conditioning." Dr. Jobe is assisted by Dr. Lewis Yocum, his associate and orthopedic consultant to the California Angels.

The CHFC has made its impact over the past eight years with many players finding the center and available technicians an invaluable aid to their success on the TOUR. In fact, many players have commented that they would have been unable to compete in some tournaments without the facility.

"If they had this setup several years ago" Fuzzy Zoeller said, "it might have saved me from having back surgery."

"If it wasn't for Centinela Hospital's Fitness Center," said Curtis Strange, "I wouldn't be here."

Centinela Hospital's Biomechanics Laboratory has done research and testing on professional golfers' swings and, based on the results, developed scientific exercise programs which are available through books and videotapes. These programs, designed by Dr. Jobe and Dr. Yocum, have helped countless golfers stretch their potential while minimizing their risk of injury. For more information contact Centinela Hospital.

As has been the case since the introduction of the CHFC, Foot-Joy, Inc., the leading name in golf and casual shoes on the PGA TOUR, provides a quality line of fitness shoes to be used in the mobile training facility. Foot-Joy, Inc. is the "Official Athletic/Fitness Shoe of the PGA TOUR Fitness Training Center."

Coppertone (a product of Schering-Plough, Inc.), the leading manufacturer of skincare products in the country, began providing their products to the CHFC in 1989, including lip balm, insect spray and hair/scalp protection, in addition to sun screen.

Advil (a product of Whitehall Labs) has supported the Centinela Hospital Fitness Van by providing some of the leading pain-relievers available on the market today. As is the case with the other sponsors of this facility, Advil will also be exploring new ways of providing better healthcare products for golfers.

The products contributed by each sponsor of the Centinela Hospital Fitness Van have helped make the facility such a success that a similar Fitness Van was introduced on the Senior TOUR in late 1986.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

The original concept of the PGA TOUR, The Tournament Players Clubs have within the decade of the '80s gone from a dream to a network that now encompasses 22 courses in 12 states and, with the addition of TPC International, two countries.

It was the TOUR's view that the spectator had been left out in golf course design throughout the years. When it came time for the PGA TOUR to build its own course, the opportunity presented itself for the TOUR to build a course that not only challenged the players but also allowed spectators to see the action as never before.

It's called "Stadium Golf"-- and once you've viewed a tournament on a Stadium Golf Course, you'll understand why the network has grown in such a short period of time.

Spectator mounds abound that afford fans unrestricted views whether on tee shots, fairway shots or on the greens. In fact, the 18th hole at the original TPC at Sawgrass can accommodate crowds of some 30,000 people--all with a clear view of the action. You won't see any periscopes at an event on a Players Club course.

The network began in 1980 with the club at Sawgrass, where it annually hosts THE PLAYERS Championship, and quickly grew into the present number of 22. All TPCs are designed to host PGA TOUR or Senior PGA TOUR events, and to date the clubs have been designed by some of the top architects in the business--Pete Dye, Arnold Palmer, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Bob Cupp, the Von Hagge/Devlin team and Jack Nicklaus, to name just a few.

In addition, one of the things that adds a bit of spice to all TPCs is that a PGA TOUR player (or, in some cases, two) is assigned to serve as consultant to the designer. To date, Ed Sneed, Tom Weiskopf, Fuzzy Zoeller, Hubert Green, Craig Stadler, Ben Crenshaw, Al Geiberger and Chi Chi Rodriguez have been among those lending their expertise to the TPC Network.

In reality a nationwide country club, a membership at one TPC affords the member a chance to play at any of the other clubs across the country and an opportunity to view the greatest players in the world in action on his own course once a year.

Since the Tournament Players Club at Sawgrass opened, the TPC Network has now truly become "the best set of clubs in America."

PGA TOUR PRODUCTIONS

A Fixture in Jacksonville

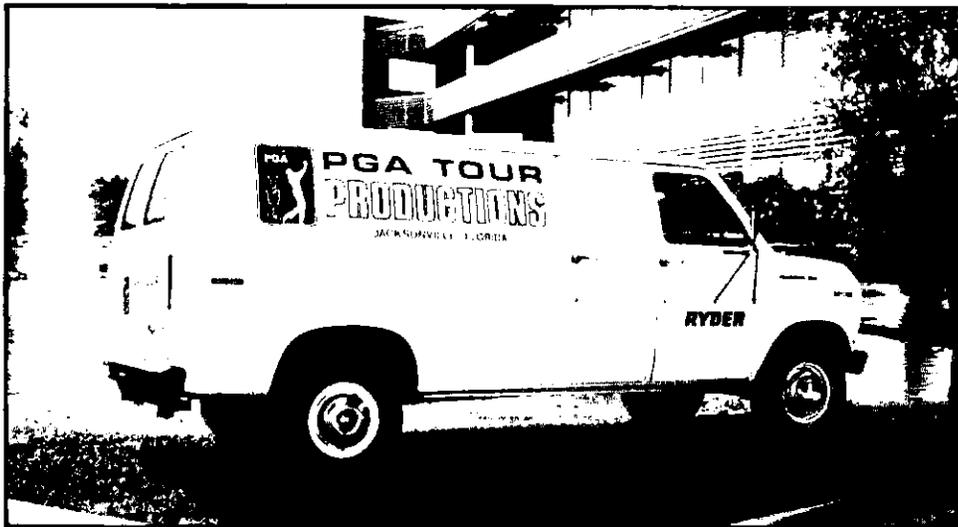

PGA TOUR Productions, the in-house television and video production company of the PGA TOUR, has continued to grow since moving to its new facilities in Jacksonville, Florida after relocating from New York City in 1990.

Productions had an outstanding year in 1991. For the second consecutive year "Inside the PGA TOUR", which aired three times weekly on ESPN, was nominated for an ACE Award--cable TV's version of the Emmy--as the Best Sports Information series.

"Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR" received rave reviews as it made its debut on ESPN this past year, running for 39 consecutive weeks. And "On TOUR", the monthly tournament highlight show on the Prime Network, was significantly upgraded.

Another major project in 1991 was the production of three home video tapes that are currently being distributed through Sports Illustrated, which has direct response rights, and LIVE Home Entertainment, which handles retail rights. Sponsored by National Car Rental, the three tapes are "Fabulous Finishes of the PGA TOUR", "The PGA TOUR's 18 Toughest Holes", and "Swings and Misses: Golf's Goof-Ups and Miraculous Moments."

In addition, PGA TOUR Productions continues to produce a number of other products including travel videos, commercials, corporate promotional and sales videos, and public service announcements.

The PGA TOUR Productions van covers TOUR events across the country.

PGA TOUR AND AGS DONATE OVER $19 MILLION TO CHARITY IN 1991

Charitable contributions generated from PGA TOUR events surpassed the $19 million mark for the third straight year in 1991.

Last year the American Golf Sponsors and the PGA TOUR donated $19.5 million to charity, raising the all-time total to $184.5 million. More than $100 million of the overall figure--$115.6 million, to be exact--has been generated in the past six TOUR seasons alone, a per-year average of over $18 million.

"We're elated to be able to continue our generous support of worthy charities across the country and to be able to make such a significant contribution in these difficult economic times," said AGS President Jim Bell. "It's a testimony and a tribute to all our volunteers and corporate sponsors that we can attain this level of contribution."

"Since the initial donation of $10,000 by the Palm Beach Invitational back in 1938, charity and the PGA TOUR have gone hand-in-hand," said PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman. "Since its inception in 1977 the AGS has been responsible for generating more than $170 million. Without our corporate sponsors, thousands of volunteers and, of course, the PGA TOUR professionals, that level of success would not have been possible."

While charitable dollars continue to be raised from tournament proceeds, monies also come from the PGA TOUR Charity Team Competition. The MCI Heritage Classic earned $500,000 for its charities from the $2 million available annually through the Team Competition. In 1992, as part of the PGA TOUR Partners Program, the winning Partners will designate $1 million of the $2 million total for charities of the tournament of their choice.

COCA-COLA USA JOINS THE PGA TOUR

A new long-term agreement between Coca-Cola and the PGA TOUR means expanded benefits for golf fans everywhere.

Coca-Cola has begun its sponsorship of the Coca-Cola Scoreboards. The move is great news for fans. Coca-Cola, in partnership with IBM, has updated the scoreboards. Now they're timelier and easier to read. And that translates to increased awareness and increased attendance at PGA TOUR events.

"We are delighted to announce this association with Coca-Cola USA," Commissioner Deane R. Beman said recently. "The attraction of another high-quality, blue-chip company to an active role with the PGA TOUR is an extremely positive and exciting development."

Coke has agreed to provide capital for both the operation and replacement of the Coca-Cola Scoreboards on the PGA TOUR. The scoreboards display the Coca-Cola logo. They provide such timely on-course information as current scores, special reports, and statistical data.

"This new relationship with Coca-Cola insures the golf fan's ability to really enjoy and understand the game," Commissioner Beman added.

Coca-Cola's relationship with the TOUR also means involvement at PGA TOUR tournaments. As part of this local package, the soft-drink giant sponsors Coca-Cola Youth Clinics at each event. These events attract between 400 and 1,000 youngsters per tournament. Pros like Billy Andrade, Peter Jacobsen and Rocco Mediate lead the clinics. They demonstrate a few fundamentals, and may create some new golfers in the process.

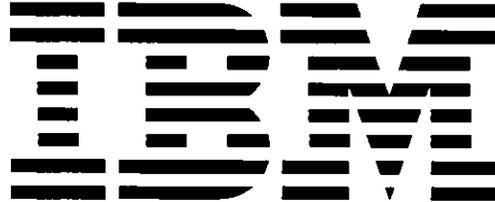

The PGA TOUR welcomes Coca-Cola USA to its family.

IBM GOES ON TOUR

A new agreement has the PGA TOUR and IBM working together to help make golf tournaments even more compelling and exciting.

The medium is information. IBM has signed an agreement to provide the PGA TOUR with a new scoring system for the electronic scoreboards. The IBM Scoring System provides state-of-the-art hardware and software that makes tournament scoring data more timely, more informational, and more interesting to golf fans.

Thanks to this cooperative venture, tournament fans have easier and quicker access to more scoreboard information than ever before. IBM's advances in leaderboard technology, long a staple of the TOUR's electronic scoreboards mean faster, more meaningful information, both on-site and via television.

For instance, leaderboard updates are now available within 30 seconds after a player completes a hole. And the system provides pertinent player information, both biographical and statistical. The IBM Scoring System also means instant information to press tents for use by on-site print and electronic media personnel. The system offers immediate access to a broad spectrum of statistical data.

On-site, fans at the 18th hole can see what the scoring average is at that hole at that moment. They also know how many birdies the hole has yielded so far. Corporate hospitality areas have access to the system.

An exciting aspect of this new relationship between the TOUR and IBM is the multi-media informational center. Located conveniently around each course, for use by fans, the kiosks provide state-of-the-art enjoyment of the sport.

"We are pleased about this new relationship with IBM," said Gary Stevenson, PGA TOUR Vice President of Marketing. "It links us with this prestigious firm, and it enhances our goal of making PGA TOUR events a more enjoyable experience for our spectators.

"The PGA TOUR leaderboards have always been innovative, and at the cutting edge of technology," Stevenson added. "Now, with the assistance of IBM, this new Scoring System sets a new standard for others to follow."

"I can't believe I won here. I can't believe I won again."

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Winner, 1981 New Mexico State Amateur; 1983 Mexican Open; 1981 William Tucker Intercollegiate.

Tommy Armour III has developed into one of the TOUR's fine players, and his name does attract a little more attention...his grandfather - known as the Silver Scot - was the winner of the United States and British Open Championships, plus the PGA Championship...the Silver Scot passed away in 1968 but he would have been proud of his grandson, who now is a winner on the PGA TOUR.

Tommy came through in impressive fashion in 1990, winning the Phoenix Open - his first start of the year - by five strokes over Jim Thorpe on the TPC of Scottsdale course...he was never headed in run to finish line...nearly won again three weeks later in the Shearson Lehman Hutton Open near San Diego but had to settle for second place, two strokes behind Dan Forsman.

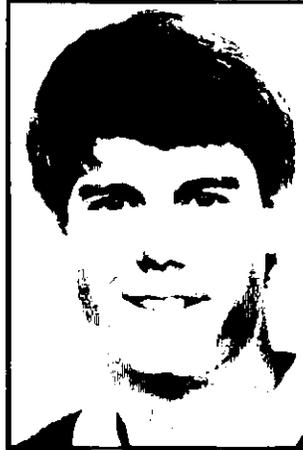

Qualified for TOUR in fall of 1981 but earned only $4,254...didn't make it back until fall of 1987...meanwhile, he travelled the world, spending most of his time on European and Asian Tours where he enjoyed exempt status..."it was great experience...main thing, I was able to play in real golf tournaments."

Tommy says he was "about 10" when he started to play golf at urging of "Mom and Dad"...played junior golf all around Southern California, winning some...played high school golf in Las Vegas...played baseball as well, but when seasons conflicted, decided to stay with golf...started at Lincoln Trail College in Illinois and then transferred to University of New Mexico...led Lobos to fifth place finish in NCAA championships...former winner of New Mexico Amateur and Mexican Open.

Started last year with tie for sixth in Infinity Tournament of Champions, thanks for last day 6-under-par 66...turned out to be his best finish of mediocre season when he found it difficult to find consistency of previous year.

