The Big South Conference and ESPN reached a seven-year extension to its media rights deal in July 2018 that will see close to 1,000 annual conference events carried on ESPN networks -- including a minimum 900 events each year on ESPN+, the first multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company Direct-to-Consumer & International segment and ESPN which launched in April. The agreement runs through 2024-25, 34 years since the longstanding relationship began in 1991.

The comprehensive deal makes ESPN+ the exclusive streaming home of Big South Network productions and features exclusive regular-season and Big South Championship broadcasts, including football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, women's volleyball and lacrosse, baseball, and softball.

Under the arrangement, the Big South men's basketball championship game will air on ESPN for the fourth consecutive year in 2020, while ESPNU will televise at least six events per season. Additional linear opportunities are included, and the Big South will maintain its exposure on ESPN3.

The Big South Conference joined the comprehensive ESPN+ lineup, which include hundreds of MLB, NHL and MLS games, thousands of college events, Grand Slam tennis, Top Rank boxing, PGA Tour golf, international rugby, cricket, original shows and series, the full library of 30 for 30 films, and more. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ for just $4.99 a month or $49.99 per year.

BIG SOUTH NETWORK STUDIO

The Big South Conference unveiled its new Big South Network Studio in July 2018 as part of an eight-month renovation and expansion of the league's headquarters office in Charlotte, N.C. The studio provides new video content opportunities for the conference and its membership, as well as eventual live show capabilities that are part of enhanced efforts to showcase the league's student-athletes and athletics programs.

The space features three functioning areas -- a main interview set, a smaller one-on-one interview set, and a green-screen set. The Big South Conference worked with Atlanta-based dB Integrations (project lead) and Artes, LLC (set designer) on the project. Initial planned programming within the new Big South Network Studio will include:

- One-on-one interviews and evergreen content with coaches and student-athletes;
- Breaking news announcements;
- Special sport and television schedule unveils;
- Game day and Championship previews;
- Interviews with influential leaders in college athletics and in the community;
- Interviews with Big South alumni;
- Social media updates from around the Big South;
- Community service reports

Future efforts will focus on special guest analysis, halftime segments for Big South Network productions on ESPN+, Player of the Week and postseason award announcements, sport-by-sport notebooks, and live studio programs

-- including pregame shows as well as Football and Basketball Media Day, among others.

"The development of the Big South Network studio is part of a long-range vision to present the Conference, its members and student-athletes in the most creative and progressive manner possible," stated Big South Commissioner KYLE KALLANDER. "As they say, 'Content is King', and with this studio the Big South will be able to maximize the distribution of our compelling content through programming in our new partnership with ESPN, and on digital and social media platforms."

THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

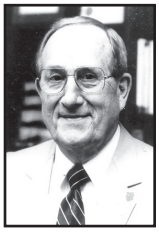

Founded in 1983, the Big South Conference has been an exemplary leader in college athletics, dedicated to developing student-athletes through the pursuit of excellence in the classroom, community and field of play. The league's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is made evident by its multitude of athletic accomplishments, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages and most importantly, its commitment to fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of its student-athletes. Comprised of 11 member institutions sharing a common geographic region and similar academic values and purposes, the Big South's remarkable history of achievement is characterized by the league's 19 championship sports and the profound academic and life successes of its more than 4,000 student-athletes. This has evolved into the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra as part of a strategic emphasis on becoming the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast.

Since 2000, the Big South Conference has experienced its most pivotal accomplishments in the league's history both athletically and academically, such as:

On April 24, 1983, Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director Howard Bagwell and Augusta President George Christenberry began recruiting members into the fledgling league, and less than four months later on August 21, the Big South Conference was formed when Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop committed to the new conference. One month later, Dr. Edward M. Singleton was selected as the league's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, George F. "Buddy" Sasser replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the league received its first automatic bid -- an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package.

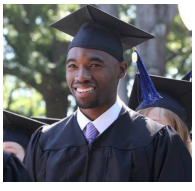

In August 1996, Kyle B. Kallander replaced Sasser as the league's third Commissioner, and in his 23 years at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the conference to unprecedented heights. During his tenure, men's and women's indoor track & field (1997), football (2002) and women's lacrosse (2013) were added as sponsored sports. The conference has also enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue, in addition to extensive television coverage for women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse for the first time. The league as a whole has enjoyed increased national television exposure through aggressive and unique television packages. Conference membership has solidified with the recent additions of Hampton University and USC Upstate, plus High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College and Longwood, as well as the return of charter member Campbell University. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 850 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have allowed these productions to reach "TV-ready" status, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander has also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the league's vision as a distinctive athletic conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. An updated strategic plan was launched in 2015 with the objective to transform the Big South Conference into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast. The primary areas of focus are basketball success, media exposure, academic centrality, student-athlete experience and messaging/branding. In 2017, the league overhauled its identity with the most comprehensive rebrand in the 33-year history of the Big South Conference.

