The Big South Conference and ESPN reached a seven-year extension to its media rights deal in July 2018 that will see close to 1,000 annual conference events carried on ESPN networks -- including a minimum 900 events each year on ESPN+, the first multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company Direct-to-Consumer & International segment and ESPN.. The agreement runs through 2024-25, 34 years since the longstanding relationship began in 1991.

The comprehensive deal makes ESPN+ the exclusive streaming home of Big South Network productions and features exclusive regular-season and Big South Championship broadcasts, including football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, women's volleyball and lacrosse, baseball, and softball.

Under the arrangement, the Big South men's basketball championship game will air on ESPN for the sixth consecutive year in 2022, while ESPNU will televise at least six events per season. Additional linear opportunities are included, and the Big South will maintain its exposure on ESPN3.

The Big South Conference joined the comprehensive ESPN+ lineup, which include hundreds of MLB, NHL and MLS games, thousands of college events, Grand Slam tennis, Top Rank boxing, PGA Tour golf, international rugby, cricket, original shows and series, the full library of 30 for 30 films, and more. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ for just $5.99 a month or $49.99 per year.

BIG SOUTH NETWORK STUDIO

The Big South Conference unveiled its new Big South Network Studio in July 2018 as part of an eight-month renovation and expansion of the league's headquarters office in Charlotte, N.C. The studio provides new video content opportunities for the conference and its membership, as well as eventual live show capabilities that are part of enhanced efforts to showcase the league's student-athletes and athletics programs.

The space features three functioning areas -- a main interview set, a smaller one-on-one interview set, and a green-screen set. The Big South Conference worked with Atlanta-based dB Integrations (project lead) and Artes, LLC (set designer) on the project. Planned programming within the new Big South Network Studio includes:

- One-on-one interviews and evergreen content with coaches and student-athletes;
- Breaking news announcements;
- Special sport and television schedule unveils;
- Game day and Championship previews;
- Interviews with influential leaders in college athletics and in the community;
- Interviews with Big South alumni;
- Social media updates from around the Big South;
- Community service reports

Future efforts will focus on special guest analysis, halftime segments for Big South Network productions on ESPN+, Player of the Week and postseason award announcements, sport-by-sport notebooks, and live studio programs

-- including pregame shows as well as Football and Basketball Media Day, among others.

"The development of the Big South Network studio is part of a long-range vision to present the Conference, its members and student-athletes in the most creative and progressive manner possible," stated Big South Commissioner KYLE KALLANDER. "As they say, 'Content is King', and with this studio the Big South will be able to maximize the distribution of our compelling content through programming in our new partnership with ESPN, and on digital and social media platforms."

THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

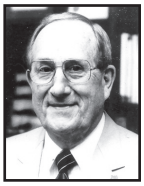

Founded in 1983, the Big South Conference has been an exemplary leader in college athletics, dedicated to developing student-athletes through the pursuit of excellence in the classroom, community and field of play. The league's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is made evident by its multitude of athletic accomplishments, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages and most importantly, its commitment to fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of its student-athletes. Comprised of 12 member institutions sharing a common geographic region and similar academic values and purposes, the Big South's remarkable history of achievement is characterized by the league's 19 championship sports and the profound academic and life successes of its nearly 4,200 student-athletes. This has evolved into the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra as part of a strategic emphasis on becoming the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast through its six Core Values of Academic Centrality; Athletic Excellence; Equity, Diversity & Inclusion; Integrity; Sportsmanship & Fair Play; and Student-Athlete Welfare.

On April 24, 1983, Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL and Augusta President GEORGE CHRISTENBERRY began recruiting members into the fledgling league, and less than four months later on August 21, the Big South Conference was formed when Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop committed to the new conference. One month later, DR. EDWARD M. SINGLETON was selected as the league's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the league received its first automatic bid -- an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the league's third Commissioner, and in his quarter-century at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the conference to unprecedented heights. During his tenure, men's and women's indoor track & field (1997), football (2002) and women's lacrosse (2013) were added as sponsored sports. The conference has also enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue, in addition to extensive television coverage for women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse for the first time. The league as a whole has enjoyed increased national television exposure through aggressive and unique television packages. Conference membership has solidified with the recent additions of Hampton University and USC Upstate in 2019, North Carolina A&T State University in 2021-22, plus High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College and Longwood, as well as the return of charter member Campbell University. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 850 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have allowed these productions to reach linear television quality, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander has also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016, along with programs and services to address racial inequality and social injustice.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the league's vision as a distinctive athletic conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. An updated strategic plan was launched in 2015 with the objective to transform the Big South Conference into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast. Five primary areas of focus were established: basketball success, media exposure, academic centrality, student-athlete experience and messaging/branding. In 2017, the league overhauled its identity with the most comprehensive rebrand in the 33-year history of the Big South Conference.

The rebrand included a new brand identity featuring a more favorable and distinctive color scheme, the introduction of a secondary logo and an extensive advertising campaign to enliven the conference's distinct values, its roots in the Southeast region of the United States and its vision for the future. The foundation of the rebrand was built from the conference's Live, Love and Life pillars, which are externally expressed through the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra. Crafted in collaboration with conference leadership and student-athletes, the tagline (and corresponding #BigSouthMade hashtag) embodies and affirms the Big South's commitment to developing student-athletes for profound success through Division I collegiate athletics and transformative academics to achieve their full potential as students, athletes and citizens.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE FOOTBALL HISTORY

For 20 years, Big South Conference football has grown from a small start-up league into a national player in the FCS landscape, and has enjoyed a decade of remarkable and historic achievements since becoming an AQ conference in 2010, including:

• Five appearances in the FCS quarterfinals in a six-season span from 2013-18

• The No. 1-ranked FCS program in the nation in 2014 and 2015

• Three National Seeds in the FCS Playoffs

• Multiple playoff teams five times

• Eight seasons with a playoff victory since 2010

• Six FBS victories

• 113-82 record (=57.9 percent) against non-conference FCS opponents since 2013

• Jerry Rice National Freshman of the Year award winner (2017) and twice runner-up for the Walter Payton National Player of the Year award (2012 & 2018)

• Three teams ranked in the national Top 25 polls in the same week twice (2014 and 2015)

• 83 consecutive weeks with a nationally-ranked member from Week 9 of 2011 to Week 6 of 2017

• Multiple nationally-ranked programs in the same week 53 times since 2013, including two Top 10 teams for the first time in 2015

• Six seasons with an NFL Draft pick, including league-record three selections in 2014

The growth of Big South football has been exceptional since its inception 20 seasons ago -- and especially in the last decade alone. The formidable years of 2002-05 with just five members featured historic feats -- including the league's first win over the nation's No. 1 team in 2005 -- that set the tone for the future. The Big South's first true breakthrough onto the national scene occurred in 2006 when league champion Coastal Carolina became the first member to advance to the postseason when the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in the 16-team NCAA Division I Football Championship.

At that same time, the league progressed closer to cementing its status as a viable football conference as well as the coveted automatic bid to the NCAA postseason. Big South administrators earned appointments to national NCAA committees starting in 2006, membership growth in 2008 (Presbyterian College and Stony Brook) vaulted the league above the six-team requirement for automatic playoff entry, plus consistent nationally-ranked programs, notable non-conference victories, national award finalists and the league's first-ever NFL Draft picks (2007 and 2008) accelerated the conference's national profile. All the successes and efforts came to fruition in the spring of 2008 when the NCAA announced the expansion of the FCS Playoffs from 16 to 20 teams in 2010, and granted the Big South an automatic bid starting that year -- boosting the conference into a new stratosphere

Big South Conference football came into existence in the Fall of 2002 after a long and arduous process. Football had always been a long range goal of the conference. In the early 1990s, football seemed on the horizon in the Big South, as Charleston Southern fielded its first team in 1991 and the conference added Liberty, which was already playing on the gridiron. However, football never got off the ground in the early part of the decade as other issues came to the forefront, including the Big South's emergence as a basketball conference. The league was awarded its first automatic bid to the NCAA men's basketball championship in 1992 and football was put on the back burner while basketball began to flourish.

The idea was revived in 1997 when Elon joined the Big South. That gave the conference three full-time members with football programs -- half the number needed to be recognized as a conference by the NCAA. Two years later on Nov. 10, 1999, Coastal Carolina announced it would add football by the Fall of 2003. The wheels were set in motion to establish a conference home for the league's football-playing members.

After attempts to form a joint football conference with the ASUN Conference failed, the Big South began recruiting more members to join its fledgling football league. On May 23, 2001, the original dream became a reality when the Big South's Council of Chief Executive Officers voted unanimously to add football as the conference's 18th championship sport.

Shortly after the approval of football, the Big South's recruiting efforts paid off, as the addition of Gardner-Webb as an associate football member was announced on June 20, 2001. There were hopes that a four-team league could begin play later that Fall, but scheduling conflicts could not be worked out and the Fall of 2002 was designated as the inaugural kickoff for Big South Football. The Big South continued to look for additional members, with a goal of eventually having seven or eight. On Dec. 10, 2001, Virginia Military Institute, announced it would join the Big South in all sports in 2003 and maintain the conference's football membership at five following Elon's departure.

Playoff success was immediate and propelled the conference to new heights -- notably an 18-point comeback win in 2011, three consecutive FCS Quarterfinal appearances from 2013-15, two national seeds (2014-15), as well as the league's first No. 1 nationally-ranked program. While the inevitable trickle-down impact of conference realignment and other factors reached the Big South with the departures of Stony Brook, VMI, and Presbyterian, as well as Coastal Carolina and Liberty moving to FBS, the Big South remained prosperous. During this time, the league added Monmouth (2014), Kennesaw State (2015), Campbell (2018) and North Alabama (2019). Further expansion brought Hampton into the league in 2019, and in a four-month span in 2020, Big South Football announced the additions of North Carolina A&T (February) and Robert Morris (June) -- pushing the conference to an all-time high nine-playing members in this, the conference's 20th season of football sponsorship.

BIG SOUTH COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 26th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2021-22, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced digital presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, brought football to the Big South in 2002 as well as women's lacrosse in 2012-13 -- with both sports enjoying national success within five years of existence. He embarked on an updated strategy in 2015 to transform the Big South into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast and spearheaded the most comprehensive rebranding of the league's identity in 2017.

He has solidified membership to double-digit totals for 13 consecutive years with the additions of Hampton, High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College, Longwood and USC Upstate -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University in 2011 -- plus the addition of North Carolina A&T State University in 2021-22. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 900 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have elevated these productions to "TV-ready" levels, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander has also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016, and has emphasized diversity within the conference with the creation of Big South "Connection" networking events in 2017 and 2019.

He also directed the Conference's current initiatives to address racial inequality and social injustice that exists nationally. The league has developed an official position campaign on anti-racism measures -- S.O.U.T.H, which stands for Support, Opportunities, Unity, Transparency, Honest conversation, as well as the creation of a task force to address racial matters, and ongoing programs to support and engaged these important issues. Kallander also developed an Equity Study Committee to continually monitor and evaluate Big South Conference operations to identify any issues that should be addressed from an equity perspective, and to make recommendations to the governance structure to remedy any shortcomings.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the league's history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South:

- Has had one team National Champion (baseball);
- Has had six individual National Champions;
- Had a Big South member ranked No. 1 in the national polls in 2014 and 2015 (football);
- Has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball, baseball and women's lacrosse;
- Started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years and eventually gaining an automatic bid;
- Had two teams reach the FCS playoffs in the same year five times, and advancing in the playoffs seven consecutive years;
- Had a team advance to the FCS quarterfinals five times (2013, 2014, 2015, 2017 and 2018);
- Has had three teams qualify for NCAA competition in the same sport in the same year (men's soccer and men's golf);
- Had its first at-large NCAA Tournament selection in volleyball (2017), and first NCAA Volleyball Tournament victory (Spring 2021)
- Has had a softball team reach the Regional Championship game five times;
- Had a women's golf team advance to the NCAA Championship three times in a six-year span;
- Has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals nine times;
- Had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation;
- Had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win among four overall victories;
- Has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional;
- Had a doubles team advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Women's Doubles Championship;
- Had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship;
- Had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country, and men's tennis;
- Had a league-record 42 student-athletes earn All-America distinction in 2011-12;
- Has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball, baseball, women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse televised for the first time;
- Had a Big South-record 13 student-athletes achieve Academic All-America status in 2003-04 and 2013-14;
- Has seen year-to-year record APR Recognition Awards and Graduation Success Rates
- Had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year;
- Saw seven programs receive at-large NCAA postseason berths in 2012-13;
- Live video streaming of conference events to elevate the league's exposure to new audiences via new integrated digital platforms, including ESPN+;
- Expansion and renovation of current conference headquarters that includes the new Big South Network production studio

The conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. For the last seven years, more than 55 percent of the league's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average -- including a record 64.83 percent in 2019-20, while several student-athletes have been recipients of various Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among league members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South has been providing a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies to one male and one female graduating student-athlete for more than a decade.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He was named to the NCAA Football Competition Committee in July 2020, and previously served on the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and NCAA Division I Baseball Committee -- including Chair for the 2011-12 season. He also a member on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, which examined the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, was a member of the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics, and was twice a Vice President of the Collegiate Commissioners Association (CCA) from 2001-03 and 2011-12.

To this day, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with ESPN and its various networks. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes, and coupled with the Big South Network, the league's exposure is seen by a worldwide audience. Kallander successfully negotiated a seven-year TV deal extension with ESPN through 2025, which has expanded the number of Big South events on ESPN platforms. The agreement includes a minimum six events per season on ESPNU – a majority of which are primetime men's basketball telecasts, as well as the league's Baseball Championship game.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival, a partnership with member institutions that enables the conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. The Big South Business Group (BSBG) was also created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explored ways that members can benefit through working together and with conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the league's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues throughout his tenure, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level. On the field, the conference has added four Championship sports under Kallander -- men's and women's indoor track & field, football and women's lacrosse.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest for the 1995-96 football and basketball seasons. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

He began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he served as Director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as Director of Compliance, before joining the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two sons, Stefan, and Tristan.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE HALL OF FAME

The Big South Conference Hall of Fame was formed as part of the League's 20th anniversary celebration in 2003-04. Each year the Conference will induct up to eight (8) individuals into the Hall of Fame. The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the office headquarters in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical images and artwork of the league's accomplishments and achievements over the years as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings. The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 73 members -- including the first two Football inductees in a three-year span from 2017-19. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign, nor in 2020 and 2021 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

BIG SOUTH MEMBER IN ALL CAPS
* – Big South Conference game
All Times ET and subject to change
Schedule as of August 16, 2021

BIG SOUTH HAS LARGEST MEMBERSHIP IN 20TH SEASON
The Big South is celebrating its 20th season of sponsoring football in 2021, and the league membership is at an all-time high of nine members. New Big South full member NORTH CAROLINA A&T begins its affiliation this fall, while associate member ROBERT MORRIS will play its first full Big South schedule this season after competing during the league's abbreviated 2021 Spring campaign.

ROLL CALL
The 2021 season will mark the final year for associate members Kennesaw State and North Alabama, as both schools will move to its home conference (ASUN) in 2022, as the ASUN begins football sponsorship next year. Below is the Big South's current football lineup for this year and next:

2021 - 9	2022 - 7
Campbell	Campbell
Charleston Southern	Charleston Southern
Gardner-Webb	Gardner-Webb
Hampton	Hampton
Kennesaw State	Monmouth
Monmouth	North Carolina A&T
North Alabama	Robert Morris
North Carolina A&T
Robert Morris

MONMOUTH LANDS TOP PRESEASON SPOT
For the second consecutive poll, Monmouth is the outright favorite in the Big South preseason football rankings, as the two-time defending conference champion claimed the top spot in the 2021 preseason ratings as voted by the league's head coaches and media panel. The Hawks received 16 of the 18 first-place votes, and carry a 10-game Big South win streak into the season. Monmouth was the preseason pick during the league's abbreviated 2021 Spring season.

NEW KIDS IN TOWN
New Big South member North Carolina A&T brings a successful pedigree into the league, as the Aggies won four out of the last five MEAC Championships prior to 2020. In addition, NCA&T also won four out of the five Celebration Bowls ever played from 2015-19, including the last three. In doing so, the Aggies won four black college national championships.

