ON THE COVER:

The 2022 Houston Astros, the reigning American League Champions, are led by Manager Dusty Baker, who's guided the club to two postseason berths in his two years at the helm. Overall, the Astros have made the postseason in a club record five consecutive seasons and are just the third team in Major League history to advance to five straight League Championship Series.

Baker, who enters the season ranking 12th all-time in Major League history in managerial wins, is just one of nine managers in MLB history to win the pennant in both leagues (also the 2002 Giants). He's also the only manager in MLB history to win division titles with five different clubs (Astros, Nationals, Reds, Cubs, Giants). A steady presence for the Astros since his arrival, Baker becomes the first manager featured on the club's Media Guide cover since Phil Garner in 2005.

Second baseman Jose Altuve, returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the eighth time in his career (also, 2013, 2015-19, 2020-21) and the second consecutive. Altuve is coming off an All-Star season in which he led all American League leadoff hitters in runs scored, home runs and RBI.

First Baseman Yuli Gurriel and starting pitcher Lance McCullers Jr., are both making their first appearance on the cover. Gurriel won the American League batting title in 2021 and picked up a Gold Glove for his defensive work. McCullers is coming off the best season of his career, in which he ranked first among AL pitchers in opponent batting average and opponent OPS, while ranking second in ERA.

Outfielder Kyle Tucker is making his second consecutive appearance on the Media Guide cover. In 2021, Tucker put together an MVP-caliber season, as he ranked third in slugging and third in OPS in the AL.

ASTROS IN THE COMMUNITY

OVERVIEW

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

In 2020, the Astros Foundation continued to emphasize its commitment to volunteerism in the Houston community. Despite dealing with the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Astros Foundation Volunteer Corps. logged over 10,000 hours of work in the Houston community to help those in need. The Volunteer Corps., which was launched in 2014 and consists primarily of Astros fans and volunteers from outside the organization, gives the Astros a constant presence in the Houston community.

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2019, the Astros Youth Academy softball team won its second-consecutive MLB Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities World Series Championship.

Each year, the Astros Foundation continues to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

To learn more about the Astros Foundation and community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation. Also follow along on social media, on Twitter: @AstrosCares, Facebook: Facebook.com/AstrosFoundation and Instagram: astrosfoundation.

ASTROS ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including promotional or autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at Astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros. We seek to harness the passion of our fans to support youth sports and education programs, the recognition/honor of our nation's military, childhood cancer and domestic violence awareness and efforts to reduce homelessness. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders Program, the Astros MLB Youth Academy and the Astros RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).

The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala, Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, Safe At Home Luncheon & Style show, Badges & Bases H-Town Rundown, The MVP Series and the Astros Foundation /AT&T SportsNet Charity Broadcast.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred and Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was awarded to the Astros Community Leaders program in 2017.

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY

2801 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77088

A cornerstone of the Astros youth baseball and softball initiative is the Houston Astros Youth Academy, which provides free baseball and softball instruction, life-skills training and academic support to young athletes in the Greater Houston Area. The Academy's experienced staff members serve over 14,000 participants, year-round.

The Academy is also home to the Houston Astros RBI program, JrRBI program, summer camps and year-round clinics. Astros RBI, in it's sixth year as an Astros Foundation-run program, has already established a legacy of success, particularly the Astros RBI Softball Team, which has won consecutive national titles (2018-19). Additionally, the Astros RBI Senior Boys (2014-17) and Junior Boys (2015-18) each have four appearances in the RBI World Series.

Since 2014, over 200 RBI members have received baseball or softball opportunities to continue playing at the collegiate level, with 32 AYA members receiving baseball/softball college softball scholarships in 2021. Since 2015, seven RBI members have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams.

ASTROS FOUNDATION IN 2021

The COVID-19 pandemic presented the city of Houston with challenges that have not been seen in over a century. With thousands of people struggling, the Astros Foundation and its Volunteer Corps. stepped up to help when the community needed it most.

In 2021 alone, the Astros Foundation Volunteer Corps., inclusive of over 4,900 volunteers, logged 20,000 volunteer hours in the Houston community at nearly 400 different events for over 80 different community partners/organizations.

