LETTER FROM THE COMMISSIONER

Dear SWAC Fans and Supporters,

The 2019-20 academic year was one filled with difficult decisions that greatly impacted our student-athletes, institutional athletics staff, fans, and supporters as the Southwestern Athletic Conference and the world faced extreme uncertainty related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

While we shared in the disappointment of the cancellation of our winter/spring sports activities we remained committed to supporting our student-athletes both academically and athletically.

We will get through these trying times together and you have our commitment that the SWAC and its ten member institutions will always put the health, safety and wellness of our student-athletes, team staff, administrators, media and fans at the forefront of any decisions we make.

Over the course of this global pandemic, the Southwestern Athletic Conference and its ten member institutions have received a tremendous outpouring of support from fans and supporters from around the country.

Despite the challenging circumstances our member institutions have faced, our fans have rallied behind them offering words of encouragement and motivation for future success.

The dedication, passion, and love that our fans demonstrate yearly has led to the SWAC's first place ranking in attendance at our football games for 42 of the past 43 seasons. That itself is a truly remarkable feat and a testament to the quality of fan bases we have across our league.

Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic that has swept across our nation, many of our sports programs were in the process of making significant strides. As a conference, we were preparing to host what had shaped up to be very exciting Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments.

In the blink of an eye, everything changed with the cancellation of our basketball tournaments along with sporting events around the world. While many aspects of the future are still unknown, as a conference we remain unified and optimistic. We are a resilient conference that has remained steadfast over the course of our 100-year history.

There is no journey without obstacles, and it is our belief that our student-athletes will return this upcoming academic year with an enhanced appreciation for the respective sports in which they participate. They will also have a much-improved understanding of what is important in life and where sports and athletic competition fit into the grand scheme of things.

The selflessness and compassion that we must all navigate in what has become our new reality will undoubtedly make our student-athletes better students, teammates, and contributors to society as a whole. The life lessons learned throughout this process will also provide them with guiding principles that can be applied throughout the course of their lives.

We sincerely thank each of our fans, corporate partners, and supporters for their contributions and the roles they play in making the SWAC one of the best conferences in the nation. We look forward to seeing each of you when we return to competition in the coming months. Until then, please continue to be safe and encouraged.

Sincerely,

Dr. Charles McClelland

ALABAMA STATE LADY HORNETS

CLINTON, Miss. | Alabama State University won the Southwestern Athletic Conference Women's Cross-Country title at Choctaw Trails, besting Jackson State 46-73 to regain the crown.

Led by Arion Span, who finished second overall, the Lady Hornets had five runners place in the top 17. Shayla Sanders finished seventh overall, Maryiah Archibald finished tenth, Michaela Lewis finished 11th, Hannah Mezidor finished 16th, and Vinnelle Grant finished 17th overall as the Lady Hornets claimed their eighth title in the last nine years.

Alabama A&M finished third (107), while Southern (108) was fourth. Prairie View A&M rounded out the top five with 130 points.

Grambling State (132), UAPB (159), Texas Southern (195), Mississippi Valley State (199) and Alcorn State (277) completed the field.

Naomi Kiprop of Grambling State outdistanced the field to claim her first Women's Runner of the Year award. The junior won with a time of 18:36.03, a little more than 20 seconds ahead of Span (18:57.68).

Alabama State's Ritchie Beene was named SWAC Women's Cross Country Coach of the Year.

CLINTON, Miss. | Texas Southern's first five runners placed in the top 11 to bring home the 2019 Southwestern Athletic Conference Men's Cross Country title, their first since 1993.

The Tigers tallied 43 points, besting Grambling State. Grambling State finished second, scoring 77 points. Jackson State finished third with 107 points. Cosmas Ketter led the way, finishing sixth with a time of 26:43.1. Dan Lerma took 10th overall with a time of 27:02.5.

Rounding out the standings were Jackson State (107), Prairie View A&M (115), Alabama State (117), Southern (118), Mississippi Valley (220), and Alcorn State (237).

Mathias Cheboi bested the field with a time of 25:44.2 to earn the 2019 SWAC Men's Cross Country Athlete of the Year award for his first year at Grambling State. Grambling State's Fred Chepyegon was close behind, claiming second (25:47.9), and Jackson State's Vincent Langat finished third (26:06.4).

PRAIRIE VIEW A&amp;M LADY PANTHERS

PRAIRIE VIEW, Texas | Kalia Brown's score in the 56th minute from teammates Gina Zaval Dejas and Alexis Mack secured Prairie View A&M its first ever Southwestern Athletic Conference Soccer Championship in program history on Sunday afternoon, 1-0 over Howard at the PVAMU Soccer Complex.