NATIONAL TEAMS: Ryder Cup (2), 1989, 1991; World Cup, 1989

Paul Azinger stands tall as one of the outstanding players in the world...every young player could learn a lesson from him because it has been his sheer determination to succeed that has permitted his exceptional talent to surface...he loves to play the game and thrives on beating the best, such as he has done in the last two Ryder Cup matches...there appears to be no limit to what he might accomplish during his career.

He played the first four years on TOUR without any significant success, but he burst upon the scene in superstar fashion in 1987 when he won three times, finished second on the money list and was named PGA Player-of-the-Year...the Las Vegas Invitational was one of the victories and he holed an eagle putt of 30 feet on the last green to get it.

Not many people were aware that Paul played with pain in his right shoulder for several years, although he said, "it didn't affect my swing"...when it became worse last year, he headed for Centinela Medical Center in California after the U.S. Open for surgery...it was performed on June 20...he missed nine tournaments before he came back at the NEC World Series of Golf.

Everything considered, 1991 was a superb year...he won the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am by four strokes, was second in the Honda Classic and third in THE PLAYERS Championship before the operation...in the Ryder Cup at Kiawah Island in September, he came on like a "hurricane" to be a giant killer again...he won a crucial singles match against Jose Maria Olazabal...in the 1989 matches, he defeated Seve Ballesteros in singles.

Paul attended Brevard Junior College and Florida State University before launching his career on TOUR in 1982...he credits John Redman with turning him from an average player to a good one during the early days of his career...an extremely exciting player, he is even more impressive in his family life...truly, one of the nicest guys in the business.

There may never be another week like the one in mid-July, 1991 for Ian Baker-Finch...he put together four beautiful rounds, with a third-day 64 serving as the catalyst to a magnificent victory in the 120th British Open Championship at Royal Birkdale Golf Club in Southport, England...it was an extremely popular victory because Baker-Finch truly is one of the nicest people ever to play the game.

The handsome Australian has known success all around the world...but never has been more impressive than he was the last two days at Birkdale...he finished off his 64 on Saturday with an eagle-birdie and on Sunday afternoon, he started with five birdies over the first seven holes...he closed with a 4-under-par 66 and a total of 8-under-par 272 to edge fellow Australian Mike Harwood by two strokes...Fred Couples was three back.

Ian officially last became a member of the TOUR in 1988 after finishing third in the NEC World Series of Golf...he earned enough money to be able to accept unlimited sponsor exemptions in 1989...he then came through with an impressive victory in the Southwestern Bell Colonial in Fort Worth...Two years ago, he earned $611,492 with three second place finishes and two thirds...he was only one stroke behind winner Paul Azinger in the Tournament of Champions and Gil Morgan in the Kemper Open.

Last year, he added three more runner-up finishes, losing the New England Classic in a playoff to Bruce Fleisher the week before the British, and also in the MCI Heritage Classic and The International.

Baker-Finch's home is in Sanctuary Cove near Brisbane in Queensland, the same "neighborhood" as Greg Norman and Wayne Grady...turned pro in 1979 and first significant pro victory was 1983 New Zealand Open...led 1984 Open at St. Andrews after three rounds but poor final round dropped him down list...biggest win at home was 1988 Australian Masters...in Fall of 1990, led Australia New Zealand team to Four Tours World Championship in Japan.

Chip Beck's name will live forever in the history books of the PGA TOUR...on October 11, 1991, in the third round of the Las Vegas Invitational, he joined Al Geiberger as the only players to shoot 59 in a TOUR event...Chip did it with 13 birdies and no bogeys on the 6,194 yard Sunrise Golf Club course...he started at No. 10 and had seven birdies for a 29...after a birdie-par start, he birdied six in a row and then parred the 18th...moving to No. 1, he went birdie-birdie-par-birdie and then two pars before closing with three straight birdies...on the final hole, of 408-yards, he hit a driver and then an 8-iron to 3 feet and made the putt.

Beck received $500,000 from Hilton Hotels Corp. for his share of the $1 million bonus offered to any player shooting a sub-60 round...he will receive payments of $25,000 per year for 20 years...Hilton also donated $500,000 to charities...Geiberger had his 59 at the Colonial CC on June 10, 1977 in the Danny Thomas Memphis Classic...Beck tied for third in Las Vegas.

It took Chip a few years to adjust to TOUR life, but once he did starting in 1987, he became one of the best...first victory was the 1988 Los Angeles Open at Riviera with a brilliant 17-under-par effort...two months later, won again in the USF&G Classic with 26-under-par 262...earned $916,818 for year and was No. 2 on the money list...won Vardon Trophy for low stroke average that year with 69.46.

Won again in 1990 in Buick Open, posting final round 7-under-par 65 to come from eight strokes back and beat Hale Irwin, Fuzzy Zoeller and Mike Donald...last year at the Buick, tied Brad Faxon at 17-under-par 271 but lost playoff on first extra hole...in Ryder Cup play last year, won crucial singles match against Ian Woosnam, 3 and 1.

Chip was 10-year sold when introduced to game by his mother in Fayetteville, NC...went to University of Georgia and, as a senior, was named Athlete of the Year...first golfer ever so honored by Bulldogs...won six collegiate events.

Developing into one of the TOUR's premier players...after brilliant collegiate career, it took him awhile to find his way onto the TOUR and into limelight...first year was in 1987 and first victory didn't come until last year in Shearson Lehman Brothers Open at Torrey Pines near San Diego...won impressively with 69-65-67-67--268, 20-under-par for two-stroke margin over Bill Sander.

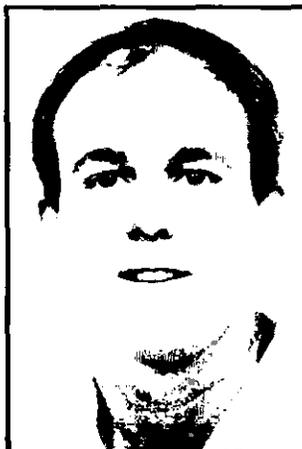

"I always thought I had what it takes to win out here," he said "but I was beginning to wonder"...used new putter that week and his putting was the key to victory...previous Monday, while playing with some friends in Palm Springs, he way having bad day on greens...after missing short putt on 17th, he turned and tossed putter he had used since high school days in St. George, Utah, into the pond.

Started in golf as youngster on nine-hole course that was adjacent to family's home...mother, father and four brothers all played golf...by age 12, knew golf was his game, too...moved on to Utah State University and won 1980 NCAA Championship as a junior...finished second by one stroke in 1981 NAAs and was named "College Player of the Year."

Set his sights on the TOUR, but didn't make it...so, he decided to get away from game for a couple of years...then started to play mini-tours for awhile and tried again in the TOUR's Qualifying School in fall of 1986 and he made it...after slow start his first season in 1987, he gradually put his game together and easily finished among the leading 125 money winners...nearly gained first victory in 1989 BellSouth Atlanta Classic, but finished third, one-stroke out of Scott Simpson-Bob Tway playoff...in 1988, he did win a special non-TOUR event, the Utah State Open.

Finished 57th on money list in 1991, same position he occupied in third year on TOUR in 1982--but last year's dollar figure was $207,566 higher...long regarded as one of PGA TOUR's hardest workers, consistency he has achieved over past three years has been reward for his perseverance and hard work put in over the years.

After three seasons of progress starting when he joined PGA TOUR in 1980, career took downward turn beginning in 1983...struggled mightily to regain promise he showed from 1980-82 but won only $3,245 in 1985 and didn't even play TOUR in '86...returned to competition in 1987 and finally, in 1988, began to play way he always felt he could.

Confidence level achieved in '88 carried over into 1989, when he had biggest money year and first career victory, impressive four-stroke triumph in Centel Classic...previous best finish had been playoff loss to Hal Sutton in 1982 Walt Disney World Classic, when he fired closing-round 64 to force overtime.

Fact he never lost faith in himself continued to bear fruit in 1990, when he gained considerable national attention with a T7 in The Masters and solo fourth in PGA Championship at Shoal Creek...best '90 finish was T3 in the Hardee's Golf Classic, crafted when closing-round 65 left him one stroke out of a playoff.

Had five topten finishes in 1991, including third place in Kemper Open and T3 at H.E.B. Texas Open.

Golfing career began when he used to sneak under fence of public golf course near Staten Island, NY home...won Metropolitan Amateur in 1975 and 1976 and Metropolitan Open in 1979...captured National Junior College title while attending Miami Dade North and before moving to University of Florida, from where he graduated in 1979...joined TOUR in spring of '80.

1992 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: New England Classic

Some people may joke about Mark Brooks winning the "Greater Slam," but this young man appears on his way to becoming one of the greater players in the game...he has won three times during his eight years on TOUR - the Greater Hartford Open, Greater Greensboro Open and Greater Milwaukee Open...the last two events came last year when he went from being a good young player to an outstanding one...he more than doubled his prize money from any other single season.

The former University of Texas golfer proved how tough he could be coming down the stretch...at the K mart GGO, he was seven strokes behind entering the last round and proceeded to shoot an 8-under-par 64 for a 13-under-par 275...had six straight birdies in one stretch...sometime later, Gene Sauers came in to tie him, but Mark won the playoff with a par on the third extra hole...in Milwaukee, he battled Robert Gamez for all four rounds and finally won by a stroke.

He started on TOUR in 1984 and after little success through first four years, broke through in 1988 Canon Greater Hartford Open by winning playoff against Joey Sindelar and Dave Barr, making birdie putt of 10 feet on second extra hole...nearly won again later in year at Gatlin Brothers-Southwest Classic...made 50-foot eagle putt on final hole to tie Tom Purtzer but lost in the playoff.

Started in game at age eight while visiting grandparents..grandfather was an avid golfer...enjoyed success at the high school and junior levels, winning several titles...went on to University of Texas and was two-time All-American selection...four times he obtained his TOUR card, starting in fall of 1983, but each year he lost it and had to go back to the Qualifying School...the last time was in 1987 and he proved in 1988 that he did, indeed, belong.

1992 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: Shell Houston Open

Credited by Dillard Pruitt with giving Pruitt tip that helped Dillard win Chattanooga Classic, then went out next week and won Canon Greater Hartford Open for his own first TOUR victory...GHO triumph continued upward spiral that saw big, friendly fellow from University of Houston earn $312,466 in 1990...year concluded with his other top ten finish, T2 in Independent Insurance Agent Open.

Hartford victory came on birdie putt of first hole in playoff with Corey Pavin and Rick Fehr...by sinking curling 25-footer, erased any lingering pain from missed 15-foot putt on final hole of 1990 U.S. Open that would have forced playoff with Hale Irwin and Mike Donald...spent an hour on phone with family following win and then said: "I don't mind telling you, it's been pretty emotional"...6-3, 200-pounder also exclaimed through his jubilation, "I might have been able to dunk a basketball!"

His missed putt on final hole of U.S. Open notwithstanding, performance at Medinah remains one of his career highlights...was tied for third round lead with Donald, and birdie on par-3 17th hole when he hit a 9-iron two feet from pin put him in position to tie for lead.

Prior to GHO victory, T2 in 1989 Kemper Open was best previous finish...along with third-place tie with Nick Faldo in U.S. Open, had two other thirds in '90: Phoenix Open and Honda Classic...also placed fifth in THE PLAYERS Championship in 1990.

Came to TOUR with outstanding amateur credentials, including NCAA Championship victory as Houston freshman in 1982 and four All-America selections...Steve Elkington one of his Houston teammates...helped lead Cougars to three NCAA team championships.

Comes from an athletic background...father played behind Jim Otto at center for Oakland Raiders of National Football League, and brother Chuck played tackle briefly for the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals.

Very few athletes achieve the stature of instant recognition when just their first name is mentioned, but "Raymond" is one such athlete...clearly one of the greatest players game has ever produced...achieved in 1991 the Ryder Cup victory that eluded him as non-playing captain in 89...appearance was his seventh as player on behalf of U.S. Ryder Cup cause.

Ryder Cup triumph brought him a measure of success in four decades, starting with 1963 St. Petersburg Open...among his most impressive victories are wins in 1976 Masters, 1981 Tournament Players Championship, 1982 PGA Championship and 1986 U.S. Open...at age 47 almost pulled off yet another major triumph when he had 1990 Masters all but wrapped up, only to have Nick Faldo come on strong at finish and defeat him in two-hole playoff.

After winning 1986 Open at Shinnecock Hills, achieved--albeit briefly--distinction of being oldest ever to capture that event (Hale Irwin was 45 when he won 1990 U.S. Open)...said of his Open victory: "The U.S. Open had always been one of my goals...I don't think my career would have been complete without winning the Open."

Two years ago, a 9-under par 63 at Torrey Pines during second round put him to position to win for third time in PGA TOUR career...first victory came in 1985 Lite Quad Cities Open after final two rounds of 63-67 helped him overcome six-stroke deficit...next won in 1986 Hertz Bay Hill Classic.

In 1989 captured biggest win of career as he defeated Ben Crenshaw in playoff to win NEC World Series of Golf...win gave him a 10-year exemption into all PGA TOUR co-sponsored events.

Perhaps most spectacular victory came two years ago in USF&G Classic...needing par on tough 18th hole at English Turn G&CC, found himself in fairway bunker and then greenside bunker...needing to get up-and-down for par to force playoff, holed his bunker shot from 50 feet for the victory...that was one of only two birdies on hole for the day...Greg Norman had other only moments earlier..."somehow I just knew it would go in," he told media later.

