ADMINISTRATION

ARTHUR BLANK

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

The 2016 season will mark the 15th for Arthur Blank as Owner & Chairman for the Falcons. Blank, the co-founder of the world's largest home improvement retailer, The Home Depot, has established his franchise as one of the tops in the NFL. His impact and leadership can be identified by the individuals he has hired to guide the organization.

During 2015, Blank added new leaders both on the field and off the field by hiring Head Coach Dan Quinn, as well as Steve Cannon as CEO of the Blank Family of Businesses. The two passionate leaders have been charged with leading his organizations to the next level and ensure that Blank's brands continue to win on and off the field.

Quinn's exuberance and passion was immediately felt within the organization and it was easy to tell why he was the top target for every team looking to fill their coaching vacancy, but it took a visionary like Blank to land Quinn here in Atlanta.

"This is an exciting day for the Atlanta Falcons franchise and our fans," Blank said at Quinn's introductory news conference. "Dan is a talented football coach who has a deep and diverse history in the game, which will serve us well. As we got to know Dan during the interview process, it became clear that he has a definitive plan for our football team and what it will take to win on a consistent basis."

"He also has a proven ability to develop players by maximizing their individual strengths. For these and many other reasons, Dan was our top pick, and I'm confident our players, staff, fans and community will be proud to have him represent the Falcons."

Quinn was the architect of Seattle's top-ranked defense which helped propel the Seahawks to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances including a 43-8 rout of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII. There were four things that were clear characteristics Quinn wanted his team to embody; play fast and physical, be relentless, have regard for the ball and develop a strong brotherhood.

His first season at the helm of the Falcons finished with an 8-8 record, a two-win improvement from 2014. It was a year that saw the team start 6-1 and win two of its final three games, including one against the then undefeated Carolina Panthers. The strong end to the season coupled with the vision of Quinn and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff, has laid the foundation for Blank's team to return to the playoff conversation very soon.

Since Quinn's arrival in February of 2015, Atlanta has signed, re-signed or tendered 39 players during free agency. The determination of Blank to build a consistent winner for this city and provide the fan base in Atlanta a team they can be proud of and call their own is unmatched in sports. Atlanta's impressive six year run from 2008-2012 included two number one seeds in the NFC playoffs (2010, 2012), a team-record three consecutive playoffs berths (2010-12), four double-digit winning seasons (2008, 2010-12), two 13-wins seasons (2010, 2012), and two NFC South Division championships (2010, 2012). Blank's expectations are to surpass that run and bring a championship to the city and the franchise.

In December of 2015, Blank hired Steve Cannon to be the CEO of AMB Group. Cannon was hired to lead all business operations of the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons; Atlanta United FC of Major League Soccer; Atlanta Falcons Stadium Company, the developer of Mercedes-Benz Stadium that is scheduled to open in 2017; PGA TOUR Superstore; and Mountain Sky Guest Ranch.

"Steve is a dynamic leader with a value system and ethic that aligns very well with mine, which is important to ensuring our culture and values continue to thrive in a fast-paced, growing environment," said Blank. "He is a proven, results-driven executive who understands how to build and deliver a premium customer experience. That, along with his high-energy approach and experience will translate very well to all of our businesses. I couldn't be more thrilled to have a leader of Steve's stature take on this very important role moving forward."

The pieces are in place for Blank and his franchise to reach the pinnacle and with his guidance and a Mercedes-Benz Stadium opening up in 2017, the Falcons are poised to again reach the elite of the NFL.

IT TAKES A TEAM

Since Blank acquired the Falcons in 2002, the team has made the playoffs six times in 15 seasons. Under Blank's leadership, the Falcons front office has also seen unprecedented success. Three years before Blank purchased the Falcons, the club averaged about 37,000 season ticket holders per year. Since 2002, the Falcons have never sold fewer than 50,000 season tickets in any year. Additionally, during the same period of time, the club has sold out 110 of 112 regular season games and is currently riding a streak of eight consecutive sellout seasons.

"I have been blessed here with a great team of people," Blank said. "I have always believed in bringing the best people together, creating the right environment, giving them the resources they need, being a cheerleader for them and making sure the culture is set in place before getting out of the way and allowing them to do what they need to do."

Blank is also a key contributor to many of the NFL's major committees. He currently chairs the NFL Audit Committee and Compensation Committee, and he is a member of the league's Finance, Legislative, and Workplace Diversity committees.

The increasing relevance of the Falcons has provided numerous opportunities for the franchise and city of Atlanta to be showcased on nationally-televised games. With two prime time games on national television this season, Atlanta will have participated in 17 prime time regular season games over the past five years.

Arthur Blank

"Our exposure through prime time games over the years speaks directly to the outstanding performances of our players and coaches," Blank said. "Make no mistake, however, that our larger goal remains to perform under the worldwide spotlight of the Super Bowl. There are 31 other teams out there that want the Lombardi Trophy just as much as we do, so we have to stay diligent to remain a relevant team."

MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM

In May 2014, Blank and the Falcons broke ground on Mercedes-Benz Stadium, which is set to open in 2017. In addition to being a new home for the Falcons, the stadium will also be home to Atlanta United FC, the new Major League Soccer team that was awarded to Blank in April 2014 and will begin play in 2017. The facility will also host other premier sports and entertainment events throughout the year.

"Our goal is for the new building to become a destination site for sports and entertainment guests from all over the world," Blank stated. "We not only want Mercedes-Benz Stadium to become a landmark for the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, we want it to be a game changer when it comes to stadium design and the guest experience inside the building where friends and families can come together and create special memories."

Mercedes-Benz Stadium has already been successful in attracting marquee events to the city of Atlanta, such as the 2018 College Football National Championship, the 2019 Super Bowl, and the 2020 NCAA Final Four among many others, including the National Semifinals of the College Football Playoffs.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE & IMPROVING LIVES

Starting with The Home Depot and continuing with his current businesses – the Falcons, PGA TOUR Superstore, Mountain Sky Guest Ranch, Atlanta United and The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation – Blank's business and personal values underscore the importance of giving back and becoming part of the community.

During his 23 years with The Home Depot, the company donated more than $113 million to communities, and Home Depot associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time.

Since its inception in 1995, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation has granted more than $300 million to charitable organizations, with approximately two-thirds of the total focused on metro Atlanta, including the Historic Westside neighborhoods of Vine City, English Avenue and Castleberry Hill.

In 2013, Blank publicly committed to making further significant investments in these communities by creating the Westside Neighborhood Prosperity Fund, which will invest in catalytic projects that ignite positive change and improve the quality of life in the neighborhoods surrounding Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The foundation has pledged $15 million to contribute to large-scale transformational projects that result in lasting impact for community residents.

In 2014, Blank's foundation launched its first major project, Westside Works, a long-term neighborhood-based program focused on creating job training and employment opportunities for residents. Westside Works placed nearly 200 men and women in living wage jobs in construction, health care, culinary arts and auto technician sectors during its first 12 months of operation.

"We've been committed to the Westside neighborhoods for many years," Blank noted. "Building a new stadium is the relatively easy part of our overall project in that area; the larger challenge is in having a positive and meaningful impact on the surrounding communities in the process. My family, along with the Falcons, feels a sense of responsibility to be part of that positive change."

Community engagement is a priority for the Falcons, as well. The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation invests in innovative approaches to increase time kids spend in physical activity, and to give more children access to healthy foods. Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $20 million in grants to nonprofit organizations serving children across Georgia. As a leader in the Georgia SHAPE initiative, the youth foundation is helping Georgia elementary schools reach more than 350,000 students through the Power Up for 30 program, which adds 30 minutes of physical activity during the school day. The foundation also has donated $730,000 worth of equipment to 131 groups in 46 counties across Georgia, expanding opportunities for 68,000 youth to be physically active.

In addition, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and their spouses remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives that support a variety of issues and activities, including health and fitness, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, the development of youth/prep football, Salute to Service and outreach in underserved communities.

"It's important that everyone in our family of businesses understands our collective responsibility to contribute to the communities in which we all live and work," Blank stressed.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

A native of Flushing, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration with distinction from Babson College, where he was active in a variety of extracurricular activities. Blank co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as co-chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." During Blank's last year as CEO of the company, The Home Depot ranked first in social responsibility in an annual survey conducted by Harris Interactive, Inc.

Blank is recognized throughout the country for his personal and professional achievements. In 2012, he received an honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Georgia. In 2011, he was the recipient of the Freeing Voices, Changing Lives Award from the American Institute for Stuttering, and in 2010, he was recognized by the Council for Quality Growth for his philanthropic endeavors as well as his significant contributions to economic development and quality of life. In 2006, he was named a Distinguished American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, which annually recognizes an individual who has utilized his or her talents to attain great success in business, private life or public service.

Also in 2006, Blank was inducted into the Junior Achievement U.S. Business Hall of Fame, and was awarded an honorary doctor of humanities degree from Furman University. In 2005, he was named National Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young. In 2003, for the second time in three years, Blank was named Georgia's Most Respected CEO by Georgia Trend magazine, and in 2002, he was inducted into Georgia State University's Business Hall of Fame. The Georgia Army National Guard Infantry Regiment appointed Blank as an honorary commander on July 16. Individuals are selected as honorary commanders because of their position or influence in the community, and their ability to foster awareness and public support for the military and its service members.

Blank serves on the board of trustees of The Carter Center, Inc., and The Cooper Institute.

Arthur and Angie Blank's marriage in June of 2016 brought together their respective families, including nine children and five grandchildren. A strong believer in work-life balance, Blank makes time daily for physical activity and spending time with family.

RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT & CEO

Falcons President and CEO, Rich McKay, has been a fixture in the National Football League for more than 30 years. One of the League's most influential executives, McKay recently finished his 13th season with the Atlanta Falcons including an NFC Championship title and a trip to Super Bowl LI.

McKay was initially hired by Owner and Chairman Arthur M. Blank in 2004 and served his first four years as the team's general manager. He was promoted to president and chief executive officer in 2011. Together with Blank and Falcons general manager, Thomas Dimitroff, McKay played a key role in the coaching search that resulted in the hiring of Dan Quinn as Atlanta's new head coach in early 2015. That same year, national columnist and creator of Monday Morning Quarterback (MMQB), Peter King, named McKay number 10 out of the 100 most influential people in the NFL.

McKay played a pivotal role in the negotiation, development and progress of building Mercedes-Benz Stadium, a process that began in earnest in 2008. Working closely with Blank, the city of Atlanta, the state of Georgia, and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority, McKay helped to secure approval and financing for Mercedes-Benz Stadium after years of intense negotiations. The club broke ground on Mercedes-Benz Stadium on May 19, 2014, with NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, MLS Commissioner Don Garber, and Atlanta Mayor Kasim Reed in attendance for the historic announcement, and it is set to open later this year as the home of the Atlanta Falcons and MLS expansion team, Atlanta United. He is the only executive to have led two successful stadium negotiations (Atlanta and Tampa Bay). In April of 2014, McKay was named President of AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE).

McKay has served as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee for the past 23 years. He was named co-chairman of the committee in 1998 and on March 1, 2011, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell named him chairman of the committee which is comprised of NFL head coaches and League executives who study the game and recommend rule changes and modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness. The Competition Committee has recommended and passed nearly fifty (50) player safety rules changes since 2002. In addition to his commitment to advancing the game, McKay was highly involved in the collective bargaining agreement negotiations, which led to the current multi-year agreement signed in 2011 between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

Prior to joining the Falcons, McKay spent 10 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as general manager. While serving as general manager for Tampa Bay (1994-2003) and Atlanta (2004-2008), McKay was the architect of a Super Bowl winning team (Super Bowl XXXVII) as well as six teams that reached the playoffs and three that advanced to the NFC Championship game. His teams compiled an overall record of 112-96 with a playoff record of 6-5. As a GM, McKay worked with three different NFL head coaches who have guided their respective teams to NFC Championship games – Tony Dungy in 1999 with Tampa Bay, Jon Gruden in 2002 with Tampa Bay and Jim Mora in 2004 in Atlanta.

