CREDITS

The Ohio Valley Conference Records Book is produced annually by members of the OVC staff.

It includes all OVC sports that are not published annually in media guide format (i.e. football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball). Full records for those sports can be found in their respective media guides.

$ - Western Kentucky topped Eastern Kentucky in a 3-game playoff series in 1951, but later WKU has found to have used a professional player and forfeited the title to Eastern Kentucky.

** Won 3-Game Playoff Between Divisional Champions and was Declared "OVC Champion" ... No Actual Tournament Was Held Until 1979

& - Teams split first two games of 3-game playoff; final game was rained out and co-champions declared

*** Prior to 1989 the OVC Tournament Champion (or the Playoff Winner, which was held 1962-79) was declared OVC Champion. When divisional play was abolished following the 1988 season, the regular season champions have been declared OVC Champions (1989 to present). The "OVC Titles" list reflects those champions.

^ - Season cancelled in March due to COVID-19 public health threat

^ - No conference play held in 1971 and 1972 seasons due to Kentucky and Tennessee schools have different semester dates.

- In 2009 EIU record on the field was 36-14, 14-4 but team had to forfeit five total games (including 1 OVC game) for using ineligible player.

$ - In 2016 APSU vacated four Conference games during the season. Actual on-field record was 21-9, 34-23 overall.

! - The 2020 season was cancelled in March due to the COVID-19 public health threat.

Note: SIUE joined the OVC on July 1, 2008 but due to its reclassification to Division I did not play a full OVC schedule until 2012. SIUE was not eligible for postseason play until 2013.

OVC TEAM TITLES

Eastern Kentucky ..... 34
 Eastern Illinois ..... 2
 Morehead State ..... 2
 Murray State ..... 2
 Samford ..... 2

Note: Former EKU head coach Rick Erdmann won 24 men's Coach of the Year awards and 31 women's Coach of the Year awards. Both, along with his 55 total awards, are records.

*Prior to the 2011 Championship, the OVC Athlete & Freshman of the Year were determined by the winner of the race and top freshman finisher. Starting in 2011, those two awards were voted on by the coaches before the Championship. The Athlete of the Championship award was then created to be awarded to the winner of the OVC Championship meet.

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY
