Getting to Know the LPGA Tour

The LPGA is the world's leading professional golf organization for women. Founded in 1950 and headquartered in Daytona Beach, Fla., the association celebrates a diverse and storied membership with more than 2,300 members representing more than 30 countries. With a vision to inspire, empower, educate and entertain by showcasing the very best of women's golf, LPGA Tour professionals compete across the globe, while the Symetra Tour, the official qualifying tour of the LPGA, consistently produces a pipeline of talent ready for the world stage. Additionally, LPGA Professionals directly impact the game through teaching, coaching and management.

The LPGA demonstrates its dedication to the development of the game through The LPGA Foundation. Since 1991, this charitable organization has been committed to empowering and supporting girls and women through developmental, humanitarian and golf community initiatives, including LPGA*USGA Girls Golf, the LPGA Women's Network and the LPGA Amateur Golf Association.

Mission & Strategic Direction

Our Mission at the LPGA is to be a recognized worldwide leader in sport by providing women professionals the opportunity to pursue their dreams in the game of golf.

The LPGA is continuing to transform from a U.S. tournament and dues association, to a global media property that further expands our member benefits and fan following through key strategic partnerships, expanded worldwide opportunities and broader connections with women in the game

In 2020, the LPGA has entered a 50-50 joint venture partnership with the Ladies European Tour, and now drives to grow opportunity and exposure for LET athletes in Europe.

Founding Members

The LPGA owes its long and distinguished history to the hard work and commitment of its 13 Founding Members. These trailblazers are responsible for creating one of the most successful women's sports organizations in history and were dedicated to golf as a game and a career.

They "did it all" back then: planned and organized the golf tournaments, drafted the by-laws, supervised membership, set up the courses and much more. The LPGA recognizes the sacrifice and devotion of this group of distinguished women and honors them through several respects, including the annual Tour event, the Cognizant Founders Cup.

The 13 Founding Members are:

Alice Bauer	Betty Jameson
Patty Berg	Sally Sessions
Bettye Danoff	Marilynn Smith
Helen Dettweiler	Shirley Spork
Marlene Hagge	Louise Suggs

Olympics

Golf will once again be part of the Olympics program when the Summer Games are held in Tokyo, Japan, this summer. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 Tokyo Olympics were entirely postponed until 2021, with the Games scheduled to begin on July 23 and end August 8. Based on the Olympic Golf Rankings, 60 players will take part in each of the men's and women's competitions, with the women's event taking place August 4-7. The women's qualification period ends June 28.

The venue for the Olympic golf competition will be Kasumigaseki Country Club in Kawagoe City, Saitama, which hosted the Canada Cup in 1957, the Japan Open in 1933, 1956, 1995, and 2006, and the Asian Amateur Championship in 2010. Located an hour north of the Olympic Village, the club's East Course will host the men's and women's competitions.

Constructed in 1929, Kasumigaseki Country Club underwent its first renovation the following year at the hands of C.H. Alison. In 2016, Tom Fazio performed a second renovation which stretched the course to more than 7,400 yards. The club is a large facility, which features 46 holes and has ample space to accommodate the infrastructure that comes with hosting one of the biggest events in the world.

One of the greatest challenges facing the players at Kasumigaseki Country Club will be the weather. Temperatures average around 88 degrees Fahrenheit during August, with high humidity. For LPGA Tour players, it will be close to the heat and humidity they experience each year when they compete in Thailand, Malaysia and Singapore.

2016 RIO OLYMPICS RECAP

INBEE PARK WINS GOLD IN 2016 ON GOLF'S LONG-AWAITED RETURN TO THE OLYMPICS

After an absence of more than a century, golf returned as an Olympic sport at the 2016 Summer Games in Rio de Janeiro where the Republic of Korea's Inbee Park added the gold medal to her already impressive list of accomplishments in the game. Park, who had been sidelined for much of the 2016 LPGA Tour season due to a back injury and an ongoing left thumb injury, led by as many as six shots during the final round on the Olympic Golf Course before she sealed victory by five strokes with a 16-under-par total.

New Zealand's Lydia Ko finished at 11-under to win the silver medal, with China's Shanshan Feng taking home bronze at 10-under.

Park's performance in Rio was especially remarkable given that she had battled multiple injuries earlier in the year, forcing her to withdraw from the season-opening event and to miss the entire month prior to the Olympics. However she displayed few signs of rust in Rio where she held the lead after 36 and 54 holes before going on to win gold.

