Los Angeles Rams

Ownership and Executive Staff

Owner/Chairman

E. Stanley Kroenke

E. Stanley Kroenke's journey to bring professional football back to Los Angeles culminated on Jan. 12, 2016 when National Football League owners ratified his proposal to return the Rams to Southern California.

"Stan Kroenke solved the riddle that perplexed the NFL for over 20 years," said Sam Farmer, a columnist with the Los Angeles Times. "He had the drive and resources to make the commitment and did what no one else could do."

Eleven years after NFL owners unanimously approved Kroenke to assume sole ownership of the franchise in 2010, he celebrates the opening of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park – a 298-acre development with a 70,240-seat stadium as its crown jewel, which will host Super Bowl LVI this February as the culmination of its first season with fans in attendance.

The state-of-the-art stadium rises from nearly 100 feet below ground on the former site of the Hollywood Park Racetrack and serves as the home to the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. Additionally, the multi-purpose project serves as a West Coast campus for the National Football League, houses NFL Media's headquarters, features hosting capabilities for future Super Bowls, NFL Drafts, and Pro Bowls.

"I think what Stan has built here and done here, in his creativity with this whole development, this probably is going to redefine this area of Los Angeles for the next century," Chargers Owner/ Chairman Dean Spanos told The Associated Press. "It's going to be something that L.A. is going to be very proud to have."

Equipped with decades of real estate development experience, a passion for sports and a one-of-a-kind vision, Kroenke orchestrated the Rams' return home by privately financing the construction of a world-class stadium befitting the culture and style of Los Angeles.

"Stan has the vision, resources, inspiration and creativity to create the right setting for the NFL in Los Angeles," said Dallas Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones. "I have great admiration for his talent and skills, and I have great confidence in his leadership ability in guiding our league back into this very important community. He sees the big picture, knows how to do things on the big stage, and he knows how to do what's best for the long term future. Stan Kroenke is a valuable asset to the National Football League."

In the months leading up to the opening of SoFi Stadium, Kroenke was named Los Angeles Business Journal's Business Person of the Year for 2020. The Rams' return to Los Angeles was named 2016's top sports moment at the 12th Annual L.A. Sports Awards.

DELIVERING A GLOBAL DESTINATION

In a marriage of sports, retail, commercial and residential development, Kroenke constructed a 3.1 million-square-foot stadium expandable up to 100,000 seats that will anchor an urban village, complete with a 6,000-seat performance venue called The YouTube Theater, 300 boutique hotel rooms, 2,500 modern residences, more than 1.5 million square feet of retail, office, conference and meeting space. More than 20 acres of public parks, open space, pedestrian walkways and bicycle paths will divide the district into thirds, offering residents and visitors a regional gathering place in the center of the Los Angeles basin.

"(The) project is uniquely tied to Kroenke's vision of where global sports and entertainment are heading and his zeal to be at the forefront," sports reporter Liz Clarke detailed in The Washington Post in 2019.

In addition to hosting NFL games, SoFi Stadium and the district at Hollywood Park will transform the area into a year-round sports and entertainment destination that will deliver an unparalleled experience for residents and visitors. Beyond Super Bowl LVI in 2022, the stadium has been awarded the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympics and the College Football Playoff National Championship and Wrestlemania in 2023.

"Los Angeles is a world-class city with a great record as sensational hosts to college football championships, Olympics, Super Bowls and other top events," said Bill Hancock, executive director of the College Football Playoff. "Of course, the new stadium will be spectacular."

"It's iconic," said Dallas Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones to the Los Angeles Times. "I've tried to run from the word. But this stadium, there was no way Stan was going to cut costs in any way that would compromise the overall, long-term sense of quality or value. It needs to be like Mt. Rushmore."

The NFL recently opened NFL Los Angeles, a 450,000 square foot Class A building with 214,063 square feet of office space and 74,922 square feet of studio and studio support space to serve as the home for NFL Network, NFL.com, NFL RedZone, the NFL app and many other department's supporting the league's media and business operations. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility features NFL Media's first outdoor studio which will be able to host audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use.

"As home to the Rams and Chargers, and now NFL Los Angeles, SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park will be an attraction for NFL fans year-round," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "Thanks to Stan's vision, we know Hollywood Park will be the place to be – not just for football, but for entertainment and events, for living and for working. We are excited for NFL Los Angeles to join this transformative project."

The NFL's largest stadium was designed to reflect the climate, characteristics and culture of Southern California, and to capitalize on the site's near-perfect weather, a transparent roof canopy covering 19 acres was developed. Under the lightweight roof made of ETFE, all sides of the building will remain open, allowing for a natural integration between the indoor and outdoor public spaces.

"That stadium is off the charts," said Al Michaels, the play-by-play voice for NBC's Sunday Night Football. "It's very different. It's very special."

Kroenke and project developers officially broke ground on SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park on Nov. 17, 2016.

"It's amazing how much earth has been moved," said Jacksonville Jaguars Owner Shad Khan who also regarded the stadium as "the eight wonder of the world" in a piece written by ESPN. "It's going to be a phenomenal building," San Francisco 49ers CEO Jed York added to the story. "It's going to be the place that you need to see a game."

ENRICHING THE COMMUNITY

Within months of relocating to Southern California, Kroenke's Rams instituted their first local community improvement project in partnership with the Inglewood Unified School District as a continuation of the team's commitment to service.

"The (community improvement) project, being completed through a grant from the Rams, is a visible manifestation of Stan Kroenke, the NFL and the Rams organization to the school children of Inglewood," said Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts. "The Rams have shouted, 'Inglewood kids count,' and I salute them for their investment in the learning environment for our children."

Under Kroenke's leadership, philanthropic activities remain essential to the mission of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. Project developers are committed to positively impacting the Greater Los Angeles Region and the City of Inglewood through world-class entertainment, outreach activities, the creation of new jobs, and local revenues.

"In shifting the center of gravity of West Coast sports to Inglewood, Kroenke has elevated the profile of the community and seeded the area with opportunity for years to come," added Farmer. "A project of this magnitude changes the landscape both literally and economically."

In partnership with the City of Inglewood, Kroenke committed to a 100 percent union job site with priority given to residents of Inglewood and designated local zip codes. Since breaking ground in 2016, more than 17,000 people worked on-site to help construct SoFi Stadium. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal has been established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. At the completion of the stadium construction in Summer of 2020, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $750 million in construction contracts and local area residents have received more than $93 million in wages.

As a whole, the City of Inglewood's general fund is expected to receive tens of millions in annual revenue from SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. According to initial estimates, the city is projected to receive $13 million in sales tax revenue during construction from equipment and materials purchased alone. Inglewood will also benefit through other avenues such as ticket taxes, sales tax from retail operations, property taxes and a hotel occupancy tax. These funds will help balance the city's budget, improve and expand city services and infrastructure, enhance public safety and maintain open green space. Revenues from Kroenke's entertainment district will also fund new after-school sports programs among other after-school activities for Inglewood's youth.

In recognition of their leadership in giving back to the greater Los Angeles region, Kroenke's Rams were honored in 2019 by both the Anti-Defamation League Los Angeles with their Corporate Leadership Award and by Make-A-Wish Tri-Counties as The Wish Champion Award.

AN INTERNATIONAL SPORTS LEADER

Regarded as one of the world's leading sports proprietors, Kroenke's teams have won titles in the NFL, NHL, MLS, and the National Lacrosse League. Kroenke's sports holdings include serving as the majority shareholder of London's Arsenal FC (Barclays English Premiere League), which won its 13th FA Cup in 2017. From 2000-2014, Kroenke owned the NBA's Denver Nuggets and the NHL's Colorado Avalanche, which are now a part of a family trust. Kroenke's Denver-based company, Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE), owns the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer and the Colorado Mammoth of the National Lacrosse League. Kroenke also owns Altitude Sports & Entertainment, which produces Rams preseason games.

"It is evident that Stan knows how to achieve success in the sports world," Rams General Manager Les Snead said. "His teams have won championships in five different sports and he has experience in building a contender. The success we have experienced through the NFL Draft and free agency, would not have been possible without Stan's support and his willingness to take risks to build our team."

On Jan. 12, 2017, Kroenke hired Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history – to lead the Rams. McVay's 33 wins in his first three years is the franchise's most wins since the 1974-76 seasons, and his record through the first four seasons (43-21 in 64 regular season games) of his coaching tenure is amongst the best start of all head coaches hired since 2000.

Since onboarding McVay, the Rams won back-to-back division titles and turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history in 2018. That year, Los Angeles finished with a 13-3 record – tied for second-best in team history – won two playoff games and added a conference championship to its collection of accolades. In 2020 the Rams finished second place in the NFC West but won a Wild Card spot. They defeated Seattle in that Wild Card game but fell to Green Bay in the Divisional round.

According to The New York Times, 1997 was the first season to allow NFL owners to own cross-sport franchises. Among current NFL ownership, only two have had three teams win a playoff game/series in the same year in North America. Kroenke was the latest to accomplish the feat as the Avalanche and Nuggets also made remarkable playoff runs during the 2018-19 season. Both the Avalanche and Nuggets secured first-round playoff wins, and Los Angeles advanced to the club's fourth Super Bowl (2018-19 season). The late Paul Allen's Seattle Seahawks (NFL), Portland Trail Blazers (NBA) and Seattle Sounders FC (MLS) previously did so in 2014.

"Mr. Kroenke is committed to building sustainable, winning teams," McVay said. "We're excited to continue that journey as we welcome our fans into our new home in Inglewood."

Kroenke currently serves on the NFL's Broadcast Committee. He has worked on multiple league committees, including the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee. Kroenke also worked alongside his fellow owners to reach a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players Association in 2011.

E. Stanley Kroenke, named after baseball legends Enos Slaughter and Stan Musial, was born in Cole Camp, Mo., and grew up in Mora, Mo. Kroenke and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh, Vice Chairman of KSE and KSE UK. In 2017, Kroenke and Josh became owners of two eSports franchises – the Los Angeles Gladiators of the Overwatch League and the Los Angeles Guerrillas of the Call of Duty League.

Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and he is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (2009 Enshrinement Class).

Kevin Demoff is in his 13th year as Chief Operating Officer with the Rams. In this capacity, Demoff serves as the team's top front office executive and liaison to owner and chairman, Stan Kroenke, on all organizational matters.

After serving on the working group that helped Kroenke return the Rams – Los Angeles' original professional sports team – home to L.A., Demoff is now playing a significant role in delivering on Kroenke's vision to design and construct Hollywood Park, the 298-acre sports and entertainment district in Inglewood that features SoFi Stadium, the home of the Rams. Beyond the stadium, the campus includes the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater, an office complex that is the home of the NFL's West Coast headquarters, a retail district that is under development, and is currently the largest entitled real-estate project in Southern California. Since the Rams returned home to Los Angeles in 2016 – the team's 50th season in Los Angeles after calling the region home from 1946-1994 – the Rams are committed to being a key contributor to the betterment of the Los Angeles community.

Immediately on the heels of the National Football League's historic return to Los Angeles, Demoff and the Rams helped lead a regional effort to bring the Super Bowl to the new SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. In addition to being the mostwatched sporting event in the world, Super Bowl LVI, which will be played in 2022, will attract tens of thousands of people to the Los Angeles region and generate hundreds of millions of dollars for local hotels, restaurants, shops and other businesses. Super Bowl LVI is projected to be Los Angeles' largest tourism event since the 1984 Olympics.

The Hollywood Park development is expected to generate hundreds of millions in new annual economic activity across the region. During construction, there were upwards of 3,500 construction workers on-site daily, with Inglewood residents given priority placement, and more than 17,000 workers stepped site on the stadium site since it broke ground in November 2016. Once fully operating, the stadium and retail components together are expected to generate thousands of additional jobs with long-term regional benefits.

In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal for construction was established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. During construction, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $754 million in construction contracts and local area residents earned more than $129 million in wages. In addition, in partnership with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition (ARC) and 2nd Call, more than 100 union workers who were previously incarcerated found employment opportunities during the construction of SoFi Stadium.

Demoff and the Rams have also joined forces with the LA24 Olympic Bid Committee, chaired by Casey Wasserman, to help deliver the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games to Los Angeles. In addition, SoFi Stadium will host the College Football Playoff final in 2023.

Since joining the Rams in 2009, Demoff has been responsible for re-organizing the club's business efforts with a focus on delivering a better overall experience for Rams' fans, building a team that reflects Los Angeles, and increasing the club's presence in the community. Demoff spearheaded the organization's efforts to become one of the strongest philanthropic partners in professional sports. That focus has led the team to receive numerous awards for their charitable efforts as they continue to become part of the fabric of the greater Los Angeles region.

Social justice has long been at the heart of the Rams community outreach efforts as the team focuses on addressing education inequities, food insecurity, homelessness, community-police relations and youth justice — all injustices that unfairly burden the Black and Brown communities and prevent advancement. Since 2017, the Rams have funded a City Year team to support students at Grape Street Elementary in Watts and Crozier Middle School in Inglewood. City Year is a national organization that mobilizes AmeriCorps members for a year of full-time service in underserved communities to serve as tutors, mentors and role models for students to help them graduate high school, college and become career-ready young professionals. Inspired by City Year's mission, Demoff joined the board in 2020.

Demoff also serves on the board of the United Way of Greater Los Angeles, and since 2017 he has served as the chair of its annual campaign which helps United Way transform lives and communities by creating pathways out of poverty for the most vulnerable residents through education, housing and financial stability. In May of 2019, the Rams teamed up with United Way of Greater Los Angeles for the 12th Annual HomeWalk, a 5K family run/walk to raise public awareness and funds to end homelessness. Through this partnership, the two organizations worked collaboratively to create an unforgettable experience for runners, walkers, fans and fundraisers of all ages. Rams players Aaron Donald, Andrew Whitworth, Johnny Hekker, Tyler Higbee and the entire rookie class joined Coach McVay, Demoff and approximately 10,000 community members to end homelessness. The event raised more than $1.1 million for housing solutions. After a virtual HomeWalk in 2020, Demoff is helping to bring the event to SoFi Stadium in November of 2021. The event, which is being renamed Walk United LA, will rally the community around providing housing, education and opportunity for all.

Another passion project of Demoff is the Watts Rams youth football team which is coached by officers from the Los Angeles Police Department. The Rams adopted the program in the 2019 to use the game of football to help bridge the gap between law enforcement and communities of color and then worked with Inglewood Parks and Recreation to rename their youth flag football league, the Inglewood Rams. Each of the 22 teams within the Inglewood Rams flag football league is named after a current Rams player with Inglewood police officers serving as coaches and mentors.

One of the hallmarks of the Rams' community outreach efforts is the team's Staff Day of Service program. Introduced by Demoff in 2009, each month the team's front office staff takes time out of the office to volunteer with local non-profits. Since the project's inception, the Rams' staff has provided more than 18,000 hours of community service. Since returning home to Los Angeles, the Rams have provided more than 9,700 hours of community service and impacted 153 local non-profits and 193 schools through this program alone.

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country in March 2020, the Rams partnered with KABC on a "Te'LA'thon for Los Angeles," which raised $2.2 million to benefit both LA Regional Food Bank and United Way of Greater Los Angeles to help those affected by COVID-19. The organization also made a commitment to fund monthly mobile food distributions in Black and Brown communities including two mobile distributions at SoFi Stadium that provided more than 7,000 families with nutritious food. In addition to these efforts, the Rams annually host the Taste of the Rams event to raise money to address the food insecurity of 1 in 5 Angelenos. Introduced in 2016, the event has raised roughly $650,000 for LA Regional Food Bank and allowed them to provide more than 2.5 million meals to Angelenos in need.

In March of 2021, Demoff teamed with Los Angeles Unified School District Superintendent Austin Beutner and the Rams official health partner, Cedars-Sinai, to make Hollywood Park a vaccination site for LAUSD teachers and staff. In two months, approximately 17,000 vaccines were administered in an effort to help reopen schools in the safest way possible.

In the wake of unimaginable tragedy that struck the Southern California region in 2018, the Rams hosted the Kansas City Chiefs at the LA Memorial Coliseum on November 19 for a game that currently stands as the highest scoring Monday Night Football game ever and will be remembered for bringing LA Together. After a mass shooting and wildfires affected and displaced thousands of residents in the Southern California region, the Los Angeles Rams stood in solidarity with Angelenos to honor and pay tribute to affected individuals, their families and first responders who worked tirelessly to keep the region safe. Under Demoff's leadership, the Rams wrapped their arms around the community in a number of ways including giving away thousands of game tickets to those affected by the tragedies and honoring victims and the community through in-game elements including the National Anthem, coin toss and torch lighting. The Rams partnered with CBS 2 and United Way of Greater Los Angeles on a telethon that raised more than $2.1 million benefiting the relief efforts, and in addition more than $250,000 was raised for a variety of charities supporting the relief efforts through in-game 50/50 raffles, jersey auctions and player ticket donations tied to the game.

Reinforcing the Rams' commitment to the Los Angeles community, Demoff also serves on the boards of the Los Angeles Sports Council, and Los Angeles Sports and Entertainment Commission, as well as its philanthropic initiative, ChampionLA. Additionally, Demoff is part of the American Cancer Society's CEOs Against Cancer, which is a partnership of the world's leading CEOs and the American Cancer Society dedicated to eliminating unnecessary deaths and suffering from cancer.

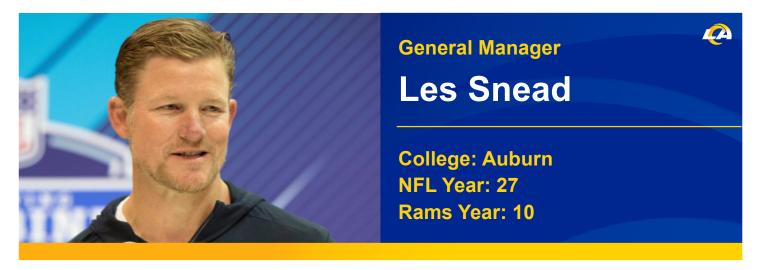

Los Angeles Business Journal has recognized Demoff for four consecutive years on its annual LA500 list, honoring the most influential leaders and executives in Los Angeles. Demoff was recognized by the Sports Business Journal as one of its "Forty under 40" class members of 2016 and in 2010 he was named one of the "NFL's 10 Future Power Brokers" by Sports Illustrated.

Prior to joining the Rams, Demoff spent the previous four seasons (2005-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as a consultant before being named Senior Assistant in 2006. In this capacity, Demoff assisted General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, strategic planning and both college and pro scouting. During his tenure with the Buccaneers, the team captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007 while posting a winning record in three of his four seasons.

From 2001-04, Demoff served as Director of Football Operations for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League. Demoff helped direct the team to its first-ever playoff berth and in his final three seasons with the club, the Avengers posted a record of 28-18, third-best in the Arena Football League, qualifying for the playoffs in each of those seasons.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif., Demoff received a bachelors' degree in history from Dartmouth College in 1999 and a Masters in Business Administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 2006.

Kevin and Jennifer have two children – a daughter, Claire and a son, Owen.

Les Snead is in his tenth season as general manager of the Los Angeles Rams.

Snead's tenure has been marked by strategic, aggressive moves that has created a strong core nucleus of talent and improved depth throughout the roster. Snead set his philosophy in motion just days after his hiring and has continued through the 2019 NFL Draft.

After guiding the organization through the building and breakthrough process of constructing the Rams roster, Snead and the Rams are now thriving in the contention phase of NFL roster building.

L.A. went without a first-round draft pick for the third-straight season in the 2019 NFL Draft after acquiring talent and beginning to reward the Rams core-nucleolus with long-term contracts.

Since being named general manager, Snead has orchestrated 48 trades, which is the seventh-most in the NFL since 2012. The Rams have selected 63 players in the NFL Draft under Snead, six of which have been named All-Pro, which is tied for the most drafted All-Pro selections since 2012.