McKay's personnel scouting acumen was a successful formula which produced 59 players that played in the Pro Bowl during his time as an NFL General Manager. McKay showed his eye for talent when he drafted eight players in the 1997 draft class that went on to play a combined 1,175 games, with 772 starts over their careers. Those players helped contribute to Tampa Bay's 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002, which were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers only had 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997. Additionally, 11 of McKay's former lieutenants have risen through the ranks to sit in the general manager's chair at other NFL franchises.

While many of the players McKay drafted developed into Pro Bowl performers on the field, several have been stars off of the gridiron. Atlanta Falcons Limited Partner Warrick Dunn, whom McKay drafted in 1997 with Tampa Bay, was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award. This award is presented annually to the NFL's most philanthropic player. Derrick Brooks, who was also a draft selection of McKay's, was also a co-recipient of the award in 2000.

The McKay family is one of the most successful football families with substantial roots in both the collegiate and professional game. Rich's late father, the legendary John McKay, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four national championships in 16 seasons. Rich's older brother J.K. McKay, was a starting wide receiver for the Trojans and part of two national championship teams (1972 & 1974) in addition to playing in three Rose Bowl games while playing for his father. Between the three McKay's, they have won six national championships, participated as a player or coach in 12 Rose Bowls, participated as a coach, player or team executive in six NFL conference championship games, won two National Collegiate Coach of the Year Awards, won one XFL Championship as a general manager, and won one Super Bowl as a general manager.

Both Coach McKay and Rich saw their first draft picks selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Lee Roy Selmon was the first pick for John McKay as a head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976 while Warren Sapp was the first pick for Rich McKay in 1995. After the enshrinement of Sapp and Derrick Brooks, Rich McKay became the first general manager in NFL history to have his first two draft picks go on to be first ballot members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Rich McKay was the 2005 recipient of the Jack Horrigan Award. This award is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the club or League office executive who is the most helpful and cooperative with the local and national news media that report on the NFL. He was also recently named Chairman of the Board for Central Atlanta Progress for the 2017 season. Central Atlanta Progress was founded in 1941 and it is a private, not-for-profit corporation that plans and promotes Atlanta's Central Area and strives to create a robust economic climate for downtown Atlanta.

McKay earned his Bachelor's degree in Economics in 1981 from Princeton University, graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984, clerked for two years for Tampa's U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges, and was inducted into the Stetson Law's Hall of Fame in November 2014. McKay worked at the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, P.A., from 1986-1992 where he served as General Counsel for the Buccaneers. Born March 16, 1959, in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School.

As an avid long distance runner, Rich has participated in and finished five marathons including two New York City Marathons, an Atlanta Marathon, and the Los Angeles In Marathon in 2013 and in 2016.

McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons; Hunter, a 2012 graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama who is now employed in the Sports Information Office at Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga., and John, a 2015 graduate of the University of Southern California is a scout with the Los Angeles Rams.

General Manager Thomas Dimitroff is entering his 10th season in the role for the Falcons in 2017. Over the last two seasons, Dimitroff and Head Coach Dan Quinn have crafted a roster focused on fast, physical, and relentless players. This team-building approach spurred the Falcons to an NFC title and Super Bowl appearance for the second time in 2016. Over his nine seasons in Atlanta, the Falcons have posted 85 wins during the regular season, have made five postseason appearances and have added cornerstone players; QB Matt Ryan, WR Julio Jones, CB Desmond Trufant, T Jake Matthews, CB Robert Alford, OLB Vic Beasley, RB Devonta Freeman, S Keanu Neal, and LB Deion Jones in the draft.

A two-time Executive of the Year honoree by Sporting News (2008 & 2010), Dimitroff has been the architect of the most successful run in franchise history, including five consecutive winning seasons from 2008-2012 and three straight playoff berths - a first in franchise history.

Prior to the start of the 2015 campaign, Dimitroff was tasked with assisting Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank with finding a new head coach. Following a lengthy search, Blank decided on former the Seattle Seahawks Defensive Coordinator, Quinn. The Super Bowl pedigree that Dimitroff brought from New England was partnered with Quinn and his consecutive Super Bowl appearances in Seattle (2013 & 2014), including a win in Super Bowl XLVIII against the Denver Broncos. It was very clear to Quinn early on how he envisioned his relationship with Dimitroff.

"When I had a chance to talk to some other clubs as I went through it, this one was the best fit for me," Quinn said during his introductory press conference. "Starting with Mr. Blank and then with Thomas. He was the guy that I connected with right away, that I knew I wanted to partner with. I saw that relationship work strongly in Seattle with Pete [Carroll] and John [Schneider]. That's what I was looking for, somebody to partner up with to do it together. When I had a chance to connect with Thomas, we had a lot of mutual friends, guys that I respect in the business, but it was that partnership made this one so unique for me."

In the first year of the Dimitroff/Quinn partnership, the Birds finished 8-8 but won two of their final three games of the season. The foundation and vision for this team were put in place and a new demeanor and direction for the Falcons was evident. Dimitroff added talent to the roster with the help of Quinn's clear vision and the unified direction of the two men contributed to a perfectly executed plan during the 2016 offseason.

Once the 2015 season ended, Dimitroff and Quinn devised a plan to add the pieces that Quinn needed to build this team in their shared vision. Including tendering three players, the Falcons made 18 moves prior to the NFL Draft including signing three-time Pro Bowl center Alex Mack, DE Derrick Shelby, and WR Mohamed Sanu. Free agency was just the beginning of their plan, Dimitroff and Quinn's focus quickly turned to the draft, where they owned five picks to start the weekend.

The execution of the 2016 draft was precise and addressed the specific needs and positions that Dimitroff and Quinn deemed as priorities. They wanted to add fast and physical players on both sides of the ball and they did so by adding S Keanu Neal, LB Deion Jones, TE Austin Hooper, LB De'Vondre Campbell, G Wes Schweitzer and WR Devin Fuller.

There is no question that Dimitroff and Quinn share an exact vision for this team on the field. They have worked in lockstep to build a roster that can compete for the NFC South while embodying all the characteristics that can make the fan base proud of the product on the field.

Dimitroff and Quinn’s vision blossomed during the 2016 season, as the Falcons won 11 games on their way to capturing a fourth NFC South title and securing the conference’s second seed in the playoffs. Atlanta led the NFL in scoring offense and average yards per play while also ranking second in total offense last season. The Falcons ‘build through the draft and supplement in free agency’ approach saw six players brought to Atlanta by Dimitroff named to the Pro Bowl in Vic Beasley Jr. (1), Matt Bryant, Devonta Freeman (2), Julio Jones (4), Mack (4), and Matt Ryan (4).

A testament to how Dimitroff and Quinn have reshaped the club’s roster over the last two seasons, the Falcons return nine offensive starters and 18 defensive players that started at least one game. With most of its core players returning, ESPN listed the Falcons as the top roster in the NFL entering 2017. The duo began the 2017 offseason by focusing on retaining as many players from the NFC championship winning squad as possible. Atlanta tendered WR Taylor Gabriel, S Ricardo Allen, G Ben Garland, and CB Akeem King. The team then extended or re-signed six players, including QB Matt Schaub, DT Courtney Upshaw, TE Levine Toilolo, LB LeRoy Reynolds, and S Kemal Ishmael.

Prior to the 2017 NFL Draft, Dimitroff signed CB Desmond Trufant to a five-year contract extension locking up one of the game’s top cover cornerbacks for the next six years. Under Dimitroff, the club has made a habit of extending its core players prior to them reaching free agency. Another example of this commitment to pillar players came prior to Atlanta’s first preseason game of 2017 when the club announced a five-year extension for Freeman.

Ardent believers in building through the draft, Dimitroff and Quinn added six players to the brotherhood in April. Looking to continue to add speed and talent to the defense, Atlanta traded up five spots in the first round to select DE Takkarist McKinley out of UCLA. The club added LB Duke Riley, a passionate and competitive defender out of LSU, in the third round. The Falcons would switch gears in the fourth round taking yet another player with NFL-lineage in Oregon State’s G Sean Harlow. Dimitroff pulled San Diego State S Damontae Kazee’s name off the board as the first of three fifth round picks, followed by Wyoming RB Brian Hill, and Drake TE Eric Saubert.

“Dan and I talked about this at the beginning of the draft, we were really hoping to split the draft between offense and defense, and we feel we accomplished what we were looking to accomplish in this draft,” said Dimitroff. “[We are] really encouraged by where we are. Our contributors, potential contributors on this team, from not only on the field again but the type of people they are, as far as adding to our culture here from the standpoint of highly competitive guys, gritty guys, driven guys, and focused guys. We’re really excited.”

In their first offseason together, Dimitroff and Quinn began the process of laying the foundation for how Quinn envisioned the way his team should look on the field. Dimitroff and his personnel department made 21 moves prior to the draft as they re-calibrated the roster.

When the free agency period began, Atlanta focused on adding speed to both sides of the ball. Dimitroff and the Falcons signed 12 players in free agency including; OLB Brooks Reed, and DE Adrian Clayborn.

With the focus turned to the Draft, Dimitroff and Quinn honed in on the defensive side of the ball and addressing the team’s pass rush. With the eighth overall pick, Atlanta selected Adairsville, GA native, and Clemson OLB Vic Beasley. Dimitroff and Quinn went defense again in the second round when they added LSU cornerback Jalen Collins before addressing a couple of offensive needs in the third (RB Tevin Coleman, Indiana) and fourth (WR Justin Hardy, ECU) rounds. The Falcons went back to Clemson University for their fifth-round selection and added Conyers, GA native DT Grady Jarrett. Atlanta finished out the 2015 Draft with two seventh round picks (T Jake Rodgers, Eastern Washington and CB Akeem King, San Jose State).

From 2013-14, Atlanta struggled to find sustained success on the field and compiled a 10-22 record, while suffering through significant injuries to key players and losses in close games. Following the 2013 season, Dimitroff added Scott Pioli as the assistant general manager. Pioli and Dimitroff worked together with the New England Patriots from 2002-07. In the 2014 Draft, Dimitroff targeted the top left tackle in the draft, Texas A&M's Jake Matthews. Matthews was selected as the sixth overall pick and was the highest the Falcons have selected in the Draft since 2008 when they held the third overall pick.

Two other gems from the 2014 class were Freeman and Allen. Both Freeman and Allen became starters for the Falcons in 2015 and experienced breakout performances. Freeman was named to his first Pro Bowl after recording 1,056 rushing yards, 73 receptions, 578 receiving yards and 14 total touchdowns. Allen tallied 68 tackles, five passes defended, three interceptions, one sack and one fumble recovery while starting 14 games in 2015.

Dimitroff's calculated, yet aggressive tactics on draft day came into play once again during the 2013 Draft. Since arriving in Atlanta, the Falcons have made at least one trade during the draft and that approach continued in 2013. Atlanta held the 30th pick in the first round, but they knew the player they coveted would not make it past the 23rd selection. Dimitroff called one of his former lieutenants and now General Manager of the St. Louis Rams, Les Snead, who held the 22nd pick. The trade allowed the Falcons to acquire Trufant from the University of Washington. Trufant was the player Atlanta had their sights set on the entire time, but Dimitroff knew they would have to be aggressive to make sure they obtained their target.

Atlanta won 36 games from 2010-12, which included three straight playoff berths and one trip to the NFC Championship Game. There has never been a more successful three-year stretch in franchise history, and Dimitroff was the architect of those teams.

The success of the Falcons under the guidance of Dimitroff has been obtained by adding pieces in every way possible. He has been active in free agency and trades, all while staying true to the formula of building the base of your team through the Draft. Dimitroff's has made several notable acquisitions during his tenure. He has drafted or signed 13 players that have been named to a combined 24 Pro Bowls.

Dimitroff's landmark acquisition came during the 2011 Draft. His philosophy of addressing the needs of the team and being aggressive if the organization believes it is the right move was put on display once again. Atlanta held the 27th overall pick entering the draft. While most thought Dimitroff would stay put and take the best player available at 27, he had a different thought. Dimitroff reached out to the Cleveland Browns, who held the number six pick, in hopes of landing an impactful player to help the team. With Dimitroff's keen sense for the draft and talent evaluation, the Falcons manufactured a trade with the Browns and selected University of Alabama wide receiver Julio Jones with the sixth pick.

