Strength & Fitness Coach - Joan Casanova

Athletic Trainer - Craig Skinner

TEAM STAFF

HEAD COACH

WILMER CABRERA

The appointment marks Cabrera's return to the Rio Grande Valley. He was previously named the first Head Coach in the club's history in December 2015 and led the club to its most successful season, earning a second-place finish in the Western Conference in the regular season and a place in the USL Championship Playoffs.

The 53-year-old brings more than a decade of experience at U.S Soccer and Major League Soccer to the Toros. Most recently, Cabrera managed Club de Foot Montreal in MLS late in 2019 where he led the team to the Canadian Championship title, defeating Toronto FC.

Prior to Montreal, Cabrera spent two-and-a-half-years with Houston Dynamo FC (2016-19). During his tenure, Cabrera's side won the 2018 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, making him the first head coach to win both the U.S. Open Cup and Canadian Championship in consecutive years.

By earning the U.S. Open Cup, Houston qualified to the 2019 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League, but their course ended in the quarterfinal round. In 2017, Cabrera led Houston to a berth in the 2017 MLS Cup Playoffs.

Cabrera joins RGV FC as Head Coach and Sporting Director.

GERSON ECHEVERRY

As Director of Scouting and Assistant Coach Gerson Echeverry, who holds the longest tenure by any Head Coach at the club. Echeverry has taken the lead in scouting all current and prospect players for the club. He was appointed as Head Coach in late 2017 and remained in the position for three seasons with the Toros. Prior to RGV, Echeverry served as Head Coach at Seton Hall University's Men's Soccer program for five years. He has also served as an assistant coach for the United States U-17 Youth National Team and residency program. At the residency program, Echeverry evaluated prospects and implemented training plans with an emphasis on developing attacking players.

ARTURO SANCHEZ

Goalkeeper Coach Arturo Sanchez enters his first season on the staff at RGV FC. The Mexican national returns to the Valley having previously been part of the Toros' inaugural squad in 2016 as a goalkeeper. Most recently, Sanchez was part of the coaching staff with San Antonio City Soccer Club, Austin Bold FC, San Antonio FC and St. Mary's University.

JOAN CASANOVA

As Strength and Fitness Coach Casanova brings extensive experience for his first season in the United States. Previously, Casanova was part of the coaching staff at Odisha FC of the Indian Super League during the 2019 and 2020 campaign. Prior to Odisha, Casanova was the strength and conditioning coach at Kitchee SC of the Hong Kong Premier League. Throughout his three seasons with Kitchee, the club earned nine total trophies — Hong Kong Premier League Championships (2017, 2019), Hong Kong Sapling Cup (2017, 2019), Hong Kong Senior Shield (2018), Hong Kong FA Cup (2017, 2018) and Hong Kong Community Cup (2017, 2018). In addition, the squad competed in the AFC Champions League — Asia's equivalent to the UEFA and Concacaf Champions League — and AFC Cup tournaments.

TOROS GAME RECAPS

RGV VS NM

RGV FC defeated New Mexico United on Saturday night, boasting a 1-0 first-ever win during a season-opener. Elvis Amoh opened the goal tab during the 65th minute after Murphy was able to connect with him. The win also marks the first win against NM in club history.

For NM, Isidro Martinez made his debut at H-E-B Park with his new squad. It was the first time in his career that Martinez played against RGV FC. The Toros totaled 12 shots, while New Mexico took 10. Tyler Deric saved two shots for RGV and Alex Tambakis had three for New Mexico.