Prior to the start of the 2018 season, L.A. rewarded two former first-round picks in DT Aaron Donald and RB Todd Gurley II with long-term contracts, making both Donald and Gurley the highest paid players at their positions following a 2017 season where they won Associated Press Defensive and Offensive Player of the year accolades, respectively.

The Rams made six trades in the 2019 NFL Draft, including a trade out of the first round to acquire additional draft capital. L.A. used its first pick of the draft to select S Taylor Rapp out of Washington in the second round (No. 61 overall), before making three selections in the third round. L.A. finished with eight total draft picks in this year's draft, including four offensive and four defensive players, with four selections in the top-100 picks of the draft.

Snead took a different approach to the 2018 offseason compared to previous years, making trades to acquire players, in addition to making trades to bolster draft capital. From the start of the new league year on March 14 through the completion of the 2018 NFL Draft, Snead and his personnel department executed 11 trades, which resulted in the acquisition of players such as CBs Marcus Peters and Aqib Talib, and WR Brandin Cooks. Additionally, the Rams were able to land coveted free agent DT Ndamukong Suh.

In the 2018 draft, Snead orchestrated a draft that netted the Rams 11 players, despite not having a pick in the first two rounds. L.A. used its first two picks on offensive linemen picking T Joseph Noteboom (No. 89 overall) out of TCU and C Brian Allen (No. 111 overall) from Michigan State. The Rams used seven of the remaining nine selections to bolster depth along the defensive front. All 11 2018 draft picks were on the roster entering the 2019 offseason program.

From 2012-2017, Snead made 52 selections in the NFL Draft, with 11 percent (six players) of those selections going on to earn All-

Pro honors, the most in the league during that time frame. Snead's draft choices include back-to-back Associated Press Rookie of the Year honorees in Donald (2014 Defensive Rookie of the Year) and Gurley (2015 Offensive Rookie of the Year). Both of whom went on the earn AP Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year honors following the 2017 season.

The Rams have reaped early dividends from many of Snead's initial selections, particularly in the early rounds. Of the 13 players Snead selected in the first or second rounds of his first four drafts, seven were named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team following their first season. In total, 10 players drafted by Snead have made an All-Rookie Team.

Despite not owning a first-round selection for just the seventh time in franchise history, Snead was more active in free agency during the 2017 offseason to supplement the young talent accumulated through the draft on the Rams roster with a veteran presence. The first moves made by Snead with Head Coach Sean McVay were the signings of Pro Bowl T Andrew Whitworth and WR Robert Woods.

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Snead and company maneuvered trades to select TE Gerald Everett (No. 44 overall) out of the University of South Alabama. The Rams used three of their first four selections on pass catchers, selecting WR Cooper Kupp (No. 69 overall) out of Eastern Washington and WR Josh Reynolds (No. 117 overall), in addition to S John Johnson III with the second of two third round selections (No. 91 overall). As a group, the 2017 draft class started 26 games as rookies, led by Johnson who started 11 games at safety. The 2017 rookie class was highlighted by Kupp being named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

The 2016 season kicked off with a blockbuster pre-draft trade from No. 15 overall to No. 1 overall with the Tennessee Titans to select Cal QB Jared Goff. The trade sent the Titans the Rams' first-round draft pick (No. 15), two second-round draft picks (No. 43, No. 45), and a third-round draft pick (No. 76) in 2016. Tennessee also obtained Los Angeles' first-round and third-round picks in the 2017 NFL Draft. In addition to receiving the No. 1 overall pick, Los Angeles gained the Titans' fourth-round (No. 113) and sixth-round (No. 177) selections in 2016. No team has moved farther up in the first round since the New England Patriots did so in 1984.

In 2015, Snead led a draft that focused on revamping the running game. That started by selecting Gurley No. 10 overall and then selecting four offensive linemen with the team's next six selections, highlighted by Wisconsin T Rob Havenstein (No. 57 overall). Havenstein has gone on to start all 59 regular season games and four postseason contests with the organization. The Rams boasted the third youngest offensive line in the NFL during the 2015 season, which showcased Havenstein who did not allow a sack as a rookie.

Gurley became just the third Rams rookie running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark since Hall of Famers Eric Dickerson (1983) and Jerome Bettis (1993). Gurley led all rookies in rushing and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards (1,106).

Les Snead Continued

His season culminated with a Pro Bowl berth, Pro Football Writers of America Rookie of the Year award and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year award, marking the second-consecutive year that a Rams rookie took home NFL rookie honors (Donald –DPOY 2015). Gurley had his best season as a pro in 2018, leading the league with 2,093 scrimmage yards and 19 total touchdowns en route to earning Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year accolades.

Snead and his staff made a total of 11 selections in the 2014 draft. With their own first-round pick, they selected Donald, a Pittsburgh All-American, who earned Pro Bowl honors and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the year after posting 9.0 sacks, the second most by any NFL defensive tackle that season. Donald bested his rookie performance in year two and garnered 11.0 sacks, which tied for most in the league at his position on his way to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod and went on to win Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2018. After becoming the highest paid defensive tackle in NFL history, Donald thanks Snead and the Rams with a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most by an interior defensive lineman in league history, en route to earning his second-consecutive AP Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Snead and his staff have had plenty of success in post-draft rookie free agency over the last eight years. Of the 53 players on the team's final 2016 roster, 15 joined the Rams as undrafted rookie free agents under Snead's watch. That group included Pro Bowl P Johnny Hekker and LS Jake McQuaide and special teams standout LB Cory Littleton, who blocked two kicks during the 2017 season.

Snead inherited a roster that had endured one of the most difficult stretches in league history. From 2007 to 2011, St. Louis posted a 15-65 record (.188 winning percentage), the worst ever by an NFL team during any five-year period. The Rams' 15 wins during that stretch were the fewest in the league, and Detroit, which had the second-lowest win total during the same time frame, totaled 10 more wins than St. Louis as the Lions won 25 games. From 2012-15, the Rams have logged 27 wins to increase their winning percentage to .422.

The Rams' 2016 training camp roster was the youngest roster in the NFL. Since the Snead administration has been in place, the Rams have boasted the youngest roster during the 2012, 2014 and 2016 seasons. The Rams were the second-youngest team in 2015.

In the spring of 2012, Snead directed a trade that sent the second overall pick in the 2012 draft to the Washington Redskins in exchange for the sixth and 39th picks that year as well as Washington's first round picks in both 2013 and 2014.

Snead made two additional trades in April of 2012 that allowed the Rams to make four of the first 50 selections in the 2012 draft. The surplus of picks allowed the Rams to strategically maneuver in the 2013 draft as well. With the Rams sitting at No. 16, Snead surmised that he wouldn't be able to stand pat and land highly-coveted WR/PR Tavon Austin, so he worked out a deal with the Buffalo Bills. The Rams moved up to Buffalo's eighth spot and selected the speedy playmaker from West Virginia. Austin scored six touchdowns as a rookie – four receiving, one rushing and one on a 98-yard punt return. In the Rams' win at Indianapolis in 2013, Austin became one of three rookies in NFL history to score three touchdowns of 50 yards or more, joining Hall of Famer Gale Sayers and Randy Moss.

With the 22nd pick, which the Rams owned as part of the Washington trade, Snead made another deal that helped the club recoup a significant portion of what he'd sent to Buffalo. The Rams swapped places with the Atlanta Falcons, and with the 30th selection, Snead and company were able to secure the player they'd targeted at No. 22 - Georgia LB Alec Ogletree. As a rookie, Ogletree led the Rams with 155 tackles and added 1.5 sacks, six forced fumbles and an interception.

In his role as general manager, Snead partners with Head Coach Sean McVay to direct all personnel decisions for the club. In addition, Snead coordinates all aspects of the club's football operations with the head coach. He also joins forces with C.O.O/ Executive Vice President of Football Operations Kevin Demoff and Vice President, Football & Business Administration Tony Pastoors to direct the team's business ventures.

Prior to joining the Rams, Snead spent 13 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons. He served as the club's director of player personnel from 2009-11 and also held posts as a pro scout and as the Falcons' director of pro personnel.

During his time in Atlanta, Snead was part of a personnel staff that signed, traded for or drafted 16 players that went on to earn Pro Bowl honors.

Snead helped construct a roster that has been one of the NFL's best over the last few years. From 2008-11, the Falcons had four consecutive winning seasons, winning 43 games during that time, which are the fifth-most wins in the NFL over that time period. The Falcons participated in one Super Bowl and two NFC Championship games during Snead's tenure with the club.

Snead joined the Falcons after three seasons (1995-97) in the pro scouting department of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was hired by the Jaguars prior to the franchise's first season and helped put together a team that garnered an AFC Championship game berth in just its second year of existence. Jacksonville won its first division title in Snead's final year with the team.

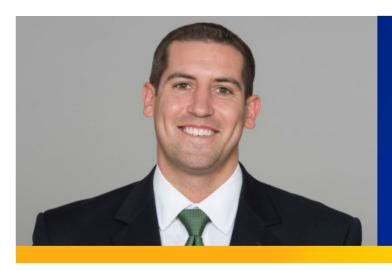

Snead played tight end for Auburn from 1992-93 and was part of the Tigers' perfect 11-0 team in 1993. He also earned Southeast Region Academic All-American honors during his college career.

The Eufaula, Ala. native holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and planned to attend medical school until he was offered a graduate assistant coaching position at his alma mater. He earned a Master of Education degree at Auburn while working as a graduate assistant and he also served as an administrative assistant of football operation in 1995 at Auburn.

In addition to his duties with the Rams, Snead also sits on a pair of advisory boards, including GAMEBREAKER, which is a soft shelled headgear powered by D3O Impact Technology as a way to help alleviate some of the nicks and abrasions that come with playing any contact or non contact sport. Also Snead serves as a board member on the Curry School Foundation Board at UVA, a dynamic group of professionals who have committed themselves as fundraisers and ambassadors of the school, promoting Curry's work among their networks of colleagues and acquaintances.

Snead is married to Kara Henderson Snead, a sports media personality who has worked for NFL Network, and co-hosted NFL Total Access and provided in-depth interviews, pregame and postgame reports and sideline reports for a variety of shows across the network including NFL Total Access, Around the League, NFL GameDay Morning and NFL GameDay Final. Kara graduated cum laude from Duke University. She began her career as a production assistant at ESPN and later ABC News. Her on-air career began at NESN in 1998 as the co-host of NESN's "Front Row". From 2000 to 2003, she worked at CNN as a reporter and anchor.

Together, the couple has three children: a son, Logan, who is a sophomore at UVA and a member of the Cavalier football team, a daughter, Cannon, and a son Tate, who are sophomores at Oaks Christian High School.

After building a strong charitable presence in the St. Louis community that resulted in the Rams being named, "St. Louis Philanthropic Organization of the Year," upon the team's return home to Southern California, Higgins embarked on a listening tour to better understand the needs of the Los Angeles community and determine how the Rams can utilize their unique assets to help address those needs. During this ongoing process, Higgins has established the Rams as a key community partner in Los Angeles.

Among the team's areas of priority, the Rams focus substantial resources to support youth education and mentoring, promote health and wellness, help address the issues of poverty and celebrate the contributions of our military and veterans. The team also participates in a variety of special events to raise awareness and funding for numerous local non-profits throughout the greater LA region to improve the lives of Angelenos.

One of the hallmarks of the Rams community outreach efforts is the team's staff day of service program that Higgins and COO, Kevin Demoff, launched in June of 2009. Since then, each month the Rams front office staff has taken time out of the office to volunteer with local non-profits. Since returning to Los Angeles in 2016, Rams staff members have provided more than 9,000 hours of community service and impacted 45 local non-profits and 57 schools. Higgins believes that the staff day of service program provides the front office team members with meaningful first-hand exposure to the challenges faced by many Angelinos, an appreciation for the work that is being done by local non-profits and educators, and a sense of pride and personal investment in the Rams commitment to the betterment of Los Angeles.

Beyond the organization's charitable focus areas, the Rams community affairs team works to understand each player's areas of interest and then aligns them with causes that they are passionate about to enable them to personally impact their community. Since 2016, every player on the roster has been active in the community. The Rams cheerleaders and team mascot, Rampage, are also key community ambassadors averaging 1,000 hours in the region annually.

In addition to Higgins' community affairs and engagement responsibilities, she is part of the Rams' executive team that helps shape the organization's off the field strategy.

In 2019, the United Way of Greater Los Angeles recognized Higgins with an EmpowerHer Award for her commitment to advance equity in Los Angeles. During her time in St. Louis, Higgins was a recipient of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis' "Spirit of Justice Award" honoring individuals who have demonstrated accomplishment, leadership and integrity in facilitating and promoting justice. In 2014, Higgins was recognized as one of St. Louis' "Most Influential Business Women" by the St. Louis Business Journal. Higgins was named to the St. Louis Business Journal's 30 under 30 list in 2006, an annual award that honors 30 St. Louis-area business leaders under the age of 30.

Prior to joining the Rams, Higgins worked in public relations for Unigraphics Solutions, a NYSE-listed global computer software company.

A graduate of the University of Northern Iowa with a B.A. in public relations and a minor in marketing, Higgins is also a graduate of the Coro Women in Leadership program and participated in the Stanford Graduate School of Business Program for NFL Managers. She and her wife, Missy, reside in Playa Vista.

Coach Bios

On January 12, 2017, Los Angeles Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke named Sean McVay the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history. McVay became the youngest coach in modern NFL history at 30 years old.

During the 2020 season, McVay produced his fourth-straight winning season with the Rams, the longest consecutive winning season streak since the Rams posted four-consecutive winning seasons from 1983-1986. The 10-6 record earned L.A. its third postseason appearance in McVay's first four seasons leading the franchise.

In a season that was anything but normal due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rams defense flourished earning the league's top spot in The Rams defensive unit finished the season as the No. 1 ranked unit across the league, dominating in three different categories.

The Rams defense held opposing offenses to only 16.8 points per game. The Rams held opposing offenses to 281.9 yards per game, 190.7 passing yards per game and held each opposing quarterback to under 300 net yards passing. As a team, L.A. held opponents to only 18.5 points per game.

DL Aaron Donald became the third player in league history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year three times. He was also named the PFWA Defensive Player of the Year award for the second time and joined teammate CB Jalen Ramsey on the PFWA All-NFL Team. Donald finished the season with 13.5 sacks.

L.A. finished 10th in the league in rushing, averaging 126.1 yards per game led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a 61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest. It marked the longest run by a Rams rusher in the McVay era.

The Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

In a win-and-in Week 17 contest against the Arizona Cardinals, McVay helped QB John Wolford earn his first-career win in his first-career NFL appearance and start. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passing attempts for 231 yards.

McVay won his third-career postseason contest, this time against a familiar opponent in the Seattle Seahawks in a Wild Card game in Seattle, before falling to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the NFC Divisional Round.

McVay's third season as head coach in Los Angeles produced his third-consecutive winning season, as the team finished with a 9-7 record. Finishing with a winning record in three-consecutive seasons had not been accomplished by a Rams team since 1999-2001, and it was only the third time since 1980 the franchise accomplished the feat. Additionally, McVay became the first head coach since 2016 to have a winning record in each of their first three seasons as a head coach. He became the fourth Rams head coach to have a winning record in three-consecutive seasons.

In his third year working with QB Jared Goff, McVay helped the fourth-year passer throw for over 4,000 yards for the second-consecutive season, becoming the first quarterback in franchise history to do so. Goff also climbed up the Rams' passing leader board, closing out the season sixth on L.A.'s all-time passing leader board.

Under McVay's guidance, the Rams had multiple wide receivers finish the season with over 1,000 receiving yards. WR Robert Woods posted his second-consecutive season with over 1,000 receiving yards, ending the season with 1,134. WR Cooper Kupp posted his first season with over 1,000 receiving yards, totaling a team-best 1,161. 2019 was the first time since 1999-2002 the Rams had consecutive seasons with multiple receivers recording over 1,000 yards.

McVay also helped orchestrate an offensive line that lost two starters during the season. Despite changes in personnel and position, L.A.'s offensive front managed to post six games without allowing a sack, good for a single-season franchise record.

The defense received a boost when L.A. acquired Pro Bowl CB Jalen Ramsey via trade in Week 7 of the 2019 campaign. The defense went on to finish with the fourth-most sacks in the league (50.0) and was ranked 13th overall.

In McVay's second season guiding the Rams, the 32-year-old leader turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history. The Rams posted a 13-3 record, which tied for the second-best record in franchise history, won a pair of playoff games and advanced to the Rams fourth Super Bowl appearance days after his 33rd birthday, becoming the youngest NFL head coach to ever help his team to a Super Bowl.

The 2018 Los Angeles Rams built on the successful foundation McVay and company laid in their first season in 2017. With the guidance of McVay, the Rams' passing attack finished among the top-10 in passing yards per attempt (8.33, 4th), passing yards per game (295.6, 5th) and touchdowns (32, tied for 8th). Goff set career-bests across the stat sheet, amassing 4,688 passing yards, the second-best single-season output in Rams history.

In the run game, RB Todd Gurley II followed up an MVP caliber 2017 season with an equally impressive 2018 campaign in which he led the NFL in touchdowns (21) and points scored amongst non-kickers (132) for the second-consecutive year. His 17 rushing touchdowns were a career-high and the second-most single season rushing scores in Rams history.

L.A. added star power to its defensive unit following the 2017 season. The Rams played stout defensive football down the stretch, securing a first-round bye in the 2018 playoffs. The Rams held the Patriots offensive attack to only 13 points in Super Bowl LIII. The defense was led by Donald, who posted a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most ever by a defensive tackle. Donald recorded 183.5 sack yards, the most ever by a defender in a single season. As a unit, the Rams ranked sixth with 1.6 takeaways per game.

The Rams special teams unit continued to flourish during the 2018 season, highlighted by LB Cory Littleton earning his first-career Pro Bowl nod. Littleton blocked a pair of punts during the 2018 season. K Greg Zuerlein converted on a 57-yard game winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship game to send the Rams to the Super Bowl. The 57-yarder marked the longest game-winning kick in playoff history.

In his first season guiding the Rams, McVay completed one of the greatest offensive turnarounds in NFL history. He helped the Rams move from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team in 2017, marking the first time in league history a team has gone from last to first in scoring. The first-year head coach led the Rams to an 11-5 record and their first NFC West title since the 2003 season, earning the team's first playoff berth since 2004.

Following his first season in L.A., McVay was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year, becoming the youngest head coach to ever win the award. Gurley brought home Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Donald was named the Defensive Player of the Year, marking the first time in the 45 year history of the awards there was a sweep of three of the league's top awards. The Rams placed eight players in the 2018 Pro Bowl, the most in a single season by the franchise since the 1999 campaign.

Under McVay's guidance in 2017, Goff flourished, earning his first Pro Bowl appearance. Goff completed 296-of-477 (62.1 percent) of his passes for 3,804 yards with 28 touchdowns and seven interceptions posting a 100.5 QB rating on the season. Gurley led the league in scrimmage yards finishing the year with 2,093 yards, including 1,305 rushing yards and 788 receiving yards. Additionally, Gurley was the league's highest scoring non-kicker posting 19 total touchdowns on the season.

The Rams' defense posted the fourth-most sacks (48.0), tied for sixth in interceptions (18) and finished the 2017 campaign fifth in total takeaways with 28 on the season. The 28 takeaways directly resulted in 126 points for L.A., the second-best total in the NFL.

In his first season as head coach, the Rams special teams unit played an integral part in the team's success and was rewarded with a total of four special teamers being named to the Pro Bowl. The L.A. special teams unit was a top-10 finisher in 18 of the 22 statistical categories in the 2017 special-teams rankings.

Before joining the Rams, McVay completed his third season as Washington's offensive coordinator in 2016 after initially being promoted to the position on January 15, 2014. Prior to his promotion during the 2014 offseason, McVay spent three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

The 2016 Washington offensive unit broke many franchise records and ranked in the top-three in a number of statistical categories. The Washington offense became the first unit in franchise history to average over 400 yards per game (403.4) and notched a franchise record 6,545 total net yards.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins finished the year with single-season team records in completions (406) and passing yards (4,917) and matched his team record for 300-yard passing games (seven). His 4,917 passing yards ranked third in the NFL in 2016 and are the 15th-most in a season in NFL history. Cousins closed out the season ranked second in the NFL in passing yards per game (297.4), passing yards per play (7.84) and yards per play (6.4), in addition to being the league's third ranked offensive team, averaging 403.4 yards per game.