With the victory, the Lady Panthers improve to 13-7 on the season and receive an automatic bid into the NCAA tournament starting Nov. 15, while Howard ends its season 14-4 overall.

"It was a great final match for us and it was great for us to get that goal to help our team win the championship," said PVAMU head coach Sonia Curvelo. "We worked extremely hard to put ourselves in this position. Our players made the plays today and that helped us win the game. I'd like to thank our players and staff for all of the hard work they put in this entire season."

A hard-fought contest on both ends, Prairie View A&M controlled the pace of play, taking 13 shots with five shots on goal, while the Bison attempted eight shots and six shots on goal. PVAMU's goalkeeper Quinn Josiah collected six saves, while counterpart HU's goalie Alayah Hightower tallied four.

SWAC VOLLEYBALL

ITTA BENA, Miss. | No. 5 Alabama State defeated No. 2 Prairie View A&M, 3-0 (25-15, 25-20, 25-20) to win its fourth consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference Volleyball Championship on Sunday.

The Lady Hornets (17-21) hit .268 with 48 kills while also locking up on defense with 61 digs and eight team blocks, holding the Panthers (16-22) to a .088 hitting percentage to earn the victory.

SWAC Tournament Most Valuable Player and All-Tournament selection Bayle' Bennett led the way with her 17th double double of the season with a match-high 16 kills (.256) and 11 digs while also adding on two assists and a block.

Junior Taira Cottingham added nine kills (.333) while senior Krysta Medearis, All-Tournament selection, and junior E'laisah Young recorded eight kills apiece. Young posted a career- and match-high three service aces with an errorless .444 hitting percentage.

Set One (Alabama State 23, Prairie View A&M 15)
Overcoming a slow start, Alabama State dominated the second half of the set as the Lady Hornets hit a blistering .371 with 16 kills and only three errors. The defense only allowed nine PVAMU kills and held the Panthers to a .135 hitting clip. Belles recorded 10 digs and Bennett dropped seven kills with a .545 percentage in the set.

Set Two (Alabama State 25, Prairie View A&M 20)
Once again, Alabama State had all the offensive momentum as it hit .300 with 18 kills. Prairie View was able to grab 10 kills, two blocks and a service ace to keep close but the Lady Hornets recorded three crucial blocks to take the second set. Young posted five kills with a block as the middle in the second.

Set Three (Alabama State 25, Prairie View A&M 20)
Alabama State struggled offensively in the final stanza, posting 14 kills with a .167 clip but the defense stepped up tremendously holding the Panthers to a .018 percentage with 11 errors. Additionally, the Lady Hornets secured 25 digs and three team blocks to take the final set and earn their fourth consecutive championship.

ALCORN STATE BRAVES

LORMAN, Miss. | For the second consecutive year, the Alcorn State University football program used a big fourth quarter to defeat Southern, as it pulled away late for a 39-24 final Saturday in the Cricket Wireless SWAC Championship at Jack Spinks-Marino Casem Stadium.

The Braves (9-3, 6-1 SWAC) trailed 17-16 heading into the fourth quarter, and were still down 24-22 with 8:43 remaining. Alcorn took the lead on a 23-yard field goal by senior Corey McCullough, and then put the game away with a six-yard rushing touchdown by senior De'Shawn Waller and a pick-six by senior Taurence Wilson.

Senior wide receiver LeCharles Pringle was named the SWAC Championship Offensive MVP. He hauled in a career-high 145 yards and a touchdown.

The SWAC Championship Defensive MVP went to junior defensive back Juwan Taylor. He matched his career-high with 11 tackles and also tallied an interception, forced fumble and tackle for a loss.

Two of Alcorn's touchdowns came on the ground as Waller scored one and sophomore Trey Turner ran in the other.

For the Jaguars (8-5, 6-1 SWAC), Ladarius Skelton threw for 159 yards, and rushed for 46 yards and two touchdowns.

The game was filled with turnovers, but the Braves won the turnover margin with three interceptions and three fumble recoveries. The Jaguars intercepted three passes.

It was the second year in a row where Alcorn trailed by Southern by one point heading into the fourth quarter. Last year, it was down 28-27 when it scored the final 10 points of the game. In both games, the Braves took control in the fourth.

Alcorn advances to the 2019 Celebration Bowl on Saturday, Dec. 21 at 11 a.m. (CT) in Atlanta at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The game will be nationally televised on ABC.

ALABAMA STATE LADY HORNETS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | Alabama State swept the 2020 Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Indoor Track and Field Championships Friday, repeating for the fourth consecutive year with both teams winning championships.