The rebrand included a new brand identity featuring a more favorable and distinctive color scheme, the introduction of a secondary logo and an extensive advertising campaign to enliven the conference's distinct values, its roots in the Southeast region of the United States and its vision for the future. The foundation of the rebrand was built from the conference's Live, Love and Life pillars, which are externally expressed through the conference's "Where Winners Are Made" mantra. Crafted in collaboration with conference leadership and student-athletes, the tagline (and corresponding #BigSouthMade hashtag) embodies and affirms the Big South's commitment to developing student-athletes for profound success through Division I collegiate athletics and transformative academics. .

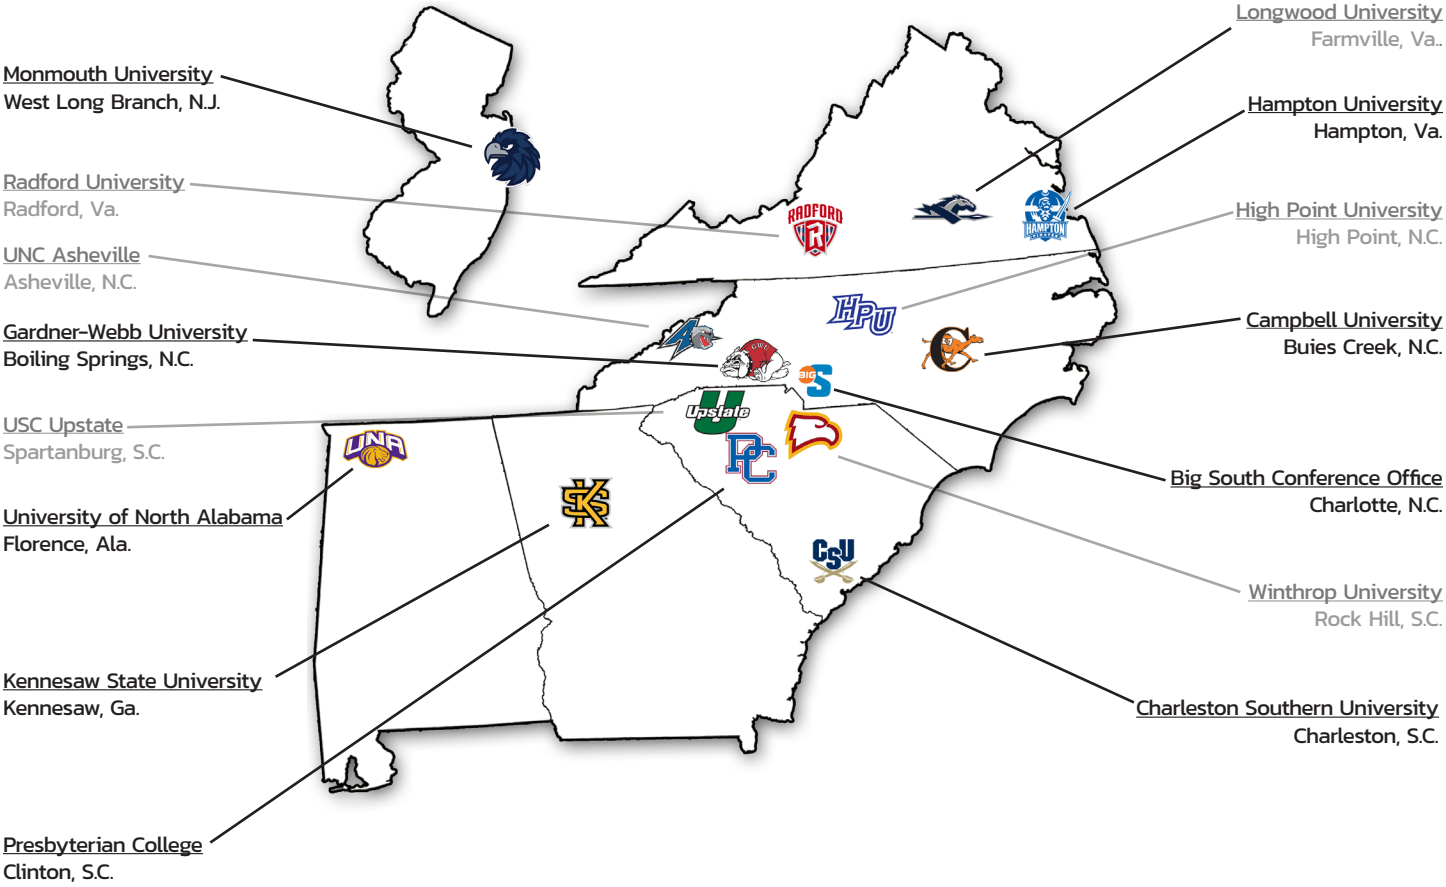

Prominent Big South athletic alumni include multi-Olympians Amber Campbell and Taylor Milne; 2016 U.S. Open Champion Dustin Johnson; St. Louis Cardinals manager Mike Shildt; MLB pitchers Cody Allen, Ryan Dull and Eddie Butler; Washington Redskins cornerback Josh Norman, former NFL running back and "Dancing with the Stars" champion Rashad Jennings; ESPN personality Sam Ponder, three-time NFL Pro Bowler Justin Bethel and WNBA veteran Avery Warley.

Distinguished alumni from Big South member institutions include Charlotte Hornets President Fred Whitfield (Campbell), U.S. Senator Tim Scott (Charleston Southern), Basketball Hall of Famer Artis Gilmore (Gardner-Webb), Educator, author, orator, and advisor to U.S. presidents Booker T. Washington (Hampton), Grammy-award winning singer/songwriter Donna Fargo (High Point), former LPGA player Tina Barrett (Longwood), HGTV President Jim Samples (Presbyterian), former U.S. National Men's Soccer Team member Dante Washington (Radford), former Weather Channel anchor Kristina Abernathy (UNC Asheville) NBA player Torrey Craig (USC Upstate) and actress Andie MacDowell (Winthrop).

The conference's on-field accomplishments have been duplicated in the classroom. For the past five years, more than 55 percent of conference's student-athletes have been named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll for maintaining a 3.0 grade-point average for the academic year -- including 58.90 percent in 2018-19 that featured 173 student-athletes with a 4.0 and 53 percent of honorees with at least a 3.50 GPA. The league has experienced year-to-year APR improvement over the past six years, and the conference has achieved its highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) each of the last two years at 86 percent -- the fifth consecutive year at or above the 84 percentile.