From 2015-16, Cousins threw for 9,083 yards, the fourth highest output by a quarterback trailing only Drew Brees (10,078), Matt Ryan (9,535) and Philip Rivers (9,178).

The Washington offense had eight players finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garcon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones), tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history. McVay's group posted a breakout campaign in his second year as offensive coordinator in 2015, including record-setting performances by Cousins and tight end Jordan Reed. McVay's scheme and tutelage helped Cousins break the Washington records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in a single season. Reed has been a direct beneficiary of McVay's work, spending 2013 as a member of his unit during McVay's time as tight ends coach and being a focal point of the offense in 2015, as Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns (one shy of the team record) in 2015.

Collectively, McVay's 2015 offense recorded Top 10 rankings in third down percentage (43.5, fifth in the NFL), red zone scoring percentage (61.2, eighth), yards per play (5.6, 10th) and points per game (24.3, 10th). Washington also led the NFL with a team-record 69.5 completion percentage in 2015, leading the league in the category for the 11th time in team history and the first time since 1970.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2014, McVay helped the offense to a Top 10 league ranking in yards per play (5.7) despite starting three different quarterbacks. His work with the three passers was instrumental in setting a team record for completion percentage (66.5 percent, later broken in 2015) and helping facilitate the explosive debut season of wide receiver DeSean Jackson. Jackson averaged a league-best 20.9 yards per reception and became only the fourth player in team history to lead the NFL in that category.

In 2013, McVay played a crucial role in Reed's development, as the then-rookie compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Washington's single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Washington tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. In addition, McVay helped tight end Logan Paulsen from an undrafted free agent into a 30-game starter from 2010-13, with Paulsen increasing his reception total each season.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit was productive despite losing starting TE Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through Joe DeCamillis enters his first season as the special teams coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. The 33-year NFL coaching veteran was hired by the team on Feb. 1, 2021.

Prior to joining the Rams, DeCamillis spent the four seasons prior with the Jacksonville Jaguars in his second stint with the franchise.

In 2020, Jacksonville ranked seventh in net punting average (42.4), eighth in gross punting yards (3,051) and allowed only 196 punt return yards by their opponents.

The Jaguars 2019 special teams unit was ranked fourth in the NFL in the Dallas Morning News' annual special teams rankings. Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin uses a points system based on 22 categories to rank each of the 32 NFL teams' special teams units at the end of each season. P Logan Cooke and K Josh Lambo became the first teammates to lead the league in net punting average (min. 10 punts) and field goal percentage (min. 15 attempts), respectively, in the same year since net punting average first began being tracked in 2000. Cooke posted a 44.5-yard net punting average in 2019, tied for the highest mark in the NFL (min. 10 punts) and tied for the fourth-highest since the stat began being tracked in 2000. Lambo was named to the Associated Press All-Pro second team, becoming the first placekicker in franchise history to make an Associated Press All-Pro team.

In 2018, DeCamillis oversaw the special teams unit that finished first in the NFL in opposing kick return average (17.8) and second in opposing punt return average (5.0). Cooke, who was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 Draft, recorded a franchise-record 37 punts inside the 20, the third-most in the NFL and the most among rookies. His 41.3 net punting average was the highest for a single season in franchise history. In Week 15 against Washington, WR Dede Westbrook scored a TD on a 74-yard punt return, marking the third-longest punt return in franchise history.

In 2017, DeCamillis oversaw a mid-season kicking change as Lambo, who was acquired by Jacksonville prior to the team's Week 7 contest at Indianapolis, finished the season 19 of 20 on FGs (95.0 pct.), Including 12 of 12 at TIAA Field. Lambo's

95.0 field goal percentage was the best mark in Jaguars singleseason history among kickers with at least 10 FG attempts. P Brad Nortman landed a career-high 29 punts inside the 20, which was tied for fifth in franchise history. DeCamillis' unit also converted on all three fake punt tries, one of which RB Corey Grant rushed 56 yards for a TD against the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 10.

DeCamillis spent 2015-16 as the special teams coordinator for the Denver Broncos. In 2016, DeCamillis' unit ranked seventh in the NFL in both opponents' punt return average (6.8) and opponents' kickoff return average (20.2), while finishing 11th in the NFL in kick return average (22.9).

DeCamillis' units have accounted for 32 total kick return scores during his 32 seasons coaching special teams in the NFL.

Before returning to Denver, DeCamillis spent two seasons (2013-14) as Chicago's assistant head coach/special teams, instructing a unit that allowed a league-low 18.3 yards per kick return while generating two TD returns (one PR, one KR) and three takeaways. In 2013, WR Devin Hester turned in one of the best seasons of his career under DeCamillis, posting his second-highest kickoff return average (27.6) and fourth-highest punt return average (14.2).

Prior to coaching with the Bears, DeCamillis served as special teams coordinator with Dallas from 2009-12. During that time, the Cowboys tied for the most punt return TDs (six) in the NFL, including a franchise-record three in 2010 by the rookie duo of WR Dez Bryant (two) and CB Bryan McCann (one).

As Jacksonville's special teams coach from 2007-08, DeCamillis' coverage unit ranked second in the NFL in average opponent field position after kickoffs (25.3- yard line) with 34 opponent returns being downed inside the 20-yard line.

DeCamillis had a 10-year run coaching special teams for the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2006)—the first seven years under Head Coach Dan Reeves, whom he worked in his first two NFL coaching roles with the Broncos and New York Giants.

Defensive Coordinator

Raheem Morris

College: Hofstra
NFL Coaching Year: 19
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Raheem Morris enters his first season as the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. He was hired by the team on Feb. 1, 2021.

Morris joins the Rams after serving as defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons before being promoted to interim head coach from Week 6 through the conclusion of the 2020 season.

Morris reunites with Rams Head Coach Sean McVay for the third time in their coaching careers. The duo worked together with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008 and the Washington Football Team from 2012-2014.

In 2020, after an 0-6 start, the Falcons named the 19-year NFL coach their interim head coach. In the final 11 games of the season, Morris helped the franchise win four games. Morris entered the 2020 season as Atlanta's defensive coordinator.

Under the guidance of Morris, the Falcons defense finished the 2020 season tied for sixth in the league in red zone defense (82.1 percent) and sixth in rushing defense (104.8 yards per game).

Morris began the 2019 season focused on the receiving corps but turned his attention to the secondary after the bye week following a tumultuous start. Over the final eight games, the team went 6-2 and the defense went from having the lowest amount of takeaways in the first half of the season (four) to finishing with the second-most in the NFL (16) after Week 9. The defense also vaulted from the bottom of the league rankings to the top-10 in sacks (32nd to 10th), scoring efficiency (32nd to ninth), and red zone efficiency (31st to 6th) over the final eight weeks of the season.

In 2018, Morris' coaching played a part in helping the offensive average 290.8 passing yards per game, the fourth-best average in the league. The passing attack continued to improve from 2017 to 2018, with the offense averaging 50 more passing yards per game and totaling 15 more passing touchdowns in the year span. Under Morris' guidance first-round draft pick Calvin Ridley led all rookies in receiving yards (821) and touchdowns (10). He also saw Mohamed Sanu reach a career-high in receiving yards as well. Sanu's 838 receiving yards was the first time in his career the New Jersey native topped 800-plus receiving yards.

He also oversaw another great year from six-time Pro Bowler, Julio Jones. Jones recorded 1,677 receiving yards, which was the second-highest total in his career. Jones hauled in 113 passes, which was the third time in his career that he's posted 100-plus receptions in a season.

During Morris' second year as the wide receivers coach in 2017, his receivers hauled in 214 receptions for 2,848 yards and 13 touchdowns. Morris' coaching played a hand in Sanu topping his then career-high for receptions, a mark he set the previous year under Morris' teaching. Sanu finished the year with 67 receptions for 703 yards and tied a career-high with five touchdown receptions. Morris also oversaw another impressive year from Jones, who was selected to go to his fourth straight Pro Bowl after hauling in 88 receptions for 1,444 yards and three touchdowns. After spending his first season with the team as assistant head coach/defensive passing game coordinator, Morris transitioned to the offensive side of the ball in 2016 and was named the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach. In his first season coaching the wide receivers, Morris worked with one of the best receivers in the game in Jones. Jones recorded 1,409 receiving yards, which was second in the NFL that season. His entire receiving group teamed up for 223 catches for 3,226 yards and 22 touchdowns. The unit included Taylor Gabriel, who recorded a career-high six

During Morris' first year in Atlanta, he was named the assistant head coach/defensive passing game coordinator, where he helped out with the secondary and how to stop the passing attacks of the opposing teams. The defense only allowed 19 passing touchdowns, which was tied for the third-lowest total in the NFL that season. The defense also forced 15 interceptions the year, which ranked within the top 10 in the league. These numbers gave the defense a 1.27 touchdown to interception ratio, which was the seventh-best touchdown-to-interception ratio in the NFL in 2015.

receiving touchdowns and Mohamed Sanu who tallied a then career-high 59 receptions.

Morris joined the Falcons after spending three seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Washington Football Team. In 2012, he helped Washington's defense finish tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways. Washington scored four defensive touchdowns in 2012, including two from the secondary. Morris oversaw a unit that tied a league-high with 94 passes defensed and ranked fifth in the NFC with a 3.3 interception rate.

Prior to arriving in Washington, Morris spent three seasons as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2009-2011. He was the league's youngest head coach in NFL-low 12.3 points per game, the third-best scoring defense since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant with the Bucs in 2003 and as assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

In 10 seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers finished fifth in total defense five times, while leading the League in 2002 and 2005. He also helped the team finish as the top-rated pass defense three times (2002, 2004 & 2007).

Morris began his collegiate coaching career an assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports, and video breakdown. He moved on to Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris served as defensive backs coach at Hofstra from 2000 to 2001 before joining the Buccaneers. He also held a defensive minority internship position with the New York Jets in the fall

Kevin O'Connell enters his second season as offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams after being hired by the team on Jan. 16, 2020.

O'Connell joined the Rams after spending three seasons with the Washington Football Team, most recently serving as Washington's offensive coordinator in 2019. He previously was the team's passing game coordinator in 2018 and quarterbacks coach in 2017.

In his first season with the Rams in 2020, the offense finished 10th in the league in rushing, averaging 126.1 yards per game led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a 61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest. It marked the longest run by a Rams rusher in the McVay era.

The Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

In a win-and-in Week 17 contest against the Arizona Cardinals, QB John Wolford earn his first-career win in his first-career NFL appearance and start. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passing attempts for 231 yards.

In 2019, O'Connell spent time developing rookie QB Dwayne Haskins, who was named the team's starter ahead of a Week 11 contest against the New York Jets. In Haskins' six games after being named the starter, he threw for 1,081 yards and seven touchdown passes. His passing output from Weeks 11-17 was second only to Cardinals QB Kyler Murray, who attempted 23 more passing attempts than Haskins in that time frame.

The 2018 season saw O'Connell work with five different quarterbacks while serving as Washington's passing game coordinator. O'Connell was instrumental in preparing the four quarterbacks who started a game in 2018, which was the most in franchise history in the Super Bowl era.

O'Connell worked closely with QB Alex Smith in the beginning of the 2018 season before Smith suffered a season-ending injury. Through nine games, Smith totaled 2,180 passing yards, 10 touchdowns and led Washington to a 6-3 record before missing the rest of the season. O'Connell helped implement elements of the run-pass option at the beginning of the 2018 season. Through Week 11 of the 2018 season, Smith ranked tenth among quarterbacks in rushing yards. He also ranked fourth in interception percentage, throwing just five interceptions out of 328 attempts.

The Carlsbad, Calif. native spent the remainder of the 2018 season working with three different starting quarterbacks. The stretch included using the run-pass option offense with QB Josh Johnson, who ended the season with 590 passing yards and 120 rushing yards on 23 attempts.

In his first season in Washington in 2017, O'Connell helped QB Kirk Cousins complete 347-of-540 passes for 4,093 yards with 27 touchdowns. Cousins completed just the fifth 4,000-yard passing season in team history. He also became the first player in team history and the 11th player in NFL history to record a streak of at least three consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons, joining a list that includes Hall of Famers, Peyton Manning, Dan Fouts and Dan Marino.

O'Connell joined Washington after spending the 2016 season overseeing special projects for the San Francisco 49ers. In 2015, O'Connell served as the quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns, working closely with QB Josh McCown. Under O'Connell's guidance, McCown became the first player in Browns franchise history to throw for 300-or-more yards in three consecutive games. While working with O'Connell, McCown also set a career high and Browns single-game record with 457 passing yards in a game at Baltimore.

O'Connell was a third-round pick (94th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2008 NFL Draft. His playing career included stints with the Lions, Jets, Dolphins and Chargers over the course of a five-year career (2008-12).

A four-year team captain at San Diego State (2004-07), O'Connell appeared in 40 games and finished his collegiate career ranked third in school history in completions (664), fourth in passing yards (7,689) and fifth in passing touchdowns

Senior Coaching Assistant

John Bonamego

College: Central Michigan NFL Coaching Year: 19 Rams Coaching Year: 2

John Bonamego enters his second season with the Rams, first as senior coaching assistant after spending the 2020 season as the special teams coordinator. He was hired by the team on Feb. 8, 2020.

Bonamego joined the Rams after spending the 2019 season with the Detroit Lions, his second stint as the team's special teams coordinator, previously serving in the same position from 2013-2014.

With the Rams in 2020, Bonamego found consistency in the kicking game in K Matt Gay, who joined the team prior to a Week 7 contest. Gay finished the season converting 14-of-16 field goal attempts and all 16 extra points he attempted.

In 2019, the Lions special teams unit was led by PR/KR Jamal Agnew who was the only player in the NFL to record a kickoff and a punt return touchdown on the season. Detroit's special teams efforts held opponents to an average starting position at the 26.1 yard line, ranking fourth in the category.

P Sam Martin enjoyed a strong season in 2019 under the guidance of Bonamego. He finished sixth in the NFL with 31 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line. As a unit, the punt team limited opponents to only 130 return yards on the season the fourth fewest yards allowed - while opponents averaged 4.5 yards per punt return.

Bonamego previously served as the head coach at Central Michigan University for four seasons (2015-18). He led the Chippewas to a share of the Mid-American Conference West Division title in 2015 and helped CMU to bowl appearances in each of his first three seasons.

In his time at CMU, Bonamego coached a host of players who went on to play in the National Football League including TE Tyler Conklin, CB Xavier Crawford, DE Michael Danna, CB/S Kavon Frazier, DE Joe Ostman, QB Cooper Rush, RB Jonathan Ward and CB Sean Bunting.

Before being named the head coach at Central Michigan, Bonamego worked as the Lions special teams coordinator for two seasons (2013-14). In his first coaching stint in Detroit, Bonamego brought a polished approach to Detroit's kicking, punting and coverage units, which included the emergence of fifth-round draft selection P Sam Martin as one of the best young punters in the NFL.

With the Jaguars in 2012, Bonamego oversaw P Bryan Anger as a rookie. Anger finished his first professional season with 91 punts for 4,353 yards, a 47.8 average, 31 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line and only five touchbacks.

During the 2011 season, Bonamego was the assistant special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. From 2008-10, Bonamego served as the special teams coordinator for the Miami Dolphins, where he developed young specialists including K Dan Carpenter, P Brandon Fields and KR Ted Ginn Jr. Bonamego guided Carpenter's development after he signed with the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie in 2008. During his first two seasons, he made 46-of-53 field goal attempts (86.8 pct.). As a rookie, he established a new Dolphins rookie record with 11-straight made field goals. He was selected to the 2009 Pro Bowl after making 25-of-28 attempts.

In 2009, Bonamego's special teams unit featured Fields setting a franchise record for net punting average (39.9) and Ginn, Jr. becoming the first player in NFL history to record two kickoff return touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game (at NYJ, Nov. 1, 2009). Ginn, Jr. also was the first NFL player in 42 years to have two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter while also recording 299 return yards, the second-most singlegame kickoff return yardage total in NFL history. That season, the Dolphins' 2009 special teams units were ranked 10th in the NFL by universally respected Dallas Morning News special teams rankings.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bonamego was the New Orleans Saints special teams coordinator from 2006-07. In 2006, his units played a critical role in the team's 10-6 record, as they claimed the NFC South title and appeared in the NFC Championship game. Under Bonamego, in the team's first game back in the Superdome since Hurricane Katrina, Saints S Steve Gleason blocked a punt into the end zone, where CB Curtis DeLoatch recovered it for a touchdown. The Saints went on to win the contest 23-3.

During the 2006 season, rookie RB Reggie Bush scored his first touchdown as a professional on Bonamego's punt return team. Bush scored a 65-yard punt return that ultimately allowed the New Orleans Saints to defeat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 24-21.

Bonamego's coaching history includes a three-year stint as the special teams coordinator for Green Bay from 2003-05. In 2005, the Packers registered the league's longest punt return for a touchdown (85 yards vs. Chi). In 2004, Green Bay finished as one of only four teams in the NFL that did not surrender a return touchdown or have a kick blocked. The Packers allowed only 20.2 yards on kickoff returns and ranked sixth in field goal percentage (85.7). The club had four game-winning field goals in 2004, the most by the team since the 1970 merger. During his first season in Green Bay (2003), Bonamego's special teams units ranked fourth in field goal percentage, fifth in kick return average and did not allow a blocked punt or field goal. The Packers blocked a field goal and a punt in the same season for the first time since 1997 and won the NFC North title.

Bonamego's first stint in the NFL was from 1999-2002 with the Jacksonville Jaguars. For the first three seasons, Bonamego worked as the assistant special teams coach under legendary NFL special teams coach Frank Gansz and was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2002. In his first season as special teams coordinator, the Jaguars were ranked third by The Dallas Morning News. The unit blocked four kicks (two field goals, two punts) and led the AFC in kick coverage (19.5-yard avg.). The Jaguars also led the AFC in gross and net punting average and were one of only two NFL teams that did not allow a return touchdown or a blocked kick. P Chris Hanson was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad in 2002.

Before entering the NFL, Bonamego worked 11 years at the college level, including six years at Army (1993-98) and at Lehigh in 1992. From 1988-91, Bonamego was an assistant

Running Backs/ Assistant Head Coach Thomas Brown

College: Georgia
NFL Coaching Year: 2
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Thomas Brown enters his second season with the Rams in 2021 serving as the running backs/assistant head coach after joining the Rams as the running backs coach in 2020 after nine seasons in the collegiate ranks.

In his first season in Los Angeles in 2020, Brown oversaw a rushing attack that finished 10th in the league, averaging 126.1 rushing yards per game. The running back room was led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a 61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest. It marked the longest run by a Rams rusher in the McVay era.

Most recently, Brown served as the running backs' coach at South Carolina during the 2019 season. Brown oversaw a balanced rushing attack, which included two running backs with over 500 yards on the year.

Before joining South Carolina, Brown spent three seasons as the Miami Hurricanes' offensive coordinator and running backs coach. In 2018, the Canes rushed for 2,489 yards, an average of 5.2 yards per carry while scoring 25 rushing touchdowns.

In 2017, Miami RB Travis Horner earned second-team All-ACC recognition despite taking over as the starting running back five games into the season. The 2016 season saw All-ACC back Mark Walton become the 11th running back in program history to rush for over 1,000 yards.

Brown spent the 2015 season at Georgia, coaching a running backs group that featured future pro Sony Michel. As a unit, Georgia rushed for 2,513 yards on the year, including 194.3 yards per game.