Jones has become one of the top receivers in the NFL since 2011 and has been named to four Pro Bowls. In 2015, Jones earned his second straight Pro Bowl selection after leading the NFL with 1,871 receiving yards and tying for the league lead with 136 receptions. He was named an All-Pro selection by the Associated Press, Pro Football Focus, Yahoo!, and Sporting News.

The 2009 Atlanta Falcons capped off their first back-to-back winning seasons in the history of the franchise with a 20-10 victory at Tampa Bay in the season finale. For long-time Falcons fans, this was quite a monumental feat. But for Dimitroff and his staff, this was just another block in the foundation for his vision for this organization.

Once becoming the general manager in 2008, Dimitroff's first move was signing talented free agent running back Michael Turner from San Diego. Turner fittingly exploded onto the scene as a full-time starter for the first time in his career, finishing with 1,699 rushing yards with a club record 17 touchdowns on his way to his first Pro Bowl, while finishing second in MVP voting.

Dimitroff's initial '08 draft was a windfall, delivering franchise quarterback Matt Ryan, the consensus NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, starting left tackle Sam Baker, starting middle linebacker and All-NFL rookie selection, Curtis Lofton, and eventual starting free safety Thomas DeCoud. His adept choices also included solid contributors in wide receiver Harry Douglas and defensive end, Kroy Biermann.

He is responsible for all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Quinn when constructing the roster. He has final authority over all the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, and trades. He also handles coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Quinn.

Dimitroff climbed his way up the NFL mountain to general manager by working his way through the scouting ranks as a combine/BLESTO Scout, an area scout, national scout, and Director of College Scouting.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout (and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots). Other key influences that have also helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today include Falcons Assistant General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

The younger Dimitroff took a genuine desire for scouting players to the ultimate level early in his life. He became the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990 as his first taste into the world of scouting. In 1992, he moved on to the World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

Dimitroff's career aspirations brought him to the NFL and the Detroit Lions where he became a College Scout in 1994. It was in his years as Scout for the Lions that he was introduced to Atlanta for the first time while evaluating the Southeastern part of the country. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a College Scout for the Browns for four years before landing with the Patriots in 2002.

During his five years as the Director of College Scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluated all of the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77-17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won back to back Super Bowls in 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX), while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season.

Dimitroff captained his college team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987-1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas has one son, Mason and one daughter, Aja Neve.

Scott Pioli is entering his 24th season in the NFL. He has been named NFL Executive of the Year by various national media outlets five different seasons during his career, including honors from Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, and Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. In nine years with the New England Patriots, Pioli helped the club win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII, and XXXIX, claim four AFC championships, and six AFC East titles.

In addition to his front office experience, Pioli spent the 2013 season as an analyst on NBC's Football Night in America and Sirius XM radio where he offered fans behind the scenes insight into the NFL. Pioli also serves as an active member of the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Fellowship Advisory Council, helping to make the NFL a more diverse and inclusive league.

Pioli was the architect of one of the greatest turnarounds in Kansas City Chiefs history as the club won the AFC West with a 10-6 record in his second season at the helm. It was Kansas City's first division title and home playoff appearance since 2003. In four seasons with the Chiefs, Pioli drafted four Pro Bowl players Eric Berry (4), Justin Houston (4), Dontari Poe (2), and Dexter McCCluster. This is the second-most Pro Bowlers drafted from 2009-2012, behind only the Seattle Seahawks.

Pioli joined the Chiefs after serving as the Vice President of Player Personnel with the New England Patriots for nine seasons. With New England, the Patriots became widely recognized as one of the NFL's model franchises. Working in close concert with Head Coach Bill Belichick, the duo rapidly developed the Patriots into a consistent championship contender.

Pioli and Belichick became the first personnel director/head coach tandem in league annals to win three Super Bowls during a four-year span (2001-04).

Pioli was named the George Young NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News following the 2003 and 2004 seasons, an award voted on by other NFL executives. The youngest individual ever to win that accolade, Pioli joined Bobby Beathard (Washington '82-83) and Bill Polian (Carolina '95-96) as just the third person to ever win that honor in consecutive seasons. During the 2000's, Sports Illustrated named Pioli the number one GM/Pro Sports Executive, Sporting News named him the NFL Executive of the Decade, and ESPN named him the NFL Personnel Man of the Decade.

Pioli began his NFL career as a Scouting Assistant for the Cleveland Browns in 1992. He spent the next three seasons working as the Browns Pro Personnel Assistant. He was promoted to Pro Personnel Coordinator when the team moved to Baltimore in 1996.

In 1997, Pioli was hired as the New York Jets Director of Pro Personnel. In just two seasons working with Head Coach Bill Parcells, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from a 1-15 campaign in 1996 to a 12-4 record in 1998. Those 12 wins in 1998 were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since 1968.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State (1983-87), where he was a three-time All-New England selection and graduated with a degree in Communications. From 1988-89, he served as a Graduate Assistant at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications in television and film.

Pioli then took a full-time coaching opportunity at Murray State, where he spent one season as the offensive line coach (1990) and one season as the defensive line coach (1991). He left the coaching ranks to join the Browns personnel department in 1992.

While he has made his living in the arena of professional sports, Pioli is passionate about the importance of education, diversity, and the arts. Dan Quinn was named the 16th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history in February of 2015. In two years, he has compiled a 19-13 regular season record and a 2-1 postseason mark, while leading the club to an NFC title and its second Super Bowl appearance. Under Quinn's guidance, Atlanta built on an 8-8 season in 2015 to finish at 11-5 last season. In his first playoff appearance as a head coach, Quinn dispatched his former team, the Seattle Seahawks, in the divisional round before closing the Georgia Dome with a 44-21 defeat of the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship game. Despite falling to the New England Patriots, 34-28, in the NFL's first Super Bowl decided by overtime, Quinn has built a brotherhood that is poised to challenge the NFC's top echelon teams for years to come.

Last season, Quinn's leadership helped produce six Pro Bowlers, including quarterback Matt Ryan, running back Devonta Freeman, wide receiver Julio Jones, center Alex Mack, outside linebacker Vic Beasley Jr., and placekicker Matt Bryant. Ryan became the first player in franchise history to be named NFL MVP and joined Jones and Beasley as Associated Press first team All-Pros. Additionally, Quinn earned the NFL's Salute to Service award for his commitment to honoring and supporting the armed services and the military community.

Quinn's influence on Atlanta's young defense was clearly seen in 2016 as several first and second-year players filled key roles on the unit. His impact was perhaps clearest on Beasley, who took the NFL's sack crown with 15.5 in his second year in the league – the second most by a Falcon in a single season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Quinn's defensive line pedigree also helped lead to the emergence of defensive tackle Grady Jarrett who tied a Super Bowl record by sacking Tom Brady three times in Houston. While second-year players like Beasley and Jarrett emerged as playmakers, last season's rookie class also made an instant impact. First-round pick Keanu Neal and second-rounder Deion Jones were both strong candidates for defensive rookie of the year after finishing as the top two tacklers among first-year players.

HOME IMPROVEMENTS

After only recording 19 sacks in Quinn's first year, the Falcons defense recorded 34 sacks in 2016, which was the most they've recorded since 2006 (37).

SACKS BY SEASON

Year	Sacks	Sack Yds
2006	37	235
2016	34	228
2008	33	240
2011	32	229

Atlanta's young and improving defense was buoyed by the NFL's top scoring offense in 2016. The Falcons captured their fourth NFC South title and secured the NFC's second seed in the playoffs following an 11-5 season. While the offense fired on all cylinders, Quinn's defense showed great strides over final month of the season. Atlanta allowed 25.7 points per game for its first 11 games last season. Over the final five games of the regular season that number dropped to just 20.8 points per game. In playoffs, the defense held the Seahawks and Packers to 20 and 21 points on the way to winning the NFC title.

Despite falling just short of reaching NFL's pinnacle last season, Quinn began 2017 with Everest mountaineering metaphor. His team had made a summit push and was forced back from the 29,000 ft. peak, but not all the way to zero, not to sea level. The Falcons opened the offseason at basecamp, some 12,000 feet from the summit, where they would begin to acclimatize for another run at the peak.

Quinn focused his team on owning the process of preparing and improving. This program focuses on three pillars - ball, brotherhood, and battle. The regard for the ball on offense and defense, the connection between players, and constant competition. After two seasons, Quinn said the team had moved from a neighborhood to a brotherhood. He continued his quest to create the best culture in professional sports by bringing back Acumen Performance Group to work with his players on sharpening their mental and physical skills. Each phase of the offseason was centered around the pillars of the program and aimed at finding a way to make each player one percent better.

Co-teambuilders, Quinn and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff focused on retaining as many players from the NFC championship winning squad as possible during free agency. Atlanta tendered WR Taylor Gabriel, S Ricardo Allen, G Ben Garland, and CB Akeem King. The team then extended or re-signed six players, including QB Matt Schaub, DT Courtney Upshaw, TE Levine Toilolo, LB LeRoy Reynolds, and S Kemal Ishmael. A testament to how Quinn and Dimitroff have reshaped the club's roster over the last two seasons, the Falcons return nine offensive starters and 18 defensive players that started at least one game.

Six players joined the brotherhood through the 2017 NFL Draft in April. Looking to bolster the pass rush, the Falcons traded up to select UCLA defensive end Takkarist McKinley in the first round. A fiery competitor, McKinley adds another talented young player to Atlanta's defensive line. The club picked linebacker Duke Riley of LSU in the third round, giving them another speedy and passionate player for front seven. Switching gears to offense in the fourth round, the Falcons selected an offensive guard with NFL lineage in Oregon State's Sean Harlow. Looking to split their six picks, Quinn and Dimitroff selected San Diego State safety Damontae Kazee as the first of three fifth round picks, followed by Wyoming running back Brian Hill, and Drake tight end Eric Saubert.

In his first season at the helm Quinn led the team to a 5-0 start, becoming the first coach in franchise history to begin his career with five straight wins. Despite a mid-season slump, Quinn rallied the Falcons to wins in two of their final three games to close out the season with an 8-8 record. His defensive background was crucial in helping Atlanta improve from 32nd in total defense to 16th over one year.

Quinn headed into his second offseason with the team, contending to seek and craft a roster that highlighted speed and physicality. The team re-signed core veterans DE Adrian Clayborn and LB Philip Wheeler. These players exemplified Quinn's fast and physical motto during his first season with the team. The Falcons also went out and added several players during the 2016 offseason

In 2014, Quinn's defense led the NFL in scoring defense (15.9), total defense (267.1), and passing yards (185.6), while ranking third in rushing yards (81.5). The Seahawks also boasted the League's top defensive unit in 2013, en route to a win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII.

Quinn originally joined the Seahawks in 2009, after spending the previous six years coaching the defensive lines for the San Francisco 49ers (2003-04), Miami Dolphins (2005-06) and the New York Jets (2007-08). He previously served as the Seahawks assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2009 under Jim Mora.

He began his NFL coaching career in San Francisco as its defensive assistant in 2001 before moving on to coach the 49ers defensive line from 2003-2004. Quinn got his start coaching the defensive line at William and Mary in 1994, followed by a season at Virginia Military Institute. He held the same position with Hofstra for four seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000.

Quinn was a four-year letter winner and two-time co-captain at Division III Salisbury (Md.) State as a defensive lineman, where he recorded 139 tackles and eight tackles for loss. Keith Armstrong returns to the Falcons for a 10th season as the club's special teams coordinator. His units have been a staple of the Falcons success over the last six seasons. His teams have proven to be one of the most consistent units in the NFL over his nine years in Atlanta and his coverage units have finished in the top 10 seven of the last eight seasons he's been with the team. Since 2008, Armstrong's punt return coverage group ranks second in total return yards (1,964). His kickoff coverage units also has posted the sixth most touchbacks during that time (357) and are first in the NFL in touchdowns against (one).

The Birds special teams have been guided by Armstrong since 2008 and Falcons kickers have reaped the benefits of his coaching. The Falcons kicking game has been at or near the top under Armstrong and rank sixth in the NFL in field goal percentage since 2008 (87.0 pct.) and have produced the fourth most points in the NFL (1,130) over that same period of time.

Last season, P Matt Boshier continued to grow under Armstrong's guidance. Boshier averaged 46.8 yards per punt, which was eighth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC. He also had a total of 65 touchbacks on kickoffs, which was tied for second in the league. 61.9-percent of his kickoffs were touchbacks.