In 1988 posted pair of wins...first one came in Southern Open in playoff over Bob Tway...five weeks later won by five strokes at Northern Telecom Tucson Open...same week he won Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out Finals in Tucson.

Last year best finish came in Memorial Tournament as a final-round 4-under-par 68 gave him tie for eighth place...at Hardee's Golf Classic a pair of 66s allowed him to finish in tie for tenth.

NATIONAL TEAMS: 1991 Four Tours World Championship of Golf

Jim Gallagher Jr. has made a point loud and clear...he belongs on the PGA TOUR and he is here to stay...and that's marvelous for the TOUR because Gallagher is one of the more personable people in the game...his first victory came in the 1990 Greater Milwaukee Open and last year he put together another superb season.

During one six-tournament stretch last summer, he was one of the hottest items in the game...in successive starts, he tied for 11th in the Centel Western Open and then tied for third in the Chattanooga Classic after a 64 start; tied for fourth in the Canon Greater Hartford Open with a second-day 65; finished third in the PGA Championship after a last-day 67; stumbled slightly in the International but came back in the NEC World Series to finish second after losing a playoff to Tom Purtzer...he won $278,085 over that stretch...in Las Vegas Invitational, he set 29-under-par 331 and tied for third.

The University of Tennessee graduate comes from big golfing family...father is head professional at Meshingomesia Country Club in Marion, IN; and his wife Cissy has place on the LPGA Tour...brother Jeff won on the Ben Hogan Tour last summer in the Cleveland Open...after being on-and-off the TOUR for his first few years, he gained exempt status the hard way in 1988...he lost his card at the end of 1987 and was relying on sponsor's exemption for 1988...a tie for second in the Greater Milwaukee Open was the springboard he needed to make it, and his career has been racing for the stars ever since.

Milwaukee has been a good stop for him...two years ago when he won at the Tuckaway Country Club, he tied with Billy Mayfair and Ed Dougherty at 17-under-par 271...he won it on the first extra hole with a par while his rivals both missed the green and made bogeys...his third in the PGA Championship was especially delightful since it was in his home state of Indiana and he played two rounds with Arnold Palmer.

NATIONAL TEAMS: 1989 Walker Cup

Describes himself as "the type of player who plays well for periods at a time"... certainly bore that out in 1991 when, after missing cut in eight of nine events early in year, closed out season with top ten finishes in three of last eight tournaments . included were seconds in Greater Milwaukee
Open, where he blistered Tuckaway Country Club layout with first-round 61, and Buick Southern Open...also had T8 in Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic, due in large part to closing 65...finished season with $280,349, good for 59th on money list.

Performed admirably in first official start as member of TOUR, winning Northern Telecom Open in January 1990...said he "dreamed about winning on the PGA TOUR for as long as I can remember"...described victory on the TPC at Starpass course in Tucson as "the thrill of a lifetime, especially with my family and so many of my friends there"...mother and father had traveled from their Las Vegas home to see their son make his debut, and brother Randy was his caddy. .
additionally, having spent three years at the University of Arizona in Tucson, all his ex-teammates and many of his college friends were in gallery. . .turned in rounds of 65-66-69-70 for four-shot win over Mark Calcavecchia.

Next big thrill came on final hole of Bay Hill Club in '90 Nestle Invitational...seven iron from 176 yards landed about four feet to right of hole and jumped in for eagle 2, giving him eventual one shot victory over Greg Norman.

First time he swung cut-down golf club was when he was two years old...father, an avid golfer, used to take him to practice range when he had to babysit. . .although didn't win anything junior golf showed enough promise to earn a scholarship to University of Arizona... in 1989 was named winner of Jack Nicklaus and Fred Haskins Awards as "outstanding collegiate play-of-the-year"...also earned berth on Walker Cup team.

For the second year in a row his performance was hampered by nagging injuries...after THE PLAYERS Championship in March didn't play until the Hardee's Golf Classic in mid-September...suffered from severe muscle problems in his lower back...did show flashes of the skill that made him one of the game's top young players...finished tied for 12th in Las Vegas Invitational with rounds of 71-66-64-69-67...the 8-under-par 64 was his lowest round of the year.

First win came in the 1985 Kemper Open...entered final round six shot behind Larry Mize...made 50-foot birdie putt on the final hole to take lead that held up as the others finished...victory was worth $90,000...won twice in 1988...lifted by a third round 6-under-par 65 won the B.C. Open...five days after victory, his son Maxwell Alexander was born...capped off the 1988 season by winning the Centel Classic...year before had finished second there...one stroke win over Fred Couples in the 1989 Doral Ryder Open catapulted him to his best season on TOUR with $474,511.

Joined the TOUR in 1984...led in driving distance that year with an average of 276.5...had to go back to Q School however to regain his card...win in Kemper Open allowed him carefully pick spots the rest of the season to rest his knees which have faced surgery three times...continues that practice.

When talks turns to nice guys on the PGA TOUR, Morris Hatalsky's name always is mentioned...and over the years, he has displayed a solid golf game as well...first victory was an impressive one in the Hall of Fame Classic on the classic No. 2 course at Pinehurst...he won by two strokes over Jerry Pate and D.A. Weibring.

Next victory came in 1983 Greater Milwaukee Open in playoff over George Cadle...very next week, he lost in playoff to Danny Edwards in Quad Cities Open...had to wait until 1988 to win again, this time in the Kemper Open on the TPC at Avenel course in playoff over Tom Kite...then he won again in 1990 in the Bank of Boston Classic by a stroke over Scott Verplank...he birdied three of the last four holes for a 68 and 9-under-par 275.

He said of time between Kemper and Boston triumphs, "golf was a struggle for me (during that period). It was a difficult journey but I had learned through my faith that you have to persevere, have faith"...last year, he saved some of his best golf for the end of the season, such as tie for fifth place in the Buick Southern Open...the Kemper was good to him again, as he tied for 11th place.

Started in game at age 10 after brother gave him a set of clubs..."I fell in love with the game right away"...living in San Diego, it wasn't long until he was competing on the junior level and winning...at age 17, he won the Mexico National junior title and in 1969 was named San Diego high school golfer of year...went to Arizona State and was on same team as Howard Twitty, Tom Purtzer and Bob Gilder...after two years, transferred to United States International and captained 1972 team to NAIA championship

Few years ago, started to re-work mechanics of his swing..."something I had to do...not only learned a lot about golf swing but about myself as well"...as result, ability to score has improved.

Nolan Henke has been rather impressive during his last two years on the PGA TOUR, winning twice...those close to the game believe the victories are only the indicators of greater things to come...he won the B.C. Open in 1990 and the Phoenix Open last year in a hair-raising finish with Tom Watson, Curtis Strange and Gil Morgan...going back to the end of 1990 and through the Phoenix Open, he had 19 straight rounds of par or less.

He started at Phoenix on the TPC of Scottsdale course with rounds of 65-66-66 and led by four strokes...on Sunday, after solid front nine and then birdie at 10, he led by three over Strange...he bogeyed three holes on the way home and found himself staring at three fierce veterans...he stopped the slide at the 18th with a birdie putt of 18 feet to win by one over the trio..."I can't believe that putt went in...I tightened up on the back side."

Later, he joked, "I thought my first win would come on the Senior TOUR...the first one was a shock...this one was a bigger shock."...at the B.C., he was tied with Jim Hallet after the first round with a 5-under-par 66...a second round of 64 gave him a two stroke lead...a 70 the third day let him increase his lead to three strokes...a closing 68 gave him a three-stroke margin over Mark Wiebe- and $126,000...the Phoenix victory was worth $180,000.

He missed his first attempt to get his TOUR card in the fall of 1987 but made it the next year...was not comfortable in 1989 and lost his card, but earned it back in the fall of 1989...started in game at very early age ("as soon as I could stand up")...knew in high school that golf was his game...went to Florida State and won seven collegiate events...was runner-up in 1987 NCAA's...winner of such significant amateur events as 1986 Porter Cup and 1988 American Amateur Classic...through the years, Mike Calbot of Bonita Springs, FL, has been his teacher.

NATIONAL TEAMS: World Amateur Cup, 1978; Walker Cup, 1979.

One of the outstanding ball-strikers in the game...has a reputation for being able to post very low numbers and challenging frequently...won the Vardon Trophy for low stroke average on TOUR in 1986 and nearly won it again the following year...has shown talent needed to win going back to his days at Wake Forest where he was a member of 1975 NCAA Championship team.

Showed his true heart in 1989 when he won the Las Vegas Invitational in a playoff over Robert Wrenn...collected $225,000 and, at awards ceremony, announced he was donating $100,000 to the Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital in Orlando...son, Cameron was successfully treated for rare bone infection in right leg there.

His display of humanitarianism came just three weeks after the greatest disappointment of his golfing career...Nick Faldo shot a final round 65 in the Masters Tournament to tie him at 5-under-par 283...on the first extra hole (No. 10 at Augusta National), Scott missed a putt of 2-1/2 feet that would have given him the victory...Faldo won on next hole with long birdie putt...did have his best money year, though, with $670,680.

Qualified for PGA TOUR in fall of 1979...while preparing for first start in 1980 Phoenix Open, he jarred his back and had to withdraw...was not able to play until 23rd event of the year, the Atlanta Classic...few weeks later, shot first round of 63 to lead Quad Cities Open and went on to easy victory, setting tournament record of 14-under-par 266...Curtis Strange and Gary Hallberg, two of his teammates at Wake Forest, finished second and third, respectively.

Started to play at age of eight...father, Arthur, also went to Wake Forest and earned All-American honors in baseball...brother Buddy is a professional bowler...has won in Japan...won 1986 Chrysler Team title with Gary Hallberg.

Mike Hulbert is one of those players who goes about his business in a quiet, efficient way and when you look at the summary at the end of the tournament, there he is picking up another nice check...highly respected by his peers for knowledge of game...and well liked by everyone...first year on TOUR was 1985 but lost his card...came back in 1986 and has been going strong ever since.

Won for third time last summer in Anheuser Busch Classic in playoff over Kenny Knox...tied going into final round at Kingsmill GC, they both bogeyed the final hole in near darkness to shoot 3-under-par 68s for 18-under-par 266...later equalled tournament record set by Lanny Wadkins in 1990...on first extra hole, with darkness closing in fast, Mike two putted from 40 feet for par and victory.

First victory came in 1986 Federal Express St. Jude Classic in Memphis in stirring duel with close friend Joey Sindelar..."I still can't believe it," he said. "Don't know when it will hit me"...relationship goes back to days as kids in Horseheads, NY..."Joey's family lived by the golf course. When I first started to go over there, I met Joey and we became friends right away. We'd play every day and we'd play as many holes as we could."

Mike's second victory also was special...in 1989 B.C. Open, close to Horseheads...he won in a playoff over Bob Estes with "whole family and a lot of friends there"...also tied for second in Canadian Open that year and went on to collect $477,621...back in 1986, his second year, he tied for third in the Shearson Lehman Brothers Andy Williams Open, just one stroke out of Bob Tway-Bernhard Langer playoff...months later, has final round 64 at Bay Hill to tie Ray Floyd for second, one behind Dan Forsman...in 1987, teamed with Tway to win Chrysler Team Championship...has been under wing of David Leadbetter.

Winner, 1988 Michigan Open. Winner, 1988 Michigan Match Play. 1988 Michigan Player of the Year. Winner of three mini-tour events, Quarterfinalist, 1982 U.S. Amateur.

Second chance at TOUR turned out to be a charm...kept his TOUR membership by finishing 121st on the 1991 money list...was in danger of losing card before Las Vegas Invitational...played all five rounds in the 60's including an 8-under-par 64 in the third round to finish tied for seventh...earned largest paycheck on TOUR, $48,375...earlier in the year finished tied for eighth in the Shearson Lehman Brothers Open with four rounds under par.

Played the TOUR in 1989 but lost his exempt status after earning only $46,384...that year he made 11 cuts in 30 tournaments, but missed nine more by a single stroke...best finish was a tie for 14th in the Anheuser Busch Golf Classic...did lead the TOUR in Driving Distance with an average of 280.9.

Missed 1989 Qualifying School due to illness...played his way back onto PGA TOUR by way of the Ben Hogan Tour...finished fifth on the 1990 Ben Hogan Tour money list earning a spot on the TOUR in 1991...won the 1990 Ben Hogan Macon Open and Ben Hogan Santa Rosa Open.

Learned to manage game while on Hogan Tour...despite his awesome length with driver, is shorter with irons than most TOUR pros..."With my irons, I'm probably a club shorter than most guys on TOUR. But with my driver I'm quite a bit longer. I was paired with Seve Ballesteros in the 1989 U.S. Open and, with the driver, we were close in length, but with the irons he was slightly more than a club longer."

Road to TOUR wasn't easy... turning professional in 1983, it took five tries at TOUR's Qualifying Tournament before he made it..."I just wasn't ready the first couple years.

Hale Irwin's place in sports history is assured...one of the greatest golfers of all-time...few have ever played with his determination and consistency...has extensive list of achievements, but list must start with three U.S. Open Championships...won in 1974 at Winged Foot, in 1979 at Inverness and again in 1990 at Medinah in a gruelling 19-hole playoff against Mike Donald...made 60-foot putt on 72nd hole to force playoff...birdied five of last nine holes for a 31 and a 67 for the day...still tied after scheduled 18-hole playoff the next day. Hale ended it with a 10-foot birdie putt on the 19th hole...at age 45, became the oldest player to win the Open.