Alabama State finished the meet with 183.5 points, to outdistance themselves from Prairie View A&M who finished second with 146 points.

Alabama A&M (81), Arkansas-Pine Bluff (63), and Grambling State (55) finished 3-5 respectively rounding out the top team finishes.

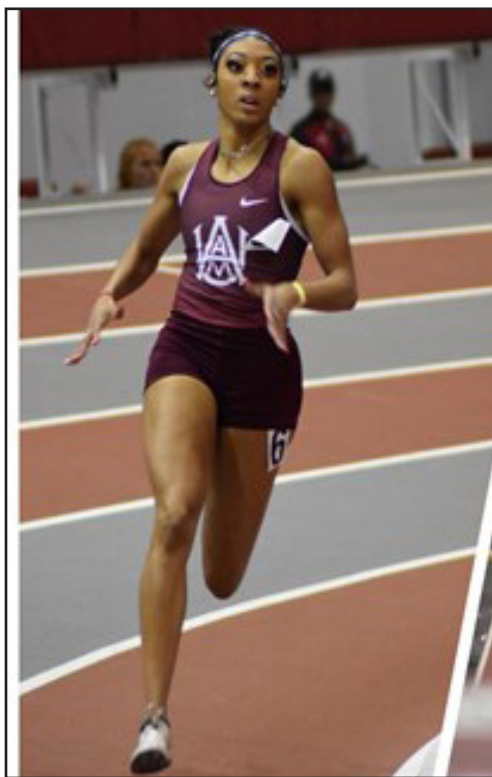

Alabama A&M's NaAsha Robinson claimed first in the women 200 and 400 meter dash events and while running the anchor leg of the 4x400 relay team for AAMU (3:43.82) which also finished in first place. Robinson would go on to be named the event's Most Outstanding Track Performer after amassing a total of 30.5 points.

Arkansas-Pine Bluff's Safiya John was named Most Outstanding Field Performer finishing the event with 24 points.

In the 4x400 relay event Alabama State (3:45.19) and Prairie View A&M (3:46.90) claimed second and third place respectively.

ALABAMA STATE HORNETS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | Alabama State swept the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Indoor Track and Field Championships Friday, repeating for the fourth consecutive year with both teams winning championships.

The men became the first school since 1976 to win four consecutive titles, using performances from SWAC Field Performer of the Year Marcus Cade and Track Performer of the Year Abdi Hussein to win the event with 171.5 points to pull away from Prairie View A&M in second (139) and Jackson State in third (122). The duo combined for 49 points in the championship.

Alabama State had several student-athletes reach the podium on Friday led Norris Spike in the 60-meter dash who won the championship with a time of 6.71 seconds. He defeated his teammate David East, who finished second with a time of 6.76 seconds. East went on to finish third in the 200-meters with a time of 21.63 seconds, while Spike was fifth in the event with a time of 21.75 seconds.

Hussein captured the 1-Mile championship in a time of 4:20.51 and finished second in the 5000-meters in a time of 15:27.93. He was joined in the 5000-meters by Matthew Kibet who finished fifth overall with a time of 15:49.89.

Camrin Lamb finished fourth in the 400-meter finals with a time of 48.59 seconds, while a trio of Hornets – Ricky Thornton (1:54.19), Brandon Phillips (1:54.75) and Kevin Smith (1:54.78) – finished fourth through sixth respectively.

In field events, Cade finished fourth in the triple jump with a distance of 14.25 meters, while Caesar Kemp reached the medal stand for the second time this week as he finished second in the weight throw with a distance of 17.07 meters and setting a new school record.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | The 2019 Southwestern Athletic Conference Women's Basketball regular season featured hard-fought contests down the stretch.

The Jackson State Lady Tigers captured their first regular season title since 2007 while boasting an overall conference record of 16-2, which tied the program's record held by its 2003-04 squad.

Texas Southern finished second in the regular season standings with a 14-4 record, while Southern (13-5) ranked third.

Alabama A&M (12-6) had a solid campaign highlighted by a non-conference win over San Diego State. AAMU finished fourth overall in the conference standings. Alcorn State and Prairie View A&M finished with identical records (9-9) and placed fifth and sixth respectively in the final rankings.

Arkansas-Pine Bluff and Alabama State concluded the season with matching 6-12 records, ranking seventh and eighth, while Grambling State (4-14) and Mississippi Valley State (1-17) rounded out the regular season standings in ninth and tenth place respectively.

In the quarterfinals of the 2020 SWAC Women's Basketball Tournament, Jackson State rolled past Alabama State 71-53 in the Lee E Williams Assembly Center.