2020 Race to the CME Globe Recap

In only her fourth start of the 2020 LPGA Tour season, Rolex Rankings No. 1 Jin Young Ko rallied to capture a five-stroke victory and earn the title of Race to the CME Globe champion. With the victory came a $1.1 million winner's check, the largest single prize in women's golf in the 2020 season.

Ko earned her berth into the CME Group Tour Championship by virtue of a runner-up finish at the U.S. Women's Open the week before. Although she started the day trailing fellow countrywoman and 2019 CME Group Tour Championship winner Sei Young Kim by one stroke, Ko quickly joined her at the top with a birdie on No. 1. Still knotted after nine holes, Ko charged home on the back nine with five birdies, including a perfectly paced 10-foot birdie on No. 18 that sealed the win. She finished atop the leaderboard at -18 overall, one off the tournament record, with Kim and Australia's Hannah Green finishing in a tie for second at -13.

With the win, Ko earned her seventh career title, making it the fourth consecutive year for Ko with a win on the LPGA Tour. She also secured the 2020 Official Money Title with the $1.1 million winner's check, bringing her total of season earnings to $1,667,925 in 2020. In 2019, Ko also claimed the Official Money Title, earning $2,773,894 thanks to four wins that included major championship victories at the ANA Inspiration and The Amundi Evian Championship.

RACE TO CME GLOBE

Information About the Race to the CME Globe

The Race to the CME Globe is a season-long points competition in which LPGA Tour Members accumulate points in every Official LPGA Tournament to gain entry into the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship. The player who wins the CME Group Tour Championship will be named the "Race to the CME Globe Champion."

Players will accumulate points at each official LPGA Tour event throughout the season leading up to the CME Group Tour Championship. The top 60 points earners and ties will then earn a spot in the CME Group Tour Championship, with the entire field competing for the $5 million purse and the $1.5 million winner's check, the largest single prize in the history of women's golf. From 2014-2018, the top 72 players in the Race to the CME Globe competed in the CME Group Tour Championship, with the top 12 players mathematically eligible to win a $1 million bonus in 2017 and 2018. Past Race to the CME Globe champions are Ariya Jutanugarn (2016, 2018), Sei Young Kim (2019), Lydia Ko (2014, 2015), and Lexi Thompson (2017). In 2020, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the field was comprised of 70 players versus the traditional 60 in the Race to the CME Globe points standings, along with two sponsor exemptions. The 72-hole tournament continued to have no cut, with a purse of $3 million and a first-place prize of $1.1 million.

Who is Eligible for the 2021 Race to the CME Globe and the CME Group Tour Championship?

LPGA Tour Members are eligible to earn points toward the Race to the CME Globe. Points will not be allocated to Members who compete as a sponsor invitation in tournaments that do not have a cut, unless the Member wins the Official Tournament. Non-Members are not eligible to earn points unless the non-Member wins the Official Tournament and subsequently accepts LPGA Tour Membership.

How Do the Points Work?

LPGA Tour Members earn points at each official LPGA Tour event, beginning at the 2021 Diamond Resorts Tournament of Champions and running through the event held immediately prior to the CME Group Tour Championship.

- The winner of each official LPGA event will receive 500 Race to the CME Globe points
- The five LPGA Tour major championships will carry 30 percent more value and the winner of each LPGA Tour major championship will receive 650 Race to the CME Globe points
- For all events with a cut, points will be awarded to Members who make the cut
- For all events without a cut, points will be awarded to Members who finish all rounds of the tournament
- For the Dow Great Lakes Bay Invitational, points will be awarded to Members who make the cut; point values are for each player on the team
- Points for finish positions held by non-Members and by Members competing as sponsor invites in no-cut events will not be reallocated to the pool or allocated to the next LPGA Tour Member
- Points are broken down through 80th place; finish positions 80 and higher carry the same point value

Who Will be in the Field for the CME Group Tour Championship?

After the event held immediately prior to the CME Group Tour Championship, points earned during the season will be eliminated. The field will be filled by LPGA Tour Members ranked in the order of their position on the Race to the CME Globe points standings. Should more than one player tie for the 60th position in the field, all tied players will gain entry into the CME Group Tour Championship.