Prior to his stint in Athens, Brown spent the 2014 season at Wisconsin, coaching Heisman Trophy runner-up Melvin Gordon. Under Brown's leadership, Gordon posted the second-best season by a running back with 2,587 rushing yards and 32 total touchdowns. Gordon combined with RB Corey Clement to run for 3,536 yards on the year, breaking the single-season FBS record for rushing yards by teammates.

Wisconsin's 6.91 yards per rushing attempt average in the 2014 season was the fourth-best mark in FBS history.

Before going to Wisconsin, Brown was a running backs coach at Marshall in 2013 and at UT Chattanooga in 2012. He spent the 2011 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Georgia.

As a pro, Brown was selected in the sixth round (No. 172 overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons and spent the 2009 season with the Cleveland Browns before retiring to pursue coaching opportunities.

Brown played collegiately at Georgia, helping the Bulldogs to Kevin Carberry enters his first season with the Rams as the team's offensive line coach.

Carberry joins the Rams after spending three seasons at Stanford as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach.

Despite playing just six games last season compared to 12 in 2019, Stanford saw improvement in rushing touchdowns (15 in 2020 vs. eight in 2019), on third down (48 percent in 2020 vs. 39 percent in 2019) and in redzone offense (touchdowns on 78 percent of attempts in 2020 vs. 47 percent in 2019). Across Carberry's tenure, the Cardinal offensive line produced three All-Pac-12 selections — Walker Little (First Team) and Nate Herbig (Second Team) in 2018, followed by Drew Dalman, who received Second Team recognition in 2019 and First Team recognition in 2020.

Dalman went on to be drafted by the Atlanta Falcons in the fourth-round of the 2021 draft. Little was a second-round selection by the Jags in 2021. Herbig, an undrafted free agent following the 2019 draft for the Philadelphia Eagles. He has played in 17 games in his two seasons with the Eagles and started 12 games in 2020. Foster Sarell joined the Baltimore Ravens following the 2021 Draft as an undrafted free agent.

In his third season in 2020, Carberry helped the Cardinal offense finish first in the PAC 12 in third and fourth-down conversion rate. Additionally, Stanford finished third in the Pac 12 in total offense averaging 420.2 yards per game. In a COVID-plagued season, Stanford won four-straight road games to end the season after being forced to leave Santa Clara county due to COVID restrictions.

In his second season in 2019, the Cardinal run game finally began to take shape behind a retooled and healthy offensive line. Stanford started the same offensive line combination in all six games, a welcome development following Carberry's first two seasons.

Senior center Drew Dalman anchored the line, earning first team All-Pac-12 recognition. Walter Rouse also earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors from his left tackle spot.

The Cardinal scored 15 rushing touchdowns in just six games during the 2020 campaign, a marked improvement from rushing for just eight touchdowns in 12 games during 2019. The Cardinal as much-improved on third down (48% in 2020 vs. 39% in 2019) and red-zone offense (78% TDs in 2020 vs. 47% TDs in 2019).

In his second season, Stanford started six different offensive line combinations, losing three week one starters to season-ending injuries. Four true freshmen started at least one game, including three for each of the final six games of the season. C Drew Dalman led the group in starting all 12 games to earn All-Pac-12 second team honors, while RT Foster Sarell earned honorable mention after starting 11 games. Freshman LT Walter Rouse played in all 12 games and started the final 11 after All-American Walker Little was injured in the season opener. Barrett Miller started the final eight games of the season at left guard and Jake Hornibrook the final six at right guard. Branson Bragg also started a game at right tackle before suffering a season-ending injury.

In his first season at Stanford in 2018, the Cardinals boasted two All-Conference performers on the offensive line, as Walker Little took first-team All-Pac 12 honors while Nate Herbig was a second team selection. Herbig signed with the Philadelphia Eagles as an undrafted free agent following the season and was on the Eagles 53-man roster for much of the 2019 season.

The 2018 Cardinals saw a string of injuries and caused Carberry to use eight different starting lineups in a 13-game schedule. Despite the injuries, Stanford ended the season with a win over Pitt in hte Sun Bowl, finishing with a 9-4 record.

Carberry spent the 2016-17 seasons as the assistant offensive line coach with the Washington Football Team and the 2014-15 seasons as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys.

While with Washington, Carberry and offensive line coach Bill Callahan presided over one of the league's top units, producing two Pro Bowlers (tackle Trent Williams and guard Brandon Scherff) for the Redskins for the first time since 1991. The unit helped power the Redskins to the third-ranked offense in the NFL, allowing the team to average more than 400 yards per game for the first time in team history, while allowing only 23 sacks -- fourth in the NFL.

The tutelage and guidance of Carberry and Callahan were paramount in helping the Redskins offense overcome a season-long rash of injuries and still average nearly 325 yards/game in 2017. The Redskins used 36 unique groups of offensive linemen (including seven different combinations of six-lineman groupings), as well as eight different starting lineups along the offensive line. Members of the unit were once again honored for their excellence, as Scherff earned his second Pro Bowl selection and Williams earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl nod despite battling a year-long knee injury. Together, Scherff and Williams became the first Redskins offensive line duo collectively named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons since the 1983-86 seasons.

Carberry was key in the development of sixth-round draft pick Chase Roullier in Washington. As a rookie, Roullier played in 13 games while making seven starts.

In Dallas, Carberry assisted Mike Pope in coaching the tight ends in 2015, when Jason Witten led the team in receptions with 77 and finished second with 713 receiving yards. Carberry also aided in the development of rookie Geoff Swaim. The Cowboys finished fifth in the NFL in rushing yards/attempt (4.6).

In 2014, Carberry assisted Callahan with the offensive line. The Cowboys won their first NFC East title since 2009 and finished second in the NFL in rushing (147.1) with running back DeMarco Murray leading the league in rushing and setting a franchise record with 1,845 yards.

Carberry spent the first five seasons of his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a defensive graduate assistant at Kansas (2009-11) and coaching defensive ends at Stephen F. Austin (2012-13). He helped the Lumberjacks defense lead the Southland Conference with 31.0 sacks in 2012 and he also assisted coaching special teams. At Kansas, he coached with

Under Evero's guidance, second-year pro John Johnson III elevated his game to the next level in 2018, notching 119 tackles, 11 passes defensed and a team-leading four interceptions.

In 2017, Evero coached a safety group that helped contribute to the Rams defense ranking fifth in the NFL with 28 total takeaways. Under Evero's guidance, Lamarcus Joyner played his first professional season at the safety position, while Johnson thrived in a starting role in his first NFL season.

While at Green Bay, Evero worked closely with defensive coordinator Dom Capers and was responsible for breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies, playbook development, compiling team and player reports, and coordinating the opponent scout teams the starting defense will face at practice. In 2016, Evero was a part of a Green Bay team that finished the year on a six-game winning streak, earning them a playoff in the NFC Wild Card game. It marked the team's longest winning streak to end the season since a nine-game streak in 1941. Defensively, Evero helped contribute to the team's top-10 league rankings in interceptions (fourth, tied), sacks (sixth, tied) and rush defense (eighth).

After joining San Francisco as a quality control coach (2011), Evero spent two seasons as an offensive assistant (2012-13). During this span, Evero was part of an offensive rushing attack that ranked fourth in 2012 (155.7 ypg) and third in 2013 (137.6 ypg) in the NFL in rushing yards per game. Evero capped off his time with San Francisco serving as defensive assistant (2014-15), where he spent time assisting the linebacker position. Evero helped direct a defensive unit that finished fifth in both total defense (321.4 ypg) and pass defense (220.7 ypg) and ranked first in interceptions (23) in 2014.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, he spent the 2010 season at the University of Redlands as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach.

Evero broke into the NFL in Tampa Bay, where he served as the defensive quality control coach for three seasons (2007-09). In his first year with the Buccaneers, Evero was part of a staff that helped the defense rank second in the NFL in total defense (278.4 ypg) and first in pass defense (170.5 ypg). In 2008, he helped the defense finish in the top 10 in total defense for a second consecutive season, ranking ninth in the NFL (306.1 ypg).

Evero's first job in the collegiate ranks came as an assistant coach (2005-06) at the University of California-Davis, where he helped lead the Aggies to the Great West Conference championship in 2005. Zak Kromer enters his sixth NFL season, fifth with the Los Angeles Rams and his first as offensive assistant.

During his first four seasons with the Rams from 2017-2020, Kromer primarily worked with the offensive line. With the help of Kromer, the offensive line has anchored one of the most productive offenses in the NFL over his time with Los Angeles

In his fourth season in L.A. in 2020, Kromer helped a rushing attack that finished 10th in the league, averaging 126.1 rushing yards per game. The team was led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a

61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest. It marked the longest rush of the McVay era

In 2019, with the help of Kromer's adjustments throughout the season due to injury along the offensive front, the offensive line did not allow a sack in a franchise-best six games, while also allowing the fewest sacks in the league (22).

Kromer spent the 2016 season with the Buffalo Bills as an entry-level coaching assistant. Prior to the Bills, he spent four seasons at the University of Oklahoma as a student assistant for the football program.

Tight Ends/ Pass Game Coordinator Wes Phillips

College: UTEP
NFL Coaching Year: 15

Rams Coaching Year: 3

Wes Phillips enters his third season with the Rams, his first as tight ends coach/pass game coordinator in 2021.

He came to the Rams after serving in similar roles with the Washington Football Team and Dallas Cowboys.

In his second year in Los Angeles in 2020, the Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

TEs Tyler Higbee and Gerald Everett finished fourth and fifth on the team, respectively with 521 and 417 receiving yards. Higbee averaged 11.8 yards per reception on the season. TE Johnny Mundt had a career-game in a Week 7 win over the Chicago Bears, finishing with 48 yards on three receptions, including 34-yard catch and run.

In his first year with the organization, Phillips helped propel Higbee to a career year. Higbee set single-season franchise records for both receptions (69) and receiving yards (734) by a tight end. He also became the first tight end since 1970 to have four-consecutive games of seven-plus catches for 100-plus yards.

Before coming to L.A., Phillips spent five seasons as Washington's tight ends coach after initially being named to the position on January 17, 2014.

In his final season in Washington, Phillips guided a tight ends group that accounted for nearly one-third of Washington's aerial output with 85 receptions, 980 yards and five touchdowns. Sixth-year pro Jordan Reed led the team in receiving with 54 catches for 558 yards and a pair of scores despite playing in only 13 games with eight starts.

In 2017, Phillips helped mold ageless 12-year veteran Vernon Davis into one of the team's most explosive threats. Davis recorded 43 receptions for 648 yards with three receiving touchdowns, leading Washington with a 15.1-yards per-catch average. Davis finished the season second in yards per catch among qualified NFL tight ends (Rob Gronkowski, 15.7) and was the first member of the Washington Football Team to finish in the Top 2 in the NFL in receiving average among tight ends since Clint Didier led the league at the position group in 1986. At age 33 on the final day of the calendar year, Davis became the oldest NFL tight end to average at least 15.0 yards per reception (min. 15 receptions) since Pro Football Hall of Famer Jackie Smith (16.5 at age 34) in 1974.

Phillips oversaw one of the league's most productive duos in 2016, further developing one of the game's emerging threats while integrating one of its most productive veterans.

Reed earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2016 after catching 66 passes for 686 yards with six receiving touchdowns in only 12 games with eight starts. During the year, Reed became the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach 200 career receptions, reaching the milestone in 38 career games and surpassing the mark set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow (39 career games). Phillips also helped guide Davis to a 44-catch, 583-yard campaign, as Washington finished the year as one of only two teams to have multiple tight ends record at least 40 receptions during the season (Houston).

Phillips presided over arguably the most prolific season by a tight end in Washington franchise history in 2015, as Reed shattered team records for receptions (87) and receiving yards (952) by a tight end. Including a 24-yard touchdown reception in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. Green Bay, Reed tied a team record for combined regular season and postseason receiving touchdowns (12) in a single year. Reed's breakout campaign was supplemented by a rotating cast of tight ends, as Phillips effectively integrated preseason trade acquisition Derek Carrier, midseason signings Anthony McCoy and Alex Smith, waiver addition Marcel Jensen, first-year player Je'Ron Hamm and eligible-tackle Tom Compton after the unit lost two presumptive contributors (Niles Paul and Logan Paulsen) to injury in the preseason.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Phillips guided Paul to a breakout campaign, as the special teams standout shattered career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (507) after entering the season with 14 career catches and 228 career receiving yards to his credit in his first three years in the league. Phillips also oversaw the development of Reed, who finished third on the team with a then-career-high 50 receptions in his sophomore campaign.

Prior to joining Washington, Phillips spent seven seasons in various capacities with the Dallas Cowboys. He joined Dallas in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach before relinquishing his role as a quality control coach in 2011 to become the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist special teams. In 2013, Phillips was named the tight ends coach, helping Jason Witten post the second-most touchdowns in a season in his career (eight).

In 2012, Phillips assisted with an offensive line that helped the Cowboys finish with 5,994 net yards, the thirdmost in a season in franchise history, and set a single- season club record with 4,729 passing yards despite having Phil Costa, the team's starting center, for only three games. In 2011, the unit integrated new starters at four of the five positions, helping Tony Romo post his third career 4,000-yard season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis.

In Phillips' four seasons as Dallas' quality control/offensive assistant coach from 2007-10, the Cowboys' offense posted total yardage numbers ranking in the Top 10 in team history three times, including setting single-season club records in 2010 that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards per game.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55

Los Angeles native Eric Yarber is in his fifth season with the Los Angeles Rams, serving as the team's wide receivers coach.

Under the guidance of Yarber in 2020, the duo of WRs Cooper Kupp and Robert Woods led the Rams pass catchers finishing with 974 and 936 receiving yards, respectively. Woods added a team-high six receiving touchdowns and added 155 rushing yards and two additional touchdowns on the ground.

As a team, the Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

The 2019 campaign saw a break-out year from Kupp, who returned from a season-ending injury in during the 2018 season. Kupp recorded his first 1,000-yard season of his career with 1,061 receiving yards while also leading the team in receptions (94). Kupp finished with a career-high 220 yards on seven receptions against the Bengals in the Rams' International Series win. The 220 yards were the most receiving yards in NFL history in an international game.

Woods also ended the season with over 1,000 receiving yards, giving L.A. consecutive seasons with multiple receivers totaling over 1,000 receiving yards since a run of four-straight seasons from 1999-2002.

With the tutelage of Yarber, the Rams quickly acclimated 2018 offseason acquisition Brandin Cooks into the league's No. 3 scoring offense. Last season, Cooks (1,204) and fellow wideout Robert Woods (1,219) posted career-highs in receiving yards while becoming the first Rams receiving duo to surpass 1,000 yards each since Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce in 2006.

During the 2017 season, the newly-acquired Woods recorded a then personal-best 781 yards receiving, which ranked third amongst the 2017 free agent wide receiver group. Rookie WR Cooper Kupp finished with a team-best 869 yards receiving, the second-most amongst all rookies and was named to the Pro Football Writers Association (PFWA) All-Rookie team.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2017, Yarber spent the previous five seasons with the UCLA Bruins in the same capacity. Previously, he held NFL coaching positions with the Seattle Seahawks, San Francisco 49ers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Yarber joined the Bruins staff as receivers coach in 2012. During his five season tenure, seven of Yarber's wide receivers were selected in the NFL Draft, including three of his Bruin receivers in the 2016 NFL Draft.

The Bruins pass offense ranked 18th in the nation (295.6 yards per game) in 2016. The season saw the emergence of receivers Darren Andrews, Jordan Lasley and Kenneth Walker. Andrews ranked 10th in the Pac-12 in receptions per game and led the team with 55 catches. Lasley came on strong over the course of the season and recorded 41 receptions while leading the team with six touchdowns. Walker caught 22 balls and scored four times

Jordan Payton was invited to the Senior Bowl and then chosen by Cleveland in the 2016 NFL Draft. Payton became UCLA's all-time receptions leader during the 2015 campaign and became the first Bruin to ever catch 200 career passes. He also moved up to third on the all-time receiving yards list and ranked among the nation's top 25 in receiving yards (1,106) and receiving yards per game (85.1). Thomas Duarte, a Miami Dolphin draft selection, earned second-team all-conference honors after registering 10 touchdown catches which ranks fourth on the all-time school single-season list and was 17th in the NCAA. Devin Fuller, drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, moved up to the top six in career receptions.

In year two at UCLA, Yarber helped senior Shaq Evans, a fourth-round selection of the New York Jets in the 2014 NFL Draft, finish his career ranked tied for 10th on the school's all-time reception list. Evans earned an invite to the Senior Bowl and the NFL Combine after catching nine scoring passes in 2013, tied for ninth on the all-time school list.

In 2011, Yarber worked as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams. Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber came to Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) on the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight scores before being invited to the Senior Bowl and becoming a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers

Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards after the catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). He coached Ken Simonton, who was inducted into the Oregon State Hall of Fame after setting program records that still stand today. Simonton posted records in career rushing yards (5,044); attempts (1.041); touchdowns (59) and 100-yard games (26). Simonton was the first Beaver to gain 1,000 or more yards in three seasons. His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft. Johnson also earned a Senior Bowl invitation.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive assistant/assistant running backs coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, Idaho.

Yarber was selected by the Washington Redskins as a 12th-round pick in the 1986 NFL Draft and spent three seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner. He was part of the Washington squad that defeated the Denver Broncos to win Super Bowl XXII in 1988, leading that team with 37 punt returns. At Idaho, Yarber was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable Player during his senior year, catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 receiving yards on 54 catches. He attended Crenshaw High School in Los Angeles.

Yarber earned a Bachelor's in general studies from the University of Idaho in 1995. He is married to Estevanica, and has one son,

Los Angeles Rams

SoFi Stadium

SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park is transforming the site of the former Hollywood Park Racetrack to a year-round sports and entertainment destination for the enjoyment of people throughout Southern California as well as visitors to the region.

The centerpiece of the 298-acre sports and entertainment district, SoFi Stadium provides for a seating capacity of 70,000, expandable up to 100,000, with 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats, and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space. The project also includes the 2.5 acre American Airlines Plaza and 6,000-seat performance venue located under the same roof canopy as the stadium.

SoFi Stadium is the home field for the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. It will host year-round sports and entertainment events and has already secured Super Bowl LVI in February 2022, the College Football National Championship game in 2023 and the Opening & Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympic Games.

Adjacent to the stadium and performance venue, the project anticipates an initial phase of more than 1.5 million square feet of retail and office space and when it is complete, approximately2,500 residences, a hotel and more than 2 acres of public parks. This initial phase of the development is expected to open around Super Bowl LVI in 2022. The long-term plans offer the possibility of developing additional phases over time. This privately-funded development that is 3.5 times the size of Disneyland park and twice as big as Vatican City.

As part of Hollywood Park, the NFL is developing a 235,000 SF space to serve as its West Coast Headquarters that will house operations for NFL Media, which includes NFL Network, NFL RedZone, the NFL app, NFL.com, NFL Fantasy and the NFL's social media lab, plus staff across a variety of departments including marketing, club business development, and media sales. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility will feature NFL Media's first outdoor studio, which will be able to host audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use. The new NFL Media campus is expected to open prior to the 2021 season.

One of the hallmarks of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park is the long-term impact it will have on the city of Inglewood and the surrounding region. Numerous full-time jobs are being created during the development's construction and throughout operation. At one point, there were upwards of 3,500 construction workers on-site daily, with Inglewood residents being given priority placement. More than 12 million worker hours have been completed since construction began. As of June 2020, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $750 million in construction contracts and local area residents have received more than $92 million in wages.