In February 2021, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide stepped up immediately to provide over 42,000 pounds of water to three locations at Texas Children's Hospitals to ensure healthcare workers could maintain critical care for those most in need after the freeze caused by Winter Storm Uri. The Astros Foundation also teamed up with All-Star third baseman Alex Bregman to distribute 18,000 cases of water to Houstonians in need.

Later in the year, the Astros Foundation hosted the Louisiana Relief Supply Drive at Minute Maid Park, filling more than four 54-foot trailers with emergency supplies that were transported by Crane Worldwide directly to the communities in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Ida.

The Astros Foundation utilized the Bob Watson Education Center located at the Astros Youth Academy provided free, socially-distanced support sessions for at-home technology to help adults and parents assist their children with the "new normal" of student learning during the pandemic. These sessions helped support participants from eight school districts in Houston. In 2021 the Youth Academy hosted a virtual College Readiness Day, a Black History Month Virtual Legends and Legacy Series with guest speakers and discussions. Over 90 youth participated in a Jackie Robinson Educational Event. Community outreach efforts from the Astros Youth Academy throughout the year involved food distribution to over 400 families per week from January to May and a partnership with Harris County Sheriff Office to provide volunteer coaches for Astros Jr. RBI Program.

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of a new era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitions, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus win seasons in four of the last five years (did not reach the mark in 2020 due to a shortened season because of the COVID-19 pandemic). Not only have the Astros reached the postseason each of the last five seasons, but they have advanced to the ALCS in all five of those years, becoming just the third team in MLB history to advance to five-straight LCS. In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant. Last season in 2021, the Astros won their fourth American League West Division title and third American League pennant in five seasons. Overall, three of the club's four World Series trips, including the 2017 World Series Championship, have come under Crane's ownership.

In order to make the experience at Minute Maid Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several large-scale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley and the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites were the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Minute Maid Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it redeveloped into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new nickname, Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Jim continued to add to the Astros minor league system acquiring the Sugar Land Skeeters franchise to serve as the Astros Triple A affiliate prior to the 2021 season. In January of 2022, the Skeeters underwent a successful re-brand to the Sugar Land Space Cowboys.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country.

Passion for the Game

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridan, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation transitioned to the newly renovated Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

Jim also acquired Davaco, a leader in high-volume remodels and technology deployments for global brands. He then started a software company, Modiant, as well as Crane Safety, a commercial safety supply company.

Stepping Up and Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. Since he took ownership of the club, the Astros Foundation has donated and invested over $50 million into the Houston community and beyond.

In 2021, the Astros Foundation led the way in the fight against COVID-19, partnering with the City of Houston to use Minute Maid Park as both a COVID-19 testing site and as a vaccination site.

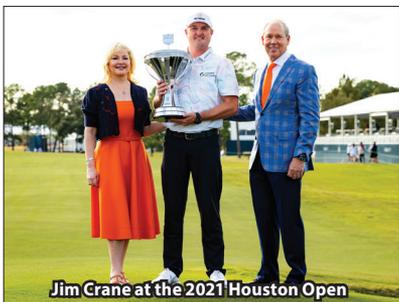

In April of 2020, during the early stages of the pandemic, Jim stepped up to connect the Astros Foundation with Crane Worldwide Logistics, which resulted in millions of medical supplies being delivered to Houston hospitals within the Texas Medical Center. The goal of the partnership was to provide funding, logistics and transportation support for much-needed medical supplies and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) being used by healthcare professionals to treat COVID-19 patients.

In 2020, Jim also connected the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide with Astros players Carlos Correa and Martin Maldonado plus other MLB players from Puerto Rico to assist with delivering medical supplies to the island during the COVID-19 pandemic. In that endeavor, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide covered 100% of the freight and transportation costs and also coordinated the logistics to get those much-needed medical supplies to Puerto Rico.

Crane and the Astros Foundation are the first to jump to action after natural disasters in the area, holding supply drives at Minute Maid Park to support relief efforts for communities impacted by storms. Most recently, drives were held to collect supplies for communities in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Laura in 2020 and Hurricane Ida in 2021. In 2021, the Astros Foundation and Alex Bregman held a water distribution drive to support local Houstonians during recovery from Winter Storm Uri.