Very next week, rode his Open victory wave into the Buick Classic at Westchester CC...with four rounds in the 60s, won by two strokes over Paul Azinger...finished year with career high $838,249...many of his 19 victories have been on the toughest courses, Harbour Town GL, Pebble Beach, Butler National, Pinehurst No. 2, Riviera and Muirfield Village...while at University of Colorado, where he was an outstanding football player, he won the 1967 NCAA golf championship.

From early 1975 through 1978 schedule, he had a streak of 86 tournaments without missing a cut...that's third best in TOUR history...has played on five Ryder Cup teams, but the one-half point he gained against Bernhard Langer in the final match last September, gave the coveted cup back to United States...as has been his trademark through the years. Hale Irwin found a way to succeed in the toughest of situations.

Last year, had brilliant five-tournament run with fourth at the Heritage, third at Atlanta, second at Memorial (lost playoff to Kenny Perry), third at Buick Classic and 11th at U.S. Open.

1992 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: Las Vegas Invitational

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: 1977 and 1978 All-American choice. Winner, 1977 Southeastern Amateur.

Enjoyed best money-won season of career in 1991 with $423,025, more than $160,000 better than previous best ($261,608 in 1986)...year's high points included second-place finish in Anheuser-Busch Classic and fourth in PGA Championship...was first-round leader in latter and paired with champion John Daly in final round...lost playoff to Mike Hulbert on first extra hole of Anheuser-Busch...62 in third round tied Kingsmill course record and put him into contention (trailed by six after 36 holes).

Victory in 1990 Buick Southern Open most emotional of three career titles entering...1992 season..."Besides the major championships, this is my most important tournament"...event contested at Green Island Country Club in Columbus, GA, where he lived until he was 16 and where his father is buried...going into final round he said: "I'm excited. This probably is the most nervous I've been in a long time. That shows you what this tournament means to me"...was third-round leader, closed with 66 that left him tied with Jim Hallet at 15-under-par 265...12-foot birdie putt on second extra hole gave him win.

Solid play over course of last six seasons made up for early difficulty getting into and then staying on TOUR...missed qualifying six times, starting in 1978, before finally making it in the fall of 1981 (there were two Qualifying Tournaments a year in those days)...was on-and-off TOUR for next four years...shot a 67 in Open qualifier (sometimes called 4-spotting) for 1986 Honda Classic to make field, then led tournament through first two rounds...third-round 80, when high winds boosted average score over 79, left him just strokes off pace, and final-round 70--good for 1-over-par 287--gave him one-stroke victory...won 1987 Hardee's Golf Classic with tournament recorded 15-under-par 265.

In 1989 set TOUR record for fewest putts in tournament--93--at MCI Heritage Classic...tied marks with 18 putts for 18 holes and eight putts for nine.

Had outstanding statistical season in 1991, in total driving category...also first in hitting greens in regulation (.733), third in scoring average (69.80), eighth in driving accuracy (.760) and 14th in all-around...with that sort of consistency, no surprise he had seven Top Ten tournament finishes, including second at PGA Championship, only major championship he plays in each year...despite limited schedule (as has been case since 1982) finished 19th on money list with $566,272 earned in just 19 starts.

Having taken four previous weeks off, was satisfied with runnerup performance at Crooked Stick: "I let a few iron shots get away, but I didn't really give too many shots away. I'd say it was a good week for a guy who hasn't played in a month."

Started season with Top Ten finishes in four of first seven events... at Las Vegas had distinction of being only player in field when Chip Beck shot 59 who also was playing in Danny Thomas Memphis Classic when Al Geiberger authored his 59 at Colonial Country Club in 1977.

Made TOUR upon second attempt at qualifying in spring of 1975...played well almost from outset, capturing first tournament in four hole playoff with Gene Littler at 1977 Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open...won Hawaiian Open several weeks later...repeated Garagiola-Tucson win in 1979...other titles include two Canadian Opens, two Byron Nelson Classics, the Colonial National Invitational and Bob Hope Desert Classic.

Almost walked away from game in 1973 after leaving University of Houston...returned after six months and turned professional in 1974.

1992 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: Ping Kapalua International

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Named All-Mid-American Conference three years; honorable mention All-American, 1983; Winner, 1990 Mexican Open.

Seven Top Ten finishes, including a pair of second-place ties (Southwestern Bell Colonial and The International), keyed best career year with $386,759 won in 1991...held third-round lead in Colonial at 11-under-par 199 but finished with 70 and in three-way deadlock with Scott Hoch and David Edwards, three shots behind Tom Purtzer...qualified for final day's activities at The International for third consecutive year...tied with Ian Baker-Finch and Scott Gump with seven points, three behind Jose Maria Olazabal under the Modified Stableford Scoring System.

Consistency has become key to his success...made 13 straight cuts to close out 1988 season, with best finish in that stretch being T3 in Texas Open...in 1990 made cut in 10 straight events and 13 or 14 through early spring and summer; last-round 64 gave him Top Ten finish at Canon Greater Hartford Open...had four Top Ten finishes in six events starting at The International and running through H.E.B. Texas Open in 1991.

Wire-to-wire leader in only TOUR victory to date, 1988 Walt Disney World Oldsmobile Classic...finished regulation play tied with Chip Beck at tournament record 25-under-par 263...Lohr's rounds were 62 on Palm, 67 at Lake Buena Vista, and 66-68 at Magnolia, including birdie on final hole (which Beck bogeyed)...playoff went to fifth extra hole, which Beck bogeyed while Lohr birdied.

Golf had stiff competition from baseball when he was youngster...started to play golf at relatively young age, but was an outstanding baseball pitcher through high school...golf won out when he went to Miami of Ohio, where both sports were played in spring.

Equates pressure on TOUR to his baseball experience: "Pressure is when you're on the mound, the bases are loaded, it's the bottom of the ninth, and you have a 3-and-o count on the batter."

Is one of most talented young players in game today...capable of winning anywhere, anytime...enjoyed finest season in 1991, winning MCI Heritage Classic for second time but also lost NEC World Series of Golf playoff to Tom Purtzer...harnessed great power off tee in order to gain more accuracy, and it's paying big dividends...still one of longest hitters in game.

Says he "started to play golf as soon as I could walk...when I was nine or 10 years old, there was no doubt in my mind. I wanted to be a pro"...understandable...when he was a tot, father played TOUR...for many years until tragic death in an airplane crash late in 1988, Davis Love Jr. was regarded as one of premier teacher/technicians in game...he is one who molded young Davis' game.

Was three-time All-America at University of North Carolina and member of 1985 Walker Cup team...first year on TOUR was 1986...first victory came in 1987 Heritage Classic...also second in Colonial National Invitation that year..."Winning at Harbour Town (Heritage) was special because it was close to home and on a course where you have to hit it straight and putt well"...nearly won again in 1989 but lost Nestle Invitational in playoff to Tom Kite.

Second victory came in The International at Castle Pines GC near Denver...made it into 24-man final field and had nine birdies and four bogeys for 14 points to win by three points...at year's end went over half-million dollar mark for first time...last year easily his most profitable...early in season, had four top tens in five starts to set tone for year...at Heritage in April, won by two over Ian Baker-Finch at 13-under-par 271...at World Series, tied with Purtzer and Jim Gallagher at 1-under-par 279 and Purtzer won with par on second extra hole.

Continued string of playing well in month of September, as 5-under-par 66 on final day gave him T7 finish at B.C. Open...$25,800 payday assured maintaining his exempt status, and was also fourth consecutive year he has earned at least $100,000.

Got off to strong start as he finished T9 at United Hawaiian Open, with an opening round 6-under-par 66... collected only victory on PGA TOUR in 1983, when he shot final round 8-under-par 64 to win Bank of Boston Classic by a stroke over Jim Thorpe, John Mahaffey and Sammy Rachels.

From an earnings standpoint, best season came in 1989, when he garnered over $240,000 and reeled off four consecutive top ten finishes in fall of year... also had two top tens in 1990 campaign in month of September, finishing T8 at Hardee's Classic and T10 at Buick Southern Open.

Low round of his career occurred in the third round of the 1984 Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic with an 11-under-par 61 on the Palm Course.

Has played golf all over the world, including winning Australian Tour's Order of Merit in 1977... uses an elongated putter that he calls "a Senior TOUR starter set"... putter is approximately 42 inches long, which is six to eight inches shorter than long putters normally used on Senior circuit.

First year on TOUR was 1975 and surprised by winning back-to-back events--Quad Cities Open and Pleasant Valley Classic...after latter triumph, left winner's check for $40,000 in restaurant near course...sponsor issued a new check and, at last report, original still hangs on wall behind bar...gained impressive victory next year in Memorial Tournament, defeating Hale Irwin on fourth extra hole of playoff.

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Three-time All-America. Winner, 1986 Texas State Open. Runner-up 1981 Canadian Amateur.

Came roaring back last year to regain position with TOUR's tournament winners...had won in 1988, twice in 1989 and then, due to mononucleosis during early weeks of 1990, was not able to function as well as he knew he could...last year became another good one, as he won H.E.B. Texas Open in San Antonio...week previous tied for third in B.C. Open.

When he won Hardee's Golf Classic in 1988, became part of TOUR history...middle two rounds of 62-63--125 equalled all-time lowest score ever posted for two days...accomplished feat at par-70 Oakwood Country Club...Ron Streck set standard when he won 1978 Texas Open...Blaine won Hardee's with 19-under-par 261.

Came through again in 1989, winning Honda Classic by four strokes over Payne Stewart with 65-64 finish...closing round 66 let him win Bank of Boston Classic by stroke over Brad Faxon...in 1986, lost Boston event in playoff to Gene Sauers...won nearly $600,000 that season.

Started to play game at age 14 in Fort Stockton, TX..."Thought it was neat how far you could hit the ball" ...went on to win 1977 Texas State High School championship...moved on to the University of Houston...roomed with Fred Couples one year and with CBS sportscaster Jim Nantz for three years...during early days of career Ken Wright, pro at Fort Stockton GC, helped him immensely; then Charlie Epps, head pro at Houston CC, put on finishing touches...putting was one of his weaknesses...since he is naturally lefthanded, Epps suggested putting lefthanded, although he still plays all other shots from right side, his splendid record shows results.

1992 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: Centel Western Open

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Winner 1989, 1990 NCAA Championship; 1990 U.S. Amateur Championship; 1989 Fresno State Classic; 1989 Forest Hills Invitational; 1989 Rebel Classic; 1989 U.S.-Japan Intercollegiate; 1990 Ping/Pac 10 Championship; 1990 Fox Acres Invitational (Colorado). Low Amateur in 1990 U.S. Open (tie 29). Golf Magazine Junior Player of the Year, 1986, 1987, 1988. Named 1990 PAC-10 Player of the Year. Winner 1990 Fred Haskins and Jack Nicklaus awards as collegiate player of year. Named All-America, 1989, 1990, 1991.

Has made it clear he does not want to be compared to any of the greats of game, as flattering as it may be...just wants to be himself and, in due time, let his record speak for itself...when someone tried to compare him to Bobby Jones, he quickly responded, "No, no, no. There will never be another Bobby Jones. I'm just a college kid. Twenty years old. I'm just trying to get through school. No big deal."

However, when you are 20 years old, a junior in college and play the game lefthanded, it is indeed a "big deal" when you jump in with the big boys on PGA TOUR and win...did that in impressive fashion when he overcame a triple-bogey during final round with birdies on two of the last three holes to win Northern Telecom Open in Tucson by one stroke over Bob Tway and Tom Purtzer.

Won 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships for Arizona State University...won 1990 U.S. Amateur...only lefthander to win that coveted title...only second player to win NCAA and Amateur titles in same year, Jack Nicklaus being the other...joined Ben Crenshaw, Curtis Strange and Billy Ray Brown as only players to win NCAA in their freshman year...was named junior player of the year three straight times, starting in 1986 when he was 15.

Is righthanded in everything but golf...when father started him at an early age playing golf, it became mirror image...father tried to get him to switch with no success.

Suffered drop-off last season from most successful money year ($668,198 in 1990), but still finished with fourth-best campaign ever. . . opened year with top ten finishes in two of first three events (T9 in United Airlines Hawaiian Open, T7 at AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am). . . later finished T8 in Memorial Tournament and T5 at The International. . . missed cut in just three of 25 tournaments entered.

Probably best known for "impossible" shot that captured 1987 Masters. . . finished regulation tied with Greg Norman and Seve Ballesteros (3-under-par 285) following gutsy eight-foot birdie putt on final hole. . . Ballesteros eliminated on first playoff hole (No. 10) when he three putted for bogey. . . used sand wedge for incredible birdie chip from 140 feet from right of green on second extra hole. . . Norman missed long birdie putt from right fringe, giving Mize second career victory. . . had lost Kemper Open to Norman just the year before in another playoff.

First TOUR victory came in 1983 Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic, where he sank 25-foot birdie putt to edge Fuzzy Zoeller, John Mahaffey and Chip Beck. . . successful '90 money campaign saw him come from five strokes behind to tie Payne Stewart and Steve Jones in MCI Heritage Classic, but Stewart won playoff. . . also was second in 1990 BellSouth Atlanta and Anheuser-Busch Golf Classics. . . along with those two seconds had two thirds.