In 2014, the Falcons added the NFL's all-time top returner WR Devin Hester. Under the guidance of Armstrong, Hester made an immediate impact on the Falcons return units, ranking among the League leaders in kickoff and punt return average. He set the NFL record for career return touchdowns with a 62-yard punt return TD against Tampa Bay in Week 3. He was named to his fourth Pro Bowl for his performance last season.

The team also saw the return of WR Eric Weems to Armstrong's unit in 2014. Weems played a key role on Atlanta's coverage units since returning to the Falcons in 2014. The Pro Bowl special teams ace notched a team record six special teams tackles (according to STATS LLC.) in Atlanta's Week 11 win over the Carolina Panthers. Since 1994, Weems is one of 11 players in the NFL to post six special teams tackles in a single game. According to STATS LLC.,

K Matt Bryant has been with the team since 2009, and has experienced his best success since teaming up with Armstrong. Since 2009, Bryant has connected on 196 of his 222 field goal attempts. His 88.3 field goal percentage ranks third in the NFL during that period. In 2014, Bryant hit 29 of 32 field goal attempts, including an NFL leading seven kicks of 50+ yards.

Last season, Bryant broke former Falcons K Morten Andersen's franchise record for points scored in week eight. Bryant broke the record on an extra point in the first quarter following Taylor Gabriel's 47-yard touchdown reception. He now has 892 points.

Also, under Armstrong Bryant scored 158 points in 2016, which lead all scorers. Bryant broke the franchise record for most points scored in a season in Week 16. His 158 points were the 10th most points scored in an NFL season.

Under the tutelage of Armstrong, the Falcons special teams unit continued to thrive in 2013. Armstrong's groups were a consistent corps each and every week. Every season, Armstrong seems to find a new special teams maven and 2013 was no different. RB Antone Smith led the team in special teams tackles (11) and WR Drew Davis was close behind with seven. The duo helped the Birds allow 7.6 yards per punt return, which ranked among the NFL leaders.

Another player that made big strides in 2013 under the coaching of Armstrong was third-year punter Matt Boshier. He experienced a career and single-season franchise-best 41.1 net punting average Boshier has developed into one of the top punters in the NFL. His 41.1 net average in 2013 ranked sixth in the League. He has also handled the Falcons kickoff duties the last three years, and in 2013 Boshier proved to be a valuable weapon. Boshier's consistency led to touchbacks on 68.5 percent of his kickoffs, a mark that ranked third in the NFL last season.

In 2012, Atlanta's kicking game was propelled by Bryant and Boshier as the Falcons posted a 13-3 record and won their second NFC South Division crown since 2010. Bryant produced another solid season in 2012, by connecting on 33 of 38 field goals, all 44 PATs and tallied a career and franchise single-season high 143 points. Bryant not only set the franchise mark for points in a season, he also set a new franchise mark for most field goals made in a season (33). Bryant kicked three game-winning field goals in 2012, including a 49-yard field goal against the Seahawks in the Divisional Round of the playoffs. He has connected on six game-winning field goals since joining the Falcons.

Atlanta's kickoff and punt return teams continued to flourish under Armstrong. The Falcons ranked 10th in the NFL in average starting field position (29.0 yard-line) in part to Atlanta's return game. On the flipside, Armstrong's coverage troops managed to help the Falcons rank fifth in opponents average starting field position (25.5 yard -line) in 2012.

In 2011, Armstrong used two rookies to propel his coverage units in LB Akeem Dent and Boshier. Dent, a linebacker out of the University of Georgia, led the Falcons in special teams tackles (19) and Boshier finished the season with the highest single-season net punting average for a rookie in Falcons history (38.9 net yards per punt).

Armstrong's staple on special teams was Bryant..

Bryant finished 27 of 29 on field goal attempts and made all 45 PATs. For the second straight year, Bryant led the Falcons in scoring (126) and his 93.1 field goal pct. marked the third best single-season field goal percentage in team history.

His special team units were a big contributor to the Falcons winning the NFC South division title and posting the best record in the NFC with a 13-3 mark in 2010.

Armstrong's troops led the League in some key categories such as kickoff return average (28.5), opponents starting field position (22.2) on kickoffs, overall opponent field position (24.3), opponent's field goal percentage (65.2%) and fewest penalties (seven).

In 2010, WR/KR Eric Weems became the first Falcons player in team history to score touchdowns on both a kickoff return (102) and punt return (55) in the same season under Armstrong's direction. Through Armstrong's steady influence, Weems was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers to become the first Falcons special teamer to be afforded such honors since Allen Rossum in 2004. He also garnered All-NFL accolades by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America.

Among his notable achievements with the Falcons, Armstrong's punt coverage team boasted an NFL record-low 43 opponent punt return yards allowed in 2008 and a first place ranking in opponent starting field position on kickoffs (21.4 average start) in 2009.

In 2008, Atlanta ranked second in opponents starting field position, eighth in kickoff coverage, eighth in field goals made and first in points allowed on returns.

The 48 year-old native of Levittown, Pa. joined the Falcons following seven seasons in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins. The 21-year NFL coaching veteran was instrumental in 2007 in helping punt returner Ted Ginn, Jr. finish fourth in the AFC with a 9.6 return average. The average was also the 10th best mark in the entire NFL among all punt returners. With Armstrong's coaching, K Jay Feely connected on 21 of 23 field goals for 91.3 percent, which ranked second in the League.

From 2001-2006, the Dolphins finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all but one season under Armstrong's positive direction. During that same time frame, Miami opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, including a 4.5-yard mark in 2001 when they led the League in the category, and a 4.9-yard average (third in NFL) in 2005. In 2003, the Dolphins ranked first in the NFL in opponents' average starting field position with a 25.0-yard line mark and finished second in the same category in 2006 with a 24.9 figure.

Prior to landing in Miami, Armstrong served in the same role with the Chicago Bears from 1997-2000. In 2000, Chicago's special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0 yards per return.

Armstrong earned his start in the NFL with Atlanta in 1994 as Safeties Coach. In 1996, he was promoted to run the entire secondary. Before his full-time positions in the NFL, he was part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program during training camps with the New York Jets (1991), Dallas Cowboys (1992) and Chicago Bears (1993).

Armstrong coached his way through the collegiate ranks before joining the NFL. He garnered four letters as a running back and defensive back at Temple University from 1983-1986 before joining the school as a graduate assistant in 1987.

Armstrong then joined the University of Miami as the Defensive Backs and Special Teams Coach for one season (1988) before coaching the wide receivers at the University of Akron (1989). His last two stops in college before joining the Falcons came at Oklahoma State as the Secondary Coach from 1990-1992 and Notre Dame as the Linebackers and Special Teams Coach in 1993.

This past season, Morgan coached an offensive line that blocked for the NFL MVP, Matt Ryan. The offensive line was a major reason why the team averaged a league-high and franchise high 33.8 points per game. The Falcons broke the franchise record for most points scored in a season in Week 15, with the help of the offensive, when they scored 540 total points on the season, which tied them with the 2000 St. Louis Rams for the eighth most points scored in a season.

In 2016, the offensive line also helped block Ryan who threw for a career and franchise high 4,944 yards and 38 touchdowns. Ryan also had a career high 117.1 passer rating, which was the fifth best all-time passer rating. Morgan also helped coach center Alex Mack who was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl.

Morgan's offensive line also helped pave the way for a rushing attack that racked up 1,928 yards on the season, which was fifth in the league in 2016. Under his guidance, the offensive line blocked for Devonta Freeman, who finished in the top 10 in rushing for the second year in a row, and made it to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

During his first year, his offensive line helped produce the Falcons first 1,000 yard rusher since 2011, while giving up the eighth fewest sacks in the league last year. The offensive line also helped block for an offense that recorded 374.1 yards per game, which was seventh in the NFL.

Morgan spent the 2014 season as assistant offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. In 2014, Seattle used eight different starting combinations on the offensive line, including playoffs, and still led the NFL in rushing yards, recording a franchise-high 2,762 yards. In addition to leading the League in rushing last season, the Seahawks offensive line also assisted in helping Seattle lead the NFL in explosive plays (135) and explosive running plays (61) while paving the way to Super Bowl XLIX.

Prior to arriving in Seattle, Morgan served as an assistant offensive line coach with the Washington Redskins (2011-13) and Oakland Raiders (2009-10). In 2012, Morgan helped direct a unit that rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933 and their clubs first NFC East title since 1999. Also during his time with the Redskins, tackle Trent Williams was selected to two consecutive Pro Bowls under Morgan's guidance in 2012 and 2013.

In 2010, Oakland ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per game (356.6) and sixth in points per game (25.6). Prior to Oakland, Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High School in Houston.

Morgan served as a graduate assistant and offensive line coach at the University of Idaho after two years as an assistant coach at Copperas Cove (Texas) High. He played offensive line at the University of Colorado from 1995-1999 and earned his master's degree in educational leadership at Idaho.

Raheem Morris is entering his 15th year of NFL coaching experience while going into his third year with the Falcons. During Morris' first year in Atlanta, he was named the Assistant Head Coach/Passing Game Coordinator, where he helped out with the secondary and how to stop the passing attacks of the opposing teams. The defense also only allowed 19 passing touchdowns, which was tied for the third lowest total in the League, along with forcing 15 interceptions last season, which ranked within the top 10 in the League. These numbers gave the defense a 1.27 touchdown to interception ratio, which was the seventh-best TD/Int ratio in the NFL.

He was named the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach last offseason, and this season he coached one of the best receivers in the game in Julio Jones. Jones recorded 1,409 receiving yards, which was second in the NFL. His entire receiving group teamed up for 223 catches for 3,226 yards and 22 touchdowns. Taylor Gabriel recorded a career-high six receiving touchdowns and Mohamed Sanu tallied a career-high 59 receptions.

Morris joined the Falcons after spending three seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Washington Redskins. In 2012, he helped Washington's defense finish tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways. The Redskins scored four defensive touchdowns in 2012, including two from the secondary. Morris oversaw a unit that tied a league-high with 94 passes defended and ranked fifth in the NFC with a 3.3 interception rate.

Prior to arriving in Washington, Morris spent three seasons as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2009-2011. He was the league's youngest head coach in 2009 and in 2010, his team finished with a 10-6 record. The Buccaneers made their best turnaround in franchise history in 2010 after going 3-13 in 2009.

Morris served in multiple capacities with the Buccaneers during two different stints with the team before he was promoted to head coach. He spent two seasons as the team's defensive backs coach from 2007-08, during which time the Buccaneers allowed only ranked second in the NFL allowing 170.5 passing yards per game. During that span, the Buccaneers ranked among the League leaders with 22 interceptions.

He spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Kansas State in 2006, where he helped seven Wildcats conference honors. Morris' unit featured two first-team All-Big 12 selections and one second-team honoree.

Morris made his NFL coaching debut with Tampa Bay as a defensive quality control coach in 2002, when the club won Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers defense allowed an NFL-low 12.3 points per game, the third-best scoring defense since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant with the Bucs in 2003 and as assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

In 10 seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers finished fifth in total defense five times, while leading the League in 2002 and 2005. He also helped the team finish as the top-rated pass defense three times (2002, 2004 & 2007).

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports, and video breakdown. He moved on to Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris served as defensive backs coach at Hofstra from 2000 to 2001 before

2002-05	Assistant Special teams   Texans

Eric Sutulovich will continue to work with Special Teams Coordinator Keith Armstrong to make sure the Falcons units continue to be considered among the very best in the NFL. The 2017 season will be Sutulovich's ninth season in Atlanta.

Last season, P Matt Boshers continued to grow with the help of Sutulovich. Boshers averaged 46.8 yards per punt, which was eighth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC. He also had a total of 65 touchbacks on kickoffs, which was tied for second in the league. 61.9-percent of his kickoffs were touchbacks.

In 2015, P Matt Boshers ranked sixth in the League and second in the NFC with an average of 47.2 yards per punt. Also, his career-high 69-yard punt against the Giants in Week 2 was the sixth longest in the NFL.