In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey in 2017, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

In 2018, when the City of Houston was in danger of losing the Houston Open golf tournament, Jim helped establish the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that the historic, PGA Tour tournament would remain in Houston. As a result, since 2019, the Houston Open has been presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has had a tremendous impact on the Houston community, becoming the single-biggest fundraiser for the Astros Foundation. The Astros Golf Foundation spearheaded a $34 million renovation to Memorial Park Golf Course, which now plays host to the Houston Open. One of the key goals of the Astros Golf Foundation is to provide much-needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth programs.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. One of his first initiatives after purchasing the Astros was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won MLB's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. As part of the program, a multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment, tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities that I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. In 2019, Jim was recognized as the MD Anderson "Living Legend" and was also presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event. He also won the 2019 Houston Sports Award Executive of the Year award. In May of 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

JAMES CLICK

GENERAL MANAGER

James Click was named the 13th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Feb. 3, 2020. In his role, he oversees all aspects of the baseball operations department.

In 2021, Click's second season as General Manager, the Astros won the American League West to advance to the playoffs for the fifth-straight season, a franchise record. The Astros became just the third team in MLB history to play in the LCS in all five of those seasons, and they broke through to win their third American League pennant in 2021, advancing to the World Series for the first time under Click and fourth time in franchise history.

A big reason for the Astros run to the World Series in 2021 was the shoring up of the team's bullpen with three trades leading up to the trade deadline by Click, acquiring three back-end relievers, including two pitchers who were serving as their club's closer. Click and the Astros acquired right-handed pitchers Kendall Graveman and Rafael Montero from Seattle. Graveman, who was the Mariners' closer at the time, had a solid regular season with the Astros before excelling to a 1-0 record and a 1.64 ERA in nine postseason appearances. Click also acquired right-handed pitcher Yimi Garcia from Miami, who was the Marlins' closer at the time, and was key for the Astros down the stretch, making 25 regular season appearances and another 10 in the postseason. The third acquisition made at the deadline was for RHP Phil Maton, who went 4-0 in 27 regular season appearances with the club, but really starred in the postseason with a 0.73 ERA in 12 appearances.

The 2020 season was a memorable one for the first-year general manager. Despite many challenges, the Astros success on the field continued under him as the club advanced to within one win of a return to the World Series. The 2020 Astros became just the third AL team ever to appear in four consecutive League Championship Series.

In addition to joining the organization late in the offseason, Click navigated through several other challenges in his first season in Houston, including dealing with a rash of injuries to key players as well as the unprecedented responsibility of running baseball operations during a pandemic.

Shuffling the roster became a daily occurrence for Click and his staff as the club was forced to place 20 different players on the Injured List to due injuries or COVID-related issues. As a result, the Astros used a club-record and MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers during the season, 10 of whom made their Major League debuts in 2020. Despite the roster obstacles, the Astros persevered, qualifying for the postseason and earning series victories in the Wild Card round vs. Minnesota and the ALDS vs. Oakland before falling to the Rays, Click's former club, in a dramatic, seven-game ALCS.

Prior to being named Astros General Manager, Click, 44, was with the Tampa Bay Rays, where he most recently served as the club's Vice President of Baseball Operations for three seasons (2017-19). Overall, Click's career with Tampa Bay spanned 14 years, originally joining the club as a Coordinator of Baseball Operations in 2006. He would later serve as the Rays Director of Baseball Research and Development and then as Director of Baseball Operations.

In his role as the Rays VP of Baseball Operations, Click was involved in guiding and overseeing all aspects of the baseball operations department. His areas of focus were research and development, strategic planning, and innovation, with particular attention on the Rays' efforts to create and maintain department-wide initiatives on player evaluation, player assessment, roster configuration, trade and contract negotiation, league relations, and staff management.

In his 14 years with the Rays, Click worked alongside several current decision-makers across the baseball landscape, including Dodgers President of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman, Red Sox Chief Baseball Officer Chaim Bloom and current Rays Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Erik Neander.