Enjoyed reputation prior to Masters victory as solid player who could win at any time. . . '87 Masters title helped produce his only top ten finish to date, a sixth-place ranking with $561,407.

Has had total love affair with golf since first picked up club at age nine. . . father, a scratch handicapper, helped give him direction. . . was No. 1 for three years at Georgia Tech, team captain for two. . . winner of Atlanta Amateur championship.

Finished 19th year on TOUR with $232,913...year featured top ten finishes in two of his first three tournaments: T4 in United Airlines Hawaiian Open and T2 in Phoenix Open...was second after three rounds of Hawaiian Open at 15-under-par 201 before shooting final-round 75...finished one shot behind Nolan Henke, tied with Tom Watson and Curtis Strange, at Phoenix.

Continues to endure residual pain in left shoulder, after-effect of rotator cuff surgery performed by Dr. Frank Jobe at Centinela Hospital in September 1986...operation was pronounced success at time, but lingering question was about his ability to play competitive golf...after nine-month layoff, returned to TOUR in early May 1987 and was near top of his game by midsummer...fired third-round 63 to take Hardee's Golf Classic lead eventually relinquished to Kenny Knox.

Answered any remaining questions about complete comeback from surgery with most successful season in 1990...won Kemper Open in early June for seventh career win, first since 1983...finished in top eight in seven straight events...lost Independent Insurance Agent Open in playoff to Tony Sills, finished second in Nissan Los Angeles Open...topped in '90 previous best single-season money total by almost $400,000.

Created excitement in 1983 by winning first two events of year, Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open in playoff with Lanny Wadkins and Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open...biggest victory came in 1978 World Series of Golf, where he defeated Hubert Green in playoff and emerged year's No. 2 money winner behind Tom Watson.

Started playing golf at age 15...decided during junior year at East Central State in Oklahoma to pursue career in golf...waited until had earned doctorate in optometry to turn professional in 1972.

In THE PLAYERS, battled Mark Calcavecchia down to wire, before making clutch birdie on treacherous 17th hole at TPC at Sawgrass and earning 10-year exemption...Nabisco Championships, again found himself in tight battle, this time with Billy Mayfair... however, he was able to birdie final two holes in regulation, and then birdie the first playoff hole to collect $450,000 first-place check.

Joined TOUR in spring of 1982, turning pro week after finishing as low amateur in Masters Tournament... two weeks later, he tied for fifth at USF&G Classic, earned over $10,000 and was on his way... a three-time All-America selection at Georgia Southern, also collected two U.S. Public Links titles.

Playing usual somewhat limited schedule, once again made most of his opportunities by collecting three top ten finishes in just 16 tournaments.

Finished in tie for third at U.S. Open, where he fired sizzling 4-under-par 68 on final day at Hazeltine National and finished three strokes out of Payne Stewart-Scott Simpson playoff...opened with 73 and followed that up with consecutive 72s... had excellent opportunity to collect 11th PGA TOUR title at Buick Southern Open... was tied for lead after three rounds with Robert Gamez, but final-round even-par 72 was not enough to hold off charge of David Peoples, who closed with 66 and won by three strokes... finished in tie for third at Callaway Gardens... after opening with 65 at Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Golf Classic, was in contention once again...however, back-to-back 70s during second and third rounds, were not enough to hold off Mark O'Meara...ultimately finished tied for eighth.

Has collected two PGA Championships and U.S. Open title in 18 years on PGA TOUR.... finest year on TOUR might have been 1987, when he won PGA Championship in playoff over Lanny Wadkins at Palm Beach Gardens... later in same year won Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic and finished with over $500,000 in earnings for only time in career.

After being leading money winner on TOUR two of previous five seasons and in top ten five of eight, fell off to No. 53 last year...best finish was second in Centel Western Open...had six Top finishes in 17 tournaments entered.

Well known for his charitable involvements, including annual hosting of "Shark Shootout," the RMCC Invitational (for Ronald McDonald Children's Charities).

Has claimed many victories worldwide, including his impressive win in 1986 British Open at Royal Troon...'86 a particularly amazing year in that he won twice on TOUR, finished second four times and captured six events overseas: the British and European Opens, Suntory World Match Play, and three consecutive events in native Australia...also had lead going into final round of all four majors that year.

Had back-to-back heartbreaks in 1986-87 Masters...led by one stroke going into final day in '86, only to finish tied for second, then lost in '87 playoff to Larry Mize's unbelievable 140-foot chip shot for birdie.

Has had similar excitement in other events, both pro and con...won 1990 Doral Ryder Open in playoff with Paul Azinger, Mark Calcavecchia and Tim Simpson, chipping in for eagle on first extra hole...'90 seconds included The Nestle Invitational, where Robert Gamez sank final-hole 7-iron for eagle, and USF&G Classic, when David Frost holed a bunker shot for birdie.

One of few players ever to win two United States Open Championships...gained first one at Cherry Hills in Denver in 1978 and other at Oakland Hills in Birmingham, MI, in 1985...only other victory during injury-plagued 19-year TOUR career came in 1977 Westchester Classic...undoubtedly would have won many more except for injuries...has been under knife at least half dozen times for operations on knees, neck, nose and elbow.

At Cherry Hills, led by four strokes with five holes to play...by time reached 18th hole, needed bogey to win and that's what he scored after being bunkered in three...blasted to four feet and made putt for victory over Dave Stockton and J.C. Snead...at Oakland Hills, 1-under-par 279 was one-stroke better than Tze-Chung Chen of Taiwan, Dave Barr of Canada and Denis Watson of Zimbabwe.

In 1983, had operation to remove bone spur from right elbow...in 1989 had operation on knee...later in year had another operation to remove bone spurs in neck...then injured shoulder and was finished for year...also had knee operation in October 1987 "to clean the joint surfaces"...early last year, missed two months after four operations to remove skin cancers from nose and left cheek...needed plastic surgery to rebuild left side of nose.

Always one of nicest guys in game, has remained popular with players, fans and sponsors alike...accepts what happens and moves on...unusual ailment led to golf when in seventh grade in Madison, WI...bone in knee stopped growing and was disintegrating...was on crutches for 18 months and had to give up football and basketball...so, turned to golf, playing out of cart...later returned to basketball and earned all-state honors, but golf was now his dominant sport.

Victory moved him into top 30 and enabled him to compete in year-ending TOUR Championship for sixth year in row... was eighth consecutive year he has finished in top 30 on money list... was third straight year he has collected at least one victory.

Earlier in 1990, lost in playoff at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic to Corey Pavin... both finished at then-TOUR record 29-under-par, with Pavin chipping in for birdie on first extra hole for win...the record was later broken by Andrew Magee and D.A. Weibring at Las Vegas Invitational (31-under-par).

Was sensational through first seven years on TOUR...first victory was 1976 U.S. Open Championship at Atlanta Athletic Club...hit brilliant 5-iron shot on final hole from right rough to within two feet...made it for birdie to win by two strokes over Tom Weiskopf and Al Geiberger...few weeks later won Canadian Open in duel with Jack Nicklaus...earnings of $153,102 were most ever won by first-year player until Hal Sutton bettered it in 1982.

Won twice in 1977 and twice again in 1981...after victory in 1981 Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic, dove into lake bordering 18th green...won Tournament Players Championship in 1982...his last victory-on Stadium course at Sawgrass...birdied four of last seven holes, including 17th and 18th...following awards ceremony, pushed Deane Beman, Commissioner of PGA TOUR, and Pete Dye, course architect, into lake near 18th green, then jumped in himself.

Serious shoulder injury in mid-1982-he felt pain on practice range at British Open-put outstanding career on hold...has played only limited schedule since...victory in 1982 PLAYERS gave him 10-year exemption to all PGA TOUR co-sponsored events.

Has branched out into other areas, such as golf course design and television work...has done some impressive course designing, such as on Valley Course at TPC at Sawgrass in concert with Pete Dye...has own company, Jerry Pate Golf Design...also prominent on-course commentator for ABC golf telecasts during last several seasons.

Attended University of Alabama...winner of U.S. Amateur Championship in 1974...has played for Uncle Sam on both Walker Cup (1975) and Ryder Cup (1981) teams.

Has become one of toughest competitors on PGA TOUR...last few years, stock has risen sharply and now is considered one of better players in game...put together superb record last year, winning Honda Classic by three strokes over Paul Azinger and Dan Halldorson...made Ryder Cup team but unfortunate auto accident just before start of matches made it impossible for him to play up to standards...team was going from Kiawah Island into Charleston for gala opening banquet...sudden stop caused three limos to hit each other and he suffered deep hip bruise...did play one team match but could not play in singles.

Last year was best money-wise by far, thanks to consistent play all season...at Honda, rounds of 69-65-70 gave him five-stroke lead going into final round at TPC at Eagle Trace...despite high winds, managed 75 on Sunday for relatively easy victory...lost BellSouth Atlanta Classic in playoff with good friend, Corey Pavin...shot closing 6-under-par 66 to get into tie at Atlanta Country Club...also finished third three times, including at Masters Tournament, thanks to final-round 65.

First victory came in 1987 Southwest Classic in Abilene, TX, coming from four strokes back...was third year on TOUR...won twice on West Coast to start 1988: MONY-Tournament of Champions and Shearson Lehman Hutton-Andy Williams Open...two years ago, was second in The International after making double-eagle two using driver and 2-iron on 535-yard hole to earn eight points.

Started to play at age nine with encouragement from parents...made high school team in Santa Barbara, CA, as freshman...won California Interscholastic Federation title as senior...went UCLA, where he won 1983 PAC-10 title...teammate of Pavin and Jay Delsing...Jim Petralia of Annandale Country Club in Pasadena his main teacher.

Made 1991 year to remember, one many players simply dream about having...won Arnold Palmer Award as PGA TOUR's Official Money Leader, earning $979,430...that was nearly $152,000 more than runner-up Craig Stadler...was honored as PGA of America's Player-of-the-Year...won twice to give him nine TOUR victories since starting in 1984 and lost another title in playoff...10 times he finished among top ten in 25 starts.

Both victories last year came in playoffs...defeated Mark O'Meara in Bob Hope Chrysler Classic after they tied at then-TOUR record 29-under-par 331 (90-hole event)...also won over Steve Pate in BellSouth Atlanta Classic...playoff loss was to Billy Ray Brown in Canon Greater Hartford Open...missed one cut all season.

One of nicest guys in game, has been able to blend personal life with sometimes hectic weeks on TOUR into model lifestyle for all to follow...started in game at age eight and soon was tasting competition...as 17-year-old, he won Junior World title and also became youngest ever to win Los Angeles City Men's crown...went to UCLA, where success continued...won 11 collegiate events, including 1982 PAC-10 title.

First TOUR victory was in 1984 Houston Open...won prestigious Colonial National Invitation the next year...twice winner of Hawaiian Open in back-to-back years, 1986 and 1987...when he won 1988 Texas Open, did it by eight strokes with 21-under-par 259...became fifth player in TOUR history to better score of 260...shot 64, 63, 66 and 66.

Played in first Ryder Cup last year and won critical singles match against England's Steven Richardson...also played on 1981 Walker Cup team...Bruce Hamilton of California has helped him considerably with his game last several years.

One of great success stories in PGA TOUR history...while back and other physical ailments have cut into effectiveness last few years, was outstanding in mid-1980's...won 11 tournaments in five-year span and total of 12 during amazing career...during streak, was regarded as one of truly great ball-strikers in game.

Most prestigious victory was in 1985 Tournament Championship on Stadium Course at Sawgrass...closing round of 66 gave him three-stroke victory over D.A. Weibring at 14-under-par 274...also provided exemption to all TOUR co-sponsored events for 10 years.

First big breakthrough came in 1979 when he won Greater Milwaukee Open...didn't win again until 1982 but made it brilliant campaign, winning four times...last triumphs came in 1986 at MONY-Tournament of Champions and USF&G Classic in New Orleans...brilliant play earned him positions on 1983 and 1985 Ryder Cup teams and 1985 Nissan Cup team.

Statistically speaking, won driving accuracy title 10 straight years, from 1981 through 1990...three times led hitting greens in regulation...in 1984, won coveted Vardon Trophy for low stroke average..."I take great pride in all of those."

Lower back problems put him on sidelines for much of 1987 and that was beginning of physical woes..."I should have taken more time off, but I didn't," he now says...rebounded in 1988, but back problems flared again in 1989.

Born in Detroit, spent most of early life on Florida farm with 18 brothers and sisters-through two marriages by his father...was forced to drop out of school at early age...as teenager, got into business of selling goods to migrant farm workers...packed clothes, watches, jewelry and anything he could squeeze into his station wagon...wherever workers went, he went, too, with mobile store.

Travels took him from Florida to upstate New York...in 1966, at age 23, friends in Rochester, NY, talked him into trying golf...balked at first but finally decided to try...nine years later, he was on PGA TOUR.

Won Golf Writers' Ben Hogan Award in 1983...goes to individual who had to overcome physical handicap or illness to play golf...as youngster, suffered broken left elbow and, even today, cannot extend the arm...so much for golf's straight left arm principle.

1991 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: THE TOUR Championship

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Winner, 1990 Isuzu Kapalua International. Winner, 1979 Florida State Amateur. Medalist in 1989 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. Winner 1990 Isuzu Kapalua International.

After scoring first official victory in 1991 Buick Southern Open, summed up keys to that success thusly: "I learned to stop looking at the (leacer)board..I learned to stop worrying about everything around me. I can't be like those other guys that joke all the time. I'm quiet. I have to just concentrate on playing well."

Southern Open win crowning moment in most successful year of his eight on TOUR...came in midst of four-tournament stretch that saw him finish fifth week before at B.C.Open and concluded with second in Walt Disney World/Oldsobile Classic...opened his year with T5 in Northern Telecom Open.

Success of last two seasons has brought to an end his annual trek to PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament, something he did every fall from 1981-1989...those appearances in what he jokingly called "my favorite tournament of the year" ended after he won $259,367 and finished 57th on the money list in 1990...1990 gave him first taste of victory with triumph in (unofficial) Isuzu Kapalua International.

Qualifying Tournament experiences included six success for his nine tries, a second-place finish to Donnie Hammond at TPC at Sawgrass in 1982, and role of medalist at TPC at The Woodlands in 1989...observed that Q-School is "survival" school: "Your life's on the line. It's a whole year of your life in six rounds and six days"...further observed, following success of 1990: "For the first time since I turned pro I get to go hunting -rather than back to TOUR school- and I can have a real Christmas."

Although born in Augusta, ME, calls Florida home...established himself as fine player by winning 1979 Florida State Amateur...attended University of Florida before turning pro in 1981.

Shot lowest round of career in 1990 at Buick Southern Open, where he opened 67-62 at Green Island Country Club...had two streaks in '90 o making cut in nine straight events, also his career best.

Fell off a bit from the standard he had set for himself the previous two years...still managed to keep his TOUR card by finishing 126th on the money list...highlight of the year was a pair of top ten finishes...after opening with a 68 in the first round of the Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic, closed with three consecutive 67's to finish tied for seventh place...a 68-68 start in the Greater Milwaukee Open led to a tie for tenth...he held the 36-hole lead at the Southwestern Bell Colonial before falling back...a tie for 37th in the Walt Disney World Oldsmobile Classic allowed him to surpass the $1 million mark in career earnings.

A tie for second in the 1987 Kemper Open and 1990 Canon Greater Hartford Open are his best career finishes.

Father, Jim Perry, pitched for many years in the major leagues for Cleveland, Minnesota, Detroit and Oakland...uncle is Gaylord Perry...was a fine baseball player himself...as a ninth grader had a 9-0 pitching record with a 0.91 earned run average and batted .325...also played hockey in high school...was captain of team his senior year.

Highlight of 1991 was first career victory in Memorial Tournament...birdied first playoff hole at Muirfield Village to defeat Hale Irwin...took away $216,000 from the $1.2 million purse and said afterward: "Five years of hard work, you don't ever think it's going to pay off. But I feel now that all the time I've spent playing golf has been well worth it"...course record nine-under-par 63 in second round put him in front to stay until Irwin caught him on final day, forcing playoff.

Memorial win led to best-ever season, $368,784 in earnings...has climbed money ladder each year on TOUR...season included two other top ten finishes: T8 in Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic and T10 at Canon Greater Hartford Open...was fourth in total driving category for year...one of two players (Emlyn Aubrey the other) to record two Sharp's Shooter holes-in-one, earning $2,000 for charity with each.

Started to play golf when he was seven under encouragement of his father, Kenny Perry, Sr... "Dad used to be a scratch golfer, and he still is my biggest fan"...according to Kenny Sr., "I used to sit for hours and tee up golf balls for him. He'd hit all my shag balls and then he'd say, 'You stay right there, Dad.' And he'd run and pick 'em up and we'd do it again, for hours at a time."

Had battled back problems for significant portion of career, and finally at end of 1989 was forced to undergo surgery... spent entire 1990 season in rehabilitation, and thus was unable to play in any official events.

Got off to nice start in 1991, particularly considering the circumstances, when he made first fourcuts, and collected a T19 in Northern Telecom Open, and followed that up with T12 at Phoenix Open... four consecutive 68s at TPC of Scottsdale proved to everyone he was indeed back.

Saved best play of year for later in summer, when he finished T8 at Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic and T7 at Canon Greater Hartford Open... at Anheuser-Busch tournament, forged two-stroke lead after three rounds, firing rounds of 64, 67 and 65... unfortunately, rain delay of several hours hit tournament on final day, and he was unable to stretch back out, finishing with final round 77... at Hartford, hung around lead for all four rounds, and was, in fact, tied for lead on back nine Sunday, before finishing with 67 and tie for seventh...he finished just two strokes out of Billy Ray Brown-Corey Pavin-Rick Fehr playoff.

Enjoyed perhaps finest season in 1986, when he won twice... he started with victory at Colonial National invitation, and followed that up with win at NEC World Series of Golf.

Remembered for his million-dollar hole-in-one at the 1987 Hertz Bay Hill Classic...$1 million prize offered for an ace on the 17th hole during the final round...192-yard four iron hit the flagstick two feet above the cup and dropped straight down...Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital got $500,000 and he received the rest in $2,083.33 monthly installments for 20 years.

Best year was 1987 when he earned $450,005...70.36 stroke average in 1985 earned him the Vardon Trophy...an excellent putter...led the TOUR in that category in 1988 with a 1.729 average.

Runner-up in 1982 and 1988 British Open. Winner 1989 West End South Australian Open.

Has been considered one of game's finest players for many years...only question concerning this extremely-personable fellow was why he didn't win more often...won 1983 World Series of Golf at Firestone Country Club and didn't win again on PGA TOUR until last year...came through with two terrific victories -- in GTE Byron Nelson Classic by one stroke over Craig Stadler and Canadian Open by one over David Edwards.

Had rounds of 68-64-70-68 for 10-under-par 270 at TPC at Las Colinas..."I kept quest oning myself...kept wondering if I was afraid to win...fortunately, I've laid that to rest"...in Canada at Glen Abbey, came from six strokes off pace last day with 6-under-par 66...key was five straight birdies -- Nos. 11 through 15 -- on Abbey's tough valley holes...shot 71-69-67-66 for 15-under-par 273.

Although born in South Africa, moved to Zimbabwe (formerly Rhodesia) at very early age, and that is where career in golf started...since both parents are British citizens, carries British passport...for quite some time, has made United States home...1983 was first year on TOUR but qualified for World Series that year as leader on South African Order of Merit...played brilliantly and won by four strokes over Jack Nicklaus at Firestone Country Club...victory gave him 13-year exemption.

Two biggest disappointments came in British Open...at Royal Troon in 1982, led by three with six holes to play but dropped four shots on way to clubhouse to let Tom Watson slip in with victory...at Royal Lytham in 1988, led by two after three rounds but Seve Ballesteros fired final round 65 to edge him out.

Started in game at age eight...at age 17, had invitation to compete in Junior World at Torrey Pines in La Jolla, CA...came over and won...played South African and European Tours as amateur in 1975...served two years in Rhodesian Air Force...winner of several events around world.

He's really a classy guy."

Attended Clemson on golf scholarship...used to skip classes at Clemson to attend Masters ("My dream is to play there").

Enjoys riding Harley-Davidson motorcycle on roads around Greenville, SC home..."I've always been fascinated with motorcycles. There was a dealership on the way to and from school. But my parents would never allow me to have one"...Why Harley-Davidson? "It's American made."

Enjoyed four top ten finishes in 1991, including back-to-back placements in K mart Greater Greensboro Open (T9) and GTE Byron Nelson Classic (T8)...continued the solid contender status first achieved in 1988.

Regarded by peers as one of hardest workers on TOUR...after achieving exempt status through his 1984 and 1985 seasons, found the going particularly rough next two years...but, said soft-spoken Californian of his first six years of limited success. "It was just a matter of making a few changes and having the experience to count on when things were tough."

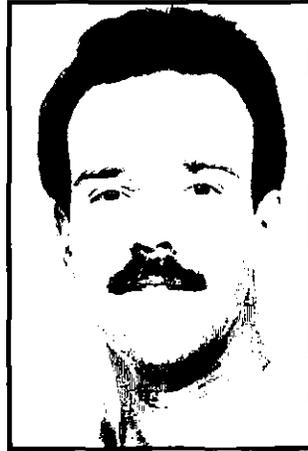

Most of the changes involved his putting, including switching from blade to mallet putter..."I added two-and-a-half inches to the shaft so I would be more upright. And, with the heavier putter, I started to see immediate results...in addition, I used to be a stiff-wristed and shoulder putter, but I switched at the start of 1988 to more hand action. It gave me more feel."

In second start of '88 tied for sixth in Hawaiian Open...collected bigger checks later that summer with top ten finishes in Manufacturers Hanover-Westchester Classic and Federal Express-St. Jude Classic in Memphis...interestingly, when achieved exempt status for first time through his play in 1984 season, two best efforts came at Westchester and in Memphis.

Best finish on TOUR has been third place, first time in 1985 Andy Williams-San Diego Open...opened with 65, followed with three more rounds in the 60s, and finished in solo possession of third, one stroke out of a Woody Blackburn-Ron Streck playoff...logged another third (T3) in 1990 Centel Western Open after another 65 start, then followed that up with seventh or better finishes in four of his next five tournaments.

Turned up consistency a notch in 1990, when he garnered three top ten finishes during year, including a T4 at Northern Telecom Tucson Open... that year was easily his most productive from earnings standpoint... prior to his second-place finish at Torrey Pines in 1991, best-ever previous finish was tie for second at 1988 Los Angeles Open Presented by Nissan... started week with a 70, then added rounds of 69, 66 and 66 to finish with 271 total... Chip Beck won that tournament with 267.

Was an outstanding amateur golfer, winning Seattle City Amateur three different times, and in 1976 captured biggest amateur prize of all when he won U.S. Amateur...was also a member of 1977 Walker Cup and World Amateur Cup teams.

Had best season of eight-year career in 1991, finishing with earnings of $400,535...that total keep intact a steady progression that has seen his money-won aggregate rise each year since he started on TOUR back in 1984...had five Top Ten finishes, including second in Kmart Greater Greensboro Open...lost three-hole playoff to Mark Brooks...felt bogey on unlucky No. 13 Sunday cost him tournament: "Hopefully this feeling won't last more than a day or two. I'm going deep-sea fishing next week, and I'll do all my screaming 70 miles off shore. I'll get over it."

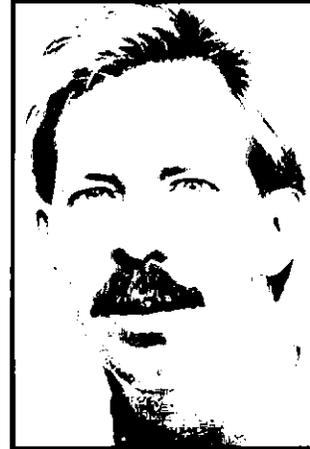

Finished T11 in next start at BellSouth Atlanta Classic and had subsequent Top Ten finishes in The New England Classic (third) and at the Buick Open (T6)...two keys to overall success of his season were placements among leaders in sand saves (second) and all-around (seventh).

Had slow start first two years on TOUR, but playoff victory over Blaine McCallister in 1986 Bank of Boston Classic got the ball rolling...won for second time at rain-shortened (54 holes) 1989 Hawaiian Open...year before had finished fourth in the same event...in 1990 captured the Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic, winning--although not an official victory--official money of $54,000...biggest disappointment was 1987 MCI Heritage Classic, played in his own backyard (grew up and lives in nearby Savannah, GA)...had share of lead going into final round, but closing 73 dropped him into tie for third.

Was youngest player on TOUR in 1984 after having qualified in fall of '83...got his start in golf at age of nine, when he would tag along after his father and older brother on weekends... "They'd bring along an extra club and I'd hit it around. My brother was a good golfer (at Columbus College) and I'd go out and practice with him and beat balls around."

Enjoyed best money-won year in 1991, almost $70,000 better than previous high in 1988 ($209,151). . . '88 total was boosted by lone career victory to date: Anheuser-Busch Classic at Kingsmill Country Club.

Had three consecutive top ten finishes in '91--Doral Ryder Open (10), Nestle Invitational (2), USF&G Classic (3)--after which he missed cut in seven consecutive tournaments. . . from that point forward made cut in nine of final 13 events. . . best round of year came in Las Vegas Invitational, nine-under-par 63 at Las Vegas Country Club good for first-round lead in 90-hole event eventually won by Andrew Magee. . . had four sub-70 rounds in Phoenix Open (69-69-68-68/T24).

Victory in 1988 Anheuser-Busch Classic came in p ayoff with Mark Wiebe, A-B Classic's 1985 winner. . . in defeat Wiebe paid tribute to his playoff opponent and friend: "Tom is really a fine player. He's been grinding it out, paying his dues, paying a LOT of dues. I'm sorry for me but I'm really happy for him". . . victory turned his '88 year around, since had made cut in only three of previous 16 events. . . after Sieckmann and Wiebe finished tied at 14-under-par 270 at Kingsmill, Mark bogeyed second extra hole while Tom parred from left fringe for win.

Had back-to-back top ten finishes in 1990 at Shearson Lehman Hutton Open (including second-day 64) and Nissan Los Angeles Open (all four rounds in 60s). . . also tied for eighth in U.S. Open at Medinah.

Because of his height played basketball as youngster, but eventually his focus became golf...started college at University of Nebraska but later transferred to Oklahoma State, where Cowboys golf coach Mike Holder said: "Bob Tway and Willie Wood were our best players in those days, but Tom was with them and they formed one of the best teams I've ever had".