- The open-air SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately three million square feet of usable space.
- Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air American Airlines Plaza and a 6,000-seat performance venue.
- Across the three spaces, SoFi Stadium has the flexibility to host anywhere from one cohesive event or three separate events concurrently.
- SoFi Stadium's roof canopy is comprised of four major parts the structural steel roof shell, the compression ring, the cable net system, and the ETFE (Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene), a lightweight and semi-transparent plastic that acts as the roof.
- The roof canopy features a single-layer of Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE), which creates a clear cover that protects from weather elements. The ETFE has a 65 percent frit pattern, which reflects 40 percent of visble and solar rays and 42 percent of UV rays. As a result, the temperature is expected to be 4 degrees cooler inside the building than outside.
- SoFi Stadium features the only 4k end-to-end dual-sided center-hung video board in sports. With 70,000 square feet of digital LED, the video board has the largest LED content playback system ever deployed.
- It's oval display features approximately 8 million pixels, spaced 8 millimeters from center to center and can be uniquely or congruently programmed with statistics, live and/or animated content.
- In addition, SoFi Stadium Stadium features an additional 20,000 square feet plus ribbon board throughout the bowl.

Unique Elements of SoFi Stadium

- SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately three million square feet of usable space.
- Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air plaza named American Airlines Plaza and a 6,000-seat performance venue.

- Across the three spaces, SoFi Stadium has the flexibility to host anywhere from one cohesive event or three separate events concurrently.
- The canopy roof is supported on 37 precast segmental concrete columns, one structural steel shell column, three structural steel rocker columns, 11 composite (structural steel encased in concrete) columns, and four concrete abutments.
- The space between the columns will remain open creating an indoor-outdoor feel to the stadium and American Airlines Plaza. Walls will enclose the performance venue.
- The canopy features a single-layer of Ethylene tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE), which creates a clear cover that protects from weather elements. The ETFE reduces UV rays and, combined with the natural air that comes through the columns, cools the stadium bowl.

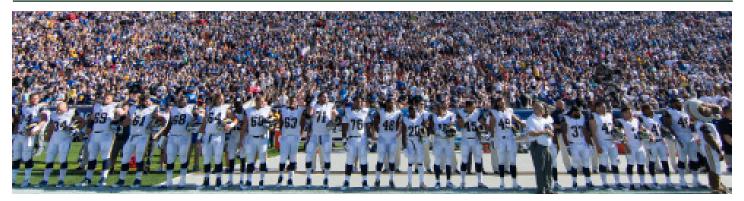

- SoFi Stadium features the first-ever dual-sided halo video board. Consisting of 70,000 sq. ft. of digital display, the experience will be similar to watching a 55"-60" television, from every seat in the stadium.
- The video board is comprised of multiple screens, allowing the event host to show consistent or varied content.
- In addition, SoFi Stadium features an additional 20,000 square feet of digital display on other LED ribbon boards in the bowl.

2020 Game Summaries

Los Angeles 20, Dallas 17 September 13, 2020 - SoFi Stadium- Inglewood, Calif.

Weather: 72 degrees, cloudy - Attendance 0 - Time 2:56

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the Dallas Cowboys in a historical Sunday Night Football game marking the first-ever event to take place at SoFi Stadium. Fans were not in attendance for the opener due to the COVID-19 pandemic, yet the stadium was filled with cardboard cut outs and the faces of fans, on the ground-breaking 4K end-to-end video board - the largest LED content playback system ever deployed. The league also debuted its "It Takes All of Us" brand campaign with the aim to leverage the scale and power of the league to unite the country during the critical time in the nation. The night was full of firsts for the Rams, with the team finding their momentum early on and securing the first touchdown for the evening through RB Malcolm Brown. L.A.'s 2020 draft pick K Samuel Sloman made his professional debut and converted the extra point to bring the Rams to a 7-0 lead. Another first came through DL Aaron Donald, with the seven-year vet securing a sack on Cowboys QB Dak Prescott. The sack moved Donald up on the all-time franchise ranks for total number of sacks (73.0) to the number two spot, behind former DE Leonard Little (87.5 total sacks). The Cowboys answered back early in the second quarter, with RB Ezekiel Elliott putting Dallas on the board with a 19-yard receiving touchdown. Former Rams K Greg Zuerlein leveled the scores with a successful extra point to bring the game to 7-7. Rams Sloman would add another six points to his NFL statistics through two field goals before Elliott was back, scoring touchdown number two just before half time and moving Dallas into the lead for the first time in the game. The play would mark the Dallas running back's seventh game with a rushing and receiving touchdown, the most in Cowboys history. The Rams wouldn't let 'America's Team' lead for long, with Brown finding another trip to the end zone as the sides entered the second half. Brown would finish the game with a career game-high 79 rushing yards. The play would also see Brown become the first player to score multiple touchdowns in consecutive season openers for the franchise since RB Lawrence Phillips back in 1996-97. The Cowboys had their chances in the red zone in the fourth quarter, but Rams sixth round 2020 draft pick S Jordan Fuller made his name known, stopping the critical fourth-down when Cowboy's Prescott attempted a short pass to WR CeeDee Lamb. Another opportunity arose for the Cowboys and with time running out, Prescott threw a 47-yard deep left pass to WR Michael Gallup to get into field goal range, but the wide receiver was flagged for contact with Ramsey and an offensive pass interference call would bring them back to their 34-yard line. The Rams held off the Cowboys to finish 20-17 and to take home the first win in SoFi Stadium's inaugural season. The night was celebrated with Head Coach Sean McVay presenting Rams Owner Stan E. Kroenke with the game ball. The opener was also attended by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell and Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones.

The Los Angeles Rams brought home their first road-game win of the season, defeating the Philadelphia Eagles in a 37-19 contest at Lincoln Financial Field. The victory would be the Rams first against the Eagles since 2004 and their first win in Philadelphia since 2001. QB Jared Goff got off to a career-best start, completing 13-consecutive passes before throwing his first incompletion in the second quarter. It was the first time the five-year vet completed 100 percent of his passes in the first quarter of play (min. 10 attempts). The momentum delivered success, with TE Tyler Higbee finding the end zone for the Rams' first touchdown on the day on a four-yard pass with 11:15 left in the first quarter. K Samuel Sloman added the extra point to push Los Angeles to a 7.0 lead. The Eagles found themselves on the scoreboard through a successful 38-yard field goal from K Jake Elliott, but the Rams quickly responded as WR Robert Woods added another six points with a five-yard rushing touchdown. Rams ILB Micah Kiser dominated the first quarter on defense, recording nine combined tackles and breaking his personal best of seven. He would finish the game leading the Rams defense with 16 combined tackles (11 solo). His efforts landed him tied for third-most combined tackles across the league. While Eagles QB Carson Wentz stayed clear of CB Jalen Ramsey, the Rams rookies bolstered up the combined tackles stats with big plays made by S Jordan Fuller (nine), CB Troy Hill (eight) and S John Johnson III (eight). Hill would also register an interception late in the fourth quarter when Wentz threw a short right pass intended for Eagles RB Miles Sanders. The interception would earn Hill the game ball following the game. The Rams would open the scoring again in the second quarter with Higbee finding the end zone with another receiving touchdown. Sloman would seal his teammates efforts with another successful extra point and the Rams would hold a 21-3 lead. Philly made their first trip into the end zone with a one-yard run by Wentz, however an attempted two-points conversion failed. The gap would soon close in on the Rams, 21-16, with another touchdown awarded to Philadelphia, but L.A.'s Higbee would hold onto a 28-yard pass from Goff for his third touchdown making him the first Rams player to have three receiving touchdowns in a game since Torry Holt in 2006, and the first Rams tight end with three receiving touchdowns in a game since Damone Johnson in 1988. The Rams wouldn't stop there. The visiting team would add one more score through Darrell Henderson Jr. who played in his second game since returning from a hamstring strain injury. Henderson made huge contributions on offense recording careers highs in multiple areas, finishing the game with 81 rushing yards on 12 attempts and 40 receiving yards on two receptions with a career-longest catch of 40 yards. The Rams would travel home back to Los Angeles comfortably sitting at 2-0 before heading back out east to take on the Bills in Week 3.

Los Angeles 32, Buffalo 35 September 27, 2020 - Bills Stadium - Orchard Park, N.Y.

Weather: 79 degrees, sunny - Attendance 0 - Time 3:04

The Los Angeles Rams fell to the Buffalo Bills 35-32 at Bills Stadium despite an impressive second-half effort. The Rams struggled in the first half, giving up 28 points to the Bills, but the team would prove to not give up and came back to put pressure on the home team. Despite the result, the Rams defense held the Bills to 375 total net yards of offense, the lowest Buffalo had recorded all season. Los Angeles' QB Jared Goff threw for 321 yards and RB Darrell Henderson Jr. and WR Cooper Kupp both recorded over 100 yards in their respective fields. Bills WR Lee Smith was first to score, off a one-yard pass from QB Josh Allen. Buffalo would see another seven points added to their name through a QB sneak from Allen. A successful kick from K Tyler Bass extended the Bills lead 14-0. Rams K Samuel Sloman stepped up nearing the end of the second quarter and redeemed his previous missed 53-yard field goal with a successful 30-yarder to get the Rams on the board after a 13-play, 63-yard drive. However, the Bills would answer back and find the end zone for a third touchdown on the game. The Bills 21-3 lead would take them into halftime. The Rams came out refreshed for the second half, but the Bills would score another receiving touchdown, this time to WR Stefon Diggs. Yet the energy on the Rams lifted and the Los Angeles side made some moves. TE Gerald Everett had an 18-yard reception which brought his career receiving yards over 1,000, marking the 11th time a Ram would do so in franchise history. The momentum would see the Rams find their way to the end zone with Goff sneaking up the middle for a one-yard touchdown. Sloman sealed the effort with a successful kick and the Rams narrowed the Bills lead 10-28. S John Johnson III intercepted a pass intended for Bills TE Tyler Kroft with 4:13 left in the third quarter, and the momentum was well and truly with the Rams. TE Tyler Higbee would catch a deep right pass from Goff to record a 31-yard catch, the Rams longest reception for the game. WR Robert Woods would catch a short pass from Goff and take it 25 yards to score the Rams second touchdown, bringing the Rams up to 16-28 deficit. Henderson reached a career high, ticking over the 100-yard mark for rushing yards. WR Cooper Kupp would follow up with another touchdown for the visiting side, backed by a two-point conversion and the Rams were on the tail of the Bills 25-28. DL Aaron Donald made a significant play with 7:32 left in the game, when he sacked Allen at the 50 for -8 yards and recorded a forced fumble and fumble recovery. In the Rams next drive, Henderson, who had made his first start, found the end zone and the Rams led for the first time in the game 32-28. It was a battle to the end to see who would take the game's victory and despite the strong efforts of the Rams defense, a defensive pass interference call stopped the play before the Bills would slip through and score with 21 seconds remaining. The Rams would head home with their first loss on the season.

Los Angeles 17, New York Giants 9 October 4, 2020 - SoFi Stadium-Inglewood, Calif.

Weather: 86 degrees, sunny - Attendance 0 - Time 2:43

The Los Angeles Rams are undefeated at their new home, defeating the visiting New York Giants 17-9 at SoFi Stadium. The Rams entered sack city on Sunday, with DL Aaron Donald and OLB Samson Ebukam combining to take down Giants QB Daniel Jones in the first 11 seconds of play. The New York side couldn't make any ground in their opening drive and the ball soon turned over to the Rams. QB Jared Goff opened the offensive drive with a short pass to WR Cooper Kupp who brought the team up nine yards, followed by a play from RB Darrell Henderson Jr. who would convert for a Rams first down. The Rams built on their momentum, moving down the field with Goff finding options in multiple Rams receivers. The home team was able to capitalize on their seven minutes of possession and a rushing touchdown was awarded to TE Gerald Everett. The score would mark Everett's first rushing touchdown of his career. K Samuel Sloman's extra point was good and the Rams took the lead, 7-0. The Giants next drive saw Jones face another Rams defender, this time with DL Morgan Fox recording his second sack on the season, pushing the Giants back 11 yards and forcing a fumble. New York ended their second drive, but it wasn't long until they were back on the field, with a Rams fumble recovered by the opposition. In the second quarter, the Giants found points on the board with a successful 35-yard field goal by K Graham Gano, but the Rams reacted, sacking Jones on two more occasions. OLB Ogbonnia Okoronkwo found his way into the pocket from the edge and recorded his first sack for the season for -7 yards. The play was followed with Jones stepping into the path of DL Michael Brockers and being brought down by the 305-pound defender. On the next offensive drive, the Rams made moves down the field, but despite edging their way to the goal line, they opted for a field goal and Sloman stepped up and extended the Rams lead, 10-3. Looking for points, the Giants responded and closed out the first half with a successful field goal attempt creeping up on the Rams' 10-6 lead. The third quarter opened with excitement for the visiting team, with an interception called on a Rams pass intended for WR Robert Woods. The call, however, was reversed and a scoreless guarter followed. With 15 minutes remaining in the game, the Giants needed to score and found an extra three points through their third field goal for the day. The home team now led by only one point. With 7:02 left in the game, Goff found Kupp down the middle and the wide receiver ran 55 yards for a touchdown. Sloman slotted the extra point straight through the middle and the Rams were back in a comfortable lead, 17-9. The Rams defense finished the game recording a season-high eight tackles for loss and limiting Jones to 195 passing yards. Rams LB Justin Hollins chased down Jones to record the Rams' fifth sack on the night while CB Darious Williams picked off Jones on the 15-yard line to close out the game and record his second interception of the season. The Rams would end Week 4 at 3-1.

Los Angeles 30, Washington 10 October 11, 2020 - FedExField - Landover, M.D.

Weather: 69 degrees, cloudy - Attendance 0 - Time 2:58

The Los Angeles Rams swept the NFC East in Week 5, defeating the Washington Football Team, 30-10, in a cloudy affair at FedExField. The win marks the first time Head Coach Sean McVay has swept the division and the first time he has been back to his former team's home field. QB Jared Goff completed 21-of-30 passes for 309 yards, earning a passer rating of 111.7 and his fourth-consecutive game with a 100-plus rating. On defense, DL Aaron Donald and LB Troy Reeder led the charge on defense, recording a combined seven sacks between the pair. It was the first time an NFL duo has each recorded at least 3.0 sacks in a single game since 2016. The Rams got off to an early lead, scoring on a one-yard run from RB Darrell Henderson Jr. The touchdown marks the fourth time in five games that the Rams have scored on their opening offensive drive. Reeder secured his career-first sack taking down QB Kyle Allen, but Washington answered, scoring off a seven-yard QB touchdown run. Washington took the lead 7-6 with a successful extra point. On their first offensive play of the second quarter, Goff connected with WR Robert Woods on a 56-yard touchdown reception. K Samuel Sloman's extra point was good and the Rams took back the lead, 13-7. Later in the half, Goff scrambled left while Washington defenders were focused elsewhere in TE Gerald Everett and run the ball across the goal line for his second rushing touchdown of the season. Just before halftime, Allen took a big hit from Rams CB Jalen Ramsey and was injured on the play. This led to Washington calling on backup QB Alex Smith. This was the first time Smith had taken the field since suffering a leg injury in 2018. Three plays in, Donald sacked Smith for a loss of four yards. Although Smith couldn't convert on his first number of plays back in the game, Washington attempted a successful field goal and added three more points before heading into the locker room for halftime. The Rams led, 20-10. The third quarter was dominant on defense, with Donald, Reeder and OLB Jachai Polite e

The Los Angeles Rams fell to the San Francisco 49ers, 24-16, in their first divisional matchup for the 2020 season. The Rams flew up north to take on their opponent at Levi's Stadium in their second-ever Sunday Night Football game between the franchises. Despite a late comeback by the Rams, it wasn't enough to catch the 49ers who got out to an early lead. The 49ers scored on their opening drive, with WR Deebo Samuel scoring off a 6-yard reception thrown by QB Jimmy Garoppolo. Rams ILB Micah Kiser tallied seven total tackles in the first quarter matching a career best and tying for the most first quarter defensive tackles in franchise history. The next touchdown would again come from San Francisco, with TE George Kittle finding a gap in the Rams defense to score a 44-vard touchdown. The 49ers were up 14 points before the Rams offense would make some moves and with 9:03 left on the clock in the second quarter, QB Jared Goff connected with WR Robert Woods to score the Rams first points. K Samuel Sloman's extra point attempt was blocked and the Rams trailed, 14-6. The 49ers would extend their lead just before halftime with a third passing touchdown on the night. The Rams headed into the locker room down, 21-6. In the third quarter, the Rams were the only side to add points, with a successful 42-yard field goal by Sloman. The kick marks the rookie's longest field goal in his NFL career. The Rams fought back in the fourth quarter but struggled to capitalize on their offensive opportunities. The 49ers added three more points through a 49-yard field goal but with 3:24 remaining in the game, Goff threw a deep pass down the field into the path of WR Josh Reynolds who would score for the Rams in the endzone. The 40-yard touchdown would be Reynolds longest reception and longest touchdown of his career. The touchdown also marked Goff's 10th passing touchdown of the season and 97th of his career. The Rams trailed 24-16, but there was not enough time on the clock to make up the remaining points and the Rams would leave San Francisco with their second loss on the season. Despite the loss, the game would mark DL Aaron Donald's 100th NFL career game and LS Johnny McQuaide's 150th appearance. It was also the first game during the 2020 season that the Rams offense did not surrender a sack.

Los Angeles 24, Chicago Bears 10 October 26, 2020 - SoFi Stadium-Inglewood, Calif.

Weather: 71 degrees, cloudy - Attendance 0 - Time 3:07

The Los Angeles Rams beat the Chicago Bears, 24-10, in their Crucial Catch game on Monday Night Football at SoFi Stadium. The win continued the Rams undefeated record at SoFi Stadium and was the first game to ever be played at the stadium on a Monday. The Rams defense held the Bears to only 49 yards rushing, marking the second game under Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley that Los Angeles held its opponent to under 50 rushing yards. ILB Micah Kiser led the defense in tackles for the third time this season, recording a total of eight tackles (three solo, five assists). The defensive unit tallied 4.0 sacks on Bears QB Nick Foles gaining 31 defensive yards. OLB Leonard Floyd found Foles on two occasions amassing -19 yards against his old team, while LB Justin Hollins added another hit pushing the Bears back another eight yards. The remaining sack was shared between DL Aaron Donald and DL Greg Gaines for a two-yard gain. On offense, QB Jared Goff completed 23-of-33 attempts, recording 219 passing yards and finishing the night with a 108.0 passer rating. Once again, Goff used a combination of receivers throughout the night, finding WR Josh Reynolds for the first touchdown of the game. The Bears answered back early in the second quarter with a field goal by former Rams K Cairo Santos. But the Rams mimicked the Bears efforts and also added a field goal from K Samuel Sloman extending the Rams lead, 10-3. The Rams continued their offensive momentum and with 8:06 on the clock in the third quarter, Goff handed off the ball to RB Malcolm Brown who rushed one yard up the middle for the Rams second touchdown on the night. The Rams led 17-3. Rams defense put pressure on the Bears and CB Troy Hill deflected a pass in the endzone intended for Chicago's WR Darnell Mooney which was caught by S Taylor Rapp for his first interception for the season. On the next drive, Rams offense moved the ball 80 yards down the field on eight plays. On the final play of the drive, Goff found TE Gerald Everett who broke a tackle and went 12 yards for the score bringing the Rams up, 24-3. Sloman converted the extra point, sealing a 100% extra point completion on the night. In the fourth quarter, the Bears capitalized on a Rams fumble and scored their first six-pointer of the game through S Eddie Jackson. Santos' extra point was good, but the Rams still held the lead, 24-10. Rams defense continue to put pressure on the Bears and with 5:08 left of the game, CB Jalen Ramsey picked off his first interception for the season catching a pass intended for Bears TE Jimmy Graham. Los Angeles P Johnny Hekker kicked a 63-yard punt late in the fourth quarter to pin the Bears deep in their own territory and the Rams sealed their 24-10 win. Hekker kicked five punts that all landed inside the 10-yard line and totaled 221 yards. His performance from the night earned him the game ball following the win. The night was full of firsts and records for the Rams side with OLB Terrell Lewis posting his first career tackle on a key fourth down stop, while TE Johnny Mundt caught his longest reception at 34 yards. Mundt set further single-game career highs, recording three receptions and 47 receiving yards, while Rams 2020 draft pick Brycen Hopkins made his NFL debut.