A Durham, N.C. native and graduate of Yale University (B.A., History), Click wrote for Baseball Prospectus for several years before joining the Rays. He and his wife, Ace, reside in Houston and have two sons, Sam and Nate.

While in graduate school, Scott worked part-time on analytical player evaluation for the Oakland A's and the Dutch soccer club AZ Alkmaar.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his 15th season as a special assistant to the General Manager. In this role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, and Major and minor league talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development program.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was officially inducted into the HOF during the annual ceremony in Cooperstown on July 26, 2015. Craig was also inducted to the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 homers, 1,175 RBI, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 25th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the 2nd-most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history (sixth all-time overall).

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (drafted '16) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame. Cavan was drafted by the Blue Jays and made his Major League debut for Toronto in 2019. On Sept. 17, 2019 in Baltimore, Cavan hit for the cycle, making he and his father just the second father-son duo to each hit for the cycle in an MLB game; Quinn is a member of the Notre Dame softball team.

In 1978, he was named the team's MVP after setting club records in at-bats (660) and games (162) and tallying a then-record 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He currently ranks tied for eighth on the club's all-time list in stolen bases (191) and tied for sixth in career batting average (.281).

Enos stole more than 30 bases for four straight seasons (1976-1979) while with Houston. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos was an analyst on Home Sports Entertainment telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

JOSE CRUZ

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2022 season is the 39th with the Houston Astros organization for Jose Cruz, who is one of the most popular figures in franchise history.

Jose has served in several roles with the Astros during his long, distinguished tenure. In his current role as community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the club and serves as an ambassador for the organization.

Prior to his current role, he spent five seasons as a special assistant to the general manager (2010-14). Prior to that, he was a Major League coach for 13 seasons (1997-2009).

On the field, Jose spent 13 of his outstanding 18-year Major League playing career as an outfielder with the Astros (1975-87). In that span, he developed into an All-Star and one of the most popular players ever to wear the Astros uniform. Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record. In addition to his Astros career, Jose also played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1970-74) and the New York Yankees (1988).

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with the first nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. On August 3, 2019, Jose was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as a part of the inaugural class.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice. Jose Enrique also excelled on the baseball diamond, helping to lead Rice University to a national championship in 2003 before being drafted by the New York Yankees in the 13th round of the 2003 June Draft.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, San Francisco Giants (1988); Hitting Coach, San Francisco Giants (1989-92); Manager, San Francisco Giants (1993-2002); Manager, Chicago Cubs (2003-06); Manager, Cincinnati Reds (2008-13); Manager, Washington Nationals (2016-17); Manager, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Dusty Baker was named the Astros 19th field manager in franchise history on Jan. 29, 2020.

The 2021 season included multiple highlights and historical milestones for Baker. Most importantly, he led the Astros to another American League pennant, marking the club's fourth trip to the Fall Classic in franchise history. It also marked the second time that Baker had led his club to the World Series.

Along the way, the Astros captured the AL West Division title, making Baker the first manager in Major League history to win division titles with five different clubs. In the postseason, the Astros defeated the White Sox in the ALDS in four games and then the Red Sox in the ALCS, rallying from 2-1 deficit to capture the pennant in six games. For his efforts, Baseball America named Baker as their 2021 Manager of the Year.

In Baker's first two years at the helm, the Astros have gone 17-12 (.586) in the postseason, giving them more playoff wins than any other club in that span. Baker's win percentage (.586) in the postseason is the best in club history.

Baker also reached milestones in the regular season, passing both Gene Mauch and Casey Stengel to move into 12th place on the MLB manager's all-time wins list with 1,987. He enters the 2022 season just 13 wins shy of becoming the 12th manager to reach 2,000 career wins.

Baker's first season in Houston, 2020, was a memorable one, as his Astros had an outstanding postseason run, falling just one win shy of a return to the World Series. The Astros were 8-5 in the postseason with series wins in the Wild Card round at Minnesota and the ALDS vs. Oakland. Making the club's performance even more impressive was that the club had to overcome a great deal of injuries to key players. The Astros were forced to use a club-record and MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 that made their MLB debuts in 2020.