Texas Southern defeated the No. 7 Arkansas-Pine Bluff 77-46 at the H&PE Arena.

Southern picked up its third straight win as they eliminated the Lady Panthers 59-55 in F.G. Clark Activity Center.

Alabama A&M defeated Alcorn State 74-54 in Elmore Gymnasium to round out the teams that qualified for the 2020 SWAC Women's Basketball Tournament semifinal round.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | The 2019-20 Southwestern Athletic Conference Men's Basketball regular season had several surprising performances turned in over the course of the season.

Prairie View A&M captured back-to-back regular season titles after concluding the year with an overall of 14-4 record.

Led by SWAC Player of the Year Devonte Patterson, the Panthers were the front runners of the regular season race for the majority of the way after getting off to a 7-2 start in league action.

Southern, perhaps the most surprising team in league regular season play finished second in the standings with a 13-5 record, while Texas Southern (12-6) ranked third.

Jackson State, Alcorn State and Grambling State finished with identical records of (11-7) in the conference standings placing fourth, fifth, and sixth respectively in the final rankings (after applying tie-breaker procedures).

Alabama State ranked seventh with a record of (7-11) in the conference rankings and Alabama A&M finished eighth with a record of 5-13 in the regular season.

Arkansas Pine Bluff and Mississippi Valley State concluded the season with matching (3-15) records rounding out the regular season standings in ninth and tenth place respectively.

SWAC BOWLING

D'IBERVILLE, Miss. | With a dominant effort on the final day of the Southwestern Athletic Conference East Bowling Roundup, the Prairie View A&M bowling team won the SWAC regular-season crown.

Prairie View A&M entered the weekend tied for second in conference standings with a 9-3 conference mark, but had built a comfortable lead in the standings after two strong days on the lanes coming into today's play.

However, the Lady Panthers made sure to take matters into their own hands, running the table on their way to a 12-0 mark during the East Roundup for a combined 21-3 record in conference play.

"I am tremendously proud of this team and how they competed this weekend," said Head Coach Glenn White. "They remained really focused and determined throughout the three days of competition. This was a very tough lane pattern against tough teams, and for us to go undefeated is a testament to the hard work the ladies did this weekend."

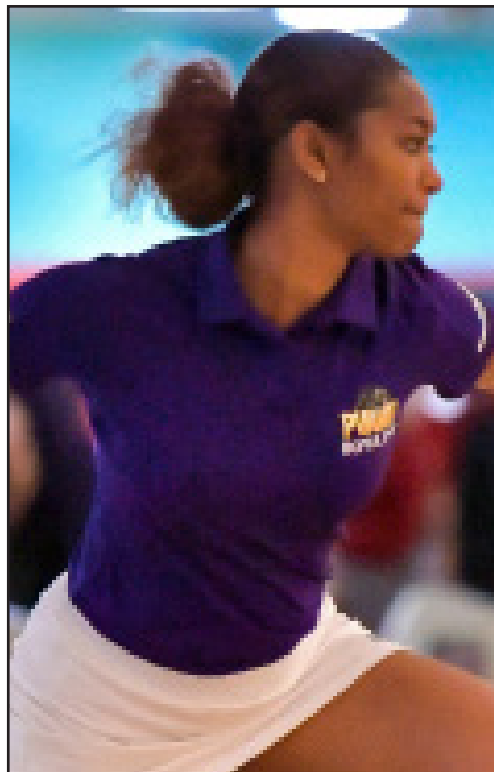

The Lady Panthers cracked the 900 pinfall plateau in three of its final four matches. Prairie View A&M averaged a 182.2 pinfall during the roundup, nearly three pins better than conference regular-season runner up Jackson State.

This marks the third regular-season title for the Lady Panthers bowling program in the past four seasons.

2019 CELEBRATION BOWL

CELEBRATION BOWL

ATLANTA, Ga. | There was no shortage of scoring in the 2019 Celebration Bowl, but the Alcorn State University football program finished on the short end of a 64-44 final to North Carolina A&T on Saturday at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

Alcorn (9-4, 6-1 SWAC) was playing catch-up for most of the way, but showed no quit. The Braves scored five touchdowns in the second half to keep within striking defense of North Carolina A&T (9-3, 6-2 MEAC).

Junior Felix Harper, the SWAC Offensive Player of the Year, totaled five touchdowns. He threw for 341 yards and three touchdowns, and also rushed for a pair of scores. Harper completed 25 passes, which matched his career-high.