• Five appearances in the FCS quarterfinals in a six-season span from 2013-18

• The No. 1-ranked FCS program in the nation in 2014 and 2015

• Three National Seeds in the FCS Playoffs

• Multiple playoff teams four times

• Six consecutive seasons with a playoff victory

• Six FBS victories

• 93-62 record (=60.0 precent) against non-conference FCS opponents since 2013

• Jerry Rice National Freshman of the Year award winner (2017) and twice runner-up for the Walter Payton National Player of the Year award (2012 & 2018)

• Three teams ranked in the national Top 25 polls in the same week twice (2013 and 2015)

• 83 consecutive weeks with a nationally-ranked member from Week 9 of 2011 to Week 6 of 2017

• Multiple nationally-ranked programs in the same week 40 times since 2013, including two Top 10 teams for the first time in 2015

• Six seasons with an NFL Draft pick, including league-record three selections in 2014

The growth of Big South football has been exceptional since its inception 18 seasons ago. The formidable years of 2002-05 included great feats -- including the league's first win over the nation's No. 1 team in 2005 -- that set the tone for the future. The Big South's first true breakthrough onto the national landscape occurred in 2006 when league champion Coastal Carolina became the first Big South member to advance to the postseason when the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in the 16-team NCAA Division I Football Championship.

At that same time, the league progressed closer to cementing its status as a viable football conference as well as the coveted automatic bid to the NCAA postseason. Big South administrators earned appointments to national NCAA committees starting in 2006, membership growth in 2008 featured Presbyterian College (full member), Stony Brook (associate member) and Gardner-Webb's addition as a full member, plus consistent nationally-ranked programs, notable non-conference victories, national award finalists and the league's first-ever NFL Draft picks (2007 and 2008). All the efforts came to fruition in the spring of 2008 when the NCAA announced the expansion of the FCS Playoffs from 16 to 20 teams in 2010, and granted the Big South an automatic bid starting that year -- boosting the conference into a new stratosphere.