2019 SOLHEIM CUP

The 16th Solheim Cup was one for the ages, and it proved to be a magnificent advert for sport in general, and for women's golf specifically. The conclusion to three days of brilliant golf at Gleneagles by players on both teams, who displayed wonderful sportsmanship across the board, could not have been more riveting as Suzann Pettersen clinched the trophy for Europe with the last shot of the week - a 7-foot birdie putt on the 18th green.

Pettersen had played in just three LPGA Tour events, following an 18-month maternity leave, when she was chosen as a captain's pick by Catriona Matthew for the 2019 Solheim Cup. Pettersen had been the heart and soul of the European team for more than a decade, and she rose to the occasion after the USA's Marina Alex missed a 10-foot putt that would have retained the Cup for the Americans. With her baby boy Herman waiting in the crowd, Pettersen coolly sank the birdie putt to clinch the trophy for Europe for the first time since 2013.

"Like the Ryder Cup, this has just grown so hugely," said European captain Matthew. "It came down to the last putt on the last hole. You can't get more exciting than that."

The final day at Gleneagles had begun at 8-8 but with three of the 12 singles matches left on the course the Americans needed just a half-point to retain the trophy, and one point to win it outright. Anna Nordqvist got the first point Europe needed by closing out Morgan Pressel, 4 and 3, at about the same time that Bronte Law holed a 20-footer for birdie against Ally McDonald to go two up with two to play and keep alive the European dream. Amid nerve-jangling tension, Law sealed a 2&1 victory on the 17th green, after McDonald failed to get up-and-down out of the bunker, and Pettersen did the rest.

The 14.5-13.5 victory is tied for the smallest winning margin in Solheim Cup history. In 2015, Team USA won by the same margin in Germany. Pettersen now has 21 points in Solheim Cup competition, fourth all-time for Team Europe. Celine Boutier and Georgia Hall both went 4-0-0 for the Europeans. Jessica Korda and Nelly Korda led the American scoring contingent, each player going 3-0-1.

Held every two years, the Solheim Cup has grown into the most prestigious international women's professional golf team event. The 17th Solheim Cup will be held at Inverness Club in Toledo, Ohio, from Sept. 4-6, 2021. Team USA heads to Ohio leading Europe 10-6 all-time in Solheim Cup competition.

STATS TO KNOW

Overall record - Team Europe clinched the 16th edition of the Solheim Cup and narrowed the overall competition record to USA 10; Europe 6

One - Europe's one-point victory by 14.5 to 13.5 is the smallest winning margin for Europe since the event began in 1990

Three - Europe's victory achieved a Scottish hat-trick with the home team having won all three times the Solheim Cup has been played in Scotland – at Dalmahoy Hotel & Country Club, East Course (1992), Loch Lomond Golf Club (2000), and Gleneagles, PGA Centenary Course (2019)

Closing holes - Twenty-two of the 28 matches at Gleneagles ended on the closing holes, which saw the Europeans win 10, halve five and lose seven. 12.5 of Europe's 14.5 points were recorded down the stretch, including the 7-foot birdie putt on the 18th green by Suzann Pettersen to secure the winning point

Singles dominance - Since its inception in 1990, the team which has won the singles session has clinched the Solheim Cup 13 of the 16 times

2021 SOLHEIM CUP PREVIEW

The Solheim Cup combines the tradition and prestige of the game of golf with passion for one's country. This biennial, trans-Atlantic match-play competition features the best U.S. players from the LPGA Tour and the best European members from the Ladies European Tour (LET). The U.S. leads Europe 10-6 all-time in Solheim Cup competition following their narrow 14.5-13.5 loss in 2019 on the world-famous PGA Centenary Course at Gleneagles in Perthshire, Scotland.

The 2021 Solheim Cup will take place at Inverness Club in Toledo, Ohio, and is scheduled for September 4-6. Three-time European Team member Catriona Matthew has been retained as European Team captain. Three-time U.S. assistant captain Pat Hurst takes the reigns as captain for the first time for the U.S., and has announced past Solheim Cup competitors Angela Stanford and Michelle Wie as assistants to date. The U.S. will be looking to win on home soil for the eighth time. Europe has triumphed just once on U.S. soil (in 2013 at Colorado Golf Club).

HISTORY

The Solheim Cup is named in honor of Karsten Solheim, the founder of Karsten Manufacturing Corporation, which makes PING golf equipment. In 1990, the Solheim family, in conjunction with the LPGA and the LET, developed the concept and became the title sponsor for the Solheim Cup. Today, the global partners of the Solheim Cup are PING, Rolex and Marathon Petroleum. Held every two years, the event has grown into the most prestigious international women's professional golf team event.

ABOUT INVERNESS CLUB

Inverness Club, located in Toledo, Ohio, has forged a place of distinction in professional golf. Opening in 1903, the historic club has been the site of 12 elite championships, including four U.S. Opens and two PGA Championships. Byron Nelson, who served as head golf professional from 1940 to 1944, recognized Inverness Club as his home course. S.P. Jermain, their first Board President, was credited with conceiving the idea of the Ryder Cup. The championship course was designed by the renowned architect Donald Ross. Inverness Club successfully hosted the 2019 U.S. Junior Amateur.

TEAM SELECTION FOR 2021

USA: The 12-player U.S. Team will be made up of the top seven on the U.S. Solheim Cup points list, the next two highest-ranked eligible players from the Rolex Rankings and three captain's picks. U.S. players began earning points toward the 2021 U.S. Solheim Cup Team at the 2019 Cambia Portland Classic.

Europe: Due to the impact of COVID-19, the European Team confirmed changes to the qualification system for 2021. The team will be selected by taking the top two players from the LET points standings, followed by the next top four European LET members appearing on the Rolex Rankings, plus six captains picks. This is a change from the previous selection process, where three players from the LET points list, five from the Rolex Rankings and four captain's picks made up the European Team.

Both the U.S. and European teams will be finalized following the 2021 AIG Women's Open.

U.S. TEAM – 10 Total Victories
1990, 1994, 1996, 1998, 2002, 2005, 2007, 2009, 2015, 2017

EUROPEAN TEAM – 6 Total Victories
1992, 2000, 2003, 2011, 2013, 2019

2021 MAJOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

ANA Inspiration

Dates: April 1-4 • Site: Mission Hills Country Club, Rancho Mirage, Calif. • Purse: $3,100,000

2020 Winner: Mirim Lee, 273 (-15) • Victory Margin: Defeated Brooke Henderson and Nelly Korda in playoff with a birdie on the extra hole

History: A part of the LPGA Tour since 1972, this historic championship was designated as a major in 1983. Three-time champion Amy Alcott began a winner's tradition of jumping into Poppie's Pond at the 18th hole after her victory in 1991. Dinah Shore's legacy and heritage is preserved with the "Dinah Shore Walk of Champions" at the 18th hole at Mission Hills Country Club. The tradition and the leap into Poppie's Pond continued when All Nippon Airways came on as title sponsor in 2015. The 2021 event will be the 50th anniversary of the major championship

U.S. Women's Open

Dates: June 3-6 • Site: The Olympic Club, San Francisco, Calif. • Purse: $5,500,000

2019 Winner: A Lim Kim, 281 (-3) • Victory Margin: Defeated Jin Young Ko and Amy Olson by one stroke

History: Originally created by the Women's Professional Golf Association (WPGA) in 1946, run by the LPGA from 1950-1952 and conducted by the United States Golf Association (USGA) since 1953, the U.S. Women's Open is the longest running competition in women's professional golf. Known for its traditionally challenging setup, the U.S. Women's Open is one of the most coveted titles in women's golf.

KPMG Women's PGA Championship

Dates: June 24-27 • Site: Atlanta Athletic Club, Johns Creek, Ga. • Purse: $4,300,000

2020 Winner: Sei Young Kim, 266 (-14) • Victory Margin: Defeated Inbee Park by five strokes

History: Established in 1955, the KPMG Women's PGA Championship is the second-longest running tournament in LPGA history, but took on a historic evolution in 2015 with the LPGA Tour and PGA of America partnering in a groundbreaking venture with KPMG to continue the tradition of the LPGA Championship for many years to come.

The Amundi Evian Championship

Dates: July 22-25 • Site: Evian Resort Golf Club, Evian-les-Bains, France • Purse: $4,500,000

*2019 Winner: Jin Young Ko, 269 (-15) • Victory Margin: Defeated Shanshan Feng, Hyo Joo Kim and Jennifer Kupcho by two strokes

History: The Amundi Evian Championship replaced the Evian Masters, a stop on the LPGA Tour since 2000, whose legacy was elevating women's professional golf to new heights with increased purses and fields that attracted the very best players from around the world. It became a major championship in 2013. In 2021, Amundi was added as a title sponsor and the purse increased to $4.5 million.