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Three-time All-Big Eight. Two-time All-America. Winner, 1986 Kansas Open. 1988, 1989 Missouri Open Champ. 1980 Missouri Junior Champ.

Became one of PGA TOUR's rags-to-riches stories when, in 1989, won Chattanooga Classic... birdied final hole at Valleybrook to defeat Ray Stewart by stroke and pick up $90,000 first-place check... perhaps more important than money was two-year exemption that came with it..."It was my first sponsors exemption I'd ever gotten on TOUR and I was thrilled just to get one. Once I started playing though, I knew I was on my game. Everything was set up for me to have a good week."

Backed up strong 1989 campaign with another in 1990, collecting another top-ten finish at The International, where he finished in a tie for sixth...continued to play solid golf in 1991, as he garnered two more top-ten finishes on consecutive weeks...after opening with 68 on tough Colonial Country Club course, fired 6-under-par 64 on second day to pull within stroke of Chris Perry's 131 pace...eventually wound up five strokes behind winner Tom Purtzer... followed this performance with tie for eighth at Kemper Open... he came up with another 64 at TPC at Avenel, this time in third round.

Earned in excess of $66,000 those two weeks to hold onto to exempt status for another season... excellent amateur career was highlighted by fact that his Missouri Tiger team was able to top not only Oklahoma, but Oklahoma State, as well, in winning 1984 Big Eight title.

1992 PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION: The International

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS: Winner 1973 Indiana State Amateur, 1972 Florida State Junior College Champion, Leader in 1983 Seiko Grand Prix points, Winner 1985 and 1986 Skins Games, Winner, 1987 Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out Championship.

NATIONAL TEAMS: Ryder Cup (3) 1979, 1983, 1985.

Played in fewer tournaments in 1991 than did year before (19 vs. 20), but still almost doubled money won in 1990 ($385,139 vs. $199,629)...has cut back on tournament participation last few years because of numerous outside involvements, including golf course development...served as player consultant for development of TPC at Summerlin, newest entry in TPC Network which will serve as host course of 1992 Las Vegas Invitational

Place in golf history has been assured by titles in 1979 Masters and 1984 U.S. Opens, latter in 18-hole playoff with Greg Norman at Winged Foot, where he won 67 to 75...popularity with fans and media alike almost unparalleled for this outstanding player, whose nickname derives from first initials of his name (F.U.Z.)...one of game's all-time personalities and gallery favorites.

Accomplishments made all the greater by his medical history, principally back troubling tracing to his high school basketball days...no more so than at 1984 PGA Championship at Shoal Creek...morning he was to play first round in PGA back was so painful he could barely move...was rushed to hospital and remained for week...in Las Vegas month later to defend Panasonic Invitational title, back condition worsened...went to Hospital for Special Surgery in New York, where diagnosis was "A couple of discs had ruptured," necessitating surgery.

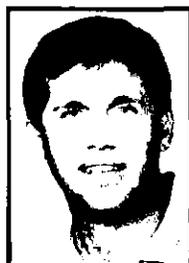

Returned to TOUR at end of February 1985 for Doral-Eastern Open, where he finished T46 (and was delighted to do so)...next was T20 in the Honda Classic and then completed storybook comeback by winning Hertz Bay Hill Classic with final rounds of 66-67...first TOUR victory came in 1979 Andy Williams Open.

COREY PAVIN WINS ARNOLD PALMER AWARD

Corey Pavin earned his first Arnold Palmer Award, as the PGA TOUR's leading money winner, by earning $979,430 in 1991.

Pavin defeated former Arnold Palmer Award winner Craig Stadler by over $150,000 to earn the honor. Pavin's best previous finish on the money list was 6th place in 1985.

The trophy, a bronze casting of "Arnie", will be awarded to Pavin at the PGA TOUR's National Awards Dinner in early January.

Past recipients of the award include Tom Kite (1981, 1989), Craig Stadler (1982), Hal Sutton (1983), Tom Watson (1984), Curtis Strange (1985, 1987, 1988) and Greg Norman (1986, 1990).

MERRILL LYNCH SHOOT-OUT SERIES

A real winner in its first five seasons, the Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out Series will return bigger and better than ever in 1992.

A 10-man competition covering nine holes of play, the Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out Series will be held at 21 different PGA TOUR events in 1992 with the top players collecting $4,000 from the $12,650 purse.

What is a Shoot-Out? The format is easy to understand and a pleasure to watch. Ten players begin and on each hole, the player with the highest score is dropped from the field. Should ties exist, a sudden death playoff is held requiring each of the players involved to execute a pitch shot, a chip or a long putt. The player farthest from the hole is eliminated.

The field for each Shoot-Out consists of that tournament's defending champion, the six leading money winners entered into that tournament and three sponsor selections. The Shoot-Out Championship will be held Sept. 29, 1992 at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Ten players will vie for $350,000 in prize money, with $100,000 going to the winner. Davis Love III won the title last year at The Links at Fisher Island, FL.

The field for the final competition consists of the top five money winners on the 1992 PGA TOUR Official Money List, the top three money winners from the season-long Shoot-Out Series and two sponsor selections. The 1992 Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out Series Competition's will be held on the Tuesday of tournament week.

SHARP'S SHOOTERS

Designed to benefit the most perfect of all golf shots, the Sharp's Shooters program was a rousing success in its first year on the PGA TOUR, and promises more of the same for the 1992 campaign.

Any PGA TOUR member that makes a hole-in-one during one of the official co-sponsored events is a Sharp's Shooter. For making his ace, the player receives $1,000 in unofficial prize money from Sharp's, the Official Non-Alcoholic Brew of the PGA TOUR. In addition to this, the tournament also receives $1,000, as does the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Foundation (in the player's name).

During the 1991 season, there were 28 holes-in-one made by 26 different players. Kenny Perry and Emlyn Aubrey each collected two aces during the year.

In addition to the prize money earned during the year, a year-end Sharp's Shooter Championship was held at the TOUR Championship. All Sharp's Shooters, along with all of the contestants in The TOUR Championship, were given two non-consecutive shots at making a hole-in-one. Any player that made a hole-in-one during the Championship would receive $1 million. Additionally, there would be cash prizes for getting closest to the pin. There would be two rounds in the competition, with the top three finishers getting paid.

Mike Donald, won the first round by hitting his shot to 9-feet, 6-inches. For his efforts, he collected $10,000. Davis Love III at 14-feet, 6-inches was next and earned $5,000, while John Inman collected $2,500 for hitting his approach to 14-feet, 10 3/4 inches.

In round two, Russ Cochran earned $25,000 for hitting his approach shot to 2-feet, 5 1/4 inches. Jay Don Blake was next and earned $5,000, trailing Cochran by just 3/4 of an inch. Tom Purtzer was 3 1/2 inches back and collected $2,500.

The Sharp's Shooters Championship will be held during the week of The TOUR Championship to be held October 26 through November 1 in 1992.

The following players were Sharp's Shooters in 1991:

Jodie Mudd, Infniti Tournament of Champions. Ed Dougherty, Northern Telecom Open. Dave Barr, United Hawaiian Open. Jay Delsing, Phoenix Open. Rocco Mediate, AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Ben Crenshaw, Nissan Los Angeles Open. Brian Claar, THE PLAYERS Championship. Kenny Perry, (2) The Nestle Invitational and The Memorial Tournament. Clarence Rose, K mart Greater Greensboro Open. Dudley Hart, GTE Byron Nelson. Bob Estes, Larry Rinker, Buick Classic. John Inman, Fuzzy Zoeller, U.S. Open. Lanny Wadkins, Federal Express St. Jude Classic. Tommy Armour III, David Sutherland, Centel Western Open. Denis Watson, Chattanooga Classic. D.A. THE VARDON TROPHY

The Vardon Trophy is awarded each year by the PGA of America to the PGA TOUR player who posts the season's best scoring average. The system was amended in 1988 to allow all TOUR members to compete for the prestigious award provided they have played in 60 rounds. The new system also uses an "adjusted" score for purposes of computing the scoring average. The adjusted score is computed based upon the average score of the field at each tournament. As a result, a player's adjusted score may be higher or lower than his actual score. For example, a player shoots 70 each day at a tournament while the field average was 73. His 280 total would then be adjusted to 268 since he actually played 12 shots better than the field did during the tournament. The Vardon Trophy is a bronze colored plaque measuring 39" by 27".

Each year the PGA of America honors the TOUR's leading player by presenting him with the PGA Player of the Year Award.

The award now is made on the basis of playing record for the year. Points are awarded on the following basis: 30 points to winner of Masters, U.S. Open, British Open, PGA Championship, 20 points to winner of THE PLAYERS Championship, NEC World Series of Golf, 10 points to winners of all other co-sponsored or approved events. Points also awarded to top 10 on the year's money list and top 10 on year's scoring average list (20 for first, 18 for second, 16 for third, etc. down to 2 for 10th).

RYDER CUP MATCHES

The Ryder Cup Matches developed from a match played between representatives of the American and British Professional Golfers' Association in England in 1926. That unofficial match, incidentally, was won by the British 13½ to 1½.

Following this highly successful exhibition, Samuel A. Ryder, a wealthy British seed merchant, offered to donate a solid gold trophy bearing his name to be competed for in a series of matches between professionals of the two nations.

From the start of the series through the 1959 Ryder Cup matches, the competition was comprised of four foursome matches one day and eight singles matches the other day, each at 36 holes.

In 1961, the format was changed to provide for four 18-hole foursomes the morning of the first day and four more that afternoon, then for eight 18-hole singles the morning of the second day and eight more that afternoon. As in the past, one point was at stake in each match, so the total number of points was doubled.

In 1963, for the first time, a day of four-ball matches augmented the program to add new interest to the overall competition. This brought the total number of points to 32.

In 1977, the format was altered once again. This time there were five foursomes on the opening day, five four-ball matches on the second day, and ten singles matches on the final day. This reduced the total number of points to 20.

For 1979, eligibility for the Great Britain-Ireland side was expanded to include all British PGA/European TPD members who are residents of European nations.

The 1993 Ryder Cup Matches will be played September 24-26, 1993 at The Belfry, Sutton Coldfield, England

THE RYDER CUP

The USA PGA squad selection is based upon an accumulation of Ryder Cup points from the beginning of the calendar year 1992 through the 1993 PGA Championship. The top ten point-getters qualify for the 12-man team. Then the U.S. Captain will select the final two players to complete the team.

Points are awarded to the first ten positions in each PGA TOUR event on the following basis with points being weighted towards the 1993 season:

PGA Championship, U.S. Open, Masters Tournament and the British Open (1992/1993): 1st-225/300; 2nd-135/180; 3rd-120/160; 4th-105/140; 5th-90/120; 6th-75/100; 7th-60/80; 8th-45/60; 9th-30/40; 10th-15/20.

All other PGA TOUR events (1992/1993): 1st-75/150; 2nd-45/90; 3rd-40/80; 4th-35/70; 5th-30/60; 6th-25/50; 7th-20/40; 8th-15/30; 9th-10/20; 10th-5/10.

If a player who is ineligible finishes in one of those positions, no points are awarded for that position. In order to be eligible, a player must be a U.S. citizen and a member of the PGA of America.

WORKING PRESS REGULATIONS

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day—and others requested—will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All tape recorder work should be done in the proximity of the Press Room and/or Clubhouse.
2. Tape recorders are NOT permitted in the locker room.
3. Tape recorders are NOT permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from the PGA TOUR and/or the tournament sponsor.

RAIN DELAY GUIDELINES

1. During rain delay situations, NO ONE other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the Media is not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media WILL BE WELCOMED into the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and tape recorders are NOT permitted.)

This Tournament is essentially for the players and spectators. Fair play requires that there be no noise or other distractions. The interests of all others must be subordinated to the players interests. The result of any one shot could decide the Tournament.

Only ACCREDITED PHOTOGRAPHERS for RECOGNIZED NEWS MEDIA will be permitted to take pictures during the Tournament. Photo assistants may be issued a credential, but not photo arm bands for access inside the ropes. Photography will be restricted to news use. Commercial and personal photography is prohibited (except that spectators may take pictures on practice days and during a ProAm). Free lance photographers shooting on speculation will NOT BE ACCREDITED.

The following regulations apply to accredited news and television photographers and videotape cameramen as a condition of the privilege of taking pictures:

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

GENERAL—ALL PHOTOGRAPHERS

- Photography will be restricted to NEWS use only. COMMERCIAL and PERSONAL photography is prohibited (except that spectators may take pictures on practice days and during a pro-am). Freelance photographers shooting on speculation WILL NOT BE ACCREDITED.
- A photographer must not ask a player to pose or in any way verbally distract a player during a round.
- If a player or an official requests that no photographs be taken in a certain situation, the request must be honored immediately, without discussion.
- A camera must not be pointed at a player about to make a stroke in any manner which might tend to disturb him or distract his attention.
- At the 9th and the 18th greens, photographers must not approach, delay or distract a player until he has checked, signed and returned his scorecard to the proper official. Under the Rules of Golf, a player turning in an incorrect scorecard in stroke play may be disqualified.
- Cameras are not permitted in the locker room.
- Use of golf carts or other means of transportation on the course during tournament play is prohibited.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS

- Only still photographers to whom armbands have been issued will be permitted inside gallery ropes. They must station themselves immediately inside such ropes, and not more than an ARM'S LENGTH FROM THE ROPES, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be part of the gallery. They must not take conspicuous positions in the open. Any photographer who violates this regulation will forfeit the right to working inside the ropes and possibly to work at the tournament.
- Close-up action shots are prohibited.
- All pictures must be taken at appreciable distances, as far from the players as possible and from angles which are not acute to the line of play.
- When working at a green, photographers must not position themselves directly in a player's putting line.
- Pictures, even from a distance, may not be made until the player has completed his stroke. The photographer must not release his camera shutter until the shot is made.