A career day came from senior Chris Blair in his final game. He caught seven passes for a career-high 150 yards and a touchdown. Fellow senior Raidarious Anderson hauled in a game-high eight receptions for 85 yards and a touchdown.

NCAT's Kylil Carter threw for 364 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions. His top target was Korey Banks with 122 yards and two scores. Jah-Main Martin rushed for 110 yards and two touchdowns.

defense made a stop. Though, the Aggies were able to hit a 38-yard field goal and led 55-38 with seven minutes left to play.

NOTES

- Alcorn's 44 points were the most it's ever scored in a postseason bowl or playoff game. The program's previous high was 36 points in the 1968 Orange Blossom Classic.

- Alcorn head coach Fred McNair completed his fourth season at the helm and carries a 30-19 record in his career.

- As the nation's leader in turnovers gained, Alcorn forced two fumbles in the game.

- With a 28-yard field goal in the first quarter, McCullough ended his career with 45 field goals made, the most in school history.

- Harper finished the year with 2,954 yards, 33 touchdowns and nine interceptions passing, and six rushing touchdowns. He is a Black College Football Player of the Year candidate and the winner will be announced in Feb. 2020.

- Blair's 150 receiving yards surpassed his previous best of 144 yards against Mississippi Valley State on Sept. 28, 2019. He entered the game ranked top-five in the nation in yards per reception (21.1), and submitted seven catches for 150 yards for an average of 21.4 yards per catch.

- With a slight 13-12 scoring edge in the fourth quarter, the Braves outscored the opposition 112-63 in the fourth quarter this season.

- Alcorn's captains were seniors Darrell Henderson, Javen Morrison and Blair. The Braves won the coin toss and chose to receive.

- Alcorn completed its 99th season of football.

ATLANTA, Ga. | The Southwestern Athletic Conference officially welcomed the 2019 SWAC Hall of Fame Class on Friday, December 20th at the Omni Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia.

Alabama State's Freda Freeman-Jackson, Alcorn State's Teresa Hooker, Grambling State's Autrey Lane Howell and Patricia Cage-Bibbs, Jackson State's Richard Caster (Legend), Mississippi Valley State's George Ivory, Prairie View A&M's Dr. John Grandville (Legends), and Texas Southern's John "Doc" Harvey were inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame.

The 2019 Hall of Fame Class members were selected from a list of nominees who were submitted by their respective institutions. The nominees were then elected for induction by the SWAC Hall of Fame selection committee.

Freeman-Jackson enters her 22nd season as the head coach of the Alabama State University women's basketball program. During the 2018-19 season, Jackson joined an elite group when she recorded her 300th career coaching victory at Alabama State.

Additionally, she has produced some of Alabama State's best student-athletes. She coached the second leading all-time scorer Shameka Jackson; one of ASU's all-time leading rebounders Crystal Kitt; as well as 1,000-plus point scorers Chrishutta Lewis, Nichole Miller and Tanika Jackson. Britney Wright was the latest ASU student-athlete to join the 1,000-point club as a student-athlete under coach Freeman-Jackson in the 2015-16 season.

The 2015-2016 campaign marked Freeman-Jackson and the Lady Hornets' third SWAC Tournament title in over a decade and qualified them for their third NCAA tournament appearance since 2003. The Lady Hornets finished the season 19-12 overall and 14-4 in the SWAC.

Teresa Hooker was undoubtedly one of the top student-athletes in the history of the program. Hooker joins a talented group of former women's basketball student-athletes currently in the SWAC Hall of Fame.

She was a four-year starter at Alcorn State University and is a member of the 1,000 point club at the university. She ranks sixth in points per game average (19.4 ppg) and also led the team in rebounds and field goals while a member of the program.

In 1987 Hooker was drafted to play professional women's basketball in South America playing for team Club de Regatas Lima.

Autrey Lane Howell was a standout member of the Grambling State Tigers football team as a three-year starter at the center position. He was named team captain from 1960-62 along with being selected to the All-SWAC team in 1962 and 1963.

He was drafted in the 15th round of the 1963 NFL Draft by the New York Giants as he went on to become a starting left tackle. Additionally he spent time as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles from 1964-69.

Cage-Bibbs is one of the most decorated coaches in the history of the Southwestern Athletic Conference. In 2012 she became the 51st NCAA Division I Head Coach to join the 500 victory club.

2019 SWAC HALL OF FAME

While head coach at North Carolina A&T she tallied multiple Coach of the Year Awards while also coaching the 5th student-athlete at North Carolina A&T to reach the 1,000 point mark.