When the Astros qualified for the playoffs, Baker once again made history, becoming the first manager in MLB history to take five different teams to the postseason. Baker also managed the Giants (1997, 2000, 2002), Cubs (2003), Reds (2010, 2012-13) and Nationals (2016-17) into the playoffs.

A three-time BBWAA NL Manager of the Year (1993, 1997, 2000), Houston is Baker's fifth managerial stop. His last four were with San Francisco (1993-2002), Chicago (2003-06), Cincinnati (2008-13) and Washington (2016-17).

An All-Star, Gold Glove, Silver Slugger, and World Series winner during his 19-year playing career, Baker has produced 11 postseason teams during his 24-year managerial career, including eight division championships (San Francisco, 1997 & 2000; Chicago, 2003; Cincinnati, 2010 & 2012; Washington, 2016 & 2017), Houston 2021), and three wild card appearances (San Francisco, 2002; Cincinnati, 2013; Houston, 2020).

Baker has World Series experience as a player, coach and manager, having played in the Fall Classic in 1977, 1978 and 1981 with the Dodgers. As a manager, Baker guided both the 2002 Giants and 2021 Astros to the World Series and was a coach on the 1989 NL Champion Giants club.

Notably, Baker also managed the Giants to a 103-win season in 1993, falling one game shy of the postseason in what was MLB's final full season without a Wild Card.

Baker finished his Giants managerial career with 840 victories in San Francisco, which ranks third in club history. Following his stint with the Giants, Baker served as Cubs manager for four seasons (2003-06), where he enjoyed early success as well. Despite inheriting a club that had finished with a 67-95 record the previous season, Baker guided the Cubs to the NL Central Division title in 2003 with an 88-74 mark. That club would ultimately fall just one win shy of reaching the World Series, falling to the Marlins in the NLCS in seven games. His 2003-04 Cubs teams were the first to post back-to-back winning records in Chicago since 1971-72.

A successful six-year stint in Cincinnati would follow, as he guided the Reds to three playoff appearances, including two NL Central Division titles. In his last stint as a manager with the Nationals (2016-17), Baker won back-to-back NL East titles.

Baker is also one of only two in MLB history to produce at least 1,800 hits as a player and win at least 1,800 games as a manager, joining Joe Torre on that list. A six-time All-Star (twice as a player: 1981 & 1982; three times as a member of the coaching staff: 1994, 1997 & 2001; once as manager: 2003), Baker has had success at every managerial stop in his career. His teams have finished first or second 15 times in his 23 years, and Baker is just the 12th manager in MLB history to win 90-plus games on 11-or-more occasions (Elias).

As a player, Baker tallied 242 home runs and 1,031 RBI in his 19-year career (2,039 games) that included stops with the Atlanta Braves (1968-1975), Los Angeles Dodgers (1976-1983), San Francisco Giants (1984) and Oakland Athletics (1985-1986). Baker finished in the top 10 in MVP voting twice (1980 & 1981), and won two Silver Slugger Awards, a Gold Glove, and earned two All-Star selections.

Early in his career, as an everyday player with the Braves in the 1970s, Baker found himself hitting fifth, behind Hank Aaron, during the historic 1973 and 1974 seasons as Aaron closed in on the all-time HR record.

Baker played in four postseasons (1977, 1978, 1981 & 1983), which included three World Series (1977, 1978, 1981). He earned the NLCS MVP award with the Dodgers in 1977, hitting .357 with a .438 on-base percentage an .837 slugging percentage, two home runs and eight RBI in four games against Philadelphia), and a World Series ring, playing left field for the 1981 Dodgers.

Born Johnnie B. Baker Jr. on June 15, 1949 in Riverside, CA, "Dusty" Baker currently resides in California with his wife, Melissa, and has two children, Natosha and Darren. A 1967 graduate of Del Campo High School in Carmichael, Calif., Baker attended American River College in Sacramento, Calif. Baker's son, Darren, was selected by the Washington Nationals in the 2021 MLB Amateur Draft from the University of California (Berkeley).