Big South Conference football came into existence in the Fall of 2002 after a long and arduous process. Football had always been a long range goal of the conference. In the early 1990s, football seemed on the horizon in the Big South, as Charleston Southern fielded its first team in 1991 and the conference added Liberty, which was already playing on the gridiron, as a new member. However, football never got off the ground in the early part of the decade as other issues came to the forefront, including the Big South's emergence as a basketball conference. The league was awarded its first automatic bid to the NCAA men's basketball championship in 1992 and football was put on the back burner while basketball began to flourish.

The idea was revived in 1997 when Elon joined the Big South. That gave the conference three full-time members with football programs -- half the number needed to be recognized as a conference by the NCAA. Two years later on Nov. 10, 1999, Coastal Carolina announced it would add football by the Fall of 2003. The wheels were set in motion to establish a conference home for the league's football-playing members.

After attempts to form a joint football conference with the ASUN Conference failed, the Big South began recruiting more members to join its fledgling football league. On May 23, 2001, the original dream became a reality when the Big South's Council of Chief Executive Officers voted unanimously to add football as the conference's 18th championship sport.

Shortly after the approval of football, the Big South's recruiting efforts paid off, as the addition of Gardner-Webb as an associate football member was announced on June 20, 2001. There were hopes that a four-team league could begin play later that Fall, but scheduling conflicts could not be worked out and the Fall of 2002 was designated as the kickoff for Big South Football. The Big South continued to look for additional members, with a goal of eventually having seven or eight playing members. On Dec. 10, 2001, one of the oldest programs in the state of Virginia -- Virginia Military Institute, announced it would join the Big South in all sports in 2003 and maintain the conference's football membership at five following Elon's departure.

While the inevitable trickle-down impact of conference realignment has reached the Big South in recent years, the league continues to prosper with the recent additions of Monmouth and start-up program Kennesaw State, plus Campbell's membership that began in 2018.

In 2016, the Big South and ASUN created a partnership that guarantees a football "home" within the Big South Conference for ASUN members that play scholarship football, and that collaboration has led to the addition of North Alabama this season -- allowing the Big South to remain poised for future expansion. In November 2017, the Big South added Hampton as a full member, and the Pirates begin their football affiliation this year.

With its seismic growth and consistent multiple playoff-caliber programs, the Big South continues to be a major national competitor in FCS football with an everlasting eye on the ultimate prize -- a National Championship.

BIG SOUTH COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 24th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2019-20, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced digital presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, brought football to the Big South in 2002 as well as women's lacrosse in 2012-13 -- with both sports enjoying national success within five years of existence. He embarked on an updated strategy in 2015 to transform the Big South into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast and spearheaded the most comprehensive rebranding of the league's identity in 2017.

He has solidified membership to double-digit totals for 11 consecutive years with the additions of Hampton, High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College, Longwood and USC Upstate -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University in 2011. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live streaming event in 2005 and has consistently provided video offerings of more than 900 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms. Ongoing equipment upgrades have elevated these productions to "TV-ready" levels, while the emphasis on video integration has allowed the conference to expand its reach globally as well as serve as a model for peer conferences to emulate. Kallander has also pushed initiatives around student-athlete wellness, such as an annual Health & Safety Summit that began in 2016, and has emphasized diversity within the conference with the creation of Big South "Connection" networking events in 2017 and 2019.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the league's history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South:

- Has had one team National Champion (baseball);
- Has had six individual National Champions;
- Had a Big South member ranked No. 1 in the national polls in 2014 and 2015 (football);
- Has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball, baseball and women's lacrosse;
- Started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years and eventually gaining an automatic bid;
- Had two teams reach the FCS playoffs in the same year four times, and advancing in the playoffs six consecutive years;
- Had a team advance to the FCS quarterfinals five times (2013, 2014, 2015, 2017 and 2018);
- Has had three teams qualify for NCAA competition in the same sport in the same year (men's soccer and men's golf);
- Had its first at-large NCAA Tournament selection in volleyball;
- Has had a softball team reach the Regional Championship game five times;
- Had a women's golf team advance to the NCAA Championship three times in a six-year span;
- Has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals eight times;
- Had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation;
- Had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win among four overall victories;
- Has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional;
- Had a doubles team advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Women's Doubles Championship;
- Had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship;
- Had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country, and men's tennis;
- Had a league-record 42 student-athletes earn All-America distinction in 2011-12;
- Has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball, baseball, women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse televised for the first time;
- Had a Big South-record 13 student-athletes achieve Academic All-America status in 2003-04 and 2013-14;
- Had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year;
- Saw seven programs receive at-large NCAA postseason berths in 2012-13;
- Live video streaming of conference events to elevate the league's exposure to new audiences via new integrated digital platforms, including ESPN+;
- Expansion and renovation of current conference headquarters that includes a new Big South Network production studio

The conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. For the last five years, more than 55 percent of the league's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average -- including a record 59.96 percent in 2016-17, while several student-athletes have been recipients of various Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among league members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South has been providing a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies to one male and one female graduating student-athlete for more than a decade.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He previously served on the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and NCAA Division I Baseball Committee -- including Chair for the 2011-12 season. He also previously served on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, which examined the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, was a member of the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics, and was twice a Vice President of the Collegiate Commissioners Association (CCA) from 2001-03 and 2011-12.

To this day, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with ESPN and its various networks. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes, and coupled with the Big South Network, the league's exposure is seen by a worldwide audience. Kallander successfully negotiated a seven-year TV deal extension with ESPN through 2025, which has expanded the number of Big South events on ESPN platforms. The agreement includes a minimum six events per season on ESPNU – a majority of which are primetime men's basketball telecasts.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival, a partnership with member institutions that enables the conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. The Big South Business Group (BSBG) was also created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explored ways that members can benefit through working together and with conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the league's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues throughout his tenure, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level. On the field, the conference has added four Championship sports under Kallander -- men's and women's indoor track & field, football and women's lacrosse.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest for the 1995-96 football and basketball seasons. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

He began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he served as Director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as Director of Compliance, before joining the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two sons, Stefan, and Tristan.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE HALL OF FAME

The Big South Conference Hall of Fame was formed as part of the League's 20th anniversary celebration in 2003-04. Each year the Conference will induct up to eight (8) individuals into the Hall of Fame. The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the office headquarters in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical images and artwork of the league's accomplishments and achievements over the years, including All-Americans, Annual Champions and NCAA Championship successes, as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings. The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 73 members -- including the first two Football inductees in the past three years. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign.

KENNESAW STATE LANDS TOP PRESEASON SPOT
For the second consecutive year, Kennesaw State is the outright favorite in the annual Big South preseason football poll, as the two-time defending conference champion claimed the top spot in the 2019 preseason rankings as voted by the league's head coaches and media panel. The Owls received 14 of the 20 first-place votes, and begin their title defense Oct. 12 at home against Charleston Southern. KSU was the preseason co-favorite in 2017.

RANK AND FILE
For the fifth time in six seasons and sixth time overall, the Big South had a team finish in the Top 10 of the final national rankings in 2018. League champion Kennesaw State officially ended the 2018 campaign ranked No. 4 in the AFCA FCS Coaches poll -- the highest season-ending national ranking in league history -- as well as a No. 5 standing in the STATS FCS ranking to mark 15 consecutive polling weeks ranked inside the Top 10, which is the second-longest such streak in Big South history. Monmouth finished just outside the final Top 25, as the Hawks ranked 29th in the Coaches poll and 31st in the STATS listing. The Big South has had a Top 25 program in 103 of the last 107 polling weeks -- including a streak of 83 consecutive weeks from Oct. 17, 2011 to Oct. 1, 2017.

BIG SOUTH SCORES ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL NON-CONFERENCE SEASON
The Big South went 12-11 (=52.2 percent) against non-conference FCS opponents in the 2018 regular-season, marking the league's sixth consecutive winning regular-season against non-league foes. Since the start of the 2013 campaign, the Big South is 87-54 (=61.7 winning percentage) in regular-season competition and 93-62 (=60.0) when including postseason games in that span.

HELLOS
This season features the addition of Hampton University as a full-fledged football member, while the University of North Alabama begins its first year in the conference as a transitional member. North Alabama's addition as an associate member was a direct result of the Big South's collaboration agreement with the ASUN Conference in which ASUN members playing scholarship football have an automatic home in the Big South.

GOOD-BYES
Presbyterian College is playing its final season in the Big South in 2019, as PC is transitioning its football program to the non-scholarship PFL in 2021.

ROLL CALL
With the ongoing shifts in collegiate athletics, here is the Big South's current football lineup for the next two seasons:

2019 - 8	2020 - 7
Campbell	Campbell
Charleston Southern	Charleston Southern
Gardner-Webb	Gardner-Webb
Hampton	Hampton
Kennesaw State	Kennesaw State
Monmouth	Monmouth
North Alabama	North Alabama
Presbyterian

GROWTH CHART
North Alabama begins the second-year of its FCS reclassification in 2019, and due to its transition to Division I, the Lions are not eligible for the Big South championship until reaching full-fledged status in 2022. During this timeframe (2019, 2020 and 2021), UNA will play each Big South member, but will not be an official conference opponent and its games will not count in the league standings. North Alabama student-athletes are eligible for preseason, in-season and postseason awards.