AIG Women's Open

Dates: August 19-22 • Site: Carnoustie Golf Links, Carnoustie, Scotland • Purse: $4,500,000

2020 Winner: Sophia Popov, 270 (-18) • Victory Margin: Defeated Jasmine Suwannapura by two strokes

History: Started in 1976 and a part of the LPGA Tour since 1994, the AIG Women's Open was designated as an LPGA Tour major in September 2000, effective 2001. Like the KPMG Women's PGA Championship and the U.S. Women's Open, the AIG Women's Open changes its venue annually.

ROLEX ANNIKA MAJOR AWARD

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rolex ANNIKA Major Award was not awarded in 2020, but returns in 2021.

Jin Young Ko won the 2019 Rolex ANNIKA Major Award thanks to major victories at the ANA Inspiration and The Evian Championship, as well as a third-place finish at the AIG Women's Open.

The Rolex ANNIKA Major Award recognizes the player who, during a current LPGA Tour season, has the most outstanding record in all five major championships. Points were awarded at all five major championships to competitors who finished among the top 10 and ties. To take home the award, a player must also win at least one of the five majors.

Ko, who joins Michelle Wie West (2014), Inbee Park (2015), Lydia Ko (2016), So Yeon Ryu (2017) and Ariya Jutanugarn (2018) as winners of the award, was recognized in a ceremony at the Rolex LPGA Awards at the CME Group Tour Championship, wrapping up an exciting season of majors in 2019.

Below are the final standings for the top players:

In 2020, the LPGA Foundation established the LPGA Renee Powell Fund in honor of LPGA legend Renee Powell. The grant program honors Powell's lifelong commitment to golf and will help assist current and prospective LPGA*USGA Girls Golf sites create partnerships and outreach opportunities with youth organizations serving Black girls and communities.

An initial $25,000 was awarded to five Girls Golf sites in Ohio, Powell's home state. The grants will provide access, instruction, equipment and additional expenses required to be introduced to the game of golf and stay engaged with the sport.

Race Fore Unity

LPGA Tour players and the golf community came together for the "Race Fore Unity," raising nearly $80,000 for LPGA*USGA Girls Golf and PGA WORKS. The main event was a Peloton Bike ride, with other alternatives including yoga sessions and fitness classes. What started as an idea in a group chat came together quickly and yielded incredible results, with athletes, celebrities, influencers, golf executives and fans alike uniting for a common purpose: creating opportunities and breaking down barriers in golf.

"We have incredible opportunities to grow our game and to get more diverse and inclusive. Then we also become more educated, and we learn a lot more. It's really important, because if you don't see anybody that looks like you, you don't have a tendency to want to do that. We need to really do a little more to change the culture of what golf is all about, in particular growing our Girls Golf programs and being very inclusive. So, I'm really proud and excited that some of the other Tour players decided to do this, and I certainly hope that this is something that's going to continue for a long time and be a nice staple for the LPGA."

WE'RE CHANGING THE FACE of GOLF

LPGA*USGA Girls Golf teaches much more than a stance and swing... we prepare and inspire girls for the game of life.

The only national initiative of its kind, Girls Golf is administered through a partnership between the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Foundation and the United States Golf Association (USGA), both non-profit 501 (c)(3) charitable organizations.

With more than 500 Girls Golf programs in communities across the country and over 90,000 girls engaged, LPGA*USGA Girls Golf is changing the face of the game. Girls participation among junior golfers has risen from just 17% in 1995 to 33%. With the help of world-class LPGA and PGA teaching professionals, we use the Girls Golf "Five E's" to enrich, empower, engage, exercise, and energize girls through the game of golf.

RACE FOR THE CARD GRADUATES

The Symetra Tour is the official qualifying tour of the LPGA Tour and enters its 41st competitive season in 2021. With the support of entitlement partner Symetra, the Tour's mission is to prepare the world's best young women professional golfers for a successful career on the LPGA Tour. Since Symetra's inaugural sponsorship year in 2012, the Symetra Tour has grown from 16 tournaments and $1.7 million in prize money to $4.0 million in prize money awarded in both 2019 and 2021. With more than 600 alumnae moving on to the LPGA, former Symetra Tour players have won a total of 445 LPGA titles. Some of the brightest stars in the game today are Symetra Tour graduates including 2016 Olympic Gold Medalist Inbee Park, three-time LPGA Tour winner Nelly Korda, major champion Hannah Green and 2015 Solheim Cup hero Gerina Piller.