TELEVISION/VIDEOTAPE CAMERAMEN

- Television and videotape filming may be done from inside the gallery ropes, or from areas approved by the PGA TOUR. All camera personnel who have been issued PHOTO armbands will be permitted inside the gallery lines but this does not include other members of the crew. Camera personnel must station themselves immediately inside the gallery lines, not more than an arm's length from those lines, so as to blend into the gallery. They must not take conspicuous positions in the open.
- The only EXCEPTIONS to the above regulation concerns workers from the presenting network, or the TOUR's own Production company who have greater liberties in filming the event. Only these two groups will be allowed to move freely inside the ropes.
- Filming may be done from the locations described above during a player's stroke, provided modern equipment that produces a minimum of noise is used.
- Post-round interviews must be filmed far enough away from the arena of play to eliminate the possibility of distraction to those competing.

Difficulties will be avoided if photographers are fair and will treat players as they themselves would wish to be treated in similar circumstances.

The cooperation of all photographers will be appreciated.

OFFICIAL PGA TOUR GOLF DESTINATIONS

CATALONIA, SPAIN

Catalonia, Spain, is the TOUR's newest golf travel destination. Official Golf Destinations are a program to help avid golfers find great golf vacation sites. And this one's a real winner.

Catalonia is the site of the 1992 Olympics. And it's the PGA TOUR's first European golf travel destination. With very, very good reason.

Catalonia, the region surrounding Barcelona, is chock full of beautifully kept golf courses that are, as yet, nearly undiscovered by American golf travelers. Go north of Barcelona to the rocky Costa Brava, and play a variety of seaside and mountain courses. Wide, tree-lined fairways are almost a trademark of the region -- but don't be lulled into security. These courses are tough, and fun.

And so is the sightseeing. Climb up into the ancient city of Pals. See how people lived in the 13th century -- and how they're still living today. Visit the weird and wonderful Dali Museum in Figueres. View ruins at Empuries that are half a century older than Christ.

To the south of Barcelona is the sunny Costa Daurada, where the biggest water hazard is the Mediterranean Sea that's visible from almost every course. Olive trees are everywhere, and the courses vary in difficulty from a pleasant afternoon's round to a vendetta with nature.

Sights to see here include plenty of awesome Roman ruins at Tarragona. Wide sandy beaches everywhere make this a mecca for European tourists.

A two-hour drive out of Barcelona leads to the Pyrennes, and a beautiful course you can play in the morning, then (in the spring and fall) ski in the afternoon. Or vice versa. The choices are all yours in Catalonia.

Choose sight-seeing, in Barcelona itself, too. This is a tourist's paradise. Stroll down Las Ramblas, a wide avenue made just for ambling. Pop into a shop or two. Buy some flowers. Then visit the strange and wonderful Sagrada Familia cathedral, still unfinished after 100 years. And that's only a start.

If you've never been to Barcelona, now is the time to go. If you've visited before but never played golf, now is the time to inspect the courses carefully, one at a time.

The Olympics are coming to Catalonia -- and so is golf! This is the year to travel to Catalonia. Be there!

BRITISH COLUMBIA

British Columbia is another Official PGA TOUR Golf Destination. The operative words here are "Spectacular." "Gorgeous." "Beautiful." And there are plenty of golf travel opportunities to match.

From coastal Victoria and Vancouver to the high interior mountains, this lovely province in Western Canada offers extremely fine golf courses and resorts in breathtaking settings.

Courses on the coast of British Columbia are lush and green nearly all year round, thanks to the warm Japanese current that flows by its shores. That current creates a warm, Mediterranean climate almost all year -- and long summer days mean tee times that begin as early as 7 a.m. Excellent coastal courses include the Royal Colwood and Victoria Golf Clubs in Victoria.

OFFICIAL PGA TOUR GOLF DESTINATIONS

In addition to golf, be sure to visit both cities: picturesque Victoria and busy Vancouver. Then take time for some great salmon fishing or watch the whales at Robson Bight before you travel inland.

The central portion of the province is what British Columbians call "The Interior." This area gets the most sunshine of any part of the province. There's golf aplenty from April to October, and little rain (though there's plenty of snow in winter). Particularly interesting courses include Kamloops' Rivershore (a Robert Trent Jones course), Gallagher's Canyon at Kelowna is reputed to be one of the province's most challenging tracks. Although only a morning's drive from Vancouver, the Interior is light years away in terms of hustle and bustle. Scores of clear lakes mean plenty of water sports, and a relaxed, country-club atmosphere prevails.

But you haven't really seen British Columbia until you've seen its mountains. The Canadian Rockies are home to some of the most spectacular golf in the world. Resort courses here feature golf in summer and skiing in winter -- all surrounded by rugged beauty on the grandest scale. Play the popular Whistler Resort. Or visit the hot springs at Radium Hot Springs and Fairmont Hot Springs, then golf on their excellent courses.

Wherever you go in British Columbia, the golf is terrific. The scenery is spectacular. And there's plenty to do and see.

No doubt about it. British Columbia deserves the status of Official PGA TOUR Golf Destination. Check it out!

THE BAHAMAS

Golf has become, in recent years, a vital part of any golfer's vacation getaway to the Bahamas. This Official PGA TOUR Golf Destination represents a joint venture between the Bahamas Ministry of Tourism and two local tourism boards, in an enthusiastic effort to attract American golfers to its island shores.

Five top Bahamian golf courses join forces with quality vacation resorts for a complete golf holiday. To ensure the best golf conditions possible, each participating course receives advice on golf course maintenance from PGA TOUR Agronomy Services.

The Cable Beach/Paradise Island Promotion Board offers three beautiful seaside resort courses at top resorts: Paradise Island, Crystal Palace, and the more secluded Divi Bahamas. Even a terrible tee shot can't ruin the ocean vistas you'll find at almost every turn.

Tight, narrow fairways and a seaside links atmosphere prevail at Crystal Palace, while Paradise Island is more open, with more water hazards. The unique Divi course is hilly, and spiced with the ruins of old stone houses.

A short hop takes you to Grand Bahama Island, site of some of the most luxurious golf in the Caribbean. The Grand Bahama Island Promotion Board points with pride to the Ruby and Emerald Courses connected with the beautiful Bahamas Princess Hotel and Resort. The rough here is actually jungle, and shots that land in the rough require a one-stroke penalty.

The Lucaya Golf and Country Club, near Freeport, offers some truly spectacular golf. The course allows golfers the freedom of solitude, as each fairway is secluded from the next. There's only one water hazard, but a lot of "target golf."

Of course, golf isn't all there is to do in the Bahamas. There's eating -- conch in every conceivable form, and many other local delicacies as well. And there's shopping. The Straw Market in Nassau is a must-see. In Freeport, try the funky International Bazaar and the modern Port Lucaya. And of course, the Caribbean sea is everywhere.

However you choose to spend your Bahamian vacation, make sure golf is an integral part. The Bahamas are THE golf spot in the Caribbean.

See for yourself.

BUICK MOTOR DIVISION

Buick Motor Division is a long-time marketing partner of the PGA TOUR. The relationship between the two companies over the past 28 years has led to sponsorship of PGA TOUR tournaments all across the country.

It all began with the Buick Open. Now the PGA TOUR event with the longest continuing sponsorship, the Buick Open is the company's "home town" tournament. Each year many Buick employees use their vacation time to volunteer at the tournament, which they consider their own.

To enhance fan awareness of Buick's tournaments, the company has set up nationwide sweepstakes that combine golf and Buicks. Mailings encourage prospective car buyers to take a test drive, and register to win. The company calls its golf-related promotions the most successful they've ever run.

Those successes have led Buick into an ever-expanding partnership with the PGA TOUR. The tournaments Buick sponsors are in some of its most important market areas:

ASHAI GLASS WORLD MONEY LIST

The Asahi Glass World Money List consists of all official money won in each of the four participating golf circuits (U.S. PGA TOUR, PGA European Tour, Japan PGA, Australasian PGA Tour).

The Asahi Glass World Money List was initially formulated as a qualification vehicle for the 1985 World Championships of Golf. It has become evident since then, however, that the list provides a standard by which world-class players could be compared, regardless of whether or not they competed regularly in head-to-head competition.

Since the initial list was compiled, many have come to believe that this list will ultimately become the world standard for judging professional golfers' performances on an international basis.

The 1992 Asahi Glass World Money List will be compiled from September 1, 1991 through August 30, 1991 in order to best accommodate the various start and finish times of the four circuits involved. On the PGA TOUR, the 1991 Asahi Glass World Money List will end on August 30, 1992 at the NEC World Series of Golf.

The 1992 Asahi Glass Four Tours World Championship of Golf will be held November 5-8, 1992 at a site to be announced.

The following illustrates the Asahi Glass World Money List standings of the 24 players who competed in the 1991 Asahi Glass Four Tours World Championship of Golf at the Royal Adelaide GC in Royal Adelaide, Australia, last November 7-10.

SONY WORLD RANKING

Originally formulated in 1986, the Sony World Rankings received the PGA TOUR Board approval for the first time in 1990 after the Sony Advisory Committee, at the request of the TOUR, agreed to a series of modifications to the system.

The rankings are compiled each week following the conclusion of all world events. The top finishers in these events are awarded points according to their respective finish. Since the Sony World Rankings employ a rolling three-year period weighted in favor of the most recent play, points accumulated over the current 52-week period are multiplied by four, points earned over the previous 52-week period are doubled and points from the first 52-week block are simply added to the total.

Each player then is ranked according to his point average, which is earned by dividing his final number of points by the number of starts he has made over that three-year period. A player must, however, play in at least 20 events per annum. Should he play in less, his divisor still will be 20.

After this process is completed, the top 100 players are listed with ratings points being assigned each position. The number one player receives 65 points, the runnerup 60 and so on down to the players from 76-100 who earn one point apiece.

One of the new changes that began with the 1990 season provided that virtually all tournaments are weighted solely on the strength of their respective fields. Each event totals the number of ratings earned by the top 100 players from the Sony list in its field. A sliding scale has been created to reflect the number of points each tournament awards to top finishers according to the strength of its starting field. For example, a tournament winner from the strongest field possible will earn 50 points (X4) while a winner from a moderately strong field would take home something more along the line of 25-30 points (X4).

Since the 1990 season began with players already ranked according to the old method, the rankings will not completely reflect the changes that have been made. However, the TOUR is comfortable with the new system in that it will provide a useable method of comparison of players from around the world, and gradually reflect the TOUR's requested changes.

The rankings will be available each week at TOUR sites. The current top 20 through THE TOUR Championship follows.

FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER: AMERICA'S NON-PROFESSIONAL GOLFERS CAN JOIN THE PGA TOUR

For the first time in the PGA TOUR's proud history, non-professional golfers can join the PGA TOUR as members of PGA TOUR Partners, a new membership organization for golfers and golf fans that is a non-profit project of PGA TOUR Charities, Inc.

Now you, like golf greats such as Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Greg Norman, can share the excitement of the PGA TOUR--and join PGA TOUR Charities, Inc., in supporting many important national and local charities. The excitement and prestige of PGA TOUR Partners membership comes with important privileges and responsibilities.

PGA TOUR Partners Can Enter The Partners Team Competition

Partners will have the opportunity to enter our Partners Team Competition, where they'll pick their own PGA TOUR foursome and will be eligible to win a spot in THE TOUR Championship Pro-Am, as well as many other prizes. Details are included in the PGA TOUR Partners membership packet.

PGA TOUR Partners Receive Exclusive Benefits

PGA TOUR Partners will receive official credentials that include a personalized membership card and golf bag tag, auto decal, a monthly Partners-only edition of PGA TOUR News, featuring updates on their team's performance in the Partners Team Competition, and the Official PGA TOUR Media Guide. Plus they'll have the opportunity to purchase exclusive Partners-only travel packages and PGA TOUR products. All of these exclusive benefits are reserved for those who join PGA TOUR Partners.

PGA TOUR Partners Support Important Charities

And, most importantly, all net income from PGA TOUR Partners will go to the national charities supported by PGA TOUR Charities, including the American Cancer Society, the Barbara Bush Foundation for Family Literacy, and the Special Olympics. On the local level, PGA TOUR tournaments contribute funds to charities like St. Jude Children's Research Hospital--which, with the help of over $3 million worth of funds from the Federal Express St. Jude Classic, has increased the cure rate for childhood leukemia to over 60 percent. Other important charitable contributions include the Eisenhower Medical Center, the Evans Scholars Foundation, the Bobby Bensen Foundation, and more. In fact, last year alone, our tournaments on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and Ben Hogan Tour donated over $24 million to these and other important charities. And we're looking forward to making an even greater contribution in 1992. So when you join PGA TOUR Partners, you're joining an organization with a long and proud history of meeting the local--and national--needs of those less fortunate than ourselves.

PGA TOUR Partners Membership Information

If you are interested in joining PGA TOUR Partners, please call 1-800-547-9400 or write to PGA TOUR, P.O. Box 96808, Washington D.C. 20007-7450 as soon as possible.