Miami 28, Los Angeles 17

Weather: 86 degrees, cloudy - Attendance 12,397 - Time 3:22

With securing three wins in each of their road trips east, the Los Angeles Rams fell short on their fourth endeavor in 2020 with a 28-17 defeat to the Miami Dolphins. Playing in Miami for only the eighth time in franchise history, the Rams faced a 2020 first-round QB Tua Tagovailoa in his first career start. Following the first coin-toss loss on the season, the Rams opened the game converting a quick first down, before P Johnny Hekker would sail a 62-yard punt to close the Rams opening drive. On the Dolphins' enusing drive, Tagovailoa was stripped-sacked on his first career passing attempt by DL Aaron Donald to account for Donald's 81st career sack. With LB Leonard Floyd recovering the fumble, the Rams would score on a quck 1:25 drive on a WR Robert Woods four-yard rush, the fourth time Woods has reached the endzone as a rusher. The remainder of the first quarter would find the Rams and Dolphins exchanging punts on consecutive three-and-out drives, before Rams QB Jared Goff threw his first interception with 3:02 remaining. Miami would convert a touchdown to end the first quarter, tied 7-7. Los Angeles opened the second quarter with an eight-play drive, including a 22-yard strike to WR Cooper Kupp before stalling out with a second Hekker punt to pin Miami deep in their own territory. On Miami's first play of the next series, Rams S Taylor Rapp forced his first career fumble on a Miami RB Myles Gaskin run up the middle, followed by a recovery by CB Troy Hill inside the Miami 10-yard line. Set in immediate scoring position, Goff dropped back and fumbled after being sacked by Dolphins DE Emmanuel Ogbah, finding Miami LB Andrew Van Ginkel with the loose ball to return for a 78-yard touchdown. Following an enusing Rams three-and-out, Hekker would sail a 60-yard punt to Miami PR Jakeem Grant who would return it 88-yards for a third Miami score to lift Miami to a 21-0 lead. With 4:44 left in the half, the Rams forced a three-and-out, but quickly turned the ball over on second Goff sack fumble recovered by LB Kyle Van Noy and resulting in another quick Miami rushing score (M. Gaskins) in the next possession. The Rams would close the half on a 23-yard field goal off the foot of K Kai Forbath, trailing 28-10. The third quarter would find the Rams and Dolphins exchanging stalled three-and-out drives, with the Rams converting their only first down of the quarter before failing to convert on a 4th-and-10 in the waning minutes of the quarter. On Miami's sixth punt by P Matt Haack to open the fourth quarter, the Rams mustered a 10-play 89-yard drive to lift Kupp over 100-yards receiving and capped by a Woods 11-yard receiving touchdown, his second of the day, Miami's ensuing drive stalled with 6:39 remaining, forcing to punt for the seventh time. Goff would find four different receivers on the following 11-play drive, only to see a second Forbath field goal attempt (48-yards) sail wide left. Being forced to burn all three timeouts after the change of possession, the Rams would force a Miami punt for the ninth time on the day with Los Angeles closing out the game on a no-huddle five-play effort as time expired.

Weather: 78 degrees, sunny - Attendance 0 - Time 3:04

The Los Angeles Rams continued their winning streak at SoFi Stadium, defeating divisional rival and NFC West leader, the Seattle Seahawks in a 23-16 win. In the first half, the Rams generated a season high 275 yards of offense. The 275 yards post as the second-most yardage Seattle has given up this season in the first half. It also marked QB Jared Goff's 10th career game with 200 passing yards or more in the first half. Goff finished the game completing 27-of-37 passes for 302 yards and a 96.9 passer rating. The second half saw the Rams defense attack Seahawks QB Russell Wilson, with Rams OLB Leonard Floyd recording 3.0 sacks on Wilson and OLB Terrell Lewis recording 2.0 sacks. The Rams held the Seahawks top-ranked offense to only three points in the second half, positioning their season average 3.2 points per game after making halftime adjustments as a league best. The Rams were the first on the scoreboard scoring a 23-yard field goal by K Kai Forbath following their first offensive drive. The kick was Forbath's first at SoFi Stadium. The Seahawks answered back with a 13-yard rushing touchdown by RB Alex Collins and the visiting team took over the lead 7-3. Shortly thereafter, the Rams took back their lead with a one-yard rushing touchdown to RB Darrell Henderson Jr. Henderson recorded seven rushes on the game for 28 yards and one reception for five yards. Forbath's extra point was good, and the Rams led, 10-7. The next drive saw the Seahawks travel one yard before CB Darious Williams intercepted a QB Russell Wilson touchdown throw intended for WR David Moore. The play was nullified by a penalty. In the second quarter, the Rams offense capitalized on their opportunities against a strong Seahawks defense and on a 6:57 drive, RB Malcolm Brown ran into the endzone for a seven-yard touchdown. The Rams led, 17-7. On the enusing drive, Seahawks K Jason Myers added three points to the board through a 37-yard field goal. The next drive saw the Rams fumble the ball on the second touch, but the next two plays by Seattle would be squandered by a second interception from Williams. Terrell Lewis would end the first half with his first professional sack, before Seattle would connect on a season-high 61-yard field goal. Despite the additional points, the Rams ran into the locker room with a 17-13 lead. Coming back out for the third quarter, the Seahawks held onto the ball for 2:53 before the Rams entered their first drive for the second half. Goff passed off to Brown who again found the endzone for a one-yard rushing touchdown and his second score of the day. Forbath's extra point was no good, but the Rams did not hold back and Floyd sacked Wilson for -7 yards. The next play saw an incomplete pass for Seattle before Floyd found Wilson a second time and gaining another five yards. The fourth quarter saw another big play by Floyd who forced a fumble before his teammate Lewis recorded his second sack on Wilson. The Seahawks drive continued before Williams intercepted another Wilson throw and recording 19 defensive yards. The interception marked Williams first multi-interception game of his career. Seattle's Myers kicked his third successful field goal, but it wasn't enough to catch the Rams 23-16 lead and the Rams would continue their undefeated streak at their new home stadium.

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 27-24, in a prime-time Monday Night encounter at Raymond James Stadium in front of a crowd of 15,730. The game made history as it was officiated by the first-ever all-black officiating crew, led by referee Jerome Boger. The Rams win marked the fourth consecutive win in Tampa dating back to the 2012 season. QB Jared Goff completed 39-of-51 passes for 376 yards and three touchdowns. On defense, rookie and sixth round draft pick, S Jordan Fuller, made his first interception and backed it up with a second in a crucial end of the game moment. The Rams scored on their opening offensive drive with QR Robert Woods receiving a four-yard pass from Goff to walk into the end zone. Rams K Matt Gay made his franchise debut against his former team, sealing the extra point and bringing the Rams to an early 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers came out quickly in the second quarter, scoring a touchdown on their second play to WR Mike Evans. A successful kick by K Bradley Pinion leveled the scores, 7-7. The Rams next drive was a short one, before the Buccaneers capitalized on their offensive drive and scored their second touchdown on the night, this time to RB Leonard Fournette. The home team took the lead for the first time in the game, 7-14. But the lead would be short lived, with Goff finding rookie WR Van Jefferson for his first NFL touchdown. Gay converted another extra point and the cat-and-mouse-like game continued with scores tied at 14-14. With 00:19 left in the first half, the Rams offense scurried to the line to spike the ball in order to stop the clock. The play allowed Gay to successfully kick a 38-yard field goal and the Rams led 17-14 at the end of the first half. The second half saw Tampa Bay add their first field goal to the board, with a successful kick leveling the scores for the third time on the night. The next drive would see the Rams move the ball down the field but an attempted field goal missed the uprights and the ball was back with the home side. On the Buccaneers second play, Rams rookie S Jordan Fuller intercepted a pass from QB Tom Brady intended for C Godwin. In a game of firsts for Rams rookies, with RB Cam Akers securing his first professional touchdown, running for four yards off a pass from Goff. Another successful Gay kick and the Rams took back the lead, 24-17. The fourth quarter saw the Buccaneers catch up to the Rams once again, leveling the score 24-24, but with 2:40 left in the game, Gay kicked a 40-yard field goal bring the visiting team back into the lead, 27-24. Despite the lead, the ball was in the hands of Brady and the Rams defense had to hold them off for 2:36. On the second play following the two-minute warning, Rams Fuller intercepted Brady a second time, gaining possession and running for six yards. The play would turnover the ball to Rams offense who held onto it for the rest of the game. Marking their sixth trip east this season, the Rams would return to Los Angeles with their seventh win on the season. The victory would seal the Rams position at the top of the NFC West division.

Los Angeles 20, San Francisco 49ers 23 November 29, 2020 - SoFi Stadium- Inglewood, Calif.

Weather: 72 degrees, sunny - Attendance 0 - Time 3:11

The Los Angeles Rams lost their first game at SoFi Stadium, going down to the San Francisco 49ers, 23-20 in their Week 12 match up. RB Cam Akers led the Rams rushing attack, finished the day with nine carries for 81 yards, one touchdown and a career-high long 61-yard burst. Meanwhile on defense, LB Troy Reeder posted a career-high 15 total tackles, including a career-best 12 solo stops. The first big play for the day came from Rams S Jordan Fuller when he recorded his third interception in two games. The rookie grabbed a ball from 49ers QB Nick Mullens intended for WR Deebo Samuel. The Rams capitalized off the turnover, moving the ball down the field with WR Robert Woods producing a 30 yard catch before K Matt Gay kicked a 48-yard field goal to add the first points to the scoreboard for the day. The Rams led 3-0 with 6:52 remaining in the first quarter. On the next drive, the visiting team fought back scoring a touchdown to RB Raheem Mostert who had just been activated off injured reserved. The extra point from K Robbie Gould was good and the 49ers took the lead 3-7. Following the touchdown, Rams QB Jared Goff's intended pass for Woods was intercepted by CB Richard Sherman, but on the next play, DL Sebastian Joseph-Day forced a fumble that was picked up by DL Morgan Fox. The Rams were back on the offense yet despite gaining possession, the home team couldn't gain enough yardage and P Johnny Hekker stepped up to kick a 31 yard punt. The second quarter was scoreless for both sides and the Rams were trailing heading into the locker room at half time. In the opening drive for the second half, Goff threw a pick and the 49ers added another seven points to their lead, 14-3. With 4:39 left in the third quarter, OLB Samson Ebukam sacked Mullens forcing a fumble but the play was reversed, and the 49ers kicked a 46-yard field goal. Rams Gay followed up with a successful 41-yard field goal, but the Rams still trailed 17-6. The first play for the 49ers drive, DL Aaron Donald stripped the ball from Mostert, and the ball was recovered by CB Troy Hill who ran it the 20 yards for a defensive touchdown and his first career score. With a successful extra point, the Rams were creeping up on the 49ers lead, 17-13. The third quarter ended with a 61-yard run by rookie Akers who would bring the Rams up to San Francisco's 7-yard line. The Rams continued their drive with Akers in the fourth quarter and on the second play, Akers scored his second career touchdown. Gay sealed the touchdown and the Rams now held the lead for the first time in the game, 17-20. The 49ers wouldn't let the home team hold the lead for long and another field goal brought the game to a tie with 3:15 left in the game. Despite a gallant effort by the Rams on both offense and defense, the 49ers sealed the night and their road victory with their third field goal with 0:04 left in the game and the Rams would lose their first game at SoFi Stadium.

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 38-28, at State Farm Stadium with the result landing the Rams at the top of the NFC West Division. The Rams generated  $4\overline{53}$ total yards on offense which marks the teams third-best output of the season. QB Jared Goff finished the game with 351 passing yards, completing 37-of-47 passes and scoring a rushing touchdown. The game marked the sixth game this season that Goff had thrown for over 300 yards and the 25th time across his career. The rushing touchdown brought Goff's total to nine which is ranked fourth amongst Ram's guarterbacks in franchise history. On defense, the defensive unit forced four three-and-outs on the game which brings their total to a league-best 36 three-and-out drives by opponents this season. LB Troy Reeder led the Rams tackling effort, posting 10 tackles (six solo) and recorded one pass defensed. The Cardinals were the first team to add points for the day with TE Dan Arnold scoring a touchdown off a 59 yard pass from QB Kyler Murray. The successful extra point kicked by K Zane Gonzalez brought the home team to an early lead, 0-7, with 13:25 left on the clock in the first quarter. On the Cardinals next drive, Rams DL Aaron Donald found Murray to record his 12th sack on the season and gaining nine defensive yards. However, the Rams would be left scoreless heading into the second quarter. The Rams opened the next phase of the game with offensive possession and capitalized off their momentum, with RB Cam Akers running up the middle for a nine-yard touchdown. The touchdown marked Akers third score in three consecutive games. The rookie running back finished the game with a career-high 21 rushes for 72 yards. K Matt Gay's extra point was good, and the Rams leveled the scores, 7-7. With 0:56 left in the first half, the Rams got to the endzone for a second time with TE Tyler Higbee catching a short one-yard pass from Goff. The extra point was good, and the Rams led for the first time in the game, 14-7. At halftime, the Rams had dominated possession holding 22:42 of possession compared to the Cardinals 7:08. Early in the third quarter, the Rams extended their lead, 17-7, with a successful 39-yard field goal by Gay. The Cardinals fought back, producing their longest drive at 6:23 and scoring off a short pass to WR DeAndre Hopkins. The Rams kept the lead 17-14 before entering a fourth quarter full of scoring drives. The first trip to the endzone was rewarded to Goff when he snuck up the middle for a one-vard touchdown. The Cardinals answered back and scored their third touchdown, bringing the scores up to a close 24-21. Rams RB Darrell Henderson Jr. made a big play at 10:15 left in the fourth, running for 38 yards and a touchdown. The score gave the Rams a further lead, 31-21. The defense matched the efforts of their team's offense and LB Justin Hollins found Murray to record a sack for 16 yards and force a fumble. Shortly after, CB Troy Hill intercepted a pass intended for Cardinals WR Andy Isabella and ran 35 yards to score the Rams fifth touchdown. Arizona would score once more on the day, but it wasn't enough to catch the Rams 38-28 lead. The Rams would bring home their eighth win for the season and claim the number one spot of the NFC West Division.

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the New England Patriots, 24-3, on Thursday Night Football at SoFi Stadium, in what was the teams' first encounter since Super Bowl XXXVI. The Rams held the Patriots to just three points which marks the lowest scoring total in the regular season for the New England side since Week 4 of 2016. Rams QB Jared Goff finished the game completing 16-of-25 passes for 137 yards and added another rushing touchdown to his career totals, marking the first time he has done so in back-to-back games. On defense, the Rams defensive unit recorded 6.0 sacks and one interception for a touchdown. DL Michael Brockers posted 2.0 sacks on the night, which marks his third multi-sack game of his career and DL Aaron Donald recorded 1.5 sacks which brings his season total to an NFL leading 12.5 sacks. Rookie RB Cam Akers made an impact again this game, recording 171 rushing yards on 29 carries setting the record for the most rushing yards by a rookie this season. Akers also caught two passes for 23 receiving yards. The Rams were the first to add points on the night, with Goff running one yard for a touchdown on their opening drive. The score was sealed with a successful kick by K Matt Gay and the Rams had an early lead, 7-0. On the next drive, the Rams defense held the Patriots to only one yard before the ball was back in offensive possession. Despite making moves down the field, the Rams opted for a field goal which brought their lead further ahead, 10-0. In the opening play of the second quarter, ILB Kenny Young intercepted Patriots QB Cam Newton's intended pass for RB Damien Harris and ran 79-yards to score his first career touchdown. The feat also represents the first time the Rams defense has returned an interception for a touchdown in back-to-back games since 2013. The Rams were up 17-0. With 1:08 left in the first half, the Patriots added points to the board through a successful field goal taken by K Nick Folk. However, the Rams ran into the locker room at halftime with a comfortable 17-3 lead. In the second half, Rams Brockers gained 10 yards for the Rams through a sack on Newton on the Patriots first snap. On that same drive, Donald found Newton again and recorded the Rams second sack on the night. The ball would return to the Rams offense with 11:15 left in the third quarter, and following a 9:42 drive, Goff threw a short pass right to WR Cooper Kupp for a two-yard touchdown. Gay's extra point was good, and the Rams led 24-3. The fourth quarter would remain scoreless for both teams and the Rams would be victorious. The win cemented the Rams record to equal a winning season, standing at 9-4 before entering Week 15 against the winless New York Jets. Head Coach Sean McVay is only the fourth coach in franchise history to post a winning-record in each of their first four seasons.

The Los Angeles Rams were defeated by the Seattle Seahawks, 20-9, in their Week 16 matchup at Lumen Field in Seattle. The game sealed the NFC West Division, with the Seahawks earning the honors. QB Jared Goff finished the game completing 24-of-43 passes for 234 yards and one interception. He matched a career-high seven rushing attempts for 23 yards with a seven-yard long. Out of his completions, Goff completed passes to six different receivers with WR Cooper Kupp and WR Josh Reynolds finishing with 66 and 65 yards, respectively. Reynolds had the Rams longest reception recording a 26-yard catch in the fourth quarter. Kupp hauled in five third-down-converting receptions adding to his career total equaling 76. Kupp's 76 total third-down conversions are the third-most by a Rams receiver since 1991 and ties for sixth-most through a player's first four seasons in the league since 1991. On defense, Los Angeles forced a three-and-out on the Seahawks opening drive marking the team's sixth three-and-out on an opponents' opening drive and third-most across the league. Rams defense also held the Seahawks to 95 yards which is the seventh time this season that they have held their opponent to 100 yards rushing. OLB Leonard Floyd posted seven tackles and 2.0 sacks resulting in 11-sack yards. It marked Floyd's 9.5 sack on the season which ranks him tied eighth across the league. 5.0 of those sacks have been on Seahawks QB Russell Wilson which is the most Wilson has endured by one played in a single season of his career. LB Troy Reeder led the tackling effort for his second consecutive week, recording 11 tackles. The Rams were the first to add points on the day, with K Matt Gay slotting a 44-yard field goal attempt straight through the uprights. The Rams had a 3-0 lead with 6:17 left in the first quarter. DL Sebastian Joseph-Day recorded his first sack of the season for a 10-yard loss. The second quarter saw the Seahawks level the scores with K Jason Myers kicking a successful field goal. The same plays mirrored themselves with Gay and Myers both kicking another field goal each and the scores were leveled again, 6-6, at the end of the first half. Gay's 51-yard field goal marks his longest conversion this season. The third quarter saw Seahawks Wilson take the ball over to the endzone himself, through a four-yard rush and would score the first touchdown on the day. A successful extra point had the Seahawks leading, 6-13. With 12:49 left in the game, the Rams kicked their third field goal to bring the score to 9-13 but the Seahawks wouldn't let the visiting team catch them and with 2:51 on the clock, Wilson connected with TE Jacob Hollister to extend their lead, 9-20. The win for the Seahawks would see them win the division title, while the Rams head back to SoFi Stadium to host the Cardinals for their final regular season game and final hopes to clinch a playoff spot.

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 18-7, clinching a playoff berth in their final regular season game at SoFi Stadium. Following the win, the Rams finished the season with the NFL's top ranked defense, allowing only 281.9 yards per game. It marks the fourth time the Rams had the league's top-ranked defense, and the first time leading the league in total defense since 1978. The Rams scored their fourth defensive touchdown of the season on an 84-yard interception returned for a touchdown by CB Troy Hill. The Rams are tied with the Colts for a league-best four defensive touchdowns this season. The Rams levied 4.0 sacks on Arizona, accounting for their eighth game with 4.0 or more sacks. Their 53.0 total sacks in 2020 ranks second-best in the league. On offense, QB John Wolford made his first NFL career start, with QB Jared Goff sidelined with a thumb injury. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passes for 231 yards and recording 56 rushing yards on six runs which is the most a Rams quarteback has rushed in a single game since the 2000 season. Wolford spread the ball around to seven different receivers, averaging 10.5 yards per reception, including a season-long 38-yard completion to mark a career-long reception for RB Cam Akers. Arizona opened the game with an offensive drive. DL Morgan Fox recorded the first sack of the game, taking QB Kyler Murray down for -8 yards with 12:14 on the clock. Murray was injured on the play and left the field questionable to return. He was replaced by QB Chris Streveler. On the Rams first offensive drive, Wolford's first professional starting play was a handoff back to RB Cam Akers who took the ball 10 yards for the first down. The next play saw Wolford throw a pass intended for WR Josh Reynolds, but it was picked off by LB Jordan Hicks. The Cardinals capitalized on the pick and scored on the next drive through a 11-yard reception from RB Jonathan Ward. The Cardinals led 0-7. Wolford moved the ball up the field gaining 33 rushing yards over three rushing a

Seattle 20, Los Angeles 30 January 9, 2020 - Lumen Field - Seattle, Wash.