EYE ON THE PRESEASON NATIONAL POLLS
For the first time in Big South history, the league has three teams ranked in one of the two national Preseason Top 25 polls. The Stats Perform Preseason Top 25 ranking has MONMOUTH (13th), KENNESAW STATE (19th) and new member NORTH CAROLINA A&T (25th) rated among the top programs in the country. Meanwhile, Kennesaw State's appearance marks the Owls 46th consecutive week as a nationally-ranked program -- breaking the Big South record for most consecutive weeks ranked in the Top 25 by one school. Former member Coastal Carolina held the previous record of 45 weeks. The 2021 Preseason Top 25 rankings gives the Big South a Top 25 program in 129 of the last 133 polling weeks -- including a streak of 83 consecutive weeks from Oct. 24, 2011 to Oct. 1, 2017. The Big South's current streak is at 46 consecutive weeks.

NORTH ALABAMA TO COUNT AS CONFERENCE FOE IN 2021
Associate member NORTH ALABAMA will now be an official conference opponent and will count in the Big South standings in 2021. The Lions remain ineligible for the league championship and FCS Playoffs this coming season as part of their final year of transitioning to Division I. The inclusion of UNA allows the remaining eight members -- Campbell, Charleston Southern, Gardner-Webb, Hampton, Kennesaw State, Monmouth, North Carolina A&T and Robert Morris -- to have seven countable conference games, marking the league's first-ever 7-game Big South schedule. North Alabama's game against Robert Morris will remain a non-conference contest, as the Colonials were already scheduled against the seven other teams. UNA will play a 6-game Big South schedule this fall.

BIG SOUTH POLICY ON COVID-RELATED IMPACTS ON 2021 SCHEDULE
The Big South Football Directors of Athletics have voted to declare a contest that is not completed due to COVID-related reasons a 'forfeit' by the institution responsible for the cancellation.

MONMOUTH'S FARRI VOTED PRESEASON OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Monmouth redshirt-junior RB JUWON FARRI was voted the Big South's 2021 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. Farri was the league's Offensive Player of the Year for the 2021 Spring season. He was a three-time Big South Offensive Player of the Week honoree last spring in which he ranked first in the nation in scoring with 15.0 points scored, as well as first in the Big South with 10 touchdowns. Farris rushed for a league-best 520 yards on 104 carries (5.0 per carry) and averaged 130.0 yards per game, which ranked second in all of FCS. He gained a season-high 179 yards against Kennesaw State, rushed for 124 at Gardner-Webb, and opened the year with 119 yards vs. Charleston Southern. Farri tallied multiple rushing TDs in all three regular-season games, highlighted by four against GWU, and had three scoring runs of 20+ yards. The 2018 Big South Offensive Freshman of the Year, Farri has scored a rushing touchdown in his last six appearances (dating back to 2018), and has scored a TD in 10 of his 15 career games.

MONMOUTH'S BUDD VOTED PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Monmouth redshirt-senior defensive back ANTHONY BUDD was tabbed the Big South's Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. The first Monmouth player to win the preseason defensive award, Budd is the first Big South defensive back to earn the top preseason honor since 2012. He has been the league's interception leader the past two seasons (5 in 2019, 2 in 2020-21) while earning First-Team All-Conference honors both years. He was the Hawks' third-leading tackler in the spring season with 26 stops (14 solo) and had three pass break-ups in addition to his two picks. Budd recorded two tackles-for-loss, registered a career-high 11 tackles and an interception in a win over Gardner-Webb, and helped Monmouth's rush defense finish 13th in the nation, fifth in turnover margin and first in sacks.

NEW TV PACKAGE TO DEBUT IN 2021
New Big South Corporate Partner INGLES is sponsoring a new regional television "Game of the Week" package in 2021. The "Official Grocery of the Big South" is partnering with the Nexstar Networks to simulcast eight school-based ESPN+ productions during the upcoming season, with distrubution throughout the Big South footprint. Local affiliates will be made available weekly. See page 3 for this year's broadcast schedule.

SEPTEMBER
For just the second time in conference history, a Big South game will be played in September, as Charleston Southern hosts defending champion Monmouth in the first league game of the season on Saturday, Sept. 18. It will be the earliest Big South contest in conference annals, as the previous earliest game was Sept. 24, 2016. That game also featured the Bucs and the Hawks, as CSU defeated MU, 35-7, that day in West Long Branch.

