STREAMING LIVE

The Big South Conference and ESPN reached a seven-year extension to its media rights deal in July 2018 that will see close to 1,000 annual conference events carried on ESPN networks -- including a minimum 900 events each year on ESPN+, the first multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company Direct-to-Consumer & International segment and ESPN. The agreement runs through 2024-25, 34 years since the longstanding relationship began in 1991.

The comprehensive deal makes ESPN+ the exclusive streaming home of Big South Network productions and features exclusive regular-season and Big South Championship broadcasts, including football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, women's volleyball and lacrosse, baseball, and softball.

Under the arrangement, the Big South men's basketball championship game will air on ESPN or ESPN2 for the sixth consecutive year in 2022, while ESPNU will televise eight events per season -- six of which will be "Wildcard" men's basketball games. Additional linear opportunities are included -- and will feature the women's basketball championship broadcast nationally on ESPNU for the first time in Big South history this March. The Big South will maintain its exposure on ESPN3.

The Big South Conference joined the comprehensive ESPN+ lineup, which include hundreds of MLB, NHL and MLS games, thousands of college events, Grand Slam tennis, Top Rank boxing, PGA Tour golf, international rugby, cricket, original shows and series, the full library of 30 for 30 films, and more. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ for just $5.99 a month or $49.99 per year.

The Big South Conference once again will have exclusive regular-season basketball broadcasts on ESPN3 in 2021-22 as well as coverage of every game of the men's and women's basketball tournaments on an ESPN platform for the fourth consecutive year. The telecasts will be among the more than 470 total broadcasts Big South men's and women's basketball programs will appear on this season.

Six men's basketball league matchups and six women's basketball conference contests will comprise the annual exclusive ESPN3 "Game of the Week" package beginning in January. An additional six men's conference games will be televised on ESPNU, while all remaining home Big South contests will be carried on ESPN+.

In addition to the Big South's ESPN3 "Game of the Week" slate, a new arrangement with Big South Corporate Partner INGLES will feature 12 ESPN+ games broadcast locally and regionally on Nexstar Network's over-the-stations throughout the Big South footprint.

The 2021-22 television package and complete ESPNU "Wildcard" game times and match-ups will be announced later in November.

BIG SOUTH NETWORK STUDIO

The Big South Conference unveiled its new Big South Network Studio in July 2018 as part of an eight-month renovation and expansion of the league's headquarters office in Charlotte, N.C. The studio provides new video content opportunities for the conference and its membership, as well as eventual live show capabilities that are part of enhanced efforts to showcase the league's student-athletes and athletics programs.

The space features three functioning areas -- a main interview set, a smaller one-on-one interview set, and a green-screen set. The Big South Conference worked with Atlanta-based dB Integrations (project lead) and Artes, LLC (set designer) on the project. Planned programming within the new Big South Network Studio includes:

- One-on-one interviews and evergreen content with coaches and student-athletes;
- Breaking news announcements;
- Special sport and television schedule unveils;
- Game day and Championship previews;
- Interviews with influential leaders in college athletics and in the community;
- Interviews with Big South alumni;
- Social media updates from around the Big South;
- Community service reports

Future efforts will focus on special guest analysis, halftime segments for Big South Network productions on ESPN+, Player of the Week and postseason award announcements, sport-by-sport notebooks, and live studio programs -- including pregame shows as well as Football and Basketball Media Day, among others.

"The development of the Big South Network studio is part of a long-range vision to present the Conference, its members and student-athletes in the most creative and progressive manner possible," stated Big South Commissioner KYLE KALLANDER. "As they say, 'Content is King', and with this studio the Big South will be able to maximize the distribution of our compelling content through programming in our new partnership with ESPN, and on digital and social media platforms."

THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

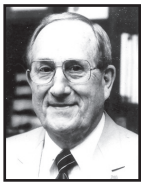

Founded in 1983, the Big South Conference has been an exemplary leader in college athletics, dedicated to developing student-athletes through the pursuit of excellence in the classroom, community and field of play. The league's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is made evident by its multitude of athletic accomplishments, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages and most importantly, its commitment to fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of its student-athletes. Comprised of 12 member institutions sharing a common geographic region and similar academic values and purposes, the Big South's remarkable history of achievement is characterized by the league's 19 championship sports and the profound academic and life successes of its nearly 4,200 student-athletes. This has evolved into the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra as part of a strategic emphasis on becoming the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast through its six Core Values of Academic Centrality; Athletic Excellence; Equity, Diversity & Inclusion; Integrity; Sportsmanship & Fair Play; and Student-Athlete Welfare.