Weather: 39 degrees, cloudy - Attendance 0 - Time 3:31

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the Seattle Seahawks, 30-20, in the NFC Wild Card game at Lumen Field in Seattle. The matchup marked the third time the teams had met this season and was the second time the Rams had beaten the Seahawks in a Wild Card game. Rams started QB John Wolford in replacement of QB Jared Goff who was recovering from a thumb injury that he endured in Week 16 of the regular season. Wolford became the fourth undrafted quarterback to start a playoff game under center for the Rams since 1950. Wolford left the game due to injury in the first quarter after completing three-of-six passes for 29 yards. Goff relieved Wolford and ended the day completing nine-of-19 passes for 155 yards and one touchdown. RB Cam Akers had a big game, rushing 28 times for 131 yards, scoring one touchdown and recording 45 yards on two receptions. Akers' 176 scrimmage yards are the most by a rookie in their postseason debut in the NFL since 1970. He is the only Rams rookie to ever rush 100-plus yards in a postseason game in franchise history. K Matt Gay connected on all three field goal attempts and three extra points, marking his fifth consecutive 100 per cent accuracy game this season. Defensively, the Rams unit held Seattle to 278 total yards of offense, the third-lowest Seattle has generated in a postseason game since drafting QB Russell Wilson in 2012. Wilson was sacked 5.0 times on the game which is tied for the second-most in a playoff game and the most levied on a playoff opponent in 21 years. DL Aaron Donald posted 2.0 sacks which marked his first multi-sack playoff game. OLB Leonard Floyd recorded 2.0 sacks, marking his third-consecutive game against Seattle with at least 2.0 sacks. S Jordan Fuller and ILB Troy Reeder led the defensive tackling effort, each recording seven total tackles. Gay recorded the first points on the day, successfully kicking a 40-yard field goal. The efforts were matched by Seahawks K Jason Myers and the scores were leveled, 3-3, early in the second quarter. Gay extended the lead with 7:51 left in the first half before CB Darious Williams intercepted a Wilson screen pass intended for WR DK Metcalf and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. The pick-six is the first defensive touchdown for the Rams in postseason since the 2002 Divisional Round against Green Bay. The Rams led 13-3. On the next drive, Wilson threw a deep pass to Metcalf who scored the home team's first touchdown. But the Rams wouldn't let Seattle catch them and the following drive saw Akers run five yards to score in the end zone. The Rams led 20-10 at half time. The Seahawks opened the third quarter with a 52-yard field goal and Gay added another three points to the Rams 23-13 lead. With 4:46 remaining in the game, Goff threw a 15-yard touchdown to WR Robert Woods sealing the Wild Card victory. Wilson found Metcalf a second time for a touchdown, but it wouldn't be enough to catch the Rams. The victory earned the team a second appearance in the Divisional Round since Head Coach Sean McVay joined in 2017 and marked McVay's third-career postseason win.

Green Bay 18, Los Angeles 32 January 16, 2020 - Lambaeu Field - Green Bay, Wis.

Weather: 35 degrees, cloudy - Attendance 7,439 - Time 2:56

The Los Angeles Rams 2020 season came to an end, with the Green Bay Packers defeating the visiting side, 32-18 at Lambeau Field in Wisconsin. The 35 degree game was played amongst a crowd of 7,439 fans. The game saw the NFL's No.1 ranked defense going up against the league's No. 1 ranked offense. QB Jared Goff started his fifth postseason game where he finished the night completing 21-of-27 passes for 174 yards and one touchdown for a passer rating of 105.9. Goff also rushed one time for six yards and recorded a postseason career-bests in completion percentage (77.8) and passer rating. WR Josh Reynolds led the receiving effort, finishing with three receptions for 65 yards. Reynolds posted a 28-yard long and averaged 21.7 yards per reception. WR Robert Woods hauled in eight receptions for 48 yards while WR Van Jefferson recorded six receptions for 46 yards and one touchdown. RB Cam Akers led the rushing attack with 18 carries for 90 yards and one touchdown. Akers lined up in the wildcat formation four times, capitalizing on one with his seven-yard touchdown. Akers also converted a two-point attempt on a lateral pass from Jefferson. With Akers and Jefferson both finding the endzone in Green Bay, it marked the first time for the Rams to have two rookies score touchdowns in the same postseason game in the NFL common era. On defense, LB Troy Reeder led the defensive tackling effort for another week, recording 13 tackles and deflected one pass while S Nick Scott recorded his career-first start. The Packers were the first to add points for the day, scoring three points off a field goal with 8:39 on the clock in the first quarter. Rams K Matt Gay followed up with a visiting team field goal and the scores were leveled 3-3 at the end of the first quarter. Green Bay were the first to reach the endzone, scoring a touchdown through a one yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Devonte Adams. K Matt Crosby's extra point was good, and the home team led, 10-3. Rodgers added another six points for Green Bay, but an attempt at a two-point conversion failed and the Rams trailed, 3-16. With 0:29 left on the clock for the first half, Goff connected with Jefferson to score a four yard touchdown. Gay converted the kick to bring the Rams up, 16-10. Despite the Rams closing in on the Packers score, Crosby successfully kicked a field goal with 0.00 left at half time to extend their lead. 19-10. The second half saw the Packers score again before Akers lined up in wildcat formation for a seven-vard touchdown. The play was then followed by a two-point conversion. However, the Packers would extend their lead again with their fourth touchdown on the day finishing the game with 38 points to the Rams 18. The result would end the Rams 2020 season.

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Another Rams team in Cleveland had played in the American Football League in 1936 and finished with a 5-2-2 record, second best in the league. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach of new NFL franchise. Rams finish with 1-10 record. Home games are played in Municipal Stadium and League Park. Bob Kelley is radio play-by-play announcer.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses at start of season. Rams win first three under Lewis but finish with 4-7 record. Home games are played in Shaw Stadium, named after high school on Shaw Avenue in Cleveland

1939 Earl (Dutch) Clark becomes head coach. Rams finish at .500 for first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player. Trophy is named after NFL president. Hall is first Ram to earn first team All-Pro honors.

1940 Rams drop back to 4-6-1 record. Fullback Johnny (Zero) Drake is all-NFL first team.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr., purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish fifth in NFL West.

1942 Evans resigns before season. Charles (Chile) Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Maj. Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. After three seasons in Municipal Stadium Rams return to play all home games in League Park. Team finishes 5-6. Clark resigns as head coach after season with overall, 16-26-2 record.

1943 Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime restrictions and shortages. On April 16, Reeves buys out Levy. On loan to Detroit, Riley Matheson is all-NFL selection.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager. Chile appoints Aldo (Buff) Donelli as head coach. Donelli once held the distinction of being the Pittsburgh Steelers' head coach and Duquesne University's head coach at the same time. Team of free agents and pickups finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Bob Waterfield, a third-round future draft choice in 1944 from UCLA, joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1 season and to first NFL West title. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for NFL championship, Dec. 16. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Riley Matheson, Jim Benton, Eberle Schultz and Jim Gillette receive all-Pro honors. Benton caught 10 passes for NFL record 303 yards in 28-21 win at Detroit, Nov. 22. Benton's mark stood as NFL record for 40 years, broken by Chiefs' Stephone Paige, who had 309 yards in 1985 game against San Diego. Eddie Kotal joins team as NFL's first, fulltime college scout.

1946 Reeves receives approval to move franchise to Los Angeles, Jan. 11. Rams sign halfback Kenny Washington, March 9, and end Woody Strode, March 21. They are first African-American players in the modern NFL and join team one year before Jackie Robinson breaks baseball color barrier with Brooklyn Dodgers. After 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but slowed by injuries in 6-6 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy; to Edwin and Harold Pauley, and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. Snyder resigns, Sept. 3. and Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Rams are first professional franchise with team insignia or logo on helmet. They introduce headgear with painted Rams horns, designed by halfback Fred Gehrke, an industrial design artist in off-seasons. By 1960, all pro teams except Cleveland have logos on helmets. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Rams wins first six games, capped by 27-24 victory over Chicago Bears before NFL regular-season record crowd of 86,080 in Los Angeles Coliseum, then hang on with 2-2-2 from Cleveland. Heavy rain and sloppy field at Coliseum conspire against Rams as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win in NFL title game.

1950 NFL absorbs All-America Football Conference, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence and Rams competition from Los Angeles Dons. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead Rams to 24-14 division playoff win over Bears, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal beats Rams, 30-28. Waterfield is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club.

1951 Rams win third straight NFL West title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Norm Van Brocklin to Fears, for first NFL title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener 37-7 to Cleveland, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hampton Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for NFL West title. Rams lose Western playoff in Detroit 31-21. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Rams finish with 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in NFL West. Rams defeat eventual world champion Detroit twice; Rams 37-34 victory over Lions Nov. 1 is witnessed by 93,751 in Coliseum, a pro football record.

1954 Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. Norm Van Brocklin is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Split end Bob Boyd is lone Ram to be named all-Pro. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Les Richter give team hard-fought, 8-3-1 record for NFL West title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum 38-14.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Rams publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6. Rams set standing professional record with attendance of 102,368 for game with San Francisco, Nov. 10.

1958 Van Brocklin goes to Eagles in preseason trade. Bill Wade sets several Rams passing records en route to 8-4 season. Rams twice draw home crowds of more than 100,000.

1959 Rams lose last eight games and finish 2-10, their poorest record since 1937. Ollie Matson, acquired in trade with Chicago Cardinals March 23 for 9 players, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner, Jan. 26. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named head coach. Rams post 4-7-1 record.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, and John Guzik to Chicago for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow, and 1962 first draft choice, which enables Rams to draft future Rams greats Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen the following year. Rams finish with 4-10 record.

1962 Rams make North Carolina State quarterback Roman Gabriel second pick in first round and Utah State defensive tackle Merlin Olsen third pick in first round of draft. Dick Bass provides bright spot in 1-12-1 season with all-Proselection. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare is named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of cowners Pauley, Levy, Seley, and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. After 0-5 start, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0. Rosey Grier is acquired from New York Giants and joins Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen, and Lamar Lundy to form original Fearsome Foursome.

1964 Rams sign 10-year contract to play in "new look" Coliseum "stadium-within-a-stadium." Seating capacity is lowered from 100,000-plus to 72,000 with installation of temporary seats that close off several thousand permanent seats. Fourteen rookies make the squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record. Deacon Jones unofficially records first 20-sack season in league history with 22.

1965 After winning only one of first 10 games, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed as head coach.

1966 After court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 and one of the outstanding radio sportscasters in history, dies in September. Team finishes 8-6, best record since 1958.

1967 Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Don Hewitt begins 28-year tenure as equipment manager. Rams record first unbeaten preseason with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay 28-7 in NFL Western Conference Championship Game. Rams win Playoff Bowl game in Miami in January over Cleveland 30-6. Game featured losing teams from conference finals. George Allen receives NFL Coach-of-Year honors by The Sporting News. Jones establishes unofficial NFL record with 26 sacks.

1968 Team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1. Attendance is more than one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach but rehired two weeks later. Deacon Jones is named NFL Defensive Player of Year for second straight season after registering 24 sacks.

Los Angeles Rams "Fearsome Foursome" defensive ends David "Deacon" Jones and Lamar Lundy, defensive tackles Merlin Olsen and Roger Brown pursue in a 34-10 win over the Baltimore Colts on Dec. 17, 1967 at Memorial Coliseum.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athelic director at University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack E. Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20 but beat Dallas 31-0 in Playoff Bowl. QB Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as NFL's most valuable player. T Bob Brown, T Charlie Cowan, G Tom Mack, Gabriel, DE Deacon Jones, DT Merlin Olsen and DB Eddie Meador give Rams a team record seven all-Pro selections.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January points Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta, and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies

(39th overall) round selections in the 2012 draft as well as the Redskins' first selection in the 2013 and 2014 drafts. On Draft day, the Rams trade down to 14th overall to acquire more picks and select DT Michael Brockers.

In Fisher's first year the NFL's youngest team battled to a 7-8-1 record while establishing a foundation for a bright future. The team traveled to London to play in the league's International Series vs. the Patriots on October 28, 2012.

Offensively, the Rams were led by RB Steven Jackson, who rushed for 1,042 yards to give him an eighth-consecutive season over the 1,000-yard mark. QB Sam Bradford set new career highs in yards (3,702), touchdown passes (21) and passer rating (82.5). WRs Danny Amendola (63 rec.- 666 yards-3 TD), Brandon Gibson (51-691-5) and rookie Chris Givens (42-698-3) led the way in the passing game, along with a strong second season from TE Lance Kendricks (42-519-4). On the defensive side of the ball, St. Louis tied for the NFL lead with 52 sacks and were tops in the league in sacks per pass play. DEs Chris Long (11.5) and Robert Quinn (10.5) paced the pass rush. LB James Laurinaitis led the team in tackles for a fourth straight season. Rookie Janoris Jenkins led the NFL with four defensive touchdowns. K Greg Zuerlein set a new team record with seven field goals of 50 yards or more, including a team-record 60-yarder. In the 2013 Draft, the Rams 2015 The Rams selected RB Todd Gurley with the 10th overall selection in the NFL Draft. Gurley earned offensive rookie of the year and Pro Bowl honors as he led all rookies in rushing and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards (1,106). DT Aaron Donald earned his second Pro Bowl appearance and First-Team All-Pro honors after posting 11 sacks, 22 tackles for loss and 49 quarterback pressures. In the secondary, CB Trumaine Johnson finished tied for third in the NFL with seven interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. P Johnny Hekker turned in another stellar season on his way to his third Pro Bowl trip and second First-Team All-Pro honors. Hekker led the NFL in punts, gross average, net average and punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He's the first player to lead the league in all three categories since the NFL began tracking punts inside the 20 in 1976. On January 12, 2016, the Rams were officially approved to move back to the greater Los Angeles area for the 2016 season and beyond.

2016 One of the most significant years in franchise history, the Rams relocated back to Los Angeles, the club's home for nearly 50 years from 1946-94, with the move being approved on January 12. The organization began the move from St. Louis to Southern California by holding OTAs in Oxnard, followed by training camp at UC Irvine and finally settling at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks for the regular season. Big moves continued for the club, as they traded six total draft picks to Tennessee for the No. 1 overall pick - a pick they would use on QB Jared Goff - in the 2016

NFL Draft, in addition to the Titans' fourth and sixth-round selections. In the Rams inaugural game back at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, a sellout crowd of 91,046 was on hand to witness a 9-6 Los Angeles victory. The Red Hot Chili Peppers welcomed the Rams back to Los Angeles with a performance prior to kickoff off. Additionally, the Rams honored T Orlando Pace and DE Kevin Greene, who were members of the 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame Class.

On Nov. 17, NFL Commisioner Roger Goodell, Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke and Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts were on hand to break ground on the new L.A. Stadium and Entertainment District at Hollywood Park. Anchored by a 70,000 seat open-air stadium, the 298-acre mixed use development will include 1.5 million square space, 1,500 residences, a hotel and more than 20 acres of public parks.

After a Week 14 match-up against the Falcons, the Rams parted ways with Head Coach Jeff Fisher after five seasons with the club and named special teams coordinator John Fassel as the Interim Head Coach for the remaining three games.

Following the season, three Rams were named to the 2017 Pro Bowl in Orlando, Fla. - DT Aaron Donald, P Johnny Hekker and LS Jake McQuaide. Donald became the third defensive tackle in Rams history to make three consecutive Pro Bowls. Hekker made his third career trip to the NFL's annual All-Star game and McQuaide earned the honor for the first time in his career.

2017 The Los Angeles Rams ushered in the Sean McVay era with white horns on their helmets and the organization's first NFC West crown since the 2003 season and the franchise's first playoff berth since 2004. L.A. finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and was the league's top-scoring team, just one season after finishing as the 32nd ranked scoring team. The Rams improved from 14.0 points per game in 2016 to 29.9 points per game under McVay's guidance.

The impressive turnaround resulted in a trio of awards on the eve of Super Bowl LII in Minneapolis. DT Aaron Donald was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, McVay was named the AP Coach of the year and RB Todd Gurley II was honored as the AP Offensive Player of the Year, the first time in the history of the awards that one team has swept the top three awards.

McVay became the fourth Rams head coach to win the league award behind

Rams DT Aaron Donald (DPOY), HC Sean McVay (COY) and RB Todd Gurley II (OPOY) were all award receipents at the 2018 NFL Honors Ceremony in Minneapolis on the eve of Super Bowl LII.

Rams RB Todd Gurley II rushed 14 times for 101 yards, a 7.2-yard average in the Wild Card game, becoming the first Rams running back to notch a 100-plus yard game in his postseason debut since Jim Gillette had 17 carries for 101 yards vs. Washington (12/16/45).

Dick Vermeil (1999), Chuck Knock (1973), and George Allen (1967). Of these four, only McVay and Allen were first-year head coaches. In NFL history, McVay is just the 14th rookie head coach overall to receive the award after Detroit's George Wilson first won the honor as a first-year head coach in 1957.

Donald became the first player in Rams history to ever earn the distinction of AP Defensive Player of the Year. His year also concluded with First Team All-Pro recognition for the third-consecutive season and he was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth-consecutive season.

Gurley led the NFL in touchdowns (19), points scored among non-kickers (114) and scrimmage yards (2,093) in addition to finishing second in rushing yards (1,305). Gurley became the first Ram to win Offensive Player of the Year since Hall of Fame RB Marshall Faulk took home the award in 2001. Faulk (1999, 2000, 2001) and fellow Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson (1986) were previously the only Rams to earn AP Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Despite playing in only 14 games, K Greg Zuerlein led the league in scoring (158), spearheading a Rams special teams unit that was among the best in the league in 2017.

L.A. hosted its first playoff game in the Coliseum since the 1979 season, but fell to the Atlanta Falcons, falling by a score of 26-13 in the NFL Wild Card.

2018 The Los Angeles Rams (13-3, 2-1) finished the 2018 season tied for the second-most regular season wins in franchise history and made the organization's fourth Super Bowl appearance.

Under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sean McVay, L.A. won its second-consective NFC West title, a feat last achieved by the Rams during the 1978-79 seasons. L.A. earned the second-seed in the NFC and hosted the Divisional Round of the playoffs, before claiming the NFC title in New Orleans to earn the right to compete in Super Bowl LIII.

Individually, DT Aaron Donald had himself a season for the record books, establishing a new franchise record 20.5 sacks in a single season, while posting an NFL record 183.5 sack yards. Donald also led the league in tackles for loss (25) and quarterback hits (41) en route to earning his second-consecutive Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award. Following the 2018 campaign, Donald earned his fourth-consecutive First-Team All-Pro selection. He was the only unanimous selection in this year's voting, receiving all 50 of the panel's votes at defensive tackle.

RB Todd Gurley II led all running backs in All-Pro vote getting, receiving 25 of the 50 votes to propel him to his second-straight All-Pro Team. Gurley, who finished 200 yards shy of his second-consecutive 2,000 scrimmage yard season after sitting out the last two weeks of the season, put up 21 total touchdowns and ended the year with the second-most rushing yards per game (89.4) behind Cowboys RB Ezekiel Elliott, who was named a second-team All-Pro.