PULLING RANK
The Big South is 16-21 all-time when a ranked member faces a nationally-ranked non-conference opponent -- including 7-6 in regular-season contests. Of those 21 defeats, 13 have been by a touchdown-or-less. In 2018, the No. 2/2 Kennesaw State-No. 5/5 South Dakota State FCS quarterfinal tilt was the Big South's first head-to-head meeting against a fellow Top 5 program.

IT'S BO TIME
Kennesaw State head coach BRIAN BOHANNON became the fastest coach in Big South history to reach 50 career wins on March 13, 2021, as he claimed the milestone victory with the Owls' 24-19 win over Charleston Southern. It was Bohannon's 65th game on the sideline, which broke the old record of 78 games (Coastal Carolina's DAVID BENNETT). Meanwhile, Bohannon enters this season with 52 career victories -- three away from moving into second-place in Big South history (54 - Gardner-Webb's STEVE PATTON) and 11 wins shy of tying Bennett's league-record total of 63 wins.

SAM I AM
North Carolina A&T head coach SAM WASHINGTON is 2-0 against current Big South football members. In his first season of 2018, the Aggies hosted and defeated Gardner-Webb, 45-6. In 2019, A&T won at Charleston Southern, 27-21.

POINT OF ORDER
Kennesaw State holds the Big South's longest active scoring streak at 68 games -- the second-longest overall string in league annals. The league record is 144. Monmouth is just behind the Owls at 66 games. Meanwhile, Kennesaw State owns the league's longest active streak for double-figure scoring games at 46, which is the third-longest such streak in Big South history.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2020-21 SEASON
On Aug. 12, 2020, the Big South Conference announced that with the health and well-being of its student-athletes as its top priority, the league was delaying its fall sports seasons with the intent of playing in the spring due to the ongoing impacts of the coronavirus pandemic. The Big South Football Membership voted to allow up to four non-conference games in the fall at institutional discretion, and CAMPBELL and NORTH ALABAMA competed in the fall 2020 season. On Nov. 9, the conference released plans to conduct a spring 2021 season, in accordance with the Conference's and NCAA's Return to Competition COVID-19 Guidelines to ensure the safety of all participants. CHARLESTON SOUTHERN, GARDNER-WEBB, KENNESAW STATE, MONMOUTH and new associate member ROBERT MORRIS committed to play a four-game Big South slate in the spring. Campbell and North Alabama opted out of the spring season, while HAMPTON had suspended all sport activities the previous July and would not play football in the spring. While the league endured several postponements and eventual cancellations during the spring, it was still able to play the minimum games to crown a champion and participate in the FCS Playoffs. Monmouth took home the title and narrowly lost to eventual National Champion Sam Houston in the First Round.

CALLAHAN ON THE CUSP OF TURNING 50
Monmouth head coach KEVIN CALLAHAN is sixth all-time in Big South history with 46 wins during his time in the conference, and needs four to become the fourth with 50 victories. If the Hawks open the campaign 4-0, he will tie the Big South record for second-fastest to 50 wins (78 games).

RECORD RUN
Gardner-Webb RB NARII GAITHER recorded the longest rush from scrimmage in Big South history during the 2021 Spring season when he scampered 96 yards for a touchdown against Presbyterian on March 6. The old record was 93 yards, set by Monmouth's PETE GUERRIERO in the Hawks' FCS Second Round game at James Madison on Dec. 7, 2019. Gaither's run was just the third 90+ yard rush in Big South annals.

RUSHING QUARTERBACKS
Campbell QB HAJJ-MALIK WILLIAMS and Charleston Southern QB JACK CHAMBERS are on the cusp of a rushing milestone this season, as both are on track to eclipse 1,000 career rushing yards. A total of 12 Big South quarterbacks have rushed for more than 1,000 yards in a career, and Williams (880) and Chambers (844) are looking to add their names to the list. Williams owns a career rushing yard per game average of 58.7, while Chambers has averaged 46.8 rushing yards in 16 games since 2019.

RECEIVING QUARTERBACK
Campbell QB HAJJ-MALIK WILLIAMS has caught two touchdown passes in his career. As a freshman in 2019, he caught a 23-yard touchdown pass from WR CALEB SNEAD against Hampton. Last season as a sophomore, Williams hauled in a 26-yard grab from WR MASON DONALDSON at Wake Forest. Meanwhile, Williams has been responsible for 33 touchdowns in his career -- 20 passing and 13 rushing.