The Big South Conference has experienced numerous athletic and academic accomplishments in its 38-year history, including the following since 2000:

On April 24, 1983, Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL and Augusta President GEORGE CHRISTENBERRY began recruiting members into the fledgling league, and less than four months later on August 21, the Big South Conference was formed when Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop committed to the new conference. One month later, DR. EDWARD M. SINGLETON was selected as the league's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the league received its first automatic bid -- an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the league's third Commissioner, and in his quarter-century at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the conference to unprecedented heights. During his tenure, men's and women's indoor track & field (1997), football (2002) and women's lacrosse (2013) were added as sponsored sports. The conference has also enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue, in addition to extensive television coverage for women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse for the first time. The league as a whole has enjoyed increased national television exposure through aggressive and unique television packages. Conference membership has solidified with the recent additions of Hampton University and USC Upstate in 2019, North Carolina A&T State University in 2021-22, plus High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College and Longwood, as well as the return of charter member Campbell University. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 850 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have allowed these productions to reach linear television quality, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander has also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016, along with programs and services to address racial inequality and social injustice.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the league's vision as a distinctive athletic conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. An updated strategic plan was launched in 2015 with the objective to transform the Big South Conference into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast. Five primary areas of focus were established: basketball success, media exposure, academic centrality, student-athlete experience and messaging/branding. In 2017, the league overhauled its identity with the most comprehensive rebrand in the 33-year history of the Big South Conference.

The rebrand included a new brand identity featuring a more favorable and distinctive color scheme, the introduction of a secondary logo and an extensive advertising campaign to enliven the conference's distinct values, its roots in the Southeast region of the United States and its vision for the future. The foundation of the rebrand was built from the conference's Live, Love and Life pillars, which are externally expressed through the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra. Crafted in collaboration with conference leadership and student-athletes, the tagline (and corresponding #BigSouthMade hashtag) embodies and affirms the Big South's commitment to developing student-athletes for profound success through Division I collegiate athletics and transformative academics to achieve their full potential as students, athletes and citizens.

The Eagles' 21-game win streak was the second-longest in Big South history and one short of matching the league record.

MARCH 14, 2021 - High Point defeats Campbell, 62-46, to win its first-ever Big South Women's Basketball Championship. The Panthers are just the sixth different member to win the women's title in the 35 years of the conference tournament event.

MAY 26, 2021 – The Big South Conference awards the Singleton Leadership Award to the Athletic Training Staffs of its member institutions for the group's dedicated work during the challenging 2020-21 year impacted by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. It marks just the second time the award has been presented since its creation in 2008.

BIG SOUTH COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 26th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2021-22, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced digital presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, brought football to the Big South in 2002 as well as women's lacrosse in 2012-13 -- with both sports enjoying national success within five years of existence. He embarked on an updated strategy in 2015 to transform the Big South into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast and spearheaded the most comprehensive rebranding of the league's identity in 2017.

He has solidified membership to double-digit totals for 13 consecutive years with the additions of Hampton, High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College, Longwood and USC Upstate -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University in 2011 -- plus the addition of North Carolina A&T State University in 2021-22. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 900 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have elevated these productions to "TV-ready" levels, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander has also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016, and has emphasized diversity within the conference with the creation of Big South "Connection" networking events in 2017 and 2019.

He also directed the Conference's current initiatives to address racial inequality and social injustice that exists nationally. The league has developed an official position campaign on anti-racism measures -- S.O.U.T.H, which stands for Support, Opportunities, Unity, Transparency, Honest conversation, as well as the creation of a task force to address racial matters, and ongoing programs to support and engaged these important issues. Kallander also developed an Equity Study Committee to continually monitor and evaluate Big South Conference operations to identify any issues that should be addressed from an equity perspective, and to make recommendations to the governance structure to remedy any shortcomings.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the league's history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South:

- Has had one team National Champion (baseball);
- Has had six individual National Champions;
- Had a Big South member ranked No. 1 in the national polls in 2014 and 2015 (football);
- Has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball, baseball and women's lacrosse;
- Started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years and eventually gaining an automatic bid;
- Had two teams reach the FCS playoffs in the same year five times, and advancing in the playoffs seven consecutive years;
- Had a team advance to the FCS quarterfinals five times (2013, 2014, 2015, 2017 and 2018);
- Has had three teams qualify for NCAA competition in the same sport in the same year (men's soccer and men's golf);
- Had its first at-large NCAA Tournament selection in volleyball (2017), and first NCAA Volleyball Tournament victory (Spring 2021)
- Has had a softball team reach the Regional Championship game five times;
- Had a women's golf team advance to the NCAA Championship three times in a six-year span;
- Has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals nine times;
- Had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation;
- Had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win among four overall victories;
- Has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional;
- Had a doubles team advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Women's Doubles Championship;
- Had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship;
- Had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country, and men's tennis;
- Had a league-record 42 student-athletes earn All-America distinction in 2011-12;
- Has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball, baseball, women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse televised for the first time;
- Had a Big South-record 13 student-athletes achieve Academic All-America status in 2003-04 and 2013-14;
- Has seen year-to-year record APR Recognition Awards and Graduation Success Rates
- Had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year;
- Saw seven programs receive at-large NCAA postseason berths in 2012-13;
- Live video streaming of conference events to elevate the league's exposure to new audiences via new integrated digital platforms, including ESPN+;
- Expansion and renovation of current conference headquarters that includes the new Big South Network production studio

The conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. For the last seven years, more than 55 percent of the league's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average -- including a record 64.83 percent in 2019-20, while several student-athletes have been recipients of various Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among league members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South has been providing a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies to one male and one female graduating student-athlete for more than a decade.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He was named to the NCAA Football Competition Committee in July 2020, and previously served on the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and NCAA Division I Baseball Committee -- including Chair for the 2011-12 season. He also a member on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, which examined the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, was a member of the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics, and was twice a Vice President of the Collegiate Commissioners Association (CCA) from 2001-03 and 2011-12.

To this day, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with ESPN and its various networks. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes, and coupled with the Big South Network, the league's exposure is seen by a worldwide audience. Kallander successfully negotiated a seven-year TV deal extension with ESPN through 2025, which has expanded the number of Big South events on ESPN platforms. The agreement includes a minimum six events per season on ESPNU – a majority of which are primetime men's basketball telecasts, as well as the league's Baseball Championship game.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival, a partnership with member institutions that enables the conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. The Big South Business Group (BSBG) was also created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explored ways that members can benefit through working together and with conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the league's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues throughout his tenure, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level. On the field, the conference has added four Championship sports under Kallander -- men's and women's indoor track & field, football and women's lacrosse.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest for the 1995-96 football and basketball seasons. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

He began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he served as Director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as Director of Compliance, before joining the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two sons, Stefan, and Tristan.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE HALL OF FAME

The Big South Conference Hall of Fame was formed as part of the League's 20th anniversary celebration in 2003-04. Each year the Conference will induct up to eight (8) individuals into the Hall of Fame. The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the office headquarters in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical images and artwork of the league's accomplishments and achievements over the years as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings. The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 73 members -- including 16 former basketball student-athletes and five head basketball coaches. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign, nor in 2020 and 2021 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

MEN'S BASKETBALL NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Big South Conference first secured an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship in 1992, and has sent its postseason tournament champion to the Big Dance every year since, with the exception of 1995. The first Big South member to advance to the Tournament was Coastal Carolina in 1991, when the Chanticleers defeated Jackson State in a play-in game to earn its Tournament berth. In 1992, charter member Campbell earned the league's first automatic bid. The 2006-07 Winthrop Eagles earned the highest seed ever bestowed upon a Big South school as a No. 11 seed.

UNC Asheville was the first Big South program to win a men's tournament game with its Opening Round victory vs. Texas Southern in 2003. Winthrop became the first member to advance to the NCAA Tournament Second Round with its resounding 74-64 win over Notre Dame in 2007. Below is a look at the league's annual NCAA Tournament pairings.

As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the Conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the Conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total. Men's Basketball All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must be a college graduate or in good academic standing with their respective institution; 5) Won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year; and 6) Players of the Year, Tournament MVPs and First-Team All-Conference honorees were among the candidate pool for the 1985-89 All-Decade Teams. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Member institutions also had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches. The next Men's Basketball All-Decade Team will cover 2020-29.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Big South Conference's first member institution to advance to the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament was Big South champion Radford in 1994, its first of three consecutive appearances in the Big Dance. Liberty earned a Big South-record 10 consecutive Tournament berths from 1997-2006. The Radford Highlanders earned the league's highest seed ever in 1995 as a No. 11 seed in the East Region. In addition, Liberty received its highest seed ever in 2008 as a No. 12 seed in the Tournament, and in 2005, became the first Big South basketball program -- men's or women's -- to reach the "Sweet Sixteen" in the NCAA Basketball Championship.

Meanwhile, the Big South has advanced to the WNIT 13 times in its history. In fact, the conference had a record four teams qualify for the postseason twice in a three-year span (2017 & 2019). Below is a look at the Big South's annual pairings in the NCAA Tournament, with results in the WNIT and Women's Basketball Invitational on the next page.

As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the Conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the Conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total. Women's Basketball All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must be a college graduate or in good academic standing with their respective institution; 5) Won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year; and 6) Players of the Year, Tournament MVPs and First-Team All-Conference honorees were among the candidate pool for the 1986-89 All-Decade Teams. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Member institutions also had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches. The next Women's Basketball All-Decade Team will cover 2020-29.