A pair of special teams aces also earned All-Pro accolades in P Johnny Hekker and special teamer/LB Cory Littleton. It marked Hekker's sixth-straight All-Pro honors and the first for Littleton, who is in his first season as a full-time starter at linebacker, and joined the team as an undrafted free agent in 2016.

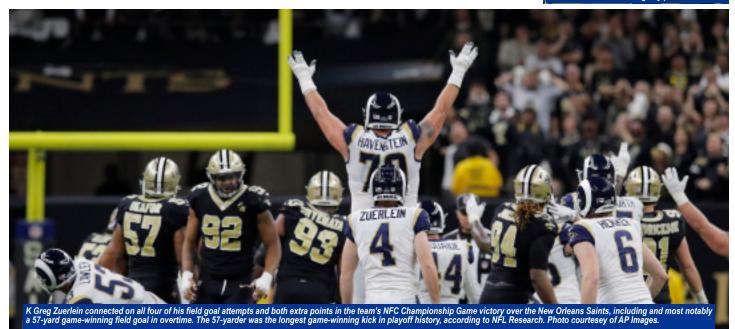

Donald, Gurley and Littleton were joined by QB Jared Goff as the team's four Pro Bowl selections. It marked the second-consecutive Pro Bowl selection for the third-year signal caller.

Goff, set a career-high in single-season passing yards in 2018, becoming the fourth Rams quarterback in franchise history to reach 4,000 yards passing, and leading Los Angeles to a second-straight NFC West title.

Goff completed 62.1 percent of his passes this season and threw 32 touchdowns. The former Cal Bear posted a single-season career-best 101.1 QB rating and finished with 4,688 passing yards, which was the fourth-highest passing output in the NFL this season. Goff has 9,581 career passing yards and ranks eighth on the franchise's passing leaders list.

Donald became just the third player to repeat as AP DPOY, joining J.J. Watt (2014-2015) and Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor (1981-1982). A man redefining the defensive tackle position, Donald led the NFL with 20.5 sacks this season, the most by an interior defensive lineman in a single season in NFL history. The 20.5 QB takedowns tied for the fourth-most in a single season over the last 25 seasons among any position.

QB Jared Goff ended the season with 4,638 passing yards, surpassing the 4,000-yard threshold for the second-consecutive season. Goff is the only quarterback in franchise history to do so in consecutive seasons and he joins Hall of Famer Kurt Warner as the only QBs to ever have multiple 4,000-yard seasons with the organization.

2019 The Rams (9-7) closed out the last season of its 38-year residency at the Los Angeles Coliseum in 2019, doing so with a winning record for the third-consecutive season under Head Coach Sean McVay.

The season saw multiple Rams post record-setting performances offensively, while also identifying emerging talent on the defensive unit that stepped up in big moments.

In his third year under McVay's offensive scheme, QB Jared Goff continued to attack opponents through the air, ending the season with over 4,000 passing yards for the second-consecutive season. Goff is the only Rams QB to toss for over 4,000 yards in consecutive seasons and he joins Hall of Famer Kurt Warner to have over 4,000 yards in multiple seasons with the organization. The gunslinger ended the year with 22 passing touchdowns, giving him 20-plus passing TDs for the third-consecutive season.

Goff operated behind a makeshift offensive line that dealt with position changes and injuries throughout the season. Despite those challenges, the unit did not allow Goff to be sacked in a franchise-record six games and ended the season allowing a league-best 22 sacks.

For the first time since a stretch from 1999-2002, L.A. had multiple receivers record over 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. WR Robert Woods tallied 1,134 receiving yards in the air while WR Cooper Kupp had his first 1,000-yard campaign, finishing the season with 1,161 receiving yards. Kupp also ended the year with 10 receiving touchdowns, becoming the first Ram to record 10-plus receiving TDs in a season since Torry Holt in 2006.

RB Todd Gurley II continued his climb up the record books throughout the season, ending the year tied for the most rushing TDs in franchise history with 58. He also posted over 1,000 yards from scrimmage for the fifth-consecutive season. Gurley ended the season with 12 rushing TDs, becoming the second RB in franchise history to rush for double-digit TDs in three-consecutive seasons.

With an offensive outburst to close the season, TE Tyler Higbee became the first tight end in NFL history to post four-consecutive 100-yard receiving games while recording seven-plus catches. Higbee set single-season franchise records for receptions by a tight end (69) and receiving yards by a tight end (734).

2019 was another impressive season for two-time Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Donald. The All-Pro ended his season with 12.5 sacks, recording double-digit sacks for the third-consecutive season. He also added a league-best 20 tackles for loss, 24 quarterback hits, forced two fumbles and recorded 48 tackles. The 2019 season was the first time in eight seasons the Rams have had multiple players with double-digit sacks. The last instance came in 2012.

LB Cory Littleton put together another strong campaign for L.A.'s defensive unit, leading the team with a careerhigh 134 tackles that was good for eighth-most in the league. Littleton also tallied 3.5 sacks, forced two fumbles and recorded two interceptions on the year.

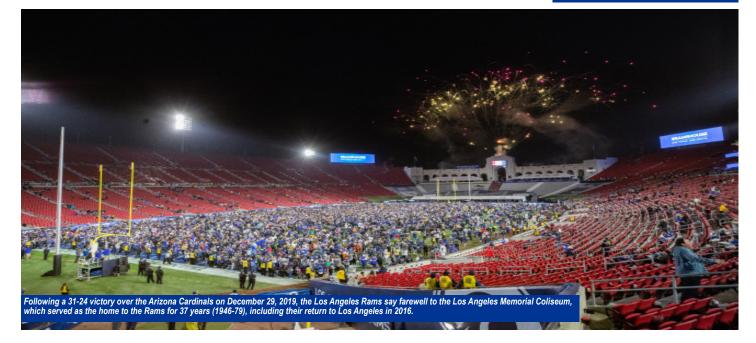

L.A.'s defensive unit received a major boost when it acquired CB Jalen Ramsey via trade ahead of its Week 7 contest in Atlanta. Since joining L.A., Ramsey posted 33 tackles, forced one fumble, defensed four passes and tallied an interception.

Rams DT Aaron Donald continued his dominance in 2019, earning his fifth First Team All-Pro selection and being selected to participate in his sixth Pro Bowl. He was also named the team's Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award recipient, which goes to the team's most valuable player. Donald ended the season with 12.5 sacks, posting double-digit sacks for the third-consecutive season. He also added a league-best 20 tackles for loss, 24 quarterback hits, forced two fumbles and recorded 48 tackles.

Training Camp

Due to COVID-19, the NFL mandated it's teams to conduct training camp from their team facility in 2020, which ended a streak of four-straight seasons at the University of California, Irivine. However in 2021, camp returned to Newport Beach.

The 2020 season marked the first time the Rams held training camp at their team facility on the campus of California Lutheran University and the 49th time camp has taken place in Southern California. Over the course of the Rams' history, the team has held training camp at several locations in the Southern California area, including: Compton College (1946), Loyola University (1947-48), University of Redlands (1949-60), Chapman College (1961-66), California State-Fullerton (1976-71, 1973-90, '93), California State-Long Beach (1972), UCI (1991-92, 1994, 2016, 2021) and their team facility on the campus of CLU (2020).

Los Angeles Rams Team Up with Rock the Vote

As a part of the NFL Votes Initiatives, Rock the Vote and the Los Angeles Rams announced a partnership in August of 2020 to ensure players, team personnel, and fans had the resources they needed to participate in our democracy and make their voices heard for election season. Rock the Vote is the most trusted and effective nonpartisan nonprofit dedicated to building the political power of young people. As part of the partnership, Rock the Vote created a custom election center for players, team staff and fans. Through the election center, visitors could check their voter registration status, look up their sample ballot and polling locations, sign up for election reminders, view their state polling policies and more. In addition to the election center, Rock the Vote provided the Rams with voter education and registration sessions that emphasized the importance and power of voting. Rock the Vote also worked with players to use their platforms to encourage fans in Los Angeles and across the country to get involved in the voting process. Rams wide receiver Robert Woods, quarterback Jared Goff, safety John Johnson III, tight end Tyler Higbee and cornerback David Long Jr. participated in PSAs for Rams social channels that encouraged people to register to vote, check their registration status, and highlight the different ways their votes could be casted for the 2020 election. A day before the Rams kickedoff the 2020 season on Sunday Night Football, Rampage and Cheerleaders participated in a "Rams Rock the Vote Bus Tour." The Rams-branded, double-decker bus visited major polling locations across LA County to draw attention to where people can vote on Election Day. Fans had the chance to receive Rams-branded "Vote" t-shirts at each polling location. Also, to commemorate National Voter Registration Day, SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park, Los Angeles Chargers and the Los Angeles

Rams announced that a Vote Center location would be established on the grounds of SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, CA. SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park's Vote Center was located adjacent to the stadium and opened for a five-day period from Friday, October 30 — Tuesday, November 3. All LA County registered voters were eligible to vote at SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park's Vote Center.

Every year, the Rams host a Kickoff for Charity Luncheon to help celebrate the start of the football season. In 2020, the Rams hosted their annual Kickoff for Charity Event, presented by UNIFY Financial Credit Union. Due to COVID-19 this year's event was virtual. Hosted by NFL Network reporter Steve Wyche, the evening started a week of community initiatives prior to the teams opening game at SoFi Stadium on September 13th. The evening featured a season preview from Rams Head Coach Sean McVay, and an overview of some of the team's efforts to address social injustices from Chief Operating Officer Kevin Demoff. Kickoff for Charity viewers also heard from Anti-Recidivism Coalition Founder and film producer Scott Budnick, Executive Director Sam Lewis, and 2nd Call Founder Skipp Townsend, who discussed how their organizations supported 100 formerly incarcerated individuals help build the team's new stadium in Inglewood.

Game Faces for Good

Due to COVID-19, the Los Angeles Rams opened up their 2020 season in SoFi Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys with zero fans in attendance. Instead, the presence of Rams fans was felt through cardboard cutouts as a part of the Game Faces for Good initiative. Throughout the 2020 NFL Season fans could purchase cutouts which were positioned in the end zone sections during home games. Proceeds benefited the Los Angeles Rams Foundation in support of the team's efforts to address social injustices including poverty, education inequities, food insecurity and homelessness. Cutouts were created throughout the season to honor and recognize first responders, veterans and active-duty service men and women, as well as cancer fighters and survivors.

Rams Join United Way of Greater Los Angeles to Lead "HomeWalk at Home"

On Saturday November 14th, the Los Angeles Rams and United Way of Greater Los Angeles teamed up to tackle the movement to end homelessness by participating in the 13th annual 5K HomeWalk - the single largest annual event to end homelessness. Due to the pandemic, this year's event was the first-ever virtual "HomeWalk at Home" with more than 2,500 people registered to join the effort. The virtual program included live entertainment featuring Head Coach Sean McVay, Rams players, Cheerleaders, team mascot Rampage, and stories from those who were formerly homeless. Since 2007, HomeWalk has brought together more than 125,000 people from across Los Angeles County and raised over $9.5 million to end homelessness in Los Angeles. This year's virtual HomeWalk raised more than $275,000, which was doubled for a total of $550,000 thanks to the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation's Match Challenge.

Rise With The Rams

For the third consecutive year, the Rams teamed up with RISE for a season-long leadership and community building program that features five LA-area high school football teams. RISE is a national nonprofit that educates and empowers the sports community to eliminate racial discrimination, champion social justice and improve race relations. This year's program kicked off when players and coaches from Calabasas High School, Eagle Rock High School, Inglewood High School, Lincoln High School and Notre Dame High School joined LAPD Officers and Rams Safety Terrell Burgess, Offensive Lineman Tremayne Anchrum, Quarterback Bryce Perkins and Receiver J.J. Koski for a virtual workshop about "understanding identities." This collaboration is designed to harness the unifying power of sports and build relationships between high school football teams with a cross-section of races and socioeconomic backgrounds. The program featured monthly touchpoints from September to December that were geared to build leadership, understanding, acceptance and cultural competency for student-athletes, coaches, LAPD officers and Rams players. Rise with the Rams virtual workshops featured discussions about differences in perspective, formations of biases, the ways sport can be utilized as a vehicle for change, the importance of strong leadership and civic engagement, goal setting and more. Since 2018, the Rams have engaged 11 high school football teams located throughout the greater LA region in the Rise with the Rams program.

Watts Rams

Rams Partner With City Year

Since 2017, the Rams have funded a City Year team to support elementary students at Grape Street Elementary in Watts. City Year is a national organization that mobilizes AmeriCorps members for a year of full-time service in underserved communities to serve as tutors, mentors and role models for students to help them graduate high school, college and become career-ready young professionals. The Los Angeles Rams announced on September 11th, 2020 that they would once again be partnering with City Year Los Angeles to support students at Crozier Middle School in Inglewood. The partnership was part of the Rams' continued social justice initiatives, which seeks to address issues tied to poverty including education inequities. Through their $100,000 sponsorship, the Rams supported a City Year team dedicated to aiding Crozier Middle School as the school and students engage in virtual learning prior to their return to the classroom. In addition, the team's stadium naming rights partner, SoFi, invested in a community program with City Year to help students overcome financial and educational inequalities that impact low-to-middle income families. Throughout the 2020 season, SoFi donated $1,000 to City Year in support of Crozier Middle School after every successful field goal or PAT attempt at SoFi Stadium for a total of 30,000. SoFi also donated $20,000 to supply Wi-Fi hot spots to Inglewood Unified households without access to Wi-Fi for a total donation of $50,000. Since 2011, the NFL's Salute to Service efforts have raised more than $44 million for military and nonprofit organizations. Additionally, for the past four seasons, the Rams have partnered with Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) to honor and recognize fallen service men and women who passed while serving in the armed forces or from injuries sustained while serving in the post 9/11 era. This year, the Rams honored 7 fallen service members and their families during a walkthrough practice. Family members of the fallen service members were present at the practice in cardboard cutout form. At the conclusion of the walkthrough, the TAPS families had the chance to meet with Rams players virtually over Zoom. Each family also received a "tailgate kit" for their Salute to Service game viewing experience. Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) offers compassionate care to those who are grieving the loss of a loved one who died while serving in the U.S. Armed Forces or as a result of his or her service. Since 1994, TAPS has provided comfort and hope through a national peer support network and connection to grief resources at no cost to families and loved

Below are some of the ways the Rams celebrated veterans through the Salute to Service efforts for 2020:

The evening also featured a virtual reception and an auction for virtual attendees to bid on items and raise funds for Make-A-Wish. Rossoblu, an authentic Italian restaurant in Downtown Los Angeles, also delivered gourmet "tailgate meals" to attendees' homes to enjoy for the evening. This years event helped raised more than $163,500 to fulfill the wishes of local children battling life-threatening medical conditions.

Each honoree received a Rams jersey, delivered by team mascot Rampage in a Ram 1500 Truck in addition to receiving a gameday recognition on the team's social media platforms.

A Crucial Catch

After nearly a decade of supporting breast cancer, the NFL and the American Cancer Society continue to expand their efforts to support the fight against all forms of cancer. Last year, for the 12th consecutive season, the NFL and American Cancer Society worked together to fight cancer through the Crucial Catch – Intercept Cancer campaign. The initiative addressed early detection and risk reduction efforts for various forms of cancers. Since 2012, NFL funding has reached more than one million people nationwide and more than $20 million has been raised and donated to ACS through the partnership with the league and its 32 clubs. Below are some of the ways the Rams integrated Crucial Catch - Intercept Cancer in last year's game against the Bears in 2020.

LA Rams Partner with Watts-Native STIX

Watts native rapper & producer STIX teamed up with the LA Rams, for the second year in a row, to address social injustices. This year, STIX produced an original song titled, "It Takes All Of Us". This was one of the phrases highlighted by the NFL this season for their continued commitment to social justice. It was also chosen by the Los Angeles Rams team captains as the players helmet sticker for the 2020 season. The music video, which was filmed in a variety of locations but specifically in Inglewood and Watts, debuted during the Rams Kickoff for Charity virtual event on Sunday, September 6. All proceeds supported the team's efforts to help bridge the digital divide that is disproportionately impacting under-resourced students in Los Angeles. STIX and the Rams also produced a PSA featuring players reading an original spoken word piece written by STIX. The PSA debuted on September 13 right before the Rams opening game at SoFi Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday Night Football.

Virtual Taste of the Rams

The fifth annual Taste of the Rams event went virtual this year, attracting more than 400 Angelenos and raising more than $100,000 to benefit the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. To date, this annual event has raised $750,000, which is enough for the Food Bank to provide 3 million meals to neighbors in need. Rams Receiver Cooper Kupp served as this year's Honorary Chair and recruited teammates such as Quarterbacks Jared Goff and John Wolford, Receiver Van Jefferson and Safety Terrell Burgess to virtually come together to help raise funds in support of the Food Bank's mission to combat hunger in Los Angeles. NFL Network's Andrew Siciliano hosted the virtual event and longtime supporter of the LA Regional Food Bank, Rossoblu and Superfine Pizza Chef Steve Samson, served as the evening's chef. 1 in 5 people in LA County are faced with food insecurity. It's estimated that 2 million people in our community may not know where their next meal is coming from. Thanks to financial and food donations, volunteers and community events such as the Taste of the Rams, the LA Regional Food Bank can feed more than 900,000 LA residents every month.

In 2012, the Rams and American Red Cross partnered to create a Rams-specific "Holiday Mail for Heroes" campaign. Thank you for your service."

In honor of "Giving Tuesday," the Los Angeles Rams players awarded $750,000 to 25 non-profits focused on social justice across the greater Los Angeles region. Following numerous tragic events this past year, including the deaths of Breonna Taylor and George Floyd, Rams players came together to discuss how they could help address injustices that continue to plague society. Focused on long-term, systemic change, the players decided to pool resources together to financially support organizations who are doing this critical work. The Rams invited 25 social justice non-profits to share with the players information about their work, those they serve and how the players could be of the greatest assistance. After listening and learning, the players rewarded each organization with a donation ranging from $20,000 to $50,000. Michael Brockers, Johnny Hekker, Sebastian Joseph-Day and Andrew Whitworth helped lead the process, participating in virtual conversations with the organizations and determining how to allocate the funds. #### Free Youth Football Camps & Clinics

During the spring of 2019, the Los Angeles Rams partnered with local non-profit organizations and youth football programs to host 16 free football clinics for youth at different locations throughout the Southern California region. As part of the clinics, youth participate in football-related drills and competitions while receiving instruction from certified USA Football coaches. The clinics also featured character education sessions where participants discuss the transferrable life skills that can be attained through sport and teamwork. LAPD officers from the South & Central Bureaus also participated in five of last year's free football clinics. ### Rams Commitment to Social Justice

Social justice is at the heart of the Los Angeles Rams community outreach efforts. To us, it's about fighting for equality, driving equity and providing access. Too many in our Black and Brown community lack access – access to mentors, who can teach youth to dream beyond their current realities; access to basic needs like food and housing; and access to jobs and upward mobility. Below are some of our efforts to address issues tied to poverty including education inequities, food insecurity, homelessness, community-police relations and criminal justice – all injustices that unfairly burden our Black and Brown neighbors and prevent advancement.

Addressing Educational Inequalities Through Year-Round School Engagement

The Rams see education as a social justice issue. A child's education and future opportunities should not be dictated by their zip code. We have placed an emphasis on becoming collaborative partners in the education space with the goal of helping to close the achievement gap for low-income students. By working to transform children's lives and make them college and/or career-ready, we are helping to enhance their personal well-being, the lives of their families and the betterment of our society. Through year-round school engagement, incentive campaigns, building playgrounds, beautifying campuses, funding college field trips and introducing STEAM labs, we are trying to do our part to ensure a stronger public education system, which we know is key to a thriving Los Angeles.

Stem Labs and Campus Improvement Projects

The Rams continue to place an emphasis on being collaborative partners in the education space with the mission of helping to close the achievement and technology gaps for low-income students.