BUCCANEERS PACK THE SACK LUNCH
Charleston Southern set the Big South single-season record with 35 quarterback sacks in 2019, breaking its previous league mark of 34 set in 2017. CSU was second in the conference with 95 tackles-for-loss two seasons ago, and featured three players with at least a dozen stops behind the line of scrimmage -- NICK SALLEY (17.5), ANTON WILLIAMS (17.0) and SHAUNDRE MIMS (12.0). Mims led the Big South with 10.0 sacks in 2019, the second-most in a league campaign, while Williams and Salley were the first pair of teammates with at least 17.0 TFL. The trio returns this fall, and combined for 8.5 TFL in the abbreviated 2021 Spring season (Salley - 3.0, Williams - 3.0, Mims - 2.5).

KSU'S JONATHAN MURPHY COLLECTS RECORDS IN 2019 PLAYOFF WIN
In the 2019 FCS Playoffs at Wofford, Kennesaw State QB JONATHAN MURPHY set three Big South-playoff rushing records for a quarterback in the Owls' 28-21 first round win against the Terriers. He rushed for a QB-best 206 yards -- the second-most by a Big South quarterback in ANY game; scored a quarterback-record three rushing TDs (tied with Monmouth's PETE GUERRIERO for the most in a playoff game), and reeled off runs of 61, 40 and 35 against the Terriers -- the top three longest runs by a Big South signal-caller in a playoff contest. Murphy scored on the 61-yarder to mark the second-longest touchdown run in the league's playoff history.

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS
The nine Big South Conference football members have a total of 78 players on its collective rosters weighing at least 300 lbs. Monmouth has the most with 17, followed by Campbell and Hampton with 12 apiece, North Alabama and North Carolina A&T with 8 each, Charleston Southern and Gardner-Webb each have 7, Robert Morris at 4, and Kennesaw State with 3. In 2019, the Big South had 56 players at or above the 300-pound threshold among eight members.

TAKING FLIGHT
The Monmouth WR tandem of LONNIE MOORE IV (140) and TERRANCE GREENE JR. (104) are the lone active Big South players with 100 career receptions. Moore needs 60 grabs to become just the fifth player in league annals with 200. Greene averaged 5.8 receptions per game this past spring season. Meanwhile, Moore enters the season with 1,956 career receiving yards, and needs 184 to enter the Big South Top 10. Greene's career yardage total stands at 1,483, and he needs 517 for the 2,000-yard plateau.

FARRI AND AWAY
Monmouth redshirt-junior RB JUWON FARRI is the Big South's active-leading rusher with 1,544 career rushing yards. He is 456 away from becoming the 29th Big South player with 2,000 in a career and third Monmouth player on the list. Farri is tied for 11th in the conference record book with 9 games rushing for at least 100 yards, while his 6.35 career average yards per carry ranks sixth all-time for individuals with 200-399 rushing attempts.

WINNING STATE OF MIND
Kennesaw State is playing Jacksonville State in 2021, and the Owls are 9-6 all-time against fellow "State"-named schools -- including 2-0 against JSU. KSU's six losses to the "State" schools has been by an average of 5.2 points.

IT'S ACADEMIC
The Big South had five football student-athletes receive CoSIDA Academic All-District distinction for the 2020-21 season -- Campbell's LEVI WIGGINS, North Alabama teammates K.J. SMITH and JOE GURLEY, and Robert Morris teammates DYLAN YOUNG and ANIELLO BUZZACCO. Of those, Smith was voted a First-Team Academic All-American for the second-straight year.

ON BOARD
In March of 2021, Robert Morris University President CHRIS HOWARD was named to the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame. One of the very few university presidents to have played NCAA Division I football, Howard was a starting running back and three-year letterwinner for the United States Air Force Academy, from which he graduated in 1991. He was the inaugural recipient of the Campbell Trophy, the highest academic award presented to a senior college football player by the National Football Foundation. Howard is a member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame and has received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award and the Armed Forces Merit Award, which is given by the Football Writers Association of America. He is a member of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and served as one of 13 members of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee.

CHAMBERS BAY
Charleston Southern QB JACK CHAMBERS enters the 2021 campaign as the league's active-leading passer with 23 career touchdown passes and 3,269 career passing yards. He is also the top returning player in total offense with 4,113 career yards. Chambers has six career games with 300+ yards of offense, tied for ninth in Big South history.