In 2010 she was inducted into the Grambling State Sports Hall of Fame. She was the first head coach in HBCU history to win two games in a postseason NCAA tournament. In 1997 she led GSU to an undefeated mark in league play (14-0), and was also named SWAC Coach of the Year.

Caster, a native of Mobile, Alabama played tight end for the Jackson State Tigers from 1966-70. He was an extraordinary student-athlete who excelled as a pass catcher and blocker.

Caster was drafted in the second round by the New York Jets in 1970. He went on to have an impressive 13-year NFL career where he tallied 332 receptions for 5,515 yards and 45 touchdowns.

He was named to the Pro Bowl on three occasion and also was crowned Super Bowl Champion before retiring from the game.

To this day George Ivory remains one of the top student-athletes in the storied history of Mississippi Valley State Athletics. As a freshmen (1983-84) he helped lead MVSU to an overall winning season at 15-13 where he averaged 11.4 points per game along with 5.1 assists.

That same season he was tabbed SWAC Freshman of the Year. In 1984-85 he led MVSU to an 18-11 record. In 1985-86 he etched his name among the list of all-time MVSU greats as he helped guide Mississippi Valley State to a SWAC Tournament Championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

That season MVSU would go on to face Duke in the first round on the NCAA Tournament nearly pulling off an upset with an 85-78 loss.

As a coach he led Arkansas-Pine Bluff to a SWAC Tournament Championship in 2010. The Golden Lions would go on to defeat Winthrop in Dayton, Ohio before falling to eventual tournament champion Duke in the next round of competition.

Osborne was born in Graball, Texas. Following graduation he completed his internship in Douglas Hospital in Philadelphia, Pa. He returned to Texas and began to practice General Medicine while also becoming the Principal of the Public (Negro) School while still practicing medicine.

In 1920 as institutional and public interest increased in Athletics and as problems arose it soon became evident that there was a need for a governing body to give direction to institutions involved in intercollegiate athletics in Texas at black colleges.

Osborne was instrumental in spearheading the formation of "The Big Five" which consisted of Bishop College, Samuel Huston College, Wiley College, Paul Quinn, and Prairie View A&M. The Big Five sent representatives to Houston, Texas on September 10, 1920 and before the meeting was adjourned the Southwestern Athletic Conference was formed.

John Harvey served as head trainer for the Texas Southern Tigers from 1974 to 2015. He was responsible for providing clinical and administrative supervision of the 16 intercollegiate athletics teams, and the formulation of accountability of the athletic training budget.

Harvey started his career as a student at Jack Yates High School in Houston, Texas. He followed his career path to Wiley College where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1966. He later received his master's degree from Prairie View A&M University in 1975.

Harvey was a certified and licensed trainer for 44 years, and was always involved in sports. He worked with the Houston Texans of the World League of American Football in 1974, and was a member of the Houston Oilers game staff. He has served on the National Athletic Trainers Association's Ethnic Minority Advisory Council and the Board of Certification.