Full Name: Josue Espada

BENCH COACH

Opening Day Age: 46

Bats/Throws: Right/Right

Born: 8/30/75 in Santurce, PR

Resides: Jupiter, FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Miami Marlins (2010-13); Third Base Coach, New York Yankees (2015-17); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2018-present)

Joe Espada was named the Astros bench coach on Nov. 6, 2017.

The 2022 season is his fifth with the Astros and his 12th overall on a Major League coaching staff. In addition to his bench coach responsibilities, Joe also serves as infield coach and has mentored some of the game's biggest stars, including Jose Altuve, Alex Bregman, Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel. In 2021, both Correa and Gurriel earned Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, while the Astros earned the Rawlings AL Team Gold Glove Award.

Additionally, under Espada's tutelage, the Astros have utilized more defensive shifts than any other Major League club. In 2020, the Astros .991 team fielding pct. was tops in the Majors.

Prior to joining the Astros, Espada spent four seasons (2014-17) in the New York Yankees organization, first, as a professional scout in 2014, and then as third base coach from 2015-17. During his Yankees coaching tenure, the Yankees earned two playoff berths (2015 & 2017), advancing to the ALCS in 2017.

A native of Santurce, Puerto Rico, Espada attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still owns the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top overall career batting average of .442. Drafted in the second round in the 1996 MLB Amateur Draft by the Oakland Athletics, Espada enjoyed a 10-year playing career, playing in the Oakland (1996-2000), Florida (2001), Colorado (2001), Kansas City (2002), St. Louis (2003), Texas (2003), and Tampa Bay (2004) organizations.

After retiring as a player, Espada started his coaching career, which began with the Marlins in 2006. There, he coached from 2006-13, serving first as a hitting coach for Class A Greensboro (2006) and Class A Jupiter (2007). Next, he was the Marlins infield coordinator (2008-09) before joining the Major League club as third base coach from 2010-2013.

Espada is married to Dr. Pamela Espada and the couple has two daughters, Eliana Marie and Viviana Elena. During his off-seasons, Joe has given back to Puerto Rico both on and off the field. He managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for Carolina (2014-15) and Manati (2012-13) and coached third base for Team Puerto Rico in the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classics. Active in the community both in Puerto Rico and in Houston, Espada has given countless clinics to youth baseball groups, including at the Astros Youth Academy. Espada has also been involved in various Houston charities, and enjoys spending time with his family.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Chicago White Sox (2001-02); First Base Coach, New York Mets (2003-04); First Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2007-12); Third Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2013-14); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Gary Pettis is scheduled to return to his familiar third base coaching box in 2022 after missing time while recovering from multiple myeloma. In 2021, Pettis was away from the club at the start of the season before returning in July, resuming his duties as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis was named the Astros third base coach on Oct. 17, 2014. In addition to his third base coach responsibilities, Pettis is the club's outfield and baserunning instructor. Under Pettis' guidance, Astros outfielders have combined to post the highest fielding percentage in the Majors from 2017-21 with a .991 mark.

Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers, spending his last two seasons (2013-14) as their third base coach after spending six seasons (2007-12) as the club's first base coach. Over those eight years, Pettis also served as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis also served on the Major League staffs of the New York Mets (2003-04) and Chicago White Sox (2001-02) as first base and outfield coach. Pettis began his coaching career as a roving minor league instructor for the Angels (1995) and White Sox (1997-2000), and later had a two-year stint as Milwaukee's Triple A hitting instructor (2005-06).

The former outfielder was a five-time Gold Glove winner during his 14-year Major League career with the California Angels (1982-87), Detroit Tigers (1988-89, 1992), Texas Rangers (1990-91) and San Diego Padres (1992). He amassed 354 career steals and stole at least 40 bases five times during his career, which included a pair of 50-steal seasons. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams. Pettis hit .346 (9x26) for the Angels in the 1986 ALCS vs. Boston.

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple has two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante, who currently plays in the NFL for the New York Giants, was a second-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2018 after starring as a consensus All-American wide receiver at the University of Washington. He owns the NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns with nine, including four in 2017. Kyler is a model and actor, who appeared on the television soap opera Days of Our Lives for four years (2015-18), appearing in over 120 episodes.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Bulpen Coach, Washington Nationals (2016-17); Quality Assurance Coach, Houston Astros (2021-present).

