T2 HISTORY

T2 is in its seventh season as an organization, and first in the MLS Next Pro league. In six seasons of USL regular season play (2015-2020), Portland had a record of 56-94-24. T2 qualified for the USL playoffs in the 2018 season after finishing sixth in the Western Conference, but was knocked out in the first round by Phoenix Rising FC. Shannon Murray will be the fourth T2 head coach since its inception, following Jay Vidovich (2015), Andrew Gregor (2016-2017) and Cameron Knowles (2018-2020). Notably, former T2 and Timbers first team player Andres Flores will be on Murray's staff as an assistant coach for T2. Many active Timbers first team players have played for T2 previously, including Dairon Asprilla, Blake Bodily, Pablo Bonilla, Aljaz Ivacic, Tega Ikoba, Marvin Loria, Cristhian Paredes, Hunter Sulte, Bill Tuiloma and Eryk Williamson.

T2 & WHITECAPS 2 HISTORY

Sunday's match marks the 12th meeting between T2 and Vancouver Whitecaps 2 all time and first in MLS Next Pro competition. Portland trailed in the USL series with a record of 4-7-0 against Vancouver. In their last matchup, T2 earned a 1-0 win on the road against Whitecaps 2 in their USL season finale on September 30, 2017.

SCOUTING VANCOUVER

Entering the match, Vancouver is 0-1-1 (2 pts) in two road matches, most recently earning a 2-2 draw against Real Monarchs. Gio Aguilar provided a brace in regulation play for Vancouver, sending them to a shootout. Whitecaps FC 2 came out on top in penalties 3-1, while Vancouver goalkeeper Isaac Boehmer made two saves. Portland (0-1-0) fell to Earthquakes II in its season and home opener on March 30 at Hillsboro Stadium. Six Timbers first team players started the match for T2, including David Ayala, Blake Bodily, Pablo Bonilla, Diego Gutierrez, Justin Rasmussen and Hunter Sulte. Two signed T2 players started the match (Julian Bravo, Selmir Miscic), while academy players Gerardo Duran, Mitch Ferguson and Ian Shaul got the starts as well.