In 2014, WR Eric Weems played a key role on Atlanta's coverage units since returning to the Falcons in 2014. The Pro Bowl special teams ace notched a team record six special teams tackles (according to STATS LLC.) in Atlanta's Week 11 win over the Carolina Panthers. Since 1994, Weems is one of 11 players in the NFL to post six special teams tackles in a single game. According to STATS LLC.,

In 2013, Atlanta's special teams unit allowed 7.6 yards per punt return, which ranked among the NFL leaders. Under the guidance of Sutulovich, top-tier gunners WR Drew Davis and RB Antone

Smith led the coverage units. Davis and Smith combined for 18 special teams tackles while forcing opponents to settle for 23 fair catches with 26 of P Matt Boshers's kicks landing inside the 20-yard line.

With assistance from Sutulovich in 2012, Atlanta's kicking game was propelled by kicker Matt Bryant as the Falcons posted a 13-3 record and won their second NFC South Division crown since 2010. Bryant produced another solid season in 2012, by connecting on 33 of 38 field goals, all 44 PATs and tallied a career and franchise single-season high 143 points. Bryant not only set the franchise mark for points in a season, he also set a new franchise mark for most field goals made in a season (33).

With Sutulovich's help, Atlanta's punt coverage unit led the League in punt return average by allowing just 4.8 yards per return in 2011. In addition to that impressive number, the Falcons special team's unit forced their opponents to start a NFL-high 62 drives inside their 20-yard line.

Individual achievements were also a highlight in 2011 for the Birds special teams. K Matt Bryant set a franchise record for most consecutive field goals made in team history with 27 when he connected on a 47-yarder in the third quarter at Detroit in Week 7. Rookie LB Akeem Dent collared 19 special teams tackles, which was tied for the second-highest total in a single-season in club history.

In 2010, through Sutulovich's assistance, the Falcons special teams continued to excel. Atlanta's kickoff unit held opponents to an NFL-best average starting position of their own 22.2-yard line after kickoffs. The Falcons were led by specialist Eric Weems who averaged 27.5 yards per kickoff return, which ranked third in the NFL and earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

Sutulovich came to Atlanta after working for one season with the Detroit Lions as an Offensive Assistant in 2008. His original foray into the NFL came with the Houston Texans in its inaugural campaign in 2002. Sutulovich was the team's Assistant Special Teams Coach for four seasons (2002-05).

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Sutulovich spent one season as a football assistant for the University of Kansas. He also spent time in the collegiate ranks with Fort Scott Community College as the Offensive Coordinator (2001), the University of Pittsburgh as the offensive graduate assistant (2000-01) and Louisiana Tech as the offensive graduate assistant (1997-99).

Sutulovich and his wife, Melissa, have two daughters, Sage and Ellie, and two sons, Maddax and Gabe.

ATLANTA FALCONS
TEAM HISTORY

RANKIN M. SMITH - TEAM FOUNDER

"He was a pioneer and a quiet leader. He was a person of great integrity and had a lot of respect from me and my predecessor, Pete Rozelle, and from all of the other owners. He was such a high quality person. He was a person on whose work you could rely on. In the 1960s he was a pioneer in bringing the NFL to Georgia, and particularly in the Southeast."

- Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons October 26, 1997 game at Carolina. Some of the largest footprints on professional, college and high school sports in Atlanta belong to Smith, who founded the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

Over three decades ago in the early 1960s, Smith began planting the seeds that saw professional sports finally blossom in Atlanta.

Smith was part of a group that formed "Major Sports, Inc.," with goals of pro sports franchises for Atlanta. That group helped get Atlanta Stadium built by 1965. Major Sports, Inc., later became the Stadium Authority that operated Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Smith paid the highest price in NFL history at the time in 1965 for an NFL franchise. Former commissioner Pete Rozelle and Smith made the deal in about five minutes and the Atlanta Falcons brought the largest and most popular sport to the city of Atlanta.

Smith worked with the city, county and state to build one of the largest facilities for conventions, trade shows and other major events in the world. The spectacular Georgia Dome opened its doors in 1992, giving the Falcons one of the best fan-friendly stadiums in America. Having the Georgia Dome helped bring the Olympic games to Atlanta in 1992.

He was the catalyst and driving force in bringing the most prestigious of all sporting events, the Super Bowl, to Atlanta in 1994. The week-long fanfare and the most-watched TV sport in the world, added a huge economic value to the city and tons of free publicity to lure other events, conventions and meetings to the city. He lobbied hard to bring back the game to Atlanta in 2000.

The date June 30, 1965, will always be remembered as both a termination and a commencement in the history of Atlanta sports. For on that day the end came to the many and disparate struggles to place a professional football team in the Southeast's key metropolis. At the same time the Atlanta Falcons were born and began a storied tenure in the National Football League.

All that had gone before — the successes (an $18 million stadium to play in) and the near-misses (aborted attempts to place other franchises in the city) — was set aside for the immediate business of fielding a team in little over a year's time.

Prime mover in this task was Rankin Smith, a young insurance executive who had controlling ownership of the Falcons.

Virtually unknown to the general public before that June day, Smith immediately endeared himself to aficionados of the sport by asking a choice rhetorical question at a press conference following his acquisition of the franchise: "Doesn't every adult male in America want to own his own football team?" Not every adult male American has the wherewithal to swing such a deal, but it was comforting to hear that a man is capable of dreams like those of any other guy.

The day's proceedings threw the city into a happy delirium unequalled in the history of football. By the time Smith got back to his insurance office 24 hours later, there had been over 1,000 phone calls for tickets. He had to push his way through stacks of mail. By August, when a contest was completed which resulted in the nickname Falcons, a few of the avid fans even had come to blows in defense of what they believed their adopted team should be called. Several persons suggested the name "Falcons" in a contest, but a school teacher from nearby Griffin, Miss Julia Elliott, was selected winner because of her reasons: "the falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

By the middle of December, Smith had signed the most coveted college football player in the nation, Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. By Christmas Eve, when the Falcons cut off a brief 54-day ticket sale requiring almost no promotion, an NFL record had been established for season tickets sold by a new club (45,000).

And in January, Smith surprised the entire athletic fraternity by naming a head coach who never had been mentioned in the perpetual stream of journalistic speculation about the job. But Green Bay Packer assistant Norb Hecker assumed his new post with vigor and immediately embraced the gigantic job of sifting — along with Director of Player Personnel Gene Cronin — a huge list of NFL players made available to the Atlanta expansion team by other teams in the league.

Finally, three men were chosen from each club and these 42 formed the nucleus of the roster Hecker had to work with when he took the team to summer training camp in Black Mountain, North Carolina in early July. Added to this group were the drafted rookies, scores of free agents and a few miscellaneous players obtained in trades. In all, Hecker and his staff were faced with evaluating over 130 men from July to September.

Then, on August 27, in Columbia, South Carolina, the Falcons recorded their first victory, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 24-17, in a preseason game.

Once the stadium, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was built, Atlantans felt the time was ripe to start pursuing professional football. One independent group which had been active in NFL preseason promotions in Atlanta applied for franchises in both the AFL and the NFL, acting entirely on its own with no guarantee of stadium rights. Another group reported it had deposited earnest money for a team in the AFL.

With everyone running in different directions, some local businessmen worked out a deal and were awarded an AFL franchise on June 7, 1965, contingent upon acquiring exclusive stadium rights from city officials. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who had been moving deliberately in Atlanta matters, headed on the next plane down to Atlanta to protect his league's claim on the city of Atlanta. He forced the city to make a choice between the two leagues. Of course, on that memorable June 30, Rankin Smith and the NFL were the choice.

The huge void which had been the Southeast without an NFL team was beginning to close. Fans were looking now toward Atlanta. The Falcons expect to be filling that void for a long time.

A new chapter in the history of the Atlanta Falcons began on December 6, 2001. On that day, Arthur M. Blank, the co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, reached a preliminary agreement with the Falcons' Taylor Smith to purchase the team. In a special meeting prior to Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners voted unanimously to approve the purchase.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1966

Rankin M. Smith was awarded, by the National Football League, a franchise for the city of Atlanta for $8.5 million. At the time there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, eight AFL clubs. Officially, Atlanta became the 23rd professional football club in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger. An average of 56,526 people filled Atlanta Stadium to watch the Falcons finish their inaugural season at 3-11. The Falcons claimed their first victory on November 20, defeating the New York Giants, 27-16, at storied Yankee Stadium. Head Coach Norb Hecker's team, at the time, became the only expansion team in history not to finish in last place. The Falcons finished in seventh place in a field of eight teams in the NFL's Eastern Conference. The Falcons' first pick in the draft, LB Tommy Nobis, was voted to the Pro Bowl and named Rookie of the Year.

1967

A disappointing second year saw the Falcons finish the season at 1-12-1. While the broad picture looked bleak, there were cameos of excellence that led to a promising future. LB Tommy Nobis was named to his second Pro Bowl and RB Junior Coffey ended the year with 722 yards to finish as the eighth leading rusher in the league and the Falcons' Most Valuable Player.

1968

Norm Van Brocklin was named to replace Norb Hecker as head coach after three games in the season. The 2-12 Falcons won twice after Brocklin's arrival and finished short by a touchdown or less in three other games. DE Claude Humphrey, the Falcons first-round draft choice, was voted NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year for his play at left end. Billy Lothridge, despite having to start at safety, won his second consecutive NFL punting championship. LB Tommy Nobis was also named to his third-straight Pro Bowl.

1969

The Falcons doubled their best victory total ending the season at 6-8. Atlanta started the season with its first victory in a season opener, a 24-12 decision, vs. San Francisco at Fulton-County Stadium. Backup QB Randy Johnson was named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his four-touchdown effort in the Falcons' 48-31 victory over the Chicago Bears on November 16. RB Harmon Wages scored three touchdowns vs. New Orleans on December 7, as he threw, caught and ran for a touchdown in a 45-17 win. The club would finish the season in its highest place yet in the Coastal Division at third. Seven Falcons were named to the Pro Bowl: RB Jim Butler, QB Bob Berry, LB Greg Brezina, K Bob Etter, T George Kunz, TE Jim Mitchell and DB Ken Reaves.

1970

The Falcons completed their fifth season at 4-8-2, but were not far away from having their first winning season as four times Atlanta led deep in the fourth quarter (vs. San Francisco, Green Bay, Los Angeles and Philadelphia) only to lose or be tied in the final moments. Quarterback Bob Berry had the franchise's first 300-yard passing game vs. the Packers on September 27 and RB Jim Butler set a new club record in rushing with 127 yards on 17 carries in the home opener vs. the 49ers on October 4. Over 30 million viewers saw the Falcons face the Dolphins in Atlanta's first game nationally on Monday Night Football with Miami prevailing, 20-7. Defensive end Claude Humphrey, T George Kunz and LB Tommy Nobis represented the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1971

For the first time in team history, ticket prices are raised. Most seats increase in price from $6 to $7.50. Head coach Norm Van Brocklin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, becomes the third home of the Falcons' training camp. The Falcon uniform is also changed as the team switches to red jerseys. On November 22, Atlanta wins its first nationally-televised game with a 28-21 victory over Green Bay at home on Monday Night Football. The Falcons post their first winning season in history at 7-6-1, after WR Ken Burrow pulls in a winning touchdown pass from QB Bob Berry with 40 seconds remaining in a 24-20 victory over New Orleans on December 19 in the regular-season finale, but still do not qualify for the postseason. DE Claude Humphrey is named to his second-straight Pro Bowl.

Draft rights for Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn are obtained as the Falcons make four deals involving six veterans. RB Dave Hampton scores two touchdowns and rushes for a club record of 161 yards as the Falcons stop Los Angeles, 31-3, on October 1 for the team's first victory ever, in 11 games, over the Rams. Fellow RB Art Malone rushes for 103 yards, marking the first time in Atlanta's seven-year history that two backs

New Orleans in the season opener, 62-7. In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the club's history, Atlanta rebounds to defeat the previously unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, 20-14, before a capacity crowd and national-television audience at Atlanta Stadium. The Falcons finish the season at 9-5 for their most wins and best record ever, but lose out for the playoffs by just one game. Rookie kicking specialist Nick Mike-Mayer, DE Claude Humphrey, DE John Zook and T George Kunz were named to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team on December 18.