Dan Firova was named Astros Quality Assurance Coach on Jan. 28, 2021. However, in 2021, he served as the Astros first base coach when Omar Lopez took over as third base coach to fill in for Gary Pettis. Pettis is scheduled to resume his third base coaching duties in 2022.

Prior to being named to the Astros staff, Firova's previous Major League coaching stint was for two seasons (2016-17) as the Washington Nationals bullpen coach, under Dusty Baker, who was the club's manager at that time. The Nationals won the NL East in both 2016-17. In 2016, the Nats pen posted an MLB-best 3.35 ERA.

Prior to his stint with the Nationals, Firova enjoyed a long run of success as a manager for 19 seasons in the Mexican League, where he won three championships as skipper of the Mexico City Tigres (1997, 2000-01). His last managerial stop in the Mexican League was for two seasons with the Piratas de Campeche (2014-15). For his career, Firova won more games as a manager in league history than any other non-native of Mexico. He is fourth all-time in victories among all managers in the Mexican League.

A native Texan, Firova was born in Refugio and played several seasons of professional baseball as a catcher after being drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the second round of the 1980 January Draft (secondary phase). He would reach the Major Leagues for two brief stints with the Mariners in 1981-82, and for a one-game stint with Cleveland in 1988.

Firova's hobbies include darts and basketball. He and his wife, Esther, reside in Laredo, TX. They have four children, Chanel, DJ, Joeandre and Ishmael.

- Has extensive POSTSEASON experience despite making just 34 regular season appearances...has pitched in 11 postseason games, making six starts, to a 3-2 record and a 4.05 ERA (15ER/33.1IP)...all three of his wins have come in World Series play, one win in 2019 and two in 2021...according to MLB Stats, Urquidy has the most World Series wins by a foreign-born player in MLB history...he's also the only Mexican-born pitcher with multiple wins in the Fall Classic...he is the second Mexican-born starting pitcher to earn a win in the Fall Classic, joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela (1981).
- Known as an aggressive strike-thrower, since his debut season of 2019, he ranks sixth in the AL in walks per 9.0 (1.72) (min. 175 IP)...in 2021, he improved upon those numbers, ranking third in the AL in walks per 9.0 (1.60) and sixth in strikeouts to walk ratio (4.74) (min. 105 IP).

NOTES

- Signed by the Astros as a 19-year old, non-drafted free agent out of Mazatlán, Sinaloa, Mexico on March 2, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Carlos Alfonso and Raul Lopez.
- Formerly known as José Luis Hernandez, José began going by the last name of Urquidy, at the start of the 2019 season...Urquidy made the change in honor of his mother, Alma Urquidy, who raised him in Mazatlán, supported his baseball journey and prioritized his school, delaying his professional signing until the age of 19.
- Is one of 11 Mexican-born players to appear in at least one game for the Astros and is one of seven pitchers...has pitched more innings (177.2) as an Astro than any other Mexican-born player, besting RHP Aurelio Lopez, who pitched 116.0 innings for the Astros in the 1986-87 seasons.
- In 2019, became just the second Mexican-born pitcher to earn a win as a starter in the World Series joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela, who did so in 1981...that feat earned him a meeting with Mexican president Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador, who hosted him at his office in Mexico City.
- José has a pet pig named Josefa, who was named by combining Jose and his wife's name, Estefania... Josefa is a favorite of Astros sideline reporter Julia Morales, who featured the pig on an Astros broadcast in the 2021 season...Jose and Estefania married this offseason in their native Mexico.
- Was added to the 40-man roster on July 2, 2019, the date of his MLB debut...was left unprotected in the 2018 Rule 5 Draft, but went undrafted...has accumulated just over two years of service time across parts of three Major League seasons.