LPGA Q-Series presented by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina

Due to COVID-19, LPGA Q-Series was not held in 2020, but will return in 2021.

In 2019, the second annual LPGA Q-Series presented by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina welcomed 98 players from 24 different countries to Pinehurst Resort for a two-week competition to determine LPGA Tour status. At the end of the marathon eight-round tournament, exactly 45 players finished inside the top 45 and ties to earn membership for the 2020 LPGA Tour season. A total of 15 players from that group will be rookies on the LPGA Tour in 2020, while 2019 rookie Muni He captured medalist honors with a 144-hole Q-Series scoring record of 21-under par (551).

Fun Facts

- The LPGA/Symetra Tour Qualifying Tournament is a three-stage process (consisting of Stage I, Stage II and LPGA Q-Series) to determine membership status on both the LPGA and Symetra Tour for the following year.
- LPGA Q-Series debuted in 2018 and is the two-week finale of the LPGA/Symetra Qualifying Tournament to determine playing status for the following year.
- A maximum of 108 competitors compete in two 72-hole, stroke play events held on consecutive weeks. Scores are cumulative over the two weeks (i.e. if a competitor shoots 4-under in week one, she begins week two at 4-under).
- The total purse for Q-Series is $150,000, which is distributed at the end of the two-week competition.
- The second annual Q-Series was held at the historic Pinehurst Resort. The first week of competition was on Pinehurst No. 6 and the second week on Pinehurst No. 9.

The Rookie of the Year Award was established in 1962. Until 1992, the Rookie of the Year Award went to the first-year LPGA player who finished with the highest ranking on the LPGA money list through the close of the official domestic LPGA season. In 1992, a point system was instituted. LPGA Tour rookies are awarded points at each official LPGA tournament based on top-40 finishes and positions 41 through each player making the cut.

Point Values: 1st place-150 points; 2nd-80; 3rd-75; 4th-70; 5th-65; 6th-62; 7th-59; 8th-56; 9th-53; 10th-50; 11th-48; 12th-46; 13th-44; 14th-42; 15th-40; 16th-38; 17th-36; 18th-34; 19th-32; 20th-30; 21st-29; 22nd-28; 23rd-27; 24th-26; 25th-25; 26th-24; 27th-23; 28th-22; 29th-21; 30th-20; 31st-19; 32nd-18; 33rd-17; 34th-16; 35th-15; 36th-14; 37th-13; 38th-12; 39th-11; and 40th-10.

Positions 41 through each player making the cut receive five points each.

All points are doubled at the five LPGA major championships.

Rookie of the Year was not awarded in 2020 due to coronavirus.

ROLEX ANNIKA MAJOR AWARD

Year	Player	Year	Player
2014	Michelle Wie	2017	So Yeon Ryu
2015	Inbee Park	2018	Ariya Jutanugarn
2016	Lydia Ko	2019	Jin Young Ko

The Rolex ANNIKA Major Award was established in 2014 to recognize the player who, during a current LPGA Tour season, has the most outstanding Major Championship record. Players are awarded points at all five LPGA major championships based on top-10 finishes. A player must win at least one of the five majors to receive the award. Due to COVID-19, the award was not given out in 2020, but will return in 2021.

Point Values: 1st place-60 points; 2nd-24; 3rd-18, 4th-14; 5th-12; 6th-10; 7th-8; 8th-6; 9th-4; 10th-2.

2015	Lydia Ko	2018	Ariya Jutanugarn
2016	Ariya Jutanugarn	2019	Sei Young Kim

The Race to the CME Globe is a season-long points competition in which LPGA Tour Members accumulate points in every official LPGA tournament to gain entry into the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship. The player who wins the CME Group Tour Championship will be named the "Race to the CME Globe Champion" and receive a first-place prize of $1.5 million.

LEADERS TOP 10 COMPETITION

Year	Player	Top 10s
2018	Ariya Jutanugarn	16
2019	Jin Young Ko	12

The LPGA player who records the most top-10 finishes at the end of the season will receive a $100,000 bonus (unofficial money). Due to COVID-19, the competition was not held in 2020, but will return in 2021.

AON RISK REWARD CHALLENGE

Year	Player	Score
2019	Carlota Ciganda	-.841

The best average score to par across the Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes. A player must play a minimum of 40 rounds throughout the season to be eligible for the $1 million prize (unofficial bonus money). Due to COVID-19, the Challenge was not held in 2020, but will return in 2021.