BIG SOUTH NOTCHES FIFTH APPEARANCE IN FCS QUARTERFINALS
The Big South made its fifth all-time appearance in the final eight of the FCS Playoffs last season, courtesy of No. 4 national seed Kennesaw State. The conference has advanced to the quarterfinal round in five out of the last six seasons, and KSU was just the second Big South member with multiple quarterfinal berths, and the first to host a quarterfinal contest. The Big South is 11-14 all-time in the postseason, including 7-3 at home, and has advanced in the tournament in seven of the last eight years.

MONMOUTH'S BAHAR VOTED PRESEASON OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Monmouth redshirt-senior QB KENJI BAHAR was voted the Big South's 2019 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. He is the first Monmouth player to be voted the Big South's preseason offensive honoree. A Second-Team All-Conference performer in 2018, Bahar led the Big South last season with a school-record 2,626 passing yards, a 139.6 pass efficiency rating, 238.7 passing yards per game, 20 passing TDs, 2,769 total offensive yards and 251.7 total offense yards per game. He started all 11 games for the Hawks in 2018, and tied the Big South single-game record with five touchdown passes in the season-finale at Gardner-Webb where he was 20-of-30 passing for 407 yards. Bahar threw for more than 200 yards in a game seven times a year ago, including 326 against Hampton and 334 vs, Lafayette. The Sept. 17 Big South Offensive Player of the Week threw a TD in nine consecutive games last year and posted a league-best six multi-TD pass efforts -- including three games with at least three. He had a league high three games with 300+ yards of total offense, and ranked third in the conference with 23 touchdowns responsible for.

KSU'S ARMSTRONG VOTED PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
For the second consecutive year, Kennesaw State redshirt-junior linebacker BRYSON ARMSTRONG was tabbed the Big South's Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. A two-time First-Team All-Conference selection in his first two years at KSU, Armstrong tied for eighth in the Big South last season with 75 total tackles -- 56 of which were solo stops (second-most in the league). He finished the campaign with 10.0 tackles-for-loss (minus-28 yards) as well as 2.5 sacks, three passes defended and three quarterback hurries. In Big South games, he totaled 25 hits (21 solo) and helped the Owls limit Big South opponents to just 8.2 points per game and 185.0 yards of offense. Armstrong posted nine tackles in a game three times in 2018 -- in the season opener at Georgia State plus victories over Samford and Charleston Southern. He recorded the game-winning interception in the end zone in Kennesaw State's five-overtime triumph over No. 6/7 Jacksonville State at SunTrust Park on Nov. 17. He was the 2017 STATS Jerry Rice Award Winner as the FCS National Freshman of the Year.

MAKING A STATE-MENT
Kennesaw State is playing Kent State, Alabama State and Missouri State in 2019, and the Owls are 6-4 all-time against fellow "State"-named schools. KSU's four overall losses to the "State" schools has been by a combined 22 points (5.5 average). In 2018, KSU defeated Alabama State and Jacksonville State during the regular-season, but fell to Georgia State (season-opener) and South Dakota State (FCS quarterfinals).

BAHAR IN THE BOOKS
Monmouth QB KENJI BAHAR enters this season with 5,958 career passing yards and needs 185 to move into the Big South's all-time Top 10, as well as 2,042 to become just the fifth player in league history with 8,000 in a career. He is also 10 scoring strikes away from becoming the sixth in conference annals with 50 career TD passes.

STRONG-ARMED
Kennesaw State LB BRYSON ARMSTRONG has 189 career tackles and enters his junior season 11 shy of 200 in his career. He is also 1.5 quarterback sacks away from becoming the 11th Big South player with 15.0 in a career and 26 solo stops from entering the league's all-time Top 10 in the category. Of Armstrong's 189 career stops, 141 have been solo hits -- good for 21st all-time in Big South history.

MISTER 150
Monmouth head coach KEVIN CALLAHAN earned the 150th win of his career in 2018 with the Hawks' Week 9 victory at Presbyterian. It was his first attempt at the milestone, and he is one of nine active FCS head coaches with 150+ career victories with 152. Callahan will attempt his third consecutive 8-win season in 2019, a feat he has never accomplished since starting the Monmouth program in 1993. Meanwhile, Callahan's 32 wins during the Hawks' five-year tenure in the Big South are ninth-most in the league record book.