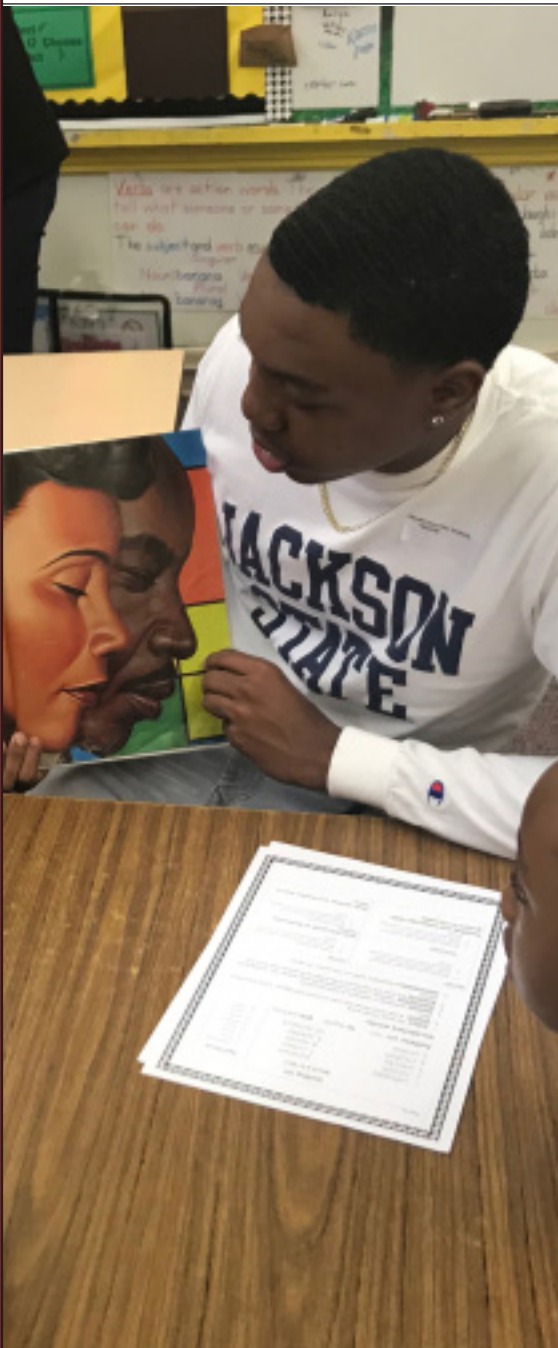

The awards Harvey has received during his distinguished career include Black Sports Media Athletic Trainer of the Year (1996), NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award (2002), NAT Bill Chisolm Professional Service Award 2003, and induction into the SWATA Hall of Fame (2003).

He also holds distinction as the namesake of the "John Harvey Humanitarian Award" presented by the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association which he was the inaugural recipient in 2001. In 2005, Harvey was honored with the Touchdown Club of Houston Service Award.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | The Southwestern Athletic Conference revealed its 2019 postseason soccer honors, with Howard's Thalia Boucher, Kendall Macaulay, Alayah Hightower, and Head Coach Brent Leiba along with Mississippi Valley State's Beatriz Kretteis and Arkansas-Pine Bluff's Sarah Wright taking home individual accolades. The teams and award winners were determined in a vote among the league's coaches and sports information directors.

Wright received Co-Offensive Player of the Year recognitions for the first time after leading the SWAC in goals (9) and points (20). The Stratford, Ct. native tallied 1.33 points per game, 1.60 shots per game, and three game-winning goals in 817:00 minutes played.

Boucher collected Co-Offensive Player of the Year accolades after leading the top-seed Bison to a 12-3 overall record and a 9-1 conference record. The Toronto, Canada native recorded eight goals and two assists, tallying 18 points on the season. Boucher, a sophomore midfielder, also finished first in the SWAC in game-winning goals with four.

Teammate Macaulay picked up Defensive Player of the Year honors after helping anchor the Bison's defensive attack that did not concede a goal in 10 contests throughout the season. A two-time defensive player of the week honoree, Macaulay aided the Bison in allowed just .67 goals per game and limiting opponents to a combined 149 shots on goal. She was also second in the league in assists with five.

Kretteis, the 2019 SWAC Freshman of the Year led the Devillettes in scoring with 15 points, finding the twine seven times during the season and adding an assist. The London, England native recorded 18 shots on goal, and a game-winning goal this season.

Hightower earned the 2019 SWAC Goalkeeper of the Year award. She leads the SWAC in goals against average with .305 percentage. Hightower ranks first in the league with a .914 save percentage and the Largo, Md. native is responsible for seven shutouts in the net this season.

Leiba earned the SWAC Coach of the Year Award as he guided the Bison to a 12-3 record (9-1 SWAC) and a share of the conference regular season title. Under Leiba's direction, Howard allowed 0.67 goals per game and boasted the best scoring margin among all teams. Thanks to ferocious defense, Howard gave up only 10 goals throughout the entire season.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | The Southwestern Athletic Conference released its 2019 All-SWAC Teams on Thursday with Alabama A&M's Abdul-Fatai Ibrahim, Texas Southern's Donnie Corley, Jackson State's Keonte Hampton, and Alcorn State's Felix Harper and head coach Fred McNair receiving individual honors.

The teams were announced prior to the 2019 Cricket Wireless SWAC Football Championship Game set to be held at Jack Spinks-Marino Casem Stadium on the campus of Alcorn State University in Lorman, Miss. The all-conference teams and individual award winners were voted on by the league's head coaches and sports information directors.

After helping lead the Braves to an eight-win regular season highlighted by a 6-1 mark in conference play, Alcorn State quarterback Felix Harper was selected as the SWAC Offensive Player of the Year. Harper took the league by storm this season after taking over as the Braves starter at quarterback. Harper tallied 29 touchdowns this season to go along with 167 completions, 2,387 passing yards good for a 167.9 efficiency rating.

Jackson State's Keonte Hampton, a sophomore linebacker from West Point, Miss. was tabbed SWAC Defensive Player of the Year after racking up 106 tackles, 13 tackles for a loss, 4.5 sacks, and one forced fumble. Hampton ranks in the top five in the SWAC in total tackles, tackles per game (8.8 tpg), and sacks (4.5).

