Paul Thomas (1958-1963)

The Matadors' first ever head coach, Paul Thomas led CSUN, then known as San Fernando Valley State College, for five seasons. Thomas coached the Matadors to their first ever victory on December 13, 1958 against LaVerne. He won his most games with the Matadors in 1959-60, as he picked up 14 victories including 12 away from home.

Jerry Ball (1963-1971)

In eight years as head coach, Jerry Ball led CSUN to four winning seasons. He coached the Matadors to their first ever winning season as SFVSC went 18-8 for a second-place finish in the CCAA. Ball also led CSUN to its first ever conference championship in his final season at the helm in 1970-71.

Pete Cassidy (1971-1996)

A Matador Hall of Famer, Pete Cassidy is the longest tenured and winningest CSUN head coach in history. Cassidy guided CSUN to four conference championships as well as 10 winning seasons. The Matadors advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament three times under Cassidy. He also coached the Matadors in their transition to the Division I level in 1990-91. Cassidy was named CCAA and District-8 Coach of the Year twice.

COACHING HISTORY

Bobby Braswell (1996-2013)

Bobby Braswell coached CSUN for 17 seasons and helped the Matadors win three conference titles including back-to-back championships in 2007-08 and 2008-09. Under Braswell, CSUN advanced to the NCAA Division I Tournament for the first time in history in 2001, and again in 2009. In 2000-01, CSUN won a program-best 22 games. Braswell was named back-to-back Big West Coach of the Year in '08 and '09.

Reggie Theus (2013-2018)

A former NBA great, Reggie Theus led the Matadors for five seasons. In his first season with the program, the Matadors advanced to the Big West Tournament finals for the first time in five years, coming up just short of a berth to the NCAA Tournament. Theus went on to guide the Matadors to the Big West Tournament twice more during his time on the sidelines.

Mark Gottfried (2018-21)

An 11-time NCAA Tournament coach, Mark Gottfried led the Matadors to 37 wins over three seasons. His second season saw the Matadors post their highest-finish in the Big West in 11 seasons as CSUN secured a No. 2 seed in the conference tournament. His players earned five All-Big West First team accolades while Lamine Diane was named an All-American and two-time Big West Player of the Year.

Trent Johnson (2021-Present)

Trent Johnson led the Matadors on an interim basis in 2021-22, taking over the program less than four months before the start of the season.

He would coach the Matadors to a No. 8 seed in the 2022 Big West Tournament. Under Johnson, Atin Wright became the team's top scorer and earned all-conference accolades.

STEPHEN MAXWELL

MATADOR ALL-AMERICANSOLLIE CARTER, G, 1965

Ollie Carter led the Matadors in scoring during his All-American junior season in 1964-65. Carter averaged 21.8 points per game along with 7.5 rebounds as he received All-CCAA First Team honors. He also knocked down 182 free throws on the season, the most in team history.

Carter still owns one of the oldest Matador records with 47 points scored against Westmont College in 1966. His career scoring average of 21.8 points is the second-highest in CSUN history. He finished with 1,003 career points in just two seasons with CSUN.

PAUL MCCRACKEN, F, 1972

A two-time All-CCAA First Team selection, Paul McCracken led CSUN with 18.0 points per game and 12.0 rebounds per game in 1971-72. He pulled down 300 rebounds for the season as he was named CCAA Player of the Year. McCracken also helped the Matadors win a share of the CCAA title in 1972.

A Matador Hall of Famer, McCracken is the school's all-time leader in career rebounds per game (12.4) while he is second in rebounds in a season (330, 1970-71). He played three seasons in the NBA including two with the Houston Rockets from 1972-74.

GEORGE ROBNETT, F, 1974

George Robnett set a Matador record for single-season scoring average at 24.9 points in 1973-74, which stood for 46 years. Robnett also made the second-most field goals (267) and scored the fifth-most points (623) in a season in team history. He received All-CCAA First Team accolades as well as a Honorable Mention from the United Press International All-Pacific Coast.