1974

Norm Van Brocklin is fired as head coach-general manager after eight games into the season on November 5. Marion Campbell, the Falcons' defensive coordinator since 1969, is named head coach the following day. A record low of 40,202 "no shows" is recorded at Atlanta Stadium as Los Angeles defeats the Falcons, 30-7, in sub-freezing weather on December 1. Rookie QB Kim McQuilken, making his second start of the year, leads the Falcons to a season-closing 10-3 victory over Green Bay to finish the team's record for the year at 3-11. DE Claude Humphrey and C Jeff Van Note are selected to represent Atlanta at the Pro Bowl.

1975

The Falcons trade veteran T George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the 1975 NFL draft. Atlanta also got the Colts' sixth round choice. QB Steve Bartkowski of California, a consensus All-America, is selected by the Falcons as the No. 1 draft choice on January 28. On February 26, Pat Peppler, instrumental in the construction of two Super Bowl championships at Green Bay (1967 and 1968) and Miami (1973 and 1974), is named the Falcons' new general manager. RB Dave Hampton finally cracked the elusive 1,000-yard Club, by gaining 61 yards in the final game of the season against the Green Bay Packers. Those yards pushed his total to 1,002, making him the first back in Falcons history to gain 1,000 or more yards rushing. Atlanta ended the season at 4-10. The Falcons had two players selected to the Pro Bowl following the season: C Jeff Van Note and P John James.

1976

After the club's fourth loss in five starts, Marion Campbell is fired as head coach. Chairman of the Board Rankin M. Smith Sr. names Pat Peppler interim head coach on October 11. Atlanta exploded for 17 points in the fourth quarter to upset playoff-bound Dallas, 17-10, on Nov. 21, before 54,992 fans at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Under Peppler, the Falcons finish the season 4-10. P John James is selected to his second straight Pro Bowl.

1977

The Falcons begin a complete revamping of the front office. On February 1, former Washington Redskin and Dallas Cowboy QB Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. is named President of the team. Leeman Bennett, an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Rams for four years, is named the Falcons' head coach on February 3. During the season, the Falcons defense established a modern-day NFL record of 129 points allowed in a 14-game season, as the club finishes 7-7. The defense gains the popular nickname "The Gritz Blitz". P John James, DE Claude Humphrey and DB Rolland Lawrence are named to the Pro Bowl.

1978

On March 30, the Falcons announce plans for a new year-round training site and team headquarters to be constructed in Suwanee, Georgia. The team unveiled new uniforms, which featured silver-gray pants on August 19. The Falcons record their first ever shutout in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on October 15, with a 14-0 defeat of Detroit. K Tim Mazzetti kicks five field goals to give Atlanta a 15-7 Monday Night victory over the Los Angeles Rams on October 30. On December 16, the Falcons clinch their first ever playoff berth when Chicago defeats Washington as the Falcons close out the season with a 9-7 record. QB Steve Bartowski throws two touchdown passes in the final eight minutes to spark a 14-13 Atlanta win vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Wild card Playoff Game on December 24 for the Falcons first-ever playoff victory. The Falcons lose the next week in the Divisional Playoff Game 27-20 at Dallas after squandering a 20-13 halftime lead.

Rookie RB William Andrews establishes a new club single game rushing record with a 167-yard performance at New Orleans on September 2, in his NFL debut. On September 16, QB Steve Bartkowski sets a new franchise record for single game passing with 326 yards on 20 of 29 passing against Denver. Running back Lynn Cain becomes the first Falcon player to ever score three touchdowns in a single game as he catches two and rushes for another against Oakland on October 14. In a 31-21 victory over San Francisco on December 16, records were broken for the season by Andrews with 1,023 yards rushing, WR Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Bartkowski with 2,502 passing yards (203-379). The Falcons finish the year at 6-10 and C Jeff Van Note is selected to play in the Pro Bowl.

The Falcons go on a nine-game winning streak, starting with a 41-14 rout of New Orleans, to finish with a 12-4 record to capture the team's first-ever NFC Western Division title. The Falcons nine straight wins and 12 wins on the season are both club bests. In a battle of 12-4 teams in Atlanta, the Falcons build a 27-17 lead over Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff game, but are defeated by the Cowboys 30-27 in front of the largest crowd in stadium history (60,022). The year features club records in passing from QB Steve Bartkowski (3,544 yards and 31 TDs), rushing by RB William Andrews (1,308 yards) and receiving by WR Alfred Jenkins (1,025 yards) plus LB Al Richardson got a takeaway in nine consecutive games as the team garnered a total of 42 takeaways. A record six Falcons are selected to play in the Pro Bowl: Andrews, Bartkowski, Jenkins, C Jeff Van Note, T Mike Kenn and TE Junior Miller.

1981

Trailing Green Bay 17-0 after three quarters on the road, the Falcons erupt for an NFL record tying 31 fourth quarter points in a 31-17 win. The team finishes the year at 7-9 and has a club-record seven members selected to the Pro Bowl: T Mike Kenn, QB Steve Bartkowski, C Jeff Van Note, WR Alfred Jenkins, RB William Andrews, TE Junior Miller and G R.C. Thielemann. The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they finished with the 7-9 record. The defeats were by 1,2,2,3,3,3 and 5 points.

1982

Season ticket sales are halted after reaching a club record 55,144 as Atlanta finishes the strike-shortened season at 5-4. For the third time in five seasons, the Falcons go to the playoffs with a playoff-clinching 17-7 victory on national-television at San Francisco on December 19. In the opening round of the playoffs at Minnesota, the Falcons special teams score touchdowns on a blocked punt and a fake field goal to help build a 21-13 lead in the second half. But the Vikings rally for 14 points in the 4th quarter to win 30-

1983

The Falcons end the year with a 7-9 record as new head coach Dan Henning takes over the team. DE Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two touchdowns in the same game on interception returns as Atlanta defeats Green Bay 41-34 in overtime. Running back William Andrews sets a new club record with 331 rushing attempts for 1,567 yards. QB Steve Bartkowski has his third 3,000-yard season and set a team mark with a 63.4% completion rate and just a 1.1% interception rate (5 interceptions in 432 passing attempts), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon on December 18.

1984

RB Gerald Riggs takes over for the Falcons' all time leading rusher William Andrews who is out for the season after knee surgery. On opening day at New Orleans, Riggs sets a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36-28 win. This begins the first of three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for Riggs who carries 483 times over 18 games without fumbling. The Falcons finish the year at 4-12.

1985

PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson became the NFL's all-time leading punt returner as he gains 58 yards in the season opener versus Detroit on September 8. On the final game of the season, RB Gerald Riggs runs for 158 yards, his 9th 100-yard game of the year, in a 16-10 win at New Orleans to finish the season with 1,719 yards and leads the NFC in rushing, while being named to the Pro Bowl. The team ends their second straight season at 4-12. Eddie LeBaron, Vice President and CEO, is dismissed, while former Falcon head coach Marion Campbell is hired as defensive coordinator.

1986

The Falcons soared to four straight wins by beating New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. On December 14, Atlanta Fulton-County Stadium played host to C Jeff Van Note day as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, Van Note was presented gifts including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his jersey #57 and being a classic). K Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PATs, as the team lost seven of their last nine contests to end the year at 7-8-1. G Bill Fralic and RB Gerald Riggs were selected to represent the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1987

For the second time in his career, Marion Campbell is named head coach of the team. After being defeated 48-10 at Tampa Bay in the season opener the Falcons rebound claiming victory over the eventual World Champion Washington Redskins 21-20 in front of over 50,000 fans at Fulton-County Stadium on September 20. Also on that day, PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson added another milestone to his brilliant career by becoming the NFL's all-time leading punt returner by recording his 259th lifetime return. On September 22, the NFL Players Association walk off the job for the second time in five years, but only one game is cancelled. The League's owners decide to continue with replacement players. RB Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher with 5,987 yards, surpassing William Andrews on December 6. P Rick Donnelly and WR Sylvester Stamps claim a pair of NFL individual titles as they finish the season with the league's punting title with a 44.03 average and a league-best 27.5 kickoff return average, respectively. The Falcons end the year with a 3-12 record, while G Bill Fralic and Riggs are named to the Pro Bowl.

1988

An improving Falcons defense was among the best in the NFL during the second half of the season as Atlanta finishes the '88 campaign at 5-11. Atlanta's "baby boomers" (average age of 25) allowed only six touchdowns over the final seven games. CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case picked off 10 passes on the season to finish atop the league charts and set a Falcons record for interceptions in a season. Running back John Settle put his name in the league record book by becoming the first free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season with 1,024 yards. G Bill Fralic joined Case and Settle in the Pro Bowl following the season.

CB Deion "Prime Time" Sanders, who after a lengthy holdout, reports to camp and takes part in practice on Friday and a Saturday walk-through before the season opener versus the Los Angeles Rams. In the first quarter, Sanders returns a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier in the week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a homerun and score a touchdown in the same week. G Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, the only guard in the NFL to do so, and is named to the 2nd team of the All-NFL team of the 80's. Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie defensive backs with five interceptions and gaining over 1,000 yards in return yardage. Head coach Marion Campbell announces his resignation after 12 games (3-9); leaving assistant head coach Jim Hanifan to take over for the final four games. The team ends the season with a 3-13 mark.

1990

Former Falcons defensive coordinator and Houston Oilers head coach Jerry Glanville accepts the offer to become the Falcons 9th head coach in franchise history. The team announces plans for their 25th Anniversary season that includes going back to the original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the anniversary logo patches for the uniforms. With the number one pick in the draft, Atlanta trades with Indianapolis for six-time Pro Bowl lineman T Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison and the following year's #1 pick. The Falcons close their first-ever undefeated preseason at 4-0 with a 45-14 win over New England. On September 9, Houston comes to town to face Atlanta and their former coach, but the Falcons prevail scoring three defensive touchdowns en route to a 47-27 victory. The Falcons led the NFL with a 3.3 per carry rush defense as the team moved up in over 20 statistical categories from the previous season to finish the year at 5-11. LB Jessie Tuggle led the NFL in tackles with 201 and Rison sets a club mark with 82 pass receptions on his way to a Pro Bowl berth.

1991

The Falcons proved to be one of the most exciting and entertaining teams of the NFL in '91, winning six straight games down the stretch and eight of their last 11 contests, to earn a playoff berth at 10-6. Atlanta had the second most wins in club history with 11 and captured their first road playoff victory at New Orleans. The Falcons also made team history by sweeping through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Saints, Rams, and 49ers, giving San Francisco their only home loss on the season. A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons final home game of the 1991 season, as well as Atlanta's final game in Fulton-County Stadium. The Falcons defeated Seattle, 26-13, to run their home win streak to five straight. CBs Deion Sanders and Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six apiece. Sanders was joined at the Pro Bowl by teammates WR Andre Rison, QB Chris Miller and T Chris Hinton.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

On August 23, a sold-out crowd and a national TV audience saw the Falcons win the first-ever football game in the new Georgia Dome, 20-10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. In the regular season opener in the Dome, Atlanta scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20-17 win over the New York Jets before another sellout crowd. The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33-touchdown passes and became the only team to have 30 or more touchdowns in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. WR Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the league. The Rison-WR Michael Haynes tandem netted 21 touchdowns to lead the NFL for the second straight year (23 in '91). The team finished the season with a 6-10 record as Rison, DB Deion Sanders, LB Jessie Tuggle and special teams standout Elbert Shelley were named to the Pro Bowl.

1993

Led by Pro Bowlers WR Andre Rison, QB Bobby Hebert, S Elbert Shelley and PK Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club record 15 TDs and set a new standard for the most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 touchdown passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard strike to WR Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26-of-27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in-a-row, the second best mark in NFL history. Pro Bowler CB Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93 as the team ended the year for a second straight season at 6-10.

June Jones was named the Falcons' 10th head coach on January 24 replacing Jerry Glanville who resigned following the 1993 season. The '94 season was trademarked by the way the team started and ended each game. The Falcons came out ready to play in the first quarters, rolling up a combined 93-61 advantage in those first 15 minutes of play. Atlanta also had the lead in 14 of the 16 games they played in and led 12 of those 16 games, heading into the fourth quarter only to finish the year with a 7-9 record. In 11 of the 16 games, the Falcons had the lead at the two-minute warning only to falter in the end. Wide receiver Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season with a club record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks second on the Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to the '95 Pro Bowl along with teammates LB Jessie Tuggle and S Elbert Shelley.