- Did not pitch in the Division Series, despite being originally scheduled to pitch Game 4, which was delayed due to weather...with the game being pushed back, the Game 4 start went to RHP Lance McCullers Jr. on full rest...instead made his 2021 postseason debut in Game 3 of the LCS at BOS (5ER/1.2IP)...rebounded from his rough LCS start to make two great pitching performances in the World Series, earning wins in both outings.
- In the World Series, started Game 2 vs. ATL (2ER/5IP) to pitch the Astros to a 7-2 victory...came on in relief in Game 5 (0ER/1IP) and picked up the win in relief.

NOTES

- Was signed by the Astros as a 21-year-old non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...at 21-years old, Valdez was five years older than most amateur free agent signees from the Dominican Republic...according to Valdez, other teams had been skeptical of potential arm issues and didn't want to take a chance on him because of his age.
- Originally a position player, Valdez began pitching at the age of 16 and had interest from scouts within a couple years of his conversion...by the age of 21, Valdez was finally seen by the Astros at a workout staged by an independent trainer in Guayacanes, DR, a small town just west of San Pedro de Macaris...after seeing him throw just a handful of pitches, the Astros invited him to throw at their Dominican Academy and promptly signed him following that tryout...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- Uses his curveball on 32% of his pitches, registering most of his strikeouts on the breaker, which checks in with a spin rate in the 92nd percentile of all Major League curves...he learned the pitch from fellow Dominican and former Brewers prospect Angel Ventura, who pitched in parts of eight minor league seasons (2011-19) with the Brewers...Ventura's curveball was nicknamed "The Ax".
- Spent his 2019-20 offseason focused on the mental aspect of the game, adopting the mantra "attitude above everything"...he credits this thought process in his improvements made to his focus, composure and on-field body language.
- Added to the Astros Major League roster in September of 2018...has used one of his three option years...is playing on a one-year contract for the 2022 season.

- While he was not a member of Major League Spring Training camp in 2017, he did impress in five Spring Training games with the Astros as a minor league call-up...struck out seven batters in his 7.0 innings with the Major League club in 2017 Spring Training...pitched in the Arizona Fall League in 2017, going 1-1 with a 3.20 ERA (7ER/19.2IP) and 14 strikeouts in six starts for the Mesa Solar Sox.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Minute Maid Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Minute Maid Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

In 2021, the Astros will induct another six franchise icons into the Astros Hall of Fame as the Class of 2020: Lance Berkman, Cesar Cedeño, Roy Hofheinz, Roy Oswalt, Billy Wagner and Bob Watson.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

Al Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt .45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt .45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. Bagwell is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

MINUTE MAID PARK

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

1968 ALL-STAR GAME

The 1968 All-Star Game in Houston was the first played indoors and on artificial turf.

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, setting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

 MINUTE MAID PARK

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

The Houston Astros utilize MLB's online credentialing system. All media credential requests and applications for coverage of the Houston Astros must go through MLB's online credentialing system at <http://credentials.mlb.com>. Additionally, all credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros Spring Training, regular season, Wild Card and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

Later in his career, while with the Dodgers on June 13, 1986 vs. the Padres in San Diego, he was part of history when he and pitcher Fernando Valenzuela formed the first Mexican-born battery in Major League history.
- Alex' older brother, Bobby Treviño, played in the Major Leagues as an outfielder for the Angels.
- Alex hit a career-high .290 while serving as Houston's backup catcher in 1989 and hit .364 (32x88) in 25 starts.
- He played in 939 Major League games and had a .249 lifetime average.

MINUTE MAID PARK

2022 SEASON

The 2022 season marks the 23rd year of baseball at Minute Maid Park. The venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the World Series (2005, 2017, 2019), the 2014 Civil Rights Game, Super Bowl LI Opening Night, major concert events, weddings, graduations, galas, and COVID-19 vaccine drives.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 44 million visitors during the facility's 21-season tenure.

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home — the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park is HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated the pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD:

Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres.

The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chef Jimmy Coatsworth who has partnered with Aramark to bring his signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Daktronics, one of the world's largest suppliers of electronic boards, is the company responsible for the Astros new boards. The new state-of-the-art HD video board high atop Minute Maid Park provides fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2017 season, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites Shake Shack, Torchy's Tacos and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level to create the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, The Texas and Crawford Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to 120 people.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

- > The roof may only open once during a game.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.