Mike Whan

LPGA Commissioner

Birthdate: February 10, 1965

Hometown: Naperville, Ill. and Cincinnati, Ohio

Resides: Orlando, Fla.

Education: Miami University of Ohio (Finance, 1987)

Family: Wife, Meg, and three children, Austin, Wesley and Connor

Career Highlights

- Mike Whan became Commissioner of the LPGA in 2010 with goals of enhancing business relationships, growing the tournament schedule, maximizing fan experience and increasing exposure and opportunities for the entire membership. Eleven years later, his big-picture thinking, strong marketing skills and bold risk-taking have pushed the LPGA to historic levels across the board.

	From 2011 to 2021
Tournaments	+50%
Prize Money	+85%
TV Coverage	+150%
LPGA Membership	+60%
LPGA Revenues	+100%
Charitable Impact	+1000%

- During this time, the Symetra Tour has grown even faster than the LPGA in key factors such as tournaments, prize money and LPGA access. The LPGA's Girls Golf program has more than 90,000 members in 2021, while the LPGA Professionals division has its largest-ever membership and has now expanded into 30 countries worldwide. The LPGA Women's Network reaches 195,000 people and the LPGA Amateur Golf Association is the largest women's amateur golf community in the world. The LPGA caters to fans in over 200 countries and boasts television partners in 175 countries.
- Big ideas have been the hallmark of Whan's leadership, including the Cognizant Founders Cup, KPMG Women's PGA Championship, The Amundi Evian Championship, UL International Crown and the Race to CME Globe.
- In 2020, the LPGA has entered a 50-50 joint venture partnership with the Ladies European Tour, and now drives to grow opportunity and exposure for LET athletes in Europe.
- In early 2021, Whan announced he would be stepping down as LPGA Commissioner after 11 years.

What They are Saying About Mike Whan...

"Mike Whan isn't just the best leader in golf, he's the best commissioner in all of sports, a miracle worker who has, along with the help and support of a tremendous group of athletes and a tireless team, made the LPGA the most attractive, accommodating and attentive league in the world."

- Steve Eubanks, Global Golf Post

"The LPGA's storybook season may have been written by its stars, but make no mistake: the fast-talking, quick-thinking Mike Whan set the stage. Whan inherited a sputtering tour in 2010. Events were down, and player morale was low. He worked hard to repair trust and restore longstanding relationships. And he did it with heart, and outside-the-box thinking."

- Beth Ann Nichols, Golfweek

"Mike Whan saw what the LPGA ought to embrace before anyone else did in this new, shrinking world. Give him credit; his global vision was transformative. It's really how the LPGA's eighth commissioner turned what was perceived as the tour's biggest weakness - too many emerging Asian players with unfamiliar names - into an asset."

- Randall Mell, Golf Channel

COMMUNICATIONS

As we look ahead to 2021, we cannot help but look back at 2020 and marvel at the growth that the year brought us. In a year of seemingly insurmountable challenges, the LPGA Tour Members, caddies, staff and partners came together to deliver an inspiringly victorious season.

The spirit that pushed us in 2020 – the same can-do spirit inherited from our 13 Founders – will continue to push us to #DriveOn in 2021. And what a year we have ahead of us, with all tournaments returning to the schedule and a record total purse of more than $78 million.

Our Global Tour of players, with faces representing all walks of life, continues to be a true source of inspiration. Our Communications team looks forward to sharing their stories of perseverance, athleticism and activism as we celebrate yet another year of world-class golf.

Thank you for your friendship and your support of the LPGA Tour.

LPGA PROFESSIONALS

We are THE Women in Golf!

The LPGA Professionals membership trains, develops and certifies golf teachers, coaches and industry leaders. The research-based LPGA Teacher Education Program (TEP) identifies and refines the core competencies required to be not only effective, but exceptional. The LPGA student-centered model trains teachers to concentrate on the needs and desires of students who want to learn and enjoy the game of golf for a lifetime.

Beginning with understanding the concepts of motor learning and golf biomechanics, LPGA teaching pros learn a myriad of skills to help them deliver personalized, results-oriented instruction that fits the changing needs of students/clients. These topics include swing analysis, sports psychology, club fitting, fitness for golf and much more.

The LPGA Professionals was founded in 1959 as an outgrowth of the LPGA Tour. More than 1,700 members strong, the LPGA Professionals boasts the largest association of women golf professionals in the world.