1995

In what would be Atlanta's first playoff season since 1991, the Falcons ended the regular season with a 9-7 mark, while establishing some club and league records along the way. K Morten Andersen, who was signed as a free agent from New Orleans before training camp, sets an NFL-mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game. Shots from 55, 55 and 51 capped a 19-14 victory over Andersen's former Saints teammates to give Atlanta their first sweep of New Orleans since 1985. Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the defending World Champion 49ers, 28-27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas Eve. Quarterback Bobby Hebert connects with WR Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner, as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone with 1:45 remaining. Atlanta establishes an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including WRs Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039) and RB Craig Heyward (1,083). Quarterback Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th quarterback in league history to have over 4,000 yards passing in a season by finishing with 4,143 yards. LB Jessie Tuggle, S Elbert Shelley, DE Chris Doleman, Andersen and Hayward were named to the Pro Bowl.

1996

Only one season after earning a wild-card berth, Atlanta tied a club-mark for most losses and finished with the third-poorest winning percentage (.188) in team history with a 3-13 mark. A 31-15 victory over the Saints on December

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

8 snapped a 10-game road losing streak and provided the team with its first NFC West win outside the Georgia Dome since an overtime win in New Orleans on September 17, 1995. In a lone bright spot, RB Jamal Anderson became the seventh Falcons player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,055 on the year. With Anderson's accomplishment, the Falcons were the only NFL team to have three different players in the past four years to gain 1,000 yards. On December 23, head coach June Jones was dismissed from the team.

1997

On January 3, Dan Reeves is named the 11th head coach in franchise history as he comes to Atlanta as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/Head Coach. After a difficult 1-7 start, the Falcons went 6-2 in their final eight games to finish 7-9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) on his way to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate LB Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. DE Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and DT Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge. Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away on October 26 from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally televised game at Carolina. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions, to his beloved city of Atlanta.

The Falcons, who jumped from a 7-9 finish in 1997 to a franchise record 14-2 in 1998, specialized in quick turnovers. In one of the more heart felt stories of the year, head coach Dan Reeves underwent quadruple bypass surgery and a mere five weeks later coached his team to a 30-27 overtime victory against Minnesota to capture the NFC Championship that matched the Falcons against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami. The team accomplished many firsts in 1998 with the first-ever 8-0 home mark, best overall record at 14-2, most points in a season with 442 that included a best 53 touchdowns and a league-high 44 takeaways. Atlanta was paced by RB Jamal Anderson, who set a team record with 1,846 yards rushing, including an NFL high 12 100-yard games. The Falcons dubbed themselves the "Dirty Birds" and Anderson created a touchdown dance to fit the name. The dance, which even consisted of flapping arms to act like wings, was introduced when TE O.J. Santiago celebrated his two-touchdown effort following a 41-10 victory at New England in early November. The fever it generated captivated a national audience as well as brought the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene. Dan Reeves joining Anderson on stage for a rendition of the "Dirty Bird" following the NFC Championship trophy presentation was a lasting highlight of the team's journey to the Super Bowl. Reeves, who was named NFL Coach of the Year, guided his Falcons to just the second NFC West title in the 33-year history of the franchise. QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle and T Bob Whitfield joined Anderson in representing the Falcons in the Pro Bowl.

The Atlanta Falcons entered the 1999 season with the hopes of defending their 1998 NFC Championship crown and becoming the first NFL team ever to reach the Super Bowl in its own stadium. The Georgia Dome was the site of Super Bowl XXXIV. Unfortunately the setbacks of an 0-4 start led the Falcons to a disappointing 5-11 finish. In Week 2 against the Dallas Cowboys in a Monday Night Football matchup at Texas Stadium, RB Jamal Anderson was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Falcons did reach some milestones through the season. WR Terance Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receptions with a 12-catch, 166-yard performance in a Monday Night Football game at Pittsburgh. LB Jessie Tuggle had his 12th-straight 100-tackle season after finishing with a team-leading 122 total tackles.

2000

After a 2-1 start that included victories over two key NFC West opponents, the Falcons season took a turn for the worse with a 4-12 final record. The Falcons suffered several key injuries including a season-ending foot injury to LB Keith Brooking after five games and LB Jessie Tuggle in the eighth game of the season. RB Jamal Anderson returned to action following a 1999 season-ending knee injury, starting all 16 games and finishing with his fourth 1,000-yard season with 1,024 yards. K Morten Andersen began the season with a five-field goal game vs. San Francisco and then ended the year with five field goals in the season-finale vs. Kansas City. In the process he became the Falcons all-time leader in both field goals and points. Wide receiver Terrence Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receiving yards to pass WR Alfred Jenkins in that category. Rookie CB Darrick Vaughn, the Falcons seventh round draft choice, led the NFL with a 27.7 average and three kickoff returns for a touchdown. That average and the three touchdowns are both Falcons single-season high marks.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

2001

The 2001 Atlanta Falcons entered Week 15 with a matchup at Miami with a 7-7 record and still alive in the NFC playoff race. Three controversial calls by the officials and two goal line stands by the Dolphins defense ended the Falcons postseason hopes with a 21-14 defeat. The next week the Falcons traveled to St. Louis and lost 31-13 to finish the year with a disappointing 7-9 record. Even with two overtime losses to San Francisco when the Falcons squandered fourth quarter leads, Atlanta jumped to a 6-4 record before winning just one of their remaining six games. Included in the wins was a big 23-20 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field, highlighted by a 352-passing effort by QB Chris Chandler. Long after memories of the disappointing 2001 season end, the year will be remembered for the nucleus of young players that emerged and will hopefully lead the Falcons to a successful future. Among the group of young players that stood out were Pro Bowl LB Keith Brooking, who had 10 or more tackles in 11 of the team's 16 games, and first-round draft pick QB Michael Vick. Vick had the normal growing pains of any rookie quarterback, but in the Miami game Vick, who played following an elbow injury to Chandler, showed flashes of his potential, completing 11 of 20 passes for 214 yards with a touchdown and gaining 63 yards rushing on five carries. Among his highlights were a 52-yard pass to WR Brian Finneran and a 23-yard scramble for a first down on a 4th and 15 play. A renewed Chandler led the team to a 6-4 record in games where he started and finished, and DE Patrick Kerney had a breakout year with a team-leading 12.0 sacks. The day before the draft, the Falcons obtained the first pick in a trade with San Diego and used the pick on Vick, who is expected to be the quarterback of the future. In another historical move, team President Taylor Smith agreed to sell the team to local businessman Arthur Blank, who was approved by the NFL owners the day before the Super Bowl. A week before the final preseason game the end of an era came upon the Falcons when LB Jessie Tuggle retired following 14 seasons in Atlanta. The example he set helped his replacement Brooking, who was moved from the weaksidelinebacker spot to the middle, spring to the top of the middle linebacker lists in the NFL with a career-high 167 tackles.

2002

The Atlanta Falcons began the Arthur Blank era with a 9-6-1 record and a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card participant. Blank helped resurrect the excitement in the Georgia Dome with added value to the fans with increased tailgating, parking and entertainment. The fans responded with every game being sold out. After beginning the year with a 1-3 record, head coach Dan Reeves and QB Michael Vick led the Falcons to an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7-0-1). The Falcons set records and showcased numerous highlights during that stretch. In a game at Pittsburgh, the Falcons rallied from a 34-17 deficit with just over eight minutes to play to tie the game at 34-34. The Falcons also shutout Carolina two times with a 30-0 victory at the Dome and a 41-0 win in Charlotte. The Falcons finished the season with a team-record 23 rushing touchdowns and a franchise-best eight games with 30 or more points. After finishing 30th in rushing in 1999, 28th in 2000 and 16th in 2001, the Falcons improved to 4th in the NFL in 2002. On the defensive side of the ball, new defensive coordinator Wade Phillips made a switch to a 3-4 defensive alignment that helped the team finish third in interceptions with 24, second in takeaways with 39 and fourth in sacks with 47. In his first season as a starter, Vick earned a Pro Bowl berth to become just the sixth quarterback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter. Vick rushed for 173 yards in an overtime win at Minnesota, the highest single-game rushing total for an NFL quarterback ever. Vick also had the longest run ever by a Falcons quarterback with a 46-yard game-winning touchdown in overtime against the Vikings. LB Keith Brooking earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth after setting a career-high with 212 total tackles. In the postseason, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the postseason at Lambeau Field with a 27-7 win to advance to the second round of the NFC playoffs. The Falcons season came to an end the next week with a 20-6 loss against the Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Divisional playoff game.

One season removed from a playoff berth and a historical win over Green Bay in the playoffs, the 2003 Falcons fell to 5-11. Injuries and a lack of consistency punctuated the Falcons 2003 season.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

QB Michael Vick, who played a large role in the Falcons' push for the playoffs in 2002, suffered a broken right leg in the second preseason game against Baltimore and did not return until the 11th game of the regular season in a relief appearance at Houston. Strong first half efforts would give way to second half heartbreak as the Falcons went 2-6 in the eight games which they led at the half. The Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys in the regular season opener, 27-13, before losing their next seven contests. They did not win again until the ninth game of the season when they went on the road and defeated the New York Giants 27-7. The victory gave Falcons head coach Dan Reeves the 200th win of his career. One year after setting the NFL single-game record for most yards rushing by a quarterback, Vick went out and rushed for a 141 yards in his first start of the season against the Panthers. His rushing performance marked the third-highest single game rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history. Three days after the victory against the Panthers, Reeves, who coached the Falcons for seven seasons, was released from his contract on December 10. Defensive coordinator Wade Phillips took over as interim coach for the final three games. In the days leading up to the Buccaneers game in Week 16, Rich McKay, who for the previous eight seasons was general manager of the Buccaneers, was named president and general manager of the Falcons on December 15. Less than two weeks after the conclusion of the season, Jim Mora was named head coach on January 9, 2004. LB Keith Brooking and TE Alge Crumpler were named to the Pro Bowl, with Crumpler earning a starting nod on the NFC squad.

First year Head Coach Jim Mora's fiery, motivating style of coaching becomes contagious and resonates with his team as the Falcons match the best start ever in team history at 4-0 on their way to a 6-2 halfway record. The aggressive approach on both offense and defense pays off and masks the potential growing pains of new offensive and defensive systems being implemented. The birds clinch just their third division title in team history in high fashion in a 35-10 rout of the Oakland Raiders in Week 14 as RB T.J. Duckett establishes a new team record with four rushing touchdowns. The club finishes the regular season with an 11-5 record, a first round playoff bye, and sets numerous milestones, including leading the NFL in rushing for the first time ever with a team record 2,672 yards and a club-best a 5.1 per carry average, as well as a League-high 48 sacks, which also is the first time that feat has been accomplished. The Falcons defense soars 18 spots from the last in the League in 2003 to 14th in total defense and scoring defense under new architect Ed Donatell. Atlanta blasts St. Louis 47-17 in the Divisional Playoff game at the Georgia Dome in one of the most dominant rushing performances in postseason history, racking up 327 yards rushing, the fourth-highest total ever. The Falcons' dream of a Super Bowl trip is ended the following week in a 27-10 defeat at Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game, the second NFC Title appearance in team history. Mora garners votes for NFL Coach of the Year and becomes just the 11th head coach in NFL history to capture a Division title in his first season. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season.

The Falcons soar to a 6-2 first half record despite numerous injuries on defense that force rookies into the starting lineup and a shuffling of linebacker positions after five games. Atlanta records a perfect 3-0 mark on Monday Night Football (and 4-1 record in nationally-televised games). The growing pains catch up to the Falcons in the second half of the season though and the team finishes 8-8. Atlanta's offense again leads the NFL in rushing yards with 2,546 yards and average at 4.8. RB Warrick Dunn enjoys a career year with a career-high 1,416 rushing yards en route to earning his Pro Bowl since 2000. TE Alge Crumpler leads the team in receptions with a career-best 65 catches for a career-high 877 receiving yards. QB Michael Vick passes for 2,412 yards with 15 touchdowns and rushes for 597 yards and six scores. LB Keith Brooking leads the club again in tackles with 150 as he moves over to MLB after a season-ending Achilles injury to Edgerton Hartwell in Week 5 forces a chain reaction of wholesale changes in the linebacker department. Rookies such as LB Michael Boley and DL Jonathon Babineaux, Chauncey Davis and Darrell Shropshire are pressed into major duty due to injuries. DT Rod Coleman leads all interior linemen with 10.5 sacks. Dunn, Crumpler, Vick, Brooking, Coleman and CB DeAngelo Hall are voted to the Pro Bowl by their peers and are the most Pro Bowlers since the 1998 Super Bowl season.