PULLING RANK
The Big South is 16-18 all-time when a ranked member faces a nationally-ranked non-conference opponent -- including 7-6 in regular-season contests. Of those 18 defeats, 11 have been by a touchdown-or-less. Last year's No. 2/2 Kennesaw State-No. 5/5 South Dakota State FCS quarterfinal tilt was the Big South's first head-to-head meeting against a fellow Top 5 program.

GO-GO GUERRIERO
Monmouth RB PETE GUERRIERO is the Big South's active career rushing leader with 1,979 yards and 21 away from becoming the 27th player on the league's 2,000-yard career list. He has rushed for more than 100 yards in a game 11 times (out of just 20 overall appearances), and his 6.34 average yards per carry ranks fifth in the Big South record book among rushers with 200-399 career attempts. Guerriero carries a 99.0 rushing yards per game average into the 2019 campaign, and could become just the sixth Big South player with 3,000 career rushing yards by season's end.

PIERCING PEARSON
Presbyterian WR KEITH PEARSON became the first Big South player since 2015 to throw a touchdown pass and catch a TD strike in the same game when he achieved the feat in Week 4 of the 2018 season against Bluefield College. Pearson caught a 46-yarder midway through the second quarter, and later connected with fellow WR DaSHAWN DAVIS on a 29-yard scoring play early in the third period.

PICK SIX DOUBLED
The Big South recorded a league-record 10 pick-sixes in 2018. Charleston Southern led the way with a Big South-record tying four, followed by Campbell and Kennesaw State with two each. Monmouth was the lone squad without a pick-six last season. Meanwhile, the Owls tied the league single-game record with two INT return touchdowns against Clark Atlanta in Week 4, the fourth such occurrence in Big South history.

SNEAKY SNEAD
Campbell WR CALEB SNEAD finished second in the Big South last season with nine touchdown receptions -- tying the league freshman record, and was second with 810 receiving yards. His 18.00 yards per catch also led the league, and he posted the conference's first 10-reception game of the season with 10 grabs (for 188 yards) in Week 8 at Monmouth.

TRY TO KEEP UP WITH THIS JONES
Monmouth RB DEVELL JONES notched his longest career touchdown run during the 2018 season in Week 7 against Bucknell, as his 12-yard score in the fourth quarter was his first from more than 10 yards out. The short-yardage specialist has totaled 19 career touchdown runs with the Hawks, which have gone for an average of 3.47 yards. In 2017, Jones scored 11 times on runs of 6, 6, 8, 4, 1, 3, 4, 4, 1, 2 and 1 yards for an average of 3.64. His eight touchdown runs in 2018 were for 3, 2, 4, 2, 1, 12, 1 and 1 for a 3.25 average yard per TD run.

POINT OF ORDER
Kennesaw State holds the Big South's longest active scoring streak at 49 games -- the ninth-longest overall string in league annals. The eighth-longest such streak is 50, while the league record is 144. Monmouth is just behind the Owls at 48 games. Meanwhile, Kennesaw State owns the league's longest active streak for double-figure scoring games at 27, which is the seventh-longest such streak in Big South history and two away from sixth.

KICK IT
Kennesaw State established a Big South- and FCS single-season record in 2018 with its 34.09 kickoff return average (23 for 784). The previous conference single-season record was 26.1 (Liberty in 2011), while the old NCAA record was 30.4. KSU also matched the Big South season record with three kickoff return touchdowns.

HIGH TIDE ON THE JERSEY SHORE
Monmouth set a Big South single-game record with 790 yards of offense (431 P, 359 R) in the 2018 regular-season finale at Gardner-Webb. The Hawks bested the previous record of 699 set by Kennesaw State against Point in 2015. Monmouth's output also surpassed the previous conference-game mark of 692, which was set by Liberty against Presbyterian in 2012. Monmouth's 10.53 yards per play against the Runnin' Bulldogs set the new standard for a league tilt.

TWO TIMERS
Monmouth had an individual rush for more than 200 yards in a game twice in 2018 -- PETE GUERRIERO in Week 2 (209 vs. Hampton) and JUWON FARRI in Week 8 (239 vs. Campbell). The Hawks were the first Big South team to have two individuals with 200-yard rushing performances in the same year since Stony Brook in 2008.