Texas Southern wide receiver Donnie Corley was selected as SWAC Newcomer of the Year after leading the league in receiving yards with 1,039 for the season. Corley amassed a conference leading 103.9 receiving yards per game and was the only receiver in the league to average over 100 yards per outing. He also tallied 72 total receptions (7.2 rpg) along with three touchdowns.

Alabama A&M's Abdul-Fatai Ibrahim was named the SWAC Freshman of the Year after ranking in the top five in the league in receiving yards (1004), receiving touchdowns (11), receptions per game (5.4 rpg), and receiving yards per game (91.3 ypg). Ibrahim was one of only three receivers in the league to accumulate over 1,000 yards.

Fred McNair was named the SWAC Coach of the Year after leading the Braves to a sixth straight SWAC East Division crown. Alcorn State concluded the SWAC regular season first in total defense, rushing defense, interceptions, offensive efficiency, and fourth down conversions.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | The Southwestern Athletic Conference revealed its 2019-20 all-conference honors on Thursday afternoon. The all-conference awards are voted on by the league's coaches and sports information directors.

Texas Southern's Ciani Cryor was named Player of the Year, while Jackson State's Ameshya Williams took home the conference's Defensive Player of the Year award. Alabama A&M's Dariauna Lewis was tabbed Newcomer of the Year, Alabama State's Aniyah Smith was selected as Freshman of the Year, and Jackson State's Tomekia Reed was voted Coach of the Year.

Cryor led the league in scoring with 18.2 points per contest. The Philadelphia, Pa. native finished first in the conference and fourth in the nation in assists with 6.5 per game (183). Cryor was first in the conference and fourth in the nation in steals with 107 and had an average of 3.8 which is also fourth in the nation. She was tied for fourth in the SWAC in assist-to-turnover ratio with an 1.4 ratio and a 4.8 average, tied for fifth in three-point field goals with an 1.8 average, seventh in free throw percentage (728), and 12th in the SWAC in rebounds per game (4.8).

Williams completed the season 11th in the nation and first in the league in blocked shots per game (2.8). She was 19th in the nation in blocked shots with 76. The Gulfport, Miss. native was fourth in field goal percentage (.470) and second in the league in rebounds averaging 9.8 per contests. Williams closed out the season ninth in the conference in scoring, averaging 12.4 points per game.

Smith ended the season averaging 9.2 points per game for the Lady Hornets this season. The Birmingham, Ala. native averaged 22.8 minutes per game while holding a .731 free throw percentage. Smith was sixth in the conference in rebounding (5.9).

Lewis came to the league and had a star-studded sophomore campaign finishing first in the conference and third in the nation in field goal percentage (.652). The Omaha, Neb. native was second in the conference in scoring with an average of 16.7 points per game, and second in blocked shots with an average of 1.7 per contest.

Coach Reed closed out her second season leading the Jackson State Lady Tigers to their first regular-season title in over a decade. The Jackson, Miss. native guided the Lady Tigers to an overall record of 18-10 and a conference record of 16-2. Under her tutelage, JSU held a 13-game win streak that included a 12-0 start in conference play, which was the best start in program history.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | Prairie View A&M University forward Devonte Patterson was named the 2019-20 Southwestern Athletic Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Year.

The announcement comes as part of the league's reveal of its 2019-20 all-conference teams and individual specialty award recipients on Thursday afternoon.

Jackson State's Jayveous McKinnis was tabbed Defensive Player of the Year, Mississippi Valley State's Caleb Hunter earned Freshman of the Year accolades, and Roland Griffin was named Newcomer of the Year. Prairie View A&M coach Byron Smith was voted Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season.

The teams and individual awards were voted on by the league's head coaches and sports information directors.

Patterson was third in the league in points per game (15.8), and ranked fourth in rebounds per game (6.4 rpg). He also ranked near the top of the conference in field-goal percentage (.463). His efforts assisted the Panthers in claiming back-to-back regular season titles (2019 and 2020).

McKinnis averaged 9.3 points per game and led the league in blocks at 1.9 per outing. He served as key factor for a JSU defense that ranked second in the league in points allowed per game (67.4 ppg).

Hunter ranked fourth in the league averaging 15.7 points per game and ranked second in three point field goal percentage (.278).

Griffin was a key member for the Jackson State Tigers this season ranking sixth in the league in points per game (15.3) and third in rebounding (6.5 rpg).

Smith guided the Panthers to their second regular-season championship since 2003, posting a 14-4 record in SWAC play (19-13 SWAC). Prairie View A&M's offense averaged more than 71 points per game, ranking third in the conference.