BOND MARKET
Hampton WR JADAKIS BONDS finished second in the nation in 2019 with 15 touchdown receptions, which tied for the second-most in a single-season in Big South history and was one shy of matching the record of 16 established by Coastal Carolina's JEROME SIMPSON in 2006. Earlier in the 2019 season, Bonds set the Big South record with a TD catch in his first five games of the season, and averaged 28.8 yards on his TD catches that season, as 432 of his 943 receiving yards went for scores.

NCAA 2020 DIVISION I FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FRISCO, TX

ABOUT THE 2020-21 SEASON ...

On Aug. 12, 2020, the Big South Conference announced that with the health and well-being of its student-athletes as its top priority, the league was delaying its fall sports seasons with the intent of playing in the spring due to the ongoing impacts of the coronavirus pandemic.

The Big South Football Membership voted to allow up to four non-conference games in the fall at institutional discretion, and Campbell and North Alabama competed in the fall 2020 season. On Nov. 9, the conference released plans to conduct a spring 2021 season, in accordance with the Conference's and NCAA's Return to Competition COVID-19 Guidelines to ensure the safety of all participants.

Charleston Southern, Gardner-Webb, Kennesaw State, Monmouth and new associate member Robert Morris committed to play a four-game Big South slate. Campbell and North Alabama opted out of the spring season, while Hampton had suspended all sport activities the previous July and would not play football in the spring.

While the league endured several postponements and eventual cancellations, it was still able to play the minimum games to crown a champion and participate in the FCS Playoffs.

NCAA 2020 DIVISION I FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FRISCO, TX

ABOUT THE 2020-21 SEASON ...

On Aug. 12, 2020, the Big South Conference the Big South Conference announced that with the health and well-being of its student-athletes as its top priority, the league was delaying its fall sports seasons with the intent of playing in the spring due to the ongoing impacts of the coronavirus pandemic.

The Big South Football Membership voted to allow up to four non-conference games in the fall at institutional discretion, and Campbell and North Alabama competed in the fall 2020 season. On Nov. 9, the conference released plans to conduct a spring 2021 season, in accordance with the Conference's and NCAA's Return to Competition COVID-19 Guidelines to ensure the safety of all participants.

Charleston Southern, Gardner-Webb, Kennesaw State, Monmouth and new associate member Robert Morris committed to play a four-game Big South slate. Campbell and North Alabama opted out of the spring season, while Hampton had suspended all sport activities in July and would not play football in the spring.

While the league endured several postponements and eventual cancellations, it was still able to play the minimum games to crown a champion and participate in the FCS Playoffs.

BIG SOUTH FCS PLAYOFF HISTORY

The Big South Conference made its first appearance in the FCS Playoffs in 2006 when Coastal Carolina received an at-large bid into the 16-team field. The Big South has received multiple bids five times in the 11 years as an AQ conference, has earned three national seeds and associated byes, and has advanced in the postseason 11 times in its 17 total appearances. As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total.

The Football All-Decade Teams are listed to the left in alphabetical order by position and features one quarterback, three running backs, four wide receivers, one tight end, five offensive lineman, four defensive lineman, four linebackers, four defensive backs, one placekicker, one punter, one long snapper, two kick return specialists and one head coach. In case of ties, additional honorees are added.

Football All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must be a college graduate or in good academic standing with their respective institution; 5) Won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Member institutions also had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches.

The next Football All-Decade Team will cover 2020-29.

Lighting college football's hallowed ground is never easy.

©2021 Musco Sports Lighting, LLC · ADBSC21-1

So when it was time for a new LED system at Notre Dame Stadium, the University turned to a trusted partner.

Notre Dame and Musco made history together three decades earlier, when mobile lighting brought the first ever night game to South Bend. With the installation of Musco's Total Light Control—TLC for LED® system, the Fighting Irish have once again transformed the experience at one of the sport's most esteemed venues.

"We are pleased to once again partner with Musco to equip one of our facilities, in this case the iconic Notre Dame Stadium, with an innovative and leading-edge lighting solution. We are impressed with the performance, efficiency and controllability of this new system and look forward to the benefits it will provide for decades to come."