EBBS AND FLOWS
The average margin of victory in the Big South's 15 games of competition last season was a league-record 27.5 points, which bettered the old mark of 24.0 points in 2012 during a 21-game conference slate that featured seven teams. Last year's 27.5 winning margin was an increase from 2017's average of 16.5. Just once in Big South history has the average scoring margin improved in consecutive seasons from the previous year: 2009 (14.3) and 2010 (20.8).

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS
The eight Big South Conference football members have a total of 56 players on its collective rosters weighing at least 300 lbs. Hampton has the most with 14, followed by Campbell with 11, North Alabama with eight, Monmouth with seven, Gardner-Webb and Presbyterian with five each, Kennesaw State with four, and Charleston Southern with two. Last season, the Big South had 27 players at or above the 300-pound threshold among six members.

TREASURE CHEST
The Hampton Pirates went 7-3 as an FCS Independent in 2018, their first 7-win season since 2011. In addition, Hampton went 5-2 against first-time opponents last season. The Pirates went 1-2 against Big South members a year ago, with the victory being a 24-23 triumph at Presbyterian in Week 7. HU also finished 4-1 at Armstrong Stadium in 2018 to secure its fourth consecutve winning home record.

NORTH BY NORTHWEST
North Alabama concluded its first year reclassyifing to FCS in 2018 with a 3-2 record against FCS foes -- all on the road, as well as 3-1 against first-time opponents. The Lions ended the season on a four-game win streak, their longest to close out a regular-season since 2016. UNA played one Big South member in 2018 -- which was a 30-7 setback at Campbell. North Alabama enters 2019 seeking its 17th consecutive season at or above .500.

HE RAN LIKE A FERRARI LAST SEASON
Monmouth RB JUWON FARRI became just the second freshman to finish as the Big South leader in rushing yards, as his league-leading 1,024 in 2018 was 75 yards ahead of second-place DARNELL HOLLAND's 949. Farri led the Big South with six 100-yard rushing games, which included a career-high 239 yards in Week 8 against Campbell -- the seventh-highest single-game output in league history, and the fifth-highest by a Big South freshman. It was the most rushing yards in a game since Presbyterian's LANCE BRYD gained 274 against Charleston Southern during his freshman year of 2009.

NIGHT OWLS
Kennesaw State's 18 consecutive regular-season FCS wins is a Big South record, as the mark was set in Week 9 of 2018 with a 38-10 win over Charleston Southern. The old record of 14 was first established by Stony Brook from 2011-12, and tied by Coastal Carolina from 2012-13. KSU has won its last nine regular-season non-conference FCS contests, which is the third-longest streak in Big South annals. That record is 18 (Coastal Carolina from 2013-15).

IT'S BO TIME
Kennesaw State and head coach BRIAN BOHANNON have three all-time playoff wins -- the second-most by both a league member and head coach. Former member Coastal Carolina and its head coach, JOE MOGLIA, own the record of four playoff victories. Meanwhile, Bohannon is seventh in Big South history with 37 career coaching wins (compared to 12 losses), and is three victories shy of becoming the seventh with 40 triumphs. He will attempt to become the second-fastest coach to win 40 games, as the record is 51 games (Moglia), followed by 56 games (DANNY ROCCO).

SIR ISAAC KICKOFF RETURN
During his redshirt-freshman season of 2018, Kennesaw State's ISAAC FOSTER returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in Week 7 at Gardner-Webb -- his second 100-yard kickoff return TD of the year to become the first Big South player with this achievement, and the first FCS player with two 100-yard kickoff return TDs in a season since Incarnate Word's DESMOND HITE in 2017. Foster was the sixth different Big South player with two kickoff return scores in a campaign, and the first since 2015. He posted a 38.9 kickoff return average in 2018 (7 for 272), but did not qualify for the conference or national leaders due to not meeting the minimum 1.2 returns per game.

BIG SOUTH FCS PLAYOFF HISTORY

The Big South Conference made its first appearance in the FCS Playoffs in 2006 when Coastal Carolina received an at-large bid into the 16-team field. The league secured an automatic bid starting in 2010, and has enjoyed great success since -- including three consecutive trips to the Quarterfinals from 2013-15 and five overall. The Big South has received multiple bids four times in the nine years as an AQ conference, has earned three national seeds and associated byes, and has advanced in the postseason nine times in its 14 total appearances. The conference enters the 2019 campaign with a 11-14 all-time record in the postseason. Below is a look at the league's all-time year-by-year playoff history:

As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total.

Football All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must be a college graduate or left their respective institution in good academic standing; 5) and won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Member institutions also had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches.

The next Football All-Decade Team will cover 2010-19 and will be announced following the 2019 season.