2006

Similar to the second half of 2005, the Falcons start out 5-2 in first half of play only to limp to

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

2-7 down the stretch. Head Coach Jim Mora is dismissed from his contract after three years following the 7-9 season. The Falcons lead the NFL in rushing again for the third straight year with a franchise record 2,939 yards, which is the ninth-highest total in NFL history. Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in League history to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,039. With RB Warrick Dunn's 1,140 rushing yards, Vick and Dunn become only the fourth set of backfield teammates to both eclipse the century mark in the same season in NFL history. Vick also adds a career-high 20 touchdown passes. TE Alge Crumpler is named to his fourth straight Pro Bowl as he leads the team in receiving and adds a career-high eight touchdowns. CB DeAngelo Hall also is voted to the Pro Bowl but first year as a starter. K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in career field goals.

2007

The Falcons placed a franchise record 16 players on injured reserve which included seven starters over the course of the season. Atlanta also witnessed its starting quarterback be suspended by the NFL prior to the start of the year while its Head Coach Bobby Petrino left the team following Week 14. With a 4-12 record, the Falcons did see some positive results however. Wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first 1,000-yard receiver since 1999 and running back Warrick Dunn became the 22nd player in league history to amass 10,000 career rushing yards. Kicker Morten Andersen and quarterback Chris Redman each received NFC Player of the Week accolades.

In just one season, the Atlanta Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The '08 campaign was a year of firsts as first year Head Coach Mike Smith and first year quarterback Matt Ryan became the first rookie head coach and quarterback duo to compete in a playoff contest since 1945 when the Cleveland Rams accomplished the feat. In Smith's stellar first season, he also became only the fourth Head Coach in franchise history to record 11 or more victories in a single year en route to Associated Press Coach of the Year honors. The distinction marked only the second occasion a Falcons coach earned the award in franchise history. The Falcons witnessed an entire team effort in the turnaround as an organization with a fresh look that took the NFL by storm, winning five of their last six games on the way to a second place finish in the NFC South Division. Atlanta garnered two Pro Bowl selections in running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White who also made their first visits to the league's all-star game. Quarterback Matt Ryan earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and was named NFC Rookie of the Month (October), a first in both categories in team history. The Falcons also finished the regular season with five NFC Player of the Week accolades. Turner earned the honor on three occasions, while Ryan was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Oakland Raiders in Week 9 and wide receiver Harry Douglas was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 61 yards against Carolina in Week 12. In his first season with the Falcons, Turner was tied for second in the final NFL MVP voting as he finished second in the league in rushing (1,699 yards) while topping the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career. Turner also posted 17 rushing touchdowns, which set a new franchise record. White also logged a career year as he set a new franchise record with 1,382 receiving yards in a single-season while becoming the first wide receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns. Defensively, John Abraham set a new team record and a personal best with 16.5 sacks, topping the old record of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. At the conclusion of the year, Coach Smith (Coach of the Year), Matt Ryan (Rookie of the Year) and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff (Executive of the Year) all earned honors from Sporting News Magazine, becoming the first trio in the publication's 132-year history to sweep the awards.

The Falcons concluded the 2009 campaign with a 9-7 record and back to back winning seasons for the first time in the franchise's 44-year history, which includes an 11-5 record in 2008. Atlanta ended the season with three consecutive victories and a series sweep over NFC South Division rival Tampa Bay. After two seasons, Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith compiled a coaching record of 20-12 (.625), which is the second-best winning percentage for an Atlanta head coach in their first two seasons with the team. He sits behind Dan Reeves who totaled a 21-11 mark

(.656) from 1997-98. As a starter, quarterback Matt Ryan finished the 2009 campaign with a 6-0 home record and after two seasons is 13-1 starting under center. The 2009 season featured many team and individual accomplishments, but none as impressive as wide receiver Roddy White who finished the season with 85 receptions for 1,153 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to register three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Tight end Tony Gonzalez, who led all tight ends in NFL history at seasons end in receptions (999), yards (11,807) and touchdowns (82), became the 21st player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 career receiving yards. Additionally, Atlanta posted a 5-1 record against NFC South opponents. Since 2008, the Falcons are 11-7 against division foes. In Week 10, Jones played his 75th career game and recorded his 475th career reception, which became the most in NFL history in a player's first 75 games. A few weeks later, the former Alabama standout passed former Falcons receiver Terance Mathis and moved to second on the franchise's all-time receiving yards list on the first play of the game in Week 13.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

The Falcons defense saw the emergence of several young stars, including OLB Vic Beasley Jr, S Keanu Neal and LB Deion Jones. The 2015 first round pick found his niche as he led all players with 15.5 sacks, and finished second on the franchise's single-season sack list, one away from former Falcon John Abraham. ### 2003 - PRESENT

The year 2003 continued to bring about many new changes for the Atlanta Falcons. Perhaps the biggest changes came with the introduction of the team's new logo and uniforms unveiled over the course of a two-month period.

UNIFORM HISTORY

On March 19, 2003, before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons presented their new logo.

“The new Atlanta Falcons logo is fresh, strong and dynamic, and yet appreciates the tradition and history of this franchise,” said Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank. “The new logo depicts a more powerful, aggressive Falcon - one of fast movement. It is also representative of the evolution and direction of our team.”

The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

The home uniforms consisted of black jerseys and white pants, while the road attire featured white jerseys and white pants. The team also introduced modified versions of the uniforms, which included wearing black jerseys with black pants at home and white jerseys with black pants on the road.

The jerseys and pants included red piping down the side, which expand at the knee for a fast, streamlined look. They also have “Falcons” stitched at the neckline in a newly developed font and include a number font that was designed specifically for the Falcons, consisting of a drop shadow for more depth. The black jerseys contained white numbers with red trim, while the white jerseys contained red numbers with black trim. The new Falcons logo appeared on the sleeve of both jerseys on a red background. The helmet remained black, however it also featured a metallic flack compared to the previous flat black-colored helmet.

In 2004, the Falcons announced they would wear red jerseys at home and use the black jerseys as their alternate third jersey. Declared the team’s alternate third jersey in 2003, red jerseys were worn twice in 2003, against the Tennessee Titans on November 23 and again in the Falcons nationally-televised 20-14 overtime win against the Carolina Panthers on December 7.

2009

The Falcons unveiled throwback uniforms in a Week 2 meeting against the Carolina Panthers to honor the inaugural 1966 team as part of “Alumni Weekend.” Atlanta again donned the retro uniforms in a Week 12 meeting against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Georgia Dome. Atlanta won both games with the throwback uniforms.

UNIFORM HISTORY

2016

The team took the field in a blended 1966 replica uniform against the San Diego Chargers and San Francisco 49ers, as they paid homage to the athletes and teams that paved the way before them. As a special tribute, Falcons players throughout history were recognized in honor of the team's annual Alumni Game.

The Falcons throwback design aesthetic stayed true to 1966 with exception of the helmet. The original uniform featured a red helmet with a similar bold stripe pattern down the center to match the pants and socks. This year, due to NFL helmet safety rules, the team punctuated the throwback uniform with their current black helmet. It showcased the original Falcon crest used by the team from 1966 to 2003 - the same black on black design worn in the team's 1998 Super Bowl appearance.

GEORGIA DOME (1992–2016) FALCONS HOME RECORD (116-83-0)

In 1992, the Atlanta Falcons and the state of Georgia unveiled to the rest of the world the latest crown jewel in an ever-shining southern skyline with the opening of the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome is the culmination of efforts which began in earnest in June of 1984 as business, civic and governmental leaders gathered to discuss a new stadium in Atlanta. The project continued to gain steam in January of 1988 as a "consensus" of leaders agreed on using a hotel/motel tax increase to finance the local portion of construction.

In January of 1989, Rankin Smith and then-governor Joe Frank Harris signed a "memorandum of understanding" for the Falcons to play in the Dome under a 20-year lease.

The project came to fruition in the spring of 1989 when the state, the Atlanta City Council, and Fulton County Commission approved the construction of the $210 million Dome. Groundbreaking ceremonies took place on November 22, 1989, with construction getting underway on March 27, 1990.

As soon as the project was passed, the Dome became a major 'player' in the sporting community. Rankin Smith was determined to introduce the south's latest showpiece to the football world and he succeeded. With the determined backing of the Smith family, the Georgia Dome played host to the most significant sporting events in the world as global attention was focused on Atlanta for Super

The Falcons officially closed the Georgia Dome with a 44-21 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship game to send the franchise to its second Super Bowl in team history.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966-91) FALCONS RECORD (85-106-2)

Twenty-six years of NFL football in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to an end on December 15, 1991 when the Falcons met the Seattle Seahawks for their final game in their very first home.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was built in 51 weeks and gave the city the foundation to support big-league baseball and pro football. Less than a year after construction, the stadium was primed for a cameo appearance by the baseball Braves, who were still playing in Milwaukee at the time, on April 9, 1965. On August 14 of that same year, the Minnesota Vikings defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first football game ever played at the stadium. Some local people deemed the Stadium "The Miracle on Capital Avenue."

TOMMY NOBIS (1966-76) – 60

The first-ever player drafted by the Atlanta Falcons for the inaugural 1966 season, Nobis quickly became the first-ever Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl after being selected as a rookie. The stellar middle linebacker was named the NFL Rookie of the Year for his efforts. "Mr. Falcon" led the team in tackles in any of his 11 seasons, while earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. In a poll conducted in 1970 by ABC to pick the best athlete of the decade of the 1960s, running back O.J. Simpson was number one and Tommy Nobis was number two in the entire country. He had an astronomical 294 total combined tackles as a rookie, still the team's club record. Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two for touchdowns. His uniform #60 has been worn by only him during the team's existence. He retired in 1976.

JEFF VAN NOTE (1969-86) – 57

Holds Falcons team marks for most seasons played (18) and most consecutive games played (155). He is second in the team record books with 246 games played and 225 games started. Van Note originally came to the Falcons as a linebacker from Kentucky, but was moved to center by head coach Norm Van Brocklin and eventually earned the starting job at center in 1970. He earned the first of his six Pro Bowl berths in 1974. Van Note is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcons player with six. He retired in 1986.

STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1975-85) – 10

The No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975, he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. He set every team record in passing, which included 23,468 career yards and 154 touchdown passes in 123 games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes. Bartkowski collected over 50 victories as a starting quarterback for the Falcons and guided the team to their first playoff victory in franchise history over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

RING OF HONOR

WILLIAM ANDREWS (1979-86) – 31

A third-round pick, Andrews was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended his career. He became just the second running back in NFL history to have two 2,000-yard (combined yards) seasons (the only other player prior to Williams was O.J. Simpson). When he had his first 2,000-yard year, he joined just four other backs who had done so (Jim Brown, Walter Payton, Wilbert Montgomery and Simpson). In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), Andrews outgained every other back in the entire NFL. The bullish Andrews had 8,382 total yards in those five years (an average of 1,677 per year) to lead all NFL runners. Andrews set 19 Falcons club records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards in a game at New Orleans where he totaled 189 yards. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1983 and made the NFL All-Rookie team in 1979. He retired in 1987.

JESSIE TUGGLE (1987-2000) – 58

Jessie came to the Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 1987 and retired in August of 2001 as one of the all-time greatest players in franchise history. Nicknamed, "The Hammer", for his bone-jarring tackles, Tuggle is the club's all-time leader in total tackles with 2,065 and enjoyed 12 straight 100-tackle seasons. He led the team in tackles in a season 10 times and amassed 20 or more tackles in a single-game on four occasions with a personal-best of 24 stops. His 14 seasons played, 189 career starts and 209 total games played are third-most ever in Falcons history. Tuggle's five Pro Bowl appearances (1992, 1995, 1995, 1997, 1998) stand tied for the third-most ever by a Falcons player. The Falcons honored #58 with "Jessie Tuggle Day" during halftime of the Falcons game vs. the Detroit Lions on December 22, 2002.
